Chapter 2381 Taking in the captives (2)

He glanced over indifferently, and Bao Guijun and the others quickly went back to work, afraid that their master would be unhappy because they were lazy.

Xia ruofei felt like laughing. If Bao Guijun and the rest knew that the old man they were teasing was their former boss, the highest leader of the modr organization, what would their reaction be?

However, it was unlikely that he would be afraid. After all, everyone's status was the same here. Furthermore, Manzilla did not look like he was very strong, even though he could kill ten people in seconds when he was up against an opponent like Bao Guijun.

Bao Guijun and the others didn't recognize the famous Satan, but there was one person in the crowd who definitely recognized him.

It was none other than the man Xia ruofei had caught in his Manor, the Viper, Boak.

He was in a complicated mood. After being hypnotized by Xia ruofei, he did not hesitate to reveal Satan's identity, his hiding place, and other key information. After waking up, he could still remember everything that happened during the period of hypnosis, so he was very clear that he was the one who betrayed Manzila.

As a matter of fact, the only person who knew Manzila's identity was Mr. Boak, so the crowd did not make any noise and instead looked at the kind – looking old man.

Meanwhile, bouaker hid himself in the crowd. He hoped that Manzila would never find him, because he was filled with guilt and regret, and he felt too ashamed to face his boss.

Manzila himself had lost all of his drive. He said, "Thank you! By the way, su Cai should be your alias, right? How should I address you?"

After Xia ruofei entered the medium, he returned to his original appearance.

However, as a practitioner, Manzila had long discovered that the aura of this yellow – skinned, black – eyed Asian man was almost exactly the same as that of the Siamese Susai who had easily defeated him. In other words, the two were the same person.

Manzila also quickly determined that this was the real face of the person in front of him. It was most likely a disguise because Xia ruofei now had absolute control and did not have to worry about his identity being exposed.

Xia ruofei smiled. "My surname is Xia. You can call me Mr. Xia."

"Yes, Mr. Xia!" Manzila said respectfully.

Xia ruofei nodded and looked at the group of captives.

Some of the captives had seen Xia ruofei before, but now that he had changed back to his original appearance, they could not recognize him. Most of them were caught in their sleep and did not know who had tricked them.

Even so, everyone knew very well that their fate was in the hands of this young man in front of them. In addition, the faintly discernible sharp aura that Xia ruofei was exuding made these captives very reverent. No one dared to look him in the eye.

The corner of Xia ruofei's mouth curved up slightly. With a thought, his entire body was lifted up by the invisible force of space. With a whoosh, he stopped firmly in the air as if he was standing on flat ground.

Xia ruofei looked down at the group of captives. In the eyes of the captives, he was as majestic as a God.

He said indifferently, "I'm Xia ruofei, from Huaxia in the East!" From the moment you were captured, I was your master!"

Xia ruofei spoke in English. The people in the modr training camp came from all over the world and English was the international language. Most of the people present could understand it. The few who could only speak arulei were naturally confused and did not know what Xia ruofei was talking about.

However, Xia ruofei did not mind. After all, there were only a few people who did not understand. After they came down, they could ask each other and they would know what they had said today.

In fact, there were already some captives who understood arulei's local language and were translating for the people around them in a low voice.

Xia ruofei did not speak very fast. This was to give those who were not good at English some time to understand.

He continued, "the place that everyone is in right now is my personal little space. You can also think of it as a paradise that is isolated from the world. In short, from today onwards, you will work for me here in exchange for living supplies."

Xia ruofei's words also fell into the ears of Bao Guijun and the others. They were all slightly shocked. In fact, their experience in the space had made them have this guess, especially Bao Guijun and Huang rujue. They had been to the outside world and found themselves outside of Basoko town. This meant that the owner of this small space could carry it with him wherever he went.

But after hearing Xia ruofei's confirmation, Bao Guijun and the others couldn't help but have a different feeling. They knew that it was basically impossible to escape from this place in this lifetime.

Fortunately, they had been intimidated by Xia ruofei's strength and had no intention of running away. Hence, they did not have a mental breakdown.

However, the captives weren't so calm. After hearing this, many of them couldn't help crying.

Xia ruofei glanced at everyone indifferently and shouted, ""Quiet down!"

"Other than being isolated from the outside world, this place is basically full of benefits! For example, the environment is unique and far away from the hustle and bustle of the city." Xia ruofei continued, "if you live here for a long time, your body will get better and better. You won't have to wander around and live a life of blood! As long as you work hard and obey master's orders, you'll be able to live a comfortable life without any danger!"

After saying this, Xia ruofei paused and observed the expressions of the captives.

These four words described Xuanji as someone who had lost their parents.

He continued, "everyone has the right to choose!" Those who choose to stay, I welcome you! People who don't want to work for me ..."

When the captives heard this, they couldn't help but reveal a look of hope.

Could it be that those who were unwilling to stay could regain their freedom? It was said that the Chinese army had a tradition of giving preferential treatment to captives during wartime. Those who were willing to stay were given uniforms and weapons so that they could join the battle. Those who were unwilling to stay were separated on good terms. Sometimes, they were even given a small travel fee ...

However, these people were destined to be disappointed and even desperate.

How could Xia ruofei give up on a piece of fat meat in front of his mouth? Furthermore, Xia ruofei did not hide his name at all, nor did he hide the fact that everyone was in a small space. How could he risk the secret of the spirit map and painting being leaked and release the captive?

Xia ruofei paused for a moment and continued, ""For those who don't want to work for me, I'm very willing to give you a one – way ticket to heaven! Those who are unwilling to work in exchange for survival can take a step forward!"

Faced with Xia ruofei's undisguised murderous intent, everyone could not help but shrink back and feel a wave of despair.

It was better to live than to die. These mercenaries who believed in money, who would be so stupid as to give up their lives than to surrender to the 'enemy'?

Hence, after Xia ruofei finished speaking, he waited for a while. In the end, no one stood up.

"Very good! Everyone has made a very wise choice!" Xia ruofei said, satisfied.

His expression said, "I didn't force you, it's your own choice", which made the captives feel angry and funny at the same time. What was the difference between such a choice and not having a choice?

Next, Xia ruofei said indifferently, ""Since you've chosen to stay, then you must follow the rules here. My rules here are simple, basically, to trade labor for survival. As long as you put in enough labor, you can get survival supplies! Another important point was to obey! It was absolute obedience! Anyone who disobeyed orders would be killed without question! Your supervisor will inform you of the specific rules!"

Xia ruofei nodded to Xia Qing.

Xia Qing immediately understood and stood up beside Xia ruofei. She also stood in the air.

"This is your supervisor, Xia Qing. From now on, you will listen to his commands!" Xia ruofei said

Chapter 2382 Establishing might (1)

Seeing another "person" who could fly, the captives were almost numb. Of course, what followed was despair, and they couldn't even have the heart to resist.

Naturally, the captives did not know that the “manager Xia” beside Xia ruofei was not a person of flesh and blood.

After Xia Qing got Xia ruofei’s permission, she said with a cold expression,””Everyone, split into five groups! Bao Guijun, the five of you will be promoted to group leaders, each of you will lead a group!”

Speaking of this, Xia Qing pondered for a moment and said,””Team leaders are mainly in charge of management. Their basic points are 30% higher than normal team members!”

Xia Qing could only speak Chinese. Xia ruofei saw this and said to Manzila,””Manzila, you’ll be in charge of translating for manager Xia!”

“Yes!” Manzila did not dare to neglect, and quickly translated Xia Qing’s words into English.

Even though his hands and feet were broken and he could not stand, he was still a level 3 Qi refining cultivator. His voice was full of energy, and everyone present could hear him clearly.

Bao Guijun and the first batch of free laborers were surprised and happy. They didn’t expect to have such a benefit when they were first caught. They quickly said with tears of gratitude,””Thank you, manager Xia!”

Only then did the captives notice Bao Guijun and the other four people standing in the herb garden.

Bao Guijun and the others belonged to the dark shadow Squad. The higher – ups of modr like Manzila and Boak didn’t know them at all. The new recruits of the training camp didn’t know who these five people were.

On the other hand, the person in charge of the training camp, Metatron, as well as the instructors and guards who were stationed at the training camp, had some impression of them.

Merendo immediately realized that the extermination of the Morde organization by the powerful Eastern Immortals was most likely the doing of Bao Guijun and his men. He couldn’t help but reveal a murderous look.

Bao Guijun and the others also felt the killing intent from Metatron. They couldn’t help but shrink their necks subconsciously. Metatron was notorious in the organization. The modr training camp was not an ordinary camp. The prospective mercenaries trained here did not have any human rights protection. Beating, scolding, and physical punishment were common. Even when Metatron was in a bad mood, it was common for him to kill people.

