

God tier Farm 2891

Chapter 2891 You don't understand the world of geniuses (2)

In fact, Xia ruofei was not just showing off. Luo Qingfeng was also very envious of Xia ruofei when he saw that he could control the flying sword to complete so many incredible movements.

The reason was very simple. Sword Kinesis flight was the most commonly used skill for cultivators at the Golden core stage and above. Even in battles between cultivators above the Golden core stage, they often directly stepped on the flying sword to fight in the sky. At this time, whoever had the more precise control of the flying sword and the more incredible flight trajectory would naturally be able to seize the first opportunity in the battle.

Therefore, these stunts were actually very useful.

Just as Luo Qingfeng was shocked by the speed of Xia ruofei's sword control technique, Xia ruofei finally ended his 'test flight'. He controlled the flying sword and it streaked across the sky like a shooting star. When it reached the edge of the cliff, the flying sword suddenly stopped. It went from a very fast speed to a standstill without any buffer. However, Xia ruofei still stood firmly on the flying sword and was not affected at all.

Xia ruofei jumped down from the flying sword and kept the blue travel immortal sword in his dantian to continue nourishing it. He said to Luo Qingfeng with a smile, "Qingfeng, what are you doing here? Didn't I tell you to recover as soon as possible?"

Luo Qingfeng quickly said with shame, "Master, this old servant was frightened by you. If I had known that you were so talented in sword control, I wouldn't have reminded you ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "It's my first time flying too. I'm still not familiar with some parts. It's not as good as you say."

Luo Qingfeng was speechless. 'You're so good at this, yet you're still not skilled enough?' How heaven – defying would you be when you're proficient in it? Do you still want me to live?

Xia ruofei continued, "It's my first time riding a flying sword. I'm a little high. I've also used up a lot of vital energy just now. Let's recover together!" After you've adjusted your condition, we'll set off immediately!"

Li Yifu had already sent him the address and location of the person Xia ruofei had contacted with the Hong sect in Mexico. Xia ruofei only needed to rush over as soon as possible and bring back the firearms.

"Yes! Master!" "Yes!" Luo Qingfeng quickly responded.

The master and servant sat cross – legged near the core of the formation and absorbed the spiritual energy in the Taixu xuanqing formation to recover.

Xia ruofei did not use any origin crystals either. On one hand, he was not in a hurry. The concentration of spiritual energy in the Taixu xuanqing formation was not too bad. He just needed to spend a little more time. On the other hand, it was also because sword Kinesis flight didn't consume too much vital Qi. He didn't lose much vital Qi in his dantian, so there was no need to use origin crystals to recover it.

In fact, Xia ruofei did not know that different sword – controlling techniques would consume different amounts of energy. He and Luo Qingfeng controlled their flying swords at the same time. For the same distance, Luo Qingfeng’s energy consumption would definitely be much greater than his.

The technique Xia ruofei used to control the sword was a set of the “great Dao technique”, especially the vital Qi Network. There were actually many clever ideas, and ordinary sword techniques could not compare to it.

The difference in cultivation techniques was all – Round. In fact, Xia ruofei was not particularly talented. It was just that he cultivated the “great Dao Sutra”, which Luo Qingfeng could not catch up with no matter how hard he tried. Even if he was more talented than Xia ruofei, the result would be the same. In the end, he would be left far behind by Xia ruofei.

Similarly, Xia ruofei was regulating his breathing and recovering. He quickly replenished the vital Qi that he had just expended, while Luo Qingfeng was still meditating.

Xia ruofei did not disturb him. Instead, he took out his phone and studied the flight route.

Flying on a sword was different from flying on a plane, where one had to strictly follow the route. Basically, flying on a sword would allow one to fly as close as possible. After all, the sky was so big, and there wouldn’t be tens of thousands of cultivators flying in the sky at any time.

Peach source Island was located in the South Pacific Ocean, so the fastest route to Mexico was naturally to fly northeast. Although they had passed by the ocean, it did not affect cultivators like Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng at all.

The handover address provided by Li Yifu was kuachakus port, located in the southwest part of Mexico. This was one of the main ports in southern Mexico. The shipping company operated by the Hong sect had a large warehouse near the port of kuachakus. The batch of arms had been transferred and stored in the warehouse of the shipping company.

Xia ruofei retrieved the location information from his phone and entered it into the map app. The GPS module was now standard on mobile phones, so it could search for satellite signals even in the air. Of course, Xia ruofei would not use the map software to navigate all the way there. He only needed to fly in the direction of Mexico and it would not be too late to navigate when he reached kuachakurakos.

After a while, Luo Qingfeng finally finished regulating his breathing. He opened his eyes and saw Xia ruofei looking at his phone in boredom. He quickly stood up and said in embarrassment, “Master, this old servant has already adjusted my breathing.”

Luo Qingfeng knew that he must have been a burden. Xia ruofei had already recovered.

Xia ruofei smiled, stood up and said, “Then let’s go! Wherever they flew, they would stop and rest when they were tired. This time, there was no rush! Don’t force yourself, if you don’t have enough Yuan Qi, you have to tell me!”

“Yes! Master!” Luo Qingfeng said.

Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng summoned their flying swords. Soon, two sword lights flew out of the Peach Blossom Island and into the sky above the sea. Then, they drew an arc and flew toward the northeast of the island.

The two of them were flying at an altitude of two to three thousand meters. It was much colder at high altitude than on the ground, but it had no effect on cultivators. The wind from the high altitude during the flight was also blocked by the protective barrier formed by Yuan Qi. The two of them stepped on flying swords and flew two thousand meters in the air. They were like Immortals.

It was Xia ruofei's first time flying at such a high altitude. In the past, he had taken planes many times and flew at much higher altitudes than this. However, he still found it novel to fly at such heights without any means of transportation.

Not to mention anything else, this kind of flying method was simply invincible in the field of vision. There was no 360 – degree panoramic view and no dead angle! No matter how good the viewing angle of the plane was, it was impossible to see such a scenery.

The blue sky and white clouds were overhead, and there were some lower clouds under his feet. There was also a deep blue sea that stretched as far as the eye could see. The scenery was very magnificent.

The reason why Xia ruofei had called Luo Qingfeng along was that he did not know if he could master the technique of sword Kinesis flight in a short period of time. On the other hand, he did not want to be too bored on the road. He could find Luo Qingfeng to learn more about the cultivation world on earth and some knowledge about the Golden core stage.

As the two of them flew at high speed, they communicated via Yuan Qi voice transmission.

After chatting for a while, Xia ruofei thought of the auction that they had talked about last time. He asked, "By the way, Qingfeng, you said that there would be an auction for cultivators on peach source Island in the near future. What's the situation now?"

"Master," Luo Qingfeng quickly said, "I've already confirmed the auction's location. It's now confirmed that the auction will be held in Shuangqing city. Our star Seizer sect has also received an invitation letter. At most three people can go. The auction is on the 5th of next month, so there's still ten days left."

Xia ruofei nodded. "You said that a storage ring might appear at the auction. Is that accurate?" he asked.

Luo Qingfeng said, "master, this auction is held once a year, and it has been held dozens of times. The rules are similar every time. In order to maintain a sense of mystery, the specific items to be auctioned will only be revealed on the day of the auction. However, some news will leak out every year, but it is difficult to tell whether the news is true or false." This time, a friend of this old servant told me about the storage ring. Although I trust him, this old servant is not completely confident, so I don't dare to make any guarantees with master ..."

