

Chapter 341: Using both soft and hard tactics (1)

When Xia Cheng, Lu You, and the others heard this, their expressions could not help but change. The Yang family's suhe was a very famous orchid species. It was different from the sky – High price orchid species that merchants hyped up. The Yang family's suhe, Song Mei, Ji Yuan, he shenmei, and Lu Yun were all old and famous orchids. They had gone through the test of time and had not declined. Although in recent years, the market price of this kind of well – known orchid was not as high as the new orchid products hyped up by the merchants, those who knew the industry knew that the orchid species on the market that easily cost millions were actually just a castle in the air, and they might collapse one day. However, these well – known orchids were different. They had been tested for decades, centuries, and even centuries. Each species was very pleasing to the eye. And the best of this kind of variety, the price was not much lower than the variety that the merchants hyped up. The fact that the University of Agriculture and Forestry would give up the pot of Hui orchid and choose the Yang Lotus they had just found meant that the pot of orchids must be outstanding in terms of appearance and petal shape. In that case, their jade lion might really lose. Chen Song saw that the students of the Sanshan University's gardening club, who were still in high spirits a moment ago, were now silent one by one. He could not help but reveal a proud look. He said, "this time, our Agriculture and Forestry University is determined to win the Gold Award!" If you can only take out this jade lion, I think you don't have to consider the Gold Award. It's not a bad idea to fight for the Silver Award. After all, there are three spots for the Silver Award! If we're lucky, we might have a chance ... " Xia Cheng's expression turned increasingly unsightly, and so did the other members of the gardening club. Each and every one of them sighed inwardly. Lu You and Jiang Yue were also biting their lower lips lightly, and their eyes were filled with unwillingness. Peng Hui and you Jun's mentality was even more complicated. In a sense, although their motivation to join the club was not to love gardening, they were still members of the gardening club and Sanshan University. If they lost to Agriculture and Forestry University, they would naturally feel uncomfortable. Speaking of which, Xia ruofei had been in the limelight because of the Jade lion. However, if the Jade lion could not get the desired ranking in the flower exhibition, everything would be equivalent to nothing. Therefore, from this point of view, Peng Hui and you Jun even felt a bit happy because of Chen song's words. Xia ruofei looked at Chen song's smug expression and could not help but smile. He asked, "Lu You, Jiang Yue, if you want to win the Gold Award, I have a way!" Without waiting for Lu You and Jiang Yue to speak, Chen Song immediately laughed and said, "Xia ruofei, do you really think that you're invincible just because you've accidentally cured this jade lion? Or are you going to buy it with money? Don't say that I didn't tell you! You can't even buy top – grade orchids with money, let alone in such a short time. " Xia Cheng and the rest's expressions became more and more serious. It was obvious that Chen song's words were not without reason. Lu You and Jiang Yue, on the other hand, trusted Xia ruofei unconditionally. Lu You replied without hesitation, "sure!" No matter what method you use, as long as you can help us win against the Agriculture and Forestry University in the flower exhibition, not only will I owe you a favor, but Yueyue will also owe you a favor ... " Jiang Yue's face turned red and she lowered her eyes, "Youyou, why are you dragging me into this ... " However, Jiang Yue could not help but ask curiously, "Brother Xia, do you really have a way?" Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. At this time, Xia Cheng asked, "Mr. Xia, we're already very grateful to you for curing this jade lion. But I still want to know, you ... What way do you have to let us win against Yang Su He from Agriculture and Forestry University in three days? Could it be that ... We're really going to buy a pot at a high price?" "No need for that trouble!" Xia ruofei smiled. He then looked at Lu You and Jiang Yue and said, "If you trust me, give me this jade lion. I'll bring it back to you in three days. Then, you can just use this jade lion to participate in the exhibition." The students of the garden art Club couldn't help but burst into an uproar. Even Lu You and Jiang Yue couldn't help but reveal extremely surprised expressions. "Should we still use this jade lion?" Lu You asked after some hesitation. Xia ruofei nodded his head in a relaxed manner. "Big brother Xia, will ... Will this work?" Jiang Yue asked without much confidence. Chen Song ridiculed impatiently, "I didn't expect you to be so whimsical! Don't tell me that you'll be able to transform this jade lion into an even more precious breed in three days?" The students of the Garden Club were also secretly shaking their heads. If Xia ruofei had used three days to cure the Jade lion, it could be explained that he happened to know about the disease and used the right treatment. However, this jade lion had already recovered. What could Xia ruofei do with it? Could it be as Chen Song had said, that Xia ruofei could change the breed of the Jade lion? This was too far – fetched! Faced with everyone's doubts, Xia ruofei did not explain much. He only smiled at Lu You and Jiang Yue. His meaning was clear, he wanted them to decide for themselves. Lu You bit her lower lip. After pondering for a long time, she nodded and said, "Alright! Xia ruofei, I'll leave it to you ..." "Lu You ..." Xia Cheng frowned. "Think about it carefully ... The school is also taking this exhibition very seriously. If anything goes wrong ..."

Chapter 342: Using both hard and soft tactics (2)

