

God tier Farm 2841

Chapter 2841 An unintentional Willow (1)

The group of them chatted and laughed in the training base. Naturally, it was not convenient for Song Wei and Ling Qingxue to enter the team's locker room. They strolled around the base while Xia ruofei and Wu Lei went to the locker room to change into their training uniforms.

Although Xia ruofei did not appear often in Dani Halk base, the first team's locker room always had his own cabinet. In it hung the washed training clothes and the shoes were also neatly arranged so that he could take them out at any time.

The two of them quickly changed their clothes. Wu Lei tied his shoelaces and said, "Brother Xia, after the training ends, can you accompany me to the women's ladder team?"

Although the Spanish clubs could only be regarded as a middle – lower level team in La Liga, their ladder team was still very robust and stronger than many of the giant clubs in China. Espanyol clubs not only had men's football teams and reserves of all ages, but they also had women's football teams, which also had players of all ages.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "what's the situation?" Don't tell me you've hooked up with a female girl? Kid, you have to control yourself! Xiaobei is such a good girl, you can't do anything that will let her down!"

Wu Lei didn't know whether to laugh or cry, "what are you thinking! It was a thirteen – year – old girl! I promised to give her a pair of sneakers!"

"Why did you give her a pair of sneakers out of the blue?" Xia ruofei asked curiously.

He was just joking just now. Wu Lei and his wife were very loving, and the two even had a pair of children. Their feelings were unbreakable. How could he really seduce the female football team? And even if there was something ambiguous, it couldn't be with a 13 – year – old player!

"It's a bit of a coincidence," Wu Lei said with a smile. "This group of young players sometimes come to watch us train and ask us for autographs during breaks. A few days ago, this little girl asked me for her signature. After I signed it for her, she directly said 'thank you' to me in Chinese, which gave me a shock. Later, I chatted with her in Chinese and found that the little girl's Chinese was quite good. She said that she had started Chinese lessons when she was five years old. I think we're fated to meet, so I've prepared a small gift for her, a pair of assassin sneakers. Since you're here today, brother Xia, I'd like to invite you to meet this little girl with me!"

Xia ruofei also raised his eyebrows and said, "Does this girl have Chinese blood?"

Wu Lei shook his head and said, "no, her parents are Spanish. They just like Chinese culture very much, so they sent her to learn Chinese when she was five years old. She still insists on attending Chinese classes." It's also because of this that I find it even more valuable. "

"Interesting!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "sure! I'll go with you to see her after training!"

Wu Lei quickly changed into his shoes. He tidied up his training suit while waiting for Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat and he said, "Lei Zi, you go to the training ground first! I still have something to do, so I'll go over later!"

"Alright!" Wu Lei nodded. Brother Xia, I'll see you at the training ground!"

"En!"

After Wu Lei left, Xia ruofei took out his phone and played the video that he had taken at the entrance of the training base.

It was taken from the side when the Chinese students were asking for Wu Lei's signature. Although the distance was not very close, Xia ruofei had zoomed in and his hands were very steady. It could be said that there was no shaking at all, so the shot was quite good.

Xia ruofei watched the video from the beginning to the end. He felt that Wu Lei's refusal to sign on the national flag was very positive.

He pondered for a while and opened a video editing software on his phone. This software was definitely not as professional as the PR software on the computer, but it had no problem with simple editing and adding subtitles.

When Wu Lei was taking a photo with the International students, he found Xia ruofei standing not far away. He called out "brother Xia" excitedly. This part was also recorded, but Xia ruofei used a software to edit it out.

Then, he added a few subtitles to the video of Wu Lei refusing to sign on the national flag. Because the scene was noisy and the phone's audio recording effect was not particularly professional, that scene was the focus and core of the entire video. The subtitles were also the dialogue between Wu Lei and the fans, without any editing.

After editing the video, Xia ruofei clicked on the "generate video" button. Then, he took his phone and walked out of the changing room to meet up with Song Wei and Ling Qingxue.

The video was only 30 to 40 seconds long, so it was generated rather quickly. Xia ruofei had just seen Song Wei and Ling Qingxue near the changing room when his phone rang. The video had been generated.

Xia ruofei continued to walk towards Ling Qingxue and Song Wei while checking the effect of the video on his phone.

After confirming that there were no problems, Xia ruofei opened the Weibo app and used his own Weibo account to post the video. He added a short paragraph of text: #Wu Lei refuses to sign on the national flag # "you can't sign on the national flag!" Give Wu Lei a like!

Wu Lei said that they could not sign the national flag.

The whole incident was shown in the video, so Xia ruofei did not describe it too much.

He clicked "publish" and the video entered the review stage.

Chapter 2842 An unintentional Willow (2)

A video that was posted on Weibo had to go through a manual review process. Generally, videos that did not have any tendency to make mistakes would also pass the review.

After Xia ruofei posted the video, he didn't bother about it anymore. He met up with Song Wei and Ling Qingxue and walked towards the training ground for the first team.

Wu Lei and a few players who had come to the training ground earlier were already jogging to warm up. When they saw Xia ruofei and the other two, they all waved and greeted them.

Xia ruofei saw the old goalkeeper, Diego Lopez, the center back, Naldo, and Wu Lei's forward partner, iglesias. He smiled and waved to everyone.

Xia ruofei turned to Song Wei and Ling Qingxue and said, "Why don't you guys take a walk by yourselves? I told you guys to just rest in the hotel. Isn't it boring to watch us train here?"

Ling Qingxue giggled and replied, "I wouldn't!" It's so sunny today. It's not boring to watch you train on the green field!"

"Alright! Then you guys can do as you please!" Xia ruofei said, "I'm going to warm up too!"

"Do you still need to warm up?" Song Wei asked, speechless.

With Xia ruofei's current strength, he could play two or three high – intensity games in a row without any warm – up.

In front of ordinary people, his physical fitness was a bug that could not be solved.

"When in Rome, do as the Romans do!" Xia ruofei smiled and waved at the two of them. At this moment, Wu Lei and the others had just finished another round and came over. Hence, he jogged to catch up and joined the running team.

Soon, the players arrived at the training ground one after another. The first thing they saw was naturally Song Wei and Ling Qingxue, who were by the side of the field. The players were no longer unfamiliar with these two Oriental beauties because they had come here to visit with Xia ruofei. Moreover, when they were playing against Barcelona, these two beauties were in the private room with the club's owner, Zhou leiyun, to watch the game.

Therefore, although the beautiful woman was beautiful, this group of football players with excessive hormones did not dare to have any improper thoughts. They just nodded at the two of them and rushed into the training ground.

Xia ruofei was wearing the team's training uniform and running laps in the team. The players who came later did not notice at first. When they saw that Xia ruofei was also in the team, they were all shocked.

Even Ruby, who had arrived at the training ground on time, was surprised to see Xia ruofei.

However, Xia ruofei was a member of the team, so he could naturally attend the training. Ruby did not say anything. Due to Xia ruofei's special identity, Ruby was especially serious in organizing the training today, for fear that he would have an improper working attitude in front of the shareholders of the club.