In particular, all the mercenaries had to undergo anti – interrogation training. This training was to take turns as prisoners and face all kinds of torture from the training camp instructors. This was to train their tolerance to torture. Mercenaries who had undergone strict anti – interrogation training would even develop a certain resistance to some nerve drugs. However, there was no doubt that this training was a nightmare for everyone.

The anti – interrogation training in the training camp was personally handled by merendo.

Metatron’s mind seemed to be twisted. Every time he saw his students being tortured to death, he felt an inexplicable joy.

Therefore, most of the people who left the training camp would have a certain amount of psychological trauma, especially when they saw Metatron. They would subconsciously feel a fear that came from the bottom of their hearts.

Xia ruofei, who was standing in the sky, naturally noticed this detail immediately.

He furrowed his brows and grabbed at the air, pulling Metatron out of the crowd and into the air.

Metatron was so scared that he almost peed.

Only then did he realize that he was no longer a high – ranking member of the modr organization, and this was no longer his training camp. He was now a prisoner.

Xia ruofei said coldly, "I don't care who you were in the past!" Whether it's the higher – ups of the modr organization or the new recruits who haven't left the training camp, they're all the same to me. They're all laborers! If any of you dare to make a fuss, I don't mind breaking this thorn off! Do you understand?"

"Yes, yes, yes ..." The captives saw Xia ruofei's methods and didn't dare to have any other thoughts.

Metatron's limbs were frozen stiff, afraid that the force that was holding him down would disappear. If that were the case, how could he still be alive after falling from a height of more than ten meters?

Xia ruofei then said coldly to Metatron, "I don't want there to be a second time, understand?"

"I understand! I understand!" Merendo said in a trembling voice.

Xia ruofei then waved his hand and threw Metatron down.

"Arghh!" Metatron screamed in fear. He was getting faster and faster, and the ground was getting closer and closer. He felt like his heart was about to jump out of his chest, and he was almost suffocating.

Just as he was about to touch the ground, Xia ruofei waved his hand and used some strength to support him. Even so, he still landed firmly on the ground.

Merendo felt a slight warmth between his legs. The sharp – eyed captives around him had already noticed that the once high and mighty person in charge of the training camp had wet his pants ...

The captives around merendo sneaked away from him, mainly because they couldn't stand the stench.

Xia ruofei glanced at the captives and with a thought, the captives felt an irresistible force. They could not help but be moved by this force.

When this force disappeared, the captives found that they had been divided into five distinct groups, each group with 22 to 23 people.

Chapter 2383 Establishing might (2)

Xia ruofei said indifferently, "starting from my left, it's the first to the fifth groups!" Bao Guijun, you are the leader of the first group. Qian guiyu, team two leader, Huang rujue, team three leader ..."

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

Bao Guijun and the others saw Xia ruofei rubbing Metatron casually and felt as if their inner demons had been removed. When Xia ruofei personally appointed them as the team leader, they all felt proud and elated. They walked out of the herb garden and stood in front of the group they were in charge of.

Bao Guijun also realized that Metatron, who had been giving him a fierce look, was in his group. He wondered if Xia ruofei had arranged it on purpose.

Anyway, Bao Guijun felt good. He didn't have the fear from the bottom of his heart anymore. On the contrary, now that merendo had become an ordinary worker under him, he felt like a serf who had turned over and was singing. He even wanted to settle the scores with merendo in his usual work.

After Xia ruofei had divided the ingredients, he nodded to Xia Qing, indicating for him to continue.

Xia Qing bowed to Xia ruofei and then said loudly, "I hope that everyone will remember what master said just now! No matter what you used to do, you only have One Identity here, and that is to be a laborer! Whoever does something that is not in line with their status will be severely punished!"

Then, Xia Qing assigned a mobile temporary house to each group. Each mobile temporary building had two floors. These free laborers lived in two rooms on the upper floor. Each room had about 10 people, so over 100 people could be easily accommodated in five mobile temporary buildings.

There were still more than 20 mobile temporary houses left empty. Xia ruofei would continue to capture people into the medium in the future, and they would slowly come in handy.

Xia Qing also briefly announced the rules of the labor team. Of course, she didn't mention any details. She just left it to Bao Guijun and the other team leaders to teach them.

After that, it was time to distribute the supplies. Everyone had a set of bedding, two sets of coarse clothes, a set of basic daily necessities, and a set of labor tools.

Some of the supplies were purchased by Xia ruofei before he left the country. They were all piled up in the empty mobile room. Some were collected from the training camp, such as bedding. These people had a set each in the dormitory of the training camp. Besides that, there were many spare supplies in the warehouse. Xia ruofei had kept them as spoils of war and continued to distribute them to them for use.

Bao Guijun and the others got into their roles quickly. Some of them were in charge of distributing clothes and registering the names, while others were maintaining order.

These people were mainly made up of the prospective mercenaries from the secret training camp in Basoko town. They were already under military management, and with Xia ruofei and Xia Qing's deterrence, no one dared to cause trouble, and the scene was also very orderly.

Soon, everyone received their own supplies and stood in line again.

While distributing the supplies, Xia ruofei told Xia Qing some things, mainly about Personnel Management. For example, the labor team now had more than 100 people and would continue to expand in the future, so they had to establish a multi-level management system as soon as possible. It was also best to set up a canteen and select prisoners with experience in this area to be responsible for cooking.

Of course, the food given to these free laborers was certainly not big fish and meat. It was enough to ensure the energy needed for their daily survival, and they did not need particularly good cooking skills.

In addition, it was best to refer to military management for the management of so many people. For example, they would train in line every morning, take attendance at night to comment on the day's work, and have an emergency gathering from time to time. These were all to train their awareness of obedience.

There was also an incentive system, such as a moving red flag. Every day, every week, and every month, the most active groups and individuals would be selected, and a certain number of points would be awarded. He believed that once the captives understood the role of points, this system would play a great role.

This was what Xia ruofei had experienced every day during his military service, so he could handle this kind of management with ease.

Xia Qing had never doubted or hesitated about Xia ruofei's words. He would firmly carry out whatever his master said, so he took Xia ruofei's words very seriously and wrote them down.

By the time Xia ruofei finished giving his orders, Bao Guijun and the others had already finished distributing the supplies. After asking for Xia Qing's permission, Bao Guijun and the others led their team members into the mobile temporary houses that were allocated to them and settled down.

The captives had all entered the mobile building, and Manzila, who was still lying on the ground, was quite conspicuous.

His arms and legs were broken, and he could not even move. Besides, Xia ruofei had not counted him in when dividing the groups. It was as if he had been forgotten.

It was only then that Xia ruofei brought Xia Qing down from the sky and walked to Manzila's side.

Xia ruofei said to Xia Qing, "you'll manage this person alone. First, treat his injuries. After he's fully recovered, you can assign him some physical work that consumes more energy. This guy is a third Qi layer cultivator, and his spiritual power cultivation is higher."

Xia ruofei naturally spoke to Xia Qing in Chinese, and Manzila also understood Chinese. He quickly said, "Manager Xia, don't worry! I'm very strong, so you can tell me what to do ... But ... You have to wait until my injuries are better."

Xia Qing nodded indifferently and didn't say anything.

Xia ruofei's eyes were fixed on Manzila for half a minute. Manzila was a little scared by Xia ruofei's gaze and could not help but lower her head, not daring to look at Xia ruofei.

At this moment, Xia ruofei said indifferently, ""You secretly cultivated for 3 minutes and 36 seconds just now ..."

"Ah?" Manzila looked at Xia ruofei in shock.

He had indeed been cultivating for a while, mainly because the spiritual energy here was too rich. He couldn't hold it in. Moreover, his injuries were quite serious, and absorbing some spiritual energy would be beneficial to his recovery.

However, even Manzila himself did not know the exact time of the training. He only knew that it might be three to four minutes.

Manzila did not expect Xia ruofei to know exactly how long he had been cultivating for, even though he did not look at him.

Xia ruofei stared into Manzila's eyes and said, "I'm the master of this space. It's impossible to hide from me that the spiritual Qi here hasn't increased or consumed a single bit. At the same time, I'm the owner of this place, and everything here is my personal property, including the spiritual energy of heaven and earth that fills this space. Do you understand?"

Manzila lowered his head in guilt and said in fear, "I understand. I didn't know your rules just now. Please forgive me ..."

