Chapter 2361 Capturing the Golden Fox (2)

In a short while, his figure had already appeared on the other side of the training ground.

Xia ruofei's spiritual power was constantly dispersed as he continued to survey his surroundings.

Just as he passed through the tactical training ground, a team of mobile sentries also came from not far away.

When the patrol team was about to turn, Xia ruofei had already detected their presence with his spiritual power. He sped up without thinking and hid behind a building just before the patrol team turned.

What happened next was simple.

There were several buildings next to each other, and the moonlight was not very good that night, so the visibility was quite low. He used the street lights and the shadows of the buildings to quietly sneak behind the three – story building.

Xia ruofei found a half – Open aluminum window. He pushed it open gently and jumped into the three – story building.

Before he came in, he had used his mental power to investigate. This should be an instructor's dormitory. The place he entered was a public living room, and there were rooms on the left and right sides of the living room. In each room, there was a person lying on the bed, sleeping soundly.

Xia ruofei did not alert the people in the instructor's dormitory. The main target he was looking for was the person in charge of the training camp, "Golden Fox"

According to pardu and the others, Golden Fox spent most of his time on the third floor of the small building. There was about half a floor there, which was where Golden Fox worked and rested.

Xia ruofei carefully avoided the surveillance cameras as he ran up the stairs quietly.

He didn't stop at all. He only stopped when he found a Sentry at the entrance of the third floor. He knocked him out with a punch and then threw him into the space cage of the spirit map world.

Xia ruofei had set up a very large space cage in advance. It was foolproof to use this kind of cage to imprison ordinary people.

Moreover, he didn't need to worry about the captives waking up or tying them up. As long as he threw them into the space cage, he wouldn't have to worry about them escaping.

This way, Xia ruofei's efficiency had increased a lot.

Of course, before throwing the captives into the spirit map world's space cage, Xia ruofei would also take the opportunity to find all the poison and weapons they had hidden. After all, if the captives were to carry guns with them, it was likely that there would be bloodshed if a conflict occurred between the captives in the space cage.

Xia ruofei had finally managed to gather a batch of free labor. Naturally, he was not willing to suffer any losses because of this place.

There were even sentries at the stairs, which meant that Golden Fox was most likely living there. Otherwise, the security would not be so tight.

Xia ruofei arrived at the third floor and immediately used his spiritual power to investigate.

Sure enough, he found a white man in his forties sleeping soundly in a big room on the east side of the small building.

“He is the Golden Fox?” Xia ruofei mumbled to himself.

Very quickly, Xia ruofei realized that something was not right. He increased the intensity of his spiritual power again and investigated the big room on the east side.

That room was adjacent to a large office. The office and the bedroom were connected. Xia ruofei scanned the area inch by inch with his spiritual power and quickly found the abnormality. There was actually a hidden room between the office and the bedroom.

This room ingeniously made use of the visual perception illusion, as well as the ingenious design of the house’s structure, so that ordinary people really wouldn’t be able to sense that there was another room in that position.

The four walls, the floor, and the ceiling of the room were all covered with copper plates, which could shield them from electromagnetic devices to a large extent.

Xia ruofei’s spiritual power had a weak penetration ability against solid objects, especially metal objects. This was why he did not discover the secret chamber immediately.

Just as Xia ruofei felt that something was wrong, he increased his strength and scanned the room inch by inch. The secret room was finally revealed.

Xia ruofei’s spiritual power sensed that there was another bed in the secret room. A white man in his forties was sleeping on the bed. This man’s body shape was almost the same as the one on the bed outside. Even his appearance was similar.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and understood.

Needless to say, the one sleeping in the bedroom outside must be the substitute of the white man in the secret chamber.

Xia ruofei felt that he was already very cautious, but he still admired this Caucasian man who was likely to be Golden Fox.

It must be known that in such a heavily guarded military camp, the possibility of an enemy sneaking in was extremely low.

However, this white man still arranged for a substitute to sleep in his bed, while he himself would rather sleep in a small bedroom. It could be seen how cautious he was.

Xia ruofei guessed that if he were to attack the substitute on the bed, the main body in the secret chamber would be the first to notice.

After all, the substitute's role was obvious. Other than blocking the first wave of attacks for him, its greater role was probably to warn him.

Xia ruofei grabbed the doorknob and released his true energy. The lock immediately broke without a sound. He easily pushed the door open and walked in.

When he entered the door, Xia ruofei casually lifted his foot and stepped over a thin line. This little warning technique could not be hidden from his spiritual power.

He did not walk towards the bed in the bedroom. Instead, he raised his hand and shot a small stone. The substitute who was sleeping soundly on the bed did not react at all in his sleep. His body trembled slightly and he fainted.

Xia ruofei, on the other hand, walked to the wardrobe in the bedroom with interest and scanned it with his spiritual power. It was very likely to be the entrance to the secret room.

Of course, there was another entrance on the other side of the office.

It was also because of this that if someone really broke in and attacked the substitute on the bed outside, the original body in the secret room would be able to detect it at the first moment and escape from the other entrance.

Xia ruofei moved closer to observe and used his spiritual power to penetrate it bit by bit.

He quickly realized that there was indeed an entrance behind the wardrobe, but the white man had locked it from the inside. No matter which way he opened the door, it would definitely wake the person in the secret room.

Since that was the case, Xia ruofei might as well go all out. He reached out and grabbed the edge of the wardrobe. Then, he exerted force and exhaled his genuine Qi.

Suddenly, the wardrobe was pushed two to three meters to the side, and a secret room about one meter wide appeared in front of Xia ruofei.

Although Xia ruofei used a lot of force, it did not cause much of a stir.

However, the white man in the secret room must have had an early warning system. Almost at the same time the wardrobe was pushed open, he woke up and jumped up from the bed. The gun in his hand was pointed at the opening.

This guy was really cautious. Not only did he arrange for a substitute to cover up his tracks, but he also slept in the secret chamber. He even had his gun in his hand when he slept, and he could shoot directly if there was a situation.

Unfortunately, his opponent was Xia ruofei, so he did not have the chance to shoot.

The white man only saw a black shadow flash in front of his eyes. He subconsciously pulled the trigger, but to his horror, he found that he couldn't pull it. No matter how hard he pulled, the trigger wouldn't move.

In the time it took for him to be stunned, the black shadow had already arrived in front of him.

The white man's reaction was also considered fast. He directly used the pistol that could not be fired as a cold weapon and raised his hand to smash the person who broke into the secret chamber.

However, he once again felt his vision blur, and immediately lost track of his opponent.

Immediately after, the white man felt a strong wind passing through the back of his neck. Before he could react, he felt a sharp pain. His vision suddenly turned black, and he fell to the ground involuntarily ...

Chapter 2362 A bountiful harvest (1)

From the moment Xia ruofei forcefully opened the door of the secret room that was disguised as a bookcase to the moment he subdued the white man who was most likely Golden Fox, the entire process had only taken a few seconds.

In the blink of an eye, the door of the secret room was pulled open and the white man woke up. Then, Xia ruofei entered the secret room in a flash and easily dodged the white man's attack. The two of them passed each other and put the white man down with a simple hand knife.

The whole process was relaxing.

Of course, it would be difficult for any other tactical master to do this. Xia ruofei had even used the restraint function of his spiritual power to lock the trigger of the Caucasian man's pistol.

Therefore, unless it was a practitioner with a good mental power cultivation, it would be difficult to stop the white man from shooting in that situation.

After all, this white man was too cautious. He never left his gun when he was sleeping, and he was not afraid of accidentally touching it in his sleep and causing the gun to go off.

Xia ruofei looked at the unconscious white man on the ground with a relaxed expression. Then, he walked out of the bedroom outside the secret room. There was still a substitute lying unconscious on the bed!

Since Xia ruofei had already confirmed that this guy was a substitute, he was naturally not interested in him. He directly put him into the space cage. Although the substitute was fat, he still had hands and legs. He could still do some work if he was caught.

Xia ruofei did not want to waste anything. Of course, he had to keep it a secret. If possible, he did not want to leave anyone alive in the training camp tonight. If he could keep them in his interspace, he would do so.

After keeping the substitute in the space cage, Xia ruofei walked back to the secret room.

