Chapter 2001 Murderous intent on a rainy night (2)

The patriarch of the Grasso family, who was also Monica's uncle, had clearly stated that if Monica didn't agree to the family's conditions, she would be expelled from the Grasso family, while her younger brother, Rousey, would continue to stay in the family.

There was a strong threat here. Monica could imagine what kind of misfortune would come for the lonely and helpless Rossi to stay in the family ...

She had no other choice.

So, she was like a walking corpse tonight. She let the family's maids dress her up and then got into the Mercedes – Benz with the family's butler to come to the luxurious villa in the rich area.

Toles's notoriety spread far and wide, and Monica was very clear about what she would experience. At this moment, her body trembled uncontrollably.

Between the fingers of her right hand was a sharp razor blade, and her palm was already covered in sweat.

After many days of mental struggle, Monica was still unable to accept such a fate. She had once thought of escaping and coming back to pick up her brother after she had enough strength. However, the Grasso family had already kept her under close watch.

Her uncle, the family head, saw her as the only hope and important chip to help the Grao family return to its peak.

When Monica saw the figure loitering outside her house, she knew that even if she wanted to be expelled from the family, it would be an extravagant hope. The Grasso family had no intention of chasing her away. She had no choice.

Thus, Monica used the opportunity of going to the bathroom to send an email with an old phone that she had hidden with great difficulty. She also hid a razor blade between her fingers.

Looking at the lights of the villa that were getting closer and closer, Monica's mind flashed with the figure of the magical Oriental man, and the corners of her mouth could not help but curl up into a beautiful arc.

Her last email was meant for Xia ruofei. She did not waste too much time on her own encounter. The main point of the email was to request Xia ruofei to save her brother, Rossi, if possible.

Of course, when the email was sent out, Xia ruofei was in the middle of interrogating Banjita, the leader of the nihiliya gang, in Turin. Then, he took a taxi to the villa in the wealthy District, so he did not see it immediately.

The villa was getting closer and closer. Monica could even see the group of demons dancing in the courtyard through the car window.

She clenched the blade between her fingers, and her expression gradually became determined.

On this trip, Monica was determined to die.

Even if I die, I won't let that notorious devil taint my body! This was Monica's only obsession.

Regardless of whether she succeeded or failed, Monica had no intention of living. Toles had rich combat experience. Even if he was confused, it would be quite difficult to cut his throat with this blade. If the assassination failed, Monica planned to cut her own artery immediately and not give Toles the chance to defile her.

Even if she was lucky enough to succeed, Monica's chances of survival in Toles's old lair were zero. She might even face the crazy revenge of the Gelman family and fall into a situation worse than death.

Therefore, even if the assassination was successful, Monica had already decided to commit suicide immediately to avoid being humiliated.

As for whether the Grao family would suffer the Gelman family's crazy revenge, Monica did not care at all. Her only hope was that her brother Rossi could survive and wait for Xia ruofei to take him away.

The car slowly stopped, and the red – haired white young man, Lorie, jogged over to open the door.

Looking at Monica in a Grand dress, Lorie couldn't help but whistle and then said, Miss Grasso, Toles has been waiting for you for a long time! Please follow me!

With that said, he had an unruly smile on his face and stood by the door, gesturing for Monica to go ahead.

Monica looked at him coldly and then stepped out of the car.

Lorie immediately led Monica into the villa. From the beginning to the end, no one paid any attention to the Butler of the Grasso family who was escorting the carriage. Even Monica did not glance at him.

As she followed Lorie inside, many eyes fell on her along the way. Some were gloating, some were envious, and some had a trace of pity.

Monica completely ignored these gazes, as if she had accepted her fate, and followed Lorie with a blank expression.

Wait! A woman in a black leather jacket reached out and blocked their way. Raise your hands, don't move ...

Monica glanced at him and slowly raised her hands as requested.

The Woman in Black searched Monica's body seriously, three times in a row, before waving her hand and letting her go.

Monica couldn't help but break out in a cold sweat. Her hand that was holding the razor was right beside the head of The Woman in Black, but the woman in the tight black leather suit didn't notice it.

Sometimes, the most dangerous place was the safest place. Although this saying was overused, there was indeed a certain basis for it.

Perhaps the other party felt that a weak woman would not be a threat at all, or perhaps they subconsciously ignored this unremarkable gap between their fingers. In short, Monica passed through the barrier without any danger.

Lorie brought Monica to the pool.

Monica could already see Toles, who was half – lying beside the pool. That scarred face had given her nightmares for many days. Today, it was time to end this nightmare ...

Chapter 2002 Murderous intent on a rainy night (3)

She walked towards Toles, and Xia ruofei's figure appeared in her mind again. Xia, farewell ... I used to think that the concept of chastity of Chinese women was ridiculous, but when the clan leader asked me to please this demon with my body, I felt a strong sense of guilt towards you! Don't worry, my body will always belong to you alone. It's just a pity ... I won't be able to see you again ...

Toles had already stood up and walked toward Monica. He narrowed his eyes, which were filled with an ominous glint, and grinned at Monica.

Monica felt that his mouth of yellow teeth was as disgusting as it could get, but she still endured the discomfort and showed Toles a charming smile. She knew that if she wanted to assassinate a top fighter like Toles, she had to first make him completely let down his guard.

Monica clenched her hands tightly and followed Lorie to Toles.

Toles laughed and opened his arms at Monica. He said arrogantly, Little baby, you're finally here! You'll know very soon that this is the right decision!

Mr. Toles, how could I refuse your summoning Monica tried her best to smile.

Toles laughed heartily and said, let's go! My little darling! I've already prepared a candlelight dinner, a candlelight dinner for the two of us!

After saying that, Toles reached out to Monica's shoulder, wanting to pull her into the villa.

Lorie and the others looked envious. They even began to imagine the scene of this hot and beautiful woman being trampled on by Toles.

Monica's eyes revealed a hint of determination. She still had a charming smile on her face, but the razor in her hand began to slide down gently.

Toles stretched out his hand, and the front door was wide open. Monica only needed to wave her hand, and the razor would cut Toles' carotid artery. The premise was that she was fast enough, accurate enough, and strong enough.

Monica gritted her teeth and said goodbye to Xia ruofei in her heart. Then, she held the razor with two fingers and raised her hand ...

