

God tier Farm 501

Chapter 501: Farm expansion (2)

Xia ruofei sat down on the bed and hugged Ling Qingxue. "Did I wake you up? You should sleep a little longer! I'm going to the village to do something this morning, and I'll be back to accompany you soon."

Ling Qingxue shook her head and said, "I still have things to do at the company! I have to go back."

Staying over at Xia ruofei's place last night was already a huge breakthrough for Ling Qingxue. If she did not show up at the office for the whole day, she could not imagine what her father would think.

Just thinking about it made her blush, so even if she still felt exhausted, she still insisted on going back.

"Can your body take it?" Xia ruofei asked with concern.

Ling Qingxue blushed and rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei. "I'm fine ..."

As she spoke, she got off the bed. Just as she stood up, she felt her legs go soft and her body couldn't help but sway. Xia ruofei quickly caught her and said, "You're still fine? Don't go anywhere today. I'll give uncle Ling a call and tell him that you're not feeling well. You can rest here for a day before going back."

"Don't!" Ling Qingxue quickly said, "then my dad will definitely think in the wrong direction ..."

"If he thinks that way, doesn't that fit the truth?" Xia ruofei laughed evilly.

"You're still talking! This is all your fault ..." Ling Qingxue pouted and pinched Xia ruofei hard.

Xia ruofei cried out in pain, "ouch ... Wife, be gentle!" How can you blame me? I remember that you were the one who wanted to ..."

"Don't say anymore!" Ling Qingxue pounced over and covered Xia ruofei's mouth. She then said unreasonably, "I don't care. I'm leaving in a while! Aren't you a Divine Doctor? You must have a way, right?"

Xia ruofei's sneaky gaze swept across Ling Qingxue's lithe and delicate body. He chuckled and said, "Wife, I've heard that when drunk people endure the discomfort and drink another cup the next morning, their symptoms will ease a lot. This is called 'soul – returning wine'. Do you think if we do morning exercises together, we can also ..."

"Don't even think about it!" Ling Qingxue was so scared that her face turned pale. She quickly said, "you're not allowed to touch me again today ... Otherwise, I ... I really can't even walk anymore ..."

Naturally, Xia ruofei was just teasing Ling Qingxue. He could not help but burst out laughing. To Xia ruofei, Ling Qingxue's reaction indirectly proved how brave he was in that aspect. As a man, this was, of course, something that gave him a great sense of achievement.

"I'm just joking with you! Look at how scared you are ..." Xia ruofei smiled and stood up. "Let me get you a cup of hot water!" Then, you should be able to recover a lot of your strength after eating something ..."

With that, Xia ruofei stood up and walked to the side. He poured half a cup of warm water from the water dispenser.

His back was facing Ling Qingxue, and his broad back completely blocked Ling Qingxue's line of sight. Thus, he secretly took out a small bottle of the solution from the spirit Heart Flower petals and mixed it with the warm water.

Even though the petal solution was diluted, and not a lot was poured out, it would definitely be of great help to Ling Qingxue's recovery.

Xia ruofei walked over and handed the cup to Ling Qingxue. "Drink some water first, I'll go to the kitchen downstairs and cook you a bowl of noodles!"

Ling Qingxue took the cup and held it with both hands, feeling the warmth from her palm. Her eyes were filled with sweetness as she said, "You can just find some biscuits and bread. You don't have to cook noodles. It's too troublesome ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "what's so troublesome about cooking noodles?" Besides, I haven't had breakfast yet! Qingxue, drink the water and rest on the bed for a while. I'll come up and call you when the noodles are ready!"

"En!" Ling Qingxue smiled sweetly and said, "thank you, RUO Fei!"

Xia ruofei stretched out his hand and ruffled Ling Qingxue's hair that had just been tidied up. He looked at Ling Qingxue dotingly and said, "Silly girl! Why are you thanking me ..."

After that, Xia ruofei left the bedroom and went downstairs.

Very quickly, Xia ruofei had cooked two bowls of noodles. He added a Lotus egg in each bowl, as well as some cabbage that he had stored in the interspace. These were all harvested after planting vegetables in the interspace. Anyway, they would not go bad no matter how long they were stored in the interspace, so Xia ruofei could take them out and use them as he pleased. It was very convenient.

Before Xia ruofei could go upstairs to call her, Ling Qingxue had already come downstairs dressed neatly.

"It smells so good!" Ling Qingxue could already smell the fragrance from the stairs.

Last night's fierce battle had consumed a lot of energy, and she had long been famished. Now, seeing the steaming hot noodles, fragrant poached eggs, and dark green vegetables, she couldn't help but eat.

"You're up! Quickly come over and eat it while it's hot!" Xia ruofei laughed as he took off his apron and hung it behind the kitchen door. "Eat more! Last night's energy consumption was not small ..."

Ling Qingxue couldn't help but roll her eyes at Xia ruofei again. However, she didn't argue with Xia ruofei. After sitting down, she picked up her chopsticks and started eating.

Xia ruofei was also feeling a little hungry. Seeing this, he sat down opposite Ling Qingxue with a smile and ate his noodles.

After the two of them finished eating, Xia ruofei thought for a while and gave Lei Hu a call, asking him to drive the company's Mercedes – Benz to the villa.

Very quickly, Lei Hu arrived at the villa.

“Brother Xia, the car is here. Do you have any other orders?” Lei Hu asked.

Chapter 502: Farm expansion (3)

“Hu Zi, I’ll have to trouble you to send my girlfriend back to the city,” Xia ruofei said with a faint smile.

Lei Hu had already noticed the beauty beside Xia ruofei and quickly said, “So it’s sister – in – Law! Hello, Sister – in – Law!”

“Hello,” he said. Ling Qingxue’s face was slightly red as she greeted Lei Hu.

Then, she whispered to Xia ruofei, “Ruofei, there’s no need to send me off. I’ll go back on my own,”

Xia ruofei chuckled. “The two cars here aren’t suitable for you to drive. That SUV is too big. Also, a beautiful woman like you can’t drive a pickup truck back to the company, can you?”

At this point, Xia ruofei could not help but laugh. The image of Ling Qingxue driving the pickup truck was simply too beautiful ...

“The company has been using this Mercedes – Benz a lot recently, so I’ll let Lei Hu send you there,” he continued.

Ling Qingxue stopped insisting and said to Lei Hu, “I’ll have to trouble you then ...”

“Hey! What’s the trouble?” Lei Hu chuckled and said, “It’s my honor to be your driver! Brother Xia, don’t worry! I’ll definitely send sister – in – Law there safely!”

After sending Ling Qingxue to the car, Xia ruofei saw that it was almost time, so he drove the pickup truck to the small square in front of the mixed – use complex.

Feng Rao had already gone downstairs. When she saw Xia ruofei driving over in a pickup truck, she was stunned.

Xia ruofei smiled. “CEO Feng, I’ve asked Hu Zi to drive my girlfriend home. I’ll have to trouble you for a while.”

Feng Rao also came back to her senses. She smiled sweetly and said, “It’s rare for the chairman to be his personal driver. It doesn’t matter what car he’s driving!”

After hearing Xia ruofei’s words, Feng Jing couldn’t help but think, “It turned out that the chairman already had a girlfriend. It seemed that Qianqian had no chance ...

Then, she thought of Xia ruofei’s discontented tone when he picked up the phone. She could not help but guess, “Did I interrupt the chairman when he was doing it with his girlfriend? Otherwise, why would she be so resentful?”

Feng Jing’s face turned red at the thought of this. She quickly discarded these messy thoughts from her mind and opened the door to the front passenger seat. It was definitely not appropriate for her to sit in the back seat. If she did, Xia ruofei would really become her chauffeur. She still had a sense of propriety.

Xia ruofei laughed and started the car. He left Taoyuan farm and drove straight to Dongkeng village.

The farm was in Dongkeng village, only a few kilometers away from the village council building. The car soon arrived at the village council building.

This time, the Deputy town mayor, Wu Gang, did not come, but ruan Fugui was even more enthusiastic than the last time. Before the car had even stopped, he had already come up to open the door for Xia ruofei.

“Boss Xia! Welcome, welcome!” Ruan Fugui said enthusiastically.

Xia ruofei smiled and shook ruan Fugui’s hand. He introduced,””Director ruan, let me introduce you. This is the General Manager of our paradise Corporation, Ms. Feng Jing.”

“President Feng, nice to meet you!” Ruan Fugui quickly greeted him.

