Chapter 2801 An arrow at the end of its flight (2)

In addition, Spain's rear defensive line was already an arrow at the end of its flight under bar?a's bombardment. Even if the nerves were always tense, the attention was not as focused as it was at the beginning of the game. This was a normal physiological phenomenon and could not be shifted by personal will.

Lakiti ?'s pass was highly pressed and just went over the head of the defensive player in front. The ball was extremely fast.

Naldo, who was in charge of the defense in the middle, reacted quickly. He jumped high in the first instance and tried to head the ball to clear the siege.

However, his jump time was still a little late, causing the jump height to not be high enough. The ball was already above his head.

Naldo knew that he had bar?a's Coutinho behind him to fight for the header with him. The ball could not be let go no matter what, so he could only barely head the ball in the direction outside the penalty area.

However, it was precisely because the height was not high enough that Naldo's rescue only touched the bottom of the football a little, so the football's flight trajectory did not fly out of the penalty area as he had hoped. Instead, it only changed its direction a little and continued to fall into the middle of the penalty area.

What was even more unfortunate was that the ball changed direction after Naldo grazed it. It happened to fall at the feet of zujarís, who followed up in the middle.

How could Su Ya let go of such a good opportunity? He did not even adjust and directly faced the ball with a powerful volley.

The shot also fully demonstrated zuyares 'ability as a top striker. Although it was a high – shot, he pressed the ball fast and flat, and the football went straight to the goal like lightning.

Although the goalkeeper, Diego Lopez, tried his best to save the ball, he still could not touch the ball. In the blink of an eye, the ball had already burrowed into the net.

Three to three!

The bar?a fans in the stands cheered wildly, as if the entire nokapu was shaking.

The game was not easy. With bar?a's strength, even if the Spaniards were arch – enemies in the same city, they were on high spirits every time they played against bar?a. However, it was difficult for them to cause trouble for bar?a.

However, the game was completely beyond their expectations. Although bar?a had the absolute initiative, the Spanish team was always in the lead from the first minute of the game, and bar?a had been playing the role of a chaser.

After the score finally reached two to one, Xia ruofei's full moon scimitar – like pass directly triggered a classic counterattack, giving the Espanyol a two – goal lead again.

To be honest, many Barça fans were already in despair when Iglesias scored the third goal of Espanyol.

However, with Zuyare's outstanding play, they finally tied the score at the end of the game!

The positive impact of a superstar's individual performance on the team was vividly displayed in this game.

If someone had told the Barça fans before the start of the game that Barça would try their best to snatch a point from Espanyol and get a rare draw, the Barça fans would have thought that the other party was talking in his sleep and would have laughed out loud without mercy.

However, at this point in the game, when Barcelona tied the score, many of the Barcelona fans had a feeling that they had won everything. Only those who had watched the game would know how hard it was to get this one point.

Of course, the game was not over yet. Barcelona, with their high morale, still had a chance to continue to score and take all three points.

When Suyass scored his second personal goal of the game, the Spanish substitutes sighed. The substitutes could not help but cover their faces. The manager, Ruby, also looked depressed and frowned without saying a word.

The three points that were almost in his hands had now become one point. No manager would be happy about it.

Moreover, whether or not he could keep this one point was still a big problem!

After Zuyare's goal, a large number of fans poured into the discussion area of PP sports 'live broadcast. They all blamed Shen Fangjian because Shen Fangjian had just said what would happen if the Spanish team conceded the goal, and then the Spanish team really conceded the goal.

"You jinx!"

"Shen Laoshi, can you stop talking?"

"What are you thinking, saying such disheartening words at a time like this? Is this a prophecy?"

"Shen Fangjian, can you still do it? How can you explain it like that?"

Shen Fangjian and Jia Tianning could also see the real – time comments. They looked at each other and saw the bitter smile on each other's faces.

However, as a commentator, he had to complete his job no matter what happened during the live broadcast.

Therefore, although Shen Fangjian's mind was a little confused, he quickly adjusted his mood and said, "In the 83rd minute of the game, Espanyol regretfully conceded a goal. In the face of Barça's bombarding, they were unable to maintain their lead to the end ..."

As Shen fangjian's partner, Jia Tianning naturally had to help him out, and some words were most suitable for him to say.

So, Jia Tianning took over the conversation and said, ""In fact, before the goal concede, the Spanish team was already in a very dangerous situation. Bar?a had completely taken the initiative on the field. If it were not for the goalkeeper, Diego Lopez's excellent play, this goal concede might have come even earlier. He pounced on several of the opponent's sure – goal!"

Shen fangjian looked at Jia Tianning gratefully and said, ""Naldo has a certain responsibility for this ball, but now that it's already like this, there's no point in blaming anyone. First of all, they have to adjust their mentality and do a good job of defense in the last few minutes. Even if this game ends in a draw, Spain can completely leave nokapu with their heads held high!"

This time, Shen fangjian did not dare to say how dangerous the Spanish team's situation was or how likely bar?a would score another goal. After Wu Lei joined the Spanish team, many of the fans watching the football game in China naturally became fans of the Spanish team. Even though there were many bar?a fans in China, they would still choose to support Espanyol when bar?a was up against Espanyol. To be more precise, they would choose to support Xia ruofei and Wu Lei.

The most representative point of view was that they wanted Barcelona to win, and at the same time, they wanted Wu Lei and Xia ruofei to score goals.

If Shen fangjian were to jinx it again, he would really drown in the fans 'spittle.

At nokapu Stadium, zujarís did not celebrate after the goal either. He still rushed into the goal to pick up the football and ran towards the center circle. As he ran, he waved to his teammates who had rushed up to celebrate, signaling for them to quickly return to their half.

It was clear that zuyare was still not satisfied with the score.

In other words, this was the common thought of all the bar?a players. Facing a team like RCD Espanyol, even if they were forced to a draw, it would be a great shame for bar?a. Only by taking all three points could they be barely satisfied.

The Spanish players were all breathless, and everyone could read a deep fatigue in each other's eyes.

At this point, they were no longer thinking about continuing to fight for goals. They just wanted to do their best to defend and keep the current one point.

It was better to get one point than three points!

Soon, the referee resumed the game.

Bar?a's morale had reached its peak, while the Spanish had no fighting spirit at all.

In the face of such a situation, with only about ten minutes left in the game, bar?a was naturally not willing to only score one point.

Therefore, they still pressed on the entire front line and tore through the Spanish defense through quick transmission.

Xia ruofei and Wu Lei had also retreated to their own half of the field. The two of them had chosen to force a shot from the high position at the same time, unlike the other players who fought and retreated.

Without the support of their teammates, Xia ruofei and Wu Lei's efforts were not effective.

Of course, the Spaniards' luck was not bad. Barcelona had not been able to break through their goal, so the score was still 3 – 3. If the game ended with this score, both sides would have a point each.

Soon, the game had reached the 90th minute. The fourth official on the sidelines raised a sign, showing that the stoppage time was six minutes long ...

Chapter 2802 Holding the whistle (1)

Six minutes of stoppage time made the Spanish manager, Ruby, furious on the sidelines. He pulled the fourth official and said, "It's ridiculous. There weren't many breaks in the second half, and they actually added six minutes? Why don't you just make up for half an hour?"

The fourth official stared at Ruby and said, "please mind your words!" I'll record your words!"

Ruby still wanted to say something to vent his dissatisfaction, but he was quickly pulled back by his assistant manager.