At this moment, everyone felt as if a gust of wind had blown past, and then a person suddenly appeared in the villa's courtyard.

While everyone was still in a daze, the masked person had already appeared between Toles and Monica in a strange flash.

Monica didn't see the masked man's actions, but she felt the weight in her hand lighten. The razor had disappeared.

Monica was in despair. She thought that the masked man had been secretly protecting Toles and had only appeared after sensing danger.

Now that her only weapon had fallen into the hands of the other party, she would not even have the chance to commit suicide in the face of such a group of wolves.

Monica couldn't help but tremble when she thought of the tragic situation she was about to face.

However, in the next moment, Monica watched in shock as the masked man raised his hand, and the razor flew towards Toles like a bullet.

Puchi!

After a soft sound, the razor blade flew into the darkness with a silver light.

Toles's eyes widened as he stared at the masked man.

A Thin Red Line appeared on his neck at first, then it quickly extended and almost wrapped around his entire neck.

At first, it only slowly oozed blood, but it soon spurted out. No matter how hard Toles tried to hold his neck, it was to no avail.

Chapter 2003 Meeting but not knowing each other (1)

This scene happened so quickly that no one in the courtyard could react in time. No one could remember how the masked man had entered the courtyard. It was as if he had appeared out of thin air beside Toles.

It was not until Toles clutched his bleeding neck and fell to the ground that the people in the yard seemed to recover from the pause. The women let out ear – piercing screams in unison, while the men roared repeatedly. Their first reaction was to reach for their weapons at their waist.

Those who could attend the party at Toles 'villa were basically members of mafia families. Their status in the Gelman family might not be as important as Toles', but they were all armed, and many of them had guns.

Monica was also in a state of shock. Toles, who had brought her nightmares, was killed by the masked man with a wave of his hand like a chicken. Furthermore, the masked man was actually using the razor blade that she had brought in. She could not believe her eyes.

When her gaze fell on the masked man, she trembled and almost blurted out a name.

At this time, the masked man suddenly reached out and pulled out the pistol on Toles 'waist. At the same time, he grabbed her waist and took her to the side.

Almost at the same time, Monica also heard the gunshot. She even saw the sparks from the bullet hitting the spot where she had been standing.

The gunshot brought her back to her senses.

Monica realized that even though Toles was dead, she was still in danger. She still had a slim chance of survival.

The sounds of gunfire and women's screams filled the courtyard, making the scene very chaotic.

Monica was carried by the masked man and dodged left and right involuntarily. Several bullets brushed past her body and she was in danger.

The masked man did not say a word from the beginning to the end, but it gave Monica a great sense of security. It was as if she would be fine as long as she stayed by his side.

It was a state that was difficult to describe in words. A group of fierce gangsters were chasing them with guns, but Monica felt very calm and not afraid at all.

The masked man pulled her hand, and she immediately pounced toward the masked man.

She saw the masked man turn sideways and carry her on his back.

Then, Monica felt as if she was riding the clouds. The masked man stomped on the ground, and the two of them jumped at least three to four meters high. Without any equipment or run – up, such a jump completely violated the laws of physics. Not to mention carrying a person, even if they were to go to battle with light equipment, if they could jump so high, they could participate in an international competition.

Monica even saw masked man stomping on the head of a burly man when he was exhausted and falling. Then, he used the momentum to jump up again.

After a few ups and downs, the two of them had easily crossed the courtyard wall and jumped out of the encirclement. Monica could still faintly hear the flustered and exasperated shouts behind her.

The masked man didn't stop. Instead, he carried Monica and went straight to the car park on the side of the villa.

He glanced around, then flashed to a black Mercedes – Benz. Out of all the cars, this was the only one with its engine on, and there was someone in it.

The Mafia wouldn't give up so easily. He had to get out of the encirclement before they surrounded him again and leave this place safely. He couldn't waste any time. It was obviously the most time – saving way to grab a car that still had its engine running.

The masked man opened the door of the passenger seat. A middle – aged man was trembling in fear, his body trembling like a sieve.

The masked man pulled the middle – aged white man out of the car with one hand.

The middle – aged white man quickly knelt down and begged for mercy. I beg you, please don't kill me! I have no relationship with Toles!

Then, he saw Monica on the back of the masked man. As if he was holding onto a life – saving straw, he said, Monica! Quickly explain to your friend that we're not on the same side as Toles!

No coincidence, no story.

In such a short period of time, the masked man had chosen this particular luxury car out of all the luxury cars. It was the car that the Grasso family had sent Monica here in.

The one who had just been pulled out and thrown to the ground by the masked man was the housekeeper of the Grao family. He was the head of the family's most trusted person.

The masked man didn't pay any attention to the Butler. He only coldly said one word to the driver in the driver's seat, "out!"

The driver scrambled out of the car.

The masked man stuffed Monica into the car. As he closed the door, he pushed the engine cover with his hand and moved to the other side.

He quickly got into the car and started the engine.

When the Mercedes – Benz sped forward, the masked men closed the door at the same time.

From the moment the Butler was dragged out to the moment the driver was chased out to the start of the car, the entire process took less than five seconds. When Monica came back to her senses, the car was already speeding on the road like a wild horse.

Behind them, a group of gangsters fired at the car in anger, but their shots were not accurate at all. In addition, the masked man drove in a snake – like manner, so the chaotic gunfire did not even touch the paint on the car.

Chapter 2004 Meeting but not knowing each other (2)

The Mafia members rushed to the car park and chased after the cars.

There was still some distance between the cars behind them, and Monica looked at the masked man in shock.

She looked at the masked man who was driving at a high speed attentively, and then called out in a trembling voice, Xia!

The masked man drove at high speed through a sharp turn. His drift was almost perfect. When the car entered a straight road, he quickly turned to look at Monica, then continued to stare at the road and hold the steering wheel tightly.

The masked man asked in English, You know me

Monica was very excited. As soon as the masked man appeared, she had a very familiar feeling. Whether it was his movements or his figure, they were very similar to the Oriental man she had been deeply engraved in her heart.

Is it really you Monica said agitatedly, God ... This is unbelievable. Xia, how did you suddenly appear here
Is this really God's will

While driving, the masked man said indifferently, I don't know why you're so excited, but I think ... You must have mistaken me for someone else!

