

Chapter 271: Song Zhengping's request (1)

Xia ruofei was stunned when he saw the message. He really didn't know that Wu Liqian was not married. He noticed that Wu Liqian used the word "not married" instead of "no husband." Not married meant that she was not married, and if she did not have a husband, she might have a history of marriage. It was possible that she was divorced or had lost her husband. Wu Liqian should be at least 30 years old, and she was a leader with real power. In general, it was rare for a female cadre of this age to be unmarried, because it was likely to be regarded as an anomaly, and even affect the growth and progress of their career. Besides, Wu Liqian was definitely a beautiful woman. She was well – to – do in all aspects, so Xia ruofei had always thought that Wu Liqian had a family and even a child. He sent a series of 'fainted' emojis over. Then, he directly sent a voice message, "sis Wu, you're not joking with me, are you? Are you really not married yet?" Xia ruofei let go and sent the voice message. "It's true," Wu Liqian replied with three words. Xia ruofei quickly typed on his phone: "No way? Why? Is it because you're too busy with work and don't have time to find one?" "You haven't met a suitable one, have you? Xiao Xia, I'm going to have a meeting soon, let's talk when we're free ..." Obviously, Wu Liqian didn't want to talk too much about this topic. Xia ruofei responded with a smiley face. The incident with Wu Liqian was just a small interlude, and Xia ruofei put it aside very quickly. He turned on his computer and withdrew the sales funds from Taoyuan roaty into his bank card, and another 200000 Yuan was deposited. Then, he browsed the news online for a while. It was almost lunchtime. Xia ruofei didn't sleep well last night, so he went back to his room to catch up on some sleep after dinner. Just as he laid down, his phone rang. Xia ruofei reached for the phone on the bedside table. He picked it up immediately when he saw that it was a call from song Zhengping, elder song's eldest son and the Chief Judge of xiangnan province. "Hello, Chief Judge song!" "Little Xia, I didn't disturb your rest, did I?" Song Zhengping asked very kindly. "Oh, no, no," Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "what's the matter, Chief Judge song?" "Xiao Xia, I really do have a matter that I need to trouble you with." Song Zhengping said, "the old man's body has been recovering well recently. He's a little restless, and he wants to go out for a walk in a few days." "Oh? It's good to go out for a walk." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "chief, you are in good health now. Proper traveling and exercise will be good for your recovery." "Since you've said so, I'm relieved." Song Zhengping smiled and said, "but I'll have to trouble you with this!" "My father doesn't want to alert the local comrades, and he doesn't like to be surrounded by people, so he's preparing to travel in plain clothes. Can you spare a few days to accompany him? With you by the old man's side, if there's any health problem, you can also deal with it in time." Xia ruofei pondered for a while and asked, "Chief Judge song, when will the Bureau chief be leaving?" How long have you been out for?" "We'll leave in a week!" Song Zhengping said, "he wants to go to Mount Wu Yi to visit a few old friends and have some fun. It shouldn't take too long. He'll be back in three or four days at most." Xia ruofei did some calculations. It should not be a conflict with Liang Qichao's matter. By the time Liang Qichao's United States cousin returned to the country, he should have already returned to the three mountains. He would not delay the sale of the aureum ore. Hence, Xia ruofei said, "no problem, Chief Judge song! I'll go with the chief!" "That's great!" Song Zhengping was overjoyed. Little Xia, thank you!" "You're too polite." Xia ruofei said in a neutral tone. He didn't have the intention of relying on the song family for his own benefit, so when he was with song Zhengping and elder song, he was always calm and peaceful. He wasn't as respectful as most people were when they were with the song family. "Oh right, Xiao Xia," song Zhengping continued. "The old man won't be bringing many people with him. So, other than medical care, I'd like to ask you to help me with some security matters." When Xia ruofei was fighting a group of Scouts, song Zhengping also lived in a small courtyard in the mountains in Hongzhou, so he had a deep impression of Xia ruofei's superb skills. Moreover, song Zhengping had found out about Xia ruofei's military service history, which was why he had asked Xia ruofei to help out with security. Xia ruofei was very familiar with the job of protecting the Bureau chief. He smiled and said without hesitation, "Alright! Since you trust me so much, then I'll help you!" "Thank you!" Song Zhengping said happily, "old Lu will contact you for the details. You can directly contact staff officer Xu for the security matters!" "No problem!" A week passed by in the blink of an eye. Xia ruofei had settled some matters in advance, including the supply of vegetables and some daily affairs of the company. He had explained everything to ye Lingyun and pang Hao. Ling Xiaotian had already worked out the specific plan to acquire the winery. Xia ruofei had even gone to their company to sign the cooperation contract a few days ago. Xia ruofei did not ask about the rest of the acquisition matters. Anyway, Ling Xiaotian had arranged a special team to do it. Xia ruofei even called to ask about the barbed wire fence he had ordered and learned that it was half complete. He told the factory not to deliver the goods for the time being after they were done and to contact them when he returned from abroad. He also called Ling Qingxue to explain the situation. This girl had been quite busy recently. Other than meeting once when Xia ruofei flew to the headquarters of lingji restaurant to sign the contract a few days ago, they had not seen each other since. They had only spoken on the phone or WeChat. Ling Qingxue had absolute trust in Xia ruofei, so she only told him to be careful over the phone. Xia ruofei bade farewell to ye Lingyun and pang Hao, then left the farm in his Knight XV and headed straight for elder song's Gu Ling courtyard. Manager Lu personally welcomed Xia ruofei in front of the building and led him into the building with great enthusiasm. "Doctor Xia, I'll have to trouble you this time!" Manager Lu said politely. "You're too kind, manager Lu." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "don't worry. Since I've promised Chief Judge song, I'll do my best in terms of health care and security." "Thank you! Thank you!" Manager Lu said, "doctor Xia, we're traveling in plain clothes this time and we didn't inform our comrades in the local area, so the security work is under a lot of pressure. You should go and contact Xiao Xu first! I'll slowly tell you about the rest later!" "Alright! I'll go find staff officer Xu myself." Xia ruofei said with a smile. Xia ruofei found Xu Wu's office very quickly. He knocked on the door, but there was no response. That's strange! Was he not here? Xia ruofei had a question in his mind. Xia ruofei casually twisted the ball lock and the office door opened. Xia ruofei thought that since Xu Wu did not lock the door, he should not have gone too far. He might be back soon. Hence, Xia ruofei decided to wait in the office. With this in mind, Xia ruofei walked into Xu Wu's office. As soon as he entered the room, Xia ruofei suddenly felt a sense of danger and a chill ran down his spine ...

Chapter 272: Subduing in an instant (1)

