Chapter 2851 Self – redemption (1)

When Mayes found that the front door of his house was crowded with reporters, he was not in the situation at all.

Many of the reporters drove directly to Meyers' residence after leaving the press conference of the Espanyol club. Most of these reporters had partners, so on the road, one of them was in charge of driving, and the other was writing articles on their laptops. In short, they were racing against time and didn't want to waste any time.

At first, Mayers didn't notice anything unusual. After the news was exposed, there were many reporters wandering around his house. He had been locked in his house and didn't show his face at all. He wanted to wait until the news died down.

He didn't expect more and more reporters to appear at his door since 10 am. The sounds from outside kept coming in, making him upset.

Although the reporters were restricted by the law and could only gather outside his yard, they had all their cameras set up and aimed at his house.

Mayers was still a middle – Class man in his early years. He had bought the small detached house that he was living in now and had a lot of assets. However, a few years ago, due to business failure, his family had sold all of his other assets, leaving only this property. His wife had divorced him and left him with his children. He was left alone in this small building that was not bad.

In recent years, Mayes had not been looking for a proper job. He had basically been relying on the savings left from selling his assets and the government's unemployment relief. His only hobby was football, and he was a die – hard fan of barça.

He used to be the backbone of Barcelona's die – hard fan organization. Every match day, he would bring a large group of fans to cheer for Barcelona. When he had more money, he would also go on an expedition to cheer for Barcelona.

However, everything had changed since yesterday.

A few days ago, he had cooperated with Pablo to shoot that video for 500 euros, and now he was full of regret. But didn't he take the 500 euros so that he could cheer for barça in the next away game?

In the past two years, he had basically not had any extra expenses. He was not particular about what he ate at all. He could even eat bread for a week in a row to fill his stomach. However, as long as he supported barça, he would not feel the pinch when he spent money.

However, after the incident, his annual pass was written off by Barcelona, and the fan organization quickly cut him off and fired him. He used to be a team he loved deeply. When he was in negative news, he abandoned him without any hesitation.

Thus, Mayes's mood had been terrible for the past two days, as if his faith had collapsed.

More and more reporters gathered at the door, which made Meyers even more upset. Even though he had closed the doors, windows, and curtains, the voices of the reporters continued to reach his ears, as if countless bees were buzzing in his ears.

Mayers' mood was also extremely irritable.

He couldn't hold it in any longer. He opened the window, stuck his head out, and shouted, "You're harassing my normal life! Get lost immediately! Otherwise, I'll call the police!"

The reporters were in this line of work. How could they be frightened by Mayes's words? They were able to accurately grasp the boundaries of the law and know how to achieve the effect without breaking the law.

So, not only did Mayes's loud shout not scare the reporters, but several reporters also took the opportunity to ask questions.

"Mr. Mayers, we've seen your latest video and came to you to verify it. Is the recording still there?"

"Mr. Mayers, don't you want to say anything about the way The Sports Daily and Pablo shirked responsibility and put the blame on you?"

Mayers was stunned when he heard this.

He subconsciously asked, "what are you talking about?" What video? What recording?"

"Mr. Mayers," a reporter shouted. "Since you've already chosen to film the truth to the outside world, why are you still running away?" It's better to face the media openly!"

"What the hell are you guys talking about?" Mayers felt like he was about to collapse.

When the reporters saw Mayes's state, they also felt a little strange. One of them shouted, "The video you took yourself! You said that you didn't lie on purpose in the interview, but that Pablo paid you to follow his script. You even said that you saved the recording and the media are welcome to come and collect evidence! We're here to collect evidence!"

Mayers felt as if he had been struck by lightning. He stood at the window in a daze, as if all the noise made by the reporters outside the courtyard had disappeared. His mind was blank.

After a long time, Mayers gradually recovered. He hid in the room and closed the window tightly. At the same time, he also pulled the curtains tightly.

Mayers leaned against the wall and muttered to himself, "Could it be ... Could it be that it wasn't a dream? I ... I really met God? And ... God even took a video? What the hell is going on?"

Mayes had a very realistic dream last night.

In his dream, a person who emitted holy light came to him and used gentle words to calm him down. Under the guidance of the person whose face he could not see clearly, he followed his inner thoughts and said the words that made the reporters excited.

Chapter 2852 Self – redemption (2)

When Mayers woke up in the morning, he still had a little impression of this dream, but he did not take it to heart. He felt that it was just a dream that he thought about during the day.

He had been thinking about this for the past two days.

And when he saw the statement issued by The Sports Daily pushing all the blame on himself, he was indeed very angry.

At the same time, just as he had said at the end of the video, Pablo had come to him twice. The first time, the two had basically reached an agreement, and the second time, Pablo had come to him to discuss the specific conditions and explain the script. This time, he had been careful and secretly recorded all the conversations during the meeting.

But in fact, Mayers was very conflicted. On one hand, he was extremely angry at the daily sports news's behavior of passing the blame on others. After all, no one wanted to be the scapegoat. On the other hand, he could not convince himself to stand up. If he did, it would indeed make the daily sports news and Pablo more passive, but it would not help him at all. Once he said it, his mistake would be even more serious. Not only would he lie, but he would also be paid.

Therefore, even though Mayes would sometimes talk to himself about telling the truth, it was only limited to when he was competing with himself. In fact, after weighing the pros and cons, he naturally felt that it was better not to say it.

Because of this, when Mayes woke up in the morning, he could vaguely remember the contents of the dream. He felt that he had had that dream because he had been struggling with this matter the previous day.

In fact, Xia ruofei was the mastermind behind all this.

With his current mental power, it was a piece of cake to hypnotize an ordinary person like Mayes. Moreover, what Mayers said came from the bottom of his heart, which was easier to achieve during the hypnosis process. He only needed a little guidance.

It would be much more difficult to make the hypnotized person say something against their will, especially for those with stronger willpower. They might even develop a rebellious mentality and wake up from the state of hypnosis.

After Xia ruofei had recorded the video he needed, he did not completely erase Mayers' memory. That was why Mayers could only vaguely remember it after he got up. However, his memory was blurry, so he naturally thought that it was just a dream.

The words of the reporters outside had struck Mayes like lightning. He was stunned for a long time before he rushed to the study. He pulled the bowl of instant noodles on the computer table to the ground, found the mouse on the messy desktop, and quickly opened some local mainstream news websites.

