Chapter 2181 The awakening of the realm Fox (1)

Xia ruofei parked the car by the side of the road and entered the spirit map space to observe the White realmfox's condition.

Now, it was still wrapped in a white cocoon of light. Xia ruofei's spiritual energy could not penetrate it completely. He could only vaguely sense the white fox's condition.

The little guy was stretching his forelimbs as if he was stretching. Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. Did this guy really take a long nap? It didn't feel like anything had changed!

At this moment, the white fox seemed to have opened its mouth.

Could it be yawning? Xia ruofei said in his heart.

However, the next scene made Xia ruofei's eyes widen. The white fox opened its mouth and sucked. The White cocoon of light around it started to turn into rays of light and was sucked into its mouth.

There's such an operation?

The White cocoon of light was very thick, and the rays of light seemed to be peeling off from the surface of the cocoon, and then they were absorbed by the realm Fox.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but be amazed.

However, it seemed that the White realmfox would not come out for a while. At this rate, it would take a long time for it to finish eating the entire light cocoon!

Xia ruofei was still thinking about picking up Ling Qingxue. After some thought, he decided to put this matter aside and drive to buy some groceries.

Xia ruofei started the car again and drove to the nearby Walmart. He bought some organic pork and ribs. As for the vegetables and the Chinese perch that Ling Qingxue had personally ordered, they were all readily available in the interspace and did not need to be bought at the supermarket.

Soon, he walked out of the supermarket with a bag of groceries and drove back to the jiangbin villa community.

It had been more than ten days since anyone had lived in the villa, and there was a layer of dust on it.

After all, this was not the farm. Even if Xia ruofei was not at home, ye Lingyun would arrange for people to clean it regularly.

Xia ruofei placed the groceries he had bought from the supermarket into the refrigerator. Seeing that it was still early, he went to the garage and took out a mop, a rag, and other tools to start cleaning.

Although it was easy to hire a part – time cleaner, Xia ruofei enjoyed the process of cleaning by himself. Besides, he was full of energy. Although the villa was huge and there were many corners, he could do the cleaning very quickly.

After cleaning up the courtyard and the first floor, Xia ruofei looked at his watch. He felt that it was about time, so he put his tools aside and drove to the courtyard. He headed straight to the headquarters of Ling Ji F & B.

As Xia ruofei drove, he sent his thoughts into the spirit map space again to observe the White sector Fox's condition. He realized that it was still tirelessly absorbing the White threads of light in the cocoon of light. In such a short time, the cocoon of light seemed to have become thinner. However, it should not be finished anytime soon.

Just then, his phone rang.

Xia ruofei's phone was connected to the car's Bluetooth after he got into the car. He glanced at the display on the car's LCD screen and saw that it was a call from Ling Qingxue. He pressed the answer button on the Multi – Function Steering Wheel.

"Wife!" He said with a smile.

"Ruofei, I'm done here. Have you come over?" Ling Qingxue asked.

"He's already on the way!" Xia ruofei turned to look outside and said, "we'll be there in two traffic lights!"

"That's great!" Ling Qingxue said, "I'm going downstairs!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said, "there's a bit of traffic on the road ... If I'm not there by the time you get down, you can wait for me by the road!"

"Okay, I know!" Ling Qingxue said.

Xia ruofei drove on the road that was starting to get stuck in traffic. After about ten minutes, he finally arrived at the headquarters of the Ling's restaurant.

He turned the steering wheel and entered the building. From afar, he could see Ling Qingxue standing on the steps of the first floor, looking around.

Xia ruofei smiled, honked the horn, and drove the car over.

The Knight XV SUV was too eye – catching. When Ling Qingxue heard the horn, she turned her head and immediately noticed it. She immediately revealed a sweet smile and quickly walked towards the car.

Ling Qingxue was wearing a black business suit with a cream – colored shirt with a little lace. Her hair was also tied up, and she looked like a white – collar elite.

She opened the door of the passenger seat, held the handle with one hand, and got into the car easily with a little force.

The chassis of the Knight XV was so high that even a girl with less strength would have a hard time getting on it. Ling Qingxue could tell at a glance that this was the result of her cultivation.

"My wife, you're so beautiful today!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Ling Qingxue glanced at Xia ruofei and asked, ""You mean ... I wasn't pretty before?"

"How did you get the meaning of this?" Xia ruofei said without hesitation, "my wife has always been so beautiful, but she's even more beautiful today! He looks good!"

Ling Qingxue pursed her lips into a smile and said, "alright, your desire to live is quite strong ..."

"It's a must!" Xia ruofei said with a smile as he started the car.

After Ling Qingxue fastened her seat belt, she turned around and sized Xia ruofei up. Then, she said, ""You're good! You didn't get much tan after being out at sea for so many days!"

"Hehe ... I'm sleeping in the cabin most of the time ..." Xia ruofei smiled. "You'll know when you have time next time. It's actually very quiet at night on the sea. The yacht bobbed gently with the waves. Sleeping on the big soft bed feels like being in a cradle. It's as if you're a baby. Sleeping is so comfortable!"

Chapter 2182 The awakening of the realm Fox (2)

"Stop!" Ling Qingxue said. Stop! Stop! Don't tempt me! I won't be able to focus on my work if I do this ..."

"It's okay to go out for a day or two occasionally ..." Xia ruofei said. "We don't have to go to the sea far away! They would just take a walk around the coastal waters and stay at sea for a night. They would return the next day. You can't possibly be so busy that you don't even rest on the weekends! As long as I have time on the weekends, it's enough. I won't delay anything!"

"Then ... Why don't we see if you're free this weekend?" Ling Qingxue asked, a little tempted.

Xia ruofei said, "I must have time!" Wife, I even got a yacht driver's license. Isn't it so that no one will disturb us when we go out to sea? Let me tell you, on the vast sea, you'll feel like there's only the two of us left in the world. It'll be a world for the two of us ..."

Ling Qingxue couldn't help but reveal a look of yearning as she said, ""Then I'll arrange the work in advance. Let's go on a yacht this weekend!"

"This is right!" Xia ruofei said, "it's a good balance between work and rest!"

The two of them chatted as they drove to the Riverside Villa area. They hadn't seen each other for more than ten days, so they had a lot of topics to talk about.

Xia ruofei had always been a good listener. He did not feel annoyed at all when he heard Ling Qingxue talk about her company matters, including her assistant's breakup.

Ling Qingxue was also very interested in what Xia ruofei had seen and heard at sea. She kept pestering Xia ruofei to tell her about it.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei's experience on the sea these days was very rich. Even if the part on green Immortal Island was excluded, there were still many things to talk about.

This included casting a net on the affinity platform to fish, as well as catching blue lobsters.

"Waa! "There really are blue lobsters ..." Ling Qingxue's eyes widened when she heard that. "I've seen it on the internet before. I thought it was dyed ..."

"It's really a blue lobster. " Xia ruofei smiled and said,"it's dark blue all over. It's this big!"

After Xia ruofei finished speaking, he took his hands off the steering wheel and gestured the size of his hands. Then, he quickly tightened his grip on the steering wheel.

"Did you bring it back?" Ling Qingxue asked.

"I've eaten it!" Xia ruofei laughed and said,"he'll definitely be dead if he doesn't reach the shore. I caught him and steamed him on the yacht the day I caught him!"

"Ah ..." Ling Qingxue couldn't help but pout, looking very regretful.

"Qingxue, if you want to eat blue lobsters, let's go out to sea to catch them next time!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"It's a very small probability to be caught even once! I've heard that this variant is very rare!" Ling Qingxue smiled and said,"if I can really be caught by you twice in a row, then you can really go buy a lottery ticket! No! Even the probability of winning the lottery is lower than this!"

