Chapter 1741: The King's Woman (1)

Xia ruofei picked up his phone and saw that it was Feng Jing. He immediately picked up and said with a smile, ""Sister che, we haven't seen each other for half a day. Don't tell me you're missing me again?"

Feng Rao arrived at the three mountains at noon and sent Xia ruofei a WeChat message. However, Xia ruofei was busy with the nine rotation universe formation and only replied with a simple sentence.

"You're getting more and more outspoken!" Feng Rao said, pouting. I might tell on you to Qingxue!"

"Qingxue would not believe lies!" Xia ruofei laughed.

After teasing her for a while, Xia ruofei asked, ""Sister che, what's the matter?"

"Yeah, there's something I need to talk to you about," Feng Jing said. "Didn't you agree to open a verified Weibo account a few days ago?" The public relations department has been in contact with Weibo, and your personal Weibo account has been officially opened. "

"Oh! That's fast!" Xia ruofei replied casually. He was not very concerned about this matter.

Feng Jing continued, "the management company will usually have someone in charge of maintaining your Weibo. However, you can post a few of your own occasionally. You can interact with your fans when you have time." Also...The first post after you've opened your Weibo, I think you should post it yourself! It's more memorable. "

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "is that necessary?" I don't usually use Weibo ..."

"It's very necessary!" Feng Jing said, "these social media platforms have an astonishing amount of traffic. As a public figure, it's very necessary for you to have a platform to speak for yourself. Do you know how influential a verified account with tens of millions of fans is? It's not inferior to the provincial media at all!"

Xia ruofei chuckled. "I know that. But I don't think I'm a public figure. I'm not interested in popularity!"

Feng Rao was a little angry and said, ""Just because you say it's not, it's not! Have you ever seen an incident that could remain in the top ten of the hot search list for more than ten days without any behind – the – scenes hype? And when you came out of the airport, did you hire those reporters and fans? "Even without the Quto incident, as the company's scale and influence grow day by day, you will become a public figure sooner or later as the company's boss! President Liu from kyokuboku mall, President Ma from Skycat mall ... Don't you know all of them?"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly, "Alright, alright!" Wasn't it just a few Weibo posts? And you're telling me so many big reasons...I'll post it, alright?"

"Ruofei, this is still a hot topic. If we open a Weibo account now, it'll be good for both the company and you. Be serious!" Feng Jing said.

"I know!" Xia ruofei said, "send me your account and password on WeChat!"

After hanging up, Feng Jing quickly sent her Weibo account password to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei opened the Weibo app. After logging in, he saw that his Weibo name was “Xia ruofei”. It was already an eye – catching orange V certification, and the certification information was that he was the chairman of peach blossom company.

Xia ruofei nodded to himself. This was reasonable. He was just afraid that the verification information would say “main character of quahang’s forced surrender” or “the light of the Chinese”.

Those who were in the know knew that this was the certification information submitted by the staff. Those who were not in the know would definitely say that Xia ruofei was boasting.

Then, Xia ruofei took a look at the number of fans and couldn’t help but gasp.

This Weibo account should have just been opened. He had not even posted a single post, but he already had more than 50000 fans. The background notification for new fans had turned the red corner into an ellipsis. In addition, there were countless private messages, which he could not read at all.

Xia ruofei had wanted to just post a few words and take it as a mission, but seeing the enthusiasm of the netizens, he couldn’t help but take it more seriously.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and decided to post a photo with some text.

However, he rarely took photos, let alone selfies. He searched through his phone’s photo album for a long time but couldn’t find a suitable one.

At this moment, Song Wei came out of the shower. She wiped her wet hair with a towel and asked with a smile, “What are you looking at?”

Xia ruofei looked up and saw Song Wei in a light yellow down jacket. Her tight jeans made her legs look even longer. There were still water droplets on her hair, making her look even more beautiful. Xia ruofei could not help but be a little dazed.

However, Xia ruofei’s gaze only froze for a moment before he regained his senses. He smiled and said, “The company has opened a personal verified Weibo account for me, and I’m preparing to send a message to everyone to say hello!”

Song Wei’s eyes lit up and said, “Yo! A big star opened Weibo! Come on! Let’s become each other’s fans!”

Song Wei took out her phone and looked at Xia ruofei’s Weibo. She quickly searched for it and followed him. Then, she urged Xia ruofei to follow her.

The number of Xia ruofei’s fans kept increasing. After a few pages of notifications, Song Wei pointed at one of the accounts and said, “This, this! Quickly pay attention!”

Xia ruofei looked at Song Wei, who was acting like a child, and laughed. He followed her.

Song Wei’s Weibo name was “VIVI,” probably using the harmony of “Weiwei.”

Chapter 1742: The King’s Woman (2)

After the two of them followed each other, Song Wei asked again, ""Have you thought of what your first Weibo post will be?"

"I wanted to post a photo, but I didn't find a suitable one." Xia ruofei said, "why don't you just send a few simple words?"

"Don't!" Song Wei said, "this is the first Weibo post! I can't make do with this! Isn't it simple if there are no photos? I'll take a picture for you now!"

"I don't think so ..." Xia ruofei hesitated.

"Don't say no!" Song Wei grabbed Xia ruofei's phone and said, "come, come, come, let's POSE! I'll definitely take a beautiful picture of you! Then, I'll beautify you!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile bitterly. He hurriedly said, ""Please don't! I don't rely on my face to make a living! The original flavor is good!"

After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei still cooperated and smiled.

Song Wei took a few photos and then took her phone to Xia ruofei. She said, "Let's see the effect!"

Then, Song Wei opened the photo album on her phone and looked through the photos with Xia ruofei.

Song Wei's photoshoots were quite interesting. Although the sky was already dark, she used the lighting skillfully. The composition of the pictures was also very good. In addition, the phone's photo – taking function was quite powerful. The photos looked really good.

Xia ruofei was sitting on a deck chair under the grape trellis with a purple clay teapot in his hand. Although the background was blurred, one could still see the antique courtyard, the Lotus VAT, the pomegranate trees, and so on. At first glance, it gave off a leisurely feeling.

"I'll take this!" Xia ruofei was very satisfied.

"You really don't need to beautify your face?" Song Wei asked, "I'm pretty good at it! Others definitely won't be able to tell!"

Xia ruofei quickly snatched the phone and said, ""No need, no need!"

Then, he opened Weibo and chose to post a new post. After selecting the picture, he pondered for a while and typed a sentence: "Three cups of wine for the boundless secular world, a pot of tea for the great cause of a thousand years."

Xia ruofei had always liked these two lines of the poem. Coupled with the photo, it was quite fitting, so he typed without hesitation.

"Done!" Xia ruofei mumbled to himself and gently pressed the button.

"I'll go and like your post!" Song Wei said cheekily. Then, she really used her phone to find the Weibo post. However, her hands were a little slow. When she opened the Weibo post, it had already received more than ten likes.

It had only been a few seconds! Could it be that someone had been staring at Xia ruofei's empty Weibo and refreshing it? Song Wei liked the post unhappily. She wanted to be the first person to like it.

Xia ruofei found it funny and said, "Let's go! Time for dinner!"

The two of them walked to the backyard together, chatting as they walked.

Xia ruofei and Song Wei did not know that the Weibo platform had really started a small craze after Xia ruofei entered the company ...

This craze was not only because of Xia ruofei's first Weibo post, but also because of their "mutual following".

Although Xia ruofei's new account had gained tens of thousands of fans and the number was still rising, the number of followers remained at zero until he followed Song Wei's normal account, "VIVI"...

One must know that Xia ruofei did not usually use Weibo. In addition, after completing the task assigned by Feng Jing, he had gone out to eat with Song Wei, so he did not even have the time to follow the official Weibo of Tao Yuan company.

One could only imagine how eye – catching the lone "VIVI" in the follow column was ...

