Chapter 1711: kindness and rebirth (2)

“Really?” Tang Haoran was both surprised and happy.

He could only sense that the spiritual Qi in the spirit crystal was very rich, but he did not expect it to be so rich to this extent. The total amount of spiritual Qi required to cultivate to Qi disciple Level 5 and above was quite terrifying. This small spirit crystal actually contained so much spiritual Qi?

Xia ruofei reminded her again, “but you have to be aware that haste makes waste. You can’t absorb spiritual energy for more than four hours a day. You’re still young and your cultivation is still low. It’s time to build a solid foundation. You can’t rush it. Do you understand?”

It was the same four hours, but it was completely different from when he could only cultivate for four hours at midnight and dawn.

First of all, he had more freedom to choose the time.

More importantly, the spiritual energy contained in the spiritual crystal was extremely rich. It was on a completely different level compared to the small amount of spiritual energy that was drifting in the air.

Therefore, the same four hours of cultivation would definitely have a world of difference in effect.

Xia ruofei reminded Tang Haoran because he was worried that Tang Haoran would lose his self – restraint after using spiritual crystals to cultivate.

It was not good to do anything without restraint.

It was the same for cultivation. To Tang Haoran, it might not be a good thing if he cultivated too quickly. The height of a building depended more on the stability of the foundation.

The current Tang Haoran was at a crucial time to build his Foundation.

Tang Haoran now regarded Xia ruofei as a God, so he naturally said respectfully, “I’ll remember it, master!”

Xia ruofei thought for a while and reminded her, “You should keep the spiritual crystals well. It’s best not to show them in front of others. Even Li Yifu shouldn’t know about it.”

Although there were very few cultivators now, Xia ruofei was worried that Tang Haoran would happen to meet one. If he saw such a treasure like the spiritual crystals, would he not be tempted by it?

As for hiding it from Li Yifu, Xia ruofei didn’t think much of it. After all, money could move people. Spiritual crystals were unimaginably attractive to cultivators in such a harsh cultivation environment. Since he wasn’t going to give Li Yifu the spiritual crystals, there was no need to test his humanity with them.

“I know, master!” Tang Haoran was like a little adult as he said seriously, “don’t worry! I usually put it in my dad’s safe and take it out when I cultivate ...”

“Good idea!” Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “you’re so eager?” But I advise you to wait a little longer. I can see that you’re about to break through today. When the time comes, master will protect you! I’d better put the crystals away for now! My adopted husband should be done with his cultivation soon. ”

Tang Haoran tilted his head and thought for a while before saying, “”Alright then!”

Then, he handed the crystals to Tang Yitian and said, “”Dad! I’m giving it to you! You must keep it well!”

Tang Yitian didn’t dare to neglect him. He forced a smile and said, “”This really is a hot potato! RUO Fei, you go over there and chat with Jennifer and the others first. I’ll go and keep the treasure!”

Then, Tang Yitian carefully took the crystals and went upstairs.

Xia ruofei brought Tang Haoran through the living room to the back garden. Xu Ziyuan, Jennifer, and Feng Rao were sitting in the garden, making tea and chatting. When they saw the two of them, they stood up to greet them.

“Xia, where’s Ethan? Isn’t he waiting for you over there?” Jennifer asked.

“Big brother Tang has something to do. He’ll be right over!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Xu Ziyuan could not help but ask, “eh? Mr. Xia, why is third uncle not out yet?”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “uncle Xu, my adopted husband has gained some insight. He might need some time to digest and absorb it ...”

“Mr. Xia, please don’t call me that ...” Xu Ziyuan quickly said.

“Didn’t we agree on this?” Xia ruofei laughed. Let’s discuss our own matters!”

“That may be true, but your seniority is too scary. Strictly speaking, the Australian Association of righteous people can be considered a branch of the Hong sect ...” Xu Ziyuan said with a bitter smile.

Xia ruofei waved his hand. “The Hong sect is the Hong sect. My sworn husband is my sworn husband. My relationship with his master has nothing to do with the Hong sect.” “Uncle Xu, don’t feel pressured. It’s good for everyone to talk about their own things. I don’t want to act like an old man in my twenties, a bunch of white – bearded juniors ...”

Jennifer and Feng Rao could not help but laugh when they heard that.

At this time, Tang Yitian had already put away the crystals. He strode over and said with a smile, “”What are you guys talking about? You’re smiling so happily!”

Xia ruofei smiled and pointed at Xu Ziyuan. “”I’m discussing seniority with uncle Xu! He felt that my seniority was giving him a lot of pressure ...”

Tang Yitian forced a smile and said, “don’t mention uncle Xu, I’m also under a lot of pressure.” Ruofei, you’ve become Grandpa Li’s martial granduncle without a sound, and even little Haoran has become Grandpa Li’s martial granduncle. It’s really hard for us to accept this for a while ...”

“Then we’ll slowly get used to it!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “I didn’t know it would be such a coincidence to find a branch of my master in Australia that has been wandering around for three generations ... Actually, I didn’t want to, but look at my adopted husband. If I don’t agree, he’ll probably kill himself ...”

Tang Yitian couldn’t help but smile bitterly when he saw that Li Yifu, the leader of the Hong sect, was being insulted by Xia ruofei.

After chatting for a while, they heard footsteps.

Xia ruofei looked up and saw Li Yifu walking quickly towards them. Xia ruofei’s eyes narrowed slightly, revealing a glimmer of light.

He could already tell that Li Yifu’s true energy was reserved, and it seemed to be a little different from before.

Xia ruofei suddenly had a thought. Could he have broken through just now? It seemed that he was quite talented!

Xia ruofei did not know that Li Yifu had been stuck at the third level of the Qi refining stage for decades. The accumulation of these decades was actually quite terrifying. The breakthrough this time was also the result of his accumulation and not Li Yifu’s amazing talent.

Xia ruofei’s guess was right. Li Yifu quickly walked in front of Xia ruofei and knelt down without a word. Before Xia ruofei could react, he kowtowed three times.

Then, Li Yifu raised his head and said with tears of gratitude, “Many thanks to martial granduncle’s guidance, allowing this disciple to break through the bottleneck! Senior granduncle’s kindness to this disciple is the same!”

Xia ruofei calmly accepted Li Yifu’s three kowtows and then said indifferently, “Stand up and talk!”

“Yes!” Li Yifu stood up respectfully.

At this time, Tang Yitian and the others were all stunned, especially Jennifer and Feng Rao who had previously avoided the scene. The scene of a 90 – year – old man kowtowing to Xia ruofei was quite a big shock.

“Give me your hand!” Xia ruofei said.

Li Yifu stretched out his left hand without hesitation. Xia ruofei put his hand on Li Yifu’s pulse and then injected his genuine Qi and spiritual energy into his body at the same time.

In fact, this was very dangerous for cultivators, especially when Xia ruofei’s cultivation was higher than Li Yifu’s. If he allowed his genuine Qi and mental energy to enter his meridians, he would become a fish on the chopping board. If Xia ruofei wanted to, he could cripple Li Yifu with a single thought.

Moreover, even if Xia ruofei did not have any evil intentions, Li Yifu’s cultivation technique would be exposed under such investigation. Although it was unlikely to restore the complete cultivation technique, many secrets would be discovered by the other party.

