

God tier Farm 321

Chapter 321: The first step into the overseas market (1)

"The second condition is ... A part of the farm in Australia is to be used as a breeding base for purebreds." Elder Tang said, "I hope that this part of the operation and management will be relatively independent and I will be in charge. In addition, in the future, if you want to change the use of this part of the farm, you must get my consent." The most important thing to elder Tang was the breeding base for purebreds on the farm. As for the rest of the cultivation and breeding, he didn't care at all. It was a good thing to be able to cooperate with Xia ruofei and bring him some economic benefits, but even if he lost money, elder Tang wouldn't care. Xia ruofei replied without hesitation, "no problem!" These two conditions could be written as hard terms in the share transfer agreement! Old man, do you have any other requests besides these two?" "There's nothing else. Oh, right ..." Elder Tang thought of something and added, "there are a dozen or so horses on the farm that I own privately. They're only under the name of the farm, so I have to make it clear to you that I'll transfer their ownership back to my own name before I transfer the shares." After elder Tang finished speaking, he half – jokingly said, "This isn't a transfer of assets!" The dozen or so horses were all the old man's treasures. Each of the world's top horses was worth a lot, and their combined value was definitely far more than the farm's value. Naturally, it was impossible to pack them up as the farm's assets. "Understood!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "old master, I want to have the controlling rights mainly because I want to be able to decide on the operations of planting and breeding on my own. As for the horse racing, you have full authority. Moreover, that horse race originally belonged to you, so it's only right that you transfer it away!" "Then there's no problem!" Elder Tang said happily, "brother Xia, I wish us a happy cooperation!" "Happy cooperation!" Xia ruofei also smiled happily. He was still very interested in the farm that elder Tang owned in Australia. In the past two days, he had searched the internet for news of elder Tang's acquisition of the farm. At that time, all the major web portals had reported about it, and the headlines were basically 'Chinese tycoon in Australia spends a lot of money to acquire a farm' and so on. Hence, Xia ruofei had a basic understanding of this high – Quality farm in the Hunter Valley through the internet. Now that he could control such a large farm, Xia ruofei was naturally very happy. Sooner or later, Tao Yuan farm would break out of China and enter the world. In that case, let this farm in Australia be Tao Yuan farm's first step to the world! After hanging up, Xia ruofei got out of the car with his bag. "Brother Xia, you're back?" Ye Lingyun greeted him with a smile. "Ling Yun, prepare two more dishes for lunch. Let's have a drink!" Xia ruofei nodded. "Alright!" Ye linyun agreed. "Brother Xia, I've contacted some of my former comrades about the recruitment you mentioned last time. There are about five or six people who are interested. What do you think ..." Ye Lingyun continued. "Alright!" Xia ruofei said happily, "let them all come over!" "Aren't there too many people?" Ye linyun asked. "What's so much about five or six people?" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "ask them to come over. As long as they are capable enough, our company will take them all!" "Woof! Thank you, brother Xia!" Ye linyun said gratefully. The comrades he had contacted were Yingluo from poor families. If they had a good future after retiring from the military, they would not have chosen to work for ye Lingyun. After all, Xia ruofei was only hiring security guards. These comrades would not know the potential of the Paradise Corporation. Even if they were Just Security guards now, their future would not be worse than working as white – collar workers in big companies. Xia ruofei was willing to recruit all his comrades into the company. Their poor living conditions would soon improve. Ye Lingyun knew that Xia ruofei paid his employees a high salary. Ye Lingyun was naturally happy to be able to help his comrades who were in trouble. As for the problem of ability, ye Lingyun was not worried at all. These comrades of Yingluo were the backbone of the Army. Their military quality was first – Class, and two of them had even won awards in the group military competition. Ye Lingyun did not dare to take people of average quality to Xia ruofei's company. Xia ruofei was very happy that he had managed to settle the Australian farm today. In the afternoon, he drank a bottle of Eight Immortals drunk in the space with ye Lingyun and went upstairs to rest, feeling a little tipsy. He slept until five in the evening. Xia ruofei's phone rang and woke him up. He picked it up and saw that it was manager Lu. He picked it up immediately. "Hello, manager Lu!" "Xiao Xia, are you on the farm now?" Manager Lu asked. "He's here!" "It's like this, the Bureau chief has already convinced old Mr. Li to come over to your place to recuperate for a period of time." Manager Lu said, "we'll leave now. Please prepare the room and dinner." Xia ruofei sat up on the bed and looked at the clock on the wall. "No problem! I'll be ready soon, so you can come over at any time." "Oh right, manager Lu, will the chief come along?" Xia ruofei asked. "The Bureau chief won't be coming this time. I'll be accompanying old Mr. Li." Manager Lu said, "you also know that the Bureau chief is coming out. It's going to cause a huge commotion ..." Xia ruofei laughed and said, "sure!" I got it. " After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei immediately got up and washed up. Then, he went downstairs to find ye Lingyun and told him to prepare dinner for two or three more people. Then, Xia ruofei started to prepare a room for li Zhifu. For the convenience of the elderly, it was naturally arranged to be on the first floor. The guest room next to ye Lingyun's room was empty, but there were brand new bedsheets and blankets at home, so Xia ruofei quickly tidied up the room. Not long after he finished tidying up the room, manager Lu and Li Zhifu's car arrived at the farm's entrance. After Receiving Manager Lu's call, Xia ruofei went out to greet him. Soon, he saw a blue Buick minivan driving over slowly. "Little Xia, I'll have to trouble you during this time!" Li Zhifu said after he got off the car. "You're welcome, old Mr. Li. I'm more than happy to welcome you!" Xia ruofei said. He then turned to manager Lu and said, "manager Lu, let's go in and have a meal together!" "No, the chief can't do without me," manager Lu shook his head and said, "I'll go back now!" Xiao Xia, I'll have to trouble you to take care of old Mr. Li. " Before Xia ruofei left guling courtyard, he had told them that if li Zhifu was willing to stay on the farm for a while, he could take good care of him. There was no need to arrange for a doctor or nurse. The main reason was that Xia ruofei found it troublesome and inconvenient to live with so many people. "Don't worry!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "old Mr. Li is with me. I'm sure he'll be fine!" "Then I'll be leaving first. Please take care of old Mr. Li's matter!" Manager Lu nodded. After seeing manager Lu off in his car, Xia ruofei smiled at li Zhifu and said, "Old Mr. Li, let's go and eat first!" Li Zhifu didn't move. He stood in the courtyard and looked into Xia ruofei's eyes. He asked calmly, "Xiao Xia, tell me honestly. What illness do I have?"

Chapter 322: How about you take in an apprentice?

