

God tier Farm 2241

Chapter 2241 The hard – working guest (1)

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said with a smile, “Then I’ll choose both! It’s not a waste of effort anyway! Let’s go buy some vegetables first. After we come back, I’ll go to the greenhouse to water and pick some vegetables!”

“That’s great!” He Jiong said happily, “I was just worried that I didn’t have enough manpower! President Xia, let’s go get some groceries!”

Generally speaking, there would be several guests in an episode, and these guests were more or less in contact, such as close friends or actors from the same crew. They would promote movies, TV series, and so on while appearing on the show. It was rare for there to be only one guest like this time.

In fact, it was more lively with more people, and it was easier to produce an interesting show effect. Besides, there were more people to share the work set by the festival team.

However, in order to show how much importance xiangnan TV placed on Xia ruofei, they had decided to use a single guest model for this episode.

“Alright!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “let’s go!”

He Jiong greeted the other three guests and left the house with Xia ruofei.

Walking down the steps in front of the mushroom house, a new Buick MPV was already prepared. Xia ruofei and he Jiong got into the car from both sides.

He Jiong was the pilot while Xia ruofei sat in the co – Pilot seat.

Cameras from different angles had been installed in the car so that they could capture the entire scene of He Jiong and Xia ruofei. Furthermore, two of the cameras were facing the inside of the car. In order to avoid appearing on the screen, the cameraman did not follow them. Instead, he got into another business car and headed to the grocery store. He still needed the cameraman to follow him and film the scene.

The two cars drove on the asphalt road inside the Paradise Club one after another. It didn’t take long for them to drive out of the club and head in the direction of little Tang town.

He Jiong and Xia ruofei were chatting along the way. Xia ruofei’s personality was considered gentle while he Jiong’s emotional intelligence was very high. Hence, the two of them were having a great time chatting.

Soon, the car arrived at a farmer’s market in Xiaotang town. After parking the car, Xia ruofei and he Jiong sat for a while. They only opened the door and got out after the cameramen in the back were in position.

He Jiong said with a smile, “we came here to take a look when we came to check out the place yesterday. The things available in this market are quite complete. We can basically buy all the ingredients we want to buy. There’s just a problem ... Our daily food expenses are only a hundred dollars, so we have to be careful with our expenses ...”

"A hundred? Everyone?" Xia ruofei asked, slightly surprised.

He Jiong nodded and said, "this episode's pretty good. You're the only guest." We don't even know how we're going to survive the next few episodes ..."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "Why don't I save some money for you guys this week? We might as well not have any pork stewed with vermicelli, and just eat whatever is available!"

"That won't do!" He Jiong said seriously, "we have to complete the dishes ordered by the guests no matter what. Otherwise, wouldn't we be ruining our reputation?"

Xia ruofei thought for a while. Buying two pounds of pork and some noodles would not cost much, so he nodded and said, "Alright then! Let's go in and take a look ..."

The festival team had already coordinated the shooting location in advance, so although the market was noisy, it was still quite orderly, and no one came up to affect the shooting.

He Jiong brought Xia ruofei to a meat stall. An older woman in her thirties greeted her warmly, "Teacher he, you're here to buy groceries!"

"Yeah!" He Jiong chuckled and nodded. Big sister, pick us a good piece of streaky pork ..."

"Alright!" The woman grinned and cut off a large piece of streaky pork. "The quality of the pork today is absolutely first – Class. You can take it back and make it into red braised pork. It'll definitely be twice as fragrant!"

When he Jiong saw that this big piece was at least six to seven Jin, he quickly said, "Big sister, we don't want that much! Just one or two catties will do ..."

"There are so many of you, how can one or two catties of meat be enough?" the lady asked, puzzled.

After saying that, she pointed to the staff who were filming and said, "I saw dozens of you this morning, right?"

Xiangnan TV's film crew was filming in Xiaotang town, so naturally, they couldn't hide it from the local people. Some people even went to the nearby paradise gathering to watch the show. Moreover, the production team had also specially come to the market to check out the location, so the big sister was also very familiar with the situation.

Xia ruofei and he Jiong looked at each other and smiled. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Big sister, someone else will be responsible for the staff's meals. We only need to buy ingredients for five people ..."

"Oh! So that's how it is!" The woman suddenly realized and said, "five people eating one or two pounds of meat is too little! Do you want to cut more?"

Xia ruofei laughed bitterly to himself, "we also want to buy more!" However, the budget was not enough!

"Big sister, one or two catties is enough ..." He could only say.

"Alright then!" The eldest sister saw that Xia ruofei and he Jiong were determined and did not try to persuade them anymore.

She looked at the piece of pork a few times and did some calculations in her heart. Then, she cut a small piece of pork with the knife.

The big sister threw the piece of pork onto the scale, then pointed to the display and said, "Two catties and one tael, I'll count it as two catties for you!"

He Jiong could not help but exclaim, "wow! Big sister's hands are really accurate!"

Chapter 2242 The hard – working guest (2)

"I've already gotten the feeling after cutting it every day ..." The older lady was a little embarrassed by He Jiong's praise.

She swiftly wrapped the meat and handed it to He Jiong.

There was a QR code on the meat stall now. He Jiong directly scanned the code and paid for the meat.

Such a small piece of meat was gone in just over 30 pieces.

From the looks of it, a hundred Yuan was really not a good spending.

Then, He Jiong and Xia ruofei strolled around and bought a pound of vermicelli.

Before they left, Huang Lei, who held the glorious position of a chef, specifically reminded He Jiong to bring back some spices. Hence, He Jiong and Xia ruofei continued to buy.

By the time the two of them walked out of the farmer's market with a few bags of ingredients and condiments, the 100 – Yuan meal allowance provided by the festival Group was almost gone.

He Jiong was a natural opinionated person. He did not worry about the food allowance for the future recording of the show. Instead, he was in high spirits as he chatted with Xia ruofei about some of his experience in the market.

Agricultural products were a very important product of Xia ruofei's company, and Xia ruofei had some experience in this area. As the two chatted, they felt like they should have met earlier.

The two of them got into the car and drove back to the mushroom house.

The car stopped by the steps below the mushroom house. He Jiong honked the horn a few times before he stuck his head out of the window and shouted, "My children! Hurry up and move the things!"

A head peeked out from behind the one – meter – High courtyard wall, his black eyes looking around. This person was indeed Peng Chang, who was chopping firewood in the courtyard. He quickly said, "They're coming! It's here! It's coming!"

Soon, Peng Chang pushed open the wooden door of the mushroom hut and jogged down the steps.

Peng Chang looked at the big and small bags of ingredients, and his eyes couldn't help but light up. "Teacher he, President Xia, did you buy all these?"

"Then why don't you talk nonsense?" He Jiong laughed and said, "are we going to Rob? Pengpeng, don't worry about it. Hurry up and bring the things in and hand them over to teacher Huang!"

“Alright!” Peng Chang quickly responded and took the bag of food from He Jiong’s hand.

At this time, Huang Lei and Zhang Xing had also come out.

Seeing this, He Jiong immediately said, “Ms. Huang, I’ve prepared everything you wanted. The ingredients for the pork stew with vermicelli are also ready. You can show your skills now!”

“That’s great!” Huang Lei said happily, “Pengpeng, you can just put the things on the stove!”

“Alright, teacher Huang!” Peng Chang said as he walked in.

He Jiong then said to Zhang Xing, “Xiao Xing, bring President Xia to the vegetable greenhouse!” Can you assist him in watering the vegetables and at the same time, pick some vegetables for him?”

“No problem!” Zhang Xing patted his chest and promised.

Zhang Xing was naturally more than willing to work and harvest with his idol.

“Mr. Xia, let’s go!” Zhang Xing said to Xia ruofei. I’ll take you to ...”

“Alright! Then I’ll have to trouble you, Little Star!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

He Jiong and the rest returned to the mushroom house while Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing went around to the side of the mushroom house.

After turning a corner, Xia ruofei saw a row of vegetable greenhouses.

What surprised him was that the greenhouse was quite large, and there were several rows. The scale was much larger than he had imagined.

Moreover, these weren’t simple greenhouses. On the contrary, the construction was quite particular. Although it couldn’t be compared to the greenhouses of Taoyuan farm, it was at least the kind of high – end vegetable greenhouses that could maintain a constant temperature.

It seemed like xiangnan TV had invested quite a bit in this show!

After the recording of the show ended, this place could even be regarded as a harvesting experience. It was considered an overall special project with the mushroom house.

At the entrance of each vegetable greenhouse, there was a sign that read the vegetables grown in the greenhouse. The LOGO of paradise Corporation was very eye – catching.

Xia ruofei strode into the greenhouse and instantly felt as warm as spring. The temperature difference between the inside and outside of the greenhouse was already quite obvious.

Xia ruofei looked around. The peach Garden vegetables planted in the greenhouse were all full of energy and vitality.

Moreover, most of the vegetables in the greenhouse were already or about to ripen, and could be picked at any time.

A young man in work clothes bowed slightly to Xia ruofei and greeted, “Hello, President Xia!”

Xia ruofei looked at him and asked in surprise, “You’re ... An employee at the farm?”

The management of the farm was becoming more and more formal. The employees all wore work clothes to work. These clothes were wear – resistant and dirt – resistant, and they were more breathable, which made it more convenient to wear when working.

Hence, Xia ruofei recognized the familiar uniform at a glance.

“Yes, director Xia. Manager Cao sent me here to provide technical support for the Jie Ji group,” the young man nodded.

This young man was in front of the company’s Big Boss, and it was also his first time facing so many cameras, so he seemed a little nervous and even spoke with a trembling voice.

Only then did Xia ruofei realize that Cao tieshu had not only prepared sufficient vegetables for the festival Group to transplant, but he had even sent maintenance personnel over. His service was really on point!

