Chapter 2561 President Xia_stop using your magical power

PP sports's commentator, Shen fangjian, couldn't help but say,""These three goals, no matter which one of them is singled out, could be the best goal of the season. And with three such wonderful goals in the same game, it's simply a visual feast!"

"Let's not forget Wu Lei's goal. It was his goal that blew the horn of the Spanish team's counterattack!" Jia Tianning said,"and I noticed that in this game, Wu Lei has made great progress in terms of self – confidence, physical confrontation, ball protection, and even the grasp of opportunities in front of the goal. We are very happy to see that Wu Lei is adapting to the pace of La Liga at a very fast speed! I believe that this goal is just the beginning. We have reason to be full of expectations for his next performance!"

Jia Tianning was indeed worthy of the title of the Vice master of Wu Chui Hall. Even when all the attention was focused on Xia ruofei, he still didn't forget Wu Lei and was still praising him.

Espanyol did not celebrate for a long time. After all, this was Valencia's home ground. They had already conceded a goal, and if they continued to celebrate on their field, it would be like rubbing salt on their wounds. So, after they thanked the visiting fans, they quickly returned to the locker room.

When the competition ended, it was not even five in the morning in China. At this time, most people were still in their dreams, but the internet platform was unprecedentedly lively.

Some fans went to bed early, set an alarm at threeo' clock, and specifically got up to watch the game. Some people just wanted to watch Wu Lei at the beginning. If Wu Lei did not play for a long time or was replaced after he played, these fans would definitely not watch the entire game.

No one had expected this match to be so exciting. The process was full of twists and turns, and the result was even more exciting.

It was already big news that Xia ruofei had suddenly become a player of Espanyol. His performance in this game had made many people who had doubted him at the beginning even more embarrassed.

The Chinese players took all four goals from the Spanish team. Xia ruofei scored a hat – trick, and almost all the threatening shots were related to Xia ruofei and Wu Lei. Also, don't forget that Wu Lei's goal was an assist from Xia ruofei. On the other hand, Xia ruofei's long – ranged shot came from Wu Lei's pass. The free kick that Xia ruofei scored was also created by Wu Lei.

The only thing that Xia ruofei did was to feed him a biscuit, but he spat it out. This also resulted in Xia ruofei's half – turn and mid – Air shot, which was a replica of the fairy from beyond the heavens, allowing him to perform a hat – trick.

After watching the game, how could the Chinese fans go back to sleep?

Their minds were in a state of excitement, and the sky was about to brighten, so almost no one went to sleep. These people were naturally browsing Weibo, forums, Tieba, and so on.

#Xia ruofei's hat – trick in La Liga #This topic was No. 1 on Weibo's hot search list without any suspense.

The team of a certain popular young hunk had just started to hype up a piece of news and spent a lot of money to buy the hot search. In the end, when he woke up in the morning, he almost cried and fainted in the toilet.

If it was said that the main people who were browsing Weibo and forums in the early hours of the morning were the fans who stayed up late to watch the game, then after dawn, this group was not limited to fans, or rather, it was not limited to hardcore fans.

Some people also liked football, but they would not stay up at two or three o'clock in the morning to watch it. Generally speaking, if there was a game they were concerned about, they would read the news after waking up to see the results or find a game compilation to watch.

After watching the highlights of the match between Espanyol and Valencia, the fans could not help but beat their chests and stamp their feet in regret.

If he had known that there would be such an exciting show, even if he went to the office to doze off during the day, he would have stayed up all night to watch it!

There were also some people who did not usually watch football, but when they saw the top trending search on Weibo, they could not help but click on it to take a look. Anyone who saw the video or gif of Xia ruofei's three goals could not help but be amazed.

When Xia ruofei saw the most searched topic, he was already on the bus to the airport.

Xia ruofei was naturally in a good mood after his hat – trick and the team's victory.

He casually took a close – up shot of the ball used in the game. The ball had the signatures of the Spanish team, as well as Xia ruofei's own notes on the game time and goal time. He planned to keep it at home as a memento.

Xia ruofei posted the picture of the ball on Weibo. The content was one word: Cool! Then, he naughtily brought up the topic #Xia ruofei's hat – trick in La Liga #.

Xia ruofei's Weibo post increased the popularity of the top trending topic by a lot. Now, the number one spot was even more stable. The young man who had paid a lot of money to buy the top trending topic was firmly pressed at the second place. If he wanted to get the number one spot, he would have to wait until Xia ruofei's popularity faded.

With Xia ruofei's current momentum on the internet, it would be hard to get rid of him on the hot search list no matter how much money he spent.

As soon as Xia ruofei's Weibo post was posted, a large number of fans and netizens flooded in. Everyone left comments, reposted, and liked excitedly.

As time went by, the major online platforms also welcomed the peak of users. At this time, many people were on the subway or bus to work. During this time, the majority of people used Weibo and forums.

Xia ruofei's Weibo post and the video of Xia ruofei's goal were reposted by a large number of netizens.

Everyone soon realized that the Weibo platform seemed to have become a little sluggish. They could not even download all the pictures they opened, and the videos they watched were also lagging. It was as if they had returned to the 2G era.

This kind of stagnation lasted for about half an hour before it began to slowly recover.

People didn't notice it at first because there were many reasons for the network to be jammed, especially in the underground high – speed subway. The network itself wasn't very good, so it was common for the network to be jammed, so many people thought that it was their mobile phone's network card.

However, the official Weibo released a message very quickly: As there were too many visitors at the same time, there was a certain lag. Our technical team has already adjusted the bandwidth at the first moment, and the current access has been restored. We are deeply sorry for the inconvenience and bad experience we have brought to you.

There was nothing special about this message. After all, the other party did not say the reason.

However, another Weibo post was quickly reposted by everyone.

The user ID of this Weibo post was “the lion that can attack the city.” The verification information showed that he was an engineer of the official technical team of Weibo. This ID was also quite famous and would answer technical questions from time to time on Weibo, so his identity was basically confirmed. It was said that this “the lion that can attack the city” was also the head of a certain group in the technical team.

“The lion that can attack the city” ‘s Weibo post made everyone finally know the “culprit” who had been stuck for more than half an hour.

He wrote on Weibo, “the server is stable, it's all CEO Xia's fault!” President Xia, can you inform us in advance the next time you want to do something? The nurse is here to put me on a drip!

“The lion that can attack the city” tagged Xia ruofei in this Weibo post and attached two pictures. One was of him wearing a patient's garb while sitting on a hospital bed and working overtime on his laptop. The other was Weibo's top search list. The top topic was about Xia ruofei's hat – trick and it was circled in red.

The truth was finally revealed to the world!

It turned out that the Weibo server was stuck because of Xia ruofei's hot topic.

The netizens who knew the truth laughed and shouted at Xia ruofei, “President Xia, quickly withdraw your divine power!