He first used his mental power to perform a comprehensive inspection of the white man who had fainted on the floor of the secret room. He put away all the weapons on the white man's body. In addition to the desert Eagle pistol, the white man actually had several throwing knives on him. These throwing knives were blue, and it was obvious that they had been dipped in poison.

At the same time, Xia ruofei was sure that the white man did not have any lethal poison on him.

This was within his expectations.

Although the assassins sent by Morde were not afraid of death, they were the result of brainwashing and strong coercion. The higher – ups of Morde had earned a lot of money from the mercenary group, so they would not be so decisive.

Xia ruofei then used his spiritual power to do a thorough scan of the secret room. As expected, there was a hidden compartment in the secret room.

Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to open the secret compartment. Instead, he walked to the white man's side and kicked an acupuncture point on his waist. The white man groaned and opened his eyes.

When he saw Xia ruofei, his eyes were filled with shock. As if there were Springs under his feet, he leaped backward in a flash.

Xia ruofei crossed his arms in front of his chest and looked at the Caucasian man like a cat toying with a mouse. He did not chase after him.

Seeing this, the white man was slightly happy and subconsciously reached for his waist.

However, the flying Daggers that were originally hidden there had long disappeared without a trace.

The white man had wanted to take advantage of Xia ruofei's moment of weakness to give him a flying knife.

In the modr organization, this white man was famous for his knife – throwing skills. At such a close distance, he was completely confident that he could hit Xia ruofei's throat.

When the white man realized that the throwing knife had disappeared, his reaction was very fast. He immediately crashed into a corner of the secret chamber.

There was a hidden mechanism there that could open the door of the secret room on the other side in an emergency, and then he could escape to the office next door.

Unfortunately, he had met Xia ruofei.

He was already trapped in such a small secret room. There was no way he could escape.

Xia ruofei waved his hand lightly and the white man felt as if he had hit an invisible wall. He groaned and bounced back.

Xia ruofei walked over calmly and said in English, ""Alright! I don't want to continue this boring game, let's get to the point!"

The white man looked at Xia ruofei warily and did not say a word.

He naturally knew that the current situation was extremely disadvantageous to him, but he did not give up. His mind was constantly working at full speed, trying to think of a way to escape.

However, when his eyes met Xia ruofei's, he couldn't help but shiver. Xia ruofei's Black eyes were like an endless abyss, extremely deep. He felt as if his mind was being sucked in.

Almost in an instant, the white man fell into a state of confusion after being hypnotized by his mental power.

Xia ruofei casually pulled a chair from the side of the bed and sat down. He asked, "Tell me your name and code name!"

The white man didn't resist and said with a dull look, "I'm Metatron, codenamed Golden Fox in the modr organization."

Although he had already determined it, Xia ruofei still smiled happily when the white man confirmed that he was Golden Fox.

What followed was a round of interrogation. Naturally, Metatron answered all the questions and Xia ruofei's smile grew wider.

Chapter 2363 A bountiful harvest (2)

The strategy that he had formulated was indeed correct. He would start from the training camp and capture the Golden Fox directly. Then, he would get a lot of useful information from him. Next, he would just have to follow the clues and completely wipe out the modr organization. It should not be a problem.

From Metatron's confession, Xia ruofei knew a lot of the modr organization's secrets.

The upper echelons of the modr mercenary group were made up of five people, and they were called the five – Member council.

In this leadership team, the leader of the modr organization, the chairman of the five – man Council, Satan, had absolute authority.

The founder of the modr organization, who used Satan as his code name, was also quite mysterious. Even Metatron didn't know his real name or his whereabouts.

However, other than meyrando, the information of the other three so – called councilmen was revealed by meyrando without any reservations.

The three councilmen were respectively, the Ethiopia named Boak with the code name Viper, the Thai named Bason with the code name Wizard, and the American named Douglas with the code name Boulder.

Among them, Boak the Viper was the confidant of Satan, the leader of the modr organization. Many of Satan's orders were passed down through Boak. He believed that as long as he caught Boak, he would be able to find out Satan's true identity and hiding place.

Apart from the training camp in Basoko town, modr also had a mercenary group of about 200 men.

In the war – torn continent of Africa, this mercenary group was like a fish in water. As long as the price was enough, the mercenary group could provide armed support. These mercenary organizations were all believers of money. As long as the money was paid, they would definitely send troops to solve the employer's problems.

This mercenary group was led by Douglas.

Douglas, codenamed Boulder, had served in the United States Marine Corps and participated in many actual battles. He was an out – and – out master of special combat.

In addition to the training camp and the mercenary group, modr also raised a team of assassins called the dark shadow team.

The size of this team wasn't very large, and all the members added up to about a hundred people.

The dark shadow Squad was mainly used to carry out various assassination missions. They usually acted in small groups, and each group had at least four or five people. The most would not exceed ten people. They were the small but elite kind.

The person in charge of the shadow Squad was Bason, codenamed wizard.

Bao Guijun, Qian guiyou, and the others were part of one of the assassin groups in the dark shadow Squad.

Whether it was working for an employer on the battlefield or carrying out an assassination mission in the underworld, the risk factor was quite high, and the casualty rate was also very high.

That was why the modr organization needed to set up such a training camp to continuously provide new blood for the mercenary groups and the shadow Squad.

Therefore, the importance of the training camp in the modr organization was self – evident. As a member of the Council of Five, Golden Fox Metatron was personally in charge of the training camp.

Merendo was in charge of the training camp, Douglas was in charge of the mercenary group, and Bason was in charge of the shadow team. Only boack, the Ethiopia with the codename Viper, was not in charge of any specific tasks.

However, Boak was the second – in – command in the organization, and his authority in the organization was second only to the mysterious Satan.

Besides, Boak had a very close relationship with Satan. He was basically Satan's spokesperson because Satan rarely showed up. Most of his orders were passed on through boack.

After Xia ruofei understood the situation of the Morde organization, his eyes glinted and he asked coldly, "Some time ago, the modr organization received a mission to assassinate song Qiming, a high – ranking official in the southeast province of Huaxia. Who issued this mission? I need his specific information!"

The Golden Fox Metatron showed a blank expression and said, "I don't know. The dark shadow Squad is usually in charge of assassination missions. We each have our own duties and rarely ask about other people's business."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but frown.

Xia ruofei's main goal was to find out who the mastermind behind Song Qiming's assassination was. As for taking in some free labor, it was just a side goal.

Although the Mord organization had failed this time, the hidden danger would continue to exist if they could not find the mastermind behind the scenes.

In the underworld, Mord was not the only organization that could carry out assassination missions.

After the other party knew that they could not count on the Mord organization, it was hard to guarantee that they would not find other assassin organizations through some channels to complete this task.

Song Qiming was Song Wei's father. Xia ruofei could not let anything happen to him.

It seemed that he had to deal with the cunning Viper first! Xia ruofei said to himself.

At this point, Xia ruofei had basically asked all his questions. Most of the things he wanted to know had been answered by Metatron.

Just as Xia ruofei was about to keep Metatron in the spirit map, he suddenly had an idea and asked, "Merendo, tell me how to open the secret compartment in the secret room!"

In fact, when Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to investigate, he had already discovered the secret compartment. But at the same time, he also found that there was a self-destruct device installed in the secret compartment. If he broke it down violently, it would instantly destroy the things inside the secret compartment.

Xia ruofei didn't want to waste time on this self-destruct device, so he asked Metatron directly.

Under the influence of deep hypnosis, Metatron would never keep any secrets. After hearing Xia ruofei's words, he immediately pointed to the corner and said, "The third floor from over there. Press both hands on both ends of the floor and press down hard at the same time. This will reveal the password board. After you enter the password, the secret compartment will open. The password is ..."

Xia ruofei followed the method that Melondo had told him and walked over to the third floor. He placed both hands on the two ends of the floor and pressed down slightly.

Sure enough, after a soft click, the floor slowly sank, and at the same time, an exquisite password disk slowly floated up.

Xia ruofei entered the password that Metatron had provided. As expected, after a soft creaking sound, a secret compartment was revealed on the floor.

Xia ruofei walked over and took out all the items in the secret compartment with interest.

