Chapter 2821 Strategizing (2)

In a short while, Xia ruofei had completed the task and translated pabulo's posts.

Then, Xia ruofei stopped and turned to ask, "Do you guys think ... I should use my own Weibo account to post it, or find someone else to post it?"

Song Wei pondered for a while and said, "with your current attention and traffic, the effect will be most obvious if you use your own account!" However, this means that you'll have to personally deal with Pablo. So ... I suggest that you don't use your own account! Your account should remain silent at this time. "

"I think the same!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "if that's the case ... Then I'll use my alternate account to post it on Weibo and Tieba!"

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue nodded at the same time.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and opened a Word document. He personally wrote a script, compressed it together with the processed pictures, and sent it to Qin Yanan, who was staying at San Shan.

Then, he called Qin Yanan and briefly explained the situation to her. He told her to post it on Weibo, in the headlines, and in various forums. If it didn't become a hot topic of public opinion, he also authorized Qin Yanan to hire an appropriate "Internet Water Army" to create momentum.

Qin Yanan, he Yu, and the others were not with Xia ruofei during this period of time, so there were very few tasks. Now that Xia ruofei personally assigned tasks, she was naturally very happy to accept them.

Xia ruofei did not need to worry about the rest. Qin Yanan had brought a team of people to serve him, so he could handle it.

After the call, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Wei Wei really does have the feeling of a son and daughter! In the midst of stratagems, victory will be decided from a thousand li away!"

Ling Qingxue also smiled and said, "I usually think that I'm quite smart!" But I can't catch up to Wei Wei in this kind of scheming!"

"What's the meaning of you two singing the same tune?" Song Wei asked. You're saying that I'm good at scheming!"

Ling Qingxue wasn't an idiot, either. Otherwise, she wouldn't have taken up such an important position in the lingji F & B group and prepared to take over Ling Xiaotian's position. However, she and Song Wei grew up in different environments. Song Wei grew up in a family of government officials, so she was naturally more aware of these things than Ling Qingxue. Her thoughts were also clearer.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "we're complimenting you!" I think it would be perfect if Weiwei could be my Assistant to the Chairman after graduation! I don't have to worry about anything in the future!"

"Don't even think about it!" Song Wei replied, "I study archeology. Why would I be the Chairman's assistant?"

“Wei Wei! Wasn’t it normal to not be in the same field? You’re a girl, and you’re going to be digging in the wilderness all day long?” Ling Qingxue smiled and said, “even if you’re willing, RUO Fei can’t agree to it, right?”

“I’m fine!” Xia ruofei shrugged his shoulders and said, “as long as Weiwei likes it, she can work in archeology in the future. It’s fine! Although this profession is very tough and physically exhausting, Wei Wei is a cultivator. Her body is stronger than most boys, so she’ll definitely be fine!”

“That’s true ...” Ling Qingxue said.

The three of them did not have much to do in the afternoon, so they stayed in Xia ruofei’s room and chatted while making tea.

Meanwhile, in China, Qin Yanan and her team had already started to move.

They first bought a new SIM card, then registered a few Weibo accounts, headline accounts, as well as forum accounts such as Tianya and Mao PU. Then, they began to post.

Xia ruofei had finished writing the proposal and the pictures were processed. They just needed to use the ready – made ones, so the posting work was not complicated. Basically, it was just a copy and paste.

Soon, the Chinese fans found that related posts had appeared on all major platforms. Everyone knew that there was a daily sports newspaper in Barcelona. There was a reporter named Pablo who was full of hostility against the Spanish team. He also disdained Xia ruofei and Wu Lei’s wonderful performances and even made a lot of remarks that distorted black and white.

How could this be?

The netizens expressed their strong dissatisfaction.

Barça had a huge fan base in China. However, in this incident, many of them were on Xia ruofei’s side.

In the words of a Barça fan, it was: I’m a Chinese fan first, then a Barça fan. I will not allow anyone to slander our Chinese players, not even Barça, let alone a small reporter in a newspaper that is close to Barça.

At first, everyone only left excited messages on Weibo, Tieba, and forums, but soon, some netizens began to climb over the wall and leave stern reprimands on Pablo’s Facebook.

This was just the spontaneous action of the netizens. Soon, the Spanish and Xia ruofei’s Tieba forums began to call for the netizens to go to Facebook.

You don’t understand Spanish? It didn’t matter. Translation software was very convenient to use now.

She didn’t know how to write a proposal and didn’t know how to express her resentment? It didn’t matter. There were already articles written by the netizens on the Tieba, and they had been translated into Spanish, so they could just copy and paste it.

There were even netizens who came up with a guide to guide everyone step by step into the outer net, register an account, and leave a message ...

There were also netizens who created all kinds of emojis, and naturally, there were all kinds of Spanish words in the script, which were available to the forum users.

Although these Tieba forums were not as influential as Emperor bar, there were still many Chinese fans. Many non – fans were mainly Xia ruofei’s fans and were usually very active in Xia ruofei’s Tieba. Everyone responded and left comments on Pablo’s Facebook.

In Barcelona, Spain, The Sports Daily newspaper.

Pablo was in a very good mood. He returned to his desk with a cup of freshly brewed coffee and leaned back comfortably in his computer chair. After taking a sip of coffee, he grabbed the mouse and got ready to start working.

Before he started writing, he opened his own Facebook page out of habit to see if there were any new comments.

After he returned from the press conference yesterday, he wrote the press release for the newspaper overnight and posted several posts on his Facebook.

The reason why he was in such a good mood today was that a few Spanish fans left comments on his Facebook page, calling him shameless and saying that he was twisting the truth. Without waiting for him to make a move, a large number of bar?a fans in the comment area retorted immediately. These Spanish fans were alone and could not win against so many bar?a fans.

Seeing the fans of both sides start a war of words on their faces, Pablo’s heart was filled with joy!

After he became the chief editor of the program, his development had been lukewarm. His influence on social media was also far from that of those famous reporters.

However, after the few posts were posted yesterday, the number of his fans immediately rose, and many bar?a fans left him messages to express their gratitude. There was even a bar?a first team player who gave him a like.

Pablo could clearly feel that his influence had increased a lot, and he had gained a great deal of affection from the bar?a fans.

The number of fans he gained today was more than what he had gained in the past month.

Pablo couldn’t help but secretly sigh, “as expected, I still have to” freeload “!”

After opening his own Facebook page, Pablo first looked at the latest post. He mainly paid attention to the comments section, wanting to see if there were any new comments. At the same time, he decided to pick out a few to personally reply to.

I’m sure those bar?a fans will be very excited to see my personal reply! Pablo’s mind was running wild.

Pablo’s eyes widened as he scanned through the comments section. His mouth was so wide that a duck’s egg could be stuffed in.

He stared at the number of readers and comments on the page with a look of disbelief ...

Chapter 2822 Fearless (1)

There were almost 500 to 600 comments on these posts about the match between Spain and Barcelona in the past two days. Compared to his previous articles, this was already a hit.

However, pabulo had just seen that the number of comments had soared to more than 3000, and every article was about that number.

Could it have been reposted or reported by some big media?

