Chapter 2771 Duty – bound (1)

A bitter smile appeared on Xia ruofei's face. He didn't expect that playing a game would bring so many aftereffects. He had always been a person who was afraid of trouble.

Seeing Xia ruofei's bitter face, Feng Jing couldn't help but smile and said, "The most interesting one is the Chinese Football Association. They have always been criticized for pretending not to see the voices of the fans and acting like ostriches in the sand. This time, they reacted very quickly, but because they couldn't contact you, the company has been replying to them that you haven't returned to the company during this period of time, so they also shouted on the internet, hoping to meet you and discuss how you're serving the country."

"Ha?" Xia ruofei could not help but raise his eyebrows.

"That's true!" Feng Rao said. So, if you don't come back this time, I'll have to call you. After all, if this matter was not handled properly, it would cause a huge negative impact. "Your image on the internet has always been very sunny, positive, and full of positive energy, including the traffic jam on the Weibo server last time, you gave an signed jersey to the programmer who worked overtime in the middle of his illness, and so on. You've won a huge wave of likes on the internet. Now that the Chinese Football Association has sent out an invitation, it's just that there hasn't been an official letter yet. But the influence of the Weibo platform can't be underestimated, so we still have to respond appropriately."

Feng Rao looked at Xia ruofei and asked, "I need to know your thoughts first."

Xia ruofei smiled. "So, you're saying that no matter whether I personally agree or disagree, our public relations department has a corresponding plan?"

"That's for sure. That's their job!" Feng Jing continued, "but everyone, including me, is inclined to think that you should accept the invitation. After all, you should reject the offer to join the national team ... Although your situation is special and the PR department and New Media Department have come up with a relatively safe response, it's not a good idea. The damage to your image is inevitable. All we can do is to minimize the losses."

Xia ruofei thought for a moment and said, "Although I don't really care about all this, there's one thing I'm sure of. If I refuse, I'm afraid our public relations staff will have a hard time! Hahaha ..."

Feng Rao shrugged and said, "that's the money they're taking!" Therefore, the decision will naturally be based on your personal opinion! You can only have one voice in paradise Corporation. No one can force you to do something you don't want to do."

Xia ruofei said seriously, "thank you, sister ran!" But you're right. If the national team really needs it, I shouldn't refuse. It's just that I still have a lot of things to do recently. I'm afraid ... By the way, the national team doesn't have any particularly important matches recently, right?"

Feng Ye nodded and said, "after the incident with the Chinese Football Association, we immediately looked up the relevant information. In fact, the most important event for the national team is naturally the World Cup qualifiers next year. There might be a series of warm – up games or cup or friendly games to warm up before that. I heard that these games are also very important."

“What do you mean?” Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and asked.

“It should be related to the national team’s international ranking.” Feng Jing said, “as long as it’s an international A – Level event, there are points. The number of points determines the ranking. The International ranking will affect the level of the national team in the drawing of lots in the Asian Qualifiers. If they can be listed as a first – tier team, they can naturally avoid some of the strong Asian teams in the first stage of the group stage. Now the national football team’s ranking just happens to be hovering between the first and second – tier, so even if it’s a warm – up match, we must strive for as many victories as possible. ”

“Of course, compared to the World Cup qualifiers, these warm – up matches are much less important.” Moreover, the Chinese Football Association will carefully choose their opponents for the warm – up match, neither too weak nor too strong. If the team is too weak, they won’t have many points, and if the team is too strong, the Chinese Football Association can’t take them down ... So in fact, a lot of work is done outside the field. Even if you are called up to the team, you don’t have to participate in such a game. ”

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly, “for the national football team, the Chinese Football Association has been so worried!” It’s just that sometimes I don’t seem to be using my strength in the right place, and I often mess around ...”

Feng Rao couldn’t help but burst out laughing. The Chinese Football Association’s foreign aid policies and U23 policies had been criticized by people in recent years. Even people who didn’t care much about domestic football could see such news from the news or online forums from time to time.

Xia ruofei continued, “in principle, I can accept the recruitment of the national team. However, I can’t be like other professional players. I can’t be on call or even train with the team in closed – door training. I can participate in some important games as much as possible when the time allows.” Therefore, I really need to talk to them face to face, but I believe that we can come to an agreement. ”

After all, the Chinese Football Association was only an Industry Association in name. In reality, it was under the leadership of the general Administration of sports. With Xia ruofei’s connections in the capital, it would not be a problem to settle the Chinese Football Association as long as his conditions were not too outrageous.

Chapter 2772 Duty – bound (2)

If the Chinese Football Association had not publicly announced on Weibo that Xia ruofei was not willing to join the national team, he only needed to inform Zhao Yongjun and the others. Then, the Chinese Football Association would definitely ignore the appeal of the netizens. They had been used to this anyway.

Of course, Xia ruofei also had the desire to serve the country. After all, he had loved football since he was young. When the national football team made it to the World Cup in Korea and Japan, although he was still young, he could still remember the National celebration.

Although Xia ruofei’s feelings for the national football team were not as great as a famous commentator had said, Chinese football would always be his Holy Grail no matter how many people’s spittoons it was.

But at least Xia ruofei was not like some fake fans who used the national football team as a target to vent their negative emotions and defamed the national football team without any bottom line.

If he could help and change the national football team, and even help the national football team advance to the World Cup, he was still willing to do his part.

“Sure,” Feng Jing nodded. “As long as you set the tone, we’ll handle the rest!”

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, “how about this?” I’ll respond to the Chinese Football Association’s invitation on the internet. I’ll do it myself. You can contact the Chinese Football Association in advance and tell them that I hope to be able to talk to the relevant responsible comrades about this matter in person. However, the specific time will have to be arranged again. I may not be free in the next few months. ”

“Alright!” Feng Rao replied.

“Sister che, is there anything else?” Xia ruofei asked.

Feng Jing spread her hands. “Busy man, you can continue to disappear. But I hope you can at least keep in touch with me on your phone. That way, if the company needs you to make any decisions, we’ll be able to find you.”

Xia ruofei quickly said, “I promise I’ll do it!” Um ... If you really can’t get through to my phone, you can try to call me later, or just leave me a message. I promise you that I won’t lose contact for a long time!”

Xia ruofei was thinking that if he activated the shield mode of the formation on Peach Blossom Island, he might really lose contact with the outside world. Of course, unless there were special circumstances, the entire Paradise Island would not be blocked. After all, Paradise Island was not like the encampment of other cultivation sects, which had been hidden for hundreds of years. Paradise Island itself could be found on the open sea Map or even on Google Earth, so there was no need to block it.

If the Peach Blossom Island were to suddenly disappear, it would attract the attention of people with ulterior motives.

“Alright,” Feng Rao said helplessly. I got it. ”

Xia ruofei picked up the handbag on the table and said, “Sister che, I really have something urgent to attend to. I’ll take my leave first! We’ll keep in touch on the phone regarding the national football team!”

“Alright!” “Drive slowly!” Feng Jing said.

“I know!” Xia ruofei quickly walked out of the office and waved at Feng Jing without looking back.

Feng Rao shook her head with a bitter smile and also walked out.

Xia ruofei drove as fast as he could to the large warehouse in the city. He finally arrived twenty minutes before the agreed time with the winery.

He heaved a sigh of relief. After locking the warehouse door from the inside, he quickly used his mental strength to check the warehouse and the surrounding conditions. Then, he took out jars of Drunken Eight Immortals from the spirit map space and placed them neatly in the warehouse.

After doing all this, Xia ruofei rested for a while. The car sent by the winery arrived.

They had just delivered the newly produced Drunken Eight Immortals wine.

The handover process was already familiar. The workers first unloaded the new wine from the truck, transported it all into the warehouse, and placed it neatly on the other side.

Then, he loaded the jars of Drunken Eight Immortals wine that had been “modified” by Xia ruofei into the empty truck.

After about an hour, the loading and unloading work was completed.

The manager of the winery shook Xia ruofei’s hand to express his gratitude, then left the warehouse with his team.

Xia ruofei returned to the warehouse and locked the door.

Then, with a slight thought, the new wine that had just been transported into the warehouse disappeared into thin air. Very quickly, they were all transported to the spirit map space.

Immediately after, Xia ruofei took out the medicinal herbs that Xia Qing had prepared in advance from the spirit map space. The bags of medicinal herbs were handled very well, and Xia Qing had even added a label on each bag. All Xia ruofei needed to do was to separate them into different categories and put them away.

This time, Xia ruofei had prepared a lot of ingredients, enough for Taoyuan pharmaceutical factory to use for a long time. Even if the pharmaceutical group’s factory and the Changping branch were to start working, these raw materials would definitely be able to last for a while.