Xia ruofei followed the team to warm up and then participated in the entire training.

It had been a few days since the last game, and the league tournament was about to start on the weekend, so today's training had begun to increase. The team's training was carefully arranged to ensure that the players were in their best form on the day of the game.

Of course, Xia ruofei had no problems and completed the training easily.

He didn't know that during the half – day he had been training, the video he had posted on Weibo had once again attracted a large number of netizens to watch, and that the topic had suddenly become a hot topic.

Because of the time difference, the video was released at about two or three o'clock in the afternoon in China. At this time, there were still quite a lot of people online.

Xia ruofei was now an out – and – out Weibo verified account. The news that he posted on his account would be seen by many netizens at the first moment.

After everyone saw the video, they all started to comment.

"As a public figure, Wu Lei knows how to protect the country and the national flag's dignity at all times. He has good professional ethics and good citizen qualities!"

Some netizens were obviously more familiar with Wu Lei and wrote in the comments,"It reminds me of the national team Backpack with the national flag printed on it when Wu Lei joined Espanyol! I like Wu Lei's patriotism!"

There were also netizens who commented,'what I'm more concerned about is, why did CEO Xia post this video? It seems like my President Xia and Wu Lei are going to form a couple!"

They were obviously Xia ruofei's loyal fans.

In short, although everyone's comments were different, most of them were compliments. Everyone was praising Wu Lei for his "high IQ and EQ." Of course, there were also a few trolls who criticized Wu Lei for rejecting the fans because he was acting like a big Shot. Such brainless comments were naturally drowned out by comments such as "watching football costs electricity" and "if you have the ability to understand, don't come out and go online". They were quickly scolded by many netizens and did not dare to come out.

What was even rarer was that "Huaxia daily", "national television news", "Tuan Tuan", and other mainstream media and party media all reposted Xia ruofei's Weibo post and wrote short comments praising Wu Lei's behavior.

It was also because of these mainstream media platforms that this matter quickly rushed to the Weibo hot search list, and the ranking shot up like a rocket.

After Xia ruofei posted on Weibo, he went straight to training. He had no idea that the video he posted would cause such a huge reaction in the domestic public in just one or two hours.

Wu Lei had no idea that he had become famous again. He didn't even know that Xia ruofei had captured this scene and uploaded the video on a whim.

After the morning training, Xia ruofei had wanted to organize a small game with a few people. However, considering that the training today was not small, even Wu Lei, who had been practicing the first set of the Golden Man body refining movements, was so tired that he was panting. Besides, he had promised Wu Lei that he would send gifts to the women's ladder team after the training, so he gave up the idea of playing a small game.

Hence, Xia ruofei followed the players back to the locker room to sort things out. He did not say why he suddenly joined the training. Ruby did not ask too much either. Anyway, Xia ruofei was one of the bosses of the team and had the right to be willful.

The facilities in the locker room were very complete. The players could take a shower after training, then change into clean clothes and leave. The professional clubs in Europe had a training system. The players were similar to the general white-collar workers. According to the team's arrangements, they trained at the same time every day and got off work and went home at the same time. The only difference was that they played one or two games every week during the season, sometimes at home and sometimes away.

Professional players were used to this kind of life. While Xia ruofei was still in the shower, Wu Lei had already changed into his casual clothes.

He sat on a chair in the changing room and waited for Xia ruofei. The other players were faster and waved goodbye to him one after another before leaving the changing room.

The waiting time was always boring. Wu Lei took out his phone from his bag, wanting to play something.

As soon as he turned on his phone, he saw a few missed calls and dozens of unread messages on WeChat. He couldn't help but be stunned. Did something happen?

He didn't rush to return the call. Instead, he checked his WeChat messages first. He had to wait for the other party to pick up and ask about the situation. He might be able to find out if he just looked at the message on WeChat. Naturally, the latter was more efficient.

Wu Lei opened his WeChat and found that the messages were all from domestic coaches, teammates, and even national team leaders.

He clicked on the top one. It was the WeChat ID of his first coach, Xu Genbao. He had pinned it at the top and it would always be at the top. This little detail showed how irreplaceable Xu Genbao was in his heart.

Xu Genbao had sent a voice message. Older people tended to type slower, so voice messages were much more convenient.

Wu Lei clicked on the voice message, and a familiar voice came out of the phone. "Leizi! You did the right thing! The national flag was not to be blasphemed! I saw Huaxia daily and the National television praising you for protecting the national flag! I'm so proud of you! When you play alone overseas, you have to pay more attention to maintaining the country's image at all times! Do you know that?"

Chapter 2843 Hot search specialist (1)

Wu Lei could not figure out what had happened that morning. He could not even remember what had happened. Xu Genbao did not explain it clearly, so he was confused.

Wu Lei quickly opened the next few WeChat messages.

The coaches, teammates, and even the national team leaders were basically talking about the same thing.

After reading a few messages, Wu Lei gradually came to his senses. "It seemed that he was on Weibo's hot search, and it was related to the national flag.

Wu Lei had already registered a Weibo account many years ago, but he didn't post on Weibo that often. After he came to La Liga, he posted more. He often shared some photos of his training, life, and mood on ins. He also posted the same content on the domestic Weibo platform.

As the country's number one star, apart from Xia ruofei, who was not a typical professional player, Wu Lei received a lot of attention. Although he did not have as many fans on Weibo as the popular young people, he was not inferior to the first and second – tier stars.

Therefore, every time Wu Lei opened his Weibo, he would receive a bunch of notifications. Some of them tagged him, and some sent him private messages.

However, when he opened Weibo today, he found that there were more messages than usual.

The reason was simple. When Xia ruofei posted the video, he had also circled Wu Lei. After it became the most searched, Xia ruofei's video was shared by a large number of verified accounts and ordinary netizens. The number of people tagging it was quite impressive.

There were also many people who sent private messages to Wu Lei after watching the video. Naturally, he received more messages from the back end than usual.

Wu Lei didn't bother to check these back – end news. He directly clicked on the Weibo hot search list.

This time, he was really shocked that the topic #Wu Lei refused to sign on the national flag #was ranked third on the hot search.

At this moment, Wu Lei's mind finally recalled the scene in the morning.

He thought to himself, "could it be that one of the International students in the morning took a video and posted it on Weibo?" But the speed of the news spreading was too fast! It had only been two to three hours!

In Wu Lei's memory, he had only refused to sign on the national flag once this morning.

As for the surrounding Spain fans, even if they took a video, they would at most share it on Facebook, Twitter, ins, and other platforms. It was impossible to post it on Weibo.

Furthermore, they didn't understand Chinese and weren't Chinese, so how could they understand the flag?

Therefore, there was no doubt that the person who did this must be Chinese.

Wu Lei clicked on the topic with a trace of doubt.

The official Weibo account had taken over the title of the hot search, so Xia ruofei's post was recommended to the top by the official Weibo account.

Naturally, Wu Lei saw it at a glance.

