

God tier Farm 481

Chapter 481: returning gifts (2)

Xia ruofei was surprised to hear that Lu You was here.

He had thought that even if Lu You helped him with this matter, it would definitely take a few days. He didn't expect it to be so fast.

However, she had done him a big favor, so he immediately went downstairs to welcome her.

When Xia ruofei arrived at the villa's courtyard, Lu You's car had just driven in.

She stepped down from the MINI BMW with a faint smile on her face. She walked straight to Xia ruofei and handed him the red flannel bag. "Here, the Jade you wanted."

"So fast?"

Although he had guessed Lu You's intention, Xia ruofei was still a little surprised.

He took the red flannel bag and said with a smile, "Thanks!"

He didn't open it to check. Lu You already knew his requirements for the Jade. Since she brought this piece of white jade over, it definitely met his requirements. Xia ruofei trusted Lu You very much.

Xia ruofei asked, "by the way, how much did it cost?" Give me your account number and I'll transfer the money to you. "

"I don't want money." Lu You said indifferently.

The smile on Xia ruofei's face froze and he quickly said, "How can I do that? You've already helped me solve a big problem by buying the Jade that meets my requirements. How can I let you spend money on it?"

"It's not worth much, just take it as a gift from me!" Lu You said.

"No, no, no!" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "this grade of sheep – Fat white jade is not cheap. You're a student without any source of income. I can't take it!"

"Then you can return it to me!" Lu You extended his hand to Xia ruofei and said, "I won't ask for money anyway."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile bitterly and said, "Lu You ... This item is too valuable. I can't take it for free. Besides, where did you get so much money to buy jade?"

He knew that Lu You didn't live as luxuriously as the children of some high – ranking officials. Tian Huilan had always taught her not to have the thought of having special privileges. In fact, Lu You had done the same. Among her University classmates, the number of people who knew that her mother was Tian Huilan could be counted on one hand. The most valuable thing was this car, and it was a birthday gift from Tian Huixin. It was unlike in some offices where changing cars was as easy as changing clothes. It was as if he was afraid that others didn't know that his father was corrupt and accepting bribes.

Such a large piece of sheep – Fat white jade would cost at least a few hundred thousand Yuan. Where did Lu You get so much money?

“I didn’t say that I bought it!” Lu You pouted.

Xia ruofei was a little surprised. Then ...”

He even thought maliciously, “could it be that someone gave it to Secretary Tian and Lu You secretly took it out?” Secretary Tian’s face was full of righteousness. He didn’t look like a corrupt official!

If Lu You knew what Xia ruofei was thinking, she would definitely be so angry that she would snatch the White jade back. Fortunately, she was not a worm in Xia ruofei’s stomach.

So she thought for a while and said, “My aunt gave this to me a few years ago. I haven’t had the chance to process it. Since you need it, I’ll give it to you!”

When Xia ruofei heard this, he quickly opened the red flannel bag and took out the suet white jade.

The Jade material was absolutely in line with the requirements. There was not a single trace of impurity in the whole body, and it was extremely warm and moist in his hand. Moreover, the size was much larger than what he had requested.

In fact, this was a whole piece of Jade, but the edges had been simply polished, and one side was carved with some faint symbols. It looked more like a semi – finished product.

Xia ruofei believed Lu You’s words immediately.

As for why Tian Huixin would give Lu You a half – finished piece of Jade that was not processed and not a Jade that was made, Xia ruofei could not figure it out.

Perhaps it was a Special Hobby of the rich? For the rich young mistress of Hengfeng group, a piece of high – Quality Jade didn’t seem to be much.

Even though he believed Lu You’s words, Xia ruofei was still a little hesitant. Even if Lu You didn’t spend any money on this piece of Jade, its value was real! How could he just accept something that was worth hundreds of thousands?

Seeing that Xia ruofei was still hesitating, Lu You furrowed her brows and said, “Xia ruofei, I’m just giving you a piece of Jade. Do you have to be so conflicted?”

“No, no...” Xia ruofei smiled awkwardly.

“Just take it as a thank you gift from me!” Lu You said seriously, “if you hadn’t rushed over to save me in time, the consequences would have been unimaginable. Could it be that my life is worth less than this small piece of Jade?”

Since Lu You had already said so much, Xia ruofei had no choice but to accept it.

“Then I’ll accept it ...” Xia ruofei said. “Lu You, thank you!”

Lu You finally revealed a satisfied smile and said, "That's the way! But you don't have to thank me! Didn't you already agree to one of my conditions? It'll be fine as long as you're willing to fulfill my request!"

"No problem!" Xia ruofei also smiled.

"Oh right, wait a moment!" He said after some thought.

Xia ruofei put the White jade into the red velvet bag and turned around to walk into the villa.

He kept the woolen bag in the space where Lu You's line of sight was blocked.

Xia ruofei was not worried that the sheep – Fat white jade would be absorbed by the spirit map's space. The booklet had mentioned that the soul puppet could be used in the space. This meant that the White jade could also exist in the space. Otherwise, as the core of the soul puppet, if the White jade was absorbed by the space, the soul puppet would become a puppet without any ability to think or move.

Chapter 482: returning gifts (3)

Besides, the spirit map space had only absorbed jadeite other than the strange black stone. Xia ruofei had tried other jades in the Jade Shop, but the spirit map space did not react at all.

That was why Xia ruofei put the White jade away with a peace of mind.

At the same time, Xia ruofei took out ten portions of jaded skin ointment from the medium. He had brewed more than 30 portions last time and had given away a lot recently. There were still more than 20 portions left. He took out half of them at once.

Xia ruofei found a paper bag and put the jaded skin ointment in it. Then, he carried the paper bag to the door.

"Lu You, I'm really very grateful for this!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "this is for you. You must accept it!"

Lu You didn't know what was going on, but she was still happy that Xia ruofei had given her a gift.

She took the paper bag and opened it with a trace of anticipation.

When Lu You saw the familiar porcelain bottle, she couldn't help but exclaim in surprise, "It's jaded skin cream!"

One, two, three ...

Lu You quickly counted and realized that Xia ruofei had given her ten bottles of Jade skin cream at once. She was so happy that her face turned red.

The last time Tian Huilan had personally called, Xia ruofei had only given her eight bottles, and that included the few bottles for Tian Huixin. This time, he had actually given her ten bottles. This made Lu You very surprised.

Although the jaded skin cream was not circulated much, it had long become famous in the upper – Class circle. Those who had used it were full of praise, and those noble ladies who had seen the extraordinary effect of the jaded skin cream but had no chance to use it had inquired about the news through various channels, wanting to get a portion for themselves.

Unfortunately, the number of people who could get the jaded skin cream from Xia ruofei could be counted on one's fingers. The noblewomen could only get information about Tian Huilan's level at most. The jaded skin cream was extremely limited, and Tian Huilan could not meet everyone's requirements. The rarer something was, the more expensive it would be. This jaded skin cream had become even more precious in the circle.

After all, even Tian Huilan couldn't ask Xia ruofei for the jaded skin cream again and again. What was she, a Standing Committee member of the Provincial Party Committee, to him?

Under such circumstances, Lu You was given ten bottles of jaded skin cream at once. The happiness she felt could be said to be multiplied.

"So many ... Are all for me?" Lu You asked happily.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "Yup! You've helped me so much, so this Jade skin cream is a small gift from me!"

"Thank you!" Lu You held the paper bag full of jaded skin ointment tightly in her hands and said happily.

The jaded skin cream was a huge temptation to girls. Even if Xia ruofei gave Lu You the equivalent of gold, she would not be so happy from the bottom of her heart.

Lu You was a little uncertain. She asked, "Xia ruofei, a gift is a gift, but the condition you promised me still counts, right?"

Xia ruofei looked at Lu You's worried expression and couldn't help but find it funny. He said, "Yes, yes! This is my little gift to you in return, and it has nothing to do with my previous conditions!"

"It's bright!" Lu You gave Xia ruofei a big thumbs up and said happily, "thanks!"

