

God tier Farm 2131

Chapter 2131 Harvesting_2

Xia ruofei had been paying close attention to the situation in the space. When he noticed the condition of the porcupinefish, he couldn't help but smile.

This was also a sudden thought that came to his mind. There were too few creatures in the sea of space. Other than the abalones and the Yangtze River beluga that he had moved in, there were basically no other creatures.

The environment in the interspace was very good, but it felt a little less lively.

Therefore, when Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to detect these marine creatures, he immediately decided to take advantage of this opportunity to go out to sea alone to capture more marine creatures from the outside world and bring them into the space sea.

Xia ruofei's confidence was greatly boosted after his first attempt was successful. He tried again and again.

His target was the smaller and slower fish. After all, he could only use his mental power to capture and ingest fish in the outside world. The success rate was not high if the fish were too big.

Xia ruofei did not go out of his way to catch one or a few marine creatures. He did not even go out of his way to mate them. Anyway, these marine creatures would definitely have no problem surviving in the sea of the realm. If he happened to catch a few of the same marine creatures, they might be able to reproduce in the realm.

Xia ruofei treated this as a form of entertainment. It could also train his control of his mental energy. He had a lot of fun on the intimate platform at the end of the yacht.

In the space, a crazily wriggling fish would fall from the sky from time to time and be thrown into the sea of space, then quickly escape into the depths of the sea.

In a short while, Xia ruofei had successfully caught dozens of different marine creatures. Most of them were fish, and there were jellyfish and so on. There was even a giant sea turtle that was slowly passing by the yacht. Xia ruofei easily caught it and sent it into the origin space. The giant turtle was too slow.

It was not until midnight that Xia ruofei finally got up and prepared to go back to the cabin to rest.

He had already fallen in love with this "game." The process of continuously adding vitality to the spirit map space gave him a great sense of accomplishment.

The spirit map space was like Xia ruofei's personal territory. Every change and improvement in this territory would make him happy from the bottom of his heart.

Xia ruofei had already decided that while he was out at sea, he would make time every day to do this.

His target wasn't just the small sea creatures. He was also eager to try the larger fish.

Before going out to sea this time, Xia ruofei had also bought a professional fishing rod and net. He was prepared to try it out tomorrow to see if he could combine these tools with the use of his mental strength to catch larger marine creatures. After all, the sea in the spirit map space could not be filled with weak chickens.

The yacht's master bedroom was very spacious and comfortable. Not only did it have a special bathroom, but it also had a luxurious Jacuzzi and a large soft double bed. This master bedroom was even more luxurious than the rooms of a five – Star hotel.

As a luxury toy for the rich, it was natural to pursue the ultimate comfort.

Xia ruofei took a bath and changed into his sleeping robe. He threw himself onto the bed and fell asleep quickly.

Of course, as they were in the middle of the sea, Xia ruofei still carefully set up a simple alarm array around his bedroom. Once an invader touched the array or the yacht swayed beyond a certain range, the array would be triggered immediately and Xia ruofei would be able to wake up immediately.

Being cautious, cautious, and more cautious – this was almost an instinct that was engraved into Xia ruofei's bones.

Nothing unexpected happened that night. Xia ruofei slept soundly with his head against the waves. He only woke up when the sun rose from the East and shone through the large porthole of the master bedroom.

After a simple wash up, Xia ruofei went to the kitchen of the yacht.

Although the kitchen wasn't very big, it was well – equipped with everything: a microwave, an oven, a bread maker, and so on.

He heated a glass of milk, fried an egg, and cut a few slices of bread. He took the plate to the top deck of the flying bridge. He placed the plate on the table in front of the U – shaped sofa, then sat down and enjoyed the morning scenery of the sea while eating breakfast.

Xia ruofei had already missed the beautiful sunrise, but the morning sun was not strong at all. The Golden rays shone on the sparkling sea and the sea seemed to be dyed with a layer of gold.

Occasionally, seagulls would fly across the sea at a low altitude, like dragonflies skimming the surface of the water.

Xia ruofei took in the beautiful scenery and couldn't help but take out his phone to take a few photos.

Just as he was about to put down his phone, he suddenly had an idea. He switched to the front camera and took a few selfies with the sea and the yacht as the background. Then, he took a picture of his half – eaten breakfast.

Then, he went to the cockpit and operated the main control computer for a while. Then, he connected his mobile phone to the yacht's WiFi.

In the open sea, mobile phones certainly had no signal, but on the yacht, they could connect to the internet through maritime satellites as a transit. The yacht also had this device, which could be connected to the internet through the main control computer and provide a WiFi hotspot for the mobile devices on the yacht to access the internet.

Although the network speed was definitely not as fast as the base station on land, sending a few pictures was no problem.

Once the phone was connected to the internet, Xia ruofei immediately opened the Weibo app and uploaded nine photos with the caption: The conditions at sea were limited, so breakfast could only be simple ...

Recently, there had been many funny ways to show off his wealth on the internet. For example, he had 'accidentally' taken a picture of his Bentley logo while eating instant noodles in his car, or his phone screen had broken and revealed a long message showing his balance. Xia ruofei was just joking, so he added a topic to show off his wealth and posted it on Weibo.

After posting on Weibo, Xia ruofei placed his phone on the pilot's seat and went to weigh the anchor, ready to start the day's journey.

After the yacht started, Xia ruofei switched to the auto – Pilot mode and then picked up his phone to open Weibo.

Although the Weibo post had only been released for a short while, the message bar already showed 99+ red marks. When he clicked on it, he saw that most of them were about the interaction with the Weibo post just now. There were hundreds of likes, reposts, comments, and private messages in such a short time.

Xia ruofei clicked on the Weibo post with great interest. It took a long time to connect to the internet on the sea, and it was intermittent. It took about ten seconds for the page to fully open.

Xia ruofei almost laughed out loud when he saw the message.

There were really all kinds of comments, such as "I received a 10000 – point critical hit" or "looking at the instant noodles in front of me, I silently added a ham sausage" and so on, which almost flooded the screen.

Tao Yuan company's official Weibo reposted this Weibo post almost instantly, and when it was reposted, it was accompanied with the words: In order to prove that the editor was really working hard early in the morning, this post had to be forwarded! She asked meekly, "can I add chicken legs?"

Xia ruofei laughed and commented, "And a pair of chicken legs! I approve!"

When the netizens saw this comment, they almost burst out laughing.

Cheng Xiaoxiao's Weibo account was the first to repost Xia ruofei's Weibo post. She was a well – known netizen, and those who followed Xia ruofei often knew that she was his number one fan. She often had the opportunity to eat with Xia ruofei and take photos with him, so she had a lot of Weibo fans, many of whom were Xia ruofei's fans. This was also considered "love the house and its Crow".

Xia ruofei also saw Ling Qingxue's repost and comments. Paradise didn't take me with it on its first voyage. Remember to buy a new washboard when you go home~

Xia ruofei immediately replied with a pitiful emoji.

The netizens were even more excited when they saw the domineering CEO and his wife. They flooded the screen with comments. Most of them were worried about Xia ruofei's situation after his return, but they were gloating.

Xia ruofei happily scrolled through Weibo for a while. The internet speed at sea was too fast. In the end, he couldn't stand the speed of dozens of seconds each refresh and finally put away his phone.

Chapter 2132 Blue lobster_1

Under the control of the auto – Pilot system, the yacht moved smoothly along the set route. The sea during winter was relatively calm. Since they set off yesterday, they had not encountered any big waves. From the GPS track, the yacht had already drawn an arc on the sea and crossed the North of taishu Bay.

There was still no harvest in the morning. Along the way, they passed by a few small islands, but the white fox did not find anything.

At noon, Xia ruofei stopped the boat to rest.

He went to the small but well – equipped kitchen on the yacht and made himself a sumptuous lunch. There were a lot of Taoyuan vegetables, fruits, and a lot of meat he bought from sold well in the space.

