Chapter 1721: Huaxia's whirlwind (1)

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Big brother Tang, don't blindly join in the fun! I don't know how to act! Besides, I'm not interested in it!"

Tang Yitian smiled and said, "this is a good opportunity to be famous!" Just think about it! After this incident, you'll be a well – known hero in Australia. If you act in a movie adapted from this real event, it'll be a great story!"

Without waiting for Xia ruofei to speak, Tang Yitian continued, ""Acting is actually very simple! Jennifer can teach you! I'll get my management company to organize a sped up training for you ..."

"Stop! Stop!" Xia ruofei quickly said, "big brother Tang, I'm not interested at all. Please don't mention this again!"

Tang Yitian was still a little regretful. He muttered, ""What a great opportunity! Why aren't you willing to ..."

Tony could not understand their Chinese and was still thinking about the feasibility of adapting the movie. What he did not know was that it was basically impossible to get Xia ruofei to be the lead.

However, no matter what, it was still very good to adapt this story into a movie. The theme itself was very attractive, and it was also an adaptation of a real event, so it naturally attracted the audience.

It was already noon when the press conference ended. Hence, qiuhan naturally arranged a sumptuous luncheon to entertain Xia ruofei and the rest.

In addition to Tony and several other executives of Quto, the flight's chief flight attendant Guli and the air traffic police also attended the lunch banquet.

The luncheon was held in a hotel near the area of the Australian Airlines headquarters. Tony and the other Australian Airlines executives were very enthusiastic about Xia ruofei and the others. Everyone toasted and the atmosphere of the luncheon was very harmonious.

After the meal, Tony personally sent Xia ruofei to the car.

As for the details such as the bonus, the staff would naturally contact Xia ruofei in a few days. There was no need for a Senior Manager like Tony to personally ask.

When Xia ruofei attended the press conference, Jennifer brought Tang Haoran to accompany Feng Jing on her tour of Sydney. When Xia ruofei and the others returned to the manor, Feng Jing and the other two were not back yet.

As for Xu Ziyuan, he had already left this morning and returned to his home in Xi Teni. He stayed at Tang Yitian's house to accompany Li Yifu, but now it seemed that Li Yifu was going to stay for a long time, so Xu Ziyuan naturally couldn't stay with him.

Xia ruofei had nothing to do in the afternoon, so he gave Li Yifu some pointers on his cultivation.

Li Yifu's Guiyuan Scripture originated from Guiyuan true Scripture, which was a technique recorded in the human – shaped jade talisman. It was equivalent to being directly passed down into Xia ruofei's mind. Although he did not practice it, he had a thorough understanding of this technique, so it was more than enough to guide Li Yifu.

Moreover, Li Yifu's cultivation technique was incomplete, but Xia ruofei had the complete cultivation technique in his mind. Hence, Li Yifu felt that he had obtained a treasure by casually correcting and giving him advice.

Li Yifu followed Xia ruofei's instructions and tried it out. He immediately felt that the circulation of his genuine Qi seemed to be much smoother. He was naturally ecstatic and grateful to Xia ruofei.

After a few days of interaction, Xia ruofei could feel that Li Yifu respected him from the bottom of his heart. Even though he was only a young man in his twenties, Li Yifu still treated him as an elder from the bottom of his heart.

Besides, Xia ruofei had a good impression of Li Yifu. He didn't seem like a bad person. Hence, he passed on the content of the Guiyuan Scripture to Li Yifu through this kind of guidance.

Of course, Xia ruofei didn't teach Li Yifu the entire technique. Through this kind of intentional or unintentional guidance, even Li Yifu himself didn't notice it. He only felt that his cultivation was more smooth and harmonious according to Xia ruofei's guidance.

After Xia ruofei gave a few pointers, he thought for a while and said, "Foster husband, I seem to remember seeing the origin returning Scripture before ..."

Li Yifu could not help but tremble when he heard this. He looked at Xia ruofei with anticipation but did not dare to say anything.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you don't have to be nervous. When I go back this time, I'll look for it among the relics of my master. If I can find the Guiyuan Scripture, I'll definitely teach it to you. After all, you've been practicing this technique for three generations ..."

Li Yifu said with tears in his eyes, "senior granduncle, I don't dare to expect to be able to practice the real Guiyuan Scripture. After all, I'm already old and weak. There's no hope for me to practice it anymore. But if I can see the Guiyuan Scripture once in my lifetime, I'll be able to hold my head high when I see my father and Grandmaster in the underworld ..."

Xia ruofei frowned and said, "although you've wasted too much time before, it doesn't mean that there's no hope. Didn't your father live for more than 120 years?" If you break through to Qi disciple Level 6 before you turn 100 years old, then you still have a chance to go further! If you successfully reach the Foundation Stage, your lifespan will increase even more, so how can you be discouraged?"

Li Yifu was not even 90 years old yet. In Xia ruofei's opinion, it was easy to break through to the second level of cultivation in a dozen years.

Li Yifu smiled bitterly. "Senior granduncle, I'm not very talented. It's already a blessing for me to be able to break through to Qi disciple Level 4. Qi disciple Level 6 ... I don't dare to hope for it ..."

Chapter 1722: Huaxia's whirlwind (2)

Only then did Xia ruofei realize that from Li Yifu's point of view, it was really a desperate thing to break through two levels in a short ten years.

After all, the current cultivation environment was so harsh, and he was almost 90 years old. Even if he was a cultivator, this kind of beginner level cultivation was simply unable to prevent his body from aging.

Xia ruofei's judgment was based on the spiritual Crystal's assistance and the premise of the entire Guiyuan Scripture. Li Yifu had no idea about this.

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei said seriously, "Foster husband, cultivating is a heaven – defying act. Even if you die tomorrow, you can't lose your unyielding will! Otherwise, you'd rather not cultivate and just sit around and wait for your death!"

Li Yifu felt as if he had been hit in the head and quickly said, "Martial granduncle, this disciple knows his mistake! Don't worry, senior granduncle, this disciple will definitely practice diligently! On the path of cultivation, even if I can't defeat time in the end, at least I can die without regrets!"

Xia ruofei nodded in satisfaction. "It's good to think like this! Foster husband, if you have nothing to do in two days, you can go back to United States first! If I find the origin returning Scripture, I'll contact you immediately!"

Xia ruofei did not want to give the Guiyuan Scripture to Li Yifu yet.

He was well aware of the destructive power a cultivator could bring to the secular world, so it could be said that Li Yifu was in an observation period. If Li Yifu could pass his observation, Xia ruofei would not be stingy with precious cultivation resources like spiritual crystals, let alone the Guiyuan Scripture.

After all, Li Yifu was his master, and he had more than 100 spiritual crystals, which he couldn't use up at the moment.

Although Li Yifu wanted to stay by Xia ruofei's side, he did not dare to disobey the orders of his sect elders. He could only lower his head and say, "This disciple will obey!"

.....

The content of the press conference was reported in the newspapers the next day.

Although the media reported from different angles, Xia ruofei was a key figure. Basically, every media had spent a lot of time and effort on him.

"A superhero from the eastern world!"

"He saved quohang alone."

