Chapter 2781 Don't be scared, just do it (2)

Hence, Zhou leiyun did not dare to treat Xia ruofei lightly.

However, Xia ruofei agreed to Wu Lei's request immediately, which made Wu Lei feel flattered. He quickly said, "Thank you! Thank you, brother Xia!"

Then, Wu Lei quickly said, "brother Xia, the next game is next Saturday. We're playing against Barcelona as an away game." It's because this game is so important that everyone is looking forward to you taking us to defeat Barcelona!"

Xia ruofei calculated silently. There were still six days left before the competition next Saturday.

Although it was an away game, Barcelona, like Spain, was located in Barcelona, so there was no need for an expedition. Even if they had to carry out some adaptive training in advance, as well as practice with everyone to find the feeling of cooperation, two or three days in advance was enough.

It would take about 15 to 16 hours to fly from Paradise Island in the South Pacific Ocean.

In other words, he would be able to leave in three days.

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei said, "No problem! I'll return to the team two or three days in advance to train with everyone and find out how well we work together. Then, next Saturday, we'll go to Barcelona and turn it upside down!"

"Haha!" Wu Lei said excitedly. With brother Xia joining us, we have the confidence to cause trouble for Barcelona! Who says that a small ball club can't counterattack a powerhouse club?"

"Then I'll see you in Spain mid-week!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Zhou Zhong Jian!" Wu Lei said happily.

Once Xia ruofei hung up, Ling Qingxue could not help but ask, "Ruofei, you're going to Spain to participate in the competition again?"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded, "yeah!" The team will be facing a strong opponent next weekend, and now it is a critical time to attack the European zone. Every point is very important, so they want me to go back and help the team! I'm not particularly busy these days, so I'll agree to it!"

Ling Qingxue cheered and said, "I want to go too!" I haven't seen you play in person yet!"

In fact, Xia ruofei had only played half of the game. Other than the employees of Paradise Corporation who went on a trip with Xia ruofei, his friends and family only found out about Xia ruofei's wonderful performance through the internet after that.

"Ruofei, I want to go too!" Song Wei could not help but say.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "this is such a good place for cultivation. Don't you want to stay here and cultivate?"

Hearing this, Ling Qingxue's expression became conflicted.

Indeed, as soon as she came to the Peach Blossom Island, she was deeply attracted to it. The beautiful sea view was secondary, and the rich spirit Qi on the island would really make any cultivator's heart beat faster.

Song Wei, who was at the side, burst out laughing and said, "Sister Qingxue, you've been tricked by this guy! He's not on the island anymore, and the efficiency of us cultivating alone is so low. What's the point of staying?"

Ling Qingxue finally reacted. She pouted and hit Xia ruofei a few times. "Hey! How can you be so bad! Are you still hiding women in Europe? That's why you don't want me to go with Wei Wei?"

Xia ruofei's expression froze and he quickly said, "That's not true! Don't you speak without thinking ..."

He unconsciously thought of Monica, who was far away in Italy, but fortunately, his psychological quality was very good. Other than a slight distraction, he did not give himself away.

Ling Qingxue was just making a casual remark. In fact, she did not have any suspicions in that direction. She and Song Wei could not help but laugh when they saw Xia ruofei's aggrieved face.

Xia ruofei also heaved a sigh of relief and quickly changed the topic. "Since we've decided, let's go to Spain together! By the way, are your visas okay?"

Xia ruofei was mainly worried about Song Wei because Ling Qingxue, like him, had a business visa to Spain, Italy, and other major European countries, which allowed her to go back and forth multiple times.

Song Wei nodded and said, "No problem! My visa is still valid, so I can enter the country at any time!"

"That's good!" Xia ruofei said, "then I'll accompany you to cultivate these few days! We'll leave in three days!"

Xia ruofei continued, "by the way, the island's staff isn't here yet. We have to rely on ourselves for food, clothing, accommodation, and transportation. The facilities here will be more and more perfect in the future!" The staff will also be assembled very quickly!"

"I'm fine!" Ling Qingxue said happily, "it's even more peaceful now!"

Xia ruofei then called Liu An, who had settled down in Evates Island, and asked him to immediately apply for a flight route to Barcelona, Spain. He also asked him to make a flight plan as soon as possible. The plane had to take off from Paradise Island at 8 am local time in three days.

After calling the cabin crew, Xia ruofei received a call from Zhou leiyun.

Wu Lei reported to Zhou leiyun immediately after the call with Xia ruofei ended. When Zhou leiyun heard that Xia ruofei did not wait for his invitation and immediately agreed to come back to play against Barcelona, he suddenly felt a little passive. No matter what, this phone call should have been made by Zhou leiyun himself, not Wu Lei.

Zhou leiyun quickly called Xia ruofei and apologized profusely.

Xia ruofei was in a good mood today. Zhou leiyun had the cunning of a businessman, but he was not a bad person. Hence, Xia ruofei did not criticize him. Instead, he comforted him.

Naturally, Zhou leiyun was secretly touched. At the same time, he immediately took action. While he took the business jet to Barcelona, he also transferred two people from the domestic company to the club to be in charge of security. He wanted Xia ruofei to return to the club, and everything would naturally be guaranteed according to the highest standards.

For the next three days, Xia ruofei put aside all worldly matters and accompanied Ling Qingxue and Song Wei on the Peach Blossom Island, living a life of a fairy couple. He also took a lot of time to take turns with the two to practice the “absolute beginning Scripture”.

The two of them had just broken through. After Xia ruofei broke through to a major realm, their joint cultivation was even more helpful. After three days of cultivation, the actual cultivation time was far more than that. This was because Xia ruofei would use the time array flag every time. Although they were still a little far from Level 5, their cultivation had taken a solid step forward.

Xia ruofei had also benefited a lot from cultivation.

After three days, most of the genuine Qi in his body had been transformed into primordial Qi. At most, there was only ten percent left.

In fact, if Xia ruofei put in a little more effort or spent more time practicing the great Dao Arts, this 10% of genuine Qi would probably have been converted into elemental energy.

However, Xia ruofei did not do so.

This was because after all the true Qi had been transformed into primordial Qi, it would soon form a golden core cyclone in the dantian, and this was also a clear sign of a cultivator entering the early stage of the Golden core realm.

The Jindan breathing current could be said to be the foundation of the Jindan stage. If this Foundation was not solid, it would also determine the lack of energy after the cultivation.

Different cultivation techniques and different foundations could lead to different qualities of the Golden core.

It would be much easier for a high – grade golden core cultivator to break through to the nascent Soul Stage or even higher. As for the Golden core of a lower grade, it was very likely that their cultivation would stop at this level for the rest of their lives.

Xia ruofei felt that he wasn’t fully prepared, so he started to suppress his Qi towards the end of his cultivation. He wasn’t in a hurry to convert all his Qi into origin Qi.

In the process of cultivation, he intentionally suppressed this 10% or so true Qi and began to refine his vital Qi.

This was also a typical method introduced in a cultivation ancient book. Through this method, one could suppress the journey of the Golden core cyclone and, to a certain extent, improve the grade of the future golden core.

At this stage, Xia ruofei already had a vague understanding of his future cultivation path. At least, he was confident about how to cultivate in the Golden core stage. Hence, he was not in a hurry and cultivated step by step according to his understanding.

Three days passed by in the blink of an eye. Soon, it was the day that Xia ruofei and the other two would set off for Spain.

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei had already fallen deeply in love with this beautiful island. Thinking about leaving for a while, they suddenly felt a bit reluctant.