"That's not for sure. Why don't you take a look at your husband's character?" Xia ruofei smiled and said,"as long as you have confidence in me, I will definitely catch another blue lobster for you!"

"I don't believe it ..." Ling Qingxue thought about it and still felt that the possibility of this was too low.

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and smiled.""Then, why don't we make a bet?"

"A bet? How to bet? What are we betting on?" Ling Qingxue asked.

"Let's bet on whether I can catch a blue lobster this weekend!" Xia ruofei smiled and said,"didn't you say that the probability is extremely low? How was it? Do you dare to bet?"

"What do you want to bet on?" Ling Qingxue said.

"I can't figure it out in such a short time ..." Xia ruofei said."How about this? if I can catch the blue lobster, it's my win, right?" Then you have to agree to one of my requests!"

"What if you can't catch him?" Ling Qingxue asked.

"I'll agree to a request of yours!" Xia ruofei said without hesitation,"you can also make a bet now! As long as it's within my means, there's no problem!"

Ling Qingxue giggled and said,"I'm in a situation where I won't lose!" Ruofei, you're losing to me on purpose, aren't you? then ... If you can't catch it, I'll punish you ... You're not allowed to leave the three mountains for a month. You have to accompany me every day and make me a wild Chinese perch every day!"

"You have a big appetite! Aren't you afraid of getting sick of it after eating it for a month?" Xia ruofei laughed and said," This request isn't too much, I agree!"

Ling Qingxue said excitedly,"I'll say this first!" It must be caught from the sea on the spot! Otherwise, it doesn't count! What if you didn't eat the blue lobster you caught last time and put it in the refrigerator to freeze? when we get out to sea, you can take it out and say you won. That won't do!"

“Do I look like that kind of person?” Xia ruofei said, “don’t worry! It was definitely fished out from the sea on the spot. You can be there to supervise and witness the entire process!”

The blue lobster that Xia ruofei had caught the last time was being raised in the space ocean! Moreover, many young lobsters attached to the blue lobster were also fished up. Xia ruofei was almost certain to win the bet.

If he felt that it was a pity to sacrifice such a huge blue lobster for the bet, he could set up the time array flag at the Archean realm and let Xia Qing use the water of the space ocean to breed two young lobsters in the array.

The time array flag and the time flow of the Archean realm could reach 2000 times the normal speed. There were still a few days before the weekend, so he had more than enough time to ripen a few lobsters.

If he won the bet and got Qingxue to agree to one of his requests, it might come in handy one day! Xia ruofei laughed in his heart.

Ling Qingxue tilted her head and thought for a while. She felt that there was no flaw in this matter. It was simply impossible for Xia ruofei to win.

Hence, she said, “I’ll bet on it!” I don’t believe that you’re so godly! RUO Fei, you can’t go back on your word if you lose! One month! Not even one day less! Furthermore, you are not allowed to leave the three mountains no matter what happens!”

“No problem!” Xia ruofei said, “do you want to make a pinky?”

Ling Qingxue laughed and said, “Childish!”

The two of them chatted and laughed as they returned to the Riverside Villa area.

After entering the house, Xia ruofei let Ling Qingxue rest in the living room while he went to the kitchen to prepare lunch.

Xia ruofei felt lucky that he had cleaned up the first floor in the morning. Otherwise, there would be dust everywhere when he entered the house, and there would be no place to sit.

Ling Qingxue also enjoyed the feeling of being taken care of by Xia ruofei. She obediently did not cause trouble in the kitchen and turned on the television to watch a blockbuster.

Xia ruofei was busy in the kitchen. He first retrieved a long river beluga from the ocean in the spirit map space.

This Chinese perch could be said to be completely wild. It grew in such a unique environment like the spirit map space and was absolutely fresh. Even Xia ruofei had Great Expectations for the taste of this Chinese perch.

The method of making pomfrets was not complicated and Xia ruofei had already learned it. Very quickly, he had processed and steamed the pomfrets.

Then, he released his mental power to observe for a moment and found that Ling Qingxue was still focused on watching the television. He took out some Peach Garden vegetables from the medium, then took out some organic mountain Black pork, ribs, duck, and other ingredients from the refrigerator. He began to prepare them skillfully.

For a time, the sound of knives cutting the anvil rang out, as well as the occasional sound of pots and pans colliding, and the sound of the pressure cooker blowing out ... All kinds of sounds converged into a Symphony full of life.

Xia ruofei was wearing an apron and humming a song as he busied himself in the kitchen. He was in a very relaxed mood.

"This Chinese perch should be almost done ..." Xia ruofei mumbled to himself. "You can turn off the fire and let it keep warm ... The ribs should be slightly crushed. Qingxue likes to eat rotten ones ..."

At this moment, Xia ruofei heard a childish voice in his head. "Xia ... Xia ... Xia ruofei!"

Chapter 2183 Bai Qingqing (1)

"Who's there!" Xia ruofei was so shocked that he almost knocked over the lid of the pot.

However, Xia ruofei quickly realized that the voice did not come from the outside world. It was a telepathic message.

He immediately realized that the sound was coming from the spirit map space. When he used his mind to check the space, his jaw almost dropped. The sound actually came from the White realm Fox.

To be more precise, it was no longer a white realmfox. After absorbing the light cocoon, the color of its fur had changed. At first glance, it was still white, but if one looked closely, one could see a trace of golden light in its white fur. Especially under the light, it was even more golden, looking very beautiful.

"RUO Fei, who are you talking to?" Ling Qingxue's voice could be heard from the living room.

Ling Qingxue, who had already started on the path of cultivation, had better hearing than ordinary people. Even though the television in the living room was quite loud, she could still hear Xia ruofei's voice.

"It's nothing, I just received a harassment call ..." Xia ruofei quickly replied.

"Oh ..." Ling Qingxue said, "is lunch ready?" I'm a little hungry!"

"Immediately, immediately!" Xia ruofei said, "wife, if you're really hungry, there's an egg yolk pie on the coffee table. Eat first!" But don't eat too much! Otherwise, I won't be able to eat lunch!"

"I know!" Ling Qingxue said sweetly, "ruofei, thank you for your hard work!"

After dealing with Ling Qingxue, Xia ruofei immediately used telepathy to tell the white fox, "Little brat! You gave me a big scare! How come you can talk all of a sudden? Amazing!"

The White realmfox lazily laid on the grass, raised its front paw, and sent a message to Xia ruofei. "I don't know either! After sleeping for a while, I woke up and realized that I could transmit my voice to you ... Great, I finally don't have to make hand gestures anymore. You're so stupid, you can't understand a sentence even after making several hand gestures ..."

Xia ruofei's face darkened."What are you gesturing at? You still have the cheek to call me stupid?"

The White realmfox looked disdainful and said,"Xia ruofei, you're so stupid! See how smart I am? I've learned your human language by sleeping!"

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry,"there's nothing wrong with you saying that, but this should be your talent!" It doesn't seem to have anything to do with your intelligence ..."

"You're being unreasonable!" The White realmfox was not convinced.

Xia ruofei laughed and said,"little guy, you've given me a big shock!" Right, since you can speak, then ... Can you also transform into a human like the legends say?"

The White realmfox's face darkened and it said,"You refuse to admit that you're stupid. I can only transmit my voice to you now, and I can't use your human voice. As for transforming into a human, you're really thinking too much ..."

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment. Then, he realized that the White boundary Fox's joints were still intact, which meant that its body structure had not changed. In that case, its vocal cords could not make human sounds. No wonder it could only use telepathy.

The white fox revealed a proud expression and said,"However, according to my inherited memories, I can transform into a human after my cultivation improves a little more!"

"Wouldn't that waste countless world stones?"Xia ruofei asked.