However, Li Yifu did not hesitate or resist at all. He allowed Xia ruofei to inspect him, which showed his respect and trust in Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei closed his eyes. After a while, he opened them and said, ""He really broke through! Foster husband, since you've broken through, you should seize the time to consolidate your realm. What are you doing out here at this time?"

Li Yifu said respectfully, "senior granduncle, disciple's mood is in turmoil after breaking through. It's no longer suitable for me to continue cultivating. Furthermore, senior granduncle's kindness to disciple is as heavy as a mountain. Disciple must thank senior granduncle at the first possible moment!"

Xia ruofei smiled and shook his head. ""Since we're from the same sect, and you still call me martial granduncle, then there's no need to pay attention to these superficial formalities! Alright, since you're already out, let's sit for a while! Consolidate your realm immediately after you've calmed down!"

"Yes! Senior granduncle!" Li Yifu said respectfully.

Xia ruofei nodded and suddenly thought of something. He said, ""There's one more thing, foster husband ..."

"Yes!" Li Yifu replied without hesitation. "If senior granduncle has any instructions, this disciple will definitely go through water and tread on fire without hesitation!"

Chapter 1712: Haoran's breakthrough (1)

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "it's not that serious. I just thought ... Can you not call me Grand – Master in front of outsiders in the future?" This ... This is a little too scary!"

Li Yifu was stunned for a moment before he said, "but ... You're my senior granduncle!" How could this disciple dare to not ..."

"Stop, stop!" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "I didn't say that I'm not your Grand Master. I'm just saying that in the presence of outsiders, you have to change the way you address me. I don't want others to think that I'm an old monster ..."

Li Yifu wanted to refuse, but he didn't dare to disobey his grand uncle-master's order. In the end, he could only ask somewhat unwillingly, ""Senior granduncle, how should this disciple address you?"

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "in the future, when there are outsiders, you can call me Mr. Xia!"

The title 'Sir' could be a social courtesy, but it could also be an honorific title. Such a title would not seem particularly abrupt outside. Li Yifu thought about it and felt that it was acceptable, so he nodded and said, ""Yes, martial granduncle, this disciple will remember!"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. Luckily, this Grand – disciple was not too old – fashioned. If he had insisted on not agreeing, he really could not do anything to him.

Give him a scolding with a straight face? He would kneel down and beg for forgiveness in minutes.

"It's getting late," said Xia ruofei. "Big brother Tang, please assign rooms for us. Let's all go and rest!" By the way, help me find a quiet room. I want to guide Haoran's cultivation. "

Li Yifu could not help but show an envious look.

Xia ruofei had only given him a few words of advice, and he had broken through the bottleneck that had troubled him for decades. Tang Haoran could often receive Xia ruofei's guidance. No wonder his cultivation had advanced so quickly.

Li Yifu wanted to listen to Xia ruofei's guidance, but he also knew that it was a taboo. Since his senior granduncle did not take the initiative to bring him along, he should not even mention it.

Hence, Li Yifu could only look on enviously as Xia ruofei brought Tang Haoran back to the tea room.

Tang Yitian quickly ordered the servants to prepare guest rooms for everyone.

Li Yifu gradually calmed down and continued to consolidate his cultivation realm in the guest room.

Today's experience made everyone's brain feel a little overwhelmed. Tang Yitian and his wife were so excited that they couldn't sleep. They were all talking about Tang Haoran in a low voice. To have a master like Xia ruofei was definitely Tang Haoran's good fortune from his previous life. Xu Ziyuan was also shocked by the huge amount of information today. His brain was in a state of extreme excitement. On the other hand, Feng Jing's mind was filled with questions. She could only ask Xia ruofei when she had the chance to be alone with him ...

Xia ruofei brought Tang Haoran into the tea room.

"Ya!" Tang Haoran said. Master, the spiritual crystal is still in my father's safe!" Please wait a moment, I'll go get it from my father!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "there's no need to go through so much trouble!" I'll use this first ..."

Xia ruofei put his hand into his pocket and took out the crystal from his spatial ring. It was the one he used during cultivation and had an abundant amount of spiritual Qi. He handed it to Tang Haoran.

"Thank you, master!" Tang Haoran grinned.

Xia ruofei brought Tang Haoran to sit cross – legged on the tatami. Then, he said, ""Haoran, take this spiritual crystal and start your cultivation as usual. Don't think about anything. The breakthrough will be a matter of course!"

"I'll remember it, master!" Tang Haoran said with a serious face.

Xia ruofei smiled and patted Tang Haoran's head. ""Let's begin! I'll protect you from the side, so you can break through without worry!"

Tang Haoran nodded heavily. He held the spirit crystal in his hand and quickly entered a state of cultivation. Xia ruofei sat cross – legged beside him and observed his condition calmly.

There was no doubt about Tang Haoran's talent, especially when the pure yang attribute cultivation method was especially suitable for his physique. Now that he had the spirit crystal, which was an almost inexhaustible source of spiritual energy for him at his current stage, his cultivation would naturally be more effective with half the effort.

Time passed by. After about two hours, Xia ruofei's closed eyes suddenly opened. He looked at Tang Haoran.

That was because Xia ruofei had already felt the obvious change in Tang Haoran's aura. It was the sign of a breakthrough.

Tang Haoran, who was immersed in his cultivation, did not notice anything. He continued to practice his cultivation method over and over again.

After another ten minutes or so, the true energy in Tang Haoran's body seemed to have suddenly become active. Tang Haoran, who was in the state of cultivation, could not help but show a pained expression on his small face. His body even swayed slightly, but he quickly stabilized.

"Concealment of spirit and Qi, break through with all your might!" Xia ruofei's calm voice rang in Tang Haoran's ears, calming his unstable emotions.

He steadily controlled his genuine Qi to break through the bottleneck again and again until a moment, as if a slight cracking sound was heard, and then he suddenly felt enlightened.

In the past, his true Qi felt like it was moving through a narrow waterway. Now, it felt like he had suddenly arrived in a wide canal. The thick true Qi accumulated in his dantian was also released in an instant, and began to circulate rapidly in his meridians.

Xia ruofei had been using his spiritual power to monitor Tang Haoran's condition. Seeing this, he relaxed slightly and said to himself, "Success!"

Chapter 1713: Haoran's breakthrough (2)

The bottleneck of Qi disciple Level 1 was easily broken through by Tang Haoran.

"Don't stop, continue to cultivate and consolidate your cultivation!" Xia ruofei's voice was heard again.

Tang Haoran nodded slightly and continued to cultivate without any distractions. After the breakthrough, the total amount of true Qi had increased a lot, but his control of true Qi had decreased a little in comparison. However, this was only a normal phenomenon during the breakthrough. As he continued to control his true Qi and circulate it according to the mental cultivation method, those slightly violent true Qi quickly became well – behaved.

Over and over again, the true energy in Tang Haoran's body became more and more submissive. His meridians, which had been widened due to the breakthrough, were also quickly consolidated in each Qi circulation.

At around 12 o' clock in the evening, Tang Haoran's realm had finally stabilized and he had successfully entered the realm of Qi disciple Level 2.

He opened his eyes, and the first thing he saw was Xia ruofei's happy smile.

Xia ruofei patted Tang Haoran's head and said, "Little fellow, well done! Tonight's cultivation will end here. Go and rest first, tomorrow master will teach you the second level of the heart technique!"

