Chapter 2951 Discussing strategies (1)

Hearing this, Luo Qingfeng pondered for a moment and said, "Master, Chi – amassing pills rarely appear in trade fairs and auctions anymore. This old servant can only roughly estimate the price, and may not be accurate."

Xia ruofei nodded with a smile. "It's fine. Tell me your judgment. Just treat it as a casual chat."

"Yes! Master!" Luo Qingfeng said, "many years ago, there was a trade for Qi – gathering pills. I remember that the price of each Qi – gathering pill was about 60 spirit stones. Now, Qi – gathering pills are even rarer. They are also a very scarce supplementary medicine. Moreover, everyone will bid together at the auction, so it is easy to raise the price. So I estimate that each pill should be able to be sold for at least 100 spirit stones!"

Xia ruofei was a little surprised. "That's not a low price!"

If each Qi gathering elixir could be auctioned for a hundred spirit stones, then the batch of Qi gathering elixir he had refined today could be exchanged for at least ten thousand spirit stones. This was not a small amount.

Xia ruofei then asked curiously, "Qingfeng, the spiritual energy content in the spiritual stones should be about the same, right?"

Luo Qingfeng did not know why Xia ruofei would suddenly ask such a common – sense question, but he still answered seriously, "Yes, master! The standard cut spirit stones don't contain much spirit Qi, which is why spirit stones are the common currency in the cultivation world."

Xia ruofei had seen spiritual stones before. When he had asked about the auction, Luo Qingfeng had shown them to him.

Xia ruofei calculated the amount of spiritual Qi in the spiritual stone and said, "Qingfeng, I've made an estimation. The compressed spiritual Qi in this pill is equivalent to the amount of spiritual Qi contained in thirty to forty spiritual stones. If we can sell it for a hundred spiritual stones, we'll have a huge profit margin!"

Although the Qi – gathering pill was just a small pill, much smaller than a spirit stone, the spiritual energy in the pill was locked inside the pill through the joint effect of the array and the medicine, so the compression rate of the spiritual energy was relatively high. On the other hand, the spirit stone was mined from a naturally formed spirit stone mine and cut according to standard, so the concentration of spiritual energy was actually very low.

Xia ruofei had never thought about this before, mainly because he was not short of cultivation resources at the moment. Besides, he felt that the spiritual energy in the spiritual stones was pitifully low. He had never thought of using the spiritual stones for cultivation, so naturally, he would not waste his effort to make the Qi gathering pill in exchange for the spiritual stones.

However, he now had a different idea. Xuanji spirit stones were the common currency in the cultivation world. He didn't have to use them for cultivation. He could use them as money in the cultivation world and use them to buy things that he or the people around him could use for cultivation.

Most importantly, the spiritual Qi, which was relatively the most expensive part of the Qi gathering elixir, was completely zero – cost to Xia ruofei.

Refining in the spirit map space, the spirit Qi consumed would be quickly absorbed and replenished from the chaotic space outside the space membrane. It could be said to be inexhaustible!

Xia ruofei felt that the profit rate of the Qi gathering pill was very high. Unexpectedly, Luo Qingfeng was even more surprised after hearing his words.

Luo Qingfeng took a deep breath and cried out, "Master! You're saying that ... The spiritual Qi in a Qi – gathering pill is equivalent to the total amount of spiritual Qi in thirty to forty spiritual stones?"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "yeah!" I'm familiar with these Qi – gathering pills. Most of them can reach the amount of spiritual energy of forty spirit stones. Some of them are slightly worse, at least thirty – seven or thirty – eight spirit stones. A few of them can even reach the amount of fifty spirit stones. Could it be that I've refined it incorrectly, and the spiritual Qi is too little?"

Xia ruofei had followed the formula of the Qi – gathering elixir recorded in the Jade talisman of inheritance strictly. He had never seen the Qi – gathering elixir produced by Huaxia's cultivation world before, so Luo Qingfeng's surprise made Xia ruofei a little uncertain.

After all, Luo Qingfeng had just said that a Qi – gathering elixir could be sold for 60 spirit stones many years ago, and he estimated that it would be sold for at least 100 spirit stones in this auction. Could it be that the Qi – gathering elixir they had traded before had a much higher spirit Qi content than the one he made?

If that was the case, it would explain why it could be sold at such a high price.

"Master!" Luo Qingfeng quickly said. It's not that it's too little, it's too high!"

"This is high?" Xia ruofei was also in disbelief. "I've already made double the profit! Don't tell me that the Qi gathering pills you've seen in the past have a lower amount of Qi than this?"

Qingfeng Luo did not know whether to laugh or cry. "Master, that's not how you calculate the bill ... I can tell you with absolute certainty that the Qi – gathering pills traded in the cultivation world of Huaxia in the past contained about twenty to thirty spirit stones 'worth of spirit Qi. Those that can reach thirty spirit stones' worth of spirit Qi are already very high – Quality Qi – gathering pills!"

Luo Qingfeng saw Xia ruofei's confused look and quickly explained, "The value of Qi gathering pills and spirit stones can't be measured by the amount of spirit Qi. The spiritual Qi in the spiritual stones was relatively impure, but the spiritual Qi in the Qi – gathering pill had been purified and compressed, so it was quite pure. The absorption efficiency was completely different! Moreover, Qi gathering pills were especially suitable for low – Level cultivators. If they were widely supplied, the consumption would definitely be huge. However, there are not many people who know how to make it, and it's getting harder and harder to find an environment suitable for making Qi gathering pills. In the words of the secular world, the 'technical threshold' is very high, and these are all factors that cause the price of Qi gathering pills to rise!"

Chapter 2952 Discussing strategy (2)

Xia ruofei nodded slowly. He basically understood after Luo Qingfeng's explanation. As an "entrepreneur" who lived in modern society and owned a company with great business potential, it was not hard to understand the brand premium caused by the relationship between supply and demand and the monopoly of technology.

The products of the Paradise company were much more expensive than similar products, and people still went after them like a flock of ducks. Especially for a product like the jade skin cream, whose effects far exceeded the competition and had no competitors at all, it was even more profitable.

The price of Qi gathering pills also followed this rule.

The gathering Qi elixir that contained 20 to 30 spirit stones was easily sold for 60 spirit stones, which meant that the selling price was almost three times the cost. The extra part was naturally the value of the technique. Qianqian couldn't sell it for 20 to 30 spirit stones even if it cost 20 to 30 spirit stones! Without profit, who would be willing to work hard and not gain anything?

There was even a moment when Xia ruofei wanted to refine another batch of Qi gathering pills. It was too easy to make money here.

However, he still restrained his thoughts. No matter how popular this thing was, the law of rarity was eternal. One hundred Qi gathering pills was just the right amount, not too much but not too little. If he took out thousands of them at once, it was no doubt a fool's dream to sell them at a high premium.

Therefore, even if he had to sell more Qi gathering pills in the future, he could not take out too many at once.

However, in this case, he might have to put something up for auction.

Ten thousand spirit stones might sound like a lot, but storage rings were very rare in the current cultivation world. Although the sect leaders, elders, protectors, and other high – Level members would have storage rings, there would still be many people who wanted to bid for storage rings in the auction. Even if they had no use for them, it would be very good to give them to Junior Disciples as a reward.

Hence, Xia ruofei had already predicted that the competition for the storage ring would be intense.

The exact price was still unknown, but 10000 spirit stones would probably not be enough.

After all, for the higher – ups of the sect, none of them had too little assets. Most of them could probably afford to fork out ten thousand spirit stones.

Just as Xia ruofei was thinking about what else he should bring to the auction, Luo Qingfeng said excitedly, "Master, the quality of your batch of Qi gathering pills is so high. We can't sell them as ordinary Qi gathering pills, or it'll be a huge loss!"

"Oh?" Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "how much do you want to sell it for?"

Luo Qingfeng was stunned for a moment. "Master," he said, "when we provide the Qi – gathering pills to the fallen leaves sect, the host of the auction, we have to explain the quality of the batch of Qi – gathering pills. We have to let them emphasize it during the auction. Everyone here knows what's good for them, so they'll naturally raise the price after knowing the situation. "

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said with a smile, ""Your reminder is right. Qingfeng, I'll let you handle the submission of the items!"

"Yes! Master!" Luo Qingfeng said excitedly, "this old servant will definitely do a good job. Master, please rest assured!"

This was not Qingfeng Luo's first time participating in an auction. Furthermore, the host of this year's auction, the fallen leaf sect, had a lot of interactions with them, as they were on par with the star picking sect. He was also familiar with the higher – ups of the fallen leaf sect.

"Qingfeng, there are two things you need to remember," Xia ruofei said after some thought.

"Master, please give me your orders!" Luo qingfen quickly said.

"First, you tell the falling leaves sect that during the auction, we will bid by bottle." Xia ruofei said, "there are 20 pills in each bottle. We'll auction them off in five batches!"

Li Yifu, who was at the side, smiled and said, ""Martial granduncle, this move is brilliant! I'm sure we'll make a lot more money this way than if we were to auction everything off!"

After all, Qingfeng Luo was not like Yifu li, who spent most of his time in the business world. He spent most of his time cultivating in the sect, so his marketing thinking was almost zero. Therefore, he did not understand the difference between the two.

In his opinion, wasn't it the most convenient to auction all 100 Qi gathering pills together?