Xia ruofei's expression froze and he laughed dryly. "Old Mr. Li, didn't the Bureau chief arrange for you to go to the big hospitals for a check – up? Kidney stones ..." "Little Xia, you don't have to hide it from me." Li Zhifu stared into Xia ruofei's eyes and said, "it's definitely not a good illness, right?" The old man's eyes seemed to be able to see through everything. Xia ruofei felt uncomfortable under his gaze. Xia ruofei was silent for a while before he raised his head and said, "It's colon cancer," Li Zhifu slightly nodded and calmly said, "Thank you for telling me. Let's go and eat!" "Old Mr. Li ..." Xia ruofei wanted to speak but stopped. "Are you wondering why I'm so calm?" li Zhifu asked with a smile. Xia ruofei didn't say anything. Li Zhifu continued, "I've already lived for more than 90 years. Most of my old buddies who were around my age are no longer around. I've lived long enough!" Xia ruofei looked at li Zhifu and asked, "Old Mr. Li, are you ... Not afraid of death at all?" A faint smile appeared on li Zhifu's honest face as he said, ""Who wouldn't be afraid of death? Who didn't want to live a few more days? It's better to live than to die! Besides, my tea – making skills haven't been passed down yet! Little song has just arranged for me to give a vocational lecture, but I can't go now ... But what can I do with this illness?" Li Zhifu had experienced too many ups and downs in his life. During the time when elder song was stationed in xiakeng village, li Zhifu was almost killed by bandits hiding in the mountains several times. He even fell off a cliff once. After experiencing so much, he had become indifferent to life and death. Xia ruofei was also slightly moved. He said seriously, ""Mr. Li, if you trust me, you can stay at my farm. I'll treat you with traditional Chinese medicine. Although I can't guarantee what effect it will have, I can still alleviate your condition." Li Zhifu nodded with a smile and said, ""Then I'll have to trouble you, little Xia." "You're too polite." Xia ruofei said, ""let's go in and eat!" Xia ruofei led Li Zhifu into the mansion and introduced him to ye Lingyun. Then, the three of them sat down for dinner. After the meal, Xia ruofei showed li Zhifu the room that was prepared for him. Li Zhifu was not particular about this and expressed his gratitude to Xia ruofei very politely. Xia ruofei was still feeling uneasy at first. After all, elder song had told him to keep his condition a secret from li Zhifu. However, he had told the truth just now. However, li Zhifu did not seem to be affected at all. He was still in a good mood and was fiddling with Xia ruofei's unprofessional tea set in the living room. Then, he stood in front of the huge fish tank and admired the pair of Blood Dragons. He even let out a few words of praise. Xia ruofei was slightly relieved. It seemed that this old man's mentality was really good. When they were at the Gu Ling courtyard, Xia ruofei had prepared four portions of Chinese medicine. Li Zhifu had only taken one at noon and had brought the remaining three portions. Hence, Xia ruofei took out a sealed Chinese medicine bag from the refrigerator. He poured out the Chinese medicine and heated it up. After li Zhifu finished it, he chatted with him for a while before going upstairs to his room. The next morning, Xia ruofei went downstairs and saw li Zhifu strolling in the yard with his hands behind his back. He was even watching ye Lingyun train with great interest. "Old Mr. Li, you're up so early!" Xia ruofei smiled and greeted him. "The older you get, the less you sleep. You woke up before dawn!" Li Zhifu chuckled. Then, li Zhifu asked again, ""Xiao Xia, I walked around your farm this morning and saw that there was still a large area of empty land on the mountain behind!" Why don't you plant some tea trees?" Xia ruofei said, ""old Mr. Li, I've already reserved the fruit tree seedlings. I'm planning to plant the cherry trees on the mountain." Besides ... The climate and environment of the three mountains are not suitable for planting tea trees!" "That's true ..." Li Zhifu said with a slight disappointment. Li Zhifu's love for tea leaves came from his bones, especially after he learned that he was terminally ill. He was even more brooding about not being able to pass on his unique tea – making skills. Xia ruofei could tell. However, he knew that since he had treated li Zhifu, li Zhifu's life would not be in danger. As for his tea – making skills, he could find a suitable disciple to pass them on to after he recovered. Hence, Xia ruofei did not say much to li Zhifu to comfort him. However, when Xia ruofei thought of passing down the tea – making skills, he suddenly had an idea. "Old Mr. Li, you must really want to pass down your tea – making skills!" Xia ruofei said to li Zhifu. "Yeah! Unfortunately, time waits for no one!" Li Zhifu said with a bitter smile. "Old man, I have a suggestion ..." Xia ruofei said with a smile. No matter how he looked at it, it seemed like there was a conspiracy. "What suggestion?" li Zhifu asked. Xia ruofei turned to ye Lingyun, who was doing push – ups on the ground, and said, ""Ling Yun! Get up, get up ..." Ye Lingyun immediately stood up with both hands and jogged to Xia ruofei. He asked, ""Brother Xia, what's the matter?" Xia ruofei said seriously, ""attention!" Raise your head, stick out your chest, and suck in your stomach! Don't tell me you've forgotten how to stand after being discharged from the Army!" Ye Lingyun quickly stood up straight and placed his hands on the outside of his thighs. However, he looked puzzled as he did not know what Xia ruofei was up to so early in the morning. Xia ruofei turned around and smiled at Li Zhifu.””Mr. Li, what do you think about Ling Yun being your disciple?” Ye linyun was confused and quickly asked,””Brother Xia, what disciple?” Li Zhifu didn’t know whether to laugh or cry as he said,”Little Xia, I don’t accept disciples randomly. It’s useless no matter how straight you tell him to stand! Tea – making requires talent. ” “How do you know he doesn’t have the talent if you don’t try?” Xia ruofei smiled and said,”since you’re staying at my farm and have nothing to do, why don’t you teach Ling Yun?” “Brother Xia, what’s going on?” ye linyun couldn’t help but ask. “Don’t say anything. ” Xia ruofei said,”I’m begging old Mr. Li to take me in as his disciple! If you can learn old Mr. Li’s unique skill, you won’t starve to death no matter where you go!” “I’m not thinking of going out!” Ye linyun asked curiously,”I’m doing well in the company. Why would I go out?” “I’m just making an analogy!” Xia ruofei widened his eyes and said,”don’t you know that there’s no pressure in having more skills? Don’t talk!” “Oh ...” Xia ruofei was thinking about the tea trees that he had planted in the boundless space. They would soon produce tea leaves. If ye Lingyun could learn how to make tea from Li Zhifu, he would not have to worry about making tea leaves in the future. Ye linyun was someone that could be trusted completely. “Little Xia, it’s a serious matter to take in a disciple. You can’t joke about it,” said Li Zhifu with a bitter smile. “Mr. Li, I’m not joking.” Xia ruofei said,”if you feel that it’s not appropriate to take him in as a disciple, then don’t hold the ceremony for now. You can teach Ling Yun how to make tea when you’re bored. That should be fine, right?” Then, Xia ruofei said in a bewitching tone,””Who knows, maybe Ling Yun has a gift for making tea? Won’t You Be able to find an inheritor with your unique skill?” Li Zhifu’s face showed a slight hint of interest.

Chapter 323: Preaching and teaching (1)