Lu You, who had unexpectedly received ten bottles of jaded skin cream, drove back to the city happily. Xia ruofei watched the BMW MINI gradually disappear into the distance and couldn't help but feel a little emotional.

The encounters in life were really wonderful. When he and Lu You first met, they didn't get along. As long as the two of them were together, they would inevitably bicker. At that time, even if Xia ruofei was beaten to death, he would not believe that their relationship would become so good in the near future.

Of course, at that time, Xia ruofei would not have thought that the tsundere miss Lu would also smile and would even inadvertently reveal a coquettish expression ...

Xia ruofei sighed with emotion. Just as he was about to go back and continue his research on how to make the spiritual Jade, Feng Jing brought pang Hao and Qin Xiaojun back to the farm from the city.

Chapter 483: Core rune_1

Xia ruofei had intended to go upstairs, but when he saw the black Mercedes – Benz return to the farm, he gave up on the idea and walked out of the villa.

This Mercedes – Benz was a congratulatory gift from Grandpa Tang He when the ribbon – cutting ceremony was held for the completion of the complex two days ago. Xia ruofei didn't like this kind of formal business style, so he used this car as the official car for the company's top management. In fact, he assigned the car to Feng Jing.

Of course, if there were important business events that required Xia ruofei's attendance, he would not mind using the car.

The road from the entrance of the farm to the complex would make a turn at the small villa.

Qin Xiaojun, who was driving, saw Xia ruofei coming out of the villa to greet him. Naturally, he stepped on the brakes and stopped the car.

After the job fair, pang Hao had gone straight back to his home in the city, so Feng Jing was the only one in the back seat.

Feng Rao immediately opened the car door and got out of the car when she saw Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei stood on the side of the driver's seat and cast a questioning look at Qin Xiaojun. Qin Xiaojun naturally understood Xia ruofei's intention and said in a low voice, "Brother Xia, everything's normal. There's no one suspicious."

Xia ruofei nodded slightly and did not continue to ask about Yingying's situation. Since they did not know about Yingying's situation, there was no need to worry Feng Jing.

Xia ruofei didn't know that Liang Haiming's influence in Sanshan was not that strong. After all, the southeast province was under the song family's traditional sphere of influence. The Liang family's influence was very limited, so Liang Haiming's revenge was only targeted at him. He didn't have any plans to deal with Taoyuan farm for the time being.

In fact, Liang Haiming didn't like such a small farm.

Hence, Xia ruofei's worries were unnecessary. However, from his perspective, he had to prepare for the worst.

"Chairman." Feng Rao called out to him with a smile after she got out of the car.

Xia ruofei also showed a gentle smile and asked, "President Feng, you've worked hard! How's the situation today?"

"Not bad! It's better than expected." Feng Rao smiled.

"Let's go, we'll talk while we walk!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "it's almost time to eat. Ask sister – in – Law to make two more dishes."

Then, Xia ruofei turned to Qin Xiaojun and said, "Little Jun, park your car and come over!"

"Alright, brother Xia!" Qin Xiaojun said with a grin. Then, he drove away.

"Chairman, we've received more than 40 resumes today." Feng Jing said as she walked, "I've done a preliminary scan and there are about 20 people who meet the requirements. The job fair will be over in a day, so I plan to go there tomorrow to see if I can get anything else."

“More than forty? Not bad!” Xia ruofei was also surprised. “It seems that it’s not easy to find a job now!” There’s actually someone who wants to sign up to work on the farm.”

Feng Jing pursed her lips into a smile and said, “we’re hiring under the name of paradise Corporation. We didn’t specify where we’re working. However, if the applicants ask, we’ll tell them the truth.” I’m going to do a round of screening tomorrow night and send out the interview notice. The day after tomorrow, I’ll interview on the farm. I think we should be mentally prepared, as some people will probably back out.”

Xia ruofei laughed and said, “that’s not a big deal!” We will welcome those who have met the requirements and are willing to stay, but we won’t force those who are unwilling. However, I can be sure that it won’t be long before those who voluntarily give up will regret it!”

Xia ruofei’s words were full of confidence. However, Feng Jing had a complete understanding of the situation at paradise Corporation, so she didn’t think that Xia ruofei was arrogant at all. Instead, she nodded in agreement.

“By the way, how’s the online recruitment going?” Xia ruofei asked.

“The response is pretty good too.” Feng Jing said, “we’ve clearly written down the location of the job and the relevant benefits on the recruitment website. There are quite a few people who are interested in it. As of this morning, we’ve received about 30 e – resumes!”

“Not bad, not bad!” Xia ruofei was very satisfied with the result.

“However, some of the people who applied online are not local to Sanshan. Therefore, I plan to interview them separately. Those who applied online will be in the next batch.” Feng ke said.

“Sure.” Xia ruofei agreed without a second thought.

The two of them chatted and soon arrived at the complex.

Qin Xiaojun had already parked his car in the parking space behind the building. He had built a row of shaded parking spaces behind the building. His Mercedes – Benz was usually parked there.

The three of them went to the staff cafeteria on the first floor.

Other than Cao tieshu, the other farm employees had basically gone home after work. Lunch was provided for free at Qin Zhuan farm, but dinner had to be paid. They could apply for a card at pang Hao’s office in the finance department, deposit money into the card, and use it for their meals.

The villagers were usually more frugal, so almost no one stayed for dinner.

As for Cao tieshu, because his wife was here, he was too lazy to go back to cook. Thus, he ate his dinner at the farm. After that, he would stay behind to help his wife clean up the cafeteria. The two of them would then go home together.

Hence, for the time being, it was dinnertime in the staff cafeteria. There were only Lei Hu and a few others, Cao tieshu and his wife, two other staff members in the cafeteria, Xia ruofei, and Feng Jing.

Today, in order to strengthen the security, Lei Hu and the rest did not eat in the cafeteria, making it even more deserted.

Chapter 484: Core rune_2

Xia ruofei greeted Cao tieshu, who was having his meal, and asked his wife to help him make a few dishes. Then, he brought Feng Rao and Qin Xiaojun to an empty table and sat down.

Of course, Xia ruofei also paid for his meals. The entire company was his. He would put food in his left pocket and take out food from his right pocket. Naturally, he was happy to set an example.

Very quickly, Cao tieshu's wife served a few home – cooked dishes. Xia ruofei, Feng Rao, and Qin Xiaojun chatted as they ate.

“By the way, President Feng, I remember that we still need to recruit two directors, right?” Xia ruofei asked, “did you find anything in the past two days?”

“It's not easy to hire someone at the director level in the talent market,” Feng Jing said. However, I've worked in several big companies before and have some connections. I've been contacting around these few days and have a few suitable candidates, but it's not easy to make them make up their minds. ”

Xia ruofei nodded in understanding. He knew that paradise Corporation was not attractive enough. There was no need for a director to work in a small company like this.

“Thank you for your hard work, President Feng.” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “just do your best! If it really doesn't work, we'll look for a headhunting company. In short, we'll first set up the framework of the company's administrative team, and it'll be much more convenient for us to work in the future. ”

“Alright,” he said. Feng ke said.

“Chairman, when are we going to the village committee to talk about renting land?” she asked.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, “We're all old acquaintances in Dongkeng village, so we can meet up at any time. Let's do this! You should go to the job fair as usual tomorrow. Isn't the interview the day after tomorrow? Then let's go to the village council the day after tomorrow and try to finalize the land lease within a day!”

“Alright!” Feng Jing nodded.

After dinner, Feng Jing informed Xia ruofei and went upstairs to her office.

Although it was already late at night, Feng Jing had no intention of resting. She had to organize the resumes she received today and check out the online recruitment. She also needed to get in touch with the director candidate and prepare for the interviews in a few days.

Feng Jing was a standard strong woman who worked day and night. Moreover, she was now living in an apartment on the third floor. It could be said that the company was her home.

Xia ruofei was very pleased with Feng Jing's enthusiasm. He did not say anything about not working at night. At the beginning of the company, it was normal to work overtime. Xia ruofei would not try to dampen Feng Jing's enthusiasm at this time.