In the face of Luo Qingfeng's question, Li Yifu smiled and said, ""Sect leader Luo, there's a big difference between selling them separately and selling them together. First of all, if they were sold separately, the price of each batch would definitely be much cheaper than if they were sold together. This way, some forces with insufficient financial resources could also participate. They might not be able to buy 100 pills in one go, but they could still compete for 20 pills. This way, with more people competing, the price would naturally go up. The second factor was marketing psychology. When people with a strong desire to buy saw bottles of Chi – amassing pills being sold one after another, and there were less and less left, they would feel more and more anxious, and they would hesitate less when bidding. Furthermore, only a small number of people managed to get it, so the huge demand would continue to be suppressed. The competition would become more intense towards the end, and the price would also increase. If we calculate it like this, the final price will definitely be much higher than the total price of the auction. "

Luo Qingfeng was also dumbfounded after hearing this. He said with a bitter smile, ""So there are so many tricks in this! Thanks to master's reminder, we would have suffered a loss ..."

Li Yifu asked with a smile, "grand uncle – Master, how did I explain it?" I guess martial granduncle has more profound meanings that I can't understand for the time being ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "no, no, no. You're very comprehensive. It's more comprehensive than I thought." To tell you the truth, in terms of business, it's no problem for you to throw me a few streets behind!"

"Senior granduncle, you're being too serious!" Li Yifu quickly replied. I'm ashamed to say this, but it's because of these mundane affairs that I've been taking up too much time in the past few years, causing my cultivation to stagnate ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "it's not too late to work harder now!" I don't dare to say what will happen after that, because I haven't reached that level myself. But as long as you can successfully break through the bottleneck of the lianqi stage and build your foundation, I can guarantee that I will provide the resources to help you break through to the Jindan stage!"

"Thank you for your guidance, senior granduncle!" Li Yifu quickly stood up and said gratefully.

Xia ruofei waved his hand and turned to Luo Qingfeng, ordering, ""Let's continue with the previous topic. There's a second point. You tell the person in charge of the auction of the falling leaves sect that when the first bottle of Qi gathering pills is auctioned, we allow everyone to recommend a highly respected senior to test the medicine. They can directly take one Qi gathering pill to test the medicine. At that time, for the bottle that has one less pill, we will naturally reduce the auction price by one twentieth. "

"Yes!" Luo Qingfeng kept Xia ruofei's words in mind.

Xia ruofei continued, "thirdly, when we emphasize the quality of our Qi gathering pills at the auction, we can directly promise that at least 80% of the Qi gathering pills in each bottle will have the spiritual energy of 40 spiritual stones. Moreover, there will be at least one Qi gathering pill that has the spiritual energy of 50 spiritual stones! If you can't do that, we're willing to compensate you ten times the price!"

After Xia ruofei had finished refining the Qi gathering pills in the medium, he had distributed the pills according to their quality into five porcelain bottles. Hence, he was very clear about the situation of these Qi gathering pills. In these five bottles, two of the bottles contained two pills with a spiritual Qi content of more than 50 spiritual stones. The other three bottles also contained one such high – Quality Qi gathering pill. And 80% of the quality that could reach the spiritual Qi content of 40 spiritual stones was also a standard that could be easily achieved.

That was why Xia ruofei said those words with such confidence.

Luo Qingfeng did not doubt Xia ruofei at all. He said without hesitation, ""Yes! Master, this old servant will remember it! Does master have any other instructions?"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "the matter regarding the Qi gathering pills is more or less settled. You can take these five bottles of Qi gathering pills with you. I'll leave the rest to you." Also, there's something I'm not sure about, so please help me think about it!"

"Master, please speak!" Luo Qingfeng said quickly.

Chapter 2953 Hot commodity (1)

"Although the value of this batch of Chi – amassing pills is much higher than I expected, it may be a little difficult to compete for the storage rings if we only rely on the spirit stones exchanged for the Chi – amassing pills,” Xia ruofei said,”that’s why I’m planning to sell something more. I have some pretty good talismans on hand. Qingfeng, you’re more familiar with the situation, so tell me what kind of talismans are more popular and can be easily sold for a high price?”

“Master,” Luo Qingfeng said.”Actually, as long as it’s a talisman array, it’s very rare. No matter what type of talisman array it is, as long as it’s of good quality, it’s generally not cheap.”

The biggest advantage of talismans was that they were convenient. It didn’t require the user to have a high level of array Dao because the person who made the talismans had already fixed the array in the Jade stone. The user only needed to arrange it in a specific position. Some didn’t even need to be activated by mental power. Once it was placed in a specific position, the array would be activated automatically.

This way, it greatly lowered the threshold of use. It allowed cultivators who weren’t proficient in array Dao to use array techniques.

As a result, the price of talismans had always been relatively high.

In particular, there were fewer and fewer array Masters in recent years. The loss of inheritances led to the loss of many array techniques. Some array talismans excavated from some historical remains were sold for sky – High prices.

“Relatively speaking, spirit – gathering array talismans should be the most popular,” Luo Qingfeng continued.”I’m sure you know the reason for this, master.”

Xia ruofei nodded and smiled.””Indeed, the spirit gathering talisman is probably the best seller.”

With the deterioration of the Earth’s cultivation environment, cultivators could not even cultivate at any time and place. Every day, there were only two periods of time, one at midnight and one at seven at night, where the spiritual energy was relatively peaceful. If there were no natural arrays or blessed lands like the Paradise Island, cultivators could only cultivate during these two periods. It was easy to imagine the low efficiency.

On the other hand, the spirit gathering array could purify the heterogeneous spirit Qi and increase the concentration of spirit Qi, allowing cultivators to cultivate at all times. This was of great help to cultivators who lacked resources.

Xia ruofei continued,”however, the spirit gathering talisman is relatively easy to make. I think there should be a lot of them in stock in the cultivation world!” The rarer something is, the more valuable it is.

“Master,” Luo Qingfeng said with a smile,”there are indeed more spirit – gathering talismans than other types of talismans. Even our star Seizer sect has a set of spirit – gathering talismans. But it’s precisely because they have a wider range of uses that there are so many of them in the world! And compared to the number of people in the world of cultivation, spirit gathering talismans are still very rare. As long as you take it out for auction, you don’t have to worry about not being able to get a good price!”

Xia ruofei saw that Luo Qingfeng was so certain, so he nodded and said,””Since that’s the case, I’ll take one Spirit gathering talisman!”

Xia ruofei sighed and said, ""I do have a ready – made spirit gathering talisman on hand, but ... In order to sell it for a high price, I'll modify it a little!"

With that, Xia ruofei flipped his hand and took out a set of spirit gathering talismans that he had used before.

As Luo Qingfeng had said, the spirit – gathering talisman was the most widely used. Hence, Xia ruofei had obtained several methods of making the spirit – gathering talisman from the Jade talisman of inheritance.

The set of spirit gathering talismans that he took out was a set of relatively higher quality talismans. The array technique that was sealed within the talisman was also more exquisite.

However, there were actually two versions of this talisman. The one he had taken out was only the simplified version. He planned to modify it into an advanced version based on the foundation of this talisman.

These two versions were originally from the same source, and the basic principles were exactly the same. There were not many changes, and it was completely possible to directly upgrade the simplified version.

In fact, the biggest difference between the advanced version and the simplified version was that the advanced version had three slots for spirit stones.

In the past, Xia ruofei had never used such low – end cultivation resources like spiritual stones. Hence, when he carved the array talismans, he naturally would not choose the ones with spiritual stone grooves.

The advanced version of the spirit stone groove did not directly absorb the spiritual Qi of the spirit stone. The spiritual Qi contained in the spirit stone was very limited, and the spiritual Qi of three spirit stones was just a cup of water on a burning cart of firewood. The spirit stones were mostly used to power arrays, and the version with spirit stone grooves had a lower threshold of use. There was almost no requirement for spiritual power, which was the kind mentioned earlier. As long as there was no mistake in the arrangement, the spirit stones would operate automatically.

In addition, the advanced version of the spirit stone – driven spirit gathering array had also been upgraded to a certain extent, and the efficiency of gathering spirit Qi was relatively higher than the previous simplified version.

Since it was not difficult to modify, Xia ruofei decided to take out this set of talismans and upgrade it. Then, he would give it to Luo Qingfeng to auction.

When Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu saw that Xia ruofei was going to draw a talisman on the spot, they could not help but open their eyes wide and stare at Xia ruofei. They were afraid that they would miss this rare opportunity to learn.

Xia ruofei had no intention of hiding anything. He smiled and with a thought, the main array talisman floated in front of him.

He moved his fingers as if they were flying, and lines of light patterns flashed and disappeared, entering the main array talisman at an extremely fast speed.

Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu could both sense the subtle changes in the complicated array runes within the main array talisman ...

Chapter 2954 Hot commodity (2)

As the saying goes, pulling one hair will affect the whole body. This was also the case for formations. A small change could cause a huge chain reaction.

In a short while, Xia ruofei had finished carving the array pattern. Then, he used his finger as a knife and carved three grooves on the surface of the main array talisman, connecting all the array patterns together.

Since the spirit stones were cut to a standard size, the grooves for embedding the spirit stones were all of the same size.

Next, Xia ruofei made the necessary changes to the eight small supplementary talismans in the set of talismans. This was much easier as there were very few changes.

It took him almost ten seconds to finish modifying one. After a minute or two, he put down the last auxiliary array talisman and said with a smile, "Done! Let's try the effect! Qingfeng, can I borrow three spirit stones?"

Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu were both stunned. Li Yifu was fine, but Luo Qingfeng had seen a lot. When he was young, he had the honor of watching his seniors carve talismans, but he had never seen someone like Xia ruofei who could do it so easily and so naturally. This was the first time he had seen someone inscribe talismans so easily.

