Chapter 2901 Decisive killing (2)

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "You know quite a lot! However, I'm not a sword immortal ... Alright, I've stayed here for a long time, so I'll leave the rest to you!"

With that, Xia ruofei willed the blue travel immortal sword to carry him away from the yacht.

Charlie quickly dug into his pocket as he shouted, "Divine immortal, this is my contact information, please accept it! Charlie will never forget the kindness of saving his life! I hope that in the future, I'll have the honor to share the burden with you, Daoist immortal!"

Charlie was thinking that this Eastern sword immortal probably didn't care about worldly things like money. However, if the great divine immortal had some troubles in the secular world that he didn't want to deal with, then he would have the opportunity to share the burden with the great divine immortal.

From Charlie's point of view, it was an extremely rare opportunity to be able to establish a connection with such a magical Eastern immortal. Not to mention that he had received such a great favor today, even his life was saved by the divine immortal. He also sincerely hoped that one day, he could repay the divine immortal in an appropriate way.

However, Charlie found that after he finished speaking, Lord Divine immortal's figure had become very small. It was obvious that he had flown so far away in an instant. He had to open his eyes wide to see the flying figure in the sky with the faint moonlight.

Charlie held a business card made of pure gold in his hand and stood in the cold wind, feeling lost.

At this time, an invisible force came and rolled up the name card in his hand, flying in the direction where the divine immortal had left.

At the same time, Charlie heard the voice of the deity from earlier. "I'll keep your business card. I'll contact you if I need it."

Charlie's dejection turned into ecstasy. He quickly shouted, "Yes! Thank you, Daoist immortal! You ... You take care ..."

In the end, he really didn't know what to say. In his agitated mood, he finally forced out the two words, "take care."

The Daoist immortal no longer made any sound, and his figure quickly disappeared into the night.

Flight, telekinesis, long – distance flying sword ... All of these mystical techniques shook Charlie's heart.

Before today, he had never thought that the magical Immortals in Huaxia's myths and legends actually existed in reality.

Seeing all of this with his own eyes today had truly exceeded his understanding.

Charlie stood in front of the deck railing and looked in the direction where Xia ruofei had disappeared. After a long while, he gathered his thoughts and turned to look at Davis.

Davis' pain had been slightly alleviated, mainly because of his strong desire to live. He couldn't care about the pain in his wrists and ankles for the time being.

When Charlie looked over, Davis quickly revealed a pitiful expression and pleaded, "Charlie ... Brother! I beg you to let me go! I ... I've already become a cripple, and I can no longer pose a threat to your position. For the sake of us being brothers, you ..."

The men didn't dare to say a word. They knew that their lives were in Charlie's hands, and the most effective way was naturally to beg for Davis's mercy. As long as Charlie was willing to let Davis go, they would naturally have a chance of survival.

Other than that, there was no other way. A few minutes ago, they were as strong as Bulls. Although the powerful large – caliber pistols were right next to them, they didn't even have the strength to hold them. After the tendons in their hands were broken, it was impossible for them to raise the guns, let alone aim and shoot.

It could be said that they were now completely lambs waiting to be slaughtered.

Charlie stared at Davis, a strange smile on his face. He asked back, "Brothers? Davis, when you pointed this gun at my forehead and pulled the trigger, did you ever think about us brothers? did you ever think about our parents in heaven?"

As Charlie spoke, he walked over and squatted down to pick up Davis's gun. He played with the gun in his hand and glanced at Davis with a playful look.

Davis begged with tears and snot, "I ... I was really possessed, I was just confused! Charlie, please don't hold it against a cripple like me. Just ... Just treat me as a fart and let me go!"

Charlie couldn't help but burst into laughter. He pointed his pistol at Davis's forehead and said, "You're flexible, you're my good brother! Why didn't I see it before? Oh! Right, you always act like you're not scheming at all in front of me, and you're also very hot – tempered. You can explode at the slightest disagreement, and you're completely the image of a brainless rich second – generation heir ... Which one is the real you?"

Davis couldn't help but be at a loss for words. He had indeed disguised himself very well in the past, so much so that Charlie basically didn't have his guard up against him.

Based on his previous personality, even if a gun was pointed at his head, he would not have begged for mercy like this.

Charlie stood up and picked up a rope from the deck. He looked at the rope that they had used to tie up the corpse. There were still a few left.

Davis quickly moved his body in vain, trying to distance himself from Charlie. He shouted, "Charlie, what are you doing?"

Charlie easily tied Davis's legs together and at the same time tied them to the deck railing as he said, "Don't be afraid. Even if I want to kill you, now is not the time ..." He said.

After saying that, Charlie did the same thing and tied up the few big men.

They did not have any ability to resist and could only watch as Charlie tied them up like rice dumplings.

Charlie picked up two guns from the ground and said, "Please wait patiently. I'll go to the cockpit to take a look."

After that, he walked to the cockpit at the other end of the yacht with the gun in his hand. As he walked, he removed the silencer from the gun and threw it on the deck.

As they walked up the ramp to the third floor of the deck, Charlie turned around and smiled at Davis. The smile made Davis's hair stand on end, and he could not help but shiver.

After a while, Davis and the others heard a few muffled gunshots from the cockpit.

Every shot seemed to hit their hearts, making them tremble.

The few big men were especially dejected. It was obvious that Charlie had already shot the few of their accomplices in the cockpit, so they would definitely be next.

If it was said that Davis, as Charlie's brother, still had a chance to save his life, then these burly men, who had personally killed so many crew members, had the same status as the few people on duty in the cockpit. Since Charlie had killed the people in the cockpit, there was no reason to keep them alive.

After a while, Charlie's figure appeared on the third floor of the deck.

In the eyes of Davis and the others, the current Charlie was simply the embodiment of Satan. Perhaps it was the fear in his heart, or perhaps it was because Charlie had just killed someone, but in the eyes of Davis and the others, Charlie's body seemed to have an additional bloodthirsty and bloody smell.

Charlie walked down the ramp briskly and came to the second – Floor deck.

"Mr. Charlie, please spare me ..." One of the burly men could not hold back the fear in his heart and could not help but beg for mercy.

Charlie did not say anything. He raised his gun and killed the burly man who was begging for mercy. The shot was very accurate. The burly man only grunted and then stopped breathing.

"Looks like I didn't pay the membership fee for the shooting club for nothing!" Charlie said with a smile.

Then, under the despairing gazes of the remaining few burly men, Charlie killed them all, one by one.

"This scene is so similar!" Charlie sighed. "Half an hour ago, this was how you treated the innocent staff and the lovely hetherlin ..."

After saying this, Charlie turned his gaze to Davis ...

Chapter 2902 Ambitious and ruthless the great Tang!

Davis was already so scared that he couldn't speak. His whole body was shaking like a sieve. His strong desire to live made him move away from Charlie in vain, while begging for mercy in a trembling voice, "Charlie, don't kill me ... Don't kill me ... We're brothers, real brothers ... You can't do this ..."

A faint smile hung on Charlie's face the entire time. He wasn't in a hurry to make a move, and only walked step by step towards Davis.

Charlie didn't say a word, but Davis felt a mountain – like pressure. In a moment of desperation, he quickly said, "Charlie, those people just now all deserved to die! They were the ones who killed the crew members! I ... I didn't kill anyone ..."