It was not a wise choice to go against the judges at this time. Ruby was so angry that he couldn't control himself.

From Ruby's big reaction, it could be seen how passive the Spanish team was at the moment.

There were often rumors that Barcelona was being taken care of. Whether in La Liga or in Europe, Barcelona often benefited from some controversial penalties, including in Europe. Barcelona often drew good lots in the groups. Other big teams struggled in the group of death, but Barcelona could easily sweep the weak teams and advance, which also produced many conspiracy theories that there was something fishy about the Champions League draw.

Today, Spain had lost a good game and now they were faced with such a long overtime. It should be known that a lot of things could be done in the end of the game in six minutes. The Spanish team was likely to not even be able to hold on to a single point, which Ruby could not accept.

The players on the field saw the time for the stoppage time and could not help but secretly complain. However, they did not have time to think about these boring games. They would not stop just because the regular time was up. After entering the stoppage time, Barcelona's fierce attack continued. They had to do their best to hold on to the score.

Xia ruofei and Wu Lei also took part in the team's defense. Xia ruofei even retreated to the penalty area to help with the defense.

Barcelona's morale was high. Even though their physical strength had reached its limit, their offense was still as smooth as flowing water. Their skilled small – scale cooperation made their penetration in the middle extremely sharp, and the Spanish defenders could only run around.

At the 94th minute of the game, zujarís, who was in excellent form today, received a straight ball from lakiti ? and was about to make a powerful volley in front of the penalty area.

The Spaniard's Center back, Naldo, rushed forward to block. He did not expect that zuárez's shot was just a feint. A simple spike from him was enough to clean Naldo up.

Before Naldo, who had lost his balance, fell to the ground, he made up his mind and pulled on suyass 'Jersey. Originally, suyass had already started to get ready to break into the penalty area to shoot, but with Naldo's pull, he suddenly lost his balance and fell back heavily.

Buzzzzzz!

A sharp whistle was heard.

After falling down, zuyares flew into a rage. He immediately got up from the ground and rushed toward Naldo.

After he dodged Naldo's shot, he was already on his own. Even if he did not break into the penalty area, he would swing his leg and shoot directly on the spot. With his hot feet today, the probability of him scoring was still great.

However, Naldo's pull made his hopes of scoring a goal vanish into thin air.

He had already scored two goals today, and one more would be a hat – trick!

If he could help the team beat Espanyol at the last minute with a hat – trick, he would definitely be the Savior of the game.

However, all of this was ruined by Naldo's pull.

As soon as the referee blew the whistle, he quickly ran to the scene of the incident.

Nalmore stood up expressionlessly. He didn't say a word in the face of the Furious suyass. However, just because he didn't speak didn't mean that Naldo was afraid. He still stared at suyass arrogantly and didn't Dodge.

Just as the two of them were arguing, the main judge ran to the scene of the incident and separated the two of them. The teammates of both sides also ran over and separated the two of them.

Messi put his arm around zuyares 'shoulder and said loudly to him, ""Calm down! There was not much time left in the game! We need to score goals now. We can't waste a single second!"

Despite suyass 'stomach full of anger, he did not dare to act rashly in the face of the team's absolute boss, Messi. After a few curses, he turned around and walked away resentfully.

On the other side, the main judge came to Naldo and said, "You should know what kind of punishment you will get, right?"

Naldo nodded and turned to the sidelines without a word. According to the rules of football, the last defender who committed a tactical foul on the opposing player would be sent off with a red card.

Just now, after Zuyare had bypassed Naldo, he had already gotten the opportunity to face the goalkeeper alone. Naldo's tactical foul had directly destroyed an absolute scoring opportunity, and Zuyare had formed a single-handed knife at that time. There was no doubt about such a foul opportunity, and it would definitely be sentenced to death.

Sure enough, when Naldo walked to the sidelines, the referee behind him raised a red card high at his back.

The Spaniards' situation was even worse. Their main center back was sent off with a red card.

Of course, the only good news was: There was only a minute left until the end of the game. Even without Naldo, the remaining players could grit their teeth and persist.

Their only thought now was to keep this hard-won point.

Chapter 2803 Holding the whistle (2)

Naldo walked back to the technical area, lowered his head, and said, "I'm sorry, coach ..."

Manager Ruby patted him on the shoulder and said, "No, this isn't your fault! Go back and have a good rest!"

After that, Ruby turned his gaze to the pitch. Although Naldo blocked Suyass's sure-goal with a red card, the crisis of Spain was not resolved because Barça had at least received a free kick in an excellent position.

For free kicks more than 20 meters away from the goal, some experts had a high scoring rate. At least Ruby knew that if Xia Ruofei were to make a free kick from that position, he would basically be able to get every one of them right. Meanwhile, Barcelona's Messi was also very good at free kicks.

The assistant manager came over and put a down jacket on Naldo. He put an arm around his shoulder and walked out of the field. Although the game was about to end, Naldo had been sent off with a red card. According to the rules, he had to leave the field. It was also against the rules to stay on the bench.

The Spaniards clearly did not want to give people false information at the last minute of the game.

Naldo did not return to the locker room. He stood at the entrance of the players' passageway and looked at the field.

There were more than two minutes left in the game. Naldo's greatest concern was whether the team could keep one point. How could he go back to the locker room to shower and change his clothes with peace of mind at this time?

On the court.

Messi had carefully placed the football at the free-throw point designated by the referee; On the other hand, the Spaniards were seriously building a human wall under the command of the goalkeeper, Diego Lopez.

Xia Ruofei did not participate in the construction of the human wall. He and Wu Lei did not even enter the penalty area. Instead, they stood at the front, waiting for a chance to counterattack.

The tall and big iglysiyas, on the other hand, was arranged to join the human wall.

The ball was still a little closer to the goal. If the taller players were lined up in the human wall, it would be a lot more difficult for the other team's free throw players.

After Messi set up the ball, he took a few steps back and stood still, looking at the referee.

The referee looked at the Spanish goalkeeper and the human wall they had set up before blowing the whistle to signal that Messi could kick off.

Messi looked up at the upper left corner of the Spanish goal and took a deep breath.

In fact, he was also under a lot of pressure. After all, the game had entered the final second – counting stage. Whether he could score this goal or not would directly determine the final result of the whole game.

However, Messi had been Barcelona's number one player for many years and had always been the team's number one penalty shot and free kick player, so his psychological quality was absolutely strong. After a slight adjustment, he ran forward steadily, and then his thighs drove his calves to exert force and kicked the football heavily.

Messi's free – kick had a strong spin. After crossing the highest point of the Spanish human wall, it quickly flew to the right corner of the goal.

He deliberately glanced at the upper left corner of the goal during the free throw in the hope of misleading the Spanish goalkeeper, Diego Lopez.

As long as Diego Lopez moved a little earlier, it would be difficult for him to save in the opposite direction after losing his center of gravity.

As long as the penalty was within the goalkeeper's range, the probability of the ball scoring was very high.

In fact, the moment he made the kick, Messi felt that the ball should have been there.

However, the experienced goalkeeper, Diego Lopez, did not fall for it.

His position was very stable, his feet firmly stuck in the goal line, and he did not move in advance. Instead, he waited for Messi to kick and the football flew over before he decisively flew to the right.

The quality of Messi's free throw was very high. It went straight to the dead end on the right side of the goal. Although Diego Lopez did not fall for it, it was not easy to pounce on the ball.

Diego Lopez stretched out his body as much as possible and leaped into the air.