Pablo's heart was filled with joy. He felt that his luck had really turned for the better. It seemed that when luck came, nothing could stop it! He was on the verge of becoming famous!

He hurriedly opened the post and read it. After reading it, his face suddenly darkened and his head buzzed.

The previous comments under the post could no longer be seen, and they were all squeezed to the bottom by the new comments. And the latest comments almost all had an icon of a Chinese flag, and the content was almost the same. At a glance, it was obvious that they were copied and pasted from several versions.

"I respect the facts! Boycott the unscrupulous reporters!"

"This reporter is a writer raised by bar?a. There has always been no limit to how much he can criticize the Spanish team! It's not the first time nokapu has treated the away team this way. This is too shameless!"

"Barca's dogs are just barking! Even the bar?a officials are too embarrassed to come out and deny it. You're the only one barking here, a little reporter!"

In addition to these comments from the same version, there were also many netizens who replied to the emoji package. It was obviously an organized online operation.

After reading a few messages, Pablo couldn't help but tremble.

However, he wasn't just angry. Although he was angry at first, after calming down a little, he felt that this might not be a bad thing.

In any case, the thousands of comments that had appeared in the past few hours had objectively increased his popularity by a large margin. Even if these comments were all scolding him, so what? He didn't feel any pain, and the Chinese netizens who were thousands of miles away could only scold him through the screen. There was no other way.

Pablo was in the news industry, and he knew that this matter would soon be discovered by the official media. If they reported it, the popularity would not only spread on social media.

The heavens are really helping me! Pablo smugly said in his heart.

Then he pulled out the keyboard and immediately began to write a new post on Facebook.

“Today, I suffered the most large – scale cyber violence in my career. I have enough evidence to prove that these people who insulted me on Facebook are all from China. Although I’m only describing the facts objectively, they may feel that their idol has been offended, so they formed groups and insulted me in a very ungentlemanly way! We support the freedom of speech, but we firmly oppose personal attacks! “I would like to make it clear once again that I am responsible for every statement I make. I am merely stating the facts! This was the most basic conduct of a journalist! Those Chinese who doubted me, please show me the evidence. As long as you can prove that the Spanish team really encountered what Ruby said, I am willing to apologize!”

Pablo looked through his post and whistled in satisfaction before posting it.

A female colleague at the desk next to him glanced at him and said with a smile, “Pablo, it looks like you’re in a good mood! Did something good happen?”

Pablo laughed and said, “Daisy!” If you’re willing to have dinner with me, I’ll be in a better mood!”

Daisy chuckled and said, “please ... That would make my mood very bad! So, forget it!”

The reporters at the nearby tables couldn’t help but laugh. Pablo’s expression froze as he rubbed his nose awkwardly and shrugged. “Alright then! I hope you’ll accept my invitation next time!”

Pablo wasn’t happy, but he still maintained his gentlemanly demeanor.

He thought to himself, ‘Daisy, you’re only pretty in the office, but compared to those hot chicks outside, you’re still far from it!’ After I become famous, what woman can I not get? When the time comes, don’t come looking for me! Hmph!

After Xia ruofei handed the task to Qin Yanan, he did not pay any more attention to this matter. Meanwhile, Qin Yanan’s team in China had been monitoring online public opinion.

Originally, Qin Yanan wanted to arrange for some people to guide them. If necessary, according to Xia ruofei’s instructions, he would find some Internet Water Army teams under the name of public relations companies to add fuel to the fire on the internet.

However, she soon found that there was no need for this at all. The netizens were excited, and there was no need to add oil to the fire. Everyone had already taken action spontaneously.

As a result, Qin Yanan turned her attention to overseas, including Pablo’s Facebook, as well as the mainstream media and online forums in Spain. She had arranged for people to monitor public opinion.

The Chinese netizens formed a group to support Pablo, and tens of thousands of comments were left on Facebook in a short time. On average, there were more than 3000 comments under each post, and this news was quickly summarized and sent to Qin Yanan’s desk.

As she looked at the data collected by her team members, she sighed to herself. President Xia’s influence on China’s internet was no less than that of a – list celebrities. As long as it was related to him, there was no lack of popularity.

Chapter 2823 Fearless (2)

The expedition this time was mainly initiated by Tieba, and the main force was the netizens of Xia ruofei's Tieba. Of course, there were also the netizens of RCD Espanyol and Wu Lei's Tieba, but the proportion of these netizens was not high, and many of them overlapped with the netizens of Xia ruofei's Tieba.

Soon, the team member in charge of monitoring Pablo's Facebook reported that Pablo had updated a post.

The screenshot of the post and the translated content were also sent to Qin Yanan.

Qin Yanan's brows furrowed slightly. After carefully reading through the content, she sent out an order in the group chat. "Immediately post the content of this post on Tieba, Weibo, and all major forums!"

It wasn't that she didn't want to provide more guidance, but she couldn't think of what kind of script to use at the moment. After all, the reason Pablo was still so fearless was that he couldn't produce any evidence to convince the official broadcast team that they were already dismantling the equipment at that time. As for the surveillance footage, it was Camp Nou. Even if there were surveillance footage, would they use it to slap their own faces?

Qin Yanan was very clear that if there was no solid evidence, Pablo could say whatever he wanted. The Spanish side would at most have a war of words with him, and in the end, it would still fulfill his purpose of creating hype.

Qin Yanan guessed that Xia ruofei didn't want Pablo to get what he wanted, so he wanted to borrow the power of the Chinese netizens.

She felt that the only thing she could do now was to use the Chinese netizens' 'sea of people' tactic to suppress all the voices supporting Pablo and control the comments with the Chinese netizens' comments.

As for the copywriting, the wisdom of the netizens was infinite. Instead of letting a few people in the team work behind closed doors, it was better to adopt an open strategy and let the netizens decide for themselves.

The members of the team quickly divided their work and posted the latest post and translated content on major domestic platforms.

Qin Yanan first calculated the time difference. In fact, it was already midnight in China, and it was almost evening in basaros.

She guessed that Xia ruofei should not be resting so early, so she picked up the phone on the desk and called him.

Xia ruofei was eating in the restaurant of the hotel.

Zhao Zhenghao took the earliest flight back to China in the afternoon. He had gained a lot from his meeting with Xia ruofei. He needed to go back and implement the consensus they had reached after the discussion. He also needed to talk to Lippi's team in person and try to make Lippi accept it happily. This time, he had brought a lot of video recordings of Xia ruofei playing football. With these, he was very confident. Although Lippi was a big-name coach, in the football desert of China, the sudden appearance of such a talented player was definitely a key figure that could greatly alleviate the situation of “cooking without rice.” Lippi would definitely put down his reservations for such a special talent.

Although Zhao Zhenghao had gone back, Zhou leiyun was still in Spain. Hence, he came over to have dinner with Xia ruofei and the other two.

As long as Xia ruofei was in Spain Zhou leiyun would take good care of him. If he was in Barcelona, he would try his best to be present for every meal, and he would even lower himself.

Just as everyone was eating and chatting, Xia ruofei received a call from Qin Yanan.

He took a look at the caller ID and saw that it was the company’s landline number, so he didn’t avoid everyone to answer the phone. He just greeted everyone and sat in his seat to answer the phone.

