Chapter 51 The mayor's cooking (1)

Professor Tian had long since retired. Although he still had a few graduate students, he still had quite a lot of freedom.

Therefore, when he received Xia ruofei's call and knew that he was going to visit him in the morning, he was very happy and welcomed him.

Professor Tian lived in the teachers 'family area of Sanshan University. Xia ruofei drove to the entrance of Sanshan University and called the security guard. Soon, professor Tian returned to the security room with the landline. The security guard answered the call and let him in immediately.

Hence, Xia ruofei drove his pickup truck through the campus of Sanshan University. There was a big basket of vegetables in the trunk, which was quite eye - catching. Many students on the road looked over.

Xia ruofei looked at the youthful University campus and felt very relaxed. He had joined the Army after graduating from high school and had never experienced university life. Seeing these university students, he felt a little envious.

Soon, the pickup truck passed through the campus and arrived at the staff's family area.

Professor Tian's residence was located in a community called "expert Park". There were about ten small buildings here.

The people who lived here were the most respected old experts and professors of Sanshan University.

For example, professor Tian was an old professor who enjoyed special subsidies from the state. Therefore, he could live in the villa only because he was able to enjoy this treatment. It had nothing to do with his father being the mayor.

Xia ruofei followed professor Tian's instructions and drove to Villa No. 3. He parked the car in the parking space in front of the villa, grabbed the vegetable basket in the car, and walked into the villa's courtyard.

There were a few vegetable fields in the front yard of the villa. Professor Tian was weeding the vegetable field with a small sickle. He was dressed simply and had a worn straw hat on his head. He didn't look like a University professor at all, but more like an old farmer.

Seeing Fang Yang enter, professor Tian straightened up and greeted him with a smile, ""Little Xia! Hurry and come in!"

He then raised his voice, "Huilan!" Little Xia is here!"

Under Xia ruofei's surprised gaze, Tian Huilan walked out of the villa and said with a smile, ""Little Xia is here! Come in and sit!"

"Yo! Mayor Tian is here too?" Xia ruofei was shocked.

"It's the weekend, so I came to see my father," said Tian Huilan with a faint smile.

Then, her eyes fell on the vegetable basket in Xia ruofei's hands. ""Why did you really bring vegetables? And so many ..."

Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "it's not anything valuable. I just planted it myself." Professor Tian likes it, so I'll just take more ..."

"This isn't appropriate, is it?" Tian Huilan said.

Professor Tian wiped his sweat with a towel and said, ""Huilan, what's wrong with Xia bringing me some vegetables? You! I think you've been an official for too long, everything you see seems like bribery!"

"Dad!" Tian Huilan said helplessly. What are you thinking! Do you think I don't believe in little Xia's character? But ... These are not ordinary vegetables. This basket is worth a lot of money!"

"Mayor Tian, I've already told you that these are vegetables that I grew myself. They're not worth much ..." Xia ruofei quickly said.

Tian Huilan glanced at Xia ruofei and said with a half - Smile, ""Would the famous Tao Yuan brand organic vegetables be worth much? Now, people who wanted to eat this kind of vegetables in the West River Moon Club had to queue up and make a reservation, or go to the auction! Little Xia, I didn't say anything wrong, right?"

Xia ruofei chuckled and scratched his head. "I can't hide anything from Mayor Tian ... But that's just a gimmick made by President Zheng. The actual cost here isn't that high. It's just that the production rate hasn't increased yet, and the rarer something is, the more expensive it is!"

"Huilan, what Taoyuan brand organic vegetables?" professor Tian asked, puzzled.

"Dad, Xiao Xia is probably working with President Zheng from West River moon to promote his new vegetable dish. They named it Taoyuan brand organic vegetables." Tian Huilan explained, "President Zheng organized a tasting meeting for new vegetables at his clubhouse yesterday to promote these vegetables. Now, all the famous people in Sanshan city are flocking to it! I heard that the reservation numbers are all for next month. Tonight is the first auction, so I'm afraid the price will be staggering!"

