

God tier Farm 2401

Chapter 2401 Snatching people away? that doesn't exist!

Coupled with the guidance of his spiritual power, the shot hit the target accurately.

The troops that were preparing to launch a sneak attack on the camp of the modr mercenary group had quickly scattered and hidden themselves when the hidden Sentry made the sound. Xia ruofei's shot accurately hit the thigh of the soldier at the front.

The large – caliber sniper bullet instantly left a penetrating wound on the soldier's leg. The soldier couldn't help but let out a painful scream, Breaking the silence of the night.

The secret Sentry of the modr mercenary group was already like a frightened bird. Now that he heard the scream from the other side of the forest, he pulled the bolt of his gun and fired in that direction. The camp was right behind them, and the sound came from the opposite direction. It was definitely not a friend visiting at night, so the Sentry was very decisive and opened fire.

After the gunshot, there was a sudden commotion in the camp. A huge Searchlight suddenly swept in this direction, and the camp's patrol team also rushed over.

The commander of the government forces who came to attack was so angry that he punched the ground.

Everything had been so smooth before, and they were about to reach the camp, but such a big change happened. First, the enemy's Sentry suddenly shouted for no reason. Then, someone on their side was shot, completely exposing their position.

Under the illumination of the searchlights, it was impossible for the team to hide. Soon, the machine guns on the two high points of the camp spewed out fire, and the sound of gunfire completely broke the quiet night.

After Xia ruofei fired the shot, he quickly kept the sniper rifle into the medium. Then, he grabbed a branch like an agile ape and flung it, his figure disappearing into the darkness.

Although the sniper rifle was equipped with a silencer that almost completely suppressed the fire at the muzzle, experienced soldiers could still deduce the direction of the shot from the position and wound of the wounded.

Under normal circumstances, snipers would change their positions flexibly to prevent their shooting position from being targeted by the other party.

The sound of gunfire rang out. After the commander of the government army lost two soldiers, he no longer hesitated and immediately ordered a retreat. After being discovered by the enemy, the sneak attack would no longer be effective. Now that the enemy had the advantage in numbers and firepower, and also occupied a solid camp, it could be said that the time, place, and people were on the enemy's side. There was no point in continuing to attack.

The modr mercenary group chased in the direction of the retreat of the government forces for a distance, and then returned to the camp, cursing.

Xia ruofei, who had changed his hiding position, continued to use his spiritual power to check the situation at the campsite. At the same time, he criticized in his heart, "I'm here to catch you, not to be your nanny! The enemy was right at their doorstep, but there was no reaction at all. This was too useless!

However, Xia ruofei thought about it again. Whether the mercenaries were tactically trained or not, it had nothing to do with him. It did not matter if they were smart or not. Planting flowers and planting crops in the realm was not a problem. As long as they had strength, it would be fine.

Hence, Xia ruofei was relieved and used his spiritual power to check the situation in the opposite camp.

Soon, Xia ruofei found the Furious Douglas, who was almost the same as the photo he saw on Manzila's computer.

Douglas was wearing an army green tactical vest and holding an automatic rifle in his hand. His muscles were bulging, and his tactical vest was tightly held up. His face was also full of fierce muscles, making him look very strong and fierce.

Douglas waved his arms and gave a lecture before he went into the tent.

Under the organization of their respective captains and team leaders, the mercenaries left some people behind to patrol and keep watch, while the others also dispersed and returned to their tents.

Xia ruofei noticed that there were more people on patrol and two more fixed sentries.

He couldn't help but smile bitterly. However, this was something that couldn't be helped. When the troops were attacked by the enemy, they would definitely be more vigilant.

If it wasn't for the combat mission tomorrow morning, the entire mercenary group would probably not be able to sleep tonight.

Xia ruofei continued to wait on the tree. It was already one in the morning.

He knew that the soldiers would not fall asleep immediately after the stimulation of what had just happened. This was the time when they were the most excited and tense.

Anyway, he was prepared to act around twoo' clock. Now, he continued to wait and see, waiting for the camp to calm down.

As time passed, Xia ruofei sat on the tree without moving. Every now and then, he would use his spiritual power to check the situation in the camp.

At around twoo' clock, two more soldiers came to change shifts.

It seemed like they had two hours of shifts for the second half of the night. Xia ruofei said in his heart.

Xia ruofei continued to wait for about half an hour after the hidden sentries finished their handover.

2:30 am.

Xia ruofei finally moved.

He silently jumped down from the tree and rolled on the ground. While he absorbed the impact, he also advanced a few meters toward the bushes behind the two hidden sentries.

Xia ruofei made a small circle from the side and quietly approached the hidden sentries.

This hidden Sentry was a big black man. His bulging black muscles even seemed to shine under the moonlight. Not far in front of him was the position of another hidden Sentry.

The black man was chewing gum while maintaining a vigilant posture. He had no idea that someone had sneaked up behind them.

Xia ruofei sneaked up behind the hidden Sentry and hit his carotid artery with a hand knife.

The black man didn't even make a sound before he fainted.

Xia ruofei didn't even try to help the black man up. Before he fell to the ground, he had already been kept in the medium.

After entering the space, the black man's weapons were stripped away by an invisible force and flew to the place where Xia ruofei stored his weapons.

The black man was locked up in the space cage.

Considering that the dark shadow Squad and the modr mercenary group did not have much interaction, Xia ruofei guessed that the assassins from the dark shadow Squad and the mercenaries did not know each other. Hence, to avoid any accidental injuries, Xia ruofei simply created another space cage to lock up the captives.

When the black man was locked in the space cage, Xia ruofei had already quietly arrived behind the other hidden Sentry.

He did the same thing, using very simple tactical movements to silently take down the hidden Sentry and put him into the spatial cage.

Xia ruofei mumbled to himself, ""They're starting to harvest free labor!"

In the dark forest, he quickly made his way towards the mercenary group's camp.

In the first half of the night, Xia ruofei had already used his spiritual power to investigate clearly. In this direction, other than two hidden sentries, there were two more sentries near the simple fence of the camp.

In addition, two high points were set up in the camp, both equipped with searchlights and high – speed machine guns.

In addition, there were two Mobile Sentry teams patrolling the camp. They were basically all the security forces of the modr mercenary group.

Of course, there should be hidden sentries in other directions as well. However, Xia ruofei could ignore them for the time being.

He had a good grasp of the situation, so he directly found a position and nimbly climbed over the fence without alerting anyone.

Then, Xia ruofei began to move forward carefully along the fence. After avoiding the patrol post, he slipped out of the shadows and arrived at the bottom of the high platform in a few steps.

Xia ruofei quickly scanned the surroundings with his spiritual power and then climbed up the simple ladder ...

Chapter 2402 Crazy_Xia ruofei used the same method as he did in the Basoko training camp. First, he cleared the sentries at the high vantage points as they had the best view. With them around, he would not be able to move freely in the camp.

