

God tier Farm 451

Chapter 451: The beautiful County Head (2)

After he was done with the calligraphy, Xia ruofei smiled and invited Wu Liqian and Ling Qingxue to the reception area of the office to sit down. Then, he personally made tea for the two beautiful ladies.

Although Xia ruofei's office had just been tidied up, it had everything that should be there. The small refrigerator next to the coffee table even had high – quality tea leaves, black tea, green tea, and white tea. These were all prepared by Liang Weimin's people in advance.

From these details, it could be seen that Liang Weimin was very concerned about Xia ruofei's matter.

Wu Liqian took a sip of tea from her teacup and asked, "Xiao Xia, now that your farm has taken shape, do you have any plans for the future?"

Xia ruofei skillfully poured a cup of tea for Ling Qingxue, then smiled and said, "I do have short – term goals. For example, the production of the vegetable greenhouses has not reached its maximum capacity yet, so I'm going to recruit a new batch of workers. In addition, the efficiency of the farm is not high, including the fish pond in the South that has been idle. In addition to the orchards, there are still many lands in the back mountain that can be further developed and utilized."

"Sis Wu, do you have any good suggestions?" Xia ruofei asked.

Wu Liqian had been working for Tian Huilan for many years and was now the executive Deputy County Head. Although she didn't have much experience in the business world, she was very familiar with the economy. Xia ruofei wanted to hear her opinion.

Wu Liqian pondered for a moment and said, "First of all, you said that we can increase production and further improve farm efficiency. These are all good ideas. But I think we can be a little more daring."

"Oh? What do you mean?" Xia ruofei asked with interest.

Wu Liqian did not answer Xia ruofei's question immediately. Instead, she asked, "Little Xia, the vegetables, melons, and fruits produced by your farm should be very popular, right?"

Xia ruofei nodded. "We don't have to worry about sales at the moment. I have three regular partners: lingji F & B, Xijiang Moon Club, and Hong Kong's Hengfeng group. Even if the production capacity of the greenhouse reaches its limit, my three partners can still take in the production."

"It's just as I expected," Wu Liqian said with a smile. "So my first suggestion is ... To further expand the scale of the farm and build more vegetable greenhouses. I can see that there are still a lot of unclaimed lands around your farm, which are useless in the village. You can expand the scale of your farm to twice or even thrice its current size."

"Should we continue to expand the farm?" Xia ruofei asked after some hesitation.

In fact, Xia ruofei was not very willing to do this. Although the current scale of the farm was not large, the benefits it had created had exceeded many large farms. Besides, Xia ruofei felt that although he could earn a lot of profits from selling ordinary Peach Orchard vegetables, which was enough to make most people jealous, he did not think much of the rate of return.

He had the spirit map space in his hands, so it would be a waste to manage these ordinary vegetables and fruits.

Wu Liqian seemed to have read Xia ruofei's mind. She smiled and said, "Xiao Xia, your Taoyuan vegetables are indeed very well – known now, but you only supply to three companies. If ordinary people want to eat Taoyuan vegetables, they can only choose Ling Ji restaurant or Xijiang Yue club ..."

At this point, Wu Liqian looked at Ling Qingxue and said with a smile, "Qingxue, I'm not saying that your Ling's restaurant isn't good!"

Ling Qingxue giggled and said, "big sis Wu, I know." You can continue!"

Naturally, Ling Qingxue would not be unhappy that Wu Liqian was trying to help Xia ruofei. Besides, girls were more inclined to outsiders. Even if Ling Ji restaurant and Peach Blossom Farm had a conflict of interest, she was still on Xia ruofei's side.

Wu Liqian smiled and continued, "Xiao Xia, your products are indeed in short supply now, but your current business model is not very beneficial for you to further expand your reputation and reach the province or even the country's reputation. You should further expand your supply range so that customers can see your paradise vegetables in more restaurants and even supermarkets."

In all fairness, Wu Liqian's suggestion was not good for Ling's restaurant.

Because West River Moon club's target customers were the upper – Class society, the peach blossom vegetables that was being sold to the general public in San Shan city was almost monopolized by Ling Ji restaurant.

Just this alone would bring in a large number of consumers for Ling Ji restaurant.

If the supply range was expanded, this monopoly situation would no longer exist.

After Xia ruofei heard Wu Liqian's words, he felt a little enlightened. He had always adhered to the high – Quality product route. He had put in a lot of effort in the early stages to build up the ordinary vegetable and fruit markets. It was nothing more than to increase the reputation of paradise Corporation. Therefore, after Wu Liqian's reminder, he immediately realized the disadvantages of his previous business model.

In this day and age, even the fragrance of wine was afraid of the depths of the alley!

The Ling's restaurant was based in San Shan city, and its influence was limited to the southeast province at most.

This was indeed not very beneficial to rapidly expanding the reputation of paradise Corporation.

However, Xia ruofei was still a little hesitant, mainly because he was considering the impact of expanding the supply range on Ling Ji F & B.

Wu Liqian seemed to have guessed Xia ruofei's concerns. She smiled and said, "I know that Ling's restaurant is Qingxue's family's company, and the expansion of the supply range will inevitably affect the operations of Ling's restaurant. However, I don't think the impact is as big as you think, and it's still controllable. For example, you can use a tiered system to give lingji a more favorable price, or even directly increase the delivery unit price of new partners. I'm sure that with the cost advantage and the fact that Ling Ji is a very strong chain restaurant, it shouldn't be unable to compete with other restaurants in the same industry, right?"

Chapter 452: The beautiful County Head (3)

Wu Liqian then added,"Of course, the short – term impact is inevitable."

Xia ruofei felt that it made more sense.

Ling Qingxue had been a little worried at first, but after hearing Wu Liqian's words, that worry disappeared.

The lingji F & B had already gotten out of its most difficult stage and was now in a period of development. Not only had it set foot in the hotel industry, but it had also begun to open branch stores in Prefecture – Level cities. It had even gotten the title of a designated reception unit of the municipal Party Committee. It was the time of prosperity. If they adopted a level system like Wu Liqian had said, even if it was affected in the short term, it would definitely not be a serious blow.

Xia ruofei nodded."Sis Wu is right. Why don't I get in touch with director ruan from the Dong Keng village and expand the farm?"

Whether it was the new land or the new greenhouse according to the original standards, it would cost a lot of money. However, the money did not need to be taken out all at once. Besides, Xia ruofei earned hundreds of thousands of Yuan every month just by relying on Taoyuan vegetables. He could totally claim land first, then gradually add vegetable greenhouses and expand the production capacity step by step.

"I can help you talk to the people in the town and village," Wu Liqian said."There shouldn't be any resistance."