Xia ruofei replied indifferently, "of course I'll forgive you. It's your first time after all!" And I didn't have time to emphasize it to you. I'm telling you now, if I find you again, I'll throw you into a cage and feed you to the bees! Don't try to get lucky, Xia Qing and I can't hide the change in the spiritual Qi here. You're the only cultivator among the laborers. As long as there's a loss of spiritual energy, it must be you. We'll catch you one by one!"

"I don't dare!" Manzila quickly replied. He didn't dare! I won't dare to do it again!"

He couldn't help but sigh in his heart. It seemed that the matter of cultivation was coming to an end. For a long time in the future, or even for the rest of his life, he would not be able to cultivate. It was a pity that his magical cultivation technique and his own cultivation would soon be wasted.

Manzila cherished his life very much, so he did not dare to take the risk to cultivate in secret. Besides, he believed Xia ruofei's words without a doubt. Xia ruofei had just used his actions to prove that he had the ability to monitor the changes in the spiritual energy at all times.

Chapter 2384 Continue to hunt (1)

Although the spirit Qi in the spirit map space was rich, if too much spirit Qi was consumed, the foundation of the space would be damaged.

Especially the higher the cultivation, the more spiritual energy was needed for each cultivation. And in this space, unlike the outside world, where only two fixed time periods could be cultivated, one could absorb spiritual energy 24 hours a day here. If one cultivated without restraint, no matter how rich the spiritual energy was, it would not be able to withstand such consumption.

Xia ruofei himself could not bear to cultivate in there for a long time. Of course, he would not allow Manzila to do so.

Otherwise, if he captured Manzila into the origin space, he would not be doing hard labor, but would be rewarded. To any cultivator, this was undoubtedly the legendary paradise. If he could really cultivate here, he might not even be willing to leave.

The reason why Xia ruofei had brought Manzila into the medium was that he had considered that a Qi Level 3 cultivator would more or less be of some use. At the very least, his physical strength was much stronger than that of an ordinary person. After his injuries were healed, it would not be a problem for him to do some heavy physical work.

Seeing Manzila's fearful expression, Xia ruofei's tone became calmer. "I'm not an unreasonable person. As long as you perform well at work, I'll allow you to cultivate for half an hour every month. Of course, this would require you to use your work points to exchange for it! You'll find out how to get the points soon."

This was like giving a carrot after a stick. Often, this kind of effect was much better than directly giving a favor.

Sure enough, when Manzila heard these words, it was as if he had come back to life. This was really a ray of hope!

Cultivating for half an hour in this immortal land was definitely equivalent to cultivating for a month in the outside world. In this way, not only would his cultivation not deteriorate, but he might even make a little progress!

Manzila quickly put on a grateful expression and said, "Thank you for your generosity, master!"

Xia ruofei nodded and reached out his hand to grab at the air. From the middle of the mountain in the mountain sea realm, a spirit crystal with dense spiritual Qi flew out from the stone room in the cave and accurately landed in Xia ruofei's palm.

"As long as you don't have any disloyal thoughts and perform well enough," he said indifferently, "not only will you have a certain amount of time to cultivate, but I can also reward you with such cultivation resources!"

When the spirit crystal appeared, Manzila had already felt the dense and undispersed spirit energy. To be precise, this entire spirit crystal was made of pure spirit energy, but because of the high concentration, it was directly compressed into a solid.

Manzila's breathing became more rapid. He stared at the spiritual crystal and could not take his eyes off it.

In the past, he had been the local tyrant in arulei and had even cultivated the mysterious Eastern Immortal Technique. He had thought that he was already at the peak of his life. Now, he realized that he was just a frog in the well. He had no idea how high the sky was and how thick the earth was.

Even if he still had that tiny bit of hope in his heart just now, thinking that he could secretly cultivate, that hope had long since disappeared. On the other hand, if he worked hard for Xia ruofei, he would have the chance to get the coveted cultivation treasure. As long as he was not out of his mind, he would know what to choose.

"Master, I will definitely do my best to serve you!" Manzila was so excited that his face turned red. He wanted to show Xia ruofei his heart.

Xia ruofei nodded in satisfaction and said, "That's a pretty good attitude!"

With that, he summoned the blue flying sword that he had been nurturing in his dantian and played with it casually.

The flying sword was dancing around Xia ruofei's fingertips like a fish. Sometimes, it would circle around Xia ruofei's body at a high speed, drawing out a sharp sword light.

Xia ruofei played with the flying sword and said,""You can leave too! Treat your injuries as soon as possible, I don't keep idle people here ..."

When Manzila saw the sharp sword light, he could not help but shiver.

He had read many ancient Chinese books, and he could not help but Mutter in his heart,"This must be the legendary flying sword that could kill people from thousands of miles away! 'Master's strength is truly unfathomable ...

At this moment, Manzila had a deep respect for Xia ruofei. He quickly said,"Yes, master!"

However, the embarrassing thing was that his hands and feet were all fractured. Even with the cultivation of refined Qi Level 3, it was difficult for him to move at this time.

Xia ruofei glanced at Manzila and said to Xia Qing,""Get two people to carry him in first! Treat his injuries as soon as possible!"

"Yes, master!" Xia Qing replied.

As for the rest, Xia Qing would naturally arrange it. Xia ruofei had absolute control over everything in the realm, so he wasn't worried that there would be any trouble in the realm with more than a hundred people living there.

In fact, if there were any merfolk who wanted to create chaos and destruction, Xia ruofei didn't need to do it personally. Xia Qing could also use part of the invisible spatial force in an instant to suppress these people.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not stay in the spatial zone for too long. After leaving everything to Xia Qing, he left the spatial zone and returned to the outside world with a thought. He did not even bother about the huge realm stone for the time being.

After all, they were still overseas and in the secret underground room behind the temple of arulei. It was not an absolutely safe place. Xia ruofei naturally would not choose to let the spirit map scroll absorb the world stone at this time.

He returned to Manzila's Secret room and put the scroll back into his body. Then, he walked towards the tunnel at the exit.

All the valuable things in this secret room had been plundered by him, so it was time to leave.

Xia ruofei walked along the tunnel. When he was about to reach the ground, he released his psychic energy to check up and found that there was no one in Manzila's courtyard. He did not know if the staff of the temple did not notice the movement just now or if someone had come to check and left after finding nothing unusual.

When Xia ruofei subdued Manzila, the fight was actually very short, and there was no damage to the house, nor any traces of a fight. If the staff came to check, they would at most find that Manzila was gone.

As arulei's high priest, Manzila did not need to report to anyone when he left his residence. Therefore, even if the staff came to check, they would probably not find anything.

After Xia ruofei confirmed that there was no one outside, he immediately pressed on the protruding part at the edge of the steps. The mechanism made a light clicking sound and the cover slid open. At the same time, the cabinet above him also made space, revealing a hole.

Xia ruofei once again changed his appearance to that of a Southeast Asian. Then, he flashed out and quickly turned the stone statue to return the secret chamber to its original state.

He once again released his mental power and spread it around the small courtyard of Manzila. After confirming that no one was nearby, he left the house without hesitation.

Xia ruofei did not use the main entrance. Instead, he jumped over the wall behind the courtyard and made a big detour before leaving from the scenic spot's exit on the side as if nothing had happened.

He went to the parking lot outside the temple, took the pickup truck, and drove away from the temple.

Xia ruofei calculated in his mind as he drove.

He had already found out that Liu haojun was the mastermind behind song Qiming's assassination. Furthermore, Xia ruofei's gains from the extermination of the mord organization were beyond his expectations, especially the huge realm stone. He was still in a state of excitement. By right, he should have been able to leave arulei and return to his country as soon as possible.

However, after some consideration, Xia ruofei decided not to go back for the time being.

Liu haojun didn't know that his plan had been exposed, so he couldn't run away for a while. On the other hand, more than half of the forces of Morde were still intact.

Xia ruofei had come to Africa with the intention of completely annihilating this mercenary organization, but it was obviously not complete yet.

The news of Manzilla's disappearance would not spread out for a while. The remaining two higher – ups of the modr organization, Bason and Boulder Douglas, would probably only know that the training camp had been bombed. Since the training camp was not their area of responsibility, they would not have much of a reaction. At the very least, they would not go into hiding.

It was obviously the best time to take them down in one go. Otherwise, if Satan, the leader of the organization, was uncontactable for a long time, there was no guarantee that Bason and Douglas would have any psychological changes. Even if they did not run away and chose to be independent, the information that Xia ruofei had now would not be of much value.

It would be better to take advantage of the fact that they had not yet come to their senses and wipe out this evil mercenary organization in one fell swoop.

Of course, there was another important reason for Xia ruofei's decision.