Chapter 2892 It's fate!_

Xia ruofei nodded with a smile. Luo Qingfeng was careful with his words. He would not dare to say anything that he was not 100% sure of in front of Xia ruofei. However, Xia ruofei did not care too much about this and was just having a casual chat.

He had already decided to attend this auction. If a storage ring appeared at the auction, he would try his best to get it. If there wasn't, it was fine. He would just treat it as a chance to broaden his horizons.

Although Xia ruofei had already cultivated to the early – Stage golden elixir realm, which was not considered low in the current cultivation world, he did not know much about the cultivation world. Most of the limited information he knew was told to him by Luo Qingfeng and Liu chengfeng. This auction was a rare opportunity to meet many cultivators and get close to them. Xia ruofei would naturally not let this opportunity go.

In fact, such a long – distance flight was very boring, especially when they were flying above the sea most of the time. After the initial sense of novelty passed, the scene in front of them was always the same sea. There was no end in sight, as if there was no end to it no matter how much they flew.

This was especially true for this route, where they would not pass by any islands along the way, which made it even more monotonous.

To be honest, sword Kinesis flight consumed very little vital Qi. Even if Luo Qingfeng's sword Kinesis was not as advanced as Xia ruofei's, he was also an early – Stage golden core cultivator and could still rely on his own vital Qi to carry out sword Kinesis flight for a long time.

The two of them set off in the afternoon, and they were flying in the direction of the earth's rotation, so the sky quickly darkened.

Without them realizing it, the fiery red sun slowly sank below the sea level behind them. As the sun set, the sky above the sea quickly turned dark.

Cultivators had a strong sense of direction. Besides, Xia ruofei had the phone's GPS to confirm his location. Hence, the poor visibility did not affect their flight. However, flying in the same direction like this was really boring.

At least Xia ruofei still had Luo Qingfeng to chat with. He thought of how Luo Qingfeng had flown to Peach Blossom Island overnight and flew alone. One could imagine how boring it must have been.

Although the two of them had not consumed much of their vital Qi, Xia ruofei had only used a little less than half of the vital Qi in his dantian, and Luo Qingfeng had at least half of his vital Qi reserves, Xia ruofei still decided to rest for a while.

In any case, the matter of transporting weapons and equipment itself was not particularly urgent. If it wasn't for the fact that the shipping time was too long, and he had just broken through to the early jiedan stage and hadn't tried long – distance sword riding, he definitely wouldn't have personally been a Porter.

However, the guards of Paradise Island were not in place yet, so it didn't matter whether the weapons arrived a few days earlier or later.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not need to rush with all his might.

Hence, he slowed down his flying speed. Luo Qingfeng, who was beside him, saw that Xia ruofei had slowed down and quickly did the same.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Qingfeng, are you tired?" Do you want to go down and rest for a while?"

"Master, I'm feeling fine. I still have at least half of my Yuan Qi reserves. I can still fly for a few more hours ..." Luo Qingfeng was stunned for a moment.

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "there's no need to tire yourself out. Our mission this time is not urgent." Even if you're not tired, I'm feeling a little tired, mainly because I'm too bored ... Why don't we stop and rest for a while!"

Naturally, Luo Qingfeng did not have any objections to Xia ruofei's suggestion. However, after thinking for a while, he said hesitantly, "Master, right now we're all in the ocean ... Why don't this old servant first look for any nearby islands, and then ask master to move over to rest?"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "no need to go through all that trouble!" Let's go! Let's go down and talk!"

With that, Xia ruofei controlled the flying sword under his feet and began to descend. Luo Qingfeng followed Xia ruofei, full of doubts.

He thought to himself, "could it be that master wants to control the flying sword to float above the sea to rest?" What was the point of this? Maintaining the floating state of the flying sword consumed Yuan Qi, and with his mental power constantly controlling it, he couldn't achieve the goal of rest at all! And since they were all floating, why lower their altitude? Wasn't it the same at an altitude of two to three thousand meters?

Luo Qingfeng could not figure it out, but he still followed Xia ruofei closely and did not ask.

Xia ruofei controlled the blue travel immortal sword and descended to a height of three to four meters above the sea. Even a slightly bigger wave could surge to such a height. However, the two of them were standing on the flying sword and had a Yuan Qi protective shield on the outside. Hence, even if the sea water churned, they would not be wet.

Luo Qingfeng was even more confused. However, he still controlled his flying sword and flew more than ten meters away, looking in Xia ruofei's direction.

What happened next left him dumbfounded. Xia ruofei waved his hand and a ten – meter – long yacht appeared out of thin air above the sea. It landed on the sea and swayed with the waves.

Chapter 2893 It's fate (2)

While Luo Qingfeng was still in a state of shock, Xia ruofei had already flown over on his flying sword. He stopped above the deck of the yacht, jumped off the flying sword, and kept it in his dantian.

He waved at Luo Qingfeng and shouted, "Qingfeng! Come over! Come up and rest for a while!"

Only then did Luo Qingfeng come back to his senses. With a look of disbelief, he flew over on his flying sword. Even when he landed on the deck of the yacht and felt the yacht swaying with the waves, he still felt a strong sense of unreality.

Naturally, Luo Qingfeng could tell that Xia ruofei had stored the yacht in his storage treasure. Besides, Xia ruofei had said before he left that there was no need to worry about the storage treasure not having enough space. This meant that Xia ruofei must have brought a storage treasure with enough space.

However, Luo Qingfeng was still a little dumbfounded. The strange – looking ‘iron ship’ in front of him was more than ten meters long, but Xia ruofei’s storage artifact could actually fit it all in. There was obviously a lot of spare space. Xia ruofei had to transport a large number of supplies this time and also relied on this storage artifact. How big was the storage space of this storage artifact?

In comparison, the space in Luo Qingfeng’s own storage ring was pitifully small. The difference was like the difference between a thatched house and a luxurious Manor.

This yacht was the azmu Atlantis 34 that Xia ruofei had placed in the spirit map space. This yacht was considered to be of medium and small size among the azmu yacht series. It was a sports yacht and was not suitable for use in the distant sea. However, Xia ruofei only took it out to rest, so there was no problem.

There was a flying bridge on the deck. Xia ruofei did not need to drive the yacht, so he sat on the sofa on the deck.

He looked at Luo Qingfeng, who was standing there in a daze, and said with a smile, “Qingfeng, what are you doing? Come sit down and rest for a while! Aren’t you tired after flying for half a day?”

Luo Qingfeng seemed to wake up from a dream. He quickly bowed and said, “Thank you for your understanding, master!”

Then, he walked to the seat opposite Xia ruofei and sat down.

Xia ruofei sat comfortably on the soft sofa and looked up at the starry sky. He enjoyed the rare tranquility. Although the sound of the waves could be heard from time to time, it only served to enhance the quietness of the environment.

The last time he had this feeling was when Xia ruofei sailed the bigger azmu yacht out to sea.

Qingfeng Luo did not dare to speak as he was afraid of disturbing his master. He sat quietly to recuperate. Even though the spiritual energy in the air was very thin and impure, as an Aurous core stage cultivator, he could still absorb it directly, but the efficiency was very low.

