

God tier Farm 441

Chapter 441: Housewarming (2)

At this time, Xia ruofei was sitting in the taxi. The car was about to reach Taoyuan farm. He looked at the caller ID and picked up the phone with a smile.

"Xia ruofei, guess what my mom told me?" Lu You asked happily.

Xia ruofei smiled. "Miss Lu, I can feel your joy even through the phone. It must be something good, right?"

"Mm! Not only did my mom not scold me, but she also promised me that she would stop urging me to date song Rui during my university days." Lu You said happily, "Xia ruofei, that trick of yours worked! It seems that my mom is really scared this time ..."

Xia ruofei was speechless. He had scared his mother so badly, yet he was still so happy. This was the legendary naughty child!

"Don't talk nonsense! When have I ever given you any advice?" Xia ruofei said, "this is all your own idea!"

He couldn't admit to this even if he was beaten to death. If Tian Huilan found out, wouldn't she hate him to death?

Lu You chuckled and said, "you're the one who taught me this!" Xia ruofei, why don't you just stay on the farm? let's have a meal to celebrate!"

Xia ruofei quickly said, "let's not eat!" I have a lot of things to do at my farm, and I'm almost there. Do you have the heart to make me go back?"

Lu You's eyes flashed with a hint of disappointment. She pouted and said, "If you don't come, I'll tell my mom that you were the one who taught me to say those words today!"

Lu You was in a rather good mood today. She felt as if a heavy rock that had been weighing down on her for the past few days had been lifted. When she spoke to Xia ruofei, she was a little unruly like before.

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and said, "miss Lu, you can't be like this!" Aren't you burning the bridge after crossing the river and killing the donkey when the grinding is done?"

Lu You chuckled and said, "aren't you a donkey?" And it's a dumb donkey!"

At this point, Lu You's eyes could not help but have a strange look.

However, even someone as smart as Xia ruofei did not understand the hidden meaning behind Lu You's words. He only smiled bitterly and said, "Lu You, I really can't do it today. Lei Hu knows that I'm in jail. My brothers must be worried about me now! Another day! I'll treat you to a meal some other day!"

If it was in the past, Lu You would not have let Xia ruofei off so easily.

But today, she acted differently. She thought for a moment and said, "Alright! Then it's a deal! I'll be waiting for your treat!"

Xia ruofei felt like he had been granted Amnesty and quickly said, ""Good, good, good! I'll treat you to a private meal another day!"

When Lu You heard the word 'alone', her eyes immediately lit up and she said, ""Mm! I'll hang up first ..."

After she finished speaking, she quickly hung up the phone and held the phone in front of her chest. Her heart was still beating fast and a bright smile appeared on her face. After a long time, she put the phone away and hummed a song softly before driving away from the municipal Party Committee compound.

Xia ruofei alighted at the entrance of Taoyuan farm. Lei Hu, who had been guarding the entrance, immediately came out from the security room and asked, ""Brother Xia, the police didn't make things difficult for you, right?"

Xia ruofei smiled. "It's nothing. They're just here to understand some things."

Lei Hu thought to himself, "he's even handcuffed. How can he just understand the situation?" However, since the boss didn't say anything, he naturally wouldn't get to the bottom of it.

Xia ruofei then asked about the farm.

Fortunately, Lei Hu followed his instructions and did not spread the news of him being taken away by the police. Even on pang Hao's side, Lei Hu only said that Xia ruofei had something to do and had put him in charge of the farm temporarily. Hence, everything on the farm was running as usual and there was no chaos.

Only then did Xia ruofei relax. He praised Lei Hu and then walked towards the villa on the farm.

In the following days, Xia ruofei's life returned to normal.

Other than inspecting the construction site, the greenhouse, and the orchard on the farm, he rarely interfered with the general specific Affairs. He spent most of his time reading books, surfing the internet, and of course, taking care of the animals and plants in the interspace.

Lei Hu still drove to Mount Wuyi to deliver medicine to li Zhifu regularly. Every time, he would bring back news that ye Lingyun was studying at Mount Wuyi.

What made Xia ruofei happy was that under li Zhifu's hands – on teaching, ye Lingyun's learning progress was very fast. The facts proved that he was indeed quite talented in making tea. Li Zhifu's unique skills could be considered to have a successor, and Xia ruofei was about to gain a great master.

Xia ruofei would also return to the city from time to time, mainly to go on dates with Ling Qingxue.

People in love would love to stick together all day, but they both had their own careers, so they could only meet occasionally.

Of course, this did not affect their relationship. On the contrary, almost every time, absence makes the heart grow fonder, and they would have sex in the hotel room that Xia ruofei had booked in advance. Every time, it would end with Ling Qingxue panting and begging for mercy.

The body tempering soup strengthened Xia ruofei in all aspects, including his ability in that aspect.

During this period of time, Xia ruofei would take the body tempering soup and the spirit nurturing soup on time when the time was right. His body and spiritual power were constantly improving.

However, after drinking the soup twice, Xia ruofei was still unable to restore the contents of the fourth page of the booklet. As for the spiritual spirals described on the third page, Xia ruofei was still unable to see the whole picture.

However, according to the information he had now, this “soul puppet” seemed to be different from anything that Xia ruofei had obtained before. He could feel the magic of this thing from the description in the booklet.

Xia ruofei’s appetite had been whetted, and he was looking forward to the contents of the fourth page.

The days passed uneventfully for more than ten days. The new complex on the farm was finally completed. Liang Weimin personally asked about it and sent the best team. The workers worked in almost three shifts, so the progress of the project was surprisingly fast.

This was Tao Yuan farm’s first new building, so Xia ruofei still held a ribbon – cutting ceremony.

He had invited quite a few special guests.

Xia ruofei invited his future father – in – Law, Ling Xiaotian, the chairman of the Ling Ji F & B, President Zheng of Xi Jiang Yue, Liang Qichao’s father, Liang Weimin, and others. In addition, the executive deputy head of Changping County, Wu Liqian, the deputy head of jianggang town, Wu Gang, and the director of Dongkeng village, ruan Fugui, were also on the list.

The words “Taoyuan farm complex’s ribbon – cutting ceremony” were pasted on the inflatable arch. Rows of chairs were placed neatly below. The main participants of the ribbon – cutting ceremony were the construction workers, the workers of Taoyuan farm, and the guests invited by Xia ruofei.

The workers had all changed into clean and tidy clothes, and each of them was sitting in their seats excitedly. There were more than 30 apartments in this complex building. Even the local workers, such as Cao tieshu and the others, were given a room for lunch, but it was the kind where a few people lived together.

As for Lei Hu and the others, each of them would be given a small apartment with one bedroom and one living room. Although the area was not large, it was already super good compared to the security guards of other companies.