Other than a few stacks of US dollars, there were two boxes, one big and one small.

There was only about 100,000 dollars in cash. Xia ruofei naturally didn't care about it and kept it in the medium.

All the money he had spent on this trip abroad was now completely covered by merendo.

Xia ruofei then opened the heavy box. It was filled with glistening gold bars. Xia ruofei weighed them in his hand. Each gold bar should be the standard 500 grams. There were 40 bars here, which meant that they weighed 20 kilograms.

“Africa is indeed rich in gold!” Xia ruofei couldn’t help but Mutter to himself.

These gold bars were all cast from high – purity gold. Ten kilograms of them were worth about 800000 to 900000 dollars. Actually, with Xia ruofei’s current net worth, this was not a lot.

It was just that the number of 800000 to 900000 dollars and the dozens of shiny gold bars, although the value was similar, gave people a very different feeling.

With so many gold bars stacked together, it was quite a visual impact.

Xia ruofei admired them for a while before putting them back into the big box and storing them in the spirit map space.

Finally, Xia ruofei reached out and opened the smaller box.

When he saw what was in the box, Xia ruofei could not help but whistle. It was a box full of diamonds.

The smaller diamonds were fine. What really attracted Xia ruofei’s attention was the big pink diamond on the top.

The diamond had not been cut, so it had an irregular shape. However, this did not affect its beauty at all. The entire diamond was a mesmerizing pink color and was extremely transparent. There were no impurities inside. Even someone like Xia ruofei, who knew little about diamonds, could tell that this diamond was of a very high grade!

Chapter 2364 Swept clean (1)

Xia ruofei’s impression of diamonds was that they were very small, the kind that was embedded in rings or pendants. The biggest one was like the heart of the ocean in Titanic. The diamond in front of him was bigger than an adult’s fist. It was indeed beyond Xia ruofei’s knowledge.

It wasn’t that Xia ruofei had never seen the world. As a straight man, he had never paid much attention to diamonds.

Xia ruofei didn’t really appreciate the huge pink diamond. He put it back into the box with the other diamonds and kept it in his storage space.

Finally, Xia ruofei locked Golden Fox Metatron in the space cage.

After that, he began to clean up the entire training camp.

The first was the building where Metatron lived.

According to the prisoners and merendo himself, this building was mainly for the instructors of the training camp, and all of them lived on the second floor.

Other than that, there was a Sentry on duty at the entrance of the first floor 24 hours a day.

Xia ruofei came out of Metatron's room and went straight to the second floor.

It took him a while to interrogate Merlin. It was not even three in the morning yet. Everyone was in deep sleep at this time, and the whole building was quiet.

Xia ruofei sneaked in and activated his spiritual power to scan the area. He started to clean up the first room at the end of the corridor.

He didn't even need to do anything. As long as he entered the room, everything would be within his scope.

The sleeping instructor did not resist at all and was immediately thrown into the space cage by Xia ruofei.

Hence, Xia ruofei was rather fast. He swept through the rooms along the corridor. In a short while, more than twenty instructors on the second floor were all captured by Xia ruofei into the space cage in a confused state.

He used his mental power to check again and confirmed that there were no fish that had escaped the net on the second and third floors. In this three – story building, only the entrance on the first floor had a Sentry on duty.

Xia ruofei did not stop. After clearing the last room on the second floor, he ran straight to the first floor. He did not have much time left. He had to finish everything before four o' clock. Otherwise, the sentries would immediately notice that something was wrong.

The Sentry post on the first floor was at the entrance of the stairs, but it was facing the entrance of the building with its back facing the stairs.

The Sentry was a little sleepy and did not notice Xia ruofei who was quietly approaching from behind.

Xia ruofei slapped him unconscious, and with a thought, he put the Sentry into the space cage.

After cleaning up the building, Xia ruofei set his sights on the student dormitory.

Although there were still many mobile sentries in the training camp and sentries on the watchtowers, Xia ruofei was prepared to deal with these people last.

The reason was simple. The students who were asleep were the easiest to deal with, and the possibility of a mistake was the lowest.

In addition, he did this in case an accident happened while dealing with the Sentinels. If the Sentinels found out and fired their guns, the sleeping students would be woken up.

By then, with more than a hundred people surrounding him, each of them armed with firearms, it would be difficult for Xia ruofei to control the situation even if he was a cultivator.

If he locked all the trainees in the space cage, even if they were discovered when dealing with the Sentinels, he would only have to deal with a few people. Overall, the situation was controllable.

So, after Xia ruofei left the three – story building, he hid in the shadows and used his psychic power to investigate for a while. After calculating the right time, he used his agile running and quick reaction to Dodge and move around the tactical training ground. He successfully passed through the training ground under the eyes of the Watchtower Sentry and arrived at the student dormitory.

The student dormitory was a row of low bungalows, and there were a total of five such bungalows.

Each bungalow only had two rooms on the left and right, and each room could accommodate about ten people.

However, considering that there were many sentries outside, Xia ruofei estimated that there were only about 70 to 80 people in the dormitory.

There were no sentries around the student dormitory, so Xia ruofei sneaked into the first house without any trouble.

Whether it was in the country or abroad, the dormitories of students and soldiers were almost the same.

The living conditions of the students in this training camp were very ordinary. A single – story house was divided into two rooms on the left and right. There was a drain faucet along the back wall outside the house for the students to wash up and take a bath.

As for the toilet, there was a large toilet at the back of the row of houses, which was shared by all the students.

Xia ruofei sneaked into the student's dormitory. There was a row of large beds against the wall. Seven or eight people were lying on the beds, sleeping soundly.

Xia ruofei's eyesight was extremely good. Even though the visibility was very low, he could still see very clearly. There were a total of eight students here. There were white, black, and yellow people. The students' weapons were neatly placed against the wall. They were all AK -47 automatic rifles.

Although this gun was a little old, its performance was quite good. Many mercenary organizations liked this Classic Automatic rifle.

Xia ruofei observed for a while and began to lock the students in the space cage one by one.

The entire process was rather smooth, and he didn't encounter any resistance at all.

Then, Xia ruofei immediately went to the next room and did the same thing.

Xia ruofei was like a hard – working bee. While avoiding the patrols and sentries, he visited the houses one by one. In about half an hour, he had locked up about 80 students in the dormitory into the space cage.

These trainees all had excellent physical fitness. Xia ruofei was very happy to get so much free labor.

During this process, the mobile patrol team passed by the student dormitories several times, but they did not find anything unusual.

After Xia ruofei had cleaned up the student dormitory, he turned his attention to the sentries outside.

The first ones he dealt with were the sentries on the Watchtower.

This was because these spots had the best view and the help of searchlights. If they were not eliminated first, Xia ruofei would definitely be discovered when he was dealing with the mobile patrol team.

Of course, even if they were to lose their tracks, Xia ruofei would still be able to escape unscathed.

Moreover, most of the people in the training camp had been captured by Xia ruofei and locked up in the space cage. The remaining forces in the training camp were only about 20 sentries in total.

Even if they left now, Xia ruofei would have earned a lot.

Therefore, he was very relaxed.

Xia ruofei sneaked towards the nearest Watchtower. Under the cover of the night, he reached the bottom of the Watchtower very smoothly.

Xia ruofei patiently waited for the mobile patrol team to pass by before he agilely climbed up.

He did not choose the simple rope ladder that led to the Watchtower, but climbed up from the other side with his bare hands. There was another Watchtower about 20 meters away from the rope ladder, and there was a risk of being discovered if he went up from this side.

With Xia ruofei's current cultivation, even without a ladder, it was very easy to climb the Watchtower.

His figure flew up quickly in the night. In just ten seconds, Xia ruofei had easily arrived at the bottom of the platform at the top of the Watchtower.

Because he had already mastered his strength, the Watchtower didn't even shake during the entire climb. The Sentry on duty didn't notice it at all.

The Sentinel's back was facing Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei placed both his hands on the railing of the Watchtower and easily crossed the railing. He landed lightly in the Watchtower.

The Sentry finally felt that something was wrong.

However, before he could turn his head, he felt a heavy blow to his neck. Then, his vision went black and he fainted without any resistance.