By this time, most of the reporters had finished their articles and had also received the video sent to their e-mail by the Spanish club's press officer.

Therefore, Mayes quickly saw the video on the official website of World Sports.

He watched the whole video in a daze. It took him a while to accept the reality that he didn't seem to be dreaming last night. He just didn't know why he would say those words, and why they were recorded and quickly made the front page of the media.

Could it be that the man who was emitting holy light last night was really sent by God to save me? Such a thought came to Mayes's mind.

Although he was a rare atheist, his faith seemed to have begun to waver ...

After Mayers came back to his senses, he sat in front of his computer desk and pondered for a long time.

In the end, he made up his mind and found an old USB flash drive in the drawer. He inserted it into the computer in a hurry and copied the audio file he had saved in the E drive.

Mayers pulled out the USB and strode to the door ...

His thoughts were very simple. Since the matter had already been exposed, what was the point of hiding it? Continue to take the blame for The Sports Daily? To hell with The Sports Daily! To hell with Pablo!

However, Meyers was in an even worse mood at the moment, and he was not in the mood to deal with the reporters. He opened the door and strode out. Before the reporters could react, he threw the USB out and said loudly, "The recording you want is in the USB. This exclusive news belongs to whoever gets it!"

After that, Mayers walked back into the house without looking back.

When the reporters saw that Mayes had thrown something out, they did not react immediately. When Mayes finished speaking, a reporter who had subconsciously caught the USB flash drive was ecstatic. He held the USB flash drive tightly as he quickly walked to the parking space in the distance. This was truly exclusive news!

The other reporters came back to their senses and chased after him, shouting loudly.

"The person in front, please wait a moment!"

"Let's share our resources!"

"You can't eat it all for yourself! This piece of news belongs to all of us!"

After Mayers returned to his room, he thought about it and opened the door. He had wanted to warn the reporters and tell them that he would not accept any interviews. If they gathered in front of his house again, he would really call the police. However, when he opened the door, he saw that almost all the reporters had left. All the reporters were chasing after the lucky person who had obtained the USB drive.

Mayers was stunned for a moment, then he shrugged and went back into the house. Since the reporters had left, he was happy to relax.

Mayers walked over to open the refrigerator and took out the only can of beer left. He opened the can and gulped down the entire can of beer.

He hiccuped and sat down at the computer desk in the study. He ate potato chips and read the news.

He wanted to see how badly The Sports Daily would be criticized by public opinion after the follow – up reports came out. Anyway, he was already miserable enough. Now that the worst situation had appeared, he had nothing to lose. In this case, he naturally hoped that the worse The Sports Daily was, the better.

As for Pablo, after Mayers saw the video of his statement, he knew that Pablo's career was over. There was no way the media would hire him again. Thus, Mayes no longer cared about Pablo's problem.

In the end, the reporters didn't get the USB. After all, this was a society ruled by law. They couldn't snatch something that was already in his hands, right? Even if they chased after him, it would be of no use. They could only watch the reporter and his companion drive away in a hurry.

The reporters also knew that Mayers would not accept the interview. Even if he had a copy of the audio, they did not try to go back and make any more attempts because a reporter had already gotten the audio. They might not be able to get another copy of the audio even if they went back and tried their best. The reporter who got the audio would only need 15 minutes at most to publish the exclusive news.

So, the reporters were all asking each other, wanting to know which media company that lucky guy was from. Wanwan and the others were already prepared. Although they wouldn't be able to get exclusive news, they could at least repost the article as soon as the lucky guy posted it!

With the continuous appearance of articles regarding the press conference of the Spanish clubs, it could be said that sports daily was in a terrible fix, especially when the media quickly released the audio of Pablo and Meyers discussing the price and the script. It was the most solid hammer, and there was no room for sports daily to refute at all.

The editor – in – chief of The Sports Daily, Wells, was also facing great internal pressure. He was severely reprimanded by his boss, and some directors of the same level also hit him when he was down. After all, there were many people who had their eyes on the position of editor – in – chief. For a time, Wells' position was on the verge of collapse.

The internal Department of Sports daily was still holding an emergency meeting to discuss how to deal with the sudden public opinion crisis.

In addition to The Sports Daily, Pablo, and Meyers being jittery in the storm of public opinion, there was another group of people who felt extremely depressed ...

Chapter 2853 Getting unjustly ridiculed (1)

The two pieces of news that Xia ruofei released at the press conference on behalf of the Spanish club, in addition to giving The Sports Daily a headache, making Pablo completely disheartened, and making Meyers go all out, the most depressed one was the Herona club.

Xia ruofei announced at the press conference that he would be representing the Espanyol club in the weekend's home game against Herona, which chilled the hearts of the club members.

Since the beginning of the season, Herona had been struggling in the relegation zone. Now, there were only a few rounds left, and they were still in the third – to – Last position. If they could not seize the time to grab points, according to the promotion and demotion rules of La Liga, the last three teams would be relegated. The probability of Herona being relegated to La Liga was already very high.

In the face of a mid – to – Low team like the Spaniards, it should have been a chance for Herona to grab points.

Even if Espanyol had killed off Barça in the last round, on paper, Herona still had the ability to fight. Although the Spaniards' morale was high after their victory over Barça, and it was a home game, Herona was still preparing for the league tournament this weekend with the mentality of at least one point.

Of course, this was under the premise that Xia ruofei did not appear.

Although Xia ruofei had only played one and a half games, his fame in La Liga was no less than that of the first – tier star players. Therefore, everyone knew about his situation. Everyone knew that Xia ruofei was not a professional player at all. He was a shareholder of the club and had a large company in China. He rarely trained with the team and would only come back to participate in crucial games.

Therefore, Heron did not even consider Xia ruofei.

Otherwise, based on Xia ruofei's performance, their chances of getting points would be very slim.

Herona's coaches and players were also secretly glad that Xia ruofei was not a regular player in the Spanish club. Otherwise, when the two teams met, the probability of winning would be too low.

They did not expect Xia ruofei to suddenly announce that he would be staying for the match this weekend in just a few days. The reason was that the Chinese players' abilities had been questioned by some reporters, so he wanted to slap them in the face with his actions.

The coaches and players of the Herona club felt like crying but had no tears to shed. This was a complete lie!

If one were to ask who hated The Sports Daily and Pablo the most, the Spanish fans might not be in the first place, because the first place must be the players from the Herona club.