As the wind was strong outside, the prepared food would get cold easily from the sea breeze. Hence, Xia ruofei did not choose to eat on the deck of the flying bridge this time. Instead, he went straight to the restaurant on the yacht.

It was connected to the stern deck, so it was basically semi – Open, but the wind was definitely not as strong as on the flying bridge deck.

After enjoying lunch, Xia ruofei suddenly regretted not bringing xiaohei with him. Sailing alone on the sea really gave rise to a sense of loneliness. If he brought xiaohei with him, at least he would have a companion. Furthermore, when he went to bed at night, xiaohei could be on guard duty.

Before coming out this time, Xia ruofei had only thought of going out alone. He did not even bring Ling Qingxue along. Moreover, the White realmfox looked as if it would starve to death at any moment. Hence, his preparations were relatively rushed and he had not considered everything.

After lunch, Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to anchor and sail. Instead, he went down to the intimate platform at the stern through the accommodation ladder and took out the fishing rod and net that had been prepared in advance.

Xia ruofei did not fish rashly. Instead, he spread out his spiritual power and carefully checked the situation below the sea.

Actually, after last night's fishing, Xia ruofei had already discovered that the distribution of the Marine creatures had a certain pattern. Today, he had carefully analyzed it and found that it was roughly related to the ocean currents.

Many ocean creatures swam in the direction of the ocean currents, and there was more than One Ocean current under the surface of the sea. This led to more ocean creatures in some places and fewer in other areas.

After Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to check, he lowered the fishing net and rod, ran over to anchor, and started the yacht.

The White realmfox in the medium thought that Xia ruofei was about to set off, so it became alert again.

However, it soon realized that the yacht was not moving forward at high speed, and it was not heading in one direction. Instead, it was going on and off, and sometimes it would even go in circles.

The little fellow naturally did not know that Xia ruofei was looking for an area with dense marine life so that he could maximize his fishing efficiency.

After about half an hour, Xia ruofei finally stopped the boat.

His mental power discovered that there were obviously more marine creatures near the yacht than in the areas they had just passed. They were almost gathered in a very small area and swimming around.

“This is the place!” Xia ruofei muttered to himself.

He quickly anchored the ship and walked to the affinity platform at the stern.

Initially, Xia ruofei wanted to try using a sea fishing rod. However, on second thought, he felt that it would be too inefficient, so he picked up the net.

Paradise was a luxury yacht, not a professional fishing boat, so it was naturally not equipped with a professional trawling net. He only took an ordinary fishing net.

However, in the hands of a cultivator, such a fishing net was enough.

He used his mental power to check again, and then threw the net out with force.

The fishing net that was filled with Qi was thrown very far. With the help of mental power, the fishing net was accurately spread in the area that Xia ruofei had planned in advance.

The fishing net sank as soon as it touched the surface of the sea. Under the control of his spiritual power, it moved quickly in the sea. Xia ruofei’s spiritual power was constantly observing the situation under the sea. When the fishing net reached a certain depth, he exerted force and the fishing net started to tighten.

Xia ruofei gently pulled the rope in his hand and immediately felt a heavy resistance.

In fact, his spiritual power had already confirmed that the net had reaped a lot of benefits, but he still enjoyed the heavy feeling, a bit like the joy of a harvest.

A normal person would not be able to pull such a full net. However, Xia ruofei only had to exert a little strength and the net was quickly pulled back.

He threw the net out of the water, and it was full of all kinds of fish and shrimp struggling in fear.

Xia ruofei did not drag the net onto the yacht. When he was close enough, he used his mind and all the Marine creatures in the net disappeared into thin air, leaving only the empty net.

If someone were to see this scene, they would definitely suspect that there was something wrong with their eyes.

At the same time, hundreds of fish and prawns descended from the sky above the sea of the mountain and sea realm in the spirit map space.

This scene was very much like the scene in the movie “a good show”, where countless fish fell from the sky above a deserted island.

It was a pity that there was only a resentful white realm Fox in the boundless space that was enjoying this rare and wonderful scene.

The nearby waters were rich in seafood. Xia ruofei did not even need to change locations. He only needed to wait for a while and he could cast the net again.

At noon, the sun was still very bright. Xia ruofei was wearing a thin coat and a pair of Ray – Ban pilot sunglasses as he kept casting and pulling in the net. He was very busy.

To do a good job, one had to be sharp with their tools first. Today’s efficiency was obviously much higher than yesterday. In just half an hour, there were already hundreds of “new residents” in the sea of the spirit map space.

Xia ruofei was prepared to cast one last net and call it a day. After all, the journey was still long. If they stayed in one place for too long, they did not know how many days it would take for them to return.

He still used his spiritual power to sense it, and then threw the net out.

Now that Xia ruofei was getting more and more familiar with it, he soon had another net full of rewards.

He shook his wrist and easily pulled the entire fishing net out of the water. Just as he was about to put the fish into the space, he suddenly raised his eyebrows and stopped the action. Instead, he pulled the fishing net onto the AGO.

Because he saw a touch of blue in the net, he couldn’t help but be curious.

When Xia ruofei cast the net, he only cast it at a location where there were more sea creatures. Naturally, he could not accurately identify every sea creature he caught. Hence, he only had a rough idea of what was in the net.

Of course, if he put them into the space, with his current control of the space, he could still distinguish what each sea creature was, even if he put one or two hundred of them in one time.

It was naturally impossible in the outside world.

The fish and prawns in the net were frantically struggling in vain. Xia ruofei approached them with interest.

He kept the ordinary fish and shrimp into the space one by one, and the fish in the net became less and less. Soon, a huge blue lobster was revealed.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but take a deep breath. The lobster was huge. It was at least 40 to 50 centimeters long and had a beautiful bright blue color.

Xia ruofei had seen reports about blue lobsters on the internet before. He knew that this kind of lobster was basically produced by genetic mutation. They were very rare, and it was said that the probability of catching blue lobsters was only one in a million.

He didn't expect to catch a Pi Xiu so coincidentally. This was the first lobster he had caught since yesterday.

As lobsters were usually active at the bottom of the sea, the probability of catching lobsters in shallow water was not high. Xia ruofei remembered that there were a few cases of blue lobsters in United Kingdom the eastern sea did not seem to be a production area of this kind of lobster.

With so many factors combined, the probability of catching such a blue lobster was even lower than winning the lottery!

Xia ruofei quickly kept all the other fish and prawns into the space sea. Then, he curiously observed this lobster up close. Soon, he was even more surprised as he saw that there were at least 20 to 30 baby lobsters attached to the blue lobster's abdomen. These baby lobsters had obviously hatched not long ago and were still under the protection of their mothers. He did not expect that Xia ruofei would capture them all in one go.

What made Xia ruofei even happier was that these baby lobsters were blue in color.

He thought to himself, "does that mean I can breed a group of blue lobsters in my space?"

Although the appearance of blue lobsters was usually due to genetic mutation, and it might not be passed on to the next generation, these young lobsters also had blue shells. Moreover, the environment in the space ocean was much better than the outside world. Who could say for sure that such genetic mutation would not be passed on stably?

The more Xia ruofei thought about it, the happier he became. He didn't dare to let these lobsters leave the sea for too long, so he quickly kept them in the space sea.

Xia ruofei's mood was quite good since he had such a harvest from the last net.

He tidied up the fishing net, then directly took some river water from the space to clean the intimate platform. He then took a brisk step and restarted the yacht.

Xia ruofei quickly steered the yacht back to the set route and then entrusted it to the autopilot system.

Xia ruofei did not stop for the entire afternoon. Even during dinner time, he had a simple bowl of noodles and ate in the cockpit. During this time, the yacht was still moving forward.

He thought that he would make up for the time he had spent resting at noon at night, so he didn't stop the ship until eight o'clock, dropping the anchor and ending the day's voyage.

At night, Xia ruofei did not go to cast a net to catch a big fish. He just sat on the affinity platform and cultivated for two hours before returning to the master bedroom to take a shower and go to bed.