At first, it was indeed very smooth. After Xia ruofei carefully avoided the mobile sentries, he did not spend much effort to remove the sentries at the highest points.

The next thing to deal with was the mobile sentries.

In the camp of the modr mercenary group, there were two teams of mobile sentries patrolling, and their patrol routes crossed each other.

After Xia ruofei had chosen a secluded spot, he hid in the shadows and waited for the five – man mobile sentries to pass by. Then, he suddenly charged out and used a few conventional combat moves to make the mobile sentries lose their ability to move in just one or two seconds.

After cultivating his essential Qi, Xia ruofei was able to use some of the tactical movements that he had learned in the Army more freely. He jumped out from behind the sentries and took down two of them before they could react.

Then, he jumped up and kicked the chests of two sentries with his legs at the same time. He then used the momentum to pounce on the last sentries and hit his neck with a palm knife.

When he knocked out the Sentry, the first Sentry he knocked out had not yet completely fallen to the ground.

Xia ruofei's spiritual power supported the five of them and prevented them from falling to the ground.

Then, he placed these people into the space cage.

At the same time, the weapons on these soldiers were also stripped away by the power of space, and they were thrown together with the two hidden sentries like dead dogs.

After dealing with this team of sentries, Xia ruofei quickly disappeared into the darkness. He used his maximum speed and ran to another ambush point, ready to deal with the second team of mobile sentries.

Because the routes of the two teams of mobile sentries crossed each other, if he couldn't get rid of the other team of mobile sentries at the first moment, he would immediately notice something unusual if he didn't see the team of sentries in front of him when he reached the intersection of the routes.

Xia ruofei's speed was very fast. Without the sentries on high ground to hold him back, he had less to worry about. In the blink of an eye, he had rushed to the hidden position that he had found in advance.

At this time, another team of sentries was still more than thirty meters away from him.

Xia ruofei had used all his speed just now and was panting slightly. He held onto the sandbag that was used as a cover and steadied his breathing. His eyes never left the sentries who were getting closer and closer. At the same time, his mental power was constantly on alert. If there were any strange movements in other directions, he would be able to detect it at the first moment.

Very quickly, the group of sentries walked past the bunker that Xia ruofei was hiding behind in an orderly manner. They did not notice the approaching danger.

Xia ruofei stared at the last sentry's back and counted in his heart. Then, he stomped on the ground and jumped up. Like a giant Roc, he pounced on the Sentry.

A few muffled sounds of hitting could be heard. This team of sentries had no ability to resist. They did not even have time to raise their guns or make any sound before they were killed by Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei kept the five of them into the spatial cage without a word and then disappeared into the darkness again.

He was panting slightly as he walked around a team of five sentries. It was easy for him to deal with them, but if he encountered more than ten or twenty people at the same time, it would be a little difficult.

Of course, even if he was facing 20 to 30 armed soldiers, Xia ruofei could easily break their formation when they were caught off guard and subdue them one by one. It was not a difficult task for him.

However, under such circumstances, it would be impossible to stop the other party from firing a warning shot.

Fortunately, it was impossible for such a small company – sized unit to have dozens of people patrolling together. The entire unit only had about a hundred people, unless the commander was stupid.

After taking care of the mobile Sentry, Xia ruofei was even more confident.

Next, there were a few fixed sentries in the camp, which were not difficult for Xia ruofei to deal with.

These sentries were all single sentries. With Xia ruofei's current strength, they would not be able to detect him if he was behind them.

Xia ruofei would often launch a violent attack, but the sentries would not even react. Some of them would even faint before they could see Xia ruofei's face.

Xia ruofei was like a ghost in the dark night, harvesting free labor in the military camp.

Within 15 minutes, Xia ruofei had taken care of all the security guards.

About a hundred meters away from the campsite, there were a few hidden sentries. Xia ruofei did not bother with them for the time being.

After dealing with the sentries in the camp, he began to capture people from each tent.

These mercenaries had been fighting for days and were all very tired. In addition, they had been attacked by the government forces in the middle of the night, so they were even more exhausted.

After more than an hour, the tension gradually disappeared, and the mercenaries fell into a deep sleep, snoring in the tents.

The camp of the modr mercenary group used the kind of tents used by soldiers. Each tent could accommodate about ten people. There were a total of twelve such tents in the entire camp.

Xia ruofei started with the nearest tent.

Chapter 2403 Crazy_ There were two rows of waterproof mats inside the tent, and a narrow path in the middle.

At the entrance of the tent, there was a foldable gun rack, where the helmets and guns of the soldiers were placed neatly.

Xia ruofei had a military background and was very familiar with the layout of military tents in the wild, even the smell of sweat and feet in the air. He glanced at the mercenaries who were sleeping soundly and kept all the weapons and equipment at the door into his storage space before walking towards them.

The soldiers who were sleeping were the easiest to deal with. Xia ruofei did not even need to do anything. He could just treat them like objects and keep them in the spatial cage.

Therefore, he moved very quickly. Basically, within half a minute, a tent was swept clean.

He didn't stop for a moment. After leaving one tent, he immediately went into the adjacent tent.

Just like that, everything seemed to be going smoothly along the way.

However, just as Xia ruofei was about to enter the eleventh tent, he suddenly felt a chill run down his spine. This was his sharp perception of fatal danger.

Xia ruofei did not hesitate. He rolled and entered the tent.

Almost at the same time, a clear gunshot broke the silence of the night. A large – caliber pistol bullet hit the spot where Xia ruofei had just been standing.

Xia ruofei's expression changed slightly. He did not expect that he would still be discovered even as the operation was coming to an end!

Xia ruofei's ability to adapt was also very strong. When he sensed danger, he did not blindly avoid it. Instead, he made the right decision in an instant and slipped into the tent that he was about to enter.

As he rolled into the tent, Xia ruofei had already stored the weapons on the gun rack at the entrance of the tent into the spirit map space. At the same time, he used his spiritual power to envelop the nine soldiers in the tent.

The soldiers were all woken up by the gunshots at the same time.

However, Xia ruofei had already kept the people closest to him into the spatial cage.

Five more soldiers had woken up.

If they resisted when they were awake, Xia ruofei might fail to take them in.

This was different from mental hypnosis. If mental hypnosis was used, as long as the other party's mental power was much weaker than the caster's, it would basically be a crushing defeat. It would be difficult not to fall for it.

However, if one wanted to put someone into the spirit map space, as long as the other party had the intention to resist, the difficulty would increase exponentially.

Xia ruofei didn't know what the principle was, but he knew that it might be reasonable. Otherwise, the spirit map space was too heaven – defying. No matter if the other party was willing or not, it could directly put them into the space and then use its absolute control over the space to deal with the other party in any way.

Hence, after putting the four soldiers into the spatial cage, Xia ruofei saw that the rest of the soldiers had woken up. Without any hesitation, he stomped on the ground and pounced on the soldiers who were still in a daze.