Chapter 2562 Hot search killer (1)

Netizens expressed sympathy for the programmer who was called up to work overtime at Five O' clock in the morning while he was hospitalized – as more information was disclosed, everyone knew that this “Lion that can attack the city” was hospitalized because of acute gastroenteritis – they didn't expect that such a problem would occur after leaving work for only one day – so he could only helplessly work overtime on his laptop in the hospital.

The CEO of Weibo also personally confirmed this matter.

His Weibo ID “coming and going” was no longer a secret, and the netizens affectionately called him “boss Lai.”

“CEO Lai” replied to the many curious questions from the netizens and said that it was because Xia ruofei’s topic was so popular that there were too many people visiting and searching at the same time, causing the server to be stuck.

Some netizens were very curious and asked the Weibo technician how he managed to expand the server with a laptop in the ward.

“President Lai” also said without hiding anything, We rented the Cloud Virtual Machine urgently and logged out after a few hours of simultaneous visits.

With the authoritative confirmation from the CEO of Weibo, the fact that Xia ruofei’s hat – trick in La Liga caused Weibo to be stuck was confirmed.

The netizens were also having a great time. They reposted “the lion that can attack the city” and “CEO Lai” ‘s Weibo posts and tagged Xia ruofei in groups.

When Xia ruofei returned to Barcelona, it was already close to midnight. He went back to the hotel to wash up and go to bed. He had no idea that the impact of the game was brewing on the Internet in China.

The next morning, after he woke up, he casually checked Weibo and found out about this.

Xia ruofei didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. However, he still posted on Weibo and tagged “the lion that can attack cities”.

Xia ruofei wrote on Weibo, “brother, I’m sorry. I didn’t expect to bring you so much trouble.” In order to express my apology, I want to give you the Jersey I wore in yesterday’s game. I’ll get all the players to sign it. Please send me your address.

On Weibo, Xia ruofei even attached a picture of the Jersey of the number 25 player.

Of course, this was a picture that he had downloaded from the club’s online store. After the match last night, the club’s management realized that Xia ruofei would definitely become very popular. So, they arranged for the store to put the number 25 Jersey with Xia ruofei’s name on the shelves for sale. Soon, physical stores would also start to sell this Jersey. It could be imagined that the sales would be very popular.

Xia ruofei’s own Jersey was taken away by the staff after he changed out of it in the changing room. Under normal circumstances, it would be cleaned and hung in the corresponding position in the changing room before Xia ruofei’s next match.

The management of the club had become more and more professional. The players did not need to worry about things like washing the jerseys and washing the shoes. They only needed to focus on playing well.

Xia ruofei's popularity on the internet was no less than that of any hot young man. When his Weibo account released news, Weibo's official Department was responsible for monitoring it. Moreover, the Weibo server almost went down because of him yesterday. Hence, Weibo naturally paid more attention to it.

"The lion that can attack cities" was an internal staff member of Weibo. Even though he was in the hospital, he received the news very quickly after Xia ruofei's Weibo post.

The real name of "Lion that can attack the city" was Ding Kai, and he was a programmer for Weibo.

He was very excited when he saw Xia on Weibo.

Ding Kai was not a hardcore fan, but if he had time, he would still watch football games, especially the national team's games. He would watch the national football team as much as he could. Although many people scolded the national football team, it represented China after all. Many fans were sad about their misfortune and angry about their lack of competition, but at the same time, they could not help but want to watch the national football team's games.

In fact, although Ding Kai was called up to work overtime before dawn, he saw that it was because of the hat-trick of a Chinese player in La Liga that caused a large number of netizens to flood the Weibo platform and caused the jam. Moreover, the Chinese player was Xia ruofei, who had been on the hot search several times on the Weibo platform. Therefore, although Ding Kai was tired from working while he was sick, he was in a very good mood. It could be said that he was tired and happy.

Seeing that Xia ruofei was going to give him the Jersey that he had worn during the match last night, Ding Kai quickly sent Xia ruofei an address in a private message. The Jersey was too memorable. It was Xia ruofei's first professional football game and the first hat-trick of a Chinese player in La Liga.

Furthermore, there would be signatures from the entire Spain first team above the ball, which would be even more memorable.

After Xia ruofei's Weibo post, the netizens liked it one after another. They thought that this was what a high-quality idol should do, even though Xia ruofei had never admitted that he was an idol.

After a while, "the lion that can attack cities" posted on Weibo. The content was: I've already sent the address to President Xia, but I didn't expect President Xia to reply to me within seconds. I'm so touched!

The Weibo post was attached with a screenshot of "the lion that can attack the city" 's private message interface. Everyone could clearly see the conversation between Xia ruofei and him.

Of course, the detailed address was blurred out.

The lion that can siege: "director Xia, my address is ." In fact, I was just doing my job. It was a joke to complain on the internet. I didn't expect the netizens to stir up this matter ...

Chapter 2563 Hot search killer (2)

Xia ruofei: "smiley face""smiley face" no matter what, objectively speaking, it has indeed affected your work. I wanted to give you a ball for yesterday's game, but I only took one ball yesterday. It was a hat-trick, so I'll keep the ball for myself! That's why I changed it to the Jersey I wore yesterday. I hope you don't mind.

City Siege Lion: “President Xia, you’re too kind!” Why would I dislike it? I’m so happy that I’m going crazy. I can’t express my excitement with words. Thank you, President Xia!

Xia ruofei replied, “you’re welcome, you’re welcome ...”

After the netizens saw the screenshot of the private message, they all praised Xia ruofei for being approachable.

Some of Xia ruofei’s fans liked to call him “overbearing President”. This somewhat vulgar nickname was also widely circulated. So, those who did not know Xia ruofei well would subconsciously think that Xia ruofei was a little cold and overbearing when they saw this nickname.

This was a preconceived prejudice, and it was human nature. Xia ruofei could not change it, and of course, he had no intention of changing it. He had never cared too much about what others thought of him.

The private message that “the lion that can siege” had screenshotted changed many people’s impression of Xia ruofei.

After Xia ruofei replied to “the lion that can attack the city” ‘s private message, he stopped paying attention to Weibo. His Weibo would receive a large number of private messages, comments, likes, and mentions every day. If he looked at and dealt with every single one of them, he would not have anything else to do for the rest of the day.

Xia ruofei gave Jiang Xiaochen a call and told him that he was going to give the Jersey to “the lion that can attack cities”. He also sent the address to Jiang Xiaochen and asked him to arrange for the staff to mail it back to China.

Just as Xia ruofei was about to head downstairs for breakfast, Feng Jing, who had stayed behind at the company headquarters, called.

It should be around noon in China. To be precise, it should be around one or two in the afternoon. Feng Jing had called at this time, so she must have calculated the time difference and knew that Xia ruofei should have just woken up.

“Sister Che!” Xia ruofei answered the call with a smile.

Feng Rao couldn’t help but say, “you’re the most irresponsible boss I’ve ever seen!” You don’t usually appear in the company and run around all day. This time, you actually went to Spain to play a game? Don’t tell me you’re going to play professional football in the future!”