In the end, Diego Lopez's fingertips only touched the football.

Although the football's trajectory was quite tricky, it was exactly this touch that Diego Lopez used all his strength to make a slight change in the football's trajectory.

Originally, the ball was supposed to go straight into the dead end of the goal, but after being touched by Diego Lopez, the trajectory of the football deviated a little bit, which eventually led to the ball hitting the position between the crossbar and the pillar.

With a bang, the football quickly rebounded back into the penalty area.

The Spanish players, who had been very focused, immediately surrounded the ball to press for it.

The Barça players who were lying in ambush in the penalty area also rushed in the direction of the football's drop point.

In the end, it was still Mark Rocca who grabbed the first drop point. He lifted the ball and headed it outside the penalty area.

Messi immediately rushed up after the free kick and the ball happened to fall at his feet.

He did not hesitate and swung his leg for a long shot.

Messi was well aware that there was not much time left in the game. If he wanted to turn the one point he had painstakingly gotten into three points, he had to seize all opportunities to shoot.

However, perhaps it was because of his physical strength, Messi's shot did not have much force, and the angle was not as good as the set piece just now.

Diego Lopez easily held the football in his arms.

Originally, Diego Lopez had been prepared to pounce on the ball and press it down.

Because there wasn't much time left in the game, Diego Lopez knew that he had to do everything he could to delay the match for a few seconds.

However, when he saw Xia Ruofei and Wu Lei moving forward at high speed, he immediately changed his mind.

He rolled to his feet and with a mid – distance pass, he accurately found Xia Ruofei, who was receiving him from a distance.

Xia Ruofei stopped the ball with his chest and the ball landed in front of him.

At this time, the Barça players who were dragging behind also came over to snatch.

Among them, the fastest was Laktic, who ran at high speed toward the football's drop point.

Xia Ruofei's back was facing Barcelona's goal. He could feel that there was someone behind him. Of course, the investigation of his spiritual power also confirmed this.

After Xia Ruofei stopped the ball, he took a step forward with his right foot. At the same time, he lowered his shoulder to the right, as if he was going to break through the defense of the Barça players from the right.

Laktik leaned close to Xia Ruofei. He did not rush to intercept the ball. After all, this was not his specialty.

However, the change in Xia ruofei's center of gravity was beyond his expectations.

He subconsciously took a step to the right, hoping to continue blocking the position.

However, it was a feint. After his right foot kicked the ball, he immediately pulled it back. Then, he used his left foot to lead the ball behind him. At the same time, he completed a half – turn.

It was a Marseilles 'spin, but Xia ruofei's movements were very relaxed, as if he was drawing on the grass. Xia ruofei quickly turned around, and lakitik's body stiffened because of the change in his center of gravity. He could only watch as Xia ruofei passed him.

After Xia ruofei passed lakitik, he did not even look up. He did not hesitate to make a big kick and pass the ball to Xia ruofei, who was cutting in at a high speed.

After that, Xia ruofei immediately sped up and rushed forward.

Xia ruofei's pass drew a huge arc but was extremely accurate. It landed just two to three meters in front of Wu Lei and there was a slight trend of rebound. Wu Lei only needed to move forward and his speed would not be affected.

Barça's rear defensive line was not complete at this time. When the free – kick attack just happened, several tall defensive players were also ready to grab the second point in the penalty area. The counterattack launched by Spain from the goalkeeper position was extremely fast, and they had no time to return to their positions.

Although the other players quickly covered the defense, Barcelona's formation was inevitably in a certain chaos.

Wu Lei took the ball and strode forward along the sidelines.

He had wanted to try his best to bring the football to the corner flag area. The game should have been over if he had delayed it a little.

This was also a sign of Wu Lei's maturity. One must know that he had a "glorious history" in the past. In the final stage of the game, his wave shot was directly counterattacked by the other party, causing the victory that was about to be in his hands to become a draw.

However, Wu Lei immediately changed his mind after he looked up and observed ...

Chapter 2804 Final kill (1)

From the corner of his eye, Wu Lei saw Xia ruofei quickly cutting in from the middle. At this time, two of Barça's defenders had been attracted to the side, and the defense in the middle was a little empty.

Wu Lei did not hesitate. He directly took a curve ball with his right foot and passed the football to his left rear middle position.

He wanted to pass the ball to Xia ruofei, but he had been playing for more than ten minutes and had just run with the ball for more than thirty meters. Even if he had been practicing the body – refining movements of the little golden man all this time, his physical strength was already starting to show signs of weakness.

Therefore, Wu Lei's pass was a little too wide and it was to the left, which was not in line with Xia ruofei's running direction.

When Wu Lei made his move, Xia ruofei had already predicted the soccer ball's approximate landing point. Hence, he stomped his feet and immediately increased his speed by a few notches as he sprinted towards the front left.

At this time, there was only pique in the middle of Barcelona's rear defensive line. Behind Xia ruofei and on the left, there was another player chasing after him.

Chasing closely behind Xia ruofei was barça's midfielder, lakitic, while on the left, Xia ruofei's opponent was Roberto.

The ball flew towards the left side of the middle. Originally, Roberto and Xia ruofei were driving side by side, but this gave him an advantage. After all, he was closer to the ball's landing point.

In addition, lakitic was also following Xia ruofei closely. There was also the defensive general, pique, in the middle to protect him. Logically speaking, this ball should not be too dangerous.

As a result, although the other barça players were also returning to defend, many of the attacking players who did not desperately run back to support the front field were still preparing for the last attack.

At this time, there was only about a minute left in the game. If everything went as expected, Xia ruofei should not be able to get the ball. Even if Xia ruofei could barely catch up, it was impossible to break out of the encirclement under the three – man encirclement. Therefore, the attacking players, including Suárez, Messi, and cutinho, were more observing the positions of the Spanish players, hoping that they could stop an efficient attack after pique and the others had snatched the ball.

After all, the Spanish team looked like an arrow at the end of its flight. They were only missing the last straw to break the camel's back.

On the Spanish team's side, other than Wu Lei and Xia ruofei, the other players did not immediately launch an offensive formation. Only the center forward, iglsias, was running to the front field. The other players were still defending after the offensive and defensive switch.

After all, the Spaniards still had a disadvantage in terms of players. In addition, everyone's physical strength was almost exhausted. The referee did not blow the whistle to end the game, so no one dared to take it lightly.

As a result, the situation on the field looked a little strange. Most of the players were still in Spain's half of the field, and only a few people were actively fighting for the ball.

The football flew in an arc and landed on the turf.

After a quick visual inspection, Robert determined that he should be able to control the football earlier than the opposing players.

However, at that moment, Robert felt as if a gust of wind had blown past him, and then a figure in a blue and white jersey appeared in his field of vision.

The number 25 was printed on this person's back.

Robert could not help but be stunned. He had clearly been running at full speed! Furthermore, he was much closer to the ball than his opponent. How did the number 25 player suddenly overtake him? Could it be that he ran in a straight line while his opponent ran in a curved line, but he still couldn't beat his opponent?

After all, Roberto had been replaced at around the 60th minute, and it had been less than half an hour since then. Xia ruofei, on the other hand, had been playing for more than 90 minutes. Was this No. 25 made of steel to be able to run like this in the final stage of the game? How could he be so energetic?

Roberto was dumbfounded, but he could only give it his all. He did not have time to think, so he gritted his teeth and increased his speed again.

