

Chapter 261: The giant hornet's nest (1)

Xia ruofei was shocked to see that next to the iron – skinned Dendrobium, there was a Crooked Tree that was almost parallel to it. On the branch of the tree, there was a huge hornet's nest, and a few hornet's nest were coming in and out ... The hornet's nest had a diameter of 20 to 30 centimeters and a length of nearly one meter. Xia ruofei could not help but feel a chill in his heart when he looked at it. The Wasp's poison was very toxic. After the Wasp's poison invaded the human body, there would be symptoms of muscle dissolution. In serious cases, it could cause kidney failure, and even heart function and respiratory system multiple organ failure. There were often news reports of people dying after being stung by Hornets. Some people died after being stung in 40,50, or even 20,30 places. The hornet's nest was so huge that there were at least 1000 to 2000 hornet's nest. If he accidentally attracted a hornet's nest to attack him, Xia ruofei might not be able to use the petals in time even if he had the exotic flower. It was impossible to see the situation here from the top of the cliff. Just now, on the other side of the pool, due to the cover of the leaves and Xia ruofei's focus on identifying the iron – skinned Dendrobium, he did not notice the hornet's nest. Now that the rope had descended to this position, it was equivalent to hanging in the air. Xia ruofei didn't even dare to breathe as he was afraid of alarming the Hornet inside. He carefully observed for a while, then gently stepped on the cliff with his feet and grabbed the rope with his other hand. He was ready to quietly climb up before he was exposed. Hanging in the air was equivalent to a live target. No matter how agile he was, it was impossible to escape the hornet's attack. Xia ruofei was already very careful, but he still had to make some noise. Soon, his windbreaker accidentally brushed against a small branch beside him, and it immediately made a rustling sound. A few Hornets turned around and flew towards Xia ruofei. He had been discovered! At that moment, Xia ruofei's hair stood on end. Years of living on the edge of a blade and licking blood had given him a keen sense of danger. There was no sky or ground here, and it was very likely that the Hornet nest would come out in full force in the next moment. Faced with thousands or even thousands of Hornets, Xia ruofei couldn't use the petals in time even if he had the ability to. Even though he had outstanding martial arts, Xia ruofei had no way of defending himself against the hornet's attacks. As long as a tiny bit of poison from each Hornet entered Xia ruofei's body, 1000 to 2000 hornet's would be enough to kill him instantly. Xia ruofei's mind seemed to have entered an ethereal state. The more critical the moment was, the calmer he would be. This was also something he had trained in his many years of military life. Within a thousandth of a second, Xia ruofei made a decision that might be the only effective one. Without any hesitation, he summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm. Then, he quickly put the painting in his pocket, grabbed the rope tightly with one hand, and kicked hard with his feet. His whole body swung directly in the direction of the hornet's nest! The giant hornet's nest was getting closer and closer. At that moment, everything in front of him seemed to be in slow motion like in a movie. Xia ruofei could clearly see the regular holes on the hive that was constantly enlarging in his eyes, and the terrifying Hornet inside. Xia ruofei's mind was extremely calm, and his eyes were filled with determination. In an instant, Xia ruofei used the momentum and rushed to the hornet's nest. He gritted his teeth, reached out, and grabbed the top of the hornet's nest. Then, he pulled it down ... Buzzzzzz! This was really poking the hornet's nest! Xia ruofei could hear the buzzing sound in his ear. Under normal circumstances, there would be one or two thousand Hornets coming out of their nest and Xia ruofei would be killed in a very short time. However, just as the hornet's nest was about to leave, the entire nest suddenly disappeared into thin air, along with most of the hornet's nest that didn't manage to come out in time. Yes, this was the solution that Xia ruofei had thought of in an instant. He knew that he had nowhere to hide after being discovered by the Hornet. The only way to escape was to take the risk and store the entire hornet's nest into the space. The entire process had to be decisive and precise. If Xia ruofei hesitated, the hornet's nest would have already swarmed out. By then, it would be useless even if he kept the hive in the medium. Besides, Xia ruofei had to succeed on the first try because there was no chance of a second try. Using the rope to swing over, pull down the Beehive, and collect it, there was only one chance for the entire process, and there was no room for a repeat. Fortunately, Xia ruofei had been in the lone wolf commando unit for seven years. His mental strength was strong, and his physical condition was even better. He was the best Special Forces soldier. In addition, he had absorbed so many strange flower petals. Even he himself could not directly see how strong his physical condition had become. That was why Xia ruofei was able to make a decision in an instant and succeed in one try under extremely difficult circumstances, resolving a life and death crisis. After the giant hornet's nest was kept into the dimension, there were about 20 to 30 hornet's nest that managed to escape. Xia ruofei didn't dare to let his guard down. If he didn't deal with them carefully, these twenty to thirty Hornets could still kill him. As Xia ruofei kept the giant hornet's nest into the spirit map space, he immediately pulled out the military dagger that had been with him for many years. Now, Xia ruofei's reaction speed and skills were far better than when he was serving in the lone wolf commando unit. He held the rope tightly in one hand and waved the dagger in the other. In the cold light of the blade, the Hornets were cut in half and fell into the pool below. However, the hornet's flight speed was very fast and its trajectory was erratic. In a short while, 20 to 30 hornet's rushed up so Xia ruofei was inevitably stung twice. The location of the sting was on the arm that was holding the rope because there was no way to avoid it. The wound quickly swelled up, and the pain and numbness were instantly transmitted to his brain through his nerves. After confirming that he had dealt with all the hornet's nest, Xia ruofei had an idea. He took out a porcelain bottle from the spirit map space and poured some of the flower petal solution on the wound. He felt a cooling sensation, and the swelling in the red and swollen area quickly subsided at a speed visible to the naked eye. Xia ruofei only heaved a sigh of relief after he kept the petal solution and the painting in his palm. He realized that he was already drenched in cold sweat. It was too dangerous just now! If he had reacted a second slower and the hornet's nest had burst out, not even the gods would have been able to save him. Now that the giant hornet's nest was in the spirit map space, Xia ruofei didn't care about it for the time being. When Jian Jia was collecting the hornet's nest, Xia ruofei was worried that the six puppies in the new space would be hurt by the hornet's nest, so he kept the hornet's nest in the original space. As for how to deal with the hornet's nest in the original space, that was the next step to consider. Xia ruofei then quickly gathered the iron – Skin Dendrobium together with its roots. Then, he continued to descend and dug out all the iron – Skin dendrobes in other places. There were a total of six stalks, all of which were pure wild iron – Skin dendrobes. Xia ruofei followed the rope and climbed up the rock wall. Then, he returned to the pool. He packed all the iron – skinned dendrobes in his hiking bag into plastic bags and stored them in the spirit map space. Then, with the handheld GPS in hand, he continued to set off along the predetermined route. Since he was already here, he naturally wanted to find as many Dendrobium candida as possible. This way, when he carried out his cutting planting in the spirit map space in the future, he could create a larger scale in one go. As for the giant hornet's nest, he would have to deal with it after he returned to the three mountains.