Charlie finally sneered and said, "Davis, do you think I'm a child who hasn't grown up yet? You didn't do anything, but shouldn't the blood debt of these people be counted on you? And ... The person who was about to kill me was you, wasn't it?"

"I was wrong! I was wrong!" Davis cried out loud, "I won't dare to do it again. Please spare my life ..."

Charlie ignored Davis and walked up to Davis in two steps. He reached into his pocket and took out the will, unfolding it to take a look.

The sea breeze blew the will, but Charlie held on to it tightly.

He had just signed his name on the will. All he could think of now was the scene of him signing his name under Davis's pressure. He would never forget that feeling of despair.

The stronger this feeling was, the deeper his hatred towards Davis grew. At the same time, he was even more grateful to Xia ruofei, his Savior, who had descended from the sky.

The reason why Charlie took out this will was to make his killing intent more resolute.

After all, Davis was his brother, and Davis's bitter tears and repentance reminded him of his childhood. To be honest, he was a little hesitant.

However, when the will was presented to him again, his heart turned as cold as iron.

He clearly realized that Davis was no longer the younger brother he had taken care of when he was young. Now Davis was a hungry wolf, a venomous snake, and he would never be able to raise him well. Letting him go might eventually bring him a disaster.

What happened tonight was a good example.

With this in mind, Charlie tore the will in his hand into pieces without hesitation. Then, he stood by the deck railing and waved his hand. The will that had given him an unforgettable experience was blown by the sea breeze and quickly disappeared without a trace.

Following that, Charlie ignored Davis's tearful begging for mercy. He walked in front of him and squatted down. He carefully checked the rope tied to Davis's ankle and fastened it again.

"Charlie, what ... What are you doing?" Davis tried his best to Dodge, but it was to no avail.

Charlie smiled and patted Davis's shoulder. "Don't be anxious, just wait for me for a while!"

Then, Charlie began to slowly deal with the bodies of the burly men, including the bodies of the few people in the cockpit. He threw them all into the sea.

After a round of hard work, Charlie returned to the second floor of the deck.

In Davis's eyes, Zha Lai was like a devil. He screamed, "Don't come over! Don't come over ..."

Charlie threw the things he had found from the cockpit onto the deck. It was a bundle of rope about 20 to 30 meters long and a heavy iron anchor. One end of the rope was firmly tied to the iron anchor.

Charlie picked up the other end of the rope and walked to Davis's side. He squatted down and very patiently tied the rope together with the rope that had been used to tie Davis up. In order to ensure a secure connection, he even fastened a few rounds of the outside with an iron wire and tightened the iron wire with a pair of pliers.

Davis felt that the blood in his legs had completely stopped flowing, but the fear of death made him unable to care about this. He kept begging Charlie to let him go, and occasionally let out a desperate wail.

However, he did not have the slightest strength to resist and could only watch as Charlie tied the long rope.

Davis had already guessed what Charlie was going to do. He kept pleading, "Charlie, don't be like this ... For God's sake ... Don't be so cruel to me ... I beg you ... Wuwu ..."

There was a smile on Charlie's face the entire time. He tugged at the rope and said with a smile, "Not bad, not bad, you're tied up quite tightly!"

Then, Charlie lifted Davis up and said, "Davis, you should be on your way!"

"No..." Davis cried out in despair and continued to struggle.

However, Charlie's body was very strong to begin with, and he had been persevering in various kinds of training. Moreover, the tendons in Davis's hands and feet had been severed, so he could not exert any strength at all. Thus, his struggles were in vain, and it was completely useless.

Charlie carried Davis to the left side of the deck and easily lifted him over the railing. As he screamed madly, he threw him directly into the sea.

Davis was thrown down from the deck, which was more than ten meters high, and fell into the sea with a splash. Because the long rope was tied to Davis's ankle, it also quickly fell. However, because the rope was long enough, a part of it remained on the deck when Davis fell into the sea.

Chapter 2903 Ambitious and ruthless_

Charlie unhurriedly picked up a high – intensity light that he had prepared earlier and turned it on, shining it towards the sea.

At this time, Davis had just emerged from the sea, desperately breathing. Although his hands and feet were injured, he had been good at swimming before, and the buoyancy of the sea was relatively large, so he did not sink.

Of course, this was only temporary. Davis was illuminated by the strong light and subconsciously closed his eyes. Then he immediately shouted, "Charlie, don't kill me ... I beg you ... Please pull me up!"

As soon as the wounds on his body were soaked in the sea water, he felt a piercing pain, but he didn't feel it. There was only one thought in his mind, and that was to beg for mercy.

He was too afraid of death!

Charlie looked at Davis, who was struggling on the surface of the sea, with a complicated expression, and shouted, "Davis, everyone has to be responsible for their own actions, and you are no exception! So ... You'd better personally repent to God!"

After saying that, Charlie took a few steps forward and picked up the heavy anchor.

The anchor had been connected to Davis by a long rope.

Davis endured the pain as he stepped on the water and tried hard to look up. When he saw Charlie once again come to the deck railing with the big iron anchor in his hand, he couldn't help but wail in despair. "No! No! Charlie, you ... You should Just Shoot Me!"

This way of dying was too terrifying and too painful! The fear in Davis's heart was growing wildly.

Charlie was unmoved. He only coldly looked at Davis, who was struggling in the water, and muttered, "Farewell! Little brother!"

With that, he threw the anchor in his hand out.

Charlie was very strong. The iron anchor flew out with the rope and fell into the sea with a plop.

Dai Weisi's eyes revealed endless despair and hatred, he cursed out loud: "Charlie! You won't have a good death! I won't let you go even if I become an evil spirit! I curse you forever ... Gugugugu ..."

Before he could finish his sentence, he was pulled into the sea by the sinking iron anchor, and then he sank to the deep sea involuntarily.

With a strong light in his hand, Charlie watched as Davis was pulled into the sea by the iron anchor. Only a few bubbles emerged, and the sea surface quickly returned to calm.

At this moment, his mood was extremely complicated. He felt the joy of revenge, but also a trace of loss.

His only blood – related younger brother in the world had been dealt with by his own hands ...

Charlie held onto the deck railing with both hands and kept taking deep breaths.

Of course, to be able to control one of the top super consortiums in the United States and even the world for so many years, Charlie was naturally a fierce and ambitious person. His killing decision was unimaginable to ordinary people, and his psychological endurance was by no means comparable to ordinary people. He quickly calmed down and began to calmly deal with the follow – up matters.

He couldn't drive such a super yacht back alone, but he didn't plan to drive it back at all.

Before getting rid of Davis and the others, Charlie had already thought about what to do.

He gathered his emotions and walked to the first deck with ease. There was a lifeboat hanging on the side of the yacht. He lifted the tarpaulin on the lifeboat and climbed inside to check the emergency supplies. Then, he returned to the deck and began to arrange the various cabins.

Charlie had already made up his mind to give up on the yacht. Even though it had cost him more than a billion dollars to build this super – Luxury yacht, and it was also his favorite yacht, so many people had died on it. He would definitely not be able to use it in the future. Most importantly, so many crew members and staff members were dead, and even their bodies were sunk into the sea by Davis's men. Then, Davis and his men were killed. The only survivor was Charlie, and he would not be able to explain himself if he went back.