“Yanan!” Xia ruofei said indifferently, “what’s the matter?”

“Director Xia,” Qin Yanan said respectfully, “we’ve completed the task you’ve asked us to do. We’re here to report the latest progress to you!”

“Go ahead,” Xia ruofei said.

Hence, Qin Yanan reported to Xia ruofei everything that she had done after accepting the task, including the reactions of the netizens in Huaxia and the situation of the Tieba forum organizing the netizens ‘expedition.

After Xia ruofei heard Qin Yanan’s report on the comments on Facebook, he smiled and said, “Well done! Yanan, it’s almost midnight in China now! You’ve all worked hard!”

“It’s what we should do!” Qin Yanan quickly said, “director Xia, there’s a new situation. First of all, we found that some Spain media have noticed the situation with Pablo’s Facebook. Some media have already begun reporting on this matter. I will send the summarized public opinion analysis report to your email later. “There’s also another thing. Pablo has posted a thread claiming that he’s been subjected to cyberbullying. He’s scornful of the Chinese netizens ‘expedition and even clamored for everyone to produce evidence. He said that if there’s any evidence, he’ll apologize immediately. That’s the general content of the thread. ”

Xia ruofei said with great interest, “Oh?” This guy must have thought that he had picked up a treasure! This righteous post is most likely trying to stir up public opinion!”

Qin Yanan said awkwardly, “In fact, the Chinese netizens have objectively helped him to hype up the matter. All we can do is to group up and condemn him, especially the post that deliberately belittled you and Wu Lei. Everyone was filled with righteous indignation when they read it. That post also has the most comments because everyone has seen your and Wu Lei’s performance. It’s the easiest to refute. As for the lights – off and water – spraying incident, there’s no evidence at the moment. This is also the main reason Pablo is so happy right now. ”

“Then let him jump around first!” Xia ruofei said in a relaxed manner, “the more you jump, the more pain you’ll feel when you fall!”

“Understood!” Qin Yanan said, “I’ve already asked someone to send screenshots of the latest posts to the domestic forum. We’ve also arranged for people to take screenshots and translate some of the media articles that are obviously biased toward Barcelona. We'll gradually push them to the domestic internet in the future."

"Very good!" Xia ruofei said, "but everyone has worked hard today. Let's go back and rest. We'll continue tomorrow!"

Public opinion needed time to ferment. From Xia ruofei's point of view, it was still a little short. All the evil people had not yet emerged. Besides, he had solid evidence in his hands, so he was naturally sitting on the fishing platform.

"Well ... It's the peak time for internet access in Spain. I think it's better to keep a close eye on it." Qin Yanan said, "we can adjust our schedule. When it's late at night in Spain, everyone can go and rest."

"There's no need for that!" Xia ruofei said, "just arrange for one or two people to take turns on duty. The rest of you can go and rest!"

"...Alright!" Qin Yanan said, "I'll do it now!"

After hanging up the phone, Qin Yanan informed everyone in the group chat to finish up their work as soon as possible. Then, she would get off work and rest. She decided to personally keep an eye on things tonight, so she stayed in the office for the night.

On the Spain side, Xia ruofei had just put his phone back into his pocket when Song Wei asked, "RUO Fei, what's the situation?"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "our Chinese netizens are really awesome!" The netizens on Tieba had already formed a group to go out! Pablo's Facebook is filled with messages from our Chinese netizens!"

Ling Qingxue said happily, "I knew it!" There's nothing else in China but a lot of people!"

Zhou leiyun, who was listening by the side, was completely confused. He could not help but ask, "President Xia, what's the situation?"

Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "director Zhou, haven't you been paying attention to the situation on the internet these two days?" There was a Spain reporter on Facebook who was being sarcastic, hinting that Ruby was too smug and said that the water spray incident was a complete lie. He also greatly disparaged Wu Lei and me, saying that our skills were not good at all, that we were lucky to score goals, and that even joining the Spanish team was a means of capital manipulation ..."

"There's such a thing? I've heard from my subordinates that some media reports in the gatai region are not very objective and are more biased towards bar?a. But these media are very biased and I'm used to it. " Zhou leiyun said, "I didn't expect there to be such a comment! I'll get the club's press officer to handle it immediately!"

Chapter 2824 Continuous fermentation_

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said with a smile, "Director Zhou, I think the club has noticed this public opinion, but it's not a big deal, so they haven't reported it to you yet. Even as a leader, you can't take care of everything. Look at me, I basically don't interfere with the company's specific Affairs!"

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue couldn't help but burst out laughing. Ling Qingxue even chuckled and said, "This is the first time I've seen someone talk about slacking off in such a fresh and refined way!"

Zhou leiyun could not help but chuckle as well. "I'm born to work hard. I don't have such good fortune like you, President Xia!"

However, he still accepted Xia ruofei's suggestion and dismissed the idea of calling the club's press officer. Although Zhou leiyun claimed that he had a hard life, that was directed at the entire company. Although the Spanish club had a special strategic position in the company, it was only a small part of his business.

Furthermore, Zhou leiyun had never interfered with the club's operations, including the manager's tactical arrangements. It was not easy for Chinese people to run a Football Club in Europe and get the recognition of the local players and fans. If they still gave orders about the operation of the club, it would be easier to arouse the disgust of the locals.

Of course, due to the addition of Xia ruofei and Wu Lei, as well as their outstanding performance in the game, the Spanish players and fans had no resistance to the change of their boss to a Chinese.

In the world of football, strength spoke for itself.

Zhou leiyun could not help but ask, "Director Xia, I heard you on the phone just now. It seems that you have arranged for people to follow up on this matter. Many Chinese netizens have been mobilized?"

Xia ruofei laughed and pointed at Song Wei, "This was our female Zhuge's idea! We felt that if the club or the player himself came out to refute the reporter's remarks, it would be a bit too much of an honor for him. Objectively, it would also cooperate with his hype, so we finally decided to mobilize the power of netizens and translated his Facebook post screenshots and posted them on major domestic platforms. Sure enough, the netizens spontaneously formed a group to climb over the wall and attack him!"

"There's such a thing!" Zhou leiyun said in surprise.

"Pablo's Facebook has been taken over by Chinese netizens!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "nowadays, there are a large number of Chinese netizens flooding into his Facebook to leave messages. However, this guy is quite thick – skinned. He's being scolded by so many people and he's still feeling smug, thinking that he's going to be famous ..."

Xia ruofei repeated what Qin Yanan had just reported to him to Zhou leiyun, then said, "He's jumping around happily now. Maybe he thinks this is a chance to stand out! However, the fate of this kind of clown is destined. The more he jumps, the more painful it will be when he falls!"

Zhou leiyun furrowed his brows. After a moment of silence, he said, "President Xia, I think the club can't keep silent at this time. We have to make our own voice, or what will the fans think? Even if it's going to increase this reporter's popularity, he has to make a sound!"

"Of course!" Xia ruofei said, "however, as the club chairman, you don't have to personally interfere in such a matter. If the club managers can't even see this, it means that they are not qualified. If they need to be replaced, then so be it! Let's just treat this public opinion incident as a test."