As Xia ruofei was moving forward, he took the time to summon the spirit map scroll from his palm and used his mind to observe the situation of the Hornets. He found that the Hornet bees were flying around in the original space in a panic. When Xia ruofei felt the thousands of Hornets covering the sky, his scalp went numb and he felt a lingering fear. If he hadn't reacted in time, he wouldn't have stood a chance against so many Hornets. The Hornets flew around in the space for a while, and it seemed that they were very comfortable with the rich spiritual energy and the unique environment in the space, and gradually calmed down. The giant hornet's nest was lying quietly on the soil of the dimension. It wasn't damaged, so the hornet's nest slowly returned to its own nest. Sensing that the swarm of Hornets had calmed down, Xia ruofei was slightly relieved. Of course, there was nothing in the original space that could be destroyed. It was full of plants, and only the red Arowana in the fish pond were more precious. However, they lived in the water, and under normal circumstances, hornet's could not attack them. It was because of this that Xia ruofei put the hornet's nest into the medium without worry. Xia ruofei kept the painting and continued to move forward. Along the way, he walked and stopped, and successfully found five or six wild iron – Skin dendrobes. He put them all in plastic bags and kept them in the spirit map space. In the evening, Xia ruofei found a rock and prepared to set up camp. He took out a tent, a sleeping bag, and other things from the spirit map space. Although these were civilian equipment, it was not a problem for Xia ruofei, who was very skilled. After fiddling with them and reading the instructions, he successfully set up the tent. To Xia ruofei, survival in the wild was as simple as eating and drinking. He was not uncomfortable in the mountains. After setting up the tent, he took the dagger and went into the forest. Half an hour later, Xia ruofei returned to the campsite with a wild rabbit and a pheasant. He went straight to a small stream 50 to 60 meters away and skillfully handled the prey with a military dagger. By the time Xia ruofei returned to the tent, the sky was already dark. Xia ruofei hung a camping light in his tent. He had charged it in advance in the hotel last night and it could last for 60 hours. The orange – Red light illuminated the tent, creating a very warm environment. Then, Xia ruofei lit a bonfire in front of the tent. Xia ruofei took out the camping pot, some vegetables, and a big carp from the medium. He used the water in the spatial pond to cook a large pot of fish soup and stir – fried two vegetables. Finally, he cut the pheasant into pieces and put it into the pot. He poured in the water from the spatial pond, added a little ginger, cooking wine, and salt, and began to boil the chicken soup. While the pheasant soup was boiling, Xia ruofei placed the prepared wild rabbits over the bonfire and began to roast them. Xia ruofei was very familiar with this. It could be said that the current conditions were much better than the wilderness survival training in the Army. When he was training in the wilderness, he had not brought any rations for more than ten days. He only had a military dagger and according to the rules of hiding, he was not allowed to start a fire. Xia ruofei had even eaten snake and rat meat raw. Now, with comfortable tents, warm sleeping bags, and all kinds of equipment to use at will, it was like heaven. Roasting wild rabbits was also Xia ruofei's specialty. He skillfully sprinkled some seasoning as he flipped the rabbit. Soon, the surface of the rabbit began to turn golden, and the oil dripped into the bonfire, splashing sparks. The alluring smell of roasted meat began to fill the air. After the wild rabbit was roasted, the pheasant soup was almost done. However, Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to turn off the fire. Instead, he tore off a rabbit leg and started to eat. The crackling of the bonfire rang in his ears. He took big bites of the fragrant rabbit meat and the delicious crucian carp soup. Xia ruofei felt that this was the ultimate enjoyment. After eating half of the wild rabbit, Xia ruofei turned off the small camping gas stove and brought over the delicious wild chicken soup. After drinking another big bowl of warm pheasant soup and gnawing on two pheasant legs, Xia ruofei felt that his stomach was about to burst. Of course, he did not waste the rest of the food. The roasted rabbit was directly packed in a sealed preservation bag, and the carp and pheasant soup were also covered and sent into the spirit map space. This spirit map space was even more useful than the world's best refrigerator. As long as food didn't come into direct contact with the ground, it wouldn't go bad no matter how long it was stored. After eating and drinking to her heart's content, Xia ruofei washed up by the stream and returned to the tent. First, she scattered a special medicinal powder around the area to prevent snakes, insects, rats, and ants from invading. Then, she added quite a lot of dry wood to the bonfire. Then, he went into the tent, opened his sleeping bag, and began to rest. Xia ruofei would not risk entering the spirit map space, so he went to sleep. A Special Forces elite like Xia ruofei would still be alert even if he was asleep in the wild. If any wild beast were to approach the campsite, Xia ruofei would definitely wake up. He slept all the way until dawn, and the night passed peacefully. In the morning mist, Xia ruofei woke up to the chirping of birds. He got out of the tent, stretched, and took a deep breath of the fresh morning air of the forest. He immediately felt relaxed and happy. After washing his face and brushing his teeth by the mountain stream fifty to sixty meters away, Xia ruofei returned to his tent feeling refreshed. He took out the rabbit and chicken soup from the spirit map space that he had not finished last night and quickly heated them up to settle his breakfast. Then, he dug a pit and buried all the ashes of the bonfire that had been extinguished long ago. This was the most basic knowledge of camping, to prevent people from reigniting a Mountain Fire after leaving. Then, Xia ruofei packed up the tent, sleeping bag, and other things and threw them into the medium. At this time, Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel that it was great to have such a spirit map space. He didn't need to carry heavy equipment like those backpackers and could go into battle with light equipment. After packing up, Xia ruofei carried his backpack and continued on. In the morning, he had found a total of eight wild iron – Skin dendrobes by two rocks. In this way, Xia ruofei had found a total of 20 wild iron – Skin Dendrobium in the forest of laoyan mountain, which had basically met his expectations. So, he began to return by referring to the route of the handheld GPS. By noon, Xia ruofei had successfully returned to the scenic Area. When they were about to leave the forest, Xia ruofei kept all of his travel equipment back into the medium and changed into ordinary casual clothes. On the way, he stopped an empty green mini bus and rented it for 50 yuan to return to the entrance of the scenic Area. Then, Xia ruofei took a taxi to the train station. There was still more than an hour before the train back to Qiantang city would depart. In the evening, Xia ruofei boarded the flight from Qiantang to Sanshan. The trip this time was relatively smooth. Not only did he exchange two old mountain ginsengs for more than four million Yuan in cash, but he also went to laoyan mountain and found 20 wild iron – Skin dendrobes, which added new species to the space and brought new growth points of profit. But at the same time, there was a problem. There was a group of uninvited guests in the original space. Xia ruofei had been worried about how to deal with them on the plane ...

Chapter 263: Hornet Army (1)

At eight o'clock in the evening, Xia ruofei's flight landed smoothly on the runway of Sanshan Changping International Airport. After getting off the plane, Xia ruofei received a text message as soon as he turned on his phone. The message was sent by manager Feng of the southeast Branch of Hengfeng jewelry under the Hengfeng group of the MA family in Hong Kong. She told Xia ruofei that the 4 million Yuan worth of Jade that Ma Zhiming had asked her to prepare was ready and she could go over to get the goods at any time. It was already night time and there was still a hornet's nest in the spirit map space. Even if Xia ruofei got the Jade, he could not use it to upgrade the space immediately. If the hornet's nest mutated during the space upgrade, it would be even more troublesome. Although the previous upgrades had not affected the animals in the interspace at all, the hornet's nest was different from the red Arowana and the puppy. They were very aggressive. Hence, Xia ruofei decided to deal with the hornet's nest first before upgrading the interspace. Hence, Xia ruofei replied to manager Feng's message and made an appointment to go over tomorrow morning to trade the Jade. After picking up the pickup truck at the airport overnight parking lot, Xia ruofei drove back to Taoyuan farm. The car's headlights lit up the courtyard of the villa. Lightning came out from the doghouse in the corner of the villa. When it saw that it was Xia ruofei, the aggressive lightning immediately changed its posture and lovingly wandered around the car. Xia ruofei opened the door and got out of the car. He hugged lightning, who was standing on its hind legs, and affectionately rubbed its hair. He smiled and asked, "Lightning, how have you been these past few days when I wasn't home?" Lightning immediately barked twice and wagged its tail even more vigorously. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "good girl. I'll prepare something delicious for you tomorrow." Let's go back!" Lightning stuck out its tongue and licked Xia ruofei's palm. Then, it went back to its kennel. Ye Lingyun had already seen Xia ruofei's car enter the farm through the surveillance camera in his room, so he walked to the door at this time. "Brother Xia!" "Ling Yun, you've worked hard these past two days." Xia ruofei smiled and continued to ask, "is everything normal at the farm and construction site?" "Don't worry, brother Xia! Everything is normal." Ye Lingyun replied, "the construction progress is very fast. The first layer of cement has been completed!" "You've worked hard!" Xia ruofei patted ye Lingyun's shoulder and said. "Brother Xia, have you had dinner?" "Do you want me to prepare something for you to eat?" ye linyun asked. "I ate on the plane." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'm going back to my room. You should rest early too!" "Woof! Brother Xia, you should rest!" Ye linyun said, "I still have to bring lightning for a patrol around 10 O' clock later!" Ever since the Peach Blossom Farm officially started operating, ye Lingyun, the head of security, had been fulfilling his duties and would patrol a few times every night. Xia ruofei took two steps and turned back. "Ling Yun, I think you're too tired. You have to check the surveillance cameras and patrol the area. There's no one to change shifts with you!" "This is nothing, brother Xia!" Ye linyun laughed. It's much easier than when I was in the Army ..." "Even so, you can't do it in a row." Xia ruofei said, "how about this, Ling Yun? let's recruit two more people and make them the first batch of employees for the security Department of paradise Corporation! Otherwise, it won't be good for you to always be the commander. See if there are any suitable candidates. It would be best if they are our retired comrades. Help me recommend two!" "Brother Xia, there's no need ... I can do it alone!" Ye linyun said. "This is an order!" Xia ruofei did not give him any room for negotiation. "You can hold on now, but what about after a long time? Also, we'll have more and more business in the future, and the scale of the farm will also grow bigger and bigger. Can you take care of it alone?" Xia ruofei continued, "it's settled then. Look around these two days!" We'll try to get the recruitment done within a week!" Seeing Xia ruofei's determination, ye Lingyun could only say helplessly, "Alright then! I'll contact my former comrades and ask." Xia ruofei nodded and continued to walk up the stairs. "Brother Xia, thank you!" Ye Lingyun said from behind Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei waved his hand without looking back and went upstairs in a hurry. After he returned to his room, Xia ruofei immediately locked the door and summoned the spirit painting from his palm. This time, he didn't rush into the medium. Instead, he used his mind to sense the situation of the Hornets in the medium. When he noticed that the hornet's nest was very calm and only a few hornet's nest were flying around, he entered the medium. Under Xia ruofei's deliberate control, he appeared more than 30 meters away from hornet's nest. Once he entered the medium, Xia ruofei was on high alert. If there were any problems, he would leave the spirit map space at the first moment. Fortunately, everything was calm and the Hornet did not notice Xia ruofei's sudden appearance. In fact, they enjoyed the environment of this space very much. The rich spirit Qi made them want to linger. From the time the hornet's nest was put into the medium until now, only a little more than a day had passed in the outside world, but 30 to 40 days had passed in the medium. These hornet's nest had already adapted to the environment in the space. Xia ruofei used his mind to connect with the space. Very quickly, an invisible force wrapped the hornet's nest up as if it was covered with a transparent cover. Xia ruofei carefully approached the hornet's nest. In reality, it was rather easy for Xia ruofei to kill the hornet's nest in the space. He just had to use the invisible force of the space to restrain the entire hornet's nest. Then, whether he used a flame torch to burn these Hornets or simply moved the entire hornet's nest under the water of the fish pond, he could kill them all without missing a single one. However, when Xia ruofei thought about the terrifying killing power of the 2000 Hornets, he suddenly felt a little reluctant to kill them so easily. If I could use these Hornets, it would be equivalent to having an extremely lethal Hornet Army out of thin air! Xia ruofei said in his heart. At this thought, Xia ruofei tried to control the Hornet with his mind. After many attempts, the four or five Hornets outside could be controlled. However, Xia ruofei had to use the power of space to control them. To put it bluntly, the Hornets were controlled by the power of space. Xia ruofei couldn't give the Hornets instructions with his mind and they would follow them to the letter. "Forget it. I'll keep them for now and look at them after the space is upgraded!" Xia ruofei said in his heart, "but before that, I have to make sure that these Hornets will not pose a new threat." Xia ruofei thought for a while and thought of a way to get the best of both worlds. After making his decision, Xia ruofei did not stay in the medium for too long. He was not even in a hurry to plant the wild iron – Skin Dendi. He flashed into the new space and played with Blackie and the others for a while. After giving them some food, he left the space with a thought. It was a quiet night. The next morning, Xia ruofei left Taoyuan farm in his pickup truck. However, he didn't go directly to San Shan city to find manager Feng of Hengfeng jewelry to trade for Jade materials. Instead, he turned the car onto the National Highway leading to Changping County ...