"Then I'll have to thank sis Wu. There definitely won't be a problem if you personally take care of it!" Xia ruofei laughed and said,"actually, I'm just lazy. I'm having a headache thinking about renegotiating the lease contract, looking for people to build the greenhouse, and recruiting new workers!"

"That's the second suggestion I'm going to give you,"Wu Liqian said with a smile.

"There's a second suggestion!" Ling Qingxue smiled and said,"sis Wu, tell me! RUO Fei belongs to the type of person who moves with every lash of the whip. He's very lazy!"

Xia ruofei smiled helplessly. He felt very innocent about Ling Qingxue's comment.

"Qingxue, my second suggestion is to make it easier for Xiao Xia," Wu Liqian said with a smile.

Then, Wu Liqian turned to Xia ruofei and said,"Xia, you should set up the company's framework as soon as possible and leave the management to the professional managers. This is also an inevitable trend. With the development of your company, the evaluation and recruitment of personnel should be managed by someone! "You would need a Human Resources Department, and you would have to go to court if there were contract disputes or infringement of rights when you were discussing contracts with your partners, right? You need to have a legal department, as well as finance, sales, and so on. If there's a dedicated manager in charge of every work, and a few capable general managers and deputy general managers, you don't have to take care of everything by yourself. As the boss, you just have to grasp the general direction!"

Ling Qingxue was very much in favor of this. Her family owned a company, and it was a very large food and beverage chain. Naturally, she was very experienced in company management.

However, Ling Qingxue was also a little hesitant as she said, ""Sis Wu, the expenses will be much higher this way!"

Wu Liqian said with a smile, "we can set up the framework first. We don't even have to rent an office building. We can work in this building for the time being. We can slowly recruit more people as the company develops. Actually, the expenses won't be too high."

"Hmm, that makes sense." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'm very interested in suggestions that can make me lazy. But ... I don't know where to find the General Manager and vice general manager! Chubby boy can be the Chief Financial Officer, but the legal department, the Human Resources Department, and the sales department all need someone with the relevant work experience!"

"Ruofei, there are quite a few headhunting companies right now. You can use them to recruit people," Ling Qingxue said.

"Qingxue's right," Wu Liqian nodded and said, "it's a good idea to go through a headhunting company. Also ... I have a good candidate on my side. She's my college classmate with good work experience and qualifications. She just recently resigned. "

Xia ruofei said hesitantly, "sis Wu, your classmates should all be successful people with successful careers now, right?" Would you be willing to work for a small company like mine?"

"I can help build a bridge. You guys can meet up and get to know each other." Wu Liqian said, "she's free anyway. I'll call her. She'll definitely come." I'm not sure if she's willing to stay and work. "

"Alright! Then I'll have to trouble sis Wu to contact them and arrange for us to meet up in the next few days. " Xia ruofei said, "let's meet here! At the same time, I can also observe the working environment. "

"No problem!" Wu Liqian nodded.

After that, Wu Liqian stood up and said with a smile, ""Alright, I should go back. I'll be annoying if I stay here ..."

Ling Qingxue blushed and said, ""Sis Wu, we won't despise you!"

Xia ruofei also laughed and said, "that's right, my farm is still in your land." I wouldn't dare to look down on you!"

"I really have to go. There's still a lot of work to do in the county!" Wu Liqian said with a smile.

Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue sent her to the door, but she didn't allow them to do so.

"Alright, you guys don't have to come out. I can go down myself." Wu Liqian said.

Xia ruofei did not insist. He watched Wu Liqian walk to the stairs before returning to the office with Ling Qingxue and closing the door behind them.

He didn't feel anything when Wu Liqian was around, but now that they were alone, an ambiguous atmosphere began to fill the air.

Ling Qingxue looked at Xia ruofei affectionately. Xia ruofei also felt a ball of fire burning in his heart. They had not been together for three days. For a man and a woman who were in love, this was a very long time.

Xia ruofei looked at Ling Qingxue and smiled evilly. "Qingxue, we ... I don't think we've done it in the office before ..."

Ling Qingxue's face turned pale and she shouted, "No, go ... Go back to your villa ..." She said.

Before she could finish her sentence, Xia ruofei's lips were blocked by his domineering kiss ...

Chapter 453: Recruiting soldiers and buying horses Part 1

Strictly speaking, today was the first day that Xia ruofei had moved into the new office. Although Jian Jia could foresee that the new office would be less used.

A unique and exciting private celebration added a lot of joy to this meaningful first day of relocation.

"Bad guy ..." Ling Qingxue pouted and said, "you're so bad! This is the office!" What if someone barged in?"

Xia ruofei chuckled. "Wife, don't you know whose territory this is? who would dare to enter this office without my permission?"

"Only you can!" Ling Qingxue rolled her eyes.

Xia ruofei got up from the bed and walked towards the door of the lounge. "Lie down and rest for a while, I'll get you a glass of water ..." He said.

Xia ruofei went to the office outside and filled half a cup with warm water. Then, he took out a small porcelain bottle from the spirit map space that contained the solution of the spirit Heart Flower petals and filled the cup to the brim without hesitation.

After putting the porcelain bottle back into the spirit map space, Xia ruofei walked to the bed with the cup and said, "Come, drink some water!"

"I don't have any more strength ... Help me up!" Ling Qingxue said coyly.

He smiled slightly. With one hand holding the cup, he reached out his other hand to hold Ling Qingxue's shoulder. He easily helped her up and then fed her the water.

Ling Qingxue had actually recovered some of her strength. Naturally, it was impossible for her to not be able to lift a cup of water. However, she enjoyed Xia ruofei's care. At this moment, her heart was filled with happiness.

Ling Qingxue rested for a while more. The spirit Heart Flower petal solution began to take effect, and the feeling of weakness in her body gradually disappeared.

“Ruofei, I should go back.” Ling Qingxue said softly after putting on her clothes.

“Don’t! Don’t leave tonight!” Xia ruofei said, “I’ll take you to the beach. Then, we’ll have grilled fish in the villa’s yard tonight!”

Ling Qingxue’s eyes flashed with anticipation, but she hesitated and said, “I’ll pass on staying overnight ... It’s not good. There’s a lot of things to do at the company, so I’ll go back first. I’ll come and see you next time.”

Xia ruofei knew that Ling Qingxue was easily embarrassed. Ling Xiaotian had also attended the event today and knew that she was at Tao Yuan farm. Under such circumstances, she would definitely not spend the night here.

In fact, Xia ruofei felt that Ling Xiaotian would not care about these things at all. In fact, Ling Xiaotian would be even happier if he knew that he had such a close relationship with Ling Qingxue.