To be honest, Xia ruofei felt that the White realm Fox's behavior was ridiculous. It only ate realm stones as food. Was it really a good idea to use such a rare resource as food?

The white fox immediately bared its teeth in dissatisfaction and said,"What do you mean by defiled? I think it's a waste of a heavenly treasure to let your small space absorb the precious world stone!"

Fine! From the looks of it, everyone had the same opinion on the matter of the world stone's value. They just felt that the other party was wasting world stones ...

Xia ruofei said,"fine, fine, fine. I won't argue with you about this. Anyway, let's work together in the future. If we find the world stone, we'll split it 30 – 70!"

"Didn't you say four to six last time?" The white fox immediately said.

"That's under the condition that you make a contribution!" Xia ruofei said,"if it's like what happened in the green touring immortal abode, I'd feel like I've lost out on a 30 – 70 split, okay?"

"You're going back on your word!" The white fox was furious.

Xia ruofei chuckled."I've already distributed it fairly. Ask yourself. How much effort did you put in the last time we searched for the realm stone?" Moreover, I'm already trapped in green travel Immortal Island. As long as I search seriously, I can still find that immortal mansion and those world stones. In other words, it's the same whether you're here or not, right?"

In fact, Xia ruofei was being a little unreasonable. If not for the White realm Fox's super – long sensing distance, he might not have discovered the uniqueness of green travel Immortal Island and might have found a way to leave the immortal Island very quickly. If that happened, he would naturally miss the opportunity to obtain the realm stone.

Of course, there was a higher possibility that Xia ruofei would explore that Island. In that case, it was highly possible that he would eventually find the world stone on his own.

Seeing the white fox's indignant look, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Alright, alright! "Since I've agreed, I'll give you at least 30%. If your contribution is outstanding in the process of searching for the world stone, I'll give you 40%. It's even possible to split it evenly. Everything depends on how much you've contributed. I can guarantee you that I'll definitely not go against my conscience and covet the world stone that should belong to you ..."

Chapter 2184 Bai Qingqing (2)

"I don't think you have a conscience ..." The White realmfox muttered.

However, in the presence of a human ... No, the civet had no choice but to lower its head. In the end, it still accepted Xia ruofei's explanation and said unwillingly, "That will depend on your performance next time! If the distribution is unfair, then we'll go our separate ways! There's no follow – up cooperation!"

"Alright, alright, alright!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "by the way, do you have a name? I can't just keep calling you 'little guy', can I?"

"Name? I really don't have any!" The White realmfox tilted its head and said, "I'll have to think about this ..."

"What are you thinking? I think little white is a good name!" Xia ruofei laughed and then scratched his head. "That doesn't seem very appropriate! You're no longer pure white, how about You're called Xiao Jin?"

"Can you not be so old – fashioned!" "I'm warning you!" The white fox said with a look of disgust. "You're not allowed to call me little white or little gold! I'm not called that! I have to think of my own name!"

"Alright, alright, alright! You can take it for yourself!" Xia ruofei said, "let's see how good you can be! Then I won't talk to you anymore! I'm going to cook!"

"Wait! I've thought it through!" The White realm Fox cried out, "isn't that puppet of yours called Xia Qing? From now on, I'll be called Bai Qingqing! That's a nice name ..."

Xia ruofei almost burst out laughing. Luckily, he managed to hold it in. Otherwise, Ling Qingxue would have heard him again.

He held back his laughter and said, "Bai Qingqing? Isn't this name too girly?"

"Mother, your head!" The White realmfox was a little angry. "I've decided. This is my name!" "You're not allowed to randomly name me, do you hear me?"

“Good, good, good! Since you like the girly style, then I’ll call you Bai Qingqing. I have no objections!” Xia ruofei laughed and said, “then you can stay by yourself for a while! It’s fine to sleep, it’s fine to cultivate, just don’t cause any destruction in my space! I’m going to cook ...”

“I despise you. You actually eat such low – end food!” The boundary Fox Bai Qingqing waved its forelimbs upwards, showing a disdainful look.

“I’m looking down on you! He’s actually eating rocks!” Xia ruofei retorted.

Then, without waiting for Bai Qingqing’s counterattack, he sealed off the connection between the spirit map space and the outside world and began to focus on preparing lunch.

In a short while, a sumptuous and delicious lunch was prepared.

In addition to the steamed Chinese perch, there were three dishes and a soup, which was more than enough for two people.

Xia ruofei brought the soup into the dining room and said, “Qingxue, it’s time to eat! Don’t look at it for now, go wash your hands, and bring out two bowls of rice!”

“I know!” Ling Qingxue answered crisply. She turned off the TV, stood up, and walked to the kitchen.

Xia ruofei brought out all the dishes, and the last one on the table was the plate of steamed Chinese perch.

Ling Qingxue put down her bowl and sniffed. She smiled and said, “It smells so good! I really miss the taste of Chinese perch!”

“Then eat more!” Xia ruofei pinched Ling Qingxue’s tender cheeks affectionately and said, “this whole strip is yours!”

“You’re so good to me!” Ling Qingxue also enjoyed Xia ruofei’s love. She smiled sweetly at Xia ruofei and said, “don’t forget about the bet this weekend! When I think about being able to eat Chinese perch every day, my mood immediately brightens up!”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “wife, militarist Yun: He planned for defeat before he won! Have you ever thought about what would happen if you lose?”

“There’s no “what if”!” Ling Qingxue said with certainty, “this kind of thing is impossible! Unless the sea is yours!”

Xia ruofei laughed in his heart, “I’m sorry, my wife. My house is full of fish ...”

“Alright!” Xia ruofei said, “since you’re so confident, we’ll see who’s stronger this weekend!” Wife, let’s eat! Let’s eat!”

Since Ling Qingxue had to go to the company in the afternoon, the two of them didn’t drink in the afternoon.

However, the two of them enjoyed the food that Xia ruofei had personally cooked while chatting about topics that they were both interested in. Even without the wine, they felt quite good.

After the meal, Ling Qingxue rolled up her sleeves and said, ""Ruofei, you've worked hard cooking! I'll clean up the dishes ..."

Xia ruofei looked at Ling Qingxue with a burning gaze and said, ""Wife, there's no hurry to wash the dishes ... We haven't seen each other for more than ten days. You know ... The sea is vast, and I've been alone at sea for more than ten days. I'm almost sick from holding it in!"

Ling Qingxue's fair face couldn't help but turn red. Then, she burst out laughing and said, ""Why is your mind filled with unhealthy thoughts? It's broad daylight ..."

Xia ruofei had already reached Ling Qingxue's back in one step. He hugged her slender waist from behind, put his mouth close to her ear, and said, ""How is this an unhealthy way of thinking? The ancestors had said that food and sex were part of it! And this was the natural instinct of Human Reproduction, okay? If no one ate human food, then wouldn't humans go extinct?"

"You're the only one with so much twisted logic!" Ling Qingxue laughed as she twisted her body. "Don't blow on my neck, it's itchy ..."

The two of them had been together for a long time. Naturally, Xia ruofei knew Ling Qingxue's sensitive areas like the back of his hand. After a while, Ling Qingxue gave up on being reserved and only said weakly, ""Ruofei, let's go to the bedroom ..."

"This is good!" Xia ruofei kissed Ling Qingxue as he mumbled.

Soon, the two of them fell onto the sofa in the living room, hugging each other ...

After more than an hour, Ling Qingxue walked out of the villa accompanied by Xia ruofei.

Her hair was still a little messy, and her face was flushed. When she walked, she felt that her steps were a little light, and her legs were weak.

This was because Ling Qingxue had to return to the company before 2:30 pm, so Xia ruofei had held back. If he had been allowed to do as he pleased, Ling Qingxue would probably not be able to get out of bed for a long time.