“I won ‘t!” Xia ruofei quickly said, “I’m thinking about our company! I’m just playing around, how can I stay here forever?”

“You can play a hat – trick by kicking!” Feng Rao said, “what if you kick seriously?”

“Naturally, I’ll kill any God or Buddha that blocks my way!” Xia ruofei said without hesitation, “even if it’s bar?a, I can break their goal!”

“You’ve really gotten into character!” Feng Jing pouted and said, “don’t forget that you’re still the head of paradise Corporation and the backbone of everyone. Don’t get so happy that you forget your home!”

“How could that be!” Xia ruofei said, “I’m going to return to China with Xue Jinshan and the others. I may help the Spanish play a few games in the future, but I definitely won’t stay here for too long.”

Xia ruofei, her boss, really worried her to death. He usually did not do his job and did not care much about the company’s business. What was more, he often disappeared. She was really worried that Xia ruofei would be hot – headed and change his career to a professional player.

Feng Rao continued, “ruofei, you don’t say ... After this match, you’re almost the king of popularity!” In the future, our company doesn’t need to hire a spokesperson at all. You can just be the spokesperson for yourself, hehehe ...”

Xia ruofei touched his nose and smiled. “I’ll feed myself a bag of salt? Aren’t you afraid that I’ll be struck to death?”

Feng Ye was stunned for a moment before he realized what Xia ruofei meant. He couldn’t help but burst out laughing.

“I’m serious, ruofei.” Feng Rao continued. Your popularity right now is simply too explosive. If you don’t make use of it, it would be a waste of God’s gift! I have a preliminary idea. Can you organize a lucky draw event on your personal Weibo account and our company’s official account? The prize would be your Espanyol jersey or the area around some other team. I think the Spanish clubs will design some of your exclusive peripheral products!”

“The number 25 Jersey is already on sale. The peripheral products should also be in the design phase. I think they will be released soon.” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “I’ll leave it to you to make the arrangements. I have no objections.” Anyway, Yanan and the others can also log in to my Weibo account. As for the prizes, other than the Jersey I wore last night, there are no problems with the rest. I’ll just let the club know. ”

“I was just about to talk about that Jersey! That Jersey has a very high commemorative value. If it can be used as a grand prize, it will definitely attract a lot of people!” Feng ke said.

“I’ve already given this Jersey away!” Xia ruofei said, “it seems like sister ran doesn’t care about me enough! I gave out this Jersey on Weibo!”

After that, Xia ruofei briefly told Feng Jing about the “city – attacking Lion”.

Feng Rao’s pretty face became slightly hot as she said, “That’s fine too. The publicity will be even better this way. I’m sure your Weibo account will gain a lot of fans this time!”

Xia ruofei didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. “Sister che, we don’t have to worry about sales. Why are you so keen on online marketing?”

“You don’t know how expensive rice and firewood are!” Feng Jing said coyly, “right now, our products are in short supply, but the pharmaceutical factory’s production scale will expand by several times soon. Don’t we need to digest this production capacity? And what if we launch new products in the future? Having a big V account, the publicity effect is much better than spending money on advertisements. I’m just preparing for a rainy day!”

“Yes, yes, yes! Sister ran is far – sighted, I admire you!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “anyway, we’ll do as you’ve planned! I have no objection ... Also, I’ll be back in two days, so let’s talk face to face!”

“Alright! Then we’ll talk about it after you come back!” Feng Rao said straightforwardly.

After Xia ruofei hung up the phone, he changed into a set of casual sportswear and went downstairs for breakfast.

To Xia ruofei’s surprise, many people had already remembered him after yesterday’s match. There were even two fans asking for his autograph at the entrance of the buffet restaurant.

Xia ruofei didn’t put on any airs. He immediately signed for them and agreed to take a picture with them.

Feng Jing’s style had always been Swift and decisive. Under her arrangements, Xia ruofei’s personal account and the peach blossom company’s official account quickly displayed the lucky draw event.

The condition to join the event was to follow the account and tag two friends.

The prize was a set of No. 25 Spanish home Jersey.

This series of actions had increased the number of fans on peach blossom company’s official Weibo. There was no need to mention Xia ruofei’s personal account. The number of fans had already exceeded 50 million. He was considered a very influential big V on the Weibo platform.

On Weibo’s hot search list, #Xia ruofei’s hat – trick in La Liga # was the most popular topic. Half a day had passed and it was still at the top of the hot search list.

Xia ruofei’s heroic image seemed to be more popular with the netizens than those young and fresh meat.

Under this topic was a certain popular young hunk who had almost no works, as well as a celebrity couple who had just announced their divorce.

These people had more or less bought the hot search through different channels, but they did not expect the competition on the hot search list to be so fierce. They did not even see any hope of reaching the top because the hot topic #Xia ruofei’s hat trick in La Liga # was still rising in a steep curve and did not seem to be declining at all.

Hence, Xia ruofei was given the nickname ‘the hot search killer’!

As long as she competed with him for the trending Searches, even if he didn’t spend a single cent and his competitors spent a lot of money to hire entertainment public relations companies to operate, the final result would still be Xia ruofei’s victory ...

Chapter 2564 High evaluation_1

The domestic sports media was also in high spirits. The headlines were exaggerated and full of praise for Xia ruofei. Overnight, Xia ruofei had become the Savior of Chinese football.

Some of the media had also edited out Xia ruofei's every touch of the ball in the game, especially the three highly exciting goals. They did not miss any slow – Motion replay from any angle.

This highlight reel was also very popular on the internet. Many fans watched it over and over again and felt that they could not get enough.

The weakness of Chinese football made the Chinese fans 'expectations for good players far exceed those of developed football countries. Previously, Wu Lei, who had come to play in La Liga with great difficulty, was jokingly called "the hope of the whole village" by the fans. Now, Xia ruofei had appeared out of nowhere and his performance was even more eye – catching than Wu Lei. How could the fans suppress their excitement?

There were even fans who formed groups and left messages under the official account of the Chinese Football Association, requesting for Xia ruofei to join the Chinese national team and compete in the world Cup Asian Qualifiers starting next year.

In fact, the Chinese Football Association was also confused. Over the years, many of the actions of the Chinese Football Association had been criticized by people, such as the outsider leading the professionals, bureaucracy, administrative intervention, and so on. A large number of officials and referees had fallen in the Anti – Corruption campaign in the football world, which had directly brought Chinese football into the darkest decade.

But this time, the Chinese Football Association's reaction was actually quite fast.

However, they were completely unaware of the situation. Xia ruofei was not a registered player of the Chinese Football Association. He was registered directly in Spain. Besides, Xia ruofei was not even a person in the football circle. The Chinese Football Association did not even know how to contact Xia ruofei.

In the end, they found out that Xia ruofei was actually a popular person on the Chinese internet. However, he had nothing to do with football in the past. He even started a company, which could also be called an internet celebrity company.