Xia ruofei's words brought Luo Qingfeng back to his senses. He quickly said, "Yes! Master!"

Then, Luo Qingfeng immediately took out three spiritual stones from his storage ring and handed them to Xia ruofei with both hands.

After Xia ruofei took the spiritual stones, he threw out a few talismans and set up a barrier in the room. Once the spiritual energy gathering formation was activated, it would absorb the surrounding spiritual energy. Golden core stage cultivators would be very sensitive to the fluctuations of spiritual energy in the surroundings, which could attract other people's attention.

The barrier isolated the spiritual energy from the outside. The spirit gathering array could only absorb the spiritual energy in the room, so no one outside could sense any fluctuations.

Although the effect of the spirit gathering array would be much weaker, Xia ruofei was just testing it out. He did not need to activate the spirit gathering array completely, so it was enough.

After Xia ruofei had set up the barrier, he skillfully set up a spirit gathering array around the three of them.

Then, Xia ruofei waved his hand and three spiritual stones flew out. They accurately fell into the three grooves on the main array talisman. He had carved the grooves very accurately and the spiritual stones fit perfectly.

Once the spiritual stone was in place, Xia ruofei did not even need to use his spiritual power to activate it. The spiritual gathering array was activated immediately.

Xia ruofei and the other two, who were in the spirit gathering array, could clearly feel the spiritual Qi starting to gather. However, as the spiritual Qi in the room was limited, it soon became difficult to continue.

Even so, the effect of the spirit gathering array had already been verified.

Xia ruofei roughly estimated that after the upgrade, the efficiency of the spirit gathering formation had increased by at least 20%. And this was a conservative estimate.

Xia ruofei was very satisfied. He laughed and said, "I'll take this! I should be able to sell it for a good price tomorrow!"

With that, Xia ruofei waved his hand and kept the spirit gathering talisman.

After the spirit gathering array was removed, the spirit Qi that had gathered earlier began to slowly dissipate again. Finally, the spirit Qi concentration in the room returned to the same level as the outside world.

Xia ruofei then removed the barrier.

He handed the talisman to Luo Qingfeng and said, "Qingfeng, I'll give you this set of spirit gathering talismans. Tomorrow, bring it to the fallen leaves sect and add it to the auction."

"Yes! Master!" Luo Qingfeng quickly said, "the effect of this array is very good. It's a rare quality even among the spirit – gathering array talismans!" Even I can't help but want to buy it, so I'm sure the people from the other sects will be very interested!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "if you want it, I'll find some time to make a set for you!" I'll keep this set for spirit stones!"

"Master," Luo Qingfeng quickly said, "I'm just making an analogy. I don't really want this set of talismans." The star Seizer sect's cultivation environment isn't bad, so there's no need for you to waste your time and effort to specially inscribe talismans for this old servant!"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "we'll talk about it later!" To me, carving a set of elementary level talismans like this isn't too much of an effort. It's quite easy ..."

From Xia ruofei's point of view, these small talismans were not difficult at all. He felt that the ones that were more complicated, such as the array disc that was drawn to activate the Taixu xuanqing array. What was even more difficult, which Xia ruofei had not been able to complete so far, were the various formations that were required to make the spiritual puppet. In comparison, the spirit gathering talisman could only be considered a child's play.

"Thank you, master!" Luo Qingfeng could only say. "I'll thank you on behalf of the disciples of the sect!"

Even if Luo Qingfeng had the spirit – gathering array talisman, he would not be able to use it himself. It was mainly for the low – Level disciples of the star Seizer sect to use. Don't look down on this set of spirit gathering talismans, as time passes, it will be very useful for the cultivation of low level disciples, and those Qi layer disciples are the foundation of the sect, maybe there will be a genius among them who will break through to the jiedan stage, making the influence of the sect rise by a lot.

Of course, even Luo Qingfeng had become Xia ruofei's servant. Strictly speaking, the star Seizer sect was Xia ruofei's own power. It was not a big deal for him to provide some cultivation resources. Moreover, it was not a big deal.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, ""In order to gather as many spirit stones as possible, I'll auction off three more protective talismans in addition to this spirit gathering talisman."

As Xia ruofei spoke, he took out three Jade talismans from the spirit map space and lined them up on the coffee table.

He said, "these three protective array talismans can be used individually, so you just have to wear them on your body." Each protective talisman can block at least three attacks from a Qi Level 7 cultivator. It doesn't need to be activated by spiritual power, and when it's attacked, it will automatically activate the protective shield. "

This type of talisman was even simpler than a complete set of spirit gathering talismans. When Xia ruofei had just started cultivating, he had made similar talismans and even gave them to people around him.

However, he had made these three talismans when he had the time. With Xia ruofei's current cultivation and understanding of arrays, the protective talismans he made were naturally much better than the ones he had made before.

He had originally wanted to give it to Ling Qingxue, Song Wei, and Li Yifu for self – defense. After all, their cultivation levels were relatively low. If they were to encounter an enemy cultivator and he was not by their side, they might be in danger.

However, he had rushed to Shuangqing this time and had forgotten to pass it to Song Wei and the others. This time, he had taken it out to auction in exchange for spirit stones.

In any case, it was a very easy task for him to make this kind of jade talisman. He could just find some time to make a few more after the auction.

Luo Qingfeng's eyes lit up and he said, ""Master, this is good stuff! The higher – ups of those sects must have some trusted disciples, so this kind of talisman is most suitable for their disciples to protect themselves. It should be in high demand!"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. ""I think so too! I'll keep you for now and submit you to the auction tomorrow! Try to auction it before the storage ring, so that we can have an idea of how many spirit stones we can take out. Then we'll have the confidence to bid for the storage ring!"

If he didn't have enough spiritual stones, he could pay with spiritual crystals, which was much more popular than spiritual stones. However, Xia ruofei was not willing to use spiritual crystals unless he had no other choice.

“Yes! Master!” Luo Qingfeng did as he was told and kept the three protective array talismans in his storage ring.

He knew that Xia ruofei had a lot of treasures on him and was curious about what Xia ruofei would bring out for the auction. When Xia ruofei really brought out one treasure after another, he could not help but be speechless.

Whether it was the Qi gathering pill, the spirit gathering talisman, or the protective talisman, they were all very practical things for cultivators. Especially in the current situation where the cultivation environment was deteriorating, these auxiliary treasures were even more precious.

These were just things that Xia ruofei had casually taken out. Especially from Xia ruofei’s tone, it seemed that he had refined the Qi gathering pill himself and modified the spirit gathering talisman on the spot. He must have also made the protective talisman himself. In other words, as long as Xia ruofei wanted to, he could have as many of these things as he wanted!

Luo Qingfeng suddenly felt that following a master like Xia ruofei seemed to have a much better future than being the sect master of the star Seizer sect in the past ...

Chapter 2955 Inside information (1)

In fact, Xia ruofei had considered the risk of the Qi gathering pills and talismans being sold to other sects.

After all, the current situation in the cultivation world was like this. Resources were extremely scarce. Even among the senior and junior brothers of the same sect, there were open and secret struggles, not to mention different sects.

However, Xia ruofei felt that even if a set of spirit gathering talismans and a hundred Chi – amassing pills were given to the same sect, there would be a limit to how much they could improve.

In addition, as long as he was willing to spend time on these things, he could have as many as he wanted.

If he really had to consider the contest between the sects, he would just have to spend some time and effort to nurture the star Seizer sect.

All in all, the items he took out for auction were not enough to create a huge gap between the sects. Moreover, the possibility of these resources being concentrated in the hands of the same sect was very small, including the Qi gathering pills, which he had auctioned separately. These resources themselves were not a lot, and if they were scattered among several sects, there was even less to worry about.

Xia ruofei saw Luo Qingfeng put away the three protective array talismans and said, “I’ll prepare these three things for now! When the time comes, if the spirit stones are still not enough, we should be able to temporarily add more items, right?”

“No problem!” Qingfeng Luo said with certainty, “this auction is meant to promote communication between sects. Everyone has treasures that they can’t use, and it’s a waste to leave them unused. Other cultivators might need them, so they took advantage of the auction to exchange their treasures. Therefore, the rules aren’t that rigid, and you can basically add items to the auction at any time.”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "that's good!" Qingfeng, adopted husband, you two go back to your rooms and rest! The auction is tomorrow!"

"Yes! Master!"

"Martial granduncle, this disciple will take his leave!"

After Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu left, Xia ruofei took a shower, sat cross – legged on the bed, and cultivated for a while. Then, he fell asleep.

The next day, Xia ruofei had breakfast in his room.

Many cultivators liked peace and quiet. When they reached the Golden core stage, it didn't matter if they ate or not. They would often cultivate for days without eating. Although Xia ruofei had already reached the beginning stage of the Golden elixir realm, he had only cultivated for a short period of time. He still maintained his normal lifestyle.

However, there were many cultivators this time. Xia ruofei wanted to keep a low profile and did not go to the restaurant to eat. Instead, he called the front desk and asked them to send breakfast to his room.

After asking the waiter to clear the plates, Xia ruofei wanted to meet up with Qingfeng Luo and Yifu li, but his phone rang before he left.

Xia ruofei took a look at the caller ID and saw that it was a local landline number.

Xia ruofei didn't have any friends or acquaintances in the southwest. His heart skipped a beat as he thought about how he could sense Liu chengfeng's soul seal more clearly. He immediately determined that the caller was probably Liu chengfeng.

Hence, Xia ruofei returned to his room and set up a soundproof barrier before answering the call.

"Hello?" Xia ruofei asked calmly, "who is it?"