This was Xia ruofei's second night out at sea. He was already used to the slight shaking of the ship. He even felt like he was a baby lying in a cradle.

Xia ruofei did not notice that the yacht was shaking more and more in the second half of the night ...

Chapter 2133 Monstrous waves (1)

When Xia ruofei woke up, the yacht was already shaking so much that it triggered the alarm array he had set up.

This was not because Xia ruofei was not alert. The main reason was that the yacht was constantly swaying with the waves. He had already gotten used to this rhythm in his sleep.

When the alarm array was triggered, Xia ruofei opened his eyes and immediately felt that something was wrong. The yacht was swaying more than normal. He could even hear the ship creaking and many things that were not fixed in place in the room started to fall.

Xia ruofei immediately sat up, flipped over the blanket, jumped off the bed, and rushed to the deck.

An ordinary person would find it hard to stand steadily in such a violent shaking, let alone walk. However, Xia ruofei only needed to inject a little bit of genuine Qi into his legs and he could walk as if he was walking on flat ground.

Xia ruofei was stunned by the scene when he came to the deck.

The sea, which was still very calm in the first half of the night, suddenly changed its face, like a roaring monster. The wind on the surface of the sea whistled, and the huge waves continued to roll, making loud rumbles. In such an environment, the yacht was like a light floating leaf, constantly moving up and down with the waves, as if it would capsize at any time.

Xia ruofei made a prompt decision and rushed to the cockpit.

He immediately anchored the yacht. As he started the yacht, he quickly clicked on the main control computer a few times and called up the image of the weather radar on the yacht.

This small weather radar had been installed at Xia ruofei's request. It could detect the real – time weather within a range of ten nautical miles in front of the yacht, including some low – Level torrents and rain.

After the radar was activated, the weather conditions were quickly displayed on the screen.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but take a deep breath. The screen was almost entirely covered in yellow and red, which meant that the weather ahead was very bad. There might be heavy rain, strong airflow, or thunderstorms.

Xia ruofei's expression turned ugly. Under the influence of nature, a Qi refining cultivator was nothing. A huge wave could capsize the yacht, but he had no choice.

Xia ruofei maneuvered the yacht to avoid the oncoming waves. When the yacht turned, he paid some attention to the radar screen. However, all he could see was a shocking yellow and red area.

It was obvious that the yacht was already deep in the storm.

Xia ruofei's face turned serious. The yacht barely dodged a huge wave. After temporarily escaping danger, he quickly got up and rushed out. Then, he jumped onto the flying bridge deck and ran to the second driving area to steer the yacht.

This was the highest point of the yacht, and there was no glass blocking the view, so it was better.

Moreover, if anything were to happen, it would be easier for him to react from the outside.

If it was an ordinary person, it would be very dangerous to stand on the deck of the flying bridge in such a stormy weather. They might be swept into the sea with a wave. Xia ruofei was brave because of his skills. At least he could stabilize his body in such a big swing.

As he maneuvered the yacht on the waves, he took out a life jacket from under his seat and quickly put it on.

The waves around the yacht were getting bigger and bigger. The 30 – meter – long yacht was no different from a small boat under this level of wind and waves. It would sometimes rush to the top of the waves, and then quickly descend with the huge waves. This feeling was more exciting than the world's most dangerous roller coaster.

However, Xia ruofei did not show any signs of fear. His body was still steady as if he was welded to the deck of the yacht.

He tried his best to control the yacht, and at the same time, he kept his mental power out at all times to grasp the situation around him as much as possible, so that he could avoid the dangerous waves in advance.

Under such circumstances, the outcome would have been completely different if he had reacted a tenth of a second earlier.

However, the waves were too strong tonight. Even if Xia ruofei could predict it with his spiritual power, he was still struggling to deal with it.

Beads of sweat formed on Xia ruofei's forehead and he looked very serious.

At this moment, a huge wave came from the left side of the yacht. Xia ruofei quickly turned to the right. If the side of the yacht was hit by such a huge wave that was more than ten or twenty meters high, the yacht would definitely flip over.

As he steered the boat to the right, Xia ruofei pushed the boat to the maximum, hoping to escape the range of the huge wave.

However, his face suddenly changed because at this moment, his spiritual power sensed that there was an even bigger wave coming from the right front of the yacht. This wave was thirty to forty meters high.

Now that the yacht had changed direction and was heading towards the huge wave, if it was hit by the ten – story tall wave, the yacht would definitely disintegrate in an instant.

From the moment he was awakened until now, Xia ruofei had barely held on for more than ten minutes. However, his situation was getting worse and worse. He was obviously in a desperate situation now.

In a flash, Xia ruofei did not have time to think.

He made a decision in an instant. As he turned off the yacht's engine, he propped himself up with his hands and jumped off the deck of the flying bridge, falling toward the sea.

At the same time, Xia ruofei's spiritual power gathered madly and locked onto the yacht. Then, he shouted, ""Collect!"

The next moment, the yacht disappeared from the sea with a whoosh and fell into the sea of the spirit map space.

Since Xia ruofei had nowhere to run, the first thing he thought of was to protect the yacht. He was already a few hundred nautical miles away from land. If the yacht was destroyed in the storm, he would not be able to swim back no matter how capable he was!

This yacht was different from the small yacht he had bought before. It was more than 30 meters long and weighed tens of tons. It also carried fuel, water, and other equipment on the yacht. Such a big thing was already beyond Xia ruofei's ability to collect.

After the yacht was forcefully kept into the spirit map space, Xia ruofei even felt a sharp pain in his head. This was obviously caused by an instant overload of spiritual power.

He did not have time to think about anything else. After he fell into the sea, he quickly took off his life jacket and dove into the sea. In this situation, the life jacket was a burden because if he stayed in the sea, even if Xia ruofei's body was many times stronger than the average person, his bones would probably break if he was hit by the huge waves.

The power of nature was extremely terrifying.

Xia ruofei had received strict training in the Army and was naturally good at swimming. As long as he did not faint, he would not sink in the sea. It did not matter if he had a life jacket or not.

In addition, he had excellent physical strength to begin with, and as long as he survived this storm, he could take out the yacht, so he didn't need to worry about problems such as physical exhaustion and temperature loss.

Xia ruofei tried his best to dive down, but he soon felt himself being pushed down hard. Then, the surrounding seawater suddenly surged up, and he was forced to quickly follow the seawater.

Xia ruofei knew that the huge wave had hit the spot where he had just entered the water and had formed a new wave.

Xia ruofei had no way to control his body under such a huge force. He was thrown up by the waves almost instantly and flew above the sea.

He tried his best to twist his body in the air, hoping to avoid the range of the waves.

However, there was no place to borrow strength from. There were huge waves all around. No matter how powerful Xia ruofei was, it was useless.

He quickly landed heavily, and his body smacked onto the surface of the sea. He felt as if his internal organs were about to shift positions, and he almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

Even though he had already covered his entire body with zhenqi to form a protective layer, he was still seriously injured.

Xia ruofei endured the pain and continued to dive.

He knew very well that only by diving deep enough could he be away from danger. The deeper he went, the calmer the water would be.

The deep sea was pitch – Black, and Xia ruofei used all his strength to dive.

He had been specially trained to hold his breath, and since he became a cultivator, he could form an internal circulation by relying on his true energy. For a short time, he didn't even need to come out of the sea to breathe.

Xia ruofei felt that he had dived for at least ten meters. The water pressure around him was getting stronger and stronger. However, the pressure, which was unbearable for ordinary people, did not affect him much.

A depth of a dozen meters was obviously not enough because Xia ruofei could still feel the waves around him surging. It was hard for him to control his body and he could only follow the current.

All of a sudden, Xia ruofei felt a huge downward pressure and he sank a few meters.

Xia ruofei knew that something bad was about to happen. He knew that another wave was coming.

Sure enough, in the next moment, the sea water in this area suddenly churned, and his body also rushed upwards uncontrollably.