Therefore, his only choice was to sink the yacht and get into a lifeboat to ask for help. After being rescued, he naturally announced to the public that he had encountered a sea disaster and that he was the only one who had escaped with his life.

Although this situation was somewhat unreasonable, with Charlie's status, as long as there was a valid reason, no one would hold it against him.

As for Davis, he naturally never appeared on this yacht. Davis had snuck into this yacht, and no one knew except for a few of his trusted subordinates who had participated in the operation, so Davis ended up missing.

Davis was not married and had no children. In the end, the small number of shares in his hands would be inherited by Charlie.

This luxurious yacht was well – equipped. Charlie liked this yacht the most and often went out to sea on it. Therefore, he was very familiar with the structure and some special functions of this yacht. He quickly packed up the things he needed to bring along the lifeboat, then found a few pieces of TNT with timer devices from the small Armory of the yacht and placed them in several key positions on the yacht.

When he first bought the yacht, the seller specifically emphasized to him that these positions were relatively weak. In case of special circumstances, if he wanted to abandon the ship but did not want to leave the yacht to the enemy, as long as he blew a hole in those positions, the yacht would sink soon.

Charlie set the detonation time to 20 minutes, then hurriedly released the lifeboat. He quickly got into the lifeboat and left the yacht far away.

This lifeboat was the type that had power. Charlie drove it a few hundred meters before stopping the lifeboat. He looked back at the yacht that was still brightly lit in the distance with a complicated expression.

After a while, there were a few dull explosions in the distance. Charlie saw the yacht shake a few times. Then, a large amount of seawater probably poured into the cabin, and the yacht began to sink slowly.

The process of sinking was quite fast. After a while, the yacht was completely silent. After a few splashes, the sea finally returned to calm.

Charlie heaved a long sigh of relief, then took out the satellite phone from the emergency equipment bag of the lifeboat. He found the built – in 24 – hour help line for the yacht company and directly dialed it.

After Xia ruofei left Charlie's yacht, the short distance of ten kilometers was covered in a blink of an eye. He returned to his own small yacht.

“Master!” Luo Qingfeng quickly stood up and called out.”Master!”

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "you can continue to regulate your breathing." Let's rest for an hour and then continue our journey!"

"Yes! Master!" "Yes!" Luo Qingfeng quickly responded.

Xia ruofei also sat cross – legged on the deck of his yacht. As he circulated the "great Dao Sutra" to recover, he also split a bit of his spiritual power to pay attention to Charlie's situation.

Xia ruofei had already given the decision to Charlie. No matter what decision he made, Xia ruofei would not interfere. However, if Charlie let Davis go, Xia ruofei would be more or less disappointed in him. In Xia ruofei's opinion, this was undoubtedly a woman's benevolence.

What Charlie did not know was that the eastern deity had not gone far. After that, his every move had been monitored by the deity.

Xia ruofei saw how Charlie dealt with the murderers decisively and even ended Davis' life in a relatively cruel way. He could not help but nod and think, "This guy was indeed a formidable person! He was so cruel to his own brother!

Xia ruofei had thought that Charlie would at most kill Davis with one shot. He did not expect Charlie to choose such a cruel way to die for Davis.

After that, Charlie began to make arrangements for the follow – up. Xia ruofei was no longer interested in it. He retracted his spiritual force and started to concentrate on recovering his elemental energy.

As the consumption was not huge, Xia ruofei did not even use origin crystals or spiritual crystals. Instead, like Luo Qingfeng, he directly absorbed the spiritual Qi in the air to replenish his own losses.

Chapter 2904 Receiving the military arms (1)

The two of them regulated their breathing for a while. Suddenly, a few muffled explosions came from the North.

Although the two yachts were more than ten kilometers apart, for early – Stage golden core cultivators like Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng, they could still clearly hear the explosion ten kilometers away. They could even feel the weak fluctuations caused by the shock wave after the explosion.

Luo Qingfeng suddenly opened his eyes. Xia ruofei also stopped cultivating and spread his spiritual power to the North.

Qingfeng Luo's spiritual power could not cover such a long distance, so he did not know what had happened. He asked respectfully, "Master, do you want this old servant to go and investigate?"

Xia ruofei had already investigated Charlie's situation. He smiled and waved his hand. "No need! What's happening over there has nothing to do with us. You can continue to adjust your breathing!"

Charlie's pure gold name card was still in the spirit map space, but Xia ruofei felt that he would not have much contact with Charlie in the future. To him, this was just a chance encounter. Since they had met, it meant that they were fated, so he decided to help him out.

"Master," Luo Qingfeng quickly said, "I've recovered most of my vital Qi. I can set off at any time."

In fact, Xia ruofei had almost fully recovered. The remaining half of the journey could basically lead them to their destination.

Since Luo Qingfeng had said that he had almost recovered, Xia ruofei stood up and said, "Alright then! Let's continue our journey!"

"Yes! Master!" Luo Qingfeng said.

Then, he immediately summoned his flying sword, leaped onto it, and rode it to the outside of the yacht.

As Xia ruofei was still on the yacht, Luo Qingfeng did not dare to fly too high. It would be disrespectful to the master. He controlled the flying sword and floated close to the sea.

Xia ruofei also took out the blue immortal sword and flew up.

Then, Luo Qingfeng saw Xia ruofei wave his hand and the ten – meter – long yacht disappeared into thin air. It was obvious that Xia ruofei had stored it in his storage treasure.

Not only did this mean that Xia ruofei's storage treasure was big enough, but it also showed that Xia ruofei's spiritual power was very strong. Using the storage treasure to store items was the same as using the spirit map space. The size and heavier the item, the more spiritual power was required. Xia ruofei could store such a big yacht with ease, so his spiritual power was obviously strong.

In fact, if it was an ordinary person, even if they had a top – notch storage ring, it would be useless because they could not use it at all. Ordinary people's spiritual power had not been trained. Only a few people were born with strong spiritual power, and most people were very weak. Even those who were born with strong spiritual power did not know how to use it. At most, they would show some extraordinary abilities, such as people with various special abilities. Most of them were people who were born with stronger spiritual power than ordinary people.

After Xia ruofei kept the yacht, he called out to Luo Qingfeng. The two of them continued to fly on their flying swords towards the northeast direction of the American continent.

On the other side, after calling for help through the satellite phone, Charlie Koch patiently waited for rescue on the lifeboat.

The lifeboat that the yacht was equipped with was extremely advanced. It could send out location information 24 hours a day. Furthermore, it had stored enough food and drinking water. As long as his luck was not particularly bad and he did not encounter a huge storm, Charlie could live comfortably on the lifeboat for at least ten days.

As the lifeboats were also equipped with advanced satellite equipment, Charlie could even connect to the internet on the vast sea.

Therefore, he was not very worried about his own safety. However, he had just killed his own brother, so he could not completely calm down for a while.

Charlie drove the lifeboat towards the North for a short while before his yacht sank in these waters. There were so many corpses that had sunk here. Even an atheist would feel a little terrified if he were to stay alone on the dark sea. Moreover, he did not want the rescue team to discover any clues in these waters. Therefore, the only way was to get the place where he was rescued as far away as possible.

There was also a satellite navigation system on the lifeboat. He was prepared to drive in the direction of the mainland for a few hours and then wait in place.

Under normal circumstances, the rescue team should have arrived faster.