However, Luo Qingfeng had the idea that it was better than nothing. He wanted to recover as much as possible so that he would not be a burden to his master in the following flight.

Time passed by quietly. Xia ruofei suddenly opened his eyes and looked confused. He asked, “Qingfeng, did you notice?”

Luo Qingfeng came out of his cultivation state and asked with a blank face, “Master, what did you find?”

Xia ruofei was slightly stunned. He had released his spiritual power to check the surroundings out of habit. In the end, he realized that at the edge of his spiritual Power’s sensing range, there was a luxury yacht floating with the waves.

That yacht was much bigger than the azmu Atlantis34 that Xia ruofei was on now. Even the bigger azmu yacht that Xia ruofei had been on the last time he went out to sea paled in comparison to the yacht he had just discovered.

According to the feedback from his spiritual power, the yacht was about 160 meters long and more than ten meters wide. It was obviously a super luxury yacht that could sail in the distant sea, and its endurance was much better than the azmu yacht he docked at the Yacht Club dock.

The Super – Luxury yacht was about ten kilometers away.

Xia ruofei did not expect that there would be other ships nearby when he was just looking for a place to rest. The sea was vast and boundless. The probability of this was almost like winning the lottery.

However, Luo Qingfeng did not notice anything. Xia ruofei was a little surprised.

It seemed that Luo Qingfeng's spiritual energy sensing range was smaller than his own! Xia ruofei said to himself.

The position of the Super luxury yacht was basically at the edge of Xia ruofei's spiritual power sensing range. If Luo Qingfeng could not sense it, it meant that it was already out of the range of his spiritual power.

"Ten kilometers to our North ... That's about twenty miles. There's a ship." Xia ruofei chuckled. "This is too much of a coincidence!"

Luo Qingfeng was taken aback. His eyes widened as he asked, "Master, your spiritual power can cover an area of twenty miles?"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "if I use all my strength, I should be able to go further. However, 25 miles should be the limit." This is also because after breaking through to the early Aurous core stage, my mental strength has also improved. Otherwise, the range would be even smaller. "

Luo Qingfeng was speechless. Xia ruofei's tone did not sound very satisfied. This was already very heaven – defying, okay?

Luo Qingfeng was too embarrassed to say that his spiritual power could cover less than 15 miles. Compared to Xia ruofei's 25 miles, it was a huge gap!

They were both cultivators in the beginning stage of the Golden core realm, and Xia ruofei had just broken through yesterday. Why was there such a big difference between them? Luo Qingfeng was starting to doubt his life.

After Xia ruofei discovered the yacht, out of habit, he focused his spiritual power in that direction and investigated it in detail.

The corners of his mouth curled up slightly as he muttered to himself, "Interesting ..."

Then, Xia ruofei took out the blue travel immortal sword and said, "Qingfeng, you stay here to recover your energy. I'll go and take a look!"

“Master,” Luo Qingfeng said subconsciously, “I’ll go with you!” If there’s anything, we can look out for each other!”

Xia ruofei chuckled and said, “there are only a few ordinary people on that ship. What could have happened?” I’ll be back soon. Don’t go back and forth, just rest here and recover! By the way, there should be some drinks in the refrigerator in the small kitchen at the stern. If you’re thirsty, you can take them and drink!”

“Yes! Thank you, master!” Seeing that Xia ruofei had already made his decision, Luo Qingfeng naturally did not dare to say anything more. He quickly nodded and agreed.

Xia ruofei leaped up and steadily stepped on the flying sword. Then, he activated his spiritual energy and vital Qi at the same time. The blue immortal sword immediately soared into the sky and brought Xia ruofei to the North at an extreme speed ...

At this time, the Super luxury yacht, which was about ten kilometers North of Xia ruofei’s azmu Atlantis34, was floating quietly on the sea. There was a circle of light blue atmosphere lights around the waterline of the yacht, dyeing the surrounding seawater a dreamy light blue. The entire yacht was brightly lit, and the four – story deck was brightly lit, but no one could be seen.

On the second floor of the yacht, a white man in his forties was sitting on the ground with a pale face. His back was against the railing of the deck, and his eyes were intertwined with despair, fear, and anger.

In front of him stood a white man who looked similar to him, but a few years younger. The white man held a large – caliber pistol in his hand, and four big men stood behind him.

The four men were all wearing waiter uniforms, but their white shirts were stained with blood. Of course, these were obviously other people’s blood. The four men were unscathed. They crossed their arms in front of their chests and looked at the middle – aged white man in front of them without saying a word.

“Davis, it’s no use even if you kill me!” The middle – aged white man gritted his teeth and said, “according to the federal law, after I die, all my assets will be inherited by my wife and child. You won’t get a single cent!”

Chapter 2894 Quarreling between brothers (1)

“My dear brother, you’re too naive!” Davis revealed a sinister smile and elegantly took out a piece of paper from the inner pocket of his suit. He slowly spread it open and said, “Charlie, did you forget that you signed a will a year ago? once you die, all the shares under your name will be inherited by me?”

It turned out that this middle – aged white man, Charlie, and Davis, who was holding a gun in front of him, were actually brothers. What was happening now was obviously not brotherly respect, but a quarrel between brothers.

Charlie was stunned for a moment before he shouted angrily, “Davis! When did I sign such a will? You’re crazy about money!”

Davis’s expression didn’t change as he calmly said, “You’ll sign it soon, and the time of signing was a year ago. Is there a problem? My dear brother!”

Charlie suddenly came back to his senses. His eyes were burning with rage as he glared at Davis and roared, ""You want to forge a will? In your dreams! I'm about to die, why should I cooperate with you to sign this bullshit will? Even if I die, I won't let you have your way!"

Davis smiled and lightly said, ""Charlie, you'll definitely cooperate."

"In your dreams!" Charlie gritted his teeth and said, "just kill me! Don't be delusional!"

Davis laughed and said, "don't be anxious!" The moonlight is so bright tonight, I don't want to send you on your way so early! Why don't you listen to what this will is about?"

After saying that, Davis ignored Charlie, who had his eyes closed and was seeking death, and continued to read, "I, Charlie cohe, am now under the witness of my personal lawyer Mr. Jenkins, making the following will ..."

Charlie's eyes snapped open and he roared with anger, "You scoundrel! You even bribed Jenkins!"

Even if a will was signed by him, it could still be invalid if there wasn't a qualified lawyer present to witness it. Davis wrote the will like this to make sure it was safe, and obviously, he had also bribed Mr. Jenkins.

Jenkins was Charlie's personal legal counsel, and he had been working for Charlie for more than 15 years. Basically, all of Charlie's major legal problems were all handled by Jenkins, including some of the more shady ones. From this, it could be seen how much trust Charlie had in Jenkins.

Clearly, even Jenkins had betrayed him, which made Charlie even more furious.

Davis seemed to be enjoying the sight of his brother's emotional breakdown. A bright smile appeared on his face as he said, "Charlie, my dear brother, you're just too impatient. Jenkins is just a small fry, and I haven't even finished reading my will!"

After that, Davis continued to read, "if I die, all the assets under my name, including but not limited to my family business group shares, all real estate, and cash, 100 million dollars will be inherited by my wife Anina and son Luca. The rest will be inherited by my younger brother, Mr. Davis Koch."