Xia ruofei twisted his body without thinking. A gust of wind blew in his face and a fist brushed past the tip of his nose. In a flash, Xia ruofei reached out and accurately grabbed the attacker's wrist. Then, he turned around, lowered his body, and did a standard over – Shoulder throw, easily throwing the attacker to the ground. Then, Xia ruofei flipped the attacker over and pressed his knee against his spine, twisting his hand to the back. The entire process only took one or two seconds. His actions were quite coherent and could be said to be done in one go. This was a completely subconscious reaction. At this moment, he saw that the Ambusher was wearing a black hood and the handle of a gun was faintly visible at his waist. Xia ruofei's expression changed abruptly. This was elder song's courtyard. How serious was the situation for an armed attacker to appear? He pulled the gun out of the attacker's waist with lightning speed, then loaded the bullet with one hand and pointed the muzzle at the back of the attacker's head. From the moment the Ambusher attacked to the moment he was subdued by Xia ruofei, he had no way of resisting. By the time he could react, a Cold Gun was already pointed at the back of his head. "Ruofei, ruofei, don't shoot!" He shouted in fear. It's me!" Xia ruofei heard the sound and frowned. He moved his hand that was holding the gun and took off the man's hood. "Staff officer Xu?" Seeing this, Xia ruofei let go of his hand and frowned. "What are you up to?" he asked. Xu Wu grimaced in pain as he stood up. He rubbed his wrist and smiled bitterly. "RUO Fei, your strength seems to have improved greatly again. I can't even resist when I'm in your hands. I could at least exchange a few moves with you in Hongzhou." In fact, Xu Wu did not know that this was because he did not have any intention to kill Xia ruofei. Otherwise, with Xia ruofei's sharp senses, he would not even need to make a move. He would have already sensed the danger and attacked decisively. "You haven't answered my question," Xia ruofei said calmly. Xu Wu's expression was a little awkward as he said, "Ruofei, I'm just afraid that you've been away from the Army for so long, and your vigilance ..." "So you're using this method to test me?" Xia ruofei said with a frown. "I'm sorry ..." Xu Wu said carefully. "Staff officer Xu," Xia ruofei said calmly, "I hope this will be the first and last time. Otherwise, don't blame me for not showing you any respect!" In fact, Xia ruofei had a good time with Xu Wu during the days in Hongzhou. The two of them called each other brothers. After all, their similar military experiences made them naturally close in such an enclosed environment. However, Xu Wu's way of testing him today made him very unhappy. This was a lack of trust in his ability, and at the same time, it was very impolite. "I see," Xu Wu smiled awkwardly. "Ruofei, I hope you don't take it to heart. I made this decision on my own. Even manager Lu didn't know about it ..." "It's mainly because the security mission this time is very important. I personally feel very stressed and can't feel at ease ..." Xu Wu explained. Seeing Xu Wu's sincere attitude, Xia ruofei's face softened. He nodded and said, "Forget it, let's not talk about this anymore. Let's just turn the page!" "Alright!" Xu Wu nodded with a smile. They were all men in the Army. Both parties were not petty people. After Xu Wu's apology, Xia ruofei's unhappiness naturally disappeared. He did not have to keep such a small matter in mind. Xia ruofei asked, "staff officer Xu, manager Lu asked me to come and find you as soon as I arrived. You said that the security was under a lot of pressure. Tell me, what's the situation?" Xu Wu smiled bitterly and said, "this time, the Bureau chief is going out in plain clothes. Strictly speaking, there are only the two of us as personal guards. When we arrived at Mount Wu Yi, because we didn't inform the local government, some of the security outside was arranged by the song family. It's definitely not professional enough, so it's mainly the two of us!" Xia ruofei nodded and said, "I understand." Xu Wu continued, "also, the Bureau chief insisted on taking the bullet train ..." "A train?" Xia ruofei was stunned. Elder song's identity was very special. Such an important person would usually travel by private plane. If it was close, it would definitely be a bulletproof car. Even if there were public transportation, the carriage would be cleared. Those who looked no different from ordinary passengers were actually professional security personnel. If elder song wanted to take the train, it wouldn't be like this. He didn't want to attract so many people, so he chose to travel in plain clothes. If he chose the train, he must be with the ordinary passengers. It couldn't be a special train. Otherwise, wouldn't it attract even more people? As a result, the pressure on the security was much greater. "Yeah!" Xu Wu forced a smile and said. The situation at the station would be complicated, and there might be unknown dangers on the bus. All these needed to be prepared. That's why I'm under a lot of pressure right now ..." Xia ruofei's expression was still very relaxed as he said, "I know. Elder song must have wanted to empathize with the people. That's why he chose to travel by train." Xu Wu was stunned for a moment before he asked, "don't you feel nervous, ruofei?" Don't you feel the pressure?" "I don't feel anything!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "anyway, security is your job. I'm just your assistant. If there's any problem, I don't have to bear the responsibility! Why should I be nervous?" Xu Wu's eyes widened and he said with grief and indignation, "You ... How can you be so irresponsible?" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "how can I not be responsible?" "I'll seriously fulfill my duty as your assistant!" "I've really met a bad person ..." Xu Wu said with a bitter face, "no, you have to help me revise the plan again!" "I'm worried that there's something missing ..." "Alright, alright, alright, go ahead!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Xu Wu asked Xia ruofei to sit down and poured him a glass of water. He sat opposite Xia ruofei and said, "The Bureau chief will set off early tomorrow morning. There will be comrades from the military unit at the front line from guling to the South train station. There will be sentries arranged on the mountain road. When you enter the station ..." Xia ruofei listened to Xu Wu's proposal seriously and gave his own opinions and suggestions from time to time. Xia ruofei had a lot of experience in this area. The things he put forward were all details that Xu Wu had not considered thoroughly. Xu Wu nodded and wrote down Xia ruofei's opinions with a pen. Very quickly, the two of them studied the plan from beginning to end. In the end, Xu Wu sighed and said, "Ruofei, it's a pity for a talent like you to leave the Army! Why don't I look for the Bureau chief and specially recruit you back! Our guard Bureau is in need of an all-rounder like you!" Xia ruofei quickly said, "come on!" "Come on! I don't know how comfortable I am now!" Xu Wu was just saying. He knew that everyone had their own aspirations and could not be forced. Besides, Xia ruofei had just left the Army and the possibility of him returning was almost zero. Xu Wu stood up and walked to the safe in the corner. He skillfully entered the password to open the safe and took out a small box. He walked to Xia ruofei. "This is for you. You have to help me keep it safe!" Xu Wu said. "What is it?" Xia ruofei asked. "You'll know when you open it!" Xu Wu said with a smile. With a trace of doubt, Xia ruofei reached out to take the box and placed it on the coffee table. Then, he unlocked it and lifted the lid. Xia ruofei's eyes lit up when he saw the contents of the box.

Chapter 273: Temporary gun (1)

The box was filled with shiny metal parts. Xia ruofei could tell at a glance that it was a pistol. He could even tell that it was a Type 92 pistol. As this was the standard equipment for commanders and special Forces, the type 92 pistol bullets he used in the lone wolf assault team could be counted in boxes. It was no exaggeration to say that Xia ruofei could assemble these parts in the shortest time even with his eyes closed. Xia ruofei reached out and grabbed a gun part. After a series of dazzling movements, a complete type 92 pistol appeared in his hands. The whole process only took four to five seconds. "Sure! I didn't stop!" Xu Wu said with a smile. Xia ruofei said proudly, "I'm a little rusty. When I was in the Army, I only needed nine seconds to disassemble and combine them." "Alright, alright, stop showing off!" Xu Wu said, "no one can compete with you lone wolf when it comes to playing with these standard equipment!" Xia ruofei waved the gun in his hand and asked, "What's the meaning of this?" "This is the gun I've specially applied for special approval from the higher-ups for you to use during this mission, ruofei," said Xu Wu with a serious face. However, you must immediately take it back after the mission is completed!" Xia ruofei whistled and turned the gun around in a carefree manner. "I didn't expect to have the chance to touch the type 92 after leaving the Army. It seems that helping you guys on this mission was not in vain." "I hope you won't have the chance to use live ammunition ..." Said Xu Wu with a bitter smile. If Xia ruofei were to use this gun during this trip, it would be a very serious threat to his safety. As the first person in charge of elder song's safety, Xu Wu naturally did not want to encounter such a situation. There was also a leather holster and a spare magazine in the box. The spare magazine was also filled with live ammunition. Each magazine had a capacity of 25 bullets. With one magazine and a spare magazine in the pistol, there were a total of 50 bullets. Xia ruofei took off his jacket and skillfully put on the holster. Then, he meticulously checked the gun, turned off the safety, and put the type 92 pistol back into the holster. After putting on his coat, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Xu Can, you're too stingy. Since you've already applied for special approval, why don't you just get a more powerful weapon? I'm not used to this small gun!" "Then what gun are you used to in the Army?" Xu Wu asked, "don't tell me that you lone wolves are worthy of the desert Eagle?" "JS05! I used it the most in the Army!" Xia ruofei chuckled. "Xu Can, why don't you go and apply for one?" "Swish!" Xu Wu was shocked and quickly said, "stop it! Did he really think this mission was a cross – Border decapitation operation? I'm telling you, there's only the 92 – form, nothing else! And I only have 50 bullets!" The full name of the "JS05" that Xia ruofei mentioned was the JS05 12.7MM sniper rifle. It was the only large – caliber anti – Armor rifle in China that could fire a secondary – Armor piercing shell. Currently, it was only equipped to some Special Forces. Xia ruofei's lips twitched. "I knew it. Xu Can, the JS05 is a special equipment for Special Forces. I guess you've never played with it before?" Xia ruofei was right. Although Xu Wu was an elite of the guard Bureau, he had no chance to touch this kind of long – range destructive equipment that was specially equipped for Special Forces. The guard Bureau also had specialized snipers and sniper rifles, but they were all relatively light models. Xu Wu pushed Xia ruofei out of the room angrily and said, "Let's go! Hurry up and leave! I've given you the gun and we've discussed the plan, so don't stay here!" "Xu Shen, you're killing the donkey when the grinding is done!" Xia ruofei laughed. "Get lost ..." Xia ruofei laughed heartily. After leaving Xu Wu's office, he went straight to manager Lu. Manager Lu then talked to Xia ruofei about the rough schedule for this trip. After all, Xia ruofei had to take care of security work as well, so he had to know the schedule. After the two finished their conversation, manager Lu brought Xia ruofei to elder song's room. This was the largest suite in Gu Ling courtyard. It had a bedroom, a study, a living room, and a small dining room. Manager Lu knocked on the door and brought Xia ruofei into elder song's room. Elder song had specifically instructed that Xia ruofei did not need to report to him. Elder song was wearing reading glasses and reading the newspaper in his study. Even though he had retired, he was still concerned about the country's Affairs. Reading newspapers and documents was something he did almost every day. Moreover, retired leaders of different levels also enjoyed the same treatment. Naturally, people like elder song could even read high – Level internal journals such as the Red Star internal reference. In today's highly developed Information Network, only these old Chiefs still maintained such a traditional way of obtaining information. There were very few young people who read the newspapers, and they were used to obtaining information on the internet. Manager Lu and Xia ruofei did not disturb elder song. However, elder song's hearing was very sharp. Even though the two of them had tried to be as light as possible, he could still hear their footsteps. He looked up and immediately put down the newspaper in his hand. He took off his reading glasses and put them on the desk. He stood up and said with a smile, "Little Xia, I'll have to trouble you again this time!" "It's my honor to be able to serve you, chief!" Xia ruofei replied in a manner that was neither humble nor overbearing. Then, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "besides, there's a free tour if I stay with the chief!" If other people knew about this, they would be so envious of me!" Eccentric song laughed heartily and said, "Little Xia, come over and sit!" The two went to the living room outside the study and sat down. Manager Lu immediately started to make tea for them. He had been working with elder song for more than ten years and knew elder song's habits like the back of his hand. Therefore, manager Lu always made the tea by himself and never asked the other service staff to help. Elder song often said that manager Lu's tea was the best among the same tea leaves. "Chief, let me take your pulse again!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "Alright!" Elder song laughed and reached out his hand."Little Zhou and little SU's test reports said that they've basically recovered, but I'm only at ease after you, the little miracle doctor, have examined them!" The Xiao Zhou and Xiao Su that elder song was talking about were the newly appointed medical team leader, Zhou Jiaming, and the Deputy Team Leader, su Xiaohong. Xia ruofei took elder song's pulse and said with a smile,""Chief, the situation is very good. You can stop taking the medicine after another month or so of consolidation!" In fact, Xia ruofei did not know how to feel the pulse, but he had absolute confidence in the petals of the wondrous flower. In the Chinese medicine that elder song had taken, there were almost two petals of the wondrous flower. Although the final stage of cancer was dangerous, two petals of the wondrous flower was enough to cure it. Of course, Xia ruofei was so sure because he had the Western medical examination report as evidence. As for the consolidation that he said would take about a month, the petal solution he added into the Chinese medicine during this period would naturally be less, because there was no need to waste it. "Good, good, good!" Elder song laughed and said,"I'm even more relieved to hear that! I thought that I would have to go down and play the bridge Card with the old general, but it seems that the old general will have to wait a little longer!" "Chief, you're still alive and healthy!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "Hahaha! It's all thanks to you, little guy!" Elder song said happily. Xia ruofei chatted with elder song for a while and then left. The journey would start early the next morning. Xia ruofei could not stay for too long in case he disturbed elder song's rest. As soon as Xia ruofei walked out of elder song's room, he heard a surprised voice behind him."""Ruofei, you're here!"