However, he was already running at full speed just now. There was not much room for improvement even if he wanted to speed up. Moreover, the high – speed running made his heart beat faster again. When he took deep breaths, he felt like his lungs were about to explode.

Even so, when Robert realized that the distance between him and Xia ruofei was still widening, he couldn't help but be shocked.

In fact, Lakitic, who was in hot pursuit of Xia ruofei, was just as confused as him.

With just one dash, Lakitic was completely left behind by Xia ruofei.

He knew that his players could no longer stop Xia ruofei from controlling the ball, so he decisively turned to the middle. No matter what Xia ruofei did after he got the ball, he could not bypass the middle if he wanted to score.

There was a tacit understanding between the Barcelona players. As soon as Roberto saw Lakitic turn to the middle to form a joint force with Pique, he immediately gritted his teeth and chased after Xia ruofei, hoping to interfere when Xia ruofei took the ball.

It happened too late.

In the blink of an eye, Xia ruofei rushed to the first drop point of the football. At this time, the ball passed by Wu Lei had just landed on the ground.

However, perhaps it was because he did not control his footwork well, Wu Lei's pass was also very strange. After the football fell to the ground, there was an obvious front Ridge and it flew to the left side.

Xia ruofei did not have time to think. He stuck his left foot into the grass and raised his right leg high. Just as the football was about to leave his control range, he used his right leg to flick the ball again.

As soon as Xia ruofei stopped, Robert immediately caught up to him.

Chapter 2805 Final kill (2)

However, with Xia ruofei's pick, not only did he hook the ball back, but he also swayed robito, who pounced in the opposite direction.

Xia ruofei's jump had left robito behind.

Then he immediately nudged the football to the right and headed in the direction of the goal.

Lakitic was already in his defensive position, and Roberto quickly adjusted and chased after Xia ruofei. Pique was still waiting for an opportunity from the far end. Xia ruofei was still facing a pincer attack.

Lakitic knew that Xia ruofei's footwork was very good, so he did not rush to snatch it. Instead, he stared at the football under Xia ruofei's feet and kept retreating until he retreated into the penalty area. Only then did he stand in position and closely defend against Xia ruofei.

After taking a few steps, Xia ruofei did not choose to enter the restricted area.

He used the outer part of his right foot to lightly nudge and change the direction of the football's movement, changing it to a direction parallel to the penalty area line.

Lakitic always maintained his position between Xia ruofei and the goal. He insisted on preventing Xia ruofei from breaking into the penalty area and controlled the angle of Xia ruofei's shot.

Xia ruofei looked at lakitic and pique, who was approaching from not far away. He continued to dribble the ball along the edge of the penalty area to cut inside.

When Xia ruofei was dribbling the ball, his rhythm changed very quickly. Sometimes he accelerated and sometimes he stopped. This kind of dribbling made lakitic very uncomfortable. He also accelerated and slowed down with Xia ruofei. He also needed to make corresponding changes.

Xia ruofei's change in rhythm was very sudden, and lakitic's response was not so timely. At this time, pique had not fully assisted in the defense.

Xia ruofei seized the moment when lakitic could not keep up with his rhythm and decisively took advantage of the fleeting gap to shoot.

Xia ruofei's supporting leg was firmly stuck in the grass. His right leg did not swing too much. Naturally, he did this to complete the shot as soon as possible. However, the strength of his shot was very strong.

With a loud bang, Xia ruofei's right foot hit the middle part of the ball, bringing up a piece of grass.

The football spun at high speed and flew toward the goal.

Almost at the same time, Barcelona's goalkeeper, terstegan, also leaped up and pounced in the direction of the football.

When telstergen was in the air, he already had a premonition that if the ball could not be pounced on, there was at least a 90% chance that it would go straight into the goal.

He would stretch his body as far as possible and straighten his slender arms as far as possible. Soon, the football grew rapidly in his field of vision and was in front of his eyes in the blink of an eye.

Terstegan gritted his teeth and shouted after exerting force in his waist and abdomen. He blocked the football. He did not even use the method of punching with a clenched fist. Instead, he tried to straighten his fingers as much as possible, hoping to expand the defensive area.

The next moment, telstergen felt his fingers touch the football, followed by a bang. The football hit the crossbar and bounced back high.

At this time, telstergen's body fell down under the effect of gravity.

He broke out in a cold sweat and felt a wave of fear.

If he had not used his fingers to change the trajectory of the ball, it was highly likely that it would have hit the lower part of the crossbar and then bounced into the goal.

However, telstergen's relief only lasted for two seconds. Before he could get up from the ground, he saw a black shadow shoot into the net from the corner of his eye. He did not even have time to make a save.

With a look of disbelief on his face, terstegan turned his head with difficulty to look at the goal, just in time to see the football spinning under the net.

Who am I? Where am I? How did he kick the ball in? Telstergen could not help but ask himself the ultimate question in his heart.

Four to three!

In the last few seconds of the game, the score was rewritten again. The leading side was still Spain, which had a huge gap in strength with Barcelona.

The cheers at the scene all stopped at once. The bar?a fans 'faces were ashen as they stared at the football that had already entered the goal, unable to recover for a long time.

The Spanish fans in the away stands were the first to react. They first widened their eyes, then let out loud cheers. One by one, they jumped and jumped in the away stands, their excitement beyond words.

This was the first time that Camp Nou could hear the voices of the visiting fans tonight. In the 90 minutes of the game, the voices of the Spanish fans, who were greatly outnumbered, were completely suppressed by the Barcelona fans and could not be heard at all.

Now, the bar?a fans were doubting their lives, and the cheers and singing of the Spanish fans finally reached the ears of the players on the field.

This sound was a great irony for Barcelona and its fans, but for the Spanish fans, it was a great honor. It was equivalent to taking down Camp Nou!

When the Espanyol launched a quick counterattack, there was only about a minute left in the game. Xia ruofei passed the ball, passed the ball, and Wu Lei passed the ball. Xia ruofei dribbled the ball inside and then shot at the goal. The whole process only took about ten to twenty seconds.

After the goal was scored, Barcelona fell behind again, and they only had a few dozen seconds left.

In a basketball game, this period of time could have countless possibilities to affect the outcome of the game. However, on a football field, there was not even enough time to organize an effective attack.

Including the players on the field, all the Barça players and fans knew in their hearts that the game was over. Barça was bound to lose!

Telstegen had not gotten up after he fell to the ground. His line of sight was completely blocked by lakiti, so he could not see clearly how the ball had gone in.

However, the fans in the stadium and the audience watching the television broadcast could see it clearly.

This was also the common reason why the Barça fans in the stadium did not boo for the first time. Yingying's goal was so beautiful. As the opponent fans, they could not help but feel heartfelt admiration.

The one who scored was the No. 25 of Espanyol, Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei's shot had bounced back after it was blocked by terstegan with all his might.

Xia ruofei, who had just made a shot, did not stop after completing the shot. Instead, he rushed straight into Barça's penalty area.

At this moment, the football just bounced back from the crossbar. The ball was high and floating, and it was about to fall in front of the penalty area.

Xia ruofei used his body to lean against Barça's Center back, Bick. No matter how Bick pushed forward, or even made some small interference moves at Xia ruofei from an angle invisible to the referee, Xia ruofei was not affected at all. He was like a towering mountain in front of Bick. Some of Bick's interference was like an ant trying to shake a tree, completely ineffective.