After saying that, he reached out and took off the headscarf covering his face.

Monica's ecstatic expression instantly froze Yingying's face. This was a completely unfamiliar face. He wasn't the man she had been thinking about day and night.

Although many Europeans and Americans felt that Easterners looked similar, just like how Chinese people looked at foreigners, it was difficult to tell the difference. However, Monica was different.

When she saw other Chinese people, she might not be able to tell them apart, but she would never mistake Xia ruofei for someone else. Xia ruofei's appearance had long been engraved in her mind.

The young man in front of him was not Xia ruofei.

From a huge surprise to a huge loss, Monica's mood was like a roller coaster. She squeezed out a smile and said, I'm sorry, I got it wrong ... Sir, thank you for saving me today ...

The masked man was Xia ruofei. However, Monica could not recognize him after he had changed his appearance.

In fact, Monica's intuition was quite accurate when he was covering his face. This feeling was very mysterious and could only be felt by two very close people.

However, when Xia ruofei took off the headscarf covering his face, Monica naturally overturned her previous judgment. After all, Xia ruofei's method of changing his appearance was too magical. Even his temperament was completely different from before. Monica would never have thought that her previous judgment was correct.

Sometimes, what the eyes see might not be the truth. Instead, the first feeling was more accurate.

In fact, Xia ruofei had already hidden outside the villa before Monica.

When he saw Monica get out of the car, his heart ached.

At that time, Xia ruofei thought to himself, did Monica finally choose to compromise Perhaps this wasn't a compromise and she was willing to do it Because at that moment, Xia ruofei saw Monica smiling at Toles.

Xia ruofei was all too familiar with this smile. Every time he was with Monica, this smile would make him lose all his resistance. The temptation of this smile was amazing.

However, Xia ruofei was a cultivator after all. He quickly noticed the blade that even The Woman in Black who was searching the body did not notice.

At this moment, Toles was about to go over and hold Monica's shoulder. Monica raised her hand, and the reflection of her razor blade woke Xia ruofei up.

Without any hesitation, he shot out like lightning. Before Monica could make a move, he used his mind power to snatch the razor and slit Toles 'throat.

Until now, Xia ruofei still felt guilty for his short hesitation.

When Monica called out his name, his heart trembled even more, and he couldn't wait to reveal his identity.

But Xia ruofei knew that he could not do that.

His real identity was too sensitive. He had such a big company behind him and so many employees. If he was involved in such a vicious case, too many people would be affected.

Besides, Xia ruofei did not want Monica to be implicated. Naturally, it was better for him to know as little as possible. He even hid it from Monica so that he could be as safe as possible. In the future, even if there was a lie detector in front of Monica or a high – Level hypnosis, only Xia ruofei's current appearance would be revealed.

Hence, when he saw Monica's dejected look, Xia ruofei's heart ached but he still hardened his heart and did not reveal his true identity.

Monica couldn't help but look at Xia ruofei again. If she didn't look at his face, she really felt that the man in front of her was the Chinese man who had left an unforgettable impression on her.

Monica suddenly thought of something and couldn't help but ask, Sir, when I called you Xia just now, you seemed to have asked me 'do you know me' in return.

I'm Xia Tian, Chinese, Xia ruofei replied indifferently. This lady, I have yet to ask for your name!

Xia Tian ... Monica repeatedly chewed on the name and could not help but be secretly amazed.

She thought to herself, his surname is also Xia and he's also from Huaxia. What a coincidence!

Hey! Did you hear what I said Could he have fallen asleep

When she heard Xia ruofei's voice, Monica finally came back to her senses. She quickly apologized, I'm sorry, I was a little distracted just now ... Hello, Mr. Xia, my name is Monica Grao, you can call me Monica!

Hello, Monica! Xia ruofei nodded.

Monica explained again. I just thought of one of my Chinese friends. That's why I was distracted. I'm really sorry!

Hearing this, Xia ruofei couldn't help but have a mischievous thought. He smiled and asked, Do I look like your Chinese friend

Monica turned to look at Xia ruofei and said seriously, He's the same as you, his surname is Xia ... You two ... How should I put it He doesn't look like him at all, but there seems to be a very similar quality. I don't know the details, but I just thought you were him ...

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded, really There's such a magical thing How about you introduce me to him when you have the chance

No problem! I believe that you two will become very good friends! Monica said without hesitation.

Then, Monica couldn't help but ask curiously, Mr. Xia, why did you appear at Toles 'villa and save me

Xia ruofei said calmly as he drove, I appeared at Toles 'villa to kill him. As for the reason, I think it's better for you not to know. Saving you ... Was just in passing! I saw the blade in your fingers. The enemy of my enemy is my friend. We Chinese believe that it's fate to meet each other. Since we met, I took the opportunity to bring you out of there, that's all!

It's just convenient! Monica muttered.

Even though she had already confirmed that this Xia and the Xia in her heart were not the same person, the magical thing was that Monica still felt a faint sense of loss.

Xia ruofei glanced at the rearview mirror and asked, Monica, are there any more questions

No more! Monica blurted out.

Since there's no problem, fasten your seat belt and sit tight! He said. Xia ruofei said.

As soon as he said that, Monica suddenly felt the car speed up again. She was caught off guard by the strong push.

After fastening her seat belt in a hurry, Monica realized that the car lights behind her were a little dazzling.

The safety features of the Mercedes – Benz were quite good, but this kind of car from the original factory, which had not been modified, was obviously at a disadvantage compared to the off – road vehicles of the underworld.

The vehicles driven by the Mafia had already caught up with them ...

Chapter 2005 Sticking to one's heart (1)

At this time, the car had already driven out of the wealthy District. The guards at the gate had long hidden far away when they saw the crazy competition between the cars and the sparks from the shots from the cars behind.

Lower your body! Don't show your head! Xia ruofei shouted.

Monica quickly shrank her body under the back of the seat, not even daring to breathe.

He swerved his car to avoid the bullets, but there were still bullets hitting the car from time to time. The rear windshield had long been shattered.

Through the rearview mirror, Xia ruofei could see that there were at least four cars following closely behind them. The distance between them was getting closer and closer. If this went on, those cars would catch up in no time.

The car sped along Bo River. Xia ruofei thought of a plan as he drove. If Monica was not around, he could escape easily. However, he had Monica with him and the car was not very powerful. It would take some effort to get rid of the pursuers.