She sat in the passenger seat of the Knight XV off – Road vehicle and took out her makeup mirror to fix her makeup. She glared at Xia ruofei, who was grinning evilly, and said, ""You still have the nerve to laugh? It's all your fault!"

Xia ruofei quickly started the car and turned to Ling Qingxue with a smile. ""My wife! Just now, you kept saying 'so comfortable' and 'quick'..."

"Hey! You're still talking!" Ling Qingxue's face turned red in embarrassment. She couldn't help but hit Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "I won't say it, okay?" Women are really unreasonable ..."

"It's all your fault anyway!" Ling Qingxue pouted and said, "big pervert! Big Bad guy! Big stinky pig!"

Xia ruofei accepted all the titles that Ling Qingxue gave him. He smiled and said, ""Wife, do you want to come to my place for dinner tonight? I'll make you another Chinese perch! Also, we can continue to discuss the topic that we didn't finish this afternoon!"

"What topic?" Ling Qingxue asked as she touched up her makeup.

"It's an important topic regarding Human Reproduction!" Xia ruofei chuckled.

"You ..." Ling Qingxue said angrily, "no!"

"We can even cultivate together!" Xia ruofei continued to tempt him. "You're really not going?"

Ling Qingxue hesitated for a moment before saying, ""I won't be going over tonight. I've already promised my dad that I'll have dinner with him today! And ... I'm going out to sea with you this weekend, so I have to tell him in advance!"

Xia ruofei knew that Ling Qingxue was not coming out tonight. He said regretfully, ""Alright then! Then let's meet again tomorrow!"

He drove Ling Qingxue back to the lingji F & B headquarters, and then, instead of going back to the company in the afternoon, he drove straight back to the jiangbin villa.

After parking the car, Xia ruofei went straight to the bedroom upstairs, locked the doors and windows, closed the curtains, took out the scroll, and entered the spirit map space with a thought.

Chapter 2185 Just a little bit more (1)

The world Fox that had just given itself the name Bai Qingqing was seriously trying to understand the spatial rules of the spirit map world. After the upgrade of this space, the rules seemed to have evolved a lot. Bai Qingqing carefully comprehended and felt that she had gained a lot of new insights.

Xia ruofei suddenly appeared beside Bai Qingqing, giving it a shock.

After Xia ruofei entered the medium, he stared at Bai Qingqing unblinkingly. It felt uncomfortable and couldn't help but transmit his voice, ""Hey! What are you looking at?"

Xia ruofei laughed. "I've lived for more than 20 years and have seen all kinds of beasts. This is the first time I've seen one that can speak. Shouldn't I look at it with admiration?"

Bai Qingqing bared her teeth at Xia ruofei and transmitted her voice, ""Is there anyone who looks up to me with such a wretched expression? Besides, I'm not dead, do I need you to look up to me?"

"Little brat! You have quite the temper!" Xia ruofei chuckled. "We're business partners. Don't be mean to me, okay?"

"You've already said that we're business partners. Don't you feel embarrassed to scam my world stones?" Bai Qingqing said, brooding.

"Hey, hey, hey! Why can't we let this matter go?" Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "I didn't cheat you of your world stone! I can't accept such false accusations!"

Bai Qingqing snorted and did not want to dwell on the matter. After a moment of silence, she asked, "Then when are you prepared to set off to search for the world stone? I think there are a lot of opportunities on the sea. Maybe we can find a cave abode like the green immortal abode ..."

Xia ruofei said, "I won't be going out for a while. I still have my own business." He couldn't go out all day! Let's rest for a while!"

Bai Qingqing mumbled, "what's there to manage in the mortal world? What's the use of earning more wealth? Cultivation is the most important!"

"What you said makes sense." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "but I have my own considerations. You don't have to worry about it."

Although Xia ruofei had become a cultivator, he had grown up in the secular world and had only been in contact with cultivation for one or two years. How could he not have any nostalgia for the wonderful world and be like those senior cultivators who had hidden from the world?

Furthermore, paradise Corporation was not just his career. This company was related to the livelihood of thousands of employees. How could Xia ruofei give it up so easily?

Bai Qingqing glared at Xia ruofei and said, "This is such a waste of time!"

"My cultivation efficiency is high. It won't be delayed!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "as for finding the world stone, I always thought that it would depend on luck. As long as we are fated with the world stone, we will eventually find it even if it is far away. There is no rush."

"Hmph! You can't be taught!" Bai Qingqing had completely given up on the idea of changing Xia ruofei's perception.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "Bai Qingqing ... That's her name, right?" I didn't get it wrong, did I? If you can't wait, you can totally break up with me and go out to find world stones yourself! As long as you can leave this space, I will not stop you!"

Bai Qingqing thought to herself, I would like to leave you and look for him myself! However, how could world stones be so easily found? Moreover, the laws of space here are so profound that I'm afraid it won't be easy for me to come back after I leave! I'm not going out!

In fact, Bai Qingqing agreed with the combination of her and Xia ruofei. The two of them could be said to be a strong combination. On Bai Qingqing's own, no matter how fast she was, it would be difficult for her to cover all the places. On the other hand, Xia ruofei could easily search everywhere with advanced transportation.

In addition, it was impossible for Bai Qingqing to reach places like the Azure immortal abode in the vast sea. She could only go out to sea with Xia ruofei on a boat.

It said unhappily, "I'm too lazy to go out!" I'll just stay here with you!"

"That's what I'm looking for!" Xia ruofei laughed.

After all, Bai Qingqing's ability to sense the world stone was a huge help to him.

Xia ruofei continued, "enough!" Then do as you please! As long as you don't cause any damage in the space, it'll be fine! I'll be off ..."

Bai Qingqing couldn't be bothered to talk to Xia ruofei anymore. It waved its front paw and lay on the ground again. It closed its eyes and started to sense the spatial laws, as if it was asleep.

Naturally, Xia ruofei would not argue with Bai Qingqing. He looked at it with a smile, and then suddenly disappeared.

In the next moment, Xia ruofei appeared at the foot of the mountain in the mountain sea realm.

After several space upgrades, this unremarkable little hill had now become a mountain of ten thousand feet.

Xia ruofei's figure flashed and he arrived at the cave halfway up the mountain.

He had come today to see if he could break the protective enchantment of the heaven jade talisman.

Initially, Xia ruofei thought that he would not be able to open the enchantment of the emperor's jade talisman in a short period of time. After all, he had only managed to break through the enchantment of the earth talisman before he explored the ancient tomb. It had not been long since then.

However, after absorbing the Golden elixir of the purpleblood spirit Python at the green Immortal Island, Xia ruofei's cultivation had improved by leaps and bounds. More importantly, his spiritual power had broken through a major realm and reached the spirit gathering realm.

Spiritual power was a very important factor in breaking the protective barrier.

Chapter 2186 Just a little bit more (2)

It was precisely because his spiritual power had reached the spirit gathering realm that Xia ruofei was more or less confident. Hence, he wanted to come and give it a try.

Even if he couldn't succeed, he could at least experience how big the gap was.

That was what he was thinking now.

After Xia ruofei entered the cave, he immediately strode towards the stone platform.

Now, there were only two green protective enchantments on the stone platform. One of them contained the heaven jade talisman, and the other contained a Jade box.

Xia ruofei did not know what was in the jade box as his spiritual power could not penetrate it.

However, since it was placed in the last barrier, it was obvious that the item in the jade box was more precious than the heaven, earth, and man talismans in the eyes of the original owner of the spirit map space.

Xia ruofei was still looking forward to the jade box. However, he did not think too much about it because he knew that it was impossible to open it in a short period of time. The strength of the protective barrier increased gradually. With his current cultivation, he would probably have a hard time opening the barrier of the heaven jade talisman. He did not even need to think about opening the jade box now.