The "scorching sun Scripture" that Xia ruofei had chosen for Tang Haoran could support him in his cultivation until he reached the foundation establishment stage. It was the most suitable cultivation method for Qi cultivation stage cultivators. Moreover, each level corresponded to a different heart technique. Previously, Xia ruofei had only taught Tang Haoran the first level of heart technique because he was worried that a child's heart was not stable enough and would bite off more than he could chew.

Now that Tang Haoran had broken through to Qi disciple Level 2, which meant that he had already perfected the first stage of the Qi cultivation method, if he used the first stage of the Qi cultivation method to cultivate, the efficiency would be much lower for his current cultivation level. So, it was time to teach him the corresponding second stage of the Qi cultivation method.

Tang Haoran's eyes lit up when he heard that. "Master, I'm not tired at all. I feel full of energy. Can you teach me now?"

Xia ruofei laughed and tapped his nose. "Even if you're not tired, master is!"

Tang Haoran stuck out his tongue. His face was full of disbelief. In his eyes, his master was like a god. How could he get tired so easily?

After Xia ruofei made a joke, he said seriously, "Haoran, master has said more than once that cultivation must be done step by step, and there can't be the slightest impatience! You've just made a breakthrough today and consolidated your cultivation base. Your body and spirit are already in a very tired state. It's just that you haven't noticed it. The only thing you need to do now is to rest well and conserve your energy! Even though I've given you crystals, I hope you can remember what I said before. It's best if you don't cultivate for more than four hours a day. I don't want you to waste your talent because you're too eager to succeed!"

"I'll remember it, master!" Tang Haoran quickly said. Don't worry, I'll definitely be obedient! I'll go rest now!"

Then, he quickly returned the spiritual crystal to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. The master and disciple duo walked out of the tea room.

Although Tang Yitian had gone to rest, he still arranged for a servant to wait at the entrance of the tea room. When the servant saw the two of them coming out, she hurriedly welcomed them and led Xia ruofei to the guest room that had already been prepared for them. Tang Haoran, on the other hand, went back to his own room with ease.

The next morning, Xia ruofei got up and cultivated for about an hour before he went to wash up.

Now that he was on the verge of a breakthrough, Xia ruofei did not relax in his cultivation. He was waiting for the right opportunity to officially enter Qi disciple Level 6.

By then, if Song Wei could break through again, she would have a great chance of dealing with the remaining peach blossom miasma.

Xia ruofei washed up, changed his clothes, and was ready to go out for breakfast.

As soon as he opened the door, Xia ruofei was shocked. Li Yifu was standing respectfully at his door.

“Good Morning, martial granduncle!” Li Yifu bowed to Xia ruofei respectfully.

“What are you doing, foster husband?” Xia ruofei could not help but ask.

Li Yifu revealed a matter – of – fact expression and said, “Senior granduncle, this disciple pays his respects to you!”

Xia ruofei could not help but smile bitterly, “there’s no need for that!” Foster husband, times have changed, and I’m a very casual person. I’m really not used to you waiting at the door every morning to pay my respects to me ...”

Xia ruofei’s seniority was so high, and his cultivation was also much higher than Li Yifu’s. To Li Yifu, this was the most basic courtesy. He revealed a hint of embarrassment and said, “Martial granduncle, you’re an elder of the sect, this etiquette can’t be abandoned!”

Xia ruofei glared at him and pretended to be angry. “My words don’t work? Alright, then I’ll order you in the name of my great uncle – Master to return to United States today! So that you don’t annoy me all day long ...”

Li Yifu was shocked and almost knelt down. He quickly apologized, “Martial granduncle, this disciple knows his mistake! Martial granduncle, please punish me! No matter what, please don’t expel this disciple. Let this disciple follow you ...”

Seeing Li Yifu’s fearful expression, Xia ruofei couldn’t bear it. He said, “Forget it, forget it, foster husband. You’re good at everything, but you have too many rules and are too old – fashioned ...”

Halfway through his sentence, Xia ruofei suddenly realized something. He couldn’t help but raise his eyebrows and ask, “What did you just say? Serve at his side? Don’t tell me you’re not leaving!”

Chapter 1714: Haoran’s breakthrough (3)

“Senior granduncle, it wasn’t easy for me to find my sect. You’re the sect leader, senior granduncle. Of course, I have to follow you!” Li Yifu quickly said.

Xia ruofei could not help but feel a headache coming on. He could endure it for a day or two occasionally, but if there was an old man with a white beard following him around every day and even kneeling down to beg for forgiveness every now and then, what was the point of living?

He quickly said gently, “foster husband, there’s no need for this, right?” You have your own business and life in the United States. Besides, communication is so advanced now. If something really happens, you can get in touch with a phone call!”

Xia ruofei did not quite understand the fanatical obsession of the older generation towards their sect and clan. He did not know that he had even become Li Yifu’s spiritual sustenance. This was something that Li Jiu Zhou could not forget even before he died! Now that he had finally “caught” the Grand uncle – Master, of course he had to follow closely. Otherwise, what if he ran away?

Li Yifu said stubbornly, “martial granduncle, the businesses are just worldly possessions. Besides, it’s the younger generation of the family who are in charge of them now. I rarely ask about the family affairs anymore. Martial granduncle, please let your disciples follow you!” This disciple also wants to listen to senior granduncle’s teachings at any time!”

Xia ruofei refused flatly, “adopted husband, I’m telling you, there’s no room for discussion!” I still have my own life to live! You can ask me if you have any questions about cultivation, but you can’t stay by my side all day!”

Li Yifu didn’t expect Xia ruofei to be so determined. He was extremely disappointed, but he didn’t dare to disobey his senior granduncle’s order. He could only sigh and say respectfully, “Yes, this disciple will follow your orders!”

Xia ruofei was also secretly glad that his senior granduncle’s authority still had some effect. He didn’t have to bring an old child with him, or else he would really go crazy.

“Let’s go! Let’s go have breakfast!” Xia ruofei said.

Tang Yitian and the others had already woken up. They knew that Li Yifu was waiting for Xia ruofei at the door. However, Li Yifu’s status was too high, so they didn’t dare to persuade him.

At this time, seeing Xia ruofei and Li Yifu walking over one after another, Tang Yitian immediately invited everyone to have breakfast.

The breakfast was naturally also incomparably sumptuous. It was all carefully prepared by Tang Yitian’s private chef, and there were a variety of Western and Chinese food choices.

Xia ruofei preferred Chinese breakfast with buns, soy milk, and deep – fried breadsticks rather than exquisite pastries.

He held a deep – fried dough stick in one hand, soaked it in soy milk, and took a big bite. While chewing, he asked with a smile, “Big brother Tang, what’s the arrangement today? It’s sister ran’s first time in the sutani!”

Tang Yitian smiled and said, “then I’ll accompany you to walk around in Xi Teni!” The scenery here is pretty good!”

Originally, Tang Yitian was prepared to let Jennifer accompany him. They had such a close relationship with Xia ruofei that it would be no problem for Jennifer to accompany him. However, now that Li Yifu was here, Tang Yitian also changed his mind. He put the company’s matters aside and personally accompanied him for the whole process.

“Sister che, you can think about where you want to go and tell brother Tang!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Feng Rao was a little embarrassed. “I’m fine with anything! If it’s possible, I want to return to China earlier! I’ve been out for too long this time, and the company is a little worried ...”

“President Feng, you’re a successful career woman!” Tang Yitian said with a smile.

At this moment, Xia ruofei’s phone rang. He stood up and said, “I’m sorry! I’ll take this call ...”