Sure enough, Liu chengfeng's excited voice came from the phone, ""Master, it's your subordinate!"

"Chengfeng!" Although Xia ruofei had already expected this, he still revealed a happy smile and asked, "you've arrived in Shuangqing city?"

There was a connection between the child and mother soul seals. The closer the distance, the clearer the connection. Hence, when Xia ruofei woke up in the morning and found that Liu chengfeng's soul seal had become very clear, he knew that he must have come to Shuangqing city.

As expected, Liu chengfeng said respectfully, ""Yes! I was transferred here to protect the auction ... Master, are you also in Shuangqing city? So, you're here to attend the auction?"

Because of the auction, many cultivators had gathered in Shuangqing city. If Xia ruofei appeared in Shuangqing at this time, he was most likely here for the auction. This was Liu chengfeng's normal judgment.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "yes!" This is the first time I've heard of such a gathering between cultivators, so I'm here to broaden my horizons!"

“Master,” Liu chengfeng quickly said, “as far as I know, many of the people attending the auction are high – Level executives of major sects, including many golden core cultivators. Master, you must pay attention to your safety during the double celebration! In addition ... If you accidentally offend an expert, please inform this subordinate at once! This subordinate’s position in the sect has been getting higher and higher, and the sect leader and elders have been focusing on training me. It shouldn’t be a problem for me to go to them and mediate!”

Xia ruofei’s heart felt warm. “I know. Chengfeng, you don’t have to worry about your safety. I’m with the sect master of the star Seizer sect, Luo Qingfeng.” In addition ... I’ve already broken through to the early jiedan stage, so I should have no problem protecting myself. ”

Hearing this, Liu chengfeng couldn’t help but gasp, “Master, you ... You’ve already broken through a major realm! This cultivation speed was simply shocking! Master is truly a peerless genius!”

Xia ruofei chuckled. “It’s not that exaggerated. I was just lucky.” Chengfeng, you’ll be busy with the auction for the next two days. Even if you see us, you’d better pretend that you don’t know us. After the auction is over, we’ll find an opportunity to meet again. ”

Xia ruofei letting Liu chengfeng return to luoye sect was equivalent to planting a nail in the sect. Although the fallen leaves sect might not become Xia ruofei’s enemy in the future, it was still necessary to plan ahead.

Since he was going to plant a mole, he naturally couldn’t let anyone find out that he had any connection with Liu chengfeng.

“I understand! Master!” Liu chengfeng said, “I’ll keep the phone we use to contact each other on for the next two days. You can contact me at any time!”

“En!” Xia ruofei nodded.

Just as he was about to hang up the phone, he suddenly had an idea and asked, “By the way, chengfeng, do you know anything about the auction items?”

“I’ve been in charge of sorting out the information related to the auction,” said Liu chengfeng. “I’m also in charge of making the auction manual, so I know more or less about the auction items.” Master, what do you want to know?”

Xia ruofei asked, “I have my eyes on that pair of storage rings.” Tell me what you know. ”

“That pair of storage rings should be the most popular item in this auction, master,” said Liu chengfeng immediately. “I expect a fierce fight to be held over it.” Our internal department has determined that this pair of storage rings should be able to reach a price of around 30000 spirit stones, or even higher. After all, anything can happen at an auction, and it’s possible that someone will be so hot – headed as to bid an astronomical price. ”

“Okay, continue ...” Xia ruofei said calmly.

Liu chengfeng’s estimated price was probably made by the internal department of the sect according to the situation of the auction item and the financial resources of the cultivators who participated in the auction. It was more or less a reference value.

This price was slightly higher than what Xia ruofei had expected, but he did not take it to heart.

"This pair of storage rings was entrusted by Mu Sheng, the sect leader of the surging waves sect in the southwest, to be auctioned off," Liu chengfeng continued. "It's said that sect leader mu is in urgent need of a spiritual herb, but he doesn't have enough spiritual stones, so he had to part with it."

This was the advantage of having a mole. In the auction manual, the client who entrusted the auction item was confidential. Although it would be possible to find out if he spent some effort, how could it be more convenient than directly asking the organizer?

"As far as I know, sect leader MU's mental price is also 30000 spiritual stones," said Liu chengfeng. "The higher the price, the better. But he might not sell it if it's below this price." This is because he won't have enough spirit stones to buy that spirit herb. "

"Chengfeng, do you know what spiritual herb sect leader mu wants to buy?" Xia ruofei nodded and asked.

"I'm sorry, master," Liu chengfeng said with some shame. "I'm really not too sure about this ... However, it's said that it's a spiritual herb that nourishes the meridians. It's said that leader MU's only son had an accident during his cultivation and his meridians were severely damaged. He urgently needs this medicine to repair his damaged meridians. The spiritual herb he's buying this time is also said to be related to the meridian nourishment. Of course, these are all rumors, and I can't guarantee their authenticity. "

Xia ruofei smiled gently and said, ""It doesn't matter. The information you've provided is very important! It's of great help to me. Thank you, chengfeng!"

Liu chengfeng was a little flattered and quickly said, ""Master, you're too kind. This is what I should do."

"Do you know anything else about the storage ring?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

Liu chengfeng thought for a moment and said, "master, I heard that many cultivators are very interested in these two storage rings. Among them, elder Yang Liu of the flying flower Valley and young sect leader Wu Ming of the spirit Vulture mountain are even more determined to get them. Wu Ming even spread the word that he hopes that everyone will give him face and not compete with him." It's said that Wu Ming wanted to buy this pair of storage rings and give them to a pair of female twin cultivators ..."

A smile appeared on Xia ruofei's face. It seemed that many things were related to the cultivation world and the secular world. At least, this young sect leader Wu Ming seemed to have many similarities with the rich second generation of the secular world.

Liu chengfeng thought for a while and said, ""Master, that's all I know. If you're interested in that pair of storage rings, you'd better be mentally prepared. The competition may be very fierce. "

"I know! Thank you, chengfeng!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you went outside to make a call, right? Let's not talk too much. You should go back quickly to avoid suspicion. I'll contact you if there's anything!"

"Yes! Master, please take care and be careful!" Liu chengfeng said.

“Alright!”

Xia ruofei hung up the phone.

He had originally wanted to go out to find Qingfeng Luo and Yifu li, but after the call with Liu chengfeng, he was not in a hurry to go out.

The auction would only start at night. There was still some time during the day, so Xia ruofei decided to do some preparation work.

He walked over and locked the door from the inside, then turned on the do not disturb light. Then, he returned to his bedroom, locked the doors and windows, and drew the curtains.

Following that, talismans were scattered out, and array barriers with different functions lit up one by one. Xia ruofei took out the spirit map scroll from his palm after he was done with the protection.

He also stuffed the spirit map scroll into his bed and entered the medium with a thought.

Chapter 2956 A gathering of heroes (1)

As there was more time, Xia ruofei did not use the array flags and started to work in the spirit map space.

When he left the spirit map space and returned to the outside world, it was almost noon.

Xia ruofei had been hiding in his room the entire morning. Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu did not dare to come and disturb him. In order to avoid any complications, Luo Qingfeng had gone to see Shao Qingyang in the morning. After submitting his item, he had returned to his room and did not interact much with his fellow cultivators.

Actually, the purpose of submitting the item was to let Shao Qingyang have a preliminary appraisal of it before Luo Qingfeng kept it away. He just had to hand the item over to the person hosting the auction before the auction started. This included the items in the auction manual. After all, the treasures were precious. Even if the auction had been going on for many years, the fallen leaves sect would not dare to cheat, but everyone was still more cautious.

When Shao Qingyang saw the three items that Luo Qingfeng had put up for auction, he couldn't help but feel a wave of emotions in his heart.

In terms of preciousness, the items Qingfeng Luo submitted were not the best, but they were very practical. Especially in the worsening environment of the cultivation world, these three items were especially precious.

Shao Qingyang could imagine how popular these three items would be at the auction. Even he himself was drooling over the Qi – gathering pill and the spirit – gathering formation, and the idea of bidding for them came to mind.

Of course, Shao Qingyang naturally welcomed this. The more good things there were in the auction, the greater the influence. This was naturally a good thing for the falling leaves sect. Apart from gaining fame, the work of the auction was not in vain. For every item, the falling leaves sect would receive a 5% commission.

Naturally, the more good things that he had, the better.

As such, Shao Qingyang readily agreed to all of Luo Qingfeng's requests, and everyone came to an agreement in a happy and friendly atmosphere.

Since Xia ruofei had been staying in his room, Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu did not dare to disturb him. Therefore, Luo Qingfeng simply stayed in his room and guided Li Yifu in his cultivation.

Of course, in order to prevent ears from eavesdropping, Qingfeng Luo and Yifu li addressed each other as brothers.

However, there was no order in learning, and the one who had achieved it came first. It was not unusual for Luo Qingfeng, a Junior Brother in the Golden core stage, to guide Li Yifu in his cultivation. This was also a very common thing in the cultivation world.

As an Aurous core stage cultivator, Qingfeng Luo was naturally qualified to guide Li Yifu in his cultivation. He could also answer many of Li Yifu's questions.

However, Li Yifu, who had also received Xia ruofei's guidance, could clearly feel that his senior granduncle's guidance was more profound and simple. A few simple words could point to the great Dao, making him feel enlightened every time. In comparison, although Luo Qingfeng's cultivation was profound and his guidance on cultivation could benefit him greatly, he still seemed to be inferior to Xia ruofei.

However, no matter what, the Enlightenment of a golden core cultivator was enough for a Qi refining cultivator like Li Yifu to learn. Therefore, he was still very humble and humbly asked for Luo Qingfeng's advice.