In the face of such a delicate and beautiful young woman, ruan Fugui couldn’t help but reach out and rub his hands on his clothes a few times, hesitating if he should shake her hand.

Feng Rao, on the other hand, graciously reached out her hand and gently shook ruan Fugui’s hand. She smiled and said,””Director ruan, our company’s headquarters is in Dongkeng village. We’ll be in contact often in the future. Please take care of us, director ruan!”

“No, no, no!” Ruan Fugui quickly said,”you’re too kind, President Feng. We’re just looking out for each other and benefiting from each other!”

After the small talk, Xia ruofei said,””Director ruan, we’re here to talk about land leasing. Our paradise Corporation is currently expanding, and the existing land has already restricted the company’s development, so we want to continue expanding the farm to the north and south. We’ll need more support from our village for this!”

Ruan Fugui laughed and said,”boss Xia, you’re being too serious. You’re willing to rent those barren lands. This is a good thing for our village!” That ... Let’s not stand outside, let’s sit inside and talk! I’ve already asked my wife to prepare lunch. Let’s go to my house to eat later!”

“Hahaha! Then we won’t be polite!” Xia ruofei smiled and said,”I happen to have a few bottles of good wine in my car. Let’s have a few drinks in the afternoon!”

“Alright!” Ruan Fugui said happily,”boss Xia, CEO Feng, please come in!”

Chapter 503: hit it off -1

Ruan Fugui warmly invited Xia ruofei and Feng Jing to the village committee building and quickly ordered the village Accountant to pour tea for them.

Today, several of the village’s leaders had been called to the village council by ruan Fugui. In addition to him, who was the village Secretary and the director of the village council, there was also the Deputy Director of the village council, two other village committee members, and the young accountant.

The Deputy Director of the village committee was also surnamed ruan, ruan Tianxi. It could be seen that the ruan family should be a big family in Dongkeng village.

After ruan Fugui introduced Xia ruofei and Feng Jing to the members of the village committee, he took the initiative to open the map and started introducing them to Xia ruofei.

“Boss Xia, CEO Feng, look. This is the current territory of your Paradise Farm. It extends all the way to the sea in the East.” Ruan Fugui pointed at the map and said, “it’s mountainous to the West, so I suggest you develop in the north and south.”

In fact, this was in line with Xia ruofei’s thoughts. The west side was full of mountains, so Xia ruofei’s farm did not need so many mountains and forests for the time being. The east side was the sea, and the land in the north and south was flat. It was most suitable for the expansion of the farm.

“Director ruan, I agree with you,” Xia ruofei nodded.

Ruan Fugui laughed and said, “there are about 20 acres of land to the North of the farm. Further north is the Xikeng Village. The land in the North is relatively barren. I personally suggest that you focus on developing South.”

Ruan Fugui pointed at the map and continued, “Look, although the 30 mu in the South is also a wasteland, it’s much more fertile than the North. If we rent all of this land, the Qingyuan River will pass through the farm, and it’ll be much more convenient for irrigation.”

Feng Jing couldn’t help but nod in approval as she listened from the side. She thought to herself, “this Dongkeng village’s service is too good. Everything is for the sake of Taoyuan farm. They’re so considerate!”

Xia ruofei thought for a moment and said, “Director ruan, we want the 30 acres in the South and 20 acres in the North!”

Xia ruofei had sufficient funds at the moment and wanted to buy more land. After all, once the farm expanded, the profits would only increase. This was because his products would not have to worry about sales. Compared to the profits, the rental fees were nothing.

If it wasn’t for the fact that the North belonged to the Xikeng Village, Xia ruofei would have wanted to buy more land. However, he didn’t want to bother another “landlord”.

To the South, there were only about 30 mu of barren land. Further south was the normal farmland of the village. If he wanted to rent these farmland and vegetable fields, he would have to discuss compensation with the villagers. For now, it was enough to rent 50 to 60 mu of land in one go. Thus, Xia ruofei did not want to expand too quickly for the time being.

Ruan Fugui was stunned for a moment before saying, “boss Xia, the lands in the North aren’t very good!” In the early years, some of our villagers went to open up the land and wanted to plant some fruit trees, but it was difficult to grow them ...”

Feng Rao couldn’t help but worry. “Chairman, why don’t we just listen to director ruan and ask for the land in the South? If you feel that the land is not enough, we can rent more land in the North. Now, many farmers have stopped growing their land. It should not be difficult to rent it as long as we give them some compensation. ”

Xia ruofei smiled.”Mr. Feng, the land in the South is barren. However, it won’t affect our farm.”

Xia ruofei looked at Feng Rao’s confused face and laughed,””In short, you don’t have to worry about the soil quality. Besides, our farm isn’t entirely a vegetable greenhouse! There had to be land to build a cold storage warehouse, right? Maybe I’ll even be involved in the breeding industry in the future ...”

Xia ruofei winked at Feng Rao discreetly.

Feng Rao also immediately realized what was going on. She thought that Xia ruofei had something that he couldn’t say in front of ruan Fugui. After all, they were renting land from the village. Wouldn’t they be dumbfounded if ruan Fugui asked for a sky – High price?

Feng Jing couldn’t help but be a little surprised. She wasn’t a newbie who had just graduated from school. She had even trained in the world’s top 500 companies, but her performance just now was a little unprofessional.

In reality, it was not as complicated as she had thought. Xia ruofei just found it troublesome and did not want to waste his breath explaining.

Seeing that Xia ruofei had his own ideas, ruan Fugui didn’t try to persuade him.

From his point of view, the land south of the farm might not even be able to be rented out even after a hundred years. Since Xia ruofei was willing to take it, he could also earn a lot of money for the village, so why not?

Anyway, he had taken the initiative to tell Xia ruofei the truth about the situation of the land. If there was really no way to cultivate the land, Xia ruofei could not blame him.

One wanted to rent, and the other was willing, so they naturally hit it off.

Very quickly, everyone had decided on the newly rented land.

In terms of land prices, ruan Fugui had even lowered it to only 2500 Yuan per mu. The reason was that Xia ruofei had rented so much land in one go. Moreover, the land in the South was not suitable for farming, so he had given a discount on the prices.

This was not the first time they had worked together, so the contract was quickly finalized.

Ruan Fugui did Xia ruofei a favor by signing an eight – year long contract. This made Feng Jing secretly happy that the ethereal paradise company, a company that dealt in high – end agricultural products, was most afraid of unstable production bases. If the contract couldn’t be renewed after a few years, not only would they have to find a new place, but it would also cost money to invest in the infrastructure. It was time – consuming and laborious.

Chapter 504: hit it off -2

After signing the long – term contract, Feng Jing felt much more at ease.

Of course, she did not understand what had happened today. It was not the kind of fierce negotiation that she had imagined. There were no differences between the two sides. The village even took the initiative to consider Xia ruofei's situation and kept giving in. Feng Rao, who was used to business negotiations, was not used to this.

A formal contract required the company's seal, so everyone agreed to go to the farm the next day to sign the contract.

Of course, now that Xia ruofei had a proper company and was expanding, ruan Fugui was very assured and didn't have to worry about the rent. When the contract was signed, the finance department of paradise Corporation would naturally take care of it. Xia ruofei didn't have to worry about such specific matters.

It was almost time for dinner after they finished discussing business.

Ruan Fugui warmly invited Xia ruofei, Feng Jing, and a few village committee members to his house for lunch.

He also took out a few bottles of the eight Drunken Immortals 'contribution points from the car. Of course, taking them from the car was just for show. In reality, he had taken them out from the spirit map space.

During the banquet, Xia ruofei, ruan Fugui, and the others exchanged toasts and drank to their hearts 'content.

He was originally from the military and loved to eat meat and drink wine. Ruan Fugui and the others were also uncouth, and Xia ruofei's forthright performance was exactly what they wanted. They all came over to toast.

Now, if any man in Dong Keng village worked at Tao Yuan farm, he would be considered superior in the village. Everyone in the village was related by blood, and everyone had a lot of relatives. Therefore, ruan Fugui used the excuse of being drunk to ask Xia ruofei to take care of him the next time they were hiring.

Xia ruofei readily agreed. After all, the workers that Qin Zhuan recruited in the village were all for specific work. They were all engaged in labor – intensive work that did not require much skill. As long as they had good character, it was the same no matter who they recruited.

Xia ruofei was not so pedantic as to do her a favor.