With that, he took his phone and walked to the side. He glanced at the caller ID and found that it was a sutsume landline number.

Xia ruofei muttered in his heart, but he still pressed the answer button.

“hello!” Xia ruofei said in English.

On the other end of the phone was a sweet female voice in English, “Hello, are you Mr. Xia ruofei?”

“I am, and may I know who you are?” Xia ruofei asked.

The female voice on the other end of the phone suddenly became much more enthusiastic and said, “Hello! I’m the Secretary of Air Australia’s senior vice president, Mr. Tony. Our company will be holding a press conference in sithiny tomorrow. Mr. Tony hopes you can take the time to attend!”

Chapter 1715: Unfathomable_1

“You’re inviting me to your press conference?” Xia ruofei was stunned.

“Yes, Mr. Xia, you’re the star of this press conference ...” The female secretary on the other end of the phone said.

“Wait!” Xia ruofei interrupted her and asked, “how did I become the main character in your quaochang press conference? Besides ... Didn’t we already hold a press conference for the incident last time?”

The Secretary did not dare to be impatient and explained patiently, “It’s like this, Mr. Xia. We’re going to announce the preliminary investigation results at this press conference. At the same time, we’re going to announce the rewards for the relevant personnel who handled this special case. The most important one is your reward.”

The female secretary paused and continued, “In addition, the news media has been continuously reporting on this incident for the past few days, and the public is full of curiosity about you. All the media hope that you can personally answer a few questions, so ...”

Xia ruofei said, “I understand. The press conference is tomorrow, right?” I will participate!”

The Secretary secretly heaved a sigh of relief. She was worried that Xia ruofei would decline and then have to put in some effort!

In the eyes of Westerners, Chinese people were the kind of modest and reserved people. They would usually reject such things like showing their faces in public. They did not expect Xia ruofei to agree so readily.

“Thank you!” The Secretary quickly said, “Mr. Xia, I heard you’re in Hunter Valley? Can you provide an address? We’ll send a car to pick you up tomorrow!”

Xia ruofei smiled and said -“there’s no need to. I’m in toteny now. Send me the time and place of the press conference tomorrow.-‘I go there myself!”

“You’re in the dutani? That’s great!” The female secretary said sweetly,”but we’ll still send a car to pick you up! Please tell me the address! This is also the task Mr. Tony gave me!”

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said,”then I’ll text you later!” I’ll have to ask for the address ...”

“Alright! Sorry to trouble you, Mr. Xia!” The female secretary said.

“You’re welcome,” Xia ruofei smiled and hung up.

When he walked back to the dining room, Tang Yitian asked,””RUO Fei, what’s wrong? What’s the matter?”

“It’s from quodan,”Xia ruofei said with a smile. They said that there’s a press conference tomorrow and they want me to attend. ”

“The hijacking a few days ago?” Tang Yitian laughed and said,”I don’t think this qiuhan is reliable. The co – Pilot committed suicide with all the passengers on board! It’s better not to take their company’s plane in the future ...”

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes.”You’re a rich man with a private jet. Don’t you feel guilty saying that?”

Everyone burst into laughter.

At this time, Tang Haoran, who had just woken up, rubbed his sleepy eyes and walked downstairs. He still did not understand the situation. He did not know why the adults were suddenly laughing so happily.

Did I miss something?

When Li Yifu’s gaze fell on Tang Haoran, he could not help but shiver. He looked at him deeply and then looked at Xia ruofei.

“Senior granduncle ...” Li Yifu asked in shock.

Xia ruofei didn’t wait for Li Yifu to ask his question. He smiled and nodded, confirming Li Yifu’s guess.

Li Yifu’s heart was in turmoil. He was convinced that Tang Haoran had really broken through in one night!

Although he knew that Tang Haoran had reached the peak of Qi disciple Level 1 yesterday, how could it be so easy to break through a bottleneck?

He still remembered that after he was at the peak of Qi disciple Level 1, he had to grind for an entire year before he managed to break through to Qi disciple Level 2. The pain and torture he had to go through was simply indescribable.

The cultivation environment on earth was much worse than it had been decades ago. How could Tang Haoran break through in one night?

Li Yifu would never believe that it was because he had accumulated a lot of experience. It had only been less than a year since Xia ruofei became Tang Haoran's master.

Li Yifu's impression of Xia ruofei, the young Grand – Master, had suddenly become much higher and more profound.

"Allen," Jennifer said with a smile, "go wash your face and eat! You're turning into a lazy cat ..."

Tang Yitian also felt strange, ""This child used to wake up early every day. Why did he sleep in even when master is here?"

What Tang Yitian didn't know was that Tang Haoran used to wake up on time every day to cultivate, but now that he had spiritual crystals, he didn't need to cultivate at four hours a day. Moreover, he was also very tired after breaking through to Tang Haoran yesterday, so he overslept without him knowing.

Tang Haoran went to wash up. Xia ruofei then remembered and said, ""By the way, big brother Tang, send me your address! I still have to send it to Quto! They said they'll send a car to pick me up tomorrow. "

"No problem!" Tang Yitian took out his phone and sent the address to Xia ruofei on WeChat.

Although WeChat was not popular overseas, it was still widely used in the Chinese circle, including Tang Yitian and Jennifer, who were also loyal users of WeChat.

After Xia ruofei copied the address, he was about to send a text message to the female secretary of quodan when he realized that the other party had called a landline.

Just as Xia ruofei was about to call back, he received a new text message on his phone. ""Mr. Xia, I'm the staff member from quangé who just called you. My name is Ivy. Please send the address to this phone! This is my private number!"

Chapter 1716: Unfathomable_2

No matter how he looked at it, the text message was flirtatious and flirtatious. Xia ruofei felt guilty and hid in a corner. He copied the address into the text box and sent it out.

At the qishang headquarters, next to the Office of the Senior Vice President, Tony, a blonde, blue – eyed Western beauty looked at the address displayed on her phone, and her beautiful little mouth could not help but turn into an O shape.

As a native of xiutani, Ivy was naturally familiar with the well – known wealthy area of vauclouse. Those who lived there were all well – known rich people in Australia. The cheapest villa there was in the tens of millions of Australian dollars. An ordinary white – collar worker like her could not afford such a house even if she worked for eight lifetimes.

The address that Mr. Xia had provided was actually there. In addition, she had already known about the content of the reward for Xia ruofei from qiuhan in advance. This made Ivy, who was in charge of receiving Xia ruofei the next day, have some wild thoughts ...

Xia ruofei naturally didn't know that he had become the best candidate for a rich husband. After sending the address, he continued to eat breakfast with Tang Yitian and the others.

"Ruofei, I'll go with you tomorrow!" Tang Yitian said with a smile. I'll help you back up ..."

"Don't scare the people from Quto!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Didn't you say that they would announce the reward plan tomorrow?" Tang Yitian said, "if the reward isn't good enough, don't blame me for dissing them on the spot!"

How did he look like a super – rich man with a net worth of tens of billions?

Tang Yitian's image was directly pulled down to the level of a rich young master like song Rui ...

Li Yifu, who was at the side, also said seriously, "Senior granduncle, this disciple will accompany you tomorrow!"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. "There's a press conference tomorrow. What are you all doing there?"

Tang Yitian smiled and said, "I'm here to support you!" Grandpa Li's family business is spread all over the world, and I think he has some shares in Quto, right?"