Zhou leiyun slowly nodded his head and said, ""You're right, President Xia!"

Although the public opinion had developed very quickly and Pablo was in a state of excitement, it was not a big deal to Xia ruofei and Zhou leiyun. Hence, after exchanging their opinions, they did not talk about it anymore.

Very quickly, everyone finished their dinner. Xia ruofei, Song Wei, and Ling Qingxue returned to their rooms to rest. Zhou leiyun also returned to his Manor in the wealthy district of Barcelona. Everyone agreed to visit a few of the attractions in Barcelona the next day. After all, it was Song Wei and Ling Qingxue's first time Spain. There were many places that they had not been to yet.

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue still stayed in the same room. The two girls seemed to have reached a tacit understanding and did not stay alone with Xia ruofei. Staying in the same room could improve their relationship and at the same time, it was a form of supervision.

Naturally, Xia ruofei could only return to his room in disappointment.

He took out a piece of origin crystal from the space, sat cross – legged on the bed, and began to cultivate.

After the 'great Dao chant' began to operate, his true Qi was constantly transformed into vital Qi. Now, most of the true Qi in his body had already been transformed into vital Qi, and the remaining small part was also completing the transformation at a very fast speed.

Once all the genuine Qi was transformed into primordial Qi, a golden core cyclone would be formed in the dantian, and a golden core would gradually be condensed.

The formation of a cyclone marked the true step of a cultivator into the Golden core stage.

Luo Qingfeng, the soul slave that Xia ruofei had tamed, was actually at this stage.

As long as a cultivator could cultivate a golden core Qi cyclone, the strength of the cultivator would immediately increase by a large margin. Basically, unless the cultivator in the Qi refining stage was particularly heaven – defying, it was impossible for them to be the opponent of a cultivator in the Golden core Qi cyclone stage.

Chapter 2825 Continuous fermentation_

Even someone as strong as Xia ruofei would not have been able to withstand Luo Qingfeng's attacks head – on if not for the help of the formation.

Xia ruofei calmly circulated the great Dao technique and felt his own progress.

After cultivating for more than three hours, he finally put away the technique, let out a long breath of turbid air, and then put the origin crystal into the space.

This time, he had converted about half of his true Qi. Now, the true Qi in his body only accounted for about five to six percent. More than ninety percent of his true Qi had been converted into Yuan Qi.

If he cultivated day and night, he might be able to complete the transformation in one or two days.

However, Xia ruofei was not in a rush. He maintained a suitable cultivation intensity so that his body could get used to the difference between genuine Qi and Yuan Qi.

The level of the “great Dao Arts” was too high, so the speed of true energy transformation was far faster than that of ordinary cultivation techniques. This was also the reason why Luo Qingfeng had to spend several years to complete the transformation, while Xia ruofei only needed ten to twenty days.

However, it was not easy for the body to adapt to the changes in the body with such a fast transformation speed. That was why Xia ruofei did not convert all his genuine Qi in one go. Instead, he maintained a relatively stable cultivation frequency.

Even so, he could already feel the subtle changes in his dantian.

When the true Qi was about to be completely transformed, in fact, the Golden core cyclone had already begun to slowly form in the dantian.

At this stage, Xia ruofei was even more cautious. He had to build a solid foundation to prevent any problems from arising.

After finishing his cultivation, Xia ruofei saw that it was almost midnight. He got up and went to the bathroom to take a shower. Then, he went to his desk and turned on his computer. He wanted to see if the Spain media had any reports on Pablo’s Facebook before going to bed.

Xia ruofei opened the official website of the local major sports media and saw that The Sports Daily reported on this matter in a more prominent position. At the same time, several sports media in catarodia followed up with the report. Their Reporting Standards were similar. They basically reported from the perspective of Spain reporters suffering from cyberbullying by Chinese netizens. As Pablo’s owner, The Sports Daily reported, The post that had been posted after the original photo had been transferred to Pablo was clearly trying to portray Pablo as a fearless warrior.

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but sneer. As expected, with the passage of time, all the evil spirits had started to jump out. Now, it was like a group of demons dancing wildly.

However, he didn’t care about that. His confidence came from the video that Song Wei had shot.

Perhaps it was destined. The video shot by Song Wei not only clearly recorded the whole event, but also the background of the Barcelona fans who were leaving, as well as the final scores of the two teams, the current time, and so on on the working scoreboard. These key pieces of information were enough to prove who was lying.

And from another perspective, it also reflected the absurdity of the matter. The scoreboard had not been closed yet, and the fans were still leaving, which meant that it was not too long before the end of the game. Camp Nou had actually turned on the spray system while the away players were still on the field. It was really petty.

Xia ruofei opened Pablo’s Facebook page and took a look. As expected, Pablo’s new post was also taken over by angry Chinese netizens. The post was filled with attacks from Chinese netizens.

Pablo was still unafraid of the Chinese netizens’ comments. He was probably laughing in secret!

Xia ruofei smiled, turned off the computer, and went back to his bedroom to sleep.

The next day, Xia ruofei brought Song Wei and Ling Qingxue to continue their tour of Barcelona with Zhou leiyun.

At this time, the team had already ended their day's holiday. Everyone resumed their daily training and advanced into the final stage of the league tournament. Every game was crucial, especially for teams like Espanyol and Espanyol, who had no worries about staying in the league but had a chance to fight for the European competition. They had to do their best to grab points in every round of the game. Therefore, although the victory over Espanyol bar?a made the whole Espanyol club, including the fans, ecstatic, they still had to calm down quickly. He devoted himself to the preparation training and played well in every game that followed.

Naturally, Xia ruofei would not participate in the team's training. He did not need to participate in training at all.

Xia ruofei, Song Wei, and Ling Qingxue were strolling in guere Park. The environment here was very beautiful, and there was a good viewing angle. They could see the sunset in the Mediterranean Sea. Of course, it was still too early for the sun to set.

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue went to buy drinks. They insisted that Xia ruofei should not go abroad with Wanwan. Even if they did not understand the language, a Xunfei translator was enough to meet their daily communication needs.

Xia ruofei also knew their strength and didn't need to worry about them being in any danger, so he agreed with a smile.

He and Zhou leiyun sat on the stone bench to rest. He took out his phone to browse the news.

The first thing that Xia ruofei noticed was a statement on the Espanyol club's official website. The content of the statement was directed at Pablo's comments about Espanyol these few days.

The club severely condemned Pablo's false remarks in a statement, saying that Xia ruofei and Wu Lei were players brought in by the team out of tactical considerations and had nothing to do with commercial operations. The performance of the two had proven this point and had won over all the Spanish fans. The statement once again expressed their support for Ruby. In response to Ruby's remarks at the press conference, the Spanish club officially stated that the players had been treated very badly in nocape. Ruby did not exaggerate in any way. Pablo clearly knew the truth, but he distorted the truth, which violated the most basic professional ethics of the news.

At the end of the statement, the Spanish club expressed that they reserved the right to pursue legal responsibility and urged Pablo to immediately apologize sincerely for his false remarks.

Xia ruofei showed Zhou leiyun his phone screen and smiled."Director Zhou, the club has already responded. Take a look!"