Xia ruofei nodded and said, “Xiao Xing and I are here to water the vegetables ... Oh, what’s your name?”

“Chairman, I’m Liu Fu!” The young man quickly said. He’s one of the first people the company hired!”

“Oh, really? That’s an old employee!” Xia ruofei said with a smile. Then, he continued the topic, “our task is to water the vegetables and then pick some of them back ... Xiao Liu, can you teach us how to water the vegetables first?”

“Sure, sure!” Liu Fulai said quickly, “President Xia, Zhang Xing, this way please!”

After that, Liu Fulai led the way, followed by Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing.

Soon, they came to the side. Liu Fulai pointed at a switch and said, “The greenhouse has already been laid with irrigation pipes. As long as you press this button, the watering will start ...”

“It’s that simple?” Xia ruofei was slightly surprised.

He had thought that he would have to fetch water to water the plants, but it turned out to be so simple.

Wasn’t the task given to the guests by the festival team too unchallenging? This mission ... Even a fool could complete it, right?

Of course, Xia ruofei would not show it. Under Liu Fulai’s guidance, he tried to press the switch that Liu Fulai had pointed out.

Sure enough, after a while, the slightly raised irrigation faucet in the greenhouse began to spray water, and it would spin as it sprayed, so that the radius of the irrigation faucet could be used to the greatest extent.

Liu Fulai said, “director Xia, this matter can be said to be simple, but it’s also complicated!” It was actually quite complicated ... For example, you had to take care of the watering. If you watered too much, the roots would rot, so you had to calculate the time. In addition, there were some blind spots that needed to be watered. Moreover ... There are so many greenhouses here, and it will take quite a long time to water them one by one. ”

“Understood!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “then let’s wait!”

Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing waited for a while. Xia ruofei went to observe the soil's absorption to prevent too much water.

After watering one greenhouse, Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing went to the next one and watered the vegetables one by one.

It was only then that Xia ruofei found out that the transplanted vegetables that Cao tieshu had provided had been specially selected for different stages. Some vegetables in the greenhouse could be directly picked, while some needed to be planted for a period of time. This way, it could be guaranteed that the guests in each episode would have the opportunity to pick them themselves.

After the irrigation, Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing picked some vegetables, such as water spinach, tomatoes, broccoli, and so on ...

The two of them put the vegetables into plastic containers, each grabbing a head, and carried them back to the mushroom house.

He Jiong was playing with the two dogs in the courtyard. When he saw Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing, he quickly said, "Pengpeng! Hurry up and give her a Helms...Look at how tired our guest is ..."

Chapter 2243 Bringing in ingredients (1)

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "it's fine!" It's fine! It's not heavy ..."

"President Xia, you should leave it to me!" Peng Chang ran over and took the box of vegetables from Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing.

Actually, Xia ruofei could lift it with one finger. However, for the sake of the show, he had to carry it with Zhang Xing.

Peng Chang carried the box of vegetables and ran to the kitchen. He Jiong saw this and shouted from behind, "Pengpeng! Where to? He still had to wash and choose the vegetables later! The pond is in the courtyard!"

"Oh, oh, oh!" Peng Chang grinned in embarrassment, revealing his signature neat white teeth. He moved the box of vegetables to the side of the pool and put it down.

He Jiong smiled and said, "President Xia, you've worked hard!" You've worked hard! I'll go wash the vegetables! You should sit down and rest for a while! I'll make some tea! The peach blossom Brand Da Hong Pao, the taste is righteous!"

After he finished speaking, He Jiong even winked at the camera.

"Sure!" Xia ruofei laughed.

Xia ruofei took two steps towards the pergola and turned back. He asked, "By the way, teacher he, I have something to ask you ..."

"President Xia, you don't have to be so polite. Just tell me what you need!" He Jiong said with a smile.

"That's right ... The Jie Ji group is too stingy. They only pay 100 yuan a day for food. We can't add in a little more, can we?" Xia ruofei asked.

He Jiong held back his laughter and glanced at the director under the roof, then said, "The director will definitely not agree! You're not thinking of sponsoring us for some food, are you?"

The director didn't know whether to laugh or cry. The program's flow and rules had been carefully planned. Limiting the food expenses was naturally to make it more interesting. Otherwise, which host and guests participating in the program wouldn't be able to afford their food expenses?

But didn't the audience like to see those big stars struggling to buy some food?

At this moment, the voice of the Deputy station head, Gao Jun, came through the director's headphones, "If director Xia feels that the food expenses are too little, you can ask them to increase it. Just treat it as a special case for this episode!"

Gao Jun didn't appear at the scene. He was mainly worried that he would affect the host and guests' performance by watching the recording. However, even though he did not go to the mushroom house, he had been in a small building next to it the whole time and had been watching the recording from the surveillance camera.

Of course, Gao Jun wouldn't be so concerned about a show. To put it bluntly, even if the show was a mess and the ratings dropped below freezing point, he would still be able to remain as the Deputy Director. The reason why he had rushed over was naturally because of Xia ruofei. Although he had repeatedly warned the festival team staff, he was still worried that they would not do a good job and might cause Xia ruofei to be neglected.

Therefore, when Gao Jun saw Xia ruofei questioning the food expenses on the monitor, he immediately gave the director an order without thinking.

The director was speechless, but no matter how bad – tempered he was, he didn't dare to disobey Gao Jun, so he could only pick up the walkie – talkie with a bitter smile.

However, before the director could say anything, Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "Teacher he, you must be joking. Since the rules of the show are like this, we naturally can't break the rules at will!"

Then, Xia ruofei asked hesitantly, "But ... What I want to ask is, as a guest of the show, is it against the rules for me to bring some ingredients for everyone to try?"

"Like this?" He Jiong's eyes turned and he said loudly, "that shouldn't be counted, right? What do you think, director?"

The set director quickly stood up and waved his hand at He Jiong as he teased him! The high platform could even agree to a direct increase in food expenses, so what was the big deal about the guests bringing some ingredients?

Besides, in the previous two seasons of the show, there were guests who brought some food for everyone when they came. It was just a meeting gift, so it wasn't against the rules.

"Director Xia, the director agreed to it!" He Jiong said happily.

"Then I'm relieved ..." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I thought this Festival Group was like some restaurants that prohibited the bringing of alcohol and other things ..."

He Jiong almost burst out laughing. Then, he asked curiously, "President Xia, what ingredients did you bring for us?"

"I'll keep you in suspense for now. Let's see if you can recognize it later!" Xia ruofei laughed.

With that, Xia ruofei nodded gently at Qin Yanan, who was in the crowd. Qin Yanan immediately understood and walked out towards the small building next door.

After a while, Qin Yanan came back with a small thermal container and handed it to Xia ruofei.

Throughout the whole process, the shooting didn't stop just because Qin Yanan entered the scene. Anyway, it could still be edited in the post – production, and it didn't matter if it wasn't edited. Maybe they could even add subtitles such as "President Xia's beautiful assistant"!

In the past episodes, there was no lack of shots of the staff next to them. The appropriate use of these shots could instead increase the effect of the show.

He Jiong's curiosity was piqued as well. He shouted, "Huang Laoshi! Huang Laoshi! Come out for a moment! There's something good ..."

Huang Lei, who was preparing lunch in the kitchen, put down his knife, turned off the fire, and quickly walked out.

He wiped his hands on his apron and asked, "Teacher he, what's the good stuff?"

Chapter 2244 External ingredients (2)

"President Xia even brought us a meeting gift!" He Jiong said, "he said that there are ingredients in it. He was still keeping us in suspense as to what exactly it is! Teacher Huang, you're an expert in food, come and take a look!"

Huang Lei rolled his eyes. "What 'expert in food'? you can just call me a foodie!"

"Hahaha!" Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh.

Zhang Xing and Peng Chang also came over curiously. Xia ruofei put the thermal container on the ground and smiled. "Teacher he, teacher Huang, open it and take a look!"

"What is it?" Huang Lei muttered to himself. And you're making it so mysterious ..."

As he spoke, he opened the thermal container. There were three fish in the container, side by side, and the gaps were filled with ice. As soon as the lid was opened, cold air kept coming out.

Huang Lei's eyes narrowed as he looked at the three fish. He quickly squatted down to take a closer look.

He Jiong, Peng Chang and Zhang Xing were all shocked by Huang Lei's actions. They turned their heads in unison and stared at Huang Lei, trying to figure out something from his expression.

Xia ruofei stood at the side and watched the show with a smile.

Huang Lei revealed a look of disbelief. After a long while, he looked at Xia ruofei and asked, "President Xia ... This ... This is a Chinese perch?"

Xia ruofei laughed and gave Huang Lei a thumbs up, ""Huang Sensei, you really live up to your reputation! I recognized it at a glance ..."

"That's true ..." Huang Lei was excited. "President Xia, where did you get this?"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "our company produces it!" However, these pomfrets grew up in a 100% simulated wild environment, so they can barely be considered wild Yangtze River pomfrets!"

Xia ruofei felt a little embarrassed after accidentally advertising for his company. After all, since the start of the recording, the show had given paradise Corporation enough advertisements.

In fact, Xia ruofei had the intention to show off the company's products. That was why he had made up his mind last night. He took out three Yangtze River Chinese perch from the space ocean and put them in the freezer. Naturally, this was to fool people. After all, other than Sanshan city, the other places in the country supplied the Taoyuan brand Chinese perch with frozen water. If he took out a live Chinese perch in the capital, it would definitely arouse suspicion.

Moreover, the bellies in the Yangtze River were very timid. They would easily be scared to death with the slightest vibration. It would definitely be bumpy along the way from the courtyard to the Paradise Association, so it would not be easy to transport live bellies.