After Feng Jing left, Xia ruofei pulled Qin Xiaojun aside and asked him about the recruitment fair in detail. Of course, he was mainly asking about the safety issues.

Qin Xiaojun told Xia ruofei everything he knew.

Xia ruofei understood that Feng Rao and her group did not encounter any problems during the day. He pondered for a moment and then asked Qin Xiaojun to call Lei Hu over.

“Hu Zi! Tell Hong Tao to retreat!” Xia ruofei said, “you guys will have to work hard tonight. Strengthen the patrol!” During the day ... Pay attention to any suspicious people around the farm. If you find anything, don’t alert the enemy and report to me at any time!”

“Yes, brother Xia!” Lei Hu immediately said.

Xia ruofei patted Lei Hu’s shoulder, then walked out of the staff canteen and returned to his small villa.

After Xia ruofei returned to his room, he did not rush into the spirit map space.

He first took out the small booklet from the stone room in the new space, then calmed his mind and began to study the third page about the refining of the core of the spiritual puppet.

Especially the mysterious runes that had to be carved by himself. Xia ruofei studied them repeatedly and did not miss any details.

His mental power was already very condensed, and the corresponding brain development was also far beyond the average person. If it was an ordinary book, even if he didn’t have a photographic memory, he could at least read it two or three times, and he would definitely remember every detail.

However, the contents recorded in the booklet were very mysterious, especially the core runes. Sometimes, two runes that looked the same might have many differences in the depth, curvature, and other details.

The core rune was divided into several independent parts, and each part needed to be carved in one stroke. Otherwise, the whole piece of material would be wasted.

With such high requirements and difficulty, Xia ruofei naturally did not dare to let his guard down. He spent two hours and finally managed to engrave every detail and angle of the core rune in his mind.

Next, he could start carving.

However, Xia ruofei was not a hotheaded person. The sheep – Fat white jade was so precious that he naturally could not use it to carve right away. He would definitely need to practice a little at the start.

Xia ruofei was prepared for this.

When he was strolling around the Jade Market today, he had bought some cheap ordinary Jade. In order to practice better, he had chosen some white jade as much as possible. He believed that once he was familiar with white jade of similar materials, the chances of failure would be minimized when he tried to carve on the highest quality sheep – Fat white jade.

Other than buying ordinary white jade, Xia ruofei also bought a few good carving knives.

He didn't enter the spirit map space, but started practicing in his room.

Xia ruofei was sitting on a chair. There was a cloth bag on the coffee table beside him. It was filled with white jade that was about 10 centimeters in diameter. As for the booklet, Xia ruofei had already put it back into the spirit map space. He had already memorized the core runes of the spiritual puppet, so he naturally did not need the booklet anymore.

Chapter 485: Core rune_ 3

Xia ruofei took out a piece of Jade from the bag and held it in his hand. He picked up the carving knife with his right hand and took a deep breath before he started carving.

He had chosen the relatively simpler part of the core rune. It was easy at first, but difficult later!

The material of white jade was relatively soft and Xia ruofei's grip was unusually strong. Hence, he easily drew a shallow mark on the surface of the Jade.

Xia ruofei held his breath and focused. He turned his wrist slightly and the carving knife in his hand drew an arc.

Xia ruofei had only drawn half of the line when he sighed and put away his carving knife.

There was a special text in the booklet that emphasized that every independent part of the core rune needed to be carved in one stroke. The whole process had to be done in one go, otherwise the runes would not be able to achieve the desired effect when combined.

Hence, Xia ruofei's first attempt failed quickly.

In fact, Xia ruofei had already felt it when he was cutting. He did not control his strength well enough when he drew the arc. The arc was obviously too deep.

Each individual part of the rune didn't look too complicated, but the requirements for the details were too high, so it wasn't as easy as one imagined. If one wasn't careful, they would make mistakes.

Of course, Xia ruofei was not discouraged. He did not throw away the piece of white jade. Instead, he changed to another position and continued to practice. There were still many empty spaces on the White jade. He was only practicing a certain part of the runes. One piece of Jade was enough for him to practice many times.

He tried the same rune for the second time.

He failed when he was one – third done.

The third attempt failed.

The fourth attempt failed.

.....

Xia ruofei tried more than ten times and finally succeeded once.

At this time, the surface of the White jade was already covered with dense runes. Of course, most of them were failed semi – finished products.

Xia ruofei did not think that this was enough. An occasional success did not mean anything.

He directly flipped the White jade over to see that the other side was still empty, so he could continue practicing.

Xia ruofei drew the same rune that he had successfully drawn.

The speed of the carving knife in his hand was getting faster and faster, and the success rate was getting higher and higher. After more than two hours, Xia ruofei was able to succeed eight to nine times out of ten.

Moreover, he felt that he should have fully mastered the rune, so he stopped.

At this moment, there were five to six pieces of jade that were not covered in runes beside Xia ruofei.

In the process of practice, Xia ruofei had also gained some insights and comprehensions. If he had used the carving knife and followed the instructions in the booklet step by step, the possibility of failure would still be very high. After all, the rune required too much detail. However, Xia ruofei had an accidental attempt and exerted his spiritual energy through his arm onto the carving knife. Suddenly, he had a mysterious comprehension.

His control over the carving knife had suddenly increased by a lot, and he had a feeling of being extremely meticulous.

Because the tip of the knife was also filled with spiritual energy, Xia ruofei's control of the weight, depth, and angle of the carving process had become many times sharper.

This way, the success rate would immediately increase.

It was because of this realization and practice that Xia ruofei's success rate in drawing the rune had increased.

After he had successfully carved the rune on the last blank piece of the White jade, he finally put down the carving knife. He already had an idea of the first simple rune.

On the entire core of the spiritual puppet, there were a total of 18 of these independent runes. The remaining 17 runes were each more complicated than the runes he had just practiced.

He had only taken the first step of a long journey!

Xia ruofei rested for a while and took out a new piece of white jade from the bag. He grabbed the carving knife and started to practice the second rune.

He seemed to have forgotten the passage of time.

Under the light, the carving knife in Xia ruofei's hand moved nimbly, and Jade chips kept falling. Pieces of white jade were carved with mysterious runes that had no pattern.

Xia ruofei had already entered a state of complete oblivion.

When he reached into the bag and found nothing, he suddenly realized that at least a hundred pieces of white jade had been used up.

The ground in front of Xia ruofei was also covered with a thick layer of Jade chips.

At this time, the sky outside the window was already starting to turn white. Xia ruofei had unknowingly practiced for an entire night.

Xia ruofei put down the carving knife and stood in front of the window. He stretched lazily and rubbed his sore wrist, a satisfied smile on his face.

In just one night, he had already mastered ten runes! And the success rate was very high!

Chapter 486: The brain circuit of a strong woman (1)

Xia ruofei rubbed his sore eyes. He had stayed up all night. Even if he was made of iron, he still felt a little tired. Moreover, during the process of training, he had been constantly releasing his mental power. Although it was not much each time, it could not withstand such a continuous consumption. Therefore, his mental power was almost exhausted, and both sides of his head were aching.

Xia ruofei raised his hand and looked at his watch. It was around five in the morning.

He simply locked the door and windows, summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm, and then entered the space with a thought.

Xia ruofei first drank a small bottle of diluted spirit Heart Flower petal solution. Then, with a flash of his body and mind, he appeared in the stone room in the new space.

Xia ruofei sat cross – legged on the Jade futon and started to recover his spiritual power.

The Jade futon was a great help to the recovery of mental strength. In addition, Xia ruofei had taken the petal solution of the spirit Heart Flower. After half an hour, Xia ruofei felt that his mental strength was full again. He stood up in high spirits, and the fatigue on his body had disappeared without a trace.

After Xia ruofei recovered, he left the medium.

He took the painting and went to the bathroom to wash his face.

Seeing that it was still early, Xia ruofei made himself a cup of tea and sat down in front of the computer. After turning on the computer, he lit a cigarette and started to search for the minerals and materials that he had ordered two days ago.