There was also a staff cafeteria on the first floor of the complex. When it officially opened in the future, all employees would be able to enjoy a free lunch.

There were many flower baskets on both sides of the arch. They were all sent by President Zheng, Ling Xiaotian, and the others in the name of their respective companies. Dongkeng village and jianggang town were also very supportive and sent flower baskets.

Xia ruofei had also changed into a well – ironed suit today. He was standing in front of the building to welcome the guests personally.

Just as Xia ruofei was chatting with Wu Gang and ruan Fugui, a black Passat car silently drove into the small square in front of the building.

Before Xia ruofei could react, Wu Gang's eyes had already lit up. He quickly walked up to them with ruan Fugui.

Xia ruofei took a closer look and saw Wu Liqian, who was dressed in a beige business suit, getting out of the car with a smile on her face. At this time, Wu Gang had already jogged over to Wu Liqian.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but exclaim, "these officials are really good at reading people and their reaction speed is too fast!"

Wu Liqian responded to Wu Gang and ruan Fugui's greetings with a reserved smile on her face. Then, she walked towards Xia ruofei, the smile on her face gradually spreading.

Chapter 442: Immortals from all walks of life (1)

Wu Liqian obviously didn't inform jianggang town. Otherwise, not only would the invited Deputy Mayor come, but their Secretary and Mayor would have come to wait at Taoyuan farm long ago.

Xia ruofei naturally walked up quickly and extended his hand from afar. "County Head Wu, welcome, welcome!"

Wu Liqian's eyes were smiling as she said, "Ruofei, congratulations! The business is getting bigger and bigger. "

"No, no, it's just a small fight." Xia ruofei replied humbly and then said, "but you look younger and prettier."

When Wu Gang heard this, his heart couldn't help but race. It was rare to see someone who dared to speak to Wu Liqian in such a manner in Changping County. Although this beautiful Deputy County Head was young, she had already established her prestige among the cadres and the masses. She had a lot of power in her hands and was an important figure in Changping County.

In fact, if there weren't so many people present, Xia ruofei would have spoken to Wu Liqian more casually.

Moreover, after Wu Liqian used the jade skin cream, she did look much younger, and she was in high spirits.

Wu Liqian's face blushed a little but quickly returned to normal. After a few words of greeting, Xia ruofei led Wu Liqian to the guest area.

The ribbon – cutting ceremony was to start at 9:38 in the morning. Liang Weimin had helped the Feng Shui Master calculate the auspicious time. As property developers believed in Feng Shui, Liang Weimin had taken the initiative to help arrange the ribbon – cutting ceremony, so Xia ruofei could not reject his good intentions and had to do as he had arranged.

There was still some time before the ceremony started. Xia ruofei was chatting with Wu Liqian and the others in the guest area.

Naturally, Wu Liqian became the center of attention. Although Liang Weimin, President Zheng, Ling Xiaotian, and the others were all countless times richer than Wu Liqian, in Huaxia where officials were the most important, an executive Deputy County Head still carried quite a lot of weight in such an occasion.

Ling Qingxue, who had accompanied Ling Xiaotian to the ribbon – cutting ceremony, was also standing beside Xia ruofei. For some reason, ever since Wu Liqian had arrived, Ling Qingxue had subconsciously moved closer to Xia ruofei. She even held Xia ruofei's arm tightly, as if she was declaring her ownership.

A woman's intuition was sometimes quite sharp.

Xia ruofei didn't notice anything strange. Wu Liqian was also in the crowd as usual. Only when no one noticed did her eyes flash with a faint sense of loss.

As they were talking, three black Mercedes – Benz cars drove into the small square in front of the complex.

Xia ruofei looked over in confusion – all the guests he had invited were here. Who could it be?

The car door opened quickly. Xia ruofei recognized the woman who got out of the car in front. She was the person in charge of Hengfeng group in the southeast province of Hong Kong. The woman's name was Feng Yun. She used to be the manager of the southeast Branch of Hengfeng jewelry. Later, due to her outstanding performance, she was transferred to the southeast Branch of Hengfeng group as the person in charge and coordinated all of the Hengfeng Group's business in the southeast province.

A middle – aged man in his early forties got out of the other car. He was also wearing a well – tailored suit and had an extraordinary aura. However, Xia ruofei did not recognize him.

As for the third car, it was quietly parked on the spot, and no one got out.

Since they were guests, Xia ruofei greeted Wu Liqian and the others and went up to them with a smile.

Feng Yun, who had gotten off the car first, walked up to Xia ruofei and said with a respectful expression, "Mr. Xia, I've been entrusted by the head office's President Ma to congratulate your company on your housewarming."

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment. He felt that MA Xiong was making a mountain out of a molehill. He had only built a building on the farm. Although it was the company's first building, it was still a little too much to call it "housewarming."

However, Xia ruofei still smiled and expressed his gratitude.

Feng Yun immediately asked the driver and assistant to bring the big flower basket to the arch. Then, she took out an exquisite gift box from her bag and handed it to Xia ruofei. She smiled and said, "Mr. Xia, this is a small gift from our company."

"You're too kind, Chairman MA. " Xia ruofei said as he took the gift box.

Xia ruofei opened the box and saw a Jade thumb ring and a jade bangle. These two jade products were obviously made from the same material. Xia ruofei had been in contact with so many Jade materials that he was already used to it.

Hence, Xia ruofei could not help but exclaim, ""The king's Green!"

The Jade ring and bracelet were all made of the best Imperial Green jade. Although it was not as transparent as the ice type, the ring and bracelet were worth at least hundreds of thousands or even a million.

"This gift is too expensive ..." Xia ruofei said with a bitter smile. "Manager Feng, I dare not accept it!"

"Mr. Xia, this is the Chairman's kind intentions," Feng Yun said with a smile. "If you don't accept it, I won't dare to take it back!" Besides ... These are our company's own products, and the cost isn't as high as the market price. "

Hengfeng group started out in the jewelry business. Now, Hengfeng jewelry's influence in the world, especially in Greater China, was still one of the best in the industry. For them, the thumb ring and Jade really didn't cost that much money.

Chapter 443: Immortals from all walks of life (2)

"Mr. Xia," Feng Yun continued, "our Chairman said that the bangle is for your girlfriend. You can't possibly reject this too, right?"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. "Manager Feng, please thank Chairman MA on my behalf. I'll accept the gift."

"Alright," he said.

Xia ruofei gestured for pang Hao to lead Feng Yun to the guest area and take her seat. Then, he turned to look at the middle – aged man who had just gotten out of the Mercedes – Benz behind them.

When Xia ruofei and Feng Yun were talking, this middle – aged man had been waiting at the side with a smile and did not look impatient at all.