However, they quickly got on the plane with Xia ruofei. In a short while, paradise completed its take – off procedure at the empty airport and flew Northwest of Paradise Island ...

Chapter 2782 The return of the great weapon_Translator: 5496903The actual flight from Paradise Island to Barcelona in Spain was slightly longer than the actual flight back to China. However, with the Gulfstream G650's endurance, it only needed to land in Australia to refuel once before it could arrive directly.

Xia ruofei, Ling Qingxue, and Song Wei were on the public jet named paradise. After about 15 hours of flight, they finally arrived in the sky above Barcelona.

Along the way, Xia ruofei gave the two girls the big bedroom in the back cabin. He was not thick – skinned enough, so when the two of them were resting, he only stayed outside.

Of course, the seat in the passenger cabin could also be laid flat and turned into a single bed, but the comfort level was not as high as the big bed in the bedroom in the rear cabin. There was no problem in resting.

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue only left the bedroom in the back cabin when the plane started to lower its altitude. They went to the middle of the cabin and sat opposite Xia ruofei. They fastened their seatbelts.

Xia ruofei saw the two of them in high spirits and asked with a smile, "Did you sleep well?"

"Very good!" Ling Qingxue laughed and said, "the captain's flying skills are very good. The plane was very stable all the way. There's no difference between sleeping on the bed and on the ground!"

Song Wei looked at Xia ruofei and said, "Ruofei, you've worked hard! You gave us the bedroom, but you didn't sleep well, did you?"

Xia ruofei laughed. "I can fall asleep anywhere. I can fall asleep as soon as I lay down. Besides, this flight seat is very soft and comfortable when laid flat. How can I not sleep well?"

The three of them chatted as they drank the freshly squeezed fruit juice served by the flight attendant.

The plane quickly lowered its height according to the standard entry procedures, built a slide, and finally landed smoothly on the runway of Barcelona Airport.

When Xia ruofei, Ling Qingxue, and Song Wei passed through the customs and walked out of the airport, Zhou leiyn, Jiang Xiaochen, and Wu Lei from Espanyol club were already waiting outside to welcome them.

Originally, for such a big game like Espanyol versus Barça, and it was also the Catalan derby, Zhou leiyn, as the club chairman, had to be present. Otherwise, the fans would also wonder why the chairman did not take the club seriously. If you don't even show up in the stands to cheer for the team in a game against your nemesis, what's the use of you?

Zhou leiyn had only needed to rush to Barcelona on the day of the game, but when he confirmed Xia ruofei's schedule, he immediately put down everything at hand and rushed over from China in advance.

Jiang Xiaochen was Zhou leiyn's spokesperson in the club, so he was naturally here to pick him up on behalf of the club.

As for Wu Lei, he was also invited by Zhou leiyn to welcome Xia ruofei because he had a good personal relationship with Xia ruofei.

"Chief Zhou! Leizi! Director Jiang!" Xia ruofei walked over and greeted him with a smile.

"President Xia! You've had a long journey!" Zhou leiyn extended his hands and shook Xia ruofei's hand enthusiastically. Jiang Xiaochen and the chauffeur quickly took the luggage of the three.

"Brother Xia!" Wu Lei also stepped forward and greeted Xia ruofei with a trace of gratitude.

Wu Lei's gratitude towards Xia ruofei was genuine.

At first, under Xia ruofei's suggestion, he had his shoulder surgery brought forward and Xia ruofei had used the magical hands of youth to help him recover to the level where he could participate in training within a week.

After that, Xia ruofei taught him a set of very effective body – tempering movements. After he persisted in training these movements every day, his strength and body coordination had improved greatly compared to when he had played football in China.

Because of better coordination and stronger physical confrontation ability, Wu Lei was more confident when he dribbled the ball to break through. After using his own awareness to run for the single – Blade opportunity, his goal rate had improved a lot because of his better control of footwork and his confidence. He was no longer the "Wu who lost the single – Blade" who frequently missed shots.

More importantly, everyone in the club knew that Wu Lei and Xia ruofei had a good personal relationship, so they took good care of him. Some of the older brothers in the team were more enthusiastic about him in the locker room, so he quickly integrated into the team.

Of course, it was also because his ability was indeed worthy of the RCD Espanyol first team. Now, coach Ruby still valued him more. He was basically a regular main force. The most frequently used striker was the partner of Wu Lei and iglasis.

He had just transferred from the Chinese Super League to La Liga and the platform had improved so much all of a sudden. Wu Lei thought that it was Xia ruofei who had given him such a good start.

Without Xia ruofei's help, Wu Lei felt that he would have encountered more difficulties.

Xia ruofei chuckled and lightly punched Wu Lei's shoulder. "Not bad! It looks like you haven't been slacking off in your training recently. You're obviously much stronger than before!"

Wu Lei chuckled and said, "training in Europe is more scientific. The nutritional meals are also matched according to the individual conditions of the players. In addition, I have been doing extra training, so I have made some progress."

Xia ruofei naturally knew what Wu Lei meant by extra training. He nodded in satisfaction.

Then, Xia ruofei introduced everyone to each other. Of course, when he introduced Ling Qingxue and Song Wei, he only said that they were his friends and that they were here to relax.

Chapter 2783 The return of the ultimate weapon_2

Zhou leiyun had always been following Xia ruofei's Weibo and Tieba. He was more familiar with Xia ruofei's situation. All of Xia ruofei's fans knew that Ling Qingxue was Xia ruofei's girlfriend, so Zhou leiyun naturally knew about this situation.

However, since Xia ruofei had only said that he was his friend, Zhou leiyun would not be so silly as to ask further.

As for Song Wei's identity, he was even more clear about Wanwan's nephew Zhou Yuan who tried to be a Toad lusting after a Swan's meat. He was so shocked that he broke out in a cold sweat. In the end, it was Zhao Yongjun who helped to calm the matter down.

Of course, Zhou leiyun had profited from his misfortune. He had gotten to know Xia ruofei because of this incident and had even asked him to invest in a Football Club. The relationship between the two had clearly become closer.

No matter what, Zhou leiyun had heard of Song Wei's name like thunder.

He had also noticed that Xia ruofei seemed to have placed Song Wei and Ling Qingxue on the same level. His heart trembled.

However, the experienced Zhou leiyun would not show it. He only greeted the two of them warmly and led them to the parking lot.

Zhou leiyun had made a reservation for Xia ruofei at the Grand Central Hotel where he had stayed the last time. He had asked Jiang Xiaochen to book two more luxury suites, which were connected to the original one.

The Grand Central Hotel did not have a Presidential Suite. The luxury suite was already the highest standard room in the hotel.

As he did not dare to guess the relationship between Xia ruofei and the other two, Zhou leiyun simply booked three rooms. As for how many rooms they would be using at night, he did not need to care. After all, the cost of one or two more rooms was not even a drop in the ocean to Zhou leiyun.

In reality, Zhou leiyun's small Manor in the rich district of Barcelona was more luxurious and comfortable. However, that was his home after all, and he was worried that Xia ruofei would not be used to living in someone else's house. Furthermore, Xia ruofei had brought two female companions, which made it even more inconvenient.

After receiving their room cards, everyone took the elevator up.

After Song Wei and Ling Qingxue reached the floor of their rooms, they each returned to their own rooms and flew for more than ten hours. They were also eager to take a shower, change their clothes, and dress up.

Zhou leiyun, Jiang Xiaochen, and Wu Lei accompanied Xia ruofei to his room.

Considering Xia ruofei's fatigue from the long journey, the three of them did not stay for long. After chatting for a while, they got up and left.

Zhou leiyun had even prepared a welcome dinner for Xia ruofei. At that time, they would naturally be able to have an in – depth exchange.