They were far away from land, and the helicopter couldn't reach them. They could only use the fixed – Wing aircraft to investigate and search for the rescue. At the same time, they would send a ship to search for the location signal sent by the chip on the lifeboat. However, large rescue ships were also equipped with helicopters, so as the ship moved in, the helicopter would also fly into the sky and search the nearby waters. It would only return to the rescue ship to replenish the fuel when it was almost used up.

Therefore, Charlie estimated that the rescue force would arrive here by tomorrow evening or the day after tomorrow at the latest.

Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng kept flying towards the northeast direction. In a short while, Charlie's lifeboat's position had already exceeded the range of Xia ruofei's spiritual sensing.

Xia ruofei turned around and looked at Charlie. He said to himself, ""You're on your own now! If you can't even survive this, or if you encounter a storm at sea, you can only blame your own bad luck ..."

Chapter 2905 Receiving the military arms (2)

Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng were flying at high speed under the night sky. The sea breeze was blocked outside the yuan Qi protective barrier. The two of them stood on their flying swords with a calm and composed look.

When the first glimmer of light appeared on the horizon, Xia ruofei finally saw the outline of the land near the horizon.

After flying over the ocean for more than ten hours, all he could see was the boundless ocean. The sight of the sea and the sky being the same color was indeed very spectacular, but if he had seen this scenery for more than ten hours in a row, it would actually be very boring.

Xia ruofei let out a long sigh of relief when he finally saw land.

In the future, it would be best to avoid such long distance flying as it would be too tiring. If it wasn't an urgent matter, he would rather take the plane, even if it was slower than flying on a sword.

Xia ruofei took out his phone to check the GPS and found that his flight route was more or less correct. There was not much deviation.

He found the location of kuachakuros port, slightly adjusted the direction of the flight, and took Qingfeng Luo straight to the destination.

It was almost impossible to look at a mountain. In fact, it was almost the same as looking at the coastline. The land was clearly in sight, but with the speed of the sword Kinesis flight, the two of them still flew for more than half an hour before they finally arrived above the land.

After entering the land, Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng flew even higher. They were basically flying above the clouds. Of course, this was to avoid shocking the world.

Moreover, Xia ruofei had deliberately avoided the vicinity of the Civil Aviation routes. If he were to “scratch” the plane, it might cause a big problem.

Xia ruofei had always been suspicious. There were so many planes in modern society. It could be said that there were thousands of planes flying at the same time at every moment on the route. If cultivators above the Golden core stage were flying on swords, why had no one ever seen these ‘Immortals’? He had also never heard of any news of an inexplicable collision between planes.

He had asked Luo Qingfeng about this on the way and found out the whole story.”

First of all, when humans entered the age of flight, the cultivation environment on earth had begun to deteriorate, especially in the next 20 to 30 years. Therefore, the lifespan of golden core cultivators was actually getting fewer and fewer. The life expectancy of golden core cultivators was about 300 years at most. The spirit Qi on earth was poor, and they could not cultivate to a higher realm. Naturally, they slowly withered. Although the major sects could barely cultivate Qi refining cultivators, they could not break through to the Golden core realm in such a barren environment. This was simply a fool’s dream. Thus, the total number of cultivators above the Golden core stage had always been reduced.

In addition, even the existing Jindan cultivators were mostly old or close to the end of their lives. How would they have the leisure to ride their flying swords and fly around?

Therefore, in this era, there were very few cultivators who could ride flying swords.

In addition, cultivators who could ride flying swords had stronger spiritual power. For example, although Luo Qingfeng was much weaker than Xia ruofei, his spiritual power could also cover more than ten miles. With the spiritual power warning function, he could avoid accidents in most situations.

Xia ruofei had a general idea. Although cultivators and the secular world were inextricably linked, they were essentially two different groups from ordinary humans. They were even on a different level of life. Hence, cultivators would try their best to avoid unnecessary interactions with the secular world.

The two of them flew for about an hour, crossed the Mexico border, and finally arrived at the Gulf of Mexico on the other side.

Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng found a secluded place near kuachakuros port to descend and put away their flying swords.

“Master,” Luo Qingfeng asked. “Where are we going next?”

Xia ruofei took out his phone and said, “Give the contact person here a call first ... Oh right, the Hong sect members here are all Chinese too, so don’t call me master in front of others, just call me Mr. Xia!”

“Yes! Master!” “Yes!” Qingfeng Luo said respectfully.

“Also, do you want to change your appearance?” Xia ruofei asked.

Xia ruofei had just changed his appearance to look like “Xia Tian”. Luo Qingfeng was very impressed by Xia ruofei’s ability to change his appearance at will. Even for cultivators, it was a very novel technique.

“I don’t need it,” said Luo Qingfeng. Master, I’ve been cultivating in the sect all year round and rarely come to the secular world. It doesn’t matter even if I show my true face. ”

“Sure!” Xia ruofei nodded.

What Qingfeng Luo said made sense. Xia ruofei had to change his appearance because he had to appear in public as the chairman of paradise Corporation from time to time. Qingfeng, on the other hand, did not need to change his appearance.

For example, this time, if Xia ruofei had appeared in Mexico with his own appearance, he would definitely have left a record in the various surveillance facilities. The customs did not have his entry and exit record. If someone with ulterior motives noticed him, it would be troublesome.

While Xia ruofei was talking to Luo Qingfeng, he had already found the number that Li Yifu had given him and dialed it.

This phone was not the one that Xia ruofei usually used. He had bought a phone with an anonymous card and international roaming. He would use this phone when he appeared as ‘Xia Tian’.

The call went through very quickly. After five or six rings, the other party picked up.

Xia ruofei first heard a yawn, then a tired voice asked, “Who is it? You’re calling so early!”

The other party was speaking Spanish with a heavy accent. However, Xia ruofei had spent some time learning Spanish from the Spanish club, so he could understand it easily.

The official language of Mexico was Spanish, but Xia ruofei could tell that this man’s Spanish had a Chinese accent. So, he asked in Chinese, “I’m sorry to disturb your rest. Is this Mr. Zhang Chao?”

The person on the other end of the phone was stunned for a moment before he spoke in Chinese, “I’m Zhang Chao, and you are?”

“Oh! My surname is Xia, and Mr. Li Yifu asked me to look for you. He should have told you about receiving a batch of goods, right?” Xia ruofei said.

Zhang Chao was indeed sleeping just now. It was about 7 am local time. Many people who were used to sleeping late were still in bed.

However, when he heard Li Yifu’s name, he quickly sat up from the bed and said, “He did! He had said it! Mr. Xia, are you in America or Mexico?”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “we’ve arrived at kuachakuros port. Mr. Zhang, are you free today?” We would like to hand over the goods as soon as possible. ”

“So fast!” Zhang Chao was very surprised, and then he quickly said, “yes! It was convenient! I’m free anytime! Mr. Xia, could you tell me your exact location? I’ll immediately send someone to pick you up!”

Xia ruofei looked around and said, ""We're near kuachakurakos port. This place should be called Port Road. There's a Kolda shipping company next to it ..."

"I know this place!" Zhang Chao quickly said, "Mr. Xia, please wait here for a moment. I'll get someone to pick you up immediately!"

"Alright, I'll have to trouble Mr. Zhang then." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Oh right, there are two of us. We're all Chinese. I'm wearing a beige casual suit and my companion is wearing a dark blue long – sleeved shirt."