Professor Tian was very happy to hear this and said, ""Little Xia! You're really capable! After I tried "Little Xia, don't leave at noon! You just happened to bring the ingredients over, and they're all 16:19 ready - made. Let Huilan cook, and we'll have a few drinks at noon!"

your new vegetable dish the other day, I thought it would have a broad market prospects. I didn't expect you to act so quickly and have already started to promote it!"

"President Zheng was interested in working together that day. Our ideas are similar, so we hit it off." Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Not bad, not bad!" Professor Tian said, "but ... Since your vegetables are so valuable ..."

Xia ruofei quickly said, "two different things!" Professor Tian, this is what I grow. To be honest, the cost of these vegetables is not high. The club sells quality and service. Of course, the ingredients are the best.

The price doesn't mean anything. You can eat without worry! Give me a call when you're done, I'll bring some over!"

"Ah! Good, good, good! "Then I'll help myself ..." Professor Tian said with a smile.

However, he had also made up his mind. Since Xia ruofei had brought the basket of vegetables today, he could not push it away. He could not ask for it again in the future.

The father and daughter entered the villa together with Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei moved the vegetable basket to the kitchen and returned to the living room. Professor Tian motioned for Xia ruofei to sit down while Tian Huilan personally went to make tea.

Xia ruofei had just sat down. Seeing this, he quickly stood up and said, ""Mayor Tian, I don't deserve this honor!"

Professor Tian laughed and said, "little Xia, just sit there and relax!" Huilan is my daughter here, not some mayor of San Shan. You're a guest of my house, it's nothing for her to make you a cup of tea. "

At this moment, Tian Huilan also walked over with a cup of tea and said, ""Yup! Xia, my father didn't hire a nanny. We usually do these things ourselves. "

Xia ruofei had no choice but to sit down and take the cup of tea to thank Tian Huilan.

"Little Xia, don't leave at noon! You just happened to bring the ingredients over, and they're all ready - made. Let Huilan cook, and we'll have a few drinks at noon!"

The mayor was cooking for him? Xia ruofei was so scared that he quickly stood up and said, ""Uh ... Professor Tian, I have something to do this morning, I won't disturb you guys anymore ..."

"Little Xia, I won't stop you if you really need me." Tian Huilan smiled and said, "but we're all sincere in inviting you to lunch. As I said just now, I'm not the mayor in this house. I'm just my father's daughter. My father's life was saved by you, so what's the big deal in making you lunch?"

After she finished speaking, Tian Huilan looked at Xia ruofei with a half - Smile, as if she could read his mind.

Xia ruofei could only smile awkwardly and sit back on the sofa. ""Alright then! I'll have to trouble you then ..."

"We're so happy that you're staying for dinner!" Professor Tian said happily, "Huilan, quickly go to the kitchen and prepare! I'll just talk to little Xia ... Speaking of which, after eating the vegetables little Xia brought the day before yesterday, I've been thinking about it! At noon, you have to show off your skills and make a few more dishes. Use the Taoyuan brand organic vegetables that little Xia brought!"

"Alright!"

Tian Huilan responded with a smile and went straight to the kitchen to prepare lunch.

Xia ruofei sat in the living room and chatted with professor Tian. He was a little absent - minded, especially when he saw Tian Huilan in her apron and busy preparing lunch. He felt like he was sitting on pins and needles.

Chapter 52 The spirit map's mutation_1

"By the way, professor Tian, did you take the medicinal liquid I gave you the day before yesterday? How do you feel about this?" Xia ruofei asked.

"Yes!" Professor Tian said happily. He had been drinking for the past two days! You don't say, but I feel that my body is much tougher, and the weather has changed these two days, but my legs that have been cold for many years have not acted up! Xiao Xia, your medicine is really magical!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "I also learned the ancient formula from an old Chinese medicine practitioner. I made some according to the formula. I didn't expect the effect to be so good!"

Xia ruofei paused and continued, ""Professor Tian, you only need to take a small amount of this liquid every day. After you finish that bottle, your body should be able to recuperate to a very healthy state. You won't need to take it every day in the future."

"Alright, alright, alright." Professor Tian said happily, "Xiao Xia, your medicine is so effective. It must be very troublesome to prepare it, right?"

"It's not that bad, but two of the herbs are not easy to find, and it's easy to fail if you don't control the fire well, so I only made about one liter." Xia ruofei replied with a smile.