Of course, the two of them were completely unaware of this and walked straight to the backyard. As expected, Wu Qiang had already prepared dinner. When he saw Xia ruofei and Song Wei walking over, he quickly went up to them.

As for Song Wei's change of clothes, and the fact that the two of them had just taken a bath, Wu Qiang chose to ignore it. He said respectfully, "President Xia, do you want to have dinner now?"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "yes!" Let's eat in the small restaurant!"

There was a small dining room next to the kitchen. When there were not many people, Xia ruofei would usually dine there.

"Okay, please wait a moment. I'll bring the dishes out!" Wu Qiang said.

The dishes had already been prepared in advance and kept warm in the kitchen. Wu Qiang quickly served the dishes.

Xia ruofei was not a person with many rules. When he ate at home, he would let Wu Qiang eat at the table with him. Today was no exception. Wu Qiang was also used to Xia ruofei's approachable style and did not reject too much. After filling a bowl of rice for Xia ruofei and Song Wei, he also filled his own bowl and sat on the other side of the table. He began to eat.

Xia ruofei took a bite of food and a mouthful of rice. As he chewed, he said, "Wu Qiang, it's too hard for you to manage everything here alone. Didn't I tell you last time to help me find a few more people? At least you can hire an Auntie to do the cleaning and cooking!"

Wu Qiang quickly said, "director Xia, these tasks are not much. Moreover, you don't stay in the capital for long. I can do it by myself. There's no need to increase the expenses ..."

“There’s no need to save on this kind of money!” Xia ruofei said, “you’re here to help me take care of the yard. You’re mainly in charge of safety. At most, you’ll be my driver! Leave the other matters to others.”

Xia ruofei wasn’t as extravagant as Tang Yitian’s family to hire a large group of gardeners and chefs. Chefs were also divided into Chinese and Western chefs. However, he didn’t want Wu Qiang to be busy with everything alone. Although it wasn’t too tiring, he couldn’t do it as a boss.

“This ...” Wu Qiang still wanted to persuade Xia ruofei because he felt that there was no need to.

Xia ruofei’s attitude was firm.””Wu Qiang, stop talking! At the very least, he would need to hire two more people to do the cleaning and cooking. I wanted to ask you to recommend two, so that you can cooperate with me. If you don’t do it, I’ll hire them myself!”

“Don’t! President Xia, I’ll go and look around!” Wu Qiang quickly said.

He was indeed loyal to Xia ruofei and had considered this matter with the intention of saving Xia ruofei’s money. However, Xia ruofei would not care about such a small expense. Now that Xia ruofei was so determined, he would definitely be inclined to look for her himself. After all, he still had many poor relatives!

Wu Qiang did not even ask Xia ruofei about the salary as he knew that Xia ruofei would not treat his employees shabbily.

Xia ruofei nodded in satisfaction and said, “I’ll give you a week’s time. I hope that the personnel will be in place before I leave the capital.”

“Yes, President Xia!” Wu Qiang puffed out his chest and said, “I promise to complete the mission!”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “you don’t have to be so serious. This isn’t the Army ... By the way, does your wife have a job?” If not, then let her come over!”

Wu Qiang scratched his head in embarrassment and said, “President Xia, I don’t have a partner yet!”

Wu Qiang had been busy making money to support his family all these years. Where would he have the time to find a partner? His relatives in his hometown had introduced him to a few, but when they heard about his family situation, they didn’t say anything.

Xia ruofei was also a little surprised. Wu Qiang was already in his early thirties. He had thought that Wu Qiang had already married and that his wife was just in his hometown.

This time, it was Xia ruofei’s turn to feel awkward. He said, “Why didn’t you say so earlier! I’ll ask brother Zhao and the others to introduce you to some girls! Such a good person has actually become an older youth, there’s simply no justice!”

Wu Qiang’s dark face turned red as he said embarrassedly, “President Xia, I’m not in a hurry ...”

“It’s decided then!” Xia ruofei said, “since you don’t have a partner, you can look at your relatives or something, as long as you can trust them. Of course, it’s best if they have some cooking skills so that you won’t have to cook in the future.”

Wu Qiang’s heart felt warm as he said, “referee!” President Xia, don’t worry!”

While Xia ruofei and Wu Qiang were chatting, Song Wei felt a little bored. She could not help but take out her phone to scroll through Weibo. She suddenly exclaimed, "Heavens! What was going on? How did I suddenly gain so many fans on Weibo?"

Soon, Song Wei realized that not only did she have more than a thousand fans, but many of them had also sent her private messages.

"Close up! The King's Woman!"

"I really envy you! Are you with my idol?!"

"Actually, I've always liked you in secret. You're so outstanding that my heart wavered and I couldn't extricate myself! Today, I've finally mustered up the courage to ask you this: Can I have President Xia's signature?"

When Song Wei saw this, she had a flash of inspiration and immediately realized something. She quickly opened Xia ruofei's Weibo and after scanning through it, she immediately revealed an awkward smile.

Chapter 1743: Leniency to those who confess (1)

Xia ruofei was chatting with Wu Qiang. He turned to Song Wei and asked, "What's going on?"

Song Wei revealed an awkward smile and said, "I think ... I think it's because we were each other's fans just now ..."

Xia ruofei also took out his phone. After Song Wei's explanation, he realized that anyone could see the people he followed on Weibo.

And now, the only "Vivi" account on the following list was very eye – catching.

Since there were so many bored people online all day long, it was not hard to explain why so many people flocked to the only account that Xia ruofei followed.

Xia ruofei saw the endless notifications and private messages on Song Wei's phone and was a little dumbfounded.

"What do we do?" Xia ruofei asked.

Song Wei replied innocently, "I don't know ... At most, I won't use this account anymore. It's not verified anyway. I don't usually post anything about my personal Weibo. It's not like no one can find out!"

As the daughter of a senior leader, Song Wei was very aware of this. Although she had registered a Weibo account a few years ago, she spent most of her time watching and rarely posted anything herself.

In fact, if Song Wei's historical Weibo had been searched by the public, if there were any traces left behind, they would have been dug out long ago.

Xia ruofei laughed bitterly to himself. Although there was no problem with Song Wei, he could easily cause trouble in his own backyard!

As expected, Xia ruofei had just used WeChat to inform Feng Jing to arrange for a Weibo operator to follow the company's official Weibo, the pharmaceutical factory's official Weibo, and the verified Weibo accounts of some of the company's senior executives. Then, he received a WeChat message from Ling Qingxue.

The content of the WeChat message was very simple, just four words: "You're on Weibo?"

These four simple words sent a chill down Xia ruofei's spine. He smiled bitterly as he informed Wu Qiang and Song Wei. Then, he took his phone and left the backyard to return to his own courtyard.

Then, Xia ruofei gave Ling Qingxue a call.

Ling Qingxue did not throw a tantrum and quickly picked up Xia ruofei's call. She smiled and said, "Xia yingxiong, you reacted faster this time!"

Although Xia ruofei had been away from the three mountains for a long time, he had been in frequent contact with Ling Qingxue through WeChat and phone calls. After the qishang incident, he had been in contact with Ling Qingxue as soon as possible. He had called her at least once a day when he was in Saipan, Australia, and after he returned to Beijing.

However, the Weibo incident was too sudden. Moreover, the other party involved was Song Wei. Xia ruofei was more or less guilty. Although nothing had happened between him and Song Wei, he was not completely clueless about Song Wei's thoughts.

Xia ruofei smiled, "Qingxue!" I need to explain to you about the Weibo incident ..."

"Explain what?" Ling Qingxue pretended to be confused.

"The account that I'm following!" Xia ruofei said honestly, "that's Song Wei's account. "The company helped me apply for a real – Name verified Weibo account for marketing purposes. It was just opened today and the company wanted me to send a Weibo message to inform the netizens. Song Wei and the others happened to be hanging out with me and Song Wei kept saying that she wanted to follow me. I didn't think too much and followed her, but I didn't expect the netizens to overinterpret it ..."