Chapter 274: Discovered hidden function (1)

Xia ruofei turned around immediately when he heard her voice. He smiled and said,""Song Rui? You're here too, kid!" The person who called out to Xia ruofei was the eldest young master of the song family, song Zhengping's son, song Rui. He was very close to Xia ruofei during the days they spent in Hongzhou and they even called each other brothers. The last time Xia ruofei flew back to the three mountains, song Rui even thought that elder song was there to act as a Vanguard and fly back with Xia ruofei. "Nonsense! This is my grandfather's place, why can't I be here?" Song Rui laughed and scolded,"my main mission in the three mountains is to accompany Grandpa!" "Come on, you!" Xia ruofei exposed him mercilessly."Your main mission is to accompany the various beauties in Sanshan city, right?" "This is definitely pure slander!" Song Rui said righteously,"how can a good young man with ideals and moral integrity like me linger around beautiful women?" Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said,"I seem to remember someone boasting about poison Dragon and double resonance ..." "RUO Fei! That ... You must be tired! I'll take you to your room to rest!" Song Rui quickly changed the topic and said to manager Lu, who was standing beside Xia ruofei,"Uncle Lu, leave ruofei to me. You don't have to worry about him!" "Sure, song Rui," manager Lu said with a smile."Dr. Xia's room is on the easternmost end of the third floor. I'll have to trouble you to bring him there!" "No problem, no problem." Song Rui said repeatedly,"Uncle Lu, you can go and do your work!" After manager Lu left, song Rui complained in a low voice,""Be careful with what you say, kid. If Uncle Lu heard you, my dad would've called in a few minutes to yell at you ..." Xia ruofei laughed and said,"it seems that the fearless young master Song has a weakness!" "Nonsense! My dad is kind to everyone, but he's fierce when it comes to lecturing me!" Song Rui said, then mumbled,"sometimes I wonder if I'm his biological child ..." Xia ruofei was speechless. This young master Song was really a Blabbermouth. He just opened his mouth and said everything! The two of them chatted as they walked towards the room manager Lu had arranged for Xia ruofei. Song Rui suddenly thought of something and said with a smile,""Ruofei, I almost forgot to tell you. Do you know what's going on with that B * stard Liang Haitao? Hahaha! I can't help but want to laugh three times when I think about it! This grandson was severely reprimanded by his family's old man, and then ..." Speaking of this, song Rui couldn't help but laugh a few times before he continued,""Then, he was transferred from the military's most awesome General Hospital to the health center of a missile Brigade in the Gobi Desert in the Northwest!" "Oh, really? "It's a little tragic ..." Xia ruofei said and then smiled evilly."But why don't I feel sorry for you?" "Hahahaha!" Song Rui also laughed and said,"he deserves it! What the f * ck! You even dared to delay my grandfather's illness. If the Liang family wasn't sincere this time, our family would definitely not let this go!" Song Rui continued,"but this grandson is lucky!" If he continues to stay in the capital, I will definitely beat him to death the next time I return to the capital!" "Come on!" Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said,"if you really do that, your father will beat you up even more miserably than Liang Haitao!" Song Rui shrank his neck and said dejectedly,""This old man's life is really bitter! To have such a tyrant for a father!" Xia ruofei smiled and said,"your reincarnation skills are good enough, aren't they?" He was born as a young master of one of the top red family clans in China. If that's already a tough life, then what are the lives of people like me?" Song Rui sighed."An illustrious family background ... Hehe. To quote a saying in Fortress Besieged, this aristocratic family is also like a Fortress Besieged. The people outside the city want to enter, but the people in the city ..." Xia ruofei didn't wait for song Rui to finish acting cool and said,""People outside the city want to go in. You people in the city really know how to play!" Song Rui was stunned for a moment, then he couldn't help but burst into laughter. After a long while, he held his stomach and said,""Ruofei, I feel that you have the potential to be a comedian!" "Who told you to pretend to be depressed?" Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said,"Alright, alright. I can go to the room on the East End of the third floor by myself. I don't need a young master like you to send me off personally!" Song Rui rolled his eyes and said,""RUO Fei, it's still early and you're already going back to your room to sleep? The nightlife has just begun!" "Nonsense. Do you think I'm like you?" Xia ruofei said,"I still have an important mission to protect your grandfather tomorrow! You must make sure you sleep tonight. " Then, Xia ruofei looked at song Rui and said,""Besides ... Don't tell me you dare to go out and have fun in the middle of the night?" "Brother, life is hard ..." Song Rui said gloomily. Xia ruofei laughed out loud. He patted song Rui's shoulder and went straight to his room. Xia ruofei boiled a kettle of water, hung his coat and gun on the hook, and went to the bathroom to take a shower. After taking a shower, he changed into cotton pajamas and made a pot of tea with boiled water. He sat on the chair and drank tea while thinking about tomorrow's schedule in his mind. After going through all the details that he needed to pay attention to, Xia ruofei went to the balcony to smoke a cigarette. Then, he went to bed and told song Rui that he was not being perfunctory. It was a habit that he had developed over the years. Before an important task, he must ensure that he had enough sleep. Xia ruofei closed his eyes and his mind entered the space. He didn't necessarily go into the space every day, but he would check it with his mind before going to bed. If there was anything wrong with the plants and animals in the space, he would be able to notice it immediately. It was just a routine check, but Xia ruofei actually found a small problem. When his mind swept through the new space, he found that there were two or three Hornets flying in the space. Xia ruofei had covered the entire hornet's nest with iron. It was unknown if the metal window was damaged or if the joint was not tight enough, but three hornet's nest had escaped. Furthermore, the Hornets were chasing after xiaohei and the rest. Xiaohei and the rest must have suffered a loss. They could not do anything to the Hornets in the sky, so they could only escape in all directions. Xia ruofei's expression changed slightly as he subconsciously ordered. Under the effect of the invisible spatial force, the few wasps instantly disappeared from the new space. The next moment, they appeared in this room. Xia ruofei couldn't help but be stunned. He had not summoned the spirit map from his palm just now. Instead, he had been using his mind to contact the space to patrol. When he ordered the Hornet to move to the outside world, it was a subconscious reaction. He did not consider that he had not summoned the spirit map. In the past, he had to summon the spirit map scroll from his palm to take out or put items into the space. He had tried many times but failed to store and withdraw items without summoning the spirit map scroll. That was why it had always been very inconvenient. If he wanted to put things into the space or take things out, he had to summon the scroll from his palm first. The scroll was quite big and obvious, so he had to find a relatively hidden place. There was no way to do it without anyone knowing. Could it be that this was a change after the upgrade of the realm, and he had not noticed it? Xia ruofei was overjoyed. The three Hornets were not used to the sudden change in environment, but they quickly found their target and flapped their wings towards Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei did not panic and directly gave the Hornets an order with his mind. The three Hornets immediately circled around Xia ruofei like obedient babies, without any offensive power. After a week, Xia ruofei could now control nearly 50 Hornets. Three Hornets was nothing to him. Xia ruofei was still thinking about what had just happened, so he decided to use his mind and the three Hornets disappeared again. This time, Xia ruofei had been observing the situation in the new space with his mind. He could clearly sense that the Hornet had returned to the new space and had appeared in the iron cage according to his instructions. It really worked! Xia ruofei was surprised and happy. Then, his eyes widened as he suddenly realized something else.