Xia ruofei struck while the iron was hot and said,””Mr. Li, my farm is so isolated. It’s so boring for you to stay here. I’ll let Ling Yun accompany you more. If you’re interested, you can give him some pointers and kill time!” Li Zhifu was finally convinced by Xia ruofei’s words. He looked at ye Lingyun and asked,”Little ye, are you willing to learn how to make rock tea from me?” Ye Lingyun scratched his head and looked at Xia ruofei.””If brother Xia wants me to learn, I’ll learn.” Xia ruofei said angrily,”what are you saying?! You’re the one who really wants to learn tea – making from old Mr. Li!” “Yes, yes, yes, Mr. Li, I’d like to learn how to make tea from you!” Ye Lingyun quickly replied. Li Zhifu couldn’t help but roll his eyes and said,”Alright, alright! He couldn’t even act it out! Xiao Xia is right. I have nothing to do anyway, and I don’t have many days left. If someone is willing to learn, I’ll teach them ...” As Li Zhifu spoke, he couldn’t help but reveal a trace of desolation. Xia ruofei saw it all. Although he knew that Li Zhifu would not “not have many days left”, he would not expose him. Li Zhifu then said seriously,”Xiao Ye, since I’ve promised you, I’ll definitely teach you well. But you must also learn it seriously. The production process of Da Hong Pao has been passed down for hundreds of years. It’s still a National Intangible Cultural Heritage now. There are many details in it. It’s impossible to learn it in three days.” “Yes!” Ye linyun quickly replied. I’ll definitely study hard. ” Li Zhifu nodded and said,”yeah, I’ll give you a general overview today!” If you really want to learn it, every process will require a lot of effort!” “Old Mr. Li, please sit down and talk slowly!” Xia ruofei said hurriedly. Xia ruofei led Li Zhifu to the stone bench in the courtyard and sat down. He then said to ye Lingyun,””Ling Yun, why don’t you go and get some water for old Mr. Li?” Ye Lingyun jogged back to the mansion and poured Li Zhifu a glass of water. Li Zhifu took the cup and put it on the stone table beside him. Then, he motioned for ye Lingyun to sit down. He cleared his throat and said,””Da Hong Pao is a type of rock tea. The production process of rock tea is between black tea and green tea, and it is also the most complicated one. Our older generation has summed up five sentences of smooth – spoken eloquence. You can remember them first.” Ye Lingyun immediately perked up his ears to listen. “First pick, second pour green, third shake, fourth circle water, fifth stir – fry, sixth rub gold, seventh dry, eighth pick stem, nine times ten sieve.” Li Zhifu said slowly, “every sentence in these few sentences contains complicated procedures. Specifically, there are nearly 20 procedures such as picking, pouring, drying, making, frying, kneading, re – frying, re – kneading, primary baking, raising the dough, drying, picking, re – baking, stewing, wrapping, adding fire, packing the tea leaves, carefully screening, piling, and so on ...” Although ye Lingyun was confused by these complicated processes, he still listened carefully and tried hard to remember. Li Zhifu was quite satisfied with ye Lingyun’s learning attitude. After a brief introduction of the tea – making process, he said, “Little ye, it doesn’t matter if you can’t remember it now. Later on, I’ll teach you the procedures one by one. At that time, you’ll naturally master it.” “Yes, I understand,” ye linyun nodded. Li Zhifu continued, “the harvesting of Da Hong Pao is different from that of ordinary red and green tea. The standard for picking fresh leaves is for the new shoot and leaves to mature. There are no leaves, no damage, fresh, and uniform.” The fresh leaves could not be too tender, or the tea would have a low fragrance and a bitter taste. It can’t be too old either, otherwise the taste will be light and the fragrance will be poor ...” Li Zhifu explained, and ye Lingyun listened very carefully. When the honest – looking 90 – year – old farmer talked about the tea – making process, he had a very solemn expression on his face. The process was deeply imprinted in his mind, and it seemed like a sacred ceremony to him. Xia ruofei looked at the old man and the young man. He did not disturb them. He quietly got up and quietly returned to the villa. He went straight to the kitchen and started to prepare breakfast. In the past, this was ye Lingyun’s job, but today, Xia ruofei did it personally as he did not want to disturb ye Lingyun’s class. When Xia ruofei placed breakfast on the table, he saw that the old man and the young man were still sitting on the stone bench in the courtyard. It was mainly li Zhifu who was talking. Ye Lingyun would occasionally ask a few questions. Considering that li Zhifu had to take his medicine after dinner, Xia ruofei walked over and said, “Old Mr. Li, let’s have breakfast first! You can continue after you’re done.” Li Zhifu didn’t even turn his head as he waved his hand and said, “There’s no rush to eat. I’ll tell Xiao Ye about the green cooking process first.” Xia ruofei could not help but smile bitterly. This old man was a little reluctant to teach just now, but why couldn’t he stop now? Xia ruofei said, “old Mr. Li, let’s eat first!” You still have to take your medicine after dinner!” Then, Xia ruofei gave ye Lingyun a look. “Teacher, let’s continue after dinner!” Ye linyun said hurriedly. Ye Lingyun had already changed the way he addressed li Zhifu to “teacher”. At first, he wanted to address him as “master”, but li Zhifu said that acknowledging a master was a very formal matter. He had yet to decide on taking ye Lingyun as his disciple. To put it bluntly, li Zhifu still wanted to observe ye Lingyun! If ye Lingyun didn’t have the talent in this area, or if his learning attitude wasn’t correct, li Zhifu would rather bring his own unique skill into the yellow Earth than take in a disciple casually. Hence, ye Lingyun decided to compromise and called li Zhifu “teacher”. Li Zhifu also knew that these two young men were doing this for his own good. He could only shake his head helplessly, stand up, and mumble, “It doesn’t really matter if you take medicine or not ...” However, he still returned to the restaurant with Xia ruofei. After breakfast, li Zhifu finished the Chinese medicine prepared by Xia ruofei in a few gulps. Then, he pulled ye Lingyun to continue his lesson. “Teacher, I ... I should go to the farm to patrol ...” Ye linyun said with a troubled expression. “Ling Yun, just focus on your lessons with old Mr. Li. Cao and the others are all around the farm during the day. You don’t have to patrol,” Xia ruofei said hurriedly. “Brother Xia, how can we do that?” “What’s wrong?” Xia ruofei said, “I’ll let lightning out. It’s smart! If any bad guys break in, it will definitely be able to deal with them!” Since Xia ruofei had already put it that way, ye Lingyun could only agree. Hence, li Zhifu treated the living room as a classroom and continued to teach ye Lingyun. Ye Lingyun took out a notebook from his room and jotted down the key points of li Zhifu's lecture. Xia ruofei quietly left the villa and was ready to go to the greenhouse and the construction site for an inspection. Just as he walked out of the villa, the phone in his pocket rang.

Chapter 324: I also have an overseas business (1)