Xia ruofei politely stood up and sent the three of them out the door.

"That's right, Lei Zi, are you still staying in this hotel?"he suddenly asked.

"Brother Xia, I've already moved out!" Wu Lei said with a smile. My wife and children are already here. I've rented a house near the club. "

"Sure!" Xia ruofei smiled and said,"you don't have to worry about anything now!"

"Yup!" Wu Lei said,"in order to support my career, Xiaobei gave up on her own career development. This time, she even came to a foreign country for me ..."

"Just treat your wife better in the future!" Xia ruofei patted Wu Lei's shoulder and said with a smile,"use your performance at the court to repay your family!"

"I know, brother Xia! I will!" Wu Lei said firmly.

Xia ruofei smiled and asked,"chief Zhou, did you invite Lei Zi's family and children for dinner?" Let's get them to come over and have some fun!"

"We've already invited them!"Zhou leiyun quickly said.

Wu Lei was stunned for a moment, but he quickly nodded and said,""They'll be coming to participate too!"

In fact, Zhou leiyun did not invite Wu Lei's wife and children at the beginning. After all, this was a more formal business dinner, not a team gathering. However, Wu Lei and Xia ruofei had a good personal relationship. Besides, Xia ruofei had brought a female companion with him this time. It was more appropriate to let Wu Lei's wife come.

Furthermore, they were in a foreign country. As fellow Chinese, they would naturally feel very close to each other. It was reasonable to invite them to attend the banquet together.

Xia ruofei nodded and said,"sure!" Then I'll take a shower and rest first, see you tonight!"

"President Xia, you must be tired from the journey. Take a good rest." Zhou leiyun quickly said,"I'll come up to invite you when the banquet is about to start."

Xia ruofei nodded and waved at Zhou leiyun and the other two. Then, he turned around and returned to his room.

Zhou leiyun heaved a sigh of relief. As he walked towards the elevator with Jiang Xiaochen and Wu Lei, he patted Wu Lei's shoulder and said, "Wu Lei, thank you for helping me out! Otherwise, it would be a little awkward ..."

He was referring to Xia ruofei's invitation to Wu Lei's wife and child.

"You're too kind, general manager Zhou," Wu Lei said with a smile.

Zhou leiyun then said to Jiang Xiaochen, "Xiaochen, quickly send a car to send Wu Lei back. Then, take them to buy a set of high – end formal clothes and send them to the hotel!" There's still more than three hours, you better hurry!"

"Alright, director Zhou!" Jiang Xiaochen quickly said, then turned to Wu Lei. "Wu Lei, let's go!"

"General manager Zhou, there's no need to buy clothes! "There's formal wear at home ..." Wu Lei quickly said.

"Let's just buy a set! Dressing well also shows how much you value President Xia!" Zhou leiyun smiled and explained, "don't misunderstand! I'm not saying that your family's clothes are inappropriate, but ... How should I put it! It's better to get a professional to help you match it for a formal banquet. "

"It's okay, I understand ..." Wu Lei smiled and said, "thank you, general manager Zhou."

Naturally, Wu Lei did not lack money to buy clothes, but he still had to be polite. After all, Zhou leiyun had good intentions.

After the elevator reached the first floor, Jiang Xiaochen hurriedly left the hotel with Wu Lei, while Zhou leiyun took another car and returned to his small Manor in the wealthy district of Barcelona.

Xia ruofei naturally did not know that his casual words had caused Zhou leiyun and Jiang Xiaochen to be so busy. After his shower, he changed into soft and comfortable home clothes and lay on the bed to rest for a while. When it was almost time for dinner, he got up to wash up and then changed into a casual suit.

Then, he went to Song Wei and Ling Qingxue's room and called them over.

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei really only used one room. It would seem more intimate if they were willing to stay together.

Of course, it was hard to say if they had any other thoughts, such as mutual supervision and so on.

The three of them chatted in Xia ruofei's room for a while before Zhou leiyun personally came up to invite them to a banquet.

Hence, Xia ruofei and the other two followed Zhou leiyun to the restaurant in the building attached to the hotel.

Zhou leiyun had booked a large private room. There were not many people attending the banquet. Zhou leiyun did not invite the other club's higher – ups, only Jiang Xiaochen and the first team's head coach, Ruby. Furthermore, as Xia ruofei had brought a female companion and specifically invited Wu Lei's family, he had asked Ruby to bring his wife, while Jiang Xiaochen brought his own girlfriend.

Zhou leiyun's wife had not come to Spain, so he was all alone today.

When Xia ruofei and his team appeared in the room, everyone stood up and applauded, especially the head coach Ruby, who looked very excited.

When he learned that Xia ruofei had agreed to play for the club in the Catalan derby against Barcelona, he was so excited that he almost jumped up.

With Xia ruofei's participation, he had more confidence in this competition.

Although the Chinese fans nicknamed Wu Lei "nuclear 7" because Wu Lei always wore the number 7 jersey when he played in China, this nickname was also a kind of affirmation of Wu Lei's attack power. However, in Ruby's mind, there was no doubt that Xia ruofei was his "nuclear weapon". With this surprise, he might bring a lot of "surprises" to Barcelona!

"Thank you, everyone!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "please take a seat!"

Then, Xia ruofei repeated Yingluo's name in Spanish. He was also considering Ruby and his wife's feelings.

Then, Xia ruofei walked to the main seat beside Zhou leiyun and sat down.

Chapter 2784 The Army and the Prince (1)

"President Xia, you've come all the way here to play for the team. I thank you on behalf of the club!" Zhou leiyun chuckled and said, "let's toast the first glass to CEO Xia!"

With that, Zhou leiyun raised his glass first.

Jiang Xiaochen was sitting beside Ruby and his wife, acting as their translator at the banquet, so both of them raised their glasses with the others at the first moment.

Xia ruofei raised his glass and said with a smile, "You're being too polite. I'm also a member of the club. How about this! The first glass of wine is to wish us a good result this weekend! It's best if you can defeat Barcelona!"

Everyone laughed out loud when they heard this. Facing a powerful mortal enemy from the same city, everyone naturally shared the same hatred.

As there was a competition in three days, Xia ruofei and Wu Lei were both participating. Hence, they were drinking fruit juice, while Zhou leiyun and the others were only drinking low – alcohol fruit wine.

Of course, Xia ruofei's body would not be affected by alcohol. He did not have to be like the professional players who had to strictly control their diet to maintain their physical condition. However, he didn't want to set a bad example for Wu Lei, so he gladly accepted the arrangement of drinking fruit juice.

Xia ruofei took the initiative to toast everyone, and then they toasted each other. Xia ruofei also went to have a drink with Ruby and his wife. He talked to Ruby about the team's recent situation and expressed his appreciation for Ruby's work during this period.

Ruby was very excited about Xia ruofei's return. He held Xia ruofei's hand and thanked him.

As soon as Xia ruofei returned to his seat, Wu Lei came over with his wife and child to give Xia ruofei a toast.

"Brother Xia, this is my wife, Zhong Xiaobei!" Wu Lei introduced.

"Brother Xia, thank you for taking care of Wu Lei and helping him!" Zhong Xiaobei quickly said.

Wu Lei's wife had a sweet appearance, but she was very low – Key. She was very friendly and always had a slight smile on her face.

The two of them actually got married quite early. Wu Lei was already married to Zhong Xiaobei when he was 23 years old. It was only after the club that Wu Lei was in won the Chinese Super League title that it was known to the vast number of fans. It turned out that the two of them were already married and had a son and a daughter.