Chapter 275: like a tiger that has grown wings (1)

Xia ruofei recalled that when he sent the three Hornets into the spirit map space, not only was the spirit map scroll still in his body, but his body did not come into contact with the Hornets! In the past, when Xia ruofei wanted to send things into the origin space, he had to be physically in contact with the item. Xia ruofei's reaction just now was a subconscious one. Although he could control the three Hornets with his mind, he was still a little afraid of the fierce Hornets. So he didn't touch the Hornets but focused on the Hornets and gave the order to send them into the realm. The three Hornets were directly sent into the space. Could this also be a change after the space was upgraded? Xia ruofei was pleasantly surprised and couldn't wait to try it out. The first thing he saw was the coat and pistol hanging on the coat hook not far away. Xia ruofei focused his mind and with a thought, the jacket and the pistol in the holster disappeared into thin air. His mind also sensed that they had appeared in the all-terrain vehicle in the new space. Yingying followed Xia ruofei's instructions and landed on the passenger seat of the all-terrain vehicle almost exactly. Xia ruofei was no longer sleepy and kept trying. In the end, he finally confirmed the change that he had not noticed since the last upgrade of the space. Now, Xia ruofei could store and retrieve items directly from the spirit map space without summoning the spirit map scroll. Moreover, he didn't need to physically touch the item. He could put it into the space with a thought. After repeated attempts, Xia ruofei also realized that this function had a distance limit. For now, as long as the weight and size of items within a two-meter radius of him were not beyond his control, he could put them into the space with his mind. Once it was beyond two meters, Xia ruofei would not be able to control it. Even so, it was a huge surprise for Xia ruofei. These two changes made Xia ruofei's spirit map's concealment get a qualitative improvement. Unless he needed to enter the spirit map space himself, he did not need to summon the spirit map from his palm. The spirit painting was hidden in his palm, and even the most powerful detection instrument in the world could not find it. Furthermore, he could store items in the space without physical contact. This made it much easier for Xia ruofei to do things in special situations. Xia ruofei thought of the Hornet that had suddenly flown out of the cage and decided to enter the new space to check it out. He re – checked the door and windows. At the same time, he checked the room. Although the possibility of listening and monitoring devices being installed in the room in guling courtyard was very low, Xia ruofei would be very careful when it came to the secret of the spirit map and painting. After confirming that there was no danger, Xia ruofei summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm. Then, he pulled the blanket and stuffed the scroll under it. With a thought, he entered the new space. As soon as Xia ruofei appeared in the new space, Blackie and the rest barked and ran over. Blackie bit Xia ruofei's pants and pulled him in the direction of the giant hornet's nest. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Xiao hei, don't pull!" I already know!" "By the way, Blackie, did any of you get hurt by the Hornet?" he asked after some thought. Blackie immediately barked twice. Then, the pitiful er Mao and Si Mao walked in front of Xia ruofei and barked a few times. Xia ruofei took a look and saw that the two unlucky dogs had two or three swollen spots on their bodies. With a thought, Xia ruofei retrieved a bottle of diluted flower petal solution from the original space. Then, he applied the flower petal solution on er Mao and Si Mao's wounds. The swelling subsided after a short while. Er Mao and Si Mao wagged their tails at Xia ruofei gratefully. They even stuck out their tongues to lick Xia ruofei's feet from time to time, making Xia ruofei laugh. These puppies had lived in the spirit map space for a long time. Their spiritual intelligence had long surpassed that of ordinary puppies. They were even stronger than lightning, who had been guarding Xia ruofei's house in the outside world. After all, even lightning couldn't last as long as they could in the space. Xia ruofei was also thinking of raising them a little more so that they could live in the outside world. In this way, there were a total of seven dogs on Tao Yuan farm, including lightning. Moreover, each of them was much more ferocious than an ordinary dog, so the safety of the farm was even more assured. After treating er Mao and Si Mao's wounds, Xia ruofei ordered Blackie and the rest not to get close to the cage and walked straight to it. Xia ruofei looked around the cage and quickly found a small gap at the joint of the two metal curtains. If a small Hornet accidentally flew into this gap, it could pass through. Xia ruofei immediately took out some thin iron wires from the original space. These were the leftovers from when he tied the cucumber racks in the space. He used a thin wire to fill up the gap and checked it again to make sure there were no other holes, in case these dangerous Hornets came out again and hurt Blackie and the others. Since he had entered the medium, Xia ruofei decided to take a look around. The oak tree that had been transplanted into the new space was flourishing. It had already taken root in the new space. Other than the oak tree, Blackie, the dogs, and the hornet's nest were the only other creatures in the new space. Xia ruofei quickly looked around. He returned to the stone tablet and tried again, and the result was the same as the previous times. He could see the small golden figure demonstrate nine sets of movements, but when his mind left the stone tablet, he could still only remember the first set. Xia ruofei sighed. He knew that it would be useless to try again. To unlock the second set of movements, he might need to practice the first set of movements to a certain level, or he might need space to level up again. Xia ruofei returned to the original space. The young red Dragon had already grown to more than 30 centimeters. It was estimated that it would be able to be sold directly in a while. Because Red Arowana had a hair color process, before this process was completed, it was impossible to accurately judge the quality after the hair color was completely completed. Therefore, they had to wait until they had grown to a certain extent, and it was best to maximize the benefits after the hair color was basically completed. The ginseng and the Phoebe zhennan trees were growing well as usual and Xia ruofei did not have to worry about them. Xia ruofei did not waste the branches left behind from cutting down the big Phoebe zhennan trees. He planted all of them into the soil in the space. Now, they had all survived and grown new branches and leaves. The Phoebe zhennan big material was also lying quietly on the soil in the space, completing the process of weathering and drying. Finally, Xia ruofei came to the place where the iron – Skin Dendrobium was planted. After a week in the outside world and more than seven months in the medium, the iron – Skin Dendrobium had naturally all survived and grown a lot. Iron – Skin dendrobes could only be harvested two to three years in the outside world to be used to make the priceless iron – Skin maple Dipper. However, this process only took about a month in the medium. Xia ruofei didn't plan to make the iron – Skin maple stem right away. Instead, he planned to start cutting again after a month to expand the scale of the planting. By next month, he would be able to harvest a large number of high – Quality iron – Skin Dendrobium strips. At that time, he would be able to start making the iron Kaede bucket. However, there was a problem with the production of iron maples. It was not easy to find a skilled master. In the future, he would be able to produce a batch of iron maples every month. It was best to have someone who could work on the farm for a long time. Of course, there was still plenty of time. Xia ruofei could think of a solution after he returned from Mount Wu Yi. After a round of inspection, Xia ruofei left the spirit map space with a peace of mind and kept the spirit map scroll in his palm. He was so excited that he tossed and turned in bed for a long time before he fell asleep.