With the free labor of the mercenaries, the spirit map space’s herb garden expanded at an extremely fast speed. Although many herbs were still growing and had not reached the peak of harvest, Xia Qing had accumulated quite a lot of herbs over this period of time. This time, Xia ruofei took all of them out.

In any case, he would be able to harvest more and more medicinal herbs in the future.

Xia ruofei looked at the medicinal bags that filled half the warehouse and felt a sense of achievement.

He gave Xue Jinshan a call to tell him that the medicinal herbs were ready and that he should immediately send a car over to receive them.

After Xue Jinshan finished his meeting, he had already gathered all the trucks. He knew that as long as Xia ruofei gave the order, they would be in place soon. As expected, he received a call from Xia ruofei not long after he returned to the construction site in Changping County.

Xue Jinshan was very excited and immediately called for a car to transport the goods to the warehouse. It was not the first time he received raw materials from the warehouse. He was already very familiar with it without Xia ruofei sending him the address.

After Xue Jinshan finished the call, he immediately drove his own car from the construction site in Changping County to the warehouse in the city.

Xia ruofei sat in the warehouse, bored. He even took out some crystals and cultivated for a while.

It was only when he heard the sound of the truck's engine outside that he stopped his cultivation. He put away the crystals and walked over to open the warehouse door.

Xue Jinshan had already met up with the convoy on the way. When he saw Xia ruofei, he said, "Chairman, you've personally come to arrange the raw materials. It's really hard on you!"

Xia ruofei laughed and scolded, "cut the crap!" If I can't get the raw materials for you today, you brat, don't know what you're going to say behind my back, do you?"

"I wouldn't dare!" Xue Jinshan laughed.

As he spoke, he walked into the warehouse and saw the medicine packets piled up like a small mountain. He couldn't help but gasp and call out, "Woof! All of these ingredients are for our pharmaceutical factory?"

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "too much?" Then pull less! I'll return it!"

"Don't!" Xue Jinshan quickly smiled apologetically, "I was just too surprised! This has far exceeded my expectations! Chairman, this is all money! How can we return it when it's already here?"

As if he was worried that Xia ruofei would go back on his words, Xue Jinshan quickly called for the workers to start moving the goods.

The workers were busy moving bags of processed Chinese medicinal herbs while Xue Jinshan kept Xia ruofei company and talked. After moving for more than an hour, half of the warehouse was finally finished.

Xue Jinshan's trucks weren't enough. After loading two trucks, he estimated that it was enough, so he quickly transferred three more trucks over. In the end, eight large trucks were needed to load all the medicinal herbs.

Xue Jinshan was in a hurry to go to the warehouse of the pharmaceutical factory to settle this batch of raw materials. After thanking Xia ruofei for his support in his work, he bade farewell to Xia ruofei and led the team to the warehouse of the Tao Yuan pharmaceutical factory.

Xia ruofei had finally settled some trivial matters. When he was at Taoyuan farm, he even took some time to go to the main water tower of the farm and the pomfrets breeding workshop to add some spirit Heart Flower petal solution. With his current cultivation, he could naturally do it without anyone noticing.

Xia ruofei locked the warehouse and drove back to the jiangbin villa district.

Chapter 2773 Enthusiastic response (1)

As he had spent quite some time in the warehouse, it was already two in the afternoon when Xia ruofei returned to the villa. He made some noodles for lunch, then went to the balcony upstairs. He took out his single – lens reflex camera and tripod from his space. After finding the right angle, he turned on the camera, sat down on the outdoor chair opposite him, and started to record a video.

After recording a few times, Xia ruofei finally stood up in satisfaction. He took out the memory card from the camera and his laptop. He started to edit the video on the balcony.

In the evening, the netizens who had followed Xia ruofei's account on Weibo and today's headline platform saw the video that Xia ruofei had posted.

In the video, Xia ruofei was sitting on a spacious balcony. Behind him was the beautiful blue sky and white clouds, as well as the scenery of Min River.

Xia ruofei was dressed in casual clothes. He smiled in front of the camera and said, "Hello everyone, I'm your good friend, Xia ruofei. I've been busy with some personal matters during this time and didn't pay attention to the situation on the internet. It was only today that our company's President Feng reminded me that everyone had also initiated a vote for the Chinese Football Association to call me to join the national football association, and the Chinese Football Association also sent out an invitation. First of all, I would like to thank all the netizens for their love and the trust of the Chinese Football Association in me!"

Xia ruofei adjusted his sitting position and continued, "I really didn't expect that my appearance in Espanyol for fun would attract so much attention. I was a little scared. The Spanish clubs once hoped that I could play for the team regularly every week, but it was not realistic because everyone knows that I am not a professional player. I usually have to manage a company, and coupled with some of my personal affairs, so I often fly around the world. It is really difficult to guarantee that I can go to Spain to play once every weekend. That's why this time it's the same for the national team. However ..."

Xia ruofei suddenly changed the topic and said seriously, "It's my duty to serve the country! I used to be a soldier and I know that the honor of the country is above all else, so I will officially respond to the invitation of the Chinese Football Association. If the national team needs me and if my participation can help the national team, then I am willing to accept the recruitment and join the national football association!"

At the end of the video, Xia ruofei said, "Of course, for reasons that everyone knows, I may not be able to follow the team the entire time like other professional players. I also hope that the Chinese Football Association can consider my actual situation and make appropriate arrangements for me. Of course, these are all details. I have already let the company contact the Chinese Football Association. I believe that the two sides should be able to reach a consensus soon! Finally, let's wish Chinese football good luck! I hope that the Chinese football team can make it into the finals of the Qatar World Cup and live up to the care and love of the fans over the years!"

The video ended there. Xia ruofei did not make any heroic remarks. He spoke about some of his practical difficulties as they were. His tone was not as impassioned, but he received high praise from the majority of netizens.

Of course, after Xia ruofei uploaded the video to Weibo and posted it on the headlines, he didn't care about ran ran anymore. He quickly went to cook as Ling Qingxue would be coming over for dinner after work.

Although Ling Xiaotian had readily agreed to his daughter's request for a long leave of absence, Ling Qingxue still went to the company today. After all, she had been in charge of the company's specific Affairs during this period of time. This time, she had to be away for so many days, and there were many things that needed to be handed over clearly.

Considering that the two of them would be flying to the capital the next day and would be heading to Peach Blossom Island if everything went well, Xia ruofei did not make many dishes and only made three dishes and a soup to avoid wasting food. Of course, the ingredients were of the highest quality. Besides, Xia ruofei's cooking skills had improved. There was another benefit after cultivation. He could use his mental strength to control the heat. It was quite accurate. This allowed the taste of Xia ruofei's dishes to reach a higher level.

Ling Qingxue's mouth was full of oil as she ate. She didn't even consider the problem of getting fat if she ate too much. In fact, after becoming a cultivator, this problem didn't need to be considered. No matter how much she ate, it could be converted into energy. Some unhealthy impurities could be completely discharged from the body as long as she cultivated.

After the two of them finished eating, they directly threw the remaining food into the trash can. Then, they washed the dishes and cleaned the refrigerator together, preparing for the long journey.

The two of them had just finished cooking in the kitchen and were about to take a rest in the living room when Xia ruofei's phone rang. It was Feng Jing.

Feng Rao and Ling Qingxue had a good personal relationship, and Ling Qingxue knew that she was Xia ruofei's right – hand man. Hence, Xia ruofei did not have to hide anything from Ling Qingxue and picked up the call.

"Sister che, have you eaten?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"I just finished!" Feng Rao replied. He couldn't be bothered to eat! Ruofei, the entire company's public relations department has been mobilized, and I'm personally overseeing it, all for the video you posted this afternoon!"

Xia ruofei laughed,"no way!" Was it really that exaggerated? Didn't I just post a Weibo video? I thought it'd be more sincere to post a video than a normal proposal or statement. I have some free time in the afternoon, so I did it myself. I hope it won't cause you any trouble?"

Chapter 2774 The enthusiastic response (2)

Ling Qingxue's eyes brightened when she heard this. Even though she did not know what Feng Jing said, she could tell from Xia ruofei's words that he had posted a video on Weibo this afternoon and it seemed to have caused quite a stir.

Ling Qingxue immediately took out her phone and opened the Weibo app. She skillfully found Xia ruofei's ID in the following list and clicked on it.

Xia ruofei was still on the phone with Feng Jing and did not care about what Ling Qingxue was doing.

“No trouble at all!” Feng Rao replied. How could there be trouble? Ruofei, your response is excellent! The netizens’ evaluation of you is quite high! That’s why even though the guys and girls in the public relations department are busy, they’re still very happy!”

Xia ruofei could tell that Feng Jing was in a good mood. The video he had posted must have had a good effect.