After a few steps, Xia ruofei jumped up and stretched his body. He was almost turned over and kicked a soldier's chin in a mid – Air shot. Then, he twisted his body and elbowed the other soldier's chest.

The two of them didn't even make a sound as they fell to the ground like logs. Xia ruofei's body had also fallen sideways. At the same time, he put the two unconscious soldiers into the spatial cage.

The remaining three soldiers were charging towards Xia ruofei. They were stunned when they saw their two comrades disappear into thin air after being knocked down.

While they were still in a daze, Xia ruofei pushed himself off the ground and jumped up like a spring. He grabbed one of the soldiers by the shoulders and kneed him with his knee. The soldier felt as if his chest had been hit by a heavy truck and he fainted.

As Xia ruofei kept the soldier into the spatial cage, he jumped up from the ground and punched at the same time. The last two soldiers fell to the ground.

Xia ruofei took the opportunity to keep the two soldiers into the spatial cage.

From the gunshot to Xia ruofei rolling into the tent to him killing the nine soldiers, the entire process only took five to six seconds.

At this moment, outside the tent, Douglas, the leader of the modr mercenary group, rushed out of the last tent that Xia ruofei had not visited.

This tent was surrounded by 11 other tents and was located in the center of the camp. It was equivalent to the central Army tent in ancient times.

This was Douglas's resting place and also his command center.

The tent was divided into two compartments. Douglas rested in the inner compartment, while the outer compartment was used as a command center. A large military map was hung on the wall, and there were a few tables.

In the outer room, there was also a staff officer and an orderly on duty at night, so that Douglas could find them at any time if he needed help in the middle of the night.

However, the staff officer and the orderly were not on duty 24 hours a day. When it was time for lights out, they also fell asleep in the outer room.

Douglas was the kind of soldier who had truly experienced countless Wars. He used to be a special force soldier of the U.S. Military's 101st Airborne Division. After retirement, because he had no other life skills and was unwilling to live the rest of his life with the retirement fund issued by the government, he came to Africa and became a mercenary.

Chapter 2404 Crazy After the baptism of blood and fire, Douglas felt that a war – torn African country like vadira was the place he yearned for.

Douglas was born with a keen sense of danger.

In fact, Xia ruofei did not make any obvious mistakes during the entire operation.

Also, Douglas had already fallen asleep, but he still felt his heart palpitate in his sleep. When he woke up, he immediately felt that something was wrong.

There was no other reason than the fact that the military camp was too quiet.

Although the camp was quiet in the middle of the night, if one listened carefully, they could still hear some subtle sounds, such as the snoring of soldiers, the grinding of teeth, or the light footsteps of the patrol team.

Douglas was already used to the sounds in the military camp. When he woke up, he found that the sounds had almost disappeared. The absolute silence immediately alerted him.

Although he didn't think that someone could kill everyone in the military camp without them knowing, there was a strange feeling in this silence, which made him feel that something was wrong.

Douglas did not alert the staff officers and odd – Job soldiers on duty outside. Instead, he took out a pistol from under his pillow and looked out of the tent's window. He saw a black shadow coming out of one tent and walking to another.

With the help of the dim light in the camp, Douglas could tell from the man's attire that he was not one of his mercenaries.

Something had really happened! Douglas's heart skipped a beat.

However, Douglas was also a ruthless man. He didn't know how many enemies there were outside, nor did he know how many of his soldiers were still alive, but he didn't think so much at all. Almost subconsciously, he raised his pistol, aimed at the black shadow with a fierce look, and then pulled the trigger firmly.

However, the black shadow seemed to have been prepared for this. At the same time he fired, he rolled forward to avoid the shot and went into the tent.

After firing, Douglas naturally did not hesitate anymore. He rushed out of the tent and picked up a light machine gun.

At this time, the orderly and the staff officer on duty were also awakened. They were completely unaware of the situation. When they saw Douglas striding out with the light machine gun, they quickly got up from the camp bed, found their weapons in a hurry, and rushed out behind Douglas.

Douglas's face was very ugly. After the gunshot, the whole camp should have exploded like a pot, and the soldiers should have rushed out of the tents.

However, the scene in front of him was completely different from what he had imagined. The entire camp was quiet, and there was no movement at all. It was as if the three of them were the only ones left in the entire camp.

In fact, it was true. Not counting the five or six hidden sentries on the periphery and the nine soldiers that Xia ruofei had captured after entering the tent, there were only three people left in the camp – Douglas, his staff officer, and the odd – Job soldier.

The scene in front of them was strange. If the other party had wiped out the entire mercenary group without anyone knowing, it meant that the other party must have sent a lot of people. But now, not even a shadow could be seen. Not only did not one of their own come out, but the other party also did not appear, except for the black shadow that had just entered the tent.

The tent that the shadow had entered was also very quiet, as if all the soldiers inside had died. There was no sound of resistance.

Douglas had been through countless battles in the first half of his life. He had been to Iraq, Afghanistan, and the hot spots in the southern Alliance. He was a veteran, but this was the first time he had encountered such a thing.

However, he was a decisive person. After rushing out of the tent, he saw that the entire camp was dead. He only hesitated for a few seconds, then picked up the light machine gun with a ferocious expression. He aimed directly at the tent that the black shadow had just entered and pulled the trigger.

The light machine gun's muzzle spat out a dazzling tongue of fire, and the machine gun bullets rained down on the tent. In the blink of an eye, the tent was full of bullet holes, like a sieve.

However, Douglas did not stop. He gritted his teeth and kept shooting at the not – so – big tent. The canvas of the tent was torn and tattered. In the end, the tent simply collapsed because the skeleton kept breaking and getting shot.

Douglas did not drop the machine gun until all the bullets were used up. Then, he pulled out the pistol from his waist and walked toward the tent step by step with a murderous look.

The tent was made of waterproof canvas on all four sides. Although it was very thick, it could not block bullets at all. It could be said that there was no shelter at all inside the tent. Under such intense gunfire, not to mention people in the tent, even a rat would not be able to escape.

The staff officer on duty and the soldier on duty were also stunned when they saw Douglas firing at the tent. After all, there was a squad of soldiers living inside! Besides, they did not know what was going on. They did not see Xia ruofei enter the tent.

Therefore, the first thought that came to their minds was: Is the boss crazy?

Of course, the two of them had also noticed that something was wrong. Douglas had made such a big noise that he had directly destroyed a tent. It was very likely that even the soldiers inside had been beaten to a pulp. However, no one in the camp had rushed out.

Not only that, but even the sentries on the tower and the patrol team of the camp did not make any movements.

Where did these people go? More than a hundred living people, could they just disappear?

Not only did the staff officer on duty and the odd – Job soldier have such doubts, Douglas was also suspicious.

Tonight's events were too strange. Although he was sure that no one could survive the firepower just now, Douglas was still very careful. He raised his gun and approached the tent step by step.

He walked to the location of the tent and kicked away the scattered pieces of canvas and the tent skeleton on the ground while carefully searching.