However, Xia ruofei still respected Ling Qingxue’s wishes. He did not try to persuade her any further. He quickly put on his clothes, picked up the calligraphy piece on the desk, and sent Ling Qingxue out.

In front of the mixed – use complex, Xia ruofei watched as Ling Qingxue’s car left, then returned to the building.

Xia ruofei did not forget to open the windows after he was done cleaning the office. Even without the smell of hormones, a newly renovated office like this would need a long time to be well – ventilated.

He strolled out of the complex, planning to take a walk around the farm and then go back to make dinner. Since Ling Qingxue didn’t stay, the plan to grill the fish was naturally canceled. He would eat alone, making two side dishes and a bowl of noodles.

Xia ruofei first went to the Mercedes – Benz S – Class sedan that was parked quietly in the small square in front of the building.

The car was a gift from old master Tang’s shengbang group. Xia ruofei had already asked one of the four veterans, Xu Wei, to hand over the transfer procedures to shengbang group. He was going to put the car under the company’s name.

The brand new Mercedes – Benz looked extraordinary under the setting sun. Xia ruofei circled the car. Although he did not like this kind of business – like car, he had to admit that German cars were indeed beautiful.

“Boss!”

Xia ruofei heard the voice behind him and turned around.

He saw Cao tieshu standing somewhat cautiously behind him. His trousers were rolled up, and his feet were stained with some mud. He had obviously come from the vegetable greenhouse.

“Old Cao!” Xia ruofei revealed a friendly smile and asked, “what’s wrong? Did something happen at the greenhouse?”

“No, no...” Cao tieshu hurriedly said, “boss, I have something to discuss with you.”

“Oh? What’s the matter?”

Boss, when we cut the ribbon this morning, I heard you say that our farm is looking for workers?” Cao tieshu asked.

Xia ruofei immediately understood. He smiled and said, “Yup! Old Cao, do you have any relatives or friends that you want to recommend? I can consider it first.”

Cao tieshu had been helping him manage the vegetable greenhouse in good order for the past few months. He was also very loyal to the farm. As long as the person he recommended had the basic quality and good character, Xia ruofei was willing to give him face.

They were going to recruit people anyway, so who didn’t they recruit?

“Then ... Do you need anyone to go to the staff cafeteria?” Cao tieshu asked, “I ... I want my wife to come and try.”

“Sister – in – Law is also a chef?” Xia ruofei asked in surprise.

“I can’t be called a chef!” Cao tieshu waved his hand and said. However, she used to work in the town middle school’s cafeteria, so her cooking skills are not bad. Whenever there’s a red and white wedding in the village, everyone will invite her to cook.”

Then, Cao tieshu nervously asked, “Boss, my wife doesn’t have a chef’s certificate. I wonder if she meets the requirements for the job?”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “no problem!” We’re the staff cafeteria, not a big hotel. Why do we need a chef’s certificate?”

Chapter 454: Recruiting soldiers and buying horses Part 2

Cao tieshu laughed in a simple and honest manner, his eyes filled with hope.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and asked, “Cao, is sister – in – Law willing to work on the farm? Will you be too busy with the work at home?”

“She’s willing!” Cao tieshu quickly replied, “I went home this afternoon and asked her. Boss, our family only has a few acres of land now. There’s not much work. She’s also studying at a University in another city, so there’s only US at home. It won’t affect her much if she works on the farm.”

Xia ruofei nodded and said, “okay, old Cao, let sister – in – Law try it tomorrow!” Why don’t you find another person and let her help Sister – in – Law in the kitchen and do some chores? The kitchen hand’s salary may be slightly lower, but sister-in-law’s salary and treatment are the same as our farm workers. Is that okay?”

Cao tieshu was pleasantly surprised, “yes!” Yes! Boss ... Isn’t the salary a little too high ... She’s just cooking, isn’t it a little inappropriate to take 5000 a month?”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “that’s a chef’s position!” 5000 was not considered high! It’s settled then ... By the way, old Cao, I still need to hire two cleaners for my farm. I prefer to find them in your village, which is more convenient for me to get to work and get off work. Why don't you help me look for them? The salary will be the same as that of a kitchen hand, so let's set it at 3500 a month for now!"

After listening to Wu Liqian's suggestion, Xia ruofei had made up his mind to expand the farm. However, he wanted to get in touch with Wu Liqian's classmate first. If he was satisfied with his ability and was willing to work on the farm, then he could hand over the contract negotiations with the village, the recruitment of new workers, the construction of new greenhouse infrastructure, and other specific tasks to the new general manager.

If he could slack off, Xia ruofei would not be willing to do such tedious work.

However, Cao tieshu's visit to him had also reminded Xia ruofei that Kongtong farm had not expanded yet. The recruitment of new workers was not urgent, but the staff canteen had to be operated first. This was also to fulfill the welfare promise to the employees. It would also be convenient for him to eat when he did not feel like cooking in the future.

In addition, with the building in use, the janitors couldn't wait either. They had to be hired immediately.

Hence, Xia ruofei decided to take this opportunity to recruit the people in these two positions.

Cao tieshu was also very happy after hearing this. He quickly said, "No problem! Boss, I'll definitely be strict!"

He didn't know where Cao tieshu had learned the phrase "strict security," but it was quite appropriate to use it here.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. After some thought, he said, "By the way, old Cao, I'll get a chef from the restaurant to come over. Let him take care of sister – in – Law for the time being."

Xia ruofei was mainly thinking about the modern kitchen facilities in the employees' cafeteria. Cao tieshu's wife might not know how to use them. Furthermore, being a chef for a wedding in the countryside was different from being a chef in a company's cafeteria. It would be better to have a proper chef from a restaurant teach some hygiene standards for a period of time.

Cao tieshu didn't think too much and immediately said, "That's great! My wife only knows how to cook some countryside dishes, so she can learn more from the city's chef."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I'm just here to help look after them. It won't take long." I think that since sister – in – Law can cook for someone else, her skills must be good enough. Aren't our workers all from the countryside?"

Cao tieshu chuckled and nodded.

The problem of the restaurant's chefs could be easily solved. Xia ruofei's future father-in-law's family was running a chain restaurant. He dared not say about other things, but there must be many chefs.

Xia ruofei gave Ling Xiaotian a call in front of Cao tieshu. He did not pretend to be polite with Ling Xiaotian. After exchanging a few pleasantries, he directly stated his request.

Ling Xiaotian had always been very satisfied with his future son – in – Law. Now that the two of them were working together to set up a winery, such a small matter was naturally not a problem for him. He immediately expressed that he would send the Executive Head Chef of the flagship store in the city center over to guide him.