With a thought, Xia ruofei kept him in the spatial cage and locked him up.

After his first attack, Xia ruofei did not stop. He immediately jumped out from where he had come from and quickly went down the Watchtower.

After some observation, he took a detour in the dark shadows and made his way to the second Watchtower.

Under the cover of the night, Xia ruofei had cleared out all the sentries on the high ground of the Watchtower.

The entire process was rather smooth. Not only did the observation posts not notice anything wrong, but even the mobile posts that constantly passed by the observation towers did not notice anything.

On one hand, it was a fixed way of thinking, and the mobile patrolling sentries generally would not look up. In addition, the watchtowers were all equipped with searchlights. These searchlights would still rotate slowly at a fixed speed without anyone controlling them. The light was very dazzling, so even if someone occasionally looked up, they could not see clearly.

After clearing the observation posts, the remaining three mobile patrols were even easier.

There were only five people in each patrol team. Xia ruofei hid in the shadows and rushed out when the patrol team passed by, attacking them from behind.

The patrol team was not mentally prepared at all. Besides, Xia ruofei was too fast. How could five ordinary people react in time?

Xia ruofei ended the battle within a few seconds and quickly threw them into the spatial cage. Then, he changed locations to ambush the next patrol team.

When Xia ruofei finished The Last Patrol, it was only 3:30 am.

In the end, Xia ruofei searched the entire training camp and confirmed that there was no one that had escaped. He then smiled in relief and prepared to leave.

Chapter 2365 Target Viper (1)

Before leaving, Xia ruofei did not forget to put all the supplies he could find into the medium. Now that there were more than a hundred people in the medium, the supplies would be useful.

Xia ruofei swept through everything that could be moved, including the training camp's warehouse and weapons warehouse.

This secret training camp was the transportation base for the Morde organization's backup personnel. It was well – equipped with all kinds of supplies, especially the Arsenal, which stored a large number of guns and ammunition. There were also some packaged food, canned food, and barrels of gasoline in the warehouse. Now, they were all Xia ruofei's trophies.

After collecting the supplies, Xia ruofei came to the small building where Golden Fox Metatron had lived. The first floor was where the instructors and staff worked. The monitoring room was also there. The data taken by dozens of cameras inside and outside the training camp was all stored in the monitoring room's disk array.

Xia ruofei's target was the data on the hard disk. Although he had avoided most of the cameras on purpose, it was inevitable that he would miss some. Moreover, he could not rule out the existence of hidden cameras. After all, the training camp was so big that even if Xia ruofei used his spiritual power, he would not be able to investigate in detail.

Therefore, in order to prevent their whereabouts from being exposed, the most convenient method was naturally to destroy the disk array that stored the data.

Xia ruofei found the monitoring room easily and found the disk array on the mecha.

He pulled out all the hard disks and threw them on the floor, then stepped on them.

Xia ruofei's foot was filled with true energy, and the hard drives were all broken into pieces.

He then stomped on it a few more times until he saw that all the hard disks had shattered.

Then, Xia ruofei took out a small barrel of gasoline from the storage space. He poured some on the disk fragments and then poured the rest on the machine, control table, and other places.

After that, Xia ruofei threw the oil barrel aside and walked out of the surveillance room.

Before he left, he took out a ZIPPO lighter from his interspace. Many mercenaries had this kind of trinket. Before Xia ruofei put the people into the cage, he would take all their items, especially poison, weapons, and other things that could threaten their personal safety, and pile them up in a corner of the interspace.

There were dozens of lighters like this in the boundless space.

Xia ruofei randomly took one out and opened it with a "ding." Then, he wiped it on his pants and the lighter was lit.

He threw the lighter into the monitoring room without looking back. He heard a whooshing sound behind him and a huge flame rose in the room.

Xia ruofei walked out of the three – story building calmly.

Before leaving the training camp, he did one last thing. He took out all the TNT explosives stored in the Arsenal and placed them all over the training camp. He also drove the tank truck from the oil depot to the tactical training ground and placed a bag of explosives.

All the explosives were equipped with time bombs, and the time was set to be half an hour later.

After setting up everything, Xia ruofei climbed over the wall and left the training camp.

The town was still very quiet at three or four o'clock in the morning. No one knew that the heavily guarded training camp had been ransacked, including all the personnel, weapons, and supplies.

Xia ruofei easily sneaked out of the town and found the pickup truck that he had left behind in the woods.

Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to leave. Instead, he sat in the driver's seat, took out a cigarette, and lit it up. He smoked as he waited in silence.

After a while, the sounds of explosions came from the direction of Basoko town, and the flames that soared to the sky lit up Half the Sky.

Xia ruofei then snuffed out the cigarette in the car. He was careful not to throw it in the woods, but put it in the ashtray in the car.

The explosion must have destroyed all the traces. The control room was most likely not completely destroyed. Xia ruofei had even set it on fire in advance, so the possibility of leaving any clues was almost zero.

Xia ruofei laughed in a relaxed manner. He turned the key and started the pickup truck. After a while, the pickup truck disappeared at the end of the bumpy road. No one knew that he had been to Basoko town.

Of course, after the explosion, the news of the training camp being destroyed would spread very quickly.

Xia ruofei did not intend to hide this. Even if there was no explosion and the entire training camp was turned into a dead zone overnight, the news would still inevitably be leaked.

Hence, all Xia ruofei could do was to find them one by one before they realized the urgency of the situation, especially the leader of the organization, the mysterious Satan.

After all, Xia ruofei's main goal of this trip was to find out who the mastermind behind song Qiming's attack was.

Xia ruofei was racing against time.

According to Xia ruofei's estimation, even if the modr organization knew that the training camp was destroyed, they would not immediately hide and escape. They would most likely try to find the person who caused this incident and then carry out crazy revenge.

In fact, the fighting power of the modr organization had not been damaged much. This was only a training base for reserve personnel. The real power of the modr organization was still the mercenary group and the shadow group responsible for the assassination. Since these two major forces were not damaged, the upper echelons of the modr organization would definitely not support them immediately.

This was the time that Xia ruofei needed.

As he drove, he set the navigation.

Xia ruofei's next destination was Zaha city, located in the southeast of arulei.

According to the information provided by merendo, the most trusted subordinate of Satan, the leader of the modr group, was boa constrictor. He spent most of his time in the border city with Ethiopia.

He was originally an Ethiopia, but because of his criminal record, he had long been wanted by the Ethiopian police, so he did not easily enter Ethiopia. Instead, he lived in Zaha.

There, Boak owned a huge Manor and lived a luxurious life. Compared to the ordinary people in arulei, they were in two different worlds.

The reason why Xia ruofei chose Boak the Viper was naturally to force out the whereabouts of Satan, the leader of the modr organization, as soon as possible.

According to merendo's confession, the only person in the entire modr who might know Satan's true identity and where he stayed was Boak. The other two Members of Parliament, Bason and Douglas, were probably similar to him and did not know much about Satan.

Although bassoon, the Thai in charge of the dark shadow Squad, might know who the mastermind behind the assassination of song Qiming was, Xia ruofei still chose to find Satan through Boak.

If he knew that he could catch Satan, he wouldn't have to worry about not being able to find out who was behind song Qiming's incident.

The sky gradually brightened.

An old pickup truck covered in wild graffiti sped in the direction of the rising sun, leaving a trail of dust behind it.

.....

In the eastern suburbs of Zaha city, a magnificent Manor stood there, covering an area of a hundred acres.

Neatly trimmed green trees could be seen everywhere in the manor, and a Castle – like building could be vaguely seen in the crisscrossing trees. In addition to this Castle, there were many auxiliary buildings scattered in a picturesque disorder around it, forming a magnificent complex of buildings with the castle.

The scenery in the manor was like a song. There was a small man – made Lake with rippling water, and a group of swans were leisurely swimming in the lake. The rotten wood Trail by the lake was spotless, forming a sharp contrast with most of the dilapidated potholes in arulei. It was like a Pearl in the slums.

In the garden behind the castle, a black man in his forties was lying on a comfortable and soft recliner. He was wearing traditional Ethiopia clothes and a white Shama.

He was the famous boa constrictor, the second – in – command of the modr.