Chapter 276: An expert makes a move (1)

The next morning, Xia ruofei, song Rui, and manager Lu accompanied elder song for breakfast. Then, the group of people got ready to set off. Manager Lu's ticket for the high – speed rail was at around 9 am. It would take at least 40 to 50 minutes to get to the North train station in the city. Manager Lu arranged for a modified bullet – proof GMC RV. Manager Lu followed elder song into the car. Just as Xia ruofei was about to get into the car, he saw song Rui get into the RV with a bag. "Song Rui, you are also going to Wu Yi mountain?" Xia ruofei asked in surprise. "What are you saying? my mission is to accompany Grandpa!" Song Rui smiled and said, "grandfather is going to Wuyi Mountain. Of course, I have to follow him." "What's the matter?" song Rui asked. "It's nothing," Xia ruofei said indifferently. "You're just adding on to my workload!" "Tsk! It's obviously to reduce your workload, okay? This young master is highly skilled in martial arts. Not only can I take care of myself, but I can also protect my grandfather!" Song Rui scoffed at Xia ruofei's contempt. Xia ruofei and Xu Wu looked at each other and rolled their eyes at the same time. Song Rui was not convinced and said, ""Don't doubt me! I have a few good friends there. When Grandpa went to Mount Wu Yi this time, I coordinated and arranged a lot of the local schedule!" "Hehe!" Xia ruofei said. "Let me tell you, with me around, you don't need to worry so much. Do you know how powerful my friend is in the local area?" "Hehe!" "Hehe, your sister! Can't you change the words?" "Ha!" Song Rui was so angry that he wanted to fight with Xia ruofei. At this time, elder song, who was sitting in the car, said calmly, ""Xiao Rui, are you getting in the car? Don't block the door if you're not getting in, Xiao Xia and Xiao Xu still want to get in!" "I'm coming, I'm coming ..." Song Rui quickly responded. Then, he bared his teeth at Xia ruofei and quickly got into the car. Xia ruofei and Xu Wu looked at each other, shook their heads, and smiled. They also got into the car. The bullet – proof RV started steadily and drove out of guling courtyard. It drove down the steep mountain road and then entered the city through the exit near the North train station on the winding express. They arrived at the North train station and got off the train. Xia ruofei's mission had officially begun. The bus that sent them to the station returned, and the five of them went straight to the station. Other than elder song and song Rui, manager Lu was in charge of all the arrangements and coordination of the trip. Xu Wu was in charge of security. Xia ruofei was in charge of security and was also elder song's doctor. Although the market took public transport, manager Lu had booked business class seats, so they went straight to the VIP waiting room at the station after they got off. Xu Wu was very nervous when he got off the car. Because the square in front of the station was full of people from all walks of life, it was too much pressure to protect the Bureau chief's safety in such a complicated environment. However, he soon realized that Xia ruofei was still very calm. Xu Wu also noticed that Xia ruofei's positioning was very particular. Although he was not very close to elder song, he could tell that Xia ruofei always stood in the most suitable position. Xu Wu was an expert himself, so he naturally had this insight. Xia ruofei had chosen the best position to deal with emergencies. For example, there was a high point behind him when he got off the car. Xia ruofei's position was just enough to block elder song's back. Even if there was a sniper on the roof, he would not be able to lock on to the target. Elder song's position was constantly changing, and Xia ruofei could also make adjustments at the right time. When they were walking up the steps of the square, a naughty child rushed over from the side and almost hit elder song. Xia ruofei was the first to step forward and held the child back. Xia ruofei smiled and reminded the child to be careful. He then handed him over to his parents. Even during this process, Xia ruofei still maintained a very good position. If there were any other situations, he could still handle them with ease. Xu Wu, who had been silently observing, couldn't help but feel a bit of admiration. Lone Wolf's elite team members really lived up to their reputation! Xu Wu thought to himself. Seeing Xia ruofei's calm and composed performance, Xu Wu's slightly nervous mood quickly eased. The group of people successfully entered the VIP waiting room. Xu Wu's hanging heart was also half relieved. He took a look at the terrain and personnel situation here. It was much simpler than the square before the station. Soon, it was time to check the tickets and board the train. The price of a high – speed rail business class ticket was even higher than an air ticket, so there were generally not many passengers who would buy business class tickets, and business class passengers also had their tickets checked in advance. Therefore, the whole process of entering the station was quite smooth, and the group quickly got on the harmony train. The business class coach was very spacious. There were a total of eight rows, and each row only had three seats. Each seat was a sofa – Type, very soft, and the seats could be rotated. There were special buttons on the seats that could adjust the inclination of the seats and could be stretched to become a recliner. Manager Lu had reserved seats in the first and second rows. There was a glass partition in front of the first row. After it was powered on, it became transparent, allowing one to clearly see the situation in the cockpit. According to Xu Wu's plan, elder song naturally couldn't sit by the window for safety reasons. Hence, Xia ruofei sat in the first row by the window, while elder song sat beside him. In the same row, there was an individual seat across the aisle, and Xu Wu sat there. Manager Lu and song Rui were seated in the second row. Such an arrangement would ensure safety to the greatest extent. Soon, the train slowly left the North train station of Sanshan city and headed north. In contrast to Xu Wu's nervousness, elder song had been very calm. It had been a long time since he had experienced such "freedom." Every time he went out, he would be surrounded by security and people. After a long time, he felt that he had lost all freedom. This trip was also a very special experience for elder song. From the moment he got on the car, he touched and looked around with interest, feeling that everything was new and fresh. Xia ruofei, who was sitting beside elder song, kept observing the situation around him. He only relaxed a little when the train picked up speed. On the high – speed train that was traveling at three to four hundred kilometers per hour, the external threats were almost negligible. He only needed to pay attention to the situation inside the train. The business class was isolated from the other cars, and there were only a few passengers in this car, so the security pressure was relatively low. It was obvious that elder song was in a good mood and was even a little excited. He was very talkative along the way and talked about the local customs of Wuyi Mountain. Xia ruofei guessed that elder song must have a deep relationship with Wuyi Mountain. A short while after the train set off, a beautiful and tall female attendant came to the first row. Xu Wu subconsciously sat up straight and looked alert. This was his professional habit. Almost reflexively, as long as a stranger approached the target to protect him, he would first assume that the person was a threat to the target and had to react at any time. Since they were travelling in civilian clothes, it was naturally impossible to review the train attendants in advance, let alone arrange for reliable service personnel in advance. All of this could only be judged by Xu Wu and Xia ruofei's risk prediction. Although Xia ruofei did not seem to move, he reacted even earlier than Xu Wu. He tensed up his muscles immediately. The flight attendant naturally didn't know that if she showed any signs of being disadvantageous to the old man in front of her, the two masters would both attack her. She squatted down slightly to keep her height at the same level as elder song and Xia ruofei. She smiled and asked, "Gentlemen, what kind of drinks and snacks would you like? Also, what set meal would you like for lunch and what time would you like to have it?"

Chapter 277: Who's the professional between the two of us?