Xia ruofei held the steering wheel with one hand and took out a pistol from his waist with the other. He had taken it out of Toles's body during the chaos. He had checked it and it was full of bullets.

There was a bridge in front of them. After crossing the bridge, they would reach the other side of the Bo River and drive to the city center.

However, Xia ruofei did not choose to walk on the bridge. Before he dealt with the pursuers, he might cause innocent casualties if he entered the city center. The Mafia would not care about stray bullets.

Xia ruofei continued to drive along the side of the river. There was a turn in front of him, but he did not slow down. When he entered the turn, he used the handbrake to make a perfect drift to send the car into the turn. Then, he stepped on the accelerator and accelerated.

Even the Mafia behind them couldn't reach such a level of driving skills. In order to not rush out of the road, they had to slow down, which opened up a small distance.

Xia ruofei took the opportunity to control the direction with one hand and the gun with the other. He rubbed it against his leg and the bullet was loaded. Loading bullets with one hand was a basic skill that every Special Forces soldier had to master. Xia ruofei had formed muscle memory and his movements were extremely smooth.

Sit tight! Xia ruofei shouted.

Then, he leaned out and fired a shot behind him without hesitation.

If it were an ordinary person, the hit rate of such a shot would definitely be low. After all, both vehicles were moving at high speed.

However, before Xia ruofei made his move, he had already roughly estimated the positions of the four cars behind him through the rearview mirror. After he leaned forward, he quickly observed the back. In that split second, he even had time to determine the trajectory of the car behind him.

As the shot was fired, the fastest car happened to drive over, and the trajectory of the car and the bullet perfectly intersected at a certain point.

The bullet hit the right front wheel of the car. The tire of the Ford pickup wasn't bulletproof, so it burst immediately after being shot.

A flat tire would be fatal at such a high speed.

Moreover, the driver was not a professional racer. He subconsciously slammed on the brakes with a punctured front wheel.

One of the front wheels of the car had punctured, so it naturally lost its balance. The driver of the car instinctively adjusted the direction of the car.

This time, the car completely lost control. There happened to be a small stone on the road. After the left front wheel of the car ran over it, the whole car suddenly turned sideways and began to roll.

The cars behind couldn't avoid it in time, and the car in the front crashed into it.

Xia ruofei hit the brakes, turned around, and fired another shot.

At that moment, the Ford pickup with a punctured tire rolled over, and the shot hit the fuel tank.

The Ford pickup exploded with a boom.

It was a Toyota off – Road vehicle that had hit it. It was also covered in wounds from the shock wave of the explosion. The driver tried to control the off – Road vehicle at the Edge of Time and space.

The Toyota off – Road vehicle swerved on the road like a drunkard, but in the end, it still failed and hit a tree on the side of the road.

Xia ruofei's two bullets had taken out two cars at once. These two cars had completely blocked the road, and the other two cars behind could not pass.

The gangsters jumped out of their cars and fired at Xia ruofei's car in exasperation. Unfortunately, they were too far away and posed no threat.

They watched helplessly as the broken Mercedes – Benz drove away and quickly disappeared at the corner of the road.

At that moment, the Toyota off – Road car that had crashed into the tree started to burn. The gangsters could not be bothered to chase after Xia ruofei. They frantically searched for fire extinguishers in the remaining two cars in an attempt to save their companions who were trapped.

As for the first Ford pickup, it was burnt to a skeleton in a short time, and none of the gangsters in the car could escape.

After Xia ruofei drove away from the scene, he slowed down.

Monica, who was still in shock, straightened her body and looked at the calm Xia ruofei. She said sincerely, Mr. Xia, your marksmanship is really good!

Xia ruofei smiled and turned to look at Monica. Monica, where are I taking you now Are you going home

Monica's eyes revealed a trace of confusion as she smiled bitterly. Home I don't have a home to go back to ...

From Monica's point of view, the Grao family was not her home. In the entire family, other than her younger brother, Rousey, none of her uncles and distant relatives were her family. Other than using her to exchange for benefits, those people did not care for her at all like a relative should.

Chapter 2006 Sticking to one's heart (2)

Although Monica didn't kill them today, Toles was dead. Who knew if the Gelman family would vent their anger on her She couldn't return to her family. Of course, she didn't want to go back at all.

After Monica finished speaking, her expression suddenly changed, and she said in a hurry, Mr. Xia, can you do me a favor

Xia ruofei asked while driving, Don't worry, tell me what's the matter first.

Monica said anxiously, please save my brother! If I run out, they'll definitely vent their anger on my little brother! Also, if the Gelman family asks them for my brother and they can't hand him over, they might hand my brother over! I beg you to help me ...

They Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and asked, who are they

It's the people from my family! Monica said, Mr. Xia, we don't have much time ... I'll explain to you later!

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, You lead the way!

Thank you! Thank you! Monica said gratefully, there's a bridge that we can cross after driving for about two kilometers. My brother is in a Rehabilitation Center in the city!

In fact, Monica's younger brother, Rossi, did not need to stay in the rehabilitation Center for a long time. He only needed to undergo regular rehabilitation training. However, since Toles had let out the word that he wanted Monica to be his woman, the Grasso family had arranged for Rossi to stay in the rehabilitation Center and had sent people to watch over him strictly in order to make Monica submit.

With such a huge incident happening tonight, Monica had to quickly rescue her brother and settle him down before the Grao family and the Gelman family could react. Otherwise, it would be too late.

Xia ruofei nodded and sped up.

When the car was crossing the bridge, Xia ruofei asked half – jokingly, Monica, I've helped you so much. How are you going to thank me

Monica's heart skipped a beat. She looked at Xia ruofei carefully and said, Mr. Xia, I'm penniless right now, but as long as I can escape Europe with my brother, we'll definitely repay you in the future!

After such an incident, she definitely could not stay Italy. Even the entire Europe had the power of the Mafia, so Monica decided to leave Europe with her brother.

In fact, even if they hid at the ends of the earth, if the Mafia family was determined to take revenge, they would not be able to hide at all. However, Monica could not think so much now. She could only take one step at a time.

Xia ruofei sized Monica up on purpose, which made Monica feel a little scared. Then, he smiled and said, Actually, if you want to thank me, you don't have to wait until the future! You know what I mean ...