Other than the Supreme – grade mutton – Fat white jade, the materials listed on the third page of the booklet were not considered rare. Xia ruofei could easily find them all on the internet. Besides that, considering that he would have to process these materials, forge, and process them, Xia ruofei also ordered some small processing equipment.

In order to solve the problem of electricity in the spirit map, Xia ruofei even ordered a small diesel generator. He had already tested it when he drove the all – terrain vehicle in the spirit map space. The spirit map space had an automatic purification function, and the exhaust would not pollute the space.

Xia ruofei checked the orders on his computer and realized that most of them had already been sent out. Some of the smaller mineral materials were sent by express delivery, while the machines and equipment were delivered by logistics.

Xia ruofei checked on the logistics situation and turned on some music. He listened to the music while browsing the news.

It was not until Seven o' clock that Xia ruofei tidied up a little and went downstairs to the staff cafeteria in the complex not far away for breakfast.

Feng Rao, who was preparing to go to the job fair that day, had brought Qin Xiaojun to the canteen to eat.

Feng Jing had stayed up late the previous night, but she still seemed to be in good spirits, especially since her skin was not dry or dark at all. It still looked white and warm, with a faint luster.

"Chairman!" Feng Rao saw Xia ruofei enter and immediately greeted him with a smile.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. He walked over to Feng Jing's table and sat down. He said half – jokingly, "President Feng, you look especially good today! Could it be that he was in high spirits? Did you find a way to hire the director?"

Feng Rao's cheeks were slightly hot, but she quickly returned to normal. There was a trace of excitement in her eyes as she said, "Chairman, I was just about to look for you!"

"Oh? Did you really find a suitable director so quickly? Is it the marketing director or the administrative Director?" Xia ruofei asked.

"It's not about the recruitment. " Feng Jing's eyes were filled with eagerness as she asked, "Chairman, I wanted to ask you about the bottle of cosmetics you gave me two days ago ..."

Xia ruofei was stunned for a moment and suddenly understood why Yingluo looked so different today. She must have used the jaded skin ointment for the past two days.

Xia ruofei was already used to Feng Jing's reaction.

Because during this period of time, everyone who asked him for the jaded skin cream, especially women, almost had the same expression.

Hence, Xia ruofei smiled and said, "It seems that President Feng has already used the jaded skin ointment I gave you ..."

"Jaded skin cream? This is a good name!" Feng Rao's eyes lit up.

Xia ruofei didn't wait for Feng Rao to speak. He smiled and said, "President Feng, I still have some of this jaded skin cream. You can ask me for more after you've finished it."

Feng Jing was now his company's right – hand man. Although the jaded skin cream was unbelievably effective, the cost was very low, so Xia ruofei naturally would not be stingy.

She did not expect Xia ruofei to misunderstand.

Feng Rao blushed and waved her hand. "Chairman, I'm not looking for you for that ... Jade skin cream! I just wanted to ask you ... Is it possible to mass – produce this cosmetic product?"

Xia ruofei was stunned and said, "Mass production?"

“Yeah!” Feng Rao said excitedly. I remember you telling me that you made it by hand. This is the most effective makeup I’ve ever used, there’s no other! Laplaerie, SK peaks II, Dior, and Chanel were all weak compared to it! If this jade skin cream can be mass produced, it will definitely become our company’s top product!”

Xia ruofei didn’t know whether to laugh or cry.

This career woman’s brain circuit was indeed different from that of ordinary women.

Whether it was a high – ranking official like Tian Huilan, a beautiful young lady like Lu You, or a wealthy lady like Madam Song, after experiencing the heaven – defying effects of the jade skin cream, their first reaction was to ask Xia ruofei for more jade skin cream so that they could continue to use it.

Chapter 487: The brain circuit of a strong woman (2)

Yet, Feng Jing’s first thought was to mass – produce the jade skin cream and add a new product to the company ...

Seeing Xia ruofei’s dazed expression, Feng Rao asked nervously, “Chairman, is it difficult to mass produce?”

Xia ruofei came back to his senses and said, “Ah? No, no, I was a little distracted just now ... You mean mass production? Let me think ...”

Xia ruofei went through the process of brewing the jade skin ointment in his mind.

He found that although the whole brewing process was very complicated and had high requirements for temperature and time, modern automatic production processes were very advanced. If he had a customized production line, it did not seem very difficult to achieve automatic control of each process.

Moreover, the medicinal herbs required to decoct the jade skin ointment were very common and could be purchased in large quantities on the market.

If he were to mass produce them, he could directly purchase them from the farmers who grew these herbs. The raw materials didn’t seem to be a big problem.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, “Mass production should be possible, but ... There doesn’t seem to be a good way to keep the technology confidential for the time being. If we try to mass – produce it rashly, once the secret is leaked, others will be able to replicate it in large quantities.”

Feng Rao calmed down and said, “I see ... Then we really can’t be too hasty. We need a foolproof method to keep it a secret. Otherwise, we’d rather not do it.”

Feng Jing didn’t even mention applying for a patent.

She was also someone who had seen the world in a big company, so she knew very well what the so – called patent protection was.

Not to mention that every patent had a corresponding protection period, even if someone stole the formula and directly produced it, it would be very troublesome to go to court.

Moreover, China was essentially a society based on officials. Various powers and local protection would make such lawsuits even more difficult.

In addition, once the jaded skin cream was produced, it would inevitably set off a storm in the cosmetics market. At that time, it would be inevitable that some cosmetics Giants would be envious. These giant crocodiles would not play their cards according to common sense at all. They would probably directly use various means to steal the formula and process.

They were not afraid of a lawsuit at all.

Such companies all had a strong team of lawyers. Even if they were bound to lose a lawsuit, they could drag it out for a long time. Rich and powerful, they didn't have to worry about this at all. For a small company like paradise Corporation, the legal costs would probably drag it down.

Therefore, the only way was to come up with a technological barrier so that the competitors had no way to copy your products.

Xia ruofei nodded."Chief Feng, your suggestion is too sudden. I'll go back and think about how to keep it a secret." If this problem is solved, it's not impossible to mass produce. "

"Alright," Feng Rao said. Chairman, there's no need to be too anxious about this matter. After all, our company is still in its initial stage and there are still many other things to do. No matter when the jaded skin cream is introduced to the market, it will definitely be a phenomenal product, so we just have to take it slow and steady. "

"I understand. Don't worry! If there isn't a foolproof method, I won't try to mass – produce it. " Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Feng Rao nodded with a hint of excitement in her eyes.

Feng Jing's confidence in paradise Corporation increased when she accidentally discovered that Xia ruofei had such a good cosmetic product.

Perhaps in the near future, that seemingly insignificant 1% bonus will bring me unimaginable wealth ... Feng Jing thought to herself excitedly.

After breakfast, Feng Rao brought Qin Xiaojun to the city in a Mercedes – Benz to meet up with pang Hao. They were going to continue casting their nets at the job fair.

Meanwhile, Xia ruofei had also left Taoyuan farm in his pickup truck. He was preparing to go to the Jade Market again to buy more low – Quality white jade to practice.

The core rune of the soul puppet was the center of the entire soul puppet. He had to practice it to the point where his muscles could remember it. He had to be able to engrave all the runes even if he was slightly distracted. Only then would he try to engrave on the Supreme – grade sheep – Fat white jade.

As the car left the farm, Xia ruofei's eyebrows furrowed.

The feeling of being spied on appeared again.

It seemed that the other party had not given up! Xia ruofei's eyes glinted.

However, after the car turned onto the provincial road and drove for a few kilometers, that feeling disappeared.

Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows. He didn't bother to think about the reason and drove straight to the Jade Market.

Xia ruofei didn't know that the middle – aged man beside Liang Haiming had indeed arranged for a few people to keep an eye on Tao Yuan farm and monitor Xia ruofei's movements through binoculars from afar.

