Chapter 2911 Who can't be tolerated_

Zhang Chao could only suppress his anger and said humbly, "Mr. ERAD, the market value of these industries of Huafeng shipping is at least five million US dollars, and there is a demand but no supply. Five hundred thousand US dollars is really too low ..."

ERAD just glanced at Zhang Chao, then slightly raised his chin, looked at Zhang Chao with eyes that looked down on all living beings, and said indifferently, "Four hundred and fifty thousand dollars. You have three days to move!"

Zhang Chao's face changed slightly and he said, "This is impossible! We can't afford such a huge loss ..."

"Four hundred thousand dollars!" ERAD's face sank, and he lowered the price again. "I hope that you will take the initiative to disappear from here today. Otherwise ... I will make you disappear!"

Zhang Chao fell silent. He looked up at Sanchez, Fernando, and several other government officials who had come to help behind ERAD. He found that these people were all looking up at the sky, as if they had not heard ERAD's naked threat at all.

ERAD's words were already a death threat. He had said it without any scruples in front of so many government officials and public servants. It could be said that he was extremely arrogant.

Zhang Chao knew that things would not end well today. He had two choices. One was to swallow his pride and accept this humiliating and unfair deal. The second option was to go all out and use the Hong sect's power in kuachakuros to fight them.

The first choice was very humiliating. Perhaps he wouldn't even get the $400000 in the end and would just have to get lost. However, Zhang Chao knew that if he accepted these conditions, his personal safety could basically be guaranteed.

The second option was relatively more courageous, but it would only be a momentary pleasure. The outcome would be quite tragic. Not only would he not be able to escape, but many of his brothers would also lose their lives. This was beyond doubt.

ERAD looked at the struggling Zhang Chao with interest and said meaningfully, "I'm from China, and the US $400000 offer is valid for five minutes. I might lower the price again if it's more than five minutes!"

Zhang Chao took a deep breath and said, "Mr. ERAD, I'm afraid I can't make a decision. I'm just a professional manager, and I need to consult the Board of Directors for such an important decision, so ... I hope you can give us more time."

ERAD wagged his index finger and said, "I've never accepted bargaining. You have four minutes and forty seconds to consider!"

Zhang Chao secretly gritted his teeth and struggled madly in his heart. He knew very well that the decision he made would likely affect the fate of a large group of brothers.

The disciples of the Hong sect were all hot – blooded people. If Zhang Chao had been in the past, he would have slapped anyone who spoke to him in this way. However, he was now the person in charge of Huafeng shipping. He couldn't just care about his own happiness and put so many brothers in danger.

Zhang Chao gritted his teeth and frowned as he struggled with his thoughts.

"Chinese, do you know which two creatures I hate the most?" ERAD asked.

Zhang Chao raised his head and looked at ERAD in confusion.

ERAD obviously didn't want to wait for Zhang Chao's answer. After asking, he immediately said, "I hate rats and ... Chinese people the most!"

Zhang Chao's face changed drastically when he heard this. A rush of hot blood rushed to his head, and his eyes turned red in an instant.

ERAD looked at Zhang Chao with interest and said with disdain, "There's one thing in common between the Chinese and rats, and that is that their reproductive ability is too strong, so much so that they can't be killed. No matter how humans exterminate the rats, there are still endless rats on earth. Aren't you Chinese the same? Now, the whole world can see Chinese people everywhere. It's really hard to be happy ..."

Zhang Chao's chest heaved up and down violently. At this moment, all of his reason was burned out by anger. His blood – Red eyes stared at ERAD as he spoke word by word in Spanish, gritting his teeth, "Irade, I, F * ck, your, mother!"

The smile on ERAD's face suddenly froze, and his gloomy face revealed a strong killing intent. He narrowed his eyes and said, "Chinese monkey, can you repeat what you just said?"

Before Zhang Chao could speak, a young voice came from the small building of the shipping company behind, "He just said that he wanted to F * ck your mother. To put it simply, he wanted to have sex with your mother!"

This young voice was also speaking Spanish, and it was much more accurate than Zhang Chao's.

Zhang Chao's expression changed when he heard the familiar voice. He could tell that it was Xia ruofei's voice. He couldn't help but complain.

Just now, he was so hot – blooded that he completely forgot that there were two "special envoys" sent by Li Yifu in the shipping company today. It was fine if they fought to the death with ERAD. At most, they would die. However, that Mr. Xia and the old man in the long shirt who did not speak from beginning to end were his uncle's people! If anything were to happen to them here, how was he going to explain it to his adopted uncle?

Moreover, didn't I just ask Lu Chunfeng to take them to the warehouse? Why would Mr. Xia appear here? Damn Lu Chunfeng, he dropped the ball again at the critical moment! Zhang Chao said angrily in his heart.

However, it was too late to stop him. Not only did Xia ruofei make a sound, but his voice had already appeared at the door of the building.

Xia ruofei walked to Zhang Chao's side step by step. He stared at ERAD's disgusting face and said, ""You know what? In my eyes, a racist piece of trash is worse than a rat. At most, it's a pile of stinky dog shit floating in the sewers!"

Zhang Chao was almost scared out of his wits when he heard this. He thought to himself that he was really done for this time!

This Mr. Xia looked gentle and elegant, but he was actually so angry! It must have been ERAD's insulting remarks about the Chinese that had angered him, so he walked out without a care.

However, even though it felt good, the result was extremely serious.

ERAD was famous for his ruthlessness among the middle – Level leaders of the Bay group. Even Zhang Chao had heard of this drug lord. Over the years, more than 200 people had died directly under his gun. If those who were killed indirectly by him were counted, there were countless more.

In Zhang Chao's opinion, this Mr. Xia was completely seeking his own death!

Zhang Chao didn't regret his impulsiveness just now. ERAD had insulted the Chinese in front of him. Even if he could turn back time, he would still choose to scold him. He would never back down, even if he had to pay the price with his life.

However, Zhang Chao regretted that he did not consider Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng. They were Li Yifu's men, and he had to be responsible for them since they came to Mexico. This was equivalent to Li Yifu handing them over to him. If anything were to happen here, how could he face Li Yifu?

Zhang Chao quickly stopped Xia ruofei and said, ""Mr. Xia, please don't interfere in this matter! This is an internal matter of the Freemasonry ..."

Immediately after, Zhang Chao immediately said to ERAD a little nervously, ""Mr. ERAD, I take back my rude words. This gentleman is my friend, not a shipping company's staff. He just came from the United States and doesn't know much about Mexico. He didn't mean to offend you. I hope you can forgive him!"

Xia ruofei's sudden appearance and the words he had said had even caused ERAD's thoughts to freeze for a moment. In all these years, very few people had dared to say such things in front of him.

After Zhang Chao finished speaking, ERAD finally came back to his senses. The killing intent on his face became more and more intense, and he said with a grim smile, ""Yellow – skinned monkey, do you think ..."

"Pa!"

A crisp slap was heard.

Xia ruofei, who was more than five meters away from ERAD just now, suddenly flashed when ERAD started to speak. Everyone only felt a blur in front of their eyes, and Xia ruofei's figure directly appeared in front of ERAD. Those intimidating – looking bodyguards were completely non – existent.

Immediately after, Xia ruofei raised his hand and slapped him without any hesitation.