Zhou leiyun shot a glance at him, then laughed bitterly."I don't understand Spanish! President Xia, please tell me!"

Zhou leiyun had been accompanying Xia ruofei for the past two days. He did not even bring along an assistant or a translator. Naturally, he did not know Spanish.

Actually, Zhou leiyun was quite envious of Xia ruofei. His ability to learn languages was too strong.

Xia ruofei laughed as he translated the Espanyol club's statement for Zhou leiyun to hear. He then said, ""I think they did a good job! He has a good grasp of the timing. "

Zhou leiyun slowly nodded and said, ""It's a bit of a fuss to hold a press conference for such a small character. If we don't respond, it will show that the club doesn't have the confidence. It might even be interpreted by the outside world as a conflict between the club and Ruby, you, and Wu Lei. So, releasing such a statement on the official website is a more appropriate way to deal with it."

Following that, Zhou leiyun furrowed his brows and said, "But this doesn't really hurt Pablo!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "don't worry!" The good show is yet to come!"

After that, Xia ruofei switched to the Facebook APP and opened Pablo's Facebook page. He found that Pablo had indeed updated.

Pablo's popularity on his face was still rising. Not only were there a large number of Chinese netizens coming to criticize him, but there were also many Spain netizens who came to watch because of the daily report. This made Pablo feel like he was floating in the clouds for the past two days. It could be said that he was very proud.

This time, Pablo had updated a video.

Xia ruofei and Zhou leiyun looked at each other and pressed the play button. They wanted to see what Pablo had updated.

Chapter 2826 Courting death (1)

The video that Pablo had just uploaded wasn't long. It was just a simple interview.

In the video, Pablo and a Bassa fan were sitting in a cafe. Pablo first introduced to the camera, ""This is Mr. Meyers, an annual ticket member of bar?a. He was in the stands during the home game against RCD Espanyol the day before yesterday. Today, I would like to interview him on some of the hot topics of controversy in the past two days."

Pablo turned to the big – bellied Mayers and asked with a smile, ""Mr. Mayers, can you tell everyone what you saw after the game ended the day before yesterday?"

Meyers nodded and said, "the result of that game was frustrating. When the final whistle was blown, a lot of fans immediately left the stadium." However, a few of my friends and I had to clean up the banners and flags that we brought into the arena, so we stayed behind. "

Pablo said, "Oh? So you saw everything that happened after the match?"

"Yes!" Mayes replied.

"What Do You See?"

"Bar?a's players were very sad to be killed at the last moment. They didn't even give up and hurriedly left through the players' passageway. But we all understand the players' feelings and are not dissatisfied with it ... The Spanish players were like poor people who suddenly picked up a hundred million euros.

They ran all over the field and celebrated without restraint. Some players even made provocative gestures to the fans in the home stands who had not left. In short, he had the face of a villain! The fans who stayed behind naturally did not go easy on them and gave them a lot of boos!"

"That's what a small ball game looks like," Pablo shrugged and said. "Because a Lucky Ball beat Barça by luck, they'll probably brag about it for the rest of their lives! This was simply ridiculous in the eyes of the Barça fans, who were used to victory! Mr. Mayers, Espanyol's manager, Ruby, accused Barça's manager after the game, saying that the lights in the stadium were turned off and the water spray system was turned on before they even left the field. Their players were all drenched. Did you see that?"

The fat on Mayers' face jiggled exaggeratedly when he heard that. He shouted, "Do they have persecutory delusions? I didn't see anything like Ruby said! Instead, we saw the Spanish players celebrating wildly on the field and then swaggering out of the field through the players' passageway!"

Pablo revealed a smile and said, "I believe that by this point, everyone already knows the truth of the matter?"

The video came to an abrupt end. Xia Ruofei could not help but look shocked. He could not understand what Pablo was thinking by making this video. At that time, other than the Spanish players and fans, there were also many Barça fans present. These people had seen the whole process of the incident. Was he so confident that no one would stand up to speak?

Zhou Leiyun, on the other hand, was completely dumbfounded. He had no idea what the two of them were talking about.

"President Xia, what did they say?" Zhou Leiyun asked.

Xia Ruofei translated their conversation to Zhou Leiyun with a weird expression, then asked, "Chief Zhou, what do you think this guy is thinking? It had happened in front of so many people, how could he turn black into white? At least there were some speculations in the previous comments. At most, people could only accuse him of sitting on a crooked seat. Now that he has made such a video, he must be crazy!"

Zhou Leiyun pursed his lips and said, "he's gone crazy from wanting to be famous!" Moreover, this B * star was in the media industry, so he knew the advantage of having the right to speak in the process of spreading the news. I'll analyze it for you! First of all, this was Barça's home ground. Most of the staff at the venue would not come out to tear down the stage, and the Barça fans would probably not do so! As for the Spanish fans, they are limited by the number of tickets, so there are not many of them at the scene. These people are ordinary fans. Even if they stand up to refute, their voices will be very small. Perhaps the voices of their refusals will be directly drowned out by the ocean of the internet. And how can you prove that you were there at the time?"

Zhou Leiyun paused for a moment before he continued, "And the Spanish players. You're the parties involved. Are you going to come out and testify for yourself? And if the star players stood up, wouldn't they cooperate with him to hype up the show? To put it bluntly, this grandson is barefooted and not afraid of wearing shoes. "

Xia Ruofei nodded thoughtfully and said, "I'm starting to admire this guy. At least he's bold and black-hearted enough!"

Zhou leiyun laughed heartily. "Don't tell me that you're starting to appreciate this guy?" he asked.

At that moment, Song Wei and Ling Qingxue walked back. Ling Qingxue smiled and asked, "What are you two talking about? You're so happy!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "we're talking about the reporter from The Sports Daily." This guy is really courting death!"

After that, Xia ruofei told them about Pablo's interview. Song Wei and Ling Qingxue were dumbfounded. They did not expect such a thing to happen.

Song Wei could not hide the smile on her face and said, "Ruofei, he can't turn back now! The time is ripe!"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "almost, but I want to wait for ... Half a day!" He just posted this video, so it's not influential enough. The mainstream media hasn't reposted it yet, so let him be high for a while longer!"

Chapter 2827 Courting death (2)

"Are you trying to kill him with a single blow?" Song Wei pursed her lips and smiled.

"What else? Are you keeping it for the new year?" Xia ruofei pouted and said.

"What?" Zhou leiyun was confused. "Director Xia, it sounds like you still have some big news that you haven't released yet!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "general manager Zhou, just wait and see!" Speaking of which ... It seemed that Barca had not made a sound yet, right? I'm a little disappointed! Such a loyal dog, he should at least show his support!"

"That's enough ..." Ling Qingxue said, "there are a lot of Barça fans in the country, and they must be feeling conflicted right now!" I think it's good for Barcelona to remain silent!"

Xia ruofei stood up and said, "if they can hold it in, then they're lucky!" Otherwise, the biggest laughing stock of the year would be born! Let's go! Back to the hotel! We're not going anywhere in the afternoon. We'll just stay in the hotel and read the news!"

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue looked at each other. They knew that Xia ruofei was about to release the video in his hands. They could not help but look excited.