However, due to the skills that Xia ruofei had displayed when she crippled Zhao he yesterday, the middle – aged man had ordered his men not to get close to the farm or follow Xia ruofei without permission. Hence, after Xia ruofei's car drove out of a certain range, the feeling of being spied on completely disappeared.

Xia ruofei arrived at the Jade Market and quickly started to sweep up the goods.

From the end of the street to the end, Xia ruofei continued to spend money. He only bought white jade of average quality and did not even look at the other items sold by the merchants. Xia ruofei would not touch white jade of slightly better quality just because it was good!

Xia ruofei was buying it to practice. Even if he had money, he didn't need to be so wasteful.

When Xia ruofei left the Jade Market, the bag in his hand already had more than two hundred pieces of low – Quality white jade.

All the merchants in the Jade Market were very happy today because a spendthrift buyer came and bought all the low – end goods that they couldn't sell.

The only flaw was that the color of this sucker was not deep enough. Although he was not picky about the quality, he was very familiar with the market. The price of those white jades could only let them earn a small profit.

Xia ruofei took the White jade and drove back to the farm.

He would lock himself in his room and continue to practice like crazy.

He didn't even eat lunch and locked himself in his room for the whole day. When he was hungry, he would eat a few mouthfuls of bread and gulp down the spiritual spring water. After a meal, he would continue to practice.

The individual runes that Xia ruofei had chosen ranged from easy to difficult. The remaining eight runes were all very difficult. After an entire day, Xia ruofei had finally mastered three of them.

The remaining five runes were the most difficult. If Xia ruofei wanted to master them all, he would need to spend a lot of time.

There were still about a hundred pieces of white jade left.

With the principle of not wasting anything, Xia ruofei picked out another hundred pieces of white jade from the used ones. These were the thicker ones.

Xia ruofei had bought a set of small cutting machines and grinders for cutting stones. He took the grinders out of the space, connected them to the power source, and started to Polish the White jade.

Soon, the shallow and deep rune marks left by the previous practice were all polished clean, and the smooth surface was restored.

Xia ruofei kept all the practice materials and put the grinder back into his storage space.

Because all the practice was done in the outside world, his bedroom was already dirty and messy, so he cleaned the bedroom thoroughly again.

After doing all this, Xia ruofei raised his hand to look at his watch and realized that it was already around 5:30 in the evening.

Thus, he hurriedly went to the bathroom to take a shower, changed into a clean set of clothes, and quickly walked downstairs. He had made an appointment with Ling Qingxue yesterday to have dinner tonight. Although the two of them were busy with their respective careers, it was still necessary for them to come out occasionally to have some alone time.

Ling Qingxue's company ended work at Sixo' clock. Xia ruofei's time was a little tight, so he went downstairs and drove out of Taoyuan farm in the pickup truck, heading straight for the city.

At the same time, at the luoxing Bay Pier in Sanshan city's luoxing District, Liang Haiming and the middle – aged man were bidding farewell to a customs officer.

Liang Haiming was smiling brightly. His "car parts" had just arrived at the port last night, and all the goods had been cleared this afternoon. This efficiency was so high that it was scary.

After the customs clearance was completed, the goods could be transported out of the dock with a legal identity. Liang Haiming's biggest purpose for this trip had been achieved. It wouldn't take long for him to earn more than 20 million Yuan in profit.

After the "business" came to an end, Liang Haiming's mind naturally fell on another thing that was stuck in his throat ...

Chapter 488: unexpected change (1)

Liang Haiming was not in a hurry to leave. He and the middle – aged man next to him watched the last container truck leave the dock and head for the neighboring province, Gannan. It was as if they could see a large amount of Chinese yuan flying towards them.

Gannan province was the Liang family's traditional sphere of influence. Old master Liang's hometown was in Gannan province. Many of the current provincial leaders were promoted by old master Liang. These "car parts" would not have any problems when they reached Gannan province. They could be assembled into cars very quickly and be exchanged for a lot of money.

If it weren't for the fact that Gannan was an inland province, Liang Haiming would definitely not have put so much effort into managing the southeast province.

Liang Haiming turned around and walked toward his Mercedes – Benz. The middle – aged man followed him.

Liang Haiming asked without turning his head, "Did you keep a close eye on him?"

He didn't say who it was, but the middle – aged man naturally knew who he was referring to. He immediately replied, "Don't worry, young Liang. Heibao is personally watching over him with his men!"

Liang Haiming nodded and said, "Call Heibao, do it!"

"Now?" the middle – aged man was stunned.

He subconsciously felt that something was wrong. Liang Haiming looked extremely crazy. Besides, this batch of goods had just been cleared through customs and were still in the southeast province! It would take at least five or six hours to pass through the southeast province and enter Gannan province. If anything happened during this time, who knew what impact it would have on the goods?

Liang Haiming's expression turned cold. He turned to look at the middle – aged man and asked, "Is there a problem?"

Liang Haiming's eyes were so cold that the middle – aged man couldn't help but shiver. He quickly said, "No, no... Young master Liang, I'll inform Heibao immediately!"

"One hour, I want to see that girl on my bed!" Liang Haiming said.

Then, he got into the Mercedes – Benz that the bodyguards had already opened the door for him and left.

The middle – aged man stood there with a bitter smile on his face, and helplessly took out his phone to contact Heibao.

"Heibao, young master Liang ordered you to attack now. He wants to see that woman within an hour." The middle – aged man said, "after you succeed, send her directly to the green Bull Mountain Resort."

The qingniu Mountain Resort was located in qingniu County, a suburban County under Sanshan city. Liang Haiming had booked a small villa in this resort for a long time. After all, many things were inconvenient to do in the hotel suite in the city center, but there were no such concerns in the suburbs resort during the off – season.

After hanging up the phone, the middle – aged man's face showed a hint of worry. He felt that Liang Haiming's actions this time were too aggressive, and it even gave him an inexplicable sense of crisis.

However, he was just a person arranged by the family to take care of Liang Haiming's specific Affairs. He had little say in the family. As the grandson of the Liang family's old master, Liang Haiming did not listen to any of his suggestions at all and had always done things his own way.

The middle – aged man smiled bitterly and shook his head. He also got on the car and left the dock area.

.....

San Shan city, Nantai District, Ling Ji food and beverage headquarters.

Ling Qingxue walked out of the building with an exquisite LOEWE handbag slung over her shoulder.

She had obviously dressed up well today.

She was dressed in a long, light pink down jacket, paired with a pair of black slim – cut jeans. Her long, beautiful legs set off her tall and slender figure. She even combed her hair into a cute bun. She had exquisite light makeup on her face, giving people a sense of amazement.

There was a faint smile on Ling Qingxue's face because she was going to see Xia ruofei soon. Although the two of them met every few days and would even go to the hotel to have sex if they had enough time, she was still looking forward to every opportunity for them to spend time together.

When she did not see Xia ruofei, Ling Qingxue took out her phone from her LOEWE bag and dialed Xia ruofei's number.

Xia ruofei had already reached the Nantai District. He stopped the car and waited for the traffic light to turn green. There was a straight road in front of him. He could already see the Ling Ji food and beverage headquarters in the distance. He was about 200 meters away from his destination.

When the phone rang, Xia ruofei, who had better eyesight than ordinary people, had already vaguely seen Ling Qingxue's figure standing in front of the building.

He picked up the phone with a smile and said, "Qingxue, I'm so sorry! I was delayed by something at the farm. I'll be there soon. I'm waiting for the traffic light and I saw you ..."

"Oh ... Okay, drive slowly, I'm not in a hurry ..." Ling Qingxue said considerately.

The red light at this intersection did not last long, so when Xia ruofei parked, he switched to second gear and stepped on the clutch and brake. There was a smile on his face. He was about to meet his beautiful girlfriend, and his practice of the core runes of the spiritual puppet was progressing very quickly, so he was in a very good mood.

"Don't worry, my driving skills ..."

Xia ruofei's expression suddenly changed when he was halfway through his sentence. Something was happening at the entrance of the Ling Ji F & B headquarters 200 meters in front of him!