Before Xia ruofei could ask, the middle – aged man introduced himself, ""Hello, Mr. Xia! I'm the United States of shengbang Corporation in China, Zhou Qing. "

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment before he reacted.

Isn't shengbang Corporation the company of elder Tang in the United States?

"So it's CEO Zhou, nice to meet you!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Zhou Qing had a warm smile on his face and said, ""Mr. Xia, I'm here today on behalf of the head office's Chairman, Mr. Tang He, to congratulate your company on your housewarming."

These words were exactly the same as what Feng Yun had said earlier.

Xia ruofei was speechless. Why did elder Tang, who was on the other side of the ocean, also come to join in the fun?

Xia ruofei wasn't surprised that old master Tang had received the news. Liang Weimin was the one who had organized Qianqian's ribbon – cutting ceremony. Old master Tang was Liang Weimin's uncle, so he must have been the one who told him.

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei suddenly thought of Liang Qichao. He had followed elder Tang to the ocean, but he had not even called him for a long time. He did not know if he had gotten what he wanted and was sent to work at Paradise Farm in Australia.

Of course, this was just a fleeting thought. Xia ruofei immediately smiled and said to Zhou Qing, "Elder Tang is too polite. It's just a small complex, there's really no need for this. I'm really sorry to trouble you to make a trip down personally, general manager Zhou."

This kind of building that cost millions of dollars was indeed nothing in the eyes of Tang He, a super – rich man with a net worth of tens of billions of dollars. He could buy a yacht or a villa for more than this price.

Of course, Xia ruofei also knew that this was just elder Tang's way of expressing his goodwill.

"It's no trouble at all. This is a task personally assigned by Chairman Tang." Zhou Qing chuckled and said, "besides, I've long heard of Mr. Xia. You're indeed young and promising!"

"Director Zhou, you're too kind!" Xia ruofei said humbly.

Zhou Qing had also brought a large flower basket. Two assistants had already carried the flower basket to the arch. This was a common practice in China. It was not about how much the flower basket was worth, but how important the name or company on the flower basket was.

The more important it was, the more face the master would have.

Therefore, after the two flower baskets from Hengfeng group and shengbang group were moved over, Ling Xiaotian, President Zheng, and the others looked at Xia ruofei in a different light. These two companies, which were both big companies in the world, had actually sent flower baskets over at the same time.

And it was just for the opening ceremony of an office building inside a farm.

Especially Ling Xiaotian, when he looked at Xia ruofei, the smile on his face was much more amiable than usual. He was even more satisfied with his future son – in – Law.

Zhou Qing pointed to the brand new Mercedes – Benz at the end and said, "Mr. Xia, that car is a housewarming gift from Chairman Tang. After the event is over, please send someone to hand it over to us, and there are some necessary procedures to be done."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but take a deep breath. This old master Tang and old master Ma were really generous.

Xia ruofei recognized the brand new Mercedes – Benz at a glance. It was the new S – Class of this year. This was a high – end imported business car. The entry – Level version cost more than one million Yuan. The top 4.0 t model cost nearly 1.9 million Yuan.

And with elder Tang's status, how could he possibly give a beginner – Level gift? Xia ruofei did not even need to look to know that the car must be of the best model.

Sure enough, Zhou Qing smiled and said, "Mr. Xia, old master Tang said that although you have a Knight XV off – Road vehicle, you don't have the company's business car. His 4.0 t Mercedes – Benz S – Class sedan can barely match your status. It's the most suitable for business purposes."

The corner of Xia ruofei's mouth twitched. He smiled bitterly and said, "President Zhou, I'm just a small company. I don't have to be so particular about this ... But since elder Tang has spoken, I'll accept this gift. Please convey my gratitude!"

"Alright!" Zhou Qing said with a smile.

"It's almost time. Director Zhou, please follow me to the guest area!" Xia ruofei said.

"Mr. Xia, please!" Zhou Qing said courteously.

As a senior executive of shengbang Corporation, Zhou Qing did not look down on Xia ruofei just because he was a young boss. On the contrary, he even treated Xia ruofei with a trace of respect.

This was naturally because of Grandpa Tang He.

Fortunately, Liang Weimin had left some space for himself when he was preparing for the ribbon – cutting ceremony. There were also some extra seats in the guest area, including the Golden Scissors used during the ribbon – cutting ceremony.

Without waiting for Xia ruofei's instructions, Liang Weimin had already taken the initiative to call the emcee and the hostess to the side. After changing the schedule at the last minute, Zhou Qing and Feng Yun would definitely have to go on stage to cut the ribbon.

Chapter 444: Immortals from all walks of life (3)

Meanwhile, Ling Xiaotian and the others had already started to chat with Zhou Qing and Feng Yun. Even Wu Liqian was smiling warmly as she chatted with the two of them. These two were the middle and upper echelons of large financial groups. If they could pull in one or two investments for Changping County, it would be a resounding political achievement.

Of course, Wu Liqian didn't realize at this time that there was actually a Peach Blossom Farm in the Changping County under her rule. Its future political achievements were already extremely brilliant.

Moreover, this Taoyuan farm was personally introduced by her, so others couldn't snatch it away even if they wanted to.

About ten minutes before 9:38, another car drove into the small square.

After Xia ruofei received Lei Hu's reminder, he could not help but smile bitterly. "What was going on today? It was just a small ceremony, so why were there so many uninvited guests?"

I wonder who will return this time?

Xia ruofei stood up from his seat and walked towards the car.

It was a flashy Porsche Cayenne. Just as Xia ruofei was trying to guess which tycoon it was, he saw a thin figure jump out.

Isn't that song Rui? Why did he come to join in the fun?

Song Rui was carrying a long paper box under his arm. He walked towards Xia ruofei with his signature wicked smile.

Xia ruofei simply stood still and waited for him to greet his brothers. He was too lazy to welcome them. The ceremony was about to start, and Xia ruofei had to go on stage to give a speech soon!

"Young master Song, what's the situation?" Xia ruofei waited for song Rui to come before he asked, "why did you come here today?"

Song Rui grinned as he looked at Ling Qingxue, who was holding Xia ruofei's arm tightly. He asked, "RUO Fei, this must be my sister – in – Law!"

Ling Qingxue's face blushed slightly, but she was very happy in her heart.

Xia ruofei nodded his head casually and introduced her to Ling Qingxue, "Qingxue, this is my good brother, song Rui."

"My girlfriend, Ling Qingxue," he said to song Rui.

Song Rui immediately bowed slightly to Ling Qingxue and said, "Good day, sister – in – Law!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but criticize, "this kid is obviously a few years older than me, but he's so thick – skinned and calls me sister – in – Law. He's really good at acting young!"

"Nice to meet you, song Rui," Ling Qingxue blushed and said.