Although he had captured three leaders of the Morde organization and wiped out the entire training camp, his mercenary group and the dark shadow Squad were still intact, especially the dark shadow Squad. Their last mission to China had failed, so Xia ruofei was not 100% sure whether Bason would continue to send people there.

Although the possibility was not high, Xia ruofei could not bet on song Qiming's safety. Once the small possibility became a reality, it could lead to an irreversible outcome.

He was lucky this time. He managed to rush back in time and pulled song Qiming back from the gates of hell.

But what about the next time? Would he still have such good luck?

What if song Qiming was killed on the spot? No matter how capable Xia ruofei was, he would not be able to save her.

Therefore, he had to get rid of all the hidden dangers before he could return to the country with peace of mind to settle the score with the Liu family.

Besides, the most important thing now was to deal with the dark shadow Squad. He could put the modr mercenary group on hold for a while. As long as the dark shadow Squad existed, song Qiming would be in danger.

After making up his mind, Xia ruofei stepped on the gas pedal and the pickup truck suddenly sped up. They drove towards the border between arulei and Ethiopia ...

Chapter 2385 Bason the wizard (1)

Bason spent most of his time living in osuda, a border city on the side of Ethiopia that was close to arulei.

The country of Aruray was located in the narrow zone between Ethiopia and Sudan. The border with Ethiopia was very long, stretching hundreds of kilometers. With such a long border, and the weak military power of arulei, the management was naturally very loose.

Xia ruofei had planned to cross the border between the two countries near Usuda. After taking care of Bason, he would return to arulei without anyone knowing.

The reason why Xia ruofei did not choose to take the plane from arulei to Ethiopia was to confuse the public. There were records of the country's entry and exit. While he was in arulei, there were consecutive explosions in Basoko town and the disappearance of the high priest. When he left the country for Ethiopia, there was the disappearance of bassoon. It was easy for him to be listed as a suspect during the post – investigation.

Xia Tian's cover identity was very useful. Unless it was a last resort, Xia ruofei did not want this identity to be exposed. After all, it was a matter of face to get a new identity.

The kingdom of arulei was long and narrow from north to south, and the distance between East and West was very short. Xia ruofei drove all the way to the East and soon approached the border area. By then, the sky was gradually turning dark.

This area was a vast wilderness, and the closer they got to the border, the more difficult the road was. In fact, this area was sparsely populated, and there were basically no vehicles passing by. At most, there would be military patrol vehicles passing by here every few days, so the road maintenance was naturally neglected.

Xia ruofei found a depression overgrown with weeds and drove the pickup truck in.

This time, he didn't hide the car. Instead, he skillfully removed the front and back license plates, and then put the whole car into his space.

There were checkpoints at the borders of the two countries. Xia ruofei also needed a car to get into Ethiopia. Although Xia ruofei had no problem running on foot, it was too troublesome. So, he simply used his space to bring the pickup truck over.

Anyway, old pickup trucks like this were everywhere in the border area, and the possibility of the police patrolling the remote roads was not high, so it was not a big problem even if there was no license plate.

Even if he did encounter the police, Xia ruofei could just abandon the car and escape.

Anyway, he had erased the car's frame number and engine number, and the appearance had been changed beyond recognition. When he drove into the wilderness, he had even removed the license plate. So, even if someone found the car, it would not be associated with the pickup truck at the car rental agency for a while.

The reason why he didn't do this the first few times was that the pickup truck weighed at least a few tons. It would be a burden on his mental power to keep it in and out of the space so frequently, so if it was not necessary, he would rather hide the car.

After Xia ruofei put away the pickup truck, he moved quickly under the cover of the night. Soon, he crossed the almost undefended border and entered Ethiopia.

According to the handheld GPS, Usuda was about 80 kilometers Southeast.

After Xia ruofei crossed the border, he did not immediately look for a road. After all, the area near the border might have a higher concentration of patrols.

He followed the GPS's directions and sped through the wilderness in the direction of Usuda. Whenever he encountered a small obstacle, Xia ruofei would leap over it at a fast speed.

After running for more than half an hour, Xia ruofei estimated that he had traveled at least seven to eight kilometers. He then looked at the handheld GPS and ran towards an empty road not far away.

After another four to five minutes, Xia ruofei had found the road. It was marked as Route 76 on the GPS. If he followed the road to the southeast, he would reach his destination, Usuda, about 70 kilometers away.

The road conditions here were slightly better than the roads in arulei. Although there were many potholes, at least some asphalt could be seen.

Similarly, Xia ruofei found a place with tall grass to hide. He first used his spiritual power to check the surroundings. After confirming that there was no one else around, he took the pickup truck out of the space and drove on the road, heading in the direction of Usuda.

Along the way, Xia ruofei was more careful as he did not want to be stopped by the patrolling police because he was driving an unlicensed car. Fortunately, a cultivator's eyesight was better than an average person's, so he could see very far even at night. In addition, he had a strong mental power, so the journey was smooth.

After driving for more than 40 minutes, Xia ruofei really did come across a police car.

However, his mental power had already discovered the other party before the police car turned the dark corner. He drove the car to a low-lying area on the side of the road in time to hide.

After avoiding the police car, Xia ruofei drove smoothly to the outskirts of Usuda.

It was about nine o'clock in the evening.

Xia ruofei also found a relatively hidden place. After checking with his spiritual power to make sure it was safe, he kept the car into the origin space and walked towards the city with a shoulder bag.

In the western suburbs of Usuda.

It was a two-story building that looked a little shabby from the outside, but there was still a faint yellow light on it.

There was a rather large courtyard outside the building, but it was overgrown with weeds and looked very dilapidated.

A light breeze blew past, causing the weeds in the courtyard to sway slightly. In the dark night, their shadows were indistinct, giving off an inexplicable sense of eeriness.

On the second floor of the small building, there was a large room.

A skinny Thai was fiddling with a bunch of small things at the table.

The Thai was about 40 years old and was half-Naked, revealing the strange and eerie tattoo on his body.

His body was extremely thin, and his ribs were clearly visible, as if he was wrapped in a layer of skin.

The man was a high-ranking member of the modr organization, Bason, also known as the wizard.

Bason's face was filled with a dense yin energy. His dead fish eyes would make one shiver even in the day.

There was a silver plate on the table in front of Bason. On the plate were human bones of different sizes. Bason looked like he was admiring a piece of art. He rubbed the bones with a satisfied expression.

Suddenly, Bason raised his head. A sharp light flashed in his eyes. He knew that someone had invaded his courtyard!

The next moment, before Bason could stand up, a young man came in from the second – Floor window. He said in a relaxed tone, ""You're quite vigilant ... You're the first one to notice me in advance. As expected of the person in charge of the dark shadow Squad!"

The person was naturally Xia ruofei, who had crossed the border overnight from arulei.

Xia ruofei spoke in English, so Ong could understand him. When he heard the words "Shadow Squad", his face tensed up.

Bason looked at Xia ruofei and asked in English, ""Who are you? Are you from China? Why don't you speak Thai?"

Xia ruofei's appearance had obvious Southeast Asian characteristics. When he was at the temple of arulei, he even made up a Thailand name called "sucha". Manzila did not suspect anything at first.

The first thought that came to bassoon's mind when he saw Xia ruofei was: Did the country send someone to arrest me?

He had committed a great crime in Thailand and had to flee to Africa. Therefore, when he saw a man with a Southeast Asian face, he was shocked and suspicious.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, ""Mr. Wizard, what kind of person do you want me to be?"

Ong snorted coldly. Without further hesitation, he raised his hand and a few black shadows shot towards Xia ruofei.

In Ong's opinion, no matter who the other party was, they couldn't have come to visit him since they had jumped through the window on the second floor in the middle of the night, right? Since they were enemies, it would not be wrong to kill them first!

Xia ruofei looked at the approaching shadows with interest.

These were a few snakes that were entangled together, and they were live snakes. They were constantly wriggling as they flew. Their triangular tongues were aimed in Xia ruofei's direction, and they kept flicking their tongues.

Bason was secretly happy when he saw that Xia ruofei did not Dodge.

However, what happened next made him widen his eyes. When the snakes were about 10 to 20 centimeters away from Xia ruofei, they stopped moving as if there was an invisible barrier in front of Xia ruofei.

Then, he did not see Xia ruofei move, but the snakes he shot out trembled and fell to the ground. They were not moving at all and were obviously dead.

Bason was shocked and furious. At the same time, he did not believe it. He waved his hands and black shadows shot out from his hands. Their target was Xia ruofei.