Of course, he deliberately emphasized the difficulty of concocting the medicinal liquid. Although he and professor Tian hit it off quite well and it was not a big deal to give him a small pot of diluted petal solution, he would not be able to bear it if it was a long - term supply. The petals of the strange flower had many uses and were really too precious.

Moreover, this medicinal liquid was so magical. A small pot was enough for professor Tian to recuperate. It would be a waste to drink more.

Professor Tian had no intention of asking Xia ruofei for the medicine. After hearing what Xia ruofei said, he felt that the medicine was precious and was even more grateful to Xia ruofei.

After the two chatted for a while, professor Tian thought for a moment, stood up, and said, ""Xia, sit here for a while. I'm going to the study."

Although Xia ruofei did not know why professor Tian suddenly left him to go to the study room, he still said immediately, ""Woof! If you have something to do, then go! Don't mind me. "

Professor Tian quickly walked to the stairs and saw that his study room was on the second floor.

Xia ruofei, on the other hand, slowly sipped his tea and sat on the sofa, a little reserved. After a while, he heard the sound of footsteps and saw professor Tian walking down with a small, long paper box.

Professor Tian walked to the sofa and handed the paper box to Xia ruofei. He smiled and said, ""Little Xia, you've helped me so much. I don't have much to thank you for. I'll give you this little toy!"

"Professor Tian, I can't accept this," Xia ruofei declined.

"Open it and take a look!" Professor Tian said with a smile as he pushed the paper box forward.

Xia ruofei took the paper box and opened it carefully. A Jade paperweight was lying quietly in the box. The paperweight was carved with two dragons. The carving was very detailed.

The Jade paperweight was obviously an old item and definitely not cheap.

Xia ruofei quickly placed the paper box on the coffee table and said, "Professor Tian, I really can't accept this ... It's too valuable!"

"Don't decline, Xiao Xia!" Professor Tian said. My life was saved by you, and you also gave me such a good health - preserving medicinal liquid and those Peach Garden vegetables, which one of them isn't good? I'm just giving you a small paperweight, why can't you accept it?"

"No... Your paperweight is too expensive. I ..." Xia ruofei said, troubled.

"Xia, are you saying that my life is worth less than a piece of Jade paperweight?" professor Tian pretended to be angry.

"I didn't mean it that way ..."

"Then don't decline! This is my kind intention to express my gratitude!" Professor Tian said.

Just as the two of them were pushing each other around, Tian Huilan walked out and asked curiously,

"Dad, Xia, what are you doing?"

She walked over and saw the paperweight on the coffee table. She was even more curious and asked, "Dad, why did you take out your Double Dragon paperweight? Don't you hate to use it when you practice writing?"

Professor Tian's eyes widened and he said, "What do you mean you can't bear to use? This thing wasn't worth much! I just wanted to give it to Xiao Xia to express my gratitude! Quickly help me persuade Xiao Xia, he won't accept it no matter what!"

Tian Huilan looked at professor Tian in surprise, and then at the paperweight. However, she quickly reacted and her expression returned to normal.

She smiled and said, "so that's how it is!" Little Xia, since it's a gift from my father, you should take it as your subordinate!"

"Mayor Tian, this ..." Xia ruofei was in a difficult position.

His ability to read people's expressions wasn't bad, so he naturally noticed Tian Huilan's fleeting expression. It was obvious that this paperweight was professor Tian's favorite item, and he was not even willing to use it.

How could he take away someone's love?

"What's this and that? Little Xia, aren't you a soldier? Why have you become so wishy - washy?" Professor Tian said, "isn't it just a paperweight? What's wrong with accepting it?"

Tian Huilan also laughed and said, "little Xia, my father has always been a man of his word. How can you take back a gift that has been given out?" If you don't accept this paperweight today, I don't think my father will want it. Maybe he'll just throw it out!"

Professor Tian nodded repeatedly, as if he would throw the paperweight outside if Xia ruofei refused again.

Xia ruofei had no choice but to smile bitterly and nod. "Okay, I'll take it ... Thank you, professor Tian ..."

Professor Tian's anger turned into joy and he said, "Now this is more like it! Huilan, go find a bag to put this paperweight in!"