His eyes widened when he saw that Xia ruofei was the one who posted the first post.

Wu Lei clicked on the video that Xia ruofei had sent and saw that it was indeed about what had happened in the morning. From the angle of the video, it must have been recorded by Xia ruofei.

This was the root of it!

Wu Lei saw the shocking number of reposts and comments on Xia ruofei's first Weibo post. He could not help but be shocked at Xia ruofei's influence.

Other than Xia ruofei's first Weibo post, the official Weibo platform had also recommended the Weibo posts reposted by official big V accounts such as Huaxia daily, national TV news, Tuan Tuan, and the short comments to be displayed at the top, right below Xia ruofei's Weibo post.

Being praised by others was definitely something to be happy about, not to mention being praised by an official media outlet like Huaxia daily. Wu Lei looked at the comments of these verified accounts with a trace of joy. Then, he clicked on Xia ruofei's Weibo to look at the comments from the netizens. He was even happier.

If the official media's overall positive comments were more objective, then the netizens' comments were more exaggerated. Wu Lei saw the screen full of praise and felt a little embarrassed.

In his opinion, it was a very small thing, and it was what every Chinese citizen should do. He didn't expect to receive such high praise from the netizens. He even felt a little ashamed.

At this moment, Wu Lei further realized how great a role model a public figure could have.

At this moment, Xia ruofei had just finished his shower and changed his clothes.

"Lei Zi, What are you looking at?" Xia ruofei walked to Wu Lei's side and said with a smile, "you're so engrossed!"

Wu Lei was indeed more focused. He did not even notice Xia ruofei when he was in front of him.

Hearing Xia ruofei's voice, Wu Lei looked up and stood up immediately. "Brother Xia, you're done?"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "yeah!" What was he so happy about just now? I saw you giggling the moment I stepped out of the door!"

Wu Lei couldn't help but look at Xia ruofei and said, "Brother Xia, the next time you make such a big move, can you let me know in advance? I'm a little caught off guard by what happened today!"

"What big move did I make?" Xia ruofei asked, confused.

"You don't know?" Wu Lei retorted.

“You’re so mysterious, how would I know?” Xia ruofei said innocently, “I didn’t do anything today! I came over to train with you guys for half a day!”

Chapter 2844 Hot search specialist (2)

Wu Lei smiled bitterly and handed the phone to Xia ruofei. “You just casually posted a video and I’m on the hot search! You call this not doing anything?”

Xia ruofei glanced at it and laughed. “I’ll go! Third on the hot search? How did you get there so quickly?”

Wu Lei did not know whether to laugh or cry, “brother Xia, don’t you know how much influence you have?” I just came out of the shower and wanted to say that I’ll look at my phone for a while. I almost died when I saw more than ten missed calls and more than ten WeChat messages ...”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “then you’re too timid!” You’re scared to death just because you’re on the hot search? I seem to be on it often!”

Wu Lei couldn’t help but roll his eyes and said, “I wasn’t scared to death by the hot search. I was just shocked to see so many missed calls and unread messages. I thought something big had happened!”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but laugh. He looked at the comments with great interest and said, “Lei Zi, this is a good thing! What a positive energy! I was in the changing room this morning when I suddenly thought that this video was quite meaningful, so I simply edited it and posted it on Weibo! The facts have proven that my judgment is still very accurate! Do you see how the netizens are buying it? And so many authoritative media outlets are praising you! It’s so good!”

“So you told me to go to the training ground in the morning just to edit this video!” Wu Lei said.

“Yup!” Xia ruofei said, “the effect is not bad, right? Hahaha!”

Wu Lei finally understood what had happened. He was silent for a moment before he said sincerely, “Brother Xia, thank you! You’ve helped me so many times that I don’t even know how to thank you!”

Xia ruofei patted Wu Lei’s shoulder and said, “You don’t have to be so polite! Lei Zi, I admire your drive and character, and I also admire your courage to walk out of your comfort zone to chase after your dreams. That’s why we hit it off so well! As long as you play well and work hard to realize your football dream, that will be the best way to thank me!”

Wu Lei’s heart warmed, and he said with determination, “I will! Brother Xia! As long as you’re still investing in the Spanish club, I won’t go anywhere in the future. I’ll stay here! Even if I’m unfortunately relegated to League Two in the future, I will never transfer ...”

Wu Lei quickly added, “Pei Pei Pei! Brother Xia ... I ... I didn’t mean it that way ... With our team’s strength, it’s definitely not a problem to stay in the league ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand, “I understand what you mean!” “But Lei Zi, in the future, when your strength improves, and if there is a better platform, I will still support you to go out. There is no need for you to stay in RCD Espanyol just because of me...Of course, you can’t go to bar?a! Hahaha!”

Normally, at Wu Lei's age, although he wasn't in the middle or late stages of his career, he didn't have much room for growth in his skills. Basically, they were all fixed. However, Xia ruofei had taught him the first set of the Golden man's body refining movements, allowing him to make great progress in his physical strength, flexibility, agility, and many other aspects at the age of 27. In addition, the high – Level competitions in the top league would also further improve his awareness. With this, he had more possibilities in the future.

Hence, Wu Lei's gratitude towards Xia ruofei came from the bottom of his heart. In his eyes, Xia ruofei had given him a new life. It was because of this that Wu Lei had a stronger sense of belonging to the Spanish club and was even willing to play there until he retired.

After hearing Xia ruofei's words, Wu Lei opened his mouth but Xia ruofei waved his hand to stop him. He said, ""The future is too far away, let's not talk about it! Leizi, didn't you say you were going to give the young players a gift? Let's hurry over!"

"Good! I've already prepared everything, let's go!" Wu Lei quickly said.

Although Xia ruofei had said that he would not object to him playing on a better and bigger platform, he had secretly made up his mind. As long as Espanyol needed him and Xia ruofei was still a shareholder of Espanyol, he would stay in the team and never seek a transfer.

Wu Lei carried a shoe box and went to the training ground of the women's ladder with Xia ruofei.

Wu Lei had already contacted the club's staff in advance and found the Spain girl named Claire.

In fact, the children of this age group were usually the same as other children. They were in school and basically came to train in their spare time. It wasn't the weekend, so Claire's training was scheduled for the evening. She had been notified by the club staff and had come over after the morning class.

Xia ruofei and Wu Lei saw Claire, who was also wearing the Spanish team's yellow sports jacket, at the side of the training ground. There was a little boy who was a little taller than her.

"Hello!" Wu Lei smiled and greeted Claire in Chinese.

Claire was also very excited to see Wu Lei and Xia ruofei. She quickly jogged over to them and said with a trembling voice, ""Hello! Mr. Xia, I didn't expect to see you here!"

Xia ruofei was impressed by the girl's Chinese. She did not have the strange accent of a foreigner. It sounded like a Chinese kid.

"Hello!" Xia ruofei smiled.

Claire was very sensible. She pointed at the little boy beside her and said, ""This is my brother!"

The little boy also greeted Xia ruofei and Wu Lei shyly. In comparison, Claire was more natural and unrestrained.