The call was from Grandpa Tang He – after they had contacted each other yesterday – Grandpa Tang had saved Xia ruofei's number. "Good Morning, old master Tang!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "Brother Xia, do you have time this morning?" Elder Tang asked, "let's find a place to finalize the details of our cooperation!" "No problem!" Xia ruofei asked, "which hotel are you staying at? I'll come to you now!" "The Shangri – La in the city. Call me when you arrive!" Said elder Tang. "Alright!" Xia ruofei hung up the phone and stopped his inspection. Cao tieshu was very responsible anyway. The greenhouse was well taken care of, and he didn't have to worry about the construction site. Liang Weimin didn't know how to thank Xia ruofei. Yesterday, he had personally called manager li and instructed him to use the most serious attitude to create a high – Quality project. Therefore, manager li worked hard and stayed at the construction site all day. He didn't even work so hard to build a house for his family. Half an hour later, Xia ruofei arrived at the Shangri – La hotel in the Knight XV SUV. In the reception area of the Presidential Suite, Xia ruofei and elder Tang were discussing the details of the cooperation with the Australian farms. Elder Tang's assistant was in charge of taking notes. Because both sides had reached a consensus, there were almost no objections to some of the details, and they were quickly finalized. The two parties agreed that Grandpa Tang He's paddinck farm in New South Wales, Australia, would be discounted at 40 million US dollars. Xia ruofei would invest 20.4 million US dollars and take 51% of the shares. Of which, 10 million was cash investment, 5 million was technical investment, and the remaining 5.4 million was deducted from the farm's dividends. Originally, Xia ruofei had planned to give up the 5 million USD investment, but elder Tang had insisted. After Xia ruofei's repeated rejections, elder Tang finally revealed his reason. It turned out that after the Phoebe zhennan material had been transported to the warehouse that Liang Weimin had rented near Changping Pier, elder Tang had asked Liang Weimin to find an experienced Carpenter to remove the remaining bark and edges of the material, revealing the true appearance of the material. The result made old master Tang extremely happy. In addition to the cloud patterns that were revealed when he "opened the window" that day, there were even more precious wave patterns on the material. Although it was not as rare as the highest quality wave patterns, it still increased the value of the entire material greatly. Moreover, this was only the outer part. If it was taken out and made into a plate, the inner lines might be even more surprising. Elder Tang had bought this material to make a longevity material for himself, so the rarer it was, the happier he was. Especially this kind of rare material, it couldn't be bought with money. Hence, elder Tang felt that buying it for 10 million USD seemed to be a great bargain. Hence, he decided to compensate Xia ruofei for the farm cooperation. Since elder Tang had already made it clear, Xia ruofei could not reject him and agreed. In addition, the two sides also agreed to arrange for Xia ruoxin to fly to Australia to inspect the farm in the near future. Then, the first batch of vegetable seeds would be supplied to Taoyuan, and the business would gradually expand to other agricultural products. Xia ruofei had invested in paddinke farm under paradise corporation's name, which meant that there were two major shareholders of paddinke farm, one being paradise Corporation and the other being Tang He's grandfather. Therefore, in a sense, it could be said that patdink farm would become a subsidiary farm of paradise Corporation, because paradise Corporation was the major shareholder! The two also agreed to change the name of Paradise Farm, but the Westerners certainly didn't understand the source of the word "paradise," so the two discussed changing the name of padink farm to "Paradise Farm," which had a similar meaning to Paradise Farm. At the same time, they would register the brand "paradise." In the future, the agricultural products sold by paradise company in the West would be crowned with this new name. The two of them quickly finalized some details. Elder Tang's assistant quickly added the details of their discussion into the contract and printed it out. This included the rights of elder Tang to race horses on the farm and the right to operate the breeding base for purebreds. Paradise Corporation had to ensure that Paradise Farm could cultivate vegetables of the same quality as paradise vegetables sold in China. All of these were written in the contract. The two of them read through it carefully and felt that there were no problems, so they signed it directly. Elder Tang had bought the farm under his own name, so all he needed was his signature and seal. Xia ruofei had come prepared and had brought the company's seal with him, so the two signed a formal contract. After the contract was signed, Xia ruofei returned the ten million US dollars check to elder Tang. Elder Tang took the check and tore it into pieces. The money was still in his account, so he just had to tear the check. "Happy cooperation!" Elder Tang extended his hand to Xia ruofei happily. "In the future, when I go to Australia for a vacation, I can eat those delicious paradise vegetables at any time. Oh, no, we should call them celestial realm brand vegetables!" In elder Tang's eyes, this was the most important point of their cooperation. As for how much the farm could earn, he didn't really care. Xia ruofei also laughed and said, "After all the vegetables are planted on the farms in Australia, you can send a plane over to have them transported by air at any time! You're not short of money anyway ..." Elder Tang raised his head and laughed. The assistant poured a glass of red wine for each of them. After they clinked their glasses, Xia ruofei took a small sip and asked, "Old man, are you going back to United States?" "Yeah!" Elder Tang nodded. I was supposed to leave this afternoon, but in order to finalize the cooperation with brother Xia, I pushed it back by a day. "The appraisal of the farm in Australia and the relevant documents would take time, so elder Tang could only delay his trip. "By the way, old man, who have you decided to bring back to United States with you?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile. "It's basically settled. Xiaojun and Lil Chao, the two children, will be coming back with me. " Elder Tang smiled and said, "I will train them well. First, I will let them gain experience in the company's basic positions. After that...It will all depend on their performance!" Xia ruofei was a little surprised. He knew that Liang Qichao was not very willing to go to United States, and he did not know how Liang Weimin had convinced him. As for Liang Xiaojun, Xia ruofei knew that he was capable. Otherwise, he would not have been able to get into a prestigious school and even get an MBA in the United States. However, Xia ruofei did not have a good impression of this person. He felt that his character was average. Elder Tang probably wanted to create a competitive atmosphere, so he brought both of them back to United States. However, this was elder Tang's private matter and Xia ruofei was just asking casually. Naturally, he would not say much. Xia ruofei was curious about why Liang Qichao suddenly changed his mind and agreed to go to the US. So, after he left elder Tang's place, Xia ruofei took out his phone and called Liang Qichao.

Chapter 325: I'll give you a tip_1

"RUO Fei ..." Just as Xia ruofei had expected, Liang Qichao's voice sounded listless. He must have had some reservations about going to America. At this moment, the elevator arrived. As Xia ruofei entered the elevator, he laughed and said, "Brother Liang, I heard that you've been chosen by elder Tang. Congratulations!" "Brother, if you didn't mention this, we could still be friends ..." Liang Qichao said gloomily. Xia ruofei laughed. The elevator arrived at the underground parking lot. Xia ruofei walked out of the elevator and walked towards his car. He asked, "Brother Liang, I'm very curious as to how uncle Liang managed to convince you." "How can I convince you? How can I convince him?" Liang Qichao shouted angrily, "he forced me! It's the oppression of feudal patriarchy!" Then, Liang Qichao "cried" and complained about his father, Liang Weimin, for a few minutes. Xia ruofei was overjoyed and listened with a smile. However, he could tell the whole story from Liang Qichao's words. It turned out that in order to get Liang Qichao to agree to go to United States, Liang Weimin had not only used all the best methods to deal with rich second generation heirs, such as freezing credit cards, stopping the distribution of pocket money, forbidding him from going out, and so on, but he had also used an even more ruthless method. Liang Weimin told Liang Qichao that if he didn't want to go to United States, he had to arrange his marriage immediately. It turned out that Liang Qichao had a "fiancée" in name, but she was actually the daughter of an old friend of Liang Weimin's. At the same time, this old friend was also a business partner of Liang Weimin's. This marriage had been decided when the two of them had a drink together. Naturally, Liang Qichao was strongly against it. Moreover, the girl had been studying abroad, so Liang Weimin did not force Liang Qichao to do anything. However, two months ago, this girl had returned to the country and they had met. What Liang Qichao did not expect was that this female master's student who had returned from abroad had fallen for him for some reason. She had actually taken the initiative to attack him, but Liang Qichao did not have any feelings for her at all. Moreover, the two families had been friends for generations, and the elders of both sides had made a verbal agreement, which made Liang Qichao's head hurt even more. Now, Liang Weimin was taking the opportunity to bring up the past. He said that if Liang Qichao stayed in the country, they could get married. Liang Qichao thought about it. His father was in control of his finances, and he had nowhere to run to. On top of that, that girl was still chasing after him. Liang Qichao's head hurt when he thought about it. It was a bad thing for both of them, so he might as well hide in the United States. And so, Liang Weimin happily got his way. "Ruofei, I'm going to the United States tomorrow," Liang Qichao said. "I don't know when we'll see each other again. Why don't we have a drink at noon?" "Sure!" Xia ruofei replied readily, "where are you now? Why don't I decide the place!" "Don't, don't, don't. It's boring to eat outside!" Liang Qichao said, "just come to my succulent stall! I'm handing over my work here! I'll ask the chef in the canteen to make some dishes for us, and we can have a drink in my office ... By the way, after my dad came back, he praised the white wine you brewed. Can you bring two bottles over at noon?" "No problem!" Xia ruofei said, "wait for me. I'll be right there ..." Xia ruofei got into the car and took out a few bottles of aged wine Eight Immortals from his storage space. He then started the car and left the Shangri-La hotel, heading straight for the immortal meat stall in the Anhua District. After parking the car in front of the office building of the immortal meat stall, Xia ruofei walked to Liang Qichao's office with wine in his hand. Liang Qichao was lying on his desk in a daze. When he saw Xia ruofei come in, he raised his eyes and said listlessly, "They're coming! Have a seat ..." Xia ruofei smiled and placed the wine on the coffee table. He sat down and said, "Brother Liang, people are all happy when they go abroad. Why do you feel like you're going through hell?" Liang Qichao rolled his eyes and said, "what's so good about going abroad?" He was unfamiliar with the people and the place, and he had to work at his grandfather's company. How could he be as free as he was in the country? He drank the wine and soaked in the girls' bath ... Sigh! The good days are gone forever!" Liang Qichao said as he stood up and walked to the sofa. He passed a cigarette to Xia ruofei and lit one up for himself. He took a deep puff and sat down beside Xia ruofei. "Ruofei, the food and wine will be here soon. Have a few drinks with me at noon! We won't have many chances to drink in the future!" "We'll have plenty of time to drink when you return home in glory!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "Sigh ... It's easier said than done!"