After seeking the opinion of the technical Committee, the Chinese Football Association really had the idea of recruiting Xia ruofei. However, Xia ruofei had almost no interaction with the professional football circle. Secondly, he had no agent or anything. In addition, the Asian preliminaries would start in the second half of next year. Before that, the national football association did not have any major competition tasks, so they were not in a particularly urgent time.

Hence, the Chinese Football Association tried to fax an official letter to paradise Corporation, hoping to get in touch with Xia ruofei's work. This was also a relatively cautious approach. After all, Xia ruofei had only played one game, and there were no other game videos for reference. If he was directly recruited, it would be a bit of a show.

However, the peach blossom company didn't respond to this, and the Chinese Football Association couldn't do anything. In the face of the calls from the netizens and fans, they could only use their best tricks and pretend that they could not see it.

In fact, in addition to the Chinese sports media, the Spain media also made a large report on the originally ordinary La Liga.

The match between Espanyol and Valencia was the first match in La Liga. The matches between Real Madrid, Barcelona, and other strong teams were held the next day, so everyone naturally focused on the exciting match.

A goal – scoring battle, winning against a stronger opponent, a Super World wave, a genius who came out of the football desert ... There were too many things to watch in this game.

"Sports daily" posted "famous in one battle!" As the title, the match was reported on the front page. The report was accompanied by a large picture of Xia ruofei's back as he stood on the spot and shouted after he had blasted that wonderful half – turn high – Air shot. The number 25 on his Jersey was very clear. Other than him, the rest of the background had been blurred out, making the back look even taller and more majestic.

In the report, The Sports Daily wrote, "We've seen too many people in the world of football who became famous with one goal. We've seen too many geniuses, but I have to say that number 25 of Spain must be the most brilliant among the stars. This player from China conquered the fans with just one game. Three goals, each one is worth savoring. Each one can still be talked about many years later. Each one is enough to be recorded in the history of football!"

The Maca news also used an entire page to report on the match. To be precise, it was a report on Xia ruofei's amazing performance.

The Maca newspaper even quoted the post – Match interview.

The Spanish manager, Ruby, said, Xia ruofei was the most talented player he had ever seen with the most accurate and stable footwork. His contribution to the team was unquestionable. He would be an important member of the team.

Ruby was not stingy with his praise for the Chinese player, Wu Lei. He said, "Wu Lei's speed of adapting to La Liga had exceeded his expectations. Compared to the previous game, Wu Lei's performance in this game was more calm and confident, which was what the entire team liked to see.

Whether it was the process or the result, it was clear that the Spanish team's commander Ruby was quite satisfied.

In contrast, the Valencia team's manager, Maselino, seemed a little disappointed that the three points he had gotten had become one point, and then he could not even keep a draw. He had to accept the result of losing to the weak RCD Espanyol at home. Any manager would feel very disappointed.

Chapter 2565 High evaluation_2

However, maserino was still very gentlemanly. He did not hesitate to praise the two Chinese players of the Spanish team."There is no doubt that the two Chinese players on the other side dominated the game today! Number 24 is very intelligent. His running in the front field has caused us a lot of trouble; On the other hand, summer's performance on the 25th was even more phenomenal. It could be said that he had turned the team's defeat into victory with his own ability. If you want to ask me why we lost today, I only want to say one thing: That is, Spain has Xia, but we don 't!"

Similarly, the Spanish players were full of praise for Xia ruofei. For example, Xia ruofei's "fanboy", mark Roka, said in an interview,""Mr. Xia is my idol! The effect of his arrival is immediate and can improve the strength of the Spanish team by a large margin!"

There were also the Spanish team's main center forward, Iglesia, Captain Lopez, main center back, Naldo, and others. They all gave high praise to Xia ruofei's performance in front of the reporters. In addition to the fact that Xia ruofei was a shareholder of the club, it was more because he had completely conquered the hearts of the fans and teammates with one game.

The players also expressed enough goodwill to Wu Lei, who was also from China. They all said that because of the language barrier, they did not communicate much with Wu Lei, but they could feel that Wu Lei was a very good person. Everyone was getting more and more tacit during training.

When everyone saw a Chinese Billboard or poster, Wu Lei would teach everyone the Chinese pronunciation of the advertisement, and now many players on the team had learned a few simple Chinese words.

In short, the atmosphere within the Spanish team could be said to be harmonious.

Of course, there were also those who did not welcome Wu Lei's arrival, such as melondo and puado, who were produced by the Spain youth training.

Pouado had been brought off the field early on because of his poor performance, but Wu Lei, who replaced him, had a wonderful performance. He was already biased against Chinese players, which made him even more upset.

Even though Metatron did not say it, he did look down on Wu Lei. Melondo was a little clingy on the field. Often, when the football was in his phase, the rhythm would slow down, and he rarely passed the ball to Wu Lei. However, his performance in the last game was terrible, especially in the second half when he was almost invisible.

Their terrible performance clearly served as a foil to Xia ruofei and Wu Lei's outstanding performance.

How could they feel comfortable?

However, with this kind of dissatisfaction, they naturally would not accept the media's interview. Even if they were asked questions about Wu Lei and Xia ruofei, they did not dare to publicly express their dissatisfaction. Otherwise, it would destroy the stability of the locker room. The two of them were just young players. Their weight was too light. Moreover, Xia ruofei was a shareholder of the club. Even if they were dissatisfied, they did not dare to publicly express it.

In addition to reporting on the post – Match interviews, marca also interviewed the managers of the other La Liga teams and famous football stars, asking them to make their comments on Xia ruofei.

Real Madrid's manager, Zidane, said, "after yesterday's game, a lot of people called me and asked me to see Xia's goal. There were also a lot of people like you who wanted me to evaluate the goal." What I want to say is that there are no two completely identical leaves in the world, and the same is true for the world of football. It is because of the infinite possibilities that football has such a great charm that attracts us! Indeed, Xia's wonderful world wave was similar to my goal in the past, but it was also unique! If I had to make a comparison between the two goals, I even think ... Xia's goal was more brilliant!"

After giving Xia ruofei's half – turn and mid – Air shot, which was a copy of the heavenly fairy, a very high evaluation, Zidane also gave Xia ruofei a further evaluation. He said, "Short – lived? No, no, no! I don't think so! In fact, I spent more than an hour today watching the entire video of that game from the moment Xia was brought on. "From a head coach's point of view, Xia's wonderful play was not just in those three goals. His every touch of the ball was very reasonable, his vision was very wide, and his physical fitness was stronger than most players. I think he is an extremely good player and can play the role of B2B's midfield commander. He played a very important and decisive role in both the offense and defense of the team! In the next season, Spain's opponents will have a headache. Of course, this also includes our Real Madrid team!"

Zidane's evaluation of Xia ruofei was quite high, even beyond many people's expectations. After all, Xia ruofei had only played in one game, and he was a substitute. Even though he had an extremely outstanding performance, many people still held a judgmental attitude. In history, there were many players who had performed very well in a few games or even a season, but quickly faded away. Xia ruofei's performance in only one game, no matter how good he was, was not rare. After all, it was not that convincing.