There were five to six beautiful women around him, one of them was black, the rest were white women with blonde hair and blue eyes. The only black woman also had a delicate face and a slim figure, belonging to the rare “Black Pearl” type.

He seemed to be very relaxed. From time to time, he would open his mouth and eat the fruits that the beautiful girls fed him. He was having a great time hugging the girls.

This was a little different from Xia ruofei's prediction.

He had thought that the news of the explosion at the training camp would soon reach the upper echelons of the modr organization, but they wouldn't go into hiding just because of this.

However, in fact, up until now, there was still no news of what happened in the training camp.

This was mainly due to the backward state of arulei.

Xia ruofei had cleaned up the secret training camp very thoroughly. Not a single person had escaped. Although the explosion had caused a huge commotion, arulei's media industry was rather backward, and the Internet was only in its early stages. Such a big news had not been reported even after a few hours.

The reason why the training camp was built in Basoko town was because of its remote location.

Although there was an explosion in the training camp, the officials of the town of Basoko did not dare to delay and immediately reported it according to the procedures. However, the slow administrative efficiency of arulei also caused the news to spread very slowly.

Of course, the news was only a little delayed, but what was supposed to come would come.

As he was enjoying the moment, his phone on the table started to ring.

The Black Beauty was obviously the most favored one. She stood up, took the phone and handed it to Boak with both hands before he could say anything.

With a smile, he patted the dark Beauty's body and took the phone.

He glanced at the caller ID and immediately picked up. "Boss! Is there something you need?"

The "boss" on the other end of the line said something that made him sit up straight from the chair. His face turned serious and he waved at the few beautiful ladies beside him.

The girls were smart, they knew that Boak did not want them to hear the conversation, so they left the garden one by one.

After the women had left, he quickly said, "Boss, how did this happen? Did those idiots set the gunpowder storage on fire? Where's Metatron? He can't absolve himself from the blame for such a big incident!"

Chapter 2366 Viper captured (1)

It was Satan, the mysterious leader of the modr organization, who had called Viper.

After a few hours, the news of the explosion at the modr's Secret training camp finally reached Satan through official channels.

Of course, Satan and the higher – ups of arulei had a special channel of information transmission between them, and his identity would not be revealed.

Satan's voice seemed to be a bit old. "Viper, the local police in Basoko have investigated the scene. The entire training camp has been blown up, but the strange thing is ... There's not a single corpse inside. Everyone, including Golden Fox, is missing ..."

"How is this possible?" said Boak in surprise. That was more than a hundred people! Where could they have run to?"

"I'm also very puzzled!" Satan's voice was grave. "But that is the truth. So far, we have not received any reports from the training camp. They have all gone missing!"

"Boss, is it possible ... That Metatron and the entire training camp left our organization and started a new one?" said Beaulac with a frown.

"That is a possibility." Satan said, "but what's the motive? There was no way Merendo didn't know that a hundred newbies wouldn't be able to do much! Besides, there are more than 20 instructors in the training camp. Not all of them are Metatron's men. Do you think these instructors would be willing to run away with him?"

“Maybe the opposition was killed by Metatron!” “Metatron must have known that we would hunt him down if he betrayed the organization, so he used the explosion to erase all traces before he left. Then, he took his men to hide ...”

Satan said in confusion, “the problem is ... There’s no way Golden Fox doesn’t know. Even if we lose this training camp, our organization will not suffer any serious losses. He has a group of rookies with him, and they are such a big target. It must be very difficult for them to escape our pursuit. Besides, he is considered to have great power in our organization and has earned enough money. Why would he do such a thankless thing?”

“I don’t know!” Said Boak as he scratched his head. But big brother ... Other than this possibility, I really can’t think of any other possibility! There was not a single corpse at the scene. Could they have been captured by some mysterious force? That was more than a hundred living people! How could he have hidden himself without anyone knowing?”

According to normal logic, Boak’s analysis was right.

However, no matter how imaginative Satan and Boak were, they could never imagine that someone could carry a dimensional pocket around. Even if there were more than 10000 people, they could easily put them into the dimensional pocket and take them away, let alone 100 people.

Satan said, “this is indeed very hard to understand!” Viper, my brother! I need you to make a trip to Basoko town and see if you can find any clues!”

“No problem!” “I’ll leave immediately!” Said Boak.

“Mm! I’ll be waiting for your news!” Satan said, “remember to bring more people, and pay attention to your safety!”

“Understood!” Said Boak.

In fact, the leaders of the modr organization had rarely come out to do anything in person in the past few years. However, the explosion at the training camp and the disappearance of so many people were too strange. Most importantly, among the missing people, one of them was merondo, who had a high position in the modr organization. This was also the reason why Satan had decided to send Boak to personally make a trip.

After the call ended, he put on his slippers and stood up, ready to go back to the castle to change his clothes.

Of course, before that, he still had to choose a few of his best followers.

However, after two steps, he was stunned and his eyes were filled with shock.

He saw a young man walking out from behind the trees. The young man was holding a large – caliber pistol with a silencer, and the black muzzle was pointed at his chest.

The young man had dark skin and high cheekbones. He looked like a typical Southeast Asian man.

He couldn't believe that someone had sneaked up to him and the security system of the manor did not react at all. There were more than a hundred guards in his Manor. Even if there were a hundred pigs in the manor, they would not be so slow – witted, right?

This young man was Xia ruofei, who had changed his appearance.

In order to save time, he rushed to Zaha city without stopping and immediately found a way to sneak into the manor. He used his psychic power to search and located Boak's location.

Although the manor was equipped with a lot of high – tech defense measures and had a very strong security force, the degree of security was still not as tight as the secret training camp in Basoko.

After all, the training camp was completely militarized, and it was a tightly – sealed military camp. After all, this Manor was a living place, and the modr organization's status in arulei could be said to be Supreme. The guards' work was actually very easy. Although the guards were still dedicated to their duties, nothing had happened in a long time, and their spirits had long since become very relaxed.

Xia ruofei also had strong spiritual power, which could carry out effective intelligence reconnaissance and danger warning.

Chapter 2367 Viper captured (2)

Therefore, he avoided all the sentries and surveillance cameras on the way and successfully sneaked up to Boak.

Xia ruofei was already hiding behind the trees before Boak received the call from Satan. He heard the conversation between Boak and Satan clearly.

It was not until he was about to leave the garden that Xia ruofei found a pistol with a silencer from the pile of firearms in his storage space. He held the gun in his hand and walked out of his hiding place.

"I've long heard of your great name, Mr. Viper!" Xia ruofei smiled and said in English, "please don't try to escape or call for help. I don't think you can be faster than a bullet, so don't joke around with your life."

The expression on Beaulac's face darkened. He stared at Xia ruofei's face that had been changed and asked in a deep voice, ""Who are you?"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "that's not important, Mr. Viper." As long as you cooperate, I can guarantee your safety. "

The gears in his head turned rapidly as he tried to think of a way to escape.

What made him a little depressed was that, according to the current situation, the possibility of him escaping from the current situation was very low. What was more terrifying was that this back garden was where he and his girlfriends had fun, and it was his "private land." The guards in charge of the manor's security would not go near this area.

After all, from their point of view, the defense of the entire Manor was already impregnable, and the back garden was almost the core of the manor. The possibility of danger in the back garden was close to zero. Therefore, there was no need to make the boss unhappy for the sake of so – called safety.

In the first place, Boak did not care much about this matter. Now, he had a taste of the bitter fruit. He was trapped in the back garden with a gun pointed at him. No one could help him.

He decided to calm the young man down first. He tried to sound calm and steady as he said, ""No problem! I'll definitely cooperate! Please speak! What do you need me to do?"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "it's simple. Look at my eyes first ..."

As soon as Xia ruofei finished his words, he subconsciously looked at Xia ruofei's sharp eyes.

"Very good ..." Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Then, his spiritual power gushed out from his psyche ocean and swept towards beac.

In less than a second, Beaulac managed to hold on.

Or more precisely, Boak's subconscious resistance only lasted for less than a second.

Then, he fell into a state of confusion that came after a deep hypnosis.

Xia ruofei didn't question Boak right away. Instead, he teleported the hypnotized Boak into his space and threw him into an independent space cage.