Before he could even think, Xia ruofei had already been thrown out of the sea by this powerful force.

As soon as he got out of the water, Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat. He saw that there was a huge wave that was at least a few dozen meters high above him. It was coming at him with the force of Mount Tai.

The giant wave was strong enough to overturn a ship. Xia ruofei looked so small in front of it.

The surging seawater and the ten – story high waves grew bigger and bigger in Xia ruofei's eyes. He could even feel the huge force that was coming at him.

Without a doubt, if he was hit by the wave, he would have no hope of survival.

At this moment, Xia ruofei was forced into a corner.

He had no other choice but to use his last life – saving method ...

Chapter 2134 Surviving a great disaster (1)

In such a dangerous moment, Xia ruofei had no other choice. He only had one choice, and that was to hide in the spirit map space.

In fact, Xia ruofei was not confident at all. Once he entered the space, the spirit map would be exposed to the outside world. No one could say for sure if the spirit map would be damaged in the face of such a storm.

Once the painting was destroyed, Xia ruofei would lose all means of survival. If the painting was destroyed, the spirit map space would be destroyed as well. Even if Xia ruofei could survive the destruction of the space, everything in the space would be destroyed, including the two yachts, big and small, as well as a huge amount of living supplies. Without these things, how could Xia ruofei return to land?

Xia ruofei had already analyzed the worst case scenario when he was trying to drive the yacht out of the storm zone. However, he had no other choice now, and he had no time to think.

Before the huge wave hit him, Xia ruofei gritted his teeth and summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm. Then, with a single thought, he disappeared from the outside world and entered the spirit map space.

The ancient painting fell into the sea. The next moment, it was slammed by the waves and pressed into the sea.

After Xia ruofei entered the spatial zone, he immediately appeared at the entrance of the cave on the mountainside of the mountain in the mountain sea realm. His expression was grave as he observed the situation outside. Even when Xia Qing and the White realmfox came over, he didn't have the mood to care.

To Xia ruofei's relief, the spirit painting was not damaged even though it was rolling in the water.

In fact, when Xia ruofei first obtained the spirit painting, he had tried it out. He realized that the painting was unusually strong. No matter if it was soaked in water, burned by fire, or torn by force, it could not be damaged at all.

Moreover, the volume of the painting scroll was so small, and it was even in the shape of a cylinder. The impact of the waves should not be that great.

This gave Xia ruofei some confidence.

Of course, the most important thing was that he could faintly feel that the cultivator who could create such a vast dimensional space must have a terrifyingly high cultivation. The magic weapons made by such a person should be very strong.

Now, Xia ruofei could only comfort himself like this. The environment outside was extremely harsh. He would not be able to survive if he went out now. He could only pray that the spirit map scroll was powerful enough.

Although the spirit map scroll was constantly rolling up and down in the sea, the space could not feel it at all. It was completely the same as usual, without even a trace of vibration.

Xia ruofei guessed that the spirit map space was actually a separate space, and the scroll was just an entrance to it.

Only through the scroll could he connect the outside world and the spirit map space.

“Master ...” Xia Qing called out again.

Xia ruofei came back to his senses and said to Xia Qing, “I’m fine ... You can go back to your work!”

When he stopped the boat and slept, he had sealed off the spirit map space to sense the outside world. Therefore, neither Xia Qing nor the White realm Fox knew what was happening in the outside world.

However, they had all seen Xia ruofei storing the huge azmu yacht. The white fox knew that Xia ruofei had been driving the yacht on the sea for the past few days.

Xia Qing was absolutely obedient to her master’s orders. He immediately nodded and said, “Alright ...”

Just as Xia Qing was about to teleport back to the Archean realm to take care of the Strasburg geese, Xia ruofei suddenly called out to him.

“That’s right, Xia Qing!” Xia ruofei asked, “this spirit painting won’t be easily damaged, right?”

Xia Qing’s understanding of the spirit map space was definitely more than Xia ruofei’s, but due to the rules, she couldn’t tell Xia ruofei everything. Hence, Xia ruofei wanted to find some comfort from Xia Qing.

Xia Qing was stunned for a moment, and then said, “of course!” The materials used to create the scroll are very precious, otherwise, it would be impossible to maintain a stable spatial node ...”

Xia ruofei’s heart relaxed a little, but Xia Qing changed the topic and said, “But it’s not absolute. If it’s hit by a huge external force, the scroll might be damaged.”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but frown and asked, “Then what level of external force can damage the painting?”

Xia Qing forced a smile and said, “I’m not sure about this. Generally speaking, the attack of a master of the original infant stage can’t do anything to this painting. If the cultivation is higher ... I’ve never experienced it ...”

Xia ruofei was also helpless. He did not know how destructive a full – force attack from an original infant stage cultivator was. That level of cultivation was still too far away for him. Even if he knew, he could not directly convert it to the impact of the storm on the painting!

However, Xia Qing’s words still gave Xia ruofei some comfort. At least this painting was made of very precious materials, so it should not be a problem to soak in the sea for a while.

“Alright, you can go!” He nodded.

Xia ruofei looked at the white fox and said, “Little fellow, you should also go and rest first! When the storm outside calms down, I’ll continue sailing!”

The White realmfox did not throw a tantrum, which was very rare. It nodded in a very human – like way. Then, a white light flashed past and left the platform on the mountainside.

Chapter 2135 Surviving a great disaster (2)

Xia ruofei sighed and sat down cross – legged at the entrance of the cave. He focused all his attention on sensing the situation outside.

If the spirit map was in danger of being destroyed, he would have to leave the space Kasaya as soon as possible. He didn't know what would happen if the space collapsed. What if he would never be able to return to the outside world?

Therefore, not only was he ready to leave the realm at any time, but he also carefully moved some supplies here with his mind. Then, he stuffed a backpack with a lot of food, water, handheld GPS, maritime satellite phone, and so on that he had originally prepared.

He put his backpack on his back and looked at the thriving and lively spirit map space. He hoped that the worst case scenario would not happen. Otherwise, all the good things would be gone ...

Xia ruofei had expected to encounter all sorts of dangers when exploring the sea on a yacht that was only suitable for offshore navigation. However, he did not expect the situation to be so bad.

He could not help but sigh, "never underestimate the power of nature. In the face of nature, humans are still too insignificant ..."

Xia ruofei could feel that in the sea outside, the spirit map scroll was rolling up and down with the huge waves. Sometimes, it would sink to a depth of ten to twenty meters, and sometimes, it would be thrown up.

The storm lasted for a few hours, and no one knew how big the storm was. At least, when Xia ruofei used the small weather radar on the yacht to observe, he found that the weather was extremely bad for more than ten nautical miles.

Now, Xia ruofei did not know where the waves had brought the spirit map to. It was an impossible task to determine the direction and position of the spirit map while it was rolling.

Of course, Xia ruofei was not too worried. He was well prepared this time. The yacht had a GPS positioning system, a handheld GPS, and a maritime satellite phone. As long as the storm subsided, he believed that he could quickly determine his position and even continue to sail.

After all, the yacht was not damaged in the storm and Xia ruofei had already kept it in the medium.

Although the storm was still raging outside, Xia ruofei could clearly feel that the storm was weakening. Waves that were dozens of meters high were rarely seen.

He was overjoyed. He knew that the storm was about to pass, and the sea should be calm again soon.

In the past few hours, the spirit map had been drifting with the waves. It had been hit and thrown by the waves countless times, but there was no sign of damage. Xia ruofei had been paying attention to the condition of the spirit map and knew very well that there was not a single trace of damage to it. He was much more at ease now.

“I’ll just wait for this damn storm to pass and then immediately leave the space!” Xia ruofei muttered to himself.

The storm came suddenly, but it didn’t retreat so quickly.

Xia ruofei waited for more than an hour before the wind and waves outside reduced to a level that he thought he could deal with. The sky outside was already bright, but everywhere his spiritual power could reach was the vast sea. He had no idea where the waves had brought the spirit map to in the past few hours.