However, after the ball bounced back, the speed of the ball was a little slow. At the same time, it was very high. Xia ruofei could not wait for the ball to fall and then think of a way to adjust and control the referee. This way, lakitic and robito would definitely be in place to make up for the defense.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not think twice. When the ball was about to land, he leaned his body against pique and quickly leaned back. His right leg turned like a windmill and hit the flying ball.

With a beautiful upside – down Golden Bell, the football went straight into Barça's goal. The goalkeeper, telstegen, did not react at all and just watched Xia ruofei score the goal.

The distance of the hook shot was very far. It was basically on the line of the penalty area, but the quality was extremely high. Xia ruofei's hook shot touched the ball very accurately, and the football flew almost flat into the upper right corner of the goal. Even if telstegen did not fall to the ground, it would be extremely difficult to pounce on the ball. After all, it was already a dead angle in theory.

What was even more amazing was that Xia ruofei's goal was not only a good use of footwork, but also a pressure on the top center back, pique. Under the pincer of lakitic and Roberto, he kicked the ball in in such a gorgeous way.

For a player, to be able to score such a goal was something to boast about for the rest of his life!

Chapter 2806 The picture is too beautiful (1)

In PP Sports Livestream.

When Barcelona besieged the Spanish goal, Shen fangjian and Jia Tianning, the two commentators, became very nervous. It was true that in the final period of the game, any change on the field could completely change the outcome of the game. At that time, Spain was on the verge of collapse, as if they would be knocked down by the giant, Barcelona, at any time.

When Barcelona's attack failed and the old goalkeeper of the Espanyol, Diego Lopez, launched a counterattack, both Shen fangjian and Jia Tianning were in high spirits.

Xia ruofei's actions of stopping the ball, pulling the ball, turning around, passing the ball, and passing the ball were even more amazing.

When Xia ruofei used an action similar to a Marseille turn to get past lakitic and used the outer instep to send out a precise pass with a huge arc, Shen fangjian subconsciously praised, "Xia ruofei's performance was very exciting. When the whole Espanyol team was nervous to the extreme, he didn't seem to be affected at all. He really has a big heart!"

Then, Shen fangjian gave a comment on Xia ruofei's performance that made it to the hot search.

He said, "beautiful!" An accurate pass! It was simply unbelievable! Xia ruofei used his left foot to draw a dragon on the court and then used his right foot to draw a rainbow!"

Many PP sports fans couldn't help but burst out laughing when they heard this.

During this period of time, wild wolf DISCO was very popular on the internet. As long as you were a frequent internet user, almost all of you were caught off guard by the 'left! Draw a rainbow with me, and draw a dragon on your right '.

Shen fangjian's comment even made people want to hum it.

Most importantly, his comments were quite appropriate.

Xia ruofei's actions of dodging lakitik, whether it was pulling the ball or turning around, were very wide. However, there was a special kind of beauty and rhythm, as if he was painting on the court. The ball that was passed to Wu Lei immediately after drew an exaggerated arc. It was not an exaggeration to say that it was a rainbow.

After Wu Lei caught the ball, he rushed forward along the right side. Shen fangjian and Jia Tianning's voices also couldn't help but rise.

"This is an opportunity to counterattack!" The two of them shouted in unison.

Strictly speaking, it was a broadcast accident when the commentators interrupted. However, sports commentators had a certain uniqueness, especially in a passionate sport like football. Many times, the commentators could not help but shout.

Shen fangjian and Jia Tianning exchanged a look, and they immediately came to a silent consensus. The main commentator, Shen fangjian, continued, "Wu Lei's dribbling speed is very fast! Bar'a's defense was not fully in place for this goal! However, the RCD Espanyol's attacking players did not follow up quickly. We only saw Xia ruofei cutting forward at high speed in the middle! Wu Lei has already carried the ball for at least 30 meters and has attracted at least two defenders from Barça. Now the middle is a little empty, he should pass the ball!"

"Wu Lei has indeed made the right choice!" Shen fangjian shouted, "the pass was a little too far ... But Xia ruofei's speed increased again and he snatched the ball! When they were competing for speed just now, he had used the action of overtaking at a corner to leave Roberto behind by at least two body lengths! "Xia ruofei dribbles the ball along the front of the penalty area and cuts inside. He's being defended by Lakitic. Barça's rear defense has been completely displaced ... Pique is also quickly approaching to assist in the defense ..."

Shen fangjian spoke very fast, which imperceptibly infected the tense atmosphere. Jia Tianning couldn't even interrupt at this time. He also stared nervously at the big screen, his eyes not blinking.

"Xia ruofei has a change in rhythm! He's got an opening and he's going to shoot!" Shen fangjian shouted, "this ball has ... Ah! Barcelona's goalkeeper, ter Stegen's magical play, held up this sure – shot that was hanging in the dead corner. This ball ... Ah! "Ah!" Xia ruofei had already charged into the penalty area. The ball was a little high! He directly hooked the ball and shot! The ball is in!"

Shen fangjian couldn't help but stand up from the broadcasting station. He clenched his fists and raised his arms, shouting, "There's nothing to be picky about this goal! In the last few seconds of the game, Xia ruofei used a difficult Barça to kill Barcelona in a very spectacular way! Yes! I can already announce that Espanyol has won the eye – catching Catalan derby! And the protagonists and heroes of this victory are our Chinese players!"

Shen fangjian said so much that he was almost out of breath. Jia Tianning finally interjected, "This reverse hook goal will definitely be selected for the best goal of the year! There would not even be a problem in competing for the Puskas prize. Whether it was the importance of the game, the viewing of the goal, or the key role of the goal, there was no doubt about it! If a goal like that doesn't win the prize, what kind of goal can win the prize?"

"Actually, I don't really care about the Puskas prize!" Shen fangjian laughed and said, "what I'm most happy about is that today's victory was completely led by the Chinese players. The first goal was initiated and assisted by Xia ruofei. It was scored by another Chinese player, Wu Lei. It was also this lightning fast goal that set the tone for today's game in just 20 seconds. The second goal was a perfect individual performance. Xia ruofei used a Super One – shot to announce his dominance in the game. And the third goal was still thanks to Xia ruofei's precise moon – shaped scimitar pass. Our national player, Wu Lei, completed the assist and Iglassias successfully ate the pie!"

"With such a performance," Jia Tianning said with a smile, "if anyone still says that the joining of Chinese players is a business operation, then this person must have serious eye problems. We can suggest that he go to the Ophthalmology Department!"

The game was not over yet, and the Spanish players and substitutes were still celebrating wildly on the field. The two commentators in the pp Sports Live broadcast room had already combined the slow motion replay of the last goal and began to take stock of the entire game.

In fact, the result could not be changed. Even if Barcelona was known as the cosmic team, it was impossible to complete an effective offensive cooperation and score a goal in just a few dozen seconds in front of the morale-boosted Spanish players.

In fact, the stoppage time had already been exceeded, but because of Xia ruofei's goal, the Spanish players celebrated for a long time. Considering the care that the referee had given to Barça in the past, there was at least a minute left for the referee to decide.

However, this was still of no help. The confidence of the Barcelona players had been crushed by Xia ruofei's shocking Barça. On the other hand, the Spanish team had suddenly become a lot more excited. In addition, the score was in the lead again, and the psychological burden of the players had been thrown away.

Under such circumstances, Barça could not achieve anything in just a minute.

After the kick-off, there was a mistake in Barça's ground coordination, and the football rolled directly out of the sidelines.