Liang Qichao shook his head with a bitter smile. At this moment, the chef from the canteen walked into the office with a tray and placed the dishes on the coffee table one by one. After running back and forth three times, the coffee table was almost full. Xia ruofei did a rough count and found that there were at least ten dishes. "Brother Liang, it's just the two of us drinking. Why did you bring so many dishes?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile. "I heard that it's hard to eat Chinese food overseas." Liang Qichao said seriously, "I want to eat more before I go abroad ..." Xia ruofei laughed, "who did you hear that from?" There are Chinatown everywhere in the United States, and there's no difference between living in the Chinese community and living in China. I heard that some people can't even speak a word of English and still live there for the rest of their lives!" Xia ruofei realized that Liang Qichao was still very resistant to going to United States, so he said some comforting words while drinking. However, it did not seem to be of much use. Liang Qichao did not seem to be interested. Even the Eight Immortals wine was tasteless to him. Xia ruofei thought for a while and clinked his glass with Liang Qichao's. He finished the wine in his glass and said, "Brother Liang, I heard from elder Tang that you'll be going to United States with Liang Xiaojun! Then you can't do it in your current state! You've already lost to him before you even go. If you can't beat him in any way in the United States, Won't You Be embarrassing uncle Liang?" "Liang Xiaojun was originally a business administration major, and he even went to the United States to study. He even interned at my maternal grandfather's company. How can I compete with him when he has such a high starting point ..." Liang Qichao said, annoyed. "Even so, you can't just throw the pot to the ground!" Xia ruofei said, "Liang Xiaojun is highly educated, but he's not human! And how long had he been in society? He may be better than you in theory, but in terms of actual combat, you've already started your own business for so many years, you might not lose to him, right?" Liang Qichao shook his head and said, "ruofei, in the year that Liang Xiaojun has returned to the country, he has completed a few big projects for his father's company. He is actually quite capable." Xia ruofei muttered to himself for a while. Suddenly, his eyes lit up and he chuckled. "Brother Liang, I have a suggestion ..." "Go ahead," "I heard from elder Tang that after you arrive in the United States, you will go to their company's basic level positions to train." Xia ruofei said, "then ... Why don't you apply to the old man and go to Paradise Farm in Australia?"

Chapter 326: The overseas team (1)

"Paradise Farm?" Liang Qichao didn't react for a moment. "It's the paddock farm that I worked with elder Tang on in the Hunter Valley in Australia!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "after our cooperation, we have decided to change the name to Paradise Farm!" "Woof! This name sure is loud!" Liang Qichao said with a smile. Then he asked in confusion, "but ... What can I do at the farm?" "Brother Liang, listen to my analysis!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "compared to living under the old man's nose in the United States and competing with Liang Xiaojun, wouldn't you be more carefree in Australia? Just think about it! Australia's vast farms, the scenery of the countryside, and no one is taking care of you ..." Xia ruofei's words were full of temptation, and Liang Qichao couldn't help but show a trace of fascination. However, he quickly regained his senses and said, "Ruofei, that's not right! If I go to Australia and Liang Xiaojun stays in the United States, won't I lose for sure? His Foundation is better than mine. If he goes to the old man's big company and I go to the farm, my starting point will be so much lower than his. How can I compare with him? And I heard that the return on investment for the farms in Australia is very low. It's hard for me to achieve any results in the past." Xia ruofei smiled. "The average farm has a low return on investment. Since I've already invested in it and I'm about to introduce paradise vegetables to Australia, do you think it'll be difficult to produce results?" Brother Liang, let me tell you, even if Liang Xiaojun stayed in the United States, he would still have to start from a basic position. What kind of outstanding results can he produce in a short time?" Xia ruofei paused for a moment and continued,""But you're different. Think about it. You've been running an immortal meat stall for many years, so you must have a natural advantage in running a farm! You said that you didn't use your strengths and instead did things you weren't good at. Do you think you can become a Wall Street elite if you go to the United States? A different profession is like a mountain!" "You're right, but ..." Liang Qichao hesitated."The situation in Australia is different from our country. Some of my past experiences might not be of use there!" "You'll have to rely on yourself!" Xia ruofei said,"I think the difference between Australia and China is mainly in the laws and regulations. I heard that they have clear regulations and restrictions on farm management, but these things should not be difficult to grasp as long as you study hard! Besides, you're not the only one there. Doesn't elder Tang have a professional team to manage the farm? If you can go over, just point out the general direction." Xia ruofei took a sip of his wine and continued,""I can tell you clearly that Paradise Farm will soon enter a stage of rapid development. When my paradise vegetables are introduced to the farm, Paradise Farm's performance will see a sharp leap, and even elder Tang might be shocked. And at that time, Liang Xiaojun might still be at the bottom of the company! Wouldn't it be clear who's better?" Liang Qichao was finally moved by Xia ruofei's words. He thought over Xia ruofei's words seriously and felt that they made sense. If he really went to the United States to compete with Liang Xiaojun, who had an MBA from a famous university, he would probably lose without a doubt as he was a graduate from a diploma mill and barely passed his English. If it was like what Xia ruofei had said, and he went to Australia to run a farm, it might really be a great idea! With that thought in mind, Liang Qichao's attitude changed. However, he soon started to worry about his personal gains and losses. He frowned and said,"ruofei, even if I wanted to go to Australia ... My cousin – grandfather might not agree!" His original intention was to let Liang Xiaojun and I follow him so that he could achieve the purpose of learning, training, and observing. If he lets me go to Australia alone, wouldn't that go against his original intentions?" Liang Qichao paused and continued,""And as far as I know, paddinke ... Uh, Paradise Farm is an investment in my cousin's name, not an asset under his company. Would he agree to send me there?" "Brother Liang, you don't have to worry about this," Xia ruofei said confidently."I believe that as long as you bring it up, elder Tang will most likely agree." "Really?" Liang Qichao said in surprise,"ruofei, why are you so confident?" Xia ruofei chuckled."If you believe me, you can go and tell the old man. You'll know when the time comes. I'm not lying to you today." And I promise, as long as you work hard and manage it well, you will never regret going to the Australian farm!" The reason why Xia ruofei was so confident was not because he wanted to talk to elder Tang about Liang Qichao. He had said these words entirely out of an accurate judgment of the entire situation. As the saying went,"concern is confusion". Liang Qichao could not see the situation clearly. Xia ruofei was a bystander, but he had already analyzed it thoroughly. Xia ruofei and elder Tang had already signed the contract. Now that he was the major shareholder of Paradise Farm, the management team that elder Tang had previously appointed might not be suitable anymore. After all, Xia ruofei was the major shareholder. If he still used the same team, elder Tang would definitely consider Xia ruofei's feelings and be worried that Xia ruofei would still think that he wanted to control the decision – making of the farm. Therefore, he definitely needed to make some adjustments to the management team. At the very least, he needed to appoint a new person in charge in Australia and let the new person in charge lead the management team. The person in charge had to be someone that both parties could trust, especially Xia ruofei. Liang Qichao was undoubtedly the most suitable candidate. Although elder Tang's original intention was to let Liang Qichao and Liang Xiaojun start from the bottom, the farm in Australia only had a total of 40 to 50 million USD in assets. In elder Tang's eyes, it was no different from the small companies he had casually invested in before. Appointing Liang Qichao as the person – in – charge of a small company of this level was already a very low position in elder Tang's eyes. So, if Liang Qichao were to take the initiative to go to the Australian farm, elder Tang would most likely agree. Liang Qichao gritted his teeth and said, "alright!" I'll listen to you!" Then, he pondered for a moment and said, "I'd better go to the United States first and then talk to my cousin about this! Anyway, even if he doesn't agree, I'll have already escaped from my dad's evil clutches. At most, I'll lose to Liang Xiaojun and lose some face!" "Haha!" Xia ruofei laughed. "It seems like your fear of your fiancée far exceeds your desire for freedom!" "Don't mention the words "yet ..."" Liang Qichao said with an awkward expression, "I get goosebumps when I hear that ..." Xia ruofei raised his head and laughed. He then raised his glass and said, "Come, brother Liang, let me give you a toast to send you off. I wish you a safe journey and a smooth journey in Australia!" "RUO Fei, I'll take your blessings!" Liang Qichao said, "come on, brother. Cheers!" "Cheers!"