At this moment, a piece of canvas beside Douglas suddenly bulged. Just as Douglas was on alert, a figure jumped out from under the canvas and pounced on Douglas ...

Chapter 2405 Destruction_Going back to half a minute ago.

Xia ruofei had just finished off the last two soldiers in the tent when Douglas rushed out of his tent.

Xia ruofei kept the two unconscious soldiers into the spatial cage. Immediately after, he felt a huge sense of danger. This warning was more obvious than ever.

He quickly scanned the direction of Douglas 'tent with his spiritual power. It was the only tent he had never visited. If there was any danger, it would most likely come from that direction.

At this time, Douglas had already raised his light machine gun and aimed at Xia ruofei's tent with a ferocious expression.

Xia ruofei's expression changed. He made the best decision in a split second. The tent had no effect on the bullets of a machine gun. Although Xia ruofei was in the tent, it was no different from being in an open area. Even if he was a cultivator and was much faster than the average person, could he be faster than a machine gun bullet?

Therefore, there was no way to hide now.

Xia ruofei did not hesitate at all. He immediately summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm and stuffed it under the mat beside him. Then, he entered the space with a thought.

Almost at the same time, machine gun bullets tore through the tent like raindrops, causing cotton wadding and rags to fly everywhere.

If Xia ruofei had been half a second late, he would have been in a bloody mess by now.

Although cultivators had strong bodies, Xia ruofei was only in the Qi refining stage. It was impossible for him to withstand bullets with his body.

After Xia ruofei entered the medium, he had been using a wisp of his spiritual power to check the situation outside. When he saw the terrifying scene in the tent, he felt a lingering fear.

If there were people in the tent at this time, it would have become a living hell.

At the same time, Xia ruofei was also secretly speechless. This Boulder Douglas was really ruthless! Douglas definitely didn't know that all the soldiers had been captured into the spirit map space. From Douglas' perspective, his soldiers must be in the tent. The only difference was whether the soldiers were alive or dead.

In fact, there was a high probability that the soldiers had been subdued by Xia ruofei and not killed.

If that was the case, then Douglas's machine gun would be completely indiscriminate.

Of course, Xia ruofei had grown up in the People's Army. Back then, he was in a completely different environment from these mercenaries. He just could not understand why a commander would be so indifferent to the lives of his soldiers.

Just as Xia ruofei's thoughts were running wild, Douglas had already thrown away the machine gun and was approaching the tent with a pistol in hand.

Xia ruofei also put away his distracting thoughts and focused on Douglas' every move.

As Douglas slowly approached the location of the spirit painting, Xia ruofei stood up as well. His muscles were all tensed up and he was ready to attack.

One step, two steps ...

Douglas's thick boots made a clicking sound when he stepped on the messy ground. He was naturally focused on the irregular spaces that were propped up by the messy tent skeletons, because only those spaces could possibly hide people ... Or corpses.

Naturally, Douglas did not pay any attention to the small scroll that was stuffed under the cushion. If there was a person under the cushion, he would be able to tell at a glance, unless the person could dig a hole big enough to hide in within a few seconds.

Xia ruofei's spiritual power was still sensing the outside world. When Douglas passed by the location of the spirit map scroll and took two steps forward, Xia ruofei gritted his teeth and left the space with a thought.

Now, he was already used to going in and out of the space, so he didn't feel dizzy at all. Moreover, he had very precise control over his position after he left the space.

Just as Douglas took his third step, Xia ruofei appeared exactly half a meter behind him. This was the best distance to attack.

As soon as Xia ruofei returned to the outside world, he was already prepared. He stomped on the ground and pounced on Douglas. He clenched his fist and hit Douglas 'chin with all his strength.

Douglas was indeed a battle – hardened veteran. He was able to react to the sudden attack because he had an extraordinary sense of danger. Although Xia ruofei's appearance was sudden and silent, he still felt his heart palpitate at that moment.

Douglas leaned his body to the side almost instinctively and raised his left arm to block.

Xia ruofei was a little surprised, but his movements did not slow down. His fist continued to make whooshing sounds as it smashed towards his face.

In the blink of an eye, their forearms had already touched.

There was a crack. When Douglas 'strong forearm collided with Xia ruofei's arm, it was broken like a fragile branch.

Douglas felt a sharp pain, but he also staggered back from the tremendous force.

Chapter 2406 The destruction of the Chinese mugwort (2)

At that moment, Douglas realized that his arm was broken.

However, this ruthless man did not subconsciously cover the fracture. Instead, he took advantage of the slight distance between them and aimed the gun at Xia ruofei with his right hand.

However, Xia ruofei's speed was beyond his imagination. He only felt a blur in front of his eyes and suddenly lost his target. Then, the feeling of extreme danger immediately surged in his heart.

Douglas had already felt the wind behind his head. He quickly crouched, trying to Dodge the thunderous attack with his instinctive reaction.

However, Xia ruofei had calculated his reaction this time. The original position of the attack was slightly lower. When Douglas squatted down, it was as if he had sent his face to his fist.

With a bang, Xia ruofei's fist and Douglas 'chin came into close contact.

Anyone who knew boxing would know that when a person's chin was hit by a heavy punch, there was a high probability of fainting. Even a strong professional boxer could not avoid it, not to mention that Douglas had not undergone professional resistance training.

Douglas immediately felt a shock in his head, and then he blacked out. Although he was extremely unwilling, he still fell to the ground involuntarily.

Xia ruofei immediately pulled Douglas into the space cage and locked him up.

From the moment Xia ruofei suddenly left the medium to the moment he fought with Douglas, to the moment Douglas fainted and Xia ruofei put him back into the medium, the entire process only took three to four seconds.

Douglas did not understand what was going on until the moment he passed out. He was especially puzzled as to why Xia ruofei had suddenly disappeared from his sight and then appeared behind him.

The staff officer on duty and the orderly who came with Douglas, on the other hand, had a clearer view of the process.

The two men had been following Douglas, about two or three meters behind him. They were also holding guns, mainly to guard Douglas 'two flanks.

When Xia ruofei suddenly appeared just now, Douglas was not at all surprised. The reason why he was able to Dodge the first attack and successfully block Xia ruofei's attack with his forearm was mainly because of his sense of danger. The staff officer on duty and the odd – Job soldier were at the back, so they had seen the entire process.

Therefore, the two of them were even more shocked than Douglas.

They had seen Xia ruofei appear out of thin air behind Douglas. It was like a teleportation array in a magic movie, full of mystery.

The two of them were so surprised that their mouths were wide open. The staff officer on duty even rubbed his eyes subconsciously.

The fight between Xia ruofei and Douglas was very short. Douglas was killed in just two moves. The whole process only took three to four seconds. The odd – Job soldiers and the staff officer on duty only came to their senses when Xia ruofei ended the fight.

However, what happened next stunned them again. Douglas, their boss, didn't do anything after he fainted, and then Douglas disappeared into thin air.