The most famous photo of Wu Lei and Zhong Xiaobei was taken by fans when Wu Lei was playing football in Shen Cheng. At that time, China's League had already entered the golden era. The players who played in China's Super League all had a high income. Online posts exposing players driving luxury cars were everywhere. Wu Lei, as a top player in the country with a top salary of ten million dollars, was squeezing in the subway with his girlfriend. It was indeed a clear stream in the football world at that time.

Xia ruofei smiled, "you're welcome!" He had only done what he could. I even told Lei Zi about it last time! He had to bring his family and children over as soon as possible. Only with a stable home here could he devote himself to training and competition without any worries! It seems like Lei Zi has taken my words seriously! Hahaha!"

Wu Lei was a little embarrassed and said, "It's all thanks to brother Xia's help. Otherwise, I wouldn't have been able to secure my position on the team so quickly, and Xiaobei and the kids wouldn't have been able to come out and accompany me so quickly. "

"Hahaha! Don't tell me that you're too ashamed to face your wife and children just because you can't play in the club?" Xia ruofei laughed and scolded, "nonsense!"

After that, he stood up and clinked his glass with Wu Lei and Zhong Xiaobei. Then, he took a sip of juice from the three people's glasses. There was no need to drink it all in one go.

The small welcome dinner did not last long. Considering that Xia ruofei and the other two were tired from the long journey, it ended in about an hour. Everyone said their goodbyes and left, and Xia ruofei and the other two returned to their hotel rooms.

The next morning, Xia ruofei and the other two had breakfast at the hotel and then took the commercial car arranged by the club to the club's training base.

Xia ruofei decided to join the team's training from today onwards.

Originally, Zhou leiyun had arranged for people to accompany Song Wei and Ling Qingxue on a tour of Barcelona. However, the two of them insisted on visiting the club and watching Xia ruofei and the rest train. Zhou leiyun only had to accommodate the guests.

The hotel that Xia ruofei and the others were staying at was not far from Dani Halk base. It did not take long for the car to enter the gate of the training base.

Although the Spanish club's training base was not very large, it was small and had all the essentials. All the facilities were very professional, and there was a very professional training team and analysis team. Whether it was the software or hardware facilities, they were better than some of the top clubs in China.

After alighting from the car, Jiang Xiaochen sent a Chinese female assistant to accompany Ling Qingxue and Song Wei on the tour, while Xia ruofei went straight to the changing room to change into his training uniform.

When he changed his clothes and came to the training ground, he saw that several players had already arrived in advance and were running around the field to warm up.

Among them were the diligent Wu Lei and the core of the team's middle and backfield, mark Roka, who had competed with Xia ruofei in free kicks last time.

Xia ruofei was surprised to find that the team's old goalkeeper, Diego Lopez, was also warming up.

Xia ruofei knew that although the goalkeeper was older, he had always been in good competitive form. He could even be said to be the stabilizing force of the Spanish backfield. If he had not repeatedly made God – Level saves, with Spain's defensive strength, they would not have been in today's position.

Chapter 2785 The Army and the horses (2)

He couldn't help but sigh inwardly. There was a reason why she was in such a good state!

As the players grew older, their physical condition would naturally decline. This was a natural physiological law. No one could resist it, unless they became a practitioner like Xia ruofei. In order for these older players to maintain their competitive form, they naturally needed to put in more effort and sweat than the younger players.

Not long after Xia ruofei arrived at the training ground, head coach Ruby arrived with his assistant coach.

Ruby knew that Xia ruofei was coming to the team training today. In order to leave a good impression on his boss, he came early. He did not expect Xia ruofei to be a few minutes earlier than him.

"Good Morning, Mr. Xia!" Ruby greeted him with great enthusiasm.

A few assistant coaches also greeted Xia ruofei.

It was also because of Xia ruofei's special status. Otherwise, even if he was the boss of the changing room, he would not be treated so attentively by the coaching staff. After all, a player was a player.

Xia ruofei also greeted everyone with a smile.

At this moment, the running team had also arrived. Xia ruofei waved to everyone and joined the running team.

"Brother Xia! Good Morning!" Wu Lei greeted Xia ruofei as he ran.

“Hello, Mr. Xia!”

“Good Morning, Mr. Xia!”

Markeloka, Diego, and the others also greeted Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei replied to everyone as he ran with them.

While they were running their laps, the first team players arrived at the training ground one after another. There were still ten minutes before the assembly time, and everyone was already there.

After Xia ruofei and the others ran a few rounds, they started to prepare for the match.

Seeing that everyone had arrived, Ruby gestured to the assistant manager.

The assistant manager immediately blew the whistle and gathered everyone.

The players had already seen Xia ruofei and greeted him during the gathering.

It could be said that Xia ruofei had won the approval of the entire Spanish team in just half the game.

Putting aside his identity as the club owner, the Spanish players were also convinced of his skills.

Soon, the players gathered around. Ruby walked up to everyone and said in an excited tone, “Guys! As you can see, Mr. Xia has returned to the team in advance to help the team fight against Barcelona. He will play side by side with everyone in the weekend’s game! Let’s work hard to defeat Barca! From today on, Mr. Xia will be training with the team until the end of the weekend’s game! I hope everyone can get used to each other as soon as possible. You must cultivate your tacit understanding before the weekend’s game!”

Ruby looked at his watch and said, “There are some changes in today’s training content. We will be directly carrying out an internal team competition! I’ll be announcing the groups!”

Ruby didn’t plan to practice the formation so soon. He had planned to do some ball training and coordination training today. However, Xia ruofei’s participation gave him new ideas for the weekend’s competition. He immediately made targeted adjustments to the training content.

In Ruby’s opinion, Xia ruofei’s participation would undoubtedly greatly enhance the control of the midfield and the lethality of the front field. The only problem that needed to be solved was the problem of cooperation. After all, Xia ruofei had not trained with the team and had only played in the first half of the game. There was no tacit understanding between him and the other players of the Spanish team, which needed to be improved during training.

The purpose of organizing the internal competition was to simulate the atmosphere and rhythm of the game. More importantly, it was to let Xia ruofei and the players get used to each other as soon as possible through a certain intensity of the game.

Ruby didn’t know that Xia ruofei didn’t need to get used to everyone. He could use his strong spiritual power to cooperate with everyone. On the other hand, the other players needed some time to get used to Xia ruofei’s style. After all, they did not have much time to play together.

Soon, Ruby divided the two teams into two groups.

It could be seen from the grouping that the group in the orange Training Vest, which was Xia ruofei's group, was mostly made up of the team's main players, including goalkeeper Diego Lopez, defensive midfielder mark Roca, striker Wu Lei, glaxas, and so on.

Ruby had arranged for Xia ruofei to be the attacking midfielder. Of course, this was only the position in the formation. In fact, Xia ruofei had a high degree of freedom. He did not need to be fixed in a certain area and could play as he pleased.

Ruby hoped that Xia ruofei could hide behind Wu Lei and iglasias and become a Shadow Vanguard with assassination attributes.

After the groups were divided, everyone changed into the training vests of the corresponding color.

After the assistant manager who served as the referee blew the whistle, the team's group confrontation officially began.

The strength of the main team was obviously stronger than that of the substitutes.

This was also a common phenomenon in small clubs, where the bench was not deep enough.

In the long season, once a player in a certain position was injured and absent, the replacement often could not reach the level of the main force.

After three passes and two passes in the backfield, the main team quickly passed through the midfield and passed the ball to Xia ruofei's feet.

Xia ruofei took the opportunity to pull the ball and dodged the interception of the substitute's defensive midfielder.

Although he had his head lowered, he was still using his spiritual power to sense the situation around him.