However, Zidane was a legendary star player who had been very successful as a player and had a very high starting point as a manager. His observation perspective was naturally different from that of ordinary people. As he had said himself, after he had carefully analyzed Xia ruofei's game, he had seen many things that ordinary fans and even coaches could not see. That was why he had made such a judgment.

Chapter 2566 High evaluation_3

In addition to Zidane, Marca also interviewed the managers of several other La Liga teams and some well – known star players. They were also full of praise for Xia ruofei, especially those three goals, which were repeatedly mentioned.

Barça's manager, Valverde, even publicly said, "A good player like Xia should have a bigger stage, such as the Copa del Rey ...

Of course, the authenticity of the Barcelona manager's offer of an olive branch to Xia ruofei was still open to discussion.

As the Spanish's arch – enemy in the same city, Barça naturally did not mind disgusting the Spanish team. If they could shake the morale of the other side, it would naturally be better.

Of course, they could not rule out the possibility that Barcelona was really interested in Xia ruofei. After all, any professional manager would be amazed by Xia ruofei's strength after a careful analysis of that game.

In the face of Barcelona's head coach, valverde's open poaching, Ruby was very calm. He said, "I think Mr. Valwei must not have woken up! A Spaniard joining Barça? He must be telling a cold joke... Besides, Mr. Xia ruofei is not for sale in the Spanish team. He is now, he will be, and he will always be!"

Ruby's response was quite firm. Of course, this was a normal attitude as a mortal enemy of the same city.

However, regardless of Ruby or the other players of Espanyol, they intentionally or unintentionally avoided a question in the interview. Xia ruofei could not play for Espanyol for the entire season. At most, he could come over to support in some key games. From now to the end of the season, it was estimated that he would only play three or four games at most. It would not be appropriate to play more.

After all, Xia ruofei was mostly in China. Every time he played for the Spaniards, he had to fly a long distance across Eurasia. Moreover, he was a shareholder of the club. Who would dare to let the boss travel back and forth like this?

It was just that Ruby and the others deliberately didn't mention this matter, which was a little interesting.

In the next few rounds, Spain's opponents would spend a lot of effort studying Xia ruofei and setting up targeted defensive tactics.

Ruby had even planned to put Xia ruofei on the list as a smokescreen. There were 23 people on the list, and only 14 people could actually fight. It did not matter if one person was missing.

On the other hand, the Spanish team's opponents only found out that Xia ruofei was not in the starting list when the game was about to start. He did not even come to the field. The expressions on their faces must have been very interesting.

The key was that many of the tactics he had laid out before were useless. It was like a boxer who had accumulated enough strength to punch out, only to find that the opponent had suddenly disappeared. This punch hit the air, and it was easy to hurt himself.

This was the case for these teams. When the time came to adjust the tactics at the last minute, to what extent could the players implement it? Would there be any loopholes in their coordination? These were all very possible.

This was the part that Xia ruofei could still play for the team even if he did not play in the game.

Xia ruofei didn't care about the troubles in La Liga.

On the second day after the competition, he had already boarded Paradise's private plane and was ready to fly back to China.

On the same plane as him were, of course, Xue Jinshan and the other employees of the Paradise company.

In addition, there was one more unlucky employee who needed to take a commercial flight back to China. Zhou leiyun had also decided to return to China, and he hoped to “hitch a ride”.

Naturally, Xia ruofei would not refuse, so he could only ask Xue Jinshan and the others to choose another “unlucky” person to change to a civil flight.

On Sunday afternoon, local time, the “peach origin” took off from Barcelona Airport and flew East ...

Chapter 2567 Xia ruofei's small fortune (1)

The return trip was almost the same as the return trip. Even though the peach source had no problem flying directly to Sanshan at full fuel, Captain Liu An still arranged Dubai Airport as a transit point for safety considerations. They would land in Dubai to refuel before continuing their flight to Sanshan.

After about 11 hours of long – distance flight, paradise smoothly landed on the runway of San Shan Chang Ping International Airport.

Initially, Xia ruofei had wanted to arrange for the crew to rest at the three mountains for a short while. After refueling, they would continue to send Zhou leiyun to Beijing.

However, Zhou leiyun declined politely. He had already asked glory world corporation's Southeast Branch to arrange a Business Charter flight for him in advance. He could board the plane as soon as he got off paradise and fly directly to Beijing.

In fact, Zhou leiyun had also traveled to Spain in a private jet. With his status and wealth, he would often travel in a team of more than ten people, so it was more convenient to take a private jet.

However, he wanted to maintain a close relationship with Xia ruofei, so he came here to' fly '.

Furthermore, Xia ruofei's flight crew had just made a long distance flight of more than ten hours. He would feel bad if he had to use this flight crew to escort him to the capital.

Although he had come to the three mountains alone and his team had taken his private jet back to the capital, glory World group's Southeast Branch had already made arrangements and rented a pombady public jet from the navigation company in the three mountains to protect him.

The facts proved how important it was to “cater to his interests”!

Zhou leiyun did not have to pay much for Xia ruofei to become a shareholder of RCD Espanyol. In fact, he had made a profit.

He had invested in football clubs for advertising benefits, not to make money. The number of shares did not matter as long as it did not affect his decision – making power in the club.

Although he had thinned his shares by nearly half, his voting rights at the shareholders 'meeting had not changed. He was also the club chairman.

And what he got in return was an additional advantage. Xia ruofei's joining of the RCD Espanyol club was beyond his expectations, but the effect was surprisingly good. It was no exaggeration to say that the away game against Valencia on Saturday had raised the Spaniards 'popularity in China to a peak. Xia ruofei's hat – trick and the three more brilliant goals that made up the hat – trick had dominated the Weibo hot search list for two days.

Now, the whole country, whether they knew how to play or not, was talking about Xia ruofei. In the past, only a few fans knew about the Spanish clubs. Now, even some old men and women would talk about glory world Corporation investing in a club in the Spanish league One after their spare time. It was awesome!

Although they did not know the status of La Liga in the world of football, it did not stop them from talking about it. When the popularity of an event reached a certain level, it was not limited to the vertical.

The peach origin arrived at the three mountains at about 6 am on a Monday in China. There were only a few hours left before the opening of the Chinese stock market. Many experts had analyzed yesterday that the share price of the provincial group would take advantage of this extremely positive East wind and usher in a wave of sharp rises.

Glory world Corporation was huge. Every little increase in the share price meant that Zhou leiyun's net worth would increase by a large margin.

This was much better than how many members, jerseys, and merchandise a Football Club could sell.

In some sense, Xia ruofei's joining of the Spanish club was like a stroke of genius. It had a much greater impact than the previous introduction of Wu Lei.

All of this was because Zhou leiyun had invited Xia ruofei to invest in the football club.