"Senior Xia Cheng, if it wasn't for Xia ruofei's help, we wouldn't even have been able to bring out the flowers for the exhibition!" Lu You said calmly, "even if this jade lion isn't sick, if we bring it to the exhibition and if the Agriculture and Forestry University really finds the best yang Lotus, we will still lose." "Since there can't be a worse outcome, why don't you let Xia ruofei try?" Lu You continued after a pause. Xia Cheng smiled bitterly. "You're right." Chen Song, who was watching from the side, could not help but sneer and said, "It seems that you're really desperate. We'll meet again at the exhibition in three days. I hope you can create another miracle!" The sarcasm in his words was very obvious. After Chen Song finished speaking, he ignored the unpleasant – looking students of the Sanshan University's gardening club. He picked up his pot of Hui LAN and put it back in his car. Then, without saying a word, he drove away from Sanshan University. The other students of the garden art Club also did not speak. The joy just now had been diluted by the news released by Chen Song. However, this matter definitely had to be decided by Lu You. Since she had already decided, these students naturally could not say anything. Even Peng Hui and you Jun did not make any more noise because Lu You was right. Xia ruofei had already completed his mission by curing this jade lion. No matter what the result was three days later, no one would be able to find fault with him. Xia Cheng thought for a moment. "Mr. Xia, I'll leave it to you then. No matter if we can win against the University or not, I'm still very grateful to you!" "Don't worry! If I say you can win, then you will definitely win!" Xia ruofei said confidently. Xia Cheng smiled bitterly and nodded. He then said to Lu You, "Lu You, let's give this jade lion to Mr. Xia! Let's all try to look around these few days and see if we can find better flowers to be exhibited!" Xia Cheng had no confidence in Xia ruofei at all. Of course, he could not be blamed for this. In his eyes, this was an impossible mission. Lu You nodded and did not say anything else. Qianqian had already chosen to trust Xia ruofei unconditionally, so she would not make any other preparations. However, as the president of the landscaper club, it was understandable for Xia Cheng to do his best to make a second preparation for the sake of the club. After Xia Cheng finished speaking, he left with the other students from the Garden Club. Xia ruofei carried the pot of jade lion and put it back into the pickup truck with a relaxed expression. Then, he waved goodbye to Lu You and Jiang Yue and drove away. Lu You and Jiang Yue stood in front of the old teaching building. Jiang Yue looked at the pickup truck that was gradually moving away and asked, "Youyou, do you think brother Xia can do it?" "Didn't everyone suspect him three days ago? But you saw the result." Lu You said very calmly, "I believe that he will not let us down this time. He has always been a person who is good at creating miracles." That was indeed the case. Just Lu You's experience alone was enough to count the number of miracles that Xia ruofei had created. Lu You had also heard about the incident where Xia ruofei had urgently treated elder song from Tian Huilan. Xia ruofei had done things that ordinary people thought were impossible time and time again. This made Lu You very confident in Xia ruofei. Even Jiang Yue could feel this. She glanced at Lu You with a strange expression and said with a smile, "Youyou, I realized that you have blind faith in brother Xia! Don't tell me ..." Lu You's face reddened, but she quickly regained her composure. She rolled her eyes at Jiang Yue and said, "Wretched girl! Do you think that everyone is as infatuated as you and treats Xia ruofei like a treasure?" "I didn't ..." Jiang Yue's face was red as she punched Lu You with her pink fist. Not to be outdone, Lu You also reached out to scratch Jiang Yue's armpit. The two beautiful women played around in front of the teaching building for a while until someone passed by. The two of them stopped, blushing. After a round of banter, the two of them tacitly did not mention Xia ruofei again. They went back to the dormitory intimately, hand in hand. .... After Xia ruofei drove away from the campus of Sanshan University, he kept the Jade lion pot into his original space with a thought. His idea was very simple and crude. He would place the pot of orchid in the original space where the spiritual energy was rich, and then water it with the petal solution every day. In three days 'time, this pot of orchid could stay in the unique environment of the spirit map space for three months. Furthermore, it was nourished by the petal solution. It would be difficult for it not to be reborn. If he couldn't win against the Yang family's Lotus from Agriculture and Forestry University, then there was nothing else to say. Xia ruofei didn't return to Peach Blossom Farm immediately. He had been driving the pickup truck towards the Ling Ji F & B headquarters, and Ling Qingxue hadn't contacted him for the past three days. However, he thought that it had been three days, and Ling Qingxue's anger should have subsided by now. For such matters, a man should naturally take the initiative. Besides, Xia ruofei had found a valid reason. The last time Ling Qingxue had gone to him, she had looked for him to sign the winery contract. However, because of Lu You and Jiang Yue's sudden visit, Ling Qingxue had left immediately, and the contract had not been signed. Hence, Xia ruofei went there in the name of signing a contract. He gave Ling Qingxue a call on the way. "Miracle doctor Xia, what's the matter?" Ling Qingxue's teasing voice came from the phone.

Chapter 343: Using both soft and hard tactics (3)

"Qingxue, are you in the office?" Xia ruofei asked directly, "I want to see you." "I'm busy right now!" Ling Qingxue giggled. "What's the matter?" "Can't I find you for no reason?" Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "wife, are you still angry? There's nothing wrong with it, it's not worth it to get angry and damage your body!" "Who's angry?" Ling Qingxue was stubborn. "I can't be bothered to be angry with you! How popular are you, miracle doctor Xia, among the girls? If I hadn't chased after you, you would probably be surrounded by women now, right?" Ling Qingxue's tone was still bitter. In fact, Ling Qingxue was a little sensitive about this issue. The main reason was that she had always been the one who took the initiative when it came to matters of the heart. She had had a crush on Xia ruofei since middle school. After they had reunited at the end of last year, she had always been the one who took the initiative. It could be said that Ling Qingxue's "initiative" was definitely inseparable from the fact that the two of them were finally able to get together. It was precisely because of this that Ling Qingxue had a sense of inferiority when it came to their relationship problems. It was precisely this small sense of inferiority that made Ling Qingxue feel a sense of crisis. Hence, when Lu You and Jiang Yue appeared, her jealousy was magnified many times. Xia ruofei said, "don't let your thoughts run wild!" What the hell is this! Qingxue, I must see you today! If you don't come out, I'll go to the company to find you!" "Then come! My dad is here too!" Ling Qingxue said with a mischievous smile. "Alright!" Xia ruofei immediately said, "I was just about to report to uncle Ling and ask him if the winery cooperation is still going on. Why is our manager Ling dragging things out and not willing to sign the contract with me!" "You ..." Ling Qingxue pouted, "you Rascal ..." Regarding the contract, Ling Qingxue had really kept it a secret from Ling Xiaotian. Ling Xiaotian was still very concerned about the winery's cooperation. He had asked Ling Qingxue about it three days ago, but she had brushed him off, saying that the contract had already been signed, but she had not had the time to file it. Because of Ling Qingxue and Xia ruofei's relationship, Ling Xiaotian was very confident about this cooperation. He also believed in Ling Qingxue's words without a doubt and did not ask about the contract for the next few days. If Xia ruofei really went to the company to mention this to Ling Xiaotian, wouldn't he be exposed? Xia ruofei had also guessed it. He laughed and said, "Wife, it's almost time for lunch. I've already booked a private room in Xi Jiang Yue. Let's have lunch together and sign the contract!" "Then you're not allowed to talk to my dad about the contract!" Ling Qingxue pouted. Xia ruofei laughed and said, "don't worry!" I'll be waiting for you at West River moon!" "Rascal ..." Ling Qingxue pouted and hung up the phone. At the Ling Ji F & B headquarters, Ling Qingxue held her phone to her chest and couldn't help but burst out laughing. Her pretty face also flushed red, and her smile bloomed like a flower. It made the entire office feel as if it was bathed in a spring breeze. In fact, she had wanted to contact Xia ruofei for a long time, but a girl's self – restraint made her hold back. Today, Xia ruofei called and "used both hard and soft tactics". Naturally, she went with the flow and agreed. "Let's see if you still dare to be a Playboy in the future!" Ling Qingxue's lips curled up as she muttered to herself. Xia ruofei was humming a song as he drove. He turned the car around and drove towards the West River Moon Club. On the way there, he gave President Zheng a call and booked a private room. Then, he drove to the West River Moon Club and exchanged a few words with President Zheng, who had personally come out to welcome him. After that, he went to the Xiaoyue room that President Zheng had arranged for him and sat down to wait for Ling Qingxue.