Both of their eyes were wide open, and their mouths were wide open. It was definitely not a problem to stuff a duck egg into their mouths.

At this moment, they couldn't help but think of the quiet military camp and the missing comrades.

Could it be that they had disappeared into thin air like boss?

But where could they go?

Their doubts were soon answered. After Xia ruofei had dealt with Douglas, he turned around without any hesitation and ran towards the two of them.

In such a confrontation, even a second of hesitation could lead to a completely different result, not to mention that the two of them had been stunned for a full four to five seconds.

If they were as decisive as Douglas and attacked Xia ruofei with their guns when he was attacking Douglas, Xia ruofei might not have been able to escape unscathed.

After all, the distance was too close. Facing a close – range shot from a gun, his reaction speed would definitely not be able to keep up.

Hence, Xia ruofei was actually gambling.

Of course, he wasn't completely without confidence. In fact, before he left the medium, he already had a rough plan and had deduced it in his mind.

When Xia ruofei was fighting with Douglas, he always took the most advantageous position. In other words, if the staff officer or the soldier on duty reacted faster than he expected, he could hide behind Douglas and use Douglas as a human shield.

However, the plan did not work. After taking care of Douglas, Xia ruofei's spiritual power immediately detected the sluggish state of the staff officer and the orderly on duty.

That was why he didn't stop and directly attacked the two.

On one side, he was extremely fast and had an imposing aura. On the other hand, they had missed the best time to shoot, and they were afraid of the mysterious means of the other party.

The final result was obvious.

Xia ruofei had already reached the top of his speed before the two men raised their guns. In the blink of an eye, he was in front of them.

At such a close distance, firearms were already useless.

In terms of skills, even before Xia ruofei started cultivating, he was confident that he could defeat them in the shortest time possible.

The result was as expected. Xia ruofei unreasonably used his speed and strength to launch a fierce attack on the two. The two barely managed to block and Dodge once or twice before they were knocked down by Xia ruofei.

The most dangerous moment had finally passed.

However, Xia ruofei did not let out a sigh of relief. The string in his heart was still tight. There were still five or six hidden sentries outside Xuanji! With such a huge commotion just now, they must have already returned to the camp.

Hence, after Xia ruofei had knocked out the staff officer and odd – Job soldier, he immediately captured them and threw them into the spatial cage. Then, he ran towards a tent at the side.

Although the tent couldn't block bullets, it could block his vision.

He hid behind the tent, and the hidden sentries in the other three directions could not discover his existence at the first moment.

At this moment, Xia ruofei activated his spiritual power to the extreme. The majestic spiritual power spread out in three directions.

The results of his investigation made him slightly surprised. There were a total of six hidden sentries in three directions, all of whom were lurking about 100 meters away from the camp, observing the enemy's situation in their respective directions at any time. Earlier on, there was a loud gunshot at the campsite and a tent had been torn into pieces. Logically speaking, the first reaction of these six hidden sentries should be to rush back with their guns. However, Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to investigate and discovered that four hidden sentries from two directions had actually chosen to run away from the campsite. They were running away in fear!

Only the two sentries in Xia ruofei's 12 o' clock direction were walking towards the campsite with nervous expressions.

Xia ruofei's eyes narrowed.

He was not afraid that they would surround him. After all, there were only six people left. Xia ruofei was not afraid at all.

But now, there were four hidden sentries running for their lives, and they were all running in four different directions. This gave him a bit of a headache.

If all six of them had fled, he could still chase after them without fear, but now there were two of them approaching the camp with guns.

Xia ruofei definitely did not want the situation here to be leaked out. Even if someone managed to escape, the possibility of his true identity being traced back to the source was very small. However, the strange situation in the camp would spread. If any cultivators were to know about it, they would easily guess that he had a storage space, a storage space that could contain life.

Although Xia ruofei didn't know what level of treasure a space like the spirit map world was in the cultivation world, he felt that it was definitely not ordinary. If there were still high – Level cultivators on earth, he might be tempted.

If cultivators wanted to investigate his arrangements, they would find some loopholes.

Hence, Xia ruofei could not allow anyone who had witnessed this scene to escape.

He could either put everyone into the spirit map space, or if the conditions did not allow it, then ...

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei did not hesitate anymore. With a thought, the blue flying sword that he had been nurturing in his dantian appeared silently. It hovered in front of him, the tip of the sword trembling slightly ...

Chapter 2407 Triumphant (1)

A distance of more than a hundred meters was within the range of Xia ruofei's spiritual power. If he were to use a flying sword to attack a cultivator from such a distance, he might not be confident. However, it was not a problem for him to attack a few ordinary people.

With a thought, Xia ruofei controlled the flying sword with his spiritual energy and it flew out, streaking across the night sky.

At the same time, Xia ruofei took out a sniper rifle from his storage space and aimed it at the two soldiers who were running in the other direction. He aimed, fired, aimed, and fired again ...

The action was done in one go.

The two soldiers who were running for their lives in the forest suddenly stopped. The inertia and the force of the sniper bullets caused their bodies to fall forward and face – down on the ground.

In fact, they were already dead before they fell to the ground. Xia ruofei had shot them in the back of their heads.

In another direction, the flying sword's speed exploded to the extreme under the control of mental power, bringing with it a faint sound of breaking through the air.

The two soldiers had run in different directions.

The blue traveling immortal sword cut through the night sky and caught up with one of the soldiers in a flash. A cold light flashed through the forest and circled around the soldier's neck. Then, without stopping, it drew a large arc and chased after the soldier in the other direction.

The soldier just now only felt his eyes flash, and then he felt a cold sensation on his neck. Then, his consciousness sank into eternal darkness ...

The other soldier also couldn't run far away. The two hidden sentries were very close to each other. Although they ran in different directions when they escaped, the distance between them wasn't far because they didn't last long.

In just two or three seconds, the flying sword caught up with the soldier.

Xia ruofei had just finished off two soldiers in the other direction with his sniper rifle. He threw the sniper rifle into the medium and without any emotion in his eyes, he used his spiritual energy to control the flying sword to accelerate and pierce through the Soldier's Heart.

The soldier watched helplessly as a sword ray pierced through his chest and quickly disappeared into the night.

It all happened so quickly that he could not believe his eyes.

It was also because the flying sword was extremely sharp that the wound did not immediately explode after piercing through the heart. The soldier covered his chest and still had time to feel this fear.

The heart was different from the other organs. It was constantly contracting and relaxing, sending blood to the brain like a water pump, forming a circulation throughout the body, so the pressure in the heart was actually very high.

It was naturally in vain to hold his chest. After a short one or two seconds, the wound in his heart began to bleed, and the amount of blood loss increased. Finally, the wound burst open.

The soldier felt as if all the strength in his body had been sucked out, and the loss of a large amount of blood made him feel cold. Finally, he fell to the ground, and his blood gradually seeped into the soil beneath him ...