A Black Multi – Purpose vehicle suddenly sped out from the side of the street and stopped right beside Ling Qingxue. Two burly Men in Black jumped out of the car and grabbed Ling Qingxue's delicate arms, one on each side. Without a word, they pushed her into the car.

Ling Qingxue's panicked screams came from Xia ruofei's Bluetooth Earphone, followed by a few muffled sounds. It was obvious that her phone had fallen to the ground.

At this moment, the red light in front of them was counting down to the last ten seconds.

Xia ruofei did not hesitate. He lifted the clutch and stepped on the gas in one go. The pickup truck's tires screeched sharply and it sped away from where it was. It barely avoided the cars on both sides that were rushing through the intersection. Under the curses of the drivers, it rushed in the direction of the Ling's food and beverage headquarters.

At the same time, the automatic cameras at the intersection flashed and recorded Xia ruofei's behavior of running the red light.

Of course, Xia ruofei did not care about this. His eyes were bloodshot and his teeth were clenched. He stared at the black Multi – Purpose vehicle that was more than a hundred meters away.

The man in the van was obviously an experienced man. It only took him a few seconds to kidnap her, get into the car, and drive off.

When Xia ruofei drove the pickup across the intersection, the black Multi – Purpose vehicle also started to move quickly.

It was past six in the evening, and the traffic on the street was heavy. Xia ruofei drove the pickup truck nimbly through the traffic during the peak hour and chased after the black business car.

A distance of more than a hundred meters could be covered in a blink of an eye under normal circumstances. However, during the evening peak hour, there were dozens of cars in between. It was difficult to overtake each car. Xia ruofei could only rely on his superb driving skills and clench his teeth to catch up.

In the beginning, the black MPV didn't notice the pickup truck 100 meters away, so they didn't run away at high speed. In fact, it wasn't easy to drive at high speed in the evening peak traffic.

This gave Xia ruofei a chance to catch up.

His car seemed to have gone crazy. There were a few times when it almost scraped against other cars, causing other drivers on the road to honk unhappily. There were even Road Fury who chased after Xia ruofei, unwilling to be outdone. However, how could these ordinary drivers catch up with Xia ruofei, who had undergone special driving training? soon, they were left behind and could only curse in dissatisfaction.

Xia ruofei looked at the approaching black car and kept reminding himself to stay calm.

Ling Qingxue could only be saved if he handled the situation calmly. If he lost his cool now, there would be no hope left.

He didn't know the reason why those people kidnapped Ling Qingxue, but he could already guess that the person in the black car and the person who wanted to deal with him yesterday were the same person behind the scenes.

If his guess was correct, then he couldn't let his guard down. A kidnapping like this could be for money, but if it was ordered by the person hiding in the dark, then Ling Qingxue would be in danger.

The person hiding in the dark definitely had an irreconcilable hatred for him. Moreover, Ling Qingxue was a beautiful woman. The other party's motive for deliberately sending people to capture Ling Qingxue was self – evident.

Xia ruofei felt a little regretful and guilty. After he was followed by Zhao he, his first thought was the safety of the farm, Feng Rao, and the others. He did not expect the other party to be so shameless and unscrupulous as to change the target to Ling Qingxue. If something happened to Ling Qingxue because of him and because he did not warn her in time and protect her, he would never be able to forgive himself.

Thinking of this, Xia ruofei's heart was burning with anxiety. He forced himself to remain calm and kept stepping on the clutch, gear, accelerator, brake, and steering. He controlled the car to accelerate and decelerate at times. The pickup truck was like an agile Loach as it weaved through the traffic and gradually approached the black business car.

However, just as Xia ruofei's car was about ten meters away from the black MPV, with two cars in between, the MPV suddenly accelerated.

It was obvious that the other party had finally felt that something was wrong.

Xia ruofei gritted his teeth. The pickup truck made a dull roar and followed closely behind the commercial vehicle. The two cars began to chase each other in the evening peak traffic ...

In the middle row of the black business car, Ling Qingxue was sitting in the middle. Her head was tilted and she was leaning against the seat softly. Her eyes were closed. Although she was already unconscious, her face still had a panicked expression, which made people feel pity for her.

Two burly Men in Black sat on either side of Ling Qingxue.

In addition to the driver, there was a bald man in the front passenger seat. He had a long scar at the corner of his eye, and his eyes shot out a fierce light, looking very ferocious and terrifying.

The driver of the business car was a thin man. He also had a crazed look on his face. This kind of pursuit at lightning speed and dangerous situation in the traffic made him feel very excited. At first glance, he also looked like a fugitive.

The bald man in the front passenger seat looked indifferently at the pickup truck that was crazily chasing after them from the rearview mirror and said indifferently, "Monkey, change our course! Take the nearest road out of the city!"

Chapter 489: rarely seen in my life (1)

The lean man who was driving couldn't help but remind him, "Brother Bao, if you leave the city from here, it's the opposite direction from Green Bull County ..."

"If we don't get rid of the tail, are we going to take him to Green Bull resort?" said the bald Man, Black Panther.

"But ... Young master Liang said that within an hour ..."

Heibao said impatiently, "I'll talk to Liang Shao, you don't need to worry about it!" Change course immediately!"

The monkey no longer hesitated and immediately said, "Yes! Brother Bao!"

He knew that Black Panther's position in front of young master Liang was very high, and their relationship wasn't just an employer – employee relationship. The proud black Panther wouldn't be as timid in front of young master Liang as they were. The reason was simple – Black Panther was extremely strong.

As far as monkey knew, Black Panther was the kind of person who had really learned Kung Fu. It was said that he had a very impressive master background, and was definitely not the kind of showy martial arts seen on television.

Monkey didn't know the specific background of the Black Panther, but he had seen with his own eyes that the Black Panther had broken a wooden stake as thick as a large Ocean Bowl with a kick. Moreover, it had done so with great ease, clearly not using its full strength.

Before that, the monkey had never seen a human being able to unleash such a powerful killing force with just their physical body. Naturally, he was both respectful and fearful of the Black Panther.

Besides, Liang Haiming was usually very polite to Black Panther. He never ordered him around like he did to his other subordinates. He even talked to Black Panther in a negotiating tone.

From monkey's point of view, Black Panther's position in the Liang family was similar to that of a guest in a martial arts novel, extremely aloof.

Therefore, since Black Panther had given the order, he immediately carried it out without any hesitation.

Anyway, Heibao would talk to Liang Haiming, so the punishment wouldn't hit him even if he delayed the time.

"Houzi," Heibao said indifferently, "pay attention to controlling the speed of the car, don't let him overtake you, and at the same time make sure you don't lose him."

Monkey was an expert at racing. After hearing Black Panther's words, he immediately said with confidence, "Alright! Brother Bao, just wait and see!"

As soon as monkey finished speaking, an intersection appeared in front of them. He suddenly turned the steering wheel, and the van turned left at a high speed under the yellow light. The tail of the van even drifted slightly.

When Xia ruofei drove the pickup truck to the intersection, it was already a red light. However, at this time, he did not care about the red light and directly changed the direction. The pickup truck also made a sharp left turn, causing the drivers of the green light to be frightened. They could not help but honk and curse again.

In the SUV, monkey was focused on driving with an excited look.

However, a burly Man in Black sitting in the middle row asked curiously, "Brother Bao, are you trying to lure him out of the city?"

Heibao nodded lightly and said, "If I didn't remember the license plate wrong, the kid who owns the farm should be in the car behind. Young master Liang wants to deal with him. Since we've met, let's take care of him together!"

The middle-aged man beside Liang Haiming had only arranged for people to keep an eye on the farm. They knew that Xia ruofei had left the farm, but they did not know where he had gone after that. Hence, Heibao only confirmed that the person in the car behind was the person Liang Haiming hated to the core after Xia ruofei's car had caught up.

As monkey drove, he said with some doubt, "Brother Bao, this kid might not be easy to deal with. Even Zhao he failed yesterday ..."

Black Panther twitched his mouth and said with a disdainful expression: "Zhao he? I can deal with ten of those wild people with one hand! You guys don't need to worry about it. Just lure this kid out of the city and leave the rest to me."