Chapter 2912 Destruction – like rotten wood -

ERAD's head tilted to one side after being slapped by Xia ruofei. Naturally, he was interrupted.

Of course, Xia ruofei had held back in this slap. Otherwise, irade's head would have been smashed. However, this was only relative. In reality, this slap was even heavier than an ordinary person's full – strength slap.

ERAD's face swelled up at a speed visible to the naked eye, and even his molar was broken.

He felt his head buzzing, and stars appeared before his eyes. He was in a state of dizziness and couldn't recover for a long time.

The politicians of kuachakuros, as well as Madel and the others, were all stunned. They couldn't believe the scene in front of them. Who would have thought that someone would actually dare to beat the fierce God, irade, in his face? and today, they came to Huafeng shipping with a huge lineup from the Bay group. Not only were there officials on the stage, but there were also more than a dozen bodyguards escorting them. They didn't expect these bodyguards to become decorations. The other party lightly came in front of irade and raised his hand to slap him ...

Zhang Chao was also stunned. He already knew that Xia ruofei was a very tough person, but he didn't expect Xia ruofei to be so good at fighting. The speed at which she jumped out just now showed that she was a martial arts practitioner, and one who was very skilled at it.

Of course, this was only Zhang Chao's understanding. In fact, it was very difficult for ordinary people to reach this speed when practicing martial arts.

Of course, Xia ruofei didn't use his full strength. He only relied on his body's physical quality. He leaped forward with a stomp of his feet and his speed was already frighteningly fast.

After the slap, the entire courtyard fell silent.

Zhang Chao was the first to come back to his senses. He shouted, ""Mr. Xia, come back!"

"Brothers!" Zhang Chao shouted, "get your weapons out here! We'll fight them to the death today!"

Xia ruofei didn't hold back at all. Zhang Chao realized that things would not end peacefully today. He wasn't a coward and had made a decision in the shortest time possible. He would die Here today. However, no matter what, he had to protect Xia ruofei. At least, he had to get Xia ruofei and his companions out of here.

The Hong sect still had other forces in Mexico. As long as his men could escort Xia ruofei out of here, the Hong sect would have a way to send him back to the United States.

As long as she went back to the United States, she would be safe. Even now, Zhang Chao still thought that Xia ruofei had come from the United States.

Xia ruofei looked relaxed as he returned to Zhang Chao's side. He smiled and said, ""Brother Zhang Chao, I didn't intend to get involved in this matter, but just because you said" F * ck his mother "!" You're a man! Then I can't just ignore it ..."

Zhang Chao didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He hurriedly said, "Mr. Xia, please take your companions and leave this place!"

Zhang Chao thought, "so this young master still thinks he's in America!" You've never seen the cruelty of these drug lords. So what if you can fight? If they pulled out their guns without saying a word and more than a dozen bodyguards shot at them, you wouldn't be able to withstand it even if you had a few lives!

Xia ruofei said indifferently, "calm down!" They're just a few clowns, they can't do much. "

Zhang Chao was going crazy. He said in a hurry, "Mr. Xia! You must leave immediately! This man is an important leader of Mexico's largest drug lord gang. Each of them is extremely evil, and they all have guns. You've completely angered them just now, and they'll really kill you!"

Just as the two of them were talking, ERAD finally recovered. One of his cheeks was completely swollen, and his eyes had narrowed into a line. However, the killing intent in his eyes was so strong that it was almost tangible, making his swollen face look even more ferocious.

He roared, "are you all Blockheads?" Kill him!"

As a few of his teeth were broken, and his face was swollen, ERAD's voice was a little funny, but the bodyguards didn't find it funny at all. Each of their hearts trembled, feeling that a disaster was imminent.

Today was really strange!

Although they felt that the safety level in the yard of this Huaxia shipping company was very high, and they weren't particularly careful, but more than a dozen of them were surrounding ERAD. Even if they were careless, it was impossible for them to directly rush in front of ERAD and give him a slap!

With such a heavy blow, ERAD would definitely vent his anger on them! He might even kill a few of them to vent his anger when he returned. This was completely possible.

However, these bodyguards also knew that whether they could keep their lives or not would depend on their performance.

If they could quickly kill the young man in front of them, they might have a chance of survival.

The bodyguards shivered and took out their guns.

At this moment, ERAD shouted again, "Don't kill him all at once! I want him to suffer! Break his limbs first, then slowly torture him!"

"Yes! Mr. ERAD!" The bodyguards responded in unison.

At this time, the people in Huafeng shipping company also heard Zhang Chao's words and rushed out with their weapons.

However, the Hong sect couldn't be compared to these drug lords, so they couldn't prepare a large number of firearms. Xia ruofei's firearms were handled by Zhang Chao alone. No one knew that there was a container of firearms in the warehouse. Even if they knew, the warehouse was so big and the container was quite far away, so they would not have time to retrieve it.

Chapter 2913 Destroyed as easily as rotten wood_

The brothers were holding all kinds of weapons. There were switchblades, steel pipes, and some people holding a shotgun. This was the strongest firepower. Some of them even rushed out with the leg of a stool, looking like a ragtag Army.

“Brother Chao!”

“What do we do? Let’s fight it out with them, brother Chao!”

Everyone shared the same hatred for the enemy, and they were completely going all out.

At this time, the bodyguards had already raised their guns. They had a sinister smile on their faces, as if they had already foreseen the one – sided slaughter.

Indeed, such a ragtag group of soldiers did not even have decent weapons. How could they compare to these well – trained people?

Zhang Chao’s eyes were bloodshot. He roared, “Let’s rush up together. Even if we die today, we must kill them all! Ah Qiang, Ah Hua, you two protect Mr. Xia and retreat from the back door!”

“Yes! Brother Chao!” Everyone’s eyes were red as they gritted their teeth, looking like they were going to fight for their lives.

At this moment, Xia ruofei said indifferently, “Qingfeng, take care of these B * stars! Don’t take their lives, or they’ll bring trouble to our brothers in the Hong sect!”

Zhang Chao was stunned for a moment. He even thought that Xia ruofei had gone crazy.

However, just as Xia ruofei finished speaking, they heard an old voice respectfully reply, “Yes! Mr. Xia!”

Then, a blue figure flashed out of the Huafeng shipping building. It was even faster than when Xia ruofei had slapped yirade. No one could see who it was.

Then, it was as if everyone was watching a scene from a kung fu movie. It was a scene of Youyou charging into the group of bodyguards at four times the normal speed. No one could see his movements clearly. In at most seven or eight seconds, the strong bodyguards were lying all over the courtyard, and their guns were all twisted into fried dough twists and thrown to the ground.

The bodyguards didn’t even have the time to shoot. The speed of the opponent was too fast for them to see clearly. If they shot randomly, they would probably hurt their teammates by mistake. If they hesitated, they would have no chance to shoot at all.

It was not until all the bodyguards had laid down that Zhang Chao and the others could see clearly that the blue figure was the old man in the blue robe who had come to the company with Xia ruofei today.

Zhang Chao and the others’ mouths were so wide open that a light bulb could be stuffed in, but they didn’t even realize it.

The shock in Zhang Chao’s heart was extremely strong. When Luo Qingfeng and Xia ruofei came to Huafeng shipping today, they had been very low – Key. They just followed Xia ruofei and did not even say a word.