By the time the second soldier died, the blue travel immortal sword had already returned to Xia ruofei. It hovered in front of him, the tip of the sword trembling slightly as if it had a life of its own.

Although the sword had taken two lives, there was not a trace of blood on the blue travel immortal sword. It was still as spotless as before, with a trace of cold light.

Xia ruofei kept the flying sword in his dantian and quickly spread out his spiritual power to make sure that no fish escaped the net.

Fortunately, other than the last two soldiers who were cautiously approaching the camp with their guns raised, there was no other living person in the vicinity.

Xia ruofei's psychic energy scanned the four bodies and he couldn't help but sigh. He wasn't feeling sorry for the four lives. These mercenaries had taken lives and they were believers of money. They only killed for money.

Those who kill will always be killed. This had been the case since ancient times.

Even if there was someone who had not been stained with blood, the only mistake he had made was choosing the modr organization. This organization was destined to be destroyed.

If one was weak, even if they killed the wrong person, they deserved it.

Xia ruofei only felt that it was a pity that he had lost four free laborers. If they did not run away, Xia ruofei would not want to take their lives.

Now that the spirit map space's primal realm was becoming more and more vast, large areas of land were abandoned. As for labor, the more the better.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not plan to kill the last two soldiers.

Xia ruofei's psychic energy had already locked onto the two soldiers, but they were obviously not in the right state. They were only alarmed by the sudden concentrated gunfire in the camp and returned to the camp to check.

However, the closer they got to the camp, the more they felt that something was wrong.

It was too quiet.

The two of them were even more careful because of this. They got closer, holding their guns and looking vigilant as they approached the camp step by step.

Xia ruofei didn't wait there. Instead, he took the initiative to meet her.

He went around to the side of the two, and when they were close to the camp gate, he suddenly jumped out of the grass and attacked the two with a whip kick.

There was no suspense in the result. Three seconds later, the last two soldiers were knocked unconscious on the ground.

Xia ruofei decisively kept them into the spatial cage. Then, without any delay, he flashed towards the place where the few soldiers had died.

Chapter 2408 Triumphant (2)

Xia ruofei collected the four dead bodies as fast as he could and returned to the quiet modr mercenary camp.

He threw the bodies of the soldiers in the open space in the middle of the camp, then quickly searched the entire camp. Anything that could be taken away was put into the spirit map space.

Of course, Xia ruofei did not touch the cars of the modr mercenary group.

The car was not useful in the spirit map space. Besides, such a heavy thing would consume a lot of mental energy. Xia ruofei naturally would not do something so strenuous and unrewarding.

The modr mercenary group did not carry a lot of guns and ammunition. Xia ruofei estimated that they could only support one or two battles. The anti – Government armed forces that hired them would probably be responsible for supplying them. Otherwise, it would be inconvenient for such a small army to carry a lot of ammunition when they went deep into the wadira Kingdom.

Xia ruofei kept all the ammunition and opened the valve of a small tank truck in the camp to let the gas out.

He used a barrel to collect some gasoline and poured it on the four dead soldiers. Then, he scattered some gasoline all over the camp.

In the end, Xia ruofei left all the TNT explosives in the campsite and quickly placed them all over the campsite. He even specially placed more around the bodies of the soldiers.

The situation in this area had always been tense, and the government forces came to attack at around 12 o' clock in the evening, indicating that the two camps were not far from each other.

Douglas had just used up all the bullets in the machine gun. In such a quiet night, the sound of gunfire would travel very far.

In addition, Xia ruofei had to deal with the last few hidden sentries for a while, so he had a sense of urgency in his heart. This was because there could be troops coming to check on the situation at any time. It could be from the anti – Government armed forces or the government.

No matter which side came, Xia ruofei did not want to meet them.

Therefore, he made arrangements to destroy the traces as quickly as possible, and then confirmed it with his spiritual power for the last time, and then quickly retreated.

When Xia ruofei dashed out of the camp, he started the lighter in his hand and casually threw it behind him.

The wind – proof lighter spun in the air and finally landed accurately on the position of the four bodies.

Then, Xia ruofei's speed increased by a huge margin and he sped away from the campsite.

After the lighter fell to the ground, it immediately ignited the gasoline on the ground. The flame rose and spread quickly. As long as there was gasoline, it would be burned.

A few seconds later, the explosives that Xia ruofei had set up were set off.

One after another, explosions rang out. Xia ruofei could even feel the shockwaves from the explosions behind him.

He exerted strength on his feet and burst out with his fastest speed without holding back, quickly rushing out of the forest.

At the edge of the forest, Xia ruofei changed back into his war reporter outfit and threw the black tights back into the medium.

This way, even if he encountered the military, he could have a reasonable explanation.

As a war correspondent, he happened to be active nearby. Hearing the huge explosion in the woods, he immediately rushed over to check the situation. This was a good reason.

Of course, this was also Xia ruofei's plan. It would be best if there were no more problems.

In fact, the nearby troops responded very quickly, but they were afraid of fighting the enemy in the middle of the night, so they were more cautious and only sent Scouts to check out the situation.

This also gave Xia ruofei a chance to leave this area.

As he ran, he used his spiritual power to maintain vigilance. When he sensed someone, he would quickly change direction or hide.

After running for more than 20 minutes, Xia ruofei was about five kilometers away from the camp. Of course, the actual distance he ran was far more than that.

Xia ruofei used his mental strength to check and made sure that there was no one around. He then took out the Ford SUV that Tony had left behind and drove away from the area. He headed Southeast, towards arulei's border.

The journey was another few hundred kilometers long.

Xia ruofei drove until the sun rose. He checked the navigation system and realized that they were only halfway there.

However, in theory, the further east they went, the more stable the situation would be.

These areas were still controlled by the government. The anti – Government armed forces could only send their men of sacrifice to create some chaos, such as the coffee shop explosion two days ago. They really didn't have the ability to start a large – scale battle in this area.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not need to use the cover of the night to drive. He decided not to rest and continued to drive towards the border area.

Along the way, they encountered a few checkpoints. Xia ruofei used Tony's identification and passed through them easily.

Just like that, they headed east. At five or six in the afternoon the next day, Xia ruofei finally arrived at the border area with arulei.

They had been driving for more than ten hours. Other than stopping to eat, they had not rested at all.

He drove the car to a remote roadside, put down the driver's seat, and half – lay in the car to rest for a while. When the sky was completely dark, he got out of the car and put the car into the space.

Then, under the cover of the night, he once again snuck across the border and came to arulei's side.

As they grew familiar with each other, Xia ruofei gained more and more experience in crossing the country's borders.

After returning to arulei, Xia ruofei also ran for a while before taking out the second – hand pickup truck from the medium. After changing to another car, Xia ruofei continued to drive towards the capital, arulei.

After more than two hours of travel, Xia ruofei finally returned to arulei.

He found a hidden place outside the city and put the pickup truck into his space. He didn't want to leave the pickup truck or Tony's Ford here. He was going to find a chance to sink both cars to the bottom of the sea after returning to China and completely destroy any possible clues.