To Xia ruofei's surprise, the little boy also greeted them in Chinese.

The four of them stood at the side and chatted for a while. Xia ruofei realized that the little girl's Chinese was much better than her brother's. After asking, he found out that the little boy had only learned Chinese for a year, while Claire had been learning it for eight years.

Although Xia ruofei had invested in the Espanyol club, he was not familiar with the club's situation, so he asked about the women's soccer team when they were chatting.

From Claire, Xia ruofei learned that the RCD Espanyol had a four – age group of women's football teams. The first team was basically professional and usually participated in the local Women's Football League. However, the attention was obviously not as high as the men's football team, and the treatment of the players was relatively lower.

As for the other ladder teams of several ages, each team had many girls who liked football like Claire. Most of them followed the training system, which was equivalent to amateur players.

Very few of these girls would be able to embark on the path of professional football in the future, and even if they joined a professional team, their income was not high. However, there were still many young girls who joined the team training because they liked football from the bottom of their hearts.

After Xia ruofei had a brief understanding of the situation, he could not help but exclaim that the football environment and fan culture in Europe were much better than that in China!

After a short chat, Wu Lei gave the sneakers to Claire.

Before buying the sneakers, Wu Lei even asked the staff to know Claire's size. He was very meticulous.

Claire was pleasantly surprised to receive Wu Lei's gift. She held the sneakers in her arms as if she had found a treasure. She smiled brightly and kept thanking Xia ruofei and Wu Lei.

A pair of assassin – Series sneakers cost at least two to three hundred euros, which was definitely a very expensive gift.

Not to mention that it was a gift from her favorite Star, Wu Lei, which made it even more meaningful.

The little girl hugged the sneakers with a dazed expression, as if she was drunk. It was obvious that this surprise was too big.

Xia ruofei took a picture of Wu Lei giving the sneakers to Claire. Then, he smiled and asked Wu Lei to take a picture with the two children.

At last, under Wu Lei's invitation, Xia ruofei walked over and asked the staff to help take photos. The four of them took another photo together and then everyone waved goodbye.

Chapter 2845 Late arrival (1)

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue also participated in this small event with Xia ruofei. However, they did not know much about football and did not care much about Chinese football, so they did not have as many feelings as Xia ruofei.

Everyone arrived at the parking lot of the Dani Lake Training base. When Wu Lei found out that Xia ruofei and the other two had walked over, he suggested that he send them back to the hotel first.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and did not reject Wu Lei's good intentions. He nodded in agreement.

After all, they treated it as a walk after eating in the morning. It was close to noon now, and the sun in Spain was very bright all year round. Moreover, the three of them were a little hungry. If they could take a car, they might as well.

Wu Lei's translator and driver, Wu Junfeng, was still driving. Wu Lei sat in the front passenger seat while Xia ruofei and the other two squeezed into the back row.

Wu Lei's car was just an ordinary family car, and it was a gift from Skoda, the club's sponsor, after the transfer. The back seat was not particularly spacious, but there was enough space for Xia ruofei and the other two. Moreover, it was not long from the training base to the hotel, so they arrived in a short while.

After sending Xia ruofei and the other two to the hotel, Wu Lei went straight home. He had rented a house nearby. His wife and children had come to keep him company.

Xia ruofei brought Song Wei and Ling Qingxue to the hotel's restaurant for lunch. Zhou leiyun had to attend a business event today and did not come to accompany them.

After the meal, everyone went back to their rooms to rest. Xia ruofei turned on his computer to browse the news and found that Barcelona still had not responded. He was really patient! Let's see how long you can last then.

In fact, the storm of public opinion was still going on this morning, and the condemnation of The Sports Daily and Pablo was getting louder and louder. However, The Sports Daily had already set its tone and would naturally not say anything at this time. They would hold on to their attitude and wait for the storm of public opinion to subside. Pablo had already lost his job and was being scolded so badly by netizens, so he would not have the mood to say anything.

To the netizens' surprise, the two clubs involved in this storm did not make any statements. It was reasonable that Barça did not want to respond to the negative news of the fountain. As the "victim," the Spanish club had already occupied the moral high ground. Shouldn't they come out and complain about their grievances? There was no movement at all. The netizens could not understand.

Xia ruofei looked at the domestic Weibo, forums, and Tieba. He realized that what happened in Spain had already spread to the country. Everyone was furious at the daily sports news's statement. As for Pablo's resignation, it made the Chinese netizens feel indignant. They felt that such a scum should be completely cleaned out of the news industry and not just resign.

Of course, Xia ruofei's main focus was still on the Spain media. It had only been a morning and he had not seen any news that particularly interested him. He could not help but feel bored.

He stood up and went straight to the bedroom, ready to lie down and sleep for a while.

When Xia ruofei was in the Army, he had trained himself to be able to fall asleep anytime and anywhere. Soon, he began to snore softly.

At three in the afternoon, the phone on the bedside table vibrated. Xia ruofei opened his eyes and woke up.

He raised his hand to look at his watch, then reached out for his phone.

The call was from Zhou leiyun. Xia ruofei swiped his phone and answered the call.

“General manager Zhou.” Xia ruofei asked, “you’re done?”

“It’s just a business meeting. I’ll be back after lunch. ” Zhou leiyun said, “director Xia, there’s a piece of news that you’ll definitely be interested in. Barcelona has made a statement!”

“Oh?” Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and asked, “I thought they were going to keep pretending! What did the statement say? Forget it, I’ll go and take a look myself!”

“Yes, yes, yes. It’s more intuitive if you see it for yourself.” Zhou leiyun said, “I don’t know Spanish either. All I know is what my assistant told me.”

“Alright!” Xia ruofei got off the bed and asked as he put on his slippers, “where’s that Meyers? Is there any news?”

“It seems that the media has also dug out information about him.” Zhou leiyun said, “I heard that this person is indeed an annual ticket member of Barcelona. He is also a die – hard fan and the backbone of the Barcelona fan organization. It was because of this news that bar?a could not withstand the pressure and quickly drafted a statement. ”

Xia ruofei nodded. “If that’s the case, then our club should hold a press conference. But let me see how things go first.”

“Alright! I’ll let them prepare first!” Zhou leiyun said, “don’t inform the media yet. We’ll wait for you. Be careful.”

“Alright!” Xia ruofei said, “then we’ll talk about it later!”

He had already come to the computer. He had not turned off the computer after watching the news at Noon, so he opened the browser directly and found the official website of Barcelona to have a look. Sure enough, he saw the statement.

The official website of Barcelona did not put the statement in a particularly eye – catching position, so it was naturally impossible for it to be the headline. They only hung the statement on the fourth post on the right side of the important news area. It was not very eye – catching, but Xia ruofei still noticed it at a glance and immediately clicked on it.

Chapter 2846 Late arrival (2)

Bar?a’s statement was brief:

” 1. Last weekend, after our home game against Espanyol, the fountain system was turned on before the Spanish players left due to the operational error of the stadium manager. We express our deep regret and apologize to the Espanyol players. In the future, we will strengthen our management work to prevent similar incidents from happening.