Tang Yitian looked at Li Yifu as he spoke.

Li Yifu really nodded and said, "There are some. Although it's not much, if they sell all of it, it can still impact their stock price!"

Xia ruofei was shocked and quickly said, "Don't! Don't! Who would rush to someone and ask for a reward? I don't care about the reward at all! If you guys want to go, then follow me, but don't do anything stupid. You have to listen to me!"

"Yes, martial granduncle!" Li Yifu immediately said.

Xia ruofei broke out in a cold sweat. She wanted to sell their shares without saying a word. Who did the A.I. Airlines offend?

What he did not know was that Li Yifu was also very well – connected in the business world. Otherwise, he would not have been able to earn such a huge fortune. However, since it involved Xia ruofei, Li Yifu would not care about the money spent in the secular world.

It was not an exaggeration to say that Xia ruofei was almost like a god in Li Yifu's heart.

After breakfast, Tang Yitian arranged a car to take Xia ruofei and Feng Rao to sightsee. It was the weekend, so Jennifer and Tang Haoran naturally followed. Even Li Yifu insisted on going with them. In the end, Xia ruofei let Xu Ziyuan get in the car and asked everyone to leave. It wasn't appropriate to leave him alone.

Fortunately, under Xia ruofei's strict orders, Li Yifu did not follow him closely. He maintained a certain distance during the tour.

That day, with Tang Yitian as their tour guide, Xia ruofei and Feng Rao visited a few of the famous tourist spots in sithiny, such as the Opera House, the harbor Bridge, and Saint Mary Cathedral. They enjoyed a sumptuous dinner at the revolving restaurant in the Sydney Tower before returning to the manor.

At night, Feng Rao and the rest went back to their rooms to rest after a day of sightseeing. Xia ruofei brought Tang Haoran to the tea room.

He taught Tang Haoran the second level of the <>. First, he asked him to remember the mental cultivation method. Then, he personally guided him to practice it a few times until he completely mastered it.

Tang Haoran's talent was excellent, and the second and first layers of the "fierce yang Scripture" were connected by the same vein, so he was able to master it very quickly. It was just that he was not as familiar with the newly involved meridians as the first layer.

Xia ruofei observed from the side for a while and soon felt relieved. He took out another spiritual crystal and sat cross – legged to cultivate. He was about to break through the bottleneck of Qi disciple Level 5 and could not slack off in his cultivation.

It was not until around 12 o' clock at night that the master and disciple finished their cultivation and returned to their respective rooms to rest.

At around eighto' clock in the morning, a black Mercedes – Benz car arrived at the entrance of the manor villa.

Avril, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, looked at the vast and incomparably luxurious Manor. Her eyes were almost shining with golden light, and she felt her breathing become a little rushed.

She had only heard of the wealthy Vaucluse District in the past. It was also Ivy's first time in Huahua. It was all thanks to Xia ruofei. Otherwise, she would not have been able to enter the house.

Only after experiencing it on the spot did she know how luxurious the place where the rich lived was. This was the prime location of the qitiny!

Poverty had really limited his imagination.

Xia ruofei and the others had already walked out to ask Ai Wei to give Xia ruofei a call when she was at the door. Without the owner's permission, the car could not enter.

Ai Wei recognized Xia ruofei at a glance.

Recently, Xia ruofei could be said to be the darling of the media! Many local media in Australia were reporting about the forced landing of the Australian Airlines plane. This news incident could not avoid the protagonist, Xia ruofei.

She quickly tidied up her clothes and hair, and quickly walked up to him. She revealed what she felt was her most charming smile, stretched out her hand, and said,"Hello, Mr. Xia, I'm Ivy!"

"Hello, Miss Ivy!" Xia ruofei smiled and shook her hand.

Ai Wei felt that Xia ruofei's hands were not rough at all. In fact, they were very warm. Her heart could not help but flutter and she almost could not help but scratch Xia ruofei's palm.

However, just as she was hesitating, Xia ruofei quickly let go.

Ivy stopped her random thoughts and said, "Mr. Xia, please get in the car!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "Miss Ivy, a few of my friends would like to go with us. We've prepared our own cars. Can you please use your car to lead the way?"

Ivy hesitated for a moment before immediately nodding and saying, "No problem!"

Soon, the car arranged by Tang Yitian drove over slowly, making Ivy's breath quicken. It was a long Bentley. In her memory, there were only a few of this kind of limited – edition long Bentley in the whole sutterni.

Then, Ivy quickly recognized the middle – aged man beside Xia ruofei. Wasn't he Ethan Tang, the boss of the Australian retail giant, Maya Group?

Ivy felt that her brain was not enough. She had thought that Mr. Xia was only very capable, but she did not expect that she only knew the tip of the iceberg. He actually had a super – rich friend like isendon.

There was no doubt that this Manor should belong to isendon. Mr. Xia was able to stay here for the night, and Mr. Tang had personally accompanied him to the press conference, which showed that the relationship between the two was quite close.

Ai Wei didn't dare to neglect him, so she politely greeted Tang Yitian. She didn't recognize Li Yifu, a small shareholder of qishang, since he spent most of his time in the United States.

Then, Ivy said to Xia ruofei, "Mr. Xia, this is the arrangement for the morning. Mr. Tony will have a short meeting with you at about nine o' clock. The press conference will start at nine – thirty sharp."

"I'm fine with it. I'll follow your arrangements." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Ivy, can we go now?"

Ivy then came back to her senses and said somewhat embarrassedly, "Yes, Mr. Xia!"

She quickly returned to the car. The Mercedes – Benz led the way in front, and the extended Bentley followed closely behind. They slowly left the villa.

Chapter 1717: Qiuhan's reward (1)

When the two cars arrived at the main building of the staff area, the Senior Vice President of the staff was already waiting for them. It was evident how much importance the staff placed on Xia ruofei.

When Tony saw that the company's Mercedes – Benz was followed by a luxurious custom extended Bentley, he could not help but be stunned.

Soon, the car came to a stop. Tony walked up to him and realized that Xia ruofei had gotten out of the Bentley behind. He paused for a moment, then quickly changed his direction and walked towards Xia ruofei.

“Mr. Xia, welcome to the Quto headquarters!” Tony had a warm smile on his face as he asked, “how have you been in Australia these few days?”

“Very good! The scenery in Australia is very charming!” Xia ruofei replied with a smile in fluent English.

At this time, Tang Yitian and Li Yifu also got out of the car. Tony, who was shaking hands with Xia ruofei, couldn’t help but stop for a moment. He couldn’t believe his eyes.

Tang Yitian was a well – known rich man in Australia, and almost everyone in the business world knew him. Tony and Tang Yitian had met several times.

Although Tony was also a senior executive of the giant, Air Australia, it was a national airline. Strictly speaking, Tony was only a senior employee, a “state – owned enterprise leader.” Of course, his salary was definitely much higher than the average civil servant.

And the Meia group, which was no smaller than qaustro airlines, was an enterprise that Tang Yitian had absolute control over.

Comparing the two, Tang Yitian and Tony were not on the same level.

Tony didn’t expect Xia ruofei to be so close to Tang Yitian that Tang Yitian would even personally accompany him to a press conference.

Of course, Tony, like his Secretary, did not recognize Lee Yifu, who was all – Powerful in the United States. Otherwise, he would have been even more shocked.