The clown Pablo had been jumping up and down for the past two days, and the two of them were already sick of him. However, Xia ruofei wanted the matter to blow up and refused to release the video. The two of them could only wait.

Zhou leiyun sent Xia ruofei and the other two back to the hotel and had lunch with them.

Originally, Xia ruofei and the other two had no plans to travel. Zhou leiyun should have left after dinner, but he refused to leave today. His curiosity had been piqued.

Zhou leiyun said, "director Xia, I'll be waiting with you in the hotel to read the news this afternoon!" This ... Won't disturb you, will it?"

Xia ruofei looked nonchalant and said, ""Anything! As long as director Zhou doesn't feel bored!"

Anyway, even if Zhou leiyun was not here, he could not do anything. He had two beautiful girlfriends, but he could only look at them and not touch them. Xia ruofei was extremely depressed.

"I won 't! I won 't!" Zhou leiyun quickly said, "I happen to have some good tea in my car! I'll get someone to bring it over. Let's make tea and chat while tracking the progress of this matter!"

With that, Zhou leiyun took out his phone and prepared to call the driver.

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "director Zhou!" There was no need for tea! What kind of good tea do you have? Can it be better than the Da Hong Pao that I'm wearing?"

Zhou leiyun was stunned for a moment, but he quickly came to his senses and said, ""Yes, yes, yes! I'm ... A little confused! How could my tea be better than your Da Hong Pao? It seems like I'm in for a treat again!"

It was only after Xia ruofei's half – joking reminder that Zhou leiyun remembered that Xia ruofei's company was dealing in tea leaves. Furthermore, Taoyuan Da Hong Pao's reputation on the internet was also explosive. Even if his tea leaves were better than Xia ruofei 's, he could not bring it out to ruin his reputation!

Moreover, it was possible that his tea leaves were more expensive than Xia ruofei's Da Hong Pao. However, in terms of taste, it was impossible to compare.

Xia ruofei laughed and waved his hand. "I'm just joking! I just don't think it's necessary to go through so much trouble ... Well, since everyone's done eating, why don't we ... Go upstairs to our rooms?"

"Alright! I'll listen to you!" Zhou leiyun said.

Hence, the group of them took the elevator to the floor where Xia ruofei and the other two were staying. Song Wei and Ling Qingxue went back to their rooms to take a shower. After all, they had been out for half a day. Xia ruofei called Zhou leiyun to his room.

Xia ruofei took out a small box of Da Hong Pao from his luggage. This was the tea tree that he had grown in the spirit map space. It was personally made by Xia Qing and was of a higher quality than the peach Garden Da Hong Pao that was sold in bulk outside.

Zhou leiyun quickly took the initiative to prepare the tea.

Zhou leiyun was a Southerner, and he liked to drink tea very much. He was very skilled at making tea, and as he heated the tea set with hot water, he smiled and said, ""President Xia, it was the wisest decision I've ever made to have you as a shareholder. Not only did you get an investment for the club, but you also got a good player out of nowhere. Now you're even helping to take on the work of crisis public relations ... I'm really ashamed!"

Xia ruofei chuckled. "If this B * stard didn't mock Wu Lei and me, I wouldn't be so serious. It's beneath me to be serious with such a small character!"

"That's right!" Zhou leiyun said, "but this kid is too arrogant! He should be taught a deep lesson!"

Then, Zhou leiyun could not help but ask, ""President Xia, did you get hold of something that could kill this kid in one blow?"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "almost!" But even if it's solid evidence, a war of words is inevitable ... Originally, there wouldn't have been anything, but this guy posted an interview video today. Now, there's a good show to watch!"

"Let me know first!" Zhou leiyun asked impatiently.

"I'll go see if the media has reposted it!" Xia ruofei chuckled as he stood up and walked to the desk. "Call me when the tea is ready!"

"Alright!" "Yes," Zhou leiyun replied. Then, he was stunned for a moment. He smiled bitterly and said, "CEO Xia, you're keeping me in suspense ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and turned on his computer. "Good food is never late!"

Xia ruofei browsed the news for a while and sat down at the coffee table. He chatted with Zhou leiyun. Soon, Song Wei and Ling Qingxue came to Xia ruofei's room. Everyone sat around the coffee table and drank tea. Xia ruofei would occasionally use his phone to browse the news.

Zhou leiyun's heart felt like it was being scratched by a cat, while Xia ruofei watched unhurriedly as Pablo's video was being forwarded by the mainstream Spain media. He also saw that the number of comments on Facebook was also increasing rapidly. The comments were not from Chinese fans, but mainly from Spanish fans.

There was a time difference between China and here. In addition, because most Chinese fans could not directly see the videos on Facebook, they needed someone to transfer the videos back to China with Chinese subtitles, so their reactions were more or less delayed.

Therefore, in less than half a day, the thousands of comments and hundreds of reposts under this post were basically all genuine.

Most of the commenters were basa fans, and many of them accused Ruby of lying. Some said Ruby's accusation was inexplicable, and some wondered if it was because of an unexpected victory that made him a little dizzy.

The official website of The Sports Daily forwarded the interview video immediately and hung it on the first page in an eye – catching position. The news of the latest electronic version of The Sports Daily was also placed on the second page, which was considered a very important position. The newspaper editor added a picture of Pinocchio's long nose, which was self – evident.

When the sky outside gradually darkened, Xia ruofei stood up and smiled. ""Let's go! Let's go join in the fun!"

Song Wei, Ling Qingxue, and Zhou leiyun were all standing behind Xia ruofei. They watched as Xia ruofei transferred the video taken by Song Wei to his computer and used a new Facebook account to post it. The title was a few simple words: "do you feel ashamed?"

Zhou leiyun finally saw the video that Xia ruofei had been holding in his hand. This time, he did not need to translate it to understand it.

"President Xia, you have such clear evidence in your hands, but you can actually hold it in and not release it!" Zhou leiyun laughed and said, "I'm also in awe of you!"

"That's why timing is very important!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

After the video was successfully posted, Xia ruofei opened his email and wrote an email with a few screenshots of the video and a link to the newly posted video. Then, he found seven or eight email addresses in his email address book and sent it out.

Then, Xia ruofei pushed the keyboard and said with a smile, "Let's go! It's time for dinner!"

"That ... That's it?" Zhou leiyun asked, stunned.

Chapter 2828 Throwing a solid hammer (1)

Xia ruofei shrugged and asked, "Otherwise? This is good enough!"

Zhou leiyun did not know whether to laugh or cry. "President Xia, I see that your Facebook account is newly applied, right? There weren't many fans or followers, so it was useless to just post this video! There aren't many people who will see it!"

At this point, Zhou leiyun took out his phone and said, "I think we should inform the club and put this video on the club's official website! Also, we have a few media outlets that we're on good terms with, so ask them to help repost it!"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said with a smile, "Chief Zhou, there's no need! The reason why I chose to use my alternate account to post this video is because I don't want the club to use its official name. As for finding other media to repost it, unless it's absolutely necessary, I don't want to leave behind any traces of manipulation."

"But ..."

"Director Zhou, didn't you see the few emails I sent?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"I saw it! What's the use of a few emails?" Zhou leiyun asked, "are you submitting a draft to the media? For this kind of unknown email, the other party might not even look at it and just throw it into the trash!"