Second, regarding the matter of Mr. Meyers, a member of the bar?a fan organization, lying in front of the media, the club understands the fans ‘defense of the team, but we have always advocated the principle of integrity. We do not agree with and advocate Mr. Meyers' behavior, and we sincerely hope that the fans can face the team's negative news rationally.

After Xia ruofei read the statement, a smile appeared on his face.

Barça's statement was still trying to shirk responsibility. Even a fool would not believe the so – called "misoperation" of the stadium administrator, because this was not the first time. Perhaps it was just the personal behavior of an individual staff member, but the club did not correct it in time and even acquiesced to such a thing happening, just to disgust the opponent. It had to be said that such a big club was really a little petty.

On the other hand, Barça's attitude toward Meyers was generally good. His "three views" were more upright. Although he did not use very harsh words on Meyers, he clearly expressed his attitude.

After all, Meyers was a die – hard fan of the team, and Barça was probably worried that their words would be too harsh and easily cause the other fans to be at odds with each other.

No matter what, Barça had made his stand clear. In a sense, it could be said that he had lowered his proud head.

It did not seem easy to bow their heads. If there was no irrefutable evidence, Barça would not care about how the Spanish team complained!

Xia ruofei immediately used Google to search for news related to Meyers. He quickly found the article that Zhou leiyan had mentioned. It was also published this afternoon by a small media company in Barcelona.

Big media outlets like marca and as would not do things like the paparazzi, while small media outlets did not care so much in order to attract attention and promote sales.

In this news report, the tabloid reporter revealed Meyers' annual ticket number and home address. They had been waiting since the morning and took a lot of photos in half a day.

The reporters even stopped Meyers, who was going out to throw out the garbage, hoping to interview him.

After the news of the referee's rejection was exposed, Meyers' status in the fan organization plummeted, and Barça even canceled his annual pass. Many fans blamed him for talking nonsense. Not only did he not help the team, but he also made the team more passive in public opinion.

Meyers read the statement from The Sports Daily and was surprised to find that the statement did not mention Pablo bribing him with money and then cooking up the video. Instead, he said that he had deliberately lied for the sake of the club and that Pablo had resigned due to his oversight.

When Mayes saw this, he was furious.

In fact, Pablo was the mastermind behind this incident. After he found Meyers, he offered to pay him and let him complete an interview according to his script. Meyers had always been loyal to Barça. After reading the script, he found that such an interview was very beneficial to Barça. Moreover, he would be paid, so he readily agreed.

Now, according to The Sports Daily's statement, he was the mastermind behind all this. Pablo only had a flaw in his business. Although he had resigned, it would not be difficult for him to find a similar job.

Besides, Mayers had nowhere to vent his anger. He couldn't tell the media that Pablo had ordered him to do all this and that he was just doing it for money!

In this way, not only would he not be able to clear his name, but he would also be charged with collecting money.

Therefore, when Mayes saw the reporters, he was naturally even more furious.

After reading the report, Xia ruofei finally smiled. He had been waiting for this kind of tabloid report.

Although the Spain tabloid reporters were not as powerful as the United Kingdom paparazzi, their ability to dig up information could not be underestimated.

Xia ruofei smiled as he memorized the main points of the report.

Then, he took his phone and gave Zhou leiyun a call.

"President Xia, have you finished reading the statement from Barcelona?" Zhou leiyun asked with a smile.

"I've seen it. " Xia ruofei laughed and said, "he's as cold as ever. Even when he's admitting his mistake, he still gives people a feeling that he's too high to reach!"

"Your description is too accurate!" Zhou leiyun said, "I just can't stand the way their father is the best in the world. It's as if we were the ones who got F * cked last weekend and not them!"

Although Zhou leiyun's words were crude, they were very fitting of his identity as the owner of a Spanish club.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "The universe team's name isn't just for show ... Let's not talk about them. Since Barça has made a statement, then our club should also make an official response!"

"Alright! They've already prepared the news release for this side. " Zhou leiyun said, "I'll get someone to send it to you to check!"

"I won't be looking at the draft!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "the club has professionals to handle this kind of official thing. I can't do anything even if I do it!"

"That's true ..." Zhou leiyun said, "then ... When do you think the press conference will be held?"

"How about 9 am tomorrow morning?" Xia ruofei said, "I will participate! Get them to inform as many media outlets as possible!"

"Alright! I'll personally follow up on this matter!" Zhou leiyun said.

After Xia ruofei hung up the phone, he stayed in his Room to Read the news. The afternoon passed quickly.

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei did not plan to go out today. They had gone to Dani hark training base in the morning to accompany Xia ruofei, so they rested in their rooms in the afternoon.

After dinner, Xia ruofei accompanied his two girlfriends to the nearby streets for a walk before returning to the hotel early.

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue were still staying in the same room. Xia ruofei was used to it, so he greeted them in the corridor and went back to his room alone.

They did not know that in the dead of the night, Xia ruofei had deftly avoided the cameras and left the hotel quietly ...

The next morning, Zhou leiyun rushed to the hotel and had breakfast with Xia ruofei and the other two. Then, Xia ruofei and the rest took Zhou leiyun's car to Dani hark base, where the press conference would be held.

Zhou leiyun personally accompanied Xia ruofei to show that he valued Xia ruofei. He would not personally attend the press conference. It was enough for the club's management to attend.

As a major shareholder of the club, Xia ruofei did not need to attend the press conference. However, Xia ruofei had requested to attend. In addition, he had another identity, which was a player of Espanyol. He had also experienced the "fountain" period, so it was reasonable for him to attend the press conference.

The car drove straight to the venue of the press conference. It was just past eight o'clock. There was still some time before the press conference would start. Zhou leiyun brought Xia ruofei and the other two to the lounge next to the press conference.

Zhou leiyun, Song Wei, and Ling Qingxue would be staying in the waiting room for the press conference. They could watch the live feed of the press conference from the television.

The press officer of the club, Louise, and the Executive Vice President, Jiang Xiaochen, who was also Zhou leiyun's agent in the club, were present at the press conference. He had a lot of power in the club, and even the General Manager did not dare to refute his opinions easily.

When Xia ruofei and the others arrived, Jiang Xiaochen and Louise were already waiting in the lounge.

"Is everything ready?" Zhou leiyun asked.

Jiang Xiaochen nodded and said, "the invitation was sent out yesterday. The media in Spain big and small, are very interested. In addition, some of the domestic media now have people in charge of the news of our Spanish club. They will also attend. Today, reporters from about 50 media outlets will definitely be coming." All of our preparation work has been completed. We're just waiting for the meeting at nine o'clock!"

Chapter 2847 Heavy bomb_

Zhou leiyun nodded and turned to look at Xia ruofei. He asked, "President Xia, do you think ... There's anything else you need to tell me?"

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "I won't be looking at your press release. Xiaochen will just release it according to the script. I just want to know one thing. Is there a big screen or projection device in the conference hall next door that can play videos?"