Xia ruofei realized that both Iglesia and Wu Lei were moving forward at a high speed. He immediately made a decisive move. If he had been a second or two later, Iglesia and Wu Lei would have run behind the opponent's defensive line and be in an offside position.

Xia ruofei's pass could be said to be perfect. It was high enough and not intercepted halfway. It was also very fast. It fell quickly not far in front of iglysias and Wu Lei. All the two had to do was to speed up and catch up.

Xia ruofei passed the ball to him because he could sense that iglesias 'position was better.

As for Wu Lei, he wouldn't make a wasted trip.

When he judged that the drop point was closer to Iglesia, he did not relax. Instead, he quickly changed direction and rushed into the penalty area. He was ready to grab the second drop point.

Iglasias comfortably took the ball and took a step forward into the penalty area.

He used a simple spike to avoid the substitute team members who were closing in on him from the right, and then raised his leg to shoot without hesitation.

It should be said that there was no problem with iglesias's shooting footwork, and his movements were very smooth. The only regret was that luck was not on your side today.

His shot dodged the goalkeeper's ten fingers, but it hit the intersection between the goalpost and the crossbar and bounced back.

Wu Lei had just rushed to the penalty spot and saw the football bounce back in his direction.

He did not hesitate to kick the ball with great force, and the football went into the net with a whoosh ...

After the goal, Wu Lei gave Xia ruofei and iglesias a light high five to celebrate. Then, the three of them walked towards their own half with their arms around each other's shoulders.

The team's internal match lasted an hour, half an hour in the first and second half.

In the case of a relative disparity in strength, the players of the main team scored one goal after another in the first half.

Xia ruofei also took advantage of a free – kick and scored with a standard elevator ball.

In fact, if Xia ruofei wanted to, he could shoot from a position of about 30 meters, and his hit rate would not be low. However, he did not do so. Instead, he tried to make the ball for his teammates.

Xia ruofei also wanted to take this opportunity to let the players understand his playing style better. This would be beneficial for their cooperation in the game.

The referee assistant coach blew his whistle three times, and the internal match officially ended. The main team finally defeated the substitute team with a big score of seven to zero.

Xia ruofei, who was in a good mood, walked to the training ground while talking to the soldiers.

Chapter 2786 The Taoyuan City guard team (1)

"RUO Fei, you did well!" Ling Qingxue gave Xia ruofei a thumbs – up.

It was the first time that she and Song Wei had seen Xia ruofei play in the stadium. Although it was only an internal match, there was a big difference between watching the match live and watching the videos on the internet. The biggest feeling was that the players were very fast.

Xia ruofei was slightly stunned and said,"eh?" You guys are here?"

"We've been here for a while!" Ling Qingxue giggled and said,"your brilliant performance, including that goal, didn't miss a single one!"

Xia ruofei chuckled and said,"what do you think?" Did I play well?"

"Not bad, not bad!" Ling Qingxue praised,"you have the feeling of a professional player!"

In fact, those who were watching the match from the sidelines, including Ling Qingxue, Song Wei, and the coaching staff, did not feel it that deeply. Those who were playing with Xia ruofei on the field, regardless of whether they were his teammates or opponents, felt it even more strongly.

They could clearly feel that Xia ruofei had become more powerful this time. They could not tell exactly how he was more powerful, but he was more difficult to defend against. His dribbling became more erratic and his passing became more unpredictable.

Even so, the main players who were Xia ruofei's teammates today could still feel that it was very comfortable to cooperate with Xia ruofei. It was as if they had played together for a long time and it did not seem like they had not gotten used to it at all.

In particular, the passes that Xia ruofei gave them were wonderful. Every time he passed, he would always be able to get to the most comfortable position.

When the dribbling player was blocked and pressed by many opponents, he could always see Xia ruofei's figure in his line of sight and transfer the ball in time.

Xia ruofei seemed to be everywhere.

In fact, after Xia ruofei's cultivation had improved, even if he deliberately did not use his true energy to cheat, his body's coordination and reaction ability were much better than before. His floating duckweed steps had also improved a lot since the last time he played at Espanyol. When he was dribbling the ball, he would unconsciously use his body technique. This also led to the defensive substitute often being able to nimbly brush past Xia ruofei before he could even touch the corner of his shirt.

Ruby's feelings were not as strong as the players on the field, but as an experienced coach, he could naturally see that Xia ruofei and his teammates had a tacit understanding and were not at all awkward.

Ruby could also tell that Xia ruofei had adapted to his teammates 'playing style very quickly, and not the other players.

It could be said that the rest of the Spanish players only needed to play according to their usual habits and characteristics, and they would naturally be able to cooperate with Xia ruofei.

Generally, this situation was between players with a big difference in level. The high – Level players could accommodate the characteristics of the low – Level players, allowing the team to play more power as a whole.

Although Espanyol was in the middle – lower range of La Liga, it was still one of the five major leagues in the world! How bad could a player who could play as the main force of any La Liga team be?

However, Xia ruofei was able to coordinate with the players in such a short time. To be exact, he did not spend any time at all. How much higher was his skill level?

Ruby felt it was unbelievable. At the same time, he felt that it was a pity. With Xia ruofei's talent and ability, if he were to enter professional football, his achievements would be limitless.

However, in any case, this was naturally a good thing for Spain. At least they would be able to give their opponents a headache in the next game against Barcelona, so Ruby was in a good mood.

The next training was mainly jogging and some small games, focusing on recovery.

Xia ruofei would not need to rest or adjust even if he played the entire La Liga, let alone an internal match of this level. However, he did not want to be alone. Since he had come to the training ground, he had to listen to the coach, so he completed the next training meticulously.

After the morning training, Xia ruofei went to the changing room to take a shower and change while Song Wei and Ling Qingxue continued to stroll around the training grounds.

Xia ruofei came out of the bathroom and walked to his wardrobe while drying his hair. After putting on his clothes, he picked up his phone and found that he had a missed call and a new email.

The call was from the old company commander, Ma Jia. Xia ruofei did not check the email and called Ma Jia back first.

Xia ruofei put his phone on speaker mode and placed it on the stool. Then, he quickly stuffed his personal belongings into his bag and carried it on his back. He picked up his phone and walked out, turning off the speaker mode at the same time.

At this moment, Ma Jia picked up the call.

“Captain, I didn’t have my phone with me just now. Were you looking for me?” Xia ruofei chuckled and asked, “have you had dinner?”

Xia ruofei finished his training at around 12 in the afternoon. It had been seven hours earlier in China, so it should be around seven in the evening.

“I’m just calling you after dinner.” Ma su said, “ruofei, what time is it over there? I hope I didn’t disturb your rest.”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “I won’t!” He wouldn’t! I’m in Spain right now! It was just 12 in the afternoon! Old company commander, what’s the matter?”

Chapter 2787 Taoyuan City guard team (2)

“Yup! I have something to report to you!” Ma Jia said with a smile.

“Don’t!” Xia ruofei said, “if you have something to say, just say it. Don’t talk about reporting or not!”

“You’re the boss now, and I’m the employee.” Ma Jia laughed and said, “don’t I have to report to you?”

Xia ruofei shook his head with a bitter smile.

“It’s like this,” ma su continued. “As of yesterday, other than the few officers in lone wolf who can’t take a break for the time being, the recruited guards have all arrived. There are a total of 96 people. I’ve asked Wolf King and squad leader Xu. Other than old Liu and a few others, there are only so many people in this batch.”

“That’s close to a hundred people.” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “we can barely form a company! Hahaha! It should be enough for the guard team stationed on Peach Blossom Island. But we’ll still have to add some new blood in the future, so at least everyone can take turns to return home to rest!”