Xia ruofei did not know what he was thinking, but when he explained to Ling Qingxue, he said "Song Wei's group" instead of "Song Wei." Perhaps he subconsciously felt that if Song Wei was alone, it would be easier to cause a misunderstanding with Nannan, even though that was the truth.

By saying that, Ling Qingxue could at least feel that there were a lot of guests here and Song Wei was not alone.

Ling Qingxue chuckled and said, "I'm not thinking too much, why are you in such a hurry to explain?"

Xia ruofei thought to himself, "you didn't think too much. Why would you send me a WeChat message so quickly?" However, he still had this bit of emotional intelligence, so he naturally wouldn't expose him.

"After all, this matter has caused quite a stir on the internet," he said with a smile. "I'm worried that you'll misunderstand!"

Ling Qingxue was silent for a moment, then said, "Ruofei, you're different than before. You're being watched by so many people. You'd better pay attention to your movements from now on ..."

"Yes, yes, yes!" Xia ruofei said, "I was careless this time. I've never used Weibo before! This time, the company mentioned it to me a few times, and I couldn't persuade them otherwise, so I agreed to open it. Who knew that such a big mistake would happen on the first day!"

Then, Xia ruofei asked politely, "Qingxue, what's your Weibo account?"

"Why do you ask?" Ling Qingxue smiled and said, "I don't really use Weibo."

"You have to tell me first!" Xia ruofei said, "don't tell me you don't have a Weibo account!"

Ling Qingxue hesitated for a moment, but still told Xia ruofei her Weibo account.

Xia ruofei memorized the Weibo name and said, "Qingxue, I'm almost done with my business here. I should be back at the three mountains in a week at most."

"Oh ..." Ling Qingxue was a little happy, but she still pretended to be nonchalant and said, "it's time for you to come back and take a look. I've never seen a boss who doesn't do his job properly like you. It's fortunate that your employees can bear with it ..."

Xia ruofei asked, "are you busy?" We're not going to rest for a few days, so let's go overseas for a trip?"

Chapter 1744: Leniency to those who confess (2)

Ling Qingxue's heart skipped a beat. She hesitated and said, "It depends ... I still have a few more important tasks on hand ..."

Ling Qingxue immediately added, "But I should be done with it soon. I'll tell my dad to let me rest for a few days!"

Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue had talked about traveling together a few times. However, Ling Xiaotian had the intention to gradually hand over his work to Ling Qingxue, so he had placed quite a heavy burden on her. Ling Qingxue had not been able to find time.

Although Ling Qingxue didn't say it out loud, she still felt a sense of crisis about the blunder that had happened on Weibo.

Besides, who wouldn't want to stick together when they were in love? Ling Qingxue was just carrying too many things on her back.

Xia ruofei said happily, "sure!" Then I'll wait for you to finish your work! My time is easy to arrange, I can go out at any time!"

Ling Qingxue chuckled and said, "I know you're a Big Boss who doesn't care about anything!" Sigh ... We're both in charge of the same company, but why am I the only one who has to work so hard! No, I'm too jealous of you! Please coax me, or I'll feel too unbalanced ..."

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said with an evil smile, "I'll make it up to you when I come back ..."

Ling Qingxue's pretty face instantly heated up. She lowered her eyes and said, "Your brain is full of unhealthy thoughts! I'm not going to talk to you anymore ..."

Xia ruofei said innocently, "I said that when I return to San Shan, I'll take some time to accompany you. Even if you're not free, I'll just go to the office and watch you handle your work. What are you thinking?"

Xia ruofei then deliberately came to a realization and said in a long voice, "Oh, Yingluo, you ... You can't be ..."

"You're not allowed to say anything!" Ling Qingxue was embarrassed and said, "you bad guy, you did it on purpose! I can't talk to you anymore, my dad is calling me for dinner ..."

After that, Ling Qingxue hung up the phone in a hurry.

The smile on Xia ruofei's face did not fade. He opened the Weibo APP on his phone and used the username "student Ling" that Ling Qingxue had just given him to do a search. When he heard Ling Qingxue mention the Weibo account name, he almost laughed out loud.

After a quick search, Xia ruofei successfully found Ling Qingxue's account. He was speechless when he saw that Ling Qingxue's account was also a verified account. The verified information was "general manager of Ling Ji food and beverage group."

Xia ruofei muttered to himself, "you're still hiding this? Even if you didn't tell me, I could've found it myself, right?"

As he spoke, he pressed the follow button. Then, after a moment of silence, he created a new Weibo post ...

Three mountains.

Ling Qingxue was holding her phone as she sat on the balcony of her house. Actually, she had already eaten. Her expression was not as relaxed as when she was talking to Xia ruofei on the phone.

She revealed a look of confusion and thought to herself, "Do I spend too little time with him ..."

Although Ling Qingxue believed that Xia ruofei did not lie to her, this incident still gave her an alarm. Thinking about it, the two of them had not seen each other much in the past few months. On one hand, Xia ruofei often went out of town, and on the other hand, she was really busy.

They were usually in a hurry to meet each other, and most of the time, they communicated via WeChat or phone.

Although she could feel that Xia ruofei did not give her the cold shoulder, love still needed to be maintained. Phone calls and WeChat messages were far from enough.

Ling Qingxue was thinking if she should talk to her father about hiring a professional manager to manage the company. Just like peach blossom company, Xia ruofei basically let his subordinates do everything, and he himself was relatively free.

Ling Xiaotian and the others from the older generation still had different views. Although Ling's restaurant was already considered a big corporation, in a sense, it was still a family business.

Such family businesses would often encounter a bottleneck after they had developed to a certain scale.

Just as Ling Qingxue was lost in her thoughts, her phone suddenly vibrated.

Ling Qingxue came back to her senses and unlocked her phone. There was a new “tag” on Weibo.

Ling Qingxue opened it and took a look. At first, she was stunned, then her eyes slowly widened. Her face gradually blushed, and the joy in her heart spread.

What she saw was a new Weibo post that Xia ruofei had just posted.

“This is the ‘King’s woman’, okay? I beg the netizens to show mercy, because there aren’t many keyboards left at home ...”

Below the Weibo post, there was a picture of an emoji that was begging for mercy.

Ling Qingxue looked at the Weibo post and laughed after a while. Her beautiful face had already turned red ...

After a short period of silence, Xia ruofei’s Weibo post was flooded with a large number of netizens. Even Ling Qingxue’s Weibo fans began to increase rapidly.

It was just the netizens’ speculation before this. They didn’t expect Xia ruofei to be so cooperative and expose the “King’s woman”. This was solid evidence that he had personally admitted!

“Wow! It was actually the little princess of Ling Ji restaurant! This is a strong Alliance!”

“My goddess! I hate you, President Xia ...”

“President Xia, you’re being naughty! How could she be called the ‘King’s woman’? You’re clearly the ‘Queen’s man’, alright? President Ling is the real overbearing President!”

“Ling Ji F & B’s employees are very happy to see this! Actually, this is no secret in our company! However, it’s a different story if the son – in – Law admits it ...”

“Previous poster, have you forgotten that your account is verified? I’ve decided to help on Weibo during work hours. No need to thank me, my surname is Lei!”

The netizens left their comments happily. Even some media accounts quickly reposted Xia ruofei’s Weibo post. One must know that Xia ruofei was now a very popular person! The information about him was the traffic guarantee.

Xia ruofei’s Weibo post caused the phrase “The King’s Woman” to rise in popularity and quickly became one of the top ten most searched words.

Among the top ten most searched topics, three of them were related to Xia ruofei. This was a Grand occasion that even many a – list celebrities might not have.

Hence, Xia ruofei’s popularity on the internet was evident.

.....

Beijing, liuhai Lane courtyard house.