In the morning, when they were ready to set off, Xia ruofei put the three frozen stingray fish into a cooler box and brought Qin Yanan to the Paradise gathering.

The reason why he didn't bring it directly into the mushroom house was that he was concerned about the program's rules. After confirming that it wasn't against the rules, Xia ruofei asked Qin Yanan to bring it over.

Peng Chang couldn't wait any longer. He asked, ""Mr. Huang, is this Chinese perch very precious?"

"Of course!" Huang Lei said, "the wild Chinese perch is almost extinct now. I haven't seen it in recent years ..."

Then, Huang Lei briefly introduced the delicacies of the Chinese perch to everyone.

Huang Lei was indeed very knowledgeable about food. He talked about all kinds of stories and poems about the Chinese perch in the Yangtze River like a family treasure. At the same time, he also explained to everyone that it was because of human overfishing that this species was almost extinct.

In the end, Huang Lei said, "I'll tell you about the story of the Spanish mackerel in the Yangtze River when I have time!" I have to hurry and deal with these fish. Anyway, I can promise you that you'll definitely be able to taste the most delicious food later!"

After he finished speaking, Huang Lei closed the lid of the thermal container and carried it to the kitchen.

"Ms. Huang, please be careful with the handling of the beluga ..." Xia ruofei called out from behind.

"Don't worry, President Xia! You can't scale the fish, right? I know! I know!" Huang Lei turned around and smiled at Xia ruofei. "Don't worry! I've studied some old recipes, so I'm confident in my Pomfret cooking!"

“That’s good ...” Xia ruofei was relieved.

The most delicious part of the pomfrets were the fish scales. After being steamed, the fish scales would soften into jelly. The taste was first – Class and it was very nutritious. If someone who didn’t know anything directly scraped off the fish scales and threw them away, it would really be a waste of God’s gift.

Seeing Huang Lei’s back view in a hurry, He Jiong could not help but laugh, “President Xia, is the Chinese perch really that exaggerated?”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “teacher he, how should I respond to this?” It was an exaggeration! It’s not realistic to say that it’s not that exaggerated. ”

“Hahaha!” He Jiong could not help but burst out laughing too. We’ll know when we eat lunch later. I’m looking forward to it again! President Xia, you can rest for a while. Xiao Xing, come with me to wash the vegetables!”

Xia ruofei laughed as he walked under the pergola. He took out a bag of Taoyuan Brand Da Hong Pao and started to make tea.

He Jiong brought Zhang Xing to the pond to clean up the vegetables that had just been picked, while Peng Chang stacked the firewood that he had chopped up neatly under the roof.

Xia ruofei’s action of brewing tea was very familiar and had an inexplicable sense of rhythm. The cameraman could not help but give him a close – up.

After Xia ruofei had two cups of tea, he called out loudly, “Teacher he, come over and have some tea first!”

Xia ruofei took a while to boil the water just now. He Jiong’s side was almost done cleaning up the vegetables, so he agreed loudly and asked Zhang Xing to bring the washed vegetables to Huang Lei’s side before he walked over to Xia ruofei’s side.

“Teacher he, you’ve worked hard. Have a cup of tea!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Then, he personally poured a cup of tea for He Jiong and pushed it in front of him.

“Thank you!” He Jiong picked up the teacup and took a small sip. Then, he let out a long sigh and said, “it smells so good! Could this be the Yan Yun mentioned in the advertisement? This tea really has a special charm!”

Then, he couldn’t help but look at the transparent tea in the cup and said, “President Xia, the tea leaves are all the same. Why do I feel that the tea I made just now didn’t taste as good?”

Xia ruofei chuckled. “The tea flavor is born from the heart. Everyone’s state of mind is different, so the tea brewed will be different. It’s hard to say who is good or bad ...”

“I’ve learned something new ...” He Jiong said with a smile, “I heard that almost everyone in the southeast province knows about tea. It seems like this saying is true!”

Xia ruofei smiled."It's not that exaggerated. But it's true that most Southeast people have the habit of drinking tea."

The two of them chatted about the Way of Tea for a while. He Jiong was a professional host with a high EQ. He could chat about any topic for a while. As they talked, he turned to the incident of Xia ruofei's forced surrender, which made Xia ruofei famous.

He Jiong smiled and said,"President Xia, I believe that many of the audience members are just as curious as I am." How did you manage to land such a huge plane safely? I've seen the images in the cockpit of an aircraft. The densely packed instruments and buttons made me dizzy! As far as I know, you've never been in contact with piloting an aircraft before, have you?"

Xia ruofei chuckled."I couldn't do it because I wasn't forced to. In that situation, I think if it was you, teacher he, who went up, you might have succeeded. If you didn't succeed, you would have died!"

After making a small joke, Xia ruofei said seriously,""Actually, strictly speaking, it's not like I've never been in contact with piloting a plane ... Those who are familiar with me all know that I once served in the Army ..."

"So you learned how to fly a plane during your military service?" He Jiong asked curiously.

The audience would be very interested in such topics as well. He Jiong had unknowingly changed from a variety show host to an interview reporter. Moreover, the change was very natural, without any sense of disharmony.

Chapter 2245 Delicious food and fine wine (1)

Xia ruofei laughed and said,"of course not. We're not aviation soldiers." However, I've received a period of helicopter piloting training, the kind that's accelerated. It's not for the purpose of training pilots, but purely for us to know the basic operations in emergency situations. "

"Then how long has the crash course been trained for?" He Jiong's mouth was wide open.

"Less than a month, I think!" Xia ruofei smiled and said,"besides, the one – month training is not just about helicopter piloting. There are many other subjects such as landing. The actual flight time is less than 50 hours, and they are all accompanied by professional pilots. We have never flown alone."

"This is simply unbelievable!" He Jiong said,"although I don't know much about the flying industry, I still have some basic knowledge. Let's not talk about what I can learn from the training in just a few dozen hours. The key is that the helicopter has no similarities with those large passenger planes!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said,"I remember that when the plane was forced to land in Saipan, the injured Captain said something. He said that all of this was God's arrangement. Although I don't believe in Christianity, I agree with his words. If you have to name a reason, it's probably because I'm a good learner. It was the captain who explained it to me, and I learned it now ..."

He Jiong could not help but laugh as well."Or perhaps your desire to live is too strong!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said,""You can say that. After all, that was the situation at the time. If I didn't succeed, I would have lost my life ..."

He Jiong and Xia ruofei were talking about the forced landing. They were also overjoyed. Although it had been a while since the incident, there were still many people on the internet who were paying attention to it. Some aviation enthusiasts were still doing various analyses on the basis of the existing information. However, not much information was revealed. For example, many of the details that Xia ruofei had mentioned in their chat were disclosed for the first time.

There was no doubt that after the show was broadcast, this small interview would definitely become the focus of netizens' discussion. This would definitely be a shot in the arm for the show's ratings.

The two of them chatted and drank tea. The atmosphere was very harmonious and leisurely, which was quite in line with the positioning of the show.

After a while, Huang Lei stuck his head out and said, "Comrades, come and serve the dishes! Let's get ready to eat ..."

"It's coming!" He Jiong responded loudly, then smiled at Xia ruofei and said, "let's go and see what delicious food teacher Huang has prepared!"

Zhang Xing and Peng Chang were helping out in the kitchen. Of course, there were also cameramen recording the entire process. The scene of Huang Lei cooking was also the most attractive part of the show!

The few of them worked together and soon, the dishes that Huang Lei had prepared were served.

The dining area was near the pergola. Not far from the root – carved coffee table where Xia ruofei and he Jiong made tea, there was also a long, solid dining table. The table was very long and looked a little like a conference table. It would not be a problem for a dozen people to eat together.

It was clear in all directions, and the view was very wide. Not far away was a quiet lake, and the scenery was infinitely good. As long as the weather wasn't too cold, the environment was a form of enjoyment to eat here.

Huang Lei had prepared a sumptuous lunch. Other than the pork stew with vermicelli that Xia ruofei had ordered in the morning, he had also made a few dishes with the vegetables that Xia ruofei and Zhang Xing had picked from the greenhouse and the small amount of ingredients that the festival team had prepared.

In addition, there was also a steamed Chinese perch.

After he Jiong saw it, he could not help but smile and said, "We're all thanks to President Xia! This is the most sumptuous lunch I've had since I started recording this program!"

These words revealed a deep resentment towards the director team. The on – site director, who was directing the shooting in the courtyard outside the pergola, laughed awkwardly.

Most people would definitely not be used to eating and chatting under the watchful eyes of more than ten to twenty people. However, He Jiong and the other three were professional artistes and Xia ruofei's psychological quality was quite good. He acted naturally in front of the camera.

He Jiong smiled and said, "teacher Huang, you've worked hard!" He prepared such a sumptuous meal for us! This is our first meal in the mushroom house, and it's a good start! In that case ... Let's dig in!"

Xia ruofei raised his hand and said, "that ... Teacher he, let me stop you ... I still have a question ..."

The expressions on He Jiong, Huang Lei and the rest's faces suddenly became a little interesting. The director's face turned green. Could he be up to no good again?

"Please speak, President Xia!" He Jiong's smile was extremely bright. "I guess it must be something good!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "it's like this ... I don't know what you guys were like when you were recording shows in the past ... The guests would come over and bring a few bottles of wine for everyone to try. Is that against the rules of the show?"

He Jiong winked at the director and laughed, "I don't think so! Isn't it normal to have human relations?"

Huang Lei also joined in, "that makes sense!" It's such a good dish, wouldn't it be a waste if there's no wine?"

This time, the director didn't even need Gao Jun's instructions and just nodded at them.