Chapter 344: finally together (1)

Xia ruofei arrived at the West River Moon Club at around 11 am. However, Ling Qingxue was still nowhere to be seen even when it was almost 12 am. Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile bitterly, but there was nothing he could do about it. He had said everything just now, but he didn't set a specific time. Ling Qingxue had also said that she was busy at the company, so what was the point of coming a little later? 'It seems like this girl is still angry ...' Xia ruofei thought to himself. However, he quickly revealed a vicious expression and muttered to himself, "If you dare to not take your husband seriously, I'll teach you a lesson later ..." Unfortunately, Ling Qingxue could not hear Xia ruofei's harsh words. He waited for a full twenty minutes before there was a soft knock on the door. Then, the waiter pushed open the door of the private room. A series of footsteps could be heard, and Ling Qingxue's graceful figure appeared at the door. Ling Qingxue had put on light makeup today, and her white jade – like skin looked even more crystal clear and moving. She was wearing a white knitted sweater under her long beige windbreaker, which outlined her proud curves. Pencil – grey skinny jeans tightly wrapped around her long legs. Xia ruofei could not help but think of one thing when he saw her. Below the chest were the legs ... Ling Qingxue naturally felt Xia ruofei's slightly invasive and heated gaze. Her pretty face blushed slightly, and at the same time, she felt a trace of shyness and joy in her heart. As long as this man was her sweetheart, even if he showed his lecherous face in front of her, the girl's heart would only be filled with joy. Ling Qingxue smiled and said, "Miracle doctor Xia, scoundrel Xia, I'm here. Please sign the contract ..." Xia ruofei chuckled as he walked up to Ling Qingxue and grabbed her hand. He even touched Ling Qingxue's soft, white hands mischievously. Ling Qingxue's face turned slightly red. She tried to break free, but to no avail, so she let Xia ruofei do as he pleased. "It's almost 12:30, you must be hungry!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "let's eat first!" "Then the contract ..." "That's a political task my father – in – Law gave me. Are you afraid I won't sign it?" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Ling Qingxue lowered her eyes and asked, "what father – in – Law?" I haven't agreed to marry you yet ..." "It's only a matter of time, so don't mind the details!" Xia ruofei chuckled. Ling Qingxue looked around the private room and said, "I haven't scolded you yet! Didn't you say you were going to eat? Why did he find such a place? This doesn't look like a place to eat!" This private room had a quiet and elegant environment, but it was not like the layout of a normal restaurant's private room. Strictly speaking, this was actually a suite. The room they entered was a small dining room, which was connected to a reception room and a large lounge next to it. All the furnishings were very complete. And with the warm lighting and soft music, the entire private room had an ambiguous atmosphere. Ling Qingxue's heart couldn't help but beat faster, and her face slowly turned red. "Didn't I already tell you? Don't mind the details!" Xia ruofei said, "there are tables and chairs here. Why isn't this a place to eat?" "There's still a bed!" Ling Qingxue blurted out, and her face immediately turned red. Xia ruofei smiled and pressed Ling Qingxue down on the chair. "Let's eat first, let's eat first. Don't let my wife starve ..." Ling Qingxue rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei flirtatiously and did not say anything else. "Waiter, please serve the dishes!" Xia ruofei called out. Xia ruofei didn't even need to order when he came here. President Zheng had arranged everything properly, and all the dishes had been prepared. They were just waiting for Ling Qingxue to come and they would be served immediately. Soon, waiters in cheongsam entered the room with plates of dishes. Because there were only two people, the amount of food arranged was not much, but each dish was very exquisite. As for the ingredients, they were naturally Taoyuan vegetables. Four dishes and a soup, the color, smell, and taste were all complete. In the end, the waiter even brought a bottle of red wine that had already been awakened. She poured the wine into the wine glasses in front of them and placed the bottle on the table. She bowed slightly and left. Xia ruofei had already instructed that all the waiters would leave after the dishes were served and that no one was to disturb them without permission. Xia ruofei smiled and raised his glass. "Qingxue, it's been a long time since we've sat down and had a meal together. Come, let's have a drink first," Ling Qingxue nodded lightly and quietly picked up her glass. She lightly clinked her glass with Xia ruofei's and took a small sip. Xia ruofei, on the other hand, raised his head and drank the wine in one gulp. As someone who was born in the military, he had always been drinking wine and eating meat in large mouthfuls. He had no interest in such an elegant thing as tasting red wine. This was really a waste of the expensive bottle of Laffer red wine that boss Zheng had carefully prepared. After drinking a mouthful of red wine, Ling Qingxue's face immediately blushed. Her fair face with a tinge of red and her moving eyes made Xia ruofei's heart race. He poured himself some more red wine and then said, "Qingxue, you've ignored me for three days. Your anger should have subsided by now ... I'm more wronged than Dou 'E!" Ling Qingxue glanced at Xia ruofei and said, "He deserves it! Who told you to treat another woman behind my back ... That one that hurts?"

Chapter 345: finally together (2)