After Xia ruofei left the spirit map space, he raised his hand to look at his watch and then put away all the barriers in the room.

He walked out of the room and came to the door of Luo Qingfeng's room at the other end of the corridor. He raised his hand and knocked on the door.

Luo Qingfeng quickly got up and opened the door. When he saw Xia ruofei, he subconsciously wanted to bow and greet him, but Xia ruofei raised his hand to stop him.

"Let's talk inside!" Xia ruofei said.

After entering the room, Xia ruofei set up a soundproof barrier and asked with a smile, "You didn't go out this morning?"

"Master," Luo Qingfeng said respectfully. "Senior li and I have been in the room the whole time. We were exchanging our experiences in cultivation this morning."

"Senior granduncle, it's actually sect leader Luo who is guiding the disciples in their cultivation," Li Yifu quickly said.

Originally, Li Yifu and Xia ruofei would call him "Qingfeng". However, after receiving his guidance today, it was not appropriate for him to call him that anymore. After all, even if he was Xia ruofei's servant, he was still an Aurous core cultivator and the sect leader of the star Seizer sect.

In contrast, "sect leader Luo" was not a respectful title, but it was more polite, so Li Yifu naturally changed to this title.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "Qingfeng, please give your husband some advice when you have time. Although his cultivation level is low now, his Foundation is very solid. As long as he has enough cultivation resources, he will be able to make great progress."

"Master is right!" Luo Qingfeng said, "senior Li's Foundation is indeed very solid. This will be very helpful for his future cultivation."

Xia ruofei smiled. "I'm not looking for you guys for anything. It's almost time for lunch. How about we order a meal?"

There were many cultivators in the Grand Duke Hotel. If it was not necessary, Xia ruofei did not want to have too much contact with them. Before the auction started, he wanted to reduce the number of times he showed his face in public.

"I'll do as you say!" "Yes!" Qingfeng Luo said respectfully.

"Good! Foster husband, call the front desk to send three sets of lunch over!" Xia ruofei said, "just bring it to Qingfeng's room. We'll eat together today!"

"Yes! Senior granduncle!" Li Yifu quickly said.

Chapter 2957 A gathering of heroes (2)

Li Yifu was obviously more proficient than Qingfeng Luo in the life skills of modern society. If Luo Qingfeng were to call the hotel front desk to arrange for the delivery of the meal, he might not be able to figure it out.

The Junjue hotel itself was an asset of the fallen leaves sect, so during the auction, everyone naturally did their best to ensure that everything was fine.

Therefore, not long after Li Yifu made the call, the waiter pushed a small dining cart and delivered their lunch to the room.

Li Yifu went over and gave the waiter a 100 – dollar bill as a bill. Then, he personally pushed the dining cart into the room and told the waiter to go back first. They would call again when they needed to pack up.

The waiter was also very surprised when he received the bill. Most of the people who came to the auction were immersed in cultivation in the sect and didn't care about the world. How would they know the rules of giving tips? What's more, Li Yifu actually gave them a large amount of US dollars, which was even more surprising. Usually, the normal guests who stayed in the hotel would not spend so much!

The waiter quickly bowed and thanked him, then carefully closed the door for Li Yifu and left the floor happily.

Xia ruofei and the other two were eating lunch and chatting in the room. Xia ruofei told Qingfeng Luo and Yifu Li about the news he had heard from Liu chengfeng. Even though both of them could be trusted, Xia ruofei did not specifically mention the source of the news.

Of course, since Xia ruofei did not say anything, Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu would not ask.

After Li Yifu heard Xia ruofei's words, he said with a serious expression, "Martial granduncle, from the looks of it, the competition for storage rings is still very intense! I should be able to earn a lot of spirit stones from the three items, but I'm worried that it might not be enough ..."

"Master," Qingfeng Luo said, "according to my judgment, the total price of our three items should be around 30000 spirit stones. It might fluctuate a little." The owners of these storage rings have set their base price at thirty thousand spirit stones, so I'm afraid the final price will be much higher. After all, storage rings have rarely been auctioned in recent years."

Xia ruofei chuckled. "Don't worry too much. I'm already prepared."

"Oh? Master has also prepared other treasures that will be immediately auctioned off if there are not enough spirit stones?" "What happened?" Luo Qingfeng asked quickly.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "No." But I have other preparations! You'll know when you get to the auction. Of course, I hope that my preparations won't be needed."

Xia ruofei wanted to keep them in suspense. Although Luo Qingfeng and Li Yifu were very curious, they did not dare to ask.

After lunch, Li Yifu called the hotel's front desk to arrange for people to take away the plates and dining cars.

Then, Xia ruofei did not return to his room. Instead, the three of them sat beside Luo Qingfeng and chatted. He also gave Li Yifu some pointers on his cultivation.

Li Yifu's complete cultivation technique was obtained from the Jade talisman of inheritance. He even examined Li Yifu for a while before giving him the copied cultivation technique.

Therefore, Xia ruofei had a deep understanding of this technique. Not only did the Jade talisman of inheritance contain the original text of the technique, but it also contained some cultivation experiences and annotations of the predecessors. These were all very precious insights that could not be bought with spiritual stones.

Because of this, Xia ruofei was more relaxed when he guided Li Yifu in his cultivation. He could always hit the nail on the head and easily solve some of Li Yifu's doubts in his cultivation.

Xia ruofei's explanation was very simple, but his simple words contained a hidden meaning that pointed directly to the essence.

Even Luo Qingfeng felt that he had gained something after listening to it.

Luo Qingfeng was amazed. He realized that even without the soul seal, Xia ruofei's current strength seemed to have surpassed his in all aspects. Hence, he had a deep respect for Xia ruofei.

The one who benefited the most was naturally Li Yifu. He had been given special treatment by a golden core cultivator for the entire day. Even the core disciples of the sect could not enjoy such treatment.

Even if it was a disciple who was doted on by the higher – ups, it was impossible for an Aurous core stage cultivator to give him one – on – one tutoring all day long.

After all, Aurous core stage cultivators were very busy. Their cultivation growth was slower and they needed more time to cultivate. What's more, those who had reached the Golden core stage were all high – Level figures in the major sects. They usually had a lot of daily affairs to handle, so how could they have the time to patiently guide the cultivation of their disciples?

While Li Yifu was excited, he was also full of gratitude and respect for Xia ruofei.

The path of cultivation was broad and profound. One of the three was responsible for explaining, while the other listened attentively. Luo Qingfeng also listened carefully and verified his own cultivation experience. As a result, time naturally passed very quickly. Without them knowing, night had slowly descended.

Cultivators didn't pay much attention to the desire for food. Moreover, they were in a noisy city. Naturally, they couldn't prepare rare ingredients that were rare in the secular world like in the sect. Therefore, the fallen leaves sect did not even arrange a special welcome banquet. Everyone was also used to it and did not feel that it was inappropriate.

Cultivators who liked to have fun could invite their friends to a restaurant for a buffet.

If they wanted to have a quiet place, they could order a meal in their room. The hotel provided a 24 – hour order service, and all the staff members had three shifts to rest.

Of course, there were even more people who didn't eat at all. They just meditated in their rooms and waited for the auction to start.

Xia ruofei and the other two still ordered dinner in the room.

After dinner, it was almost Seveno' clock in the evening. Luo Qingfeng got up and said,""Master, it's about time. We can go to the auction hall. This old servant still needs to hand over the item to the fallen leaves sect. "

Xia ruofei smiled, stood up and said,""Then let's go!"

The three of them left the room and walked towards the elevator.

Xia ruofei was rather excited. This was the first time he had faced so many cultivators since he had obtained the spirit map scroll and embarked on the path of cultivation.

This was almost the main force of the Chinese cultivation world. Although there were some powerful individual cultivators who did not participate in this auction, all the powerful sects in the Chinese cultivation world had sent representatives to participate. It was not an exaggeration to say that it was a gathering of heroes.

Xia ruofei seemed to be a little nervous, but he was more excited than nervous!

The three of them took the elevator and headed straight to the grand banquet hall on the third floor. The Qin Zhuan auction would be held in that grand banquet hall.

The elevator went down and stopped on the 10th floor. When the elevator door opened, Xia ruofei saw three extremely beautiful women standing outside. They were dressed in Palace clothes and looked elegant and ancient.

Chapter 2958 The appearance of the auction (1)

Then, Valley master Liu glanced at Xia ruofei.

Seeing this, Luo Qingfeng quickly introduced her, "Valley Head Liu, this is my Junior Brother Xia Tian, and this is my senior brother Li Yifu."

Then, Luo Qingfeng immediately said, "Junior Brother Xia, senior brother Li, this is the famous Valley master of the flying flower Valley, Liu Mansha. This is elder Yang Liu of the flying flower Valley. This is ..."

The third person was a beauty in a Palace dress who looked even younger. It was obvious that Luo Qingfeng did not know her, so he was stuck at this point.

Liu Mansha had obviously noticed the order of Luo Qingfeng's introduction. Xia ruofei was in front, and Li Yifu was behind him. With a glance, she could tell that Li Yifu's cultivation was only at the fifth level of the aura refining realm, while Xia ruofei's cultivation ... She could not even tell.

Liu Mansha couldn't help but take another look at Xia ruofei.

At this moment, elder Yang Liu of the soaring Flower Valley, who was standing beside Liu Mansha, said indifferently, "Sect leader Luo, this is Valley master Liu's last disciple, Yu xiner. Xiner, why don't you greet sect leader Luo of the star Seizer sect?"