Cultivators were different from those who practiced martial arts in the secular world. Qingfeng Luo's body looked very thin, and he did not look as energetic as a martial artist. In fact, this was equivalent to returning to the original in martial arts. In the eyes of the people in the secular world, Qingfeng Luo was just an ordinary old man.

Zhang Chao could never have imagined that the skinny old man that Xia ruofei had brought with him was so powerful. This was the rhythm of a human – shaped Gundam!

The Mexicans across the street were also frightened.

No matter if it was ERAD or Madel, as well as the state Councilmen and city government officials who had come to help boost the momentum today, all of them were dumbfounded, unable to believe their eyes.

Qingfeng Luo, a golden core stage master, dealing with a few ordinary people with guns was like using a butcher's knife to kill a chicken. He did not even sweat a drop and had already settled it.

Qingfeng Luo did not think that his actions were impressive because he knew that if his master had acted on his own, he would definitely be faster than him. It was just a few ordinary people, not worth mentioning.

After he was done with the bodyguards, he walked up to Xia ruofei and said respectfully, "Mr. Xia, I've knocked them all out. They're not dead, but I think they'll need to rest for a while before they can get off the bed."

"Good job!" Xia ruofei nodded.

Then, he turned his gaze to ERAD and strode towards him.

ERAD's entire body quivered. He quickly took two steps back and said with a look of horror, "Don't come any closer!"

ERAD was really scared now. He had never seen a person with such heaven – defying martial strength. He could even ignore firearms and directly crush them in a one – sided manner.

ERAD's skills were quite good. He had even killed several Mexico police officers with his bare hands. However, compared to the old man in front of him, he felt that he was a weakling who couldn't even truss a chicken. He couldn't even handle one of the man's hands.

The bodyguards were also lying down. He had no help at all. Obviously, the situation had been reversed. At least for now, in this yard, he was the meat on the anvil, while the other party was holding a knife.

"If you try to pull out that gun, I guarantee that your wrist will be broken before you can shoot ..." Xia ruofei said calmly.

ERAD always carried a weapon with him because he didn't trust anyone and he had too many enemies.

He had indeed wanted to take out his gun when Xia ruofei was not paying attention.

For a ruthless character like ERAD, he would never give up on the idea of fighting at any time, but the premise was that the opponent was not prepared. Now that Xia ruofei had exposed him, he naturally did not dare to make any small moves. He had seen the terrifying speed of Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng with his own eyes. He knew that he had no chance to take out his gun and shoot when the opponent had already noticed him.

Therefore, ERAD's hand, which had been stretched out halfway, immediately stopped, and he obediently took it out. His hand was naturally empty.

He slowly raised his hands and said in Spanish, "Sir, please calm down. I won't attack you ..."

Xia ruofei walked over slowly, and Luo Qingfeng followed closely behind him.

Although he knew that Xia ruofei did not need his protection, it was his duty as a servant.

Xia ruofei stared at ERAD coldly for a few seconds and did not say anything. The atmosphere became extremely tense.

At this time, Fernando, the state parliament member, said in a trembling voice, "Sir, any form of violence is illegal. Please remain calm!"

Sanchez, the Deputy Mayor of quachaquarkos, was shaking with both legs. She gathered her courage and said, "If you kill someone here, you can't leave Mexico. The police will never let go of a murderer!"

Xia ruofei's face revealed a mocking expression as he said, "The words of the two of you are really righteous! In any other country, these words might have some credibility, but in Mexico ... Hehe! There had been more than 20000 murders last year. How many had the police solved? Also, speaking of murderers, this Mr. ERAD in front of me is one of the biggest murderers. Aren't you guys close to him?"

Sanchez's face turned red and he said guiltily, "That's all hearsay! The Mexico police have always been committed to Social Security, and Mr. ERAD is the chairman of the harbor Group. He is a law – abiding businessman, not a murderer!"

"Shut up!" Xia ruofei scolded.

Sanchez trembled in fear and couldn't help but take a step back.

In fact, Xia ruofei was not particularly fierce, but the cold aura that he exuded was terrifying. Especially the moment Xia ruofei told her to shut up, it was as if a huge pressure had hit her face. It made her feel that the harmless – looking young man in front of her had suddenly turned into a fierce beast, making her shudder.

Xia ruofei did not bother with these politicians who had no moral integrity. He went straight to ERAD, looked down at him, and asked indifferently, "Do you know how we killed your bodyguard?"

"I don't know ..." ERAD said, trembling with fear.

"Then let me tell you." Xia ruofei said coldly, "Chinese Kungfu! Chinese Kongfu! Have you heard of it?"

Chapter 2914 A stray dog (1)

A normal person would not be able to withstand the spiritual pressure of a golden core stage powerhouse.

Even though ERAD was extremely brutal and his hands were stained with blood, he could not help but tremble in fear when he faced Xia ruofei. It was as if he was facing a legendary ancient demonic god.

His upper and lower teeth involuntarily trembled, making a gurgling sound. He said in a trembling voice, "I ... I've heard of it ..."

Xia ruofei withdrew his spiritual force with a look of disdain. Only then did ERAD feel the pressure on his body relax, as if the sun had returned to the earth. Only then did he realize that in just a few seconds, his clothes had been drenched in sweat, and he looked as if he had just been fished out of the water.

Xia ruofei pouted and said, "you dare to look down on the Chinese?" I'm telling you, you're not even fit to carry the shoes of the Chinese!"

"Yes ... I was wrong ..." ERAD nodded repeatedly.

He had been completely crushed by Xia ruofei. At this moment, his heart was filled with fear and helplessness. He had lost the arrogance of a drug Lord's backbone leader. The only thought in his mind was to leave this place as soon as possible. He did not want to stay for another second.

However, Xia ruofei did not say anything. He did not dare to run. He could not even move his legs.

Of course, he also knew that even if he ran, he would not be able to escape. The other party's speed was like a ghost. Even if he were to fly a hundred meters, he would definitely not be able to outrun the other party.

Xia ruofei looked down at ERAD and asked, "Speak! Do you want to live or die? Don't put your hopes on those garbage politicians. I can kill all of you in a minute and then leave Mexico, do you believe me?"

On the side, Sanchez, Fernando, and the others' faces turned red and white. They were very embarrassed, but they did not dare to say a word.

"I believe you!" ERAD quickly said, "Sir, I want to live! I ... I don't want to die ..."

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "you want to live?" Simple! Just an apology will do ..."

"Yes, yes, yes!" ERAD hurriedly replied. I apologize! I apologize! I sincerely apologize to all the Chinese!"

Xia ruofei said impatiently, "shut up!" I haven't even finished, why are you interrupting?"

"I'm sorry! "I'm sorry ..." ERAD was so scared that his neck shrank back, and he quickly said.

Xia ruofei glanced at ERAD and said, "In China, the most sincere apology is to kneel and kowtow. Let me count ... One, two, three ... There are 18 Chinese people here today. Kneel down here and kowtow eighteen times. With each kowtow, say 'I'm wrong' and I'll let you off this time. "By the way, let me remind you again. In China, we pay attention to kowtowing loudly. You must hear the sound when you kowtow. The louder the sound, the more sincere you are! How was it? Please consider it!"

ERAD's face alternated between red and white, and his heart was filled with humiliation.

Kneeling wasn't just a Chinese etiquette. It was a body language used all over the world. Kneeling on both knees meant that one had completely surrendered and had thrown away all their dignity.