Xia ruofei immediately smiled bitterly. "I saw her face turn pale from the pain the other day. That's why I'm feeling sorry for her." "I didn't expect you to be so protective of women ..." Ling Qingxue said with a half – Smile. "This is called a doctor's parental heart! A patient is a patient, and there's no difference between a man and a woman." Xia ruofei said seriously, then gritted his teeth and said, "I just didn't expect miss Lu to be so unkind and deliberately ruin my show ..." Ling Qingxue couldn't help but burst out laughing. "You deserve it!" "You're not angry anymore, are you?" Xia ruofei said cheekily. "I'm angry!" Ling Qingxue said fiercely, "I'll let you have tender and protective feelings for women!" "Then I'll treat you too. I'll treat you three times!" Xia ruofei said immediately. Ling Qingxue was embarrassed and said, "I didn't ... It hurt!" "Cure my ass!" "Alright, alright!" Xia ruofei put his arm around Ling Qingxue's shoulder and said, "in my memory, Qingxue is very magnanimous. When you were in junior high school, a boy from the class next door wrote you a love letter. A girl who liked that boy ran to the class and scolded you, but you didn't take it to heart ..." Ling Qingxue was so angry that she pinched Xia ruofei and said, "You can't remember! I'm the one who told you this, okay? You didn't even remember me when we were in junior high ..." Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. However, after Xia ruofei's comedic banter, Ling Qingxue was no longer angry about that matter. She let Xia ruofei hug her and even rested her head on his shoulder. In fact, Ling Qingxue had almost cooled down over the past few days. She knew very well that Xia ruofei, Lu You, and Jiang Yue were fine. They were just a little uncomfortable in their hearts. When she saw Xia ruofei today, she could no longer hold on to her little reserve, so naturally, she went with the flow and forgave Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei also heaved a sigh of relief. He picked up some food for Ling Qingxue, poured her some wine, and kept on saying sweet words and jokes, making Ling Qingxue laugh. Of course, Xia ruofei would not be so honest. As he picked up the food with his right hand, his left hand was still around Ling Qingxue. He even started to move around slowly. Ling Qingxue twisted her body in embarrassment and said, "Are you going to let me eat ..." "Eat, eat, eat ..." Xia ruofei touched his nose awkwardly and said, "come, wife, let me toast you again ..." The two of them had a great meal, and even finished the entire bottle of red wine. Although most of it went into Xia ruofei's stomach, Ling Qingxue had at least six or seven glasses. After drinking, Ling Qingxue's exquisite face was flushed red, and her eyes became a little dazed. Under her white knitted sweater, her proud curves rose and fell slightly. There was even a slight smile on the corner of her mouth, which was really attractive. Xia ruofei couldn't help but stare at Ling Qingxue in a daze, his eyes a little blank. Ling Qingxue's heart was beating fast under Xia ruofei's gaze. She bit her lower lip and glared at Xia ruofei. Then, she said, "Ruofei, you've had your drink and your meal. Hurry up and sign the contract! So that I can report back to the company ..." Xia ruofei didn't say anything. He reached out and held Ling Qingxue's delicate waist. Then, with a little force, he easily carried Ling Qingxue onto his lap and lowered his head to kiss her as she screamed. After a long kiss, Ling Qingxue was so embarrassed that she buried her head in Xia ruofei's chest. Xia ruofei laughed and said, "Wife, I've been waiting for you for an hour and a half this afternoon. Do you know your mistake?" Ling Qingxue shot a quick glance at Xia ruofei and said, "I ... I have a lot of things to do at the company!" "This reason is not sufficient!" Xia ruofei said domineeringly, "you're purposely leaving your husband out here. Don't you think ... I should punish you?" "You ... How do you want to punish me?" Ling Qingxue felt Xia ruofei's invasive gaze and felt a sense of panic. "Hehe ... What do you think?" Xia ruofei said. After he finished speaking, he stood up with Ling Qingxue in his arms and walked towards the resting room in the inner room. Ling Qingxue's soft arms wrapped tightly around Xia ruofei's neck to keep her balance. She said shyly, "RUO Fei, it's ... It's not safe here ..." "Wife, have you forgotten what I used to do?" Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "I've already checked the entire room in the one and a half hours I was waiting for you. There's no sign of any sneaky cameras ...” Xia ruofei was habitually cautious and alert. Even though the possibility of boss Zheng setting him up was very low, he still carefully checked the room after entering it. It was almost an instinctive act that had integrated into his blood and soul. Ling Qingxue glared at Xia ruofei in embarrassment and said, “Scoundrel! It turns out that you’ve already planned this ...” Xia ruofei chuckled but did not say anything. Although he didn’t have much experience in love, he knew that there were times when men should be more thick – skinned. It was like a joke that said, if a woman stopped when she called you a beast, she would say that you were worse than a beast later on ... While they were talking, Xia ruofei had already carried Ling Qingxue into the lounge ... Everything was done. After a long time, the storm finally stopped. Xia ruofei hugged Ling Qingxue as they sat on the bed. Ling Qingxue’s face was still slightly red, but she was smiling happily. Xia ruofei fumbled around in his coat pocket and took out an exquisite porcelain bottle. He handed it to Ling Qingxue and said, “Qingxue, this is the nutrient solution I concocted. Drink it ...” “Nutrient solution?” Ling Qingxue took the bottle doubtfully and took a sip. “It doesn’t taste good! It’s almost the same as plain water ...” “The fruit juice has a taste, but it doesn’t have any healing properties!” Xia ruofei chuckled and said, “drink it all. It’s good for your body.” Ling Qingxue knew that Xia ruofei would never harm her, so she obediently drank the entire bottle of “nutrient solution”. This small porcelain bottle only had a capacity of two to three hundred milliliters, about the same as a box of milk. Ling Qingxue finished it very quickly. After a short while, Ling Qingxue cried out in surprise, “Ruofei, your nutrient solution is really powerful! I feel like I’m full of energy!” One had to know that after the “fierce battle” just now, Ling Qingxue had long been exhausted. But now, she had suddenly recovered her strength. This “nutrient solution” was really too magical. “Have you recovered your strength?” Xia ruofei chuckled. Ling Qingxue saw Xia ruofei’s expression and suddenly realized that something was wrong. She quickly pulled the blanket to cover her delicate body and asked, “What do you want to do?” “Hehe, now that I’ve recovered my strength, it’s time for the second half!” Xia ruofei said with a smile. Then, as Ling Qingxue cried out in surprise, he pulled the duvet away. At first, Ling Qingxue resisted symbolically, but she was soon lost in it. After a while, the moving music score reverberated throughout the room ...

Chapter 346: Destroying the evidence (1)