Among the shadows, there were cold venomous snakes, ferocious centipedes, and all kinds of venomous insects that Xia ruofei did not know the name of.

Xia ruofei's expression didn't change at all. Instead, he was very interested. He stood still and said, "Bason, there are so many snakes, insects, rats and ants. Where are you hiding? I see that you're not wearing any clothes on your upper body. Could it be ... Hidden in your pants?"

The snakes, insects, rats, and ants could not get close to Xia ruofei either. It was as if there was an invisible protective shield around him. The poisonous insects surrounded the shield. From a distance, it looked like a cocoon that completely covered Xia ruofei.

Bason saw that his poisonous snakes and insects were unable to do anything to the other party. He frowned and glared as if he was having an intense mental battle.

In the end, Bason made up his mind and started to mumble all sorts of strange syllables. In the end, he spat out a mouthful of blood on a cloth doll on the table. Then, he waved his hand ...

Chapter 2386 The intention to kill (1)

The rag doll was originally placed at the corner of the table and was not eye – catching at all.

However, when Bason's blood landed on the doll, the doll suddenly emitted a dark glow. The White doll was covered in blood and looked terrifying under the glow.

Immediately after, the cloth doll's eyes suddenly turned green and it let out a demonic cry. Then, the White cloth that was stained with blood suddenly shattered, revealing the red and white flesh inside.

This lump of flesh was as fast as lightning and pounced in Xia ruofei's direction.

Xia ruofei, who was initially teasing the doll, suddenly turned cold and murderous when the doll changed.

Ghost child!

Xia ruofei's spiritual power was very strong. Even though the surroundings were covered by the poisonous insects, he could still sense the "cloth doll" 's condition.

How was this a rag doll! It was clearly a dead baby that had been refined! And from its appearance, it was very likely that it had been killed before it had a mother, and then refined with a secret technique.

"You should die!" Xia ruofei spat out these three cold words.

In the next moment, Xia ruofei's body shone brightly. The poisonous snakes and insects around him were all sent flying in all directions. They hit the walls around him and left behind a shocking trail of blood.

Xia ruofei merely released his vital energy and the poisonous insects and snakes were all killed in an instant.

At this moment, the ghost child had already reached Xia ruofei. Its green eyes were fixed on Xia ruofei, and a few baby teeth could be seen in its mouth.

When Xia ruofei was reading the books about cultivation left behind in the jade pendant, he had seen anecdote about the Nanjiang sorcerers. In fact, the sorcerers in Southeast Asia and Huaxia's Nanjiang were of the same line, and many of their cultivation methods were similar.

In the book that Xia ruofei had read, there were records of dark tame head sorcerers refining ghost children. These evil tame head sorcerers would often find pregnant women who were about to give birth and use cruel methods to kill them, resulting in two lives.

As a result, the pregnant woman had suffered inhuman torture before her death and had a lot of resentment. The fetus was about to descend into the human world, but it lost its life at the last moment. It was also filled with resentment.

The resentment of the two would eventually be concentrated on the fetus.

The black tame Head Master began to use a secret technique to refine the fetus, turning it into a ghost child with heavy resentment.

Although the fetus that was made into a ghost child would not continue to grow, its hair and teeth would continue to grow as if it was alive.

Xia ruofei looked at the teeth in the ghost child's mouth and knew that it had been refined for a long time.

Such an evil black cursed sorcerer was naturally someone everyone wanted to kill.

Xia ruofei originally wanted to drag Ong into the medium to do hard labor, but after seeing the ghost child, he changed his mind. He wanted to kill Ong.

Besides, even without the ghost child, Xia ruofei was disgusted by the fact that Bason and the other black sorcerers had poisonous insects and snakes on them. Some of them were even hidden in their bodies. If he really brought him into the space, what would he do if he brought these disgusting things in?

With Xia ruofei's absolute control of space, even if he brought a few snakes in, he could get rid of them in time. However, that feeling was disgusting!

After the ghost child appeared, Xia ruofei had no intention of letting Ong live.

It would be a crime to let such an evil person live for even a minute longer!

Xia ruofei did not hesitate when he saw the ghost child pouncing at him. He immediately drew out the blue immortal sword that he had been nurturing in his dantian.

The sword light shuttled back and forth like a dragon. In the blink of an eye, it had slashed at the ghost child more than ten times. When the flying sword returned to Xia ruofei, there was not even a trace of blood on it. It was still pure and flawless.

The ghost child's momentum was suddenly halted, and then it directly broke into a dozen pieces.

Then, with a bang, the ghost child's body suddenly exploded!

An invisible shield suddenly appeared around Xia ruofei. The flying flesh and the pungent black blood did not even touch the corner of Xia ruofei's clothes. They splattered all over the house.

The black blood on the ghost child's body, in particular, sizzled when it came into contact with the furniture and floor. A large piece of the furniture was corroded away.

Xia ruofei was not surprised because he knew that when the dark descendent master was refining a ghost child, he would usually use a variety of poisons. After the refining was completed, the ghost child was actually a collection of poisons. Ordinary people would die if they were to be touched by it.

Although the ghost child looked like a baby, Xia ruofei did not hesitate at all because he knew very well that the baby had died before it could leave its mother's body. Now, it was only refined by the evil Dark Descent master into this state. In fact, it had already lost its life.

Even if the ghost child had its own consciousness, Xia ruofei believed that it would not want to continue suffering like this. Killing it would be a relief to it.

After taking care of the ghost child, Xia ruofei stomped on the ground and shot towards Bassoon like a bolt of lightning.

Ong didn't expect that not only would the poisonous snakes and insects have no effect, but even the ghost child he used as his trump card couldn't hurt the other party at all. At this time, he was already a little panicked.

Bason raised his hand and threw a cloud of yellow smoke at Xia ruofei when he saw Xia ruofei charging at him.

Xia ruofei snorted. "Small tricks!"

With a wave of his hand, the cloud of smoke dissipated without a trace. His speed didn't slow down at all, and in the blink of an eye, he was in front of Bason.

Xia ruofei didn't waste any time. He immediately released his majestic spiritual power and crushed it towards Bason.

Bason seemed to be slightly stronger than Metatron and Boak. He was able to resist the spiritual attacks instinctively.

However, Xia ruofei could even defeat a real cultivator, Manzila, with his spiritual power. How could he not defeat a black tame head sorcerer who had only touched the surface of cultivation?

He only slightly increased the intensity of his mental power, and Bason's instinctive resistance was crushed.

After a short two to three seconds, Bason's eyes turned blank as he fell into a Deep State of hypnosis.

"After the dark shadow Squad failed in their mission to assassinate Song Qiming, did you send any other teams to carry out the mission?" Xia ruofei asked coldly.

"No, I didn't," Bason's eyes were empty as he said, "the rule of the Morde organization is that once the mission fails, the deposit will not be returned and they will not send people to continue the mission."

"Did the other party place a new order for this mission?" Xia ruofei asked.

"Not at the moment." Ong replied.

Xia ruofei finally heaved a sigh of relief. At least for now, Song Qiming was safe.

As for whether Liu haojun would entrust this task to another assassin organization, it was hard to say. Anyway, when Xia ruofei returned to the country, the first thing he would do was to deal with Liu haojun. When the time came, he would know the answer by asking.

“Tell me about the organization structure of the dark shadow Squad. How many people do you have, where do you usually hide, and how do you contact each other?” Xia ruofei said, “in short, tell me everything about the dark shadow Squad in detail!”

“Yes!” Ong said.

Then he spoke without hesitation, spilling all the secrets of mord’s Shadow Squad without holding back.

According to bassoon’s confession, the dark shadow Squad had about a hundred people and could form about 20 operation teams at the same time.

Of course, the members of these operation teams were not completely fixed. They might be relatively fixed during normal times so that they could cooperate better when carrying out missions. The members would often be adjusted according to the needs of the specific mission.

For example, when he went to China to assassinate song Qiming, Bason had specially selected members from East Asia. These people not only looked similar to Chinese but also knew simple Chinese. They would be of great help when they carried out missions in China.

In addition, due to the special nature of this task, the members of the dark shadow Squad were scattered all over the place. Of course, most of them were active in Africa, and only after receiving a mission would they go to the other continents.

Moreover, among the members of the dark shadow Squad, other than relatively fixed squads and people who had carried out missions with them, many people didn’t know each other, let alone contact each other on a daily basis.

As the leader of the dark shadow Squad, Bason knew the situation of every member and was able to contact them.

After Xia ruofei heard bassoon’s confession, he frowned.

These assassins were all scattered outside, so it was too difficult to catch them all in one fell swoop.