"Sister – in – Law, ruofei and I are Good Brothers. You can just call me Xiao Rui!" Song Rui said enthusiastically.

Ling Qingxue had a good impression of song Rui, who kept calling her sister – in – Law and was rather friendly. She immediately smiled and said, "Alright, I'll call you Xiao Rui then."

When Wu Liqian saw that Xia ruofei, Ling Qingxue, and song Rui were chatting happily, she couldn't help but look thoughtful. She had been working for Tian Huilan for many years. She had accompanied Tian Huilan to xiangnan province for an inspection and had seen song Zhengping, Wang sumei, and song Rui's family.

Song Zhengping was a Governor and a relative of elder song, a legendary general and one of the core leaders of Huaxia. Wu Liqian naturally had a deep impression of this family, so she recognized song Rui as soon as he arrived.

Wu Liqian was talking to the people beside her, but her attention had already shifted to Xia ruofei.

Just then, Xia ruofei asked, "young master Song, why are you here?" Don't tell me you're here to freeload a meal?"

At this time, song Rui's words made Wu Liqian couldn't help but reveal a horrified expression. Song Rui smiled and said, "Don't belittle me! Am I such a person with no class? I'm here with a mission today! My old man heard that you moved to a new office building and sent me here to congratulate you!"

Chapter 445: The big banquet (1)

Wu Liqian's head was buzzing. She couldn't believe her ears.

Wasn't Song Rui's old man the old man who had appeared in the news almost every day in the past few years?

For a small farm in Changping County, an office building that cost less than a few million Yuan was completed, and he even sent his grandson to congratulate him?

Could it be that after a few years of retirement, the old man had become so idle?

Of course, Wu Liqian knew that an old chief like Elder Song, even if he was no longer in his position, his influence in the country was still unparalleled. What's more, although he had retired, the Song family was still one of the top families in China's political scene. No matter what, it was impossible for them to have the time to pay attention to such a small farm.

The only explanation was that Xia Ruofei had a very high status in the old man's heart.

Wu Liqian couldn't help but take a few more glances at Xia Ruofei.

Xia Ruofei was also surprised. He said, "No way? The old general is actually concerned about such a small matter, what right do I have to do so?"

"I think so too," Song Rui grinned and said, "you must have brainwashed my grandfather!"

Xia Ruofei punched Song Rui's chest and laughed. "Get lost! I was just being humble, and you took it seriously!"

"I don't think you're overwhelmed by the favor!" Song Rui laughed and said, "if this were any other person, they would have gone crazy with joy, right?"

"Nonsense, Who are you? I've seen big scenes!" Xia Ruofei said.

After he finished speaking, he reached out to Song Rui and said, "Hand it over?"

"What do you want?"

"Nonsense! Since the Bureau chief sent you here, would he let you come empty-handed?" Xia Ruofei said bluntly, "since you're here to congratulate me, then quickly bring out the gift!"

"You're really not holding back ..." Song Rui smiled bitterly and handed the long paper box to Xia Ruofei. "Hold on to it!" This is a piece of calligraphy that the old master personally wrote this morning. You're lucky ..."

Song Rui's tone was sour.

Because Elder Song rarely gave inscriptions to others, his calligraphy was priceless. Even Song Rui, as Elder Song's grandson, had begged him several times but failed to get a posthumous child.

Of course, it was also possible that Elder Song knew what kind of person his grandson was, so he didn't write for him easily.

But no matter what, song Rui was very envious when he saw Xia ruofei get elder song's calligraphy so easily!

As for Wu Liqian, who had been paying attention to the situation here, she was even more shocked after hearing it.

Xia ruofei felt as if he had found a treasure and quickly took the paper box. Elder song's personal inscription was not as exaggerated as an amulet, but at least it had a significant meaning.

At this moment, Liang Weimin came over to remind Xia ruofei that the auspicious time had arrived and that he had to prepare to go on stage to give his speech.

He said it as if Xia ruofei was a groom waiting for the wedding ceremony.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not have the time to introduce song Rui to the entrepreneurs and officials. He asked pang Hao to find a seat for song Rui.

As for elder song's calligraphy piece, Xia Rufei handed it over to Ling Qingxue and said, "Qingxue, you have to help me take good care of it. This thing is too precious ..."

"Don't worry! I'll keep my hand on it!" Ling Qingxue chuckled.

"Yes, don't give it to anyone else." Xia ruofei said.

After he finished speaking, he walked towards the temporary stage in the small square. After two steps, Xia ruofei hurried back and took out the gift box from Hengfeng group from his pocket.

Xia ruofei stuffed the gift box into Ling Qingxue's hands and said, "This is a gift from Mr. MA from Hong Kong. Please keep it well for me. There is a pair of bracelets inside for you. Open it and see if you like it."

Ling Qingxue nodded. "I understand. Ruofei, you can go now!" She said.

The emcee that Liang Weimin had invited had already started speaking on stage. After a brief opening speech, Xia ruofei went up to the small stage amidst the applause of the audience.

Now that Xia ruofei had seen the world, he did not prepare a script and started his speech in front of the microphone.

Of course, the content of the speech was nothing more than to thank the local government for their support, to thank the higher – ups, to thank the business partners, and so on. In the end, Xia ruofei also announced that the first batch of foreign employees of paradise Corporation would be allocated a single apartment in the mixed – use building. If the employees got married and brought their family members over, they could apply to change to a two – bedroom apartment. Xia ruofei had specially reserved more than ten two – bedroom apartments. Besides five for entertaining guests, the remaining ten were reserved for the employees.

Following that, Xia ruofei also announced some incentive systems. For example, those who were promoted to supervisor level would receive better treatment in terms of housing. In reality, at the current stage of Tao Yuan farm, the only supervisors were Cao tieshu and Lei Hu. Pang Hao and ye Lingyun were considered to be in the middle level of the company, and their positions were slightly higher than Cao tieshu and the others.

Of course, Xia ruofei also announced that the company was going to recruit a few cleaners and chefs. In addition, he was going to recruit a new batch of farm workers and expand the security team. The farm would provide free lunch for the employees, and the company's cafeteria would provide breakfast and dinner. The employees could use their credit cards to pay for their meals, so the food would naturally be much cheaper than outside.

When the employees of Tao Yuan farm heard this, they cheered. At the same time, when they heard that Xia ruofei wanted to continue recruiting, their thoughts started to wander. Tao Yuan farm's treatment could be said to be first – Class in the surrounding areas. It was even better than some of the companies in the city. As for the treatment of the factories in the county and town, it was not on the same level as that of Tao Yuan company.

Chapter 446: The big banquet (2)

Other than salary, the company also offered various benefits such as insurance, overtime allowance, and so on. Cao tieshu and the rest walked around the village with their heads held high. They all felt proud and the villagers were quite envious of them.