Moreover, ruan Fugui and the others were also considered the leading figures of Dongkeng village. They were the standard local tyrants. The Paradise corporation's vegetable base was located in Dongkeng village, so there were naturally great benefits to being on good terms with them.

The county Magistrate was not as good as the current one. In many matters of Dongkeng village, ruan Fugui was even more useful than Wu Liqian.

Since Xia ruofei was drinking to his heart's content, Feng Rao naturally did not touch a single drop of wine.

Ruan Fugui and the other uncouth men couldn't persuade Feng Rao to drink, so they focused all their firepower on Xia ruofei.

This family banquet was also a happy one.

Feng Rao helped Xia ruofei, whose steps were a little weak, to bid farewell to ruan Fugui and the others. After helping Xia ruofei into the car, she drove the pickup truck and left Dongkeng village.

As the car drove along the village Road, the lush Taoyuan farm could be seen in the distance. Feng Jing was driving seriously.

Suddenly, Xia ruofei, who was beside her, asked, "Boss Feng, how was the job fair yesterday?"

Feng Jing was startled by Xia ruofei's sudden words. Her hands trembled uncontrollably. She quickly steadied the steering wheel and turned to look at Xia ruofei.

He saw that Xia ruofei was in high spirits and his eyes were clear. There was no trace of drunkenness.

"Chairman, you're not drunk?" Feng Rao asked in surprise.

She had seen with her own eyes that at least half of the bottles of white wine on the table had gone into Xia ruofei's stomach. In the end, ruan Fugui and the others were so drunk that they couldn't even speak properly. She thought that Xia ruofei must have been quite drunk as well, but she didn't expect Xia ruofei to change his drunk state after getting into the car and act as if nothing had happened.

Xia ruofei's drunken look had even fooled Feng Rao.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you didn't drink much today." Maybe the alcohol tolerance of those who used to be soldiers is pretty good ..."

"Chairman," Feng Jing said with a smile, "you're such a good drinker. In the future, you have to be the first to attend any business meetings!"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "I hate social events the most. A group of people who don't know each other well. It's boring to force others to get drunk."

"That's how Chinese wine culture works," Feng Rao chuckled. "How can business not have social interactions?"

Xia ruofei said calmly, "then let's make our company a giant. In the business world, only people beg us. We don't have to beg others. Then we don't have to risk our lives to drink, right?"

Feng Rao was stunned for a moment before she said, "that makes sense!" It seems that I have a long way to go ..."

Xia ruofei laughed. "Just think about the bonus I promised you. You'll be more motivated!"

"Yeah!" Feng Rao couldn't help but laugh. In order to achieve my dream of becoming a rich woman, I have no choice but to work hard to make money for you, a capitalist!"

Xia ruofei laughed. "Although I didn't give you any shares, as long as you don't leave the company, you'll still get your dividends. So, you can also think of it as working for yourself!" That way, you'll be more motivated ..."

"Mm! The shop owner is really good at this!" Feng Rao joked.

"By the way, you haven't told me what the job fair is like!"

"It's about the same as what we expected. I've already selected about 20 people yesterday and sent out interview notices to them." Feng Jing said seriously, "I'm planning to hire about ten people first. Then, I'll pick another five to eight people from the people who sent us their resumes on the recruitment website. This way, the company's administrative team will be ready."

Xia ruofei nodded approvingly. "Mm! I'm at ease with you handling things. CEO Feng, we're still short of two directors, so don't forget to take the time to look for one!"

"I know. I've been trying to keep in touch with them." "Chairman, I'm going to hold the interview in the company's conference room tomorrow. It starts at 9 am. Would you like to come over and check?"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "I won't join in the fun. The administrative team is to serve you, the General Manager. You have full authority to decide on the candidate." I said before that I would give you the greatest autonomy!"

Feng Jing was very pleased with Xia ruofei's trust. She nodded and said, "Thank you, Chairman!"

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "When you interview the finance staff, remember to bring pang Hao along. After all, he'll be his subordinate in the future."

"Don't worry! I would have called him even if you didn't say so." Feng Rao said with a smile.

"By the way, director ruan will be coming over to sign the contract tomorrow. I might not be in the office, but I'll definitely be on the farm." Xia ruofei said, "when the time comes, remember to receive them and let me know immediately."

"Understood!" Feng ke said.

After returning to the farm, Feng Jing went back to her office to prepare for the interview. Yingying was practically a commander without an Army. Other than getting Lei Hu and the other security guards to help her with physical work like setting up the venue, she had to do everything else herself, so she was quite busy.

However, she should be able to relax a little after the staff was recruited.

Xia ruofei went straight back to the villa. Not long after he entered the house, Lei Hu came to his door.

"Brother Xia, I'm here to report that I've safely sent sister – in – Law to the company." Lei Hu said.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "Okay, thank you."

"Oh, right! From today onwards, the alert is lifted." Xia ruofei said, "Hong Tao, you don't have to work so hard to set up camp. You guys just have to maintain your normal working conditions."

Lei Hu was a little surprised,"the alarm was lifted just like that?" We're still trying our best to catch a few of those guys who don't have eyes and teach them a lesson!"

Xia ruofei laughed and scolded,"nonsense!" You're still hoping for something to happen to the farm every day?"

"That's not it ..." Lei Hu chuckled and scratched his head.

"Alright, go do your work!" Xia ruofei said as he waved his hand.

"Yes!"

Lei Hu puffed out his chest and walked out.

"Wait!" Xia ruofei called out again.

Lei Hu stopped in his tracks and turned around to ask,""Brother Xia, do you have any other instructions?"

"Hu, the farm is about to be expanded. In the future, our farm's area may be three or four times bigger than it is now. Your burden will be even heavier!" Xia ruofei said,"so ... Go back and tell Hong Tao, Xiao Jun, and the others. Everyone should contact their former comrades. It's time to expand the company's security Department."

"Understood!" Lei Hu said,"brother Xia! We'll keep in touch, don't worry!"

Xia ruofei nodded and suddenly thought of something. He asked,""By the way, Hu, I remember that your old army participated in a joint landing exercise with the Marine Corps. Do you have any female marine soldiers you are familiar with? I want a female soldier who's good at fighting and has already retired!"

Chapter 505: The interest_1

Lei Hu could not help but scratch his head."Brother Xia, I'm not familiar with this. During the joint exercise, our task was to defend the front Command center and follow the command center's movements. The Marine Corps seemed to be assigned to the landing group, so we didn't have much opportunity to come into contact with them."

"Brother Xia, the female soldiers in the Marine Corps are all very tough. Why are you asking about them?" Lei Hu asked.

Xia ruofei did not hide anything from Lei Hu and said,""After that incident a few days ago, I've been considering getting your sister – in – Law a bodyguard. I don't trust ordinary people, but those from the Army are more reliable!"

"I see ... Then I really can't help you with anything!" Lei Hu laughed.

Xia ruofei smiled and patted Lei Hu's shoulder."It's fine, I'll think of a way myself! You can go back to your work! Don't forget to contact your old comrades!"

"Alright! Brother Xia, I'll be leaving first!"

After Lei Hu left, Xia ruofei thought for a while and felt that he should look for his old leader.

So he directly took out his mobile phone, found the lone wolf assault team captain Guo Zhan's phone number and dialed it.

"Blood Wolf! How come you have time to call me?" Guo Zhan's loud voice came from the phone, "I heard that you've become a big Boss!" There's one thing you've done well. You didn't forget to take care of your comrades even after you've struck it rich. As expected of our lone Wolf's soldiers!"

Guo Zhan's words made Xia ruofei feel a little ashamed. It turned out that this old leader was very familiar with the matters on his side! However, she had barely contacted him after she retired. The only time she had called him was when she had just obtained the spirit painting scroll. She had run into trouble in Lin Qiao's village and had no choice but to call.

"Wolf King, how has our team been recently? You should be very busy, right?" Xia ruofei asked, a little embarrassed.

He could hear some noise on the other end of the phone. Guo Zhan was most likely on the training ground!

Guo Zhan laughed heartily, "when can we, soldiers, be idle?" There's a new batch of rookies in the team, and I'm drilling them!"

Then, Xia ruofei heard Guo Zhan's roar from the phone, ""Didn't you guys eat? Accelerate, accelerate! It's only ten kilometers and it's already like this! You're not even as good as a woman ..."

When Xia ruofei heard the familiar scolding, he felt as if he had returned to the time when he had just joined the lone wolf assault team. At that time, Guo Zhan was like a Demon King in the eyes of the new members, torturing them in all kinds of ways.