As the club's Executive Vice President, Jiang Xiaochen naturally did not know about such trivial matters. Hence, he quickly looked at the club's press officer and repeated Xia ruofei's question in Spanish.

"No problem!" The press officer nodded. There was a 70 – inch TV on the side of the press conference hall, which could directly play videos when needed. You just need to copy the video file to the computer in the control room. "

There was a small room in the corner of the press conference hall that was used as the control room. It was mainly used to control the audio and lighting equipment. During the press conference, there were specialized technical staff in charge of operating it. The large television on the side of the conference hall was also connected to a computer in the control room. After setting it up in advance, it could play the video on the computer at any time.

Hearing this, Xia ruofei nodded his head in satisfaction. Then, he took out a CD and handed it to the press officer. "Then you can copy the video here to your computer in advance. Forget it ... Take me there!"

Xia ruofei was speaking Spanish, but Jiang Xiaochen had been translating in Zhou leiyun's ear, so he heard Xia ruofei's words immediately.

"Director Xia," Zhou leiyun said, "just leave these small matters to them."

Although Zhou leiyun did not know what Xia ruofei was going to play at the press conference, he thought that it was just a small matter and there was no need for Xia ruofei to do it personally.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'm free now anyway. General manager Zhou, you and Qingxue can sit here for a while. I'll be back soon!"

Xia ruofei then gestured for the press officer to bring him to the control room in the conference hall next door.

The press officer did not dare to delay and quickly led the way.

The technicians in the control room were already in position. Xia ruofei saw that there was only one computer in the control room. After he asked if the computer could be connected to the big TV outside, he let the technicians and press officer leave first.

Then, Xia ruofei personally copied the video from the CD to the computer and tried playing it on the computer to make sure that there were no problems.

Only then did he turn off the player, then called the technician in and ordered, "I'll let you play a video at the press conference later. I've already copied it to the desktop. The file name is 'AA', that's it ..."

Xia ruofei pointed at the video file on the computer desktop. The technician took a look and immediately said, "I understand! Don't worry, Sir! This is easy!"

Xia ruofei nodded. "You need to pay attention to two things. First, you need to pay attention to the content of the conference at all times. When I say 'ask staff to play the video', you must immediately complete the screen synchronization and play the video. Second, before I ask you to play the video, you can't open this video file without permission. I've already tried playing it normally, so you don't have to try again. "

The technician's expression turned cold, and he quickly said, ""Yes! Mister! I'll definitely do as you say and will never open the video file without permission!"

There were surveillance cameras in the control room. When they were waiting outside, the press officer had already told the technician Xia ruofei's identity. How could he dare to ignore Xia ruofei's words? No matter how curious he was, he did not dare to watch the video in advance. After all, it was not easy to find a job these days.

"Darker," the press officer warned, "you must remember Mr. Xia's words. If you go against them, no one can help you!"

"I understand! I understand!" The technician, dark, quickly said.

Xia ruofei patted darker's shoulder and said in a friendly tone, ""Alright, then I'll leave this matter to you. It's been hard on you!"

"You're welcome. This is part of my job!" Said darker, feeling flattered.

After Xia ruofei had settled everything, he returned to the lounge next door.

At this time, the media reporters had already arrived at the venue. The press officer was busy arranging their seats while Xia ruofei and the others were drinking tea and chatting in the lounge, waiting for the press conference to begin.

Zhou leiyun was very curious about Xia ruofei's unusual participation in the press conference. However, since Xia ruofei was not willing to say, he did not ask. Anyway, no matter what Xia ruofei's purpose was, it would be revealed in a while.

It was almost nine o'clock. Jiang Xiaochen reminded Xia ruofei in a low voice.

Xia ruofei nodded and stood up. He smiled and said, ""Director Zhou, I'll be going then!"

Zhou leiyun nodded and said with a smile, ""We'll just wait here for the news!"

Xia ruofei took two steps and turned back. ""Qingxue, Weiwei, can you stay in Spain for a few more days?"

Ling Qingxue and Song Wei were stunned at first, then they exchanged a look. Song Wei smiled gently and said, ""No problem! Anyway, I've already taken leave. The sun is so good in Spain, so I'll just take it as a vacation!"

Chapter 2848 Heavy bombshell_

Xia ruofei made an 'OK' gesture and smiled at the three of them. Then, he walked towards the press conference hall.

Espanyol club's press conference hall was not very big. When Xia ruofei came out, he saw that the stage was already full. There were also many photojournalists in the aisle and the front desk. When he and Jiang Xiaochen came out, there was a flash of light.

Xia ruofei walked to the seat behind his name tag and sat down. There were three seats arranged for the press conference today. Xia ruofei naturally sat in the middle. On his left was the club's press officer, and on his right was the club's Executive Vice President, Jiang Xiaochen.

Initially, the reporters were all whispering to each other. However, when Xia ruofei walked out, everyone immediately stopped talking and the conference hall fell silent.

The club's press officer in charge of the press conference turned on the microphone. He didn't waste any time and directly said, "Thank you, media friends, for being here. Next, we would like to invite the club's Executive Vice President, Mr. Jiang Xiaochen, to make a statement on behalf of the Royal Spanish club!"

Jiang Xiaochen took out the press release that he had prepared earlier. After clearing his throat, he started reading, "Recently, after the end of the away game by the real Espanyol club against the Barcelona Football Club, our club's players were rudely treated by the home staff. After that, a few media outlets ignored the facts and deliberately smeared the real Espanyol Football Club ..."

Jiang Xiaochen's press release was well – behaved, and in his statement, he once again emphasized that the "fountain" incident that the Spanish players and coaches encountered at nokapu Stadium was simply incredible. At the same time, he strongly condemned the small number of Catalan media that participated in framing the Spanish manager, Ruby, for lying, and expressed strong shock and indignation at the blatant lies of some club fans in media interviews.

The media reporters were not surprised by the Espanyol club's official statement, which was basically in line with their judgment. The reporters did not even record it because they would each get a copy of such a statement after the press conference.

Only the photojournalists took a few photos that might not be useful for the news.

In fact, the reporters were more interested in Xia ruofei. As a shareholder of the club, Xia ruofei's appearance at the press conference was enough to raise the reporters' attention. Moreover, Xia ruofei was also the witness of the game and the "fountain" after the game. Was he attending the press conference to fire at bar?a or The Sports Daily?

Therefore, when Jiang Xiaochen was reading the news article, the reporters' minds were no longer on this. They were all eager to ask Xia ruofei questions.

When Jiang Xiaochen made this statement on behalf of the club, all the reporters seemed to be controlled at the same time. They raised their hands in unison, indicating that they wanted to ask questions.

Xia ruofei adjusted the microphone's angle. Before the press officer could speak, he said, "I'm sorry, there's no Q & A session for today's press conference, but I'll still release two more pieces of news. I believe that all of you will have a worthwhile trip!"