Xia ruofei had specifically asked for such a private room, and the person he was receiving was a beautiful woman. President Zheng naturally knew what he meant. From the beginning to the end, no one came to disturb him. He did not even arrange for anyone to come in and clean up the leftovers outside. .... “RUO Fei ...” Ling Qingxue murmured softly. “What?” “You’re not allowed to bully me in the future!” “En!” “I’m bullying you, you’re not allowed to resist!” “Alright ...” “You’re not allowed to provoke other women!” “Oh ...” Ling Qingxue saw that Xia ruofei seemed to be hesitating and immediately pouted. “You don’t seem to be willing?” Xia ruofei immediately replied seriously, “no, no, I was a little distracted ... Who asked my wife to be so beautiful?” When I’m with you, I can’t help but feel like I’m on cloud nine ...” Ling Qingxue’s face blushed slightly. Although she knew that Xia ruofei was just making an excuse, she still felt as sweet as honey. Xia ruofei calmly put on his clothes piece by piece. Ling Qingxue also started to put on her clothes under the blanket. Although their positions were a little awkward, they were finally dressed. At this moment, Ling Qingxue seemed to have recovered from her shyness. She glanced at Xia ruofei coquettishly and got out of bed to tidy her clothes. Xia ruofei watched from the side with a smile. Ling Qingxue’s movements were very delicate, and there was a different kind of beauty in her unhurried and unhurried movements. Ling Qingxue felt Xia ruofei’s burning gaze and blushed. She walked over and adjusted Xia ruofei’s collar naturally. She even said, “You’re already an adult, but you can't even put on your clothes properly ..." She looked like a wife who tidied up her husband's clothes before he left. Xia ruofei couldn't help but gently pull Ling Qingxue into his arms. He put his mouth close to her ear and smelled the faint fragrance of her hair. He said softly, "Qingxue, I'll definitely give you a lifetime of happiness, trust me ..." His words were neither fancy nor romantic, but Ling Qingxue's entire body trembled slightly. She was surrounded by happiness. She nodded her head heavily, then took the initiative to tip-toe and kiss Xia ruofei on the lips. The two of them continued to be affectionate for a while before they smiled at each other and separated. At that moment, Ling Qingxue's gaze fell on the big bed. In the middle of the white bed sheet, a red flower in full bloom was particularly eye-catching. Ling Qingxue was both embarrassed and anxious, "ruofei, this ... What should we do?" "We've dirtied the bedsheets ..." Xia ruofei said nonchalantly, "what are you afraid of?" Elder Zheng was such a Big Boss, how could he not be able to afford a bed sheet? At most, I'll ask chubby boy to give him an extra cabbage tomorrow morning as compensation for the bed sheet ..." "It's not about the money, okay?" Ling Qingxue didn't know whether to laugh or cry as she said, "this ... This is too embarrassing ..." "Simple!" Xia ruofei said after a moment of silence. Then, he walked to the bed and tore the bedsheet off. He folded it in half and folded it again until it was a small square piece. Then, he put the bedsheet into his small backpack without a change in expression. "You can't tell now, can you?" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Ling Qingxue subconsciously looked at the big bed. Although there was also a faint mark on the mattress, it was impossible to see it without looking carefully. At least it was definitely not as obvious as before. "I can't tell now, but ... The bed sheets ..." Ling Qingxue said. Xia ruofei chuckled as he walked to the cabinet next to him. He opened the cabinet and saw stacks of bedsheets, duvet covers, pillow covers, and other beddings neatly arranged inside. "Come on! Do it yourself!" Xia ruofei grinned at Ling Qingxue as he spoke. The two of them worked together to quickly change the bed sheet into a new, snow-white one. "I can't tell at all now!" Xia ruofei smiled proudly. Ling Qingxue looked at Xia ruofei with a half-smile and said, "You look very familiar with it! Do you come to this place often?"

Chapter 347: Don't guess, don't guess (1)

"Wife, do you think I'm that kind of person? I'm a good comrade who has been trained by the party and the Army for many years," Xia ruofei said righteously. "I will." Ling Qingxue nodded her head with certainty. "The weather seems pretty good today ..." Xia ruofei laughed. Ling Qingxue looked at Xia ruofei in disdain and said, "Can you not be so obvious when you want to change the topic? You're underestimating my intelligence, okay?" Xia ruofei scratched his head. "Qingxue," he said. "You're such an intelligent woman. You must ..." "Pfft ... Alright, alright!" Ling Qingxue smiled and said, "I can't be bothered with you! In any case, if you dare to treat me badly in the future, I'll ... I'll ..." Xia ruofei smiled as he looked at Ling Qingxue and asked, "You'll what?" Ling Qingxue's face turned slightly red. She gritted her teeth and said, "I won't let you touch me!" Xia ruofei was shocked, "wife, you're too cruel!" "Can we change the punishment?" "No!" Ling Qingxue said with a mischievous smile. Xia ruofei chuckled. "I'll definitely take pity on you. Whether it's in your career, in your life, or in bed!" "You're going to die!" Ling Qingxue pouted as she hit Xia ruofei. "How can you say such things? you're really thick-skinned ..." Xia ruofei laughed and did not resist, allowing Ling Qingxue to vent her shyness. How could Ling Qingxue bear to use so much force? that force was more like a tickle for Xia ruofei. After laughing for a while, Ling Qingxue finally remembered what she had to do. She quickly took out the contract from her bag and said, "Ruofei, sign the winery contract! I need to go back and report this ..." Xia ruofei nodded. He took the contract from Ling Qingxue and sat down beside the small desk. Then, he took out a pen from the pen holder on the table, flipped to the last page of the contract, and signed his name. After signing all three copies of the contract, Xia ruofei stood up and returned the contract to Ling Qingxue. Ling Qingxue put the contract into her bag and asked with a smile, "You didn't even look at the contract before signing it? Aren't you afraid that there's a trap inside?" "What's there to be afraid of?" Xia ruofei said nonchalantly, "even you are mine. How could father – in – Law cheat me?" "Who's your man? You don't know shame!" Ling Qingxue blushed and said. Xia ruofei looked bewildered and said, "Eh? Could it be that everything that happened this afternoon was just a dream? Could it be that I'm still in a dream? Qingxue, pinch me and see if it hurts!" "Alright!" Ling Qingxue said with a sweet smile. Then, she walked towards Xia ruofei with an evil look on her face. Xia ruofei quickly took a big step back and said, "Don't, don't, don't. There's no need to trouble my wife. I'll do it myself!" After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei gently pinched himself and then screamed like a pig being slaughtered. "It hurts! It hurts! It seems like I'm not dreaming ..." Seeing Xia ruofei's exaggerated performance, Ling Qingxue couldn't help but glance at Xia ruofei. She pouted and said, "You're a stinky Rascal ..." Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "let's go!" My wife, let's go out!" The two of them walked out of the private room. President Zheng was indeed a smart person. There was not a single waiter outside the private room. Even the private rooms next door were empty. It was to create an environment where Xia ruofei would not be disturbed. Xia ruofei didn't greet President Zheng again. He sent him a text message on his phone, then held Ling Qingxue's hand and walked out of the West River Moon Club. President Zheng naturally would not come out to see her off. He only sent Xia ruofei a very polite text message. The two of them did not Park their car in the Xijiang yueye clubhouse, which was located inside the scenic Area. Although the important guests of the clubhouse could drive in directly, it was still a little troublesome. Hence, Xia ruofei chose to Park his car in the parking lot outside the scenic Area. Therefore, after they left the clubhouse, Ling Qingxue naturally held Xia ruofei's hand. The two of them snuggled up to each other as they walked out of the antique South back street to the parking lot. Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue first found her orange Porsche 911. "Qingxue, after you return the contract to the company, go to Taoyuan farm!" Xia ruofei held Ling Qingxue's hand and said, "you haven't spent the night at Taoyuan farm! "Let me tell you ... The night view of our farm is so beautiful. In the dead of night, you can even faintly hear the sound of the waves in the distant sea ..." Xia ruofei, who had just had a taste of her body, wished that he could hug Ling Qingxue's soft and delicate body to sleep every night. As long as he thought of the scene of him holding that pair of shockingly elastic long legs, Xia ruofei could not help but feel a surge of evil fire. The absurdity of the entire afternoon did not seem to be completely "extinguished". As long as there was the slightest movement, the fire would immediately set the Prairie on fire again. Ling Qingxue was actually similar to Xia ruofei. It was also her first time experiencing the extreme pleasure between a man and a woman. Xia ruofei's suggestion naturally made her heart beat faster. However, she quickly showed an apologetic expression and said, "Ruofei, the company has been very busy recently. There's the matter of the designated reception unit of the municipal Party Committee, the matters of the other branches in other cities, and recently, there's also the matter of the winery, so ..." "It's okay, I can understand!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Ling Qingxue stood on her tiptoes and kissed Xia ruofei on the cheek. Then, she blushed and said, "Ruofei, you have more free time. You can come back to the city to see me often!" Xia ruofei smiled evilly and said, "sure!" I'll call you in advance, so you can book a room at the hotel, wash up, and wait for me ..." "I don't want to!" Ling Qingxue shyly rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei, then opened the door and got into the car. She started the engine of the sports car, rolled down the window, and stuck her head out. "Oh! I almost forgot, you seem to be quite busy recently!" "Yup!" Xia ruofei replied casually, "there's actually a lot of things to do at the farm. There are many things that I have to do by myself.” “I’m not talking about the farm,” Ling Qingxue said with a smile. I’ve heard that you’ve successfully cured a pot of orchids that even the professionals were helpless against. It seems like you’re still not satisfied and took on a more difficult new task!” Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment and smiled bitterly.””How do you know everything?” Ling Qingxue proudly waved her phone and said,””Because I added Lu You and Jiang Yue’s WeChat! Don’t forget that I was the one who promised you to go to Sanshan University to help them!” “So?” “That’s why you have to work hard! Bring out your godly doctor’s demeanor and don’t embarrass me!” Ling Qingxue smiled sweetly, then waved at the dumbfounded Xia ruofei. She stepped on the gas and drove away from the parking lot. “What do you mean by that?” Xia ruofei muttered to himself as he watched the Porsche 911 disappear into the distance. In the beginning, Ling Qingxue was still slightly hostile towards Lu You and Jiang Yue, who had suddenly appeared. Later on, she had only returned to her room to “prepare” the medicine for a short while, so how did she become familiar with the two of them? Not only did he add her on WeChat, but he also sold himself to the two of them ... From Ling Qingxue’s perspective, shouldn’t she hope that she would stay as far away from them as possible? Why did she do the exact opposite? Xia ruofei racked his brains but could not think of a reason for Ling Qingxue’s actions. He also thought of everything that had happened when he was with Lu You and Jiang Yue. Ling Qingxue actually knew everything about it. He could not help but smile bitterly. A familiar voice seemed to ring in his ears. Don’t try to guess what a girl is thinking about a boy. Don’t guess, don’t guess. You won’t understand no matter how much you try to guess. I don’t understand .....