"Alright! Alright!" Zhang Chao quickly said, "please wait a moment. Oh, Mr. Xia, you can call me little Zhang or Zhang Chao!"

"Thank you! Zhang Chao!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng waited by the side of the road for about ten minutes. A business car drove over. A young man with a Chinese face looked at the two of them through the window, then quickly opened the door and got out. He jogged over and asked politely, ""Are you Mr. Xia?"

Chapter 2906 Mexico Freemasonry (1)

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. ""It's me!"

He and Luo Qingfeng were both Chinese, and Luo Qingfeng's long robe was so eye – catching, so it was impossible for the other party to have mistaken him for someone else.

Xia ruofei could tell that the young man's voice was different from Zhang Chao 's, which meant that it was not Zhang Chao. Xia ruofei asked again, ""Brother, what's your name?"

The young man quickly replied, "Mr. Xia, you're too polite!" My name is Lu Chunfeng, you can just call me Xiao Lu! It's brother Chao who asked me to come and pick you up!"

"Mr. Lu, thank you for your hard work!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Where? We're all brothers, and Mr. Xia is also adopted uncle's special envoy, so you don't have to be so polite!" Lu Chunfeng quickly said, "please get in the car!"

After Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng got into the business car, the car turned around and drove out of the port.

Lu Chunfeng, who was sitting in the co – Pilot seat, turned around and explained, ""Mr. Xia, brother Chao lives quite far away. He was afraid that you would wait for a long time, so he asked me to come and pick you up first. Please forgive me for my negligence!"

"What are you saying! I've already troubled you a lot!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Kuachaquarkos port was very large. The car drove for about ten minutes to reach their destination, but they were still in the port area.

Xia ruofei saw that it was a five – story building. The signboard read “Huafeng shipping company” in traditional Chinese. Behind the building, there was a huge warehouse connected to it. It should be the shipping company’s warehouse.

The car drove directly into the yard of the shipping company and stopped. Lu Chunfeng quickly got off and led Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng into the shipping company. He took them to a reception room on the first floor, asked someone to serve hot tea, and then said, “Mr. Xia, brother Chao is on his way from home. You may have to wait for a moment.”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “it’s okay, go do your thing!” We’ll be fine after resting here for a while!”

Lu Chunfeng scratched his head and said with a smile, “I’m fine! Before brother Chao comes, my mission is to receive the two of you! Mr. Xia, you ... Are you from the United States?”

The United States bordered Mexico. According to Zhang Chao, Xia ruofei was helping Li Yifu this time. Most of Li Yifu’s assets were in the United States, and the company’s headquarters was in Los Angeles so Lu Chunfeng thought that Xia ruofei must have come from the United States.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “this might not be convenient ...”

“I understand!” Lu Chunfeng quickly said. I understand! Mr. Xia, it’s all my fault for being a busybody, please don’t take offense ...”

“I won’t, I won’t!” Xia ruofei said, “it’s just that the matter we’re going to do this time is a little sensitive, so it’s not convenient for us to reveal too much.”

“Yes, yes, yes!” Lu Chunfeng quickly said, “please have some tea! Please have some tea! I know the rules ... It was all my fault for talking too much just now ...”

At this moment, a voice came from outside the door, “Feng! Are you asking all sorts of questions again?”

Lu Chunfeng was so scared that he trembled and quickly retreated to the side.

Xia ruofei heard the voice and immediately stood up with a smile. “This must be Mr. Zhang Chao!”

For a practitioner, they would never forget a voice that they had heard once. Although Zhang Chao had said something, Xia ruofei knew that it was the same person who had answered the phone.

The man was naturally Zhang Chao. He strode in and said with a smile, “Mr. Xia, I rushed here after receiving your call. I didn’t expect to be one step late and neglect our honored guest. I’m so sorry!”

Lu Chunfeng, who was on the side, could not help but secretly click his tongue. He knew that Zhang Chao’s place was at least a 40 – minute drive from here. When they received Zhang Chao’s call, they rushed directly to the place where Xia ruofei had been waiting for the car. After picking up Xia ruofei, they did not delay and returned immediately. The round trip time was only about 20 minutes.

Even if Zhang Chao had rushed to the shipping company immediately after putting down the phone, it was only possible for him to arrive so quickly because he had been speeding all the way. After Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng entered the house, they had just drunk a few mouthfuls of water and chatted with Lu Chunfeng for a while. Zhang Chao had already arrived. This was basically just a matter of time.

How much importance did Zhang Chao place on these two?

Although Lu Chunfeng already knew that the two people in front of him were “sent” by Li Yifu, he did not know more inside information.

In fact, when Li Yifu called Zhang Chao, he had specifically and formally instructed Zhang Chao to be polite to Xia ruofei and not neglect him. His tone was full of admiration and even a trace of respect for Xia ruofei.

Li Yifu was an elder of the Hong sect, and he had super financial resources. His position in the Hong sect was very high. Zhang Chao was only a small person in charge of the Hong sect’s branch in Mexico. The difference between the two could be said to be like the difference between heaven and earth. How could he dare to slack off when Li Yifu had entrusted this matter to him seriously?

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “what are you saying?” We’ve caused trouble for Mr. Zhang!”

Zhang Chao quickly said, “Mr. Xia, please don’t say that!” The world’s Hong sect was one big family! Furthermore, uncle Yi is an elder of the Hong sect, a senior that everyone respects. His matters are our matters! How can you say that you’re causing trouble!”

Zhang Chao looked at Lu Chunfeng and said, “Mr. Xia, this kid ah Feng is good at everything else, but he can’t control his mouth. And whether he should know or not, he likes to ask around! If he has offended you in any way, please be magnanimous and don’t stoop to his level!”

Chapter 2907 The Mexico Freemasons (2)

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “Mr. Zhang, you’re too kind. We haven’t even thanked Mr. Lu for his warm reception!” Why would I blame him?”

Only then did Lu Chunfeng secretly heave a sigh of relief. He realized that his back was covered in sweat. When Xia ruofei said that it was inconvenient, he realized that he had spoken too quickly again. Although this person looked friendly and harmless, he was a person close to the Hong sect’s Big Boss, Li Yifu. These big shots were all in charge of big things. It was taboo for him to ask about it without knowing the immensity of the world.

Fortunately, the other party was magnanimous and did not get angry because of this.

Lu Chunfeng also secretly said to himself, “He really should control his mouth in the future, otherwise he might really cause himself big trouble!

After exchanging a few pleasantries, Xia ruofei said, “Mr. Zhang, Mr. Li should have already coordinated with you, right? The two of us are here to take the goods away. ”

“No problem!” Zhang Chao said readily. Uncle Yi had already given the order! Mr. Xia, this must be your first time Mexico, right? What do you think about this? Let’s have lunch together. I’ll be the host. ”

Xia ruofei said tactfully, “Mr. Zhang, there’s no need to eat. We’re in a hurry. We’ll leave as soon as we receive the goods.”

Zhang Chao said, “no matter how busy I am, I still have to eat.” “The two of you have come to Mexico arrived in quachakurakos. If my adopted uncle finds out that I didn’t even keep you for a meal, he will definitely blame me ... I know you're in a hurry, so I won't keep you! Let's just treat this lunch as a welcoming banquet and a farewell banquet! You see, it's almost eight o'clock now. It's almost time for dinner, isn't it?"