If Xia ruofei did not happen to like football, if Zhou leiyun did not try and grab this opportunity, how could there be such a good situation today?

This was only in terms of economic benefits. What Zhou leiyun valued more was that this investment had allowed him and Xia ruofei to form an alliance in a sense. From the time when Zhou Yuan had offended Xia ruofei, it had caused a Rift between the two of them. Now, not only had the grudges disappeared, but their relationship had also become so close. Only Zhou leiyun himself knew how hard it was to achieve this.

To be able to form a close alliance with Xia ruofei was Zhou leiyun's greatest gain.

Zhou leiyun's smile was still on his face even after he boarded the pombady public jet flying to the capital. He was in a very good mood.

Xia ruofei, Xue Jinshan, and the other employees left the airport on the Coster arranged by the company.

The car first arrived at the jiangbin villa district and sent Xia ruofei home. As the company's chairman, it was only natural for him to enjoy this little "privilege." In fact, if it were another boss, they would definitely arrange a special car instead of taking the shuttle bus with the employees.

Xia ruofei did not let the car enter the neighborhood. The morning air was fresh. He chose to get off at the entrance of the neighborhood and walked in.

The environment in such a good villa district in the city was naturally very good.

Xia ruofei dragged his small suitcase and walked along the road of the community. He sniffed the fragrance of the grass and trees, feeling relaxed and happy.

At the same time, he also felt a little sad about Xuxu. Not long ago, he had lived in a small rental house in the shanty town with a terminal illness and his entire life was dark. But now, everything had changed. He had achieved financial freedom. Not only did he have a big house to live in, but he even had a private jet when he traveled. It could be said that the difference was like heaven and earth.

Chapter 2568 Xia ruofei's small fortune (2)

And all of this was brought to him by the magical spirit map space.

When they passed by Feng Jing's little terrace, Xia ruofei looked up and saw that there were already a few clothes hanging on the balcony. It seemed that Feng Jing had moved in.

However, Feng Jing must have left for the office by now. Xia ruofei did not stop and continued to walk in the direction of his villa.

After a while, Xia ruofei returned home.

When he pushed open the door to the courtyard, he keenly discovered that there was someone in his house.

However, his nerves only tensed up for a moment before they relaxed again. This was because he could already sense that the person in his house was Ling Qingxue. At this moment, Ling Qingxue was busy in the kitchen.

A warm smile appeared on Xia ruofei's face and he couldn't help but walk faster.

He quietly opened the door and walked into the villa. He gently leaned the suitcase against the front door cabinet and then tiptoed to the kitchen next door.

Ling Qingxue was humming a song as she fried an egg in the kitchen. She was in a good mood.

In reality, Ling Qingxue did not inherit Ling Xiaotian's cooking skills at all. When she first met Xia ruofei, Xia ruofei had never let her cook again after he had tried her cooking once because it was too unpalatable.

Today, Ling Qingxue had come over early to prepare breakfast. Naturally, it was because she had found out last night that Xia ruofei would be returning home today. She had even specially reported it to Ling Xiaotian and asked for half a day's leave.

Usually, the company would have a regular meeting on Monday morning. It was simply unimaginable for her to take leave at this time.

Ling Qingxue still looked a little unfamiliar when she was frying the eggs. However, she was wearing an apron and her face was filled with a sincere smile, which warmed Xia ruofei's heart.

With his cultivation level, it would be too easy for Ling Qingxue to not notice him.

Xia ruofei went behind Ling Qingxue, but she still didn't notice.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but gently put his arms around Ling Qingxue's waist. At that moment, Ling Qingxue realized that there was someone behind her. Her body stiffened, but she quickly relaxed when she smelled the familiar scent on Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei gently leaned his head on Ling Qingxue's shoulder, greedily smelling the fragrance of her hair. He said softly, "Wife, I'm back!"

Ling Qingxue pouted and said, "you're so annoying!" You didn't even make a sound when you walked, you scared me to death!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "you're already at refined Qi Level 4. Normal gangsters can't beat you!" What's there to be afraid of?"

Ling Qingxue gently leaned into Xia ruofei's arms and chuckled. "But there's a big hooligan who's already at refined Qi level 9. I can't beat him! What do we do?"

Xia ruofei blew into Ling Qingxue's ear and said, "What else can we do? I can only give in to him!"

Ling Qingxue struggled out of Xia ruofei's arms, embarrassed and annoyed. She blushed and said, "How annoying!"

At this moment, a burnt smell came from the pan, and Ling Qingxue finally came back to her senses. She turned off the fire in a hurry and said, "It's all your fault! The eggs are all fried!"

Xia ruofei took a look and said with a smile, "It's fine, I don't want this egg ... Also, wife, leave this kind of rough work to me! You go rest in the living room!"

"I was going to make you breakfast ..." Ling Qingxue pouted.

Xia ruofei saw that there were already two fried eggs on his plate. The price was just a little off. He smiled and said, "How about this! I'll eat these two eggs, and I'll fry two more for you! Can I?"

"Alright then ..." Ling Qingxue nodded.

With that, she took off the apron and solemnly put it on Xia ruofei. She said sternly, "Comrade Xia ruofei, I'll leave this glorious post to you!"

Xia ruofei also stood at attention and said, "Yes! Don't worry, I'll complete the mission!"

Ling Qingxue couldn't help but burst out laughing. She blushed and kissed Xia ruofei on the cheek like a Dragonfly skimming the surface of the water. Then, she giggled and left the kitchen.

Xia ruofei touched his face and smiled.

He quickly got to work in the kitchen. First, he threw away the half – burnt fried egg, then washed the pot several times, poured in the vegetable oil again, and picked up an egg.

Xia ruofei skillfully cracked the egg on the edge of the pot and then broke the shell ...

After a short while, two fried eggs were ready. Compared to the mixture of the egg white and egg yolk that Ling Qingxue had just fried, these two fried eggs were simply a piece of art. They were almost perfectly round, with a thin layer of egg white wrapped around the entire egg yolk. Some chopped green onions were sprinkled on top of it, and just looking at it was appetizing.

Then, Xia ruofei opened the refrigerator and saw that it was full of ingredients. It was obvious that Ling Qingxue had bought them yesterday. He could not help but feel warm inside.

Xia ruofei took out some bread and baked a few pieces. Then, he heated up two glasses of milk. Soon, two exquisite breakfasts were ready.

Xia ruofei brought the breakfast to the restaurant next door and smiled. "My wife! Wash your hands and come over for breakfast!"

"They're coming!" Ling Qingxue soon arrived at the dining room. She looked at the breakfast on the table. The two eggs she had fried looked a little out of place, as if two piles of cow dung had suddenly appeared in an exquisite garden ...

Ling Qingxue imagined this scene. Then, she thought of how Xia ruofei had to eat these two "cow dung" and couldn't help but burst into laughter.