Xia ruofei came to the stone platform and stood still. He looked at the heaven jade talisman and couldn't help but feel envious.

He knew very well that the heaven word jade talisman would definitely contain the seventh to ninth levels of the great Dao technique. Only by obtaining the heaven word jade talisman would the great Dao technique be considered complete.

Although Xia ruofei, who was in the aura refining stage, could only practice the first level of the cultivation technique, this did not stop him from having a strong desire to get the complete "great Dao formula" cultivation technique.

After all, as long as he broke through to the Golden core stage, he would be able to cultivate the second and even third layers of the cultivation technique.

According to his experience with the previous two Jade talismans, other than the last part of the 'great Dao chant', there should be other inheritance content in the Jade talismans. For example, the earth character jade talisman contained an extremely profound inheritance of array Dao knowledge.

And what kind of inheritance content would be in this heaven jade talisman, which was one level higher? Xia ruofei was also full of anticipation.

He took a deep breath and stretched out his hand, slowly pressing it on the green protective barrier.

Then, his mental energy surged wildly, and a large amount of invisible spatial power immediately gathered in his hand, launching wave after wave of attacks at the protective barrier.

The green light of the protective barrier grew brighter and the barrier began to sink in under Xia ruofei's pressure.

Xia ruofei could feel that the protective barrier was extremely tough. In the process of breaking it, the reaction force he had to bear was also increasing exponentially.

One minute, two minutes ...

Gradually, Xia ruofei's palm sank into the light film of the barrier.

The veins on his forehead began to show, and his body couldn't help but tremble slightly.

In fact, after Xia ruofei's space was upgraded, his compatibility with the entire spirit map space had increased again. Naturally, the amount of invisible spatial force that he could use with his spiritual power had increased.

Moreover, his spiritual power had broken through a major realm.

Hence, Xia ruofei felt that he still had some energy left in his spiritual power.

However, his body could not withstand so much spatial power.

One must know that when breaking the array, the spatial force had to pass through Xia ruofei's body as a medium to act on the light film of the array.

As the power of space grew stronger, the pressure Xia ruofei had to bear grew as well.

He gritted his teeth and persevered, but he gradually felt that his body had reached its limit.

Suddenly, he heard a light cracking sound, and a sharp pain came from his palm.

Xia ruofei's heart trembled. He decisively withdrew his spiritual power and the invisible spatial force gradually dissipated.

Xia ruofei's face turned bitter. He could already feel the cracks in his palm.

"My body is still not strong enough ..." Xia ruofei mumbled to himself with a bitter smile.

With a wave of his hand, a box on the stone table beside him opened by itself, and a spirit Heart Flower petal slowly floated towards him.

Xia ruofei released his spiritual power and sucked the petal into his palm. At the same time, he put his palms together.

The moment the petals of the spirit Heart Flower came into contact with a human body, they immediately melted like snowflakes coming into contact with sunlight. They completely integrated into Xia ruofei's body, leaving no residue behind.

At the same time, Xia ruofei could feel that his injured palm was healing at an extremely fast speed.

Actually, Xia ruofei could also take the spirit Heart Flower petal solution. The effect would be the same.

However, the area of his injury was on his metacarpal bone, so he could directly absorb the petals of the spirit Heart Flower in his palm, and the effect was even better.

This was also because he had already saved up quite a number of spirit Heart Flower petals during this period of time, so he didn't use them with a "whoosh whoosh" sound.

Xia ruofei felt that his injuries had healed in a short time and his body had returned to its best state.

As for his spiritual power, he had not used all his strength just now, so he naturally did not need to recover much. With a little rest, his spiritual power would recover to its peak.

"It seems like I need to be at least at the peak of lianqi level 9 to get this heaven jade talisman," Xia ruofei mumbled to himself. "I might even need to be at the Golden core stage!"

He couldn't help but look at the last Jade box. If even the protective enchantment of the heaven word jade talisman was so difficult to break, what about the protective enchantment of this Jade box? To what extent did it have to be?

Could it be that only those at the original infant stage could break it? Xia ruofei couldn't help but have such a thought.

However, he couldn't think that far for the time being. Since he couldn't do anything about the two protective barriers for the time being, he didn't think too much about it. Anyway, the things were in the space and couldn't fly. As long as his cultivation was enough, he would naturally get them.

It was just like the mansion – guarding wooden token that had been absorbed into his body and was constantly being refined.

Although he might not be able to completely refine it in a short time, it was only a matter of time.

They were already in his bag, so there was no need to be anxious.

Xia ruofei left the cave in a flash. Then, he hopped onto the all – terrain vehicle at the foot of the mountain and started to speed through the vast land of the mountain sea realm.

In fact, Xia ruofei's compatibility with the space was already very high. As long as he willed it, he could appear anywhere in the space. However, he still enjoyed the feeling of driving an all – terrain vehicle and patrolling his own territory.

Xia ruofei did not intend to drive around the space. Since the space had expanded to a large area, it would take a lot of time to drive around.

He drove the all – terrain vehicle to the beach, and in a flash, he appeared on the azmu yacht.

Xia ruofei started the engine of the yacht and drove it out.

With the expansion of the space, the ocean finally felt boundless. It was no longer like before, where one could vaguely see the space membrane in the distance just by standing on the beach.

Xia ruofei stood on the yacht and looked at the vast ocean in front of him. His heart was filled with emotions.

He thought back to when he had first obtained the spirit map, and it had only been a mere mu of land. Later, as the spatial zone had upgraded, its area had also become larger and larger. Later on, an even larger spatial zone like the mountain and sea realm had even appeared.

By now, the mountain and sea realm had already expanded to the point where one could not even see the spatial membrane walls with their extreme vision.

Xia ruofei suddenly had an idea.

The next moment, he disappeared together with the yacht and appeared at the end of the space sea.

The space membrane was right in front of the yacht.

With another thought, Xia ruofei returned to the beach, leaving the yacht far away.

He looked in the direction of the yacht and realized that he could not see it.

Of course, he could easily sense the yacht's location.

Then, Xia ruofei used the invisible force of space to gently push the yacht towards the shore.

Xia ruofei could feel that the distance between him and the yacht was getting shorter.

Then, Xia ruofei's eyes lit up as the yacht appeared in his sight!

To be more precise, the upper part of the yacht, which was the top part of the deck, appeared in his field of vision ...

Chapter 2187 Caught on the spot (1)

Xia ruofei continued to use his spatial power to push the yacht forward slowly.

In his field of vision, the yacht gradually came into view ...

In ancient times, due to the limitation of knowledge, the theory of a round sky and a round earth had dominated the world for a long time. As some phenomena were noticed, people gradually realized that the earth under their feet was not flat, but likely to be a sphere.

One of the most representative examples was that in the boundless sea, if a ship sailed over from a distant place, the first thing it would see would be the mast on the ship.

This meant that the ocean wasn't flat, but had a certain curvature.

Now, such a scene had also appeared in the sea of space, which meant that after the space continued to evolve and upgrade, the land and sea were also not flat.

Xia ruofei's body flashed and he appeared on the yacht. He mumbled to himself, "In other words ... If this space continues to evolve, it will become a planet? If it was in the outside world, outside the earth was the endless deep space and the boundless universe. If this space became a planet, what was beyond it? Can we continue to expand?"

Xia ruofei's mind could not help but explore the space membrane.

The tough space membrane was like a balloon. As the space was upgraded, this "balloon" kept getting bigger. Xia ruofei could not see clearly what was happening outside the balloon. He could only vaguely feel countless space turbulence.

He was sure that if he were to enter such an environment, he would probably be turned into dust in an instant. It would be useless even if his cultivation broke through a few major realms. As long as he entered, he might not even be able to hold on for a breath.