Chapter 264: An earth – shaking evolution (1)

Xia ruofei first found a mechanical factory in the suburbs Changping and entrusted them to process a rectangular iron cage with a length and width of one meter and a height of two meters. He also asked them to install the same kind of metal mesh on the inside and outside of the iron cage. Since Xia ruofei had offered to double the price, the mechanical processing plant naturally did not say anything and immediately started to process the iron cage. It did not require any technical content. Xia ruofei did not even have any requirements for the appearance, nor did he need to paint it. As long as they pushed back the other work, they could earn double the reward, so why not? After Xia ruofei paid the deposit, he drove to San Shan city. At the southeast Branch of Hengfeng jewelry, Xia ruofei got a piece of Jade worth 4 million Yuan from manager Feng. Just like the last time, Xia ruofei took the goods first, then immediately went to the bank to transfer the money and happily completed the transaction. After leaving the bank, Xia ruofei made a call to the machine factory and found out that the cage was ready. So, he took the Jade and drove back to the machinery processing plant in Changping County. The large iron cage was placed in the yard of the machinery processing plant. According to Xia ruofei's request, the length and width were one meter each and the height was about two meters. The entire rectangular iron cage was covered with metal gauze on all five sides, both inside and outside, and was tightly wrapped. The last side was also emptied according to Xia ruofei's request. It was equivalent to a two – meter tall rectangular cover. The boss of the machinery processing plant was very friendly. He immediately called for a few workers to carry the iron cage to the back of Xia ruofei's pickup truck. After Xia ruofei paid the remaining amount, he drove back to Taoyuan farm. On the way, Xia ruofei found an empty spot and stopped the car. He summoned the spirit painting scroll from his palm and went to the back of the pickup truck to cut all the steel wires that fixed the cage. Then, he held the spirit map scroll in one hand and the iron cage in the other. He sent a command to the space with his mind. The next moment, the iron cage disappeared into thin air. In the spirit map space, the iron cage fell from the sky and covered the giant hornet's nest according to Xia ruofei's instructions. Xia ruofei's original intention of making an iron cage was to add a protective shield outside the hornet's nest. This way, if anything happened, he would be able to control it. After all, there were too many of them. If it was like last night, Xia ruofei had trapped the entire hornet's nest. Otherwise, once all the hornet's nest flew out, it would be very difficult for Xia ruofei to control more than 2000 hornet's at once, even with his strong spatial control. Adding such a cover was equivalent to adding a layer of insurance. Xia ruofei sensed the situation in the space and saw that the iron cage had appeared at the predetermined position. He then returned to the driver's seat with a peace of mind and drove back to Peach Blossom Farm. When Xia ruofei reached home, she carried the large metal box filled with Jade and went straight upstairs to her room. He quickly locked the door and windows, opened the metal box, and summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm. Xia ruofei deftly fed pieces of valuable Jade to the painting. The Jade that was worth 4 million Yuan could not withstand the absorption of the spirit painting scroll. It did not take long for the metal box to be empty. During the entire process, Xia ruofei did not try to sense the state of the space. After he had absorbed all the Jade, he entered the space with a thought. Xia ruofei reappeared in front of the nameless plant in the original space. The first thing he felt was that the spiritual Qi in the space was much denser, but he didn't have the time to feel it carefully. Instead, he couldn't wait to look at the spiritual fruit. With one look, Xia ruofei was overjoyed! The spirit fruit had already turned completely dark red and was emitting an extremely alluring fragrance. As long as one took a deep breath, they would feel as if their bodies were floating! This spirit fruit was completely ripe! Xia ruofei was very clear that this meant that after absorbing more than 14 million Yuan worth of Jade, the spirit map space had finally completed its upgrade. Xia ruofei turned his attention to the other spiritual fruit. It had grown out again after being picked last time. The evolution of the realm this time clearly had a catalytic effect on this spirit fruit. It had also grown a lot in an instant. Previously, it had been growing slowly. Xia ruofei could not even feel its growth. But this time, it had grown to the size of the ripe spiritual fruit. Other than the fact that there was a hint of green in its color, this spirit fruit was basically the same as a ripe spirit fruit. In other words, it wouldn't be long before this spirit fruit ripened. This was really good news! Xia ruofei carefully plucked the ripe spiritual fruit and stored it in a Tupperware. Then, he began to observe the changes in the space. Just as he had expected, the size of the original space had not changed at all, still about eight acres. Of course, the spirit Qi was much denser than before the upgrade. Xia ruofei felt that this place was similar to the spiritual mountains and treasured places in novels. He felt relaxed and happy just by taking a deep breath. In such an environment, even without the acceleration of time, animals and plants would still grow faster and of higher quality than the outside world. Xia ruofei walked around the original space and did not notice any other changes. He then went to the new space. As soon as he entered the new space, Xia ruofei suddenly felt that the whole world had become much wider. The density of the spiritual energy here was the same as the original space, but the size of the space was completely different. After the upgrade, Xia ruofei felt that the entire space was vast and boundless. Of course, this was only what he saw with his naked eye. In fact, he still had to measure how much it had expanded. However, there was a more obvious change. The entire terrain had changed. The original Hill had at least doubled in height, and it looked a little steep and towering. And the stream that flowed around the small mountain had also widened a lot, becoming a River, and also faintly had the momentum of surging. The small lake at the end of the river had expanded several times. This small lake, which was originally only about one mu in size, was now sparkling and no longer looked like a small pond. Xia ruofei was mentally prepared. He knew that after the upgrade, the new space would expand and change to a certain extent. But he didn't expect the change to be so great. In the past, the original space would double in size every time it was upgraded, but the new space was obviously larger than that. Whether it was the area, the river, Lake, or even the mountain, they were all several times larger than the original size. The evolution this time could be said to be earth – shaking. He climbed to the top of the mountain and looked around, which further confirmed his judgment. It was no longer easy to see the space membrane in the distance with the naked eye. Xia ruofei jumped into the all – terrain vehicle and drove straight to the space membrane. He walked around the entire space along the space membrane and roughly estimated that the total area of the new space was close to 200 acres. Compared to the last time it was not fully evolved, it was five times larger. In other words, the complete evolution this time had caused the entire space to complete a leap from quantitative change to qualitative change. This explained why the space had only expanded from 20 mu to 40 mu after absorbing 10 million Yuan of Jade last time, but this time, it had expanded to 200 mu after absorbing only 4 million Yuan of Jade. Xia ruofei parked his car and went to the mysterious stone tablet with a trace of anticipation and anxiety. Xia ruofei had examined the stone tablet before it evolved. Although he did not find anything, he could not forget the golden light he had glimpsed. Now that the space's evolution had been completed, and his spiritual connection with the space had been significantly improved, would he find something new in the stone tablet?