Tony quickly shook Xia ruofei’s hand and turned to Tang Yitian. He said with a smile, “Mr. Tang, I didn’t expect you to come here in person! Welcome, welcome!”

Tang Yitian smiled faintly and pointed at Xia ruofei, “I’m free today, so I came over with my good friend to take a look.”

“Mr. Tony, this is the United States of the Kyushu group, Mr. Yifu li. He’s also my elder!” Tang Yitian introduced.

Tony could not help but be slightly shocked, and he quickly greeted Li Yifu.

Li Yifu had almost never asked about business matters in recent years, so his exposure rate was not high. However, the Kyushu group was a well – known Financial Group and had a pivotal position in the American business world. Tony naturally did not dare to neglect it.

With two important figures accompanying Xia ruofei, Tony’s respect for Xia ruofei had increased.

After everyone exchanged a few words, Tony warmly invited the three of them to his office.

Tony’s office was located on the top floor of the Australian Airlines headquarters building. It had an area of 200 to 300 square meters and a glass curtain wall that allowed him to overlook the entire Australian Airlines headquarters Park. The view was quite good.

Tony invited everyone to their seats in the guest area and said, “Mr. Xia, the press conference will start in about half an hour, so I’ll make it short!”

"Alright," Xia ruofei smiled.

Tony looked at Xia ruofei and said, "this time, we'll be announcing the reward for those who have made contributions. The initial confirmation for Mr. Xia's reward is as follows: " Xia ruofei, you're welcome. The cash reward is 2 million Australian dollars ..."

Tang Yitian raised his eyebrows when he heard the number, but he didn't interrupt Tony. He listened patiently.

According to the exchange rate, 2 million Australian dollars was equivalent to 10 million Chinese dollars. It was not a small number and was about the same as the international standard. It was even a little higher, perhaps because Xia ruofei's contribution this time was too great.

However, this amount of money was too little in Tang Yitian's eyes. After all, Xia ruofei's position in his heart had unknowingly become more respected.

"Qiuhan will grant Mr. Xia the title of 'honorary passenger'. Mr. Xia can take our company's flights for free for the rest of his life. At the same time, when you take Huan Yu one family's other Allied company flights, you will also enjoy VIP treatment and a 50% discount on your ticket!" Tony continued.

"Huan Yu one family" was an international airline alliance established by qindustan in 1999. It included five members of air United States, air United Kingdom, Air Pacific, Air Canada, and air Australia. The Alliance company cooperated and shared flight time, ticketing, code sharing, passenger transfer flights, airport VIP rooms, and many other aspects.

In other words, with the title of "honorary passenger", Xia ruofei would not only be able to ride on qplease's plane for free for the rest of his life, but he would also be able to enjoy a 50% discount on the other four Alliance companies' flights. He would also be able to enjoy VIP Services such as the VIP room.

Of course, Xia ruofei did not take international flights often, so he only smiled and nodded at the reward. He was not too surprised.

Tony carefully observed Xia ruofei's expression and said, "Of course, we've also prepared a little surprise for Mr. Xia. Please forgive me for keeping you in suspense and leaving some suspense. I'm sure Mr. Xia will like it!"

"Oh? I'm looking forward to it!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I have no objections to this reward plan. I also thank your company for its generosity!"

Chapter 1718: Qiuhan's reward (2)

Tony quickly said, "Mr. Xia, you're being too serious. Your heroic act not only saved our company from huge financial losses, but more importantly, you protected our company's reputation. No reward is too much!"

Just then, Tony's Secretary, Ivy, knocked on the door gently and walked in with a document.

Since he knocked on the door when his boss was meeting with an important guest, the document must be very important, so Tony immediately excused himself and got up to walk to his desk.

While Tony was dealing with the documents, Tang Yitian said in Chinese, ""Ruofei, A.I. Is too stingy! Two million Australian dollars and you're dismissed?"

Li Yifu felt like he had been humiliated and his subjects had died. He also said indignantly, ""Martial granduncle! A.k.a. Is not putting you in their eyes! Do you want me to teach them a lesson?"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "you two, stop causing trouble!" How much is more? Do I lack this money? Besides, I was trying to save myself and the passengers on the plane. I wasn't there for the reward!"

"But ..." Li Yifu said.

"Alright! I think he's quite sincere. " Xia ruofei interrupted Li Yifu's words and said with a smile, "you'll know if you check the rewards for similar incidents in the world. They really didn't deduct it! That's quite generous! Besides, didn't Tony say there was a surprise?"

Xia ruofei finally managed to appease the two' angry youths '. However, when Tony came back after he finished handling the documents, the two of them did not look happy at all. This made Tony feel a little uneasy. He did not know what he had done wrong to offend these two.

After he sat down again, Tony calmed himself down and said to Xia ruofei, ""Mr. Xia, there's one more thing. It's about the press conference that's about to be held. The news industry is very interested in your Affairs, and there may be a lot of questions thrown at you. You can choose to answer them, but you can completely refuse to answer those questions that make you feel uncomfortable. "

Xia ruofei knew what Tony meant. He smiled and nodded."I understand. The details of this incident will still be based on what you've announced."

In fact, Xia ruofei did not like to show his face in public. However, considering that this matter had been exposed in the country, there was no point in hiding it.

Besides, this was Australia. As a Chinese, Xia ruofei had become a hero pursued by the media and raised the country's prestige. That was why Xia ruofei agreed to attend the press conference.

Tony was overjoyed to hear this. It was so easy to talk to smart people!

After the two matters were discussed, the next thing to do was to wait for the press conference. Tony also began to find topics to chat with Tang Yitian and Li Yifu.

It was just that the two of them were a little indifferent to Tony, and the atmosphere was a little awkward.

Fortunately, it didn't take long. Soon, Ivy knocked on the door and came in, saying, "Mr. Tony, it's almost time. Everything is ready at the scene and the reporters have already entered."

Tony stood up and said, ""Mr. Xia, Mr. Tang, Mr. Li, let's go!"

Tony personally led the way and led the three of them to the elevator. They arrived at the floor where the press conference hall was located.

The group of people entered the press conference hall from the side door. It was a waiting room that was similar to the backstage. From here, they could see part of the situation in the press conference hall from the side of the stage. Li Yifu and Tang Yitian stayed there.

Tang Yitian was a famous person in Australia. If he went out, he would definitely be recognized by the reporters. It was impossible for him to blend in with the reporters.

To Xia ruofei's surprise, the chief flight attendant and air traffic police from the previous flight would be attending the press conference as well. Both of them were already waiting here.

Everyone had gone through thick and thin together, so they felt very close to each other when they met. They couldn't help but chat until the clock struck 9:30, and everyone walked out together.

After Xia ruofei and the rest came out, the noisy press conference hall suddenly became quiet.

Then, the camera flashes continued to light up. Xia ruofei felt that he could barely open his eyes. Most of the cameras were aimed at him.

A lone hero from the mysterious East. There were too many breaking news about this. Xia ruofei was definitely the media's favorite now.

Everyone found their name tags and took their seats. Xia ruofei's seat was in the middle, right next to Tony. Beside them were the chief flight attendant, the air traffic police, and the host of the press conference, who sat at the side.

"Everyone, please be quiet!" The host turned on the microphone in front of him and said, "thank you, media friends, for being here. Today, we are very honored to have invited Mr. Tony, the Senior Vice President of Air Australia, Mr. Xia ruofei, who helped Air Australia's QF108 flight to land, and ..."