Xia ruofei no longer had Tony's appearance. He quickly returned to Xia Tian's appearance on his passport.

Xia ruofei carried a huge backpack and walked for a while in the suburbs before he finally flagged down a taxi. He took a taxi to the hotel he had booked when he first arrived in arulei.

After arriving at the hotel, Xia ruofei first booked a flight from arulei to Ethiopia on the internet. Then, he bought a flight from Ethiopia to shencheng, China. Then, he simply packed his things and went downstairs to check out with his small suitcase.

In fact, besides the first day that Xia ruofei had checked in, he had not returned to the hotel for the past few days. The hotel staff knew about this.

However, as long as Xia ruofei paid for the room, they would not care if he stayed or not! There were indeed many people who had booked rooms but did not stay. Some of them were backpackers like Xia ruofei while others were involved in gray or black transactions. They often booked rooms and did not stay.

After checking out, Xia ruofei saw that there were still three hours before his flight took off. Hence, he decided to shop around arulei. When it was almost time, he took a taxi to the airport.

From arulei to Ethiopia although it was said to be crossing the country's border, the actual distance was not far. Hence, Xia ruofei once again sat on a plane that made squeaking sounds everywhere.

When the plane jumped up lightly, Xia ruofei could not help but think of the "spirited Chinese", the black guy with a curly beard, Dhaka.

Nadaka was ordered by Manzilla to go to Basoko town to check out the situation. This mission was destined to be impossible to complete. He would not be able to find out anything even if he reached the town of Basoko, let alone contact the Viper Boak. Even after returning to arulei city, he would find out that the high priest was missing in Dhaka.

Xia ruofei thought to himself, "I wonder how this passionate black guy is doing. I don't think I'll have much to do with him in the future." Also, I probably won't come back to arulei anymore ...

Chapter 2409 A strategy (1)

The plane was bumpy and finally arrived safely in the capital of Ethiopia, Ethiopia.

The return trip was on China National Airlines, which Xia ruofei had booked. This time, they were in a hurry. They only needed to wait for about two hours to transfer flights at the airport in Ethiopia. Hence, Xia ruofei did not leave the airport this time. He rested for a while in the first – Class waiting room set up by China Airlines at the airport in Ethiopia before boarding the plane back home.

It was another ten – hour day and night flight. They boarded at around 7 p.m. Local time in Ethiopia and arrived at Shen Cheng at around 3 p.m. Chinese time.

After returning to the country, Xia ruofei used the identity of ‘Xia Tian’ to buy a ticket for the fastest flight to the capital.

At Seveno’ clock in the evening, Xia ruofei finally returned to the courtyard house in liuhai Lane in the capital city after a day’s travel.

Xia ruofei did not want to expose his whereabouts, so he did not inform Wu Qiang to pick him up.

After he came out of the airport, he took a taxi directly to the vicinity of Wang Fujing. He found a shopping mall with a lot of people, changed back to his original appearance in the bathroom, and changed his clothes. Then, he walked out and stopped a taxi to go home.

Wu Qiang was already used to Xia ruofei going back and forth. He was also very tight – lipped and never asked much.

However, Xia ruofei laughed and said, “I went to a homestay in the countryside with my friends for a few days to change my mind. I feel much more relaxed!”

He said this when he entered the door. Not only did he say it for Wu Qiang to hear, but the few veterans in charge of security in the front yard also heard it.

It was not that Xia ruofei did not trust them, but he was cautious out of habit. Besides, no one knew if the Veterans, including Wu Qiang, would accidentally reveal it. Xia ruofei had told them where he had been these few days so that even if someone wanted to trick them, they would not reveal it.

Furthermore, Xia ruofei did not take any high – speed rail or plane these days. In theory, he should be around the capital. As for the identity of “Xia Tian,” he did not leave the capital directly. In addition, there were so many people entering and leaving the country every day. Under normal circumstances, no one would notice him.

Xia ruofei declined Wu Qiang’s sister – in – Law, Wu Xiujian, who had prepared supper for him. He said that he was tired and wanted to take a bath and rest.

Wu Qiang, Wu Xiujian, Xia Xiaolan, and the others naturally left tactfully, leaving Xia ruofei alone in the master’s courtyard in the middle.

After Xia ruofei returned to his room, he locked the door and windows.

He was not in a hurry to take out the spirit map. Even though there were two hundred free laborers in the medium and a basin – sized realm stone waiting for the medium to absorb, Xia ruofei was more concerned about another problem.

That was Liu haojun’s problem.

Now, Xia ruofei had clear evidence that Liu haojun was the mastermind behind the assassination of song Qiming.

Although he didn't know Liu haojun's motive for doing so, he was the one who did it. There was no doubt about it.

According to Xia ruofei's style, he should have killed Liu haojun.

He didn't even want such a person to be free labor for his spirit map space.

However, it was not difficult to kill Liu haojun without leaving any clues. It was not difficult for Xia ruofei either. He was just hesitating whether to do so.

Killing Liu haojun silently would not maximize the benefits.

More importantly, everyone in the Liu family knew that the conflict between Liu haojun and Xia ruofei was irreconcilable.

With Liu haojun dead, Xia ruofei would be a major suspect regardless of whether there were any clues.

Unless they found the "murderer", Xia ruofei would definitely be suspected. Even if the Liu family had to rely on Xia ruofei to treat old master Liu and they would not show it for the time being, there would definitely be a thorn in their hearts.

If it was not necessary, Xia ruofei did not want such a powerful family to hate him to the bone.

Although he wasn't afraid of any external threats, his company was in China. His friends and employees were all in China. The Liu family couldn't touch him. If they wanted to set some obstacles for his company or even the people close to him, it would be impossible to guard against them.

Xia ruofei furrowed his brows and thought for a while, then let out a long sigh.

In the end, it was because he was not strong enough. If he could really reach the legendary power of flying in the sky, burrowing into the ground, and destroying a city with a wave of his hand, why would he be afraid of a mere secular family?

He killed one person in ten steps and left no trace for a thousand miles.

If he wanted to settle his grudges like a swordsman, he must first have the strength of a swordsman.

Although Xia ruofei was no longer an ordinary person, he was still at a lower level among the cultivators. Not to mention the state apparatus, even if he was up against a family like the Liu family, it would be easy for them to cause trouble even if they could not threaten his safety.

After much consideration, Xia ruofei decided to listen to elder song's opinion.

Although he knew that he would have no chance to secretly kill Liu haojun if he told elder song, he still felt that it was better than making a move rashly and causing a lot of trouble.

He also believed that after elder song received this important piece of information, he would handle it well and maximize the benefits.

Chapter 2410 A strategy (2)

Xia ruofei looked at his watch. It was around 7:30 in the evening. According to elder song's daily routine, he should not be asleep yet.

So he took out his phone, found the number of elder song's personal secretary, manager Lu, and called.