Xia ruofei did not plan to stay for dinner. His plan was to take the things and fly back with Luo Qingfeng. If everything went well, they would be back to Peach Garden Island at night. There was no need to waste half a day here.

Besides, Xia ruofei knew that if he insisted on taking the things and leaving immediately, Zhang Chao would not force them to stay. If there was no other way, he could ask Li Yifu to call Zhang Chao and the problem would be solved.

Just as Xia ruofei was about to continue to decline, a young man in a black leather jacket peeked in and took a look. He hesitated for a moment but still walked into the reception room. He went straight to Zhang Chao's side and whispered a few words into his ear.

Zhang Chao's eyebrows raised slightly, but he quickly regained his calm and said, "I know. I'll go over and handle it in a while."

"Yes, brother Chao!" The young man quickly bowed slightly and left the reception room.

Zhang Chao then smiled at Xia ruofei and said, "Mr. Xia, even if you're in a hurry, you should at least check the goods, right? There's quite a lot of this batch of goods, and I estimate that it's almost time for lunch after I've finished counting them. Can you give me the honor of being a good host?"

Xia ruofei thought for a while and nodded. "Then I'll have to trouble you!"

Zhang Chao was overjoyed and laughed, "It's our honor to have Mr. Xia here! Mr. Xia, how about this! I'll get someone to bring you to inspect the goods now. I still have some things to deal with at the company, so I won't be able to accompany you two for now. I'll make a few more toasts to the two of you during lunch!"

"No problem!" Xia ruofei nodded and said, "the guest should do as the host wishes!"

Zhang Chao nodded. He waved to call Lu Chunfeng over and said, "Feng, take the two guests to the warehouse to inspect the goods. Uncle's goods are all in the same container. This is the container number!"

As he spoke, Zhang Chao handed a note to Lu Chunfeng and continued, "Remember, you lead Mr. Xia and the others to the container, open the lead seal, and leave immediately. Don't disturb Mr. Xia's inspection!"

Lu Chunfeng knew that this batch of goods must be a little sensitive, and it was not convenient for him to be present. He quickly said, "I understand! Brother Chao, don't worry! Just leave it to me!"

Zhang Chao nodded, then excused himself from Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng and left the reception room in a hurry.

Under Lu Chunfeng's lead, Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng passed through a long corridor on the first floor of the shipping company and came directly to the warehouse at the back.

The warehouse was very large. At a glance, there were at least thousands of containers. The warehouse also seemed very empty. If it was full, it could probably hold thousands of containers.

Lu Chunfeng was very familiar with the situation here, and he also had an impression of the container that Zhang Chao mentioned. The container that was sent two days ago was very heavy, and yesterday, it was about to be shipped away by the ship, but it was suddenly stopped.

Lu Chunfeng remembered the general area of the container. He took Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng through the warehouse and found the dark blue container in a short time.

The other containers were stacked together, but this one was placed alone. There were no other containers in the nearby area, so it was very easy to find.

Lu Chunfeng asked the worker in charge of the warehouse to find some tools to open the lead seal of the container. He did not open the door and said to Xia ruofei, "Mr. Xia, if you want to inspect the goods, you can just open the door and go in. That ... Brother Chao has instructions, so I'll take my leave first!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "Alright! Thank you!"

Lu Chunfeng took the worker who came to open the lead seal and left quickly. He also specifically told the management staff here not to approach the area of the container. No one was allowed to disturb them from checking the goods.

After Lu Chunfeng left, Luo Qingfeng immediately asked in confusion, "Master, why don't you just take the goods and leave?"

Luo Qingfeng was really confused. What was there to be polite to these people? As for Zhang Chao's words that it would take time to inspect the goods, it was not a problem for a cultivator. Moreover, Xia ruofei's spiritual power was so strong that he could clearly see what was in the container with just a slight sweep. He did not need to spend time checking.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I wanted to leave directly, but Zhang Chao seemed to have run into some trouble. He did help us and he has a good relationship with my adopted husband. Since we've run into him, we can't just stand by and do nothing. So, I decided to stay and see what's going on."

Xia ruofei had heard clearly what the young man in the leather jacket had whispered to Zhang Chao in the reception room. He knew that Zhang Chao was in trouble. Just like what he had told Luo Qingfeng, the firearms purchase was handled by the Mexican Freemasons. Now that they were in trouble, it would not be appropriate for him to just leave. Coincidentally, Zhang Chao had warmly asked them to stay for dinner, so Xia ruofei decided to stay here first. If Zhang Chao could solve the problem himself, Then Xia ruofei would pretend that he didn't know about this. He would take the goods and leave after lunch. If Zhang Chao couldn't handle it, Xia ruofei would help him in an appropriate way to return the favor.

Hearing this, Luo Qingfeng came to a sudden realization and said, "So master has other plans, this old servant has not thought it through."

Xia ruofei waved his hand. "It's nothing. You've rarely lived in the secular world. You might not be so clear about the ways of the world. This is normal."

“Yes!” “Master, what do we do next?” Luo Qingfeng asked respectfully.

Xia ruofei smiled and pointed at the container.””Of course it’s to inspect the goods. At least put on a show!”

In fact, in this short period of time, Xia ruofei had already scanned the entire container with his spiritual power. He knew the exact number of weapons and equipment in it. After comparing it with the purchase list that he had personally drawn up, everything was clear.

The Mexico Freemasons were indeed very efficient. There was no mistake in the number of firearms, not even a single bullet. All the equipment was packed up and stacked neatly in the containers.

Chapter 2908 Huafeng shipping’s trouble (1)

There was no need to open the box and check it personally, but Xia ruofei had said that it was just for show. Luo Qingfeng quickly said,””Yes! Master!”

He then ran over and opened the container door. Boxes of guns, bullets, grenades, bulletproof vests, and other auxiliary equipment appeared in front of them. These equipment were arranged in a very orderly manner and were all secured with straps to prevent them from slipping during the transportation process.

It was also Qingfeng Luo’s first time seeing a container. He finally had an intuitive impression of the volume of this batch of goods. He was also secretly speechless. Fortunately, the owner had a storage magical treasure with sufficient space. Otherwise, this ‘big iron box’ would not be able to fit in with his shabby storage ring.

Xia ruofei led Luo Qingfeng into the container. He opened a few boxes and played with the weapons and equipment inside.

This time, according to the request of the old company commander MA Deputy, Xia ruofei had equipped the guards with American – style equipment. When he was serving in lone wolf, he had the opportunity to come into contact with such equipment. After all, lone wolf was a special force. The tip of the knife. Although such American – style equipment would not be included in lone Wolf’s standard equipment, the members of lone wolf had to undergo training in using, dismantling, and assembling so that they would be able to use it in the future if their equipment was damaged or they ran out of ammunition and food. And when there was an opportunity to seize the equipment used by the enemy, the members of lone wolf could also use it skillfully.

Xia ruofei was holding an M4 submachine gun, the most commonly used weapon in the US military, and skillfully disassembled it into a pile of parts.

With Xia ruofei’s professional eyes, he could tell that this batch of equipment was brand new and of good quality. It seemed that the Smuggler’s price was high, but the goods were reliable.

Xia ruofei put the gun back into the box and opened the box to check the equipment.