The host first introduced the few people who attended the press conference today, then said, "Next, Mr. Tony, please make an announcement. There will be a Q & A session later!"

After saying that, the host gestured to Tony and closed the microphone in front of him.

A smile appeared on Tony's face. He tested the microphone and said, "Welcome, media friends. First of all, I would like to announce the preliminary investigation results of this incident! A few days ago, there was an emergency on flight QF108 from the capital of China to Sydney, Australia. The plane finally landed successfully in Saipan without any casualties. The incident caused two crew members to die and one crew member to be injured. Our preliminary investigation included questioning the parties involved, retrieving the cabin Sound Records and flight data, and a comprehensive inspection of the plane ..."

The Australian Airlines side had already prepared a draft, and Tony was also very cautious. He directly read the draft word by word.

Finally, he said, "after the preliminary investigation, we have come to the basic conclusion: This is a long – planned hijacking, and the co – Pilot on duty, Wilkinson, is a major suspect. The police have applied for a search order to search Wilkinson's residence, and sealed his computer, tablet, and other physical evidence. We will inform the media as soon as we have any further information!"

Tony paused and looked at Xia ruofei. "Here, I would like to express my sincerest thanks to Mr. Xia ruofei from China on behalf of Qihang. If it weren't for Mr. Xia's decisive action at the critical moment and the courage to fly the plane to force the surrender of Saipan when all the pilots were disabled, this incident would have led to extremely painful consequences! Mr. Xia, thank you!”

Tony stood up and bowed deeply to Xia ruofei.

The reporters in the audience were also in an uproar. Although everyone had inquired about the incident through various channels, and the details of the incident were clearly stated in the online media and some tabloids, this was the first time the Australian Airlines officials had personally admitted that this was a hijacking planned by the co – Pilot for a long time. This had an extraordinary significance.

Many reporters couldn’t wait to raise their hands and ask questions.

Tony smiled.”Everyone, please be patient. I still have some information to release. There will be a Q & A session later. We have left enough time for everyone to ask questions!”

The reporters only sat back in their seats after hearing this.

“The second piece of news I’m going to announce is that qplease airlines will reward those who have successfully handled this special case ...” Tony continued.

Following that, Tony announced the reward plan according to the script.

This included Captain Brook, Purser, flight attendants, air traffic police, and others. They all received cash rewards as well as an internal honor of quodan.

Of course, Xia ruofei’s two million Australian dollars was the highest cash reward. Other than that, there was Captain Brook’s 1.5 million Australian dollars, the chief stewardess and the air traffic police’s 500000 Australian dollars, and the rest of the crew shared the one million Australian dollars.

Xia ruofei was not an internal staff of qiuhan, so he did not receive any additional honor. However, he received the title of ‘honored passenger’, which was more practical.

Tony also emphasized that Captain Johannson, who died in the line of duty, would be compensated according to the standard of death in the line of duty. At the same time, the Australian Trade union would also provide an additional bonus. All passengers would receive a certain amount of compensation. These were not included in the reward plan and would be announced in the near future.

Finally, Tony smiled and looked at Xia ruofei.””In recognition of Mr. Xia ruofei’s heroic act, we’ve decided to name the Airbus A350 that day ‘ruofei’, and ...”

At this point, Tony deliberately paused for a few seconds to keep them in suspense and successfully piqued the interest of the reporters.

Chapter 1719: The press conference full of laughter (1)

Tony looked around and continued,””Also, after the aircraft is repaired and put into use again, we will put on a new paint job!”

Tony continued, "we understand that Mr. Xia's company still has business in Australia. Therefore, the paint of this Airbus A350 will be changed to paradise Corporation and Paradise Farm's themes. Moreover, the paint will not change until this aircraft is retired!"

Xia ruofei could not help but be tempted. So this was the surprise Tony was talking about. Compared to the cash reward, this was a very good surprise in Xia ruofei's eyes.

Thinking of a giant Airbus with paradise corporation's printed on it and flying around the world all year round, it was simply a mobile billboard!

After Tony finished speaking, an image appeared on the projection screen behind him.

"This is the concept art for the new paint job that our designers have done after working overtime," Tony said with a smile. "It's the final product!"

Xia ruofei turned around and saw the of paradise Corporation and the English name of Paradise Farm on the wings of the plane.

In addition, the design of the plane was even more eye – catching. There were fresh vegetables and fruits on it, and a huge pattern was distributed across the entire plane. The color matching of these vegetables and fruits was also very eye – catching. There were red, yellow, and green. They looked very fresh and made people unable to help but have an appetite.

Tony smiled and introduced, "these pictures are taken from the vegetables displayed by Paradise Farm on the official website of the Maya Retail Group. They are all real photos. When it's time to change the paint, we hope to collect some high – definition pictures from Paradise Farm to achieve the best effect. We hope Mr. Xia can help us!"

"Of course!" Xia ruofei chuckled. "I'll do my best to cooperate!"

The camouflage was too eye – catching. One could imagine that no matter which airport such a plane appeared in, the number of people looking back would definitely be first – Class!

What's more, there was a story behind this camouflage, which could simply be spread as a good story, which was equivalent to adding to the publicity effect.

Xia ruofei could even foresee that this plane would become an internet celebrity plane. If people saw it on their travels, many people would be surprised to take photos with it.

Xia ruofei smiled. "Thank you, Mr. Tony. This is a great surprise!"

Tony smiled and nodded at Xia ruofei, and then gestured to the host.

The host immediately said, "next, it's time for the reporters to ask questions!"

The moment he finished speaking, the reporters below raised their hands in unison. The host pointed to one of them and said, "The lady in red in the middle of the first row!"

Most of the time, sitting in the first row always had an advantage, and female reporters were more likely to be selected. Therefore, in the case where no questions were set in advance, the female reporters in the first row had a much higher probability of getting a chance to ask questions than others.

It was the same today. The female reporter in red in the first row took the microphone from the staff and stood up. "Thank you, host. I'm a reporter from the 'Sutteny Morning Herald'. I have two questions for Mr. Xia."

Xia ruofei turned on the microphone in front of him and nodded at the female reporter with a smile, as if he was listening.

"What I want to ask is, has Mr. Xia received any flight training before this?" the female reporter in red asked. Why would you take on this seemingly impossible mission under such circumstances?"

Xia ruofei smiled and spoke in fluent English, "I've received some simple helicopter operation training before. Before the A350's forced descent, I've never actually operated a fixed – Wing aircraft."

There was a sudden commotion among the reporters and they all raised their hands.

Xia ruofei pressed his hands down, indicating that he had not finished answering his question.

He continued, "as for why he stood up, I don't think there's a need for a reason." The situation was very critical at that time. If the situation were to worsen, I would have lost my life!"

The few people on the stage and the reporters below the stage let out kind laughter.

Xia ruofei said seriously, "although I've never come into contact with this model of aircraft, at least I have some understanding of aviation knowledge. It's better than doing nothing, right?" Besides, even though the pilot was disabled, he was still conscious ..."

Xia ruofei paused and took a sip of water before he continued, "I have to tell the media that the success of this forced landing is inseparable from Captain Brook's full technical guidance. He's still receiving treatment in the hospital due to his injuries and can't attend this press conference. But I want to say that Captain Brook is a very experienced and strong – willed senior captain. Without his guidance, this forced surrender would never have succeeded!"