"He created a miracle in the world's aviation history!"

.....

In order to attract attention, the media used all kinds of exaggerated headlines and basically accompanied with large photos of Xia ruofei at the press conference. The article also had a high evaluation of Xia ruofei and he had become an influential figure.

At the same time, some media outlets also reported from another angle.

For example, the article by the "sajutani Morning Herald" named "Xia let us re – recognize the Chinese" was a very typical report.

This was a report that was similar to a reporter's note. The reporter from the morning pioneer had written this report based on his own intuitive feeling of Xia ruofei.

In the article, Xia ruofei was described as a humble, polite, humorous, and funny person who could speak fluent English. He was very different from the stereotype of Chinese people.

At the end of the article, the reporter wrote, ""More and more Chinese people appeared all over the world, and some people still have colored glasses and look at them from a hundred years ago. In fact, most of the new Chinese people are like Xia. They are hardworking, simple, and polite. And the speed of development in Huaxia is beyond our imagination. I've been to the capital of Huaxia two years ago, it's a modern metropolis even more advanced than the tadpole ..."

There were several similar reports. Some television media also focused on Xia ruofei's answers to questions. For a time, Xia ruofei, a Chinese man, had an unprecedented number of fans in Australia, causing a whirlwind in China.

The Chinese in Australia also felt honored. Originally, due to political reasons, Australia was somewhat xenophobic. The Chinese in Australia also gathered together to help each other. But now, it seemed that the attitude of the local people in Australia had become much friendlier.

When the Chinese walked on the streets, they would even encounter white people who gave them a thumbs up.

Guo Xiaoxiao was an Australian Chinese. After she graduated from University, she came to Australia to study a master's degree. After she finished her studies, she did not choose to return to China. Instead, she worked for a top 500 company in Australia. She first obtained permanent residence rights and then successfully obtained Australian citizenship through an examination.

Although Guo Xiaoxiao's career in the company was doing well and she later met her husband, who was also a Chinese student, their salaries were considered middle – Class in Australia and they had their own property in tautani. They could be said to have no worries about food and clothing and could even travel during the holidays, she still had no sense of belonging to Australia spiritually.

This sense of alienation mainly stemmed from Australia's intentional or unintentional discrimination against Chinese.

In the past few days, after the news of the forced landing of the Australian Airlines came out, Guo Xiaoxiao saw that the hero who turned the tide was her own compatriot and paid more attention to the news.

This time, after the media concentrated on Xia ruofei, Guo Xiaoxiao felt that something was different. In the company, the supervisor, who used to be arrogant, was much more friendly to her.

The supervisor even took the initiative to talk to her about Xia ruofei. ""Your compatriot is a great hero!"

Guo Xiaoxiao was very excited. It was the first time she felt so proud of her own country and fellow countrymen in a foreign country.

Although Guo Xiaoxiao had already settled down in Australia, she was still used to the internet world in China. She often visited forums such as Tianya and Mao PU, new media platforms such as Sina Weibo, and even the emerging Short Video platforms such as TikTok and Kuaishou.

After she got off work and went home, she excitedly collected all the news reports about Xia ruofei from the major media and the videos about Xia ruofei from TV shows. Then, she posted them all on Tianya forum.

Guo Xiaoxiao's Tianya forum account was also quite famous, mainly because she often posted travel posts. One of them was about her and her husband taking a car rental car to travel across Australia with their three – year – old son, which even made the Tianya headlines.

Guo Xiaoxiao carefully took screenshots of the media reports about Xia ruofei and the netizens' comments about the Chinese. She also carefully highlighted the key points, translated them into Chinese, and attached them below, then uploaded the pictures.

As for the videos, Guo Xiaoxiao patiently typed in Chinese subtitles.

Her post also became popular in the country.

For reasons that everyone knew, it was more troublesome for domestic netizens to see the content of foreign websites.

It was very convenient for Guo Xiaoxiao to access the domestic websites in Australia.

Most of the domestic netizens were seeing the content she had uploaded for the first time.

Even if someone occasionally climbed over the wall to see it, it was impossible for them to organize it as systematically as Guo Xiaoxiao.

Moreover, the article was full of foreigners praising Xia ruofei and the Chinese. The netizens in China were all excited.

It was nothing to praise oneself, but it was truly good when others praised you.

In the past few years, the Western world had often reported on China as a demon. No matter what China did, there would always be a bunch of Western media criticizing it.

This time, it was completely the opposite. The Australian media sang praises for a Chinese person in unison, and many media outlets reflected on their arrogance and prejudice against the Chinese.

This made the domestic netizens feel as comfortable as if they were eating iced sour plum soup in summer.

Xia ruofei was already very popular on the internet in China, and now Guo Xiaoxiao's post added to his popularity.

Very soon, these screenshots were spontaneously spread on the domestic internet by netizens.

Weibo, WeChat, Tieba, forums ...

Reports about Xia ruofei being "praised" in Australia could be seen everywhere. Xia ruofei's reputation in China had reached a new high.

There were even netizens who called Xia ruofei a "national hero." If Xia ruofei were to see it himself, he would definitely feel ashamed. Although he felt that he had done a good job, he was still far from being a national hero.

Just as everyone was in a heated discussion, China Daily's WeChat official account also pushed an article ...

Chapter 1723: Tide of praise (1)

Huaxia daily was the most authoritative media in Huaxia. It could be said to be the mouthpiece of the country and one of the newspapers that must be ordered by the government at all levels. Many of the opinions in this newspaper often represented a certain direction.

Of course, in the era of new media, China Daily followed the trend and opened an official Weibo account, official WeChat official account, and headline number.

Unlike the paper media platform, China Daily's new media account was more down – to – Earth. It basically didn't have any serious viewing articles. The content pushed was more popular news, life tips, and so on. Sometimes, it even followed the trend of the times and was quite popular with the public.

In the field of WeChat Public Accounts, the official accounts of Huaxia daily, the official accounts of the National television station, and the official accounts of the youth groups were already big V accounts with tens of millions of fans. Articles with more than 100000 followers could be found everywhere, and their influence could be seen.

Although it wasn't published in the paper version of Huaxia daily, it also represented a direction in a sense on WeChat.

As a result, the article titled "this Chinese man became the National hero of Australia" on the WeChat official account of 'Huaxia daily' was quickly spread by everyone. The number of views exceeded 100000 in just over an hour, and the number of shares also reached a few thousand.

The article wrote, "recently, Xia ruofei, a citizen of our country, helped the flight crew deal with a serious case on a flight from the capital to sutsune. He almost saved a plane and its passengers with his own strength."

A few days ago, Air Australia had held a press conference and announced some details. The local media in Australia reported it and Xia ruofei became the main character of the news ...

The article pieced together the reports from the Australian media over the past two days. At the same time, it also highlighted some reflections on the prejudice against the Chinese, as well as some screenshots of online posts posted by the Chinese in Australia. Guo Xiaoxiao's post was also cited a lot.

In the end, the article pointed out that in recent years, a few Chinese people did have some uncivilized behavior when they traveled overseas, and such behavior was deliberately magnified by some Western media, which affected the overall image of the Chinese. Even some tourist areas had discriminatory reminders against the Chinese.