In fact, this was how the public relations department worked. As long as there was public opinion, whether it was positive or negative, they had to act immediately and make the most appropriate response at the first moment.

If it was a negative public opinion, then needless to say, it was naturally necessary to put out the fire as soon as possible to minimize the negative impact.

If it was a positive public opinion, they would also have to immediately discuss the follow – up plan. The purpose was nothing more than to expand the positive impact as much as possible and further improve the company’s image.

For example, this time, when the company’s public opinion monitoring staff discovered Xia ruofei’s video response, they immediately followed up on the feedback data of various platforms and formed a preliminary public opinion report.

When the public relations department found out that the comments online were mainly positive, they quickly came up with a preliminary judgment and began to discuss the follow – up plan. This plan included how peach blossom company’s official account would respond and also suggestions on how to operate Xia ruofei’s personal account. They even had to consider how peach blossom company would commercialize their operations when Xia ruofei really went to war in the national football team, such as buying advertisements for the live broadcast of the competition. On Weibo and other platforms, there would be a lucky draw to give Xia ruofei the national football team’s Jersey.

Of course, there were some plans that required the involvement of the marketing department.

Under Feng Jing’s leadership, the cooperation between peach blossom company’s various departments was quite good. There were very few situations where the various departments would undermine each other or hold each other back. In most cases, everyone could work together. The entire company was like a precise operating instrument, and the work efficiency was very high.

Xia ruofei smiled. “It’s good that it’s effective. It’s almost the end of the year. I’ll give everyone a big red packet then!”

“I’ll remember your words!” Feng Rao chuckled and said, “I’ll pass the message to them later!”

“That’s why I called you,” Feng Jing continued, “you can take a look at it later and reply to the comments if you’re free.” In addition, the Chinese Football Association has contacted us. Their attitude is clear that they will give priority to your time. When you are free, the two sides can meet to discuss in detail!”

“Alright, thank you for your hard work, sister che.” Xia ruofei smiled. “I’ll contact you again when I’m free.” By the way, I’ll be leaving the three mountains tomorrow. If there’s anything, we can contact each other by phone or email!”

“No problem!” Feng Rao readily agreed.

Perhaps it was because Xia ruofei had performed well on Weibo and the results were good, Feng Jing was in a good mood. Hence, she did not complain about Xia ruofei’s habit of being the boss.

Xia ruofei had just hung up the phone when Ling Qingxue rushed over and said, “Not bad, young man! You’re really influential on the internet now! This Weibo video had only been out for two to three hours, right? There are already thousands of comments, and most of them are praising you!”

Xia ruofei let Ling Qingxue rest on his body and said with a smile, “How did they all praise me?”

“See for yourself!” Ling Qingxue said as she handed her phone over.

Xia ruofei took Ling Qingxue’s phone and browsed through the comments on Weibo. He realized that there were indeed many praises.

“I like President Xia’s feelings!”

“What a good ‘serving the country, duty – bound’! President Xia’s character was once again confirmed! You’re awesome!”

“I don’t know what’s going on, but President Xia just sat there and talked without any heroic words or stirring emotions, but I couldn’t help but have the urge to cry! As expected, I’m getting old?”

These were the comments with the highest likes, so they were listed in the top comments section.

Xia ruofei continued to read, and the style changed. For example, there was a comment that also received high likes: Look at President Xia, his net worth is at least a few billion! To manage such a large company, playing football was just a hobby, but he could say that it was his duty to serve the country. Compared to some of the current players in the national football team, you are afraid of being injured in the national team game and delaying your return to the club to make money. You just take a walk on the field and play health football. Are you worthy of the national team’s robes you are wearing? Was it worthy of the national emblem on his chest?

It was estimated that several National Football players would have mixed feelings when they saw such comments!

What made Xia ruofei not know whether to laugh or cry was that someone had also dissed Wu Lei. Of course, no one could deny Wu Lei’s hard work. Therefore, the dissing was nothing more than wasting opportunities, frequently falling into the offside trap, and the most criticized and ridiculed thing about him was that he could not fight alone.

Xia ruofei thought to himself, “did Wu Lei get shot?” He wouldn’t blame me, would he? Hahaha ...

Although the general public opinion was full of praise and praise, the internet world was so big. There were so many people online. Naturally, there were some who were unconventional and stood out. It was also possible that these people did not like Xia ruofei and wanted to criticize him. This situation was too common on the internet.

No one could be as popular as Chinese yuan.

Someone left a comment in the comment section, "it seems like he wants to be special!" Why is it that everyone else can follow the national team's recruitment and arrangement, but you, Xia ruofei, are different? Is it because you're richer?

Xia ruofei didn't even need to refute these brainless comments as they were spontaneously abused by a bunch of fans thousands of times.

"We've captured a bar spirit alive! Everyone, come and watch!"

"President Xia is not even a registered player of the Chinese Football Association. He is not engaged in professional football, and he usually has so much work. It is already commendable that he can actively respond to the country's recruitment, but someone actually criticized him. This is simply ..."

"I'm really sorry, everyone. We didn't close the door of the mental hospital tightly and let this thing out! It's all our fault, Qingshan mental hospital. "

"It's not because President Xia is rich, but because he uses the keyboard better. "

At the end of the comment, there was a picture of a keyboard man who was widely circulated on the internet.

Xia ruofei laughed out loud. He then looked through his own Weibo and private messages and was surprised to find that the Chinese Football Association had also reposted his Weibo with the words: [I've already contacted peach blossom company. Thank you, President Xia, for your patriotic feelings!] He was looking forward to the meeting between the two sides!

Xia ruofei gave the Chinese Football Association's Weibo a like and passed the phone to Ling Qingxue.

Ling Qingxue glanced at Xia ruofei and said, ""You must be very proud of yourself now, right?"

Xia ruofei chuckled and replied, "it's nothing much!" I just feel that the fans are very cute, uh ... Even if they're anti – fans, they're actually quite cute. "

"Aren't female fans cuter?" Ling Qingxue asked.

Xia ruofei immediately sensed danger and quickly changed the topic. He laughed dryly. ""We're going to Beijing tomorrow. I'll go and pack my luggage first ..."

With that, Xia ruofei got up and left in a hurry. Seeing Xia ruofei's figure running away, Ling Qingxue couldn't help but burst out laughing.

Chapter 2775 Reactions of all parties (1)

Beijing, the song family's old residence.

Elder song was sitting in front of a computer with his reading glasses on. After his retirement, he still maintained the habit of paying attention to national affairs. After the rise of the internet in recent years, he also slowly learned to use the internet because he found that although the internet was mixed with good and bad people, it was closer to the lives of ordinary people and could better understand the real situation. These were things that he couldn't see in the documents and internal references that were sent to him every day.

Manager Lu was standing not far behind him, waiting for his orders.

Manager Lu realized that the Bureau chief had been on this page for quite some time. As for the contents of the page, he was very clear about it. This was because elder song had only opened it after he had reported to him.

Elder song was browsing the Weibo video that Xia ruofei had posted. After watching Xia ruofei's video, the old man flipped through the comments with great interest.

After a long time, elder song muttered to himself, "RUO Fei is a good kid ..."

Then, he turned his head slightly and said to manager Lu, "Xiao Lu, tell the sports Bureau that RUO Fei's willingness to play for the national team has already shown his noble character and unquestionable integrity. Tell them to be less bureaucratic, consider RUO Fei's actual situation, and try to meet his reasonable requirements."

"Yes, chief!" Manager Lu quickly replied and recorded the incident in his little notebook.

Manager Lu couldn't even remember how many of these notebooks he had used. Ever since he started working, he had developed a good habit of taking notes at all times. It was even more so as a Secretary. He had to remember the instructions of the Bureau chief clearly, otherwise, it was easy to make mistakes. Especially in the past few years, he had gradually grown older and his memory was far from what it used to be, so he paid more attention to this aspect.

"You go ahead ..." Elder song waved his hand and said, "I'll read the comments again. "

"Alright!" Manager Lu replied respectfully.

He quietly left the study and went to his own small office next door. Then, he immediately picked up the phone on his desk and called the sports Bureau according to elder song's instructions ...

A similar scene was happening in the Liu family.

Elder Liu was still living in the same courtyard. After listening to Liu Qunfeng's report, he took a tablet from Liu Qunfeng. He looked through it for a while before putting it down.

"Qunfeng, I remember that Xiao Zhao from the Chinese Football Association used to work under you, right?" he said lightly.

"Yes!" Liu Qunfeng quickly replied. He used to be my assistant. "

The "little Zhao" that old Liu was talking about was not the kind of young man that was often seen in government agencies. In fact, this little Zhao was the full – time Vice President of the Chinese Football Association, Zhao Zhenghao. His rank was not low in China, and in the sports field, especially in the football field, he was naturally a Big Boss.