“This treatment is too good ...” Ma Jia said with a smile.

Then, he immediately asked, "ruofei, since everyone is here ... When do you think we should go to the Paradise Island?" My comrades can't wait!"

The reason why the ex – soldiers wanted to get back to work as soon as possible was that Xia ruofei had been paying them according to their overseas salary since they started working. Of course, he had entrusted the Paradise corporation's finance department to pay them on their behalf. Even the five insurances and one housing Fund for the ex – soldiers were all handled in the name of the Paradise corporation's employees.

They were still in the country, but they were paid according to the standard of working overseas, which they had agreed on at the beginning of the month. This made the simple veterans feel a little uneasy. Only by working on peach source Island as soon as possible could they get the money in peace!

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "you guys stay on the farm and wait for orders." He could use this time to organize everyone's training! I'll make arrangements as soon as possible after I'm done! By the way, Captain, is sister – in – Law here?"

"She's done with her resignation and is rushing over. " Ma Jia said, "he's already at the farm!"

"Then I'll ask Lei Hu to arrange an apartment for you!" Xia ruofei said.

"No need, no need!" Ma Jia said, "actually, living in the dormitory is quite good! Besides, we won't be staying here for more than a few days. Aren't we going to the Peach Blossom Island soon?"

"What do you mean?" Xia ruofei said, "even if it's only for one night, we have to make arrangements for sister – in – Law! Tell me, how long has it been since you've gone home to visit your family? Sister – in – Law is already here, and you still have the cheek to stay in the shared dormitory? It's decided! I'll make the call in a while!"

"Alright then ..." Ma Jia said, "thank you, ruofei!"

"Is there anything else, old company commander?" Xia ruofei asked.

"Oh ... There's one more thing!" Ma su said, "before you left, didn't you ask me to gather everyone's opinions and study the distribution of clothing and equipment? I've worked overtime these few days to come up with a first draft, and I've already sent it to your email. Take a look at it when you're free and let me know if you have any suggestions. I'll change it according to your wishes. "

Xia ruofei chuckled. "Old captain, you're the ones who use these uniforms and equipment. Of course, you have the right to speak. Let me take a look first!" As long as it's not difficult to get from the International firearms market, I'll try my best to satisfy your needs!"

"Alright!" Ma Jia said with some excitement, "sure! Then I won't disturb you any longer! Goodbye!"

After Xia ruofei hung up, he immediately found Lei Hu's phone number and dialed it. Once the call connected, Xia ruofei said, ""Hu Zi! My old company commander MA deputy's family is here too, did you know about this?"

"Brother Xia, I know!" Lei Hu said, "I said I would arrange a separate employee apartment for them, but company commander MA declined."

“You can go and arrange it now!” Xia ruofei said, “I’ve already told him. He won’t reject me anymore.”

“Yes!” Lei Hu replied.

“Right, get someone to clean up the place!” Xia ruofei said, “the couple is reuniting. We have to create a good environment.”

“Alright! Don’t you worry!” Lei Hu said.

“That’s it then.” Xia ruofei said, “contact me by phone if there’s anything. In short, we must prioritize the protection of the Veterans and satisfy their reasonable requests as much as possible. Can you do that?”

“Yes, I can!” Lei Hu replied crisply.

Xia ruofei hung up and kept his phone. He looked up and saw that the car to send him back to the hotel was already parked not far away. Song Wei and Ling Qingxue did not get in the car. They stood by the car and waited. When they saw Xia ruofei looking at them, they immediately waved to him.

Xia ruofei laughed and quickened his pace towards the two of them.

On the way back, Xia ruofei opened the email from Ma Jia on his phone and browsed through it. Anyway, Song Wei and Ling Qingxue, who were sitting in the middle row, were chatting happily and did not notice what he was doing.

Xia ruofei saw that Ma Su’s list of weapons and equipment was relatively reasonable. He did not take the opportunity to ask for weapons that were not very useful in the island’s defense. Even so, it would cost a lot to equip this Island guard team.

This was because the equipment and weapons listed by Ma Su were basically All American – style equipment, including some individual digital equipment, which were all very expensive. There were also weapons specially equipped for snipers and even large – caliber anti – armor rifles that were specially designed to deal with armored equipment.

If they were all equipped according to this list, the guards would definitely be armed to the teeth. It would not be an exaggeration to say that such a force could occupy the entire Ponatu.

Of course, good things were not cheap.

Xia ruofei roughly estimated that the equipment and quantity on the list would cost at least 20 million US dollars. In other words, it would cost an average of 200,000 US dollars to equip each soldier. Moreover, this was only the price. These weapons must have been bought from the black market, so the price would be even more expensive.

However, Xia ruofei did not plan to save money. To put it bluntly, he had formed this guard team to solve the livelihood problem of the Veterans and give them a high – paying job. On the other hand, it was also to deal with some trouble that might appear in the secular world.

This batch of equipment, in addition to the heavy weapons that the Liu Clan had originally set up on the island, was enough to form a powerful deterrent force. Naturally, those thieves and Rascals would not dare to covet the Peach Blossom Island.

As for the enemies from the world of cultivation, if cultivators really found the Paradise Island, then no matter how good the equipment of the guards was, it would be of no use. Naturally, they would still have to rely on the void xuanqing formation.

After they returned to the hotel, Xia ruofei first had lunch with Ling Qingxue and Song Wei at the restaurant before the three of them went back to their rooms to rest.

After Xia ruofei returned to his room, he forwarded the email to Li Yifu and gave him a call. He asked him to purchase the equipment from the black market as soon as possible and to transport them to Paradise Island.

As for the funds, Xia ruofei transferred 25 million USD to Li Yifu's account first because he knew that Li Yifu would definitely say that he wouldn't take the money after he was done with the matter.

In addition, Xia ruofei also told Li Yifu to find some staff needed on the island as soon as possible, such as tower supervisors, dock managers, chefs, doctors, and so on. Of course, the premise was that they had to be absolutely reliable. Xia ruofei also screened the identity of all the people who entered Peach Garden Island.

Xia ruofei greeted Ruby. He would only train for half a day every day, and in the afternoon, he would accompany Ling Qingxue and Song Wei to visit the famous places in Barcelona.

It was the same for the next two days. Xia ruofei trained in the morning and went shopping with his girlfriend in the afternoon.

Three days passed by in a flash, and soon it was the day of the away game between Espanyol and Barça, the Catalan derby.

Chapter 2788 Army set off for nokanp.1

Although this away game was a Derby in the same city and did not require a long expedition, the entire Spanish team still checked in to the hotel a day in advance. The purpose was naturally to prevent the players from being disturbed and distracted.

Of course, Xia ruofei was already staying in the hotel. With his special status, he did not have to go through the trouble of staying in another hotel with the team.

The match started at Seven o'clock in the evening. Xia ruofei participated in the team's joint training in the morning and went to the hotel where the team was staying in the afternoon. He took the team bus to the famous nokapu Stadium.

There was still a long time before kick-off, but along the way, there were already many Barça fans dressed in red and blue home team uniforms gathered together. The closer they were to nokapu Stadium, the more fans there were on the side of the road.

When they saw the Spanish team's bus driving over, the Barça fans booed, and some people even spread out banners full of sarcastic words toward the team bus.

More and more fans gathered on the side of the road. The police cars sent by the Barcelona police also sounded their sirens and cleared the way for the bus in front.

The Barcelona police were very nervous every time the Catalan derby was held. Although La Liga did not have as many football hooligans as the English Premier League, the atmosphere in the Derby was very tense, both on and off the field.