Wasn't this like using a sledgehammer to crack a nut?

Xia ruofei jumped in shock and hurriedly declined. After much persuasion, Ling Xiaotian reluctantly agreed and changed the chef. Although it was not the head chef of a chain restaurant, it was still an experienced chef. It was the most suitable to come and guide Cao tieshu's wife.

After Xia ruofei finished his call, Cao tieshu expressed his gratitude to Xia ruofei before returning to the vegetable greenhouse.

Of course, before he reached the greenhouse, he couldn't help but take out his mobile phone and call his wife. He couldn't wait to tell her the good news.

At the same time, Cao tieshu also wanted his wife to quickly find a kitchen helper and two cleaners.

Xia ruofei had given him this task out of trust. Who in the village didn't know of the famous Peach Blossom Farm? Everyone, young and old, was envious of Xia ruofei's first batch of 15 workers. Many people were eagerly waiting for the farm to recruit new people.

Therefore, the three quotas in Cao tieshu's hands, no matter who he gave them to, would not be a small favor.

Because of this, while Cao tieshu was grateful to Xia ruofei, he also constantly reminded his wife to choose the right person, or else she would be letting down the boss's trust.

In fact, Xia ruofei would not care about such a small matter. It was just a cleaning job. If the person was not suitable, he could just fire him and replace him.

.....

The relocation work was completed in two days.

Pang Hao moved the finance department to the accounting office that was specially installed with iron doors and windows, and rearranged the accounts.

He had also entrusted the design of the farm's signboard to the Li Du advertising company, and they would soon come up with three alternative plans.

Lei Hu, Hong Tao, and the other four security guards had also moved the monitoring terminal, which was originally placed in the guest room on the first floor of the villa, to the monitoring room on the first floor of the new building. They had also recalibrated the circuit.

The four of them were assigned to a single apartment with one bedroom, one living room, and a balcony, so they were all more motivated.

Cao tieshu's wife and the kitchen helper and janitors that Cao tieshu had helped to find had also arrived. Xia ruofei did a simple interview and found that they were all simple and honest rural women who were very active in their work. He was very satisfied.

Under the guidance of the chef sent by Ling Ji dining, Cao tieshu's wife quickly threw herself into work. The staff cafeteria was also officially opened, and all the employees began to enjoy their free lunch. Although it was only a meal, it was very effective in gathering people's hearts. Everyone's enthusiasm for work was clearly raised to a higher level.

When the villagers heard that Peach Blossom Farm provided free lunch, they naturally became even more envious. They all asked the workers when Peach Blossom Farm would recruit more workers.

Naturally, the workers did not know when they would be hiring. On the day of the ribbon – cutting, it was said that they would be hiring new people, but other than recruiting two cleaners and two chefs, there had been no other news for the past two days.

What they didn't know was that this situation happened because their boss was too lazy.

Xia ruofei wanted to wait for the new general manager to take office before he started the work.

On the third day, the professional manager that Wu Liqian had helped to contact finally arrived in Sanshan city and Taoyuan farm ...

Chapter 455: overseas returnee MBA_1

Feng Rao was driving her red BMW Z4 on provincial highway 215, entering Changping County. The city was already far behind her, and there were large patches of farmland and barren land on both sides of the road. Feng Rao's expression became more and more depressed, and her delicate nose wrinkled slightly, as if she was dissatisfied.

Feng Jing was the professional manager that Wu Liqian had introduced to Xia ruofei. She was also Wu Liqian's University classmate.

Feng Jing's resume was brilliant and brilliant. She obtained an MBA from Wharton at the University of United States. After graduation, she returned to China and entered the world – famous accounting firm, pricewongatong, as a Senior Consultant. After working for a year, Feng Jing got tired of the less challenging consulting job and jumped ship to a famous internet company in the country as the Senior Vice President. She resigned two months ago and was currently unemployed.

A high – Class overseas returnee like Feng Jing was naturally highly sought after by headhunting companies. In the past two months, she had received countless offers, but she didn't even read through them carefully, let alone interact with them. In the past two months, Feng Jing only did one thing, and that was to carry a simple bag and travel around the world, completely emptying her mind.

Feng Jing had just returned home when she received Wu Liqian's call. She was preparing to rest for a few days before setting off for the Tibetan Plateau.

Wu Liqian told Feng Jing that a good company was currently hiring a general manager. Naturally, Feng Jing couldn't reject her best friend from her university days like how she rejected a headhunter company, so she tried to find out more about the situation.

When Feng Jing heard Wu Liqian's brief introduction of paradise corporation's scale and current situation, she even thought that Wu Liqian was deliberately joking with her. No, in her opinion, this company couldn't even be called a company. Strictly speaking, it could only be considered a workshop.

At best, it was a slightly larger workshop. How could she, who was a Wharton MBA and once had a Senior Consultant Manager at pricey house, be in charge?

Was he using a butcher's knife to kill a chicken?

Using a cannon to kill a mosquito?

It wasn't until she confirmed it a few times that Feng Jing realized that Wu Liqian was serious.

Also, Wu Liqian had told her over the phone that although the company was small, it had amazing potential. She strongly advised her not to make a decision immediately, and it was best to observe it on the spot.

Perhaps it was out of trust for her best friend of many years, or perhaps Feng Jing was too free recently, or perhaps her brain had suddenly gone haywire, but in any case, she agreed to Wu Liqian's ridiculous suggestion.

As the surrounding environment became more and more desolate, Feng Jing felt that the third possibility was the most likely reason why she agreed to come here.

His brain was really damaged!

However, they had already driven for more than 100 kilometers. Feng Jing's hometown was Quangang city in the southern part of the southeast province, and she had already made an appointment with the other party. Naturally, Feng Jing couldn't just go home at this time. Even if it was for Wu Liqian's sake, she still had to go through the motions.

With this kind of mentality, Feng Rao arrived at Taoyuan farm with the help of the GPS.

There was not even a sign outside the farm. In fact, there had been one a few days ago. However, after Xia ruofei had gotten elder song's name, he had asked pang Hao to find an advertising company to design a new sign. The old sign had been removed.

A security guard wearing a black suit and a headset solemnly gestured for Feng Jing to stop in front of the yellow no – Entry line.

"The security is pretty decent. It's like a military restricted area ..." Feng Jing stopped the car and mumbled to herself.

However, this didn't give Feng Jing any bonus points.

The security guard on duty today was Qin Xiaojun. He walked to the car and knocked on the window.

Feng Rao rolled down the car window. Qin Xiaojun asked, "Who are you looking for? What's the matter?"

Feng Rao revealed a graceful smile and said, "I have an appointment with your director Xia today. Please inform him."