"Tell Xiao Zhao to inform his subordinates that Xiao Xia can't be managed like an ordinary player. After all, he has his actual situation!" Moreover, Xiao Xia could completely ignore the recruitment of the Chinese Football Association because he was not even a professional player! However, he resolutely responded to the enlistment. As the governing body, we should consider him more!”

“Understood!” Liu Qunfeng said, “I’ll contact him now! Convey your orders. ”

Elder Liu didn’t object to Liu QUN FENG using his name to call Zhao Zhenghao. He just nodded.

When Liu Qunfeng saw this, he immediately knew what was going on. The old man’s attitude was clear. All he had to do was spread the word.

.....

The Chinese Football Association.

Zhao Zhenghao was sitting in his spacious and bright office. The room was warm and his forehead was covered in sweat.

Of course, whether it was because of the heating or the two phone calls just now, he didn’t know.

It had been three to four minutes since Zhao Zhenghao finished the call, but his heart was still beating fast.

He was indeed quite frightened.

In the beginning, it was a high – ranking Deputy bureau chief from the headquarters who called personally, saying that he wanted to know more about Xia ruofei’s situation. However, the meaning of his words was very clear, which was that special circumstances needed special treatment, and special talents needed special care. They had to satisfy Xia ruofei’s reasonable requests as much as possible and could not repeat the previous mistakes.

Although the management was separated after the football reform, the football management Center of the general Administration had been abolished, and the Chinese Football Association had become an independent mass group in a legal sense, in fact, the influence of the general Administration had not decreased much. The opinions of a Deputy Director must also be taken seriously.

Zhao Zhenghao naturally agreed and said that he would personally handle this matter.

The Deputy Director hung up the phone, satisfied.

After a while, another call to say hello to Xia ruofei came in. This time, it was from Zhao Zhenghao’s old leader, Liu Qunfeng.

Zhao Zhenghao was well aware of Liu Qunfeng’s resources and strength. In addition, he was his old leader, so his attitude was very warm.

To his surprise, Liu Qunfeng didn’t make any small talk. He went straight to the point and made a request to him about Xia ruofei. His opinion was similar to that of the Deputy bureau chief. However, the same thing would have different weight when said by different people.

Especially in the end, Liu Qunfeng made it clear that this was his father’s opinion, and he was only responsible for conveying it.

Chapter 2776 Reactions of all parties (2)

Zhao Zhenghao's forehead started to sweat after hearing this.

Zhao Zhenghao expressed his attitude with sincerity and determination. Liu QUN FENG knew that Zhao Zhenghao wouldn't dare to disobey him, so he gave him a few words of encouragement and hung up.

Zhao Zhenghao sat on his soft office chair and didn't come back to his senses for a long time.

He did not expect Xia ruofei to have such a powerful background. Not only did the higher – ups from the headquarters greet him, but even the old master of the Liu family had personally expressed his attitude.

Zhao Zhenghao was also secretly glad. He had always been kind to Xia ruofei. In fact, the Chinese Football Association's timely response to the public opinion was in line with the fans 'expectations because of Zhao Zhenghao's personal instructions.

Zhao Zhenghao was young and strong, and it was time for him to have a career. He had never been stingy with resources for talents in the football field. After understanding the public opinion on the internet, he immediately got someone to find the video of Xia ruofei's substitute performance.

This was the only video of the competition that Xia ruofei had kept so far.

Moreover, Zhao Zhenghao asked for the original video, not the edited album of the star players.

Hence, the video not only showed Xia ruofei's wonderful performance, but also a panoramic view.

Zhao Zhenghao was not only concerned about Xia ruofei's highlights. In comparison, he was more concerned about Xia ruofei's movements, backcatches, passes, and so on.

He was keenly aware that if Xia ruofei did not perform beyond his level in that game, then Xia ruofei was undoubtedly one of the most talented players in Chinese football in many years. If Xia ruofei could play for the country, there was no doubt that the combat power of the entire national football team would be greatly improved.

Therefore, he immediately instructed the person – in – charge of the new media account to respond to the netizens 'reactions.

At first, Zhao Zhenghao only made this decision because he valued talents and hoped to inject new positive energy into the national football team. However, it was different now. Nothing had changed, but Xia ruofei's position in his heart had suddenly become high and mysterious.

Zhao Zhenghao immediately gathered all the relevant personnel of the national men's soccer team for a meeting to study it.

Naturally, Xia ruofei did not know that so many things had happened in the distant capital. After he packed his things, he bade farewell to Ling Qingxue and drove away from the villa in his Knight XV off – Road vehicle.

He wanted to use the night to visit Song Wei's father, song Qiming.

Song Qiming had been practicing the Sutra of humility for some time. Although he did not know that it was cultivation and only thought that it was a way to strengthen the body and Qi in conjunction with treatment, he still insisted on following Xia ruofei's "advice" and practiced the Sutra every day out of absolute trust in Xia ruofei.

Song Qiming was a little older and had no cultivation experience. Most importantly, he did not even know that he was cultivating. Hence, Xia ruofei was more or less worried. Since he had returned to the three mountains, he naturally had to find time to visit him.

As they had made an appointment on the phone in advance, when they entered, the armed police at the door only checked the license plate and Xia ruofei's identity before letting him through.

It was not Xia ruofei's first time visiting. He drove the Knight XV to song Qiming's Villa with ease.

After parking the car, Xia ruofei took out a box of Dahongpao tea leaves from the medium and walked into the courtyard.

After all, it was impolite to visit him empty – handed, so it was only right to give him a box of tea as a gift.

Xia ruofei rang the doorbell, and someone came to open the door.

To Xia ruofei's surprise, song Qiming opened the door personally.

"Uncle song!" After Xia ruofei returned to her senses, she quickly greeted song Qiming.

"RUO Fei, quickly come in!" Song Qiming chuckled as he stepped aside.

Xia ruofei was relieved to see that song Qiming was in good health. His face was ruddy and his voice was full of energy.

Song Wei's mother, Fang Liyun, also came out to greet her. She said with a reproachful look, "Ruofei, why aren't you here for dinner? Are you treating us as outsiders?"

Xia ruofei quickly explained, "aunty Fang, I really have something else to do. Furthermore, I have to fly to the capital tomorrow. That's why I used the night to come and visit you guys. I also wanted to check on uncle song."

"Liyun, young people have their own lives!" Song Qiming laughed. RUO Fei is leaving tomorrow, don't you want to have dinner with your girlfriend tonight?"

"That's true ..." Fang Liyun said with a smile.

Xia ruofei could not help but feel a little embarrassed. He was thinking of Song Wei. He did not dare to imagine what their expressions would be like if they knew about his relationship with Song Wei. If they knew about the complicated relationship between Xia ruofei, Song Wei, and Ling Qingxue, who knew what their reaction would be ...

"Come, come, come, let's go make some tea!" Song Qiming said.

Fang Liyun also said, "ruofei, you guys continue!" We've just finished dinner and haven't cleaned up the kitchen yet!"

“Quickly go! I will take care of RUO Fei!” Song Qiming said.

Then, he laughed and explained to Xia ruofei, “The domestic service staff is on leave today. We can only do it ourselves.”

Xia ruofei and song Qiming walked to the coffee table in the living room and sat down. Song Qiming opened the kettle to get some water and said, “Ruofei, I’ve seen the video you posted this afternoon. You did well. Young people should have such vigor and responsibility!”

“You’re overpraising me. This is also a hobby of mine. I also love to play football.” Xia ruofei smiled and continued to ask, “uncle song, how have you been feeling?”

Song Qiming immediately said, “ruofei, the Qi cultivation method you taught me is amazing!” I only practice for about an hour a day, but now I’m not only full of energy, but also seem to have a lot more strength. What’s even more incredible is that my white hair has actually decreased a lot. This was discovered by the barber when I went to dye my hair a few days ago!”

As a leader, song Qiming often attended Foreign Affairs and appeared on the local news almost every day. Therefore, he had to pay attention to his image. He had started dyeing his hair a few years ago. Of course, he dyed it black.

After he came to San Shan to work, he had been dying his hair in the municipal Party committee’s Barber shop, so the barber was naturally very familiar with his hair.

As he usually dyed his hair, song Qiming did not notice the change in his hair. He would not look at his roots in the mirror for no reason. So it was the barber who first noticed the change in his white hair.

Song Qiming could already feel the earth – shaking changes in his body. His hair had even turned black. He was even more shocked. It was not easy for him to meet Xia ruofei again. He had long wanted to ask about the Qi cultivation method.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “uncle song, this is a good thing!” It means that you’ve regained your youth!”