We were happy to see that Xia ruofei's heroic act had restored the image of the Chinese to a certain extent and offset some people's prejudice.

"Here, we would like to appeal," when we step out of the country, our words and actions will represent the image of our country. We hope that from today on, every Chinese overseas will have less uncivilized behavior. We also sincerely look forward to the emergence of more and more Xia ruofei in China."

Today, let's give Xia ruofei a like!

The netizens reposted it one after another. The topic about Xia ruofei had been very popular during this period of time. This wave of Chinese whirlwind in Australia had increased Xia ruofei's popularity by a large margin.

Xia ruofei had yet to open a personal Weibo account, so everyone was leaving comments on the peach blossom company's official Weibo.

"In response to China Daily's call, I'm here to like director Xia's post! Keep your formation!"

"In response to China Daily's call, I'm here to like director Xia's post! Keep your formation!"

Hundreds of the same comments appeared in a short while. In the middle, there were a few who deliberately posted other content, but all of them were likes.

Before this wave of enthusiasm died down, there were more new contents on the Tianya forum. Seeing that so many people had read and supported her post, and it had even made the Tianya headlines, Guo Xiaoxiao immediately went to find other reports about Xia ruofei.

Her hard work paid off, and she really found something very interesting.

It was the original video of the press conference, from the beginning to the end. It was a video of the entire process. Unlike the television media reports, this was without any cuts.

Guo Xiaoxiao had gotten the video from a reporter friend. She immediately treated it as a treasure and specially asked for half a day's leave. She added subtitles in both Chinese and English to the video on her computer and then posted it on the Tianya forum.

Guo Xiaoxiao excitedly wrote, "the original video of the press conference is here!" Everyone, come and experience President Xia's style! The entire exchange was in English! To be honest, President Xia is one of the few people I've seen who can speak English very fluently and almost without an accent. Friends who study English can use this video for listening training!

There were many onlookers.

"I'm finished, I'm finished, I'm going to become a fan as a passerby! President Xia's self – confidence and sense of humor when he answers questions is so attractive!"

"I've only seen this feeling from one celebrity before, and that's Yao Ming, who played in the NBA back then!"

"I heard that President Xia joined the Army after graduating from high school. How can his English be so good? I'm so ashamed now! I've wasted three years of my four years in college ..."

"Heavens! A passerby turned into a fan! President Xia is so charming!"

.....

The comments were all about Xia ruofei.

At this moment, a sharp – eyed netizen posted a message. Then, many netizens who were drinking water and looking at their computers suddenly burst into laughter ...

The sharp – eyed netizen wrote, "I feel sorry for the translator at the scene. He sat there the whole morning in a daze, and his face was full of embarrassment ..."

The power of netizens was indeed infinite. They could even dig out some details that no one paid attention to.

Chapter 1724: Tide of praise (2)

During the press conference, Tony had prepared a Chinese translator to sit beside Xia ruofei even though he knew that Xia ruofei's English was good. Xia ruofei was Chinese.

However, Xia ruofei answered the reporters' questions in English the entire time, so the poor translator became a decoration and sat there awkwardly.

The netizens were instantly overjoyed.

"Op, you're a bad person. I had to watch the video again just to see the expression of the translator. It was so embarrassing ..."

"Please translate the area of psychological shadow!"

"Everyone's thinking too much! He just sat there and did nothing, and he earned the translation fees! This kind of job is simply what I dream of! Are there any more? Give me a dozen!"

.....

Xia ruofei didn't know about the revelry on the internet. He and Feng Jing stayed at Tang Yitian's house for three or four days and visited all the attractions worth visiting. They even took Tang Yitian's luxury yacht out to sea and had a great time.

When they were out at sea, Xia ruofei couldn't help but think of the amitz yacht that he had ordered. Although the small yacht he had ordered was nothing compared to Tang Yitian's, he was still full of anticipation.

At that time, the construction period was about two months. Including the transportation time, he would have to wait at least another month.

Even though Feng Jing was also very happy, she couldn't forget about the company in China.

In her opinion, she had been delayed in Australia for too long. In addition, she had stayed in Saipan for two days, so she was eager to return home.

However, she also knew that Xia ruofei had ordered oak barrels. He would definitely wait until the wooden barrels were completed and the fermented grape juice was taken away before he returned to the country. Thus, she did not rush him.

The two of them returned to Hunter Valley's Paradise Farm after a few days of fun.

Li Yifu finally left and returned to United States he really wanted to stay, but he did not dare to disobey Xia ruofei's order.

At Paradise Farm, Feng Jing also began to inspect the farm seriously.

She asked about the management model of the farm, sales channels, and so on in detail. In addition, she was also very interested in some of the modern facilities of the Australian farm. While inspecting it, she also recorded it in her notebook.

Xia ruofei, on the other hand, had a few days of leisure. Sometimes, he would sit by the lake in a daze for half a day. Sometimes, he would excitedly feed the Swans and kangaroos. He even pulled Feng Jing, who had unknowingly entered work mode, to experience the hot air balloon trip in the Hunter Valley.

One day, Xia ruofei and the others were having lunch at the small farm villa when Old West called.

"Xia, the oak barrels you ordered have arrived. Do you want to come over and take a look?" Old West laughed heartily.

"Of course! Uncle Wester, please ask Uncle Carl to wait for a moment. I'll come over after my meal!" Xia ruofei said happily.

Feng Rao, who was sipping on her soup, put down her spoon and asked with a smile, "Are the wooden barrels ready?"

"Yup!" Xia ruofei said, "we agreed on a week. It's only the sixth day! Uncle Carl is quite efficient. "

Liang Qichao, who was standing beside him, asked curiously, "RUO Fei, why did you order the oak barrel?"

"Of course it's for the wine!" Xia ruofei said, "to be precise, it's to fill the grape juice to ferment and let it ferment in the oak barrel!"

"And then?" Liang Qichao's IQ seemed to be a little off.

Xia ruofei glanced at him and said, "Then, it's time to brew wine! Is there a problem?"

Liang Qichao chuckled and said, "I didn't know you were going to make wine!" I just want to ask you, if the two big wineries are yours, why do you have to custom make a few wooden barrels to make wine? Don't tell me West and gold oak wineries don't even have oak barrels?"

Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "you don't know this, do you?" New oak barrels have their own benefits. New barrels have the greatest impact on the taste of wine, and I'm not using new oak barrels to make wine in the winery ..."

Xia ruofei felt that it was hard to explain and immediately shut his mouth.

However, Liang Qichao was even more curious now. "If you don't make wine in the winery, where else can you make wine? Do you want to turn the farm into a winery?"

"Why are there so many questions? Just eat your food!" Xia ruofei said, "can't I fill two buckets for my friends?"

"Okay, okay, okay, you're the boss, so you have the final say!" Liang Qichao said with a smile. He looked at Feng Jing and smirked. "Could it be a female friend?"

Xia ruofei glanced at Liang Qichao, put down his bowl, and took out his phone. He said slowly, "I haven't called uncle Liang for a long time, I really miss him! By the way, last time he asked me about that Devra ..."