There were even some Spanish fans who, after watching the news, cheered and thought, "Please, the media, doubt Xia and Wu to your heart's content! This way, Xia could play more games for the team!

This was probably the first time that their own fans wanted their own club's star players to be dissed!

After an emergency consultation, The Sports Daily finally released another statement in the afternoon.

This time, the statement was much more sincere. Although they still said that it was Pablo's personal behavior and that the newspaper did not know that Pablo had fabricated completely fake news, they still expressed their sincere apologies for their work mistakes and apologized to the real Espanyol club, Espanyol fans, Xia ruofei, and Wu Lei who had been hurt. They also said that they would strengthen the review of news material in the future to prevent such incidents from happening.

In addition, The Sports Daily also strongly condemned Pablo's unethical behavior in a statement, calling Pablo a "scum of the reporter community" and calling for his media peers to ban Pablo.

At this juncture, The Sports Daily could only stomp on Pablo. This was not considered adding insult to injury. At most, it could be said that they had a strong desire to survive in order to protect themselves.

In any case, after this incident, the credibility of The Sports Daily had dropped significantly. Although they had no credibility in the past and were very biased towards Barça when reporting, it was the first time they had created fake news out of nothing. No matter how they tried to push the blame away and say that they were completely unaware, the public would not believe them.

In that case, The Sports Daily was really a little wronged, because they did not instruct Pablo to do so. It was just that when they reposted, the editor – in – chief in charge of review had a trace of suspicion. However, from the perspective of being Pro – Barcelona, they reposted it immediately. So from this point of view, they could be considered to have brought it upon themselves.

The storm of public opinion became fiercer and fiercer. In addition to The Sports Daily, the other sports media in Spain and Europe seemed to be enjoying a feast. They constantly dug out news topics from various angles and followed up on the matter. They mercilessly beat the dog when it was down.

In the evening, another piece of news appeared in the public's view.

This was a statement issued by the International sports reporters Association.

The abbreviation for the International sports reporters Association was AIPS. It was a top professional organization representing the International sports media. It had more than 9000 members around the world and represented the leading international newspapers, websites, journals, and radio and television channels of the five continents.

Chapter 2854 Getting unjustly ridiculed (2)

Founded in Paris in 1924, AIPS was based in Luosang, Switzerland, the capital of the Olympics. It was led by the president of the international news Union, Francois Reichel, and Victor Boin from Belgium.

It could be said that this organization was an authoritative organization formed by the sports media and was very influential.

AIPS's statement was mainly to severely condemn The Sports Reporters' fraudulent behavior in news interviews. The statement stated that such behavior, which completely lost the basic ethics of news, should be spurned and boycotted by the entire industry. At the same time, it also issued severe criticism for the lack of security of the media organizations. It could be said that it was a flogging on both the daily sports news and Pablo.

This statement practically declared the end of Pablo's career.

After all, AIPS had members all over the world, and almost all well – known sports media were its members. In theory, this statement represented everyone's common attitude.

Under such circumstances, which media company would dare to risk universal condemnation and hire Pablo?

Major media outlets also rushed to report on the matter while taking the opportunity to trample on the daily sports news a few times.

After this incident, The Sports Daily had definitely suffered a huge blow. This loss of credibility would be difficult to make up for in the future.

One of the key parties of this incident, Mayers, had also suffered a huge mental blow. In addition, many media outlets had been trying to interview him, which caused him a lot of trouble.

In addition, Barça not only canceled his annual ticket, but also put him on the unpopular list, which meant that in the future, even if he spent his own money to buy a loose ticket, he would not be able to enter the Camp Nou Stadium.

Meyers was also disheartened. The feeling of being abandoned by his beloved club was even sadder than when his wife had left him.

Disheartened, Mayes sold the property and left Barcelona to live in another city.

Of course, this was all a story for later.

Xia ruofei, who had personally arranged everything and successfully ignited public opinion, did not continue to make any comments in the media after the press conference.

He was like a brilliant swordsman who, after defeating the enemy in one move, brushed his clothes and left.

In three days, it would be Espanyol's home game against Herona. Xia ruofei's schedule for the next few days was very simple. Every day, he would take half a day to train with the Espanyol club players, and the other half would accompany Song Wei and Ling Qingxue to continue touring the beautiful city with a long history.

RCD Espanyol's home game against Herona was scheduled for around 1 p.m. Local time.

At this time, whether it was for the players participating in the game or the fans watching the game live, it was actually not very friendly.

However, almost all the remaining games of the Spanish clubs were held during this time period, and it was only recently adjusted by Spanish football.

Of course, this was not the Spain football Association deliberately targeting the Spanish clubs. Their adjustment was entirely out of market considerations.

Since Wu Lei joined Espanyol and Xia ruofei's sudden appearance, the exposure of Espanyol clubs in China had greatly increased. In the past, the Chinese fans did not even know that there was such a team in La Liga. Now, after a few weeks, the Chinese fans knew the names of the players in Espanyol's first team as if they were family treasures.

In particular, the few players who were willing to cooperate with Wu Lei, such as Granello, Iglesias, and so on, became very popular in China.

Metatron and the others, who were very clingy to the ball and were not very willing to pass the ball to Wu Lei, became the players that Chinese fans hated the most.

The first match that Wu Lei participated in had tens of millions of people watching the live broadcast in China. There were also other channels that watched the text live broadcast and so on. The total population was even more than that of Spain.

The Spain football Association was also shocked by the number, so they quickly adjusted the game time.

All of Spain's games were set to start at about 1 p.m. In China, it was just past 7 p.m., Which was the prime time.

Three days passed by in a flash, and soon it was the day of the Espanyol club's home game against Herona.

PP sports, as always, set the Espanyol's game as free to watch, and the game started at 7 p.m., Which was simply too good for the Chinese fans. After dinner, they could sit in front of the computer and wait for the game to start. Some fans got off work later, so they simply met up with their friends and went straight to the bar after work. They watched the game while drinking and eating skewers, which was quite carefree.

In Barcelona, although the game started at one o'clock in the afternoon, the Spanish fans were still very active. Before 12 o'clock, a lot of fans had gathered at the home of the Spanish club, the El Prate Stadium. Many of them were holding paper bags of McDonald's and KFC in their hands. Obviously, these fans had not eaten lunch but bought some fast food directly and were ready to eat when they entered the stadium.