After posting on Weibo, Xia ruofei put his phone aside and started to make tea. He did not care about the commotion on the internet.

In fact, Xia ruofei did not hesitate much before he posted this.

His relationship with Ling Qingxue wasn't a secret in his circle of friends, and with his current popularity, the media would probably dig up their relationship very soon after he returned to San Shan.

Rather than being exposed passively, it was better to take the initiative and be more straightforward.

He was supposed to give Ling Qingxue this title, so Xia ruofei did not hesitate about it.

What he didn't know was that after this Weibo post was posted, Feng Jing, who had been following Xia ruofei's Weibo situation, sighed quietly and looked a little lonely.

Xia ruofei heard footsteps behind him but he did not turn around. He could tell that it was Song Wei.

"Did I cause you trouble?" Song Wei walked to Xia ruofei and asked.

Xia ruofei laughed and replied, "no!" No! I took the initiative to explain to Qingxue, and then ..."

Xia ruofei picked up his phone and showed Song Wei the Weibo post he had just posted. "I've already clarified the matter. Qingxue won't think too much about it. You can use your account as usual. I don't think anyone will disturb you anymore."

Song Wei's face turned pale. She forced a smile and said, "Oh! It's good that you're okay ... That ... Ruofei, I came to tell you that I'm going back to school!"

"If you don't have classes tomorrow, you can just stay here! There are many rooms here anyway." Xia ruofei said.

"I think I'd better go back!" Song Wei said. Otherwise, my dormitory mates will be worried ..."

"Then I'll get Wu Qiang to send you off!" Xia ruofei said, "by the way, I'll be back at the three mountains in about a week. You can come back in three or four days! Let's cultivate together again. "

"Mm! I'll try my best to find time!" Song Wei wasn't in high spirits. She said, "I'll take my leave then ..."

Xia ruofei watched as Song Wei's figure disappeared behind the moon gate. He muttered to himself, "I'm sorry! I'm not the right person for you ...

Chapter 1745: Liquid gold (1)

After Song Wei left, Xia ruofei was in low spirits.

On the one hand, he wanted to show Ling Qingxue his attitude by posting this on Weibo. On the other hand, he did it on purpose. He hoped that Song Wei would be able to leave this world as soon as possible.

It turned out that it was effective, but Xia ruofei could not be happy.

Wu Qiang drove Song Wei back to school. Xia ruofei was the only one in the huge courtyard house and it was very quiet. He sat quietly in the yard, drinking tea and smoking. In a short while, there were more than a dozen cigarette butts left in the ashtray on the stone table.

In the end, Xia ruofei heaved a long sigh of relief, collected his thoughts, and returned to his room.

Thinking too much about many things would only add to his troubles, so Xia ruofei decided not to think about it anymore. He had to go and deal with the barrel of noble rot wine.

After locking the doors and windows and drawing the curtains, Xia ruofei summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm and entered the space with a thought.

The noble decay wine had already been stirred twice. According to Old West's instructions, it had to be stirred at least ten times before the yeast and the wine were completely mixed. Then, it had to be clarified, and the upper layer of the wine was poured into another oak barrel.

Noble rot wine was different from ordinary Semillon. It could be ripened in an oak barrel, while white Semillon wine was ripened in a bottle.

As the interval between each stirring was at best three to four days, Xia ruofei made full use of the time array flag and the time acceleration effect of the Archean realm. He frequently shuttled between the mountain sea realm and the Archean realm to stir the noble decay wine.

After stirring it 10 times, Xia ruofei placed the wooden barrel back into the time formation. He then waited for a while in the mountain sea realm. In fact, under the 2000 times time acceleration, the wooden barrel had already been in the time formation for several days.

After returning to the Archean realm, Xia ruofei removed the time array flags and opened the wooden barrel to take a look. He realized that the wine had completely cleared up. The impurities had all sunk to the bottom of the barrel, and the top layer was a golden color, like pure liquid gold.

In fact, the expensive rotten wine was very popular and difficult to produce, so its price was naturally high. In addition to its golden color and thick texture, it was indeed known as "liquid gold" by wine lovers.

Xia ruofei resisted the urge to taste it. After all, this expensive rotten wine was very precious and there wasn't much of it. It wasn't in its best state as it hadn't gone through the process of ripening.

Due to its high sugar content, the noble rot wine had a strong aging potential. Some even needed more than 10 years to reach its drinkable period, and the good quality noble rot wine could even have a storage potential of more than half a century.

Therefore, drinking it at this time was undoubtedly a waste of God's gift.

If it was in the outside world, Xia ruofei would need to transfer the wine in the upper layer to a new oak barrel and then use the magical time to give this barrel of noble rot wine a better taste.

In the spirit map space, everything became very simple.

With a thought, Xia ruofei sucked out all the wine in the barrel. It floated in the air and formed a Golden Ball that looked like Amber.

With Xia ruofei's current level of control over the spatial energy, his control was rather precise. Not a single drop of the noble rot wine was left in the oak barrel, and not a single trace of the impurities at the bottom were sucked up.

Next, Xia ruofei used the new ability he had obtained after the space upgrade to create a small space and imprisoned the precious noble rot wine in this small space.

He used the spatial spirit pool's water to thoroughly wash the barrel three times, then used his true Qi to evaporate all the water.

Then, Xia ruofei transferred the precious rot wine from the temporary space into the oak barrel and sealed it.

Xia ruofei had no other choice. He had only brought back two oak barrels. The one that contained the Semillon was empty, but if there were no new barrels, the one that contained the expensive rot wine would be more suitable.

After all, no matter how clean it was, it was impossible to avoid traces of residue.

If the oak barrel used to store Semillon was used, even a very small amount of residue would cause a change in the taste of the expensive rotten wine. However, the oak barrel used to store the expensive rotten wine naturally did not have such a problem.

Now, the oak barrel was filled with the brewed noble rot wine. The only thing he lacked was time.

Time was also an easy problem for Xia ruofei, who had the spirit map space and the time array flag.

Xia ruofei was very confident in his precious rotten wine. He believed that even if it ripened for ten, twenty, or even fifty years, it would not be a problem. It would only make the body more full and the taste more mellow.

Hence, Xia ruofei immediately set up time array flags around the barrel of precious rotten wine.

He was prepared to come back a few days later to remove the formation and waste seven or eight days. Under the time flow of more than 2000 times, it would be equivalent to 40 to 50 years.

Xia ruofei believed that he would get a barrel of the world's best expensive sweet wine.

After that, Xia ruofei walked around the medium.

Xia Qing was still busy expanding the herb garden, taking care of the tea trees, Dendrobium candida, Cordyceps, and other precious crops. Before Xia ruofei refined the puppet, Xia Qing would definitely continue to be busy. As the space expanded, Xia Qing was the only spiritual puppet, and there would be endless things to do.

Chapter 1746: Liquid gold (2)

Of course, Xia ruofei had already made a list of the materials needed to make the puppet and asked Feng Jing to use the company's power to purchase the materials for him. They could be purchased through normal channels. Although some of them were extremely expensive, at least they were not precious materials that could not be found in the secular world.

As long as Xia ruofei's cultivation improved, especially in the area of spiritual power, he would have the chance to make a puppet.

Other than being busy with these daily tasks, Xia Qing also had a new task, which was to cultivate oak trees in the Archean realm. When they grew to a certain size, she would transplant them into the mountain and sea realm.

Xia ruofei was planning to plant an Oak Forest in the mountain sea realm. Tomorrow, he would be replacing his two wineries with new oak barrels. He would need a lot of wood!

Other than Xia Qing, the White realm Fox was also comprehending the spatial rules day and night.

Xia ruofei did not disturb them. After walking around the medium, he left in a flash and returned to his room outside.

After he went to the bathroom to take a shower, he went to bed early and went to bed. In the afternoon, he cultivated with Song Wei in the time formation. It was equivalent to cultivating for many days in a row. Therefore, in line with the principle of relaxation, he did not cultivate the great Dao Arts before going to bed.