This was Liang Qichao's weakness. Xia ruofei had not even threatened him and he had already compromised.

Liang Qichao put on a flattering smile and said, "Brother! Brother! I was wrong! I shouldn't have asked this and that, please spare me!"

Liang Qichao's funny expression made Feng Rao laugh. The deputy manager of the farm, Daphne, seemed to have heard her name. However, Xia ruofei and the others were speaking in Chinese, so she could not understand. She looked at Liang Qichao questioningly.

Xia ruofei stood up and said, "I'm done!" You guys can eat slowly! I'm going to the winery!"

Feng Rao quickly put down her bowl and said, "Wait for me! I'll go with you!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "sister ran, continue eating!" I'll be waiting for you!"

Feng Rao's heart felt warm and she said, "I really am full! Let's go!"

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing drove a car and left Paradise Farm.

It was only then that Daphne asked curiously, "My dear, what did our boss just say? Why are you so scared?"

"Boss told us something very terrifying ..." Liang Qichao said with a sad face.

Daphne could not help but feel nervous. "What terrifying thing? Is he going to fire you? I think I even heard him mention my name. Is he going to fire me too?"

The pay at Paradise Farm was good, and it was relatively easy, so naturally, Daphne cared a lot about the job.

"It's much scarier than being fired ..."Liang Qichao said.

Daphne's face turned pale, and she asked in a trembling voice,""My dear, what's the matter?"

Liang Qichao patted Daphne's shoulder and said with a smile,""I'm just joking with you! The boss is my good brother, how could he fire me!"

However, Daphne refused to believe it, and Liang Qichao had to explain it to her.

.....

Xia ruofei did not know that his joke with Liang Qichao had frightened Daphne. At this time, he was driving to West Winery with anticipation.

The winery and the farm were not far from each other, so Xia ruofei and Feng Jing arrived at the winery's entrance very quickly.

As soon as Xia ruofei got out of the car, he saw six oak barrels placed neatly in the open space in front of the main building of the winery. Old West and Carl were talking next to the oak barrels.

When he saw Xia ruofei and Feng Rao, Old West immediately stepped forward and said,""Xia! Come and take a look at our new oak barrel! It's a work of art ..."

Xia ruofei walked over and his gaze naturally fell on the six oak barrels.

The six oak barrels were of the same size. They were similar to the ones Xia ruofei had seen in the West Winery. The ends were small and the middle was big. There were a few iron hoops on top of them.

However, at first glance, the wooden barrel gave people a comfortable feeling. After approaching it, the oak barrel, which had been baked during the production process, had a special fragrance.

At the bottom of the barrel, a special symbol was stamped. It was the unique symbol of the old barrel craftsman, Carl, indicating that the barrel was produced in his factory.

"Uncle Carl, you've worked hard!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Hehe," Carl chuckled."It's a pleasure to meet such top – Quality oak and personally make them into oak barrels. It's not hard at all!"

Chapter 1725: The noble rotten grapes (1)

"Xia," Old West said,"this is the most perfect oak barrel I've ever seen in my decades of work. I don't think it can be better! Old Carl's technique of making the hooped barrel and the top – grade oak you provided really bring out the best in each other!"

"Uncle Wester, does this mean that these oak barrels have met the requirements?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

Old West said with an exaggerated expression, ""Of course! Old Carl's unique symbol must have been under strict surveillance!"

This was equivalent to Carl's brand, and old Carl would be fully responsible for any oak barrel that was branded with this .

"That's great! Uncle Wester, I'll take two of the wooden barrels. Leave the remaining four oak barrels at the winery!" Xia ruofei said happily, "Uncle Carl, you can pay for the barrel – making fees from the winery!"

To Xia ruofei's surprise, Carl said without hesitation, ""Xia, I'll make these wooden barrels for you for free! As long as you can still give me this wood to process next year! I'll also give you a discount on the cost of making barrels next year!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Uncle Carl, uncle Wester has so much trust in your technology. I'll definitely let you make the oak barrels next year. However, you still have to pay for these six barrels. This is a separate matter!" There's an old saying in China – brothers should settle their accounts clearly!"

After that, Xia ruofei did not wait for Carl to decline and gestured for Old West to write the check.

For a top – tier barrel – hugging craftsman like Carl, even if he provided the raw materials for him to process, the production cost would still be very high. It might even be more expensive than buying oak barrels directly from the market. However, Xia ruofei naturally did not care about such a small amount of money.

The production cost of each oak barrel was 300 Australian dollars. Old West quickly wrote a check for 1800 Australian dollars and handed it to Carl.

Seeing this, Carl didn't reject it and accepted the money happily. Then, he reminded Xia ruofei to hand the order to him next year.

After Carl drove away, Xia ruofei and Feng Jing admired the oak barrel that Old West called 'art' for a while.

The two of them were laymen who came to watch the show. They looked at the oak barrel and touched it. They couldn't see anything special about it, but they felt that the workmanship was really good. One look and they could tell that it was a very high – Class thing.

Old West actually wanted to keep all six oak barrels, especially when Xia ruofei wanted to take two barrels of clear grape juice. He was even more distressed.

The quality of the grapes this year was surprisingly good. In Old West's eyes, Xia ruofei had taken away two barrels of grape juice. In the end, it would be a waste. To Old West, who had devoted himself to the winery business, this was a crime!

But Xia ruofei was the boss! Even if he wanted to pour all the grape juice this year into the drain, Old West couldn't stop him, let alone take two buckets away!

So, when Xia ruofei suggested to prepare two barrels of clear grape juice, Old West accepted his fate and stood up to make the arrangements.

At that moment, Madam cabalie walked over with Old West's phone. "Hey! Your phone! It's from the Golden Oak winery!"

Old West took off his gloves and said to Xia ruofei, "Xia, wait a moment. I'll take this call first!"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

After Old West took the phone, he walked to the side to answer it. After a while, he came back with the phone and said, "Xia, I'm very sorry. There's something I need to deal with at the Golden Oak winery. I'll get cabalie to pack the clear grape juice you want for you!"

"Is there a problem with the Golden Oak tree?" Xia ruofei asked, concerned.

"Not really. The workers found a batch of grapes that are ready to be harvested is a little special. I have to go and take a look immediately." Old West laughed with a hint of anticipation. "Maybe it's a good thing!"

Xia ruofei became even more interested and said, "I might as well go and take a look! You can get the clear grape juice anytime you want!"

"Of course not," Old West said readily. "You're the boss!"

Xia ruofei smiled at Feng Rao and said, "how is it?" Sister ran, let's go to the Golden Oak winery together?"

Feng Rao smiled and nodded. She mimicked Old West's tone and said, "Of course, no problem. You're the boss!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but roll his eyes and said, "You're happy to be mischievous for a while, right?"

Feng Rao laughed so hard that she was shaking.

The group got into Old West's old Horton car and drove to the Golden Oak winery.

Half an hour later, they arrived at the Golden Oak winery, which was also located in the Hunter Valley area.

Compared to West Winery, the Golden Oak winery was larger in scale and much newer in buildings. It was like the difference between a rich landlord and a long-term worker.