Although Xia ruofei could get the list of names and their hiding places from bassoon, there were nearly a hundred people, and almost all of them were in different cities and countries. If Xia ruofei were to find and capture them one by one, it would take more than a day or two.

“Ong, do you have a way to gather everyone in the dark shadow Squad in Usuda?” Xia ruofei asked after a moment of silence.

“If you encounter an emergency, you can post a code on the internet.” Ong said, “our team members check it every day. After they see the code, they will rush to the designated location within 24 hours. Of course, it’s impossible for everyone to be here, because some of them are still out on a mission, while some of them may be on vacation in a place thousands of miles away. It’s impossible for these people to come back in time.”

"That works too! So what if a few missed out! It's better than me going to every house!" Xia ruofei muttered to himself.

Chapter 2387 Waiting for the rabbit (1)

The next night, at nine o' clock.

An abandoned warehouse in the southern suburbs of Usuda.

Under the dim street lights, the door of the warehouse was left ajar. The streets outside had long been very quiet. The area was not very peaceful. There were often fights between local gangs, so the nearby residents basically did not come out after dark.

The street was quiet. Only a drunkard staggered out of a small path, held the electric pole, and retched a few times. Then he sat on the ground, leaned against the electric pole, and fell asleep.

At this time, at the end of the long Street, the sound of leather boots stepping on the ground could be heard.

The three of them walked down the street. The dim street light shone on them, casting long shadows on the street.

The one in the middle was a woman with a slim figure. She was wearing a sexy black leather shirt and pants, and she was playing with a dagger as she walked.

There were two men standing on either side of the woman. One of them had a muscular body and a scar on his face. The other man was a little thin. His light black skin did not look like an African, but more like a South American. He always had a faint smile on his mouth, looking indifferent.

The three of them walked side by side in the direction of the abandoned warehouse.

The woman in the middle licked her lips and said slowly, ""Big guy, what do you think the Wizards called everyone back for?"

The burly man on the woman's right said in a muffled voice, ""Something big must have happened! Maybe it's a big business deal?"

The Thin Man said frivolously, ""What kind of big business needs everyone to gather? Is the Magus trying to lead everyone to establish their own sect?"

The beautiful woman frowned and said, ""Kitt! If you die one day, it must be because of this mouth! Can't you tell what you should say and what you shouldn't?"

The skinny Kitt laughed, ""Tina, you're too timid! What's there to be afraid of when we're talking in private? Everyone says that Great Satan is powerful and omnipotent, but who has ever seen Great Satan? On the other hand, the Magi's methods were truly powerful! If you ask me ..... Maybe Lord Satan is just a fictional character of the Magi!"

The graceful beauty Tina berated, "shut up!" Are we allowed to discuss Lord Satan's matters? Kitt, if you want to die, don't drag us down!"

Kitt shrugged and said, "Tina, this doesn't seem like the famous snake Beauty's style!" Just a name and you're scared? Last time in Southeast Asia, when you cut that native farm owner into a bloody man, I didn't see you being scared!"

Tina snorted coldly and didn't bother with Kitt.

Kitt felt a little bored, so he stuck his head out again to look at the burly man next to Tina and joked, "Big guy, if the Magus really wanted to lead everyone to establish their own sect, what would you do? Will you continue to be loyal to Lord Satan, or will you follow the Wizards? "

The burly man scratched his head and said, "I'll listen to you! It was fine as long as there was money to be earned! It didn't matter who he was working with. But you two have been taking good care of me, so I don't want to be separated from you ..."

"Big guy, you're quite sentimental, aren't you? "Kitt laughed.

Although Tina, who was walking in the middle, did not say anything, a smile appeared on her face.

The three of them were the elite killers of the shadow team organized by Morde. They had been working together for several years, and this small team of five had been reduced to three now. Although two of them had died in the process of carrying out the mission, the remaining three had become more and more familiar with each other.

For the past year, the Wizards had been trying to add more people to their team, but Tina had rejected them all.

In Tina's opinion, the three of them were enough to deal with the most difficult mission. If they added more people, they would need to get used to it.

Since the three of them were the most powerful members of the shadow Squad, Bason did not go against their wishes and forced them into the team.

This time, Tina and the other two were on vacation in South Africa. After seeing the signal sent by the wizard Bason on the internet, they immediately took a plane back to Ethiopia. Because of the flight delay, they arrived at the airport a lot later than usual. They rushed to Usuda without stopping and finally arrived before the deadline.

The three of them chatted as they walked toward the abandoned warehouse.

Although they seemed to be walking with ease, they had already developed the habit of being on guard at all times after living in the dark World for so many years. Their attention was also always very focused.

Soon, the three of them walked from the other end of the street to the warehouse.

The door of the warehouse was ajar, and a faint yellow light shone through.

Just as the brawny man was about to push the door open, Tina suddenly raised her arm and shouted, "Wait a moment!"

The burly man stopped in his tracks out of reflex, and Kitt, who had been frivolous just a moment ago, also subconsciously leaned back to the burly man, his pair of sharp eyes scanning the surroundings.

"We should be the last batch to arrive," Tina said. "Don't you think ... It's too quiet inside?"

Kitt was on alert as he said, "Maybe it's a prank? Or was this an assessment? The Magi need to choose the strongest team to carry out a big mission?"

"Before we're sure, any possibility exists ..." Tina said calmly.

"Are we still going in, then?" asked the robust man.

"Of course we have to go in!" Tina said, "otherwise, how would we know what's going on? However, from now on, we need to be on high alert. "

In fact, Tina was a little inclined to Kitt's judgment just now. She felt that this might really be a special assessment to test their ability to deal with the situation at the last minute and their ability to adapt to actual combat. Maybe there was really a big mission that they had to carry out!

Thinking of this, Tina could not help but feel a little tempted by the great mission of the Pi Xiu. While it meant high difficulty, it also meant high rewards.

They were in this line of work to make money. As long as they paid, they were responsible for solving the customer's problem completely, so there was no right or wrong.

As for the possibility that Bason was threatened and sent signals to trap the members of the shadow team, it was possible.

However, Tina and the other two did not think in that direction.

As far as they knew, Bason was extremely powerful and had many tricks up his sleeve. How could such a master be held hostage? Moreover, based on their understanding of Bason, even if he fell into the hands of the enemy, Bason would not work with the enemy. If they fell into the hands of the police or the enemy, they would not be able to escape death, no matter whether they cooperated or not. Rather than being tortured to death, it would be better to commit suicide as soon as possible.

Bason, who had cultivated countless poisonous creatures, had at least a hundred ways to end his life in an instant.

Therefore, Tina and the other two subconsciously ruled out the most dangerous possibility.

Tina pulled out a pistol from her waist, while Kitt and the big guy each took out their own weapons. Kitt had three throwing daggers between his fingers, while the big guy took out an AK submachine gun from his backpack.

The three of them skillfully formed a battle formation with their backs against each other. The big guy facing the warehouse gently pushed the door open, and then they carefully moved into the warehouse step by step.

The large warehouse was empty. A few wires hung down from the roof, and the light bulbs hanging on them gave off a dim yellow light, which was not enough to illuminate the entire warehouse.

After entering the warehouse, the three of them quickly observed the situation in all directions.

Tina's eyes focused. She found a chair in front of her, and a person was sitting on the chair with his back facing them. There seemed to be a person curled up on the ground in front of this person, who was being stepped on by this person.

Tina's expression turned cold as she pointed her gun at the man's back and said, "Don't move! Put your hands behind your head and stand up slowly!"

The big guy and Kitt only took a quick glance from the corner of their eyes, but they didn't turn around. Instead, they continued to maintain a vigilant posture toward Tina's two flanks.

The man sitting with his back to them didn't seem to care about being pointed at with a gun. He smiled in a relaxed manner and said, ""Not bad, you're very vigilant!"

Tina's voice became even colder. "I'll say it for the last time. Immediately stand up with your hands on your head and slowly turn around! I'll count to three. If you don't do as I say, I'll shoot immediately!"

After saying that, Tina expressionlessly counted, ""One!"

At this time, her finger was already on the trigger, and she pulled back a little. The pistol was actually in a pre – firing state.

"Two!" Tina's voice was getting colder.

To their surprise, the person sitting on the chair laughed and said, ""I'll help you count! Three!"

"You're looking for death!" Tina said with a hint of killing intent.

At first, she was worried that this person might be the employer of this "big mission" and was deliberately testing them here, but now she had the intention to kill him.

No matter who this person was, she had already used up all her patience. If he was really a big customer, he didn't need such a stupid customer!