Davis finished reading the will, then patiently folded it and put it in his pocket. He then smiled and said, ""Charlie, did you hear that? I've left 100 million US dollars for my dear sister – in – Law and nephew! To be honest, I'm really a soft – hearted person! This will is too beneficial for you!"

After listening to it, Charlie also completely understood that the reason Davis had taken out this will without fear and was certain that he would sign it was because he had completely taken the initiative and understood his mentality.

It was true that if he insisted on not signing, he would be dead tonight. According to the federal law, his wife, Anina, would be the first in line to inherit his property.

However, Charlie knew very well that if he were to pass away, Anina and Lucca would be left behind. Even if they inherited all of his inheritance, what ability would they have to keep it? Davis only needed to make the mother and son disappear without a trace like he did to him, and he would be able to rightfully inherit these assets.

Of course, Charlie had already seen through Davis's thoughts. The reason Davis had taken out such a will and left Anina and her son with a hundred million dollars in assets was not because he was soft – hearted and would not kill his own brother. How could he be soft – hearted to his sister – in – Law and nephew?

Davis was completely considering his own interests.

First of all, if Charlie's family of three were to encounter accidents and die one after another, then Davis, the vested beneficiary, would definitely be questioned. Although it was difficult for others to find evidence, Davis was not willing to lose his reputation, so he was willing to spend some money to buy this reputation.

Second and most importantly, if Anina and Lucca inherited the inheritance and died in an accident, and Davis inherited the inheritance as a relative, it would be equivalent to paying two taxes. The taxes in the United States were very heavy, and 100 million dollars was nothing compared to that.

After all, the famous Coch family was one of the few big families in America. The Coch family's assets had already reached more than 300 billion US dollars. As the current head of the family, Charlie had more than 70% of the shares in the family group under his name, and his net worth was at least 200 billion US dollars.

Chapter 2895 Quarrels between brothers (2)

Spending a mere 100 million dollars to smoothly inherit hundreds of billions of assets was simply a good deal.

Charlie disappointedly discovered that even if he could see through all of Davis's thoughts, he had no way to stop it from happening.

After a long while, Charlie opened his eyes and stared at Davis, asking, "How can I be sure that after you get my signature, you will still fulfill your promise and pay Anina and Lucca a hundred million dollars? And never hurt them? You could've gotten the money and then exterminated them at the root ..."

Davis revealed an exaggerated smile and shrugged. "My dear brother, why would I ruin my reputation for a mere 100 million dollars? The reason I'm doing this is so that things don't get complicated, right? Besides, Anina and Lucca don't know anything about what happened today. They're not a threat to me, so why would I kill them? "

Charlie couldn't help but shut his mouth. He had to admit that there was some truth in what Davis said.

According to Charlie's understanding of Davis, if he really succeeded this time, then in order to maintain his good image, not only would he not lay a hand on Anina and her son, but he would also appear to be full of love in front of outsiders and gain a good reputation for taking care of his deceased brother and widow.

If Charlie had really signed this will, he would definitely have died in the sea, and his property would definitely have been taken away by his younger brother Davis. However, for Anina and Lucca, it really was the best choice after much thought.

After all, regardless of whether he signed it or not, he would definitely lose his life and his assets.

As if he could read minds, Davis timely said, " "Charlie, you should really think about Anina and Lucca. At the very least, you wouldn't want to see both of them quickly follow in your footsteps to see God, right? If you don't sign this, even if I'm soft-hearted, I'll have no choice but to make a move on my dear sister-in-law and nephew. If things really end up like this, it'll be too sad!"

Charlie could not help but shiver when he heard that. He knew that there was no turning back after what Davis had done today. Davis's ultimate goal was the hundred billion dollars in assets. If he did not sign, not only would he not be able to help Anina and Lucca obtain more assets, but he would also bring about a fatal disaster for them.

Although Charlie was not 100% sure if Davis would fulfill his promise and pay the 100 million dollars after he signed it, Charlie was 100% sure that if he did not sign it, his wife and children would soon die.

Choosing the lesser of two evils.

Moreover, if Davis could pay the 100 million dollars as promised and show some leniency to Anina and Lucca in the future for the sake of his reputation, then Anina and her son would be considered to have escaped a calamity.

Thinking of this, Charlie finally made up his mind helplessly. He let out a long sigh and said, " "Bring it over! I'll sign this!"

Davis couldn't help but whistle in excitement, and then said, " "I knew you would make the wisest choice, Charlie!"

After that, Davis took out the will and the signature pen, turned around, and handed it to a big man in a waiter's uniform. He said, " "Take it to my brother for him to sign ..."

Davis then turned to Charlie and said, " "Today is really a memorable day, so ... Please sign the date on today, a year ago!"

Charlie nodded silently. He expressionlessly took the printed will and signature pen from the burly man who disguised himself as a waiter. He then looked up at Davis and said with a hint of ridicule, " "Davis, you're being a bit too cautious ..."

Davis knew that Charlie was saying that he didn't dare to deliver the will personally, but had instead given it to the big man.

He shrugged and said, " "I won't forget, Charlie. You were once the champion of free combat at mit. Although you're not young anymore, the dawn of victory is right in front of you. I won't allow myself to take any risks."

While reading the will carefully, Charlie said without raising his head, " "You're indeed cautious and patient enough. I've never noticed your wild ambitions ..."

Charlie still found it hard to accept this reality. In his eyes, Davis was just an ignorant and incompetent wastrel, just like countless rich kids in the United States he could live a carefree life with his family's wealth. No matter how he squandered, he would never run out of money.

It had been a hundred years since the Koch family had made their fortune. During this time, the Koch group had snowballed and grown. It had become a giant consortium with businesses in many industries, including industry, energy, finance, and the Internet. Not only was the Koch family successful in their business, but they were also involved in United States politics. In the 1980s, the current head of the Koch family even ran for the position of President of the United States. Of course, his run ended in failure.

Since then, the Koch family had changed their strategy. They used the family's wealth to continuously make arrangements, not hesitating to spend a lot of money to support the candidates. For decades, the Koch family had become one of the biggest investors in the U.S. Election. After the candidate was elected, they naturally had to return the favor and give the Koch family sufficient political resources. In addition, the Koch family had been working hard to cultivate underground forces for the past few decades. Among the underground forces in the United States and even the world, the Koch family had a pivotal position. It could be said that the Koch family had strong connections in both the American political and business world. They also had a great influence in the underground.

The wealth that such a family could earn was unimaginable.

It wasn't an overstatement to say that, for example, when Davis signed a check on a whim and gave a sports car to a young model he met last night, the money the Koch family earned was far more than the value of a sports car in the short time he signed the check and flirted with the young model.

In such a family, how could he squander all the money?

In fact, Davis was like the vast majority of rich young masters, spending money like water. Every day, he would be filled with high-status friends, and he would frequently appear at all kinds of high-end parties. However, there was one thing about him. He had never shown the slightest bit of ambition. It was as if living a life of drunkenness and dreams was his life's pursuit.

In this generation, the Koch family only had the two brothers Charlie and Davis. The rest of them were branch families who held very few shares and were mainly dependent on the main family to survive.

According to the rules of the Koch family, Charlie, who had become the head of the family, held the majority of the shares, while Davis only had less than 10% of the shares.