Chapter 265: exploring the stone stele again (1)

Xia ruofei walked to the stone tablet and slowly reached out with his right hand. Then, his slightly trembling hand gently pressed on the stone tablet. He closed his eyes and focused his mind to sense it. Blackie, Da Mao, and ER Mao, who had been following Xia ruofei, seemed to have realized that he was doing something very important. The few puppies did not make a sound, but stood around Xia ruofei warily, even if there was no danger in this space. Xia ruofei immediately felt that familiar connection. Although it was still faint, it was obviously much closer than before. Xia ruofei's mind was still filled with endless fog. With his previous experience, Xia ruofei immediately focused his mind and explored the fog. After a while, Xia ruofei successfully found the Golden spot that he could not forget. The golden light in the mist seemed to contain all the truths of the world. The moment Xia ruofei's mind sensed it, it was as if his soul let out a comfortable sigh. The last time Xia ruofei sensed this golden light, his spiritual energy had been exhausted and was quickly expelled by the stone tablet. This time, it was obviously much better. Perhaps it was due to the strengthening of Xia ruofei's spiritual connection with the space, or of course, the improvement of his own abilities. Lao Ai would still absorb the petals of the strange flower regularly to strengthen his abilities. Xia ruofei focused all his attention on sensing the golden light. Xia ruofei could feel the golden light getting clearer and bigger, as if he was zooming in on it. Xia ruofei felt as if his entire soul was bathed in a soft light. The joy that came from the depths of his soul made him tremble. Gradually, Xia ruofei felt that the golden light turned into a small golden person. Furthermore, this tiny golden person wasn't standing still. He was demonstrating a set of extremely strange movements. Hands, feet, body, head ... Different movements combined into a strange posture. It looked similar to yoga, but only in form. Xia ruofei could feel that it had nothing to do with yoga in essence, although the movements were equally incredible. Although the little golden man's movements were very strange, it gave Xia ruofei a feeling of unparalleled coordination. His hands and feet were obviously twisted at an incredible angle, but it was very comfortable to look at. It was as if this was the most suitable posture for heaven and earth ... Soon, Xia ruofei felt that his spiritual energy was almost exhausted. He gritted his teeth and focused his mind on sensing the little golden man's every move. He discovered that the little golden man demonstrated a total of nine postures, and after each demonstration, the little golden man would start from the first posture again, over and over again, repeating it. Xia ruofei concentrated on sensing the surroundings, not wanting to miss any detail. Soon, he felt a sharp pain in his mind. He groaned and his mind was quickly expelled from the stone tablet. Xia ruofei took a deep look at the wordless stone tablet and felt that it was unfathomable. He knew that this was all he could sense from the stone tablet after his evolution. If he wanted to continue exploring, he would have to wait until the next evolution. Xia ruofei thought of the little golden man's nine postures that he had just sensed. His heart skipped a beat and he sat down. He tried hard to recall the posture he had just sensed. But the result made him pale with fright. Xia ruofei realized that other than the first position, which he could remember clearly as if it was imprinted in his mind, he had completely forgotten the other eight positions. However, he clearly remembered that the little golden man had been repeating the nine postures. However, when it came to the last eight positions, Xia ruofei had no impression at all. He could not remember at all. Xia ruofei could not understand. He had clearly tried his best to remember the nine sets of postures, and the time he took to look at these strange postures was the same. Logically speaking, it was impossible for him to only remember one set and completely forget the other eight sets! Selective memory? What was going on? Although Xia ruofei was puzzled, he had to accept the truth. However, he was even more curious about the only strange posture he could remember. Hence, Xia ruofei decided to give it a try. This weird posture required a lot of flexibility, but Xia ruofei thought he could do it. He quickly put on the difficult pose according to his memory. However, other than the slight pain in a few ligaments that were pulled, Xia ruofei did not think that there was anything special about this set of movements. He furrowed his brows slightly and carefully examined his own movements. He compared them with the little golden man's movements that were deeply engraved in his mind. Then, he realized that there were slight differences between his movements and the little golden man's movements. Hence, Xia ruofei made some adjustments. In fact, there were only small differences such as his head not leaning back enough and his feet not being straightened. However, the moment Xia ruofei adjusted his body to the right position, he felt an intense pain. It was as if all the meridians in his body were pulled. Xia ruofei sucked in a breath of cold air and broke out in a cold sweat. However, Xia ruofei gritted his teeth and persevered. He could vaguely feel that the little golden man's set of movements was extraordinary and wanted to persist as long as possible. Seven years of life in the Special Forces had honed Xia ruofei's perseverance. He was enduring pain that ordinary people could not imagine every second. Large beads of sweat kept dripping from his forehead, but he persevered. One minute passed. Two minutes passed. After about five minutes, Xia ruofei's lower lip was bleeding from biting it. He finally couldn't hold on any longer and collapsed on the ground. He could no longer maintain that strange posture. It was strange but as soon as Xia ruofei got out of that position, the bone – piercing pain immediately disappeared. What replaced it was an extreme comfort. Xia ruofei felt as if he was in a hot spring. His entire body was warm. After a short rest, Xia ruofei stood up. To his surprise, he realized that his skin had started to exude a foul – smelling black impurity. This had only happened after Xia ruofei had absorbed the petals of the exotic flower. Could it be that this set of seemingly simple and strange movements was actually more effective than absorbing the petals of the strange flower? Xia ruofei suddenly had this thought. He walked down the mountain. When he took his first step, he immediately felt that his body was much lighter. He quickly came to the flat ground at the foot of the mountain and tried to do the standing long jump. Xia ruofei easily jumped more than three meters without using all his strength. This was the result of a high – Level athlete. I’ve actually become as light as a swallow ... Xia ruofei was a little dumbfounded. Xia ruofei was more aware of the value of this seemingly simple yet strange movement. Xia ruofei didn’t have time to check if there were any other changes. He immediately left the spirit map space. Because his body was sticky and reeking of a foul smell, Xia ruofei couldn’t stand it anymore. He couldn’t wait to take a shower.

Chapter 266: as easy as arms and fingers (1)