Xia ruofei seemed to be joking, but he was actually speaking the truth. As long as song Qiming was successful in his cultivation, not only would his hair turn black, but his appearance would also become younger and his lifespan would increase. In a sense, he could be considered to have regained his youth.

“The effect is a little too good!” Song Qiming smiled bitterly and said, “I’m feeling a little scared ...”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “uncle song, this is normal. You don’t have to be nervous!” I’m here today to check on the effects of your health – Maintenance technique. If there’s really a problem, I can easily detect it!”

Xia ruofei paused and continued, “Uncle song, please follow your usual practice method and demonstrate how you practice!”

Chapter 2777 the great Tang! Smooth progress_1

“No problem! Let’s go to the study!” Song Qiming said.

The two of them went to song Qiming's study room. He carefully took out the spiritual crystal that Xia ruofei had given him from the safe.

Xia ruofei released his spiritual power to sense it. He realized that the spiritual Qi contained in the spiritual crystal was not consumed much. With song Qiming's current strength, he could not absorb much spiritual Qi even if he cultivated without sleep or rest. Moreover, he strictly followed Xia ruofei's request and cultivated for more than an hour a day, so the consumption was even less.

Song Qiming gave Xia ruofei a questioning look. Xia ruofei nodded slightly and said, "Uncle song, let's start!"

Song Qiming nodded and sat down with his legs crossed. He held the spiritual crystal in his hand and started to operate the mental cultivation method of the "modest Heart Sutra" according to the meridian circulation route that Xia ruofei had taught him.

Xia ruofei was observing with his spiritual power. He could clearly feel a suction force from song Qiming's palm. The spiritual Qi in the spiritual crystal was being drawn out and circulated along the meridians of the first level of the "modest Sutra".

In a short while, song Qiming had completed one circulation of the technique.

Xia ruofei nodded to himself. He could tell that song Qiming had put in a lot of effort. Song Qiming was very skilled when he was cultivating, and there was no mistake in the circulation route of the spiritual Qi.

Although Xia ruofei did not stop him, song Qiming only completed two cycles of the Qi before he stopped. He only wanted Xia ruofei to check if there were any mistakes in his cultivation. He could not just keep on cultivating while Xia ruofei waited.

"RUO Fei, how is it?" Song Qiming let out a breath of air and asked.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded, "very good!" Uncle song, it looks like you've completely mastered this set of Qi cultivation techniques. As for the changes you mentioned, they were indeed caused by practicing this set of Qi cultivation techniques, and these are all normal effects. You don't have to worry at all!"

"That's good." Song Qiming heaved a sigh of relief.

During this period of time, he had been practicing this set of "health maintenance method". The effect was so amazing that he felt a little uneasy in his heart. He was afraid that he had practiced it wrong. If there were any hidden dangers, his old bones, which had just been seriously injured, could not withstand the torment.

Now that he had Xia ruofei's personal "verification", it meant that there was no problem with his training. The effect of this set of health – Maintenance methods was just that great. He immediately calmed down and felt a sense of joy that came from the bottom of his heart.

"RUO Fei, I really don't know how to thank you." Song Qiming said sincerely, "a health – Maintenance method with such good effects must be very precious! I'm so grateful that you've taught me this!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "uncle song, this is just the beginning of the practice. As long as you stick to it, you will have even bigger surprises in the future! Didn't I tell you last time? If you persist in practicing this set of health – Maintenance methods, not only will the hidden dangers in your body be eliminated, but you'll also be able to live a long life. You should believe me now, right?"

"I do!" Song Qiming smiled. He believed in him! RUO Fei, I've never doubted your words!"

Then, song Qiming seemed to hesitate for a moment before he asked in embarrassment,""Ruofei, there's something ..."

"Uncle song, just tell me what you need!" Xia ruofei replied readily,"you don't have to be so polite with me!"

"I ... I was thinking ... Since this set of health – Maintenance exercises is so effective, can I teach it to your aunt Fang so that she can practice with me?" song Qiming asked. Of course, if there are any taboos, then forget it. I'm just asking. "

Xia ruofei could not help but laugh. He could tell that song Qiming and Fang Liyun were very close. The effect of this cultivation technique was so good that song Qiming could not help but think of his wife.

However, while the idea was beautiful, reality did not allow it.

Xia ruofei smiled and said,"uncle song, aunty Fang can't practice this set of health – Maintenance methods." Of course, this isn't a taboo or anything like 'secret techniques'. It's just that this set of health – Maintenance techniques was specially selected by me according to uncle song's physique, and it's only suitable for you to practice. Even if other people practice according to this method, there won't be any effect. If there are no special circumstances, they won't even be able to get started. "

Xia ruofei paused and continued,""Of course, you can let aunt Fang try it on. It's okay. However, you must be mentally prepared. I'm afraid that there's a high possibility that there won't be any effect. "

Song Qiming could not help but feel disappointed. He said,""Then there's no need to try. Of course I believe you ..." He said.

He felt that it was a pity. After practicing this "health maintenance", song Qiming felt that not only did he become stronger, but his body also became tougher. The gastric problems and mild high blood pressure that he had before had disappeared. On the other hand, Fang Liyun was already at a certain age and had some chronic diseases. It was a pity that such a good health – Maintenance method was not suitable for her.

Xia ruofei could read song Qiming's mind. He smiled and said,""Uncle song, don't worry. Although this set of health exercises may not be suitable for aunt Fang, I will find a way to find one suitable for her. By then, she will naturally be able to practice it, but it will take some time."

Song Qiming was overjoyed and said,"that's great!" RUO Fei, I'll leave this matter to you!"

"You're welcome. I'll try my best, but I need some patience." Xia ruofei said with a smile.

He had originally planned to wait until he had a certain level of strength before leading the people close to him on the path of cultivation. He did not expect to have any major breakthroughs in cultivation, but it would be good if they could live to a hundred years old. Song Qiming and Fang Liyun were Song Wei's parents. Naturally, they were on the list of people he would teach.

However, Fang Liyun's body was not suitable for cultivation and she was getting older. Xia ruofei did not have any way to help her cultivate. Even if she used the heart – concentrating grass, there was a chance of success. The price to pay was higher. Xia ruofei had not considered this plan yet.

"Alright!" Song Qiming nodded. Alright! There's no hurry for this!"

Xia ruofei continued."Oh, right. Uncle song, I'm flying to the capital tomorrow. If you and Auntie Fang have anything for Song Wei, you can pass it to me later."

Song Qiming smiled and said,"Weiwei doesn't lack anything in Beijing. I'll ask your aunt Fang later!" Weiwei really misses her mother's special fried bun, but it's not easy to bring along ..."

Xia ruofei laughed."Don't worry about the security check. I'm using the private passage for the public jet. As long as there's time, you can prepare!" I promise I'll deliver it to Song Wei as soon as possible!"

Song Qiming was slightly stunned. He smiled and said,"I almost forgot that you're a little nouveau riche! Alright! Then I'll go and tell your aunt Fang, please wait a moment! Have some tea!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei said.

As expected, when Fang Liyun heard that Xia ruofei could help them bring things to Song Wei, she immediately decided to make the fried buns that she was best at and was also Song Wei's favorite.

Fang Liyun was happily busy in the kitchen while Xia ruofei and song Qiming went to the living room and chatted while making tea.

Fortunately, the filling was ready. Otherwise, it would have taken a long time to finish. Fang Liyun had planned to make some fried buns for song Qiming the next day, but now, song Qiming was no longer in luck.

Fang Liyun finally finished cooking the fried buns at around nine o'clock in the evening. There were about forty to fifty of them, filling a big bag. She even thoughtfully packed another small bag and passed it to Xia ruofei. She smiled and said,"Ruofei, this is for you. Try my cooking!"

Xia ruofei took the bag and said with a smile,"Then I'll accept it. Thank you, Auntie! I'll put these fried buns in the fridge when I get back. Don't worry about it during the flight tomorrow. There's a fridge on the plane too. I promise they'll still be fresh when I send them to Song Wei!"

"Then I'll have to trouble you!" The person in the room said with a smile.

It was getting late, and song Qiming and Fang Liyun had to rest. Song Qiming's cultivation was fine, but he still needed some time to break through to refined Qi Level 2. Xia ruofei did not need to give him any more guidance for the time being. So, after Xia ruofei took the fried buns, he immediately got up and left, driving back to the jiangbin villa community.

Ling Qingxue was too embarrassed to stay the night, so she went home the moment Xia ruofei left. The villa was quiet.

Xia ruofei placed the fried buns into the refrigerator. As for the small bag that Fang Liyun gave him, he would just treat it as supper.