After Xia ruofei finished speaking, the reporters couldn't help but start clapping.

Tony, who was sitting beside Xia ruofei, could not hide his joy. He thought to himself, Mr. Xia's EQ is really high ...

In fact, the Australian Airlines was very passive in this incident. Although the incident did not cause any casualties, it was all thanks to Xia ruofei, a foreigner, who turned the tide. The cause of the incident was the deliberate suicide of the Australian Airlines employee, Wilkinson. The Australian Airlines would not be able to get rid of this.

Chapter 1720: The press conference full of laughter (2)

Now that Xia ruofei had personally exaggerated the credit of the experienced captain Brook to the greatest extent, it could actually alleviate the pressure of public opinion that the Australian Airlines was facing to a large extent.

The second reporter's question was for Tony.

The male reporter in a suit asked, "Mr. Tony, according to the media reports, at the time of the incident, Wilkinson had already successfully locked himself in the cockpit, and the crew broke the door down. As far as I know, the design of the cockpit door is very solid. In theory, as long as the pilot in the cockpit does not actively open the door, it is impossible to break it from the outside. Is there any issue with the quality of the plane?"

Tony's smile faded a little and he said, "I'm sorry, the details are still under investigation. I don't have the right to announce it before a definite conclusion is reached, so I can't verify the details you mentioned. If there's any further information, we'll announce it as soon as possible."

A few more reporters asked Tony questions, but Tony did not answer them directly when it came to some details of the incident. The official information that the reporters could get was very limited.

Hence, the reporters quickly shifted their focus to Xia ruofei.

For the media, the official voice was naturally needed, but they were more focused on the eye-catching points, such as the lone hero.

"Mr. Xia, what was the biggest difficulty in the whole process?" A female reporter with freckles on her face asked.

Xia ruofei smiled and replied without thinking, "The greatest difficulty? Of course, I don't know how to fly a plane! Everything had to be learned on the spot. Additionally, the automatic driving device had been damaged at that time. From the moment I sat in the pilot's seat to the moment the plane landed in Saipan, it was manually driven. Therefore, I have to say it again, Captain Brook ..."

The reporters laughed kindly. Xia ruofei's stance was too obvious.

However, Xia ruofei still said seriously, "Captain Brook is really a great teacher. He can even teach a layman who has never flown a fixed-wing plane and complete the landing on the spot. Therefore, I strongly suggest that please promote Mr. Brook as your instructor!"

This time, everyone laughed even louder, and even Tony joined in. "We will definitely consider Mr. Xia's suggestion seriously!"

The atmosphere at the scene was very joyous. The reporters continued to ask questions. Most of them threw their questions to Xia ruofei. Occasionally, one or two of them asked the chief flight attendant Guli and the air traffic police.

All in all, Xia ruofei's response was very appropriate. Other than a few details that were consistent with the words of Australian Airlines, he answered most of the questions very seriously.

Xia ruofei could speak fluent English and was very smart. He often said something humorous to make everyone laugh. This was very different from the image of the Chinese people in everyone's mind.

It could be seen that the media reporters had a good impression of Xia ruofei, and the reports would probably be good.

It was already noon, and the Q & A session had taken a lot of time. Most of the reporters had gotten the information they wanted.

“Due to this incident, we have one last question to ask!” The host said.

In the end, the right to ask this question was given to the reporter from The Daily Telegraph.

“My question is for Mr. Tony,” he said with a smile. “After the incident happened, with the disclosure of some details, our first impression was that it was too bizarre and exciting. It was even more thrilling than a movie. What I want to ask is if qstrang airlines has any plans to adapt this forced surrender into a movie? I believe that if we can put this incident on the screen, there will be a lot of people willing to go to the cinema to watch it!”

Tony was stunned for a moment. He had been busy dealing with the matter of the forced surrender for the past few days. Naturally, he had not considered the adaptation of the film.

What’s more, this matter was essentially an internal problem of qstro airlines. From qstro airlines’ point of view, they were not willing to expose their own dirty laundry, let alone make it into a movie.

However, Tony thought for a moment and smiled, “A movie adaptation? That was a good idea! Although our main focus is still on the investigation and the aftermath, we will also seriously consider your suggestion! Of course, if it’s a movie adaptation, it’ll be perfect if Mr. Xia is the main character!”

The press conference ended with everyone’s laughter. The reporters had gotten enough information. The Australian Airlines had also achieved the effect of leading the public opinion. Xia ruofei had also gained a lot. Other than the rewards from the Australian Airlines, as the contents of the press conference were reported, Xia ruofei would become a well – known hero in Australia.

It could be said that everyone was happy.

Tony and Xia ruofei went to the backstage of the conference hall. Although the conference had ended, Tony still said sincerely, “Mr. Xia, thank you very much for speaking up for qiuhang!”

Xia ruofei smiled faintly and said, “I’m just telling the truth. By the way, how’s Captain Brook’s injury? Will it affect his future flight duties?”

“After the examination, Brook’s life is not in danger,” Tony said. “The bone fracture in his arm may take some time to recover. The doctor is still optimistic. There should be no problem for him to return to his flight position.”

Xia ruofei nodded and said, “that’s good!” Where is he receiving treatment now?”

“The company has already sent a special medical plane to pick him up and bring him back to the suddani.” “He’s currently receiving treatment at St Vincent’s Hospital,” Tony said.

Xia ruofei nodded. “Okay. If I have time before I return, I’ll visit him.”

At this time, Tang Yitian and Li Yifu also walked over.

“Mr. Tony, I’m very interested in the last reporter’s suggestion!” Tang Yitian told Tony. “If qplease airlines wants to adapt this forced surrender into a film, our Mei ya group is willing to invest and cooperate!”

The Maya Group had evolved from a giant in the retail industry a few years ago into a comprehensive large group. In addition to the retail business, other businesses were also doing well. The entertainment industry was personally handled by Jennifer. In addition to the artist management company, there was also a film company, so it was naturally very easy to shoot a movie.

"Thank you, Mr. Tang," said Tony, "but our group hasn't considered this matter yet, and I can't make a decision myself. Of course, if we're really going to make this movie, we'll definitely consider cooperating with the Meya group first!"

Tang Yitian nodded seriously and said, "Mr. Tony, this is actually a pretty good theme. You can strike the iron while it's hot and launch a movie plan. This is also a kind of publicity for quandé!"

Tang Yitian paused, then continued, "If you really invite RUO Fei to be the main character of the movie, our Mei 'ya group is willing to bear 70% of the shooting funds and not a single cent of the profits. All of it will be donated to charity organizations in our names. What do you think?"

Tony couldn't help but be a little tempted. Although Maya pictures wasn't one of the top companies in Australia, their main business was retail, but their influence was still good, especially with their abundant funds. Qinba was very happy to cooperate with such a rich company.

Just as Tang Yitian had said, if the movie was made well, it would have a positive impact on Quto.

If qstrang took the lead in the shooting, it would be easy to weaken the negative impact of the co-pilot's intentional suicide and emphasize the role of Captain Brook and Xia ruofei in the script.

What's more, Tang Yitian had agreed to make a big contribution. He was even willing to donate the full amount of the profits in the name of both parties. Wasn't this another opportunity for Macau airlines to increase their reputation?

Tony, who had initially been a little perfunctory with the reporter, was now really tempted. He even began to seriously consider the feasibility of the matter.