The Espanyol club players' training this morning was not very intense. It was mainly to adjust everyone's state and practice free – kick tactics. Everyone was more relaxed.

The morning training also ended earlier than usual, and then the players had lunch together in the training base's restaurant. After the meal, they took a short break and took a bus to El Prat Stadium.

Since Xia ruofei had decided to participate in the competition, he did not want to make things special at a time like this. Hence, he was moving with the team.

Song Wei and Ling Qingxue, accompanied by Zhou leiyun, had lunch at the hotel they were staying at, and then drove to the El Prat Stadium.

Unlike in Ncapu, this was the home ground of the Spanish, so the Spanish clubs naturally left the best box for their club chairman.

The private room that Zhou leiyun, Song Wei, and Ling Qingxue were in was the best place to watch the match in the entire Stadium. Furthermore, there was a special passageway that allowed them to enter and exit without any external interference.

When they arrived at the box and took their seats, the Spanish players were warming up on the field before the game. Ling Qingxue saw Xia ruofei, who was fighting for the circle with Wu Lei, iGracias, mark Roca, and Granello at first glance.

The person in charge of snatching the ball in the circle was the tall and long – legged iglesias. The football passed quickly under everyone's feet, and iglesias's long legs did not play a role at all. It was precisely because he was taller than he was more or less clumsy, and he almost managed to snatch the ball every time.

In the end, Granello made a small mistake and kicked the ball away. It was only then that iglesias was released and it was Granello's turn to go in and grab the ball.

Song Wei smiled and said, "ruofei, you look like you're in good shape!" How about we bet on how many goals he can score today?"

Zhou leiyun thought for a moment and said, "that's not easy to guess!" He can score two goals while playing bar?a, and he even has an assist. This Herona's defense is much worse than bar?a's. Who knows how many goals he can score?"

Ling Qingxue grinned. "There's no point in guessing the number of goals scored. RUO Fei's goal today is to score goals. He'll definitely score as many as he can!"

"Yup!" Zhou leiyun said, "I heard that he even asked Ruby for unlimited shots. I think the players will give him more shots today and let him shoot freely. It's hard to say how many goals he will score in the end!"

Song Wei thought for a while and said, "how about this ... Let's guess how long it will take for him to finish his first goal!"

Ling Qingxue's eyes lit up and she said, "that's a good idea!" How about a bet on a meal? A big meal at the top restaurant in Barcelona! We'll each say a time, and the person with the biggest difference will lose!"

"Sure!" Zhou leiyun laughed. Then I'll go first! I think ... Within 20 minutes! Forget it ... Fifteen minutes! I'm guessing 15 minutes!"

"General manager Zhou, don't you have too little confidence in RUO Fei?" Ling Qingxue said, "I think we can definitely score within ten minutes! I'll take ten minutes! Wei Wei, it's your turn!"

Song Wei looked at Xia ruofei, who had finished his warm – up and was walking back to the changing room. She thought for a while and said, "I feel that RUO Fei's killing intent is very strong today. You guys are too conservative ... I guess ... Eight minutes! I think RUO Fei will score within eight minutes of the game!"

Chapter 2855 A dream start (1)

The sun at around one o'clock in the afternoon was still quite strong. Under the sunlight, the projection of the stadium's ceiling made the entire Stadium appear to have two distinct parts, which were commonly known as the "Yin – yang field." Whether it was for the broadcaster or the fans, the experience was very bad.

The broadcasting unit had to constantly adjust the camera's luminosity according to the position of the football, and the fans' eyes would also be very uncomfortable.

In addition, on this warm winter afternoon, many fans could not help but feel a little drowsy. Even when the referee blew the whistle for the game, everyone would cheer loudly, but they always felt that the excitement was not as high as the late game.

However, after the opening, the fans' mood experienced a brief low tide and quickly rose to an extremely high height. The entire El Prat Stadium seemed to be boiling!

The reason was simple. As soon as the game started, Espanyol scored.

At this moment, the time was displayed on the scoreboard. The first minute of the match had not even passed.

The camera cut back to the start of the game. Espanyol was determined to win this game. While everyone was still preparing to kick off, the players of the RCD Espanyol club had already shown a fierce offensive posture to encourage the Espanyol to get the right to start the ball. Before the start, the Espanyol players in the middle and front field were lined up in a straight line behind the center line, waiting for the referee to blow the whistle, and then everyone rushed to Herona's half of the field together.

Generally, using this formation at the start of the game was the most direct embodiment of a team's desire to attack.

The Spanish team was not bluffing. The referee blew the whistle and the game began.

Iglesias passed the ball to Wu Lei, who was also in the starting lineup, and then began to rush to the front field. At the same time, the other players in the middle and front field of Espanyol quickly pressed past the half of the field and spread out in Herona's half.

Xia Ruofei was among the attacking players.

Because everyone plugged in quickly, Wu Lei didn't even pass the ball back as he usually did. In just a few seconds, there were several points for the ball in the front field of Herona.

Xia Ruofei's speed was extremely fast. He was almost sprinting at full speed and had already far surpassed Iglesias.

Wu Lei only took a glance at the ball before he raised his leg and dangled it over Xia Ruofei's head without hesitation.

Wu Lei's control of his footwork was not very precise. He was just trying to make a shot at the right time. Moreover, the head coach had made it clear before the game that he had to pass and make more balls for Xia Ruofei in this game so that Xia Ruofei would have more chances to shoot.

Xia Ruofei did not turn back to look at the ball to judge where it would land. His spiritual power had already spread out and he had already predicted where the ball would land. Hence, he did not need to slow down. Instead, he stomped on the ground and increased his speed.

Wu Lei's pass drew a parabola and quickly fell from the sky.

Xia Ruofei did not rush to the football's best landing point to run because he would not have a chance to receive the ball. He would have been cleared by the opponent's header from the back.

Xia ruofei had chosen a spot slightly ahead. When he ran to his position, Herona's defensive midfielder had already blocked his position.

However, Xia ruofei only squeezed lightly and used a reasonable collision to push the opposing player to his side. He took the best position to receive the ball.

In the blink of an eye, the football had already fallen from the air.

Xia ruofei opened his arms and trapped Herona's defensive midfielder behind him. At the same time, he jumped back slightly in the direction of the ball and stopped the ball with his chest.

The soccer ball bounced off Xia ruofei's chest after a clever diversion. It was completely under Xia ruofei's control.