Xia ruofei returned to the outside world and took a shower three times in the bathroom before she was finally able to wash away the sticky black grease – like impurities on her body. After changing into his sportswear, Xia ruofei returned to the new space. He was full of anticipation for that strange – looking movement. Xia ruofei could not wait to feel the changes in his body when he was in the bathroom. He felt that the changes were enough to be described as being reborn. To be able to achieve such a remarkable effect in just five minutes, this posture that looked like nothing special except for strangeness was definitely not ordinary! Xia ruofei also remembered that the little golden man had demonstrated a total of nine positions. He couldn’t help but look forward to it even more. What kind of changes would the later positions bring to his body? However, no matter how hard Xia ruofei tried to recall, he could not remember anything. It was as if that piece of memory had been blocked. Xia ruofei did not have a better solution. He speculated that there were two possibilities. First, when he practiced the first posture to the extreme, or to be more accurate, when he reached a certain standard, the next posture would be “unlocked.” Second, it could only be “unlocked” after the space was upgraded again. No matter what the situation was, Xia ruofei had no way to deal with it. Besides, the information he had obtained from the stone tablet was pitifully little. Everything was just his own speculation. After Xia ruofei entered the new space, he couldn’t help but try that weird posture again. But he found that no matter how hard he tried, he could not succeed in doing it. Every time he was about to complete the entire movement, the tearing force from the meridians in his body would immediately become extremely huge. All the meridians would feel as if they were being pricked by needles, so he couldn’t maintain it for even a second. This was no longer a problem that could be solved by willpower. It was completely out of his control. Xia ruofei also felt that going too far was as bad as not going too far. If he really forced himself to do this, his body would probably be seriously injured. Without any more information, Xia ruofei could only try to figure it out. He knew that this posture could not be repeated after the first time. The biggest possibility was that he would need a certain amount of time to recover. Perhaps his body had not yet adapted to the changes brought about by the first practice. The meridians in his body might still be relatively fragile and could not bear the second practice. After two unsuccessful attempts, Xia ruofei decided to put it aside for the time being. He would try again after a longer interval. Xia ruofei returned to the original space and took out a bottle of diluted flower petal solution. She consumed it and quickly recovered her mental energy. Then, he went to the stone tablet in the new space and tried a second time. In the end, he was not surprised. He could still sense through the stone tablet that the little golden man was continuously demonstrating the nine sets of movements, but as long as his mind left the stone tablet, he could still only remember the first set of movements, and the other eight sets seemed to once again be shrouded in a vast fog. After trying twice, Xia ruofei finally gave up. The first set of movements had already brought him great benefits, but one should still be content with what they have. Xia ruofei decided to put all these aside. He played with Blackie and the others for a while in the new space and gave them food. The flow of time in the new space was the same as the outside world, so Blackie and the others were still puppies. Of course, the unique environment in the new space allowed them to grow very strong and strong, not inferior to the adult dogs in the outside world. Xia ruofei decided to let Blackie and the rest stay in the medium for a while longer. After all, the spiritual Qi here could transform their bodies and improve their intelligence. When they grew up, Xia ruofei would bring them to the outside world. Xia ruofei returned to the original space. After feeling the changes after the space upgrade, his attention returned to the giant hornet's nest. Xia ruofei walked to the hornet's nest that was surrounded by the iron cage. He saw the huge hornet's nest quietly standing in the cage, and occasionally, a few hornet's nest would fly in and out. It seemed that the limited range of movement didn't make the bees feel uncomfortable. Perhaps it was because the spiritual Qi in the space was extremely rich, but the bees didn't go crazy and fly around in the iron cage. Xia ruofei did not use his mind to contact the space. Instead, he focused his mind and gave an order to one of the Hornets. The Hornet seemed to have stopped for a moment and hesitated. Then, to Xia ruofei's surprise, the Hornet started to circle around the Beehive, drawing a circular trajectory. This was what Xia ruofei had requested. Xia ruofei's spirits lifted and he immediately gave another order. The Hornet immediately made a turn in the air, and then flew around the hive in a clockwise direction instead of a clockwise one. This time, it was confirmed! Xia ruofei was very excited. The reason why he had kept the hornet's nest the day before and did not get rid of it immediately was because he had a glimmer of hope that there would be new changes after the space was upgraded. If he could control so many Hornets, it would definitely be a great killing weapon! Just imagine, if so many hornet's nest were to come out, under the situation where the other party was caught off guard, it could really be said that they would kill whoever they saw, and it would be successful in every way. Furthermore, bees were different from bees. Bees had barbs on their tails. Under normal circumstances, after a bee stung a person, the barbs on the tail would remain in the person's body. When the bee flew away, even its internal organs would be pulled out. Therefore, bees would pay for their lives when they stung people. After the sting, the bees would also die. But Hornets didn't have reverse hooks on their tails. In other words, if these Hornets could be controlled by him, they would not only be a great killing weapon, but also a great killing weapon that could be reused. Xia ruofei tried to control more bees. There were about 30 to 40 bees outside the hive. Xia ruofei tried and realized that he could only control a dozen of them. The bees formed a long line and followed Xia ruofei's instructions in the cage. Although a dozen was a small number, Xia ruofei was satisfied. This was because he knew that the longer these Hornets stayed in the medium, the deeper his control over them would be. In the future, he would be able to control thousands of Hornets with a thought, and it would be as easy as controlling his own arms and fingers. Just thinking about it felt great! In order to confirm his thoughts, Xia ruofei even ran to the fish pond and gave instructions to the grass carps and crucian carps in the pond. He did not use the invisible force of space to restrain them, but directly gave instructions to the fish. Sure enough, the fish, which were much larger than the Hornets, followed Xia ruofei's order and lined up in the fish pond like soldiers on inspection. Xia ruofei tried it out and realized that he could control at least 50 to 60 fish at the same time. He was finally able to put his mind at ease. He had been able to control more of these fish in the medium for a long time, and as long as he had enough time, it would not be a dream for him to control an Army of Hornets! Xia ruofei started to plan his next step. The hornet's nest definitely couldn't be left in the original space. Time passed too fast here, and the hornet's life was too short, so it had to be moved to a new space. This was the most urgent matter. Xia ruofei's mind moved slightly. The invisible force of space wrapped the iron cage and the hornet's nest in the iron cage and moved them into a new space in an instant. Xia ruofei also flashed into the new space and ordered Blackie and the rest to stay away from the big iron cage. In addition, he was going to mark out an area in the new space and surround it as a special area for the Hornets to live in. The land in the new space was very spacious, and it would not be a problem to allocate one or two mu of land. The next step was to start cutting and planting the wild iron – Skin dendrobes that he had painstakingly collected. Xia ruofei suddenly felt much busier.

Chapter 267: My wife, I'm coming!_1

After Xia ruofei left the medium, he went to the farm to patrol. In the greenhouse, Cao tieshu and his workers were carefully taking care of the growing vegetables. When he saw Xia ruofei, Cao tieshu excitedly reported the situation of the vegetable greenhouse. After the seeds that had been soaked by Xia ruofei had sprouted, they grew much faster than similar vegetables even in the outside world. Each of them was growing very well. Xia ruofei had even specifically instructed them to plant the vegetables green and not use any fertilizers or pesticides. Even so, there were no worm holes on the vegetables. In other words, after seed soaking and watering with a very small amount of flower petals, the pest control of these vegetables did not need to be worried at all. Xia ruofei felt a sense of achievement as he looked at the neat rows of vegetables in the greenhouse, as if they were soldiers being reviewed. To be honest, the profits from growing vegetables were insignificant to Xia ruofei. However, his goal was to build a high – end brand. High – end food brands had to have a rich variety, whether it was ordinary vegetables, fruits, truffles, or other high – end food that might appear in the future. Only by covering daily ingredients and high – end premium products could the brand's popularity continue to expand. And it was precisely these daily ingredients that could expand the brand's popularity and influence. It was not feasible to be a widow, it had to be fully developed. This was the thought that Xia ruofei had been following. Xia ruofei acknowledged the work of Cao tieshu and the other workers. After giving them a few words of encouragement, he went back to the construction site. As usual, manager li was personally guarding the construction site. The entire construction site was also in full swing. The workers each had their own duties, and each one of them was agile and skilled. One look was enough to tell that they were experienced construction teams. Liang Qichao was still very concerned about Xia ruofei's Affairs, and manager li naturally spared no effort in his work. He put himself in the farm's shoes in many places and tried to save costs while maintaining quality and quantity. In addition, in order not to interfere with the farm work and cause damage to the factory's road environment, manager li also specifically asked the construction team to open a temporary side door here, so that all trucks and slag trucks could enter and exit from the side door. The first floor's cement board had already been built. Some workers were watering and maintaining the cement board, while other workers were building scaffolding, cleaning the site, loading and unloading building materials, etc. In short, there was not much work on the main building, but the staff were not idle. He had used the scientific method of coordination to the extreme. Xia ruofei was very satisfied. He told pang Hao to order some food and wine from the county in the afternoon to reward everyone when they finished work in the evening. Xia ruofei returned to the villa after walking around. Now, only Xia ruofei and ye Lingyun lived in the villa. After Hu Zi's mother returned to the city, ye Lingyun also took on a part – time job as a chef. He was the one who took care of the meals. Xia ruofei and ye Lingyun had lunch together. Then, without taking a break, they left Taoyuan farm in their pickup truck. He found a factory that specialized in making barbed wire fences and ordered some fences that could be assembled. Xia ruofei was going to set up a plot of land in the new space, which was about one and a half mu, and seal it up with barbed wire to allow the Hornets to breed and live. Therefore, he had to add metal windows on both the inside and outside of the wire fence. Xia ruofei's plan was to form an area of 30 meters by 30 meters with a height of about 10 meters. The top of the area would be made of steel bars and covered with a wire fence of the same standard. Xia ruofei had ordered a fence of medium quality. With the addition of the top steel frame and other materials, the total cost was about 20000 Yuan. Xia ruofei paid the deposit and gave the address of the warehouse he rented to the manufacturer. He asked them to call him when they were done and send it to the warehouse directly. After setting up the fence, Xia ruofei was ready to return to the farm villa to take a look. He wanted to find some time to plant the wild Dendrobium candida that he had found at laoyan mountain two days ago in his interspace. As Xia ruofei was on his way back, his phone rang. Xia ruofei slowed down the car and picked up his phone. When he saw that it was his future father – in – Law, Ling Xiaotian, calling, he quickly put on his Bluetooth Earphone and answered the call. "Uncle Ling!" Xia ruofei said. "Ruofei, did you forget something?" Ling Xiaotian asked. Xia ruofei was stunned. Was his father – in – Law unhappy because he had not visited him these few days? He had been very busy the whole time. Besides, the last time in Ling Qingxue's room, if it wasn't for Ling Qingxue's "relatives" coming, he would probably have done something outrageous. At that time, Ling Qingxue had shyly said that she would let Xia ruofei do whatever he wanted next time. Xia ruofei had asked Ling Qingxue out twice, but she had not turned up either time. Hence, Xia ruofei was too embarrassed to pay her a visit. This was to avoid Ling Qingxue's awkwardness. At the same time, he did not want to be seen as a lecherous person in his girlfriend's eyes. At the thought of this, Xia ruofei said, "uncle Ling, the farm has been very busy these past two days, so ... Is there anything I can help you with?" Could it be that there's something wrong with the blood Dragons?" Ling Xiaotian smiled bitterly, "you brat, you've really forgotten everything!" To think that I've been looking around for information these past few days!" "Ah?" "Drunken Eight Immortals!" Ling Xiaotian reminded him in a bad mood, "do you remember what you promised me the last time?" Xia ruofei slapped his forehead and said, "Aiya! I really forgot about it. Uncle Ling, I'm really sorry ..." The last time they had a drink, Ling Xiaotian had a lot of admiration for Xia ruofei's "improved" Drunken Eight Immortals. He even had the intention to cooperate with Xia ruofei to acquire the Dingfeng winery that produced Drunken Eight Immortals. The two of them would manage this improved liquor together. At that time, Xia ruofei had said that he would bring the mass – produced version of the Drunken Eight Immortals to Ling Xiaotian as soon as possible and would only make a decision after he had tasted it. Xia ruofei had been busy for a few days, and he had forgotten about it after his trip to Mount laoyan. Xia ruofei was naturally embarrassed to forget the first task assigned by his future father – in – Law. "Kid, you don't seem to be very reliable ..." Ling Xiaotian said, "this is a business worth tens of millions, can you put in more effort?" Xia ruofei quickly smiled apologetically and said, "uncle Ling, it's all my fault ... How about this?" I'll give it to the person from your company who's here to pick up the vegetables tomorrow morning and ask him to bring it to you as soon as possible. " "Let's not wait until tomorrow. If you're free, come over now!" Ling Xiaotian said. I'm at home. " "Uh ... I'm free, I'm free!" Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. "Please wait a moment. I'll leave now!" "Good, good, good! Ruofei, remember to bring a few more bottles!" Ling Xiaotian said with a smile. He wasn't really angry and Xia ruofei had admitted his mistake so nicely. He naturally wouldn't blame Xia ruofei. "No problem!" Xia ruofei said readily. After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei sped up and drove back to Taoyuan farm. After returning to his room and locking the door and windows, he took out the spirit painting scroll and entered the medium. He found an empty porcelain bottle and went to the area where the wine jars were stored. He filled up five bottles of Drunken Eight Immortals, which were not fused with any exotic flower petals. Then, he calmly sealed the wine jar again. The time flow in the Suan ni area was 30 times slower than the outside world. Xia ruofei did not have to speed up in order to save time. After leaving the realm and putting away the painting, Xia ruofei found a bag and put the five bottles of wine in it. Then, he quickly went downstairs, got into the Knight XV, and drove towards the Qingjiang villa area in the city. On the way, Xia ruofei's mind was filled with thoughts. He would definitely be able to see Ling Qingxue once they reached Ling Xiaotian's Villa. It had been so many days, her 'relatives' should have left by now, right? Did that mean that he had the chance to get intimate with her in her room today? It was a little inconvenient to have a "father – in – Law" at home, but uncle Ling didn't seem like the kind of person who would spoil the mood. He would probably take the initiative to avoid going to the company, right? Thinking of this, Xia ruofei felt that the evil fire that he had been suppressing for the past few days seemed to be on fire again. Thinking of Ling Qingxue's graceful body and her long, seductive legs, Xia ruofei's eyes were filled with passion. Wife, I'm coming ... ~