It was really bitter back then! His comrades were eliminated one by one. Xia ruofei felt that he couldn't hold on any longer, but he persevered.

Now that he thought about it, all the suffering he had suffered in the past had become beautiful memories.

It was still the same training ground, and the scene was still full of enthusiasm. However, the trainees had changed one after another. Now, some of the people who joined the team with Xia ruofei had been promoted to officers, some had retired and returned to their hometowns, and some had died in the southern border of their motherland ...

"Blood Wolf, if you have something to say, just say it! I'm busy!" Guo Zhan said on the other end of the phone.

Guo Zhan's voice woke Xia ruofei up from his memories. He rubbed his wet eyes and said, ""Wolf King, you know a lot of people in the Army. I want to find a female bodyguard. Can you help me contact the Marine Corps? Ask them if they have any suitable retired female soldiers. "

"What are you doing, kid?" Guo Zhan laughed and scolded. Don't learn the good and learn the bad! Do you need a bodyguard with your skills? And why do you need a female bodyguard ..."

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and explained, "Captain, I didn't find it for myself!" I'm a little worried about my girlfriend's safety, so I'm going to find her a bodyguard. "

“Woof! You already have a girlfriend! His movements were quite fast! Alright then! He had to settle his sister-in-law’s matter well! I’ll call my comrades in the Army Brigade and ask.” Guo Zhan readily agreed.

“Thank you, Wolf King!” Xia ruofei said, “Oh right, it’s best if you have some basic computer skills and know how to use office software. You can be my girlfriend’s assistant.”

“No problem!” Guo Zhan said, “the military education level these days is pretty good. Your requirements aren’t high, but there should be many who meet the requirements!”

“Then I’ll have to trouble you!” Xia ruofei said, “Captain, if you’re free, come to the southeast for a walk. I’ll treat you well!”

“You don’t say. I might have to go to the southeast province in two months.” Guo Zhan said, “but it’s not a vacation. If I can find some time, I’ll go and visit you!”

“Alright!” Xia ruofei said happily, “remember to give me a call in advance!”

He was from the lone wolf assault team and knew the rules, so he didn’t ask Guo Zhan why he came to the southeast province. In fact, he knew that the lone wolf was definitely not a small task. If there was a plan one or two months in advance, it was most likely a large – scale training exercise or something.

After the call with Guo Zhan, Xia ruofei quickly went upstairs to his room and continued to practice drawing the core rune.

In the afternoon, Xia ruofei used up all the remaining white jade slips and successfully mastered the three independent runes. He was getting closer to mastering all 17 runes.

When Xia ruofei walked out of the room, the sky was already dark, so he had no intention of continuing his practice tonight. He had already used up all the White jade and he could not possibly go to the city to buy it overnight. Moreover, he knew that haste would not bring success. Even if he successfully carved out the core of the spiritual puppet, he would not be able to create the spiritual puppet before he had the complete manufacturing method.

Chapter 506: The interest_2

Xia ruofei went to the staff canteen for dinner and then went back to the villa to rest.

He was also exhausted from the past few days. First, he stayed up all night to practice making runes. Then, he ran through the night and killed five enemies in a row. In the second half of the night, he even had sex with Ling Qingxue. He also didn’t sleep at all.

The next day, Feng Jing started to interview new employees at Tao Yuan farm. Xia ruofei was just as he said, letting Feng Jing do whatever she wanted.

In fact, he didn’t even go to the office building. He slept until he woke up naturally and made some breakfast in the villa’s kitchen.

At around 10 am, Feng Jing called Xia ruofei and told him that ruan Fugui had arrived at the farm with the village Accountant.

Hence, Xia ruofei changed out of his home clothes and walked to the mixed – use complex.

In Xia ruofei's office, both parties signed the official contract. Then, Xia ruofei called pang Hao to his office and asked him to save the contract. He also instructed him not to forget to transfer the rent to the village's account on time according to the contract.

Ruan Fugui also took the initiative to say that he would organize the villagers to draw out the boundary of the newly rented land of Taoyuan farm in the next two days and make some simple signs and fences.

Originally, Xia ruofei had wanted to ask ruan Fugui and the village Accountant to stay for dinner at the farm. After all, they had treated him very well yesterday, and he had to return the favor.

However, ruan Fugui said that he had something to do at home and declined Xia ruofei's invitation.

Xia ruofei saw that ruan Fugui didn't seem to be polite and guessed that he really had something urgent to do at home. After all, village cadres were not official civil servants. They had to farm and fish like the villagers. At this time of the year, every family was very busy.

Hence, Xia ruofei politely sent ruan Fugui downstairs.

After the land lease contract was signed, the scope of Peach Blossom Farm directly expanded to more than three times its original size. Now, there were dozens of acres of land in the South and North, and the production problem would soon be solved.

Xia ruofei took the latest financial statement that pang Hao had sent over two days ago and silently calculated the capital in the books. He felt that it was better not to delay any further. The newly allocated land had to be used as soon as possible. The construction of infrastructure was already imminent.

He brought the new plot of land to Feng Jing's office to discuss how to plan the newly rented land. He still wanted to hear Feng Jing's opinion.

However, Feng Jing wasn't in the office.

Xia ruofei then realized that today was the day of the company's interview for new employees. He guessed that the interview might not be over yet.

With a hint of curiosity, he went straight to the company meeting room on the second floor.

There were a few young people waiting outside the meeting room. There were three men and one woman, all dressed fashionably. The only girl among them even had a rose – Red suitcase.

Xia ruofei glanced at her and found that this girl looked quite scholarly. She was wearing a pair of rimless glasses on her delicate face and looked gentle and weak.

The other three young men naturally surrounded the girl.

Seeing Xia ruofei walk over, one of the young men in a gray down jacket took the initiative to greet him. "Brother, are you also here for the interview? Why are you so late! The interviews here have already ended!"

Another young man with a middle – parted hair said with a gloating smile, ""Brother, you're too late! The interview started more than an hour ago. It's already too late for you to come now! Don't be late for the next interview ..."

"Since the interview is over, why are you still here?" Xia ruofei asked with interest. Are you also late?"

"We're not late!" The young man in the gray down jacket said.

At this time, the weak – looking girl with rimless glasses also took the initiative to say, ""I'm from another city. I heard that if I'm accepted, I'll be provided with accommodation, so I stayed and waited for the results. If I'm accepted, I can save a day's room fee, right?"

Xia ruofei looked at the girl's luggage and smiled. ""I can tell."

Then, he turned to the young men and asked with a smile, ""So you're also from another place?"

"We're from the three mountains," said the young man in the gray down jacket, " but we're done with the interview, aren't we? I'll just wait with Liu Qian! We also want to know the results of the interview as soon as possible!"

Xia ruofei knew that Feng Jing was in the meeting room, so he was not in a hurry to enter. Instead, he sat down on the chair provided for the interviewees by the corridor with interest.

He asked, "why did you come to the farm to apply?" This place is far away from the city, so life should be very boring!"

The bespectacled girl said with a smile, ""It's not easy to find a job these days, and the benefits here are good! There's five insurances and one housing Fund, and free accommodation. I don't have to squeeze in the bus or subway to work. The key is that the requirements for education are not that high. I think it's quite good!"

"And the environment here is so good!" The middle – parted young man also said. The mountains and rivers are beautiful, and we're both white – collar workers. Why do we have to go to the city to breathe in the exhaust?"

The young man in the gray down jacket said with a hint of excitement, ""This place is so close to the beach, we can go to the beach for a barbecue in the future! What's there to be picky about in this kind of working environment!"

The young man in the gray down jacket was beaming with joy. Obviously, he had already begun to look forward to the scene of taking a stroll with Liu Qian on the beach in the future.

Xia ruofei was speechless, thinking, "brother, are you here to work or to pick up girls?"

He could tell that these three young men, including the young man who had not spoken much, should be interested in Liu Qian, so they were so eager to stay and accompany her.

At this moment, the young man in the gray down jacket saw Xia ruofei's strange smile and couldn't help but say, ""Brother, since you're here, you don't have to chat with us. CEO Feng of paradise company is still in the conference room! Why don't you go in and try?"

“He’s already an hour late,” said the middle – parted young man. “Do you think President Feng will give him a chance?”

“How would you know if you don’t try?” Liu Qian also said enthusiastically, “go in and have a good talk with President Feng! Just say that you’re lost or stuck in a traffic jam. In any case, find a suitable reason ...”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but laugh. “This farm is so remote. It’s not easy to find.”