Chapter 327: Qingxue is here (1)

Xia ruofei drank with Liang Qichao until two in the afternoon before leaving. Liang Qichao found a substitute driver for Xia ruofei. When the driver arrived at the immortal meat stall, he almost drooled when he saw Knight XV. When he heard that this limited – edition monster – Level off – Road vehicle was his driver, his eyes lit up. He repeatedly said that this ride was free, and that it would be enough as long as he could satisfy his driving addiction. Xia ruofei got into the car and sat in the front passenger seat. After fastening his seat belt, he waved goodbye to Liang Qichao. Then, the substitute driver started the Knight XV off – Road vehicle with an excited face. Looking at the driver's condition, Xia ruofei could not help but worry. He quickly reminded him to drive carefully. Along the way, the designated driver kept saying that he had been a designated driver for two or three years and had driven many luxury cars, but this was the first time he had encountered Knight XV. He kept saying that he was lucky. Xia ruofei was a little tipsy and only responded to him with a few words. Soon, the car arrived at Taoyuan farm. The designated driver insisted on not charging, so Xia ruofei could only smile and express his gratitude. The traffic at Taoyuan farm was not very convenient. Xia ruofei had wanted ye Lingyun to drive the designated driver to the intersection, but li Zhifu was giving ye Lingyun a lecture. Hence, Xia ruofei called pang Hao over and asked him to drive the designated driver to the National Highway outside the farm. There were still many buses passing by there, so it would not be a problem to return to the Urban area. Pang Hao had just gotten his driver's license not long ago and was still addicted to driving, so he took his car keys excitedly, got into the pickup truck, and left the villa with the designated driver. Xia ruofei looked at the old and the young sitting in the courtyard of the villa. The spring afternoon's warm sun shone on them. Lightning was also lazily lying by ye Lingyun's feet. Li Zhifu was explaining the tea – making skills non – stop while ye Lingyun was listening attentively. From time to time, he would take notes in his notebook. It was a very harmonious and warm scene. Xia ruofei did not go over to disturb them. He walked straight into the villa. He had drunk a small pound of white wine in the afternoon. At this time, he felt a little dizzy and was ready to go back to his room to take an afternoon nap. Just as Xia ruofei entered the villa, he heard the sound of an engine behind him. Xia ruofei did not need to turn around to know that it was the sound of a Porsche 911 engine. He turned around with a face full of joy. Sure enough, an orange car flashed by, and the Porsche 911 stopped steadily next to the Knight XV. It was as if a delicate woman was standing next to a muscular man. "Qingxue!" Xia ruofei happily took two steps forward and greeted him. The smile on Ling Qingxue's face gradually spread. She turned around, closed the car door, and walked towards Xia ruofei. After seeing ye Lingyun, Ling Qingxue first greeted him, then walked towards Xia ruofei step by step, smiling at him. Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "Come in, come in ..." With that, Xia ruofei reached out to hold Ling Qingxue's hand. However, Ling Qingxue dodged it cleverly and smiled at Xia ruofei mischievously. Then, she flashed past Xia ruofei and entered the villa first. Xia ruofei felt a fragrant breeze and could not help but think of the last time the two of them were in Ling Qingxue's boudoir in the Linjiang villa. He could not help but feel a rush of excitement. He quickly followed. As soon as they entered the house, Xia ruofei could not help but hug Ling Qingxue's slender waist tightly from behind. He buried his head in Ling Qingxue's fragrant hair and took a deep breath greedily. Xia ruofei's breath made Ling Qingxue's neck itch. She couldn't help but giggle and twist her body. She said coyly, "Don't mess around ..." "Wife, I've missed you so much ..." Xia ruofei said with a chuckle. As he spoke, he held Ling Qingxue's hand and led her upstairs. Ling Qingxue smiled and tried to pull her hand back. She said, "Why are you going upstairs? I have something to talk to you about!" "Let's go back to the room and talk!" Xia ruofei held onto Ling Qingxue's hands tightly and said, "don't disturb Ling Yun's class." Ling Qingxue had also noticed ye Lingyun and Li Zhifu. After hearing Xia ruofei's words, she couldn't help but ask curiously, "Class? What class? That old man is the teacher you found for ye linyun? What does he teach?" Xia ruofei held Ling Qingxue's hand as they walked up the stairs. He smiled and said, "That old man is a tea master and is very famous on Mount Wu Yi! If he were to personally produce ordinary Da Hong Pao tea leaves, the value of the tea leaves would be doubled!" "So powerful!" Ling Qingxue asked, "you want ye Lingyun to have tea with this old man?" "Yup!" Xia ruofei said, "after he learns it, I'll have a free tea – making master! Moreover, he's an expert from a famous sect, hehe ..." Ling Qingxue rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and said, "Unscrupulous merchant ..." At this moment, Ling Qingxue realized that the two of them had unknowingly arrived at the door of Xia ruofei's bedroom. She could not help but reveal a trace of nervousness and shyness on her face. Xia ruofei opened the door and walked into the bedroom with Ling Qingxue in his arms. Then, he turned around and locked the door. He turned around and hugged Ling Qingxue tightly. Ling Qingxue moaned and weakly struggled for a bit, then said in a low voice, "Ruofei, don't mess around! I have something to talk to you about ... My dad ... My dad's acquisition of the winery is almost done. He ... He asked me to bring the contract over for you to sign ..." As Ling Qingxue spoke, she reached into her bag. Xia ruofei grabbed Ling Qingxue's small hand in an overbearing manner. He stared at Ling Qingxue's beautiful face with a burning gaze and said, "There's no hurry to sign the contract. Let's get down to business first ..." Ling Qingxue couldn't help but feel embarrassed. Before she came, she had already vaguely sensed that something was going to happen. In her heart, she had also been looking forward to it. At first, Ling Qingxue shyly avoided Xia ruofei's gaze, but very quickly, she bravely met Xia ruofei's eyes. The sparks of love bloomed between their eyes. Xia ruofei couldn't take it anymore. He lowered his head and kissed her deeply ...

Chapter 328: Even embarrassment is acting up (1)