Then, Xia ruofei immediately sneaked away and easily dodged the patrolling guards. At the same time, he carefully avoided the cameras and nimbly dodged in the blind spots of the surveillance cameras. In a short while, he had sneaked out of the manor's vicinity without anyone noticing.

The reason why Xia ruofei didn't clean up the place like he did in the training camp in Basoko town was to save time and find out Satan's whereabouts from Boak as soon as possible.

After all, Satan already knew about the explosion at the training camp, and had sent Boak to investigate. If there was another incident where all the people in the Boak Manor went missing, it would surely alert Satan.

The news of the capture of Boak alone would probably be kept a secret for a longer time, because the other people in the manor would not dare to speculate about Boak's whereabouts. In addition, Satan had sent Boak to Basoko town, so all these could interfere with Satan's judgment.

Of course, there was another important reason.

The people in the manor were different from the mercenaries in the barsoco training camp. Most of them were servants hired by Boak, including his women. Even if they were at fault, they wouldn't be imprisoned for life.

Xia ruofei could not bring himself to bring innocent people into the medium to work for the rest of their lives.

After leaving the manor, Xia ruofei quickly found the pickup he had hidden.

He drove away from the manor without any hesitation.

After driving for tens of kilometers, Xia ruofei found a hidden place and stopped the car.

He then jumped off the car and walked into the woods. He used his psychic power to check around and made sure that no one was spying on him. After that, he teleported back out of the cage.

Out of thin air, a hawk appeared in the bushes and fell to the ground.

At that moment, Boak's brain almost lost the ability to think. What he had just experienced was too bizarre.

A second ago, he had been blocked by a gun in the back garden of the manor, and then he seemed to have suddenly lost consciousness.

After he was transferred to the space cage and locked up alone, he slowly recovered as Xia ruofei stopped using his spiritual power to maintain the hypnotism.

The space cage that was surrounded by mysterious mist and there was nothing in it, but he couldn't get out of it.

He had tried many methods, but none of them worked.

As the second – in – command of the Morde organization, it was the first time that he felt as helpless as a child.

Just as he was at a loss, he suddenly felt the world spin around him, and an invisible force was pulling him.

He felt dizzy and when he recovered, he realized that he was in a different environment.

This time, it was no longer the monotonous endless Gray – White color, but a forest.

Although he was only locked up for half an hour, he felt like crying when he saw the green leaves and the blue sky.

Of course, he quickly noticed Xia ruofei who was standing in front of him.

The gun with a silencer was still in Xia ruofei's hand, and the muzzle was aimed at Boak's head. Xia ruofei still had a teasing smile on his face.

"Sir, do you want ..." Said Boak anxiously.

He was only halfway through his sentence when the mental pressure that was etched in his heart attacked him again. He was completely unable to resist and fell into a state of hypnosis again.

Xia ruofei didn't want to waste time with Boak. He asked directly, "Tell me Satan's true identity and hiding place!"

To Xia ruofei's surprise, when he asked the question, Boak's face showed a hint of struggle. However, the pressure of mental strength was too strong. He only hesitated for a moment but quickly answered.

When Xia ruofei heard the answer, he could not help but raise his eyebrows and look very surprised.

However, he didn't doubt the authenticity of Boak's answer, so he nodded and kept the important information in mind.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but take another look at Boak. He was also trying to guess the relationship between him and Satan.

After all, under the pressure of powerful mental strength and hypnosis, there was still a subconscious level of resistance when he wanted to reveal Satan's information. Fortunately, Xia ruofei's spiritual power was strong enough. The subconscious defense of Boak only lasted for a moment before it fell apart.

This moment of hesitation was already beyond Xia ruofei's expectations. This was also the first time that Xia ruofei's tried – and – tested spiritual hypnosis had met with a small accident.

Xia ruofei asked the second question, ""Not long ago, the modr organization sent an assassin to assassinate an official of Huaxia, song Qiming. I need to know the details of the person who placed the order."

Chapter 2368 Searching for Satan (1)

Boa constrictor didn't hesitate to answer Xia ruofei's question. However, his answer still disappointed Xia ruofei.

"The dark shadow team is in charge of the assassination," said Boak. "I don't know the details of the operation and the client's information. You'll have to ask Bason!"

Even though Xia ruofei had a premonition before he asked the question, he still felt a little disappointed after hearing the answer.

"Do you have any information on the Satan's palm?" Xia ruofei continued to ask.

"Of course!" "Boss is the leader of the organization. He knows everything about the organization," said Boak without hesitation.

Hearing this, Xia ruofei felt a little more relaxed. His next target was Satan, the leader of the modr organization, who had been hiding very well.

As long as Satan knew who the mastermind behind the assassination of song Qiming was, Xia ruofei was confident that he could get the information from him.

After asking the questions, Xia ruofei did not waste any more time with Boak. With a thought, he threw the still – hypnotized Boak into the spirit map and locked him in the space cage again.

One could imagine how much trauma he would have after he regained his consciousness, especially when he saw that he had returned to that strange and terrifying cage.

Naturally, Xia ruofei did not care about Boak's feelings. If it was torture, then it was not too much for Boak who had just been locked up for a while. After all, he had just been locked up, while the instructors and mercenaries in the training camp in Basoko town had been locked up in the space cage since 2 or 3 am.

Besides, Xia ruofei had just improved the structure of the spatial cage. Now, everyone who was caught would be locked in a small spatial cage. This spatial cage could only accommodate one person.

He would probably go crazy if he was locked up alone in a confined space with nothing but monotonous gray and white around him.

Xia ruofei did not have the time to care about these captives. Besides, he could use this opportunity to give them an unforgettable memory so that they would not dare to resist in the future.

After locking Boak the Viper back into the space cage, Xia ruofei did not waste any more time. He left the woods like a flash of lightning and returned to the pickup truck. He quickly started the car and continued on the road.

This time, Xia ruofei's destination was arulei city, the capital of arulei.

The famous leader of the modr organization, the mysterious Satan, was hiding in the most prosperous city of arulei.

Although the "most prosperous" might not even be as prosperous as a Prefecture – Level city in China, Satan's actions had a sense of "the big is hidden in the city". Xia ruofei was even more amazed after knowing Satan's hidden identity ...

It was around seven or eight in the morning when Xia ruofei arrived at Zaha city, where boa constrictor was located, from the town of Basoko.

The process of killing Boak was very smooth and did not take much time. It was only around 9 am.

Xia ruofei drove the pickup truck North.

From a geographical point of view, Basoko town was roughly between arulei and Zaha, so the trip was about 400 to 500 kilometers away. As the road conditions were not particularly good, Xia ruofei estimated that it would be afternoon by the time he reached arulei.

He did not make any stops along the way. He did not stop to have lunch either. For a cultivator at his level, not eating for a few days would not affect him much. The reason why Xia ruofei still ate three meals a day when the conditions allowed was that he wanted to have a regular rest and rest. It was as if this was the only way he could feel like he was living.

In fact, the path of cultivation was like this. The higher one's cultivation, the less smoke and fire there would be, and gradually one would be able to break away from the scope of ordinary mortals.

Hence, Xia ruofei treasured his time as a mortal even though he was no longer an ordinary mortal.

Xia ruofei was listening to the radio as he drove.

There were fewer English broadcasts in arulei, and because of the lagging construction of the infrastructure, the broadcast signal was not particularly good, and only some information could be heard intermittently.

Just as Xia ruofei had expected, the media had already started reporting on the explosion in Basoko town.

Of course, the location of the explosion mentioned in the report was not the "modr training camp", but the training base of a security company.

As for the disappearance of Boak the Viper, it was estimated that no one in the manor had discovered it yet, and the media would not report it.

At around two in the afternoon, Xia ruofei finally drove into arulei.

He had been busy the entire night and had been driving the entire morning. Even though Xia ruofei's physical strength was far beyond that of ordinary people, he could not help but feel a little tired.

The main reason was that the road conditions were too bad, and they had to maintain a high level of concentration while driving. Moreover, the road had been bumpy for five to six hours, and no one could stand it.