Now that the company was recruiting again, Cao tieshu and the others wanted to quickly send the news back to Yingluo. Everyone was a local, so who didn't have relatives or friends? This was inside information! If one's relatives and friends could be one step ahead of others, they might have the upper hand.

The construction workers who attended the ribbon – cutting ceremony with them were very envious of Yingluo and the others who worked on the construction site. They were dirty and tired. Many of them were not even treated as well as the farm workers!

Xia ruofei's speech wasn't long, and it was time to cut the ribbon.

Originally, Xia ruofei had arranged for Wu Liqian, Liang Weimin, Ling Xiaotian, President Zheng, and himself to be there for a total of five people.

Now, with the addition of Feng Yun and Zhou Qing, the ribbon – cutting guests had become seven people.

Fortunately, the company in charge of the ceremony had also prepared spare Golden Scissors, plates, and so on. They had just lengthened the red silk cloth temporarily and made two more silk flowers. Then, they had also pulled the two girls in charge of welcoming guests over to act as etiquette ladies.

Xia ruofei and the others cut the red silk at the same time. The red silk was divided into several sections. On each tray was an auspicious red silk flower. Then, Lei Hu and the others below the stage divided the work according to their division of labor. Some twisted open the flower, and some went to the other side of the square to light firecrackers.

The ribbon – cutting ceremony was completed in a lively manner.

After that, the workers who were 'there' to make up the numbers were dismissed. The guests, accompanied by Xia ruofei, began to tour the complex.

The first floor of the building was mainly used for security, surveillance, canteen, storage, and some administrative office.

The second floor was mainly office space, including the chairman's office, the Finance Office, and other important places.

This building was quite different from the office buildings in the city. It took up a large area and each floor was spacious. Xia ruofei was used to being the boss, so he didn't waste time setting up an entire floor of super – Large offices here.

The third to sixth floors were all dormitory rooms. There were single apartments, two – bedroom apartments, and spare rooms.

There were a total of five suites used as guest houses, ten two – bedroom apartments, and more than 30 single apartments.

It was enough for the current Peach Blossom Farm.

As for the company's future development, it didn't matter. The company's headquarters definitely wouldn't be in this remote countryside for a long time. Now that paradise corporation's reputation was growing, in the future, it was necessary to set up human resources, administrative logistics, finance, and other departments. The company's headquarters would definitely be moved to the office building in the city.

Otherwise, it would not fit the image of a big company!

This place was mainly in charge of the operation of the farm base, so these employee apartments were definitely enough.

Besides, Xia ruofei only needed to ensure that the first few batches of employees had rooms to live in. If the new recruits did not have rooms, then so be it. There would only be incentives if there was a difference.

Xia ruofei had helped Liang Weimin a lot last time, so he put in a lot of effort into this project. Not only did he ask manager Li to keep an eye on the project, but he also came a few times to supervise the progress.

It could be said that Liang Weimin didn't earn a single cent from this project. If the same cost was based on the market price, it could only build four to five floors at most.

Moreover, the interior decoration was all made of high – Quality materials with a good price – Performance ratio. They were environmentally friendly, durable, and did not waste money.

Everyone looked around, and those who knew the ropes were secretly amazed.

Even those who didn't know much about the farm were all exclaiming that the benefits of the farm's employees were too good. The conditions were too comfortable.

In fact, Xia ruofei's Taoyuan farm was different from ordinary farms. The cost of raw materials was similar to that of ordinary farms, and they did not use chemical fertilizers. The cost expenditure was very low, and the price of the agricultural products was several times or even dozens of times the market price. It made a huge profit.

That was why Xia ruofei did not mind giving his employees a higher salary and benefits. He felt that it was worth it to use this limited effort to exchange for the loyalty of his employees. He was not being a fool.

Even if the price of the land was slightly more expensive than the market price, Xia ruofei did not hesitate to decide on the rental of land in Dongkeng village.

If the other farms were to spend as extravagantly as Xia ruofei, they would close down at any moment.

After the tour, Xia ruofei led the guests to the newly built staff cafeteria.

In China, when people came to support you, as the host, you naturally had to treat them well. At least, you would get to eat.

Naturally, Xia ruofei could not travel alone.

All the facilities in the staff canteen were brand new. Although they had not hired a chef yet, Xia ruofei had a future father – in – Law who was a food and beverage chain magnate. Naturally, it would not be a problem for him to hire a chef.

The executive chef of Ling Ji F & B personally led a few chefs to the canteen to prepare a sumptuous lunch.

The majority of the ingredients used were vegetables, fruits, and fruits produced by Tao Yuan farm. The meat ingredients were also top – grade products that Ling Xiaotian had arranged for someone to purchase from the supplier of Ling Ji food and beverage.

Cao tieshu's heart ached for Xia ruofei to use so many Taoyuan vegetables to entertain his guests. He was the most aware of the value of these Taoyuan vegetables. Seeing Lei Hu and the rest move boxes of fresh vegetables from the greenhouse to the canteen, Cao tieshu's heart trembled. If these vegetables were to be sold, they would be worth at least a few thousand or even ten to twenty thousand HxB!

Naturally, Xia ruofei did not feel the pinch. Not only did he use Taoyuan vegetables, but even the wine for the luncheon was all aged Drunken Eight Immortals from Xia ruofei's interspace.

The customers naturally enjoyed the meal, especially those who loved to drink. They couldn't stop praising the improved Drunken Eight Immortals.

Ling Xiaotian did not miss the opportunity to promote the new winery that they had acquired.

After learning that the white wine at the luncheon, which was not inferior to the Maotai Wuliangye, would be on the market in more than half a month, the guests were all very interested and began to chat with Ling Xiaotian and Xia ruofei.

Song Rui was envious of Xia ruofei when he saw that Xia ruofei was doing well.

Xia ruofei was two years younger than him, but his career was already doing well. On the other hand, he had to study in his family's company and face all kinds of restrictions.

The children of the big families looked bright on the outside, but only they knew what they felt in their hearts.

Xia ruofei's company wasn't big, but the sense of freedom and success from starting a business was enough to make song Rui envious.

As song Rui's identity was special, Xia ruofei did not introduce him to the guests in detail. Therefore, Wu Liqian was still the core of the lunch.

Song Rui was naturally not unhappy about this. He was a person who advocated freedom, which could be seen from his desire to escape from marriage and go abroad. Therefore, he did not like such social events.

Besides, this was his good friend Xia ruofei's luncheon. He would not put on airs in front of Xia ruofei.

Song Rui obviously didn't recognize Wu Liqian, who he had met once a few years ago.

Wu Liqian knew the rules, so she didn't talk to song Rui rashly. She just toasted him a few more times.