At this time, Herona's defensive midfielder was still behind him, desperately trying to squeeze forward. In fact, Herona's defensive midfielder had completely lost his position, but he had to use as many small movements as possible to interfere with Xia ruofei so that he could not easily take the ball.

Otherwise, with Spain already firing arrows and several attacking players in the middle and front field already in Herona's half of the field, if the ball was easily divided by Xia ruofei, it would immediately become a great threat.

However, the defensive midfielder of Herona had overlooked the possibility of Xia ruofei turning around to break through. In a sense, he had also blocked his position. Xia ruofei's back was facing the goal and he was stopping a high ball. Another Herona midfielder not far away had come to help with the defense. Under such circumstances, it was very difficult for Xia ruofei to turn around.

However, Xia ruofei was just that unexpected. After he stopped the ball with his chest, the football only bounced up slightly and then fell down. He did not wait for the ball to land on the ground. It was basically at his waist. He suddenly stretched out his right foot and gently flicked it.

The ball drew an extremely beautiful arc and went over Xia ruofei's head. It also went over the defensive midfielder's head and landed behind them.

As Xia ruofei picked the ball, he nimbly lowered his center of gravity and quickly went around Herona's defensive midfielder. The entire pick, turn, and pass were done in one go. It made people think of Ronaldinho at his peak.

Xia ruofei's turning speed was extremely fast. When he circled around Herona's defensive midfielder, the football had not even landed on the ground.

Chapter 2856 A dream start (2)

Xia ruofei's position was about 36 to 37 meters away from the goal. To the opposing defenders, this was a relatively safe distance, so Herona's Center – backs did not rush up. They just stood in their defensive positions and made sure that they did not lose their positions.

The center – back did not press on, nor did he immediately make a move to interfere. Xia ruofei naturally noticed the gap in the shot. He even had time to glance at Herona's goalkeeper and found that the goalkeeper's position was relatively closer to the front.

Xia ruofei would not be polite.

He did not wait for the ball to fall to the ground at all. Using the inertia from turning around and rushing over, his left foot was firmly planted in the grass, and his right foot quickly and widely swung. His thigh drove his calf, and he firmly kicked the middle of the football.

There was a loud bang, and the nearby players even trembled involuntarily.

The football was like a cannonball fired from a heavy cannon, whistling straight to the dead end of the top left corner of the goal.

The speed of the ball was too fast. It was a 37 – meter shot, but in the blink of an eye, it had reached the goal.

The Herona Center – back, who was defending a little further ahead of the penalty area line, even felt a strong wind brush past his face. His face hurt from Xia ruofei's shot just now. The football just happened to brush past his ear.

And when the Herona goalkeeper realized that Xia ruofei was shooting directly, he almost reflexively pounced to the left.

This was also because the shooting distance was still relatively far. Otherwise, at this speed, the ball would have already entered the goal by the time the goalkeeper reacted.

But the Herona goalkeeper was still too far for him to reach. He felt that his fingertips were about to touch the football, but at that moment, the speed of the football seemed to increase a little. It brushed past his fingertips and continued to rise, and then went into the corner between the left pillar and the crossbar.

The accuracy of the shot was so high that it was outrageous. The ball just happened to drill into the dead corner of the upper left corner, but it did not touch the pillar or the crossbar at all. It was only after it hit the net with a bang that the net was knocked back violently.

By the time everyone came back to their senses, the football was already spinning around in the goal line.

It had only been 15 seconds since the referee blew the whistle to start the game and the goal was scored.

These 15 seconds included when iglesias passed the ball to Wu Lei, who paused for a second or so, and then used a big kick to dribble the ball to the front; The ball flew in the air for a few seconds. Xia ruofei caught the ball at a position of about 37 to 38 meters. He stopped the ball with his chest and immediately picked the ball to pass. Then, before the ball landed, he shot it with his foot.

Throughout the entire process, Herona's players did not touch the ball. The Spanish players did not touch the ball either, except for iglessias and Wu Lei, who kicked off.

In just 15 seconds, Spain had taken a one – goal lead. It was a dream start!

Many of the Spanish fans were still looking for a seat when they saw the fans beside them stand up. The entire Stadium went into an uproar. The fans who were looking for a seat looked at the field with a dumbfounded expression and found that the Herona goalkeeper was gloomily fishing for the ball from the net. The Spanish players had not even reached their first sprint, but they had already turned around and rushed towards Xia ruoxin.

Xia ruofei did not know that his first shot was so accurate from such a long distance. He could not help but smile brightly and spread his arms. Iglasias, who was running at the front, rushed over excitedly and hugged Xia ruofei.

Even though the huge body of aegleysias was charging at him at such a high speed, Xia ruofei was still as steady as a mountain. He stood on the spot without moving an inch. On the other hand, it was as if the giant had crashed into an unmoving mountain. However, he was so excited that he did not feel any pain.

More and more Spanish players rushed over. Wu Lei, Granello, mark Roca ... Everyone hugged each other tightly and surrounded Xia ruofei in the middle.

And the players of Herona were all dumbfounded. Everyone stood in their positions the moment the goal was scored, with a confused look on their faces.

The Spanish players celebrated for a while, but the time on the scoreboard only skipped a minute.

Everyone had just gone on stage and had not even entered their competitive state. Their bodies were not even warm at all, and they had already been hit by such a heavy blow. One could imagine how depressed they were.

Before the game, Herona had fully estimated the difficulty of the game, especially Xia ruofei’s targeted arrangement. After all, from his limited performance in the game, Xia ruofei was undoubtedly the most comprehensive and most threatening player in Spain.

The head coach of Herona had arranged for someone to specifically keep an eye on Xia ruofei and coordinate with the area Defense. The purpose was to keep an eye on Xia ruofei and not give him any chance to lift his leg.

However, he did not expect that the match had just started and the Spain players were rushing up all the way, causing the local players to be a little flustered. The defensive midfielder responsible for marking Xia ruofei could not resist at all.

In fact, even if Xia ruofei had passed the defensive midfielder, that position was not too dangerous. After all, the distance was too far, and Herona’s entire defensive line had blocked the position.

But who would have thought that Xia ruofei would kick him from so far away? And with just a kick, it actually went in directly. This was a completely unreasonable crushing!