The next day, Xia ruofei had nothing to do so he strolled to the guguo temple and tried some of the local snacks. Then, he walked to Houhai and Shichahai. After returning to the courtyard house, he went to the basement to look for a blockbuster movie. It took him more than two hours to watch it.

Of course, Xia ruofei's carefreeness only lasted for one day.

At night, he received a call from Zhao Yongjun, "Ruofei, do you have time tomorrow?"

"I'm free!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "but ... Brother Zhao, can't you let me rest for a few more days?"

"I'm fine with that!" Zhao Yongjun laughed. But tomorrow, we will bring the designers to the site to survey and measure, and communicate our design requirements. Didn't you say that you'd be there when the people from the design company arrive?"

Hearing this, Xia ruofei said, "sure!" Then I'd better go ..."

"You're willing to do this. We didn't force you!" Zhao Yongjun joked.

"Yes, yes, yes, I volunteered!" Xia ruofei said helplessly.

This plot of land completely covered the nine rotations heaven and earth formation. Once it was set up, it would be very helpful for cultivation. Hence, Xia ruofei had to state his specific needs in terms of design, especially for the formation eye. He had to build a house.

Of course, Xia ruofei could choose to come up with his own opinions after the design draft was out. However, that would be too troublesome. He might as well make a trip down personally to clarify the requirements.

"Alright, let's meet at little Tang town at nine o'clock tomorrow morning!" Zhao Yongjun said.

"No problem, I'll be there on time." Xia ruofei agreed.

.....

The next morning, Xia ruofei got into Wu Qiang's Land Rover and went straight to little Tang town.

The two of them arrived at the plot of land at around 8:40 pm. Xia ruofei had especially arrived a little earlier. After he got out of the car, he walked all the way to the lakeside and personally checked it out.

Xia ruofei was very satisfied with the results. In just over a day, under the operation of the formation, the land had completely changed. Not only was the yin Qi swept away, but the entire atmosphere had also changed, making people feel very comfortable.

Xia ruofei also noticed that the hot spring resort, which was previously contaminated with Yin Qi, had now been swept away. The atmosphere was even better than before. It could be considered that they had benefited from this place.

In fact, although the influence of those rumors still existed, the hot spring resort's business had obviously picked up in the past two days. It was conceivable that when the rumors were dispelled, the business there would be very prosperous.

Xia ruofei even realized that there was a small amount of spiritual Qi within the formation. Although it was a far cry from the spiritual Qi in the spirit map, it was a miracle in the outside world, especially in such a harsh cultivation environment.

Especially around the eye of the array, the concentration of spiritual energy could even allow cultivators to break free from the restrictions of cultivating at midnight and dawn. Of course, if a higher level cultivator cultivated here, this little bit of spiritual energy would be quickly exhausted.

In other words, this formation still needed a certain amount of time to accumulate.

In fact, even Wu Qiang could feel the difference. He was standing beside Xia ruofei and was very close to the array core.

Wu Qiang couldn't help but say, "director Xia, this piece of land seems to have changed!" I feel so refreshed standing here, and my mind seems to have cleared up a lot. "

Wu Qiang had experienced the night when the yin formation was activated. Before he came to little Tang town today, he was still a little uneasy. Although the aura of the yin formation was invisible to the naked eye, the uncomfortable feeling was real.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "this is just the beginning!" It would be better in the future! Wu Qiang, when the club is built, I'll get them to give you a membership card. You can come over to relax when you're free!"

"No need, chief Xia!" Wu Qiang quickly waved his hand and said. I ... I don't know how to enjoy this!"

Xia ruofei laughed. "You're enjoying it. You don't need to learn!"

Wu Qiang still tried his best to decline. Xia ruofei smiled and did not say anything. Anyway, there was still a long time before the club was open. If he really wanted to force the membership card to Wu Qiang, he believed that Wu Qiang would not dare to refuse.

Xia ruofei had always been very generous to the people around him.

The two of them chatted for a while before they saw a light yellow Toyota Coaster slowly driving toward them.

“They’re here! Let’s go!” Xia ruofei said.

He brought Wu Qiang along and walked towards the main road. When the two of them reached the intersection, the car slowly came to a stop.

The electric door slowly opened and Zhao Yongjun was the first to jump out. He laughed and said, “RUO Fei, you’re early enough!”

“In case you guys criticize me for being lazy!” Xia ruofei chuckled and said, “brother Zhao, you didn’t bring 20 to 30 people here, did you? They’re actually using such a big car ...”

“Hehe! We’re all here, and a few people from the design company came as well. There’s also some equipment, so I simply borrowed a bigger car.” Zhao Yongjun said.

At this time, Song Rui, Liu Jian, Xu Zixuan, Hou Liang, and Wei Jun also got out of the car. Xia ruofei couldn’t help but roll his eyes. These guys were really idle! All of them were here. Didn’t they have other things to do?

His bad friends greeted Xia ruofei one after another. Song Rui’s eyes still had a trace of fear in them. It was really unbearable to recall what happened to Qianqian that night!

Then, the people from the design company also got out of the car. Xia ruofei finally understood why Zhao Yongjun had used coaster. There were more than ten people from Qingqing design company. Some of them were in work clothes and were even unloading equipment from the car.

One of them, a middle – aged man in his early forties with a slicked – back hairstyle, got out of the car and walked straight towards Xia ruofei and the rest.

Zhao Yongjun smiled and introduced, “ruofei, let me introduce you. This is the founder of the future design company, Lu Yifan, CEO Lu.” Yifan, this is ...”

“There’s no need to introduce you, Mr. Soldier.” Lu Yifan laughed. “There aren’t many people in China who don’t know about President Xia!”

Zhao Yongjun was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, “I almost forgot, ruofei is a big star now!”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but smile bitterly. At the same time, he found it interesting that Lu Yifan addressed Zhao Yongjun as “master Jun”. This form of address was rather pungent and didn’t seem like something that people in the rich and powerful circles would call.

“Yifan, I still have to introduce you. RUO Fei is not only an important partner and major shareholder in our project, but he’s also Xiao Rui’s and my best friend!” We’ll also take RUO Fei’s opinion as the main point in the entire project’s design. You two can communicate well when the time comes!”

Chapter 1747: Xia ruofei’s request (1)

When Lu Yifan heard this, his eyes revealed a strange look. Zhao Yongjun had clearly not told him about this beforehand.

After a moment of shock, Lu Yifan immediately reached out his hand to Xia ruofei and said with a smile, “President Xia, I’ll be looking forward to your guidance in our future cooperation!”

Xia ruofei smiled and shook Lu Yifan’s hand. “I wouldn’t dare to give you any advice, but CEO Lu is the professional! As long as CEO Lu doesn’t find me annoying!”

Lu Yifan quickly replied, “I wouldn’t dare!” Our customer’s satisfaction is our main aim!”

Zhao Yongjun said from the side, “ruofei, Yifan’s an old friend of mine, and he’s also one of the top designers in the industry. He was once nominated for the Liang Sicheng award!” His architectural firm is one of the best in the country!”

“Sir,” Lu Yifan replied humbly, “I was just a sidekick that time. I’m still far from winning the award ...”

Zhao Yongjun laughed, “you have to be qualified to be a runner!” How many architects are there in the country? The fact that you were able to get into the final ten nomination list is a Testament to your abilities!”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but be secretly surprised. Even if he was ignorant and ill – informed, he knew that the Liang Sicheng award was the highest award in Chinese architectural design. Even if he didn’t win the final award, he must be very capable to be able to make it into the top ten.

Moreover, it was said that to receive the title of this award, not only did one have to have outstanding work and have sufficient qualifications, but one also had to win some international awards. This meant that Lu Yifan had won international awards before, but these awards were not as prestigious as the Liang Sicheng award, so Zhao Yongjun didn’t mention it.