At this moment, the meeting room door opened and Feng Jing walked out.

When she saw Liu Qian and the others, she couldn’t help but ask, “Why haven’t you left? Didn’t I tell you to go back and wait for the news?”

Xia ruofei stood up from his chair when he saw Feng Jing.

At this moment, Feng Rao saw Xia ruofei, who was blocked by Liu Qian and the rest. She exclaimed in surprise, “Chairman, why are you here ...”

The chairman!

Liu Qian and the others were stunned and looked at Xia ruofei without blinking.

They could never imagine that this young man, who was about the same age as them and was very approachable, was actually the chairman of this company.

So they were just chatting with the company’s Big Boss!

The two men in the grey down jacket and the man with the middle – parted hair wanted to find a hole to hide in. They couldn’t help but blush when they thought of how they had “guided” Xia ruofei in an old – fashioned manner.

Liu Qian wasn’t any better. Her pretty face was suddenly covered with a blush.

“Chairman ...” Liu Qian said, embarrassed. “We didn’t know ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. “I’m fine ...”

Then, he turned to Feng Rao and said, “CEO Feng, I was looking for you for something. I saw that you weren’t in the office, so I came over to take a look. By the way, are the interview results out yet?”

Chapter 507: The new Drunken Eight Immortals (1)

After Xia ruofei said that, Liu Qian and the rest temporarily forgot about their awkwardness and nervousness. They looked at Feng Rao with anticipation.

Feng Rao looked at Liu Qian and the rest indifferently before she said to Xia ruofei, “Chairman, I’ve already made the preliminary list of candidates, but I haven’t had time to report it to you yet, so ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. “I’ve said it before. You’re in charge of the recruitment. You just have to decide on it.”

Xia ruofei then pointed at Liu Qian and said, ""She came from another city for the interview. If she's accepted, she doesn't have to go to the city to find a hotel. Since you've already drawn up the list, just tell her the results!"

"Alright," he said. Feng Jing nodded.

"You're Liu Qian, right?" she asked.

"Yes, President Feng ..." Liu Qian's heart thumped as she looked at Feng Jing with anticipation and nervousness.

"Before I tell you the result, I have another question to ask you," Feng Jing said with a faint smile.

"Please speak." Liu Qian said immediately.

"If you work at paradise Corporation, can you accept overtime and business trips?" Feng Rao asked indifferently.

"No problem!" Liu Qian said without hesitation, "as long as the company needs it, I can do it no matter how hard it is!"

Feng Jing nodded. "Then, congratulations. You've been hired by our paradise Corporation as the General Manager's assistant. Is that a problem?"

Feng Jing had a good impression of Liu Qian during the interview. She was well – mannered in all aspects, and it was obvious that she had a good personality. For a general assistant position that required strong coordination skills, affinity and execution were very important. Hence, Feng Jing was prepared to test Liu Qian's capabilities as the assistant manager.

Liu Qian was surprised and happy. She said excitedly, "No problem! No problem! Thank you, President Feng! Can I start work today?"

Feng Rao smiled and nodded. "I'll get someone to arrange an apartment for you in a while. Also, I'll go through the employment procedures. You'll start work this afternoon!"

"Yes! Thank you for your trust, director Feng!" Liu Qian said happily.

She had come to the interview with the intention of giving it a try. She didn't expect to be hired, and it was the most valuable position among all the positions, the General Manager's assistant position. This was really a surprise for her.

Liu Qian then smiled sweetly at Xia ruofei and said, ""And thank you, Chairman!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "why are you thanking me?" I didn't interfere with the recruitment this time. It's because CEO Feng thinks highly of you that he hired you. "

"No matter what, I still have to thank you!" Liu Qian said, a little embarrassed. She was recalling the scene just now.

The other three young men also looked at Feng Jing with anticipation, but they were too embarrassed to ask.

Girls were often given special treatment, just like how the chairman had personally asked about Liu Qian's situation just now, but the three men didn't receive this treatment.

Feng Rao glanced at the three of them and said, "Chen Rong and Zhao Xiaofei were also hired."

"That's great! Thank you, director Feng!" The young man in the gray down jacket called out happily. It was not known whether he was Chen Rong or Zhao Xiaofei.

Feng Jing had only interacted with them briefly during the interview, but she was able to call out everyone's name. This made Xia ruofei look at her in a new light.

Feng Rao looked at the young man with the middle – parted hair and said, "Dong Liang, I'm sorry, but our company might not have a suitable position for you at the moment ..."

Dong Liang, the middle hair man, lowered his head and said, "I understand, CEO Feng. I won't disturb you any longer. I hope that I have the opportunity to work at your company in the future ..."

After saying that, Dong Liang was not in the mood to say hello to Liu Qian and the others. He lowered his head and left, leaving four people behind. He was the only one who was not hired, and his heart was full of frustration.

Liu Qian and the others didn't know each other before this, so they didn't feel much about Dong Liang's failure. They just looked at him with sympathy, but it was quickly replaced by excitement.

The young man in the grey down jacket said to Xia ruofei, "Chairman, my name is Zhao Xiaofei. We were blind just now. Please don't take offense!"

Xia ruofei smiled gently and said, "Ignorance is not a crime. Besides, you didn't offend me in any way! Weren't you just giving me, this late interviewee, some ideas?"

Liu Qian and the other two laughed in embarrassment.

Zhao Xiaofei hesitated and asked again, "Chairman, can we ... Also enjoy the company's apartment?"

Xia ruofeihe chuckled. "According to the company's rules, the local employees can't enjoy a full apartment. However, we can provide a shared dormitory for you to use during your lunch break. Of course, you can also spend the night."

"A dormitory is fine too!" Zhao Xiaofei said happily, "otherwise, if we come to work from the city every day, not only will it waste time on the road, but it will also be difficult to bear the fuel cost!"

Feng Rao knew that Xia ruofei must have something to tell her, so she said, "Go to the Finance Office and look for director pang. Ask him to arrange accommodation for you! I'll go through the employment procedures during work hours in the afternoon!"

"Yes, President Feng!"

Liu Qian and the other two went to look for pang Hao happily. Feng Jing smiled at Xia ruofei and said, "Chairman, what are your instructions?"

Chapter 508: The new Drunken Eight Immortals (2)

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I want to talk to you about the next step of the farm's infrastructure. I want to hear your opinion." By the way, did the interview go smoothly today?"

"This batch of job seekers are of good quality!" Feng Jing said, "I've already drawn up a preliminary list of ten candidates. I was going to inform them tomorrow, but I didn't expect Liu Qian and the others to stay behind and wait ..."

"Isn't that good?" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you've been exhausted as the General Manager these days. Now, there are finally a few people you can order around. You don't have to do everything by yourself."

"Yup!" "Chairman, let's talk in the office!" Feng Jing said.

The two of them went to Feng Jing's office. Feng Jing personally made Xia ruofei a cup of tea and said, "Chairman, I've been thinking about it since I came back from the village yesterday. May I share my opinion first?"

This was what Xia ruofei admired about Feng Jing the most. She wanted to do a lot of work ahead of Xia ruofei and did not need him to supervise her.

He looked at Feng Jing with encouragement and smiled gently. "Alright!"

Feng Rao sat down on the sofa opposite Xia ruofei and cleared her throat. "Chairman, based on my understanding these days, I think our company's main product at this stage should be Taoyuan brand vegetables. We have been limited by production capacity before, but now that the farm area has expanded several times, I think we should focus on building high – Level constant – Temperature greenhouses on these lands."

Xia ruofei nodded. "That's exactly what I'm thinking. Please continue, President Feng."

"In addition, once we increase our production in the future, we'll need to have a proper solution for the storage problem," Feng Jing said. "After all, vegetable products can't last long. We can basically sell them out now, but the problem isn't obvious. In the future, there will definitely be a small backlog of products in stages. Therefore, I suggest that we set aside a piece of land in the South of the farm and build a high – Standard cold storage warehouse!"

Feng Rao had suggested to build it in the South because the land there was barren. To put it bluntly, she was still worried about the land.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "I've already thought about the cold storage warehouse. This time, we must build it!" As for the location I also agree with your opinion. "

In fact, to Xia ruofei, the location of the cold storage warehouse was not important because he did not care about the land. However, since Feng Jing had suggested to build it in the South, Xia ruofei did not have to change it to the North.