Xia ruofei and Wu Lei were sitting in the same row. He turned to look at Wu Lei, whose face was tense. He smiled and pointed at the bar?a fans outside the car window."Lei Zi, are you nervous?"

Wu Lei forced a smile and said,"it's alright." Just a little bit ..."

"If you're nervous now," Xia ruofei laughed,"won't your legs be soft when you step on nokapu's turf?"

"I won 't!" Wu Lei said,"as long as the whistle is blown, I will have no more distracting thoughts!"

"Hahaha! Then I'll see how you perform!" Xia ruofei said,"remember, after the kick – off at night, no matter how the head coach arranges the tactics, you must firmly move forward in the first few minutes. I will pass the ball to you as long as there is a chance!"

Although it had not been announced to the public yet, Ruby had already announced the starting lineup after the last pre – competition training. Xia ruofei and Wu Lei were both in the starting lineup.

In fact, Wu Lei was getting more and more game time during this period. He often appeared in the starting lineup. Even if he played a few games as a substitute, he could be replaced after about 60 minutes. His game time was relatively stable, so it was not surprising that he got a starting opportunity this time.

Moreover, when Spain faced barcaía, they were already charging at the opponent with a weak attitude. In the case of a relatively stable defensive lineup, putting Wu Lei, who was better in speed and running, in the front field was also suitable for defensive counterattack tactics.

As for Xia ruofei, even though he had only represented the team in half of the match, that half of the match was a highlight of the team. Furthermore, Xia ruofei's performance in the past few days of training was too good. He was even better than the other players. Moreover, he was the team's owner. Ruby would definitely place him as a substitute.

After hearing Xia ruofei's words, Wu Lei nodded his head firmly and said,""I'll remember that!"

Wu Lei listened to Xia ruofei's every word. Since Xia ruofei had given him an order, he would follow it without hesitation, even if it was against the head coach's instructions.

After the two of them chatted for a while, Xia ruofei lowered his head and started to play on his phone.

Suddenly, he saw an interesting screenshot on Weibo. He couldn't help but click on it to take a look, and then he couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Wu Lei turned around and asked,""Brother Xia, what are you laughing at?"

"See for yourself!" Xia ruofei smiled as he showed the screen of his phone to Wu Lei.

Wu Lei took a glance and could not help but smile bitterly."D * MN ... I've already deleted this post. I didn't expect someone to take a screenshot and dig up a grave at this time ..."

It turned out that the picture posted on this Weibo was a Weibo post by Wu Lei in 2013. At that time, Wu Lei was still a player of the Shengang team in the China League. In January of 2013, the Shengang team visited nokapu Stadium.

After the visit, Wu Lei wrote on Weibo, ""This is the sanctuary of football, the dream of every player! It was only here that one could truly feel the charm of the stadium! Enjoy all this! This is real football! Bar?a! Bar?a! Basa!"

There were also photos of him visiting nokapu.

After Wu Lei joined RCD Espanyol, he was well aware of the feud between them, so he deleted the Weibo post. He did not expect that some fans would take a screenshot.

This netizen with the Weibo ID "a 'Dai of sacun" wrote: "Six years ago, Wu Lei dreamed of stepping into nokapu. Tonight, his dream might come true!"

The comments from the fans below were also very happy.

"So, Wu Lei is going on a pilgrimage?"

"Ball King Wu, your dream has come true! You must seize the opportunity!"

"Don't be afraid! The opponent was bar?a! We'll be done!"

.....

Xia ruofei laughed out loud as he browsed through the comments. Even Naldo and the old goalkeeper, Diego Lopez, who were sitting in the front row could not help but stand up and ask.

Xia ruofei smiled and showed them the picture on his phone. He also translated Wu Lei's words into Spanish for his teammates to hear.

Chapter 2789 the Army set off for norkanp.2

Everyone laughed out of goodwill, which made Wu Lei even more embarrassed.

Of course, even if bar?a and RCD Espanyol were mortal enemies, his teammates were not unhappy because Wu Lei had posted such a Weibo post.

Bar?a was known as the universe team, and its fans were all over the world. Moreover, the entire team knew that Wu Lei was an Arsenal fan. He only had pure admiration for bar?a, not to mention that it was many years before he joined Espanyol.

Everyone was not naïve enough to think that Wu Lei had betrayed the team because of such a Weibo post. In fact, they just thought that it was quite funny and felt a little emotional about the magic of fate.

In addition, the Spanish players were also speechless when they saw that Weibo had millions of views and thousands of shares.

They used to know that China had a large population and that Wu Lei had countless fans in China, but they did not have a clear idea. Today, through the Weibo platform, which was mainly based in China, they had a clear understanding of the situation.

“Wu! I heard that you have tens of millions of fans in China. That’s so enviable!” Naldo said with a look of yearning.

Wu Lei had been learning Spanish recently. Although he couldn’t speak fluently, he had no problem communicating with others.

He smiled shyly and said,””Thank you!”

“Lei Zi,” Xia ruofei asked, grinning,”do you want me to help you tell him to pass the ball to you more? in the future, you can introduce him to China to play football!”

In recent years, the Chinese Super League had begun the golden era. The world’s top foreign players had been constantly pouring into the league and constantly breaking the record for the players’ salaries. An annual salary of ten million euros was considered super high in the world of football. In the Chinese Super League, there were actually several top foreign players who received this level of salary.

Therefore, many players in the top league dreamed of going to China to make money.

The salary of domestic players also rose. Basically, the National players could get an annual salary of ten million Yuan. Of course, the ten million Yuan here was in Chinese dollars.

Even so, this income was still quite high, far beyond the reach of other industries.

With such a background, Wu Lei was able to make the decision to come out of China and fight for the Spanish team, which was a mid – tier team in La Liga. Even though it was rumored that his mother team Shengang and Espanyol shared his salary and his income did not decrease much, it was already very rare to take this step and give up the comfort zone of the domestic league.

“No, no, no!” Wu Lei quickly waved his hand. Please let me go! I don’t have that much power! Besides, Naldo is a center back. How can he pass the ball to me!”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but burst out laughing.

Naldo seemed to have heard Wu Lei mention his name. He turned his head and asked,””Boss, what did Wu say about me?”

Xia ruofei laughed and said,”nothing!” It was nothing! He complimented your defensive skills!”

Naldo touched his shiny black bald head, grinned at Wu Lei, and said,””Brother! Thanks for the compliment!”

After this little episode, Wu Lei’s tension was greatly relieved. He had felt a little breathless just now, but now he felt much more at ease. Even if there were still a large number of bar?a fans booing loudly outside the window, he was not affected much.

“Thank you, brother Xia!” Wu Lei said in a low voice.

Xia ruofei was scrolling through Weibo with his head lowered. He waved his hand and said nothing.

After a while, the team bus entered nokapu Stadium. The players got off in turn and walked towards the away team’s locker room.

A lot of fans had already gathered here, but under the isolation of the security personnel, those who could appear in the away team's locker room were Spanish fans in blue and white jerseys. The bar? a fans could only be isolated on the periphery and kept booing.

Xia ruofei and Wu Lei got off the bus one after the other. The fans immediately cheered.

Xia ruofei saw that there were six or seven yellow – skinned and black – haired fans among the fans. They were all wearing jerseys No. 24 or No. 25. One of the two numbers belonged to Wu Lei, and the other to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei knew that they must be Chinese fans. As for whether they came from China or were international students in Europe, he did not know.

Xia ruofei turned around and gestured to Wu Lei. Wu Lei quickly noticed the Chinese fans and both of them waved in their direction.