Xia ruofei stood on the yacht and looked at the sea and the coastline in the distance. The anticipation in his heart grew stronger and stronger.

The spirit map world seemed to have only revealed the tip of the iceberg to him. Xia ruofei did not dare to imagine how far it could evolve.

"Hahaha! Why do you care so much?" Xia ruofei laughed heartily. "I just have to do my best to find the world stone. As long as this space can continue to upgrade, I'm willing to find all the world stones on earth. When the world stones on earth are used up, I'll search for them in the universe. Daoist priest bi youzi can escape into the starry sky, so can I!"

His heart was filled with Endless Pride.

Of course, he was able to have such confidence because of the resources he had.

With the spirit map space as a blessed land, a large number of spiritual crystals, origin crystals, and top-notch cultivation techniques, it was not difficult for Xia ruofei to reach the nascent Soul Stage.

He laughed and restarted the yacht, speeding towards the coast.

After returning to the outside world, Xia ruofei sorted out his gains.

The two hundred origin crystals, along with the small box, had already been placed in the mountain sea realm's cave, together with the spirit crystals.

Xia Qing had also finished processing all the usable materials on the body of the purpleblood spirit Python. As for the remaining internal organs and bones, Xia ruofei had already thrown them away when they were at sea.

In addition, he also obtained a precious mansion – guarding wooden token.

This mansion – guarding wooden token was still in the process of being refined. After it was kept in his dantian, Xia ruofei had divided a trace of his spiritual energy to control it. Other than when he was in deep sleep, the refining process was ongoing all the time.

However, his current cultivation was still very low. Even if his spiritual power had broken through to the spirit gathering realm, which was equivalent to the Golden core stage, he could only rely on painstaking efforts to refine the house – guarding wooden token.

Xia ruofei sensed for a while and realized that after these days of continuous refining, the progress of the mansion – guarding wooden token had almost reached one percent. At this speed, it would take a few years to complete the refining.

Of course, Xia ruofei could also use the time array flags to stack the time while he was at the Archean realm. This way, he would only need a few days of time in the outside world to refine the mansion – guarding wooden token.

However, he would definitely not do that.

Although only a few days had passed in the outside world, Xia ruofei had to stay in the formation for a few years. This was unacceptable to him.

Moreover, he wasn't waiting for the green touring immortal abode to save his life, so he didn't feel any sense of urgency. He felt quite good refining it day by day.

Xia ruofei felt that he would go crazy if he were to stay in the small array formation of the Archean realm for a few years.

Moreover, if he were to use the time acceleration in the formation to implement it whenever he needed it, wouldn't he age very quickly?

Hence, Xia ruofei chose to refine it step by step and did not think about any shortcuts.

In addition to the mansion – guarding wooden token, he also had a flying sword in his dantian. The blue immortal sword was undoubtedly a very important trump card for Xia ruofei.

With it, even if Xia ruofei were to face an opponent who was stronger than him, he would have more confidence. Ordinary cultivators would never expect Xia ruofei to have a flying sword. Under unexpected circumstances, it was absolutely possible for the weak to win against the strong.

After taking stock of his gains, Xia ruofei suddenly remembered that he had harvested a few fruits by the cold pond above green touring immortal abode.

There were more than ten dark red and dark purple fruits in total.

Xia ruofei had already tried it. The dark red fruit could improve one's physique and even directly produce true Qi in one's body. It was similar to the Scarlet fruit in wuxia novels where eating one fruit could increase one's cultivation by decades. On the other hand, the dark purple fruit was used to nourish the soul and was very beneficial to the improvement of mental power.

Chapter 2188 Caught on the spot (2)

Of course, these two fruits were not of much help to Xia ruofei's cultivation.

But Xia ruofei quickly mumbled to himself, "I can't use it, but Qingxue and Weiwei can! This fruit would definitely be of great help to them! By the way, Haoran will also need it. How could I forget to give it to him when we were in Australia? Forget it ... I'll just keep it for now! He would give it to him the next time he went to Australia. It's not necessarily a good thing for the child to grow too fast ..."

Xia ruofei kept the fruits in a small box in the cave. He was going to let Ling Qingxue consume the fruits first. As for Song Wei and Tang Haoran's portion, he would keep it for now.

However, Ling Qingxue said that she wouldn't be coming over tonight and wanted to have dinner with Ling Xiaotian, so he could only wait until tomorrow.

Since this matter was not urgent, Xia ruofei naturally would not make a special trip to the Ling residence. Even though Ling Xiaotian was very enthusiastic towards him and supported him to be with Ling Qingxue, he was still a little restrained when meeting his future father – in – Law.

Xia ruofei looked at the time. It was almost three in the afternoon.

In order to break the barrier in the space, he had almost exhausted all his strength. Although he had recovered after using a petal of the spirit Heart Flower, he was still mentally exhausted. Therefore, he simply washed up and lay on the bed to rest.

Xia ruofei slept until Five O' clock. When he woke up, he was refreshed. After two hours of deep sleep, his spirit had almost completely recovered.

He first divided a wisp of spiritual power and continuously injected it into the mansion – guarding wooden tablet, continuing to refine the wooden tablet. Then he got up and went downstairs to prepare dinner.

Xia ruofei heated up the unfinished lunch and took out a Chinese perch from the medium to steam.

In the afternoon, Ling Qingxue had a special liking for this steamed beluga. The entire beluga had been completely wiped out by the two of them. Furthermore, Xia ruofei did not eat much. Most of the time, he was still picking up food for Ling Qingxue.

Having dinner alone at night, he could finally enjoy the most delicious food in the world.

Xia ruofei enjoyed his dinner.

With his current cultivation, he could go without food for a few days without any problem. When they ate, their appetites were also much larger than ordinary people.

The main thing was that his body was countless times stronger than an ordinary person's, so his absorption was naturally much better than that of an ordinary person.

Therefore, during the meal, not only did he finish the pomfrets, but there was also almost nothing left of the other dishes.

Xia ruofei cleaned the table and washed the dishes. He touched his bloated stomach and smiled in satisfaction.

Even though he had become a cultivator, Xia ruofei still enjoyed the happiness of the world. His three meals a day were more like a ritual.

Xia ruofei often thought that if one's ability to enjoy good food had deteriorated, what was the point of having a high cultivation?

At least for now, he had no interest in reclusive cultivation.

After packing up, Xia ruofei strode out of the villa. Like most ordinary people, he prepared to take a walk after dinner to digest his food, even though his strong absorption ability meant that he did not need to take a walk to digest his food.

The interior environment of the villa area was very quiet. The design of the villa was also well – arranged, and the rooms were very far apart to ensure the light and line of sight of each household. At the same time, some garden designs were used to ensure the privacy of the residents.

Xia ruofei walked along the clean roads of the district, feeling a sense of leisure and comfort.

Unknowingly, Xia ruofei had reached the townhouse area on the other side of the hill.

"I wonder how the renovation of sister Che's Villa is going?" Xia ruofei said to himself.

He continued walking toward Feng Jing's Villa.

Just then, an uncertain voice came from behind him. "RUO Fei?"

Xia ruofei's body froze. He slowly turned around and saw Feng Jing standing not far behind him, looking at him with a faint smile.

Xia ruofei smiled awkwardly and waved at Feng Rao. "Sister che, what a coincidence!"

Feng Jing was still wearing her work suit, which made her look very capable.

She glanced at Xia ruofei and asked, "Mr. Chairman, when did you return to the three mountains? You're getting more and more mysterious these days. I can't even see your head or your tail ..."

Xia ruofei laughed drily, "I ... Only came back in the evening!" She had just arrived home! I'm a little tired, so I didn't call you because I thought I'd see you guys at the office tomorrow ..."