ERAD had walked into this courtyard in an insufferably arrogant manner, but now he had to kneel and beg for mercy in exchange for his life. This was really too difficult a choice for him.

Especially since there were more than a dozen bodyguards here, as well as Madel, the head of the kuachakuros branch, and the politicians he had brought with him.

Now, ERAD regretted bringing so many people with him, especially these politicians. They were usually very flattering in front of him and couldn't wait to kneel and lick his boots at any time. To be precise, they would kneel and lick his money. If he knelt in front of so many Chinese people today, would these people still have any respect for him?

However, when ERAD saw the guns that had been twisted into the shape of a fried dough twist, his heart couldn't help but tremble. How much strength did he have to do this? His own hands and feet were not as hard as a gun ...

In his mind, there was an intense struggle between the positive and negative sides. For a moment, he did not know whether to choose to bow and kneel or to decisively admit defeat.

Sanchez, Fernando, and the others were even more regretful. They felt that they had been out of their minds today to follow ERAD into this mess.

If he really saw ERAD kneel down and apologize to the Chinese, would he have a good time in the future? Maybe ERAD would turn around and send people to kill everyone who saw this scene today. People died every day in Mexico, and the brains of government officials were not harder than ordinary people.

As for Yerad's subordinates, Madel, and those bodyguards, they were even more scared out of their wits. If Sanchez and the others were still a little worried, they were completely in despair, because Yerad would never let them live. Otherwise, what prestige would Yerad have in the organization?

This was especially so for medel. Today's incident was completely caused by him. It was because he had his eyes on the land of Huafeng shipping that he began to operate to seize it by force. It just so happened that ERAD was on vacation in kuachakurakos these two days, so he urged ERAD to come over. He originally thought that with ERAD's identity and fierce reputation, this group of Chinese people would instantly admit defeat and easily solve the problem. He did not expect that the development of the matter had completely deviated from their expected track, and now it was out of control.

Zhang Chao and the others were also dumbfounded. They had yet to recover from their shock.

Chapter 2915 A stray dog (2)

After the negotiations between the two sides completely fell apart, Zhang Chao had been mentally prepared to die Here today. He didn't expect things to turn around so quickly. It was too much for him to take in.

When Xia ruofei said that he wanted ERAD to kneel and kowtow in apology, Zhang Chao did not stop him because he knew that no matter what, they had already formed a grudge with the Bay group, and they would not rest until one of them was dead. China was a country of etiquette, but gentleness, frugality, and humility were also important. To a drug lord who killed without blinking an eye, there was no need to be gentlemanly and thrifty!

Today, Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng had used absolute force to suppress their opponents. Otherwise, all the Huaxia people here would not have had a good time today. Being shot to death might not have been the worst outcome. Just like what ERAD had shouted just now, many people might have suffered and been tortured to death. In order to intimidate others, this was not the first time that these drug gangs had done such things.

So, since he had already offended the other party, what was the point of forgiving the other party now?

After Xia ruofei finished speaking, he looked at ERAD quietly and said, "I forgot to remind you that this offer is only valid for one minute. If you don't make a decision within one minute, the conditions might be even more demanding!"

ERAD pulled a long face. Why did these words sound so familiar? It was as if he had just said something similar to Zhang Chao in a very pretentious manner. This was really karma! In the blink of an eye, the other party had returned the same words to him.

ERAD's heart was struggling. His pride made it difficult for him to accept kneeling and kowtowing to the Chinese. However, in the face of death, dignity didn't seem to be that important? Did he want his life? Or face? He had to give an answer within a minute.

Xia ruofei put his hands in his pockets and looked at ERAD calmly.

"You have thirty seconds ... Twenty seconds ... Ten seconds ... Nine ... Eight ..."

"I accept your offer!" Finally, ERAD could not bear the heavy psychological pressure and shouted, "I'm willing to kneel and apologize!"

After shouting out these words, the pressure on ERAD was finally released. Although his dignity was about to be trampled on, he felt relaxed all over, because he no longer needed to choose to retreat.

Xia ruofei shrugged his shoulders and made a gesture of invitation with one hand. Then, he crossed his arms in front of his chest and quietly waited for him to kneel.

ERAD's knees slowly bent, and he finally knelt on the ground with a face full of humiliation.

At this time, Madel, Sanchez, Fernando, and the others all turned their heads. They didn't dare to watch the scene of ERAD kneeling and kowtowing to the Chinese. Although it was meaningless for them to do so, because ERAD wouldn't think that no one knew about it just because they turned their heads and didn't look, ERAD's usual fierce reputation was really too scary. They also subconsciously turned their heads away.

Zhang Chao and the others couldn't suppress the excitement in their hearts. They couldn't help but clench their fists and stare at ERAD without blinking.

ERAD finally bent down and kowtowed for the first time.

When he straightened his body, Xia ruofei said indifferently, "Again! The sound was not loud enough! Is this how sincere you are?"

At this moment, ERAD no longer had any dignity to speak of. However, his heart was like a surging volcano. It was just that it was suppressed and could not erupt at this moment. His hatred for the Chinese had long reached an extreme degree.

After hearing Xia ruofei's words, he gritted his teeth and kowtowed heavily. His forehead hit the cold concrete ground with a bang, making him feel like his head was buzzing.

The pain on his forehead was nothing. The greatest pain was the trampling of his dignity.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "Let's follow this standard! Counting the one just now, there were still 17 more! Hurry up! Everyone's busy, so let's not dawdle!"

How could ERAD not want to end this nightmare – like experience as soon as possible?

He gritted his teeth and started to kowtow.

The entire courtyard was silent, and the sound of ERAD's forehead hitting the concrete floor was particularly loud. To Madeline and the others, this sound was like a knock on their hearts. Every sound would make their hearts tremble. At the same time, this sound was like a death knell that rang for them, making them feel as if they were seeing their end ...

ERAD finally finished kowtowing eighteen times, each one extremely loud.

After kowtowing, ERAD's forehead became bruised and swollen, and with his swollen cheeks, his face had completely changed shape, like a pig's head.

He didn't stand up immediately. Instead, he knelt on the ground and looked at Xia ruofei. It could be said that he was extremely humble.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "he's flexible. He's quite a character!" You can get lost now! However, before you leave, clean up the trash in this yard!"

The yard of Huafeng shipping was cleaned by someone every day. Although it was not spotless, there was no garbage.

Xia ruofei was talking about the bodyguards who were lying on the ground.

ERAD got up from the ground as if he had been pardoned. He glared at medel and said, "Get all these people into the car! Hurry up!"

Madeline trembled and quickly organized the bodyguards to help each other into the car.

Fortunately, the drivers did not come out. Otherwise, with so many cars, even the drivers would not be able to gather together. This was because almost all the bodyguards had lost their ability to move and could not drive at all.

Since Xia ruofei had spoken, ERAD didn't dare to get into the car before the "garbage" was cleaned up. It wasn't until all the bodyguards were stuffed into the car that he bowed to Xia ruofei and walked to his car. He didn't pay attention to Sanchez, Fernando, and the others during the whole process, which made the politicians even more nervous.