"That will depend on which media it is sent to!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "the few emails I sent just now were for Maca news and as news. General manager Zhou, do you understand?"

"What?" Zhou leiyun was slightly taken aback. "These are all media outlets that are closer to Royal Horse ... CEO Xia, I think I understand what you mean ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "that's good!" Let's go! Let's go down for dinner!"

"Alright!" Zhou leiyun nodded.

The group walked out of Xia ruofei's room. Ling Qingxue and Song Wei followed behind Xia ruofei. Ling Qingxue gently nudged Song Wei's arm and asked in a low voice, "Weiwei, what did RUO Fei mean by sending the email to the media?"

Song Wei smiled and said, "The Spain sports media generally have an obvious bias. Just now, Ruofei mentioned Maca and as, both of which are relatively concerned about Real Madrid. They are not so friendly to Barça. And the relationship between the two media outlets is quite tense because of their different standpoints and competition between their peers. Ruofei has given them such good material so that they can severely humiliate and criticize sports daily. They could also stand on the moral high ground and criticize Barça, which was definitely what they wanted! That's why Ruofei isn't worried that these mails will sink into the ocean!"

Ling Qingxue understood the complicated relationship between the media. She smiled and nodded. "The enemy of my enemy is my friend!"

"That's more or less what it means!" Song Wei said with a smile, "but in fact, Barça is not very interested in the teams in Catalonia, including Espanyol, who is often criticized by them. However, they could still cooperate with them on this matter. There's no such thing as an eternal enemy or an eternal friend. There's only eternal profit!"

"Ruofei really has a lot of ideas!" Ling Qingxue chuckled.

Although the two of them had lowered their voices, Xia Ruofei was not far from them. With his hearing, he could hear their conversation clearly.

He chuckled as he turned around and said, "In fact, I not only sent emails to a few media outlets that were close to Barcelona, but I also copied a letter to deportamento. I believe they will be interested!"

"World sports news?" Song Wei raised her eyebrows slightly and mumbled to herself, "if I remember correctly, this media company should be on Barça's side ..."

"That's right!" Xia Ruofei smiled and said, "but it's also because of this that the competition between them and The Sports Daily is even more intense. This is because they have a very important audience group, which is the Barça fans. On this point, the two audiences overlap, which means that the competition between the two media outlets is more direct. Therefore, they should be very interested in this video!"

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei looked at each other and said in unison, "Black – bellied!"

"Weiwei, I think we should stay away from this guy in the future!" Ling Qingxue said.

"That makes sense!" Song Wei agreed.

Xia Ruofei couldn't help but be confused ...

After dinner, Zhou lei Yun still did not want to go back. He said that he wanted to stay and follow up on the next step.

However, he was quickly persuaded by Xia Ruofei to go back. The reason was simple. Even if the media editors received the email and immediately paid attention to it, they needed time to write the manuscript and review the manuscript. It was still a question whether the video tonight would appear on these media websites.

Moreover, it would take time for the public opinion to ferment. There was no point in waiting here tonight.

After Zhou leiyun heard this, he accepted Xia ruofei's suggestion and returned to his Manor.

However, on the way back, he called his assistant during his time in Spain and asked him to pay attention to the websites of Maca, as, and world Sports. If there was any news about Espanyol, he had to report it to him immediately.

After Xia ruofei and the other two finished their meal, they went for a walk near the hotel. This was the Laocheng District of Barcelona, and the architectural style was very distinctive. The pace of life here was not fast either, so it was quite a unique experience to walk on the streets.

Chapter 2829 Throwing out the real hammer (2)

After returning to the hotel, the three of them went back to their rooms to rest.

Xia ruofei did not lie to Zhou leiyun. After he sent the email, he did not turn on his computer again. At this time, "letting the public opinion fly" was undoubtedly the best choice.

He still used origin crystals to practice the "great Dao execution" for a while, and then went to bed early to rest.

Madrid, Spain's capital, the headquarters of Maca.

Fernandes, the editor on duty, returned to his desk with a cup of coffee. He took a sip of the coffee, then put the cup on the table and grabbed the mouse to start working.

The work of an editor on duty was actually very boring. A professional football media outlet like Maca had a large number of reporters interviewing outside every day, especially on match days. The articles written by these reporters after the interviews would be uploaded to an internal platform. The editor on duty had to review and check the manuscripts one by one, then label them according to their importance according to his own judgment, and inform the editor – in – chief in charge of this internal platform to review them for the second time.

To put it bluntly, the work of the editor on duty was actually to review the manuscript.

Of course, in addition to reviewing manuscripts, there were also a lot of work emails in the editorial department. The newspaper often received some news leaks in the mailbox, which also needed the editor on duty to check in time.

Today wasn't the match day, so there weren't many drafts on the platform.

Fernandes first opened the newspaper's public mailbox. Every time he opened the mailbox, there would be a lot of unread emails, most of which were of little value, and a considerable number were even advertising emails.

Fernandes opened the emails one after another. Some of them were labeled as advertising emails. The next email from the same email address would be classified as "advertising email" and would not appear in the mailbox.

When it came to e – mails that obviously didn't match the news, Fernandez simply marked them as read and ignored them. If Yingying replied to every e – mail seriously, then the editor on duty wouldn't have to do any other work. She'd be busy replying to emails during work hours until she got off work.

At this time, an email titled "scandal of famous Catalan media< daily sports daily>" caught fernández's attention.

Although he had seen this type of headline party email countless times, the title of the email mentioned Catalonia and The Sports Daily, which immediately increased his interest.

As a senior editor who had been working for Maca since he graduated from school, Real Madrid's genes flowed in fernández's blood. He had a natural hostility toward the teams and media in Catalan.

With a hint of anticipation, he opened the email and muttered to himself, ""I hope it's not a prank! Life was boring enough! It's best to give me a little surprise!"

The email was not long, only a few words: The complete video has been released. Please click on the link.

There was a link to the address.

In addition, there were several screenshots of the video in the email.

Fernandes clicked on the picture and looked at it on the whole screen. He suddenly narrowed his eyes and became even more curious.

"Sports daily" Pablo had been very popular on Facebook for the past few days. He was a little well – known in the sports media circle. This time, he had posted many articles to criticize the Spanish clubs, accusing Ruby of being a liar and mocking Xia ruofei and Wu Lei's goals for being dogshit. They were not worthy of La Liga at all. In short, he was criticizing the sky, earth, and air.

Fernandes had heard about Ruby's criticism of Camp Nou's petty behavior, as well as Pablo's several Facebook posts to refute Ruby. He also knew that the football circle was only so big, and everyone basically knew what was going on in the industry.

Today, however, Fernandes saw a screenshot of a video that was completely contrary to Pablo's statement.

The screenshots that Xia ruofei had chosen were also very representative. There was the moment when the water spray system was suddenly activated, the scene of the Spanish players being caught off guard and dodging in panic, as well as the scattered Barcelona fans in the opposite stands and the scoreboard in the background.

Two or three screenshots had fully reflected the real situation of the whole thing.