Since he had already made a decision, he should not drag things out or hesitate.

This had always been Xia ruofei's way of doing things.

Manager Lu picked up the phone quickly and said enthusiastically, "RUO Fei, how are you?"

"Good day, manager Lu!" Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "may I ask if Grandpa song is resting now?"

"The chief is still reading." Manager Lu said, "do you need me to get him to answer the phone?"

Manager Lu knew very well that something must have happened for Xia ruofei to call at this time.

Xia ruofei said, "manager Lu, it's an important matter. If it's convenient for Grandpa song, I'd like to come over and report to him in person." Why don't ... I trouble you to ask him for instructions?"

Manager Lu was slightly taken aback. At this time, even if Xia ruofei had something to say, he would have said it tomorrow. Since he wanted to report it overnight, it must be very important.

However, manager Lu couldn't make the decision for elder song. He said, "No problem! I'll go ask the Chief for instructions immediately. I don't think he'll refuse. Ruofei, to save time, I suggest you leave now. I'll call you as soon as I have any news."

Elder song usually went back to his room to rest at eight o'clock or nine o'clock at the latest, so the departure time was a little tight now. Of course, this was not absolute. If the matter was really important, what was the big deal with resting a little later?

Manager Lu only made this suggestion because he treated Xia ruofei as one of his own. If it was someone else, he would not have meddled in their business! Of course, it was almost impossible for the others to get an audience with elder song at this time.

"I understand! Thank you, manager Lu! Then I'll set off now!" Xia ruofei said.

After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei did not call Wu Qiang. Instead, he went straight to the garage in the backyard and drove the Land Rover out of the siheyuan. He headed in the direction of the song family's old residence.

In the song family's residence, manager Lu walked quietly to the study and bowed slightly. "Chief, RUO Fei just called. He said that he has something very important to report to you tonight."

Elder song raised his eyebrows and put down his thread-bound book. At the same time, he took off his reading glasses.

He laughed and said, "this little guy has been in Beijing for so many days, but he only came to see me once in the first two days. Then, he disappeared!" Why are you suddenly so late today?"

Manager Lu wasn't sure of elder song's thoughts, but he couldn't just ignore it. He could only say with a trace of hesitation, "Then ... Should I reject him? Just tell him that you're going to rest, and let him ..."

“There’s no need. “Elder song waved his hand. RUO Fei knew his limits. Since he insisted on coming over so late at night, it showed that the matter was indeed very important. Besides ... I treat this little guy like my grandson. Which grandson would want to see his grandfather? it depends on the time. ”

Manager Lu couldn’t help but feel envious of Xia ruofei. He quickly said,””Understood, I’ll inform him immediately!”

“En,” eccentric song nodded and said,”personally inform the sentries outside.”

“Yes!” Manager Lu said.

.....

Half an hour later, Xia ruofei appeared in elder song’s study.

“Grandpa song!” Xia ruofei called out and then said,”it’s so late ... Will it disturb your rest?”

Eccentric song chuckled and waved his hand. “I’m fine! My body is very strong now, and I’m full of energy! Sit down!”

Xia ruofei sat down opposite elder song.

At this moment, manager Lu personally brought Xia ruofei a cup of tea. Xia ruofei quickly stood up and said,””Manager Lu, how could I trouble you to personally pour the water?”

Manager Lu’s rank was at least that of a provincial official. Xia ruofei naturally could not treat him as an ordinary Secretary.

Of course, manager Lu only served Xia ruofei personally to show his closeness. There were many staff members in the song family, so it was not up to him, the Butler, to serve the tea.

“We’re all family, no need to be so polite!”Manager Lu smiled.

Manager Lu then turned to elder song and said,””Chief, you guys take your time to chat. I’ll go down first!”

Elder song looked at Xia ruofei and saw that he had no intention of asking manager Lu to stay. He nodded and said,””Alright, Xiao Lu, you can go and rest! I don’t have anything to do tonight. ”

“Yes, chief!” Manager Lu replied.

Then, he nodded at Xia ruofei and closed the door of the study.

Although he responded quickly, he would be on standby as long as elder song was still awake.

After manager Lu left, elder song smiled at Xia ruofei and said,””Ruofei, tell me! What’s so important that even Xiao Lu can’t hear it ...”

Xia ruofei scratched his head in embarrassment. He had no intention of hiding it from manager Lu. It was just that this matter was indeed shocking and he had to keep it to the minimum.

He organized his words in his mind and said, ""Grandpa song, it's like this ... I've found the mastermind behind the assassination of Secretary song, but this matter has a lot of implications and I can't make a decision, so I wanted to ask you for advice."

Eccentric song couldn't help but raise his eyebrows and sit up straight. "Tell me the details!"

"Yes!" Xia ruofei said, "according to my investigation, the person who killed Secretary song is from an assassin organization called mord. After following the clues, I finally found out that ... The person who hired this assassin organization to kill Secretary song was ... Was ... Liu haojun! He first passed ..."

"Wait!" Elder song waved his hand and asked with a serious look, "the Liu haojun you're talking about ... Is He Liu Qunfeng's son?"

He wasn't very familiar with the younger generation of the Liu family, but Liu haojun had just gotten into an accident some time ago, so he still had a deep impression of him.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "yes!" He was currently out of town, working in one of the Liu family's holding companies. He was the one who connected the company's computer to the internet and posted the mission on the secret forum of the Morde mercenary group. Then, he used his Switzerland bank account to transfer the deposit to the Morde mercenary group. "

Then, Xia ruofei took out a stack of printed photos from his bag and handed them to elder song. "These were all found through technical means, and they basically formed a complete chain of evidence. We can confirm that the mastermind behind this incident is Liu haojun!"

Elder song immediately took the stack of photos, put on his reading glasses, and looked at them carefully.

Xia ruofei had taken screenshots from Manzila's computer and printed them out. There were records of the modr organization's website, including the IP address of the order and the messages left by the customers. There was also the actual address and bank account information that was traced according to the fixed IP.

While elder song was looking at the pictures, Xia ruofei explained, ""This is the actual address that was determined based on the IP address. Liu haojun was just assigned to work there by the Liu family not long ago ... The bank account he made the payment to is called 'MR LIU'!"

Elder song's heart was in turmoil. If these pictures were not photoshopped, then this evidence alone was enough to prove that the person who assassinated song Qiming was Liu haojun!

It could be said to be an irrefutable evidence!

Of course, elder song also believed that Xia ruofei would not use the photoshopped picture to frame Liu haojun. Even if Liu haojun and Xia ruofei had a deep conflict, elder song believed in Xia ruofei's character and thought that he would never do that.

Besides, it was easy to find out that the photos were fake. Xia ruofei would not make such a low – Level mistake.

Therefore, elder song didn't doubt the authenticity of the picture at all.

After he finished looking at the last picture, he couldn't help but slam the stack of pictures on the desk and said angrily, "He's really too Savage!"