"Chairman, I think the current Park of our farm is more modern," said Feng Jing. "I think we should build it according to this standard when we expand the new land and build the basic infrastructure. Although the initial investment may be more, the benefits for the development of the whole farm are obvious."

“Agreed,” Xia ruofei nodded. Boss Feng, let’s discuss how many vegetable greenhouses we need to build and how to build them?”

Xia ruofei then spread the floor plan on the coffee table. The two of them started to discuss the facilities Planning for the new land expansion.

Feng Jing wasn’t an expert in this area, but she was always able to give her opinions from a business perspective.

For example, the location of the vegetable greenhouses, the road design between the greenhouses and between the greenhouses and the main road could be more reasonable, and the farm operation could be more efficient.

Feng Jing’s suggestion gave Xia ruofei a lot of inspiration. A rough plan for a new farm was already taking shape in his mind.

The two of them chatted all the way until lunch time before they went to the staff cafeteria on the first floor for lunch.

Xia ruofei met Liu Qian and the other two in the staff cafeteria. They had already gotten their meal cards with pang Hao’s help. Of course, the lunch was free and they did not need to use their cards.

Seeing the two bosses of the company, the three new employees quickly got up and greeted them.

Xia ruofei did not put on any airs. He greeted the three of them with a smile and even ordered a meal to eat with them. He also asked them how they were settling down and if they had any difficulties.

Liu Qian and the other two were very satisfied with the company’s benefits, especially Liu Qian, who had been assigned to a brand new apartment building with all kinds of facilities. Although it only had one bedroom and one living room, it still made Zhao Xiaofei and Chen Rong envious.

Of course, even Zhao Xiaofei and Chen Rong, who lived in the four – person dormitory, were also very satisfied with the company’s conditions.

Xia ruofei gave them a few words of encouragement and returned to the villa after eating.

He gave Liang Qichao’s father, Liang Weimin, a call to tell him that Liang Weimin’s company was basically helping Xia ruofei with the project. Xia ruofei felt more at ease leaving it to them. At least the price was fair, the quality was up to standard, and Xia ruofei did not have to worry too much.

When he heard that Xia ruofei’s farm had expanded by several times, Liang Weimin naturally congratulated him repeatedly. When Xia ruofei mentioned that he wanted to start building basic facilities, Liang Weimin immediately agreed.

Liang Weimin also patted his chest and promised Xia ruofei, “They didn’t make a single cent, and they would complete the project at the fastest speed, the highest standards, and the best quality.

Xia ruofei expressed his gratitude to Liang Weimin and made an appointment with him to send someone to investigate the scene the next day. He wanted to get the design proposal out as soon as possible.

Liang Weimin immediately sent manager Li, who was in charge of another project, over to confirm that manager Li had already helped Xia Ruofei complete two projects. Both parties had been working happily.

After the call, Xia Ruofei drove back to the city to buy a few hundred pieces of low – Quality white jade.

The owners of the Jade Market had almost sold out all the low – end goods in their shops. Many pieces of jade that had been in their shops for years and could not be sold were all bought by Xia Ruofei.

Although the price was very low, the owners were still elated.

No matter how small a mosquito was, it was still meat! Furthermore, Xia Ruofei had bought so many of them that the transaction amount was in the tens of thousands.

Xia Ruofei felt that it would not be easy to find so many low – Quality white jades in the Jade Market again. However, he estimated that after he used up this batch of white jades, he should be able to master all 17 independent runes. By then, he would not need them anymore.

After buying the White jade, Xia Ruofei went back to his villa and prepared to continue practicing the carving of runes.

Just as he took out a bag full of white jade from his space, the phone in his pocket rang.

Xia Ruofei took it out and saw that it was his future father – in – Law, Ling Xiaotian. He quickly picked it up.

“Hello, uncle Ling,” Xia Ruofei said.

“RUO Fei! It’s going to be a month tomorrow. How’s the preparation of the wine?” Ling Xiaotian asked directly.

Xia Ruofei suddenly remembered that it had been a month since he had put the Drunken Eight Immortals into the medium.

He quickly said, “don’t worry, uncle Ling!” Tomorrow at 10 am, you can just send a car to deliver it!”

“I knew you’re reliable, Ruofei!” Ling Xiaotian said happily and then asked, “Ruofei, there’s no problem with the quality of the wine, right? This is our winery’s first batch of new Drunken Eight Immortals! Whether or not we can make it big will depend on whether this batch of wine is good enough!”

Xia Ruofei laughed and said, “no problem!” After the transformation, the quality of the Drunken Eight Immortals is not inferior to the sample I gave you last time!”

“Uncle Ling, don’t forget to send the new wine over tomorrow!” Xia Ruofei reminded him, “you have to give it to him for every level!”

Only by storing new wine in the spirit map space every month could the winery guarantee a monthly production of new Drunken Eight Immortals.

Including those that could be stored for a longer time, after a certain period of time, they could also achieve a monthly ration.

“Don’t worry! I’ve already had my men prepare it!” Ling Xiaotian laughed and said, “it’s still the same as last time. Different grades of wine use different wine jars. There are also date labels on them. You’ll know when you see them.”

“Okay, then there’s no problem.” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “by the way, uncle Ling, I have a suggestion ...”

Chapter 509: The legendary uncle (1)

“Oh? Tell me, ruofei!” Ling Xiaotian said with great interest.

“Uncle Ling, I suggest that we print a batch number on the packaging of our new Drunken Eight Immortals. This way, we can clearly tell which batch the wine is from,” Xia ruofei said.

“Ruofei, is there a reason for this?” Ling Xiaotian asked, puzzled.

Xia ruofei smiled. “Uncle Ling, the wine sent to me by the winery has been improved by us. Although the overall quality can be maintained at an average level, it is not produced on the production line after all. So, it is very likely that one batch or several batches of wine are of particularly good quality ...”

Ling Xiaotian understood the moment he heard that and quickly said, “I understand! After the batch is marked, it’s equivalent to having an ID card. In the future, it’ll be like a certain year’s Maotai. Who knows, it might even be sold for a sky – High price!”

Xia ruofei laughed. “It’s more like red wine. For example, the ‘82 Lafite, which is well – known in China!”

The quality of red wine was largely affected by the grapes, and the precipitation and illumination of each year were different, which objectively led to the taste of the wine produced in a certain year.

Of course, 1982 Lafite was definitely a very precious red wine. However, in China, it had become a tool for some local nouveau riche to show off their wealth. In fact, many upper – Class people who really knew about wine might not necessarily like it.

For example, MA Xiong was particularly fond of the wine from the geisetu winery, but he had no interest in Lafite.

Xia ruofei continued, “uncle Ling, I’m suggesting that we label our liquor with a serial number. It’s not to make money, but I think it’s a good gimmick. If a batch of liquor is really good, there will definitely be investors who will follow up. This is free publicity for our winery! No matter how many fake reviewers we hire, it won’t be as effective as this!”

Ling Xiaotian laughed happily and said, “That makes sense! This was worth it! I’ll immediately arrange for someone to redesign the wine label!”

Xia ruofei reminded him again, “uncle Ling, we have to pay attention to the anti – counterfeit work now. Many famous white wines now use anti – counterfeit QR codes, which can track the production area, batch, and other information of the white wine. I think we can learn from them and get it done in one step!”

Ling Xiaotian pondered for a moment and said, "alright, I'll ask the winery to understand the relevant technology. This batch of white wine will still be filled after we bring it back. If there's enough time, we'll replace it with a new wine label with an anti – counterfeit QR code!"

"Mm! If we really can't make it in time, we'll just use the packaging we've designed now!" Xia ruofei replied, "it's just a batch. It shouldn't matter much."

Xia ruofei and Ling Xiaotian chatted for a while more about the winery before hanging up.

He muted his phone and took out a piece of white jade from his bag. After calming himself down, he began to practice again.

For the entire afternoon, Xia ruofei locked himself in his room and trained hard.

He didn't go to the cafeteria for dinner. Instead, he made a bowl of noodles in his bedroom and continued to practice with the White jade.

It was not until two in the morning that Xia ruofei finally showed a trace of fatigue. He put down the carving knife and the White jade slip.

After half a day of practice, he had mastered the drawing of two independent runes.

The 17 independent runes would become more complicated and difficult as he progressed. Xia ruofei was already very satisfied that he could reach this level in such a short time.

There were only two more complicated runes left. Although Xia ruofei wanted to continue, he knew that haste would not bring success. He had been practicing for a long time today and had been continuously sending out his spiritual power.