Chapter 2246 Delicious food and fine wine (2)

"Alright!" Xia ruofei stood up and said, "I brought a few bottles of wine in my suitcase. I was afraid of breaking the rules and didn't take them out! In that case ... Wait a moment, I'll go get the wine!"

"President Xia, just let Pengpeng go and get it!" He Jiong said hurriedly.

"No need, no need!" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "he can't find it. Don't mess up my suitcase again ... I'll go by myself!"

Of course, he wasn't afraid of messing up the box, but there was no wine in the box at all. He still needed to take it out from the spirit map space.

Xia ruofei walked through the circle of staff and quickly entered the mushroom house. A cameraman quickly carried his camera and followed him.

Xia ruofei went up the stairs in a daze. He was so fast that the cameraman couldn't keep up with him. The cameras that caught him while he was running were also shaking so much that they couldn't be used.

Fortunately, there were cameras installed everywhere in the mushroom house from all angles, so they could still edit the video.

Xia ruofei ran to the "lake view room" on the second floor, opened the box, and reached in.

He knew that there were also cameras in this room, but because it was a bedroom, there were not cameras installed at all angles, leaving dead angles.

Xia ruofei's back was facing the camera, and he reached under the clothes in the suitcase. At this moment, the cameraman ran to the door, panting.

He tried his best to stabilize the machine and aimed it at Xia ruofei, who was squatting on the ground.

At this moment, Xia ruofei had already taken out a few bottles of expensive rotten wine from the medium and stuffed them under his clothes.

The cameraman just happened to capture Xia ruofei taking out the wine from the box.

Since they were recording a show, it was not appropriate to drink high – Concentration white wine. Hence, Xia ruofei took out three bottles of expensive rotten wine.

He simply tidied up the box and closed it again. Then, he took the three bottles of wine and quickly went downstairs.

“The wine is here!” Xia ruofei returned to the pergola with a smile and placed the three bottles of wine on the table.

Compared to food ingredients like the Chang Jiang Pomfret, He Jiong and the rest obviously had a deeper understanding of wine. The few of them cast their gazes on the label of the wine bottle.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “Don’t look at it. This is from Australia’s West Winery, not a product of any famous brand. However, the taste was really good! You’ll know when you try it later!”

“Then what are we waiting for? Pengpeng, open the wine!” Huang Lei shouted.

“Alright!” Peng Chang replied loudly. He found a wine opener and came over to open the wine.

Zhang Xing ran to the kitchen to find a few wine glasses. He could not find wine glasses at the moment, so he only had straight glass for beer. But under such conditions, it was already good enough to have a glass. In the previous season, they even drank with a tea jar!

Peng Chang poured the wine into everyone’s glass. The capacity of this type of glass was quite large. A bottle of wine was poured into five glasses, and after a while, there was not a single drop left.

“Come on! Let’s raise our glasses and toast to the fate that brought us together!” He Jiong said happily.

His voice had a special appeal, and it could always make people unconsciously become cheerful.

“Cheers!”

“Cheers!”

The five of them raised their glasses, clinked their glasses, and then took a sip. Although Yingying said it was a toast, she couldn’t really finish it in one gulp. After all, this was a recording, not a drinking contest. Moreover, there were only three bottles of wine in total. If they drank like this, they would finish it in a few gulps.

He Jiong clicked his tongue and praised, “what a special taste!” It’s definitely good wine!”

Huang Lei was obviously very experienced. He said, “The fragrance of the fruit is very rich, and the layers are rich. The sweetness is very high. President Xia, is this the expensive sweet bar?”

Xia ruofei gave him a thumbs up and said, “Huang Laoshi knows his stuff!”

“Mr. Huang, what’s this expensive sweet wine?” Peng Chang asked curiously.

Huang Lei was an experienced foodie, and he was very willing to teach young people about food and wine, so he patiently explained to Peng Chang the origin of the noble rot wine, the brewing method, and the preciousness of it.

He Jiong, Peng Chang and Zhang Xing could not help but feel as if their horizons had been broadened after listening to the story. When they looked at the noble rot wine in their glasses again, their gazes became a little different.

“Such a rare wine must be very precious, right?” Zhang Xing could not help but ask.

“Expensive rotten wine is known as liquid gold,” Huang Lei said with a smile. “A small bottle of high – Quality expensive rotten wine can be sold for thousands of euros! Of course, wine and tea are the same, the price difference is huge, and each standard is fixed. ”

Huang Lei couldn't help but take another sip of his wine before continuing, “I've tasted the expensive rot wine produced by a famous brand. To be honest, no matter how you look at it, President Xia's bottle of wine is better than those expensive rot wine that cost thousands of euros!”

“This West Winery ... It seems like I can consider buying some of their wine in the future!” He Jiong said with a chuckle.

Although Zhang Xing and Peng Chang were both popular stars with high net worth, a few thousand euros was nothing in their eyes. However, they were still a little shocked that a small bottle like this was worth a few thousand euros, which was equivalent to tens of thousands of Chinese dollars.

Xia ruofei smiled.”Mr. He, Mr. Huang, if you want to buy wine from West Winery, I can contact you on your behalf. I can even give you a good discount!”

At this point, Xia ruofei paused for a moment, then smiled and said,””By the way, the West Winery is also my property. I bought it in the Hunter Valley area of Australia.”

He Jiong and Huang Lei were stunned for a moment before they burst out laughing.

“President Xia, this advertisement is really flawless!” He Jiong even teased.

Xia ruofei smiled and said,”the West winery's production is limited, so I don't have any plans to sell it to the domestic market for the time being!” Especially this expensive rotten wine, it's extremely rare and currently not on sale. All of the expensive rotten wine is in my private collection ...”

After Xia ruofei finished, he added,”let's not just chat!” Hurry up and try teacher Huang's cooking! Otherwise, the dishes will get cold ...”

“Yes, yes, yes!” Huang Lei quickly said,”today's ingredients are really amazing. I feel like I've also exceeded my usual standards! Especially the Chinese perch and the vegetables!”

Huang Lei's words were undoubtedly a great compliment to the Tao Yuan brand.

After all, whether it was vegetables or pomfrets, they all had the prefix “paradise card.” Even if Huang Lei didn't say it, the TV audience would be very clear about it.

Everyone put down their glasses and picked up their chopsticks.

Huang Lei's cooking skills had been tested. Not only did the peach Garden vegetables look good, but they also tasted excellent. Under Huang Lei's cooking, these advantages of the peach Garden vegetables were brought out incisively and vividly. It could be said that the color, smell, and taste were all present.

He Jiong and the rest were full of praise for the Yangtze River Pomfret. The unique taste of the gelatinous fish scales made them exclaim in delight.

Peng Chang and Zhang Xing both put down their idol burden and ate the food on the table one after another, completely forgetting about whether they would get fat.

Xia ruofei was already immune to this kind of food. However, Huang Lei's cooking skills did make his eyes light up. He felt that he was on par with the chef of the Ling Ji private kitchen. At least, his cooking skills were several levels higher than his.

Hence, Xia ruofei ate with great relish.

The guests' praise for the food was undoubtedly a kind of praise for the Paradise brand. Moreover, this kind of praise came from the heart, without a trace of pretense.

Especially for the Yangtze River Pomfret, they simply praised it in all kinds of ways.

It was conceivable that after the show was broadcasted, the sales of the Yangtze River beluga of paradise Corporation would definitely become more popular.

Of course, the reason why the Chang Jiang Chinese perch was so expensive was mainly because it was targeted at high – end customers. Even if the blue – collar workers wanted to have a sumptuous meal, most people would shrink back when they saw the price.

After the meal, the dishes Huang Lei had prepared were swept clean by the wind. Because they were too delicious, everyone had eaten more rice. The pot of rice he had prepared was originally saved for the egg – fried rice, but in the end, there was nothing left. It was all eaten.

Chapter 2247 A leisurely day (1)

After lunch, Xia ruofei wanted to help wash the dishes but Peng Chang and Zhang Xing fought to do all the work. He Jiong and Huang Lei also pulled Xia ruofei to make tea and chat. In fact, Xia ruofei did not think that doing this little work was very hard, but in He Jiong's eyes, he was already "the most hardworking guest in history."

This show was originally a leisurely reality show that focused on slow life. Everyone didn't have any specific tasks, so after lunch, it became everyone's leisure time.

Peng Chang and Zhang Xing also came over after cleaning up the dishes. The five of them gathered around the root – carved tea table, drinking tea and chatting.

The charming musky "lantern" and the two cute puppies played a game of chasing from time to time. The two sheep in the sheep pen moaned from time to time. It really felt like time had slowed down here.

In such an atmosphere, even the staff seemed to have subconsciously kept quiet. Only the camera was still working quietly.

The five of them sat on small bamboo chairs, sometimes laughing heartily, sometimes drinking fragrant tea, forming a beautiful picture on this warm winter afternoon.

After half a day of interaction, Xia ruofei had a good impression of the four permanent guests.

The four of them gave off the feeling of a family.

Huang Lei was the head of the family. The two young guests were a little afraid of him, but they also relied on him for a lot of things. He Jiong was more like a warm mother. He understood the sensitivity and gentleness of their hearts and melted you with warmth little by little. Zhang Xing and Peng Chang were brothers in the family. One was shy and gentle, while the other was weird ...

Xia ruofei was like a guest who came to visit this family.

Of course, Xia ruofei, as a guest, was not reserved at all. On the contrary, he enjoyed the atmosphere.

Everyone chatted for more than an hour. In the end, Huang Lei yawned and stood up. "I can't take it anymore ... I have to take a nap. I woke up early today and I was a little sleepy when I was cooking!"

He Jiong said with a smile, "then hurry up and go rest, teacher Huang!" Don't forget to make dinner!"