On the Spanish side, David Lopez slowly ran to the side of the field. After the referee's verbal reminder, he quickened his pace a little.

He picked up the football from the ground and aimed at it for a long time. The Barça fans in the stadium booed loudly before he threw the ball out before the referee's patience ran out.

The ball was for Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei tapped the ball lightly and it landed on the ground.

He did not hesitate to take the ball and move quickly along the side. A few of the Barcelona players came over to snatch the ball, but Xia ruofei still firmly controlled the ball under his feet. When these big stars were in front of Xia ruofei, it was as if they had become children who did not know how to play football. They could not snatch the ball no matter how hard they tried.

In the end, Laktik could not help but pull Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei immediately screamed and fell to the ground.

In fact, Xia ruofei was not injured, but Laktik was given a verbal warning by the main judge.

It was another free kick from Espanyol. Although the ball had just crossed the halfway line and should have been sent out quickly under normal circumstances, Xia ruofei did it twice seriously before he took a few steps back and kicked the ball out.

He postured for a long time, but in the end, he did not pass the ball forward. Instead, he passed it to the players in the backfield.

Barça had long expected the leading Espanyol to use such a tactic, so they quickly moved forward to press for a high position.

After three passes and two passes, the football returned to the goalkeeper, Diego Lopes.

In the face of Barça's Coutinho and Suárez' joint press, Diego Lopez sent the ball forward with another big kick.

What made the Barça players' teeth itch was that this time it was Xia ruofei who controlled the ball again. After protecting the ball, he returned it again.

At this time, the time-up had already exceeded one and a half minutes, and the game time was about to reach 98 minutes.

The referee had wanted to give Barcelona a chance to attack, but the football was almost controlled at the feet of the Spanish team at the last moment. It was difficult for Barcelona to even touch the ball, so how could they equalize the score?

The referee could not make it too obvious, so he could only blow the whistle to end the game with a blank expression.

4-3. This was a game of goals with a small difference in the score. Both sides contributed seven goals together, which made the neutral fans watching the game satisfied.

In the end, it was the Spanish team who had the last laugh.

When the referee blew the whistle to end the game, the Barça players could not help but show pained expressions. Some even sat on the grass, burying their heads in their jerseys and sobbing softly.

On the other hand, on the Spanish side, when the whistle sounded, the entire substitutes' bench, including the players and coaches, as well as the manager, Rubi, rushed into the field. They shared the joy of winning with the players on the field as if they were welcoming the triumphant return of heroes.

The RCD Espanyol players high-fived each other, and the camera was always on Xia ruofei. Occasionally, it would switch to Wu Lei and Iglesias. All three of them had scored, and Xia ruofei was naturally the protagonist.

After the game, the best player was selected and Xia ruofei won the honor without a doubt.

Originally, at this time, the domestic broadcasting platforms would cut off the live broadcast signal and return to the live broadcast room. The commentators would comment on the game and the guest commentators would analyze the process of the game.

But today, the director was different. He was still broadcasting the live signal from Nokapu Stadium.

Shen Fangjian and Jia Tianning were naturally more willing to watch the post-match scene.

Shen Fangjian said, "We saw Xia ruofei and Wu Lei hugging each other tightly. Their teammates and coaches also came up to high five and hug them!" All of Espanyol are celebrating this hard-won, soul-stirring victory in Nokapu!"

"I've looked at the technical statistics," Jia Tianning said, "the performance of our two Chinese players today can be said to be phenomenal! Wu Lei's pass and shot, whether it was a goal or an assist, were both beautiful! Xia ruofei's performance was even more eye-catching. One of his two goals came from the backfield after he had passed more than half of the Barcelona team and pushed the empty goal! The other had even managed to put on a great show of a hook kick in the last minute of the game! Other than the two art-like goals, Xia ruofei also assisted Wu Lei once. The other goal by iglesias was actually Xia ruofei's credit. If it wasn't for his long pass that accurately found Wu Lei like a crescent moon, there wouldn't be such a beautiful cooperation later on!"

"Two Chinese players, one scored a goal and an assist; The other one scored two goals and one assist. The players who contributed the most to Spain's four goals were all players from China!" Shen fangjian exclaimed, " this scene is simply too beautiful! "

At that moment, the camera captured an interesting scene. After Messi comforted his two teammates, he went straight to Xia ruofei, covered his mouth, and said a few words to Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei also covered his mouth and chatted with Messi for a while, then they shook hands.

Immediately after, the two men took off their jerseys at the same time and handed them to each other.

After exchanging jerseys, Messi patted Xia ruofei's shoulder and put on Xia ruofei's blue and white Spanish team uniform. He then walked over to his disappointed teammates.

Messi, as the captain, naturally had to fulfill his duties at this time.

In fact, barça and RCD Espanyol were arch-rivals in the same city and definitely did not see eye to eye with each other. If two ordinary players, one from barça and the other from RCD Espanyol, exchanged jerseys after the Derby, they would certainly be sprayed to death by the supporting media of their respective teams.

However, Xia ruofei and Messi did not have such concerns.

Needless to say, Xia ruofei was the biggest contributor to today's match. He was also the owner of Espanyol. Who dared to say that he was " aiding the enemy "?

As for Messi, he was the absolute core of barça. He was like a god among the barça fans. No matter what a God did, he could not be wrong.

And Messi simply admired Xia ruofei's performance in the game, so he had the idea of exchanging jerseys and put it into action. That was all.

With Messi's identity, he did not need to worry so much.

Xia ruofei also put on Messi's number 10 jersey and high-fived his teammates in celebration. He celebrated the great victory without any scruples in nokapu, the Holy Land in the hearts of countless players!

Chapter 2808 There's such a move?_

For Espanyol, the feeling of killing barça in nokapu was even stronger than entering the European battle.

Of course, getting the unexpected three points in this game would also have a great impact on their advancement to the UEFA Europa League next season.

Many of the Barça fans at Camp Nou had already gotten up and left the field when Xia ruofei scored that brilliant kill goal. After the whistle of the game, the fans left the field one after another. No one wanted to see the scene of the nemesis celebrating at their home ground.

Barça's players also quickly left the field, while Ruby and his disciples were still cheering and celebrating on the field. The Spanish fans in the visiting stands also shouted the names of every Spanish player, as if they were celebrating a Festival. Among them, "Xia" and "Wu" were the ones they shouted the most.

Xia ruofei also laughed and celebrated with his Spanish teammates. Ruby even ran over and gave Xia ruofei a big hug. "Mr. Xia! Thank you! This was a perfect match!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "You're too kind. I also hope that my team can achieve good results!"

"You have become the hero in the hearts of the Spanish fans!" Ruby said happily, "in nokapu, beating their nemesis Barça with such a score will definitely leave a heavy mark in the history of the Spanish team! And your two wonderful goals will be remembered by the people!"

Hearing Ruby's words, Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh.

At this time, the lights in the stadium suddenly dimmed. The Spanish players who were celebrating and the Spanish fans in the stands could not help but be stunned. In fact, the Spanish team's celebration time was not particularly long. It was just that the Barcelona players had left in a hurry. In fact, there were still many Barcelona fans in the stands lining up to leave. No one expected the main lights in the stadium to suddenly turn off before the visiting players left.

Xia ruofei and Ruby exchanged a look. Just as Xia ruofei was about to call the players back to the locker room, an even more exaggerated scene occurred. The maintenance hose on the pitch slowly rose up and began to spray water!

The nozzle would rotate continuously to ensure that every part of the turf could be watered.