Even if he could use the Jade futon and the spirit Heart Flower petal solution to recover his mental power, a person's energy was limited. He knew that continuing to practice would not be very effective.

Therefore, he stopped decisively. Anyway, there was still a lot of time. It would be better to do it step by step. He would practice after recuperating and accumulating energy. The effect would definitely be better.

After Xia ruofei washed up in the bathroom, she fell asleep immediately.

The next day, Yingying's cell phone alarm woke him up. After she retired, her biological clock in the Army was slowly deteriorating. After all, life was no longer as regular as it was in the Army. It was normal for her to sleep a little later in the morning after staying up overnight.

Of course, he still had things to do today, so he had carefully set an alarm to prevent himself from oversleeping.

When Xia ruofei arrived at the staff canteen, Feng Jing, Liu Qian, and the rest were having their breakfast. Today was the first day of work for the three earliest employees. The three young people were very excited and greeted Xia ruofei when they saw him.

Xia ruofei was not an arrogant person. He greeted them with a smile and ate the same as the other employees. It was a simple meal of porridge, steamed buns, and salted vegetables.

He took the initiative to sit at the staff's table and chatted with them as they ate.

Feng Jing gradually understood Xia ruofei's personality. She knew that Xia ruofei was most likely going to sit back and do nothing. It was not surprising that he would not appear in the office for a few days. Hence, she made use of the breakfast time to briefly report to Xia ruofei.

Feng Jing already had three employees working under her. Today, they would be working under her leadership. The first thing to do was to issue the recruitment Notice. Other than Liu Qian and the other two, there were seven other employees who had been hired. These people would come to report in one after another after receiving the notice.

Feng Jing, on the other hand, focused on contacting her old friends, hoping to find a suitable Executive Director and marketing Director for the company.

After Xia ruofei heard this, he nodded and said, "President Feng, you can just work according to your own ideas. I won't interfere too much. "In addition, I've already contacted the construction company regarding the farm's basic infrastructure construction. Today, the project manager will bring people to carry out the preliminary survey. When the time comes, you can come with me and I'll introduce you to each other. In the future, you'll be in charge of the specific construction matters."

Xia ruofei was extremely annoyed by these tedious Affairs, so he took the opportunity to push the work to Feng Jing.

Feng Rao didn't reject it at all. On the contrary, she was very pleased to see Xia ruofei's trust in her and happily accepted it.

Xia ruofei was almost done eating. He stood up and said, "I'm going to the city in the morning. If manager Li comes, please ask him to wait in my office for a while."

"Oh ... Okay!" Feng Rao said with a strange expression.

Subconsciously, she felt that it was not appropriate to leave the project manager to the side. However, after this period of interaction, she knew that Xia ruofei's style of doing things was like this, including in Dongkeng village. There were many times when he could not be fathomed with common sense.

Hence, Feng Jing didn't raise any doubts. She only hesitated for a moment before agreeing.

Xia ruofei got up and left the staff canteen. He drove straight to the warehouse that he had rented in the city.

When he arrived at the warehouse, there was still about an hour before the time he had agreed to meet with Ling Xiaotian. Xia ruofei was worried that Ling Xiaotian would be in a hurry and send his men over earlier, so he had left a lot of room for himself.

After he entered the warehouse, he immediately closed the doors and windows. Then, he sank his mind into the spirit map space and accurately took out the large wine jars from the space and placed them neatly in the warehouse.

As for the wine jars that needed to be stored for a longer time, they remained in the medium.

In a short while, the originally empty warehouse was filled with large wine jars.

Although the mud seal was tightly sealed, a faint fragrance of wine was still inevitable.

Due to the difference in the flow of time between the inside and outside, the wine had been stored in the spirit map space for almost three years. The spirit Qi in the spirit map space was so dense that it had turned into mist. After being stored in such a unique environment for three years, the wine must have been reborn.

After the wine was ready, Xia ruofei had nothing else to do. All he could do now was wait.

He took out a recliner from his space and placed it near the entrance of the warehouse. Then, he lay on it and closed his eyes to rest.

Xia ruofei and Ling Xiaotian had agreed to meet at 10 am. When it was past 9:40 am, Ling Xiaotian called to inform him that the white wine convoy had arrived near the warehouse.

Xia ruofei stood up and kept the recliner in the medium. Then, he opened the warehouse door and walked out.

In a short while, the transport team led by Ling Xiaotian arrived.

These trucks were loaded with a new batch of white wine. They were bringing back the newly “improved” Drunken Eight Immortals that Xia ruofei had “improved” and could be directly bottled.

This was the first batch of the new Drunken Eight Immortals, so Ling Xiaotian was rather concerned about it. It was likely that he would not personally come in the future.

However, Xia ruofei had to be there every time. Thinking about it, he felt a little sad. He had to be there once a month. Was this the legendary uncle?

However, on second thought, it was only once a month, and it only took a short while to settle. Girls even had their period a few days a month ...

When the fleet stopped, the workers began to get busy. They had to unload the new wine from the trucks first, then load the wine from the warehouse into the truck, and finally move all the new wine into the warehouse.

Xia ruofei and Ling Xiaotian stood at the side and talked.

After a busy day, it was almost midnight. After sending off Ling Xiaotian and his team, Xia ruofei returned to the warehouse. Like a hardworking worker ant, he placed all the jars of wine into the spirit map space.

Other than the one – month wine, there were also three – month, five – month, and one – year wine jars. They were all packed in different styles of wine jars. Xia ruofei also sorted them out according to their ages in the spirit map space.

After that, Xia ruofei hurriedly locked the warehouse door and drove to Taoyuan farm. When he was loading the truck, Feng Jing called to inform him that manager Li had arrived at the farm. Hence, Xia ruofei hurried back as well. After all, it was not good to make people wait too long.

As the car sped around the city, Xia ruofei’s phone rang.

He picked it up and glanced at it quickly. It was an unknown number.

Xia ruofei frowned slightly and hung up the call. There were too many Harassment calls and he had forgotten to put on his Bluetooth earphones when he left the house today. It was not Safe to Answer calls while driving on the express Ring Road.

Xia ruofei threw his phone into the groove on the central console and continued to speed up to the farm.

At the same time, in the Criminal Investigation Unit of the city Public Security Bureau, a beautiful police flower with her chest full of waves was so angry that she almost dropped the phone in her hand.

“He actually hung up on me, I’m so angry!”

Chapter 510: max rage points

Qin Xiao Yu felt that ever since she met Xia ruofei, she had been having an unlucky year.

Even though Qin Xiao Yu had accidentally caught the A – Level wanted criminal of the Ministry of Public Security, Zhao Zhixi, under the alias Zhao he, because of Xia ruofei, it did not bring her much joy. Instead, it had caused her to be sulky.

After Zhao he’s identity was confirmed, bureau chief Chen Bo asked Qin Xiao Yu to contact the ‘enthusiastic people’ who helped to capture Zhao he, to cash in the reward offered by the Department.

At that time, Qin Xiao Yu had contacted Xia ruofei through Lu You. She really did not want to have too much contact with Xia ruofei and Lu You had replied to her that day that she had already informed Xia ruofei.

Qin Xiao Yu thought that this matter was over and she would not have any more interactions with Xia ruofei in the future.

Unexpectedly, bureau chief Chen Bo called her to his office today and asked directly, “Captain Qin, why haven’t we contacted the people who helped us catch Zhao Zhixi? The ministry’s order of commendation is about to come out, but we haven’t fulfilled our promised rewards yet. How can we do this?”

Qin Xiao Yu was a little confused at that time and said, “I’ve been in contact with them since a few days ago!”

“But he hasn’t even come to receive the award yet! “The publicity department has even set up the award ceremony venue ...” Chen Bo’s tone was a little dissatisfied.

“Chief, I told him a few days ago to contact the Public Security Bureau’s publicity department within two days, otherwise, he won’t be waiting.” Qin Xiao Yu’s brows furrowed slightly. Since he didn’t come, maybe he didn’t care about the reward money! There’s no need for us to go all out and give it to him!”

Chen Bo’s face darkened and he said in a deep voice, “nonsense!” Was the reward given by the Ministry of Public Security a joke? Little Qin, you’re also a leader. Don’t you have any political awareness? Such a big thing, how could he just call and not ask? Perhaps this comrade has noble character and unquestionable integrity, but our Public Security Bureau can’t go with the flow. Otherwise, won’t it chill the hearts of those who are brave enough to do justice? If we encounter similar situations in the future, who else will stand up for us?"