"Are you Ms. Feng Jing?" Qin Xiaojun asked immediately.

Feng Jue nodded. Qin Xiaojun immediately replied, "Miss Feng, the chairman has already instructed that you can go in directly after you arrive. He is waiting for you in the office of the complex! I'll arrange for a colleague to show you the way!"

"I'll have to trouble you then." Feng Rao smiled.

Qin Xiaojun's attitude made Feng Rao feel very comfortable. No matter what, Qin Xiaojun still took his presence very seriously.

However, Feng Jing thought to herself, "any small company of this size would definitely place a lot of importance on an overseas graduate from Wharton's MBA, right?"

In reality, Xia ruofei had not even looked through Feng Rao's resume carefully. Although Wu Liqian had given him a copy, it was only out of his trust in Wu Liqian. He was only paying attention to the talent that Wu Liqian had introduced.

Qin Xiaojun contacted his comrades through the walkie – talkie, and soon, Lei Hu appeared at the entrance in an electric car.

In order to make it easier for the security guards to patrol the farm, Xia ruofei had recently purchased two of these four – seater electric vehicles. The roads inside the farm had been well planned from the beginning and could be said to be accessible in all directions. With these electric vehicles, Lei Hu and the rest could patrol without any blind spots and were very efficient.

Qin Xiaojun greeted Lei Hu before turning to Feng Rao, "Miss Feng, you can just follow the electric car in front."

"I want to walk in," Feng Jing said. "I'll take a look at the farm while I'm there. Is that okay?"

Qin Xiaojun hesitated for a moment before he replied, "No problem, please park your car on the side! I'll take good care of your car."

Chapter 456: Overseas returnee MBA_2

"Thank you!" Feng Rao smiled.

She drove the car into the farm's Gate and parked it by the side of the road. Then, she got out of the car and said to Lei Hu, who was leading the way, "I'll have to trouble you!"

Lei Hu made an inviting gesture and said, "Miss Feng, this way please!"

Qin Xiaojun returned to his post. He looked at Feng Jing's back and muttered to himself, "This woman is too beautiful! Brother Xia is amazing!"

He still didn't know that the seemingly weak and lovely young woman just now was very likely to become his superior's superior ...

Under Lei Hu's lead, Feng Rao looked around as they walked, and she asked Lei Hu some questions.

Lei Hu had not been working here for a long time, and there were many things about the farm that he was not very clear about. However, Xia ruofei had instructed him to receive Feng Jing warmly, so he could only briefly explain what he knew.

Naturally, Feng Jing couldn't get the information she wanted.

However, when she saw the rows of beautiful modern greenhouse, she couldn't help but show a look of admiration.

These greenhouses were up to 100 meters in length and neatly arranged on both sides of the farm Road. The neatly arranged brand – New greenhouses under the sun were pleasing to the eye.

Very quickly, Lei Hu brought Feng Jing to the newly completed complex.

When Feng Jing saw the six – story complex that took up quite a lot of space, she couldn't help but be stunned. "Is this your farm's office building?"

Feng Jing's first thought was that it was such a waste. A small farm and an office building of this size didn't even take up half of the space.

It had been many years since Feng Jing returned to the country. She knew that many government agencies and units had beautiful and luxurious office buildings. In some poor counties in the country, the tallest and most beautiful building in the county was the government office building.

However, very few bosses of private companies did this. They were all spending their own money, and no one would waste it like this.

When Lei Hu heard Feng Rao's question, he immediately showed a proud expression and said, "This is our comprehensive building. The first and second floors are the cafeteria and office, and the third floor and above are the staff apartments and the farm guest rooms. Miss Feng, the conditions of our farm are very good! There's a free lunch every day, and even us security guards can be assigned to a single apartment with one bedroom and one living room!"

After hearing this, Feng Jing was suddenly enlightened, and her impression of Taoyuan farm improved a little. Her impression of the chairman Xia she was about to meet also improved a little. At least this little boss was good to his employees.

Of course, this kind of good impression was very limited. After all, compared to the company she used to work in, Tao Yuan farm was really small ...

Very quickly, Lei Hu brought Feng Jing to Xia ruofei's office.

Xia ruofei personally stood up to welcome Feng Jing and warmly invited her to the guest sofa to take a seat. At the same time, he asked Lei Hu to quickly prepare some tea.

Feng Jing was a little dazed when she saw Xia ruofei. She thought that she would see a middle – aged man with a big belly, or even a gold chain as thick as a thumb around his neck.

However, it was completely different from the image of a nouveau riche in her mind. Xia ruofei was slightly thin. Although he was not handsome enough to startle the people in the party, he had a sunny and clean aura, which made people involuntarily feel close to him.

Although Xia ruofei's facial features were not as sharp as those of movie stars, they gave people a very comfortable feeling when put together. Especially his eyes, which were so bright as if they could see through people's hearts.

It didn't seem like a bad idea to work with such a handsome young man ... Feng Jing suddenly had this ridiculous thought.

Then, an even more ridiculous thought appeared in her mind: Could it be that Qianqian was trying so hard to recommend him because of this handsome guy?

From Xia ruofei's point of view, the young married woman in front of him, who still retained her charm, was obviously distracted. This was because when Lei Hu placed the brewed tea in front of her, she actually did not have the slightest reaction.

"Miss Feng ..." Xia ruofei called out.

Only then did Feng Rao come back to her senses, and her face couldn't help but heat up. What kind of nonsense was she thinking?

Although the other party was only a small boss, it was obviously unprofessional to be distracted in such a formal meeting.

Feng Rao revealed an apologetic smile and said, "I'm sorry, director Xia, I was just thinking of something else."

"It's fine." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Miss Feng, sis Wu showed me your resume. I invited you here today to talk to you about work."

Sis Wu? 'As expected, he has a special relationship with Qianqian ...' Feng Rao thought to herself.

But this time, she wouldn't be distracted. With a professional smile on her face, she said, "Director Xia, I have a general understanding of your company's situation. I have also taken a look just now. With all due respect, your company's scale doesn't seem to be very large. This job might not be what I expected."

Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to explain. He just smiled and asked, "Oh? Then, what is the scale of miss Feng's ideal company?"

"I used to be a Senior Consultant at PricewaterhouseCoopers," Feng Rao said confidently. "My previous job was the Senior Vice President of Hailang net. I think your company's size is quite far from the two companies above, right?"

Xia ruofei smiled. "That's for sure. However, I'm also sure that you can't make all the decisions and keep your word in a company of this size, can you?"

Feng Rao looked at Xia ruofei as if he was a monster and said, "Of course!"