During this process, it was not that ERAD did not have any evil thoughts. More than once, he thought of suddenly pulling out his gun and firing a few shots at Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng. As long as he could kill Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng, the remaining Huaxia people were nothing to be worried about. However, on one hand, he was really scared out of his wits. On the other hand, he felt as if someone was staring at him, as if he was being stared at by a venomous snake. He did not dare to act rashly.

He had already endured the humiliation of kneeling and kowtowing, so he didn't dare to risk it again.

In the end, ERAD restrained his killing intent and got into his car obediently.

No one greeted the politicians, but they were not stupid. They all got into their cars.

When they came, they had made a big scene, all of them high and mighty, but when they left, they ran away like stray dogs.

The courtyard of Huafeng shipping company was quiet again. Zhang Chao and the others still felt like they were in a dream. It was not until the last car drove away in a hurry that Zhang Chao came back to his senses. He quickly arranged, "Ah Qiang! Immediately organize an evacuation! Don't bring anything, just pack up the cash and important documents in the safe and leave! We can't stay here any longer!"

Then, Zhang Chao said to Xia ruofei in a hurry, "Mr. Xia, thank you for today! If it wasn't for you, I'm afraid none of our brothers would have survived! However, these drug lords are very brutal. We have completely offended them today. Their revenge will come very quickly, and it will definitely be a destructive revenge! That's why we have to leave immediately!"

He did not wait for Xia ruofei to speak and said urgently, "We happen to have a truck as a tow truck. Let's move your container first, and you can check the goods when we reach a safe place! At that time, we'll think of a way to send the two of you out of the country! We'll be completely safe then!"

Zhang Chao was indeed very anxious. He knew that as soon as he stepped out of this door, ERAD would definitely make a crazy call and order all the armed forces of the Bay group in quachaquarkus to gather and wipe out Huafeng shipping as soon as possible. So, the ferocious militants could appear at any time, and every second of delay would put his life in danger.

Chapter 2916 Sending Buddha to the West (1)

Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng looked at Zhang Chao, who was constantly giving orders to his brothers, with amusement.

Of course, Xia ruofei understood Zhang Chao's feelings. Although they had just survived a disaster, if they reacted a little slower, they would still be killed. At least from the perspective of an ordinary person like Zhang Chao, that was indeed the case.

Zhang Chao anxiously shouted at Qiang, "Where's Lu Chunfeng? Where did that kid go?"

Zhang Chao did not know if he should blame or thank Lu Chunfeng. He asked Lu Chunfeng to accompany Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng to inspect the goods, but Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng ran to the front, while Lu Chunfeng himself was missing. This was obviously an absence without permission! However, if Xia ruofei and the others had not come, they would have been shot to death today. No matter what, after ERAD had insulted the Chinese, Zhang Chao would definitely not be able to stand it. The situation of falling out was inevitable.

It was because of this that Zhang Chao did not blame Xia ruofei for teaching those bodyguards a lesson or for humiliating ERAD. On the contrary, he was very grateful to Xia ruofei. It was not an exaggeration to say that he had saved his life. According to the rules of the Hong sect, from this moment on, the lives of the ten or twenty brothers who were left at the shipping company today belonged to Xia ruofei.

“He should still be in the warehouse,” Qiang said quickly. “I’ve already sent someone to inform the brothers over there to quickly come to the front and evacuate with everyone!”

“Hurry up!” Zhang Chao shouted, “don’t pack up! We’ll leave with the cash and documents!”

At this moment, Xia ruofei finally got a chance to interject. He said to Zhang Chao, “Brother, don’t rush! You’re giving up on such a huge family business just like that?”

“Mr. Xia!” Zhang Chao said with a bitter smile. “We don’t want to abandon our family business! Madeline gave us a lot of pressure before, but we’ve been holding on because we don’t want to give up so easily. But now that he had completely offended them, there was no room for negotiation! And if we stay and fight those drug lords head – on, it’s no doubt like hitting a rock with an egg. There’s no hope of winning at all, and we’ll only lose our lives in vain!”

Zhang Chao quickly explained, “Mr. Xia, please don’t misunderstand! I’m not blaming you ... We’re really grateful that you and this old man helped us! And before you made your move, I already had a failed negotiation with that ERAD. If it wasn’t for you and this old man, I’m afraid that Huafeng shipping would be covered in corpses now, so ...”

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said with a smile, “No need to explain ... Brother Zhang Chao, are these drug dealers really so arrogant?”

“You might not know much about the situation in Mexico,” Zhang Chao said with a bitter smile. “I’ll put it this way. ” The Bay group could be said to be one of the top drug lords in Mexico. How powerful were they? It wasn’t an exaggeration to say that if they wanted to, they could even overthrow the Mexico government at any time. They were only willing to maintain the current situation because they were worried about the interference of the international community! You’ve just seen it, whether it’s the state government or the city government, those officials are simply ERAD’s dogs! The Gulf group’s armed forces are much stronger than the Mexico military and police, and they are well – equipped. To put it bluntly, they are an elite force!”

Zhang Chao didn’t finish his sentence, but his meaning was obvious. Although the Hong sect’s power was spread all over the world, it was just a loose organization like a gang. The result of a gang against the Army was obvious.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, “since that’s the case ... You guys should get ready to evacuate!” I’ll think of another way to help you solve this problem. ”

Although it was Zhang Chao and the others who got into this mess, and before Xia ruofei came out, Zhang Chao had already fallen out with him, so the situation had nothing to do with Xia ruofei. However, considering that Li Yifu was the leader of the Hong sect, there must be some fate between him and the Hong sect. Since he had encountered it, there was no reason for him to stand by and do nothing.

When Zhang Chao told Xia ruofei to solve this problem, he was actually hoping that the Qingqing Bay group could do whatever they wanted in Mexico. Even if the headquarters of the Hong sect stepped in, it would be almost impossible to solve this situation. No matter how good Xia ruofei was at fighting, he was only a young man in his twenties. What power did he have to solve this problem?

However, since Xia ruofei did not object to their retreat, Zhang Chao did not say anything more. He could not possibly say something like "I don't think you can do it. Don't waste your time", right?

Out of courtesy, Zhang Chao said, "Then I'll thank you in advance, Mr. Xia! But ... When ah Qiang and the others are done packing, you must immediately evacuate with us. While coordinating with us, you must also ensure your own safety. If anything happens to you, we won't be able to explain it to uncle Yi!"

"No problem!" Xia ruofei said readily.

He knew very well that it was impossible to stop Zhang Chao and the others from evacuating Huafeng shipping. No one believed that he could deal with a huge and terrifying drug lord gang like the Bay group.

Zhang Chao and a few core employees of Huafeng shipping were nervously preventing everyone from boarding the truck, including Xia ruofei's entire container of goods. They were hoisted onto the head of a truck that happened to be left in the company.

Chapter 2917 Sending Buddha to the West (2)

In just a few minutes, Zhang Chao had organized the staff. As for the things here, they didn't have time to move them, so naturally, they didn't want them.

"Mr. Xia, this old man, please get in the car!" Zhang Chao came over and said respectfully.

There was still a trace of apprehension in his heart. He was afraid that Xia ruofei would not leave due to his young age and would stay to fight to the death with the other party. If that was the case, the brothers of Huafeng shipping would not have abandoned Xia ruofei and escaped on their own. This was not in line with the rules of the martial arts world.

Besides, Xia ruofei had saved the lives of Zhang Chao and the others. If Xia ruofei insisted on staying, they might have to risk their lives to accompany him.