When Xia ruofei said that there was no Q & A session, the reporters felt disappointed. After all, this kind of standard statement was not new at all. They could have just reposted it on the club's official website. Why did they have to make a trip?

Fortunately, Xia ruofei immediately said that he had new news to release, which made the reporters feel a little better. At the same time, their curiosity was piqued.

Xia ruofei paused for a moment. The reporters in the audience quieted down and all eyes were on Xia ruofei.

This was also a very useful little trick. Teachers often used this trick in class. When the discipline in the class was a little bad, many teachers would stop the lecture and look at the students without saying a word. As soon as the teacher's voice disappeared, the students who were looking at their mobile phones or chatting in low voices would immediately notice and look at the teacher on the podium.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'd like to talk about the fake news that happened in the past two days." I noticed that The Sports Daily issued a statement, claiming that the reporter Pablo did not keep a close watch and did not detect Mayers' lies, which led to this mistake. It sounds perfectly logical. The reporter who failed to fulfill his duty has already resigned and the daily sports news has no responsibility at all. The reporter can even change media and continue to work in the news industry after the limelight has passed. "

The excitement in the reporters' eyes grew. They could tell that Xia ruofei was going to fire at The Sports Daily!

This is what you call news! Previously, Jiang Xiaochen's statement was full of official rhetoric, and not many readers would be interested in it.

Xia ruofei paused for a moment and changed the topic. "But last night, I received a video from an anonymous netizen and found out that the truth seems to be a little different from what The Sports Daily said in its statement! I would like to invite everyone to watch this video together!"

Xia ruofei turned to the control room and said, "Staff, please play the video!"

The technician, Darco, who had been waiting for a long time, quickly operated the computer. A few seconds later, a video began to play on the big TV in the press hall.

The reporters were naturally staring at the screen, and some of them even pointed their cameras at the screen. Even though they knew that the Spanish clubs would definitely take the initiative to provide a copy of the video, they still did it subconsciously.

When the video appeared, everyone's eyes were wide open because the person in the video was Mayers, who had been at the forefront of the storm for the past two days. The background of the video seemed to be in Mayers' home. Because Mayers was wearing a loose and fat sleepwear, and some tabloid reporters had secretly taken photos of his home yesterday, many reporters who were concerned about the matter still had an impression of it.

Mayers looked at the screen and said calmly, "First of all, I would like to apologize to my friends from all walks of life who are concerned about this matter, and to the Royal Spanish club, which has been slandered. I lied during the interview and caused a bad impact. I also set a bad example for minors. I would like to express my sincerest apologies here!"

After saying that, Mayers immediately changed the topic and said, "However! I also have to say that the statement of The Sports Daily is a complete lie! I did lie in the interview, but it was Pablo, a reporter from the daily sports, who paid me 500 euros and prepared the script in advance for me to memorize. I was completely following his script in the interview! I won't shirk my responsibility, and I admit that I've made a big mistake, but the main culprit of this should be Pablo, The Sports Daily! They were the ones who should be condemned by the public! I will take full responsibility for my above remarks!"

When the reporters saw this, their hearts were almost boiling. However, they suppressed their excitement and didn't dare to breathe loudly, afraid that they would miss the most crucial information.

As expected, at the end of the video, Mayers said,""By the way, I've also kept all the recordings of Pablo's discussion with me about this matter. I also welcome all reporters to find me to collect evidence! I'm willing to cooperate unconditionally!"

The video ended there.

The moment the video finished playing, the reporters could not hold back anymore. They did not even raise their hands as they threw all kinds of questions at Xia ruofei like a cannonball.

"Mr. Xia, may I ask how you got this video?"

"Mr. Xia, what do you think of Mayers 'statement?"

"Will the Spanish club file a lawsuit against The Sports Daily?"

Chapter 2849 A stone that stirred up a thousand ripples (1)

Xia ruofei had a faint smile on his face. He waited for the reporters to calm down before he said,""I'm sorry, I've said just now that we'll only release news today and will not accept questions and interviews. To respect the wishes of the video provider, I can't reveal more information, but I can guarantee the authenticity of this video. Interested reporters can also go to Mr. Mayers to verify it!"

Only then did the reporters stop. Xia ruofei had the right to refuse to answer their questions, even if it was a press conference. However, the organizer had said that the press conference would only release news and there would be no Q & A session. This was completely acceptable.

"Mr. Xia, can you provide us a copy of this video?" a reporter asked loudly.

This was not an interview question. Xia ruofei smiled and said,""Of course, no problem. Friends who need it, please leave your email number with our press officer after the press conference is over. We will send the video and the full statement released today to your friends!"

The reporters were relieved. The video was undoubtedly a bombshell that completely nailed The Sports Daily to the pillar of shame of the liar. Once the authenticity of Mayers 'words was confirmed, especially the recording of what Mayers said in the video, it would be impossible to reverse the situation if they could get it.

The reporters 'minds were no longer on the press conference. They couldn't wait to go out and find Mayes to verify everything.

However, Xia ruofei had just said that he would release two pieces of news today. Therefore, other than this big video, there must be something else to be announced to the media. Thus, everyone was still patient, and they were more or less looking forward to it. After all, Xia ruofei's performance and experience were legendary.

Xia ruofei looked around and smiled."The second piece of news that I've released is also related to The Sports Daily and Pablo."

The reporters' eyes brightened when they heard that. Everyone's attention was back to the press conference and they all stared at Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled."Pablo and The Sports Daily have been making a lot of strange comments about me and Wu Lei these days. They said that our joining of La Liga was a business operation. They said that our standards simply can't meet the requirements of the top European leagues." Even when the two of us broke the goals of the so – called cosmic team bar?a several times in the game against bar?a, such ridiculous remarks were still spreading. I don't want to escalate the issue to racial discrimination, but I can't pretend that I didn't see or hear anything ..."

At this point, Xia ruofei paused for a moment to whet everyone's appetites, then continued,"A small number of media outlets have such comments, when it comes to our goal in the last game, they all attribute our indisputable performance to luck. This was obviously laughable, and I didn't even feel like refuting it. However, since someone has raised such a point of view, then I think ... I'll use my actions to respond!"

He picked up the sponsored mineral water in front of him and took a sip before continuing,"As you all know, I'm usually very busy. I may only be able to represent the team in a few key games every season. But this time I've decided ... In the next round of our home game against Herona, I'll still represent the real Espanyol club! I've already started the team's training yesterday, and I believe that I can still help the team win with an outstanding performance in the next game! I've always believed that it's useless to say anything to those people who wear colored glasses. Only by scoring goals can we shut their stinky mouths!"

Before the reporters could digest the news, Xia ruofei had already stood up and said with a smile,"That's the news I want to announce! Today's press conference came to an end! Once again, thank you to the media! Goodbye!"

Xia ruofei was even doing his job as a press officer. After he finished speaking, he left his seat and walked into the lounge next door from the side passage.

Jiang Xiaochen had not even recovered from the shock because Xia ruofei had not informed anyone about the two pieces of news in advance. Like the reporters, it was Jiang Xiaochen's first time hearing about this.