Monica's expression changed slightly. The thing she was most worried about had still happened. This very powerful Chinese young man in front of her actually had a desire for her body ...

Monica was having an intense mental struggle in her heart. To be honest, Monica had a very good impression of this 'Xia Tian' from China. She even had a natural sense of closeness to him. Even when he looked at her with that frivolous gaze just now, Monica could not feel any disgust in her heart.

Sometimes, Monica even had the illusion that Xia ruofei was beside her.

However, she kept reminding herself that an illusion was just an illusion. This was Xia Tian, not Xia ruofei. No matter how powerful Xia Tian was or how friendly he felt to her, he could never replace Xia ruofei.

Gradually, Monica's eyes became determined. She said, Mr. Xia, please stop the car! I don't think I can satisfy your request. You saved my life, and I'm very grateful to you, but that's all ...

Xia ruofei smiled playfully and asked, Then you're not going to care about your brother

Monica looked like she was struggling, but in the end, she said with determination, I'll think of another way, so there's no need to trouble Mr. Xia ...

Now, Monica was a little worried. If he did not let her go this summer, or if he used force, she would have no chance of resisting. Even Toles, the top fighter of the Gehrman family, was like a stupid pig in front of him. How could she, a weak and unarmed woman, resist

Monica could only pray in her heart.

At this moment, Xia ruofei suddenly laughed and said, I was just joking with you! Look at how nervous you are!

Monica looked at Xia ruofei hesitantly. When she realized that his eyes had become very clear and did not have any distracting thoughts, Monica's heart relaxed slightly.

Xia ruofei saw that she was still silent and couldn't help but say, There's a fork in the road ahead. How should I go Show me the way!

Monica came back to her senses and quickly said, Turn right at the intersection ahead!

Xia ruofei nodded and turned the car to the right.

Mr. Xia, why ... Why are you helping me Monica asked hesitantly.

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, fate! We Chinese are all about fate. We were able to meet in Toles 'villa and are both his enemies. Isn't this fate Besides, you have a Chinese friend who also has the surname Xia. This is even more of a fate!

For some reason, Monica believed 'Xia Tian's words. Perhaps it was because Xia ruofei had once told her about fate.

Her mood instantly brightened up, and the haze from before was swept away.

With Monica's guidance, the car drove all the way to a Rehabilitation Center.

At night, the rehabilitation Center was closed and locked. Looking through the iron gate, there were still many rooms with lights on.

Xia ruofei asked Monica about Rossi's exact location. Although the Grao family had kept Rossi under house arrest, they did not restrict Monica from visiting him. Thus, Monica knew exactly which building and room her brother was in.

Xia ruofei made a mental note of it and then parked the car at a roadside parking space not far from the rehabilitation Center.

Monica, get out of the car! He said.

After the two of them got out of the car, Xia ruofei said to Monica, You hide in the bushes. Don't move until I come back! Unless it's me, don't move no matter who calls you, even if it's your brother!

Are you going in alone Monica quickly said, let me lead the way for you! I've been here a few times, so I'm very familiar with the place!

Xia ruofei smiled and said, didn't you already tell me the location With the information you've provided, I don't need anyone to lead the way. I'll definitely find Rossi soon!

Xia ruofei paused and passed the gun to Monica. Remember what I said, hide in the grass!

Xia ruofei did not know how important Monica was to the Grao family and the Gelman family. He also did not know if they would rush over overnight to take Rossi away. However, there was no harm in being careful. This Mercedes – Benz was already riddled with holes. It would be too big of a target if it was parked here.

If Monica hid in the bushes, it was very likely that she would be in a dark situation. At least, she could delay for some time.

I ... I don't know how to use a gun! Monica said nervously.

It's very simple! Xia ruofei said, this is the safety. Pull it down and you can remove the protection. The bullet is already loaded. Once you remove the safety, just aim and fire.

Xia ruofei looked at Monica and said, Remember, if there's any danger, fire immediately. Even if you don't hit the enemy, it doesn't matter. I'll rush over as soon as I hear the sound of gunfire!

Monica nodded her head heavily and said, I understand, Mr. Xia. You should be careful too. As far as I know, my family has arranged for at least eight people to watch over my brother in shifts. These people are very powerful, and they are likely to have guns ...

Xia ruofei nodded and said, understood! You just wait here! Don't worry, I'll definitely save your brother!

With that, Xia ruofei turned around and ran towards the rehabilitation Center.

Chapter 2007 Entering a no man's land (1)

Monica held the pistol that still had Xia ruofei's body temperature tightly. She looked nervously at the other side of the road through the bushes. She saw Xia ruofei lightly step on the wall of the rehabilitation Center and nimbly flip over it, disappearing into the night without a sound.

Monica couldn't help but clench her hands and pray in her heart.

After Xia ruofei climbed over the wall, he immediately flashed into the shadows like a cat and then quickly ran in the direction of the hospital building.

The security in the rehabilitation Center was not strict. Xia ruofei did not deliberately avoid the surveillance cameras. He had already covered his face and changed his appearance. He did not care about being recorded by the surveillance cameras. The only thing he wanted was time, so he moved quickly.

There was an old man napping in the guardroom on the first floor of the hospital. Xia ruofei sneaked into the building without any effort.

He quickly looked left and right, then flashed into the stairwell and quickly climbed up the stairs.

According to Monica's speed, if the Grao family did not change Rousey's house arrest location, he should be in the ward on the east side of the sixth floor, and there were at least six to eight people taking turns to guard the door.

Xia ruofei sprinted at full speed and reached the sixth floor in no time.

He quietly pushed the door of the emergency exit open a crack, observed for a while, and then flashed into the corridor of the sixth floor.

The corridor was about 30 meters long. Xia ruofei came out from the westernmost side, and Rousey's ward was separated from his by an entire corridor.

As soon as Xia ruofei came out, he saw four burly men sitting on the bench at the end of the corridor. The moment he appeared, the four men immediately looked over.

Xia ruofei did not hide. Instead, he quickened his pace and walked towards them.

One of the big men stood up vigilantly and asked, Who are you

Xia ruofei did not answer and continued to walk quickly towards them.

Stop! The burly man reached his hand into his waist.

Xia ruofei still did not say a word, but he had changed from walking quickly to jogging, and his speed had been increasing.