"You guys can order me around!" Huang Lei laughed as he scolded Xia ruofei. Then, he beckoned to Xia ruofei and walked into the mushroom hut. He went upstairs to rest.

"President Xia, do you want to take an afternoon nap as well?" He Jiong asked with a smile.

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. "Coming here is like a leisure trip. I'm not tired at all. I won't rest ... Teacher he, is there anything else to do?" Give me some more!"

He Jiong was stunned for a moment, then he could not help but laugh out loud. "President Xia, you really can't stay idle! The problem is that if you're so diligent, won't it make us even more lazy? What if your fans think that we're exploiting you after the show airs?"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "how is that possible?" Teacher he had a huge fan base! Don't pull aggro for me!"

The two of them teased each other for a while. In the end, He Jiong did not give Xia ruofei any work to do.

After all, this was just a reality show. Arranging for the guests to do work was just the show's effect. How could there really be so many things waiting for the guests to do?

Xia ruofei did not feel tired, so he brought the two dogs to the mushroom house for a walk. After all, it was his and his brothers' business, and it would be open to members in the near future.

Xiangnan TV had put a lot of thought into the location. The scenery near the mushroom house was very beautiful, especially the lake and the distant mountains. In addition, the area itself was covered by an array, so it was refreshing to walk on the road.

Of course, this was also due to the cooperation of the Paradise society. The mushroom house and the surrounding areas were all built first.

Now, the scenic Trail by the lake had been completed, all of which were built with anti – corrosion wood along the lakeside. The winding trail led to a quiet place, which had the effect of changing the scenery.

A cameraman was following them with a camera. Xia ruofei was walking with the two dogs. The winter afternoon sun shone on them, casting long shadows on them. The lake and mountains in the distance formed a beautiful picture.

Xia ruofei returned to the mushroom hut after a round of shopping. He sat under the pergola and made some tea. Then, he saw Huang Lei, who was on his afternoon break, walk out.

Huang Lei stood in the courtyard, stretching his chest a few times, and then yawned. He had obviously just woken up.

Xia ruofei smiled and waved at Huang Lei, “Huang Laoshi, how was your sleep?”

“Comfortable!” Huang Lei said, “the location of the mushroom house was really chosen correctly this time! I was worried that the environment around the capital wasn’t very good, and I was afraid that there would be fog or haze. After coming here, I realized that the air here is so fresh! It’s like the air is filled with sweetness!”

Xia ruofei laughed to himself. This was the effect of the formation he had set up.

It could be said that within the range of this array, even ordinary people would feel comfortable. Although the spiritual energy was invisible and intangible, it was a real existence. Under the infiltration of this invisible spiritual energy, the physical functions of the people inside the array would be subtly improved.

He was certain that Huang Lei and the other three would find themselves in much better condition after recording the show.

For the common sub – healthy state of urban people, this array was definitely a natural medicine. He believed that once the club was put into use, the members would soon experience the benefits.

At that time, the upper echelons of the capital would definitely rush to apply for membership.

Xia ruofei was very confident about this.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “I’ll naturally feel better if I get enough sleep!” Huang Laoshi, come over and have a cup of tea! It’s still a little early to prepare dinner!”

“It’s good to rest for a while ...” Huang Lei said.

He walked to the pergola and sat down opposite Xia ruofei.

The two of them chatted while drinking tea. Huang Lei was also a university teacher. He had been filming and travelling all these years. It could be said that he had seen a lot, so he chatted with Xia ruofei about many topics.

“President Xia, can we keep the remaining two of the Chinese perch you brought for lunch tomorrow?” Huang Lei asked, “there will be a new guest coming tomorrow. There aren’t many vegetables that can be brought out here, just the peach Garden vegetables in the greenhouse.”

Huang Lei had also considered the fact that Xia ruofei had brought the Chinese perch. He was supposed to finish them off with two meals today, but when he thought about the situation of “cooking without rice” tomorrow, he felt a headache.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “no problem!” You can keep it for later! Since it’s a gift for you, it’s naturally up to you to deal with it! This Chinese perch can be kept in the freezer for a long time. ”

“Thank you!” Huang Lei was overjoyed. “Then make one at noon tomorrow and ice the other one first.”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

After the two of them chatted for a while, Huang Lei got up and prepared to make dinner. Xia ruofei saw that there was nothing to do, so he followed Huang Lei into the kitchen to help.

Huang Lei’s nickname of “Little Chef Huang” was not for nothing. He was simply dazzling in the kitchen, and Xia ruofei could not interfere.

In the end, it was Huang Lei who assigned Xia ruofei the task of making a fire.

The mushroom hut used the kind of stove in the countryside, which was divided into two big iron pots in front and back. The one in the front was used to stir – fry vegetables, and the pot in the back was filled with water.

After the fire in the stove was ignited, the smoke would pass through the pot at the back. The remaining heat of the flame would be used to heat the water in the pot so that hot water could be used at any time.

Xia ruofei used to use this kind of stove at home when he was young. It had been many years since he had seen it. At first glance, it felt very familiar.

At first, Huang Lei was worried that a rich man like Xia ruofei would not be able to do such menial work.

He did not expect Xia ruofei to be so familiar with starting a fire. He had helped adults with similar work when he was young. He had also been trained in setting up a stove in the wild and starting a fire in the Army. Hence, starting a fire was a piece of cake for Xia ruofei.

First, he placed a piece of wood of moderate size in it. Then, he used a lighter to light up the pine resin strip that was specially used to start a fire and placed it on the piece of wood. Then he picked the very dry and not very large pieces of wood and carefully put them in. He tried to make them as suspended as possible, forming a hole above the flame.

After closing the stove door, the flames in the stove hole suddenly rose up and burned fiercely with a whooshing sound.

Huang Lei was cooking at the side, instructing Xia ruofei to increase or decrease the amount of fire. Xia ruofei was not careless at all. When the fire needed to be heated, he added wood and closed the stove door tightly. When he needed to reduce the fire, he would open the stove door. If the fire was still too big, he would cover it with a stove ash shovel.

Xia ruofei’s work was very skillful. It was obvious that he had done this before.

Huang Lei laughed as he cooked, "I didn't expect President Xia to use this kind of stove. It seems that you have a good life!"

Xia ruofei chuckled. "The children of the poor grow up early. When I was young, every household used this kind of stove."

Huang Lei gave Xia ruofei a thumbs up, and Xia ruofei also praised Huang Lei's cooking skills. The two of them unconsciously started to "praise" each other.

Dinner was ready in no time, and Huang Lei called everyone over to bring the dishes out.

Because the temperature outside had dropped drastically at night, they didn't have dinner under the gazebo, but in the small dining room inside the mushroom hut.

Although the ingredients available were limited, Huang Lei's cooking skills made up for this. Everyone ate with relish and praised him.

After the meal, everyone worked together and quickly cleaned up the dishes and other things.

After that, they went to the scenic Trail by the lake for a walk to digest their food.

When the group returned to the mushroom house, the sky was already completely dark, and the busy day was almost over.

Xia ruofei followed He Jiong and the rest to the living room on the first floor of the mushroom hut. Everyone was sitting around the long table and chatting.

He Jiong, Huang Lei, Peng Chang, and Zhang Xing were all artistes and could be said to be multi-talented. However, they were also very considerate of Xia ruofei's feelings and did not talk for long about the entertainment industry. As they chatted, He Jiong could not help but hum a song.

Huang Lei and the other two did not want to be outdone. They performed the shows they were good at. Zhang Xing also took the initiative to improvise a dance. He had developed his skills in Korea a few years ago. As a trainee, he had to learn everything, and he had spent a lot of time and effort on dance.

Huang Lei and he Jiong both sang a nostalgic song. Only Peng Chang had his signature bright smile on his face as he sat there and watched the show.

After he Jiong finished singing, he smiled and said, "Teacher Xia, you should sing a song too! The sound effects here are pretty good!"

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. "I can't sing. I can't. I can't."

Huang Lei, Peng Chang, and Zhang Xing were all jeering at the side. Even he Jiong, the good guy, extended a warm invitation to them.

Xia ruofei thought for a while. "I really can't sing. How about ... I perform a magic trick for everyone?"

Chapter 2248 The advanced version of "three Immortals return to cave"(1)

He Jiong and Huang Lei were both slightly surprised when they heard this. If Qianqian was just singing a song or something on the spot, she could come anytime and anywhere. However, magic tricks usually required preparation in advance, and it was more professional. After all, there were cameras at all angles in the room, and there were also cameramen carrying machines to film. If the technique was not professional, it would be easy to be exposed.

Even though this was a pre – recorded show, and even if the performance failed, it would definitely not be broadcasted, they felt that Xia ruofei would definitely feel embarrassed. And from the performance of the station's leader, it could be seen that the station's attention to Xia ruofei was unprecedented. This made He Jiong a little cautious.

Was he really going to let Xia ruofei perform magic? He Jiong was a little hesitant.

Xia ruofei chuckled."Teacher he, I'm just performing a little magic trick to liven things up. If I'm exposed, just don't laugh at me."

After listening to Xia ruofei's words, He Jiong also felt more relaxed. He thought for a while and said,"Since you're so interested, President Xia, let 's...Give you a round of applause!"

"Alright!" Peng Chang was the first to clap in response.

Then, Huang Lei and Zhang Xing also started to clap.

Xia ruofei laughed and stood up. He made a pressing gesture with both hands and said,""Everyone! Everyone! I'm just a magician hobbyist, I can't compare to a professional magician. Don't make a fool of me!"

"I won 't! I won 't!" He Jiong smiled and said,"President Xia, we're all looking forward to it!" Please start your performance!"

Xia ruofei nodded. After a moment of silence, he looked at the small table where everyone was sitting. He wanted to find a temporary prop.