Elder song smiled kindly and asked, "There's no need for lunch. We'll get off at Mount Wuyi." The business class seats provided free meals, but the train dining car was not open all day long. Lunch sets were only provided at fixed times. Elder song and the others only took a little more than an hour to get to Mount Wu Yi. They could arrive at the destination at around 10 O' clock, so they naturally did not need to eat lunch on the train. In fact, even if they wanted to eat in the car, there was no lunch provided in the dining car at this time. The beautiful flight attendant smiled and nodded. She then asked, "What kind of drink would you like? We have coffee, Coke, black tea, green tea ..." Elder song thought for a moment and smiled. "How about a cup of black tea? I'll also experience the meals of our China's high – speed rail." Hearing this, Xu Wu's expression changed slightly. He reminded in a low voice, "Chief, we have prepared our own food and drinks ..." According to the rules, a bureau chief like elder song was not allowed to eat any food that had not been tested. Especially since they were traveling in plain clothes this time, there were many procedures that could not be strictly checked. There was no guarantee that the drinks provided on the train were absolutely safe. Most of the people who could buy business class tickets were either rich or powerful. The train attendants did not have much reaction to the term "chief". After all, the term "chief" was actually very common in China, especially in the Army. Company and battalion chiefs were actually just basic cadres of the company and Battalion positions. Therefore, the flight attendant only smiled and waited for elder song's answer. Elder song was also a little hesitant. It wasn't that he was too timid to even drink a drink on the high – speed rail, but he didn't want to put the staff around him in a difficult position. However, it could be seen that elder song's low – Key trip this time was actually more to understand the People's feelings. He had the intention to experience some things that were usually difficult to come into contact with. "Sir, since you want to experience it, then choose a drink to try!" Xia ruofei said. "RUO Fei ..." Xu Wu was shocked. "I'm fine!" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "I know what I'm doing!" "Good, good, good!" Eccentric song chuckled. Since Xiao Xia has approved it, then ... Little comrade, give me a cup of black tea! Black tea is good for the stomach. " "Alright," he said. The flight attendant smiled and asked Xia ruofei, "Sir, what would you like to order?" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Coke!" I'll have to trouble you!" "Alright!" The flight attendant said. Without waiting for the flight attendant to ask, Xu Wu said directly, "I don't need it, thank you!" Elder song and Xia ruofei had ordered drinks from the high – speed rail. According to the work procedure, Xu Wu would definitely not order any more. After the flight attendant left, Xu Wu said worriedly, "Bureau chief, the safety of the food on the high – speed rail can't be guaranteed! You ...” Xia ruofei interrupted Xu Wu with a smile and said, “”Xu Can, don't worry! With me around, even if there's something wrong with the drink, nothing will happen.” Elder song laughed and said, “Xu, have you forgotten what Xia's job is?” You don't need to worry with a little Divine Doctor like him around!” “But ...” Xu Wu said, “we don't have to take this risk ...” Xia ruofei said with confidence, “Xu Can, I know what you're worried about.” In fact, the possibility of this flight attendant being suspicious was extremely low. First of all, the Bureau chief's trip this time was strictly confidential, and the scope of knowledge was very small. The possibility of the enemy forces setting up a trap in advance was not high. Secondly, from the moment we got on the train, this train attendant has come into contact with eight train and station staff, including the train conductor, the train police, the station dispatch, and other train attendants. I've also observed her working condition and found no flaws. In other words, the possibility of this flight attendant being planted by an enemy force is extremely low. In that case, the risk of poisoning the food is almost negligible.” Xu Wu was dumbfounded. He had been focusing on safety issues since he got in the car. He did not expect Xia ruofei to be so meticulous and analyze all the possibilities. “Xia, it looks like you haven't forgotten anything about your professional skills after leaving the Army!” Elder song laughed. “Professional habits can't be changed in a short time.” Xia ruofei said with a smile. Xu Wu forced a smile and said, “ruofei, are all lone Wolf's men this perverted?” It's a good thing you've left the Army. Otherwise, I'm really worried that you'd steal my job ...” Elder song couldn't help but burst out laughing. Xia ruofei said humbly, “actually, all the analysis and judgments can't be 100% accurate. The reason why I have the confidence to let the chief come into contact with food of unknown origin is that I'm confident. Even if there's a problem with the food, I can guarantee the chief's life, health, and safety through traditional Chinese medicine.” Xu Wu touched his forehead and weakly said, “It's already abnormal enough, okay? I really don't know which of us is the professional security guard ...” Elder song laughed and teased, “Lil Xu, you've seen the difference. Take this opportunity to learn from Lil Xia!” In any case, he won't be able to use his skills in the future, so you should give him some benefits and let him teach you everything!” “Yes! We must carry out the Bureau chief's instructions!” Xu Wu immediately said half – jokingly, “ruofei, the chief has already given instructions. You can't hide your strength!” “The chief even said that you'll give me some benefits!” Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said, “I'll see how sincere you are then!” “Hahaha!” Eccentric song laughed heartily. In fact, Xu Wu was like most of the Bureau chief's personal guards. He was a man of few words. However, he got along very well with Xia ruofei. In addition, he had been working for elder song for several years. This time, it was a mission in plain clothes, so he rarely joked around. As the three of them chatted, the flight attendant served the drinks that elder song and Xia ruofei had ordered. “Thank you!” Elder song said to the flight attendant kindly. Then, he looked at the steaming hot black tea and said with a smile, “Then I'll have a taste of the drinks on our China's high – speed rail!” Elder song picked up the cup holder and took a sip. “Very good! The taste is very good!” In fact, elder song had tasted all kinds of tea before. What kind of expensive tea could there be on this high – speed train? But what the old man was experiencing was this kind of novelty. After listening to Xia ruofei's analysis, Xu Wu was not as nervous as before. However, he still stared at elder song, worried that there was something wrong with the black tea. It turned out that he had worried too much. Elder song drank the entire cup of black tea as he chatted leisurely. He didn't feel uncomfortable at all. Elder song looked out of the window at the fields and rivers that flashed by quickly and said with emotion, “Our country's development is really changing with each passing day! “Nowadays, there are already world – Class high – speed railways and high – speed trains. In the past, it would take a day to travel from the three mountains to the Wuyi Mountains by train. Now, the high – speed train can reach it in more than an hour.” “Yup!” Xia ruofei nodded in agreement. China’s high – speed rail technology was indeed world – Class. They had already built high – speed railways and sold high – speed trains for many third world countries. As Chinese, they were full of pride. Elder song continued, “back in the days when our Army went south, we didn’t even have enough trucks, let alone high – speed trains. Most of the soldiers had to rely on their legs to get there.” When our Army entered min, the first County we liberated was Mount Wu Yi. At that time, it was still called Chong an County ...” As eccentric song spoke, his eyes revealed a look of reminiscence. Xia ruofei was even more certain that elder song had a deep relationship with Wuyi Mountain. Ever since he left the Gu Ling courtyard, he had been feeling a little impatient. Xia ruofei and Xu Wu tactfully remained silent and did not disturb the old man. The train headed north. At around 10 O’ clock, the streamlined harmony arrived at the Wuyi Eastern Railway Station on time and slowly stopped on the platform.