This was really "risking his life" to accompany a gentleman. In Zhang Chao's opinion, staying meant losing his life. There would be no second result.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei was easy to talk to. He nodded and said, "Alright!"

Then, he brought Qingfeng Luo to the business car that Zhang Chao had specially prepared for them. The car was bulletproof and was relatively safer. In Mexico many rich people rode in bulletproof cars. After all, it was too dangerous outside. They might even encounter gangsters on the road, and one stray bullet could kill them.

After Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng got into the car, Zhang Chao waved his hand, and a fleet of more than a dozen cars, including the big truck carrying the firearms container, drove out of the shipping company's yard.

Zhang Chao sat in the front passenger seat of Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng's car. This business car was sandwiched in the middle of the convoy and quickly drove out of the courtyard.

Xia ruofei realized that after the fleet of cars left the gate, they quickly drove on different roads and left. He nodded in his heart. It seemed that Zhang Chao and the others were well – trained. No one could guarantee that the people from the Bay group were not monitoring them nearby, so it was naturally the best choice to disperse and evacuate.

Zhang Chao didn't dare to stay in kuachakuros and had his brothers leave the port city in different directions.

Fortunately, the Hong sect had some influence in Mexico. Zhang Chao decided to let everyone go to the nearby isvatlan first. The two cities were very close to each other, almost connected. It was about a 40 – minute drive.

Zhang Chao's plan was to take his brothers and hide in a safe house of the Hong sect in ishvartan. Then, he would find an opportunity to let everyone leave the country in batches. As for whether they would return to China or go to the United States, he would decide later. After all, they definitely could not stay in Mexico.

While Xia ruofei was in the car, he was thinking about how to help Zhang Chao solve this problem.

He ruled out the idea of asking Li Yifu to do it. If the Hong sect had a way, Zhang Chao could also ask the higher – ups of the Hong sect to do it. But now it seemed that Zhang Chao had given up on that idea.

In other words, if Xia ruofei were to look for Li Yifu, Li Yifu would definitely not refuse, but it would definitely put him in a difficult position. He might even have to personally deal with the people from the Bay group.

Rather than this, Xia ruofei might as well do it himself! After all, his cultivation level was much higher than Li Yifu 's!

Xia ruofei's second plan was actually simple and brutal. He would simply wipe out all the executives of the Bay group, including ERAD, who had to endure humiliation to escape today.

At that time, the Gulf Group would be in a mess, and ERAD was already dead. Other forces would definitely take advantage of the chaos to gain benefits and even re – divide the power Map. How would they have the time to deal with Huafeng shipping?

This plan was the simplest and most effective one. For Xia ruofei, it was not too difficult to do.

No matter how arrogant these drug dealers were or how powerful they were, they were just a group of ordinary people. With Xia ruofei's current cultivation and power, he could kill them without them noticing.

However, this method was a little cumbersome and time – consuming.

To be honest, it was not impossible, but Xia ruofei found it troublesome.

Of course, there was a simpler way, which was to find the highest leader of the Bay group, control him, and make him a soul slave.

Since boss had become Xia ruofei's servant, Zhang Chao and the others would not have any trouble.

However, Xia ruofei's soul seal had a limited quota. To put it bluntly, not everyone could become a soul slave. Xia ruofei felt that it was not worth it to waste a slot for such a small matter.

Along the way, Xia ruofei had been thinking about what solution he should use to solve the problem. It would not be too troublesome and would solve the problem once and for all.

All of a sudden, Xia ruofei had an idea.

He thought of the American called Charlie cohe, whom he had casually saved from the sea last night.

Xia ruofei had no interest in investigating who Charlie was. However, he had overheard most of the conversation between Charlie and his brother when he was hiding beside the yacht yesterday. So, he had some understanding of this guy.

At least one thing was for sure, and that was that Charlie was extremely rich. A yacht that cost more than a billion dollars was nothing, but according to the conversation between the two brothers, Charlie's assets were in the hundreds of billions of dollars level, which meant that he was one of the top super – rich people in the world.

Of course, having money didn't mean that one had enough influence to solve problems, especially when the opponent was a Mexico drug lord. But one thing was for sure, the person who could solve this problem couldn't be poor.

Hence, Xia ruofei decided to give it a try and find Charlie.

It would be best if it worked, but if it didn't, Xia ruofei wouldn't lose anything. At most, he would be in a bit of trouble, but it would solve the problem.

In short, Xia ruofei felt that he could not just leave them be. This was against his principles.

Therefore, Xia ruofei immediately took out the pure gold Business Card that Charlie had given him from the space. His movements were very small, and he took it out with a flip of his hand. Zhang Chao, who was sitting in the front row, did not notice it at all. Luo Qingfeng, who was beside him, already knew that he had a large "storage magical treasure", so there was no need to hide from Luo Qingfeng when he took things from the spirit map space.

Xia ruofei took out his phone and dialed the only number on the card.

After the call was dialed, there was no response for a long time. He did not hear the other party's ringing sound, and no one answered. Just as Xia ruofei thought that there was something wrong with the number and was about to hang up, the phone finally rang.

Xia ruofei thought to himself, "why is this American's phone so slow?"

What Xia ruofei did not know was that Charlie was still in the middle of the ocean and his phone had no signal. It was just that Charlie's phone number had been specially processed. If it was turned off or there was no signal, it would be automatically transferred to a satellite phone dedicated to him, similar to a call transfer function.

No matter where Charlie went, there would be a staff member in charge of carrying this satellite phone. This also ensured that no matter where he was in the world, as long as the satellite signal was not blocked, he would not miss any important calls. The number printed on the business card he gave Xia ruofei was only known to very important or close people. There were less than 15 people in the world who had this business card and knew this number. Once someone found him through this number ... It must be an important call.

Since the other party's phone was already ringing, Xia ruofei naturally would not hang up. He put the phone to his ear and waited patiently.

The phone rang five or six times. Just as Xia ruofei was starting to get impatient, the other party finally picked up ...

Chapter 2918 Race against time (1)

The call went through, but Xia ruofei could hear loud noises coming from the phone.

Xia ruofei could not help but frown. He thought to himself, "this American is a billionaire. Why is his phone so lousy?"

However, he didn't have the time to care about that. He asked in English, "Is it Charlie Koch?"

"Huhu ... I ... It's not convenient right now ... Huhu ... Answer! Wait ... Later ... Huhu ... For you ... To come back ... Huhu!"

Intermittent sounds came from the phone, mixed with the loud noise of the wind.

Xia ruofei could barely hear what the other party was saying, but the other party hung up the phone after he finished speaking.

Xia ruofei could not help but feel a little embarrassed. He wanted to try and see if he could take a shortcut, but he did not expect this American to be so bad. After all, he was his Savior! You're not going to admit it?

It was a good thing that Xia ruofei did not tell Luo Qingfeng and Zhang Chao about this before he called. Otherwise, it would have been even more awkward.

Since this Charlie was not reliable, Xia ruofei gave up on the idea of taking a shortcut. He secretly decided to find a quiet place to store the firearms in the realm after reaching isvatlan. Then, he would bring Qingfeng Luo along to investigate the Bay group's situation and wipe out their higher – ups once and for all, solving the problem once and for all.