Upon hearing this, Yu Xin 'er cupped her fists at Luo Qingfeng and called out, "Xin 'er greets sect leader Luo!"

"Hello, martial nephew Yu," Luo Qingfeng quickly said.

At this moment, Xia ruofei and Li Yifu also cupped their fists and greeted Liu Mansha and Yang Liu.

Yang Liu returned the greeting with a smile, while a faint smile appeared on Liu Mansha's face. She said, "Fellow Daoist Xia is really young and promising!"

Although Liu Mansha could not see through Xia ruofei's cultivation, she could still tell his real age. He was in his twenties, yet he was Luo Qingfeng's junior Brother. He also had a treasure that could conceal his cultivation. He must be a genius disciple that was highly valued in the sect. Just like Yu xiner, Liu Mansha had never thought that Xia ruofei's cultivation could reach the Golden core stage. Furthermore, his spiritual power cultivation was on par with hers. Naturally, he thought that Xia ruofei must have brought a treasure that could hide his cultivation level.

How could a golden core cultivator in his twenties be possible?

"Valley Head Liu, you're too kind," Xia ruofei replied in a manner that was neither haughty nor humble.

After he had learned from Liu chengfeng that elder Yang Liu of the flying flower Valley was also very interested in the two storage rings, he had specifically inquired about the situation of the flying flower Valley when he talked to Luo Qingfeng at noon. Naturally, he knew that the valley master of the flying flower Valley, Liu Mansha, was already in the middle stage of the Golden core realm, and Yang Liu had also entered the early stage of the Golden core realm for many years. His accumulation was very deep, and his talent was also extremely outstanding. However, because of the continuous deterioration of the cultivation environment, he had not been able to break through to the middle stage of the Golden core realm.

Furthermore, Xia ruofei knew that Liu Mansha and Yang Liu looked like they were in their 30s, but in reality, they were both close to 80 years old. They were definitely grandmother – like figures.

There were many female cultivators in the world of cultivation who could maintain their youthful looks, but it was rare to see a cultivator from the flying flower Valley who had no signs of aging on his face. Luo Qingfeng had even specifically mentioned this to Xia ruofei at noon. Xia ruofei did not expect to meet a cultivator from the flying flower Valley in the elevator.

Xia ruofei thought to himself, "it's probably because of the cultivation technique. If Song Wei and Ling Qingxue knew about this technique, wouldn't they die of envy?"

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei suddenly felt that he should find some time to pick out a supplementary cultivation technique for Song Wei and Ling Qingxue.

The "absolute beginning Heart Sutra" was undoubtedly a very good cultivation technique. However, it had a lot of limitations. It required two people to cultivate it together. If one cultivated it alone, the progress would be very slow. Xia ruofei couldn't be by their side all the time. Although they had embarked on the path of cultivation, they were still young and had their own careers. It was unrealistic to let them live in seclusion on the Peach Blossom Island and leave the world. Even Xia ruofei found it difficult to completely separate himself from the world. Therefore, it was very important to find them a supplementary cultivation technique so that they could cultivate during normal times.

Of course, this thought only flashed through his mind. Xia ruofei's priority was to attend the auction.

After Xia ruofei and the rest greeted Liu Mansha and the other two, they did not say anything else. The flying flower Valley was filled with female cultivators, and all of them had cold personalities. Luo Qingfeng was not particularly familiar with them, so naturally, there was not much to talk about.

Fortunately, the elevator of a five – Star hotel descended very quickly. After a short silence, everyone heard a "ding" and the elevator had arrived on the third floor.

The door of the carriage opened. Two disciples of the falling leaves sect were waiting at the elevator door, ready to welcome the guests at any time.

Xia ruofei's gaze went past the two disciples and landed on a figure not far away. That person was directing a few low – ranking disciples to move a box. When Xia ruofei's gaze fell on him, he seemed to feel something and turned around inadvertently.

This man was Liu chengfeng.

A faint smile appeared on Xia ruofei's face and he quickly looked away. As Xia ruofei had already given him instructions, Liu chengfeng's eyes did not stay on Xia ruofei. He continued with his work after a quick glance.

The two falling leaves sect disciples at the elevator door walked up respectfully. One of them walked up to Luo Qingfeng and said respectfully, "Hello, sect leader Luo!"

The other disciple was naturally there to receive Liu Mansha's group.

They had also arranged for a dozen disciples to wait near the electric ladder, ready to welcome any cultivators who headed to the auction venue.

Luo Qingfeng nodded reservedly. As an Aurous core cultivator and the sect leader of the star Seizer sect, it was natural for him to put on airs in front of the low – Level disciples of the fallen leaves sect who were in charge of receiving guests.

"Sect master Luo, seniors," the disciple said. "The star Seizer sect's seat is in room 20. Please follow me!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but raise his eyebrows. Wasn't the auction held in the main banquet hall? Why was there a private room?

However, Xia ruofei did not ask. He would see it soon anyway, so he just had to follow.

The disciple on the other side also led Liu Mansha's group to the other entrance of the main banquet hall.

Luo Qingfeng and Liu Mansha cupped their hands at each other from a distance, and then everyone went in different directions.

The disciple led Xia ruofei and the rest into the main banquet hall of the hotel.

Only then did Xia ruofei realize that the fallen leaves sect had already renovated the entire main banquet hall in advance for this auction.

In the middle of the banquet hall, there was a one – meter – tall stage covered with a thick red carpet. There was also a table, which should be the auction stage.

Around the main auction stage, there was a structure similar to that of a sports grandstand. However, there were no individual seats on the "grandstand". Instead, there were independent private rooms built around the main auction stage. Except for the side at the entrance, the other three sides had individual private rooms.

The banquet hall was tall, reaching a height of about six meters. These small private rooms were located at a higher position, so they could surround and look down at the main auction stage in the middle.

Xia ruofei did a rough count and realized that there were 50 to 60 private rooms. In other words, there were about 50 to 60 families participating in the auction.

These small private rooms were all independent, and because the venue was very large, there was quite a large gap between the private rooms.

There was a path between every two private rooms, and following the steps, one could reach the main auction stage below.

The back of the box was not next to the wall of the main banquet hall, and there was also a circular passage.

That disciple had led Xia ruofei and the rest up the circular pathway from the entrance. Then, they walked all the way to the door of a private room with a sign that read “Erhuang”.

The falling leaf sect disciple opened the box and then bowed slightly, “Please come in, seniors! This is the box of the star Seizer sect!”

Xia ruofei and the other two walked into the private room.

Xia ruofei looked around and saw that the private room was made of wood, but the inner walls were wrapped with a layer of soundproof cotton. The side facing the main auction stage was a one – way glass, so privacy was still quite good.

There were three soft leather couches in the room, and in front of each sofa was a small coffee table with desserts, fruits, and drinks.

In addition, there were two cabinets on the side of the room. One of the cabinets was also filled with various snacks and other food. The other cabinet was filled with wine, red wine and white wine. There were also a few wine glasses on the top of the low cabinet.

“Not bad!” Xia ruofei laughed.

Considering that after the auction ended, the main banquet Hall’s facilities would definitely have to be removed. Thus, in order to hold the auction this time, the fallen leaves sect had indeed spent a lot of money.

Of course, money in the secular world was nothing to cultivation sects. Not many cultivators would value money in the secular world.

The disciple did not leave immediately after Xia ruofei and the other two entered the private room. Instead, he followed them in.

He first introduced some of the facilities in the room, including the wine cabinet, and then said, “Three seniors, this is the bidding device on the armrest of the middle seat. It’s very simple to use. When you see an item you like and want to bid, just press the blue button on the touch screen, and you can increase the price by one time according to the increase in price. If you want to add more spirit stones at once, you can also enter the price directly through the touch screen and press the blue button to submit after confirmation. After the bid is submitted, the big screen in front will display information such as the bid of a certain room ...”

Chapter 2959 A good start (1)

Luo Qingfeng smiled and said! "It's a bit late. Sect leader Shao is worried that I'll change my mind! As soon as the item was delivered, he hurriedly accepted it!"

"That's good!" Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "is there a problem with the order of the auction?"

Xia ruofei hoped that his three items would be auctioned before the pair of storage rings. That way, he would know how many spiritual stones he would have.

Of course, Xia ruofei and the other two had a rough idea of how many spiritual stones these three items would be sold for. However, it would be better if they could confirm it in advance so that they would not have to worry about the consequences when they bid for the storage ring.

"No problem! The three items will be placed in front of the storage ring!" Luo Qingfeng smiled and said, "moreover, sect leader Shao also said that our Qi - gathering pill will be the first item to be put on display in the opening auction!"

"Oh? It seems that the falling leaves sect is also quite optimistic about our Qi gathering pill!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Generally speaking, the first item to be auctioned in an auction would definitely not be the most precious, but it would definitely be much better than ordinary items. The Chinese paid particular attention to a good start. The first item to be auctioned must be of high quality and could quickly stir up the atmosphere. From this perspective, the Qi gathering pill was undoubtedly very suitable.

To Xia ruofei, this was a good thing.

The reason was simple. The auction had just started, and it meant that everyone had a lot of spirit stones in their pockets, and their purchasing power was very high. Although some people were reluctant to use a large number of spirit stones at the beginning, as long as the item was good enough, it could still attract many people to change their minds and compete for the Qi - gathering pill. Under such circumstances, everyone had a lot of spirit stones on hand, so the price would naturally be raised even higher.

The three of them were looking forward to the auction. They sat down on the sofa and chatted while drinking juice, waiting for the auction to start.