Xia ruofei, who now had the power to drive, sped all the way and soon arrived at Ling Xiaotian's single Riverside Villa in the Qingjiang villa area. He jumped out of the car with a bag full of five bottles of wine and quickly walked to the door to ring the doorbell. With a click, the metal door opened automatically, and Ling Xiaotian's voice came from the communication device, ""RUO Fei, quickly come in!" Xia ruofei walked into the villa's courtyard with a bag in his hand. Ling Xiaotian was standing at the door with a smile on his face. "Uncle Ling!" Xia ruofei greeted. "Not bad, you're quite fast," Ling Xiaotian said with a smile. Xia ruofei laughed in embarrassment. "Uncle Ling, I was so busy that I forgot what you asked me to do. I'm really sorry ..." Ling Xiaotian laughed and said, "we're all a family. What's the point of saying this?" Come in quickly!" Ling Xiaotian let Xia ruofei into the house. Xia ruofei handed the bag to Ling Xiaotian and said, ""Uncle Ling, this is the improved version of Drunken Eight Immortals that I mentioned last time. It's the kind that can be mass – produced." "Good, good, good!" Ling Xiaotian took the bag and said happily. Xia ruofei looked around but did not see Ling Qingxue, who he had been dreaming of. He could not help but ask, ""Uncle Ling, is Qingxue not at home?" Ling Xiaotian couldn't help but laugh, "so you've come so quickly for that lass Qingxue!" I told you that an old man like me wouldn't have such charm!" Xia ruofei scratched his head in embarrassment and laughed awkwardly without saying anything. Ling Xiaotian asked, "didn't Qingxue tell you?" She's on a business trip today!" "Ah?" Xia ruofei was a little disappointed. "Business trip?" "We're planning to open up a secondary market," Ling Xiaotian nodded. "We'll open a few chain stores in some Prefecture – Level cities outside of Sanshan city. Although Qingxue is temporarily in charge of the finance department, my family business will be handed over to her in the future. Sooner or later, she will be able to take charge of everything on her own, so this time, I let her be in charge of market research. It can be considered a form of training!" After Duan Yishan, Ling Xiaotian's good friend and the Vice – mayor of Sanshan city, fell from his position, Ling Xiaotian had been keeping a low profile. However, now that he had Xia ruofei, it could be said that the haze was gone. Naturally, Ling Ji restaurant would start to expand. "I see ..." Xia ruofei nodded and said. He was naturally very disappointed, especially when it seemed like he would have to continue suppressing his evil fire for a while. However, Xia ruofei could not show it on his face. He could only smile bitterly and shake his head. "RUO Fei, you wouldn't blame uncle Ling for sending Qingxue out, would you?" Ling Xiaotian laughed. "No, no, of course not." Xia ruofei quickly said. "Alright, let's not talk about Qingxue anymore!" Ling Xiaotian said, "let me try the wine you brought!" After he finished speaking, Ling Xiaotian opened his bag and took out a bottle of wine. A rich aroma of wine filled the living room of the villa. Ling Xiaotian leaned close to the bottle and took a deep breath. Then, he said with a happy expression, ""Not bad, not bad! Just the aroma of this wine alone is much more mellow and rich than the original Drunken Eight Immortals!” After he finished speaking, he took out a white wine glass from under the coffee table and filled it to the brim. Then, he picked up the glass with his thumb and middle finger, raised his head, and drank it all in one go. Ling Xiaotian closed his eyes and opened them after a while. He said excitedly, “RUO Fei, this wine is really good! Although it was less agile than the last time, the wine fragrance and taste were almost the same! I think it’s better than those high – end white wines on the market that cost hundreds or even thousands of Yuan! The taste is very unique!” “Uncle Ling, so you’re saying that there’s a reason to acquire the winery?” Xia ruofei asked with a smile. “There’s too much!” Ling Xiaotian said without hesitation, “ruofei, I won’t hide it from you. The day you came the last time, I had already ordered my subordinates to start the acquisition plan. After tasting your wine today, I’m even more certain that the decision I made that day was the right one!” “Alright! Since uncle Ling is so confident, let’s work together!” Xia ruofei agreed readily and continued, “but ... Regarding the shares, I think I should invest some money in it, or you can have more shares! It’s not appropriate for me to take half of the shares without spending a single cent ...” “RUO Fei, the technology you’ve mastered is the key to the winery’s development!” Ling Xiaotian said. It’s not a problem to take half of the shares, because without your technology, this acquisition plan is impossible ...” “This ...” “Ruofei, don’t be so modest!” Ling Xiaotian said, “don’t tell me you won’t even listen to me?” Ling Xiaotian’s words implied that he was his future father – in – Law! The daughter had not even married over yet, and the Son – in – Law was already not listening to her. “No, no... Uncle Ling, I just feel that I’m taking too much advantage of you ...” Xia ruofei quickly replied. Of course, if it was another business partner, Xia ruofei would have taken 50% of the shares for granted. However, Ling Xiaotian was different. After all, he was Ling Qingxue’s father! Ling Xiaotian smiled and said, “ruofei, my intuition from being in the business for so many years tells me that even if I only have 50% of the shares, I’ll still profit greatly from this cooperation! Alright, let’s stop fighting over the shares. Just do as I say!” “Alright then ...” Xia ruofei said helplessly, “but, uncle Ling, if the winery still needs more investment, we can invest according to the shares. We can’t let you pay for it all by yourself!” “Alright!” Ling Xiaotian also said straightforwardly, “I’ll get someone to draft the contract later. When you have time, come to my company to sign it.” “Alright!” Xia ruofei said. “Oh right, ruofei, after we acquire the winery, how are you going to produce the improved version of Drunken Eight Immortals?” Ling Xiaotian asked, “do you need any additional equipment or medicinal herbs? I’m going to put these into the budget first.” Xia ruofei smiled. “No need for that. After the winery is acquired, we can just produce it according to the previous process.” Xia ruofei continued, “but this is a technology that my friend and I have mastered together, so the production may be a little more troublesome ... I’ll rent a warehouse in the suburbs. The winery only needs to send the produced liquor to the warehouse regularly and leave the rest to us. When we’re done with the improvement, we’ll inform the winery to bring the liquor back for bottles.” After listening to Xia ruofei’s explanation of the process, Ling Xiaotian did not feel that there was anything wrong with it. After all, this was a core technique. It was right for Xia ruofei to be cautious, so Ling Xiaotian agreed without any hesitation. “As for the initial acquisition of the winery, the design of the new packaging after production, and the release of advertisements, I won’t be in charge. You’re more experienced, so you can make the decisions.” Xia ruofei said with a smile. “No problem, just focus on the technical side!” Ling Xiaotian said. The two of them chatted about some details, and an hour or two passed before they knew it. Ling Xiaotian enthusiastically invited Xia ruofei to stay for dinner. Naturally, Xia ruofei could not reject his future father-in-law’s request. It was almost dinner time, so the two of them ate at the table. At this moment, Xia ruofei finally understood why Ling Xiaotian had asked him to bring a few more bottles of wine over the phone. It turned out that Ling Xiaotian had already prepared to drink the wine he had brought for dinner. The father and son drank the five bottles of wine one on one, and they had finished three bottles. Xia ruofei had drunk about 1.6 or 1.7 pounds. Despite his amazing alcohol tolerance, he could not help but feel a little dizzy. Since he was drunk, he could not drive tonight. Hence, Ling Xiaotian asked Xia ruofei to stay the night. Xia ruofei gave ye Lingyun a call to inform him and followed Ling Xiaotian upstairs. The room that Ling Xiaotian had arranged for Xia ruofei was Ling Qingxue's boudoir. Xia ruofei was a little embarrassed as he declined. Ling Xiaotian laughed and said, "What does it matter? Qingxue was not home! At this time, the housekeeper, Madam Chen, had already gone back. Who ... Would prepare a guest room for you? It's ... It's one of us, it's fine, it's fine ..." Ling Xiaotian had drunk so much that his tongue was a little loose. Since he had already said so, Xia ruofei could only accept this arrangement. "Alright! Thank you, uncle Ling!" Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. "Ruofei, you ... Should rest early!" Ling Xiaotian's footsteps were a little unsteady. His body swayed as he said, "I ... I'm going back to my room too!" "Good night, uncle Ling!" Xia ruofei said politely. After closing the door, Xia ruofei walked over to the bed with weak steps and laid on the bed. A faint fragrance assailed his nose. This was Ling Qingxue's bed, and the sheets and blankets were the same as Ling Qingxue's yesterday ... Xia ruofei imagined the scene of Ling Qingxue lying on the bed, and the evil fire in his heart burned even more fiercely. Xia ruofei could not help but smile bitterly, thinking, "my future father-in-law's arrangement is really ..." Xia ruofei couldn't sleep peacefully in Ling Qingxue's room. He sat up and tried to do the strange pose that the little golden man had demonstrated in the spatial stone tablet ...