Of course, even if it was less than 10%, he wouldn't be able to spend all the dividends every year. Not to mention that the value of these shares itself was already more than 20 billion US dollars.

It wasn't that Charlie didn't have any security measures, it was just that he didn't specifically take precautions against Davis, because Davis didn't reveal any ambition to seize the family property.

This time, Charlie was on his super-luxury yacht out to sea. The security measures were actually relatively tight, but it couldn't stop Davis's schemes.

Davis had obviously been planning this for a long time. The super-yacht, which was more than 160 meters in length, had first-class safety features. In addition to the bulletproof function of the master bedroom, there was also a high-speed escape boat and even a small submarine. In addition, in order to maintain the normal navigation of the yacht, the entire team, including the captain, sailors, chefs, waiters, bodyguards, and so on, had more than 80 people, but Davis had infiltrated many positions without anyone knowing. He had planted his trusted aide.

Chapter 2896 The great Savior_

The Super-luxury yacht cost more than 1.5 billion US dollars to build, far more expensive than the average private jet. It was one of the most expensive yachts in the world, and its safety performance was almost the first at that time. Even if it encountered a storm at sea, it had a high probability of surviving it safely.

Therefore, Charlie was very relaxed on the sea.

He was on vacation in Hawaii this time, and then he went out to sea with two Hollywood female stars who had just made a name for themselves. For him, this was just a normal relaxation in his busy daily work. In the past, he often took this super luxury yacht to sea, and nothing had ever happened.

However, just as he was at his most relaxed, Davis's men suddenly attacked.

There were more than ten people that Davis had planted in different positions. They suddenly attacked at the same time and killed Charlie's best bodyguards at the first opportunity. Caught off guard, the bodyguards did not even have a chance to resist before they were shot and died.

The rest of the crew were all ordinary workers, and they had no room to resist the well-equipped Davis and the others. They were captured in the shortest time possible.

At the time of all this, Charlie was in the most luxurious master bedroom on the entire yacht with two Hollywood newbies. The good sound-proof environment made him completely unaware of what was happening outside.

When Davis, who had been hiding in the crew's room, appeared in front of Charlie, Charlie was still in a state of confusion.

Everything was under Davis's control.

The super-yacht seemed to be impregnable, but once the interior was infiltrated, all the security protection did not work, and it almost collapsed instantly.

Davis forced the crew to drive the yacht away from Hawaii and to the high seas far away from the traditional sea route.

Under the cover of the night, a tragedy played out in front of Charlie, making him feel like his eyes were about to burst.

Davis took everyone on the yacht, except for the people he had arranged to infiltrate and Charlie, to the second-floor deck and knelt in a row. Then, the few burly men he brought followed his instructions and killed all of them one by one with pistols.

The two Hollywood rookies were not spared either. Charlie watched helplessly as the two stunties, who had just been in bed with him, revealed a look of collapse and despair when faced with butcher's muzzle. Then, the pistol equipped with a silencer emitted a weak tongue of fire. After the deep sound of the gunshot, the two stunties fell to the deck like gunny sacks. After twitching a few times, they returned to silence.

At this time, the second-floor deck was really a river of blood. Davis looked at the corpses of the innocent crew members he had ordered to be slaughtered, lying all over the ground. Not only did he not feel any discomfort, but he also felt a bloodthirsty pleasure.

Of course, it was more of the pleasure of the big plan he had planned for ten years finally succeeding in one fell swoop, and soon he would receive a hundred billion dollars in inheritance.

Who said that one would not want more money if they could not finish spending it? They were all born from the same mother and were all core members of the Coch family. On what basis did Charlie possess the majority of the family's wealth and the powerful social status that the Coch family had brought to him, while he, Davis, could only sit around and wait for death with the dividends that seemed to be incalculable to ordinary people? These dividends and a small number of shares, in Davis's eyes, were just some leftovers that were leaked out from the gaps between Charlie's teeth. It was a kind of charity to his super reincarnation ability.

Davis had never lost his ambition, but he had hidden it well before he launched an attack, and finally succeeded.

He ordered his men to put all the bodies into bags, tie them to heavy objects with steel wires, and then push them into the sea one by one.

This area of the sea was far away from the mainland of the United States and the Hawaiian Islands. Traditional sea routes did not pass through here, so no ships would pass by here. In the vast sea, these corpses would never be found if they were thrown away.

Charlie watched helplessly as the bodies of these staff members were thrown into the sea like dumplings. His heart was filled with despair because he knew that he would be the next.

Davis had brought the yacht to the open sea, so he obviously didn't intend to let the yacht return.

He must have thought of a way to leave. Maybe his ship was following him outside of his field of vision. When he left the yacht, he would blow up this Sea Palace worth more than a billion dollars and go back to the United States to seize his family property.

What Charlie didn't expect was that Davis found it too troublesome to directly seize the family property, and the taxes were too high, so he actually concocted a will.

What made Charlie even sadder was that he really had no choice. Even if he knew that he would die after signing, he could only sign it obediently.

At the thought of this, Charlie couldn't help but feel sad. His hand holding the pen trembled and hesitated for a long time. After a strong confrontation in his heart, his reason finally triumphed over his hatred. With tears streaming down his face, he signed his name on the will and wrote the time according to Davis's request to be one year ago.

Davis took the will from his confidant. After confirming that there were no problems, he couldn't help but be overjoyed and laugh.

On the other hand, Charlie's face was ashen as he slumped down on the deck, his heart in complete despair.

Chapter 2897 The great Savior_

After Davis laughed, his gaze slowly fell on Charlie, and he slowly said, "Charlie, you know what? Just because I was born a few years later than you, all the glory was concentrated on you. Since young, you were raised as the successor of the family, while I was like a pet in captivity! God ... That feeling was terrible! I swear you've never experienced it before. It's a good thing that I've been waiting for this day. Do you know how it feels? "

As Davis spoke, he walked up to Charlie and loaded the large-caliber pistol in his hand.

Even at this time, Davis was still extremely cautious. He always kept a safe distance from Charlie.

Davis slowly raised his gun and aimed it at Charlie's forehead. Then, with a cruel smile on his face, he said, "Charlie, what I feel now is ... The sky is finally bright!"

Davis looked up at the dark sky as if he was looking at a bright future. He said, " "Charlie, my brother! Let's bid farewell ..."

Charlie slowly closed his eyes. He no longer had any hope of getting lucky. He knew that his head would be shot into a pulp like a watermelon in the next moment. At such a close distance, he might not even be able to hear the sound of the gunshot before he was hit. Then, his consciousness would fall into eternal darkness.

At this moment, Charlie was filled with the fear of death and the unwillingness to accept his fate.

As a formidable person with hundreds of billions of assets, what kind of enjoyment could he not get? He didn't expect that his life would end in such a tragic way when he was only in his forties ...

At this moment, a chuckle was heard.

The laughter wasn't loud, but it seemed to ring in everyone's ears. It was extremely clear.

Davis's expression was ugly as he turned around and shouted, "Who is it? Who's laughing?"

Davis had just been brewing his emotions, enjoying the most carefree moment of his life, so who was it that would spoil the mood and laugh? Are my words so laughable?

Davis's confidants looked at each other in dismay. They also heard laughter, but it didn't come from any of them.