Xia ruofei felt that the water outside had started to calm down. He left the space.

He couldn’t wait any longer and didn’t even take off his backpack.

As soon as he appeared in the outside world, Xia ruofei immediately kept the spirit map scroll in his body. He was completely relieved.

Although the storm was not as terrible as last night, the waves were still quite big. Xia ruofei decided to take out the yacht later.

Thinking of the thirty – meter long azmu yacht, Xia ruofei felt a headache. If he wanted to retrieve the yacht again, he would have to use all his strength. The feeling of having a splitting headache from overusing his mental energy in an instant made him feel a lingering fear.

Although he was carrying a heavy backpack, Xia ruofei could still easily stabilize his body in the water.

At this moment, a white mist began to rise from the sea. The mist seemed to have appeared out of thin air and Xia ruofei could not help but click his tongue in wonder.

The fog came quickly. In a short while, Xia ruofei felt as if he was in a sauna. His field of vision was no more than two or three meters.

This made Xia ruofei feel a little uneasy. He could not help but release his spiritual power. After all, the White mist was a little strange.

However, to Xia ruofei’s surprise, he realized that his spiritual power was greatly restricted in the fog. He could only detect up to 10 meters away.

“What the hell is this?” Xia ruofei couldn’t help but Mutter to himself.

He didn’t have any good ideas. He could only roughly identify a direction and then swim forward in the fog. It was difficult to even distinguish North, South, East, and West. It was not an easy thing to distinguish the direction.

Xia ruofei swam forward for more than ten minutes, but he was still in the thick fog. Just as he was about to lose his patience and retrieve the yacht to use the GPS to determine the location, the White fog began to disperse at a speed that was visible to the naked eye.

This really came and went quickly. Xia ruofei watched as the White mist around him quickly faded and disappeared.

Xia ruofei was confused by this phenomenon. However, since the strange white fog had started to disappear, he did not think too much about it.

In at most two to three minutes, the thick white fog completely dissipated.

Xia ruofei turned his head to look for the sun. However, the moment he turned his head, he was stunned. There was a small green Island about a thousand meters behind him!

Before the White fog appeared, Xia ruofei had scanned the surroundings. It was just the vast ocean and there were no islands.

On the sea, Xia ruofei's vision was unobstructed. If there was such a small island, he would be able to see it from far away.

He had only been swimming in the thick fog for about twenty minutes, and it was difficult for him to move in a straight line. Perhaps he had been running in circles! Even if he could move forward in a straight line and swim very fast, he couldn't possibly swim very far!

One had to know that the small island was already very close!

Xia ruofei felt that his mind was a little muddled. From the start of the storm last night to the encounter with this Island, he felt that there were too many things that were difficult to explain ...

At this moment, the White realmfox in the space suddenly squeaked excitedly. It was even jumping on the spot and gesturing with its forelimbs.

Xia ruofei came back to her senses and used her mind to sense the surroundings. She immediately exclaimed in surprise, "What did you just say? There's a world stone on the island ahead?"

When Xia ruofei kept the spirit map space in his body, he had already released the space's connection to the outside world. If there were really realm stones on the island, it would not be strange for the white leopard to sense it.

However, the island was already so close. Logically speaking, the White realm Fox should have been able to sense it from far away!

Unless ... Xia ruofei thought of a possibility. Since the thick white fog could suppress the range of one's spiritual energy, it could also possibly hinder the White realm Fox's sensing of the realm stone.

No matter what, after experiencing such a terrifying storm, the skies were clear now that the rain had passed. Furthermore, they had actually discovered an Island with world stones. Perhaps this was a blessing after surviving a great disaster!

Although the appearance of this Island was a little sudden, since the White realm Fox was sure that there were realm stones on the island, Xia ruofei would definitely go to the island to look for them.

However, he did not take out his yacht as he was already very close to the island. He did not know the situation on the island yet. If it was not a deserted island but a inhabited one, the people on the island would probably see a yacht appearing out of thin air if he took it out now. To the cautious Xia ruofei, this was something that he would never allow to happen.

Moreover, he was not familiar with the surrounding water environment. If there were hidden reefs around the island, the yacht might be damaged before it reached the shore. It would not be worth it. If Xia ruofei wanted to return to land, the azmu yacht was the key!

Xia ruofei was only about a thousand meters away from the island. This distance was nothing to Xia ruofei. When he was in the Army, he had to travel at least a few thousand meters during armed swimming training. Moreover, his physical fitness was much better after the training. This distance was nothing to him.

Chapter 2136 Black Sam (1)

A distance of more than 1000 meters was not too far. However, the sea seemed to be at low tide at this time. Xia ruofei had to overcome the resistance from the island and was carrying a heavy backpack. Hence, it took him more than half an hour to feel that he was on solid ground.

He swam forward a little more, then stood up from the water and walked to the beach of the island.

Xia ruofei had been observing the situation on the island the moment they arrived.

There was a large beach on the side of the island where he landed.

The White and fine sand on the beach didn't seem to have any traces of human activity. The blue sea, the White beach, and the lush tropical plants seemed to be completely unpolluted. The scenery here was better than the Maldives, Bali, and other tourist attractions.

Soon, Xia ruofei reached the beach. He sat down, opened his heavy backpack, and threw it on the beach. Yingying's clothes were wet and stuck to her body. It was very uncomfortable. He had prepared a few sets of clothes in his backpack and was going to change into them.

Xia ruofei had prepared for the worst when he prepared the backpack. It was prepared in case the spiritual map scroll could not withstand the huge impact of the storm and caused the space to collapse. Therefore, it not only contained food, drinking water, GPS, satellite phone, change of clothes, salt, and some other daily necessities. It had everything.

Just as Xia ruofei was unzipping his waterproof backpack, he suddenly stopped and turned his head to look at a Bush not far away.

Xia ruofei heard a rustling sound and scanned with his spiritual power. He noticed a figure running towards him. He could vaguely sense that the figure was naked and there were some leaves around his lower body.

Xia ruofei mumbled to himself, "there's still someone on this Island?" He looks like a Savage ..."

However, Xia ruofei did not care. Even if there were some savages on the island, they were not a threat to him. His combat ability was enough to deal with ordinary savages. Even if there were a lot of savages, he still had many guns in his storage space! When he was dealing with the Mafia families in Italy, he had kept many guns in his space.

In the face of firearms, the number of primitive barbarians was meaningless.

Xia ruofei didn't pay any attention to the excited white fox. Instead, he slowly changed into a set of dry clothes and put the wet clothes into the medium. He asked Xia Qing to hang the clothes on a tree to dry.

Then, Xia ruofei checked the items in his backpack.

The backpack was extremely waterproof, and he hadn't been in the water for a long time, so the inside of the backpack was still very dry. The food, drinking water, maritime satellite phone, and other equipment were all intact.

Xia ruofei casually placed the food, drinks, and condiments on the beach. Then, he turned on his handheld GPS, hoping to locate his position first and see how far he had deviated from the flight route he had set.

Although there were 100 tons of fuel stored in the realm, Xia ruofei still needed to plan carefully to ensure that there was enough fuel for the return trip.

However, after he turned on the GPS, he couldn't find any satellite signal.

Xia ruofei was dumbfounded. How could this be? There was almost no cover around the island, and the GPS didn't correspond to a particular satellite. It couldn't be that there were no satellites above the island at this moment, right? The probability of this happening should be very low.

Xia ruofei did not want to give up and changed direction. He waited for another two to three minutes, but the GPS was still searching for signals. He could not find a single satellite.

"What the ... What's going on?" Xia ruofei muttered to himself.

He turned on the maritime satellite phone again, but the satellite phone also had no signal.

This place seemed to be isolated from the world ...

Just as Xia ruofei was still trying to figure it out, he heard a flurry of footsteps.