"But my company can give you the highest authority." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Being a high-level female worker in a big company and leading a small company to grow and expand are two completely different things. Also, since Miss Feng resigned from these two companies, I believe that's one of the reasons, right?"

When the guard reported that Feng Jing had arrived, Xia ruofei took out the resume that Wu Liqian had given him and looked through it again. He knew that Feng Jing, who had returned from overseas and was a high – ranking overseas graduate, definitely had the dream of starting a business. Otherwise, Feng Jing would not have given up the position of the Senior Vice President of Hailang network.

“Director Xia, I admit that I’m tempted by the idea of maximum autonomy, but ...” Feng Jing smiled.

“I think miss Feng might as well take a look at our products first.” Xia ruofei said confidently.

“Product?” Feng Rao was stunned.

“Of course,” Xia ruofei shrugged. “Isn’t the core competitiveness of a company like us in the field of agricultural products?”

“That makes sense,” Feng Rao nodded. “I didn’t know the details before I came here.”

Xia ruofei got up and walked to the lounge. He took out the Taoyuan vegetable samples that he had prepared in the morning from the refrigerator and returned to the reception area to lay them out one by one.

Feng Rao looked at the neatly arranged tomatoes and cabbages on the coffee table, her eyes slowly widening. She didn’t hide her surprise at all.

The appearance of these paradise vegetables was simply too beautiful. The tomatoes were tender and alluring, and the cabbages looked as if they were carved out of Jade. It even made people unable to bear to eat them.

“Chairman Xia, your company ... All of your products look like this?” Feng Rao couldn’t help but ask.

“Of course, I picked them randomly from the vegetable greenhouse. I didn’t prepare any special preparations.” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Although Wu Liqian had specifically emphasized the uniqueness of Taoyuan vegetables, Feng Jing could not feel the huge difference between them and ordinary vegetables without seeing it with her own eyes.

Moreover, Feng Jing had no direct experience with the name of Taoyuan vegetables in Quangang city.

Hence, when Xia ruofei took out paradise vegetables, Feng Jing was shocked.

Xia ruofei continued, “all of our company’s vegetables, fruits, and other products are currently in short supply, and the average price is ten times that of the same type of products on the market!” And the cost wouldn’t be much higher than a normal product ...”

“That means ...” Feng Jing said. “The profits are ten times that of a normal farm?”

“That’s just a conservative estimate,” Xia ruofei replied with a smile.

Then, Xia ruofei threw out another bombshell. “Moreover, our Peach Blossom Farm’s actual assets are more than ten million USD. I don’t think that this scale will be much worse than what you’re expecting, miss Feng!”

Chapter 457: The General Manager is in place (1)

Feng Jing's attention was completely drawn to the beautiful Taoyuan vegetables. Of course, what attracted her even more was the shocking profit rate that Xia ruofei had told her about.

Hence, after hearing Xia ruofei's words, Feng Rao replied casually, "Oh ... Ten million US dollars is not a small amount ... What? 10 million US dollars!"

Feng Rao suddenly raised her voice. She was staring at the vegetables in paradise, but she suddenly looked up at Xia ruofei. Her eyes were wide open, and her face was full of disbelief.

Xia ruofei nodded with a calm expression.

Feng Rao quickly calmed herself down and said, "Director Xia, your company's products are very competitive, and there's no doubt about their potential. You don't have to exaggerate the company's assets."

As she said that, she took out some documents from her bag and quickly looked through them. "According to the scale of your company ... Mm, and the situation that I've just observed, although the construction standards of the hardware facilities are very high, the total assets should be ... Not more than ten million. There's still a big difference between that and US $10 million!"

Feng Jing was referring to the situation of Tao Yuan farm. In fact, this valuation had already taken into account the factor of Tao Yuan vegetables. If it was just the hardware facilities, even if the newly built building was included, it should be less than ten million HxB.

Xia ruofei scratched his head and looked embarrassed.

When Feng Rao saw this expression, she naturally thought that Xia ruofei was embarrassed because she had exposed him.

Initially, Feng Jing had been interested in this small company because of Taoyuan vegetables. However, Xia ruofei's exaggeration had made Feng Jing's impression of him worsen.

"I'm sorry, miss Feng," Xia ruofei said. "The information I provided to sis Wu was not complete. In fact, our company's assets are more than that."

Feng Jing's eyes flashed with a hint of mockery. She felt that Xia ruofei was obviously stubborn. It was obvious that paradise corporation's focus was on this farm, and the farm's value was at most ten million HxB. Could it be that the company had more assets that could be claimed to be worth more than ten million USD?

"Then, director Xia, please give me a good introduction!" Feng Rao said with a smile.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "there are currently three assets under the name of the Paradise Corporation. One of them is the Paradise Farm that we're currently in. This is also one of the areas that I'm focusing on developing. I've already planned to rent more land from the local government to further expand the scale of our farm."

Feng Rao nodded and listened quietly.

Xia ruofei continued, "the second is that we have invested in a winery with the lingji F & B group. The total assets are about 10 million Yuan. We have 50% of the shares, which is about 5 million Yuan."

Feng Rao nodded and thought to herself, "this is far from ten million dollars!" Besides, the environment was not good. Many wineries in the country were operating at a loss. It was not a good idea to invest in wineries at this time.

Xia ruofei did not explain the situation of the winery to Feng Rao in detail, nor did he tell her the excellent market prospects of the improved Drunken Eight Immortals.

Xia ruofei noticed Feng Rao's expression and could guess what she was thinking. He smiled and continued, "The third asset is that we've cooperated with Mr. Tang He, the chairman of the shengbang group in the United States, to acquire a farm called padink in Australia. Well ... It has now been renamed Paradise Farm. Our paradise Corporation owns 51% of the shares. This farm in Australia is valued at about 20 million US dollars, so the assets of paradise Corporation are definitely more than 10 million US dollars!"

Feng Rao's eyes widened in shock. Xia ruofei's words had indeed shocked her.

To be honest, 10 million USD wasn't a big company in Feng Jing's eyes. At least, it was still small compared to the two companies she had worked for.

However, compared to the impression she had of the Paradise Corporation, this was far beyond her expectations.

Moreover, the words 'Australian farm' and United States's shengbang Corporation 'naturally had a huge impact on Feng Jing's mental state.

Feng Jing's first impression of the company was that it was a small farm in the outskirts of a rural county. However, with the disclosure of information such as paradise vegetables and the Australian cooperative farm, Feng Jing knew that her judgment seemed to be quite off.

In this invisible confrontation, Xia ruofei had clearly gained the upper hand.

Of course, Xia ruofei was satisfied with Feng Jing's ability. Otherwise, he would not have told her so much.