Naturally, Xia ruofei did not know what Ling Qingxue was thinking. He looked at Ling Qingxue in confusion and smiled. "What are you laughing at? Quickly sit down and eat! I just baked this bread, and this milk, I specially took skimmed pure milk. You can drink it without worry, you definitely won't get fat!"

"Oh, I made these two fried eggs. Try them!" Xia ruofei said again. Then, he brought the two eggs that Ling Qingxue had fried in front of him and said, "these two are mine! I'm so happy just thinking about it!"

Ling Qingxue looked at the fried egg in front of her and then at the "cow dung" in front of Xia ruofei. She felt bad and said hesitantly, "Why don't we ... Switch ..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Xia ruofei covered the plate in front of him and said, "No! No! His wife made it herself, and he wouldn't exchange it for anything! Don't even think about it!"

Although Ling Qingxue knew that Xia ruofei was exaggerating on purpose, she still felt warm in her heart. She chuckled and said, "Don't blame me if it's not good!"

"How can it not taste good?" Xia ruofei said, "there's a wife's love in this!"

"It's too mushy! Even I can't take it anymore ..." Ling Qingxue couldn't help but blush. "Eat! Eat it! I won't snatch it from you ..."

Xia ruofei chuckled, picked up a fried egg, and took a big bite.

He had already mentally prepared himself for the worst, so when he ate it, he was a little surprised. Although the Yingying didn't look too good, at least it was edible. It was just that the heat was too old, and the egg yolk was all solid. Also, Ling Qingxue probably didn't know that salt was needed to fry eggs, so the taste was quite light.

However, Xia ruofei did not show it. Instead, he gobbled down the entire fried egg in big mouthfuls. Then, he gave Ling Qingxue a thumbs up and said, "My wife! The taste was very good! Your cooking skills have improved a lot!"

Ling Qingxue asked in disbelief, "Really? You're not saying this to comfort me, are you?"

"Why Would I Lie to You?" Xia ruofei said, "it's really delicious!"

With that, Xia ruofei immediately picked up another fried egg and finished it in no time. He did not even give Ling Qingxue a chance to try it.

Seeing Xia ruofei's face of enjoyment, Ling Qingxue mumbled doubtfully, "Really? I don't even have confidence in myself ..."

Then, she picked up Xia ruofei's fried egg and took a bite. The egg yolk slowly flowed out, and a fragrant smell filled the air ...

Xia ruofei's fried eggs were really delicious!

The two of them chatted casually as they ate breakfast, and the air was filled with happiness.

Haruki Murakami's words were very appropriate for a small but accurate happiness and satisfaction.

Two people in love, preparing breakfast together, leisurely enjoying the food prepared by each other, and chatting about topics that would never end.

Sometimes, happiness was really that simple ...

Chapter 2569 Busy and busy (1)

During breakfast, Xia ruofei found out that Ling Qingxue had taken leave today and did not have to go to work the entire morning.

So after the two finished eating, they didn't need to talk, just a look.

Xia ruofei's phone, which he had casually thrown on the desk, rang.

Xia ruofei released his spiritual power and turned off the power on his phone. The disturbing ringing stopped abruptly.

After the two of them took a hot bath, Xia ruofei wrapped himself in a bathrobe and walked to the desk. He picked up his phone and turned it on.

Soon, a string of text message notifications came from the phone.

There were many people who called him. Yingying's match on Saturday had started at about 3 a.m. Chinese time on Sunday. By the time it ended, it was almost dawn. After a day of brewing, this matter had formed a huge impact on the internet. Xia ruofei had turned off his phone during the ten – hour flight. It was almost Monday, so all the calls for him were concentrated at this time.

Xia ruofei glanced around and saw that it was a call from his company's director's assistant, Qin Yanan, Zhao Yongjun, Song Rui, his friends, Tang Yitian in Australia, and Tang He in the United States he even saw the eldest son of the Liu family, Liu Qunfeng.

Xia ruofei naturally put Liu Qunfeng's call as the last priority.

He muttered to himself for a moment before calling Qin Yanan back. Qin Yanan must be looking for him for work. He had already been free for more than half a month, and now that he was back at the three mountains, he naturally had to put work first.

Xia ruofei heard a ring on the other end and Qin Yanan quickly picked up. "Chairman, I hope I didn't disturb you just now?"

Xia ruofei immediately knew that the call was from Qin Yanan. If it was someone else, he would have turned off his phone and would not have asked if it was a bother.

Xia ruofei was a little embarrassed and said, "I was just about to answer the phone! My phone ran out of battery, and I couldn't find the charger ... Yanan, what's the matter?"

Xia ruofei's explanation was very reasonable. When the phone was ringing, he would press the power button for a long time. The effect was the same as pulling out the battery of old phones, so Qin Yanan naturally didn't think too much about it.

"Chairman, I have a few things to report to you," she said. The first thing is that the company received a fax official letter from the Chinese Football Association yesterday. They want to meet you, mainly to discuss the possibility of you joining the Chinese men's football team in the future ..."

When she said this, Qin Yanan still had a strange feeling. When she saw the overwhelming news on the internet yesterday, she was really shocked. She didn't expect her boss to have this skill. He was simply a superstar who was delayed by his business!

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "Did they fax it over? Also, didn't you make any phone calls?"

"I haven't received any yet." Qin Yanan said, "they directly fax it to the fax machine that our company announces to the public. That fax machine receives it automatically." I've asked around, but I didn't receive any calls. "

Xia ruofei couldn't help but shake his head.

The contact information that the Paradise company had announced to the public included the company's fax number, phone number, and so on. These were all managed by professionals, and the Chinese Football Association only needed to go to the Paradise company's official website to inquire about it.

In fact, they must have used this method to inquire, but they just sent a cold official letter. Were they waiting for the Paradise Corporation to contact them? He really did act like an official!

They were probably already used to this mode. As the boss of the industry, who would dare to not reply?

However, the Paradise Corporation was not a Football Club in the domestic league, and the Chinese Football Association had no jurisdiction over the Paradise Corporation. Why should they spoil their bad habits?

Xia ruofei said directly, "then let's just pretend that this never happened!" If the other party calls, try to delay it. I won't agree, but I won't reject either. "

Xia ruofei was more cautious about this matter. He knew that the domestic football circle was very deep. Besides, he could not reject it immediately. Otherwise, if he left evidence, he would be accused of "refusing to play for the country". It would be a little disgusting.

Therefore, since the Chinese Football Association did not pay much attention, he would just play dumb at this stage.

Qin Yanan immediately understood and said, "I know what to do, Chairman. There was one more thing. Director Xue had received a request for instructions. Considering that they had just taken over the pharmaceutical Group, the equipment installation, debugging, and personnel training were currently being carried out in full swing. They felt that it was best to follow the principle of purchasing nearby raw materials and sign a supply and marketing contract with the surrounding villagers in advance. President Feng agreed to their proposal in principle and asked me to ask you for instructions. "

"Didn't Kanayama just fly back from Spain with us?" Xia ruofei laughed. How come you've already sent me a request for instructions?"