He went upstairs to his bedroom, locked the door and windows, and took out the spirit map scroll. He went into the medium to cultivate for a few hours.

By now, nearly half of the true Qi in his body had been converted into primordial Qi. Every time he cultivated, he could see his own progress, which was a pretty good feeling.

When Xia ruofei finished his cultivation and came out of the spirit map space, it was already past two in the morning.

In fact, even if he didn't sleep all night, it wouldn't affect him much. Moreover, ever since he started cultivating, the quality of his sleep had always been very good. Even if he only rested for three to four hours, it was a high – Quality deep sleep. The effect was better than the average person who slept for eight hours.

Xia ruofei heated up the pan – fried buns that Fang Liyun had given him and ate them while browsing the news on his phone. Then, he went to wash up and went to bed.

The next morning, Xia ruofei dragged a small suitcase that was completely used for decoration and took a car to the airport with Ling Qingxue.

Considering that the trip might take a long time, Xia ruofei did not choose to drive to the airport by himself. Instead, he asked Lei Hu to arrange for a company's Mercedes – Benz car to come.

It was the weekend, so there wasn't much traffic on the road. In less than 50 minutes, Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue arrived at the airport in their Mercedes – Benz.

Xia ruofei brought Ling Qingxue along with him. After going through a simple security check in the business jet building, they walked straight to the landing strip where paradise was parked.

Liu An's crew had already made preparations for take – off. Although it was a short flight, Xia ruofei still allowed the three pilots to fly together because they might have to fly directly from the capital to Peach Blossom Island.

After Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue boarded the plane, paradise was quickly permitted to taxi – in. It slowly glided to the runway and waited for a while. The tower then informed them that paradise could take off.

After accelerating and gliding, paradise drew a beautiful flight path and leaped into the blue sky.

Chapter 2778 Travelling together with America (1)

After about two hours of flight, paradise successfully arrived at Beijing International Airport.

After Xia ruofei let the flight crew handle the follow-up work, they were on standby at a nearby hotel. He and Ling Qingxue left the restricted area of the airport through the private passage for the public business plane.

Wu Qiang was already waiting outside the airport in the Elfa commercial car.

When he saw Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue walking out, he quickly walked up to them and called out, "Boss!"

Then, Wu Qiang quickly took Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue's luggage.

Xia ruofei followed Wu Qiang to the parking lot and asked, "Is Song Wei here?"

"When I set off, miss song had already arrived at her house in liuhai Lane. She should be waiting for you in the courtyard house now," Wu Qiang said.

"Alright," he said. Xia ruofei nodded and continued to ask, "is there anything going on at home?"

"Everything is normal!" "Yes." Wu Qiang replied respectfully, "other than the two people who came to your door some time ago, saying that they had a business deal worth billions of US dollars to discuss with you, no one else came to look for you."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "okay, I got it!" I've already sent those two away, so they probably won't bother me again in the future."

Wu Qiang heaved a sigh of relief when he heard that. He had felt that this matter was a little unreliable from the start. Although it looked extraordinary and did not look like a swindler, a few billion US dollars was a little too exaggerated.

Wu Qiang had always been worried that the shop owner had been deceived, but he could not speak out to persuade him. Even if he were to ask, it would be a little presumptuous. Hence, when Xia ruofei took the initiative to tell him this news, he felt relieved.

After getting their car from the parking lot, the three of them drove back to the courtyard house in liuhai Lane.

It was the weekend, and it was not yet noon, so the traffic was not bad. It took the three of them about 40 minutes to return to the courtyard house in liuhai Lane.

The car stopped and the electric door slowly opened with a beep. Wu Qiang quickly went to the back and took down Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue's luggage.

Wu Qiang's girlfriend, Xia Xiaolan, and his sister – in – Law, Wu Xiujuan, who were working in the backyard, came out to greet Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei also smiled and greeted them. He asked, "Sister – in – Law, what delicious food did you prepare for lunch?"

"Boss, I've prepared some braised lamb, braised carp, and the Beijing roasted duck I learned recently. The main course is noodles with soybean paste. I'm not sure if it'll suit your taste ..." Wu Xiujuan said quickly.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "I have absolute confidence in sister-in-law's cooking!" Speaking of which, I'm really a little hungry. Just hearing the names of these dishes makes me drool!"

"Lunch will be ready soon," Wu Xiujuan said quickly. "You can go and rest for a while. It will be ready soon!"

“Alright! You’ve worked hard!” Xia ruofei said.

Then, Xia ruofei said to Wu Qiang, “Wu Qiang, you should also go and rest! I’ll take my luggage by myself. There’s not much stuff.”

“Okay, boss!” Wu Qiang replied respectfully.

Xia ruofei dragged the small suitcase and stopped after two steps. He handed the bag in his hand to Wu Xiujuan and said, “Sister – in – Law, please keep these fried buns in the refrigerator.”

These were the love fried buns that Fang Liyun had prepared for her daughter. She had kept them in the refrigerator during the flight, including on the way back from the airport. Xia ruofei had also stuffed them into the car refrigerator. He had promised Fang Liyun that he would keep the fried buns fresh.

“Alright, boss, leave it to me!” Wu Xiujuan said.

Only then did Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue pass through the corridor and the moon gate to the master’s courtyard in the middle.

Song Wei was also a cultivator, and her hearing was very sharp. She had already heard the footsteps of the two, so she walked out of the room.

When she saw that it was indeed Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue, Song Wei’s face broke into a smile. She exclaimed, “RUO Fei, Qingxue, you’re here!”

Ling Qingxue’s face also blossomed with a sweet smile. She pushed her luggage towards Xia ruofei, then quickly walked over to Song Wei and held her arm. “Wei Wei, long time no see. I missed you so much ...”

Xia ruofei was speechless. It hadn’t been long since they separated, right? As for this?

Moreover, whenever he was alone with Ling Qingxue, whenever he talked about Song Wei, Ling Qingxue would more or less feel a little jealous. Of course, this was normal. If it were any modern woman, they would not be as generous as Ling Qingxue.

“I missed you too! Sister Qingxue!” Song Wei said, blushing.

Ling Qingxue pinched Song Wei’s delicate cheek and smiled. “Our Wei Wei is getting more and more beautiful! You must have a lot of suitors in school, right?”

Song Wei looked at Xia ruofei in panic and said, “Qingxue, don’t talk nonsense! Who’s chasing me?”

“I don’t believe it! With your beauty, you’re also the campus Belle of Beijing University! How could no one be chasing after him?” Ling Qingxue giggled and said, “I won’t say anymore, I won’t say anymore. A certain someone’s face is already filled with anxiety!”

After she finished speaking, Ling Qingxue glanced at Xia ruofei and burst into laughter.

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but smile bitterly. “How am I nervous?” He was clearly looking helpless, alright?

The three of them walked into the room together.

The heater in the house was on, and the moment they entered, they felt as warm as spring. Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue both took off their coats.

Xia ruofei said as he hung up the clothes, ""Right, Weiwei, I went to visit your parents before I came. I was worried that uncle song would practice the [modest Sutra] alone, so I went to check on his progress."

"How's the situation?" Song Wei quickly asked.

"Don't worry! Uncle song's comprehension is still very high. There are no problems with his cultivation, and the flow of his meridians is very accurate." Xia ruofei said, "I don't have anything to correct him. I'll just let him persist normally." However ... He didn't know that he was cultivating. He always thought that he was using the same kind of health – raising method as the old people in the park!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. Song Wei smiled and said, ""Isn't my dad a little too slow?"

Xia ruofei chuckled. "I'm not slow. It's just that it's hard to believe in cultivation if you don't experience it in person. Besides, uncle song has always been a materialist. Of course, he should have noticed that this set of martial arts was extraordinary. After this period of cultivation, some of his chronic diseases had been cured. Even his hair had begun to turn black, and his strength was greater than that of a young man. Uncle song was a little scared himself, and he kept asking me if there was a problem!"

"Now that you've mentioned it, I really want to go back and see him ..." Song Wei chuckled.

Xia ruofei said, "Speaking of which ... Uncle song is really caring towards Auntie Fang!" After he confirmed that the changes in his body were normal, the thing he was most concerned about was whether he could pass on this set of cultivation techniques to aunt Fang. I told him that although this set of martial arts is very precious, it's not a secret that can't be passed on, at least not to him and aunt Fang. It's just that even if aunt Fang learns it, it's useless. If her physique doesn't meet the requirements, she won't even be able to enter the beginner level. "

"Yeah!" Song Wei nodded. The threshold for cultivation is too high ..."