The luncheon ended successfully in an atmosphere of joy, and the guests took their leave.

As the host, Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue shook hands and bid farewell to each and every one of them in the small square of the complex.

Ling Qingxue had gradually gotten into the role of the female host and did not leave with her father. She and Xia ruofei had not been together for a few days. Now that she had a valid reason, she naturally had to stay to relieve her longing.

To Xia ruofei's surprise, Wu Liqian was not in a hurry to leave.

After all the guests had left, Wu Liqian walked up to Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue. She smiled and said, "Little Xia, congratulations again! His business is getting bigger and bigger."

"Thank you, sis Wu." Xia ruofei smiled.

Since the outsiders had left, Xia ruofei naturally wouldn't address Wu Liqian as "Mayor Wu" in all seriousness.

Ling Qingxue held onto Xia ruofei's arm, looked at Wu Liqian and asked, "Since County Head Wu stayed behind, he should have some other instructions, right?"

Wu Liqian could feel the slight hostility from Ling Qingxue, but she did not mind. She looked at the paper box that Ling Qingxue had been holding in her hand and said, "I wouldn't dare call it an instruction. I'm just interested in the inscription elder song wrote for Xiao Xia, so I presumptuously stayed to have a good look."

Then, Wu Liqian glanced at Xia ruofei and asked, "Xiao Xia, I don't know if this request of mine is a little abrupt?"

Chapter 447: Elder song's big gift (1)

"Sis Wu, so you know song Rui!" Xia ruofei was surprised.

Xia ruofei did not introduce song Rui to the guests during the event. The guests thought that song Rui was just Xia ruofei's brother from a rich family.

He did not expect Wu Liqian to recognize song Rui.

Wu Liqian smiled. "I went to Hunan Province with Secretary Tian in my early years. I met the family of the provincial head judge, Song Jin, once. But I'm sure you don't remember me anymore."

Xia ruofei suddenly realized that song Rui's identity in Xiang Nan Province was the top son of the rich and powerful! To put it bluntly, even the son of xiangnan's Secretary wasn't as impressive as him. After all, he was the eldest son and grandson of the song family! Therefore, song Rui had countless social events all year round. He had only had a meal with Wu Liqian once, so it was normal for him to not remember.

"Before the ceremony began, I accidentally overheard your conversation," Wu Liqian continued. "I know that this painting was specially created by elder song for you. I couldn't help but be curious and want to take a look."

This time, it was Ling Qingxue's turn to be confused.

"County Head Wu, the elder song you mentioned ..."

"You should ask your boyfriend!" Wu Liqian said with a smile. He knows such a powerful chief, but he didn't report to you. This shouldn't be!"

Wu Liqian glanced at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile and Xia ruofei could only laugh awkwardly.

Ling Qingxue had been subconsciously hostile towards Wu Liqian at first, but after a few words, the hostility gradually disappeared, especially after Wu Liqian's joke. Ling Qingxue was very pleased.

Ling Qingxue smiled at Wu Liqian and said, "County Head Wu, he never tells me these things. Why don't you tell me? Which bureau chief is this elder song?"

"Qingxue, did you watch the news a few years ago?" Wu Liqian asked.

Ling Qingxue was stunned for a moment before she nodded and said, "I do occasionally."

There were only a handful of people in China who had never watched the news broadcast. Although many people did not have the habit of watching it on time every day, they would definitely have seen it on different occasions.

"Then you should have seen the chief I just mentioned on TV ..." Wu Liqian said.

Ling Qingxue was also a smart girl. Since she would occasionally see that chief on the news, it must be one of the top few Chiefs in the core. There were only a dozen Chiefs in the core leadership in the two terms, and only one of them had the surname song ...

Ling Qingxue's mind raced, and she opened her mouth wide in surprise. "Could it be song ..."

"Stop guessing, it's him!" Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and said, "elder song has been recuperating in Sanshan city. I've met him a few times."

Wu Liqian thought to herself, "it's not as simple as just meeting him a few times. Elder song would not personally write an inscription for a young man he has only met a few times."

However, Wu Liqian naturally wouldn't reveal it, and Ling Qingxue didn't think there was anything wrong with her words. After all, she didn't know how precious elder song's inscription was.

But that was the head judge of the Central District! Meeting a few times was already a very amazing thing! Moreover, the chief had even written an inscription for Xia ruofei. Ling Qingxue could not help but feel proud of her boyfriend.

At the same time, she subconsciously held the paper box tighter.

Ling Qingxue then thought of another matter and couldn't help but ask, "Ruofei, does this mean that song Rui ..."

Ling Qingxue felt like she was in a dream. Song Rui's mental age was probably younger than Xia ruofei's, and he was not arrogant at all. He was always smiling and polite to people. She couldn't believe that the young man who called her sister – in – Law just now had such a prominent identity.

In fact, Ling Qingxue had never seen the other side of song Rui. He only hid his naughty side because of Xia ruofei. After all, it was the ribbon – cutting ceremony for Xia ruofei's new company building! In fact, song Rui was quite famous among the red disciples in the capital. He was just a bad boy who didn't know how to get along.

"He is elder song's grandson." Xia ruofei said casually and then jokingly said, "don't look like that! Actually, this grandson is quite a good person ..."

Ling Qingxue and Wu Liqian couldn't help but burst into laughter.

Ling Qingxue rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and said, "Why do your words sound so bad? He's elder song's grandson!"

Xia ruofei shrugged innocently. "I didn't say that he's my grandson!"

Wu Liqian was laughing so hard that she could barely stand up straight. Ling Qingxue could not help but secretly pinch Xia ruofei and said, "How can you be so bad! Song Rui will be furious if he hears this ..."

"He's elder song's grandson!" Xia ruofei said in all seriousness. Then, he looked at Ling Qingxue with a smirk and said, "besides, I don't even have a son! How could he have such an old grandson? You're the one who thought of that!"

Ling Qingxue blushed and said, "I know you're good at talking! I can't be bothered to talk to you ..."

Wu Liqian couldn't stand it anymore. She said, "Alright, alright! If the two of you want to flirt, can't you wait until I'm gone? Why don't you consider my feelings as a single person ..."

Chapter 448: Elder song's big gift (2)

Ling Qingxue blushed. "Big sis Wu, it's all that guy's fault. He's so bad!" She said.

Ling Qingxue's prejudice against Wu Liqian had long disappeared. Naturally, she also called Wu Liqian "sis Wu" like Xia ruofei.

“Xia, I’ve been waiting for a long time,” Wu Liqian said with a smile. “It’s time for me to see elder song’s calligraphy, right?”

“Yes, yes, yes,” Ling Qingxue said immediately. “Let’s open it and see what the chief wrote for you.”