This batch of equipment could be said to be a dazzling lineup with a wide range of categories. In addition to the M4, there were professional digital helmets, shoulder – mounted individual computers, U.S. Military – Standard night vision, SR 47 assault rifles, M82A1 anti – Armor rifles, some advanced anti –

Armor weapons, wall detection devices, miniature drones, and so on. Of course, it also included the latest bulletproof vests, combat suits, and combat boots.

It could be said that this batch of equipment and weapons was enough to arm a 100 – man guard to the teeth. It would not be a problem to complete a normal island defense mission.

When Xia ruofei was serving in the Army, he liked to study the equipment of foreign armies. In the batch of equipment today, there were some of the latest standard equipment that had been updated in the past one or two years. Even Xia ruofei had not tried it himself, so he was interested in fiddling with it.

Luo Qingfeng was puzzled. He did not know why his master, a cultivator in the Golden core stage, would be so interested in weapons from the secular world.

Although the weapons developed by the secular world were indeed very powerful, for cultivators, their own strength was more important. Cultivators had a common understanding that relying on external forces was always a small way, and only when one's own strength was strong could one be truly powerful.

As a cultivator who had been cultivating in the sect all year round and living a life of isolation, Luo Qingfeng found it hard to understand the true thoughts of Xia ruofei, who had been living in the secular world all this time.

Of course, Xia ruofei was not completely immersed in the fun of the new toy. In fact, he had been keeping his mental power in a state of radiation. On one hand, it was to prevent people from accidentally entering. After all, this batch of firearms was enough to equip a company. If news of such a large number of firearms piled up in the warehouse spread, it would definitely bring trouble to the Mexico Freemasons. On the other hand, Xia ruofei was mainly monitoring Zhang Chao's situation with his spiritual power.

The warehouse was huge, but Xia ruofei's spiritual power could cover an area of 10 kilometers. At his limit, he could barely cover an area of 15 kilometers. Hence, the building of the shipping company in front of him was naturally within Xia ruofei's monitoring range.

Zhang Chao did have a headache.

To be more precise, this problem had been bothering him for a long time and had not been solved.

Today, the "special envoy" sent by Li Yifu was handing over the firearms, and things happened to come to his door again, making him very angry.

Zhang Chao's troubles were actually very simple. Someone was interested in the Huafeng shipping company he was in charge of. To be precise, someone was interested in the land and warehouse of Huafeng shipping.

Huafeng shipping was a business owned by the Mexico gangsters. In a sense, Zhang Chao was just a professional manager.

However, the Hong sect was different from other companies. Zhang Chao, who was a disciple of the Hong sect in the middle level of the Mexico branch, had a high degree of loyalty. He would not sit by and watch the Hong sect's business be taken over.

But the problem was that the person who had his eyes on this piece of land was a bit influential.

The other party was the famous Mexico drug lord gang, the Bay group.

Mexico was a strange country. In terms of combat power, the strongest wasn't the Army or the police, but the big and small drug lord groups.

The level of military and police equipment in Mexico was considered relatively advanced among third world countries, but it was still a little inferior compared to drug lord groups. These drug lord groups were basically all equipped with American equipment. This was also the reason why Li Yifu had chosen to buy arms from smugglers in Mexico before. It could be said that American equipment was really rampant on this land.

Chapter 2909 Huafeng shipping's trouble Part

The Gulf Group was one of the most powerful drug lord gangs in Mexico.

In order to fight against the military and police, the Gulf Group even set up a branch called Loszetas. Loszetas could be called the Gulf group's quasi – Military force. They were well – equipped and had very Advanced Tactical concepts. Even the Mexico Special Forces were not their match.

In fact, all the drug gangs in Mexico could easily destroy the Mexican army and police, especially when driven by profit. The government was also very corrupt, and many officials took the initiative to protect the drug gangs.

To exaggerate a little, the Mexico gangs had the ability to replace the government and become the president.

The reason why they didn't dare to do so was nothing more than worrying about the intervention of international organizations, especially with the powerful neighbor, the United States, watching covetously. Once an external force intervened Mexico's drug trafficking industry would suffer a heavy blow.

It was for this reason that the Mexico government could still survive until now. The big drug dealers would rather spend a lot of money bribing senior officials to maintain their drug chain than to replace them.

The most pitiful ones were undoubtedly the military and police who were fighting drug lords on the front lines. These people's salaries were very low, but their work was extremely dangerous. According to statistics, since the rise of the Mexico gangs, tens of thousands of military and police had died at the hands of the gangs over the years. The number of murders in Mexico started in the tens of thousands a year, which showed the rampant power of the gangs.

It was the Qingqing Bay group, one of the top forces in the Mexico drug gang, that had their eyes on Huafeng shipping.

Although Mexico close to the United States states, and the Hong sect, whose headquarters was in the United States, had some power here, they still had a lot of legitimate businesses, such as Huafeng shipping. Compared with the drug lord groups that were unscrupulously engaged in the drug industry, the Hong sect's military strength was definitely much weaker.

What's more, the Gulf group's power was spread all over Mexico, and many senior officials were their targets of bribery. As for the larger number of middle – and low – Level public officials, there were even more who acted as their umbrella.

Of course, the Bay group, which was as rich as a country, naturally wouldn't think much of a small shipping company. The one who really wanted to take over the land and warehouse was the branch of the Bay group in quachakuros.

Even so, Zhang Chao was still under a lot of pressure.

In fact, the kuachakuros branch of the Gulf Group was interested in Huafeng shipping mainly because the location of the land was very good. It was just right from the port and the surrounding terrain was also very suitable. They wanted to take it down and use it as a drug transfer warehouse.

If it was a normal market acquisition, perhaps Zhang Chao would have agreed considering the huge power of the Bay group. After all, it was just a change of location to start a company. Although it was a little troublesome, there was no need to fight with the other party over this matter. It was not worth it.

However, the other party's appetite was huge. He wanted this piece of land, but he didn't want to pay an equal price.

To put it bluntly, it was seizing by trickery.

The other party's offer to Huafeng shipping was so low that it was outrageous. That little money could not even buy one – tenth of the land, not to mention that there was a huge warehouse and other ancillary buildings on the land.

Zhang Chao would definitely not agree to such a forceful purchase.

After he rejected the unreasonable request of the other party, he immediately used the Mexico and United States Hong sect to mediate, hoping to resolve the matter peacefully.

However, the Gulf Group didn't give them any face at all. The entire Mexico was their home base, and they had the final say in this country. Not to mention, the management of Huafeng shipping was all Chinese. Although the entire company had an United States capital background, the shareholders were also some Chinese – Americans, so they were even more unscrupulous.

Zhang Chao's coordination had no effect, and since he rejected the other party's offer, Huafeng shipping continued to encounter various troubles and difficulties.

The Gulf Group had already bought over the entire Mexico government. It would be easy for them to get rid of a small shipping company with a Chinese background.

All kinds of inspections came unexpectedly, and in just a week, Huafeng shipping received several tickets.

Moreover, the company's ships had also encountered various difficulties when they docked and resupplied.

Zhang Chao was in a terrible fix.

Today, when he was talking to Xia ruofei, his subordinate told him that the person in charge of the Bay group in the state of vilacru, irade, had personally come to negotiate with them and would be arriving at the shipping company soon.