The other three men immediately stood up and took out their daggers at the same time. Then, they vigilantly faced Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei's speed was getting faster and faster, and the distance of 30 meters was covered in an instant.

In the process of sprinting, Xia ruofei gradually lowered his center of gravity. Before the four men could get close to him, he used the inertia to slide and slide. The opposite side was instantly thrown off their feet.

Xia ruofei immediately straightened his body and knocked out the four men.

The entire process took less than five seconds, and it could be said that he had unleashed his speed to the extreme.

Xia ruofei did not stop and went straight to the ward.

As soon as the door opened, a gust of wind blew in.

Xia ruofei had already used his mental strength to check the situation in the room. There were two guards in the ward. They did not rush out immediately when they heard the commotion. Instead, they hid by the door and prepared to give the enemy a fatal blow. However, they did not know that with Xia ruofei's mental strength, they had no way to hide their whereabouts.

Xia ruofei, who was already prepared, easily tilted his head and dodged the extremely fierce knife. Then, he took advantage of the opening in the middle of his opponent's body and leaned his shoulder heavily on his chest.

The burly man suddenly felt as if he had been hit by a heavy truck. He flew out and fainted on the ground without a sound.

The other man was standing guard at the head of the bed. Seeing that Xia ruofei had defeated his companion so easily, he hurriedly placed the knife on Rousey's neck and cried out in panic, 'Don't come over! Otherwise, I'll kill him immediately!'

Xia ruofei had a relaxed smile on his face as he sized up Rousey on the bed with great interest.

The young man had blond hair and a sharp face. He was definitely a handsome young man. If it wasn't for the fact that he had to sit in a wheelchair all year round because of polio, he would definitely have a lot of girlfriends.

He had been woken up by the sounds of fighting. Although there was a knife to his neck, he was not too nervous. Instead, he looked at Xia ruofei as if he was interested in this masked man who was not very strong.

Among the three of them, the burly man was the most nervous. His hand that was holding the knife was trembling.

Xia ruofei spoke in English, 'put the knife down and I won't hit you. I just want to take Luo Si away ...'

'Don't even think about it!' The burly man said in a trembling voice.

The other party was not tall or strong, and his hands were not made of iron, but the burly man still felt a sense of fear from the bottom of his heart. The hand holding the knife could not help but tremble.

Xia ruofei looked at him and was really afraid that his hand would slip and cut off Rousey's carotid artery. Besides, he did not want to delay too long, so he put away his teasing heart and rushed directly in the direction of the hospital bed.

Seeing this, the big man's heart hardened, and he suddenly exerted force in his hand, wanting to kill Rousey first and burn both Jade and Jade.

However, he was shocked to find that it was as if he had been frozen. No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't move the hand holding the knife.

Xia ruofei's speed was very fast. In an instant, he was in front of the two men. He grabbed the burly man's wrist and took the dagger. With the other hand, he chopped the burly man's neck cleanly.

The burly man groaned and fell limply to the ground.

Chapter 2008 Entering a no man's land (2)

From the moment Xia ruofei entered the room to the moment the burly man was knocked out, only about a minute had passed. In the twenty to thirty seconds, she was talking to the burly man. In other words, she had only spent thirty to forty seconds to take care of the last two burly men who were guarding Rousey.

Do you understand English Xia ruofei asked Luo Si.

Of course! Rosey replied in perfect English.

Among the Italy, there were not many who were good at English. Even those who could speak often had a strong accent, and Rossi was clearly well – educated.

That's much easier! Xia ruofei smiled and said, Rousey, come with me! Your sister asked me to come and save you!

Why should I believe you Rossi looked at Xia ruofei and asked, what evidence do you have to prove that Monica sent you

There's no need for any proof. You'll be able to see Monica soon! Xia ruofei said. Then, he shrugged his shoulders and asked, besides, if I want to take you away, can you resist

Rosey was stunned for a moment, then he smiled and said, That makes sense! But ... How are you going to take me away You want to push me out in a wheelchair The guards at the rehabilitation Center are not just for show ...

Simple! Xia ruofei said casually.

He squatted down in front of the bed and carried Rousey on his back.

Following that, Xia ruofei took out a rope from his pocket and pulled it out. In fact, he was putting his hand into his pocket and taking out a Kasaya from the spirit map space. He used the rope to tie Rossi to his body and smiled. It's time to leave!

Although Rousey could not walk, he was not thin and weak. If he stood up, he would be at least 1.8 meters tall. His leg muscles were atrophied, making them look much smaller than ordinary people's legs. However, his upper body was very strong. It was clear that he did not lack exercise.

Rossi was more than 150 pounds, but Xia ruofei carried him as if he could not feel his weight at all. It was quite easy.

He pushed the door open and looked around. Then he ran to the safety passage on the west side of the corridor with Rossi on his back. He ran down the stairs quickly along the route he had just come in.

Luo Si lay on Xia ruofei's back and could hear the wind whistling in his ears. Xia ruofei was clearly running on foot with him on his back, but it was as if he was sitting in a high – speed car. It could be seen how fast Xia ruofei was.

They did not encounter any obstacles along the way. Xia ruofei carried Rossi and easily dodged the old man who was guarding the door. Then, he went straight to the position where he had just sneaked in.

Hey! The main gate is on the other side! Rousey reminded him in a low voice.

I know! Xia ruofei said without turning his head, but I don't want to go through the main door. Who knows how many guards there are waiting for me to deal with!

As they spoke, Xia ruofei had already arrived at the wall. Before Luo Si could ask Xia ruofei how to get out, he felt his body suddenly rise up as if he was riding on clouds.

In the next moment, Rousey found himself on the other side of the wall.

Xia ruofei kicked the ground, flipped over, and landed. The entire set of movements was done in one go and was very light. Luo Si, who was behind him, did not feel much of a shock and was already outside the wall.

Monica, who was waiting anxiously in the bushes, could not help but stand up when she saw Xia ruofei's figure appear on the wall. With the help of the weak light from the street lamp, Monica could vaguely see that Xia ruofei was carrying someone on his back. She was suddenly excited and could not hold it in any longer. She ran out of the bushes she was hiding in.

It's Monica! Rousey called out.

Xia ruofei carried Rossi to Monica. Monica finally saw that the person on Xia ruofei's back was her younger brother, Rossi, whom she was most worried about. She burst into tears ...