Actually, Xia ruofei didn't know magic. It was just that he had the spirit map space and as a cultivator, if he really wanted to conceal it, how could he Jiong and the others see through it?

Very quickly, Xia ruofei's gaze landed on a can of tea leaves in the middle of the table. It was the peach blossom Brand Da Hong Pao. The festival team had placed the peach blossom Da Hong Pao at several places. The Big Peach blossom LOGO was facing the camera in order to help the peach blossom company increase its exposure.

Xia ruofei immediately came up with a plan.

He opened the can of tea leaves with a smile and said,""This is a can of Taoyuan Dahongpao. Although it's a product of our company, it was provided by the production team. Before this, I had no contact with this can of tea leaves. Teacher he, please check it first!"

He Jiong took the can of tea leaves and the cameraman immediately came forward to take a close – up shot.

He Jiong said with a smile,"this is indeed a can of tea leaves that hasn't been opened yet. Everyone, look. The plastic seal on the outer packaging is still intact!" I can testify that there's nothing fishy about this pot of tea!"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.””Teacher he, please open it!”

“OK!” He Jiong said as he tore open the plastic seal. He then lifted the lid of the can of tea leaves with force and asked,”what’s next?”

“Take out three packets of tea leaves.” Xia ruofei said.

The Taoyuan Dahongpao sold to the public was in small packages. One small packet was used to make tea each time, which was very convenient. There were about 20 packets of tea in the tea can. He Jiong took out three packets at random, then looked at Xia ruofei.

“Teacher he,” Xia ruofei said with a smile,”just put the tea leaves on the table ... Pengpeng, can you please go to the kitchen and get two bowls?”

“Alright!” Peng Chang stood up immediately and walked quickly to the kitchen. After a while, he came back with two bowls.

“Thank you!” Xia ruofei took the bowl and said with a smile.

He first tore a small hole in each of the three packets of tea leaves to distinguish them from the remaining tea leaves in the tea can. Then, he placed the two bowls behind the three packets of tea leaves and sat down cross – legged.

He Jiong, Huang Lei, Peng Chang, and Zhang Xing naturally gathered around as well. The cameramen also followed to take close – up shots.

Xia ruofei laughed as he turned the bowl over. He said,””Everyone, look. These two bowls were brought over by Pengpeng from the kitchen just now. They are just ordinary ceramic bowls and there are no mechanisms on them. You can check them!”

“There’s no need to check,” Peng Chang said, raising his hand.”One of the bowls was the one I used for dinner today!”

Everyone burst into laughter.

Xia ruofei asked Huang Lei to check the two bowls. After confirming that there were no problems, he said,””Well, here are two bowls and three packets of tea leaves. I will take one packet of tea leaves and cover the bowls ...”

Xia ruofei explained as he did. After covering a packet of tea leaves under the bowl, he took another packet of tea leaves and covered the bowl. Finally, he used his hand to grab the third packet of tea leaves.

Then, Xia ruofei blew at the bowl on the right and flipped it open. There were two packets of tea leaves in the middle. Then, Xia ruofei covered the bowl again and blew on it.

At this moment, Xia ruofei opened the bowl on the left and everyone gasped in surprise. There should have been a packet of tea in the bowl, but it was empty.

Xia ruofei smiled and opened the right bowl. There were already two packets of tea leaves. When he opened the bowl again, all three packets of tea leaves were moved to this side. It was as if Xia ruofei had teleported them over after blowing on them.

“Alright!” Zhang Xing was the first one to praise and then started clapping.

Huang Lei and the others also applauded.

He Jiong was clapping as he said with a smile, “I’ve heard of director Xia’s magic trick before. It’s called ‘three Immortals return to their caves’ and is a very traditional magic trick. However, the performer usually uses a sponge ball, which is easy to hide in the palm of the hand. And I’ve observed it carefully just now, and I really didn’t find any flaws. President Xia’s technique is very brilliant!”

“Thank you for your praise, teacher he,” Xia ruofei said with a smile. “However, my magic is a little different from the traditional ‘three Immortals return to cave’!”

He Jiong revealed a puzzled expression and asked, “I think the whole process just now was like the magic of the three Immortals returning to their cave ...”

“Then I’ll perform it for everyone again!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Xia ruofei’s movements were too fast during the first round. Huang Lei and the rest did not manage to see it clearly. Although the secret of the magic of the three Immortals returning to their caves had been revealed a long time ago and he Jiong had also watched the related videos, he really could not see any flaws in it just now. That was why Xia ruofei was willing to perform it again. Everyone also stared at Xia ruofei’s hands with wide eyes.

Xia ruofei unhurriedly placed the three bags of tea side by side and lifted the two bowls.

The previous process was exactly the same as before. Each bowl covered a bag of tea leaves, and then he picked up the last bag of tea leaves with his hand, blew on it, opened the right bowl, and found two bags of tea leaves inside.

“Teacher he, how many packets of tea do you think I have in the bowl on my left?” Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

He Jiong had seen the video of the revelation, so he was sure that Xia ruofei had used some technique when he covered the left bowl first. In fact, he did not put the packet of tea leaves in the bowl, but hid it in his palm. Then, he took the opportunity to put the packet of tea leaves in when he covered the right bowl. That was how the effect of having two packets of tea leaves under the right bowl appeared.

In this way, the bottom of the bowl on the left should be empty, because the tea leaves were not put in at all.

He Jiong did not intend to reveal it at first. After all, if he had not seen the video that revealed the secret, he would definitely not have been able to see the secret behind it.

However, Xia ruofei had actually taken the initiative to ask. Besides, Xia ruofei had already successfully performed this magic trick before, so He Jiong did not have so many concerns. He answered without thinking, “It should be empty inside!”

“That might not be the case!” Xia ruofei smiled.

Xia ruofei blew on his palm and pointed at the bowl on his left.””Can I trouble teacher he to open it and take a look?”

This time, Xia ruofei simply did not touch the bowl directly. Instead, he let He Jiong do it for him.

He Jiong saw with his own eyes that Xia ruofei had taken the third packet of tea leaves during the entire process. After that, he did not touch the bowl on the left anymore. The bowl on the right had already been opened, and the remaining two packets of tea leaves were there.

Under such circumstances, Xia ruofei had no chance to put the tea leaves into the bowl. Even if he was good at hiding the tea leaves, he could not put the tea leaves under the bowl in front of everyone.

So, He Jiong lifted the bowl with full confidence.

However, he was stunned to see that there was also a packet of tea under the bowl to Yingying’s left!

In fact, Xia ruofei did not use any magic techniques. He just covered the two packets of tea leaves with a bowl. When he grabbed the third packet of tea leaves, he kept it into the medium and took it out immediately. He made it appear under the right bowl.

At such a close distance, a packet of tea leaves was so small and light. With Xia ruofei’s level of spiritual power and the spiritual connection with the spirit map space, he could naturally hit where he pointed without any deviation.

This time, even the staff on the outside couldn’t help but show an amazed expression.

In front of so many people, Xia ruofei’s magic was obviously more exciting than the traditional ‘three Immortals return to their cave’.

Xia ruofei smiled and placed the bowl and tea leaves back in their original positions.

Then, he performed a series of dazzling operations. The process was exactly the same as the first magic trick. He was getting more and more familiar with it.

When he showed the two bags of tea under the right bowl, he reached out to cover the bowl and blew on it. Then he smiled and asked,””Everyone, guess how many packets of tea leaves are in the bowl on my right?”

According to the flow of the traditional magic of the three Immortals return to cave, the bowl on the right naturally had three packets of tea leaves, while the left bowl had none.

However, He Jiong was not so confident this time. He said with some uncertainty,”Three packets?”

Xia ruofei smiled and opened the bowl.

It was empty!

There wasn’t even a single packet of tea!

He Jiong was a little dumbfounded. He only spoke after a long while,”Is it all in the bowl on the left? This is impossible!”

“Teacher he, please open it,” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

He Jiong flipped the bowl open. Huang Lei and the rest immediately let out a cry of surprise. There was not a single packet of tea leaves here either!

“That’s amazing ...” Zhang Xing couldn’t help but ask, “Mr. Xia, where did the tea go?”

Xia ruofei chuckled. “That’s hard to say ... Maybe one of us here really likes our company’s Taoyuan Da Hong Pao and has hidden it away!”

If he didn’t show his results now, when else would he be able to get some exposure for his Peach garden’s Red robe?

“Then there’s only one possibility,” Peng Chang grinned and said, “the three bags of tea are all hidden on CEO Xia!” It’s just that his hands were moving too fast, we didn’t see it!”

Xia ruofei laughed and patted Peng Chang’s shoulder. “I think Pengpeng is the biggest suspect! This is called a thief crying thief!”

“Impossible!” Peng Chang stood up and said. President Xia had guessed wrong this time! I’m sure I didn’t take any tea leaves! If you don’t believe me, you can search my body!”

Peng Chang patted his chest as he spoke, looking very confident.

However, he noticed that He Jiong, Huang Lei and the rest had a strange expression on their faces. They were all looking at the same spot and tidying up his right pocket.

There seemed to be a bulge there ...

Chapter 2249 New guest (1)

Peng Chang was a little scared by everyone’s gaze and couldn’t help but ask, “Why are you all looking at me?”

“Pengpeng, what’s that in your pocket?” Zhang Xing asked with a smile.

“I’m not pretending at all!” Peng Chang said as he reached into his pocket. Then, his face froze and his expression became very rich.

Huang Lei laughed and said, “Pengpeng, stop hiding!” What’s that in your pocket? take it out and let’s see!”

Peng Chang looked as if he had seen a ghost. He stared at Xia ruofei for a long time before he took his hand out of his pocket and slowly opened it up in front of everyone. There were three bags of tea in his hand.