Bosnia and Herzegovina's face was dark as he told Qin Xiao Yu a bunch of big truths, but Qin Xiao Yu could only grit her teeth and swallow it down, nodding silently.

Chen Bo continued, "this kind of thing should be taken the initiative to go to the door and ask!" Also, we have to make it clear to that comrade that this is not only a matter of money, but also the credibility of the public security organization. I believe that as long as we are sincere enough and do our job well, that comrade will definitely understand!"

"Go to the door?" Qin Xiao Yu couldn't help but widen her pretty eyes.

"Is there a problem?" Chen Bo frowned and said, "this is also a necessary courtesy to treat a meritorious soldier! Little Qin! I think you still need to change your mind! Our public security and Civil Police are here to serve the people. Don't always have the mindset of an official!"

Qin Xiao Yu felt like ten thousand  were running through her heart. Where did this old lady have any bullshit official position? I just don't like him, okay?

"Chief, this ... We've been so busy with the special operation to crack down on gangsters and evil recently. Can we let our colleagues in the publicity department do this kind of thing?" Qin Xiao Yu asked weakly.

"No! You're the one who contacted him from the start. We can't trouble two people for the same matter, so I'll leave it to you!" Chen Bo said decisively, then continued, "little Qin, you have to put this job at the top of your priority. You can put the other things aside for the time being. We have so many Criminal police and public security Police involved in this special operation to crack down on the underworld and evil. It won't affect us much if you're missing!"

"I understand ..." Qin Xiao Yu knew that she could not decline and scolded Xia ruofei in her heart, "chief, I'll go out first ..."

"Mm! Contact that comrade immediately!" Chen Bo said, "we have to finish this award ceremony tomorrow. I have already contacted the news media. You must not drop the ball!"

"Yes!" Qin Xiao Yu replied weakly and left Chen Bo's office.

She had also been thinking, "isn't the director making a mountain out of a molehill?" Isn't it just catching a wanted criminal? Even if he wanted to give out a bonus, he could just ask him to give him an account number and transfer it over. Why was there a ceremony?

In fact, what Qin Xiaoyu did not know was that Chen Bo really attached great importance to this work this time.

As the director of the Public Security Bureau, Chen Bo was a high – ranking Deputy Director. He even held the position of assistant Mayor in the city government. At the same time, he was also a member of the party group of the provincial Public Security Bureau.

Moreover, Chen Bo was an old Deputy Director who had been in this position for six years.

In a few months, the executive Deputy Director of the Public Security Bureau would be 58 years old. According to past practice, he would retire at this age and wait for two years to pass.

Of course, this wasn't necessary. There were still many leaders who worked directly until they were at the age of retirement.

However, Deputy Director Guo's health wasn't very good. As early as the beginning of the year, there were rumors that he would be transferred to the Vice Chairman of the provincial Political Consultative Conference after his 58th birthday. He would settle his salary as a Deputy and wait for retirement.

The executive Deputy Director of the Public Security Department was usually highly assigned to the main hall. Even if they were not immediately promoted to the main hall when they first took office, after a few years of experience, they were almost certain to be promoted to the main hall.

Therefore, many people had their eyes on this position, and the experienced Chen Bo was naturally one of them.

He had always been engaged in public security work, which was a professional and had enough experience. He was just short of a dazzling achievement.

Capturing Zhao Lianxi this time was undoubtedly like getting a pillow when one was drowsy.

Chen Bo reported the situation to the municipal government and the provincial Office as fast as he could. After the report was reported to the higher – ups, the order of commendation from the Ministry was soon issued, which made Chen Bo very excited.

At this juncture, this result was simply a timely rain! It would be of direct help to him in his fight for that position.

Therefore, he had been paying attention to the case and was ready to add fuel to the fire at any time.

He had been paying attention to giving out awards to the public for the past few days. He had also personally contacted many media outlets, preparing to show his face and add to the fire.

Qin Xiao Yu didn't understand these things and it was not an injustice to be scolded by Chen Bo.

Helplessly, Qin Xiao Yu could only contact Lu You again. This time, she did not dare to ask Lu You to pass on the message. Instead, she got Xia ruofei's phone number from Lu You and was prepared to lower her status and call Xia ruofei personally.

Unexpectedly, Xia ruofei did not even pick up the call and just hung up.

Qin Xiao Yu had the urge to strangle Xia ruofei.

However, Chen Bo's words were still ringing in her ears. No matter how dissatisfied Qin Xiao Yu was, she could only suppress her anger. After taking a few deep breaths and stabilizing her emotions, she called Xia ruofei again.

Xia ruofei, who was driving, saw that it was the same number and hung up without thinking. He also blacklisted the number.

He even mumbled to himself, "the harassment calls these days are really persistent. They still don't give up after hanging up once ..."

Qin Xiao Yu was about to go crazy, she said angrily: ""I'll keep calling. I don't believe you won't pick up!"

After that, Qin Xiao Yu pressed the redial button hard.

"I'm sorry, the number you have dialed is not available ..."

A cold notification sound came from the phone.

Actually, this was a setting that Xia ruofei had set up on his phone. As long as it was a call from a blocked number, the reply would always be 'turned off'.

There were many ways to set up a blacklist, and his was not the most ruthless one. One of the ways was that when a number from the blacklist called, the call would be answered first and then automatically hung up.

Qin Xiao Yu didn't know that her number had been blocked by Xia ruofei. She didn't believe it and called several times in a row, but every time it was a "turned off" prompt.

She was so angry that she wanted to smash things.

"Do I really have to go and personally invite him?" Qin Xiao Yu muttered to herself.

Chen Bo's serious face appeared in her mind and Qin Xiao Yu was depressed to find that she really had no other choice but to make a trip personally.

The time limit set by Chen Bo was too tight. The prize would be given out tomorrow and the reporters had already been invited. If they were to screw up, it would not be as simple as a few words of criticism like today.

Qin Xiao Yu's heart felt as awkward as if she had eaten a bug when she thought about how she had to go to Xia ruofei's house personally to beg him.

However, she had no choice. She could only grit her teeth, grab her phone and bag, and leave. She drove a police car straight to Taoyuan farm.

She had already cursed Xia ruofei's 18 generations of ancestors in her heart.

Xia ruofei didn't know that he had inadvertently increased the hatred points of the big – breasted police beauty. He hurried back to Taoyuan farm and apologized to manager li repeatedly.

It was already noon, so they did not go to the site immediately. Xia ruofei dragged manager li to the staff canteen for lunch.

He had even specially asked Cao tieshu's wife to cook up a special meal and made a few dishes to go with the wine. Then, he took a bottle of Drunken Eight Immortals from the medium and had a few drinks with manager li and Feng Rao.

While they were eating, Xia ruofei made a formal introduction to manager li and Feng Jing, telling them to communicate more about construction matters in the future and not to look for him if it was not particularly important.

Feng Rao was always afraid of having nothing to do. She was willing to do more work. Manager li was well aware of the close relationship between Xia ruofei and his boss. Hence, he was not dissatisfied with Xia ruofei's decision to leave everything to him. Everyone had a good chat during the dinner.

Xia ruofei also used the time during the meal to briefly introduce the construction plan that he had discussed with Feng Jing to manager li.

After hearing that Xia ruofei was planning to build a lot of vegetable greenhouses, especially a cold storage warehouse, manager li immediately said that he would find a professional company to design and guide the cold storage technology through his connections in the industry.

After all, this was different from ordinary construction projects. Manager li specialized in different fields and did not dare to do things that he was not familiar with. Especially Xia ruofei's project. The boss had specifically called him to the office to ensure the top quality, so manager li did not dare to take it lightly.

After the meal, Feng Jing asked Liu Qian to make a copy of the farm's new floor plan and hand it to manager li. Then, the three of them prepared to go to the new land in the north and south for an on – site survey.

When Xia ruofei and the other two walked out of the cafeteria, a Passat police car drove to the small square in front of the building. After the sharp sound of the brakes, an angry Qin Xiaoyu opened the door and got out.

When she saw Xia ruofei picking his teeth with a toothpick, she was even more furious. She was called over by the Bureau chief near the end of work, but she failed to contact Xia ruofei, so she drove directly to Taoyuan farm. She was famished!

And that guy was burping and picking his teeth.

What could be tolerated?

Qin Xiao Yu strode to Xia ruofei and asked angrily, ""Xia ruofei, why didn't you answer my call?"