Xia ruofei frowned. He put down the GPS and the maritime satellite phone, then turned to look.

A group of people rushed out of the bushes behind the beach. There were about a dozen of them.

This group of people were all wearing simple skirts made of tree leaves. One or two of them had tree bark around their waists. All of them were sallow and emaciated. They stared at the instant noodles, compressed biscuits, mineral water, and other things that Xia ruofei had casually thrown on the beach. Their eyes were shining with desire.

Some of these people were holding wooden Spears, while others were carrying very simple bows and arrows on their backs. They looked like the indigenous savages on the island.

Xia ruofei slowly put the items he had taken out into his backpack. The savages saw Xia ruofei's actions and could not help but make a commotion. However, they did not act rashly and only stared at Xia ruofei.

Unless it was absolutely necessary, Xia ruofei did not want to hurt these savages. Even on a deserted island, Xia ruofei did not want his hands to be stained with blood. As for food and water, he had a mountain of them in his interspace. He did not mind giving these savages a little.

“Put the things down! From the moment you set foot on Sam Island, everything on you, including yourself, has become my personal property!” An unruly voice was heard, speaking English.

Chapter 2137 Black Sam (2)

Xia ruofei stopped in his tracks. He slowly turned around and looked at the group of savages.

The Barbarian could actually speak the language of the human society, and it was English? Xia ruofei was quite surprised, but he didn't take the other party's threat seriously.

The barbarians quickly made a path for a white man with a big beard. He walked in front of them. He was wearing a pair of jeans, a pair of tattered leather boots, and an old jacket.

However, he could at least tell that the bearded man's clothes were from a civilized society. He also spoke English, which surprised Xia ruofei. At least this man had a way to communicate. He wanted to know more about the island.

Xia ruofei smiled as he put down the bag of bread in his hand. Then, he stood up and walked towards the bearded man.

“stop!” “Stand there and don't move!” The bearded white man shouted.

The bearded white man saw Xia ruofei smiling and stopped in his tracks. He felt embarrassed for being so nervous just now. “What happened to me just now? Could there be a man more powerful than me, Black Sam, in this world? He's just a lucky kid who managed to save his life in the sea disaster ...”

Thinking of this, the bearded white man snorted and said, “Stand there and don't move!”

Then, he turned to a “Savage” who had an animal skin around his waist and said, “Carson! Go and get his backpack ...”

“Yes! Your Highness!” The “Savage” replied.

Xia ruofei looked at this “Savage” called Carson in surprise. Even though his skin was tanned and his hair and beard were messy, he could still tell that he was Caucasian from his facial features. He had also spoken in English very clearly.

So these weren't savages! “This is getting more and more interesting ...” Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile, especially when he heard Carson call the bearded man “His Highness.” He almost burst out laughing.

If the bearded white man in front of him was really a Prince, he would probably be the most down – and – out Prince in the world!

Carson walked over to Xia ruofei. The bearded man grinned and said, “Instant noodles, carbonated drinks, bread, ham sausage ... I haven't eaten these things in so many years. I really miss their taste!”

The few “savages” beside the bearded white man couldn't help but gulp. Obviously, they were also very envious, but they knew very well that they would never have the chance to enjoy these things.

Carson walked up to Xia ruofei and grabbed a few bags of bread from the beach. He stuffed them into his backpack.

Xia ruofei smiled and did not stop him.

When Carson put everything into his backpack and was about to pick it up, he suddenly felt a blur in front of his eyes. A hand reached out and pulled the backpack over.

Carson turned around and saw Xia ruofei smiling as he put on his backpack. "Thank you for helping me pack my things!"

Seeing this, the bearded white man was furious and shouted, "How audacious! Kid, how dare you disobey my order? Are you tired of living?"

Black Sam? Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment and couldn't help but smile. After hearing the bearded man's self-introduction, he finally understood why Carson had called him "Your Highness."

There was a legendary pirate named Sam berami, who was also known as the "pirate Prince." In the 18th century, he built a pirate base on a small island in Venezuela and hid many treasures on the island. These treasures were not discovered until 1984, and all of them went to the Venezuela government.

So this guy considered himself The Pirate Prince! No wonder he called the island "Sam Island." It must be his own name.

'This big-bearded man is quite narcissistic ...' Xia ruofei thought to himself.

The bearded white man saw Xia ruofei's strange smile and was even more exasperated. He shouted, "Eastern kid! It seems that if I don't teach you a lesson, you won't know fear! Carson! Pop! And you! You! All of you, attack him together and show him the power of the soldiers of Sam Island!"

The "Savage" that the bearded white man had pointed out immediately stepped out. There were about six or seven of them, all holding their primitive weapons, and surrounded Xia ruofei.

Carson, who was the closest to Xia ruofei, beat him to it and threw a heavy punch at Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled and took a light step to the side. Then, he pulled on Carson's arm and he stumbled a few steps forward.

The other "savages" had also rushed over. Xia ruofei was like a tiger in a flock of sheep. He took them down in a few moves without even breaking a sweat.

To be honest, these barbarians who had been malnourished for a long time had terrible combat power.

Of course, Xia ruofei was not too harsh on them. To him, they were just pitiful people who were trapped on the island.

Seeing this, the bearded white man's face turned even uglier. He snorted and said, "You have some ability! It seems like I have to do it myself ..."

After saying that, he strode forward, counting his fingers as he walked, making a crackling sound.

When the "barbarians" saw that the bearded white man had personally made a move, they all revealed looks of respect. At the same time, some of them looked at Xia ruofei with sympathy.

In their eyes, this Eastern kid was clearly going to be out of luck.

Mr. Sam wasn't someone ordinary people could mess with. This big bearded white man's years of abuse of power had long made these "barbarians" have no heart to resist, and everyone had a psychological shadow.

Xia ruofei was still standing there calmly. He looked at the strong, bearded white man in front of him and smiled.

The bearded man shouted when he was three to four meters away from Xia ruofei. He sped up and charged at Xia ruofei, swinging his big fist at Xia ruofei's face.

Xia ruofei easily reached out his hand to block it. The moment their arms touched, Xia ruofei's expression changed and his eyes revealed a look of surprise.

"Eh?" Xia ruofei couldn't help but cry out.

Then, he suddenly increased his speed and appeared behind the bearded man like a ghost. At the same time, he stretched out his hand and twisted the bearded man's thick arm behind him.

Xia ruofei pressed down lightly and the bearded man immediately bent down involuntarily, wailing in pain.

Xia ruofei had already locked his acupuncture points, so he could not exert any strength at all. He could only cry out in vain.

The savages were dumbfounded. They had never thought that the God of War, Mr. Sam, would be so vulnerable. It was an unbelievable scene, but it had actually happened in front of their eyes.

"Tell me! What's your name?" Xia ruofei asked indifferently.

"Sam ..."

"Tell me your real name!" Xia ruofei interrupted him and shouted.

The bearded white man trembled and quickly said, "Puyol ..."

"Isn't that a nice name? What's his name, Sam?" Xia ruofei said with a smile, "don't you know that pirate Prince Black Sam only lived to 28 years old? Using such a short – lived name, aren't you afraid of being unlucky?"

This big – bearded pjoll was a Westerner, so how would he know if it was auspicious or not? In his eyes, the legendary pirate Sam Bellamy was a great hero, so he called himself Black Sam.

Xia ruofei immediately asked, "Tell me the truth, who did you learn your Kung Fu from?"

Chapter 2138 The strange white fog (1)

When their arms touched, Xia ruofei immediately felt the presence of Qi in this bearded Puyol's body. Although his cultivation was very weak and was considered weak even among those at refined Qi Level 1, the Qi itself was enough to pique Xia ruofei's interest.

A white man on a deserted island had actually managed to cultivate true Qi. Was there anything more bizarre than this?

It was no wonder that Puyol could become the leader of this group of “savages.” He could barely be considered a practitioner. In front of a group of ordinary people, Puyol was absolutely invincible even with his physical strength.