"Alright!" Tian Huilan said as she went to find a bag.

Very quickly, she came back with a paper bag. Xia ruofei quickly said, "I'll do it myself, I'll do it myself!"

After saying this, he took the paper bag from Tian Huilan's hand and put it aside. Then, he picked up the paper box cover and prepared to close it.

At this moment, Xia ruofei's fingers accidentally touched the Jade paperweight in the box. Then, he felt the spiritual painting scroll that he had hidden on his body suddenly shake.

Xia ruofei even had a feeling that the spirit painting was filled with joy and hunger, as if it had a mind of its own.

Xia ruofei could not help but be stunned. Ever since he had obtained the scroll, this was the first time he had seen the scroll actively reacting.

Professor Tian saw Xia ruofei suddenly stop and was stunned. He could not help but ask curiously, "Little Xia, what's wrong?"

"Oh ... It's nothing, it's nothing ..." Xia ruofei returned to her senses and replied hurriedly.

He forcefully suppressed his curiosity and moved his hand away. The spirit painting immediately stopped shaking.

Xia ruofei closed the paper box and carefully put it in the paper bag. However, he could not calm down.

Then, Tian Huilan continued to prepare lunch while Xia ruofei and professor Tian chatted. Xia ruofei was still a little absent-minded until lunch.

During lunch, Xia ruofei used the excuse that he had to drive and politely declined professor Tian's invitation to have a drink. Professor Tian did not force him and poured himself a small glass of white wine.

Xia ruofei's mind was completely focused on the Jade paperweight, so he quickly bade farewell to professor Tian and Tian Huilan after he finished eating.

After leaving professor Tian's house, Xia ruofei drove straight to the holiday villa he had rented in the suburbs.

He was eager to go home. The only thing on his mind was to get home as soon as possible and take out the spirit map scroll in an absolutely safe environment. He wanted to study why it suddenly vibrated when he touched the Jade paperweight.

Chapter 53: Evolution of the space (1)