Chapter 269: Jumping into the Yellow River can't clear your name (1)

Xia ruofei skillfully got into that position. When the familiar pain appeared again, Xia ruofei was stunned. I can do this position again? Xia ruofei was so overjoyed that he even forgot about the intense pain from his torn meridians. It seemed like he could try again after a certain amount of time! Xia ruofei said in his heart. It had been almost half a day since he had tried to do this strange posture. Xia ruofei judged that his body was in the process of recovery and reconstruction. After his meridians were completely repaired from the previous attempt, he could naturally try again. Furthermore, this process of restoration and reconstruction would definitely make his body and meridians stronger! Xia ruofei started to concentrate and grit his teeth. The pain was still very intense. There was a cute pink clock on the opposite side of the princess bed in Ling Qingxue's room. Xia ruofei could feel the passage of time. In his eyes, the second hand was like a slow motion camera on TV, shaking for a long time before moving one square. Xia ruofei knew that the pain had amplified his nerves and made him feel that time had passed very slowly. One minute passed. Two minutes passed. Three minutes ... Xia ruofei's facial muscles started to tremble. He gritted his teeth and tried his best to hold on. Fortunately, his perseverance was far beyond that of ordinary people. If he were an ordinary person who had not undergone the cruel anti – captive training, he would have lifted his posture and quit the training as soon as the pain hit him. Xia ruofei's eyes were red. He looked at the clock on the wall and saw that five minutes had passed. The intense pain made him dizzy, but he still grinned and revealed a smile that was uglier than crying. Last time, he had persisted for five minutes, and this time, he had obviously improved. Xia ruofei's entire body trembled. Finally, after about five and a half minutes, he could not hold on any longer. He could not help but withdraw from that strange posture. It lasted half a minute longer than the last time ... Xia ruofei's mouth twitched. He felt weak all over. He lay on the bed, panting. After a while, he recovered and slowly sat up. The feeling of warmth after the intense pain was so comfortable that Xia ruofei felt drowsy. He got up and moved his limbs. Suddenly, he heard a series of cracking sounds as if his bones were colliding. Xia ruofei clenched his fist and a series of cracking sounds could be heard. He casually waved his fist and there was a loud whoosh. Although there was no reference, he could feel that his strength had increased a lot. This strange posture was really heaven – defying! Just maintaining it for a few minutes had such an obvious effect on strengthening the body! Xia ruofei said in his heart. Furthermore, after drinking a pound of white wine, the dizziness had disappeared. Xia ruofei was now very clear – headed. “The alcohol must have been expelled from my body along with the impurities ...” Xia ruofei mumbled to himself. As he said that, he suddenly realized something. He raised his hand and saw that there was a layer of black grease – like impurities on the surface of his skin, and it was still emitting a foul smell. However, the impurities this time were obviously much less than the last time. They did not cover the entire skin, only thin pieces in some parts. Xia ruofei hurriedly opened the window and turned on the air conditioner. He adjusted it to the ventilation gear so that he could get rid of the bad smell as soon as possible. Thinking about how he had made Ling Qingxue’s fragrant room stink, Xia ruofei could not help but scratch his head in embarrassment. Then, Xia ruofei’s expression changed slightly. He quickly turned to look at Ling Qingxue’s princess bed. He had been sitting on top of it practicing that posture just now. After practicing, he had even laid on the bed sheet. The impurities that his body had discharged ... As far as Xia ruofei could see, there were two or three black stains on Ling Qingxue’s light pink bed sheet! If Ling Qingxue’s blanket had not been folded neatly at the head of the bed, it would have probably been stained as well. What should he do? He had dirtied Ling Qingxue’s bed sheets after staying here for a night ... Xia ruofei felt his head throb. He even regretted that he had been in such a hurry to practice this movement. Xia ruofei couldn’t stand the sour smell coming from his body. He decided not to care about the bed sheet for now and rushed into the bathroom to wash it. Fortunately, he had a change of clothes in the space at any time. He washed the long johns in the bathroom and hung them in the space to dry. As for his coat, although it smelled a little, he couldn’t change it. He didn’t bring anything else with him today except for a bag of wine. It didn’t make sense that he would change his clothes the next day. Hence, Xia ruofei hung the coat on the balcony outside Ling Qingxue’s room. It should be well – ventilated for the night and there should not be any smell. In the end, Xia ruofei came to the bed and looked at the bedsheet helplessly. After much consideration, he decided to wash the stains off. He couldn’t just leave such an obvious stain here, could he? Besides, he was going to lie on it to sleep tonight. Hence, Xia ruofei removed the bedsheets with a bitter face and took them to the bathroom. He repeatedly scrubbed the dirty spots and hung them on the drying pole on the balcony after confirming that they were clean. Xia ruofei did not know what Ling Xiaotian’s expression would be like when he saw the bed sheets being dried out in the sun tomorrow morning. However, it was useless to think about it now. He made up his mind and decided to sleep first. So he opened Ling Qingxue’s cabinet and looked for the spare bed sheets. While he was looking for the bed sheets, Xia ruofei accidentally opened a cabinet door. It was filled with all sorts of lace underwear. He quickly closed the cabinet door, but he could not help but let his imagination run wild. He could not help but imagine Ling Qingxue wearing those lace underwear. Can’t we just have a good night’s sleep? Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. After a while, Xia ruofei finally found the bed sheet. He laid it out, spread out Ling Qingxue’s fragrant blanket, and got into bed. His mind was filled with Ling Qingxue’s graceful figure, and he tossed and turned until very late at night before he finally fell asleep. The next morning, Xia ruofei only woke up when Ling Xiaotian knocked on his door and asked him to have breakfast. He got up and answered first. Then he ran to the balcony to put on his coat. He touched the bed sheet and it was still wet. It seemed that it was impossible to change it back in the morning. Xia ruofei had no choice but to open the door. Ling Xiaotian still did not leave and stood at the door, waiting. When he saw Xia ruofei come out, he smiled and said, ""Ruofei, go and have breakfast!" Xia ruofei nodded and said after some hesitation, ""That ... Uncle Ling, I accidentally dirtied Qingxue's bed sheets last night. I've already washed them and hung them out to dry." It was so obvious that Xia ruofei could not possibly hide it. He might as well take the initiative to say it so that Ling Xiaotian would not make blind guesses. There was not enough time for the bed sheets to dry in one night ... Xia ruofei suddenly realized that he had made a stupid mistake! Time! Time! Why didn't he leave the bed sheets in the spirit map space last night? A few days had passed since he had spent the night in the spirit map space. The bed sheets must be completely dry by now! It was too late to say anything now ... Xia ruofei looked at Ling Xiaotian. As expected, Ling Xiaotian had a strange expression on his face. Staying in the boudoir at night and dirtying the bedsheets, no matter how one heard it, it was full of meaning. Xia ruofei quickly explained, "uncle Ling, I was too drunk yesterday. I accidentally vomited it out. However, I have already cleaned it up. I have also washed the bed sheets!" Ling Xiaotian smiled and said, "so that's how it is!" It's okay, ruofei, you can just leave it there, Madam Chen will take care of it!" "It's fine, it's fine. It's just a matter of convenience ..." Xia ruofei said with a sigh of relief. "Let's go eat!" Ling Xiaotian said with a smile. The two of them went downstairs together. Xia ruofei thought that Ling Xiaotian should have accepted his explanation, but he did not expect Ling Xiaotian to say in his heart, ""Little guy! I've had two drinks with you, how could I not know your alcohol tolerance? You're going to throw up from that little bit of alcohol? It seemed that the firepower of young people was exuberant! Should I have asked Qingxue to come back earlier?" If Xia ruofei knew what Ling Xiaotian was thinking right now, he would definitely vomit blood. This was like jumping into the Yellow River and not being able to clear his name!