The pressure on Zhang Chao doubled. Kuachakuros was a city under the state of veracru. In the beginning, the various means of the kuachakuros branch had already made Zhang Chao tired of dealing with them. Now, even the head of the state branch had come in person, which showed that the other party was determined to win, and it was obvious that they were using their power to oppress him.

Zhang Chao had no choice but to hand Xia ruofei over to Lu Chunfeng to receive him. He walked out of the reception room quickly and was ready to go out and welcome him.

As soon as Zhang Chao went out, the young man in the black leather jacket immediately greeted him.

"Qiang, Where are they now?" Zhang Weiwei asked with a frown.

The young man in a leather jacket, Qiang, quickly said, ""Brother Chao, we've already passed the Port Road when we received the call. We should be here soon."

Zhang Chao nodded and quickly walked out of the building.

Just then, a flashy fleet of cars drove into the shipping company's courtyard.

In addition to the bulletproof version of the black extended Rolls – Royce, there were at least seven or eight black Hummer off – road vehicles, as well as some black cars of ordinary brands with government license plates.

Zhang Chao saw medel, the head of the bay group's kuachakus branch, get out of the extended Rolls – Royce, walk quickly to the back door, and open the door politely.

A middle – aged white man in a black trench coat got out of the car. He had a high nose bridge and a gloomy face. He looked around the courtyard of Huafeng shipping.

At this time, the bodyguards in the hummers also got out of the car and quickly formed a protective circle around the two.

Looking at the situation, Zhang Chao knew that this white man in a black trench coat was most likely the head of the bay group's vilacru state branch, ERAD.

At this time, the people in the accompanying official cars also got out of their cars. Zhang Chao glanced at them and couldn't help but feel his head throb. These people all had extraordinary bearings. Zhang Chao knew some of them and had never seen some before. Among the people he knew were Sanchez, the female Deputy Mayor of kuachakuros, and Fernando, who he often saw on the TV news, the state Senator of veraculus.

So many officials and councilmen were obviously on the Bay group's side.

Zhang Chao couldn't help but worry, but since they had already come to his door, he could only brace himself and greet them first.

Mader, the head of the bay group's quachakauxus branch, stood beside ERAD like a pug, while officials like Sanchez and Fernando also stood behind ERAD with great respect.

The Bay group's main business was in the drug business, which was almost an open secret. Sanchez, Fernando, and the others represented the government, and now they were standing behind ERAD with their hands down like ERAD's subordinates. This scene looked somewhat ironic.

However, Zhang Chao didn't have the mood to laugh at the integrity of these officials. He was no longer a hot – blooded young man. In his eyes, there was nothing funny about this scene. Instead, it made him feel like a mountain of pressure was coming at him.

Chapter 2910 Who can't be tolerated_

Madel, who had dealt with Zhang Chao a few times, looked up at him and said, "Mr. Zhang, today our respected Mr. Irade has come to talk to you in person. I hope you can give us a satisfactory answer."

Sanchez, the female Deputy Mayor of quachaquarkos, also said with a reserved expression, "Mr. Zhang, the harbor Group under Mr. ERAD's name is an important investor in our kuachakuros city. I hope that this meeting can reach a satisfactory result for both sides. Of course, this is only my personal wish and does not represent the city government of kuachakurakos."

The so – called Harbor Group was just a shell, and the mastermind behind it was the notorious drug lord gang, the Bay group. This port group was in charge of some of the Bay Group's business in the state of vilacru, and the nominal boss was ERAD.

This was something that almost everyone in Mexico knew, but Sanchez, as the Deputy Mayor of quachaquarkos, could still say those words with a serious face, as if the harbor Group was a clean company.

The state Councilor of the state of veracris, Fernando, who came with him, just glanced at Zhang Chao indifferently without saying anything, but the pressure he gave Zhang Chao was not small at all.

When Zhang Chao saw the other party's formation, he knew that they were determined to win today.

He couldn't help but complain in his heart. The Chinese were already a vulnerable group in Mexico, especially when the opponent this time was one of the largest drug lord gangs in Mexico. It seemed that it would be difficult to keep the foundation of Huafeng shipping today ...

Zhang Chao squeezed out a smile and went up to him. "Everyone, please go to the reception room! Let's sit down and talk!"

At this time, ERAD, who had not said a word since he got out of the car, finally opened his mouth. He narrowed his eyes and stared at Zhang Chao, saying, "Chinese, I heard that you're not willing to transfer this warehouse?"

Zhang Chao forced a smile and said, "Mr. ERAD, it's not that we don't want to sell it. It's just that the price you gave is too low. It's far lower than the market price. If we sell it at this price, our many years of Foundation will be equivalent to being lost ..."

ERAD's brows furrowed slightly, and he tilted his head and asked, "Madeline, how much did you offer them?"

Madel quickly smiled and said, "Mr. ERAD, we bid 500000 US dollars. In fact, this price is already very high. The land at the port is not worth much, and their warehouse is very old. It's about this price. These damn Chinese people are too greedy!"

When Zhang Chao heard this, his lungs were about to explode. Madeline was completely lying with his eyes open. Just the shipping company building and the land alone were worth more than 500000 US dollars. The warehouse behind covered a vast area. Even without the value of the building, the value of the land alone was almost five million US dollars.

If Huafeng shipping's industries were sold at a price of five million US dollars, buyers would definitely rush to the door to trade.

What's more, Huafeng shipping didn't want to sell it at all. It was Madeline who took a fancy to this land and wanted to use it as a transit and storage base for drug trade. That was why he used his power to oppress people. It was obvious that he wanted to force the purchase.

"Madel, 500000 dollars is indeed a little inappropriate ..." ERAD said after a moment of silence.

When Zhang Chao heard this, he couldn't help but feel a little surprised. Could it be that this drug lord leader still had a little conscience? Or did he think that the price was so low that even he could not bear to look at it?

In any case, Zhang Chao was more or less relieved to hear this.

However, what ERAD said next made Zhang Chao's heart fall to the bottom again.

The corners of ERAD's mouth twitched slightly, and he said, "This price is really too high! Madel, as the person in charge of the kuachakuros branch, you must be careful when you spend every penny. You can't squander it at will! Don't you understand this logic? You actually want to buy such a broken place for five hundred thousand dollars? Is it because the company has too much money and has nowhere to spend it?"

"It's my fault, Mr. ERAD!" Madel quickly lowered his head and said. I also want to complete the transaction as soon as possible and hope that these Chinese people will agree to this deal as soon as possible by giving them a certain amount of interest. I just didn't expect these people to be insatiable and want more money ..."

Zhang Chao was so angry that he almost couldn't control himself and started cursing.

Could he be more shameless than this? This was a complete lie!

However, in the end, reason still triumphed over impulse. Zhang Chao knew that once he fell out with ERAD, he would definitely be the one to suffer in the end. At that time, not only would he not be able to protect the shipping company, but even the personal safety of his people would not be guaranteed.

Although the Hong sect's branch in Mexico had a certain level of combat power, how could they compare to the drug lord group that was armed to the teeth?

It was no exaggeration to say that once he had a falling out with these people, the entire Huafeng shipping company might be massacred tonight, becoming one of the tens of thousands of murders in Mexico every year.

There were countless murders and firefights in Mexico, and people died every day, but only a few cases could be solved.