According to the senses of the white fox, there was a realm stone on this Island. Xia ruofei had also just realized that the GPS and maritime satellite phone could not detect any signal. In addition, there was a white man who had cultivated true Qi in his body. Xia ruofei was getting more and more interested in this small island.

Xia ruofei did not know how to translate “genuine Qi” into English, so he used the word “Kongfu”, which was the transliteration of “Kungfu” in English.

After Puyol heard that, he revealed a confused expression and said, “Kung Fu? I’ve never learned Kung Fu! I used to be a free – range boxer ...”

Xia ruofei thought for a while and immediately asked, “Did your body become much stronger? did all this happen after you came to this Island?”

Puyol’s expression changed slightly when he heard that. He asked subconsciously, “How did you know?”

A smile appeared on Xia ruofei’s face. Judging from elder Puyol’s reaction, he could basically conclude that the bearded man must have had a fortuitous encounter after being stranded on a deserted island. He had inexplicably cultivated a trace of true energy, and he probably did not even know what had happened!

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “alright, take me to your place.” I hope that your memory is good enough. If you miss anything, do you know the consequences?”

With that, Xia ruofei released his true Qi slightly and pierced into a few acupuncture points on Puyol’s body. Puyol immediately felt as if his whole body was being stung by countless bees at the same time, and he cried out in pain.

Xia ruofei quickly retracted his true energy. The whole process only took two to three seconds, but Puyol was already in so much pain that his face was pale. He was covered in cold sweat as if he had just been fished out of the water.

“My Lord!” Puyol quickly replied. My Lord! I don’t dare to ... I’ll tell you whatever you ask, and I won’t hide anything from you!”

“Very good!” Xia ruofei gently pulled Puyol to straighten his body and said, “ask your men to lead the way!”

In fact, Xia ruofei could have let go of Puyol. With the big – bearded man’s weak cultivation, Xia ruofei could easily catch him even if he had to run a hundred meters first. However, Xia ruofei still held Puyol’s arm with one hand, in case this guy fantasized about running away because he did not know his strength. He would have to spend some effort to catch him back.

“Carson, quick!” Puyol quickly shouted. Hurry up and lead the way!”

Carson and the rest looked at Xia ruofei in awe and quickly led the way. Xia ruofei and Puyol followed behind.

The group went into the bushes behind the beach."The savages are obviously very familiar with the terrain here. They led Xia ruofei around for about ten minutes before they arrived at a forest.

This forest was the "base" of Puyol and the others. There was a mountain wall behind them, and a few simple wooden houses were built under the mountain wall. There was even a fence surrounded by small trees.

There were still two people guarding the place. When they saw Carson and the others, they quickly opened the gate. However, when they saw that Puyol was being held by Xia ruofei, they were dumbfounded.

Puyol, who usually had absolute authority, was like a docile cat at this moment. Carson and the others were like defeated roosters. They were all dejected and walked in front, not even daring to breathe.

"Sir," Puyol said submissively, "I live in the wooden house in the middle."

Actually, even if Puyol did not say it, Xia ruofei could already tell.

Not only was this wooden house located in the center of the camp, but it was also obviously much larger than the other wooden houses, and its appearance was relatively exquisite.

Xia ruofei escorted Puyol into the wooden house.

What surprised him was that there were three women living in the wooden house. One of them was carrying a one – year – old child in her arms. The three women only used animal skins to cover their sensitive parts. When they saw Puyol being escorted in this position, their eyes were filled with fear. Their bodies trembled slightly as they looked at Xia ruofei with uncertainty.

"Elena, you guys go out first!" Puyol quickly said.

Xia ruofei looked at Puyol with a smile that wasn't a smile. If he didn't guess wrong, these three should be Puyol's women.

In fact, it was not strange. Puyol was barely a first Qi layer cultivator. In this group of people, he was simply a local tyrant. Women on the deserted island were definitely in a rare shortage of resources. It was normal for him to monopolize them all.

However, when Xia ruofei heard Puyol's anxious tone, he felt that he was worried that his women would be taken away. Xia ruofei could not help but laugh at the three women's average looks. He did not know how many years they had lived on this deserted island, and it was obvious that they did not have enough nutrition. Each of them looked pale, and their skin was very rough. Their bodies were so weak that they seemed to be blown over by a gust of wind. Xia ruofei's close female friends were all as beautiful as fairies. Unless he was blind or crazy, he would not be able to find them. That's why he took a fancy to these women.

Chapter 2139 The strange white fog (2)

The three women got up in a hurry and left the wooden house as if they were escaping.

Xia ruofei threw Puyol on the ground and waved his hand. The two doors of the wooden house closed on their own.

Puyol's eyes almost popped out when he saw this. He stuttered, ""My Lord, are you ... Are you an immortal from the East?"

"I'm the one interrogating you now," Xia ruofei said indifferently. "All you have to do is answer my questions honestly!"

"Yes, yes, yes ..." Puyol said quickly. He hesitated for a moment, then mustered up his courage and asked, "great divine immortal, I'll tell you everything I know and cooperate with you. But ... Can you ... Can you take me out of here?"

Xia ruofei looked at Puyol with a faint smile and asked, ""Aren't you Living a Good Life here? No one would dare to disobey your will, just like the Emperor ..."

Puyol smiled bitterly and said, "Lord deity, if we can return to the land, who would be willing to be the king of this damn place?" So what if they conquered the entire Island? I ... I haven't had a can of Coke in eight years! I'm wearing the best clothes on the island, you've seen it ..."

After saying that, Puyol laughed at himself.

Puyol subconsciously caught the coke and was stunned.

He felt that he was already Xia ruofei's prisoner, so he naturally did not dare to expect anything from Xia ruofei's bag. Of course, he also did not think that Xia ruofei would really give him a Coke.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "this game is only worth a few dollars outside ..."

Puyol was stunned for a moment, and then he figured out that the "immortal" in front of Yingying had such amazing means, so how could he be trapped on a deserted island?

In his eyes, Coke from the outside world was worth a lot, but in the other party's eyes, it was only worth a few dollars.

Xia ruofei said, "tell me about your experience first!" Then, I'll ask you some questions. If your answers satisfy me, I'll even take you away from here, let alone Cola ..."

Puyol's eyes immediately revealed a strong desire, and he didn't hesitate to spill the beans.

In fact, his experience was similar to Xia ruofei's guess. He had been stranded on this deserted island for eight or nine years. He had been on this Island for a long time and could not calculate the exact time.

At that time, Puyol had been a wrestling athlete. He had participated in a wrestling exhibition match on a cruise ship and had unfortunately encountered a sea disaster.

There were about 700 to 800 people on the cruise ship, but only a few dozen survived in the end. Puyol had grabbed a piece of a ship's deck fragment and floated in the sea for two days. He was lucky to encounter a lifeboat on the cruise ship, and there were about 20 people on the lifeboat.

After he was pulled up by the people on the lifeboat, he drifted on the sea with everyone for another three days. The food and water on the lifeboat were almost exhausted.

It was at this time that they encountered a heavy fog.

When Xia ruofei heard this, he couldn't help but interrupt Puyol and ask, "Fog? Can you describe the situation in detail?"

Although Puyol was curious as to why Xia ruofei was interested in the fog, he quickly said, "It was noon, the sea was calm, and the weather was very clear, but within a few minutes, the area we were in was filled with a thick white fog. It was a very strange scene ... We felt a little scared, so we rowed hard, and then ... After a few minutes, the fog dissipated by itself, and we saw this Island! I swear to God, the view on the sea was very good at that time. Before the thick fog came up, we didn't see any small island at all ..."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but take a deep breath. The scene described by Puyol was almost exactly the same as what he had encountered today.

Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat. He asked, "Puyol, do you remember which Sea area your cruise ship was sailing in when the accident happened?"

Puyol shook his head. "I don't know the exact location ... I only know that the cruise ship set off from Lisbon, Portugal, and its destination was Iceland. We sailed for two days before we encountered a Superstorm. The cruise ship quickly capsized ..."