"Yes! Brother Bao!"

In the pickup truck.

Xia ruofei's face was filled with anxiety.

Judging from the route of the commercial vehicle in front of them, they should be running out of the city. In fact, they had already passed the most congested road, and there were fewer cars on the road than before.

Correspondingly, the speed of the two cars also slowly increased, and they were no longer stuck in the traffic.

In this way, the inherent shortcomings of the pickup truck were revealed. The acceleration performance of a vehicle like the Kasaya was definitely not as good as that of the luxury business car in front.

Xia ruofei was starting to regret not driving the Knight XV out. It was too eye-catching, so Xia ruofei had decided to drive the pickup truck after some hesitation.

Of course, everything had its pros and cons. If Xia ruofei was driving the Knight XV, it would be a huge obstacle in the traffic jam. No matter how powerful it was, it would not be able to exert its advantage. Instead, it might lose track of Xia ruofei because it could not overtake the slow cars on the road.

Now, Xia ruofei could only rely on his extraordinary driving skills to make up for the lack of performance.

Xia ruofei had used his turning skills to the maximum. In addition, the driver, monkey, did not use his full strength on purpose. Hence, the distance between the two cars did not widen.

The traffic was getting sparser and sparser. Soon, both cars whizzed past the Min River Bridge and were getting further and further away from the center Urban area.

Under the instructions of Heibao, Houzi drove towards Baofeng mountain after leaving the Urban area.

Baofeng mountain was not far from the Three Mountains Urban area. Although the mountain road was steep and full of curves, the road conditions were very good, which was more advantageous for commercial vehicles with lower chassis.

Most importantly, there was very little traffic at night. It was obvious that Heibao wanted to get rid of Xia ruofei on Baofeng mountain.

Because this direction was in the opposite direction of Green Bull County, Heibao wanted to end the battle quickly and rush back to Green Bull holiday villa to take a walk. After all, Liang Haiming had already given the word that he would see Ling Qingxue within an hour. Although Heibao's status was extraordinary, it would be embarrassing for everyone if he rushed back too late.

Xia ruofei, who was in the car behind, had no choice but to follow closely behind the car in front.

Although he used the turns to keep closing the distance, once they were on a straight road, the difference in power performance between the two cars would widen the distance again.

Just like that, the two cars rushed up the mountain road of Baofeng mountain one after another.

On the winding mountain road, Xia ruofei finally had room to display his driving skills. Houzi's expression started to turn serious as he realized that the broken – down pickup truck was getting closer and closer. No matter how hard he tried, he could not get rid of the pickup truck.

If he hadn't tried his best to use the terrain to block, the pickup would have already passed him.

Of course, Xia ruofei was also cautious. After all, Ling Qingxue was also in the car. Otherwise, he would have at least two chances to block the inner Lane and directly push the van down the cliff.

In the SUV, the Black Panther gently pinched his fingers, and his joints made a crackling sound. He saw a small fork in the road ahead. Weeds had already grown on the road, and under the light of the car, he could only vaguely see two rutted tracks.

Obviously, this was an abandoned old road.

Heibao pointed to that fork and said indifferently: "Houzi, stop the car after driving in for one or two hundred meters!"

"Yes! Brother Bao!" The monkey responded loudly.

Xia ruofei's pickup truck was full of aggression after entering the mountains. Monkey was sweating profusely. He heaved a sigh of relief after hearing Heibao's words.

Houzi had been driving for many years and had rarely been forced into such a tight corner. Although they were on opposing sides, he still had a faint sense of admiration for Xia ruofei.

The van quickly turned into the abandoned old road. The two ruts were a little deep, and the chassis of the car would be hit by the gravel splashed by the tires from time to time, making a series of cracking sounds. But monkey didn't care. He followed Heibao's instructions and drove for about a hundred meters. After a turn, he drove a little further and stopped the car on the inside.

Houzi was a little nervous and on guard. The car remained in gear so that if Xia ruofei crashed into him, he could react quickly.

However, his worries were unnecessary. Xia ruofei did not do so many times on the mountain road. Now that the van had stopped, he naturally would not bump into Ling Qingxue in the van. He would definitely be cautious.

When Xia ruofei saw that the black MPV had stopped, he immediately stepped on the brakes and stopped the pickup truck ten meters away from the MPV.

At this moment, Xia ruofei saw the front passenger door of the business car open. The bald Man, Black Panther, stepped out of the car.

Xia ruofei's eyes shot out a cold light. He pushed the door open and got out of the car with a dark expression.

The moment Xia ruofei saw the Black Panther, he had a feeling of extreme danger. This feeling was several times more dangerous than when he saw Zhao he yesterday.

In fact, Zhao he only had a murderous aura. His skills did not pose any threat to Xia ruofei.

However, Xia ruofei's instincts told him that the Black Panther was not an easy opponent to deal with.

After Xia ruofei had obtained the spirit map space, his physical fitness had been constantly improving. Especially after he had the body tempering soup, the strengthening was like driving on the fast track. It could be said that the current Xia ruofei was several times stronger than when he was at his strongest in the Special Forces.

Even so, the Black Panther still gave Xia ruofei an instinctive sense of danger. This meant that the Black Panther's skills were far beyond the enemies that Xia ruofei had encountered before.

Xia ruofei did not back down in the face of a strong enemy.

The iron and blood military career had given Xia ruofei the tenacity to be strong and face difficulties head – on. Moreover, Ling Qingxue was still in the hands of the other party. Xia ruofei had no way out. Even if there was a mountain of knives and a sea of fire in front of him, he would definitely charge through it without blinking.

Heibao's eyes narrowed when Xia ruofei got out of the car.

Naturally, he had read Xia ruofei's information. After confirming that he had found the right person, Heibao did not waste any time. He clenched his fists and walked towards Xia ruofei.

The Black Panther did not walk very fast, but with every step it took, its aura seemed to grow.

An ordinary enemy would have been frightened by such a powerful aura.

However, Xia ruofei's gaze was firm. He did not show any signs of cowardice. Instead, he walked towards the Black Panther.

He wasn't very fast either, but each step he took was extremely firm.

When they were about five to six meters away from each other, the two of them seemed to have a tacit understanding. Their speed suddenly increased, and they shot toward each other at the same time ...

Chapter 490: A tough battle and a narrow victory (1)

The other party was very fast!

This was the thought that came to both Xia ruofei and Heibao's mind at the moment of acceleration.

The distance of five to six meters disappeared almost in an instant. In a flash, the two of them had already engaged in close combat!

The Black Panther struck first. It clenched its fist and attacked Xia ruofei with a whistling wind. Xia ruofei tilted his body to avoid the powerful punch. At the same time, his body quickly stood up like a spring. Without hesitation, he elbowed the Black Panther.

The crackling sounds were endless.

The two of them had already attacked each other two to three times in a second.

Block!

He dodged!

Each strike looked extremely dangerous, but each strike was blocked or dodged by the opponent.

The two of them separated as soon as they touched!

At that moment, Xia ruofei and Heibao had exchanged positions. Xia ruofei's back was facing the black SUV, and his eyes were filled with caution.

His arm was still a little numb, and Heibao's reaction speed was the fastest he had ever seen in his life. Now, Xia ruofei's attack speed was far faster than before. He believed that even the best fighter in the Special Forces might not be able to handle the series of attacks just now.

What Xia ruofei did not know was that Heibao, who was opposite him, was also in a state of shock.

With his hands behind his back, Black Panther had the demeanor of a Grandmaster.

However, his hands, which were hidden behind his back, were trembling uncontrollably. He had just used these hands to block three of Xia ruofei's attacks.

Xia ruofei's speed made him a little fearful, but what made him even more fearful was Xia ruofei's strength and explosive power.

The bones in both of Black Panther's arms were still aching. He only had this kind of feeling when he sparred with his master that year. Ever since he entered the Liang family, he had never encountered such a powerful opponent.

Heibao's eyes were slightly narrowed. Tonight was the first time he had spoken.