After leaving the Urban area, the pickup truck roared and rushed forward on the winding Expressway, almost at the speed limit. Xia ruofei felt as if he had found the feeling he had when he was learning how to drive in the Army. At the holiday villa. Xia ruofei drove the pickup truck straight into the courtyard. There was a sharp screeching sound of the brakes, and two black brake marks were left on the concrete floor of the courtyard. Xia ruofei jumped out of the car, held the paper bag in his hand, and rushed into the villa. He jogged upstairs and locked the door and windows in his bedroom. Then he carefully took out the scroll he had hidden on his body and placed it on his bed. He then took out the Jade paperweight. When Xia ruofei's hand touched the Jade paperweight, the painting started to shake again. Xia ruofei could feel that the scroll seemed to be looking forward to this paperweight, but he did not know what to do. Should I ... Try bringing this paperweight into the spirit map space? Xia ruofei had this thought. He held the Jade paperweight in his hand and began to communicate with the spirit map space. Just as Xia ruofei connected to the spirit map space and was about to enter, a suction force came from the spirit map space. Then, he saw the Jade paperweight being sucked into the spirit map. When the Jade paperweight was sucked into the spirit map, it was like a snowflake falling into boiling water. It disappeared without a trace. Xia ruofei was shocked. He opened the scroll and looked around, but the Jade paperweight was nowhere to be found. Could it be that it was sucked into the space? The spirit map space would take the initiative to absorb things? At this thought, Xia ruofei connected to the spirit map space again. Before he could issue the order to enter the space, he was stunned ... In the past, he could only use his mind to contact the spirit map space and issue simple instructions like entering or leaving. However, when he connected to the spirit map space now, everything in the space suddenly appeared in his mind as if he had seen it with his own eyes. Moreover, he could clearly sense that the entire space seemed to have become somewhat different. Xia ruofei did not have time to investigate the changes. He sent out the order to enter the space. His body flashed and he was inside the spirit map space. The familiar feeling of dizziness quickly disappeared. Xia ruofei stood on the ground of the space and looked at everything in front of him with a dumbfounded expression. The most obvious thing was that the space had doubled, from the original one mu to two mu. The space that had been a little cramped after planting the vegetables suddenly became a lot more spacious. At the outermost area of the space, there was an open space, which was in sharp contrast to the scope of the previous space. It was as if a ring was nested outside the land of the previous space. Then, the diameter of the pool in the middle of the space also doubled, becoming about two meters. The clear water in the pool rippled slightly, making people feel relaxed and happy. Besides, Xia ruofei could clearly feel that the air in the space had become fresher. Taking a deep breath, he felt refreshed. Obviously, after the Jade paperweight was absorbed by the spirit map, the entire spirit map space underwent an evolution. What happened to the nameless plant? Would the Tri – colored flower change? Xia ruofei thought fervently. In the entire space, the thing he was most concerned about was undoubtedly this nameless plant. With a trace of anticipation, Xia ruofei quickly walked towards the nameless plant. From afar, Xia ruofei could already feel his excitement. Just as he had expected, the nameless plant had also evolved. The branch, which was originally only as thick as a thumb, had obviously grown a size larger. It was as thick as a baby's arm, and it had grown a bit taller. What made Xia ruofei even more excited was that the flower crown, which had not even been three days old, had grown new petals. The number of petals had increased as well. One, two, three, four ... The flower crown had four petals! Other than the red, yellow, and blue petals, there was also an additional green petal! The petals of the exotic flower were too important to Xia ruofei. Not only did he need them to strengthen his body, but they were also indispensable for his future career development. Hence, every piece of land that was added had an extraordinary meaning to Xia ruofei. With excitement, he carefully collected the four petals with a pair of tweezers and put them in a preservation box. Then, Xia ruofei walked around the space. In the end, he stood by the pool and felt that the space had expanded. Even his state of mind seemed to have widened a lot. The invisible pressure that had been produced in the confined space in the past had been reduced a lot. Besides, Xia ruofei realized that he had established an invisible connection with the space. He had a feeling that he was the absolute master in this space. Every blade of grass, every tree, every speck of dust seemed to be under his control. However, this feeling was still faintly discernible, as if it was very difficult to grasp. Xia ruofei looked around for a while and suddenly thought of something. "If the entire space had evolved, what about the flow of time? Would there be any changes? As soon as the thought came to his mind, Xia ruofei did not want to wait any longer. He immediately left the spirit map space and brought the small alarm clock back to the space to start the test. After waiting outside for a minute, Xia ruofei entered the spirit map space again. The time on the small alarm clock showed that 15 minutes had passed in the interspace! As expected, the flow of time had also evolved. Now, the difference in the flow of time between the inside and outside was fifteen times! Xia ruofei was very happy. The space's all – Round evolution was a great thing for him. The more powerful the space was, the more room he would have for future development. Xia ruofei thought about the strange feeling he had when he connected to the space with his mind after the Jade paperweight was absorbed by the spirit map space. It was as if his invisible connection with the space had been strengthened and he could see every blade of grass and every tree in the space. He pondered for a moment and left the medium. Then, he used his mind to contact the spirit map space again, but he did not give the order to enter the space. That miraculous scene appeared once again. Everything in the interspace was reflected in his mind, including the neat rows of vegetable fields, the clear spirit pond in the interspace, and the Tupperware containing the petals of the nameless plant. A thought flashed through Xia ruofei's mind. He could 'see' the things in the space. Could he try to take them out? Previously, he had to carry items in and out of the space by himself in order to carry things. Xia ruofei focused on the container with the flower petals and tried to give instructions to the spirit map space. Then, a miraculous scene appeared ...

Chapter 54: Buying Jade (1)