Chapter 348: Welcome, old soldiers

The alcohol he had drunk in the afternoon had long since been washed clean after the ridiculous battle in the afternoon. Hence, Xia ruofei naturally did not need to find a designated driver and drove straight back to Taoyuan farm. When they reached home, the sky was already dark. Cao tieshu and the other workers had just finished work and were walking out. When they saw Xia ruofei and the others, they greeted them. Although Xia ruofei did not get out of the car, he also lowered the window and smiled at them. It could be seen that each of these workers’ faces was brimming with a happy smile. It was obvious that they were very comfortable working on Taoyuan farm. The treatment here was good. Although the work was not particularly easy, the work in the modern constant temperature greenhouse was far simpler than the work in the countryside. Moreover, the boss did not put on airs, and the benefits for the Chinese New Year and other festivals were also very good, so these workers all had a sense of belonging. Xia ruofei had finally bid farewell to his “Virgin life” today and was in a good mood. He waved to the workers and hummed a song as he drove towards the villa. When the car drove into the villa’s courtyard, Xia ruofei saw ye Lingyun and Li Zhifu standing there. Ye Lingyun was holding a large dustpan with both hands and shaking it like a gust of wind. Li Zhifu was giving instructions from time to time. After Xia ruofei parked the car, he walked over curiously. Ye Lingyun immediately stopped when he saw Xia ruofei and shouted,””Brother Xia, you’re back!” “What’s this for?” Xia ruofei asked with a smile. “Oh, the teacher is teaching me how to shake the green!” Ye linyun replied. Shaking green was a process in the making of rock tea. By shaking the green leaves, the leaves would constantly collide and rub against each other, causing the edge of the leaves to gradually damage and deepen evenly. After fermentation and oxidation, a green base and red rim would be produced. Xia ruofei had been listening to li Zhifu’s lessons on making tea and knew that this was an important process. Nowadays, many tea factories used the shaking machine to mass produce tea, but traditional tea – making craftsmen like li Zhifu insisted on shaking the tea by hand. Because no matter how well a machine simulated it, it still relied on a built – in program to execute it mechanically. In fact, the shaking process was first light then heavy. The shaking time was first short then long, and the setting time was first short then long. However, the seemingly simple steps were very knowledgeable. The best tea – making master would decide the next shaking time, the weight, and the setting time according to the changes in the tea Green. This was completely based on experience, and the machine could not simulate it at all. Only by hand could this step be done to the extreme. Xia ruofei did not pay much attention to ye Lingyun these few days. It seemed that his learning progress was quite fast. Xia ruofei looked up at the big dustpan in ye Lingyun's hand and realized that it was not green tea, but wintersweet leaves that could be seen everywhere in the mountains. Xia ruofei couldn't help but be stunned. He asked, "Mr. Li, you're just using these leaves for Ling Yun to practice?" Li Zhifu put on an enigmatic expression and said, "Little ye is still a beginner and is mainly practicing his techniques. Using leaves is enough. It's a waste to let him practice with Tea Green! Besides, there are very few people who grow tea in the three mountains. Where can I find tea Green?" "You're right ..." Xia ruofei said with a smile, "but if you need, I can arrange for someone to transport some tea leaves from Anxi." Anxi was also a tea – producing area, and the Tieguanyin tea leaves it produced were well – known across the country. Although it was a different species from the rock tea of Mount Wu Yi, the tea leaves were far better to practice than these ordinary leaves. Moreover, an Xi was close to Sanshan city, so it was relatively convenient to purchase tea leaves from there, but it would cost a lot. However, in order for ye Lingyun to master his tea – making skills, Xia ruofei would naturally spare no expense. "I'll tell you if I need it in a few days," said li Zhifu with a nod. I'll use the leaves first! "When I was young, I learned how to make tea with an old master. I also started with leaves. At that time, the old master even asked me to shake ordinary leaves to show the effect of green with red edges. Xiao Ye still has a long way to go!" Xia ruofei couldn't help but click his tongue and think about the oxidation effect of the tea Green from shaking ordinary leaves. This was even more difficult than shaking the tea Green directly. It must be done with a very strong hand and extremely keen observation. It seemed that ye Lingyun was going to have a hard time. However, the more strict li Zhifu's requirements were, the happier Xia ruofei was. Only by striving for perfection could he make tea leaves that were different from the rest! In the future, Xia ruofei would have to rely on ye Lingyun to make a top – grade Da Hong Pao for him. How could he not have good skills? Fortunately, ye Lingyun had trained in the Army for a few years and was very tough. Most people would lose their patience very quickly in such a physically exhausting and boring practice. If it were pang Hao, he would probably be tired after shaking it a few times. However, ye linyun was still very calm, and his eyes were filled with determination. Xia ruofei patted ye Lingyun's shoulder and said, "Ling Yun, it's a rare opportunity for old Mr. Li to personally teach you how to make tea. You have to practice diligently!" "I will. Don't worry, brother Xia!" Ye linyun said. Then, he said to li Zhifu, "teacher, can I apply for a few minutes of rest?" I have something to discuss with brother Xia. " After all, Xia ruofei was the owner of this place, so li Zhifu had to give him face. Although he looked a little unhappy, he still nodded in agreement.