Chapter 270: Space iron – Skin Dendrobium_1

After having breakfast at Ling Xiaotian's house, Xia ruofei got up and left. Ling Xiaotian was also very busy. The Lingyun hotel Under Ling Ji F & B was competing for the target of being a designated reception unit of the municipal Party Committee. Their F & B business was also developing into the secondary market. At the same time, the acquisition of Ding Feng winery had been put on the agenda. He was also in a hurry to go to the company to deal with complicated matters, so he did not ask Xia ruofei to stay. Xia ruofei drove back to Taoyuan farm. After his routine visit to the greenhouse and the construction site, Xia ruofei went back to his room. After locking the doors and windows and drawing the curtains, Xia ruofei took out the spiritual map and entered the medium. He first checked the status of the Hornets in the new space and tried again. He found that he could now control about 20 Hornets. Although it was only a small improvement, Xia ruofei was still very happy. Xia ruofei played with Blackie and the rest for a while. After checking their food supplies, he went to the original space. The 20 stalks of iron – Skin dendrobe he had found at laoyan mountain a few days ago were all packed in plastic bags. Xia ruofei was planning to plant them today. Before this, Xia ruofei had searched for relevant information on the internet. The cutting planting technique of the iron – skinned Dendrobium was not complicated. All he needed to do was cut the old stem into sections every two or three sprouts, and then proceed with the cutting. In the outside world, the incision might need to be disinfected and there were other things to take note of. However, in an environment like the spirit map space, Xia ruofei basically did not need to consider so much. He took out a military dagger and cut the iron – Skin Dendrobium he had collected into small strips. Each iron – Skin dendrobe had six or seven long old stems, and each old stem could be cut into seven or eight sections. Therefore, after processing all 20 iron – Skin dendrobes, Xia ruofei had obtained nearly 1000 stalks. He first threw the ears into the sorting box, then poured in the diluted flower petal solution to soak them. During the soaking process, Xia ruofei went to the place where he had planted the vegetables. Now, most of the vegetable field was empty. There were wicker baskets stacked beside the vegetable field. These were the vegetables that Xia ruofei usually picked to meet his daily supply. Xia ruofei used the hoe to turn the vegetable field around and then walked over with the sorting box. He inserted the tassels into the vegetable field one by one. After planting vegetables for so long, his movements were very skilled. It didn't take long for him to plant all 1000 – plus tassels into the field. Next, Xia ruofei took out a watering can and filled the space pond with water, thoroughly watering the iron – skinned Dendrobium. In the end, Xia ruofei even filled a pot with diluted flower petal solution and poured a little on each ear. After two hours, Xia ruofei was done with the planting of the ironclad claustrophobia. He was very confident in the spirit map space and was certain that the iron – Skin dendrobes would not disappoint him. They would all survive. Xia ruofei packed up his tools and left the spirit map space. He went to the bathroom to wash the dirt off his hands. Then, he took out his phone and habitually checked that he usually didn't bring his phone into the spirit map space. There were no missed calls or text messages, but there was a WeChat message. Xia ruofei opened his WeChat. It was from Wu Liqian, the deputy head of Changping County. She had not been in contact with Xia ruofei for a while. "Little Xia, you're getting stronger and stronger!" He added a speechless emoji at the end of his sentence. Xia ruofei was confused and replied with a string of question marks. Wu Liqian replied quickly. This time, she didn't send anything, only a link. Xia ruofei clicked on the link with a hint of curiosity. This link was actually a piece of news that had just been posted on the official websites of the Sanshan Commission for Discipline Inspection and the special Inspector Bureau. The title was "Lin Wanshui, the Deputy Secretary General of the three mountains Municipal Party Committee, is under investigation for serious violation of discipline and law." The content of the message was very simple. The Deputy Secretary General of the three mountains Municipal Party Committee, Lin Wanshui (at the current position), is suspected of serious violation of discipline and law. He is currently under investigation. Behind it was Lin Wanshui's resume. Secretary Tian was so fast! Xia ruofei couldn't help but be a little speechless. However, he knew that Lin Wanshui himself was definitely not clean. He knew Tian Huilan quite well. If Lin Wanshui only violated the rules and didn't break the red line of the law, Tian Huilan would definitely not have fabricated evidence and directly caused him to fall from his position. Xia ruofei just didn't expect Wu Liqian to be so well – informed. She actually knew that he was the one who had caused this. So he replied with a blushing emoji and then typed: "Sis Wu, it's his own butt that's not clean! nozuonodie!" Wu Liqian replied, "it's all your fault!" You're the nemesis of all the officials!" Wu Liqian had personally experienced it once. Last time at the Linhai town police station, Xia ruofei had caused a ruckus and sent the Deputy Director of the county Public Security Bureau and the director of the police station to prison. This time, Lin Wanshui would not be able to escape either. According to what Wu Liqian knew, the investigators had already found out that Lin Wanshui had used his position to benefit others and received a large amount of bribes through his family and children. It was said that the amount of money involved in the case was close to ten million. Moreover, the information consulting company opened by Lin Wanshui's son, Lin Feng, was also found to have a lot of problems, including false invoices, tax evasion, forged contracts, and so on. In fact, Lin Feng's company was an important channel for Lin Wanshui to receive benefits. The investigators had already taken coercive measures against Lin Wanshui and his son, and they would soon be sent to the legal authorities. That's why Wu Liqian was so emotional. Xia ruofei was in a good mood. He took out a cigarette and lit it up. Then, he chuckled and sent a message to correct her. "Sis Wu, please mind your words! If you say that I'm the nemesis of corrupt officials, I can still reluctantly accept it ..." "You ... I'm telling you, young Xiao was also scared out of his wits this time!" Wu Liqian replied. Xiao Mei had called Wu Liqian after the incident and asked her some questions humbly. That was how Wu Liqian had found out about the incident that Xia ruofei had caused a few days ago. Xiao Mei had wanted to ask about Xia ruofei the most, so she had told Wu Liqian everything about her low – Level mistake. “Hahaha! Secretary Xiao was obviously not as capable as sis Wu! But I don’t blame her!” Xia ruofei replied. “She told me. She also said that if it wasn’t for you speaking up for her, she might have become the shortest – serving Secretary in the history of the municipal Party Committee!” Wu Liqian replied. Wu Liqian probably didn’t have any important work to do at the moment, so the two of them started chatting on WeChat. Xia ruofei thought for a while and sent a message.””Sis Wu, you promised to come over to my place on the first day of the new year. Why haven’t you come after so many days of work?” “I’ll go in a few days! However, he’s either inspecting and guiding them as the deputy head of the county, or just hanging out with them as friends.” Wu Liqian replied. Xia ruofei smiled and typed on his phone,””Sure! Bring brother – in – Law with you, I’ll treat you guys to a real rural tourism experience!” “I guess you’ll have to wait a few years ...” “What’s wrong?” “I’m not married yet! Where are you going to find a brother – in – Law!”