Xia ruofei hugged Ling Qingxue's body, which was getting hotter and hotter. He felt that his self – Control was infinitely close to zero. Ling Qingxue's mind was also gradually becoming more and more delirious. Her small hands subconsciously rubbed Xia ruofei's broad back. Xia ruofei had already drunk a lot in the afternoon. Under the influence of alcohol, he picked Ling Qingxue up by the waist and walked quickly to the bed in the bedroom Under Ling Qingxue's delicate exclamation. Xia ruofei gently placed Ling Qingxue on the bed. Ling Qingxue's beautiful eyes were tightly shut, but her long eyelashes were trembling slightly, showing how nervous she was. Xia ruofei looked at Ling Qingxue, who was sleeping like a beauty on the bed. Her flawless face and her shy expression, how could he hold back? Xia ruofei kicked off his shoes and pressed down on her. Ling Qingxue opened her eyes. Her face was red, and she bit her lower lip. She looked at Xia ruofei with her watery eyes, full of seduction. "You're not allowed to bully me in the future ..." Ling Qingxue said softly. Xia ruofei nodded heavily. Ling Qingxue's words were like a horn to charge. Xia ruofei, who was already restless, no longer hesitated. His slightly trembling hand reached out to Ling Qingxue's already messy collar ... Just then, Xia ruofei heard a voice from downstairs. "Brother Xia!" Ling Qingxue also heard the shout and trembled. She quickly said, "RUO Fei, I think ye Lingyun is calling you ..." "Ignore him!" Xia ruofei said, "this kid is usually quite sensible. Why is he always causing trouble at critical moments?" With that, Xia ruofei bent down to kiss Ling Qingxue. At that moment, ye Lingyun shouted again from downstairs, "Brother Xia, come down for a moment. Someone's here looking for you!" Ling Qingxue twisted her body and said, "RUO Fei, go down and take a look!" Maybe it's an emergency!" Xia ruofei was so angry that he sat up from the bed and said, "F * ck ... I'm going to skin this kid alive!" Seeing Xia ruofei's flustered and exasperated look, Ling Qingxue could not help but cover her mouth and laugh. She also sat up on the bed with a red face. As she tidied up her messy clothes and hair, she said, "Ruofei, what does this have to do with ye Lingyun? He doesn't even know that you're ... Doing bad things ..." Xia ruofei sighed, "why is it so difficult for me to get close to her ..." Ling Qingxue blushed and said in a low voice, "You can leave first! I'll ... I'll stay tonight ..." Xia ruofei's eyes brightened and the dark clouds on his face disappeared. He smacked a kiss on Ling Qingxue's cheek and said, "Wife, I'll go down first!" Ling Qingxue's face was slightly red, and she nodded her head. Xia ruofei chuckled and quickly left the room. He jogged down the stairs. As soon as they walked out of the villa, Xia ruofei couldn't help but call out, "Ling Yun, are you itching for a beating? Are you calling for your soul?" "Boss Xia, you're quite impressive!" A clear voice said in a ridiculing tone. Xia ruofei's expression couldn't help but freeze. It was only then that he saw two more pretty girls in the courtyard. The one who had just spoken was Tian Huilan's daughter, Lu You. Beside her was the shy girl, Jiang Yue. She was the girl that Xia ruofei had saved when he was renting a place in the shanty town. "Lu You, Jiang Yue ..." Xia ruofei's expression was unnatural. "Why are you here?" Lu You raised her eyebrows and said, "We're not welcome? Then let's go!" After saying that, Lu You pretended to turn around and leave. However, Jiang Yue, who was beside her, took it seriously. She quickly grabbed Lu You's arm and said, "Youyou, you ..." Jiang Yue then turned to Xia ruofei and said, "Brother Xia, I'm so sorry. Did we disturb you?" Xia ruofei replied, "no, no. How could I disturb you?" I can't wait to welcome you! Lu You said that she wanted to visit the farm with you the last time, but you guys didn't come. I was wondering if you guys had forgotten about it!" The corners of Lu You's mouth curled up into a beautiful arc as she mumbled, "This is more like it ..." Lu You continued, "Xia ruofei, aren't you going to invite us in?" Is this how you treat your guests?" "Enter the house? "Uh ..." Xia ruofei's expression was a little awkward. Ling Qingxue was still in the villa! Although she was on the second floor, if she heard the noise and came down to see him talking and laughing with two young and beautiful girls, it was inevitable that she would misunderstand. Even though Xia ruofei had a clear conscience, there were many things that could not be explained clearly. Women always believed what they saw, and even if they tried to explain, it would be a lot of trouble. Xia ruofei's mind raced, and he quickly said, "There's nothing fun to do in the house! Didn't you come to visit the farm? Why don't ... I bring you around? The environment of my farm is quite good!" "Alright!" Jiang Yue immediately replied happily, "thank you, big brother Xia!" She looked at Xia ruofei with admiration and shyness. When Lu You saw this, she couldn't help but sigh and shake her head secretly. This silly girl ... Lu You muttered in her heart. Xia ruofei saw that Lu You didn't say anything and quickly said, "Let's go. I'll take you to the back of the mountain. The scenery there is not bad. You can look out at the sea and enjoy the view of the entire farm. I've also planted quite a few lychee trees there not long ago ..." With that, Xia ruofei took the lead and walked out. He couldn't wait to bring the two of them out of the villa to avoid any trouble. Just then, a voice came from behind Xia ruofei. "Ruofei, you have guests?" Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile bitterly. He urged Ling Qingxue to come downstairs ... Ling Qingxue walked out of the house and naturally held Xia ruofei's arm. She smiled sweetly at Xia ruofei and asked, "Why didn't you call me when your friend came? Right, you haven't introduced me yet! Who are these two beautiful ladies?" When Jiang Yue saw how intimate Ling Qingxue and Xia ruofei were, her face turned pale and tears welled up in her eyes. Lu You bit her lower lip lightly and frowned. The atmosphere suddenly became a little awkward. Xia ruofei could only bite the bullet and say, "I ... I'll introduce them to everyone. Qingxue, this is Lu You. You've met her mother before. She's Secretary Tian. This is Lu You's good friend, Jiang Yue. She is also ... My friend!" Xia ruofei then said to the two girls, "Lu You, Jiang Yue, this is my girlfriend. Her name is Ling Qingxue."

Chapter 329: Three women for a drama (1)

Actually, Jiang Yue and Lu You had already guessed Ling Qingxue's identity when they first saw her. However, when Xia ruofei introduced Ling Qingxue as his girlfriend, both of them were stunned. Jiang Yue's beautiful face had turned pale with a tinge of resentment. Lu You also felt an inexplicable sense of panic in her heart. For a moment, neither of them took the initiative to go forward and greet him. Ling Qingxue took note of the two beautiful women's expressions. She glanced at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile, then took two steps forward. Ling Qingxue extended her hand to the two of them with a confident smile on her face. "Hello!" Lu You was the first to snap out of her daze. She tugged at Jiang Yue's arm gently, and only then did Jiang Yue reveal a trace of panic. She reached out to shake Ling Qingxue's hand and said in a very low voice, "Hello!" In comparison, Lu You's expression was more natural. She also shook hands with Ling Qingxue and greeted her. Although Lu You and Jiang Yue could be considered beautiful, they were still university students. Compared to Ling Qingxue, who had been in the company for many years, the two of them appeared to be a little inexperienced. It was just a simple greeting, but the air was filled with awkwardness. Jiang Yue lowered her head slightly, not daring to look at Xia ruofei or Ling Qingxue. She was like a child who had been caught red – handed by her parents. The smile in Ling Qingxue's eyes deepened. She turned around and said, "Ruofei, I heard that you're going to show your two sisters around the farm! Let's go together ... I've been here so many times, but I've never properly visited the farm!" Not a ghost! "Is there anything on this farm that you haven't been to ..." Xia ruofei cried out in his heart. Jiang Yue's expression was awkward as she bit her lower lip. After some thought, she said weakly, "Brother Xia, sister Qingxue, we won't disturb you any further ... Youyou, let's go back first!" After she finished speaking, Jiang Yue turned around and walked towards the car. Lu You, however, grabbed Jiang Yue and looked at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile before saying to Jiang Yue, "Yueyue, didn't you always want to come to the farm to see? Since you're already here, why are you in such a hurry to leave? Besides, don't you still need Xia ruofei's help?" Jiang Yue looked puzzled and said, "I'm not ..." "What do you mean by no!" Lu You held Jiang Yue's hand and said, "what's there to be embarrassed about? Xia ruofei even saved your life before. He won't reject this small favor." Jiang Yue clearly did not know what Lu You was up to. With a blank expression, she said, "Youyou, what are you saying? I ... What do I need brother Xia to help me with?" At this moment, Ling Qingxue caught the important information in Lu You's words. She glanced at Xia ruofei and said, "RUO Fei, you saved Yueyue's life? Why didn't I hear you mention it before?" "It happened a long time ago. If you didn't mention it, I would have forgotten about it ... Besides, it wasn't as exaggerated as saving her life. It was just a few hooligans who harassed Jiang Yue and I chased them away.” Xia ruofei said, a little embarrassed. A hint of disappointment flashed across Jiang Yue’s eyes. She said softly, “Sister Qingxue, it happened last semester. Maybe brother Xia didn’t take it to heart ...” “Yueyue,” Lu You said, “I heard that Xia ruofei was slashed by a hooligan in order to save you. He must have lost a lot of blood!” Jiang Yue’s face reddened slightly, but she did not say anything. Ling Qingxue gave Xia ruofei a meaningful look, then smiled and asked, “By the way, Youyou, you said you needed Xia ruofei’s help? I wonder what it is? Is it convenient for me to listen?” Lu You hesitated for a moment. First, she looked at Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue, who looked like a perfect couple. Then, she gritted her teeth and revealed a cute smile. She said to Ling Qingxue, “Sister Qingxue, what’s so inconvenient about this?” Lu You then looked at Xia ruofei and said, “Xia ruofei, the medicine you gave me last time was really effective. Yueyue’s condition is similar to mine. Can you prescribe her some medicine too?” Hearing this, Xia ruofei almost covered his face and burst into tears. Did the heavens send Lu You to play with me? Why did he dare to say anything! The medicine that Lu You was talking about was the one that Xia ruofei had given her after they had returned from Shen Cheng city. It was actually a diluted flower petal solution. That day on the plane back to Sanshan from Shen Cheng, Xia ruofei saw that Lu You was in great pain because of her period pain. Furthermore, the two of them had experienced the turbulence in the clear sky together and Xia ruofei was injured because of it. After returning to the farm, Xia ruofei thought of Lu You’s pained expression when she first got on the plane and felt a little bad for her. Thus, he gave her a bottle of diluted flower petal solution. He had originally forgotten about this matter, but he had not expected Lu You to bring it up in front of Ling Qingxue today. Wasn’t this asking for his life? Jiang Yue was obviously aware of this matter as well. Her face turned red and she revealed an expression of embarrassment that made one feel tender and protective towards her. When Ling Qingxue saw this, she was naturally curious. She asked, “Youyou, I didn’t expect RUO Fei to prescribe medicine for people.” He couldn’t have randomly opened it, right? You really dare to eat it?” “Sister Qingxue, you don’t know about this!” Lu You smiled and said, “Xia ruofei’s medical skills are amazing. My grandfather had acute myocardial infarction the last time and it was all thanks to him that he managed to save him in time! He has also cured many people, all of them with difficult – to – treat diseases. “