Chapter 278: can’t wait_1

In terms of administrative division, the location of the Wuyi Mountain East Station was not under the jurisdiction of the Wuyi Mountain range. There was still a distance of 50 to 60 kilometers from the Wuyi Mountain range to the Wuyi Mountain Scenic Area. It was only because of the reputation of the Wuyi Mountain range that it had this station name with Chinese characteristics. In fact, there was also a Mount Wuyi North Station, which was only three kilometers away from the scenic Area. However, Mount Wuyi was the largest high – speed rail hub station in Northern Min, so there were many train choices. That was why director Lu had chosen this station when he booked the ticket. The group left the station smoothly. As elder song had specifically ordered them not to alert the local government, no one knew that a former core leader of China had come to this small county – Level city. Elder song and the other four left the station through the exit gate with the other passengers. The entire process of leaving the station was naturally the stage where the security pressure was the highest. However, Xu Wu was no longer as nervous as when he left for the North train station of Sanshan city. He felt much more confident working with Xia ruofei. The two of them cooperated very well when they left the station. Although the five of them walked out of the crowd, they were able to put elder song under their protection and made their way to the train station Square without any trouble. There was no splashing of clean water on the street, no paving of dirt; There was no Grand welcome from the leaders of the provinces, cities, and counties; There were no flowers or red carpets. A black Mercedes – Benz business car was parked quietly on the road beside the square. It was the pick – up vehicle arranged by the song family. Not far from the front and back of the Mercedes – Benz, there were also black Mercedes – Benz sedans. These were all vehicles under the name of the song family’s company, Huatian group. The Men in Black beside the two cars were also employees of the Huatian group’s security Department. The vehicles were all bulletproof and had been transferred from the capital to Mount Wuyi in advance. They were also the elites of the security Department of the Huatian group, led by Huang Fang, the head of the security Department of the Huatian group. This head Huang used to be a Regiment officer, and before his retirement, he served as the captain of the Special Forces in the Army Group where elder song had once served. “Old commander!” Huang Fang puffed out his chest and shouted. Although he was wearing a black suit, he still subconsciously saluted. His back was straight as a pine, and he exuded a strong military aura. “Little Huang! “Thank you for your hard work ...” Elder song smiled. His original intention was to keep a low profile as much as possible, but at his position, how could he really keep a low profile? For his trip in plain clothes, the Huatian group had rented a transport plane to transport the bulletproof vehicles to Mount Wuyi. They had also transferred over a dozen elite security personnel from the Capital Group's headquarters to act as the vanguard. Even the head of the security Department, Huang Fang, had personally come to coordinate the security matters. This in itself could be considered as mobilizing a large number of people. However, in order not to alert the local leaders, elder song had no choice but to accept his family's arrangement. He knew that if he didn't agree to this, his children would definitely not agree to this travel plan. "Old commander, please get in the car!" Huang Fang extended his hand and made an inviting gesture. Elder song nodded and took the lead to get into the Mercedes – Benz. Manager Lu and song Rui instinctively sat in the last row. Xu Wu sat in the front passenger's seat. Xia ruofei was still in the seat with the highest safety responsibility, tidying up the seat next to elder song. The three – Vehicle convoy quickly left the Wuyi Mountain station and headed for Wuyishan City. Along the way, elder song was very excited. He pointed at the scenery outside the window from time to time and told Xia ruofei about the time when he followed the Army to the South. It could be seen that this piece of land must have left many memories for the old man. The car drove for more than an hour before they entered the city. This was a County – Level city famous for its tourism and tea leaves. Its development was much better than other counties in the same area. Highways and railways passed through this place. There was even a small airport. The buildings outside the window looked much better than those in ordinary small counties. The most obvious was that there were many tea shops. It was no exaggeration to say that half of the shops on the street were in the tea business. According to elder song's request, their accommodation was not arranged at the Wuyi Mountain Resort. Instead, they had booked a hotel in the city. The falong hotel was the only four – Star hotel in the city. Manager Lu went to check in and the group went to the hotel room. Elder song's room was the only large suite in the flarong hotel. Xu Wu and Xia ruofei's rooms were on the left and right side of elder song's room. Manager Lu's and the others' rooms were also on the same floor. Huang Fang and the others had booked them in advance. In elder song's room. The old man sat in the middle while Xia ruofei and the others sat on the sofa in the living room. Eccentric song said with a kind smile, "Little Xia, you've had a hard time along the way. I'm just an old man, and I've tormented the people around me!" "Chief, you're welcome. It's not hard work," Xia ruofei said. "It's a lie if it's not hard. Your work is tiring!" Eccentric song sighed. Then, elder song said to manager Lu, "Xiao Lu, let's have lunch at the hotel and try out the local delicacies. In the afternoon, you guys will accompany me to a place." "Yes, chief!" Manager Lu replied. Since Huang Fang and the others were already there, manager Lu didn't have to worry about the food and beverage arrangements. In fact, the ingredients were all air – flown in advance and had all undergone strict inspections. The Huatian group even hired a chef to follow Huang Fang's team and arrive in advance. In fact, they had only borrowed the kitchen of the flarong hotel. As long as they had the money, it would not be a problem. Of course, since elder song wanted to taste the local food, the hotel's chef would have to cook it. However, the people from Huang Fang would definitely monitor the entire process to ensure food safety. It was already past 11 O' clock when they arrived at the hotel, so after manager Lu made the arrangements, the group quickly went to the private room on the second floor of the hotel for dinner. After the meal, manager Lu was going to arrange for elder song to rest, but elder song suggested that they leave immediately, so everyone had to change their plans at the last minute. After a series of busy but calm preparations, elder song and the others got into the car and left the hotel. There was still a Mercedes – Benz at the front and back, and a commercial car in the middle. The seating arrangement was exactly the same as in the morning. The convoy quickly drove out of the city and headed in the direction of the scenic Area. However, their destination was not the world – famous Wuyi Mountain Scenic Area. Elder song only gave the driver a name, Xuanji xiankeng village. Along the way, Xia ruofei was also very curious. Elder song had even canceled his usual lunch break and went straight to this place after eating. What made this old man so eager? The convoy soon arrived at the remote village. Elder song got out of the car to check and then instructed the convoy to drive forward for one or two kilometers. At the end of the road, the car could no longer drive on the road in front of them. Elder song got out of the car and looked at the nearby terrain. A trace of excitement appeared on his face. He greeted everyone and walked forward. The road in the mountain was not easy to walk on. Song Rui quickly went up to support his grandfather. Xia ruofei, Xu Wu, and the rest were on guard as they quickly followed.

After walking on this path for a while, eccentric song stopped and observed for a long time. The place he was looking for had not been here for many years. With the passage of time and man – made development, the terrain near the village had also changed, so he needed to look carefully. Eccentric song walked forward a little more uncertainly. When he saw a large pine tree between two hills, he finally showed a trace of joy and said to himself, "Looks like we're in the right place!" After saying that, elder song sped up a little. Soon, the group had walked about a mile into the mountain along the path. Then, elder song found a narrow path that was almost covered by weeds. Huang Fang saw that elder song was about to walk into the small path, so he quickly motioned for his two subordinates to open a path in front. This small path could only accommodate two people walking side by side, and it was overgrown with weeds. If a snake or something were to hide inside, it would be big trouble. Song Rui carefully supported elder song and asked, "Grandpa, why did you bring us to this barren mountain?" Eccentric song's eyes revealed a trace of nostalgia. "You'll know when we get there." This narrow and winding path was not easy to walk on, and everyone's speed was much slower. After walking for about ten minutes, elder song also showed a trace of fatigue. "Chief, please take a seat and rest for a while!" Xia ruofei said hurriedly. "It's alright, I can do it!" Eccentric song waved his hand and said, slightly breathless. Manager Lu also showed a helpless expression. Along the way, not to mention elder song, even he himself, who was a little older, felt that it was a bit too much. However, since the old man had spoken, everyone could only obey. Xia ruofei took out a mineral water bottle from his bag and said, "Chief, have some water! Since we're already here, there's no need to rush." Elder song took the bottle of mineral water with a smile and said, "Alright! Then we'll listen to little Xia!" The bottle contained a solution of flower petals that Xia ruofei had prepared in advance. It was diluted with a large amount of water from the spatial pool. Although the flower petals were very rare, it was enough for the old man to recover some of his strength. Elder song returned the bottle to Xia ruofei after he finished half of it. He stood up and said, "let's go!" I'm not even tired! You guys shouldn't have any problems with that, right?" "No problem!" Manager Lu quickly said. Chief, please pay attention to your feet." Thus, the group continued to walk into the mountain. After walking for another ten minutes, elder song finally stopped and said, "This is the place!" Everyone stopped and saw that this place was overgrown with wild grass. There was nothing special about it. However, elder song had already walked into the bushes. After elder song pushed aside the weeds, everyone saw a mottled gravestone. "Chief, this is ..." Manager Lu couldn't help but ask. Eccentric song looked at the grave that was completely covered by weeds and sighed, "One of my comrades is sleeping here ..." Everyone was stunned. This small grave hidden in the weeds was actually a martyr's grave? Xia ruofei was the first to react. He quickly walked forward and said, "Everyone, let's help!" Manager Lu and the others quickly came forward to help clean up. There was strength in numbers. Soon, the weeds around the wild grave were cleared, and a clean open space was cleared in front of the grave. It was a mottled stone tablet that had been through a lot of wind and rain, and behind it was a small grave. If not for elder song, no one would have thought that a martyr was buried here. The words on the stone tablet were still barely discernible. The words "martyr Yan Xiaodong's grave" were written on it in large font. Next to it was a line of small characters with a series of Army codenames and martyr Yan Xiaodong's hometown "donggao village, Xingguo County, gan province". This Yan Xiaodong actually came from the famous "Jiangjun County." Eccentric song stared at the gravestone for a long time before turning back and saying, "Xiao Rui, take out the things I asked you to prepare!" Song Rui quickly took down his backpack and took out cigarettes, white wine, yellow paper, candles, and other items. It was only then that he realized that his grandfather had asked him to prepare these items when he was in Sanshan city. It turned out that it was to pay respects to his comrades. Elder song personally placed the offerings in front of the grave one by one and lit the incense. He also lit three Huaxia brand cigarettes and stuck them into the soil in front of the grave. Then he poured three glasses of wine and silently sprinkled them on the ground. Song Rui was helping to burn the paper money. Everyone stood silently to the side and did not disturb the old man who was reminiscing about his comrades. After a long while, eccentric song sighed and stared at the gravestone. "Back then, after the army liberated Chong 'an County, they continued South. Although the enemy's main force was defeated, the terrain in this area was complicated, and the mountains were high and the forests were dense. So, a small group of troops entered the mountains to become bandits. Thus, our troops were left behind to clear out the remaining enemies." Elder song's gaze was very distant as he spoke, as if he had traveled back in time and returned to the smoke – filled years. "Xiaodong was only nineteen when he died. He was my guard." Elder song said, "at that time, I was escorting more than a dozen soldiers to transport supplies. We were ambushed here by the remaining enemies. Xiaodong blocked the Fatal Bullet for me ..." Everyone was silent. Xia ruofei looked at the old tombstone silently. In those days of war, countless martyrs had fallen on the road to war. As their descendants and former soldiers, Xia ruofei had always held high respect for these martyrs. "He's only nineteen!" Elder song continued. There were only eight enemies that day, and a cheap bullet had taken his life. I still remember what he said to me before he died, "Company commander, help me tell my mother that my son can't be filial to her anymore ..." At this point, elder song's eyes couldn't help but tear up. A General's success was built on ten thousand bones. Elder song had experienced the deaths of many of his comrades in his life, but this experience had become an indelible mark in his life. "Chief, how come there's no one to take care of this martyr Yan Xiaodong's resting place?" manager Lu couldn't help but ask. This ... "This monument was rebuilt thirty years ago when I came to pay my respects to Xiaodong," elder song said lightly. "Back then, there was only one wooden board to mark this position ... There used to be a Garrison nearby, and people would come to visit the tomb every year. Later, the defense of the troops might have been adjusted and transferred away! It seems like Xiaodong's grave has been abandoned for many years ..." "What is the local government doing?!" Manager Lu said indignantly, "chief, I'll call the relevant comrades in the southeast province immediately. This is too outrageous!" "There's no need for that, Xiao Lu," elder song waved his hand. "Once you appear, things will change. When that time comes, a large group of people will be walking on thin ice and come to apologize one by one. Maybe in order to please me, they will even start a big construction, rebuild the grave, and set up a statue. This will go against my original intention, and I don't think Xiaodong wants this to happen." "But ..." Manager Lu found it hard to understand. "I believe that Xiaodong would rather watch over the mountains and rivers that he once fought for," eccentric song said lightly. Elder song continued, "I'm also responsible for this. I didn't want things to turn out this way, so I didn't come out to greet you. I've been wanting to come and see you all these years, but I couldn't get away because of various things. That's why my brother's grave is so deserted.” Xia ruofei was also very touched by elder song’s decision to be the leader of this generation. It could be said that he had no selfish thoughts at all. If it were a few of the current officials, this would be simply unimaginable. Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, “chief, I suggest that we privately fund the repair of this martyr’s tomb without alerting the local government. Also, we can hire a villager nearby to come over and maintain it regularly.”