"May I ask who your master is?" asked Heibao.

From Black Panther's point of view, an expert like Xia ruofei was definitely not an amateur like Zhao he. He was most likely like him, an "insider" with a master.

Facing such an opponent, Black Panther was extremely cautious.

Although the two had only fought for a short while, Heibao was not at a disadvantage. He was still very confident in defeating Xia ruofei. However, he was most afraid that if he beat the young one, he would attract the old one and even cause big trouble for his sect.

However, Xia ruofei did not appreciate it at all. He only said coldly, "Cut the crap! Today, you will die without a doubt!"

Ever since he saw Ling Qingxue being taken into the car at the company entrance, Xia ruofei had already wanted to kill her.

A Dragon had a reverse scale, and anyone who touched it would die.

Ling Qingxue was undoubtedly Xia ruofei's weak spot.

Hearing Xia ruofei's insolent words, Heibao's expression changed and he showed a hint of anger.

He snorted coldly and said, "you don't know the immensity of heaven and earth!" Since you're in such a hurry, I'll fulfill your wish!"

With that, Heibao's aura exploded. He stomped his right foot heavily on the ground and shot towards Xia ruofei amidst the flying debris.

Xia ruofei's eyes gleamed, and his muscles tensed up as he took the initiative to meet the attack.

By the time Heibao reached Xia ruofei, he had already lowered his center of gravity. His right leg was extremely fast, and with a sharp wind, it kicked towards Xia ruofei's knee.

In fact, Black Panther's most powerful skill was his legs, especially his attacks on the enemy's lower three paths, which could be said to be fast and ruthless.

Xia ruofei's heart trembled as he faced the powerful kick. He exerted strength in his legs and leaped backward, avoiding the Black Panther's attack.

However, Black Panther had immersed himself in leg techniques for as long as twenty years, and the leg techniques he had practiced were known for their short, sharp, and extremely fast speed. Once he launched an attack, his attacks would inevitably be like the ocean tide, each wave higher than the previous, continuous and unending.

For a moment, Xia ruofei was surrounded by the shadows of the swift and fierce kicks. He blocked them from high above and blocked them from low below, but he was in a difficult position.

Heibao was also using his trump card – he had already underestimated Xia ruofei once and would not make the same mistake again.

Xia ruofei's situation did not look good. There were a few times when he could not Dodge in time and was hit by the Black Panther's leg on his ankle or lower leg. It looked like he was in danger.

Fortunately, Xia ruofei had taken so much body tempering soup that his muscles and bones were all strengthened. Otherwise, the Black Panther's side kicks would have broken his leg bones.

Once that happened, Xia ruofei would really have to give up his life.

His current situation was not the worst. His leg bone only ached a little, but it did not affect his ability to move for the time being.

While Black Panther continued to launch Swift and fierce attacks, he muttered in his heart: Was this kid's body made of iron? [He took three kicks from me, and he's still fine ...]

The more Black Panther fought, the less confident he was.

Xia ruofei, on the other hand, had gradually gotten used to the Black Panther's attack speed. He could even counterattack occasionally.

Xia ruofei's counterattacks made Black Panther even more miserable because he always found the right timing. Every time, when Black Panther had used up all his energy and was still recovering, he would sharply detect an opening and attack decisively.

The Black Panther could only block in a sorry state.

After a few times, he felt that the bones in his arm were about to break. Xia ruofei's strength was too shocking.

The more he fought, the less confident he was. On the other hand, Xia ruofei became more confident.

Once the momentum started to decrease, it was hard to gather it again. Under this situation, Xia ruofei's attacks became more and more fierce.

Xia ruofei did not learn martial arts from a young age like Heibao, nor did he learn any traditional martial arts. However, the combat skills he learned in the Army were all lethal. He used his fists, palms, legs, kneecaps, elbows, and even his head. It could be said that he used everything he had, which caught Heibao off guard.

However, the Black Panther was indeed stronger than all the opponents Xia ruofei had faced before. Even though he was slowly gaining the upper hand, he still could not deal a fatal blow to the Black Panther.

While they were exchanging blows, Xia ruofei suddenly had an idea.

The second set of movements that the little golden man had demonstrated suddenly appeared in his mind.

Although it was just a stationary body – forging technique, it gave Xia ruofei inspiration.

He suddenly lowered his center of gravity, pushed his hands against the ground, twisted his waist, and used all his strength to kick his left leg from an incredible angle.

An average person's body would not be able to reach this level of flexibility. However, for Xia ruofei, who had been practicing the second set of body – forging movements for a long time, it was easy.

The Black Panther was on Xia ruofei's side, so his vision was blocked. He did not expect Xia ruofei to attack from this angle, so he was caught off guard.

In the blink of an eye, a rapidly enlarging foot appeared in Black Panther's line of sight, and he only had time to subconsciously cross his arms to block.

However, Xia ruofei's full – force attack was very powerful and the Black Panther had reacted hastily, so it could not block it at all.

With a cracking sound, the accumulated injuries on Black Panther's arm from the previous exchange finally led to a qualitative change, and his bones were truly broken.

The huge force was transmitted to his chest through his arm, and he felt as if he had been hit by a truck. He staggered back five or six steps, and he could not help but spit out a mouthful of blood.

Xia ruofei didn't hesitate at all after his first attack. When the Black Panther retreated, he had already closed in and landed a heavy right hook on the Black Panther's face,

The Black Panther's head suddenly tilted to the side, and it spat out a few bloody teeth.

And under the violent shock to his head, his entire person appeared to have a brief moment of dizziness.

It would be fatal to be dizzy at this moment.

Xia ruofei did not hesitate to deliver a series of heavy punches. The Black Panther's arms drooped down as he took the hits. All the punches landed on the Black Panther's chest and abdomen, causing great damage to it. The Black Panther fell to the ground like a broken sack.

Xia ruofei's eyes were filled with cold murderous intent. He stepped forward and stomped on the ground.

With a terrifying cracking sound, the Black Panther's four limbs were broken. The strongest opponent that Xia ruofei had ever met in his life was finally crippled.

Xia ruofei realized that he was exhausted after such a high – intensity battle. His underwear was already drenched in sweat.

Ever since he had obtained the painting, this was the first time Xia ruofei had been in such a difficult and dangerous fight.

However, he didn't have time to stop and catch his breath. He immediately shot toward the black business car.

Monkey and the other two burly men in the car turned pale with fright.

After Heibao got out of the car, monkey had already turned off the engine. He never thought that Heibao would fail, much less that he would have to drive to escape with Heibao.

However, Heibao was suddenly defeated in the fierce battle. Xia ruofei rushed towards the car like a god of death. His monkey heart was about to jump out of his chest. He reached out to start the car in a hurry.

The distance of a few meters was only a breath's time for Xia ruofei. Before monkey could start the car, Xia ruofei had already opened the door.

He did not hesitate to punch the monkey in the face.

Compared to the Black Panther, the monkey's combat power was nothing. Under Xia ruofei's full speed, the monkey did not even have time to turn his head subconsciously and was knocked out by a punch.

Xia ruofei then got out of the car and opened the door of the middle row.

The eyes of the two men in the car were filled with fear and despair, especially when they saw Xia ruofei's bloodshot eyes, which were filled with murderous intent. They could not help but tremble. Ling

Qingxue was clearly beside them, but they did not even have the courage to hold her hostage to threaten Xia ruofei.

The ferocity and fierceness that Xia ruofei and Heibao had displayed in their battle had already frightened the two men.

When Xia ruofei saw that Ling Qingxue was unconscious, he felt a little relieved, but at the same time, he was even more furious.

He forcefully suppressed his killing intent and first dragged the big man on his side out of the car. Then, he casually struck the big man's neck with his palm. The big man groaned and fell unconscious to the ground.

Then, Xia ruofei carried Ling Qingxue in his arms and carefully exited the car.

Xia ruofei held Ling Qingxue with both hands and looked coldly at the only sober man in the car. He was trembling like a sieve and said, "You! Go and drag the driver down!"