Before it was transferred to Xia ruofei, the Golden Oak winery was one of the largest wineries in the Hunter Valley area. It was not something that West Winery could compare to.

However, the winery was now surnamed Xia. The owner of the Golden Oak winery, Robinson, who had been full of superiority in front of Old West, had to accept the fact that the big winery he was so proud of was now under Old West's management.

Old West drove the car directly to the vineyard, and the three of them got out of the car and walked in.

Chapter 1726: The noble rotten grapes (2)

The vineyard of the Golden Oak winery was several times larger than that of the West Winery. It occupied two hills and a Valley. Rows of Semillon grape trees, which had been replanted last year, were neatly arranged and extended into the distance. It was a spectacular sight.

A worker was waiting at the entrance of the vineyard. When he saw Old West and his group, he immediately greeted them.

Xia ruofei also recognized this worker named Harrison. Harrison used to be an employee of the West Winery and was one of Old West's more capable workers. He also had a lot of experience in growing grapes, so Old West had sent him here to be in charge of harvesting grapes.

"Harrison!" Old West came up and asked, "where are those grape trees?"

"Uncle Wester, you'll be able to see it after crossing this Hill. That area was originally prepared to be harvested in the next two days." Harrison said.

"Go! Take us to see it!" Old West said.

"Uncle Wester, is there a problem with the grapes?" Xia ruofei asked as they walked.

"It's fine," Old West said with a smile. "It shouldn't be a bad thing. We'll know when we go there."

Under Harrison's lead, the group followed the path over the hill and soon arrived at the area Harrison had mentioned.

Xia ruofei's eyesight was very good. He immediately noticed that the grapes in this area were different from what he had seen in the past few days.

The grapes had become a little shriveled, and their color was no longer golden, but reddish – Brown. There seemed to be some ugly stripes on the skin of the grapes.

Xia ruofei's first reaction was that the grapes were rotten. He felt that it was a pity and at the same time, he felt a little guilty. He thought that Old West might have delayed the harvest time because he was waiting for him to come to Australia. Furthermore, the scale of the grape plantation at Golden Oak winery was huge, which led to the situation of not being able to harvest the grapes in time.

To Xia ruofei's surprise, when Old West saw the ugly grapes, he quickened his pace and almost pounced on them.

Then he moved very close to observe it carefully. He picked a dry grape and looked at it repeatedly. In the end, he even put the grape into his mouth and chewed it, then swallowed it along with the skin, not caring if it was dirty or not.

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing felt a chill when they saw the grapes. After all, there was a layer of mold on the outside of the grapes! Isn't this a little too hardcore?

Old West and Harrison looked at each other and said, "That's right! It's the noble fungus! I'm familiar with this smell!"

Harrison was also very excited, and said, "Uncle Wester, the grapes in this large area are all like this. Does this mean ... The winery is going to make a fortune this year?"

Old Wester laughed out loud. "I'm sure boss Xia will be very happy to hear this news!" He said.

Xia ruofei was confused and asked, "Uncle Wester, are these grapes rotten? Didn't we lose a large sum of money? Why did Harrison say he was going to be rich?"

Feng Rao also found it hard to understand. The grapes in this large area had been reduced to such a state. It was obvious that they couldn't be used anymore, so why was old West still so excited? it was as if he had just picked up money.

Old West laughed out loud and said, "Xia, these grapes are not rotten. To be precise, they are infected with mold!"

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "isn't that the same thing?" We can't use them anyway, so we can only let them rot on the trees!"

Old West quickly waved his hand and said, "no!" no! no! Xia, not only can these grapes be used to make wine, but they can also be used to make the most top – grade noble rot wine!"

Xia ruofei was an amateur in the wine – making industry. He did not have any special taste for wine, so he had no idea what expensive rotten wine was.

However, Feng Rao's eyes lit up when she heard that. She asked, "Uncle, you're saying ... The expensive rotten wine is made from these grapes?"

Old West laughed and gestured for Xia ruofei and Feng Jing to come closer to the grape Tree. He pointed at the grapes and said, "Look, the mold on the surface of these grapes is noble rot. Only white grapes infected with this kind of mold can be used to make noble rot wine!"

Old West was in a very good mood, so he introduced the noble rot wine to Xia ruofei and Feng Jing. "In addition to the high sweetness, the noble rot wine also produces Glycerin and special fragrances that make the taste smoother, such as the rich fragrance of dried fruit, honey, raisins, and Noble rot. The noble rot wine is known as 'liquid gold', and was once praised by the King of France, Louis XIV, as 'the wine of the king, the king of wine'."

"So powerful!" Xia ruofei couldn't help but say in surprise, "it looks like these grapes can't be used to make wine ..."

Old Wester laughed and said, "That's why the expensive rotten wine is called the 'surprise in the ashes'!"

Hearing this, Xia ruofei felt that it was quite appropriate to say that the originally juicy grapes had long lost their moisture and were shriveled. The color was also very ugly, like ashes.

Old West then explained the origin of the expensive rotten wine to Xia ruofei and Feng Jing, who couldn't help but be amazed.

Many beautiful things often originated from accidents, and the noble rotten wine was a typical example.

It was said that in the grape harvest season of 1650 A. D., The grape farmers of Tokai were delayed by the war to pick the grapes in November. The late – picked grapes became dry and even covered with a layer of mold, but the winemakers who did not have fresh grapes to use moldy grapes to make wine.

What was unexpected was that the wine that year was fragrant. The sweetness of honey, flowers, and preserved apricot was refreshing. The body was full, with high acidity, sweet but not greasy, and it was very tempting.

The occasional delay in picking brought a new fate to the tokkai noble rot wine, and from then on, it headed towards glory.

The color of the noble rot wine was like gold, and the price was also like gold. In 1811, the noble rot wine of the chate 'Yquem winery was auctioned for a high price of 117000 US dollars per bottle, and in 1787, the noble rot wine was auctioned for 100000 US dollars. Even the most common noble rot wine would cost hundreds or even thousands of Yuan.

Such an expensive price was due to the harsh conditions for the formation of noble rotten grapes.

For example, there should be a moist fog in the morning, which was conducive to the growth and spread of the noble rotten fungi, which would drill small holes in the grape skin; In the afternoon, there would be dry and dry weather, which could inhibit the excessive growth of the noble rotten fungus and prevent it from developing into a malignant gray mold. At the same time, the dry and dry environment would make the water in the fruit evaporate from the small holes, and the sweetness, flavor concentration, and sourness of the grapes would naturally be improved.

At the same time, this situation must happen to mature grapes, otherwise, the decay would also develop into gray mold.

In addition, the production cost of noble decay wine was also very high. It had to be picked purely by hand, and the fermentation time was very long. In addition, the output was rare, and it was easy to attract birds to steal it, so the high price was reasonable.

After listening to the introduction, Xia ruofei realized that the climate in Hunter Valley was not suitable for the formation of noble rotten grapes. To Old West, it was a surprise from God that such a large area of noble rotten grapes could be formed.

Old Wester laughed out loud."Originally, these grapes were supposed to be harvested as soon as they ripened. But because summer was delayed in Saipan for two days, the whole harvesting plan was pushed back a little. I didn't expect to have such a surprise after the delay!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said,"I was feeling quite guilty at first!" Now it seems that it's a good thing!"