Xia ruofei walked to his desk confidently, picked up a stack of documents, and walked back. He handed it to Feng Jing and smiled. "Miss Feng, these are the copies of the winery and Australian farm investment documents that I just introduced to you. There are also some copies of our company's recent sales orders. You can take a look first."

Feng Rao received the documents mechanically. She was still in a daze as her mind was filled with thoughts about the 10 million US dollars in assets.

Feng Rao quickly flipped through the information provided by Xia ruofei.

In fact, she had already believed that Jian Jia and Xia ruofei would not lie about such an obvious and easily exposed matter.

Chapter 458: The General Manager is in place (2)

However, when she saw the investment contract signed by the Paradise Corporation and Mr. Tang He, she couldn't help but show a surprised look.

Then, Feng Jing saw a message that surprised her. It was a receipt from the southeast Province Office of Hengfeng group in Hong Kong.

“Chairman Xia, does your company also have business dealings with Hengfeng group?” Feng Rao asked in surprise.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “Yes, in fact, our paradise vegetables have long appeared on the menu of the five – Star hotels under Hengfeng group. This cooperation was personally decided by Mr. MA Xiong, the chairman of Hengfeng group and I. From the feedback, the popularity of paradise vegetables is very gratifying. Hengfeng group has repeatedly proposed to increase the supply volume, but due to limited production capacity, we can only maintain the original supply. This is also the reason why I am anxious to set up the company’s framework and expand the scale of the farm.”

Feng Rao felt that her brain was not working well enough. Tang He, MA Xiong ... These two were world – Class tycoons with assets of more than ten billion US dollars. This young Chairman in front of her could actually directly discuss cooperation with them.

This shocked Feng Jing even more than the peach blossom company’s unexpected ten million USD assets.

The friendship of a world – Class tycoon, a product with amazing potential, and ... A good – looking boss ... Feng Jing, who had only come here to take a break, suddenly realized that this company was becoming more and more attractive to her.

“Miss Feng, what do you think?” Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

Feng Rao took a deep breath and said frankly, “Chairman Xia, if ... I mean if I were to work for your company, I hope to have the greatest autonomy and be able to make decisions on the company’s operations independently.”

Xia ruofei replied without hesitation, “of course!” I’m looking for the General Manager of the company, so I won’t ask about the company’s production and operation. You have the final say. ”

Xia ruofei originally wanted to get out of the tedious administrative work, which was why he wanted to increase the manpower and recruit a professional manager. In a sense, this was in line with Feng Jing’s request.

Perhaps Xia ruofei was too straightforward, but Feng Jing was a little embarrassed.

“This ... The general direction is still in the hands of the chairman ...” She said.

“The General manager’s opinion will also be an important reference for my decision on the company’s development strategy,” Xia ruofei immediately said. Miss Feng can rest assured on this point. In paradise Corporation, there won’t be a situation where an outsider criticizes an expert and interferes with the work. ”

Feng Jing nodded. This was what she cared about the most. The reason why she had resigned from Hailang network was mainly because a certain company leader had blindly given her instructions in the field she was in charge of.

Xia ruofei looked at Feng Rao and asked, “Miss Feng, can we ... Talk about the treatment?”

Feng Rao thought for a while and finally nodded.

Xia ruofei smiled in satisfaction. This meant that Feng Jing had accepted the position.

Xia ruofei said, "miss Feng ... No, I should call you President Feng now." Chief Feng, our company can provide you with an annual salary of 200000 Chinese dollars. In addition, you'll also enjoy 1% of the company's net profit as a bonus, and you'll be the only executive in the company to enjoy this bonus. "

Giving shares and dividends to the company's senior management was a common practice in many companies. However, Xia ruofei knew the huge potential of paradise Corporation. It was impossible to distribute the shares so easily, not even one percent. However, Xia ruofei was still bold enough to give one percent of the dividends to the General Manager of the company.

In fact, Xia ruofei's offer was not very high. It was more than half of Feng Jing's previous offer. Moreover, based on the company's current revenue, a 1% bonus was just a drop in the bucket.

However, Feng Jing nodded without hesitation. "I agree!"

In just a few minutes of interaction, Feng Jing already had a whole new level of respect for this company. She was extremely optimistic about paradise corporation's future. She was very clear that this insignificant 1% bonus could bring her a huge fortune in a few years.

Of course, compared to earning more money, Feng Jing was more concerned about the fact that she could finally take charge of a company with unlimited potential. Furthermore, she had been in charge of the company since it was young. The sense of accomplishment that came from growing the company into a giant was something that money couldn't compare to.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "CEO Feng, according to the usual practice, you will also have a one – month probation period after joining paradise Corporation. This will be written in the contract. Of course, the benefits during the probation period will not change. You don't mind this, right?"

"That's reasonable," Feng Jing said nonchalantly. "It's a two – way choice."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Then there's no problem! Chief Feng, happy working with you!"

With that, Xia ruofei extended his hand to Feng Jing. Feng Jing also smiled brightly and shook Xia ruofei's hand. She smiled and said, "Happy cooperation!"

Xia ruofei stood up and walked to his desk. He picked up the phone and made a call. "Lei Hu, come to my office for a moment."

Lei Hu was already on standby on the first floor. After receiving Xia ruofei's call, he quickly came to the office.

Chapter 459: The General Manager is in place (3)

"Brother Xia!"

"Lei Hu, from today onwards, miss Feng Jing will be the General Manager of our paradise Corporation." Xia ruofei said.

"Hello, President Feng!" Lei Hu quickly said.

Feng Rao also nodded at Lei Hu in a friendly manner.

Xia ruofei pointed at the stack of documents on the desk and said, ""Lei Hu, move all these documents to the general manager's office next door. Then, pack up the easternmost suite on the third floor and give the key to President Feng."

"Yes!"

Lei Hu left the office with the documents. Xia ruofei smiled at Feng Jing and said, ""Chief Feng, the company's resources are limited. We will first assign you a two – bedroom apartment upstairs. This way, it will be more convenient for you to go to work and get to work. Also, there is an employee cafeteria on the first floor for meals. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner are provided. Of course, you can also choose to cook at home."

"Thank you, Chairman." Feng ke said.

"When can you start work?" Xia ruofei asked.

"Anytime!" Feng Rao's eyes lit up.

Indeed, she couldn't wait to get back to work. After resting for more than two months, she was full of anticipation for this new job.

"Alright, I'll take you to the office!" Xia ruofei said.

When the building was first designed, there were already many offices reserved on the second floor. Before Feng Jing arrived, Xia ruofei had already asked Lei Hu and the others to tidy up the office next door and set up all the office facilities.