About 20 minutes later, Xia ruofei saw the lights around the main auction stage dim down, and the spotlight shone on the entrance of the stage.

"It's about to start!" He said with a smile.

Sure enough, an old man in a blue gown walked up to the stage with a smile on his face. The spotlight moved with him until he stood in front of the microphone in the middle of the main auction stage, every box could clearly hear his voice.

Cultivators "auction didn't have many empty words. After Hao Qingsong said a few simple words, auction stage.

This person was the Golden core elder of the fallen leaves sect, Hao Qingsong. Yesterday, when Xia ruofei and the others arrived at the hotel, Hao Qingsong had personally received them.

With a smile, Hao Qingsong said, "the falling leaf sect is very honored to be able to host this year's auction. On behalf of sect master Shao and all the disciples of the falling leaf sect, I welcome all the fellow Daoists here. I would also like to thank all of you for providing us with treasures, which have allowed the tradition of mutual exchange in the Chinese cultivation world to continue to be carried forward!" Now, the auction officially begins!"

Although the hearing of cultivators was extremely good, the fallen leaf sect still installed a ceiling - Type three - dimensional speaker in every box. Although Hao Qingsong was speaking on the main auction stage, every box could clearly hear his voice.

Cultivators "auction didn't have many empty words. After Hao Qingsong said a few simple words, he immediately announced the official start of the auction.

As soon as his voice fell, a female disciple of the falling leaves sect walked out of the stage with a tray. The tray was covered with a red silk cloth, so it was naturally impossible to see what was inside with the naked eye.

Xia ruofei sat up straight and said with a smile, ""It's time for our Qi gathering pill to appear!"

The moment the female disciple went on stage, Xia ruofei scanned her with his spiritual power. Of course, there were many cultivators who did the same. However, Xia ruofei only needed to check the three porcelain bottles under the red silk. He had personally bottled the ethereal energy gathering pills.

The female disciple carefully placed the tray on the table and then stood to the side with her hands by her side.

"I'm sure many fellow Daoists will be interested in the first item. These are three bottles of Chi - amassing pills!" Hao Qingsong said with a smile.

After he finished speaking, he nodded slightly to the female disciple. The female disciple of the falling leaves sect hurriedly lifted the red silk, placing the three bottles of gathering Qi pills in a row on the table. She then slightly bowed to Hao Qingsong, before taking the tray and the red silk down the stage.

As soon as Hao Qingsong's voice fell, many of the cultivators in the private rooms couldn't help but slightly open their eyes. More and more people began to use their spiritual power to check the condition of the three porcelain bottles.

As a Jindan cultivator, Hao Qingsong was standing right next to the table where the three bottles of gathering Qi pills were placed. Naturally, he could feel the spiritual energy, but he didn't care about it. This was allowed in and of itself. As long as the item wasn't damaged, the bidder could feel it however they wanted.

"The Qi gathering pill is a rare medicine that can assist in cultivation!" Hao Qingsong said with a smile. This was especially true for low - Level disciples, who could use Chi - amassing pills to increase their cultivation efficiency by a large margin! Which sect did not have a few disciples with outstanding talent? It's just that the environment is getting worse and worse, and even a genius disciple is struggling on the path of cultivation. If they have the assistance of a Qi gathering pill, it will be a big difference!"

Although Hao Qingsong was a guest auctioneer, he was still a Jindan cultivator, after all. His eyes were very sharp, and he was very clear about the selling points of these auction items. Therefore, with a few simple words, he immediately roused everyone's interest.

Of course, the people attending this auction were all high - Level members of the major sects. Everyone's vision was not bad, and everyone knew the benefits of the Qi gathering pill. But after all, this was only effective for low - Level disciples. When it came to the jiedan stage, it was basically useless. To put it bluntly, this was mainly to increase the strength of the sect, and had no use for them, so although everyone was more excited, they were not so excited that they would take it at all costs.

However, Hao Qingsong's following words made everyone somewhat unable to remain calm.

Hao Qingsong chuckled and said, "I'd like to say a few more things here. Fellow Daoists, you may not be aware, but this batch of Qi gathering pills is of extremely high quality, and their effects are far better than ordinary Qi gathering pills." The fellow Daoist who entrusted the pill to be auctioned said that he could invite a fellow Daoist who was publicly acknowledged to be of virtue and prestige to come up the stage and test the pill. This fellow Daoist also guarantees that at least eighty percent of the Qi - gathering pills in each bottle will have the amount of spiritual energy of forty spirit stones, and at least one pill will have the amount of spiritual energy of fifty spirit stones. If he's lying, this fellow Daoist is willing to compensate you with ten times the transaction price!"

As soon as Hao Qingsong said this, the cultivators in the private rooms couldn't sit still.

Liu Mansha's last disciple, Yu Xin 'er, who was in Room 6, gasped and said, ""Master, there's actually such a high - Quality Qi gathering pill in this world? It's hard to believe ..."

"This is also the first time I've heard of this, but since the other party dared to make such a guarantee, he must be very confident!" Liu Mansha said with a slight frown.

The elder of the flying flower Valley, Yang Liu, said with a smile, ""Senior Sister, there's always someone better than you. There are many things in the world of cultivation that can't be judged with common sense. Before the deterioration of the cultivation environment, there were so many amazing geniuses in China's cultivation world. Which one of these people's deeds wasn't jaw - dropping?"

Liu Mansha smiled and said, "that's true!" Let's see! If this Qi gathering pill is really of such high quality, I can consider buying it. Xin 'er is preparing to break through to refined Qi level 8, and this Qi gathering pill will come in handy!"

Yu Xin 'er was overjoyed. She quickly stood up and bowed. "Thank you, master!"

Among the three of them, only Yu Xin 'er was a Qi condensation cultivator, so the Qi gathering pill was naturally only useful to her. When Hao Qingsong had finished his introduction, Yu Xin 'er was already very tempted, but she was too embarrassed to say it. Now that Liu Mansha had taken the initiative to say that she was considering participating in the auction, she was naturally overjoyed.

Yu xiner had been in the sect for the shortest amount of time, but her cultivation talent was the highest among Liu Mansha's many disciples. She was only in her 20s this year and had only cultivated for about ten years, yet she had already reached the seventh level of the aura refining realm. Her cultivation was second only to Liu Mansha's first and second disciples. It could be said that her future was boundless.

If he were to buy this gathering Qi pill, he would definitely give it to her first.

The situation in the other private rooms was similar to that of the number 6 private room in the soaring Flower Valley. After hearing Hao Qingsong's words, many sect leaders and elders were tempted.

However, everyone was waiting to see what would happen.

"May I know which fellow Daoist is willing to come and check?" asked Hao Qingsong at this time.

After a short while, a voice came from Room 3, "This old man is Medicine King's Valley's sun Tianfeng. If fellow Daoists have no objections, this old man is willing to be a witness!"

Since the valley of the medicine Masters was assigned to the third private room, they were naturally among the top sects. Sun Tianfeng was an elder of the valley of the medicine Masters, with a cultivation of the middle jiedan stage.

As the name implied, Medicine King's Valley was a sect whose main business was spirit medicine.

It was said that before the deterioration of the cultivation world's environment, Medicine King's Valley was not famous and its strength was not too outstanding. However, with the deterioration of the cultivation environment, the cultivation speed of cultivators became slower and slower. On the other hand, the medicine King's Valley's gradual rise to prominence had affected the spirit grasses and spirit medicines they planted. After all, the sect's accumulation for hundreds of years was very rich. The medicine King's Valley disciples relied on the assistance of spirit medicines to cultivate faster than ordinary cultivators.

Now, Medicine King's Valley was already firmly in the top three in the sect's strength.

Sun Tianfeng, as a mid jiedan stage elder of the valley of the medicine Masters, specialized in his own field, naturally no one had any objections to him being a witness.

Hao Qingsong waited for a moment before saying with a smile, "Since no one has any objections, elder sun, please move to the front stage and personally verify the Qi gathering pill!"

Sun Tianfeng obviously didn't intend to hide it, otherwise he wouldn't have directly spoken in the room just now. The bidding device in the room also had a dialogue function. By pressing the button to speak to the bidding device, the voice could be transmitted to the whole venue. If necessary, he could even use a voice - changing software, so that no one would know who was speaking and which room was it in.

To check the medicine, one needed to show their body, and there was no need to keep the room they were in a secret, so sun Tianfeng walked out of the room directly and went down the stairs from the side of the room, quickly arriving on the stage.

Hao Qingsong stretched out his hand and made an inviting gesture. With a smile, he said, "Elder sun, you can pick any bottle and take a Qi gathering pill at random for inspection. The fellow Daoist who entrusted the auction said that the consumption of this Qi - gathering pill would be on him. Each bottle contained twenty li of Qi - gathering pills, so the bottle that was selected would have a 5% discount on the base price of the final transaction! I won't let the fellow Daoist who is bidding suffer a loss!"

Chapter 2960 The auction of the Qi gathering elixir (1)

"Don't be impatient, sect master Zhao. Good food is never afraid of being late!" Hao Qingsong laughed.

"According to the request of the fellow Daoist who entrusted the auction, and also considering that some fellow Daoists are a little short of money or want to bid for other treasures, these five bottles of Chi - amassing pills will be auctioned off in five batches. Each batch will have one bottle, and each bottle will have twenty pills. This way, more fellow Daoists can participate and help more people."

The auction plan that Hao Qingsong had announced had received the support of quite a few cultivators.