"It seems like miracles happen wherever there's flight. We've already gotten used to it!" Feng Rao chuckled.

Old Wester laughed out loud, and then immediately asked Harrison to organize people to pick these noble rotten grapes.

The noble rotten grapes had to be harvested by hand because not the whole bunch of grapes would be infected, so they had to be picked one by one. This was a very delicate job and had to be completed by experienced workers. Old West also had to check on the spot.

Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat and he said,""Uncle Wester, didn't I ask for two barrels of clear grape juice? Help me change one of the barrels to these expensive rotten grapes!"

Chapter 1727: What a big battle formation_1

Old West was grinning from ear to ear when he saw the entire colony of bacteria – infected half – City. His eyes were so squinted that they almost formed a line. However, when he heard Xia ruofei's words, his smile froze and was replaced by a pained expression.

"Xia, if you want to try making your own wine, just use the ordinary grapes from our winery," Old West said after a while. "These expensive rotten grapes are too rare and precious ..."

Xia ruofei shrugged and said with a smile, "Uncle Wester, such a large area of grapes has been infected with noble mold, it's quite a lot! Besides, I didn't ask for much, just one bucket!"

One bucket! It's just that!

Old West regretted bringing Xia ruofei to Golden Oak winery. He could only blame himself for not being able to keep his cool and rushing over as soon as he heard the news. If he had been calmer and given Xia ruofei two barrels of clear grape juice to send him away, then he would have come over quietly. Everything would have been fine.

Now, the God of plague had followed him to the Golden Oak winery, and he had his eyes on these expensive rotten grapes! Moreover, the other party was the boss, and he had no way to refuse! Old West was filled with regret.

Feng Rao saw Old West's expression and couldn't help but feel sorry for him. She quietly pulled on Xia ruofei's sleeve and said, "Ruofei, let's just forget it! Even Uncle Wester's heart aches for him ..."

"Sister che, I'm not fooling around when I asked for grape juice. It's really useful!" Xia ruofei said in a low voice.

"Alright," Feng Rao said helplessly. Then I won't try to persuade you ... But you should still try to persuade uncle Wester! I'm afraid he'll force us to go on strike ..."

After speaking, Feng Jing couldn't help but cover her mouth and laugh.

Xia ruofei looked at Old West and found it funny. He walked over and said, "Uncle Wester, I have a friend who specializes in white wine – making, and I want these two barrels of grape juice for him. Who knows, they might be able to help us develop even better wine, so... You have to cooperate with me this time no matter what, and give me the best clear grape juice!"

Old West felt his heart ache. All of this belonged to Xia ruofei. No matter what he did, it would not be a loss to Old West. In a way, this was a display of his strong sense of responsibility.

Now that he saw Xia ruofei explaining to him so patiently as the boss, he quickly thought it through.

Although he was still a little reluctant, Old West still said, "Good! Xia, I'll prepare the best clear grape juice for you. However, these liquids have high temperature and environmental requirements, so you have to send them to your friend as soon as possible after you get them, otherwise they will go bad easily!"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "don't worry!" My friend is in Australia, I'll send him over as soon as possible!"

.....

Xia ruofei and Feng Jing stayed in Australia for another three days before they boarded the flight back home.

The main reason was that each of the noble rotten grapes had to be manually selected, and the grapes had very little water content. To gather a bucket of clear grape juice, the consumption was several times that of ordinary grapes, which was why it had been delayed for so many days.

Before they left, Xia ruofei even asked sutteny to visit Captain Brook. He was recovering well. Although he had to go through a series of tests and psychological tests after a hundred days of recovery, he was still able to return to his flight post after such a disaster. Brook was already very satisfied.

The special honored passenger diamond card that was specially made for Xia ruofei by the Australian Airlines was sent to Xia ruofei by the staff. At the same time, the two million Australian dollars prize money had been transferred to Xia ruofei's account.

Xia ruofei immediately transferred 500000 Australian dollars to the West winery's account and asked old Wester to hire more workers. At the same time, he also gave everyone bonuses.

Xia ruofei transferred the remaining 1.5 million Australian dollars to his overseas company account.

To Xia ruofei's slight regret, the Airbus A350 was still under repair and the new paint coating was being designed. Hence, he did not see the vegetable and fruit – themed paint coating of the plane before he left.

However, Tony also said that he would invite Xia ruofei to board the plane when it took its first flight after it was repaired, and Xia ruofei gladly agreed to it.

There were two barrels of clear liquid of the grape juice. One of them was ordinary Semillon grape juice, while the other was grape juice that had been infected with noble fungus. Old West kept his word and personally processed the two barrels of clear liquid before handing them to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei immediately loaded them onto the winery's pickup truck and transported them to his 'friend'.

Of course, Xia ruofei was actually driving to a deserted place and storing the two buckets of grape juice into the spirit map space. Australia was vast but sparsely populated, so it was easy to find such a place.

Then, he wandered outside for half a day before finally returning to the West Winery.

Old West was still very concerned about the two barrels of clear grape juice. When he heard that Xia ruofei had given them to a friend and placed them in a warm environment, he was relieved.

Since Xia ruofei did not have the time to process the clear liquids of the grape juices back in Australia, he decided to place them in the mountain and sea realm where time flowed at the same rate as the outside world. He also used the invisible power of space to create a barrier to prevent them from being destroyed by any accidents, such as the White boundary Fox. Fortunately, they still needed to be fermented in oak barrels for some time, especially for the noble decay wine.

Chapter 1728: What a big battle formation_2

Everything would be handled after he returned to the country.

Xia ruofei was also full of anticipation for the two barrels of clear grape juice. He could not wait to see what quality of wine he would get in the end if he fermented it in the best oak barrels in the spirit map space.

Naturally, the two of them took an A.S.A. Flight back. Xia ruofei had booked Feng Jing a first – Class ticket while he used his right as an honorary passenger to get a free ride and a free upgrade. He sat in the first – Class with Feng Jing.

The entire flight took more than ten hours. The service of the flight attendants was meticulous. Although they used to be very professional, their smiles were more or less professional. This time, Xia ruofei truly felt at home.

When the plane landed at the capital's airport, the captain on duty personally came out and gave Xia ruofei a bottle of red wine.

When the two of them came out of seclusion, Feng Rao even smiled and said, ""Ruofei, if you take a few more flights in the future, the wine cabinet in your house will be full!"

Xia ruofei did not know whether to laugh or cry. "This is the first time I'm on a plane as an honored passenger. That's why they sent me wine. How can they send me wine every time?" Besides, who would take international flights for no reason?!"

"It's free anyway! If you're free, go abroad and play!" Feng Rao said with a smile.

"You said it yourself! Don't complain that I don't care about the company's Affairs!" Xia ruofei said half – jokingly.

The two of them chatted and laughed as they walked out of the restricted area of the airport. However, as soon as they came out, Xia ruofei was dazzled by the flashes of cameras. He looked at the large group of reporters in front of him with his mouth agape, not knowing what was going on.

Feng Jing was also shocked. Did we take the same flight as some big star?