As the boss, he had been away for more than ten days. Now that he was back at the three mountains, he had to hide for another day. Furthermore, he was caught red – handed by Feng Jing. Xia ruofei felt very embarrassed.

“I’m just asking,” Feng Jing chuckled. “Look at how nervous you are ... You’re the boss of the company. How would I dare to interfere with your schedule?”

The more Feng Jing said this, the more awkward Xia ruofei felt. He quickly changed the topic. “By the way, sister che, what are you doing here?”

“I’m here to check on the renovation progress!” Feng Rao shrugged. “I’m so busy in the company during the day that I can’t leave! I can only come back to take a look after work ...”

She’s definitely complaining about being busy and not being able to respond to her ... Xia ruofei secretly thought.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said with a smile, “Sister che, didn’t you hand over the renovation to uncle Liang’s company? He’ll take care of you personally, so you don’t have to worry!”

“That’s true, but it’s still such an expensive house!” Feng Jing smiled and said, “this is basically all I have, and I’ve even paid a bonus in advance ... Although I trust CEO Liang, I can’t help but come and take a look after work. After all, this is my house! I can’t just be a hands – off shopkeeper!”

A hands – off shopkeeper! Xia ruofei’s expression froze for a moment. He thought to himself, “He was definitely alluding to me ...”

Feng Rao looked at Xia ruofei and suddenly burst into laughter. “Alright! I’m not talking about you! Look at how guilty you are ...”

“How did I become a thief?” Xia ruofei immediately said, “besides, how am I guilty? I’m doing my job properly, do I need to feel guilty?”

“Yes, yes, yes!” Feng Jing looked at Xia ruofei coyly and said, “Mr. Chairman, do you want to accompany me to check on the renovation progress?”

“Alright! I’m honored!” Xia ruofei laughed.

The two of them walked side by side towards the townhouse nearby. On the way, Feng Jing habitually reported to Xia ruofei about the company’s recent situation.

Feng Jing was very familiar with the company’s operations. Even though she didn’t prepare in advance, she had all the data in her head and could easily report it to her.

“Oh right, there’s something I haven’t had the time to report to you.” Feng Jing said, “I couldn’t get through to you these few days when you were out at sea ...”

“What’s the matter?” Xia ruofei asked.

“It’s about the matter that you promised xiangnan TV to record the show.” Feng Jing said, “xiangnan TV’s leader ...”

“What do you mean I agreed to it?” Xia ruofei interrupted Feng Jing and said, “you were the one who agreed to it, okay?”

“Fine, fine, fine,” Feng Rao chuckled, “I’ll take it as a promise, okay?” Didn’t I still ask for your opinion and get your consent?”

“Alright! Alright!” Xia ruofei said helplessly, “and then?”

“The recording time for the first episode has basically been set. It’ll be at the end of this month.” Feng Jing said, “it’s only been about ten to twenty days. Xiangnan TV has contacted us many times, hoping to discuss the recording of the show with you in advance.”

Chapter 2189 A small internet celebrity (1)

Feng Jing’s Villa was right in front of them. Xia ruofei stopped in his tracks and smiled. “Since I’ve already promised him, I must go. It’s just recording an episode of the program, so there’s no need to go through all that trouble. I’ll just go over directly when the time comes. ”

“Your popularity on the internet isn’t any lower than those hot, young male stars!” Feng Rao grinned. How could xiangnan satellite TV dare to be negligent? I definitely have to communicate with you first. ”

“Is it that exaggerated?” Xia ruofei laughed bitterly.

“It’s not an exaggeration at all!” Feng Jing laughed and said, “all the internet celebrities these days have tender skin and tender flesh, but you turned the tide and saved a plane. If you were a little bigger, you’d definitely be the representative of a tough guy! In addition, you’re so young and have a net worth of hundreds of millions. This isn’t something that those young hunks can compare to. You can be said to be a clear stream in the world of internet celebrities!”

Xia ruofei didn’t know whether to laugh or cry, “are you complimenting me or insulting me?” And a clear stream! I think it’s a mudslide. ”

Feng Jing couldn’t help but burst out laughing. Xia ruofei’s popularity on the internet was maintained not only because of his unique attraction and continuous topics, but also because of her. She had always insisted that Xia ruofei maintain a certain amount of exposure and had even appointed a person in the company to maintain Xia ruofei’s social media account.

Although Xia ruofei presented himself in front of the public and was not like some celebrities who carefully created their image, he still needed to keep showing off his image to maintain his popularity.

For someone like Xia ruofei who did not log in to Weibo for days, did not post any new posts, and did not interact with his fans, if there were no full – time operations staff to maintain his account, his popularity would have started to drop.

“Ruofei, I’ll get President Dong to contact xiangnan TV. If you have any requests or taboos, you can let me know. I’ll pass them on to Dong Yun,” said Feng Jing.

Xia ruofei replied casually, “I don’t have any requests. I don’t think of myself as a celebrity. I don’t have that many bad habits.” I’ll just be myself!”

“Alright!” Feng Rao said readily, “then you can go to Beijing one or two days earlier! The festival team will definitely need to discuss the program flow with you in advance.”

“Alright!” Xia ruofei said, “I’ll be staying at the three mountains for a while. Remember to remind me when the time comes!”

“Yes, yes!” Feng Rao nodded and said, “let’s go! Let’s go in and take a look!”

The two of them walked up the steps.

The townhouses were built against the mountains. There were four families in a row, and each family had a front yard. The middle was separated by a high wire fence, which was covered with plants, making it look like a green wall.

Feng Rao had bought the one at the end of the courtyard, which was much larger than the two in the middle.

Feng Rao took out her keys and opened the door. She walked into the courtyard with Xia ruofei.

The last time he was here, the yard was still full of weeds. Now, Xia ruofei saw that the weeds had been cleaned up, and the ground was neatly piled with some decoration materials.

Feng Jing smiled. “There was originally a parking space on each side of this place, but I can’t use two. If my friends come here occasionally, they can Park in the community, so I asked CEO Liang’s renovation company to change this parking space. We’ll use a grape rack made of anti – corrosion wood and a stone table below. It’s good to enjoy the cool in the summer.”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. “It’s pretty good. If you want to see the scenery or feel the river breeze, go to the balcony. If you want to be quiet, you can make tea under the grape trellis. It’s so nice!”

Because the house was built against the mountain, it was actually built on solid concrete piles. There were two floors below it, so there was a small covered bridge between the front yard and the entrance of the villa. The two of them passed through the yard, walked over the covered bridge, and arrived at the entrance of the villa.

As the house was still under renovation, they didn’t need to take off their shoes. After Feng Jing opened the door, the two of them walked straight in.

With the light in the room, Xia ruofei looked up and down and said, “Sister che, uncle Liang’s renovation company is quite efficient! They had already started to paint the walls! The water and electricity are all laid out?”

“Yeah!” Feng Rao nodded with a smile. “We’ve finished the wiring. Other than the water and electrical circuits, we’ve also installed floor heating on the first and second floor.”

“Not bad, not bad ...” Xia ruofei said as he watched.

Although the renovation wasn’t completed yet, he could basically see the layout of the design.

The first floor had a kitchen, dining room, and an open – Concept living room. The living room was connected to a large balcony that faced Min River.

Feng Rao smiled and pointed at the balcony. "I'm going to make a circle of fabric sofas here. Friends can have a barbeque, party, and chat here. It's very convenient."

Xia ruofei touched his nose and asked, "A cloth sofa on this open – Air balcony? What if it rains?"

Feng Rao chuckled and said, "It's just a platform made of anti – corrosion wood and lacquer!" The cushion and cushion can be moved away at any time. Can't you just take it out when you need it? Stupid!"

"I see ..." Xia ruofei laughed.

Feng Jing didn't usually talk this much, but she really liked this house. She couldn't stop talking about the design of the house. After all, she was the one who personally participated in the renovation plan and made several changes before coming up with it.