Other than China’s PP sports broadcasting the match live, many other sports channels around the world were also broadcasting it. On one hand, Espanyol had been in the limelight this week. Not only did they kill bar?a, but they were also the absolute focus outside of the field. On the other hand, Xia ruofei had also expressed his interest in participating in this match, which made it even more interesting. On the other hand, the game’s opening time was set at oneo’ clock in the afternoon to take care of the Chinese audience. It basically did not clash with the other La Liga teams 'game time, so there were naturally more platforms to broadcast the game.

When Xia ruofei stopped the ball with his chest, most of the commentators just praised Xia ruofei's technique. After all, for such a long distance high ball, the chest needed to be very accurate to dissipate the force, otherwise the ball would easily bounce far away.

However, Xia ruofei's dribble and dribble was amazing. Some commentators whistled and everyone gave him all kinds of praises. They thought that this dribble and dribble fully demonstrated Xia ruofei's spirituality in football.

However, before the football commentators could finish their praises, Xia ruofei did not wait for the ball to land and immediately shot.

The speed of the ball was so fast that it even left an afterimage on the broadcast screen. If someone blinked when watching the ball, they might find that the ball had already entered the goal in the next moment.

Football commentators all over the world fell silent almost at the same time, followed by a burst of passionate commentary in various languages.

"Goal...Goal...Goal ..." The ESPN commentator repeated the word "goal" at the top of his voice. His mind seemed to be completely blank.

"Gulllllll ..." The commentator of the Spain Channel 4 said in a measured voice. The ending tone was like an air defense alarm, fully demonstrating the volume of his lungs.

After a series of "goals" in various languages, the commentators came back to their senses and began to rack their brains to think of all kinds of "our" words. They were not stingy with giving them to Xia ruofei.

"Although there is still a certain gap between this goal and La Liga's fastest goal record, it is more exciting than that!"

"Xia said before the game that he wanted to respond to those who were prejudiced against the Chinese players with actual actions. He did it in only 15 seconds!"

"Xia is indeed Mr. Bo of the world! He has once again dedicated a wonderful world wave!"

Chapter 2857 The tide of attacks (1)

This was Xia ruofei's third match in La Liga so far. He had scored in the previous two matches, and they were all extremely difficult world waves. Therefore, some people on the internet had already given Xia ruofei the nickname "Mr. World wave".

Mr. World – Class Bo did not let everyone down today. In just 15 seconds of the game, a violent shot from 37 meters away broke through Herona's goal.

Before this goal, Xia ruofei's stopping and picking of the ball were quite light and agile. His shooting movements were even more coherent. It could be said that this goal was a combination of the aesthetics of violence and technique. It made people's blood boil and they could not help but praise it.

In the PP sports studio in Beijing, the old partners Shen fangjian and Jia Tianning were all excited by the goal.

A moment ago, Shen fangjian was still routinely introducing the starting lineup of both teams. However, he was interrupted after reading two names. The moment Xia ruofei stopped the ball, Shen fangjian shouted, ""This is an opportunity! We all know that Xia ruofei's personal skills and shooting accuracy are outstanding! He picked the ball, turned around, and passed ... Beautiful! It's very open up ahead ... Wow! Xia ruofei is going to shoot!"

Jia Tianning, who was standing at the side, had completely forgotten the principle that two commentators could not steal each other's words. At that moment, he couldn't help but shout out, ""Shoot! The ball went in! The ball went in! It had only been ten seconds since the match started, but Xia ruofei had changed the score with a world wave! This is crazy!"

Shen fangjian quickly said, "this is the cooperation of two Chinese players!" Wu Lei made a long pass from the center circle. After Xia ruofei received the ball, he nimbly picked it up and passed the ball. Then, he immediately raised his leg and shot! The football goes straight into the theoretical dead end, and the Herona goalkeeper has no way to deal with it!"

The camera briefly gave the Spanish players some time to celebrate, and soon the televised broadcast began to replay the goal.

Jia Tianning, as a professional guest, also interpreted the goal for the fans in time, ""As we can see, the Spaniards have already shown a strong desire to attack before the game began. They have at least seven players on the halfway line, including Xia ruofei. After the referee whistle was blown, they all pressed forward in unison! It's precisely because of this offensive attitude that they were given such an opportunity!"

"Wu Lei's pass was just right! If he were to pass the ball to another player, the force of his kick might be a little too strong. However, he clearly knows Xia ruofei's speed very well. He passed the ball to Xia ruofei's most comfortable position!" Jia Tianning was indeed the leader of Wu Chui Hall. It was Wu Lei who had spread the rumors, but he could still make it sound like Wu Lei and Xia ruofei had great chemistry!

Jia Tianning continued, "Xia ruofei stopped the ball, picked the ball, and turned around. This series of actions fully reflected his solid basic skills and unparalleled sense of the ball. It was also this beautiful back – to – back pass that laid the foundation for the next step!" We saw that when Xia ruofei shot, none of the defenders of Herona came up to intercept or interfere. The goalkeeper's position was also a little forward. They did not prepare enough before the game! I didn't know Xia ruofei's shooting range was so far!"

Shen fangjian chuckled and said, "the commander of Herona is probably worried now!" The goal completely disrupted his pre – Game deployment! Now that the team is behind, it's definitely not going to work to just defend, but the attack must be pressed on, which gives the Spaniards a chance to fight back!"

"Yes, I am!" Jia Tianning said, "Wu Lei and Xia ruofei's tacit cooperation resulted in this beautiful goal. Of course, Xia ruofei's personal ability was perfectly displayed. This is also the role of a superstar on a team.

They can often rely on their personal ability and their own flash of inspiration to change the outcome of the game when the team is in a difficult situation! Even though Xia ruofei does not participate in many competitions and still lacks the support of data, I still think that if he focuses on football, he will not be worse than those superstars!"

Jia Tianning returned to his "summer bragging" mode, but the fans watching the game didn't feel any discomfort, and no one in the bullet screen ridiculed Jia Tianning.

The reason was very simple. Xia ruofei's goal was not to be criticized. No matter how much Jia Tianning bragged at this time, no one could refute it! Even the brainless black Xia was now very wise to hide and not speak.

The bullet screen of PP sports was filled with the word "awesome". The fans who were watching the game were in a neat formation and all said the word in unison. It was a spectacular sight.

In the VIP box at El prate Stadium, Song Wei, Ling Qingxue, and Zhou leiyun subconsciously stood up and cheered the moment Xia ruofei scored the goal.

In fact, although the box had a certain sound – proofing effect, they could still hear the loud cheers of the fans in the stands, and everyone was singing and dancing. They could even feel the box shaking slightly.