Xia ruofei's first reaction was the same. However, this thought was quickly crushed by countless microphones and questions.

"Mr. Xia! I'm a reporter from Weibo, welcome back to China! How does it feel to be a national hero in Australia?"

"Some people say that you are the light of the Chinese in the new era. What do you think of this evaluation?"

"Mr. Xia! What were you thinking when you were forced to land?"

.....

Even though Xia ruofei had always been a calm person, he was still a little confused in this chaotic environment.

Are these reporters here for me? What the hell was going on!

At the end of the day, both Xia ruofei and Feng Jing had been overseas for the past few days. They knew that Xia ruofei was in China and was especially popular on the internet, but they did not expect him to be so popular.

In fact, when they boarded the plane, the flight number and landing time of the flight had already been spread on the internet. Wanwan, this was a flight to the capital of China. There were many Chinese people on this flight. Some were tourists from Australia, and some were Chinese from Australia who came to China. These people had personally experienced the change in the status of Chinese people brought about by Xia ruofei's influence in Australia, so almost everyone knew who Xia ruofei was.

Hence, before Xia ruofei and Feng Jing could even sit down in the first class cabin, photos of them boarding the plane were already posted on Weibo.

At the same time, the flight number, destination, landing time, and so on were also exposed.

News about Xia ruofei was still on the top search list in the country. The return of such a key figure was naturally a celebration for the media, so the reporters all rushed to the capital's airport.

As the flight time was more than ten hours, during this time, many foreign reporters took the fastest flight to the capital city. After getting off the plane, they immediately started working at the airport, ready to interview Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei also saw that other than the reporters, there were even some ordinary people who had come to the airport to welcome him.

He saw a group of young people in white T – shirts behind the reporters. Their custom – made white T – shirts and banners had the words “overbearing president’s fan club” and Xia ruofei’s photo.

Xia ruofei didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. When did he become a bossy President?

Furthermore, the company’s CEO was Feng Jing! I’m the president’s superior, okay? We’re familiar with each other, but what’s the meaning of dropping me by half a level for no reason?

Xia ruofei was used to big scenes. He quickly calmed himself down. Facing the sea of microphones, he gently pushed one of the microphones that was almost in his mouth forward.

“Everyone, please step back,” Xia ruofei said. “Don’t crowd around, in case you cause a stampede!”

Xia ruofei’s voice was not loud and his tone was calm. However, in such a noisy environment, everyone could hear him clearly.

Even though it was very crowded just now, Xia ruofei had been protecting Feng Rao with one hand. No matter how crowded it was, Xia ruofei did not move an inch. He was like a solid dam. No matter how the tide washed over him, he would always stand tall.

Initially, Feng Jing was a little flustered when she saw this scene. However, when she saw Xia ruofei's strong back and strong arms, she calmed down and felt a warm current in her heart.

Feng Jing stood behind Xia ruofei. The way she looked at Xia ruofei gradually changed. Her watery eyes were filled with unconcealable tenderness.

The airport security personnel also noticed the commotion and quickly sent over staff to maintain order.

"Sir, for the safety of you and the others, we suggest you leave the airport through the passenger passage." A manager – like person said.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "okay, I'll cooperate with your work. However, it must be hard for the reporters to come all the way here. Also, let me answer a few questions from those people who are picking us up."

"Thank you for your understanding, Sir. Please settle the matters here as soon as possible!" The manager said.

"Don't worry!" Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

Then, Xia ruofei raised his voice and said, "Reporters, let's take a step back. Don't block the passage. The people behind can't get out ..."

A few Chinese passengers behind Xia ruofei shouted, "It's okay, President Xia, we can wait!"

Everyone burst into laughter, and the atmosphere became much more relaxed.

The reporters saw that Xia ruofei's attitude was so peaceful and they were naturally willing to cooperate. So, the group of people surrounded Xia ruofei and walked more than ten meters in the direction of the hall.

Xia ruofei said, "you've all seen it. We can't have too many people here. The security guards are still waiting over there." I'll answer three of your questions!"

"Alright!" The reporters responded in unison.

In a situation where there were too many people and too little space, the reporters were naturally anxious to ask questions. So, it became like just now, everyone fighting to ask questions, and all the voices were mixed together.

It was a good thing that Xia ruofei's hearing was exceptional. In such an environment, he could still clearly understand everyone's questions. Otherwise, he would not have been able to deal with them.

Feng Rao felt her head throb as she said loudly, "Everyone, please ask your questions one by one. This way, no one will be able to hear clearly! President Xia can't answer everyone's questions!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "it's okay, I heard it." I'll pick a question to answer! The reporter from Penguin News asked me how it felt to be an Australian hero, right?"

The reporter in the crowd gave Xia ruofei a thumbs up and said with a smile, "President Xia is indeed amazing! You can even hear me clearly like this!"

It was indeed unbelievable to everyone. Xia ruofei not only heard the question clearly, but he also heard the reporter's name clearly. He did not mix it up even if someone else spoke at the same time. Just based on this, many people could not help but think highly of him.

People who could be heroes were indeed not ordinary! Everyone thought to themselves.

Chapter 1729: Handling it with ease (1)

Xia ruofei smiled. "If you ask me how I feel, I really don't feel anything. I don't feel like I'm the pride of the Chinese or the hero of Australia. I just happened to be there, and with my survival instinct and a bit of luck, I felt nothing."

Xia ruofei's answer was very sincere and there was nothing fake. The reporter was very satisfied.

As soon as he finished speaking, the reporters immediately fought to ask a second round of questions.

Feng Jing felt like her head was about to explode, but Xia ruofei could still hear everyone's questions clearly in this environment. He even chose a question to answer.

"Just now, this reporter from Beijing Evening News asked me what I was thinking when I was flying the plane." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "actually, I didn't have any other thoughts in my mind at that time. I was so focused on controlling the plane that I couldn't focus on my mind. How could I have the time to have any other random thoughts?"

Everyone burst into laughter.

Xia ruofei said seriously, "actually, when a person is fully focused, there must be no distracting thoughts in their mind. Anxiety, fear, and other emotions will all disappear. There is only one thought in their mind. No matter what, we must land this plane safely. There are hundreds of lives we are talking about! And my most important business partner, our company's CEO Feng, is sitting behind me!"

Feng Jing's face blushed uncontrollably. Whether it was the reporters, fans, or onlookers, they all applauded to pay their respects to Xia ruofei.

At this moment, a female reporter asked again, "President Xia, what were you thinking about after the plane landed safely?"

Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "is this the third question?" Would your peers have any objections?"

Everyone laughed, but it seemed that the reporters were also quite interested in this question, so no one raised any objections.

Hence, Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "After the plane landed, my first reaction was fatigue. My physical fitness is not bad. Although flying a plane in that situation is a very tiring job, it is not too tiring. I leaned back in the driver's seat and rested for a while. The first thought that came to my mind was, 'I'm never taking a plane again, it's too scary ...'"

"Hahaha!" Everyone couldn't help but burst into laughter.

Xia ruofei also smiled and said, "I'm just joking. The plane is actually very safe!" I really can't remember what I was thinking at that time. I remember high – fiving Captain Brook in the cockpit and President Feng behind me in celebration. Then ... I think I said to President Feng, "Finally, we're on solid ground. This feeling is great!"