After driving into the Urban area, Xia ruofei did not stop. Instead, he passed through the city proper area of arulei and continued North. After another ten kilometers, he finally arrived at his destination, the arulei temple.

This was one of the few scenic spots in the country of arulei that had a certain historical heritage. It was located in the northern suburbs of arulei.

There was a small parking lot outside the temple. Xia ruofei parked the pickup truck inside.

Chapter 2369 The search for Satan (2)

Aruray was not a popular tourist spot, and there were not many tourists in the temple. Although the parking lot was not big, there were still many empty spaces.

After Xia ruofei parked the car, he walked towards the entrance of the temple.

He still maintained his Southeast Asian look, carrying a backpack, wearing sunglasses, and a single – lens reflex camera hanging around his neck. He took photos as he walked, looking like an ordinary backpacker.

Xia ruofei bought the tickets at the entrance. He could use us dollars to buy them. 10 US dollars for a ticket was not very expensive. However, compared to the local income level, the local people could not afford it.

Compared to the famous Egyptian and Mayan temples in Africa, Egypt temple of arulei was naturally insignificant, but it also had a strong ancient Egyptian characteristics. The temple built of sandstone had been weathered for thousands of years, and the appearance was a simple light yellow, with a sense of history.

The entire temple was built facing the east where the sun rose. The outermost part was a “divine path”, and on both sides were statues of lions and sheep heads.

Xia ruofei looked at the English introduction at the front of the divine path with great interest. In ancient Egypt civilization, the lion – bodied RAM was the incarnation of the sun god. This divine path faced the East and symbolized the first ray of sunlight that welcomed the sun god Amon.

At the end of the divine path was a thick door wall. After passing through the door wall, there was a large pillar Hall. The four walls were heavily weathered, and the contents could no longer be seen clearly. However, it still had a strong sense of history.

The pillar Hall was connected to the second door wall, and then it was another slightly smaller Hall.

Xia ruofei walked around as he entered the temple. After that, he was not allowed to take any more photos.

The layered design of the temple gave off a mysterious and deep feeling.

After passing through three halls, Xia ruofei could see the main body of the temple, the Holy Temple of Xuanji.

The temple wasn't particularly large, but it had a strong sense of history. There were a large number of embossed and murals around the hall. However, the relief sculptures on the sandstone had long been destroyed by the erosion of the wind and sand for a thousand years.

Even so, it still looked exquisite on the whole, and one could vaguely feel the artistic attainments of the ancient people a thousand years ago.

There weren't many tourists in the temple, and they were all in groups of two or three, so it was very quiet.

Xia ruofei raised his head to admire embossed with great interest. Of course, his spiritual power had already spread out and started to search the temple inch by inch.

At this moment, Xia ruofei heard a surprised voice behind him. "Xia! You're also here!"

Xia ruofei could not help but be stunned. He had already changed his appearance. This appearance was neither Xia Tian nor Xia ruofei. Why would someone call out his surname?

Could it be that someone was able to see through his means of changing his appearance?

Xia ruofei couldn't help but Mutter in his heart. However, he remained calm and turned around with a puzzled expression.

When he saw the person behind him, a hint of surprise flashed in his eyes, but it quickly disappeared. He then regained his confusion.

The person who called out to him just now was the black man he had just met when he was in Ethiopia. This man worked in a Chinese company in arulei and called himself a "spirit Chinese."

Xia ruofei had a deep impression of Daka.

When Xia ruofei turned around, Decca rubbed his eyes and smiled awkwardly. He spoke in English with a heavy accent, "My friend, I'm sorry, I got the wrong person! Your back looks very much like my friend 's!"

Xia ruofei immediately understood. It turned out that Daka had mistaken him for the Xia Tian identity that he had used when he entered arulei.

Xia Tian's identity was a fake, so when Xia ruofei changed his appearance again, he did not deliberately change his figure, walking posture, etc. It was not impossible for Dhaka to recognize him as Xia Tian when he saw his back.

Xia ruofei needed to find Satan as soon as possible. Although Dhaka was an interesting black fellow, he would not interact too much with him now.

This was because this young man had the attribute of being easy to get to know. After chatting with him for a while, he would become familiar with him, and it would not be so easy to shake him off and act alone.

So, Xia ruofei just smiled and nodded. He changed his voice a little and said in English, "It's okay ..."

He even deliberately added some Southeast Asian accent in his English.

Xia ruofei turned around and prepared to leave.

Unexpectedly, Decca was naturally enthusiastic and immediately said, "Sir, are you from Asia? If you don't mind, we can tour the place together. I know more about the temple of arulei, I can explain it to you!"

Xia ruofei replied indifferently, "I'd rather walk around by myself." Thank you for your good intentions, goodbye!"

"Alright then!" Darka shrugged and grinned at Xia ruofei. "Goodbye!"

He was used to being friendly to people, especially when he saw people from Asia. Since the other party did not appreciate it, he naturally would not rush to get close to them.

Daka looked at Xia ruofei's back as he turned to leave. He could not help but Mutter to himself, "It seems a little unreasonable! My new friend Xia Tian isn't like this ... As expected, we Chinese are more approachable ..."

Daka spoke in Chinese. Although his voice was not very loud, Xia ruofei had not gone far, so he could hear everything clearly with his hearing.

Xia ruofei almost laughed out loud. This dark – skinned young man really had a heart! The country should issue him a green card and even help him become a citizen ...

Xia ruofei held back his laughter and walked out from the side door of the Holy sanctum. He went around to the back of the Holy sanctum.

This place was not originally within the temple's boundaries, but a small building was built later on, mainly for the work of the temple's staff.

There was a small yard behind the building, and the high priest of the temple lived there.

This was actually a very strange position. After thousands of years, the temple was no longer responsible for the function of sacrifice. It had become a tourist attraction, but the position of high priest was still retained.

Moreover, this high priest had not been replaced for twenty years.

In theory, the high priest was the Supreme Leader of the temple.

Xia ruofei's target was the high priest, who rarely came out.

Xia ruofei was very surprised when Boak the Viper revealed that Satan's hidden identity was the high priest of arulei temple.

Although the high priest was no longer in charge of sacrifices, his status in arulei was still quite high, and he had a lot of prestige.

Xia ruofei did not expect that the high priest and the notorious leader of the Morde organization were the same person.

If it wasn't for the fact that he was very confident in the hypnotism effect, he would have suspected that beac was just spouting nonsense to confuse him.

Xia ruofei pretended to be a tourist. He looked around and released his spiritual power to the courtyard behind the White office building.

There weren't many tourists here, and the back of the temple was even quieter.

They could not even see the staff, so no one came to remind Xia ruofei that they were no longer in the tourist area.

Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to search forward. He also inadvertently approached the small courtyard behind the office building.

His spiritual power had not found anything, but Xia ruofei felt a slight warmth in his chest.

He was stunned for a moment, and he still couldn't believe it.

Xia ruofei had always been wearing the sensing Jade Leaf on his body. The only function of this sensing Jade Leaf was that it would heat up when he was near the realm stone.

In that case, there were actually world stones nearby?

Xia ruofei did not expect to have such a surprise on this trip to Africa.

To confirm this, he even took a few more steps forward.

The heat from the Jade Leaf immediately increased a little.

Xia ruofei had basically confirmed it. Without any hesitation, he removed the seal on the spirit map space.

The moment Xia ruofei removed the seal, he heard Bai Qingqing's voice in his head, trembling with excitement, "Hurry up! I've found the world stone! The response is very strong!"

Chapter 2370 The high priest (1)

As expected! Xia ruofei was also excited.

Usually, he would turn off the external sensors of the spirit map space, and he did not want Bai Qingqing to see his every move.

In the past, Xia ruofei did not care much about it. Other than when he was doing some embarrassing things with his woman, he would seal off the space to sense the outside world. The rest of the time, it was open.

At that time, only Xia Qing and Bai Qingqing would be able to sense the situation outside.

Xia Qing was only a soul puppet and not a real human. She was loyal to Xia ruofei and would never betray him.

At that time, Bai Qingqing had not evolved yet. In Xia ruofei's eyes, she was just a little spiritual pet.

However, after Bai Qingqing's evolution, she was able to communicate telepathically in the human language. She had even given herself a name.