Other than the few of them, there were only Davis and Charlie on the deck. Charlie had already closed his eyes to welcome the arrival of death, while Davis was venting all the grievances he had suffered for the past twenty to thirty years. Naturally, they couldn't laugh like this.

Who else could it be?

Everyone suddenly recalled that just half an hour ago, they had killed dozens of yacht staff on this deck and threw their bodies into the sea. Could it be ...

Thinking of this, everyone couldn't help but shiver, and a trace of fear flashed in their eyes.

If they were on land, they wouldn't have suddenly made such an Association. After all, even if the probability was very low, there was still the possibility of uninvited guests. But this was the vast sea! Moreover, it was a remote Sea area far away from the traditional sea route. Other than a few people on duty in the cockpit, all the living people were here.

The cockpit was more than a hundred meters away from the second floor of the deck, so the sound from there would not reach them no matter what. Even if it did, how would his subordinates have the guts to laugh at Davis?

Davis also noticed the strange expressions on his confidants' faces. Clearly, they hadn't opened their mouths just now. Davis couldn't help but be startled. Who was the one who laughed just now? Was he hearing things?

"Did you guys hear that?" Davis asked.

"Boss, are you talking about laughter?" One of the burly men quickly said, "we heard it too, but this isn't ..."

"I know!" Davis said impatiently.

Although Davis didn't believe in ghosts and gods, he couldn't help but feel a little scared. After all, this place was like a Shuraba. The desperate wails of the staff before their deaths echoed in his ears. Now, strange laughter came from the vast sea. It was really too strange ...

Charlie had also opened his eyes. A gurgling sound came from his throat as he revealed a terrifying smile and said, "Davis, I heard that laughter too. It must be the vengeful souls of Hesslin and the others ..."

Hathaway was one of the two new Hollywood stars who had gone out to sea with Charlie this time. The two new actors had thought that their future would be very smooth since they had managed to get close to Charlie, the head of the cohe family. Even though they knew that they were only Charlie's playthings, a Big Shot like Charlie would be able to live a life of luxury and wealth if they could even get a little bit of it out of his fingertips.

The two young actresses would never have dreamed that on this super – Luxury yacht supported by a Mobile Palace on the sea, there was actually a fatal killing intent brewing. Their dream of becoming stars had just begun, but it had already been destroyed.

It was not hard to imagine how unwilling these two actresses were before they died.

"You shut up!" Davis shouted madly, "I'm not afraid even if they're alive. They're just a bunch of ants! Now that they're all dead, why would I be afraid of them?"

"But your face is already filled with fear!" Charlie said immediately.

He didn't have any hope of survival, so he was going all out, not afraid of angering Davis.

The veins on Davis's face bulged. He suddenly raised his gun and pointed it at Charlie. He gritted his teeth and said, "Then I'll let you see God first ... No! It was to see Satan! Go and be with your hessilin!"

With that, Davis pulled the trigger madly, and Charlie had already anticipated this. His whole body trembled, and he closed his eyes to welcome the arrival of death.

However, after waiting for a few seconds, Charlie did not hear any gunshots, nor did he feel any pain.

Could it be that I'm already dead before I can even feel it? This thought emerged in Charlie's mind.

However, he did not have the legendary near – Death experience. He did not feel light all over, nor did he feel the Holy Light that was like heaven. He could even feel the sea breeze blowing on his body.

Charlie tried to open his eyes, and he immediately saw a strange scene. Davis was pulling the trigger with a ferocious expression, but the trigger seemed to be cast in iron. No matter how much force he used, it wouldn't move.

At this moment, Charlie had even forgotten the fear of death. He looked curiously at Davis, who was like a gust of wind, and wondered what kind of game he was playing. Was the trigger of that pistol that heavy?

Davis was on the verge of a mental breakdown. He didn't know why the gun seemed to be stuck, and he couldn't buckle it at all.

What was even more terrifying was that when he wanted to throw the gun away and change it, he found that the gun seemed to be stuck to his hand with superglue, and he couldn't shake it off no matter how hard he tried.

Could it really be a ghost coming to claim his life? A thought came to Davis's mind as goosebumps rose all over his body. Being blown by the sea breeze, he shivered all at once.

Xia ruofei was the one who had led the way.

Actually, when Xia ruofei found the yacht, Davis's men had already finished the massacre and were throwing the bodies into the sea. This scene caught Xia ruofei's attention.

While he was flying on his sword towards the Super – Luxury yacht, he had heard the conversation between Charlie and Davis. This conversation gave Xia ruofei a general understanding of the whole situation.

So this was a feud between brothers in a wealthy family!

Xia ruofei didn't know much about Charlie and Davis, so he couldn't be sure who he was leaning towards. However, in his heart, he naturally would not acknowledge Davis. After all, Charlie had not treated Davis unfairly. The Coch family had always been like this, focusing on nurturing a successor so that the other members of the same generation would not have to worry about food and clothing, and could live an extravagant life. And Davis wanted Charlie's life, that was his brother! It could be seen that this person's mentality had been completely distorted.

Besides, Davis had killed dozens of innocent people. Such a brutal act would naturally arouse Xia ruofei's disgust.

Chapter 2898 The eastern immortal (1)

The distance of about ten kilometers was very close to Xia ruofei's sword Kinesis flight. Hence, Xia ruofei had actually arrived long ago.

However, he did not appear immediately.

With Xia ruofei's cultivation level, even Qi refinement realm cultivators or beginner golden core realm cultivators wouldn't be able to detect him if he wanted to hide his aura, let alone the ordinary people on the ship.

Naturally, Davis, Charlie and the rest were completely oblivious. They had no idea that on the left side of the yacht, a Huaxia golden core stage cultivator was standing on a flying sword and floating above the sea.

The yacht was very big. The water surface was more than ten meters high. Xia ruofei stood on his flying sword and floated quietly in the air on the left side of the yacht. To the people on the second deck, they would not be able to see Xia ruofei unless they stuck their heads out and looked down.

And in this dark night, on the boundless sea, who would be so bored as to look down from the deck railing?

The clouds were very thick today. After the sun had set, the visibility on the sea was very low. Even if they looked down, they couldn't see anything, not even the value of admiring the scenery.

Xia ruofei only laughed when Davis was about to make his move on Charlie.

He originally wanted to show up immediately, but Davis and his subordinates began to be suspicious. He had indeed done something wrong!

Xia ruofei continued to step on the flying sword with interest, waiting to see the reaction of Davis and the others.

When Davis was finally angered by Charlie's words and was about to shoot at Charlie, Xia ruofei made his move.

How could an ordinary person like Dai Weisi possibly escape from the restraints of an early jiedan stage cultivator's spiritual power?

So no matter how hard he pulled the trigger, almost breaking his finger, the trigger didn't move at all, and even the pistol seemed to be stuck to his hand.

The veins on Davis's face bulged as he roared, "What are you guys doing? Immediately kill Charlie!"

Originally, the few big men were confused when they saw Davis's performance, but after hearing Davis's words, they seemed to wake up from a dream. They quickly pulled out the guns from their waists and aimed them at Charlie.

As a result, these big men were also in a tragedy. Like Davis, no matter how hard they pulled the trigger, they couldn't pull it. They also couldn't shake off the pistol no matter how hard they tried.