Chapter 2190 A small internet celebrity (2)

She personally brought Xia ruofei around the house, telling him what the design for this place was and what the purpose of that place was. When it came to happy things, she was like a child.

Xia ruofei had a smile on his face as he followed Feng Jing around.

After they were done, the two of them left Feng Jing's townhouse. Xia ruofei stood at the door and said, "Sister che, come to my house for a visit!"

"It's so late, I don't think it's convenient," Feng Rao said after some hesitation. I think I'll go back to the company ..."

Feng Jing didn't plan on going back to the farm that day. Her office was a large suite with a comfortable bedroom and all the necessary living facilities. It was more convenient to work at the company.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "What's so inconvenient about that?" Why don't you just stay at my place today?"

"Ah?" Feng Rao couldn't help but call out, her heart beating wildly.

Xia ruofei chuckled, "Sister ran, don't get the wrong idea!" I have a lot of rooms at my place, so why don't you just stay the night at my place? I'm going to the company tomorrow anyway, so let's just go in the same car ..."

Then, Xia ruofei looked at Feng Jing and asked with a smile, "Sister ran, are you afraid?"

Feng Jing was actually very moved by Xia ruofei's suggestion. After hearing Xia ruofei's words, she pretended to be unconvinced and snorted, "Who's afraid! I'll go ..."

After saying this, Feng Rao felt a little regretful.

She knew that Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue loved each other very much, and Ling Qingxue also lived in this community, which was not far from Xia ruofei's house. If Ling Qingxue saw them, there might be a misunderstanding.

Xia ruofei did not wait for Feng Rao to return and said with a smile, "Then let's go! I happen to have some good tea at my place. Let's make a pot of tea and chat. You can also tell me about the company's recent situation!"

Feng Jing comforted herself in her heart, 'I'm just reporting to ruofei about work at the company, I didn't mean to stay at his place ...'

Xia ruofei brought Feng Jing back to his villa. He turned on the light in the living room and smiled. "Sister che, there are new slippers in the shoe cabinet. You can wear whatever you want!"

After that, he put on his shoes and went into the house. He found a box of tea leaves in the small refrigerator next to the root – carved coffee table in the living room and began to boil water to make tea.

Feng Rao walked over after changing her shoes. She sat down opposite Xia ruofei and smiled. "Ruofei, this is what you call a villa! My place is like a tube – shaped apartment when compared to yours ..."

"Sister che," Xia ruofei said with a smile, "as long as you continue to work in our company, I promise you that you'll be able to afford a villa like this in less than three years!"

"I believe this!" Feng Rao said with a smile.

The two of them chatted for a while, and soon the water in the pot was boiling. Xia ruofei used a wooden spoon to scoop some tea leaves into the purple clay pot and then quickly began to make tea.

"Have a taste of this Da Hong Pao!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "this is much better than the tea that our company sells in bulk!"

"So the chairman has all the good stuff hidden away!" Feng Rao teased.

"You can take it with you when you leave tomorrow!" Xia ruofei said forthrightly, "you can ask me for more after you're done with this box! You're my most capable subordinate, if I can't even supply a little tea, how can I?"

"Don't, don't, don't. A gentleman doesn't take away what others like!" Feng Rao chuckled. Besides, I don't have the habit of drinking tea ... If you really want to give it to me! You might as well give me a few boxes of jade skin cream!"

Feng Jing was not referring to the company's mass sales of the jade skin cream. She wanted the handmade jade skin cream made by Xia ruofei.

Feng Jing had experienced the effects of the jade skin cream. Although the effects of the jade skin cream produced by the company were quite amazing, nothing was better than comparison. The jade skin cream sold in the market and the jade skin cream made by Xia ruofei were on completely different levels.

"No problem! I'll personally make some for you when I have the time!" Xia ruofei agreed without a second thought.

"The chairman is so generous!" Feng Rao complimented Xia ruofei happily.

The two of them chatted about the company while drinking tea.

In the ten days that Xia ruofei had been out at sea, the company had been progressing steadily under Feng Jing's leadership.

The pharmaceutical factory and farm expansion project in Changping County were also progressing quite quickly. The sales of the Jade skin cream and heart – nourishing soup were as hot as ever.

"By the way, sister ran, how's the goose I asked the farm to try?" Xia ruofei asked.

Feng Rao had specifically asked about the situation with the Strasburg geese on the farm because she knew that Xia ruofei had personally assigned this task and he must have been very concerned about it.

Hence, Feng Rao immediately smiled and said, ""Ruofei, how are the six Strasburg geese? It's taken care of very well every day, and it's growing very healthily!"

Feng Jing couldn't help but add, ""You don't know, do you? These geese are now internet celebrities!"

"Ah? A little internet celebrity?" Xia ruofei was also confused. He couldn't help but ask, "what's the situation?"

"Wait! "I'll look for it ..." Feng Jing took out her phone and started looking for it. "Take a look for yourself later!"

"I found it!" Feng Rao said after a while.

Then, she handed the phone to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei took it and saw that it was the popular TikTok Short Video app. It opened a user interface and showed that this user had more than 10000 fans.

"Only 10000 fans ... It's not that popular!" Xia ruofei muttered.

"Only? You have to know that this account has only been online for a dozen days!" Feng Jing said, "it's already quite impressive to have over 10000 fans in just ten days!"

"So you're saying it's quite powerful?" Xia ruofei glanced at the username as he spoke. He muttered to himself, "this name ... 'Little Wen, little six'? Why does it feel a little dirty?"

Feng Rao's face turned red. She glared at Xia ruofei and said, ""What nonsense is this? This is the account of the new caretaker on the farm who is in charge of taking care of these six geese. Isn't his nickname Xiao liuzi?"

As Feng Rao said this, she thought to herself, "This little six, of all the names he could have given himself, why did he have to give himself such a name ... When this account becomes popular in the future, this ID will be a major flaw!"

Xia ruofei was also a little embarrassed. He chuckled and scratched his head. "Let's see what videos he posted. "

His finger gently swiped across the screen, and he saw that Xiao liuzi had actually sent dozens of videos in the past ten days, with an average of several videos a day.

These videos were all about the Strasburg geese. Xia ruofei clicked on one and was attracted by the charmingly naïve geese. The environment of the goose pen was also very beautiful. The green Goose House, the clear pond, the green grass ... It was completely different from the impression that people had of the place that was filled with goose manure and mud.

In addition, it was obvious that the Strasburg geese had been taken care of quite well. Each of them was clean without a trace of stain, and their fur was smooth and shiny. It was hard not to like them when they swayed as they walked.

Feng Rao looked at it and said with a smile, "This is the video that was released at the beginning. Because we don't have enough fans, it's relatively short. You can take a look at the videos that were released in the past few days ..."

Hence, Xia ruofei clicked on a few more videos and realized that Xiao liuzi had his own ideas. The angle of the video was very particular, and the content was rich and diverse. Some of the videos showed him bathing and brushing the feathers of the little geese, some captured the various silly behaviors of the little geese, and some captured them eating.

Xia ruofei realized that each goose had their own designated food bowl. They would eat in their own food bowl in an orderly manner and never fight for the food beside them. The six Strasburg geese were lined up in a neat row. They lowered their heads and ate with relish, which was inexplicably funny.

"This little six is not bad! That's a good idea!" Xia ruofei said, "sister ran, tell the farm to make him a regular employee in advance!"

"I think it's fine!" Feng Rao smiled and said, "this young man is a talent!"

Xia ruofei chatted with Feng Jing while watching Xiao liuzi's video. Feng Jing came over to watch it as well. When they saw the funny scene, they were both overjoyed.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door of the villa, followed by the sound of footsteps ...