Other than the fact that she still looked like a civet cat and that her vocal cords could not produce a human voice, Bai Qingqing was a completely different person in Xia ruofei's heart.

Since then, Xia ruofei had sealed off the external sensing passage.

Otherwise, Bai Qingqing would have been able to sense the existence of the world stone before he even entered the temple. She would not have needed to wait until he was so close.

Of course, there were still some benefits to this ...

Xia ruofei said telepathically, "don't cry. I noticed it a long time ago. I'm so close to you and I still can't see it. Don't you think you're underestimating me?"

Bai Qingqing was stunned for a moment, then said in an unfriendly tone, "Don't tell me that the world stones this time ..."

"You're right!" Xia ruofei replied matter – of – factly, "I discovered the world stone by myself. Of course, I'm the only one who can enjoy it!"

Bai Qingqing shouted in exasperation, "Xia ruofei! You bastard! I think you're just unable to confirm it yourself, so you deliberately opened the spatial sensing channel! You're using me to confirm it, aren't you?"

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "Bai Qingqing, you're being too mean. You're being too mean." I activated my spatial senses purely because I wanted to share this good news with you! How can I not be sure when I'm so close? The world stone is to my North. It's at most a hundred meters away, right?"

"You ..." Bai Qingqing was so angry that she could not speak.

Xia ruofei laughed evilly and said, "so, you didn't put in any effort in the process of finding the world stone!" According to our previous agreement ..."

"You've completely sealed off the spatial sensing channel. How am I supposed to help?" Bai Qingqing retorted Xia ruofei in a bad mood.

Xia ruofei touched his nose awkwardly and said, "The main thing is that the difficulty level is too low this time. I can find it myself without you ..."

“Tsk! I think you’re just a blind cat that got lucky!” Bai Qingqing said disdainfully, “you must have something else to do. I didn’t expect you to be so lucky that the world stone was so close to you, so you found it! If you really came here to look for world stones, would you not use my ability?”

Xia ruofei laughed drily and said, “What blind cat and dead mouse? Bai Qingqing, please watch your words! After all, cats are your close relatives! How can you say that?”

Bai Qingqing’s appearance was really that of a gentle civet cat, and she was actually related to cats.

However, Bai Qingqing did not agree with this view.

“You’re the cat!” It was mad. Your whole family are cats!”

Xia ruofei laughed out loud and shut off the spatial link, sealing Bai Qingqing’s curses in the space. He could not hear anything.

In fact, Xia ruofei would never keep all the food to himself. It was just that every time he talked to Bai Qingqing, he couldn’t help but want to tease her. Seeing her stomping her feet in anger, Xia ruofei felt inexplicably happy ...

After their Daily Banter, Xia ruofei turned his attention to the seemingly ordinary courtyard.

It seemed like this Satan, the leader of the modr organization, who had transformed into the high priest of arulei, still had many secrets!

He actually had such a good item like the world stone ... However, it was unknown if he was clear about the value of the world stone. Was he collecting it unintentionally, or was he really keeping it as a treasure?

If it was the latter, then could this high priest be related to the cultivation world?

Although it was almost impossible for an African native to have an intimate relationship with a Sage – like cultivator, Xia ruofei had to be careful.

Strategically, they looked down on the enemy, but tactically, they paid attention to the enemy. They could never underestimate the enemy at any time.

Xia ruofei kept his relaxed attitude and walked towards the small courtyard.

.....

This was an extremely ordinary – looking courtyard.

It was a low – rise bungalow that was completely white. There were two rooms on the left and right, and a small living room in the middle. It was similar to the bungalow in northern China.

A bald black man wearing arulei’s traditional robe was sitting in the hall with a slight frown. From the wrinkles and eye bags on his face, he should not be young, but his eyes were quite spirited, and the cold aura that he inadvertently emitted was enough to make an ordinary person’s heart turn cold.

He was the highly respected high priest manchila in arulei, and also the fearsome leader of the modr, Satan.

There was a young man standing beside manchila.

If Xia ruofei were to see him, he would be shocked. Jian Jia was his new friend from Ethiopia. They had just met at the temple, but Xia ruofei had changed his appearance, so they did not interact much.

Earlier, Xia ruofei was walking around and did not pay much attention to Dhaka. He would not have known that Dhaka had already walked ahead of him and directly came to the small courtyard where high priest manchila was.

Manchila's fingers tapped rhythmically on the table as he asked indifferently, "Daka, I've seen the things you brought back this time. They are all useless waste paper! How should I punish you?"

Darka revealed a terrified expression and said in fear and trepidation, "High priest, I ... I've tried my best to collect them. I found a lot of ancient Chinese books for you while I was studying abroad. This time, someone sent me an email, so I immediately flew to China to trade with them. According to my understanding of Chinese culture, this ancient book is genuine ..."

"What's the use of the real thing? I don't need its contents!" Manchila said coldly, "Daka, everything you have today was given to you by me. Have you forgotten?"

"I wouldn't dare!" Daka quickly replied. If it wasn't for the high priest, Dhaka would have starved to death in the famine. It was you who taught me the mysterious Eastern Arts and paid me to study in China. Dhaka's life belongs to the high priest, how can I not do my best for you?"

Seeing how Daka was in fear and trepidation, manchila's expression also softened a little. He said, "It's good that you know. I'll let it go this time ..."

"Thank you, high priest!" Said Daka as he bowed.

Manchila said indifferently, "you have to continue to pay attention to the news in China. As long as there are ancient Chinese books for sale, especially those related to Chinese Taoism, you must buy them at all costs. Money is not a problem!"

"Yes, high priest!" Daka replied respectfully.

Manchila frowned slightly as if he was thinking about something. Beside him, Daka also did not dare to disturb him and stood quietly beside him with his hands by his side.

Manchila was indeed a little frustrated now. The modr organization that he had single – handedly founded could be said to be well – known in inland Africa, but it had suffered a great defeat yesterday. The training camp set up in the town of Basoko had actually exploded, and what was even stranger was that everyone in the training camp had disappeared for no reason.

This morning, after getting the news from his own channel, manchila immediately sent his trusted aide, Boak, to investigate.

Looking at the time, boack should have arrived at Basoko town a long time ago.

However, he had not received a single call from Boak.

Regardless of whether they found any clues, they should at least report it to him!

Manchila cursed in his heart, 'what the hell is this idiot doing?

He was in a bad mood, so his expression naturally showed on his face. At the side, Daka did not even dare to breathe loudly. He stood at the side with his head slightly lowered, as if he was mourning in silence ...

Manchila thought for a while and said, "Daka, there's something I need you to do for me!"

"High priest, please give me your orders!" Said Daka quickly.

Manchila said, "I have a friend who has a security company that got into trouble. There was an explosion at the company's training base in the town of Basoko. There are also people missing. Go to the town of Basoko immediately and see if you can find any clues."

"Yes, high priest!" Said Daka without hesitation.

"Report to me directly if you find anything," manchila said.

"Understood!" Daka said.

Manchila pondered for a moment, then took out a small and exquisite wooden token and handed it to Daka.

"This is my token," manchila said. "Take it first."

Daka didn't dare to ask any more questions and quickly kept the wooden tablet with complicated patterns.

"Aside from looking for clues about the explosion in the training base," manchila said, "you should also keep an eye on whether or not bowack is there."

Darka was stunned and asked, "Boak?" You mean the boss of the qika company ..."

The Cicca company was a trading company set up by boack to hide his identity. In arulei, a small country in Africa with a backward economy, it was quite famous. When Dhaka heard the name, he immediately remembered it.

"That's right, it's him," Manchila said, "if you see him, tell him that I'm looking for him and ask him to contact me immediately. As long as you show him that wooden token, he'll believe you."

"Alright, high priest!" Daka said respectfully, "I've remembered everything you've said! Then ... I'll leave now?"

Manchila nodded and said, "go!" "I believe in your abilities, so there won't be any danger. Contact me as soon as you reach Basoko town ..."

"Yes!" Said Darka as he bowed.

Just as Daka was about to take his leave, manchila suddenly raised his hand, and his sharp gaze swept towards the tightly shut courtyard door. "Wait! Daka, please help me open the door! There's a guest ..."