Ling Qingxue felt the same way. She said, ""Yup! It's all thanks to RUO Fei that we're able to cultivate. In order to change our Constitution, we've paid a huge price. "

Xia ruofei smiled. "Everything is difficult at the beginning. It's worth it no matter how much it costs to let you guys take this step!" And it will get better and better in the future. I called you all together this time to take you to a good place! It can be said that with this place, we won't have to worry about cultivation resources for a long time!"

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei asked at the same time, ""What kind of place is it?"

Song Wei then turned to Ling Qingxue and asked, ""Qingxue, even you don't know? I thought he had told you about it long ago. "

Ling Qingxue smiled faintly and said, "do you think this guy will favor one over the other?" He's been keeping us in suspense since Sanshan, and now that he's in Beijing, he still won't tell us ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "this is more of a surprise!" Anyway, I'll definitely surprise you! It's almost time, let's go eat first. I still have some things to do in Beijing. We'll leave the day after tomorrow at the latest, and you'll know then! By the way, Weiwei, aunt Fang made you a lot of your favorite fried buns. I asked Wu Xiujuan to put them in the refrigerator. If you want to eat, you can just heat them up!"

Xia ruofei refused to say and even changed the topic. Song Wei and Ling Qingxue had no choice but to glare at Xia ruofei and let him keep them in suspense.

.....

Xia ruofei stayed in the capital for two days. He went to visit elder song and brought Ling Qingxue and Song Wei to the Paradise chapter for a walk. He had a drink with his brothers and Ling Qingxue also learned about the Ling Ji private kitchen's operations in the Paradise chapter.

Then, Xia ruofei went to the Liu family's courtyard to check on old master Liu and left him a batch of pills that he had prepared in advance.

On the third day, Xia ruofei boarded the Gulfstream G650 public jet with Ling Qingxue and Song Wei, who had applied for leave from the school. They departed from the Capital International Airport and flew to Paradise Island in the depths of the South Pacific Ocean.

The flight from Beijing to Paradise Island was longer than the flight from Sanshan, so the plane naturally landed in rainboas to refuel and continue the rest of the flight as usual.

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei had been on the plane for a long time and saw that the plane had been flying over the sea. Their curiosity grew and they pestered Xia ruofei several times to ask where they were going. However, Xia ruofei refused to tell them and kept it a secret.

Ling Qingxue even tried to act coquettishly. Even the shy Song Wei held Xia ruofei's hand and shook it. She asked him in a coquettish voice, but Xia ruofei remained unmoved.

The two of them could only shake Xia ruofei off and sit down in the middle of the cabin. They looked at the scenery outside the window and chatted, no longer paying attention to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled as he sipped his red wine. He knew that Ling Qingxue and Song Wei's curiosity had been completely aroused. Although the two of them pretended not to care, in reality, they felt as if their hearts were being scratched by a cat!

After more than ten hours of long – distance flight, the plane finally began to slowly descend.

When Ling Qingxue and Song Wei noticed that the plane was going down, they quickly put their faces close to the window and looked out.

After the plane passed through the thin clouds, the scattered islands on the sea could be vaguely seen.

When the two of them saw the plane slowly descending towards a small island, their hearts gradually became excited. After holding it in for so long, they were finally reaching their destination. The answer to the mystery was about to be revealed.

Although there was no command from the tower staff, there were no other aircraft in the nearby airspace. Furthermore, Peach Blossom Island Airport was clean. There were no aircraft taking off or landing. In addition, Liu An's crew was already very familiar with the airport, so they landed the plane on the runway very smoothly.

After taxiing, the plane slowly stopped in the parking lot.

Even before the cabin door opened, Ling Qingxue and Song Wei could already feel the difference. They looked at each other and said in unison, "The spiritual Qi here is so dense!"

Chapter 2779 Super big surprise_1

In fact, even the flight crew of the peach source felt that this landing on peach source Island was different from the previous few times. It was as if the air was much sweeter.

However, they were just ordinary people, so their sense of spirit Qi was not as strong as that of cultivators like Song Wei and Ling Qingxue.

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei felt as if they had entered the legendary holy mountain and Immortal Island after the plane landed.

This feeling was much stronger than the one in the villa at the array eye of the Paradise gathering. After all, the level of the Taixu xuanqing array was much higher than that of the Paradise gathering's natural array. Moreover, the coverage of the two arrays could not be mentioned in the same breath.

The flight attendant quickly opened the cabin door. Xia ruofei, Ling Qingxue, and Song Wei stepped out of the plane.

Li Yifu and Zheng Yongshou were waiting on the tarmac. As soon as the cabin door opened, the two of them quickly greeted him.

After Ling Qingxue stepped onto the tarmac, she sniffed and felt the rich spirit Qi on the island. She then asked, "RUO Fei, when did you find such a place? It's like an Immortal Island!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "how is it?" "I'm not exaggerating, am I? With this Island rich in spiritual energy, I won't have to worry about cultivation resources in the future, right?"

"Yes, yes!" Ling Qingxue and Song Wei both nodded.

At this moment, Li Yifu and Zheng Yongshou walked up.

"Senior granduncle!"

"Mr. Xia!"

The two of them bowed respectfully and greeted him. Because Xia ruofei had given instructions in advance, Zheng Yongshou addressed Xia ruofei as "Mr. Xia" instead of "master".

Li Yifu's identity wasn't a secret to Song Wei and Ling Qingxue, so there was no need for him to change his words.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "yes!" "You've all worked hard! Foster husband, has the Taixu xuanqing formation been operating normally these past few days?"

“Everything is normal, martial granduncle!” Li Yifu said respectfully, “as the array operates, the concentration of spirit Qi in the array continues to rise, and it has now reached an equilibrium.”

Xia ruofei nodded. Once he entered the range of the formation, he could already feel that the Taixu xuanqing formation was in a very stable state.

Then, Xia ruofei said to Li Yifu, “Get benilatti to arrange for the crew to stay in the best hotel in Evarts Island!”

“Alright!” Li Yifu nodded and said.

At this time, the captain, Liu An, had just gotten off the plane. He heard Xia ruofei’s words and quickly said, “Thank you, Mr. Xia!”

In fact, the flight crew could also stay on Peach Garden Island. There were many guest rooms in the building on the island, but they were all empty now. However, if they stayed on Peach Garden Island, there were no entertainment facilities at the moment, and they could not walk around freely. There were many places that were forbidden. Comparatively, of course, the conditions on Evarts Island were better and freer.

Li Yifu called benilati. The restricted area on the island – which benilati was originally supervising on the construction site – had already been divided. However, some of the previous greenery and environmental projects had not been completed and looked unsightly, so Li Yifu asked benilati to recruit some workers from ponaattu to improve these places. After receiving Li Yifu’s call, benilati quickly handed over the supervision work to a Foreman. Then, he rushed to the airport.

Xia ruofei, Ling Qingxue, and Song Wei got into Li Yifu’s Land Rover and left the airport for “Tao Yuan building”. The project department building in Qin Zhuan was also named as Tao Yuan building by Xia ruofei. It had the same name as the headquarters of the Tao Yuan company in San Shan. However, there was no confusion here.

Xia ruofei had reserved the best suite in the building for Ling Qingxue and Song Wei.

In fact, he could stay in the same room as them. There was more than one room in the suite. However, in front of Li Yifu, a junior in the sect, Xia ruofei felt that he should be more careful and maintain his image as an elder in the sect. Therefore, he chose a room that was close to the suite.

Xia ruofei led Ling Qingxue and Song Wei to the room and said with a smile, “You can live here when you are on the island! You can choose your own room! Any room has an unrivaled ocean view, and most importantly, it’s rich in spiritual energy, so you can cultivate anytime, anywhere!”

“En!” Ling Qingxue nodded and asked casually, “where are you staying?”

“I’m in the next room.” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “if you need me to help you with your cultivation, you can come and find me anytime!”

Ling Qingxue’s face turned red and she glared at Xia ruofei.

“Actually, I’m also thinking about finding you a new set of martial arts. Otherwise, there will be too many restrictions when you cultivate,” said Xia ruofei seriously.

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei had to practice the “absolute beginning Scripture” together with Xia ruofei for the effect to be better. If they practiced it alone, it would be worse than a normal technique. Therefore, once Xia ruofei was not by their side, their progress would slow down. This was the biggest disadvantage of this technique.

Of course, this couldn’t be considered a disadvantage, because this was originally prepared for Dao companions. Basically, Dao companions among cultivators would often be together, so there naturally wouldn’t be such a problem.

“It’s okay, I’m fine like this!” Song Wei quickly said.

“Mm! In fact, we’re not in such a hurry to increase our cultivation!” Ling Qingxue chimed in, “if I were to change to another technique, I would have to start from the beginning again. I would find it troublesome!”