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly, “we can’t do it here!” If you break it by accident ... Let’s go to the office!”

The ribbon – cutting of the building had been completed, but the relocation was still in progress. In fact, the main areas were security and finance. The company’s framework had not been set up yet, and there was no large administrative team.

However, Xia ruofei’s chairman’s office had been tidied up immediately, so he brought Ling Qingxue and Wu Liqian to the office on the second floor.

Although Xia ruofei did not want to be extravagant and wasteful, the office was still more than 80 square meters. It had a reception area, a lounge, and a secretary’s office. Of course, Xia ruofei did not need a full – time Secretary now, so the office was empty.

The office’s decorations were made of the best materials, but there was still a faint smell of decorations. He could only open the windows to let in the air, and it would be fine after a while.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei did not have the awareness to work for a long time. He was used to being a hands – off shopkeeper. Today, he had only come to this office to find a place to observe elder song’s precious calligraphy.

After the three of them entered the house, Xia ruofei took the paper box from Ling Qingxue and opened it. There were two rolled up pieces of rice paper inside.

Xia ruofei took out the bigger piece of paper and pressed one end on the paperweight on his desk. Then, he carefully and slowly unfolded it.

Elder song’s calligraphy was slowly revealed to everyone.

“My heart is far away from me.”

This was a famous sentence from Tao Yuanming’s “the origin of peach blossoms,” which was suitable for the Tao Yuan company.

Moreover, elder song’s signature and seal were not missing from this piece of calligraphy. It was a complete inscription.

This value was high.

To Xia ruofei’s surprise, elder song’s handwriting was elegant and did not have the murderous aura of a man from the military. However, one could still vaguely feel a trace of golden spear and iron horse’s artistic conception between the strokes.

In fact, elder song’s early works were silver hooks and iron drawings, and the force penetrated through the back of the paper. People who knew the industry could tell at a glance that this was the work of a great general.

However, as elder song's status rose, his calligraphy style gradually changed. He no longer showed off his abilities and became more of a biding – time artist.

But this time, elder song had experienced a serious illness, and it seemed that his perception of life had also undergone a great change. His calligraphy had also become more otherworldly. In addition, this time, he was writing a famous sentence like “the origin of peaches,” which brought out the best in his calligraphy style.

Xia ruofei also noticed that the words “for my young friend ruofei” were written at the end of the piece of calligraphy.

If this was the work of a famous calligrapher, after it was marked as a gift to someone, it might cause the market value of the work to decline. The reason was simple. People who had money to buy collectibles were most likely unwilling to buy a work that was written as a gift to another person, let alone hang it at home.

However, elder song's inscription was the exact opposite.

First of all, Xia ruofei would never sell this piece of calligraphy. Even if he was poor to the point of insanity, he would never do that.

In this case, the calligraphy that elder song had given to Xia ruofei was definitely a super protective talisman. Even those powerful families would have to think twice if they wanted to touch Xia ruofei.

Elder song's gift was too valuable! Xia ruofei couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

Ling Qingxue saw elder song's name at the bottom of the page and the words “gift to Xia ruofei” written on it. She was very excited and felt as if she was in a dream.

Wu Liqian was full of envy. At the same time, she also felt a little pity for Yingluo. If Xia ruofei was someone in the system, this piece of calligraphy could save him many years of hard work.

At that moment, Ling Qingxue saw another rolled up piece of rice paper at the side. She couldn't help but ask curiously, “Ruofei, there's another one! Quickly open it and take a look!”

In fact, Xia ruofei had also noticed it. However, his attention was attracted by this “self – biased” painting and he did not care about the smaller one.

Hearing what Ling Qingxue said, Xia ruofei's curiosity was piqued.

Elder song had written for him, and one piece was enough. In fact, there was no point in writing another piece. Why did the old man write two pieces at once?

Under the curious gazes of the two beauties, Xia ruofei slowly unfolded the piece of paper.

When the contents were presented, the three of them gasped at the same time and revealed a look of disbelief.

This piece of calligraphy was smaller than the previous one, and elder song didn't sign his name or stamp. There were only four big words, but the shock it brought to the three of them was greater than the previous one.

Because the content of this piece of calligraphy was full of envy for the Paradise Farm.

Yes, this piece of xuan paper only had the words “Peach Blossom Farm” on it, but the meaning behind it was extraordinary.

A bureau chief at elder song’s level basically wouldn’t give an enterprise a name, let alone a small enterprise like Taoyuan farm.

Chapter 449: Elder song’s big gift (3)

Of course – occasionally, there would be a head of a central government official who would give a name for – Company. However, such a rare situation would only happen in large central enterprises – if Xia ruofei remembered correctly, this was the first time he had ever given – Name for – private company.

Although there was no signature or seal, this was the real deal!

If the name was used on a farm, an average person might not be able to tell, but how could people of a certain level not tell that it was elder song’s handwriting?

Not only that, Xia ruofei’s company would be called paradise Corporation. He could use the first two words in the name inscribed by elder song on the company’s LOGO, including the company’s exclusive correspondence letters and other places that could be printed with the company’s logo.

This time, even Xia ruofei could not believe it. This gift was too expensive. He was not even confident.

“Xiao Xia, this is ... The chief’s inscribing for your company?” Wu Liqian couldn’t believe her eyes and asked with uncertainty.

Ling Qingxue said excitedly, “RUO Fei, you’re amazing!” If this inscription was used on a company LOGO, it would be ...”

Xia ruofei took a few deep breaths and said, “Calm down, calm down ... I need to confirm first.”

“Yes, yes, yes,” Wu Liqian quickly said. “It’s better to ask clearly.”

If everyone misunderstood and elder song was only giving Xia ruofei this calligraphy piece as a personal gift, but Xia ruofei used it on the company’s logo, then things would get out of hand.

Xia ruofei did not dare to be careless. He quickly picked up his phone and called manager Lu.

The call went through quickly, and manager Lu’s hearty laughter came from the other end. “Haha, President Xia, I heard that your company is moving to a new building today. Congratulations!”

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly, “manager Lu, please don’t make fun of me. What President Xia?” You can just call me little Xia.”

“Haha, little Xia, I’ve been waiting for your call. My phone never leaves my body!” Manager Lu said with a smile.

“Manager Lu, did you know that I would call?” Xia ruofei asked, stunned.

Manager Lu smiled. “The chief said that you’d definitely call. Xia, you’ve opened the gift the chief gave you, right?”

“Yup! The Bureau chief’s gift ... Is really too precious. ” Xia ruofei said,“I can’t even believe it ...”

“So you called to confirm?” Manager Lu asked with a smile.

Xia ruofei smiled and did not say anything. Manager Lu continued,“”Xiao Xia, the chief asked me to tell you that it’s just a piece of calligraphy. He has already given it to you. You can do whatever you want with it. You don’t have to ask for further instructions.”