It was not that they did not have enough spirit stones, but that before attending the auction, they usually had treasures that they were interested in and had already prepared their spirit stones to buy them. However, the Qi gathering elixir was extremely attractive. As the saying went, plans could not keep up with changes. It would be a pity if they gave up. The plan to auction separately was exactly what they wanted. They would have the opportunity to buy such a high – Quality Qi gathering pill, and it would not take up too much money. It was the best of both worlds.

“The starting price for each bottle of Chi – amassing pills is 1600 spirit stones, and each increment must be no less than 40 spirit stones!” Fellow Daoists, you should already know the rules of the auction and how to use the auction item, right? If there’s no problem, we’ll start the auction for the first bottle of Qi gathering pills!”

There were 20 Chi – amassing pills in each bottle. The starting price was 1600 spirit stones, which was equivalent to 80 spirit stones for each Chi – amassing pill. This price was higher than Xia ruofei had expected. Luo Qingfeng had set this starting price when he went to communicate with the falling leaves sect in the morning. Xia ruofei had also agreed to it.

Hao Qingsong waited for a while, and seeing that no one had any objections, he announced, “Good! Now, the auction for the first bottle of Qi gathering pills will begin! The auction channel has already opened. Interested fellow Daoists can directly place their bids on the auction device!”

The staff member backstage was also a Fallen Leaf sect disciple, and had some knowledge of computers. He had already set the price increase to 100 spirit stones in the system’s backstage. As soon as Hao Qingsong announced the start of the auction, the staff member opened up the auction channel, so that the cultivators in each private room could directly bid on the auction device.

As soon as Hao Qingsong’s voice fell, the price of 1600 spirit stones on the big screen suddenly jumped to 2000 spirit stones. Moreover, the bidder was from Room 3.

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but be stunned. Like the other cultivators, he subconsciously looked in the direction of Room 3. Just now, sun Tianfeng didn’t hide his identity, so everyone already knew that Room 3 belonged to the valley of the medicine Masters.

Xia ruofei did not expect that the valley of the medicine Masters would be interested in his Chi – amassing pills. They even increased the price by 400 spirit stones all of a sudden. This price was equivalent to 100 spirit stones for each Chi – amassing pill. It was already the base price that Xia ruofei and Luo Qingfeng had decided on when they were discussing yesterday.

As soon as the price was announced, everyone was caught off guard. Some cultivators who were prepared to raise the price a few times to try moved their hands away from the bidding device.

At this time, sun Tianfeng’s hearty laughter came from the third private room, “Fellow Daoists, such a high – Quality Qi gathering pill is very rare, and this old man is also very excited to see it! Therefore, he wanted to buy a bottle and study it. Everyone, there’s no need to worry so much. We’ll increase the price when it’s necessary, it’s a fair competition!”

All the cultivators were speechless when they heard this. People bought Qi gathering pills for the younger generation to assist in their cultivation, but Medicine King’s Valley was really rich! He would just buy a bottle for research ...

However, although sun Tianfeng said that everyone would compete fairly, now that the number three box was already open, and the strength of Medicine King's Valley was there, and sun Tianfeng was even more highly respected, alchemists and alchemists were very popular these days, who could be sure that they wouldn't come to Medicine King's Valley? And even if sun Tianfeng bought this bottle, weren't there still four more bottles? Why offend sun Tianfeng and the valley of medicine Masters for a bottle of Qi gathering pills?

Moreover, the price of 2000 spirit stones was not low. A few years ago, the Qi – gathering elixir that had appeared in the auction was only sold for 60 spirit stones each. This 2000 spirit stones was equivalent to 1000 spirit stones each. Even if this batch of Qi – gathering elixir was of higher quality, everyone felt that this price should be more reasonable.

In that case, why take the risk of offending Medicine King's Valley to compete for this bottle?

Everyone had this idea. Even the top sects who were on par with Medicine King's Valley in strength did not want to make enemies for no reason over such a small matter.

As a result, a very strange situation occurred in the first round of bidding. Hao Qingsong announced the start of the bidding. In total, sun Tianfeng had made a bid once, and after that, no one else made any more bids. The price of 2000 spirit stones was displayed there without moving.

Hao Qingsong also didn't expect that sun Tianfeng would play his Cards Against common sense, causing an awkward silence in the first round of bidding.

Fortunately, his ability to adapt was still relatively strong, and he did not show it on his face. Instead, after waiting for a while, he asked three more times if anyone wanted to raise the bid. Seeing that no one wanted to continue bidding, Hao Qingsong could only smile bitterly in his heart and directly announced the end of the first round of bidding. Medicine King's Valley had won a bottle of Chi – amassing pills for a price of two thousand spirit stones.

"Fellow Daoists, you're really giving me too much face!" Sun Tianfeng said in a clear voice. This old man is grateful!"

"Congratulations to Medicine King's Valley's elder sun for winning a good start!" Hao Qingsong said with a smile.

After saying that, he gestured for the staff to come up and take a bottle of Qi gathering pills. The rules of the auction were very simple. As long as the auction was successful, the staff would send the auction item directly to the private room and the spirit stones would be settled on the spot. The person who entrusted the auction would also receive the Spirit stones immediately.

Of course, the client could also choose to wait for all of his items to be successfully bid for, and then settle the payment in one go.

This was the plan that Xia ruofei had chosen. Anyway, his three items would appear before the storage ring. When all three items were sold out, he would get the spiritual stones back at once. Then, he could use them to compete for the storage ring without any delay.

In room 20, Xia ruofei, Luo Qingfeng, and Li Yifu looked at each other. Xia ruofei did not know whether to laugh or cry. He did not expect such a situation to occur in the first bottle of gathering Qi pill.

However, he was in a good mood. He was neither angry nor depressed because of this. After all, 2000 spiritual stones was a reasonable price. If the other party had really made a starting price and then forcefully revealed his identity so that no one would dare to bid, Xia ruofei would definitely not give in. At most, he would take the initiative to raise the price. After all, he could not sell the gathering Qi pill at a lower price than he had expected.

In any case, even if he bought it for 2000 spiritual stones, according to the rules, he would only be paid 100 spiritual stones to the falling leaves sect. Xia ruofei did not care about this.

Xia ruofei was not afraid of the other party's revenge.

The star Seizer sect was a first – Class sect. Ordinary forces would not dare to provoke them. Furthermore, the worst case scenario was that they would have to escape back to peach source Island. With the Taixu xuanqing formation, Xia ruofei would not have to worry about anything unless the entire cultivation world of Huaxia attacked him together, or even a nascent soul old monster came out.

Although sun Tianfeng had revealed his identity, he had only gone there to help with the medicine testing and had offered a reasonable price. Hence, Xia ruofei had only laughed it off and did not mind it too much.

Very quickly, on the main auction stage, Hao Qingsong took out another bottle of gathering Qi pills and smiled, "Fellow Daoists, let's continue. The auction for the second bottle of Chi – amassing pills will begin immediately. The starting price is still 1600 spirit stones, and each increment must not be less than 40 spirit stones!"

After the auction for the second bottle of Qi gathering pills began, a new price quickly appeared on the big screen: It was 1640 spiritual stones, and it only stayed there for a second or two before it was replaced by 1680 spiritual stones.

On the stage, Hao Qingsong and Xia ruofei in the private room simultaneously heaved a sigh of relief. The auction had finally returned to the normal track.

The price on the big screen kept rising and changing quickly. It was obvious that there were many people participating in the bidding, and everyone was very interested in the Qi gathering pill.

After a short while, the price on the big screen had reached 1880 spirit stones.

In Room 6, Liu Mansha still did not make a bid. Yu xiner could not help but feel a little anxious. However, she did not dare to rush her master. She could only watch the price jump continuously on the screen with a slightly anxious gaze.

When the elder of the flying flower Valley, Yang Liu, saw this, he chuckled and said, "Xiner, don't be anxious! The price is still too low, let them fight for a while!"

Yu Xin 'er blushed and said in a low voice, "This disciple understands."

Liu Mansha turned to look at Yu xiner. The corners of her lips curled up as she said, "Xin 'er, your martial uncle yang is right. You ... Your temperament is not steady enough. This is a great taboo for cultivation! Take a look at those people who bid, which private rooms are they in? The people who are truly competitive haven't even made their move yet!"

“Yes!” Yu Xin ‘er lowered her head and said.

After all, Yu xiner had only cultivated for a short period of time and had not entered the valley to cultivate since she was young. In reality, Yu xiner had always grown up in the secular world. It was only after she went to university that Liu Mansha discovered her outstanding cultivation talent by chance and took her in as a disciple.

Therefore, Yu Xin ‘er’s temperament was still a little bit different from those senior sisters who had been cultivating in the flying flower Valley since they were young.

While they were talking, the price on the big screen had already risen to 2000 spirit stones. After this price, the speed of the bidding slowed down.

With sun Tianfeng’s first bid as a reference, after everyone had reached this price, the bidding was naturally not as enthusiastic.

Besides, some people felt that even if they couldn’t buy this bottle, there were still three more bottles. Why fight to the death?

In fact, Xia ruofei had caught on to everyone’s mentality. By auctioning off the bottles one by one, the more nervous they were, the higher the price would be.

Seeing this, Liu Mansha said indifferently, “It’s almost time, let’s go and compete!”

After Liu Mansha finished speaking, she directly entered the number 2200 into the bidding device and submitted her bid.

The price on the big screen flashed and was updated to 2200 spirit stones. The bidder was from Room 6.

Although they didn’t know which sect room number 6 belonged to, the number of rooms that were so close to the front were usually those large sects. Therefore, some cultivators who were already hesitating whether to continue bidding gave up when they saw the price suddenly rise by 200 spirit stones.