Chapter 330: Three women for a show (2)

Ling Qingxue glanced at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile and said, “Ruofei, I didn’t expect you to have hidden it so deeply!” “Youyou, what illness did Xia ruofei cure you of?” Ling Qingxue asked. Lu You’s pretty face could not help but blush. However, she looked at Jiang Yue and then at Xia ruofei. She suppressed her embarrassment and said, “It’s just that aunty hurts! His medicine is very effective. After drinking it, I don’t feel pain anymore. And this month ... I don’t feel pain at all!” “Youyou ...” Jiang Yue’s face was as red as a ripened Apple. She tugged at Lu You’s sleeve, trying to stop her from continuing, but Lu You still finished her sentence in one breath. Ling Qingxue was stunned after she heard what Xia ruofei had to say. After a long while, she turned to look at Xia ruofei and walked to his side. She held his arm and said in a sweet voice, “RUO Fei, I didn’t expect you to be able to ... Cure this kind of illness. You’re amazing!” The muscles on Xia ruofei’s face couldn’t help but tremble. Because Ling Qingxue’s sweet voice seemed to be filled with murderous intent. In fact, it was so. Ling Qingxue’s fair hand grabbed a little soft flesh on the inside of Xia ruofei’s arm and pinched it hard. Xia ruofei gasped in pain. This girl was too ruthless! Xia ruofei cried in his heart. The flesh on his arm had probably turned black! Xia ruofei could only bear with the pain and force a smile. He smiled and said, “That ... I happen to have a folk prescription passed down from my ancestors. It’s very effective for that ... That disease, so I tried to make some medicine for Lu You ...” Lu You had actually noticed Ling Qingxue’s small actions. A hint of a smile flashed across her eyes. Then, she smiled sweetly at Xia ruofei and said, “Xia ruofei, Yueyue is my best friend. She’s in pain every month just like me. Please help her!” Xia ruofei was a little dazed. Three women made a show, and this matter seemed to have completely gone out of control. Even if he was very capable, his mind was in a mess. He only came back to his senses when Ling Qingxue pinched him again. “Ah? What?” Ling Qingxue looked at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile and said, “Great Divine Doctor! Youyou asked you to prescribe some medicine for Yueyue! Why are you in a daze?” “Oh, then ...” Xia ruofei looked at Ling Qingxue hesitantly and said, “I’ll drive a little ...” Hiss ... Ling Qingxue pinched him again without a trace. “Then I’d better not open it ...” Xia ruofei said with a bitter smile. Hiss ... Another one. Xia ruofei couldn’t help but cry, “Should I ... Open it or not?” Jiang Yue looked at Xia ruofei with pity and said softly, “Brother Xia, don’t be so hard on me. I ... Don’t need to take any medicine.” “Youyou, let’s go back first!” Jiang Yue said to Lu You. Lu You didn’t want to leave at first, but when she saw the pleading look in Jiang Yue’s eyes, she couldn’t help but sigh and nod silently. Just as the two of them were about to turn around and leave, Ling Qingxue smiled and said, “Don’t go! My two little Sisters, you’ve just arrived! Why are you leaving?” Then, Ling Qingxue nudged Xia ruofei and said, “What are you still doing? Hurry up and prepare the medicine for Yueyue!” Xia ruofei came back to his senses and quickly nodded. “Oh, Okay, okay, okay ...” “Do you have any medicinal herbs at home? Do you want to drive outside to buy some?” Ling Qingxue asked. “Yes, yes, yes, I’ll be done very soon!” Xia ruofei said. With that, Xia ruofei turned around and walked back to the villa. “Big brother Xia, there’s really no need ...” Jiang Yue called out from behind him. Ling Qingxue walked over with a smile and held onto Jiang Yue’s arm, “Yueyue, why are you being so polite with your brother Xia? Don’t worry about him, just let him prepare the medicine! Didn’t you guys want to visit the farm? I’ll Take You There, let’s go!” Xia ruofei was already at the entrance of the villa when he heard Ling Qingxue’s words. He could not help but stop in his tracks. When he turned back, he saw that the three girls were already walking hand in hand towards the farm outside the villa. Xia ruofei couldn’t help but Pat his forehead and smile bitterly. What the hell is this! Ye Lingyun and Li Zhifu, who were not far away, had also stopped their lessons. The old and the young looked at Xia ruofei with sympathy. Even lightning, who was lying by ye Lingyun’s feet, seemed to be smiling with its bright eyes. Of course, this was just Xia ruofei’s illusion. He shook his head helplessly and smiled awkwardly at li Zhifu and ye Lingyun. Then, he walked into the mansion. Xia ruofei went to the kitchen and locked the door. He took out some Chinese herbs from the medium and started to brew the Chinese medicine according to the prescription for period conditioning. In fact, the flower petal solution was the most effective. Xia ruofei could have used something like herbal tea to make a bottle of “Chinese medicine” for Jiang Yue. However, Xia ruofei really did not want to go out and face the situation that was giving him a headache. He simply hid in the kitchen and slowly brewed the medicine. He dawdled for more than half an hour before he finally divided the medicinal soup with the flower petal solution into six portions and put them in sealed Chinese medicine bags. Then, Xia ruofei took the two days ‘worth of Chinese medicine and walked out of the kitchen with a face that looked like he was ready to die. His hearing was far beyond that of ordinary people. He had long heard the sound of Ling Qingxue, Lu You, and Jiang Yue returning to the villa.