Chapter 349: Welcome, veterans (2)

Ye linyun immediately put down the dustpan and said, "Brother Xia, the comrades I contacted have all arrived in the afternoon. I've asked them to settle down in the mobile house next to the construction site. Do you have time now? Is it convenient to meet them?" Xia ruofei's eyes lit up. "Oh? All of them are here? What were they waiting for? Call them over!" "Alright!" Ye linyun said happily. He took out his phone and made a call. After a while, Xia ruofei saw three people standing in a row and one person standing in the middle of the left side of the row. The four of them formed a standard small team formation and walked into the villa in neat steps. Although the four of them were dressed in casual clothes, they could not hide the strong military temperament on their bodies. Each of them still had a short crew cut, and their waists were always straight, and every step they took was vigorous and vigorous. Xia ruofei nodded to himself. He used to be an elite member of the Special Forces, so he could tell that the four of them had excellent military quality. "Stand still!" The young man leading the team gave the order, and the four of them stopped in unison. He ran to ye linyun and said, "Class monitor ye, we're here!" "Don't just stand there," ye linyun said with a nod. "Disband, disband. Come over here!" The three people who were still in line walked over quickly. "This is our boss! You can just call him boss Xia!" Ye linyun introduced. "Hello, boss Xia!" The four of them shouted in unison. Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "We're all brothers. You guys can call me brother Xia like Ling Yun." "Yes!" Ye Lingyun then started to introduce the four old soldiers to Xia ruofei. He first pointed to the young man who had just led the team and said, "This is Lei Hu, he was an assaulter in the Army!" Lei Hu grinned at Xia ruofei and said, "Brother Xia, you can just call me Hu Zi!" Hu Zi ... At this moment, Lin Hu's figure seemed to appear in front of Xia ruofei. This good brother who had blocked a bullet for him ... Xia ruofei was slightly dazed, but he quickly smiled and patted Lei Hu's shoulder. "Alright, Hu, work hard in my company from now on!" "Yes!" Lei Hu straightened his back and replied in a deep voice. "Brother Xia; this is Hong Tao; he's a sniper in the Army; This is Qin Xiaojun; The Dynamiter; and this is Xu Wei, in charge of field medical and communication. His marksmanship is not bad; so it's not a problem for him to occasionally act as a sniper!" "Hello, brother Xia!" The three of them said in unison. Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "Good, not bad! One look and one could tell that they were all good soldiers! Ling Yun has told me about your situation. From now on, you can work in my company without worry. As long as I have something to eat, I will definitely not let you go hungry!" "Thank you, brother Xia!" The four of them said in unison, their eyes revealing a trace of excitement. All four of them came from rural areas, and their family conditions were relatively poor. These veterans were the backbones of the Army, but the skills learned by the special combat units were hardly useful in other places. Unless they went down the wrong path, ordinary companies would not need them at all. So before ye Lingyun called them, the four of them were living a precarious life. Some were working part-time jobs, some were security guards, and their days were tight. In addition, at this age, the heavy burden of the family gradually fell on their shoulders, so the pressure was also increasing. After coming to paradise Corporation, not only was the salary several times higher than before, but more importantly, his old comrades could get together again. People who came from the Army cherished their camaraderie very much. They also missed the time when they ate in the same pot in the military camp. Now that several Good Brothers could work in the same company, it was something that made them very excited. In addition, the salary was so high. It was really a dream job! Lei Hu looked at Xia ruofei curiously and asked, "Brother Xia, I heard from class monitor ye ... Where did you come from?" "There" naturally referred to the lone wolf assault team. This unit was very mysterious, and ordinary soldiers did not even know of its existence. Lei Hu and the others were all soldiers of the Special Forces, so they had heard of the lone wolf assault team. After all, every time the lone wolf absorbed new blood, the main members were from the Special Forces. Ordinary troops could not meet their requirements. Hence, when Lei Hu heard that Xia ruofei had retired from the famous lone wolf and had once been ye Lingyun's training instructor, he was very curious about Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "Yup!" Lei Hu looked at Xia ruofei hesitantly and said, "But ... You look ..." "It doesn't look like it?" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "in your imagination, the people who come out from there should be big and muscular men, right?" "That's not it ..." Lei Hu said, a little embarrassed. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "there are many things that can't be judged on the surface. For example, the four of you!" As long as you have a little experience, you can tell that you are soldiers from the way you walk. Those drug lords at the border are all very sharp. If Lone Wolf's people are all like you, how can you carry out the disguised investigation mission? We're going to be destroyed as soon as we enter the mountain ..." In fact, when Xia ruofei had just left the Army, he was just like the four of them. Every step he took was a standard 75 centimeters. However, when he was on a mission, he could hide his strong military temperament according to his needs. It could be said that if he wore a bamboo hat and coarse clothes, he would be exactly like a border farmer walking in the mountains. Lei Hu revealed a thoughtful look. Xia ruofei laughed and patted Lei Hu's shoulder. "Alright, the few of you should go and rest. I'll let Ling Yun bring you around to familiarize you with your work tomorrow. If there's a chance in the future, I'll spar with you guys ..." With that, Xia ruofei turned around and walked into the villa. Xia ruofei only casually patted Lei Hu's shoulder, but Lei Hu felt a huge force as if Mount Tai was pressing down on him, causing his waist to go soft and he almost knelt down. His shoulder was also burning. Lei Hu could not help but be shocked. As he watched Xia ruofei's back as he left, a bright light flashed in his eyes. "Hu, what's wrong?" Hong Tao asked curiously. Lei Hu came back to his senses and said awkwardly, "Oh ... It's nothing ..." He couldn't possibly say that the boss had given him a moderate amount of pressure the first time they met, right? In fact, when they saw Xia ruofei's thin and weak – looking body, not only Lei Hu, but Hong Tao and the other two also felt that they could not believe that a person like Chi Chi lone wolf could be so weak. Hong Tao looked in the direction of the villa and asked curiously, "Al! How do you think brother Xia got selected for lone wolf? I think his body ... He can't even reach the standard of the Special Forces." Ye linyun, who had been watching coldly from the side, snorted and said, "Hongtao, are you thinking of sparring with brother Xia? Do you want me to spar with you first?" "I wouldn't dare, I wouldn't dare." Hong Tao quickly laughed. "How could I be a match for squad leader Xia?" "If you can't even beat me, then you'd better not fight with brother Xia." "Because brother Xia can easily subdue me with one hand ..." Ye Lingyun replied indifferently. "What?" Hong Tao, Xu Wei, and Qin Xiao Jun cried out in surprise. "Class monitor ye, although brother Xia is our boss, you don't have to praise him like this!" Hong Tao laughed. I won't believe it even if you beat me to death. Brother Xia is so weak that he can subdue you with one hand ..." Ye Lingyun looked at Lei Hu meaningfully and asked, "Hu, Hong Tao doesn't seem to believe what I said. What do you think?"