When they arrived at the general manager's office, Feng Jing was very satisfied with the clean and bright office environment. After walking around the office, she said to Xia ruofei, ""Chairman, do you have any instructions for the company's development?"

Xia ruofei chuckled. "There's no hurry, CEO Feng. Take a look at the information first. We can have a chat after you're done. I mainly want to hear your thoughts."

Feng Jing also knew that her understanding of paradise Corporation was only superficial. If she wanted to quickly get into work mode, reading the information and understanding the situation was a necessary preparation.

"Yes, Chairman, I'll finish reading the documents as soon as possible," Feng Jing nodded. If you don't have any other instructions, I would like to start looking at the information now. "

Xia ruofei was a little stunned. Was he asking the chairman to leave just like that?

However, Xia ruofei was impressed by Feng Jing's professional attitude. If the capitalists wanted to make money easily, they had to rely on these professional employees.

"Alright, I'll be leaving then." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "President Feng, you can take your time to read these documents. There's no rush."

By then, Feng Jing had already sat down behind her desk and was flipping through the document at the top. Without looking up, she said, "I understand, Chairman."

Seeing that Feng Jing was already in her work mode, Xia ruofei did not want to disturb her and left the office.

Xia ruofei heaved a long sigh of relief when he returned to his office.

If nothing went wrong, the General Manager of the company was finally selected. Of course, Xia ruofei had to do some research on Feng Jing. If she was not capable enough, she would be fired even if she was introduced by Wu Liqian.

This was because Xia ruofei's goal was to be lazy. A general manager with insufficient ability would definitely affect his ability to be a hands – off manager.

When Xia ruofei thought about how he would be able to leave all the troublesome matters to Feng Jing, he felt a sense of relief.

He estimated that it would take Feng Jing a few days to finish reading the information and then think about the necessary things.

Hence, Xia ruofei returned to the villa after sitting in the office for a while.

To Xia ruofei's surprise, Feng Jing called him in the evening and said that she wanted to see him.

When Xia ruofei arrived at the office, he saw Feng Jing waiting at the door with a document that was more than ten pages long. As soon as she saw Xia ruofei, Feng Jing immediately handed the document to him and said, "Chairman, these are my thoughts on the company's development. Please take a look!"

Chapter 460: you get what you pay for 1

Xia ruofei was shocked. He glanced at the document and looked up at Feng Jing. He asked, "So fast?"

Feng Jing smiled. "Chairman, I haven't made a comprehensive long – term plan. I've just sorted out a few problems that need to be solved. I'm here to report to you."

Xia ruofei nodded. "Yes, we have our priorities. That's right."

He then said, "President Feng, let's sit down and talk!" I'll take a look at what you've written. "

The two of them walked to the sofa in the guest area and sat down. Xia ruofei personally poured two glasses of water and placed one in front of Feng Jing.

Feng Rao bowed slightly and thanked him.

Xia ruofei laughed at himself. "My company can't even gather enough people. I can only do things like serving tea and pouring water myself."

"I've already written that in the report," Feng Jing said immediately. "The first thing we need to do is to set up the company's framework and form an efficient and capable administrative team. Otherwise, we won't be able to carry out much of our work."

Xia ruofei nodded his head in agreement and started to read through Feng Jing's report.

Unlike government documents, which were complicated and cumbersome, Feng Jing's report didn't contain any nonsense. She went straight to the point.

She sorted out many issues in the report, including recruiting, forming teams, brand promotion, expanding the farm, and so on.

After Xia ruofei quickly looked through it, he raised his head and said to Feng Rao with a pleasant expression, "President Feng, the things you wrote fit the company's situation very well. You found the main point of the problem and could write such a report in half a day. It's not easy!"

"Chairman, I'll give you a detailed report," Feng Jing said with a smile.

She was holding the same report in her hand. She must have been prepared to report it before she came.

Xia ruofei looked out of the window at the darkening sky and said, "President Feng, there's no rush for this! You've just taken office today, and it's getting dark. Why don't we go eat first?"

"There's no rush to eat. The sooner the company gets on the right track, the sooner we can create greater profits," Feng Rao insisted.

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment. He did not understand the working conditions of senior white-collared workers in large companies. In a cruel competitive environment, many people regarded working overtime as a norm. In fact, Feng Jing had long been used to working overtime. Moreover, she had just taken over today and was at her peak. How could she have the mood to eat when she was handed over to manage such an incomplete company?

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "CEO Feng, the Emperor doesn't need hungry soldiers!" How about this, I'll tell Lei Hu to get some food from the cafeteria. We'll talk while we eat!"

After the staff canteen was put into use, all three meals were prepared for Xia ruofei since Lei Hu and the rest lived on the farm. It was also to make it more convenient for Xia ruofei to eat when he needed it. The staff in the canteen could eat for free. Cao tieshu's wife would wait for the staff to finish eating, and then she would have Dinner on the Farm before going home.

Feng Rao nodded in agreement. Xia ruofei immediately took out his phone and gave Lei Hu a call, asking him to bring two servings of food to the office.

Feng Jing waited for Xia ruofei to finish his call and immediately started reporting.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "CEO Feng, I've told you this morning that you can make decisions on all matters of the company, big or small. How about this? we don't have to report the less important things. Let's talk about the important parts!"

"Alright!" Feng Rao nodded. "Chairman, I'll talk about forming a team first. I think this is the most urgent work for the company. The entire company's operation is actually irregular now. It may be fine when the business volume is low, but once the business volume increases and the company's scale expands, there will be big problems with the current model. Especially if we encounter an emergency and need crisis public relations or other similar situations, the shortcomings of our current management model will be prominent."

"I agree," Xia ruofei nodded. That's why I'm looking for you, the General Manager!"

"Thank you for your trust, Chairman," Feng Jing said with a smile. As for the company's administrative team, there was no need for a Deputy General Manager for the time being. According to their functions, they were divided into three major areas: administration, finance, and marketing. The administrative part included human resources, customer service, and training. The finance department was mainly in charge of financial affairs; Marketing, on the other hand, included sales, marketing, and e – commerce. "My opinion is that we should first recruit the three directors of administrative finance and marketing. In addition, we should recruit three to five staff members for each department. The framework of the company can be almost set up. As the company expands, we'll further refine the work of each department and do it step by step. "

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said,""Director Feng, I already have a suitable candidate for the financial director. It's a classmate of mine. Since the establishment of the company, he has been helping me with the financial work. However, he has never done any professional financial work in a big company, so I hope you can help him. "

"Alright," Feng Rao immediately replied. Then, when we are recruiting finance staff, we can consider recruiting those with strong abilities, preferably those with experience in big companies. As a director, you only need to have good management skills and a certain degree of professional judgment. "