Rousey! Are you alright Monica quickly asked.

I'm fine! Rousey grinned and said, Monica, the person you sent to save me is so good at fighting. Jack and the others are like four or five – year – old children in front of him. They can't even withstand a single blow!

Monica quickly said, Rousey, don't be rude! How could I order Mr. Xia around I begged him to go in and bring you out!

Monica could not help but feel nervous when she heard Rossi say send someone to save me. She was afraid that Xia ruofei would be angry.

Actually, Xia ruofei could not understand Italian at all. Besides, he was not that petty.

Xia ruofei only said indifferently, let's talk in the car! I didn't hide my tracks just now, so someone might catch up to us soon!

Alright, thank you for your hard work, Mr. Xia! Monica said hurriedly.

Xia ruofei opened the back door of the Mercedes – Benz, untied the rope, and carried Rousey into the car. Monica quickly got into the car from the other side.

Xia ruofei quickly started the car and left the rehabilitation Center.

Of course, he didn't stop in the city. Instead, he drove out of the city.

A few minutes later, the sound of cars screeching and the sharp sound of brakes breaking broke the silence. A group of fierce – looking men rushed into the rehabilitation Center and went straight to the sixth floor where Rousey was under house arrest.

The group of men naturally returned without any success. They came to a white middle – aged man in a flashy white suit and said, Mr. Gelman, they've rescued her, but she shouldn't have gone far. She's still warm in bed!

Mr. Gelman, another man suggested, let's hurry and chase after them!

The middle – aged white man was the young leader of the Gehrman family, dyork. After receiving the news that Toles had been assassinated, dyork had rushed over immediately and brought his men to chase after him.

Chase Dick laughed coldly. The roads here lead in all directions. We don't even know which direction they went. How are we going to chase them

Then ... What should we do

Check the video at the rehabilitation Center immediately, said dillork. Then compare it with the surveillance video at Toles 'villa. I need to know the real identity of this Asian as soon as possible!

Understood!

Also, dillork continued, send someone to Glasso's house and smash everything you can!

According to the description of the people at the scene, deyork knew that after the other party killed Toles, they also took Monica of the Grasso family, the woman Toles had taken a fancy to. Although there was no evidence pointing to Monica or the entire Grasso family as to what the masked man had to do with it, the Gelman family had always been drooling over the Grasso family. How could they let go of such a good opportunity

Yes! The black – clothed man responded and immediately went to make arrangements.

Tonight, for the Grasso family, they were probably going to be in big trouble.

However, Monica didn't care about the life and death of the Grasso family. At this moment, she was sitting in the back seat of the speeding Mercedes – Benz, constantly asking about her brother.

Soon, the car crossed the river and left the downtown area of Turin, heading to the less populated suburbs.

She could not return to the hotel tonight.

Although Xia ruofei had changed his appearance when he was doing this, it was very easy for him to go back to the hotel and the other party would not be able to find out that it was him. But now that Monica and Rousey were also here, it was hard to say.

Xia ruofei knew that as soon as he returned to the hotel with Monica and her brother, the Mafia would arrive.

If they didn't get rid of the Gehrman family, Monica and her brother might never be able to return home. The Black Hand Gang would definitely find them even if they had to dig three feet underground.

At that time, the two of them would definitely end up in a very miserable state.

How should he deal with this

Xia ruofei's brain was also working quickly, hoping to find a solution as soon as possible.

In fact, with Xia ruofei's individual combat ability, he could slowly take out the Gelman family's main target, Yiyi, by himself. However, doing so would be too ostentatious and would easily attract the attention of the huge glory society.

It was obviously not the best plan.

He was thinking as he drove, and suddenly an idea came to his mind ...

Chapter 2009 Check and balance_1

Under normal circumstances, it was unrealistic for an individual to go against a huge Mafia group.

Even though Xia ruofei was a cultivator, he was still the same.

Xia ruofei might be able to destroy a small or medium – sized Mafia family like the Gelman family on his own, but a mafia organization with a long history like the glory Association had long gone on the path of globalization. Their forces were even more complicated and could be said to be endless.

Moreover, if he really wanted to kill so many people, even if Xia ruofei's heart was as hard as a rock, it would probably affect his own Dao heart.

If they wanted to fight against the Gelman family and the glory society, they had to find an organization that was on par with them.

Xia ruofei had thought of a suitable power to help the overseas Hong sect, which had a long history.

Not only was Li Yifu a world – Class tycoon and a well – known entrepreneur, but he was also one of the big bosses of the Hong sect. In fact, Li Yifu had inherited his father's position. When his father, li Jiuzhou, was still alive, he had a very high status in the Hong sect.

Xia ruofei didn't need to fight to the death with the glory Association. He only needed to keep them in check. Without a doubt, the Hong sect was a very suitable force.

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei made a decision.

He turned the steering wheel and drove the car into a small road at the side. He drove directly into a forest and hid himself.

Monica had already calmed down. She was still holding her brother's hand tightly. When Xia ruofei stopped the car in the bushes, she said, Mr. Xia, I'm really grateful to you this time! If it's convenient, can you send us to the airport I want to take Rousey away from here!

Xia ruofei turned around and asked with a faint smile, Where are you guys going

Monica looked confused, but she quickly said, We can only take things one step at a time. The most important thing now is to leave Turin and Europe. I think Asia should be a good choice. Maybe we can live in China. I've saved some money over the years using an anonymous account. I should be able to withdraw this money. It should be enough for Rousey and I to live for a while.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, I have to remind you that the Gelman family must have received the news by now. They won't be able to get her from the Grao family. Besides, you've brought Rousey out. What do you think they'll do

Monica shook her head slightly.

Xia ruofei smiled. As long as the head of the Gelman family is not so stupid, he will definitely order his men to spread out and keep an eye on the airports, train stations, ports ... You and Rossi are too obvious a target. As soon as you show your face, I can guarantee that there will be a few guns pointed at you!

Monica's face turned even paler as she muttered, Then what should I do

Don't be in such a hurry. In any case, you can't leave now. Xia ruofei smiled and said, I'm going to make a call to ask about the situation. We'll talk about your matter later!

Okay ... Monica said, somewhat at a loss.

Xia ruofei took out his phone and dialed Li Yifu's number.