Although he had already guessed the answer, Xia ruofei still couldn’t help but feel ecstatic. He quickly said,“”Thank you, manager Lu! Please help me convey my thanks to the chief. ”

“I’ll definitely pass it on,” manager Lu said with a smile. Xiao Xia, the chief heard that you sent people to Wu Yi mountain to deliver medicine to old Mr. Li every two or three days. He is very pleased and also asked me to tell you that it has been hard on you during this period of time. After old Mr. Li has recovered, he will specially host a banquet to express his gratitude. ”

Xia ruofei quickly said,“you’re too kind, chief. It’s just a small matter. Besides, old Mr. Li is teaching my staff how to make tea. It’s my duty to treat him.”

“Hahaha! That’s what you say, but the only one who can have such a hand of rejuvenation is you, little Xia!” Manager Lu laughed.

When he spoke to Xia ruofei, he didn’t put on the airs of a Deputy Director at all. Besides Xia ruofei’s relationship with elder song, a large part of the reason was Xia ruofei’s superb medical skills.

Anyone who ate grains would fall sick. In the face of an incurable disease, no matter if you were an old farmer with his back facing the earth or a country’s leader, you would still be powerless to save the situation.

To be able to maintain a good relationship with Xia ruofei was like adding a reliable insurance to his health and life!

Xia ruofei and manager Lu chatted for a while and then hung up.

Wu Liqian and Ling Qingxue were still looking at Xia ruofei nervously.

Xia ruofei clenched his fists and said,“”We guessed it right. This is the title that the Bureau chief specially gave to the Paradise Corporation. We can use it anywhere!”

Chapter 450: The beautiful County Head (1)

“Yay!” Ling Qingxue couldn’t help but cheer.

Although Ling Qingxue didn’t know much about politics, she didn’t need to know anything about it. Even an old farmer in the village would know what elder song’s personally written inscription meant.

Even Wu Liqian couldn’t help but look excited. She was really happy for Xia ruofei.

Naturally, Xia ruofei could not suppress his joy. He quickly picked up the phone on his desk and made a call in front of Ling Qingxue and Wu Liqian.

“Little fatty! How’s the progress with your finance department?” Xia ruofei asked.

Pang Hao had been working in a guest room on the first floor of Xia ruofei's Villa. Sometimes, he would sleep in the office when he was late. The living conditions were rather tough. With the completion of the new building, the finance department now had a spacious, bright, fully equipped office. Considering that pang Hao's family lived in the city, Xia ruofei had even reserved a single apartment for him. He could live on the farm now and return to the city on weekends.

"I've moved more than half of it," said pang Hao over the phone. It's mainly some bills and accounts that I want to sort out before moving, so as not to mess them up and make it difficult to file."

"Bring the scanner to my office first," Xia ruofei said directly.

Xia ruofei had specially equipped pang Hao with a scanner because the farm now had to provide a large amount of Taoyuan vegetables to the business partners every day. In the beginning, it had been a daily payment, but now it had been changed to a weekly payment. However, there was still a lot of receipt and receipt payment. Xia ruofei had requested that all the receipts had to be scanned and saved into an electronic file. This way, it would be more convenient to manage and check. That was why he had specially bought a scanner.

"Alright! I'll be right there!"

After a short while, pang Hao arrived at Xia ruofei's office with a scanner in his arms, panting.

Xia ruofei took the scanner and quickly connected it to the computer in the office. Then, he picked up the four words "Peach Blossom Farm" and put it into the scanner.

This question wasn't too big. Xia ruofei scanned it into the computer in two tries and quickly used a software to piece the entire question together into a complete picture.

Actually, there was a special instrument for scanning calligraphy outside. However, elder song's calligraphy was not big and it was not a complicated Chinese painting. It was easy to piece it together, so Xia ruofei decided to do it himself.

Pang Hao asked curiously from the side, "ruofei, these words are really nice!" Who gave you the questions?"

Xia ruofei chuckled. "You don't have to worry about who did it. Anyway, it's an amazing person!"

Then, Xia ruofei sent the generated image file to pang Hao's email and said, "Little fatty, I have a temporary task for you."

"Go ahead,"

"I've already sent this piece of calligraphy to your email. Go back to the city immediately and find a reliable advertising company to help us create a signboard for Tao Yuan farm." Xia ruofei said, "these four words will be hung on our farm's Gate. Go to the gate and take a few photos later. As for the specific design, let the advertising company come up with a plan. My request is that it must be beautiful and Grand. Of course, the most important thing is that these four words must be perfectly copied without any changes."

"Understood!" Pang Hao immediately said, "I have a relative who works in Lido advertising. I'll definitely do a good job for you!"

"Alright! Then you go now!" Xia ruofei said, "let them come up with a few more proposals. It doesn't matter if they are more expensive!"

"Alright!" Pang Hao said. Then, he chuckled and said, "ruofei, I've been wasting time riding my motorcycle back and forth. What do you think ..."

Xia ruofei immediately took out the pickup key and threw it to pang Hao. "Be careful on the road!"

Pang Hao had just gotten his driver's license recently, and his car addiction was at its peak. He took the key and said with a smile, "Don't worry! Although I'm a new driver, I'm good at driving!"

After he finished speaking, he ran out.

Xia ruofei then said to Ling Qingxue, "Qingxue, uncle Ling knows a lot of people. I would like to ask him to help me get someone to frame that calligraphy and hang it in the office."

"Alright! I'll bring it back in a while." Ling Qingxue said without hesitation.

"Try to find the best framing master." Xia ruofei said and then added, "keep your mouth shut."

Elder song's signature and seal were on the piece of calligraphy. Although Xia ruofei was going to hang it in his office after he framed it, he did not want the news to spread during the framing process and for everyone to know.

"Okay, I'll remember that." Ling Qingxue replied obediently, "I'll tell my dad."

Xia ruofei nodded. He rolled up the words carefully and put them into the paper box. Then, he put it aside.

As for the "Taoyuan farm" painting, Xia ruofei naturally would not hang it up, but he cherished it very much. He called Lei Hu to get a few pieces of rice paper, a preservation film, and a sealed bag.

Then, he covered the calligraphy with blank xuan paper, rolled it up carefully, and wrapped it with a layer of preservation film. Finally, he put it in a sealed bag and put it in the safe in the corner of the office.

Most of the time, mounted paintings were harder to preserve. Since the words would not be hung out, Xia ruofei's current method was the most appropriate. If he folded it casually, it would leave marks or even damage after a long time. He rolled it up with paper as a base, wrapped it in a plastic wrap, and put it in a sealed bag. This could basically isolate the words from the air and prevent it from being oxidized over time.