It was only when Xia ruofei walked past him that he snapped out of his daze. He quickly stood up and followed her.

The club's press officer stayed behind. Of course, without authorization, he couldn't answer any of the reporters' questions. He just organized everyone to leave and registered their e – mail accounts. Every reporter at the scene asked him for the video.

When Xia ruofei arrived at the lounge, Zhou leiyun, who had been watching the live video of the press conference through the television in the lounge, had not recovered from his shock. When he saw Xia ruofei, he smiled bitterly and said, ""President Xia, if there's such big news next time, can you let me know in advance? This is too exciting!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "I also received this video last night!" Wasn't it the same whether he said it or not? If you knew about this video, would you stop me from releasing it to the media?"

Chapter 2850 A stone that stirred up a thousand ripples (2)

"Of course not!" Zhou leiyun said, "I'm not an idiot! That sports daily reports that involve Spanish clubs are all weird and have never been objective or neutral. I can't wait for them to close down tomorrow!"

"Then isn't it settled?" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "this is equivalent to giving you a surprise!"

Zhou leiyun smiled. "Then why didn't you tell me that you were going to play in a match this weekend?" he asked.

"This is called double the surprise!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "you're not going to object to me participating again, are you? Besides, you're the club chairman, and you never care about the manager's formation! As long as Ruby is willing to put me in the lineup, it will be fine!"

"I don't care about the other players!" Zhou leiyun smiled bitterly. "Can you be like the other players? But you're right, I welcome you with open arms if you're willing to stay and participate in the competition! From my point of view, it would be best if you could participate in every round of the competition! Even though I know it's impossible ..."

"Hahaha!" Xia ruofei said, "I've calculated it. If we can defeat Herona in the next round, we'll have a high chance of getting into the top seven!"

Zhou leiyun nodded and said, "yeah!" In fact, it was mainly because the three points from the last round were completely unexpected. We were prepared to lose the game against bar?a. Maybe at the end of the season, we will find that these three points are really precious! Who knows, maybe one of the spots in the European tournament will be decided!"

"Herona's performance this season has been very poor, especially in the away game!" Xia ruofei said, "and now that our Spanish team's morale is high, it's not a big problem to take them down with the home – court advantage! So I'll talk to Ruby. I hope to get more chances to take the ball and shoot in this game ..."

At this point, Xia ruofei's eyes lit up.

Zhou leiyun was slightly taken aback, but then he smiled and said, ""It seems like you're going to use this match to make those suspicious voices completely disappear!"

"It's a must!" Xia ruofei nodded.

"Looks like I'll have to mourn for Herona in advance ..." Zhou leiyun laughed.

After the Spanish club's press conference ended, the news of the press conference was spread through the internet media at once.

Jiang Xiaochen's statement on behalf of the club did not cause too much of a stir. After all, it was just a normal statement. Any club in the Spanish position would probably make a similar statement when they encountered this kind of situation. There was nothing special about it.

However, the two pieces of news that Xia ruofei had released were like a stone that caused a thousand ripples. It attracted a lot of attention in an instant.

The club's press officer was very efficient. He sent the video directly to the computer in the control room of the conference hall, using group email, to the media reporters who had left their e-mails.

Some of the reporters were still on their way back, but they had already received the video file. When their news reports came out, they would basically be able to match the video.

Therefore, Mayes's video quickly spread on the internet like a virus.

At first, it was only in Catalonia. Soon, all the fans in Spain and all of Europe who were paying attention to La Liga had received push messages from various platforms and seen the video.

In an old apartment in Barcelona, Pablo was drinking and browsing the news on the internet.

In just over a day's time, he had become unkempt and unkempt, with an unkempt beard, which was very different from his previous image as an elite reporter.

He had basically stayed in the apartment for the past two days, but he was not isolated from the world. He had always been using the computer to understand the outside world, and he had also seen the criticism from the outside world.

Pablo was still a little relieved. In the Office of the Chief editor of The Sports Daily, he had thought of a way to stop losses at the critical moment. Although he still couldn't keep his job, at least he didn't have to wear the hat of a fake news maker. After all, Yingying, who could still continue to work in the news industry in the future, didn't know any other skills besides sports news interviews.

Pablo sent an email to a college classmate on the day he was fired by The Sports Daily.

His classmate was now in the media industry as well. He was a reporter for team news in Spain was in charge of interviewing La Liga players.

His classmate was the manager of a team, which was equivalent to the station manager of a reporter station here.

Pablo hoped to get a position in team news, even if it was far away from Spain or other European countries.

After all, the level of team news was much higher than that of The Sports Daily. If he could be hired, it would be quite a high level.

After his classmates learned about his situation, they said that they would try their best to mediate. They also said that if there was no obvious bad record, there was still a good chance.

Thus, Pablo had been waiting for his classmates' notice for the past two days.

Pablo raised his glass and finished the remaining wine in it. He stared at the computer screen in front of him, which was the official Facebook page of The Sports Daily. There were many comments left by fans and netizens, giving various criticisms to The Sports Daily.

Pablo revealed a cold smile and muttered to himself, "Even if you guys force me to resign, I still can't avoid the public's scolding, right? I'll just take the opportunity to change the environment! As long as team news is willing to hire me, I'll go far away to France. I'll leave the mess here to you to clean up!"

At this moment, Pablo's phone rang. He grabbed it, and when he saw the name on the screen, a smile appeared on his face.

Pablo hurriedly picked it up and said, "Thelnio! Did the headquarters of team report give you a reply?"

The unhappy voice of his classmate from Pablo University, thelnio, came from the phone. "Pablo! I've been screwed over by you this time! How could you do such a thing?"

Pablo was stunned for a moment before asking, "I don't understand what you mean ... How did I trick you?"

Sarnio snorted and said, "Don't you know what you've done? To think that I trusted you so much and sent your resume to the headquarters at the first moment! In the end, I was scolded by my superior today!"

"This ..." Pablo was confused. "Cernio, is there something wrong with my resume?"

"Go online and take a look yourself!" Sario said impatiently. Also, don't contact me anymore!"

Pablo heard the busy tone from the phone, and an ominous feeling rose in his mind.

He quickly threw his phone down and rushed to the computer, quickly opening a browser.

Pablo did not look at the official website of his former owner, the daily sports, because he knew that if the matter of him bribing Mayers was exposed, it would definitely not be reported in the daily sports. So, he clicked on the official website of the daily sports's biggest competitor in Catalonia, the sports world.

When he saw a piece of news that had just been published by World Sports on the website, his mind buzzed. With trembling hands, he clicked on the title of the article, "shocking scandal!" The daily sports reporter> spent money to produce a press release for fake news.

After entering the reading page, Mayes's video began to play on its own.

Pablo's face was ashen as he stared at the computer screen. The video hadn't even finished playing, but he had already collapsed in his chair, his heart completely disheartened.

Pablo only had one thought: It's over ... It's over ... This time, it's completely over ...

Just like Pablo, there was another person who was feeling the same way. That person was Mayers ...