Tina had killed at least dozens of people. Killing people was as simple as drinking water and eating food for her. After she had the intention to kill, she pulled the trigger gently without any hesitation. To a top – tier assassin, no matter how angry or impatient he was, his movements must be very gentle when he fired. This was because if he used too much force, it would cause his movements to be distorted, which would greatly reduce the accuracy of the shot.

After pulling the trigger, Tina's eyes revealed a hint of cruelty.

Every time she harvested a life, she would feel an inexplicable sense of pleasure, and this time was no exception.

However, Tina's expression instantly froze. The gunshot did not sound.

She found that she couldn't pull the trigger at all, as if someone had it stuck behind the trigger.

Not only that, but Tina and the other two also felt that their bodies were bound by an invisible force. They could only maintain their current posture, and it was difficult for them to even move their fingers.

The three of them were shocked and didn't know why such a situation would happen.

At this moment, the person sitting on the chair finally stood up. He slowly turned around, revealing a young face.

This person was naturally Xia ruofei, who had been "waiting for an opportunity". Of course, he still had the face of a Southeast Asian.

Xia ruofei looked at the three people he had captured with a relaxed expression and said, ""You guys should be the last batch. The others shouldn't be coming. In that case ... The hunting operation can end now!"

Chapter 2388 The destruction of the dark shadow (1)

Tina and the other two's bodies stiffened as if they had seen a ghost.

Over the years, they had carried out dozens of missions, big and small, and encountered countless dangerous situations. However, none of them had ever felt as powerless as today.

This was a completely unbalanced battle. No matter how strong their combat abilities were, they could not use them at all.

Tina and the other two even realized that they couldn't even make a sound, as if their vocal cords were imprisoned and they couldn't vibrate at all.

Their eyes were the only ones that could move. At this moment, all three of them had deep fear in their eyes.

Tina and the other two watched as Xia ruofei picked up the person who was curled up on the ground. Then, he turned the chair around with one hand and pressed the person onto the chair with the other hand.

The unconscious man was the person in charge of the dark shadow Squad, Bason!

Tina and the other two could roughly guess the reason for tonight's incident. The other party must have sent a gathering signal online through the Wizards to gather all the members of the dark shadow Squad and arrest them one by one.

The three of them did not doubt the other party's ability at all. Just based on that superb technique just now, even if the dark shadow Squad were all experienced killers, it would be useless. No matter how many of them came, they would just be sending themselves to their deaths.

The worst situation had happened! Tina and the other two were in a heavy mood.

Xia ruofei patted Ong's head.

Ong slowly woke up, but the moment he opened his eyes, he immediately fell into a state of confusion.

"Are these people from the dark shadow Squad?" Xia ruofei asked indifferently.

In fact, Xia ruofei was just doing his routine check. Judging from Tina and the other two's skillful tactical cooperation and the various killing weapons they had on them, they would not believe that they were not assassins.

Ong's empty eyes swept across Tina and the other two before he nodded and said, "This is the most elite combat Team of our dark shadow Squad. The one in the middle is the beautiful snake Tina, the other two are the Pampas Eagle, Kitt, and the big guy, Guli ..."

Tina and the other two were dejected. It was obvious that Bason had sold out the entire shadow team. They only asked a simple question and Bason told them the most detailed information without any hesitation. He did not even hide their nicknames.

Xia ruofei took out a name list from his pocket, crossed off a few names, and said, "So, there are only five people who haven't arrived yet?"

Ong said, "they should be on a mission. There are three combat teams in the dark shadow Squad that are currently on a mission. The members of the other two combat teams have just returned. This team should be at a critical stage of the mission, so they can't leave."

"Forget it, they're lucky!" Xia ruofei said indifferently.

Including Tina and the other two, Xia ruofei had already captured 89 assassins today. It could be said that the entire dark shadow Squad had fallen apart. The remaining five would not pose any threat to song Qiming.

Xia ruofei's main goal was to eliminate song Qiming's safety threat. As for capturing him to do manual labor in the spirit map space, that was just a side goal.

He couldn't waste his time here for five assassins.

After making up his mind, Xia ruofei removed the mental power from Bason and used it to shake him.

Bason immediately broke free from the state of hypnosis.

When he saw that he was in this abandoned warehouse, and Tina and the other two were in a strange state of being on guard and not moving at all, his expression changed drastically.

What happened during the hypnotism process also surfaced in his mind.

Devil ... Bason looked at Xia ruofei and thought.

Xia ruofei didn't give him a chance to speak. He slapped Ong's forehead lightly.

Ong didn't even make a sound before he fell to the ground like a piece of rotten wood. His eyes protruded out and blood flowed out of his seven orifices. He was already dead by the time he fell to the ground.

To Bason, he only saw a blur. He seemed to see Xia ruofei's hand waving in front of him. Then, his consciousness fell into eternal darkness ...

Tina and the other two watched as Bason, who was supposed to be invincible, was killed by Xia ruofei without any resistance.

All of them lost their souls, and for the first time, they truly felt the threat of death.

Would they be next?

They had come rather late today, and there were at least seventy or eighty people in front of them. Had they all been killed by this demon? Where did the bodies of those people go?

It was definitely not near the warehouse. Tina and the other assassins were quite sensitive to the smell of blood. If there were really seventy or eighty dead people hiding here, they might have already noticed it from ten to twenty meters away.

Then where did these people go?

Just as Tina and the other two were in a mess, they saw Xia ruofei's mocking face as he looked at them.

Tina and the other two trembled.

However, it was different from what they had expected. Xia ruofei's attack did not come. They only felt an invisible pressure coming at them. It was as if their heads had exploded and they could not help but be dazed.

In this daze, the three of them felt the world spin around them, as if they had experienced the shifting of the stars. When their consciousness returned to normal, they were shocked to find that they were no longer in the warehouse.

Chapter 2389 The destruction of the dark shadow (2)

This was a space that seemed to be in chaos. The surroundings were all gray, as if this area was surrounded by a thick fog.

In addition to them, there were more than 80 people in this not – so – wide area.

Among these people, they didn't know some of them, and some of them had worked together during missions. They were all members of the dark shadow Squad.

"What happened?" Tina felt a little confused.

"Even Tina has been caught!" A woman wearing a black cat mask shook her head and sighed. "It seems that the dark shadow Squad has been completely annihilated this time!"

Tina looked at the man and quickly asked, "Cat girl, what's going on? What is this place?"

This woman wearing a black cat mask had once carried out an assassination mission with Tina's Combat Team, so they were quite familiar with each other.

The masked girl, nicknamed catgirl, shrugged and said, "We're the same as you, we don't know anything."

"Did you guys receive the signal and rush to Usuda's warehouse assembly point?" the Catwoman asked. "Then, you were inexplicably captured here?"

Tina nodded and said, "that's right!" Do you guys know what's going on?"

The catgirl shook her head and said, "I don't know what's going on at all. I only know that this is a power we can't resist!" Or rather, this isn't a power that mortals can control!"

When the cat girl said this, her eyes were still full of fear.

After a few inquiries, Tina found out that everyone here was a member of the dark shadow Squad. They had the same experience as her many times, and they were caught and brought to this damn place without any resistance.

Some people didn't even get to see the other party's face before they felt dizzy and arrived here.

Moreover, all of their weapons had disappeared without exception.

A group of assassins was waiting for their fate in the space cage. Not far from them, more than a hundred people were working hard.

However, even though they were so close, the killers could not sense the group of people who were working hard. The five groups led by Bao Guijun didn't notice the huge space cage not far away.

Although Xia ruofei's spatial cage blocked all external senses, he did not lock everyone up separately. Instead, he set up a large cage and locked them together.

It was mainly because Xia ruofei had considered that he might not have the time to go into the medium to take in these people. If they were locked up separately, most of them would have gone crazy before he could take them in.

That kind of absolute loneliness was so terrifying that it was hard to imagine.

When Xia ruofei was a soldier, the thing that soldiers were most afraid of when they made mistakes was not being punished to run 10 kilometers of an armed cross – country run or something. Instead, they were quite afraid of the detention room of the brigade.

In that kind of narrow and claustrophobic space, the walls were also added with soft soundproof materials. When people were locked inside, it was completely silent, and even their own heartbeats could be heard very clearly. It was difficult to turn around inside, as if they were completely isolated from the world.

No matter how strong a person's mental fortitude was, if they were locked up in such a confinement room for more than a day, they would feel like going crazy. If it was more than three days, basically any normal person would go crazy.

In the abandoned warehouse.

Xia ruofei put Tina and the others into the cage and took out a few barrels of gasoline. He poured a large amount of gasoline on Bason's body and then poured it all over the warehouse. He even paid special attention to the electric boxes.