Xia ruofei smiled as he watched from the side.

He Jiong took a step forward first and picked up the three packets of tea leaves in Peng Chang’s hands to take a closer look. He exclaimed, “It’s those three bags of tea leaves! There’s a mark on it from when I tore it just now!”

After he finished speaking, he showed the tea bag to the camera.

The cameraman naturally zoomed in. Not only was the tea bag with a small opening clearly visible, but the LOGO of paradise Corporation was also captured in the video.

Huang Lei and the others applauded, and even the staff at the side couldn't help but clap. Xia ruofei saw Qin Yanan and he Yu in the crowd and was so excited that his face turned red.

It wasn't just because the magic show was very exciting. More importantly, they saw that during the magic show, the peach blossom Big Red Robe appeared in the close – up shot again and again. This kind of advertising effect was undoubtedly quite gratifying.

Peng Chang came back to his senses and looked at Xia ruofei with admiration. He said, ""President Xia, how did you do it? I ... I don't feel anything at all! Teach me! I want to learn this magic trick!"

Xia ruofei smiled."Pengpeng, the rule of the magic world is not to reveal secrets. Otherwise, magic will lose its appeal."

Xia ruofei wasn't trying to shirk responsibility. There was indeed such an unwritten rule in the magic world. After all, magic was just a cover – up. Once the secret was revealed, people might be enlightened at the time, but they would slowly develop a feeling of "so that's all there is to it." In the long run, this would be very harmful to the industry.

Peng Chang still didn't give up and said enthusiastically, ""President Xia! Brother Xia! Then you can teach me in private! I really want to learn this magic trick ..."

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He saw Peng Chang coming out to talk, so he moved the three bags of tea into Peng Chang's pocket on the spur of the moment. He even patted Peng Chang's shoulder on purpose to make sure that there was physical contact between them. This way, it wouldn't be suspicious. Otherwise, it wouldn't be a magic trick but a fantasy.

How could he teach such 'magic'?

Facing Peng Chang's "passion for learning", Xia ruofei didn't know how to reject him. After all, they were still recording the show! If his words and actions weren't appropriate, it would easily cause a heated discussion, especially when he was likely to be criticized by Peng Chang's fans.

Although xiangnan TV would probably edit out the content that was not beneficial to him, as long as it was recorded, there was a possibility that it would not be leaked.

Fortunately, at this moment, the phone rang, which helped Xia ruofei out of the situation.

He Jiong and Huang Lei had very high emotional intelligence. They could tell that Xia ruofei was not very willing to teach this magic trick and were thinking about how to phrase it! After the phone rang, He Jiong quickly said, "Let's answer the phone first! Maybe it's the guest who's coming tomorrow!"

Xia ruofei also said, "yes, yes, yes!" Answer the phone first! Pengpeng, if you want to learn magic, let's have a private exchange!"

Peng Chang saw that Xia ruofei didn't give a definite answer and immediately said happily, ""Good, good, good!"

Zhang Xing stood up and walked over when he heard the phone ring. Xia ruofei and the rest surrounded him, interested in the phone call.

"Hello, this is mushroom hut. Who is this?" Zhang Xing picked up the phone.

"You can order here, right?" A strange – sounding male voice said.

He Jiong's ear was also pressed against the outside of the microphone. He turned his head immediately after he heard the whole story and said with a smile, "He's actually using a voice changer! This year's special guests are getting harder and harder to guess ..."

Huang Lei's face was full of contempt as he said, "Teacher he, stop acting. You're the only one here who knows the guest list!"

Even though Xia ruofei was not standing as close as He Jiong, his hearing was much better than the average person. He could still hear the voice coming from the phone. However, the other party had used a voice changer and there was no accent. It was just Standard Mandarin. Furthermore, he was not very familiar with celebrities, so he naturally could not guess who the guest was.

"It's fine. What do you want to eat?" Zhang Xing said.

"Little Star, let me ..." Huang Lei said.

"Oh!" Zhang Xing passed the phone to Huang Lei.

Huang Lei chatted with the other party on the phone for a while, trying to get the other party to say a few more words to determine the other party's identity.

However, once the voice changer was used, unless it was someone who was very familiar with the other party's usual tone, it was impossible to guess.

In the end, Huang Lei couldn't figure out the other party's identity. Instead, the other party ordered Yuxiang shredded pork, Kung Pao Chicken, and twice – cooked pork. He directly pointed out that the food expenses of ivory flower cricket were limited. To prepare these three dishes with a meal fee of 100 yuan was a test of the guest's ability to run a house.

After the call, everyone sat down and chatted for a while before they prepared to go upstairs to rest.

After all, this was a Leisure Program for a slow life. It definitely had to advocate a healthy lifestyle. He couldn't stay up late at the mushroom house to brand himself or look at his phone.

Moreover, there was only one bathroom, so everyone had to take turns to shower.

As a guest, Xia ruofei was also given special treatment and was the first to use the bathroom.

After he took a shower and changed into his home clothes, he greeted He Jiong and the rest before returning to his room to rest.

He was the only guest on this episode, so he could choose any of the two rooms and stay in a single room. The guests who would come later would not receive such treatment. There would definitely be a few people coming for each episode, so everyone would have to share a room.

Even though there was a camera in the bedroom, Xia ruofei did not care. After climbing into bed, he used his phone to browse the news for a while before lying down and sleeping.

Within the array, the spiritual Qi was abundant. The environment here was beautiful and quiet. Xia ruofei could not cultivate under such circumstances, so he fell asleep very quickly.

Outside, after he Jiong and the rest took turns to shower, they returned to their rooms to rest. The four regular guests were staying in one room. According to the program's tradition, they would sleep on the same shared bed.

Qin Yanan and he Yu had gone to the adjacent building to rest. Most of the staff members had also retreated to the building, leaving only two staff members on duty.

While Xia ruofei was fast asleep, the sound of snoring could be heard from the shared bed on the other end.

Xia ruofei woke up at six in the morning the next day.

The chirping of birds came from outside the window, which was particularly crisp in the quiet morning.

He got out of bed and walked over to open the window. Looking at the lake shrouded in mist in the distance, he suddenly felt much better.

Xia ruofei took a deep breath and stretched his chest in front of the window. He felt full of energy.

First, he meticulously folded the blanket and smoothed out the bedsheets.

Although he had left the Army, Xia ruofei still maintained many of the habits he had in the Army. For example, he folded his blanket according to the Army's method of folding tofu blocks.

Although it was difficult to fold the new blanket into distinct corners, it was still very neat and comfortable to look at.

After tidying up the bed, Xia ruofei took his bag and went to wash his face and brush his teeth.

After returning to his room, he walked to the camera and hung a piece of clothing on it to block the camera. Then, he took off his home clothes and changed into the casual clothes he wore yesterday.

Xia ruofei walked out of the room after he was done packing.

When he went downstairs, he would pass by the room where he Jiong and the others were staying. He looked inside and realized that two people were still sleeping soundly under the blankets, while the blankets had already been folded on the other two beds.

"There's actually someone earlier than me ..." Xia ruofei smiled and mumbled to himself.

Just as he walked down the stairs, he saw Huang Lei poking his head out of the kitchen. He smiled and greeted him, ""Good Morning, President Xia!"

"Thank you for your hard work, teacher Huang!" Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "you're up so early to prepare breakfast ..."

"Hahaha! It wasn't hard at all! I'm still having fun!" Huang Lei laughed heartily and said, "because of this program, my work and rest have become more regular. I go to bed early and wake up early every day!"

"Alright! This is a healthy lifestyle!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Isn't that so!" Huang Lei smiled and said, "young people nowadays are used to sleeping and waking up late. Teacher he and I are already up. Pengpeng and Xiaoxing must be sleeping soundly now!"

"Teacher he, you're up too!" Xia ruofei said.

It seemed that Zhang Xing and Peng Chang must be in the two beds that were still occupied.

"Yup! He should be taking a walk outside!" Huang Lei said.

"Alright then! Teacher Huang, I won't disturb you any longer!" Xia ruofei smiled. "I'm going to talk to teacher he ..."

Xia ruofei walked into the courtyard. The fresh air assailed his nose, making him feel relaxed and happy.

As expected, He Jiong had already woken up. At this moment, he was talking to two mountain goats at the sheep pen.

Hearing the sound of footsteps, He Jiong turned around and took a glance. Then, he waved at Xia ruofei happily and said, "President Xia, here ..."

Xia ruofei walked over with a smile and said, "Teacher he, you're up early!"

He Jiong chuckled and said, "I'm getting older, so I don't sleep as much ... I'm like this now. No matter what time I sleep on the first day, even if I stay up late and work until two or three o'clock, I'll definitely wake up on time at six o'clock the next morning!"

Xia ruofei looked at He Jiong and said with a smile, "Teacher he hasn't reached that age yet!"

The two of them chatted as they fed the sheep the apples in the basket.

After a while, Zhang Xing and Peng Chang finally woke up. They took the initiative to pick up the brooms and clean the yard.

Meanwhile, Huang Lei was busy preparing breakfast for everyone.

Soon, his voice came from the kitchen, "A few people, help to bring the breakfast out!"

Xia ruofei and He Jiong put down the apples in their hands and walked towards the mushroom hut.

Everyone worked together, and breakfast was quickly moved to the long table under the pergola.

Huang Lei's breakfast was quite sumptuous, but of course, that was under the condition that the daily food allowance was limited to 100 yuan. Outside, the sumptuous breakfast could only be considered ordinary.

Xia ruofei did not have high material requirements. He could enjoy a meal that cost tens of thousands of euros and a skewer that cost a few dollars.

He Jiong and Peng Chang had also participated in the recording of the first two seasons of the show. They had long been used to this kind of hardship, so they also ate with great relish.