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but size Lu Yifan up. He looked more like a businessman than a designer.

Xia ruofei said to himself, “you really can’t judge a book by its cover!”

“CEO Lu, being too humble is being too proud!” Xia ruofei said half – jokingly, “you’re not allowed to hold back on this project! Help us with the design!”

“Of course!” Lu Yifan replied. I wouldn’t dare to not put in any effort for the matter of the general even if you lend me a few guts! President Xia, don’t worry! I’ve already placed this case as my top priority!”

“Hahaha! Then we’ll have to thank you in advance, CEO Lu!” Xia ruofei said happily.

While everyone was exchanging pleasantries, song Rui seemed to be a little uneasy and kept looking into the distance.

Seeing this, Xia ruofei couldn't help but ask, ""Song Rui, what's the situation?"

"I'm waiting for Zhuo Yiyi!" Song Rui replied. Why aren't they here yet?"

"Zhuo Yiyi? What is she doing here?" Xia ruofei asked curiously.

Song Rui said unhappily, "you brat, do you forget things?" Didn't you personally hire her as a consultant?"

Xia ruofei patted his head and smiled. ""I've been so busy that I'm confused. "

The last time they had a gathering in the courtyard house, Zhuo Yiyi had mentioned that the rent was too expensive and that she was looking for someone to share it with. At that time, Xia ruofei was at his lowest and joked that it was not a bad idea to co – Rent with someone of the opposite sex. He did not expect that Zhuo Yiyi would really be tempted.

Song Rui was about to go crazy. Xia ruofei had to rack his brains to make up for it. In the end, he thought of a way to hire Zhuo Yiyi as their consultant. She was mainly in charge of checking on the antique buildings and cultural relics in the design plan to prevent the situation from becoming a joke.

At that time, Xia ruofei had just wanted to find an excuse to increase Zhuo Yiyi's income so that she would not have to find someone to share the apartment with. Hence, he had quickly forgotten about it.

Xia ruofei looked at song Rui and said, ""You deserve to be single for life! Since you've already called her here, why didn't you pick her up this morning? You're really something to let a girl travel such a long distance alone!"

Song Rui complained, "you really think I'm a noob!" You don't even know this? Zhuo Yiyi said that her unit was having a team building event near little Tang town yesterday, so she stayed here last night. She said that she could come over by herself in the morning!"

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said, "Even if she lives in the hot spring Villa next door, we still have to pick her up! This was a matter of attitude! Forget it, forget it, I'm going to be infuriated to death by talking to you, you blockhead ..."

Song Rui scratched his head and asked weakly, ""Should I contact her now and pick her up? Can I borrow your car?"

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Zhuo Yiyi must be on her way. She might even be here soon. Why are you asking to pick her up at this time?" Wouldn't that be even more insincere?"

"Damn ... This won't do, that won't do ..." Song Rui didn't know what to do.

Xia ruofei said unhappily, "you can wait here slowly!" When Zhuo Yiyi comes, you have to put in a good word for her. But it's also very likely that she's not angry at all, and that she's just delayed by some matters ..."

Speaking of which, with Zhuo Yiyi's carefree personality, the latter was more likely.

After Xia ruofei finished speaking, he didn't pay any more attention to Song Rui. He quickened his pace and caught up with Zhao Yongjun, Lu Yifan, and the others. Liu Jian, Xu Zixuan, and the others also patted Song Rui's shoulder and quickly followed.

Song Rui was left alone, looking into the distance.

The staff that Lu Yifan had brought with him had already spread out with the instruments. They would conduct a precise survey of the entire plot of land. This data would be stored in their professional computers. Then, Lu Yifan would gradually form a design plan based on the shape of the entire plot of land, the height of the terrain, the orientation, and many other factors.

Chapter 1748: Xia ruofei's request (2)

Of course, before designing the overall plan, Lu Yifan still needed to have in – depth communication with the customer, mainly Xia ruofei. Only by fully understanding the customer's needs and preferences would he be able to achieve twice the result with half the effort when designing.

Otherwise, the design would not be to the customer's liking and would be faced with endless revisions. Those who had done design before knew that sometimes, revisions were even more torturous than redone the design, especially if it was revised a few times. The feeling was simply sour.

Lu Yifan didn't need to worry about the specific surveying work. He walked side by side with Zhao Yongjun and looked around with great interest.

Lu Yifan laughed and said, "Sir, you guys have really picked up a treasure!" I really don't understand why second young master Liu transferred this land to you at such a low price before he even heated it up. Is it because of those boring rumors? How could this place be as gloomy as the rumors said? It's clearly a treasured land with good feng shui!"

As an architect, especially one from Huaxia, the metaphysics of Feng Shui was also a compulsory course for Lu Yifan. Although he couldn't be compared to the other fengshui experts, he at least knew a little about it.

Zhao Yongjun turned to look at Xia ruofei and chuckled, "How are we supposed to know what the young master is thinking? Since he won the bid and doesn't want it, we'll just take it!"

Zhao Yongjun was well aware of the cause and effect, but he naturally wouldn't tell Lu Yifan that much.

"Sir," Lu Yifan sighed. "You're taking advantage of me!"

Zhao Yongjun heard this and couldn't help but laugh.

The group of people chatted as they walked. Soon, they arrived at the lake. Lu Yifan asked, "Director Xia, do you have any requirements for the overall planning of this land? The more detailed, the better. This way, when we consider the design plan, we can have a target in mind. "

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "In short, we're going to build a Leisure Club, so the design just has to follow this theme. It'd be best if we could have more diversity, such as having both Eastern and Western elements, and also combining them together so that people wouldn't feel out of place ..."

Lu Yifan nodded. "No problem. I'll take it into consideration when I design it."

Xia ruofei continued, "I'll let brother Zhao and the others discuss with you the specific function requirements!" I only have a slightly more specific request, and that is, in this area, from here ... About the location of the Crooked Tree in front, this circle is about 300 square meters. I hope to design a small independent villa ..."

Xia ruofei said as he walked to the eye of the array. He lifted his foot and stepped on it a few times before saying, "We need to arrange a big room for this position, with a large floor – to – Ceiling glass facing the lake, open a glass door, extend from here to the lakeside, and make a terrace ... That's roughly it."

Xia ruofei's request was very specific, so Lu Yifan immediately jotted it down in his notebook. He also called for the staff to do a precise survey of the place and mark the key points that Xia ruofei had just pointed out.

This request wasn't difficult for a designer. After all, they hadn't started designing yet. It was like a piece of white paper. It wasn't difficult for the customer to draw a specific pattern on a certain position on the paper.

"Alright, I'll remember it." Lu Yifan asked, "Mr. Xia, do you have any other requests?"

Xia ruofei said, "that's all for now. I have a new idea. I'll contact you as soon as possible."

In fact, the layout of the entire plot of land had to fit the aura of the nine turns universe formation. However, Xia ruofei could not design for Lu Yifan, so he could only wait for their design plan to come out and then make adjustments according to the specific plan.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei had already understood this natural formation. Besides, the layout of the building was only a supplementary function. When the time came, he just had to make some adjustments to the parts that were out of line and the other parts of the design. It would not be difficult to make it fit the aura.

"No problem! You can contact me anytime, President Xia!" Lu Yifan said.

Then, he took out a business card and handed it to Xia ruofei. This beige business card had Lu Yifan's name written on it, followed by his phone number, WeChat QR code, and other contact information. There was no title. It was obvious that this was Lu Yifan's personal contact information. He must have had another set of business cards at work.

Xia ruofei also gave his business card to Lu Yifan, and then the group walked in another direction.

In the end, song Rui's turn came to Zhuo Yiyi. This lady really didn't mind that song Rui didn't pick her up. The reason she was late was purely because ... She had overslept. When they met, she kept apologizing to song Rui.

Song Rui also heaved a sigh of relief.