Hence, Xia ruofei kept his phone, leaned back, and closed his eyes.

At this moment, near the sea where the yacht had sunk last night, Charlie Koch had just been hoisted onto the first rescue helicopter that had arrived at the scene with the help of rescue personnel.

After the rescue team confirmed his identity, they were all very excited. He was a billionaire! After receiving his message for help last night, a large number of rescue forces began to rush to the sea area. On the one hand, this person's identity was too prominent, and all parties attached great importance to him, afraid that he would die at sea. On the other hand, everyone also knew that whoever saved him first would mean a super generous reward, and who knew, they might even become successful in the future.

And now, they could already confirm that their rescue team had taken the lead.

Several professional rescue ships set off at the same time last night, but the sea was too far away from the United States, so even after a night's journey, not a single rescue ship arrived at the coordinates where the distress signal was sent.

However, the rescue ships were equipped with advanced rescue helicopters, which could greatly expand the search radius.

Although there was a signal transmitter that continuously sent out coordinates, the coordinates could only confirm a rough range. In the vast sea, to find a small lifeboat like the target actually required some luck.

The luck of this rescue helicopter was clearly not bad. In their first flight, they actually managed to find Charlie Koch. Even they themselves could not believe it.

It was only when the rescue team descended and brought Charlie Koch onto the helicopter that everyone could confirm that they had indeed saved him.

The captain of the helicopter immediately sent a message to the rescue ship through radio. After all, there were several rescue forces at sea at the same time, and at least six or seven helicopters were searching the nearby waters. Now that the person had been rescued, the other rescue forces could naturally return. The rescue ship that the helicopter belonged to had to make full preparations, including the medical staff and psychologists on board. There were also some living security facilities that had to be prepared in advance.

Charlie's mind was actually quite calm. To be honest, he didn't have the ecstasy of surviving a disaster, because this ecstasy had already appeared last night, and he had long since recovered his calm.

As for floating on the sea to wait for rescue, Charlie was actually very clear that it was a high probability that the rescue team would find him. The only difference was just a matter of time. The resources on his lifeboat were enough to support him for many days, so it was not a big problem for him whether he was able to find him earlier or later.

What Charlie was thinking about now was how to deal with the curiosity of the public and the media after returning to the United States after all, everyone except himself had lost their lives on this trip to the sea. It could be said to be an out – and – out tragedy.

After sitting in the rescue helicopter and fastening his seat belt, Charlie thought of the satellite phone call he had received when he was being lifted up from the lifeboat to the helicopter with the help of the rescue team.

At that time, he was hanging in the air with a helicopter hovering above him. His ears were filled with the sound of the wind and he couldn't hear the voice on the phone at all. However, he knew that the person who could make this call was probably someone close to him, so he told the other party that he would call back when it was convenient for him. After that, he hung up Yingying. After all, he couldn't hear what the other party said at all in that situation.

Now that he had settled down in the helicopter, the pilot had already flown the helicopter back. Soon, he would be able to board the rescue boat and return to the United States it could be said that he was basically safe now.

Charlie relaxed a little, so he picked up the satellite phone and was ready to check who had called just now.

The satellite phone showed that the call was transferred through his personal phone, which meant that the other party was calling his personal phone and was automatically transferred to the satellite phone because there was no signal.

Chapter 2919 Every second counts (2)

Even fewer people knew her private phone number.

Charlie naturally paid more attention to it. He looked at the number recorded on the satellite phone, only to find that it was a completely unfamiliar number. It was not even a common number in the United States

When Charlie saw the number, he was stunned for a moment. Then, he quivered and thought of a possibility.

He quickly used the satellite phone to dial a number. It was the cell number of his trusted aide, Peter.

"God! Boss, are you alright?" Peter asked excitedly after picking up.

Charlie was not in the mood to talk nonsense with Pierre and said, "I'm already on the rescue helicopter. There's something I need you to do right now. It's extremely urgent!"

"Please give me your orders, boss!" Pierre quickly said.

"I can't connect to the internet at the moment. Can you help me check the origin of a phone number?" Charlie said.

"No problem! Could you please give me your number?" Peter said.

"8613 ..." Charlie suddenly stopped and said in a serious tone, "Peter, remember, don't check anything about this number. Just confirm the origin!" Also, don't tell anyone about this number!"

"Understood!" Pierre said without hesitation.

Only then did Charlie report the phone number he had just recorded to Pierre.

In fact, when phone numbers in the Huaxia mainland dialed an international number, it would display the International dial code starting with 86. However, this was a long string of numbers connected together. Moreover, Charlie was busy every day and would not remember the Huaxia dial code, so he could not confirm it. He had asked Pierre to check it first.

After reporting the numbers, Charlie said, " "Check it now, don't hang up!"

" Boss, I'm already looking it up ..." Pierre said as he turned on the search engine on his laptop. " I found it! Boss, this number is from the Huaxia mainland. Only when an international long-distance call is made from the Huaxia mainland will the International dial number 86 be displayed in front of the number."

" God ..." Charlie couldn't help but Mutter after hearing it.

Pierre was shocked and quickly asked, " "Boss, what happened? "

"I'm fine! We'll talk about it when I'm back!" Charlie said, " remember, you must keep the number I asked you to check a secret. It's best to forget it from now on! "

"I know, boss!" Peter said.

Charlie hung up the phone in a hurry and immediately searched for the number that Xia ruofei had just called. He called back immediately while holding his forehead and mumbling to himself, " "Dammit! I actually hung up on him, damn it ..."

The rescue team member sitting across from him was also shocked. He thought that Charlie was feeling unwell and quickly asked, " "Mr. Cohe! What was the problem? Do you need my help? "

Charlie Koch hurriedly waved his hand and placed his index finger on his lips, signaling for the rescue team to keep quiet. He had already heard the other party's phone ring.

Xia ruofei was still on his way to ishwaatlan. When his phone vibrated, he took it out and saw that it was an unfamiliar number. The long string of numbers looked very strange. He had just called the number Charlie had left for him, but Charlie had used a satellite phone to call back.

Xia ruofei's number was rarely used. He would only use it when he was using Xia Tian's identity. Most of the time, his phone was turned off, so very few people knew this number. Hence, his first reaction was that it was a harassment call. After all, this number looked like an Information Station number that had been changed by a software.

However, after thinking for a while, he still picked it up. " "Hello, who is this? "

Charlie was sitting in the rescue helicopter. At this time, he had already connected the satellite phone to the helicopter's noise-canceling headphones, so he could hear it very clearly. He was almost certain that this young voice was the voice of the eastern deity who had descended from the sky and saved his life last night.

"Hello, I'm Charlie cohe. Are you the eastern ..."Charlie could not help but ask in a trembling voice.

At this point, Charlie stopped abruptly because there were still several rescue team members in the cabin. He definitely could not reveal the matter of the eastern deity.

Just as Charlie was in a dilemma, Xia ruofei said directly, " "It's me, you're right!"

"Is it inconvenient for you to talk now?" Xia ruofei asked immediately.

"I'm fine!" Charlie quickly replied. He was fine! If you have any orders, please tell me!"

Although the rescue team member sitting opposite him could not hear Charlie's words clearly due to the loud noise in the cabin, he could see Charlie's reserved and respectful posture. He could not help but secretly marvel at the influence of Youyou, who had a net worth of hundreds of billions of dollars in America. He was definitely a top boss! Who else could make such a Big Shot act so humbly?