Hello! Who is it Li Yifu asked in English with a hint of authority.

Before Xia ruofei left the country, not only did he make a new set of ID documents, but he also changed his phone and new number. Li Yifu did not recognize this number.

It was evening in the United States, and Li Yifu was having dinner. Not many people knew his private phone number, and those who could call him directly were either very familiar with him or had dialed the wrong number.

Adopted husband, it's me! Xia ruofei said in Chinese.

Xia ruofei heard the clattering sounds from the other end. Li Yifu immediately threw his knife and fork on the table, then stood up and said respectfully, Senior granduncle, Hello!

Foster husband, I would like to ask, in Europe ... To be exact, in Turin, Italy, how strong is the Hong sect Xia ruofei went straight to the point. I have a little problem here. I need the help of the Hong sect.

Li Yifu quickly said, senior granduncle, are you in Turin now Who would be so bold as to offend the senior granduncle I'll arrange for a plane to rush over immediately!

Xia ruofei said, don't come over! You're the focus of the media wherever you go. I'm here in secret, I don't want everyone to know!

Yes, this disciple understands! Li Yifu immediately said.

He laughed bitterly in his heart. He didn't expect that he would be despised by his senior granduncle because of his fame.

Of course, Li Yifu only felt that it was a pity that he couldn't personally participate in the fight when he finally had the opportunity to work for his senior granduncle. Xia ruofei was like a god in his heart. He would not be unhappy if Xia ruofei refused to go to Italy with him.

Li Yifu thought for a while and continued, Master granduncle, the Hong sect has branches all over Europe. We also have a branch Italy. I will ask lui hai of the Italian branch to contact you right away. He will follow your orders unconditionally!

Where is he in Italy Xia ruofei asked.

Great uncle, the Italy Division is located in Milan Li Yifu said, it takes about an hour to drive from Milan to Turin.

Chapter 2010 Checks and balances_2

Alright, tell him to come over tonight! Xia ruofei said, I'll send you an email later. Check it!

Yes, martial granduncle! Li Yifu quickly said.

After Xia ruofei hung up, he opened Google Maps on his phone and turned to Monica. Monica, we need to wait here for an hour or two. I've asked a friend to come over, and I hope they can help!

Thank you, Mr. Xia! Monica said hurriedly.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, you and Rousey should rest at the back. This place is still very safe for the time being!

Alright!

Xia ruofei lowered his head and continued to work on his phone. He sent all the information about the location of the map, the identity he used in Turin, and the photos of his current appearance to Li Yifu.

Xia ruofei even emphasized in the email that he must not reveal his identity.

Li Yifu had been guarding his email after Xia ruofei's call. As soon as he received Xia ruofei's message, Li Yifu immediately replied, Grand uncle – Master, received! Don't worry, your disciple will arrange everything!

Li Yifu also attached a photo of lui hai in the email, so that they could confirm his identity when they met.

The next thing Xia ruofei needed to do was wait. He leaned back in the driver's seat and closed his eyes to rest. At this moment, Rousey, who was sitting in the back, suddenly asked in English, Mr. Xia, is the Hong sect a powerful organization Are they more powerful than the Mafia

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment. He turned to Luo Si and asked, You can understand Chinese

Rousey smiled shyly and said, I grew up in a wheelchair. I'm not like other children who have a happy childhood. So, reading has become my biggest hobby. I learned Chinese by myself, but this language is too difficult. I've been learning it for so long, but I only know a little.

At this point, Rousey stuttered in Chinese and said, In your words, I've only learned a little ...

Xia ruofei smiled. Not bad. Your pronunciation is quite accurate!

Although he acted as if nothing had happened, he was actually glad that he didn't reveal his personal information when he called just now. Other than the Hong sect, there was nothing else sensitive. Otherwise, his hidden identity would have been exposed in a minute.

In fact, Xia ruofei was cautious out of habit. After all, there was a possibility of eavesdropping on such a wireless call. Moreover, Li Yifu was also a cultivator, so he should be familiar with the disguises of cultivators. After he received Xia ruofei's email, he naturally understood what Xia ruofei meant. There was no need for him to make it clear over the phone or in the email.

He did not expect his habitual caution to help him avoid a problem. If Monica found out that he was Xia ruofei, he would not know how to explain himself.

Xia ruofei also reminded him to avoid Rousey when they talked with each other when lui hai arrived.

Monica smiled and said, Mr. Xia, Rossi is very talented in languages. He has mastered at least five languages by self – study. In addition to Italian, he is very good in English, German, French, and Portuguese. He can also understand some of your Chinese.

Amazing, amazing! Xia ruofei gave Rousey a big thumbs up.

Rousey smiled shyly and explained, Mr. Xia, I didn't mean to eavesdrop on your phone call. It's just that it's rare to hear such fluent Chinese, so I couldn't help but listen ...

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, it's okay. It's nothing to be ashamed of. By the way, the Hong sect that you just heard about, it's an organization of us overseas Chinese, they're very powerful, even the Mafia don't dare to go against them. I'm contacting them in hopes that they can help you and your sister survive this crisis!

Mr. Xia, Monica said, very touched. I don't know what to say ... I'm really grateful!

Xia ruofei smiled and said, you're welcome. I've said it before. I believe in fate. You have a Chinese friend with the surname Xia. This is our fate. So, I'll do my best to help you within my ability!

Monica nodded her head heavily. She was also very glad in her heart. She said to herself, Xia, I didn't expect to get such great help from your fellow countrymen just by mentioning your name. It's the greatest fortune in my life to know you!

Monica and Rousey were a little tired. The siblings were resting quietly in the back seat. Xia ruofei was also resting in his seat with his eyes closed.

Time passed by.

Xia ruofei suddenly opened his eyes and turned around. Monica, Rousey, stay in the car and don't move. I'll go down and take a look!

What happened Monica quickly asked.

I heard the sound of a car, but I'm not sure if it's my friend. Xia ruofei said, to ensure safety, I need to confirm first!

The sound of a car Did you hear the sound of the car Monica looked at her brother and asked.

Rousey also shook his head in confusion.

Little did they know that Xia ruofei's hearing was much sharper than theirs. He had already noticed the car when it was still very far away. Monica and Monica would have to wait at least one or two minutes to hear the engine sound.