After the excitement died down, the three of them looked at each other.

"This ... This should be considered Wei Wei's win?" Ling Qingxue asked.

Chapter 2858 The tide of attacks (2)

The three of them made a bet before the game started. They were guessing when Xia ruofei's first goal would come.

Zhou leiyun was more conservative and took fifteen minutes to guess. Ling Qingxue took 10 minutes while Song Wei, who had the most confidence in Xia ruofei, took 8 minutes.

The three of them did not expect Xia ruofei to score in just 15 seconds.

Of course, in theory, Song Wei's answer was the closest to Yingluo 's, even if it was still far from it.

Song Wei was a little embarrassed and said,"I think it's a draw! If I win, I'd feel bad ..."

Ling Qingxue thought for a moment and said,"Hey!" Why are we so conflicted about this? When the competition is over, let RUO Fei treat you! He's in the limelight today, shouldn't he treat us to a big meal?"

"That makes sense!" Song Wei agreed with a smile.

Zhou leiyun saw that Song Wei and Ling Qingxue had come to an agreement, so he naturally wouldn't raise any objections. With their wealth, it didn't matter who treated them. The most important thing was to be happy!

Although Xia ruofei's goal did not break the LA Liga's record for the fastest goal, it would definitely be the best goal of the week. Even if it was the first match of La Liga, there would be no suspense, unless Xia ruofei himself scored an even more exciting goal.

This had severely slapped the faces of several media outlets, led by The Sports Daily, that questioned the ability of Chinese players.

The Spanish players did not celebrate for too long and quickly returned to their own half of the game. The game had just begun, and they were not satisfied with winning a goal, so they could not delay time by celebrating a goal at this time.

The players of Herona wanted to cry but had no tears. It had only been a minute, and it was already the second time the ball had been kicked off in the center circle. This time, it was their turn to kick off, and the score on the scoreboard had become 1 – 0. As usual, the home team was in the lead.

Before the Spanish players kicked off, another six or seven players lined up in a row on the center line as if they were the ones behind. They could not wait to rush to the other half of the field.

The players of Herona all had the same thought in their hearts: What are you guys doing? Can't we just have fun?

The Espanyol's manager, Ruby, did not stand on the sidelines to give instructions. He sat in the technical area, leisurely crossing his legs and chatting with the assistant manager beside him.

Before the start of the match, this was what Ruby had arranged for the players. They were to attack at the start of the match. Even after they scored a goal, they could not retreat. At least for the first 15 minutes, the players only had one task, and that was to press forward and keep pressing.

When the other side took the ball, they had to press and snatch it on the spot, and they had to be surrounded by many people to ensure that their side had the advantage of numbers in the local area. When their team controlled the ball, they had to boldly plug in, and the full – back had to spare no effort to assist forward.

This was indeed very physically exhausting. The forward pressing tactic required every player to put in more energy than usual. Everyone ran more to further reduce the space of the other side.

The full-back's frequent insertion was even more challenging. First of all, the full-back's attack range was relatively far, and every time he sprinted up and down, it was a test of physical strength. Second, after the full – back plugged in, the space left behind would require other players to fill in the defense, which would further consume the physical strength of other players.

However, the Spanish players were very determined. Even if they took the lead from the start, they did not change their tactics.

After Herona kicked off, several Spanish players quickly surrounded him, and the other players quickly ran to further cut off the passing route of the opposing player who had the ball.

Under this kind of high – intensity rush, the players who had the ball would be very nervous, and the probability of making mistakes would increase correspondingly.

The firm implementation of the offensive tactics also quickly bore fruit.

In the eighth minute of the game, Xia ruofei's extremely penetrative straight pass directly crossed two layers of Herona's defense. Wu Lei, who had been roaming around the offside line, understood. After a reverse run, he accelerated again. With a perfect reverse offside operation, he formed a single – handed knife.

However, the moment Wu Lei dribbled the ball into the penalty area, the ball was a little too wide, and Herona's goalkeeper had already struck decisively.

Although Wu Lei still managed to catch up with the football, Herona's goalkeeper was already in front of him, almost completely blocking the angle of his shot.

Fortunately, Wu Lei was still very calm. From the corner of his eye, he saw someone quickly plug in in the middle of the penalty area, so he gave up on the shot. With a swing of his ankle, he flicked the ball past Herona's goalkeeper and passed it to the middle.

The person who plugged in at a high speed was the center forward of Espanyol, iglesias. Wu Lei's pass was much more accurate than the one he had passed to Xia ruofei before. When iglesias ran to his position, the football was just delivered, and the height was just right.

Iglesia did not even need to jump, he just lightly headed the ball on the spot and easily sent the ball into the unguarded goal. If he could not even head the ball in, he would really be ashamed to death.

After Wu Lei passed the ball, he was also tripped by Herona's goalkeeper. He lost his balance and fell on the grass. After iglesias scored, he ran directly to Wu Lei and pounced on him.

It had only been eight minutes since the start of the game and Spain was already leading by two goals!

Chapter 2859 Tide of attacks (3)

When Xia ruofei passed the ball, he was still quite far away from the opponent's goal. Moreover, Wu Lei had already formed a single blade. Hence, every time he rushed forward, he just stood there and watched.

When he saw that Wu Lei changed his shot to a pass at the last minute after he rolled big, iglesias picked up a big pie and ate it, he could not help but laugh.

It had only been eight minutes since the match started, and Wu Lei had already gotten two assists.

But he was clearly a forward!

Wu Lei, who was a little breathless as he was pressed down on the grass by Iglesia, was also depressed that he didn't want to help! I've always had the heart to score a goal!

More and more RCD Espanyol players rushed up, and Wu Lei could not move under the pressure. It was only when Xia ruofei grinned and pulled everyone away that Wu Lei was released.

Xia ruofei whispered into Wu Lei's ear,""Don't worry, the game has just begun! We both have to score in this game, and I'll continue to feed you the ball!"

Wu Lei was a little embarrassed and said, ""Brother Xia, I didn't expect that I would make such a big mistake at the critical moment ..."

"I'm fine! It's fine! You can't care too much about things like throwing a single blade! Otherwise, the more the netizens ridicule you, the more pressure you'll feel!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "and your mental strength is good enough. You made the right choice to pass the ball in a flash and not force a goal! This means that you're calm enough!"