Charlie's face was full of surprise as he looked at Davis and the few big men.

Could it be that the spirits of hessilin and the others had really appeared?

Charlie wasn't afraid of Qingqing at all. He had already escaped from the gates of hell. Could there be a worse outcome than that?

If Xia ruofei knew that Charlie had treated him like a ghost, he would definitely give him a good slap.

You're the ghost! If I didn't appear in time, no one would respond to you in this vast ocean, and your whole family would become ghosts!

Xia ruofei had already altered his appearance to a certain extent. He was now the young man named "Xia Tian" from the time he went to Italy.

Soon, Davis and the others saw a scene that they would never forget.

A young Chinese man in casual clothes with a relaxed smile on his face slowly emerged from the left side of the yacht. Then, his body slumped and he didn't move at all, as if he was on an elevator.

But ... It was the F * cking ocean outside! There might not be a ship passing by here for years, and the second deck was at least ten meters above the sea. Where did this person come from?

They saw that Xia ruofei was floating in the air. There was nothing under his feet. The flying sword itself was not an ordinary object. It could be kept in the dantian to be nourished. As long as Xia ruofei willed it, ordinary people would not be able to see the existence of this flying sword. So, to them, Xia ruofei seemed to be floating in the air and was still rising.

Could This Be Magic? The same thought appeared in the minds of Davis and the others.

How could a magician suddenly appear in the vast and remote sea at night? Besides, magic tricks relied on props. Even the best magician couldn't do what this young Chinese man in front of him did!

It was natural for people to be afraid of the unknown.

Especially Davis, who had done something wrong, the fear in his heart could not be any greater.

As for Charlie, he wasn't the least bit afraid that Qingqing would die at the worst. He wouldn't face a worse outcome. The appearance of this young Chinese man was undoubtedly a variable. No matter what the result of this variable was, it was a profit for Charlie.

At least he lived for a few more minutes, didn't he?

Moreover, the strange behavior of Davis and the others was clearly related to this young Chinese man. In other words, it was this magical young Chinese man who stopped Davis from killing him.

In that case, he might be able to survive!

Charlie's heart was suddenly filled with a strong sense of hope.

“Eastern deity!” Charlie blurted out.

When he was in University, he had chosen to study Chinese culture. At that time, he was only in his twenties. He had long yearned for the immortals in Chinese mythology. In the myths and legends of Huaxia, those Immortals could ride the clouds and even move mountains and fill the seas. They had all kinds of magical powers, which made people even more fascinated.

Chapter 2899 The eastern immortal (2)

Hence, when he saw Xia ruofei’s dazzling appearance, Charlie recovered from his shock and his first thought was that he had really met an Eastern deity!

That was the only explanation!

Not to mention, riding the clouds and flying in the sky were the “standard” of Chinese immortals!

Xia ruofei glanced at Charlie with great interest and asked in Chinese, “You know about the eastern deity?”

Xia ruofei’s voice carried a trace of spiritual power. Even though his tone was calm and his voice was not loud, it was deafening in the ears of Charlie, Davis, and the others. Everyone felt that Xia ruofei’s voice was directly ringing in their ears with a special rhythm and was filled with magical power.

Charlie had studied Chinese culture before and naturally had some knowledge of Chinese. He stuttered, “I ... I ... Have read the” Classic of Mountains and Seas ...”And the” God – searching record ...”May I ask ... Are ... Are you ... An Eastern immortal?”

Xia ruofei had a mysterious smile on his face. He didn’t answer Charlie’s question directly, but looked at Davis and the others.

When Xia ruofei appeared, Davis and the others wanted to run away instinctively because everything seemed to be out of their control.

Even though the yacht was in the middle of the vast ocean and they had nowhere to run to, they still subconsciously wanted to stay as far away from Xia ruofei as possible.

However, Davis and the others sadly discovered that not only were they unable to pull the trigger or shake off their guns, their legs seemed to be nailed to the deck, unable to move an inch.

Xia ruofei’s gaze was very calm, but when Dai Weisi and the others were swept by his gaze, they felt as if there was a dagger on their backs and goosebumps all over their bodies.

Xia ruofei looked at Davis and said in Chinese, “For your own benefit, you even wanted to kill your own blood brother. This is a crime that can not be punished!”

Davis could not understand Chinese but he was afraid of Xia ruofei. He asked in English, “Excuse me...What can I do for you, Sir?”

Charlie’s face was full of hatred, and he took the initiative to translate for Davis. “Davis, this Eastern deity said that you tried to kill your own brother for your own benefit, and he sentenced you to death!”

Xia ruofei could not help but smile. Charlie's translation was correct. Although "unforgivable" did not mean the death penalty, from Charlie's point of view, since the eastern deity had said that Davis "unforgivable", then Davis was dead for sure. The deities in Chinese legends all had absolute power!

Davis's expression changed and he cried out in horror,""No! He's not a judge. Even if I've committed 100 first – degree murder cases, I'll still be sentenced to death by the federal judge!"

Xia ruofei could understand English, but he did not say anything. He only looked at Davis with interest.

Charlie sneered,"Davis, have you forgotten what you just said?" This was international waters, and it was a competition of whose fist was tougher! The Federation's laws can't control this! Since the eastern deity has sentenced you to death, you're dead!"

Just now, Charlie really had no response at all! He didn't expect that karma would be so bad. Just when he was about to lose his life in the sea, an Eastern immortal suddenly appeared from the sky, and it seemed that the immortal was on his side. It was simply a ray of light at the end of the tunnel!

"Eastern deity!" Davis said hurriedly,"please don't kill me! I ... I have a lot of money ... My net worth is more than 100 billion US dollars. I can contribute all of it to you. You ... If you kill Charlie, the entire wealth of the cohe family will be yours ..."

Charlie's face changed slightly, but he thought about it and realized that the eastern deity probably wouldn't understand Davis's words, so he felt a little more at ease.

"Davis, stop struggling!" Charlie said. The hundreds of billions of dollars you said is mine! That will was illegal! Besides, I'm not dead yet! The eastern deity saved me, so my life is his, not to mention my property! If anyone wants to contribute their assets, I should be the one contributing. What does it have to do with you?"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile. He had thought that Charlie would think that he didn't understand English and deliberately hide Davis's words. After all, some people were willing to sell their lives for tens of thousands of Yuan, let alone hundreds of billions of dollars. There were many people who wanted money more than their lives.

Xia ruofei was satisfied with Charlie's performance. Although he would not covet the Koch family's wealth, at least it seemed that this guy knew how to repay kindness.

Charlie immediately said to Xia ruofei in Chinese,""Great Eastern deity! Davis had just said that he was willing to use 100 billion dollars to buy his life! But I told him that the hundred billion US dollars of assets were all mine. In order to thank you for saving my life, I'm willing to give all my assets to you, master immortal! And not in his name!"

Xia ruofei replied in fluent English,""I can understand what you're saying ..."

Davis and Charlie were both stunned. Charlie thought about it, that's right! The moment this Eastern deity appeared, he didn't even ask any questions and immediately knew that Davis had murdered his brother. He must have heard their conversation! How could the eastern deity not understand English?

Charlie was also secretly feeling a lingering fear. If he had been feeling lucky just now, thinking that this Eastern deity didn't understand Davis's words and was hiding something, then everything would be over.