Xia ruofei didn’t know whether to laugh or cry. It was rare for these two girls to have the same opinion, but they were actually slacking off. If an ordinary person could obtain the cultivation technique in Xia ruofei’s jade talisman of inheritance, they would be overjoyed. Only these two silly girls had actually rejected it.

It would not be easy to find a suitable martial art for the two of them that would not conflict with the “absolute beginning Scripture”. Since they had said so, Xia ruofei put this thought aside for the time being.

He took the two to the terrace outside the suite and pointed to the sea in the distance. “”Aside from the factor of cultivation, the scenery here is also quite good. It’s basically the original ecology. Except for some necessary construction, the scenery on the island has not been destroyed by a large number of human activities. Therefore, it’s actually quite good to take a vacation here!”

Song Wei herself had some artistic plots. She nodded in agreement and said, “”This is the so – called life of facing the sea and the flowers blooming in spring! This place was really great! I don’t even want to leave!”

“I’ll stay for as long as I want!” Xia ruofei said straightforwardly, “the entire peach source Island is mine, so it’s Naturally Yours. Even Huaxia’s laws can’t control this place. All you need to do is to have fun and cultivate to your heart’s content. You don’t need to care about anything else!”

“En!” Song Wei nodded and said, “I’ll try to stay longer. I’m not particularly busy with my research project.”

“There are a few islands nearby, but the tourism development is not particularly perfect. It’s not a problem if you want to visit them. I’ll get someone to arrange it!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

“Ruofei, I feel that there are very few people on the island! Don’t you have any staff here?” Ling Qingxue asked curiously.

Xia ruofei pulled the two of them to the chairs on the balcony and said, “”There used to be a lot of staff here. Otherwise, how could there be so many buildings on the island? However, I had them return to China in batches. It’s a little complicated, so I’ll tell you slowly. ”

Then, Xia ruofei told him about how he had treated the old man of the Liu family, how old man Liu had given him the Peach Blossom Island as a gift of thanks, how he had found a natural formation on the island, and how he had found a way to activate the formation.

Of course, he didn't mention anything about the star Seizer sect's plot to seize the Peach Blossom Island.

Xia ruofei did not want Ling Qingxue and Song Wei to come into contact with the dark side of the world of cultivation too early. He hoped that they would always have a beautiful vision of cultivation, which would actually be good for their cultivation.

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue listened with great interest. Even without the star Seizer sect incident, Xia ruofei's journey of obtaining the Peach Blossom Island was rather complicated and bizarre.

Xia ruofei finally said, "so, the reason why the spiritual energy on the island is so rich is actually all thanks to the Taixu xuanqing formation." In order to activate this great formation, my foster husband has also made a great contribution. We should thank him for being able to have such a precious cultivation land!"

Xia ruofei paused and continued, ""The Taixu xuanqing formation is a comprehensive formation. Not only does it have the effect of gathering spirit energy, but it's also very strong in the defense of the island. So, there are actually many confusion formations and killing formations on the island. Usually, the position of these formations is fixed, and they can change positions when defending against enemies. I've asked my foster husband to block these fixed positions with barbed wire. They can be considered the island's restricted area! You should also be careful not to make any mistakes, or you might be injured by the formation. "

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei both nodded, indicating that they had remembered it.

"In addition, the island still needs some staff to maintain the operation of the entire Island. These staff will gradually be in place." Xia ruofei continued, "I've also set up a guard team. Most of the members are veterans from my old army. They've already gathered at the three mountains. After a short training, they'll be stationed on Peach Blossom Island."

"This Island is so important. We do need to choose people we trust very much for the staff." Song Wei nodded and said.

"Don't worry!" Xia ruofei smiled. "I have a way to screen everyone. In the future, I will do it from time to time. People with evil intentions will not be able to sneak in."

Just as the three of them were chatting about Paradise Island, Xia ruofei's phone rang. He took it out and saw that it was Wu Lei calling from Spain.

...

He swiped his phone and answered the call with a smile, ""Wu Lei! Is there something you need?"

Chapter 2780 Don't be scared, just do it (1)

"Brother Xia!" Wu Lei smiled and asked, "are you busy these days? Everyone really misses you!"

"I've been quite busy recently. " Xia ruofei chuckled and said,"Lei Zi, how's the team's performance recently?"

"Everyone's been in good shape for the last few matches, and the results are quite good!" Wu Lei said happily,"in the last six games, we have achieved three wins, two draws, and one loss. Now we are completely far away from the relegation zone. It can be said that the task of staying in the league can be declared a success. At present, we are only four points away from the theoretical European region. Everyone is now rubbing their fists and full of confidence. They want to rush up in one go. Maybe next season, we can also experience the European competition!"

"Three wins, two draws, and one loss? That's a pretty good result!" Xia ruofei laughed and said,"could it be that the opponents in the recent rounds are just average?"

"Actually, we won 't. The three games we won were all from the league's roaming teams. We even forced a draw with Real Sociedad and getafie. These are all top – ranked teams!" Wu Lei said, and then said with some embarrassment,"the only game we lost was to Real Madrid ..."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh."Are there a lot of Catalan media mocking you as 'free point boys' again?"

The grudges between the teams in La Liga were also a topic that the fans enjoyed talking about. After Xia ruofei entered Espanyol, he naturally understood some of the grudges related to Espanyol. As the two Barcelona teams, the Spanish and Barcelona teams were naturally incompatible. Although there was a big gap in strength between the Spanish and the other team, every time the two sides faced each other, the Spanish players did not need to mobilize at all. They just played and did their best every time, playing 100% or even 120% of their strength. Although they lost more than they won, they did cause a lot of trouble for Barcelona.

Compared to when they played Barcelona, they were on steroids. When they played against Real Madrid, another "two heroes of the Western Premier League," the Spanish team's fighting spirit was not as strong. Under the huge gap in strength, the Spanish team lost most of the games without any resistance.

As a result, some of the Catalanian media's pro – Barcelona media were naturally very displeased. They were determined to fight against Barcelona. If Barcelona did not buck up and play with all their might, they might be forced into a draw or even lose the game. Then, the RCD Espanyol would immediately lose to Real Madrid. Wouldn't that be a great help to Real Madrid in disguise? In the face of the Spanish players, bar?a naturally had to do their best. Every time, it consumed a lot of physical energy, and in the hot – blooded Derby, the probability of injury was greatly increased.

As a result, the media ridiculed the Spaniards as Real Madrid's underlings. Every time they faced Real Madrid, they acted as "free point boys," with the purpose of stopping Barcelona.

Wu Lei laughed in embarrassment and said,""The difference in strength in that game was too great, and on our side, iglesias accumulated yellow cards and was suspended. The few opportunities we had to fight back were not played ..."

"If you lose, then you lose! Who cares what others say!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

He was now the owner of Espanyol and also a first team player. Naturally, he shared the same enemy as the Spaniards. Although he did not hate Barça, he did not care about the media's views.

"Yes, we'll just be good ourselves." Wu Lei said. Then, he hesitated for a moment and asked, "brother Xia, are you free next weekend? Can you come back and play a game on behalf of our team?"

Xia Ruofei smiled and asked, "is this your own idea or the team's request?"

"Manager Ruby can't wait for you to represent the team in every game ..." Wu Lei said with a smile. "The players are the same. You have completely conquered everyone with one game. I can see that at the critical moment of the team, everyone really wants you to come out and help the team win, but they don't dare to mention it!"

"Zhou leiyun didn't say anything?" Xia Ruofei asked.

"Director Zhou didn't specifically mention this, but after the last match, he chatted with me for a while and expressed his intention in this regard." Wu Lei said, "it's probably because director Zhou felt that you took care of me more, so he hoped to find out your thoughts through me! If you don't want to, no one will force you!"

Wu Lei was honest and did not hide anything from Xia Ruofei.

Xia Ruofei laughed and said, "I knew it. Zhou leiyun is indeed a sly old fox!" Lei Zi, which team are you playing against next? What time is it?"

Wu Lei was stunned for a moment before he asked in surprise, "Brother Xia, you mean ..."

"I have to give you face!" Xia Ruofei chuckled and said, "it just so happens that I'm done with my work recently. I still have time to fly over and play one or two matches."

Actually, Zhou leiyun's plan was to use Wu Lei to sound out Xia Ruofei's intentions. If Xia Ruofei was willing to play for the team, he would definitely call the team personally to invite the players and coaches. They might think that Zhou leiyun and Xia Ruofei were both owners of the team. In terms of wealth, Zhou leiyun had more, and Xia Ruofei could at most be on the same level as Zhou leiyun. In reality, Zhou leiyun knew very well that there was a huge gap between him and Xia Ruofei. If it was not for the ties of the Spanish team, he would not even be able to enter Xia Ruofei's circle.