The Tupperware appeared in Xia ruofei's hands out of thin air! Xia ruofei looked at the Tupperware in his hand, his face full of joy. He didn't expect that after the space had evolved, he could actually take things out directly from the space. This was much more convenient! Then, could he directly send things into the space? Xia ruofei immediately tried again. He still used his mind to contact the spirit map space and gave an order. The next moment, the Tupperware in her hand disappeared like the most brilliant magic. The moment the container disappeared, Xia ruofei immediately sensed it reappearing in the medium. Xia ruofei was like a child who had just received a new toy and kept trying. After many experiments, Xia ruofei concluded: He could now store and withdraw items directly from the spirit map space in the outside world, but this process was also very taxing on his mental strength, much more so than directly bringing things in. There were also restrictions on the size and weight of the items. At the moment, he could at most send 200 kilograms of things into the space or take them out. Any bigger, and one would feel a sense of exhaustion as if their mental power had been exhausted. They would need to consume the spatial pool's water or even the petal solution to recover. Although there were these restrictions, this was already a great surprise for Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei had a feeling that as long as he continued to absorb the petals of the strange flower, or if the space was upgraded, he would be able to store and withdraw bigger and heavier things! Thinking of the realm's upgrade and evolution, Xia ruofei's excitement gradually calmed down. He began to analyze the process that he had stumbled upon. Without a doubt, the spirit painting scroll had evolved after absorbing the Jade paperweight. However, was the Jade material of the paperweight necessary for the spirit map, or did the paperweight itself have some special function? After all, this paperweight looked like an old item. Perhaps there was some magical legend about it? Xia ruofei frowned as he pondered. He was inclined to the former. He thought that the painting might need the Jade itself. Wasn't it said that Jade gathered the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth to increase one's longevity? The spiritual energy contained in the Jade itself might be what the spirit painting scroll needed, right? No matter how one analyzed or guessed, in the end, they had to rely on the facts to speak. Hence, Xia ruofei decided to test it out for himself. He hid the spirit painting well on his body, then took his bank card and more than ten thousand Yuan in cash that he had earned from selling Taoyuan brand vegetables in the past two days. He went downstairs to get his car and went straight to San Shan city. Wen Wan Street in Ning'an District of Sanshan city was the distribution center of Jade, antiques, and jewelry in the entire Southeast province. There were more than a hundred shops of all sizes here, all of which were in the Wen Wan – related industry. It had already formed a large industrial scale. Such a place was always full of good and bad people, and the shops of all sizes were full of counterfeits. Even if an expert came here, he could easily be fooled if he was not careful. Xia ruofei's destination was Wen Wan Street. Of course, he wasn't here to pick up treasures. After parking the car, Xia ruofei strolled into the busy pedestrian street. In addition to the shops, there were many stalls along the street. These stalls operated on a variety of businesses, such as Grandpa Mao portraits, little man books, ancient coins ... There was a dazzling array of things. As soon as Xia ruofei walked over, a few stall owners greeted him warmly. They were all glib with their words as if anything in their shabby stalls was a priceless treasure. Xia ruofei did not stop in front of these small stalls. Instead, he walked straight in. After a short while, he saw a shop with a signboard "spirit Jade house". It looked very big and was decorated in a high – end manner. He thought for a moment and walked into the shop. A young and beautiful waitress came up to him and greeted him with a smile, "Sir, do you want to buy jade? Our spirit Jade house is having a promotion recently. If you spend more than 20000 Yuan, you will get a free old pit raw stone! If you want to experience the fun of stone gambling, don't miss this great opportunity!" Xia ruofei just wanted to verify his guess. He didn't know anything about the old gemstones, nor did he know what stone gambling was, so he was naturally uninterested. He just said indifferently, "Oh ... Let me take a look first!" "Then what type and price do you want, Sir? We have all kinds of Jade here, and the variety is very complete." The waiter asked with a warm smile. "Uh ... I'm just looking around." Xia ruofei asked, "by the way, do you have Jade for sale here?" With a professional smile, the waiter said, "I'm sorry, Sir, but we only sell finished jade products. We don't have any Jade materials for sale." "Oh ... Do you have any jade products?" Xia ruofei asked. He just wanted to verify if anything that was made of Jade could be absorbed by the spirit map space and upgraded. Finished jade items could also be used, so he was too lazy to change to another store. The waiter smiled. "Of course we do. We have jade earrings, jade bracelets, and jade pendants. However, the price varies greatly depending on the quality. I wonder what price you would like to know, Sir?" "Then ...