Actually, Zhuo Yiyi did not have much work to do today. She was mainly here to check on the antique architecture and the interior design after the design proposal was out to prevent common mistakes. She had not started on the design yet, so naturally, she did not have much work to do.

However, song Rui wanted to see Zhuo Yiyi, and when Zhuo Yiyi heard that the architectural design company was coming over to look at the venue today, she immediately took the initiative to come over and take a look at Yingluo. She was already getting paid by the club, so she felt bad if she just took the money without doing anything.

When song Rui appeared in front of Xia ruofei and the others with Zhuo Yiyi, Xia ruofei also introduced Zhuo Yiyi to Lu Yifan. He also told Lu Yifan that in the future, Zhuo Yiyi would be in charge of anything related to ancient architecture, ancient decorations, and cultural relics.

Everyone naturally exchanged pleasantries again.

After the staff completed the survey work, the group quickly got into the car and left the place. It was still a wasteland with no entertainment. No one would stay here for long if there was nothing to do.

However, they didn't go straight back to the city. Instead, they went to the nearby hot spring resort to soak in the hot spring for a while, then had lunch at the resort before returning to the capital.

On the way back, Zhao Yongjun pulled Xia ruofei and Wu Qiang into the coaster. The Land Rover that Xia ruofei drove was naturally lent to song Rui so that he could send Zhuo Yiyi home.

The brothers were trying their best to create opportunities for song Rui, but song Rui himself was too weak.

After sending Lu Yifan and the others back to the architectural design office, the Toyota Coaster drove toward liuhai Lane.

The group of people arrived at Xia ruofei's courtyard house. Xu Zixuan arranged for a familiar private restaurant to send over a table of food and wine. Xia ruofei once again felt that there were too few staff in the courtyard house. He couldn't help but urge Wu Qiang to quickly confirm the recruitment.

Zhao Yongjun sent Liu Jian and the rest to the entertainment room in the basement. He and Xia ruofei were making tea under the grape trellis in the yard.

Zhao Yongjun took a sip of the tea that Xia ruofei had made and couldn't help but exclaim, "Your tea leaves are still the best!"

"Brother Zhao, that's a little guilty!" Xia ruofei laughed. "I gave you a lot of tea leaves! It's the same as the one I'm drinking!"

"That means your tea – making skills are good!" Zhao Yongjun laughed and rounded up his words, "ruofei, I really envy you! Every day, I have good tea, good wine, good cigarettes to drink, and live in such a big courtyard ... Compared to you, I really have a hard life!"

"A man's heart is not content," Xia ruofei said lazily. "A snake that tries to swallow an elephant when it's not satisfied ... When you can be as indifferent to fame and fortune as me, you can also get rid of the fate of hard work!"

"Go! "You're a big star now, and you're still indifferent to fame and fortune ..." Zhao Yongjun said, "you're just standing there and talking!"

Xia ruofei laughed and asked seriously, ""By the way, brother Zhao, how are you going to deal with the rumors?"

"You don't say," Zhao Yongjun said, "that kid Hou Liang came up with a pretty good idea ..."

Chapter 1749: New wine revealed (1)

"Oh?" Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and asked, "what's his idea?"

Zhao Yongjun laughed and said, "aren't reality shows very popular now?" "Furthermore, there are many reality shows this year that are returning to rural life. That kid Hou Liang has a lot of connections at the SARFT, so he wants to bring in such a show. It just so happens that xiangnan TV's life I'm looking forward to is preparing to shoot the second season in a few months, so Hou Liang is confident that he can pull them in."

Zhao Yongjun took a sip of tea to moisten his throat and continued, ""It's not realistic for us to complete all the construction in a few months, but it's not a problem for us to rush the work and meet the shooting needs of the festival team. After all, the show only needs a mushroom house and a work room. We can also open up some vegetable fields and ponds. It won't be long."

Xia ruofei had heard of this show before. It was actually a group of celebrities living in a house they called the mushroom house and experiencing village life together. There were a few regular guests and different guests would be invited every episode.

Xia ruofei had watched one or two episodes in his spare time and found them interesting.

In fact, the idea of this show was not unusual, but the pace of city life was getting faster and faster, and people were getting more and more stressed. This kind of show just happened to meet the inner aspirations of many people. The selling point was that they could relax and empty their minds.

Xia ruofei nodded. "Yes, this show is quite popular and has a good demonstration effect. Even the celebrities are staying here overnight. Those so – called haunted rumors are naturally dispelled on their own!"

"Yeah!" Zhao Yongjun nodded. "That's why I said that this kid Hou Liang's idea is quite reliable!"

Xia ruofei lowered his head and thought for a while before saying, ""Big brother Zhao, I still feel that something is not right ..."

"What's wrong?" Zhao Yongjun asked curiously.

"Think about it ... Our Conference Center is targeted at the upper class, and we have a membership system." Xia ruofei said, "it's true that bringing in a reality show can spread the news to us and it's not difficult to crush the rumors. But you didn't target the audience, right? It didn't matter whether the vast audience believed these rumors or not! The important thing is our potential customers ..."

Zhao Yongjun pursed his lips and said, "now that you put it that way ... It does seem like it!"

Xia ruofei continued, "there's another point. Reality shows like this have a strong advertising effect. However, for a club like ours that emphasizes privacy, will it have the opposite effect?" Think about it, if someone comes to visit the show's filming location every few days ..."

Zhao Yongjun smiled. "That's not a problem. After our club officially opens, the security will definitely be very good. Protecting the members' privacy is our top priority! You won't be able to enter without a membership card. "

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "if that's the case ... Then let's make it a backup plan!" After all, a few months is too long. We have to find a solution to the problem in the short term. "

Zhao Yongjun thought for a while. "Ruofei, why don't we find a water Army? we have the confidence anyway. We're not lying through our teeth."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "it's a bad idea to find a water Army, brother Zhao!" It's impossible not to leave any traces. If we're targeted by someone with ill intentions, it'll be more or less troublesome ..."

After Xia ruofei finished, he pondered for a while and said, ""How about this? We'll hold a groundbreaking ceremony in the next few days!"

Zhao Yongjun's eyes lit up, "that's a good idea!" When the time comes, we'll invite more famous guests ..."

Xia ruofei added, "it's best to invite some people from the field of metaphysics and find some media to report about it!"

Zhao Yongjun laughed, "not bad, not bad!" It was better to find the proper media than the Internet Water Army! However, the media might not be able to cover anything related to metaphysics ..."

"That doesn't matter!" Xia ruofei said, "our potential customers should be the guests we invited that day! As long as an authoritative figure in the field of metaphysics vouched for us, we can dispel everyone's doubts! As for the media reports, they were just in passing! If we want to completely eliminate these rumors, we can just activate Hou Liang's backup plan. "

Zhao Yongjun thought for a while, then slapped his thigh and said, ""Alright! It's decided! I'll look for a few brothers to discuss this later! Assign the specific tasks for the groundbreaking ceremony!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "let's hurry up with this!" I've been out for a little too long this time. It's about time I return to the three mountains!"

"What's wrong?" Zhao Yongjun asked with a smile. Does sister – in – Law have any objections?"

"No, I didn't!" Xia ruofei said, "but my company is still in the three mountains! Besides, we're planning to move the company's headquarters to the city, so there are a lot of things to do. I can't stay in Beijing all the time. "

Zhao Yongjun laughed, "you're so stubborn!."

Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "I'm not song Rui!" That kid looks like a wife – slave, so even if he's with Zhuo Yiyi in the future, he'll definitely be under her thumb!"

Zhao Yongjun couldn't help but laugh.

"By the way, should we wait for Xiao Rui to come back for dinner?" he asked.

Chapter 1750: New wine revealed (2)

"I have to wait!" Xia ruofei replied without hesitation, "I don't think he can invite Zhuo Yiyi to lunch! This kid must have sent them there and then returned dejectedly!"