"It's probably the other leaders of the pharmaceutical factory. This request was already sent to the company headquarters yesterday. You were still on the plane at the time!" Qin Yanan said with a smile.

Xia ruofei did not find this strange. Communication was so advanced now. Even if Xue Jinshan was overseas, it was easy to control remotely. Moreover, with Xue Jinshan's personality, it was unrealistic to ask him to completely ignore his work while he was abroad for a week.

Chapter 2570 Busy and busy (2)

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "sure." However, I must remind them that the scale of this purchase doesn't need to be too large. I still have other supply channels, so there's no need to worry about the problem of raw materials in the future. "

Now, there were already hundreds of people working for Xia ruofei in the spirit map space. The speed of opening up the herb garden was also very fast. Moreover, the large herb garden was used to grow the herbs needed for the heart nourishing soup and jaded skin cream.

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that even if they didn't rely on purchasing at all, the vast mountain and sea realm in the spirit map space would have enough medicinal herbs to supply the needs of the pharmaceutical factory.

Because the environment in the space was really too unique, the medicinal herbs that were planted would grow rapidly, and they didn't need much maintenance. One person could manage a large medicinal garden.

"I understand. I'll report your opinion to chief Feng and send the approval to the pharmaceutical factory as soon as possible." Qin Yanan said.

"Yanan, if there's nothing important, wait for me to come to the company." Xia ruofei said, "I'm taking a day off today. I'll probably go over tomorrow."

"Alright, Chairman. I won't disturb you any longer!" Qin Yanan said.

After hanging up, Xia ruofei called back his elders and friends one by one.

Everyone was shocked by the news yesterday, so they couldn't help but call to ask about the situation.

Xia ruofei's explanation to everyone was similar. He had liked to play football since he was young. This time, he had bought a certain percentage of the Spanish club's shares and simply registered it with the Spanish football Association. It was purely for fun, and it could be considered as fulfilling his football dream when he was a student.

As for his performance in the game on Saturday, Xia ruofei laughed and said that he was lucky. He also said that his focus was still in China and would not really play in the professional league.

One hour passed by after the phone calls.

Xia ruofei smiled at Ling Qingxue, who was watching dramas on her iPad and said, "Wife, look at how popular we are!"

Ling Qingxue laughed and said, "look at you!" If you didn't play a game, who would call you for no reason!"

As if he was trying to anger Ling Qingxue, Xia ruofei's phone rang again.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh out loud. Ling Qingxue, on the other hand, glanced at Xia ruofei unhappily. She wrapped herself tightly in the blanket and looked at the iPad again.

Xia ruofei glanced at the caller ID. It was Liu Qunfeng. He had returned a few calls, but he had forgotten to return Liu Qunfeng's call.

Since the other party had already called, Xia ruofei did not pick up. He waited for a few seconds before he swiped the answer button and said calmly, "I'm sorry! My phone was on silent just now, so I didn't pick up your call."

On the other end of the phone, Liu Qunfeng laughed and said, "It doesn't matter! It didn't matter! I know that Mr. Xia is very busy, and I'm embarrassed to disturb you."

"Is there something you need me for?" Xia ruofei asked directly.

"Mr. Xia, I would like to ask, when will you return to the capital?" "I want to treat you to a meal to express my gratitude," Liu Qunfeng said. In addition ... My father's medicine is also fast ..."

The last time Xia ruofei left the capital, he had left enough pills for old master Liu to eat for a month. Now, he had used up more than half of them.

After seeing the news about Xia ruofei yesterday, Liu Qunfeng was a little scared. He was afraid that Xia ruofei would really settle down in Spain. What would happen to old man Liu's illness?

During this period of time, old man Liu had been taking the pills every day, and his body was getting better day by day.

However, Xia ruofei controlled the dosage very well. Although elder Liu's condition had improved, he still had a long way to go before he could fully recover.

If it was in the past, they would have already prayed to the heavens if they could stop her condition from worsening.

But now, he could see the hope of recovery, although the speed of recovery was a little slow. Liu Qunfeng was starting to get a little greedy again.

Besides, he was more worried that if Xia ruofei really did not come back, his father's condition would worsen if he did not get a timely supplement after he finished the batch of pills.

If Xia ruofei were to stay in Spain they would not be able to do anything to him.

That was why Liu Qunfeng couldn't wait to get in touch with Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "I've counted the days. Elder Liu's medicine should be able to last for at least half a month ... You didn't give him an overdose, did you? I've told you before that you can't take too much of this medicine!"

"No, I didn't! I don't have any!" Liu Qunfeng quickly said, "we gave it to my father according to your medical advice." There are only 14 pills left. Mr. Xia, we're not sure if you'll be able to take care of things in Beijing, so we hope that you'll be able to stay here. "

"Of course, this is only a request from the Liu family. We will not interfere with your personal freedom. If you have some unfinished business, you can take care of it first. We are not in a hurry!"

Xia ruofei remained calm and said, "I know! Please tell elder Liu not to worry and that he can rest at home. Since I've already promised him, I definitely won't go back on my word. "

"I understand, I understand, I understand!" Liu Qunfeng quickly said, "of course we trust you, Mr. Xia. It's just that the pills are getting less and less, and I'm worried that once we stop taking them, my father's condition will worsen. That's why I took the liberty to disturb you, Mr. Xia. I hope you don't mind."

"Hahaha!" Xia ruofei said, "that's not necessary. If there's anything, let's communicate immediately! If there's anything wrong with elder Liu's body, please contact me immediately. I'll rush over as fast as I can. "

"Alright! Alright!" "Thank you, Mr. Xia," Liu Qunfeng said.

After hanging up the call with Liu Qunfeng, Xia ruofei threw his phone on the bed and sprawled on it. "The world is finally peaceful!"

The two of them stayed in bed until it was almost noon before they got up.

As usual, Xia ruofei cooked personally. The two of them had lunch together and after the meal, they worked together to wash the dishes.

Nowadays, the company's lunch breaks from nine to five in the morning weren't very long. It was basically just enough for the employees to order takeaway and have a meal. At most, they would just lie on the table and take a short nap before getting up to work.

Hence, Ling Qingxue did not stay at Xia ruofei's place after she finished eating. She politely declined Xia ruofei's suggestion to let her rest for a while. She smiled and kissed Xia ruofei on the cheek. "Be good! Have a good rest at home in the afternoon. I'll come back to accompany you in the evening after work!"

"You're treating me like a child!" Xia ruofei said, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

"Yup!" Ling Qingxue smiled. "Why don't you call me mom?"

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said in a childish voice, "Mother! I want to drink granny ..."

Ling Qingxue's face immediately turned red. She pouted and said, "The milk is in the fridge, take it yourself!"

After she finished speaking, she ran away from Xia ruofei's laughter.

After Ling Qingxue left, Xia ruofei went straight to the bedroom upstairs. After locking the doors and windows and drawing the curtains, he took out the spirit map scroll from his palm and entered the medium with a thought.