The fans were even more excited. They kept shouting Xia ruofei's and Wu Lei's names. Someone even took out a red flag with five stars and waved it.

"Let's go! Go over and say hello!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Alright!" Wu Lei replied.

The two of them walked to the side of the Chinese fans. When they saw them walking over, the Chinese fans cheered even louder.

Xia ruofei and Wu Lei came to the isolation belt. Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "Hello!"

"President Xia! Good luck!"

"Wu Lei! Good luck!"

"President Xia, can we have your signature?"

"And a group photo! I also want a group photo!"

Not only the Chinese fans, but the Spanish fans around them also excitedly greeted Xia ruofei and Wu Lei.

Seeing the extremely popular Xia ruofei and Wu Lei, the other RCD Espanyol players could not help but look at them with envy when they passed by.

Xia ruofei and Wu Lei did not reject the fans' requests. However, the fans did not pester them as they were about to start the pre – Match preparations. After signing a few autographs, Xia ruofei and Wu Lei took a few photos with them. They waved to the fans and quickly followed the team into the tunnel.

Everyone went to the away team's locker room. After changing into their jerseys, the starting players went down to the field to warm up before the game at the assistant manager's call.

It was also Xia ruofei's first time in the away team's locker room. Wu Lei was the same.

The moment the two men walked out of the players' tunnel with their teammates, they suddenly heard endless loud boos. The intensity of the boos was many times higher than the boos from the roadside fans that they had heard through the glass in the car.

Wu Lei could be considered to be a veteran. After coming to La Liga, he had also participated in away games. However, when he suddenly heard such loud boos, he could not help but tremble.

Xia ruofei, on the other hand, was not affected. He looked around the stands without a change in expression and was surprised to find that there were already a lot of fans in the stands, especially the North Stand where the die – hard fans were. The flags were flying in the air, and the stands were densely packed with people. The boos were mainly coming from this stand.

There was still an hour or two before the match started!

Xia ruofei smiled and said to Diego Lopez, "The barça fans are early enough!"

Diego Lopez had experienced this countless times, so he was also very calm. He chuckled and said, "It's like this every time in tyteby. Whether it's the players or the fans, everyone seems to be on stimulants!"

"Don't worry." Xia ruofei shrugged. "Be careful. The anti – doping Committee might find you for a urine test after the game."

Upon hearing this, Diego Lopez froze for a moment before bursting into laughter.

Head coach Ruby also came to the side of the field. He happened to see the scene of Xia ruofei and Diego Lopez joking. Mr. Xia didn't look nervous at all. What a big scene!

In contrast, Ruby saw Wu Lei's slightly nervous expression. Of course, Ruby was not too worried. It was normal to be nervous in the face of tens of thousands of barça fans. As for Xia ruofei's big heart, not everyone had it.

Every manager had their own set of ways to motivate the players, and Ruby was no exception. He would try his best to stimulate everyone's fighting spirit after they returned to the locker room in a while. He would let everyone put down their tension and focus all their energy on the game.

Chapter 2790 Everyone's attention_1

The RCD Espanyol players completed their pre – Match warm – up against the boos of the home fans. Relatively speaking, the younger players, including new players like Wu Lei, who had experienced the Catalan derby for the first time, were more or less nervous. Their movements were more or less out of shape during passing, shooting, and other training. Wu Lei even fired an anti – aircraft cannon, which caused the fans in the stands to laugh.

Xia ruofei was very calm throughout the whole process. He did not show any signs of nervousness, did not deliberately play tricks, and did not provoke the home fans. To him, this was the most ordinary warm – up before the game, no different from the warm – up before the other games.

Xia ruofei finished his warm – up exercises and walked out of the court with Wu Lei's shoulder. He covered his mouth with his hand and said to Wu Lei, "Lei Zi, when the match starts, the atmosphere will be ten times more intense than it is now. You can't let your legs go soft!"

Now, many players were used to covering their mouths and speaking under the camera lens because some television stations would hire lip – reading experts to interpret what the players said on the field. The fans were also very interested in this kind of interpretation.

Although it was impossible for the Spain television station to find a lip – reading expert who knew Chinese, Xia ruofei still followed suit and covered his mouth to speak to Wu Lei.

“I understand, brother Xia!” Wu Lei nodded.

There was still about an hour before the start of the game. Night had just fallen in Barcelona, and it was already oneo’ clock in the morning in China, far away in the eastern Hemisphere.

Even though it was already late at night, PP sports ‘live broadcast room was still in full swing. The staff were all busy and nervous, and the live broadcast had already started half an hour ago. All kinds of analysis, comments, and all kinds of short videos prepared in advance were warming up the game.

This time, PP sports ‘live broadcast was still free. Ever since Wu Lei joined the Spanish team, PP sports had set free games whenever there were any games played by the Spanish team. This had helped them regain a lot of reputation among the fans. Previously, some of the major games of the Chinese Super League were set to be charged and could only be watched by purchasing members, which had been criticized by many people.

In addition to the two hosts, the live commentary section was still the match between the “Hall leader and vice Hall leader” Shen fangjian and Jia Tianning, which the fans were very familiar with.

While the Spanish players were warming up before the game, the live broadcast room cut to the live signal in time. The two commentators introduced the situation to the fans who were watching the live broadcast late at night according to the live scene.

“We see Xia ruofei and Wu Lei from China on the court!” Shen fangjian said with some excitement,”according to the starting list we got before the game, Wu Lei and Xia ruofei will be starting together today. This will be the first time that Chinese players will step on nokapu’s turf. Will they score? If there is, it will be a historic goal!”

“Wu Lei’s condition has been good recently,” Jia Tianning said. “Although Xia ruofei only played half the game, we still have full confidence in him. From his performance in that half of the game, anyone who knows a little about football can see that he is very strong, even stronger than many players on the field. So, whether it is Wu Lei or Xia ruofei, they both have a good chance of scoring today!”

“We also hope that they can create history!” Shen fangjian said,”no matter which one of them scores a goal, they will be the first Chinese player to break Barcelona’s goal!”

“Actually, to be able to play against Messi in the same match is already a dream for many players!” Jia Tianning joked. Before Wu Lei joined Espanyol, none of us dared to imagine such a scene, but it is about to happen today! And it’s two Chinese players at the same time!”

“It’s not easy being a Chinese fan ...” Shen fangjian said with emotion. However, he knew that this topic was a bit sensitive. It didn’t matter if he complained in private. After all, it was a live broadcast, so he quickly stopped and didn’t continue.

After some forward – looking analysis, the scene cut back to the field. At this time, the Spanish players were leaving in order to return to the locker room.

Shen fangjian smiled and said, “the camera captured the scene of Xia ruofei and Wu Lei. We saw the two of them whispering to each other. However, Xia ruofei had her hand over her mouth and the recording equipment was not nearby. So, we didn’t know what they were talking about!”

“Xia ruofei must have told Wu Lei personally!” Jia Tianning joked, “maybe they are planning a Blitzkrieg, hoping to give Barcelona a head – on blow?”

A lot of fans had already gathered in the comments area. Although there was still about an hour before the kick – off, everyone could not wait.

After hearing Jia Tianning’s words, the fans also began to discuss in the comments section.

“As expected of the hall Master of Wu Chui Hall! You even dare to say this!”

“These two are obviously from Xia Chui Tang, okay? The way they flattered President Xia in the last competition was really mushy!”

“When facing Barça, shouldn’t we first stabilize our defense? Every opponent who played against Barça died miserably!”

“That’s right! When did I become a soft persimmon? Hall leader Jia’s ego is really inflated ...”