Zhang Xing was known to be a good boy, so he was naturally not picky about breakfast.

Everyone sat around the table and chatted as they ate breakfast.

At this moment, there was a knock on the wooden door. Then, a familiar voice rang out. "Is there anyone at home?"

Chapter 2250 Surprise "Pengpeng, open the door! Our guests are here!" Huang Lei said.

No one noticed that Xia ruofei's expression had changed. He had already stood up and walked towards the wooden door before Peng Chang.

Peng Chang was stunned for a moment, but he quickly followed Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei strode over and opened the wooden door.

"surprise!" The three people outside the door called out in unison with a smile.

Xia ruofei didn't mishear. The guests for the second episode were Tang Yitian's family of three!

The three of them already knew that Xia ruofei would be the guest for the first episode. When they saw Xia ruofei's dazed expression, they all laughed happily, especially Tang Haoran. He was so happy that he almost bloomed.

Xia ruofei didn't expect the Jie Ji group to be so capable that they even invited Tang Yitian.

Jennifer could still be considered as a member of the entertainment industry. Although she was not in the Chinese entertainment industry and had retired for many years, she was still running an entertainment company!

However, Tang Yitian was a well-known Chinese entrepreneur in Australia. He was one of the richest people in Australia. It was unbelievable that he had been invited to a reality show.

It was obvious that Xia ruofei was the reason why the family of three could participate in the show.

However, Xia ruofei had no idea about it.

He wasn't familiar with the entertainment industry at all. There might be many people in the entertainment industry whom he found familiar, but there weren't many whose names he could call out. Therefore, he naturally didn't care who the guest for the second episode was. The festival team didn't take the initiative to tell him about this, so he didn't care.

What Xia ruofei didn't expect was that the festival Group had actually buried an Easter egg here and invited Tang Yitian's family of three from Australia without a sound.

This was a big surprise for Xia ruofei.

"Big brother Tang! Jennifer! Haoran!" Xia ruofei exclaimed, "I didn't expect you guys to come to this show!" This is too surprising ..."

Tang Yitian laughed heartily and said, ""Ruofei, when the festival Group contacted us, they promised to give you a surprise! How was it? Are you surprised?"

"It almost turned into a shock!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Tang Haoran took a step forward and bowed to Xia ruofei respectfully. ""Good day, teacher!"

This was under the watchful eyes of many cameras and television station staff. Hence, Tang Haoran did not address Xia ruofei as "master" but changed it to "teacher" instead. This way, it did not sound like he was from a bustling place.

Obviously, Tang Yitian and Jennifer had done their homework before coming and had given them instructions in advance.

Xia ruofei laughed and ruffled Tang Haoran's hair. "Haoran has grown taller again! You'll be a big boy in a few years!"

"Hehehe!" Tang Haoran enjoyed his master's intimate actions and grinned.

Peng Chang was right behind Xia ruofei, but he was dumbfounded at the fact that he did not know any of the guests in the second episode! And it seemed that they were very close to Xia ruofei. Could it be that this season's show had changed its style and no longer invited celebrities from the entertainment industry?

Tang Yitian was very famous in Australia, but not necessarily in China. People in the business world and political world might know him. Who would care about the rich people in the other hemisphere? No matter how rich they were, they wouldn't give him any!

As for Jennifer, although she used to be a superstar, she became famous very early and then retired at a very young age. After so many years, Jennifer's appearance and temperament had changed a lot. For a young man of Peng Chang's age, unless Lin Qiao was a super fan of Jennifer herself, she might not be able to recognize him.

"Big brother Tang! Let's go in! Let's talk inside!" Xia ruofei said.

Peng Chang came back to his senses and quickly came forward to help Tang Yitian's family with their luggage.

"Big brother Tang, Jennifer, this is Peng Chang," Xia ruofei introduced with a smile. "He's an Outstanding Newcomer who has just emerged in the Chinese entertainment industry. Although he hasn't been in the industry for long, he already has a large number of fans!"

Peng Chang grinned and revealed his signature smile. ""Hello! Welcome to the mushroom house, you can call me Pengpeng!"

"Hello!" Jennifer smiled and said, "the young man is very handsome!"

Peng Chang was a little surprised. He did not expect Jennifer to speak Chinese so fluently. After a slight pause, he quickly expressed his gratitude to Jennifer for her praise.

Tang Haoran also said very politely, ""Hello, brother Pengpeng! Thank you for helping me with my suitcase ..."

Peng Chang also liked Tang Haoran very much. He immediately said, ""You're welcome!"

The group of people walked into the courtyard of the mushroom house. He Jiong, Huang Lei and Zhang Xing stood up to welcome them.

He Jiong had already known that the guests for this episode would be Tang Yitian's family of three. However, for the sake of the program's effect, he did not reveal it to anyone, not even Huang Lei.

He Jiong knew that Tang Yitian and his wife might not be very well – known in China, and Huang Lei might not be able to recognize them. So, to avoid awkwardness, he was prepared to quickly introduce the three of them.

However, when Huang Lei saw Tang Yitian's group of three, he couldn't help but quicken his pace. At the same time, he said excitedly, "It's Jennifer! Teacher he, your television station is really something! He could even invite Jennifer! He's really remarkable!"

Seeing that Huang Lei also knew Jennifer, He Jiong felt even more relaxed. He said with a smile, ""That's a must!"

The two of them talked as they walked up to him.

He Jiong stepped forward and said, "President Tang!" Jennifer! And little Haoran, welcome, welcome! I'm he Jiong, the host of xiangnan TV!"

"Nice to meet you, teacher he!" Tang Yitian said with a smile.

"Teacher he, I've heard so much about you!" Jennifer also said with a smile.

Xia ruofei laughed secretly at Jennifer's habit of using idioms. Fortunately, she did not use them wrong this time.

"You're too kind!" He Jiong said hurriedly. I don't dare! I don't dare!"

Although Jennifer had retired, she was still a genuine Oscar – Level superstar and was now running an entertainment company. Although she did not have much business in China for the time being, her influence in the entertainment industry was beyond doubt.

"This is Huang Lei, Huang Laoshi. He is a real teacher from the capital Film Academy!" He Jiong continued to introduce.

"I've seen the movies that Ms. Huang starred in," Jennifer said with a smile. "Your acting is very good!"

Huang Lei was flattered and said, ""Thank you! Thank you! Jennifer, I'm still your fan! I really like the role you played as the female hunter, Jessica, in Forest Mist!"

In fact, Huang Lei had started his career earlier than Jennifer and was also a little older than her. However, Jennifer had retired at a very young age, giving people the feeling that she was more like a senior in the entertainment industry.

“Jessica’s role is very attractive. ” Jennifer smiled and said, “when I first saw the script, I was immediately tempted. I didn’t even hesitate for a second and took on the role.”

“Your acting was very good!” Huang Lei said.

He Jiong saw that the two of them were not done “praising each other” and quickly took advantage of an opening to interject and introduce Zhang Xing to Tang Yitian and Jennifer.

“Little Star, Jennifer is a multi – talented superstar in film, television, and singing. She’s an Oscar – Level movie queen!” The “misty forest” that she starred in could be considered a classic! President Tang is even more amazing. He’s the king of the Australian retail industry and has almost occupied half of the entire Australian retail industry!”

He Jiong was introducing the guests to Zhang Xing. In fact, he was using this method to tell the television audience that although this episode’s guest did not look very familiar, he was not a simple person either!

Tang Yitian laughed. “Teacher he, you’re overpraising me. The competition in Australia’s retail industry is very fierce. Our Meiya group only occupies a small portion of the market share. We don’t even have half of the market share!”

“President Tang, you’re too humble! I’ve been to Australia a few times, and there are supermarkets and convenience stores everywhere in Australia!” He Jiong said with a smile, “it’s just that we didn’t know that the owner of the famous Meiya retail chain was actually a Chinese compatriot!”

“We Chinese people are very hardworking. We have Chinese people working hard in most places in the world!” Tang Yitian laughed.

“There should be applause!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Everyone clapped very cooperatively. Then, He Jiong chuckled and said, “You might not know this, but President Tang’s family and President Xia are actually good friends!”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “let’s let big brother Tang and the others settle down first.” The story here is a long one!”

“Yes, yes, yes!” “Xiaoxing, Pengpeng, help me move the luggage!” He Jiong said.

Tang Yitian’s family first visited the mushroom house, then went to the second floor to choose a room. Actually, there wasn’t much room to choose from, so they only had to choose one of the two rooms.

As expected, they also chose the lake view room with the better view, which was the room Xia ruofei had stayed in last night.

Xia ruofei had already packed everything when he woke up today. The staff had also changed the bedsheets.

Tang Haoran had wanted to stay in the same room as Xia ruofei, but he was reluctant to leave when he heard that Xia ruofei was leaving after lunch.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "Haoran, you'll be done recording tomorrow. You can stay in my courtyard house then!" That place is much bigger than this!"

"Really?" "Thank you, teacher!" Tang Haoran said happily.

"Director Xia, why did little Haoran call you 'teacher'?" Huang Lei asked curiously.

Before Xia ruofei could say anything, Tang Yitian explained with a smile, "Ms. Huang, our Haoran has been learning some martial arts to strengthen his body from ruofei."

Huang Lei suddenly understood, "Oh, right!" President Xia used to be an excellent soldier, he must have real kung fu!"

Then, he patted Tang Haoran's head and said with admiration in his eyes, "This child respects his teacher! It's worthy of praise!"

Ever since they had entered the mushroom hut, Tang Haoran had always been very respectful towards Xia ruofei. Huang Lei had noticed this.

"Big brother Tang, we've finished watching everything upstairs. Let's go downstairs and have some tea!" Xia ruofei said.