Charlie looked at the rescue team members opposite him and subconsciously covered his mouth with his hand. He did not want these people to see the shape of his mouth.

In fact, it was indeed a little inconvenient for him to speak now. After all, outsiders could never know about the eastern immortal. Otherwise, he was not sure if the immortal would be unhappy. However, the other party had taken the initiative to call him at this time. It was obvious that there was something for him to do. It was not appropriate for him to say that it was not convenient to talk now and that he would contact him later.

In front of a God, he didn't dare to show any neglect!

However, Xia ruofei could hear it. He smiled and said, "Charlie, I heard a lot of noise next to you. You must have been rescued and are on the rescue plane now?"

"Yes, I am!" Charlie replied respectfully, "I can't hide anything from you!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "alright then!" I'm not in such a hurry. I'll wait for your plane to land! You can find a place with no one around and call me back. "

Charlie's heart relaxed slightly and he quickly said, "No problem, but I'll have to trouble you to wait!"

"It's fine, I'm not in a hurry!" Xia ruofei said with a smile and then hung up.

On the rescue helicopter.

Charlie held the satellite phone and was silent for a few seconds before he gradually calmed down. He switched the noise – canceling headphones on his head to the cabin – Level communication mode and said, "Mr. Captain, please speed up. I have something urgent to deal with as soon as I land!"

"Alright, Mr. Cohe!" The captain quickly replied. I'll fly at my highest speed as soon as possible!"

"How long is it expected to reach the rescue ship?" Charlie asked.

"It'll take about 45 minutes if we fly normally. " The captain replied, "if you're in a hurry, I can try to arrive within half an hour."

"Very good!" Charlie cohe said, "if you can be faster within half an hour, I will give you a million US dollars for every minute that you arrive earlier! Mr. Captain, please fly back as much as you can!"

The captain was stunned for a moment, then immediately said with some excitement, "No problem! Mr. Cohe, please fasten your seat belt. The comfort level might decrease for the rest of the flight!"

"OK!" Charlie cohe said.

Then, he felt the head of the helicopter sink slightly, and then the speed suddenly increased.

For the rest of the voyage, Charlie Koch clutched the satellite phone in his hand tightly. He would look out the porthole almost every few seconds, trying to see if the rescue ship had appeared in his field of vision.

Every second that passed, he felt the pressure increase, because the immortal was waiting for his call! It's a sin to let the Lord deity wait for one more second!

Finally, after flying for more than 20 minutes, Charlie Koch saw a rescue boat appearing not far below the plane. The "H" logo on the White helipad on the deck was already clearly visible ...

Chapter 2920 Charlie's strength_

The people on the rescue ship were very surprised that the helicopter had returned so quickly. According to the positioning System, after the helicopter rescued Charlie, it would take at least forty minutes to arrive. However, it had not even been half the time yet, and the commander had already received the helicopter's landing request. The helicopter soon appeared in everyone's field of vision.

Next, the helicopter's landing operation was also very flamboyant. To everyone, it looked like the fuel was about to run out. The pilot was burning with anxiety and couldn't wait to land the plane. From a professional point of view, this landing was a bit rough.

In the rescue helicopter, the captain proudly high – fived the co – Pilot and then excitedly said through the headset, "Mr. Cohe, the plane has landed safely. It took us 25 minutes!"

"Very good!" Charlie cohe replied. My assistant will transfer 5 million dollars to your account as soon as possible!"

"Thank you for your generosity, Mr. Coch!" The captain said excitedly.

Charlie cohe was not in the mood to talk to the pilot. He took off his headphones and hung them on the wall of the cabin. Then, he unbuckled his seat belt and stood up.

He refused the help of the medical staff and walked to the cabin door with weak steps.

The stewardess had already opened the cabin door and lowered the accommodation ladder. Charlie Koch was the first to step down from the rescue helicopter.

Although the helicopter's engine had been turned off, the rotor wings were still spinning rapidly under the influence of inertia. The wind blew Charlie cohe's hair into a mess. He bent over and quickly left the area where the helicopter had landed.

Good, the captain of the rescue ship, had received the news and was already waiting on the deck with medical experts.

When good saw Charlie Koch appear at the cabin door alone, he couldn't help but be taken aback. Charlie had not even waited for the rescue personnel on the plane, and had quickly walked out on his own.

It was not until Charlie walked over that good came back to his senses. He quickly walked up to Charlie, braving the wind.

"Mr. Cohe! Hello there!" Good said eagerly, "I'm the captain of the Noah rescue ship, good! It's an honor to be at your service!"

Charlie's footsteps did not stop as he said anxiously, "Captain good, please find me a private room immediately. I have important things to deal with!"

"Mr. Cohe, you'd better get a medical examination from a professional first," said good quickly. "We have to be responsible for your health!" Also ... There are a few reporters on the ship, including CNN and BBC ..."

Charlie cohe impatiently interrupted Good's words and said, "I'm not interested in meeting any reporters, and there's nothing wrong with my body! Did I not express it clearly? I have something very important to deal with, and I need a private and undisturbed room! I need it immediately!"

"Yes!" Good quickly replied. No problem! No problem! Please follow me!"

With that, Gu de hurriedly led Xia ruofei forward and waved for the medical staff to step aside.

The crew on the ship naturally listened to Good's instructions, but the reporters on the ship were not so obedient. They all swarmed around him.

"Mr. Cohe, may I ask what happened? Why did the proud sun suddenly sink?"

The proud sun was the call for the Super – Luxury yacht that Charlie cohe had personally blown up last night.

"Mr. Cohe, are there any other survivors?"

"Mr. Cohe, how's your body? Will it affect your work at the Coch group?"

"I'm sorry, but I can't tell you anything now!" Charlie said with a gloomy face. And I have something very important to deal with, so please make way. I will hold a press conference when the time is right to announce the news to the public!"

On one hand, Charlie was not in the mood to deal with these reporters. He was a little unhappy that they were blocking his way. On the other hand, he was also deliberately acting like he was in a bad mood, in preparation for his next step of announcing the news according to the plot he had designed.

The photojournalist faithfully recorded Charlie's words into the camera.

Seeing that Charlie was in a bad mood, the reporters tactfully made way for him. Although they were known as the uncrowned Kings and often criticized the air, this depended on the person. A super big Shot like Charlie Koch was not someone a few small reporters could afford to offend. Furthermore, they were reporters from big media outlets like CNN, not paparazzi. Even if it was an ordinary interview target, they couldn't chase after him.

Good led Charlie cohe through the crowd of reporters and directly arrived at the captain's cabin.

"Mr. Coch, this is the captain's cabin. No one will disturb you. You can use it as you wish." Good said eagerly. The computer on the table can connect to the internet directly through the satellite. You can go online as soon as you turn it on!"

"Thank you very much!" Charlie cohe's expression became a little more amiable."Captain good, when you return to United States, you will receive the cohe group's gratitude!"

"Thank you, Mr. Cohe!" Good said excitedly,"please come in! I won't disturb you any longer ... I'll be waiting outside at any time. If you need anything, just tell me!"

"Alright!" Charlie said.

He then quickly walked into the captain's cabin and locked the door.

Charlie picked up the satellite phone and looked for the number Xia ruofei had just called. He immediately called back.