Fernández thought of an interview video that Pablo had released that day. In the video, the so – called bars annual ticket member had vowed that there was no water spraying on the field at all. He also said that he had seen the Spanish players swagger into the players 'passageway after their celebration.

Fernandes could not help but show a playful smile.

According to that bar? a fan, meyes, the Spanish players were not drenched at all. It was impossible for them to not go back to the locker room to change after entering the players 'passageway, but run back to the field to wait for the water to spray out!

However, Ruby said that every Espanyol player had become a drenched chicken.

These were two completely contradictory statements, and one of them must have lied.

From the screenshots, it was obvious that the fan, Meyers, had lied.

And why did Mayers lie through his teeth? And the one interviewing him had to be Pablo, who had been using this matter to beat up the Spanish clubs for the past two days. Fernández, a veteran of the media industry, knew all too well about the dirty tricks of the press. He could even imagine the dirty deal behind this.

Fernandes realized that this was a good opportunity to damage the reputation of The Sports Daily. As for Pablo, as long as the situation was proven to be true, one could only imagine what would happen to him. A so – called reporter with a broken reputation would basically be unable to continue in this line of work.

Fernandes was filled with anticipation for the “complete” video in the email. He clicked on the link without hesitation, not caring if it was a fishing document or if the computer would be infected by a Trojan horse after clicking on the link. After all, it was the computer on duty in the editorial department. If it really was a prank, he would just have to reinstall the operating system. There was almost no loss.

Of course, this did not happen.

After Fernandes clicked on the link, the page jumped to a Facebook page.

He didn't care how many people followed this Facebook account or how much content was posted. In fact, this Facebook account only posted one piece of content, which was the video that Song Wei recorded.

Therefore, Fernandes did not need to search for it at all. He saw the video at first sight.

With a hint of excitement, he clicked the play button.

There was a noisy background sound from the slightly, which resounded in the away fans 'area not far from the podium. The Spanish fans had not left the stadium. They were still reveling in the stands at Camp Nou.

Fernandes simply turned it to silent, because he only cared about the content of the picture.

The video played quietly, and Fernandes also stared at the computer screen without moving.

Fernández did not even blink during the whole video. He just sat there without moving, and all his attention was focused on the video.

Fernandes didn't move at all until the end of the video, and the player automatically exited the full – Screen state. He sat there in silence for two or three seconds, and the joy on his face bloomed little by little. In the end, he couldn't help but laugh a few times, which made a female reporter who was working overtime not far away look at him.

Fernandes quickly downloaded the video and then engraved it on the CD.

As an experienced media person, he knew the importance of saving information in time. What if the video posted on Facebook was deleted? If he didn't save it in time, where would he find such explosive news material?

Chapter 2830 Go all out (1)

After the chief editor of Maca saw the video posted by Xia ruofei's alternate account, he made the decision without any hesitation. "Immediately write an article! Attach this video and push it to the first important news on the website's front page! At the same time, synchronize it to the APP and display it at the top!"

Although marca was a traditional media in the truest sense and mainly operated in the vertical field of football, after so many years of development, especially after the rise of the internet, they also followed the trend and withdrew from their own website. In recent years, they launched their own APP and began to involve other sports fields.

Compared to traditional newspapers, websites and apps had an unparalleled time advantage.

Newspapers were limited by their publication time. Even the daily newspapers could only publish one issue a day. If news that happened on the same day was missed, it could only be published in the next issue, which would completely lose the time limit of the news.

However, websites and apps were different. They could be updated in real time.

Therefore, although marca still had many loyal subscribers, more young fans were still used to getting news through the internet. A considerable part of their current user composition came from the internet, and many of them obtained the latest news through mobile apps.

Such explosive news naturally had to be published on websites and apps as soon as possible.

Fernandes quickly said, "understood!" I'll get it done right away!"

As an editor on duty, he naturally had to personally write the article when he encountered this kind of breaking news material. Also, an editor on duty was usually a senior writer. Fernandes often went out to run the news in his early years. Reporters and editors were often in the same industry, so it was not difficult for him to write a press release like today.

"I'll give you half an hour, can you finish it?" the chief editor asked.

Fernandes hesitated for a moment and said, "No problem! I promise to finish it on time!"

The editor – in – chief said, "the informant definitely didn't just send this to our media company, so we have to hurry!" So as not to let his peers beat him to it. I believe that our old rival, as, has also received the news. So ... The first press release doesn't have to be too comprehensive. Just briefly describe what happened, and then hang the video. That's the key!"

“Understood!” Fernandes said.

“After the first draft is sent out, immediately write the second one. First, collect screenshots, videos, and other material related to this time. I’m worried that Pablo will immediately delete his Facebook post if he notices it, so we have to be quick!” The editor – in – chief was very experienced. He instructed, “the comprehensive draft must contain the ins and outs of the whole incident and string them together with a timeline. All the videos, screenshots, and other evidence must be attached, including the speech video of the Spanish manager, Ruby, at the press conference. It must be easy for the audience to see everyone’s performance in this incident!”

“Alright!” Fernandes quickly jotted down the information in his small notebook.

“Hurry up and get it done!” The chief editor said, “I’ll be in the office the whole time. Send me the draft directly to my email after you’re done!”

“Yes, chief editor!” Fernandes quickly jogged back to his desk with his laptop.

He immediately created a new Word document and began to write the manuscript.

Fernandes knew almost everything about the fountain incident. The editor – in – chief asked him to write the first draft as simple as possible, so he didn’t need to look up any information. He just wrote it quickly like a press release.

About 15 minutes later, fernández had finished a simple news article. He quickly checked the typos and corrected a few inaccurate words. Then, he saved the manuscript and sent it to the editor – in – chief via an internal email.

It took Fernandes twenty minutes to complete the task given by the editor – in – chief. He did not leave his desk but reported to the editor – in – chief directly on the phone, telling him that the manuscript had been sent. Then, he immediately began to prepare the material for the second article according to the chief editor’s instructions.

The second article was a comprehensive draft, which required a clear understanding of the timeline of the whole incident, as well as the remarks made by both sides in the past few days. The focus was naturally on the posts and videos posted by Pablo on Facebook, as well as the situation of the reposts by several media outlets that were close to Barca, such as sports daily.

Of course, it was also necessary for the Chinese netizens to spontaneously organize a group to challenge Facebook.

Fernandes kept taking screenshots and saving videos, nervously collecting all the material related to the fountain incident.

Before the work was completed, the editor – in – chief called. He had made some slight changes to the manuscript and sent it back to fernández’s email. He also asked him to publish it as soon as possible.

Fernandes quickly stopped what he was doing, opened his email, and downloaded the draft. Then, he opened the back end of his website and quickly pasted the draft that the editor – in – chief had edited.

Fernandes skillfully reformatted the video and then pasted the most important video into the manuscript editor at the back of the website.

Maca news's website's back – end had just been upgraded this year. It had more functions and was very convenient to operate. For example, Xia ruofei's video was posted on Facebook. When the website reposted the video, they didn't need to download it and upload it to the website server. They only needed to click on the video in the manuscript editor and paste the original video's website address on it. After the video was posted, a video frame would be automatically generated and the Facebook address would be used to upload the video.