Xia ruofei had already observed the terrain. There were only abandoned factories nearby. The nearest residential area was a hundred meters away. Even if it were to burn, it would not hurt the innocent.

He had seized a large amount of gasoline in the secret training camp in the town of Basoko, so he would naturally not feel bad using a few barrels.

After pouring out all the gasoline, Xia ruofei carefully kept the gasoline barrel back into the medium. He did not want to leave any clues. For example, if the gasoline barrel was taken from the fuel depot at the training camp in Basoko town, they might be able to find out the connection between the two events.

After setting everything up, Xia ruofei walked out of the warehouse and threw a lighter into the warehouse.

The lighter landed accurately on Bason's body and immediately burst into flames.

There was gasoline everywhere in the warehouse, so the fire naturally became more intense. By then, Xia ruofei had already disappeared into the night.

In the suburbs Usuda, Xia ruofei heard the sirens of a fire truck behind him. He used his spiritual power to check the surroundings. After confirming that it was safe, he took out the pickup truck with the removed license plate from his space.

Xia ruofei quickly drove the pickup truck into the night.

After successfully crossing the border between arulei and Ethiopia Xia ruofei took out the pickup truck that he had just kept in his space. He put on the disguised car plate again, then got into the car and left.

As Xia ruofei drove, he pondered over the two choices he was facing. One was to leave arulei as Xia Tian and return to his country through Ethiopia. The second was to continue causing trouble for the modr mercenary group.

Currently, the modr mercenary group was in vadira, arulei's neighboring country. The local armed forces and government forces were in an intense battle there. This mercenary group was also hired by a local anti – Government armed force and participated in the war.

Other than the two warring parties, the United Nations peacekeeping force was also in action in vadira. The situation was very complicated. Although Xia ruofei was confident that he could deal with the modr mercenary group quickly, a small force of 100 people would not be able to change the situation.

However, it was always better to be safe.

Moreover, a mercenary group was different from the training camp and the shadow team. The mercenaries in a mercenary group had all seen real blood, and unlike killers, these people were used to military combat. They were much more integrated. If there was a mistake in the process of arrest, it could cause a big problem.

Hence, there were two voices in Xia ruofei's heart that were fighting with each other.

This was indeed a good opportunity. If he missed it, although this mercenary group was unlikely to pose a threat to him, there was a high probability that he would set up a new branch. It would be more difficult to get specific information about the mercenary group in the future.

Moreover, leaving this mercenary group behind was indeed a hidden danger.

Although the mercenary group and the dark team had very distinct roles and Xia ruofei had been extremely cautious in this operation, nothing was absolute. If he left a trace and it was traced back to him, even if it was just suspicion, it would be a lot of trouble.

Although he was not worried about revenge, he still had his own company and many friends. No matter how capable he was, he could not protect everyone.

Just like what happened to Song Qiming last time, from Xia ruofei's perspective, if something like this happened again, he would not be able to stop it.

One could be a thief for a thousand days, but one could not guard against a thief for a thousand days.

Therefore, from this perspective, it was necessary to cut the weeds and eliminate the roots.

Xia ruofei drove as he weighed the pros and cons.

Finally, he smacked the steering wheel and muttered to himself, "Let's do it! If I don't even dare to take this little risk, what's the point of cultivating?"

After making up his mind, Xia ruofei immediately stopped the car by the side of the road and started to study the route and plan.

Between Wadila and Ethiopia was the country of Aruray.

Ethiopia was to the East of Arulei, and Wadira was to the West.

Soon, Xia ruofei had planned an East – West route across Arulei on the GPS.

Although it was said to cross a country from east to west, the land of Arulei was actually very long and narrow. The distance between East and West was not too long.

According to the information he got from Manzilla, the modern mercenary group was located in the Poeta region in the middle of Wadira a few days ago. Since he wanted to deal with this mercenary group, Xia ruofei had to get to the Poeta region as soon as possible.

Wadira was not a small country like Arulei. The size of Sudan's territory was one of the top few in Africa. After crossing the border between Wadira and Arulei, the journey to the Poeta region was about 700 to 800 kilometers. They would also pass through many war zones. The planned route might not be smooth, so they had to prepare a few more plans.

Xia ruofei quickly made a mark on the navigation system, then started the car and drove West.

Chapter 2390 Entering the Warzone for the first time (1)

Of course, Xia ruofei did not make a detailed plan. After all, war was everywhere in Wadira, and the situation was changing every day. No matter how detailed his plan was, it could not keep up with the changes.

As they drove past Arulei, Xia ruofei did not forget to instruct Xia Qing to pay attention to the assassins in the space cage through telepathy.

He was currently busy with the mercenary group's matters and didn't have time to deal with them for the time being. When he was free, he didn't know how many days it would take.

These people were locked up together, and the probability of them going crazy was not high, but they could not go without eating and drinking!

So Xia ruofei asked Xia Qing to keep an eye on them. If they were starving, he would throw some food and water in.

Of course, he didn't forget to ask Xia Qing to warn the assassins not to start any disputes when she put in the food. It wasn't impossible for them to fight for food when they were starving. Besides, these people killed without blinking. If they really fought, it was normal for a few to die. These were Xia ruofei's free labor. He had worked so hard to capture them into the origin space. Even if one of them died, it would be a loss.

However, with Xia Qing around, Xia ruofei was also very assured.

When necessary, she could use the invisible power of space to restrain those lawless assassins. It was a very simple thing for Xia Qing.

By the time Xia ruofei arrived at the Western border of arulei, the sky was already turning bright.

He still found a hidden place and put the car into his Origin space.

This time, he had to drive a few hundred kilometers in vadira. He did not intend to use the second – hand pickup truck he bought in arulei, but he estimated that he would stay in vadira for at least a few days. It was not safe to hide the car at the arulei border.

If the car was lost, Xia ruofei did not care about the loss of a few thousand dollars. He just did not want people to follow the clues from the car. Even if there was a slight possibility of suspicion, Xia ruofei had to avoid it.

Therefore, after this trip to Africa, he was prepared to take the pickup truck away with him. He would find an appropriate time to throw the car into the sea when he went out to sea. Then, he would completely eliminate all clues.

After keeping the car in the origin space, Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to cross the border.

After all, it was already dawn, and it was not a good time to sneak across the country.

Besides, he had been working non – stop since the night raid on Basoko town, except for a short rest at bassoon's house the night before. Although his body wasn't completely exhausted, he was mentally exhausted!

Hence, after Xia ruofei checked the handheld GPS, he walked to a small border town ten kilometers away and found a hotel to stay in.

After paying a tip of 50 dollars, the hotel owner readily booked a room for Xia ruofei without checking any documents.

In fact, trade was very active in the border area. Even though vadira was currently in a war, the border trade was still very prosperous, especially because the war had also given birth to some gray transactions, such as the smuggling of firearms, which made the border town look even more prosperous.

Every day, people of different skin colors would come to this small town. The innkeeper was used to seeing guests who did not want to reveal their identities.

Of course, Xia ruofei's tip of 50 dollars had also played a very important role.

This time, Xia ruofei had changed into a different look when he came to this border town. Jian Jia had used her thai look many times. Out of careful consideration, he had used makeup to make his skin much fairer. At the same time, he made his nose taller and adjusted his facial features. He looked more like an Eurasian.

After he checked into the hotel, he had been resting in his room. He would take out some instant noodles and biscuits from his space to have a simple meal.

Of course, after he finished eating the instant food, he carefully put the packaging into his space.

Xia ruofei rested until the evening before leaving the room. He strolled around the town and returned to the hotel when the sky turned dark.

Xia ruofei turned off the lights at around eight o'clock in the evening, creating the illusion that he was going to sleep.

In fact, after he stayed in the dark room for a while, he jumped out of the back window without anyone noticing. Under the cover of the night, he quickly left the town and headed quickly in the direction of the border.

Due to the chaotic situation in vadira, the border security of arulei was relatively tight, mainly to prevent a large number of refugees from crossing the border.

The country of arulei's economy was very backward, and if a large number of refugees flooded in all of a sudden, they would not be able to survive.

Of course, those who had fled from the war would not flee in the direction of arulei unless they had no other choice.

Xia ruofei carefully avoided a few waves of patrolling guards. When he was far away from the border town, the security was indeed much weaker. However, long barbed wire was built along the border, and it seemed to be the kind with electricity.

This kind of barbed wire could block ordinary people, but it was nothing to Xia ruofei.

He stomped the ground lightly, and his body rose from the ground. He nimbly crossed the wire fence wall, and then quickly disappeared into the night.