Chapter 350: A full sense of accomplishment (1)

Obviously, ye Lingyun had already seen what happened. "Ah?" Lei Hu looked at ye Lingyun, who seemed to be smiling but not smiling. He scratched his head awkwardly and said, "well ... I suddenly remembered that I still have a few clothes to wash. I'll go back first ..." With that, Lei Hu took another long look at the villa and then walked out. Hong Tao and the other two looked at each other, not understanding what was going on. "What are you all standing there for?" ye Lingyun laughed and scolded. Why aren't you going back to do your chores? Do you want to exchange a few moves with me?" Hong Tao and the other two immediately scattered like birds and beasts. "We only have one night to rest," ye Lingyun shouted from behind them. "Go do what you need to do. We'll start working tomorrow!" "I know, class monitor ye!" After Hong Tao and the others left, ye Lingyun walked to the stone table in the courtyard. Li Zhifu had been sitting there with a teapot, watching ye Lingyun and the others with interest. "Teacher, let's continue with our practice!" Ye linyun said respectfully. In front of the soldiers that he had led, ye Lingyun could be imposing. However, in front of li Zhifu, ye Lingyun had always been a disciple, even though li Zhifu had not officially accepted him as a disciple. Li Zhifu chuckled as he put down the teapot.

The old man and the young man began their “hands – on teaching” again. Ye Lingyun continued to “take in the air” in the yard with the big dustpan. As a beginner, ye Lingyun’s movements had no sense of rhythm or beauty to speak of. Even lightning was hiding far away in its kennel, sticking its head out and looking at ye Lingyun in confusion. .... When it was dinner time, Xia ruofei asked ye Lingyun to call Lei Hu, Hong Tao, and the rest over so that they could have a meal together in the villa. After being discharged from the Army, these soldiers had been separated from each other. Today, including Xia ruofei, there were already six people gathered. It was a rare occasion. When soldiers gathered together for a meal, it was natural to drink. Xia ruofei had specially prepared ten bottles of the Drunken Eight Immortals. Although it was not the best Drunken Eight Immortals with the flower petal solution, it was still a good wine compared to the average white wine on the market. Lei Hu and the others also exclaimed in satisfaction. Today was their first day at Tao Yuan farm. Whether it was the food they ate or the wine they drank, they were all things that could not be bought with money. It was the first time Lei Hu and the rest had tasted such a delicacy. Moreover, the salary and benefits were so high, and he could even get together with his comrades and brothers. If life was like this, what more could a man ask for? Seeing how happy the young people were, even li Zhifu made an exception and drank a cup of Drunken Eight Immortals. The meal went on for more than two hours. At last, Xia ruofei raised his glass and said, “Brothers, it’s fate that we’re all gathered together today. I won’t say much, but since we’re here at paradise Corporation, we’re a family. We were comrades in the Army, but now that we’ve left, we’re Good Brothers from now on! Come, let’s drink this!” “Cheers!” “Thank you, brother Xia!” Lei Hu and the others all had excited expressions on their faces. They stood up and clinked their glasses, raising their heads to drink. Xia ruofei laughed and slammed his cup on the table. He wiped his mouth and said, “Satisfying!” Xia ruofei continued, “it’s getting late. Everyone, go back and rest!” The company’s staff dormitories are still under construction. Everyone should try to overcome this problem during this time. The conditions will be better in the future!” “Brother Xia, we’re from the Army, so we don’t have to be so particular!” Lei Hu said with a smile. Xia ruofei’s seemingly casual Pat in the evening had already made Lei Hu’s underestimation of him disappear. An expert must know his place. Lei Hu knew that this lone wolf – born, seemingly thin and weak boss in front of him did not have an undeserved reputation. Hence, he did not dare to be the slightest bit negligent towards Xia ruofei. Hong Tao and the other two had been following Lei Hu’s lead ever since they were in the Army. In addition, Xia ruofei was their boss now. Although they still had doubts about Xia ruofei’s skills, they were all very respectful and obedient. Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. “I think it won’t take long for our company to grow. By then, we might even have to send some of our people overseas. The current manpower in the security Department is still far from enough. Everyone can take note of it. If you find any retired comrades with good quality, you can recommend them to Ling Yun. We’ll be recruiting another group of people soon.” Lei Hu and the others were overjoyed and quickly nodded in agreement. The mess on the table was naturally cleaned up by ye Lingyun, Lei Hu, and the others. Xia ruofei greeted li Zhifu and went straight upstairs to his room. He carefully locked the door and windows, drew the curtains, and then summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm. With a thought, Xia ruofei entered the original space. The pot of jade lion Mo Lan was quietly placed in the open space beside the spatial spirit pond. Xia ruofei walked over and watered it with some petal solution. Then, he fetched some water from the spatial spirit pond and carefully washed every single leaf of the mo Lan. Then, Xia ruofei found a watering can and filled it with some petal solution. He sprayed the petals and leaves of the orchid. The leaves of this pot of Molan seemed to be even greener after they were washed. When the liquid petals were sprayed on them, they looked like dewdrops, making the entire pot of flowers look delicate and beautiful. Xia ruofei knew that the mo Lan was greedily absorbing the nutrients in the petal solution every second. In addition, the extremely rich spiritual energy in the original space was nourishing it at all times. He believed that after three months (three days in the outside world), this pot of Mo Lan would definitely undergo a complete transformation.