Chapter 280: old acquaintance (1)

“That’s what I’m thinking,” eccentric song nodded. “Grandpa, leave this to me!” Song Rui immediately said, “a few of my buddies are here!” “What’s the difference between you and me?” eccentric song asked indifferently. In a few days, the outside world will know that it’s our song family’s business.” “Uh ...” Song Rui laughed awkwardly. Xia ruofei smiled and said, “chief, let me do it!” In addition, every year around the Qingming Festival, as long as there’s nothing particularly urgent, I can come over and burn some paper money for the martyrs on your behalf.” “Alright, thank you for the trouble, Xia.” Elder song nodded, pleased. “You’re welcome, chief,” Xia ruofei said. It’s my honor to be able to do something for a martyr. Besides, it’s as easy as lifting a finger!” Xia ruofei continued, “then it’s settled. Chief, after this trip, I will find time to come back to Mount Wu Yi. Don’t worry. I will handle this matter properly!” “Good! Thank you, Xia!” Elder song said kindly. The group of people waited for the candles to finish burning before they began to pack up and prepare to return. “Chief, are we going back to the hotel directly or do we have other arrangements?” Manager Lu asked. “There’s someone else I want to see ... But we haven’t been in contact for thirty years. I don’t know if he’s still alive ...” The group packed up their things and began to return the way they came. Although elder song was old, he had consumed a lot of the petal solution recently. On top of that, Xia ruofei had given him a “mineral water” just as he was about to return. Hence, he was still in good shape. He walked on the mountain path as if he was flying. Soon, everyone returned to the parking lot, and the three cars drove out along the small road. At the entrance of xiakeng village, elder song stopped the car. “Chief, the person you’re looking for is in this village?” Xia ruofei asked. “He lived here 30 years ago. I’m not sure now. Let’s go in and take a look!” Elder song said. “I don’t think so many people need to go to the village,” elder song said after they got out of the car. “Xia, come with me!” “Old commander, this ...” The head of security, Huang Fang, said with some difficulty. “So many of us entered the village together. People who don’t know would think that something happened!” Elder song said, “little Xia can accompany me alone.” “Supervisor Huang, since the chief has spoken, let’s carry it out!” Xia ruofei said, “don’t worry! I’ll guarantee the chief’s safety.” Naturally, Huang Fang did not trust Xia ruofei. He could not help but turn to Xu Wu for help. Unexpectedly, Xu Wu only muttered to himself for a moment before saying, ““Okay, chief, we’ll be waiting for you here!” “Staff officer Xu ...” Huang Fang was shocked. “Manager Huang, it’ll be fine with RUO Fei around.” Xu Wu said with a smile. “Then it’s decided!” Elder song chuckled and said, “little Xia, let’s go!” “Alright!” Xia ruofei accompanied elder song as they walked into the village. Xu Wu, Huang Fang, and the rest of the group stayed behind to wait. Looking at the disappearing figures of elder song and Xia ruofei, Huang Fang said worriedly, ““Staff officer Xu, your decision is too rash! The old commander only brought one attendant with him. If anything were to happen, the responsibility would be huge!” “Don’t worry, manager Huang,” said Xu Wu easily. RUO Fei’s professional ability is much better than mine, and his skills are even more abnormal. Even when I was planning to ambush him, I was still knocked down by him in one move!” Hiss ... Huang Fang took a deep breath and looked at Xia ruofei’s back in surprise.” “Staff officer Xu, could it be that this little brother is from some special force that specializes in protecting the old commander?” “He used to be an excellent Special Forces elite, but he's retired," said Xu Wu with a smile. This time, it's completely out of friendship!" When Huang Fang heard this, he felt even more incredulous. He repeatedly exclaimed that he had misjudged Xia ruofei. From the first time they met at the pick – up station, he had always thought that Xia ruofei was just an ordinary security guard, perhaps a soldier like Xu Wu. Xia ruofei's resume was highly confidential, so Xu Wu naturally did not talk much and quickly changed the topic. On the other side, elder song and Xia ruofei had entered the village. The small mountain village was in a remote location. All he could see were low and dilapidated houses, which was very different from the high – rise buildings and heavy traffic outside. It was as if time had stopped here. However, when elder song saw the scene in front of him, he quickly recalled the village in his memory. In fact, many of the old houses were still there. There were very few people in the village. Some elderly people were sitting on the stone bench at the village entrance, basking in the sun. A few children were playing under the trees at the village entrance. This was also the general situation of the rural areas in China. The entire country's rural areas were withering. Xiakeng village was no exception. Most of the young adults in the village had gone out to work, leaving only the elderly and children behind. Of course, many of the villagers in xiakeng village did not go to other places. Many of them worked in the tea gardens, tea shops, and scenic spots in the city. It was rare to see a stranger in such a dusky village. Hence, when Xia ruofei and elder song walked into the village, many curious eyes immediately fell on them. A few children even walked over timidly and sized them up. Elder song nodded at the children with a kind smile on his face. However, the two of them did not stop and walked straight into the village. The layout of the entire village should not have changed much in the past few decades. Elder song quickly found a dilapidated house based on his memory. When he saw the old house, elder song's face froze. Because this house had been in disrepair for a long time, and no one had lived in it for a long time. Through the half – broken wooden door, he could see that the weeds in the courtyard were already half the height of a person, and a part of the courtyard wall had collapsed. "Chief, the person you're looking for lives here?" Xia ruofei asked carefully. "He lived here thirty years ago," eccentric song said, frowning. "It seems that he has moved away, or ... He is no longer alive!" "Let's ask around nearby!" Xia ruofei said. "En!" Elder song nodded. The two of them walked back along the path they came from and happened to see a villager carrying a hoe passing by. "Chief, what's the name of the person you're looking for?" Xia ruofei asked. "He's Li Zhifu!" Elder song said. "Alright!" Xia ruofei nodded and walked towards the villager. "Uncle, I want to ask you something. Do you know where Li Zhifu from your village is now?" "Li Zhifu?" The villagers were at a loss. Xia ruofei pointed at the dilapidated house not far away and said, "He should have lived in that house before." Realization dawned on cunning as he said, "Oh! You're talking about uncle Fu!"