Xia ruofei patted Wu Lei's shoulder and said, ""Let's go! Let them kick off quickly and try to help you complete your goal in the first half!"

After conceding two goals in a short eight minutes, the players of Herona were a little flustered. Their manager was shouting orders on the sidelines, in sharp contrast to Ruby's calm and composed demeanor.

Under the manager's loud reminder, the players of Herona finally calmed down a little. After the restart, they were not in a hurry to attack. Instead, they first stabilized their defense. With the momentum of the Spanish team today, if they dared to press on and attack in a short time, they might accidentally lose another goal.

Since the Spanish were so confident, Herona chose to avoid them.

Under such a guiding principle, they finally managed to stabilize their position.

The Espanyol's full – Game close – on tactics were physically exhausting. Unless everyone was as energetic as Xia ruofei, it was impossible to use this tactic for the entire game.

As the Spaniards' pressure gradually decreased, Jerona was finally able to control some of the ball.

Although Spain's possession rate had declined, they still had the initiative on the field, especially when Xia ruofei took the ball in the middle, which often posed a threat.

Now, as long as Xia ruofei took the ball, Herona would have at least two players come over to defend. If it was a dangerous area, more people would quickly come over.

Even so, it was difficult for them to snatch the ball from Xia ruofei's feet.

In the 19th minute of the game, Xia ruofei took the ball from his back 33 meters away from the opponent's goal. After a beautiful Marseille turn, the opponent's player directly grabbed Xia ruofei's Jersey and pulled him to the ground.

The referee whistled and the referee quickly ran to the foul spot. As he ran, he took out a yellow card from his shirt pocket and flashed it at the player who had fouled.

Espanyol was awarded a free kick 33 meters away from the goal, slightly to the left of the middle.

Xia ruofei looked at the time on the scoreboard and a smile gradually appeared on his face ...

Chapter 2860 Paying respects_

As long as Xia ruofei participated in a game, he would definitely be ranked first in the free – kick category. This was without a doubt.

Moreover, the players were convinced that no one would have any intention of competing with Xia ruofei for the free – kick after watching the free – kick match between Xia ruofei and markroka.

Before the match, Ruby had even made it clear that no matter who created the penalty kick in the match, Xia ruofei would be the one to take it.

Besides, the ball was about thirty – three meters away from the goal. Any other player would have a very low success rate with a free kick from that position, except for Xia ruofei.

After the free kick was made, Wu Lei immediately ran over and pulled Xia ruofei up from the grass. He asked with concern, “Brother Xia, are you alright?”

Xia ruofei grinned. “I’m fine. I just wasn’t prepared. I lost my balance when I was suddenly pulled. Otherwise, I could have gone in and shot directly!”

“It’s almost the same now. Your success rate for free kicks in this position is still very high!” Wu Lei said with a smile.

The team’s defensive midfielder, the old player, Victor Sanchez, picked up the ball and jogged to Xia ruofei. He grinned and said, “boss! Good luck! Let’s try to get another one!”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

The foul was so obvious that Xia ruofei’s Jersey was severely deformed, so the players of Herona had no dispute about the penalty of the free – kick and the yellow card. They quickly began to form a human wall under the command of the goalkeeper.

The Spanish players also deployed their forces in front of the penalty area, ready to enter the penalty area at any time.

The ball was further away from the goal. If it had been another player who took the ball, the Herona team would basically only symbolically arrange one or two players to form a human wall, and the focus would be on the defense in the penalty area because the ball would probably hang into the penalty area and let the local players grab the point to shoot.

However, the head coach of Herona had obviously studied Xia ruofei’s game videos. He knew that thirty – three meters was not a safe distance. It was completely within Xia ruofei’s shooting range, so he had given instructions in advance. This time, there were four Herona players standing in a row on the line marked by the referee. They were constantly adjusting their positions according to the goalkeeper’s instructions.

The goalkeeper was also on guard. Xia ruofei could shoot directly, but he could not rule out the possibility of the ball going into the penalty area. After all, the Spanish team had several high points and were not at a disadvantage in competing for a header.

Therefore, the defense in the penalty area could not be ignored, but a team only had 11 players. After removing the four human walls, the remaining players in the penalty area were somewhat stretched out.

Even though the ball was far away from the goal, the entire Herona team was very nervous.

Xia ruofei, on the other hand, looked relaxed. He placed the football on the spot where the foul was committed, which the referee had drawn with a foam spray. Then, he began to slowly retreat and open up the running distance.

Espanyol did not even arrange for other players to come over to fake a run to deliberately confuse the team. Xia ruofei was left alone in front of the football.

Anyway, it was no secret that Xia ruofei was the team's first free kick player.

The referee confirmed the human wall and reminded the players near the penalty area not to make any moves. He would keep a close eye on everyone.

Then, the main judge looked at Xia ruofei, put the whistle in his mouth, and blew the whistle. At the same time, he made a gesture of a free throw.

Xia ruofei raised his head to look at the big screen on the scoreboard. It was about 20 minutes and 30 seconds into the first half of the game.

Xia ruofei muttered to himself and made a gesture to the referee. He then walked forward and adjusted the ball again.

Although the referee was a little surprised, he quickly came back to his senses. He did not say anything. After all, the Spanish team was in high spirits. Xia ruofei did not need to use such means to delay time. Moreover, it was only 21 minutes into the first half. There was still a long time before the end of the game!

In addition, some players were more particular about the ball placement. Some would specifically find the position of the valve, which was the hardest place on the football. If they hit the valve during a free throw, they could propose a faster speed of the ball and make it easier for the elevator ball to be thrown.

Once the grass was not flat and the position of the football rolled a little, many players would go over to place the football again.

This was also allowed by the rules, so the main judge did not say anything.

The players of the Herona team were a little upset. They had been nervous for a long time, and now Xia ruofei had suddenly repositioned the ball. It did not feel good to be so surprised.

Xia ruofei slowly spent more than ten seconds to put the ball back in place and then stepped back.

As he retreated, he looked at the big screen on the scoreboard.

The time was now 20 minutes and 55 seconds.

Xia ruofei stood still and looked up at Herona's goal. He started to run.

The Herona goalkeeper also lowered his center of gravity and stared at the football, ready to save it at any time. The human wall formed by the Herona players was even more nervous, afraid that the football would slip over their heads if they jumped too early or too late.

Xia ruofei's run – up took three seconds.