Now that the water spray system was turned on, the unprepared Spanish players were suddenly covered in water. Many Barça fans who were left behind could not help but laugh when they saw this scene, while the Spanish fans in the visiting stands reprimanded notrump Stadium for such behavior.

However, in this way, the players naturally ran out of the field in a panic without Ruby and the assistant manager's instructions. Victor Sanchez, who had used up too much physical energy in the game, slipped when he left the field, which made the Barça fans in the stands laugh wildly.

Xia ruofei could only smile helplessly at the management of nokapu Stadium. He shook his head gently and thought to himself, "There's actually such an operation!"

After rushing into the players' passageway, the Spanish players were all drenched. Ruby's face was a little ugly and he loudly ordered, "Everyone, quickly go to the changing room to change your clothes! You can't catch a cold!"

Ruby walked towards the changing room. He walked beside Xia ruofei and asked in a low voice, "Mr. Xia, do you mind going to the post – Match press conference with me?"

If it were any other player, Ruby would only need to instruct them to attend the press conference if he wanted them to. Moreover, it was an honor for the players to be able to attend the press conference. However, when facing Xia ruofei, Ruby had to use a pleading tone.

In fact, Xia ruofei's performance in both competitions was outstanding. Last time, Xia ruofei represented Spain and Ruby wanted him to attend the press conference. However, Xia ruofei was the boss, so Ruby thought about it and decided not to bring him up. Instead, he brought Wu Lei, who had also performed well in that competition.

Today, they had won against their arch – enemy in nokapu city and obtained three points. Ruby was very happy. He could see that Xia ruofei was in a good mood, so he took the opportunity to ask Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and nodded. "Alright! But I need to change my clothes first!"

"Of course! I'm going to change my clothes too!" Ruby said.

He had just celebrated with the players on the field and was naturally not spared. Luckily, Ruby had also brought a set of sportswear. Otherwise, he could only meet the reporters in this wet state.

After Xia ruofei returned to the changing room, he quickly took a hot shower and changed into the Spanish training uniform.

Manager Ruby had also changed his clothes, but his hair was still wet. He deliberately did not dry his hair.

"Coach Ruby, shall we go?" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Mr. Xia," Ruby said. "There's no hurry. How about we wait a little longer?"

"If I remember correctly, the post – Match press conference should have already started, right?" Xia ruofei asked in confusion.

"Yes, but the reporters will definitely wait!" Ruby replied, "they must want to hear the winner's voice!"

The post – Match interview was the best way to get first – hand information for such a focused game. Even if Ruby was late, the reporters would definitely not leave. They would definitely wait.

Chapter 2809 There's such a move?_

Even if Ruby didn't attend the press conference, the reporters would still have news to write about. All they needed to do was to add more ink to Ruby's pride.

Xia ruofei had also guessed Ruby's intention. He shrugged and smiled. "Alright! Then we'll follow your plan!"

Ruby and Xia ruofei sat in the changing room and rested for another ten minutes. Then, they got up and walked to the press conference hall in nokapu.

Ruby was right. Although they were almost 20 minutes late this time, there were still many reporters in the press conference hall. Almost no one was willing to give up the opportunity to get first – hand news.

When Ruby appeared, the photojournalists immediately grabbed their cameras and began to take pictures. When they found that the well – deserved hero of Spain, Xia ruofei, also appeared at the press conference, the flashes were even more continuous.

Xia ruofei was also someone who had seen many big scenes. He always had a gentle smile on his face. He nodded at the reporters as he walked to his seat.

Ruby and Xia ruofei went straight to their seats and sat down. Ruby gave Xia ruofei a questioning look. Xia ruofei nodded in understanding and made a gesture to invite him in. Ruby adjusted the angle of the microphone and cleared his throat. The crowd suddenly quieted down.

Ruby said, "first of all, I would like to apologize to everyone. This press conference was supposed to be held 20 minutes ago, but I was late ... And the reason I was late was quite ridiculous!" After the game, I was still celebrating with my players on the field when nokapu's water spray system suddenly turned on. My players and I were drenched and I didn't want to let you see two drenched chickens, so I had to go back to the locker room to take a shower and change my clothes!"

Some neutral media reporters laughed in good faith, while some Catalan media reporters who were close to barça looked a little upset. A few media reporters who were close to RCD Espanyol showed resentment.

Ruby continued, "I don't know why this happened!" In my opinion, this is very unprofessional behavior!"

Ruby did not criticize the management of nokapu Stadium too much. Such things only needed to be done to a certain extent. Today, he deliberately arrived 20 minutes late for the press conference with his wet hair and made the matter clear without any tactfulness. He had already conveyed his attitude to the media.

To put it bluntly, the media was always eager to see the world in chaos. How could they let go of such good news material?

Therefore, Ruby didn't need to hype up the matter too much. The media would naturally play it out.

On the contrary, if he said too much, it would be easy to leave behind excuses.

Ruby was very smart, even a little cunning.

To be honest, even if they were sprayed with water, Ruby and the Spanish players only criticized barça's underhanded tactics. Their joy of defeating their arch – enemy was not diluted by the matter.

Ruby only said this with the mentality that it would be good to make his mortal enemy in the same city feel more uncomfortable.

He quickly began to comment on the game. "This is a great victory! I'm very satisfied with the performance of everyone on the field! Everyone has fully implemented my tactical arrangements and defeated barça in nokapu. Is there anything more wonderful than that?"

Next, Ruby focused on a few other players. "Diego Lopez played the role of an old player. He is the anchor of the rear defensive line. If it weren't for his many difficult saves today, maybe the game would have ended differently. Wu Lei has fully integrated into the team and his improvement is very obvious. He is now a very important player on our forward line. I hope he can score more goals for the Spanish fans in the future! Mr. Xia ruofei is a surprise player on our team. Everyone knows that he is not a professional player, but I have to say that this is a miracle. With Mr. Xia's strength, he can definitely sit in the main position in any team in La Liga. Today's game was also thanks to Mr. Xia's excellent play, which allowed us to get a good result. What I want to say is that Mr. Xia's two goals in this game are both worth collecting. These two goals will be replayed countless times in the future! I think the editors of the TV station are going to have a headache when selecting the top ten goals of La Liga this round. Which of Mr. Xia's two goals should be ranked first and which should be ranked second?"

"Hahaha!" The reporters couldn't help but laugh.

However, they didn't think Ruby was exaggerating. Anyone who had watched the game would think that Xia ruofei had already taken the top two spots in the top ten.

Ruby then commented on the performance of their opponent, Barcelona. He said that there was no doubt about Barcelona's strength. They were one of the strongest teams on earth, but they were lacking some luck and ... Xia ruofei!

Ruby's roundabout way of praising his own players caused another round of laughter.

Very quickly, it was time for the reporters to ask questions.

The beautiful reporter of marca, clatina, was the first to get a chance to ask questions. She stood up after taking the microphone and said in English with a smile, "My question is for Mr. Xia ruofei. What's your comment on the fountain being turned on in the stadium before the team could even leave after winning the away game?"

Maca was based in Madrid and was a media that was known to be Pro – Real Madrid. Naturally, clatina caught on to bar?a's weakness and hoped to get a first – hand review from Ruby or Xia ruofei so that she could write a brilliant story about this matter when she returned.

Of course, comparing the two, Xia ruofei was more interesting than Ruby, so she threw the question to Xia ruofei without hesitation.