Zhao Yongjun blinked and said, "I agree!"

Xia ruofei's guess was right. When it was almost noon, song Rui drove Xia ruofei's Land Rover to the courtyard house. His plan to have lunch with Zhuo Yiyi had failed.

The brothers sat in a circle in the dining room in the backyard, and the table was filled with dishes ordered directly from a nearby private restaurant.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "everyone, let's eat first!" I'll go get two bottles of wine!"

"Oh?" Zhao Yongjun's eyes lit up. "Ruofei, do you have any good wine?"

Zhao Yongjun could not forget about Xia ruofei's collection of Drunken Eight Immortals.

Xia ruofei smiled mysteriously. "You guys can try it later. I don't have the final say on whether it's good wine or not!"

The more he said this, the more Zhao Yongjun, who loved wine as much as his life, felt his heart itch. He couldn't wait to say, "Hurry up and go!"

Xia ruofei walked back to the courtyard in the middle. He did not go to the wine cellar in the basement. Instead, he went into his bedroom and took out two bottles of wine from the spirit map space.

What he took out wasn't the expensive rotten wine, but the expensive rotten sweet wine. Even if time flowed more than 2000 times faster, it would take at least seven to eight days to ripen. Taking it out now was undoubtedly a waste of God's gift.

Hence, Xia ruofei chose his newly brewed Semillon.

The time for Semillon to ripen was relatively short, and it was in the spirit map space where the spirit Qi was rich. Taking into account the time flow rate of thirty times, it would take one to two months to ripen. In addition, it was already in a ready bottle, so it could be taken directly.

Of course, if it could be ripened for a few more months, the taste might be even better.

However, Xia ruofei was not reluctant to share two bottles with his brothers in advance.

Xia ruofei held a bottle of Semillon in each hand and quickly walked back to the backyard.

Zhao Yongjun looked at the bottle in Xia ruofei's hand and said disappointedly, "It's wine ..."

He preferred white wine, especially high – Concentration white wine, but wine was not strong enough for him.

Xia ruofei smiled. "Brother Zhao, if you like to drink white wine, I still have a few bottles of good Drunken Eight Immortals in my wine cellar. Why don't I get Wu Qiang to bring them over?"

Wu Qiang immediately stood up and looked at Zhao Yongjun.

As long as Zhao Yongjun agreed, he would definitely go to the wine cellar without hesitation.

Zhao Yongjun subconsciously swallowed his saliva when he heard Xia ruofei mention the Eight Immortals of wine. He was about to nod in agreement when he saw Xia ruofei's half-smile and suddenly had an idea.

"No need!" He quickly said. "No need! I think it's good to drink white wine occasionally!"

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "okay!" Wu Qiang, open the wine!"

Wu Qiang quickly took the bottle of wine from Xia ruofei's hand and went to the side to open the bottle.

Zhao Yongjun laughed and said, "little guy, you want to trick me?" No way! RUO Fei, your white wine is also not simple, right?"

Xia ruofei said innocently, "it's just like that!" I only prepared white wine for you because I saw that you seemed a little disappointed!"

"I don't believe it!" Zhao Yongjun said, pouting.

Just as Zhao Yongjun finished speaking, Wu Qiang had already opened a bottle of Semillon and poured it into a special kettle.

"Wuqiang!" Zhao Yongjun said. Come, come, come, quickly pour everyone some wine!"

"Yes!" Wu Qiang replied.

Soon, everyone's glass was filled with half a glass of Semillon white wine. Zhao Yongjun couldn't wait to gently shake the glass, and then put it to his nose and took a deep breath.

"This fragrance is a little unique!" Zhao Yongjun mumbled to himself, "ruofei, is this from your winery in Australia?"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "I guess so." It's just a limited edition, and there's only one bucket in total! Everyone, have a taste! Wu Qiang, don't just stand there! Pour yourself too ..."

"I don't drink, chief Xia!" Wu Qiang laughed. I might even have to send everyone off later!"

"Nonsense!" Xia ruofei said, "which soldier doesn't drink? Pour, pour! What's a little wine to be afraid of? We'll get a designated driver for them later, or they can just stay here!"

"Alright then!" Wu Qiang could only pour himself a small half cup.

Zhao Yongjun couldn't help but take a small sip.

Zhao Yongjun closed his eyes slightly. He didn't swallow the wine directly. Instead, he let the wine stay in his mouth and carefully savored the rich and layered taste of this Semillon.

After a long while, Zhao Yongjun opened his eyes and revealed a stunned expression.””Ruofei, this wine is not bad! I’ve drunk the saimeirong wine you had in the past, and this bottle of wine is much better than the ones you had before! And the taste was richer and more mellow! This is the best wine!”

Xia ruofei smiled and said,”the winery in Australia has improved the variety of grapes. This barrel was specially brewed for me. The taste might be more unique!” Big brother Zhao, I’m not bad in your eyes, am I?”

“What are you saying? If this wine can’t even enter my eyes, then how high must my standards be!” Zhao Yongjun said,”ruofei, I realized that there are many benefits to hanging out with you. Let’s not talk about other things, just eating and drinking is a top quality enjoyment!”

Song Rui and the others also felt the same way and agreed.

Song Rui, who didn’t invite a beauty, was a little depressed and drank the wine in one gulp. This made Zhao Yongjun’s heart ache and he scolded him for wasting such a good gift. Such a good wine should naturally be tasted slowly. The way song Rui drank it was no different from a cow chewing on a peony.

Xia ruofei slowly savored the wine. To be honest, this Semillon was the highest quality bottle he had ever drunk. However, the bottle was not fully ripened yet. He could imagine that the taste of the Semillon would be even more mature after it was fully ripened.

And this was just a normal Semillon. Xia ruofei was more looking forward to the barrel of expensive rotten wine. That was a good wine that could be called liquid gold!

However, even with the flow of time of more than 2000 years, it would take at least seven to eight days to ripen in the oak barrel. By then, Xia ruofei would have returned to the three mountains, and these brothers in front of him would not be able to enjoy the food for the time being.

If Xia ruofei had not finished the barrel of expensive rotten wine when he came to the capital next time, they might be able to have a few more sips.

Everyone was full of praise for the Semillon that Xia ruofei had brought out. The white wine’s alcohol content was not high, and as everyone drank and chatted, the two bottles were quickly finished.

Zhao Yongjun urged Xia ruofei to take out a few more bottles. Xia ruofei said,””There’s nothing else! Just these two bottles ...”

“RUO Fei, don’t try to fool me!” Zhao Yongjun said,”you just said you had a bucket! How did it become two bottles? This doesn’t make sense!”

“Did I say one bucket?” Xia ruofei asked.

Zhao Yongjun, song Rui, and the others said in unison,””I did! We all heard it ...”

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said,””Oh, really? Oh right, I did say that I had specially brewed a barrel of wine, but I came back in a hurry this time and the wine is not fully ripened yet, so I only brought two bottles! We’ve all finished it!”

“Is that so?” Zhao Yongjun’s face was full of disbelief.

“RUO Fei, lying is not a good child!” Song Rui also laughed evilly. “Do you want us to search?”

Xia ruofei said helplessly, “the last bottle!” Really, I only brought three bottles ... Didn’t you guys pick me up at the airport when I came back? I only have so little luggage, how can there be a barrel of wine in it? I only brought three bottles back!”

Xia ruofei’s reason was finally accepted by everyone. The main reason was that no one would have thought that Xia ruofei would carry such a magical space with him. In addition, Xia ruofei had even admitted that he had kept a bottle of it for himself. It sounded even more convincing.

Xia ruofei deliberately returned to the courtyard with a bitter face and brought a bottle of Semillon white wine over for Wu Qiang to open.

At the same time, he heaved a sigh of relief. At least he managed to keep the rest of the wine. Otherwise, it would have been a waste if it hadn’t been fully cooked and drunk ...