Feng Rao couldn't help but smile gently. She had also recalled the scene back then.

At this time, another reporter asked, "director Xia, I heard that the China Civil Aviation Administration of China will also award you a medal. Many domestic airlines have expressed their willingness to recruit you as a pilot. They will provide free training. Do you have any response to this?"

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment and said, "I haven't been informed of the two things you mentioned." They weren't just joking, were they? I condemn this kind of behavior!"

Everyone laughed again. However, they were used to Xia ruofei's style and did not take his joke seriously. They would not take it out of context and exaggerate it to report it. Now that Xia ruofei's image was extremely high, if they dared to report it like that, they would definitely be scolded to death.

After Xia ruofei made a joke, he said seriously, ""I'll say the same thing again. I just happened to be on this flight. Out of survival instinct and a little luck, I finally completed an incredible mission, so there's really nothing to be commended."

He paused for a moment and continued, "as for becoming a professional pilot, I don't have such an idea for the time being. As you all know, I have my own company. My career is going well. I don't have any plans to change my profession for the time being. However, after this incident, I've developed a great interest in flying. If I have the time in the future, I'll consider learning a private flying license. "

Although Xia ruofei said that he would only answer three questions, after answering the fourth question, he still patiently answered a few more questions before apologizing to everyone and ending the interview.

However, Xia ruofei did not leave immediately. Instead, he walked to the group of fans who had come to pick him up and said with a smile, ""I can't believe I have fans waiting for me at the airport. This is the treatment of a big star! I'm not used to it ..."

The fans of the "overbearing president's fan club" were very excited when they saw Xia ruofei being so approachable. Some of them were so excited that they could not speak. One of the braver girls said, ""President Xia, we're your first batch of fans! We've already set up a Baidu Tieba and a Weibo group, so you have to go there often in the future!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "thank you, everyone!" Thank you, everyone! But ..."

Xia ruofei pointed at the banner and said, ""Who can explain this to me? Why was it an overbearing President? I'm the chairman, okay? Our company's President is there!"

Chapter 1730: Handling it with ease (2)

Xia ruofei pointed at Feng Rao and said with a smile, ""I'm the president's superior. You're just trying to demote me!"

Feng Rao was laughing hysterically at the side, and her fans were also very happy.

It was still the short – haired girl who said, ""President Xia, does the overbearing President sound nice? How could he be called a bossy Chairman? It sounds so LOW!"

"Alright, alright!" Xia ruofei surrendered. "You can call me whatever you want! As long as you're happy ..."

Seeing Xia ruofei so approachable, the fans gradually became more courageous and started to say,

"Hehe! You're the best, President Xia!"

"President Xia, you're so handsome!"

"President Xia, do you have a girlfriend?"

.....

"Why do I feel like you guys are harder to deal with than the reporters?" Xia ruofei smiled bitterly.

Her words caused another round of laughter. The reporters had not left and were still filming Xia ruofei's interaction with his fans. They laughed even harder when they heard what she said.

In the end, Xia ruofei took photos with his fans and even signed autographs for them. He was satisfied with being a big star.

Then, he did not need to take the passenger route anymore. Whether it was the reporters or the fans, they all left on their own accord. After all, Xia ruofei had given them face and they did not want to make things difficult for him.

After walking out of the airport, Xia ruofei heaved a sigh of relief and said to Feng Jing, ""Sister ran, I think it's more tiring than running a five – kilometer weighted cross – country! Look at my back, it's all wet ..."

"Now you know how hard it is to become famous!" Feng Rao grinned.

Xia ruofei replied, "I've always known!" That's why I've always pushed you to the front desk, right? It was a mistake this time ..."

Feng Rao glared at Xia ruofei and said, ""You still have the nerve to say that? Hmph! You're getting your retribution now ..."

As the two of them were talking, a voice rang out from the side, ""Xia yingxiong! You're so haughty now! Why didn't you tell us in advance that you're coming back?"

Xia ruofei followed the sound and saw Zhao Yongjun, song Rui, Liu Jian, Xu Zixuan, Hou Liang, Wei Jun, and the others all at the airport.

Of course, his driver, Wu Qiang, was also with these people.

It was song Rui who had just spoken. He walked over and sized Xia ruofei up and down while making a clicking sound. "It's really different being a hero! He had a strong aura! We saw so many reporters interviewing you just now, but we didn't dare to come out and meet them. We were afraid that you wouldn't acknowledge us poor brothers!"

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said, "Song Rui, I didn't tell you, but aren't you here? How? You're asking Wu Qiang for my flight number again?"

Zhao Yongjun laughed and said, "why would we need to find Wu Qiang?" The moment you got on the plane in Australia, news of your return was all over the place. Just open Weibo and you'll see your flight number, landing time, and all sorts of other things!"

"D * MN ..." Xia ruofei couldn't help but say, "will I lose my freedom in the future?" Do I have to wear a mask and glasses when I go out?"

Song Rui laughed and said, "you just found out!" We've been in Beijing for the past few days, and we've heard so much about you that our ears are getting calluses! I say, you're really something, kid! You can get into such a big trouble just by taking a plane, I should say that you're lucky! Or should I say that you're a little unlucky!"

"Who knows!" Xia ruofei said with a bitter face, "I've been thinking these few days if I should ask for a fortune – teller or find a master to help me change my luck ..."

Zhao Yongjun and the others almost burst out laughing. To them, Xia ruofei was the real master! The plot of land in little Tang town had been a godly operation that left them in awe.

However, because Feng Zhu was here and Wei Jun and the others didn't know the details, Zhao Yong Jun and the others didn't mention the nine rotation universe formation.

However, song Rui said, "yes!" Who told you to leave us to work so hard and go to Australia to have fun?"

"Alright, alright," Zhao Yongjun said, "it's a cold day, so let's not stand here and talk. Let's go back and talk!"

"Let's go! The car is ready!" Song Rui said.

"Ruofei, I won't be going back with you guys," Feng Jing said. "I'll just take a flight back to Sanshan. I've been away for so many days, and there's a lot of work to do at the company!"

"President Feng, we're back in the country, so let's take a rest!" Zhao Yongjun said. Let's do our part as hosts. "

Xia ruofei also said, "yeah!" Sister che, you must be tired from the long journey. You can rest in Beijing for the night. There's no need to rush the company's matters!"

After that, Xia ruofei pulled Feng Jing's luggage and said, ""Let's go! Let's go back to the courtyard house first!"

Feng Jing had no choice but to follow them. Of course, she was not that determined to go back, especially after Xia ruofei asked her to stay. It was even more difficult for her to refuse.

The group of people took three separate cars and returned to the big siheyuan in liuhai Lane.

Zhao Yongjun asked Wu Qiang, Hou Liang, and Wei Jun to go out and buy things together. They were prepared to have a gathering at siheyuan that night.

Feng Rao greeted everyone before finding a guest room to catch up on her sleep. The ten – hour flight had been quite tiring. Although first – Class was very comfortable, she definitely didn't get as much sleep on the ground.