Fortunately, Charlie was full of respect for Xia ruofei from the bottom of his heart. After tonight's incident, the ecstasy of finding a way out of a desperate situation made him look down on money. When he said that he would offer up all his assets, he was not faking it. It came from the bottom of his heart.

Davis didn't think so much. He saw that the other person could understand English and hurriedly said, "Sir, I have no enmity with you, so why must you kill me? As long as you can let me live, I'm willing to turn over a new leaf and never have any other thoughts. As long as my brother gives me a little money to live, I'm willing to leave the United States and never appear in front of him again!"

Following that, Davis anxiously said to Charlie, "Big brother! We're Blood Brothers! I know I was wrong. Please help me beg this gentleman to spare my life for the sake of my parents! Charlie ... Have you forgotten that when I got into trouble when I was young, you would always plead for me in front of my father ... I still remember that time when I scratched my father's favorite sports car. At that time, my father was furious, and it was you who spoke up for me, so I didn't get beaten up ..."

Davis was very smart and knew that he had to use his emotions to win.

He saw the situation very clearly and understood that the key to this matter was actually Charlie. As long as Charlie was willing to let it go, this so-called Eastern deity who was passing by would not care so much, although he still could not understand how this person could fly out of thin air and appear in such a remote Sea area.

When they were both children, they were still very harmonious. As an older brother, he was also very protective of his only younger brother, Davis, and their brotherly relationship had always been very good.

Although this Davis had hidden it well, he could not hide it from Xia ruofei's eyes. When Davis had said those words, his eyes had flashed with hatred, which Xia ruofei had already noticed.

He was certain that if Davis had escaped this time, he would have done everything he could to get rid of Charlie. He would have even used money to open a path, trying to find him and kill him at all costs.

Even though Xia ruofei was a cultivator and was not afraid of Davis's revenge, he was not used to letting a venomous snake escape.

Since he could solve the problem once and for all, why would he waste so much time?

Of course, Xia ruofei did not use a simple and brutal method to kill Davis. He had an idea in his mind.

Xia ruofei looked at Charlie and asked with a faint smile, "Charlie, I've decided to give you the right to choose. In other words, the lives of Davis and the others are in your hands ..."

Before Charlie could come back to his senses, Xia ruofei jumped onto the deck lightly after finishing his sentence. Then, the blue immortal sword let out a long cry and flew out like a dragon ...

Chapter 2900 Decisive killing (1)

Dai Weisi and the others didn't even have the chance to react before they felt a flash of sword light before their eyes, and several parts of their bodies simultaneously felt cold.

They couldn't help but be stunned for a moment, completely not knowing what had happened.

After a long time, Davis and the others felt a heart – wrenching pain in their wrists and ankles, followed by blood lines slowly appearing on their hands and feet.

The blue travel immortal sword was so sharp that they didn't feel anything when it cut the wrists and ankles of Dai Weisi and the others. Moreover, the wounds were very thin. After a long time, blood began to slowly seep out of the wounds under the pressure.

Davis was the first to scream like a pig being slaughtered. At this time, he discovered that his body had already regained its freedom, and the invisible binding force had suddenly disappeared.

However, his hands and feet were completely powerless. He couldn't even hold the heavy pistol and it fell to the ground with a clatter.

The other burly men were in the same situation. The guns in their hands fell to the ground.

However, they were after all people who lived on the edge of a knife and licked blood for a living, so they were a little tougher than Davis. Davis was already rolling on the ground in pain.

In that instant, Xia ruofei's Blue travel immortal sword had cut off all the tendons in Dai Weisi's hands and feet.

Charlie was dumbfounded at the side. He was already convinced that this Chinese young man in front of him was the legendary Eastern immortal! Otherwise, how could there be such a godly method? In the face of such absolute combat power, even the speed of a gun could not compare! There was also the mysterious weapon of the eastern immortal. He had vaguely seen a sword light just now, but it had flashed under the night sky and then disappeared.

Could this be the legendary sword immortal? Charlie couldn't help but have such a thought. When he was learning Chinese, he had read the legend of the swordsman of Mount Shu. The description of the legendary flying sword was simply fascinating.

Taking the enemy's head from a thousand miles away, that was how domineering it was!

Xia ruofei's face was still calm. He said indifferently, "Charlie, they don't have any power to resist now. It's up to you how you want to deal with them."

Xia ruofei and Charlie had met by chance. However, he felt that it was fate for him to encounter such a thing even though he had just landed in the sea to rest. That was why he had saved him.

If Charlie's compassion overflowed and he decided to let Davis go, he wouldn't have any objections.

If Charlie was really willing to spare Davis 'life, there was still hope for Davis to reattach the tendons in his hands and feet. After all, the Azure immortal sword was really sharp. Xia ruofei's operation was even more exquisite, so the incision could be said to be very smooth and there was no other injury. As long as a good surgeon was found in time for the operation, it was unlikely that he would recover completely. At most, it would be a little inconvenient for his movements. He would not have to spend the rest of his life in a wheelchair.

Of course, if Charlie really made such a choice, Xia ruofei would be a little disappointed in him. However, it was just a little disappointment.

After Xia ruofei said this, he stepped onto the blue immortal sword that Charlie could not see and was ready to leave.

Seeing that Xia ruofei was about to leave, Charlie quickly called out, ""Daoist immortal, please wait!"

Xia ruofei had already flown a few meters in the direction of the sky on the blue travel immortal sword. He stopped the flying sword and turned around to ask, ""Is there anything else?"

Charlie quickly said, "Mr. Deity, Davis has several accomplices on duty in the cockpit. They all have guns in their hands. If you don't mind, I'm definitely not their match. As the saying goes, 'save a man to the end, send Buddha to the West'. Please save me, Mr. Deity!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile. ""Your Chinese is pretty good! He actually knew how to send Buddha to the West. However ..... If you are talking about the five people in the cockpit, then there is no need to worry. They are now like Davis, without any ability to resist. You can say that they are at your mercy. "

Xia ruofei's spiritual power could cover an area of at least 15 kilometers. Although this yacht was one of the largest yachts in the world, its overall ruler was only about 160 to 170 meters long. Xia ruofei's spiritual power scanned the entire yacht and he was clear about the condition of the entire yacht.

Before he arrived, Davis had already killed all the crew members, bodyguards, and other staff members on the yacht. Those who were left were naturally Davis's accomplices. Furthermore, the few guys chatting in the cockpit could not escape Xia ruofei's detection. By comparing the two, these people's identities were confirmed without a doubt.

Hence, when Xia ruofei released the blue travel immortal sword, he first cut off the tendons in the hands and feet of Davis and the others, then drew a beautiful arc and flew directly to the cockpit.

To Xia ruofei, this was as easy as blowing off dust.

Although he still couldn't behead people from a thousand miles away like the legendary sword Immortals, within the range of his mental power, he could accurately control the position more than a hundred meters away without any difficulty.

This was done in a flash by Xia ruofei at a very fast speed. Moreover, this place was at the other end of the yacht, more than a hundred meters away from the cockpit. The sound from the other side could not be heard, so Charlie did not notice.

Of course, Charlie did not doubt Xia ruofei's words. He could not help but widen his eyes and mumble, ""Long – range flying sword control ... Could it be that Sir is the legendary sword immortal?"