Of course, clatina also hoped that Xia ruofei, who looked very young, would not be like Ruby, who had dealt with the media all year round. He would not be able to keep his words to himself. How could he create big news?

Xia ruofei shrugged and said in fluent Spanish, "I don't think it's gentlemanly. Of course, I don't want to comment on nokapu's approach, but I can tell you clearly that no team will be treated like this at the El prate Stadium, and of course, that includes bar?a!"

El prate was Espanyol's home ground. Although Xia ruofei said that he did not comment on the lights being turned off and the water spraying, he did make an evaluation and pointed out that Barcelona was not generous enough.

"Thank you!" Clatina smiled sweetly and said, "oh yeah, your Spanish is great. It's beyond my expectations!"

After that, clatina, who had gotten the answer she wanted, smiled and sat back down.

The reporter from The Sports Daily, Pablo, continued to ask questions, which were still thrown at Xia ruofei.

He asked, "we noticed that you and Messi exchanged jerseys after the game. I think the fans must be very interested. What did Messi say to you at the time? Also, what do you think of Messi?"

Xia ruofei answered the first question in fluent Spanish, so this time, Pablo asked in Spanish.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Messi said that I did well in this game. He also said that he hoped to exchange jerseys with me." As for my evaluation of him ... There is no doubt that Messi is a great player. Even though the Spaniards and Barcelona are arch – enemies in the same city, it does not prevent me from making such an evaluation of Messi, just like how he also gave full affirmation to my performance.

Pablo's eyes brightened slightly. Before the staff member took the microphone away, he rushed to ask, "So, you and Messi appreciate each other? Even if the relationship between your respective teams is bad, you still admire Messi?"

Chapter 2810 Dealing with experienced (1)

Ruby, who was beside Xia ruofei, was a little anxious when he heard the question.

As the largest sports media in Catalonia, The Sports Daily was undoubtedly Pro – Barça, and the question raised by Pablo was actually a trap.

He was leading Xia ruofei to say more words about how he admired and praised Messi. As the major shareholder of the Spanish club, Xia ruofei had exchanged jerseys with Messi after the game, but it was Messi who had suggested it first. Moreover, Xia ruofei had performed so well in the game that the Spanish fans would not blame Xia ruofei even if they felt a little uncomfortable.

However, if Xia ruofei continued to praise Messi in the post – Match press conference, coupled with the fact that The Sports Daily would exaggerate the point in its report, it might give the Spanish fans the feeling that the boss was unreliable.

The RCD Espanyol club was originally a small club, and it was located in the city of Barcelona. It was not easy to accumulate some fans. If it caused the fans to be disunited, and even caused some players in the locker room to complain, it would undoubtedly affect the stability of the club.

Ruby was very sure that this reporter from The Sports Daily, Pablo, had ulterior motives and wanted to cause trouble.

If the person sitting next to him was an ordinary player, Ruby could have turned on the microphone before the other party could speak and overstepped his bounds to block the question.

However, Xia ruofei's identity was special. Ruby was the one who worked for Xia ruofei, so he could not do that.

However, he was also worried that Xia ruofei was too young or did not understand the media's stance. If he said something wrong, he would be caught by the reporters. So, he was secretly anxious but there was nothing he could do.

After hearing this question, Xia ruofei's expression remained the same. He smiled and said, "Of course! I have never denied Messi's excellence! I do admire his skills ..."

Ruby almost wanted to cover his face when he heard this.

Wasn't this the same as taking the initiative to hand the gun over to the other party?

However, Xia ruofei immediately changed the topic and said, "As everyone knows, in addition to being a registered player of RCD Espanyol, I am also a shareholder of this club. From this point of view, I would very much welcome a good player like Messi to join Espanyol!"

The reporters in the audience and Ruby on the stage all opened their eyes wide. Many people were so surprised that their mouths were wide open, and they didn't even notice it.

After Pablo's shock, he couldn't help but pout. "Messi is not for sale at Barcelona! And even if he were to look for a transfer, he would never go to Espanyol. "

In other words, the Spanish temple was too small to accommodate a God like Messi.

Xia ruofei smiled faintly. "Nothing is absolute. The so – called 'not for sale' is nothing more than the price not high enough." In addition, what happened to the Spanish clubs? Do you still remember the days of Chelsea and Manchester City in the Premier League many years ago? But now? They were already a Premier League powerhouse! This is the power of capital!"

Manchester City and Chelsea were both veteran teams in the Premier League, but before Abu and the Middle East consortium invested in the two clubs respectively, there was still a gap between them and Giants like Manchester United and Liverpool.

However, after years of continuous investment, the two teams had long been reborn. There were many strong players in the team, and Manchester City was even the champion of the Premier League.

Xia ruofei gave a living example, leaving Pablo speechless.

This was also the effect of Xia ruofei's special identity. If he was just a player, he would not be able to say those words. Even if he did, he would probably be treated as a joke. However, he was the major shareholder of the club and came from the Far East of China. Now, the wealth of the Chinese was known all over the world. To the rich Chinese, it was really not a big deal to spend money to create a luxurious lineup.

Xia ruofei looked at Pablo and smiled. "I'll also release a piece of news here: The Spanish clubs will increase their investment in signings at the end of the season, especially if we can make it into the UEFA Europa League qualification tournament, then we will invest a guaranteed 100 million euros in players!"

Now that the winter transfer window was over, the transfer window was closed, so if Espanyol wanted to sign, they had to wait until the end of the season.

The reporters immediately went into an uproar and raised their hands to ask questions. Ruby, who was sitting on the stage, was overjoyed when he heard this. He couldn't believe his ears.

In recent years, Zhou leiyun's business thinking had been relatively conservative. His goal was to let the Spanish club survive in La Liga. As long as they could stay in the league, their task would be completed.

Like this season, by the end of the season, they still had the hope of entering the UEFA Europa League. That was simply over – fulfilling their task.

As a coach, Ruby naturally needed to introduce more and stronger players to show his ambition. Otherwise, even a clever housewife could not cook without rice. No matter how exquisite his tactical design was and how accurate his observation and analysis of the situation on the field was, the 11 players who were really playing on the field were still the same. Without the support of strong players, Espanyol could naturally play in the lower and lower ranks of the rankings for a long time.

Ruby had lost his passion for work and hoped to find a platform that would allow him to perform better. However, after hearing Xia ruofei's words, his heart immediately burned with passion.

Although 100 million euros was not enough to buy Messi, it was enough for him to bring in a very strong player in the position of the team's shortcomings according to his own ideas.

Xia ruofei smiled and made a gesture of pressing his hands down. He said, "I'm just giving a temporary notice about the increase in the signing. If we have any specific actions later, we will inform the media as soon as possible. In addition, Mr. Ruby is the team's manager. If you have any questions, you can ask him. He has been sitting on the bench for a long time, so I hope that everyone can ask Ruby more questions and let me rest!"

Xia ruofei's words immediately attracted a burst of laughter. Ruby shrugged his shoulders and spread his hands. He was caught off guard by the boss's sudden "cheeky".

Xia ruofei's attitude towards the media today was relatively friendly and his answers did not disappoint the reporters. It could be said that he had revealed a lot of information.

Therefore, the reporters all accepted Xia ruofei's suggestion.

The post – Match press conference finally became "normal." The media reporters also followed the good advice and began to ask Ruby questions.

Ruby was an experienced general, so he could deal with these problems easily. There was no need to worry at all.

After Ruby answered a few questions, the post – Match press conference came to an end.