Hearing this, Xia ruofei could not help but feel a storm in his heart. No matter where the specific location of Puyol's shipwreck was, from the starting point and destination, the cruise ship must have been sailing in the North Atlantic!

Xia ruofei was sure that before he encountered the White fog, he had not left the territory of the East China Sea.

They were practically half the earth apart!

There must be something wrong. Either Puyol and the rest had been "teleported" from the North Atlantic to the East Sea for some unknown reason, or Xia ruofei was actually in the North Atlantic now.

Of course, there was another possibility. This deserted island was neither in the North Pacific nor the East China Sea.

No matter which possibility it was, Xia ruofei had a feeling that it had something to do with the strange white fog.

However, this was beyond Xia ruofei's ability. He knew that even if he cracked his head, he would not be able to figure out the answer.

Thus, he decisively put this question aside and said indifferently, "I know, Puyol, continue ..."

Hence, Puyol continued to narrate his experience.

After discovering this deserted island, the survivors, who had almost exhausted all their supplies, naturally seemed to grab onto a life – saving straw and desperately rowed the lifeboats to the island.

What happened next was nothing special. This was a deserted island in the middle of the ocean. More than 20 survivors were stranded on the deserted island. All the laws and standards of a civilized society lost their effect here. Puyol, who had the strongest martial strength, naturally became the ruler.

The island wasn't too small, and it had fresh water, some small beasts, and tropical fruit trees. All the survivors had survived, except for a few who were killed by Puyol during the fight for survival resources.

Of course, they didn't give up on returning to human society. In the first few years, they arranged for people to watch from a high vantage point 24 hours a day, hoping to find passing ships. At the same time, they set up SOS signals on the beach and lit bonfires, but to no avail.

For a few years, not a single ship or plane had passed by this place, so Puyol and the others gradually gave up. They had a faint feeling that the location of this deserted island was far away from the normal ship routes. As time passed, they also knew that the possibility of being rescued was very low, so they gradually lived here in peace and gradually formed a structure similar to that of a rough stone society.

Puyol was undoubtedly the king. He enjoyed all the resources first. The three women among the survivors all became his women, and they even gave birth to his children.

However, the conditions on the island were too bad, and almost all the children died. Only a girl born last year had survived, but she was severely malnourished.

After Xia ruofei heard this, he pondered for a while and asked the question that he was most interested in. "Puyol, did you experience something on the island that caused your power to increase significantly?"

Upon hearing this, Puyol immediately said, "great deity, nothing can escape your eyes!" Yes, I was only slightly stronger than them, but the experience seven years ago gave me unparalleled strength!"

Speaking of this, Puyol seemed to have thought of the huge gap between him and Xia ruofei. He could not help but laugh. "Of course, in front of the divine immortal Lord, my little bit of power is naturally not worth mentioning ..."

Xia ruofei frowned and said, "Get straight to the point! What did you experience seven years ago?"

He was very sure that Puyol's body contained true energy. This was also one of the important reasons why he did not rush to search for the world stone according to the White realm Fox's request.

The strange white fog, the possible existence of a world stone, and a Caucasian who had cultivated true Qi ... This Island was becoming more and more mysterious in Xia ruofei's eyes.

There was a saying in the Army that one should not fight an unprepared war.

Xia ruofei was very clear that he had to be very careful at this time. If he was more careful at this critical moment, he might be able to save his life!

Chapter 2140 A pool (1)

"Yes, yes, yes!" Puyol quickly said, "Lord deity, seven years ago, I already ruled Sam ... Uh, this small island ..."

At this point, Puyol showed a slightly embarrassed expression before he continued, ""Usually, it's the other survivors who go fishing, hunting, picking fruits, and so on. That day, I was bored, so I climbed the mountain behind to stroll around ..."

Puyol began to narrate the experience he would never forget that day.

Perhaps it was the guidance of the unknown, but that day, Puyol went deep into the mountain forest where other survivors had never set foot in to collect living supplies, and accidentally came to a pool.

In Puyol's words, the pool emitted a slight chill, and the water was dark blue, like a sapphire decorating the ground.

What made him even more surprised was that no matter how he walked, when he was about one meter away from the pool, he could not get any closer. There was nothing there, but there was an invisible resistance.

He went around the pond and tried many different locations, but he just couldn't get close.

Just as he was about to make one last attempt and was about to give up if it really didn't work, he didn't know why, but he actually walked one meter away from the pool.

Of course, he only took one or two steps forward. Before he could really reach the side of the pool, the resistance appeared again, and he could no longer move forward.

At this moment, Puyol saw a dark red fruit hanging on a branch beside him. This branch had grown horizontally from the side of the pool, and the fruit was emitting an alluring fragrance.

Puyol, who had been busy for half a day, was already famished. He could not control his appetite at all when he smelled the fragrance. He even forgot to consider whether the fruit was poisonous or not. He just picked it and stuffed it into his mouth.

He couldn't remember what the fruit tasted like. It wasn't just because the fruit immediately turned into liquid and flowed down his throat. More importantly, the moment he plucked the fruit and put it in his mouth, the water in the pool suddenly changed!

With a splash, a very thick Python suddenly leaped out of the water, spitting out a scarlet red Yuuko as it bit at him fiercely.

Puyol was trained in combat, so his reflexes were still considered agile. He almost subconsciously rolled to avoid the snake and did not end up in its stomach.

The Python that missed its attack did not stop at all. Its tail swept over with a whooshing sound. This time, Puyol could not Dodge it completely in time. He only raised his arm to block it out of reflex.

Puyol felt as if he had been hit by a truck. With a crack, his arm was broken. Then, his entire body flew up as if he was riding on clouds and mist. He fell out of the one – meter range of the pool and crashed heavily into a tree. He felt as if his internal organs had been shattered.

Puyol's vision went black at that time. His last thought before he fainted was that he was done for this time and would definitely become the Python's dinner.

That night, Puyol slowly woke up.

He thought he was dead, but the pain on his body and arms made him know that he was still alive.

Puyol felt like he had just survived a disaster. He lay under the tree and turned his head with all his might to look at the pool. He was almost scared out of his wits.

The Python was swimming in the pool, its cold eyes looking over from time to time.

Puyol was so scared that he didn't dare to move. In fact, he couldn't move either. Not only did he break his arm, but he also broke several bones when he hit the tree at the last moment.

That night was torture for Puyol because he didn't know when the Python would pounce on him and swallow him.

Fortunately, the Python did not seem to leave the one – meter radius of the pool. Although it was eyeing him covetously, it did not come out.

What was even more amazing was that Puyol felt a warmth in his lower abdomen. The warm current gradually spread throughout his body. It was the kind of warmth that one would feel at the last moment when they were having sex with a woman.

After the warm current passed through him, the fractures in his body began to recover quickly.

The next morning, Puyol found that the fractures in his arms and body were almost healed. This was simply unimaginable.

He had been lying under the tree for three days. On one hand, his fracture had not fully recovered, and he was worried that moving his body would cause his bones to be dislocated; On the other hand, he also considered that if he returned to the camp in such a state, he was likely to be killed by the survivors who plotted to usurp the throne.

The Python didn't seem like it would come out anyway, so Puyol just lay there to recuperate.

For three days, he lay there almost motionless, relying on the dry food and water he had brought with him when he went out.

Then, he found that the fracture had completely recovered.

His injuries, which would have taken at least three months to heal, had actually completely healed in three days.

Moreover, Puyol quickly discovered that his strength had increased by many times. He was originally a strength – Type fighter, and it was a terrifying thing for his strength to increase by several times on this basis.

Speaking of which, the reason Puyol could find that his strength had become stronger was because when he returned to the camp after staying outside for three days, he found that there was a new “King” in the camp. The group of survivors thought that he had died in the forest. After a battle, three people died, and a Portuguese man named olis successfully ascended the throne.