I want to see the Jade bracelet.” Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, “recommend me a few of them at all prices! I’ll take a look first.” “Alright, this way please!” The waiter said. People in the service industry were good at reading people’s expressions. Seeing that Xia ruofei was dressed so simply and didn’t seem to have a strong desire to buy, the waitress didn’t take out anything expensive. The waiter rummaged behind the counter for a while and quickly took out a few boxes and placed them on the counter. He said, “Sir, these bracelets are all made of Jade. The price ranges from 5000 to 100000 Yuan. You can have a look first.” Xia ruofei was also shocked. He didn’t expect Jade to be so expensive. These bracelets didn’t look like much, but the cheapest one cost 5000 Yuan and the most expensive one was 100000 Yuan. Xia ruofei thought, “there must be a reason why it’s so expensive. Since I want to verify my judgment, I’ll try the most expensive one first!” “Which one is the one that costs 100000 Yuan?” he asked. The waiter was stunned for a moment, thinking, “I didn’t know how rich this young man is!” He actually wanted to watch the one that cost 100000 Yuan? Could it be that he was a low – Profile rich man? If he had known earlier, he would have taken out those high – grade goods that were worth hundreds of thousands or even millions. Of course, she was only stunned for a moment. She quickly reacted and the smile on her face became more enthusiastic. She pointed to one of the boxes and said, “This is a jade bracelet of the ice glutinous type. It’s priced at 100000 Yuan.” “Oh, can I pick it up and have a look?” Xia ruofei asked. “Of course, but ... We have rules. If the bracelet is damaged because of Sir, you have to pay the original price ...” The saleswoman reminded Xia ruofei carefully. Xia ruofei nodded and reached out to grab the Jade bangle. Just as Xia ruofei’s hand touched the Jade bangle, he felt the spirit painting scroll in his arms shake slightly again ...

Chapter 55: Freebie (1)

Xia ruofei was overjoyed. The spirit map scroll also had a reaction to the Jade bracelet. Obviously, his previous judgment was 80% correct. The real thing that could evolve the spirit map space was the Jade itself. In other words, in the future, he could buy jadeite for the spirit map scroll to absorb, thus achieving the goal of further upgrading. In order to make sure that he was not mistaken, Xia ruofei held the icy glutinous jade bracelet and looked at it repeatedly. Of course, he was actually trying to confirm if the spirit painting had really reacted. Not only that, Xia ruofei picked up a few other bracelets and made a selection. After looking at it for a while, the professional smile on the waiter’s face was almost frozen. Xia ruofei was finally 100% sure that Jade could evolve the spirit map space. This was because the spirit painting would react to every jade bracelet. However, the strength of the reaction would be different due to the different quality. All in all, except for the 100000 Yuan ice glutinous type bracelet, the reaction of the spirit paintings to the other bracelets was very weak. Fortunately, after the spirit map space evolved today, Xia ruofei’s spiritual connection with the space had become closer, so he could sense even the slightest reaction. Even if it was the bracelet that was worth 100000 Yuan, the reaction strength of the spirit painting scroll was at most similar to that of the Jade paperweight. Seeing that the waitress was still waiting for him, Xia ruofei felt a little embarrassed to ask her to serve him so passionately for so long. He had wasted at least twenty minutes of her time by looking at her face. It seemed like he had to buy one ... Xia ruofei thought for a while and pointed at a bracelet that was about 40000 Yuan.” “I’ll take this! Do you accept credit cards here?” The waitress was so bored that she was yawning. She thought that Xia ruofei was someone who would only look and not buy, so she had wasted her time. She did not expect Xia ruofei to really buy one. Although a jade bracelet that cost more than 40000 Yuan wasn’t considered high – end, her Commission was still quite a lot! The waiter immediately perked up and quickly said, “Sir, you can pay by card! If you’re sure you want this bracelet, I’ll help you wrap it up! Please pay the bill!" Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. After the waitress had wrapped the bracelet, he followed her to the cashier and took out his bank card to pay. Xia ruofei was not short of money for the time being. Hu Zi's mother insisted on returning the 400000 Yuan. After adding the 100000 Yuan that he originally had, he bought a pickup truck. With some recent expenses, he had nearly 400000 Yuan left in his card. It was not a big deal to buy a bracelet that cost 40000. Moreover, the spirit picture scroll of the bracelet could also be absorbed, so it wasn't a waste. The waiter kept the receipt and handed the Jade bracelet to Xia ruofei with both hands. Xia ruofei thought for a while and asked, "By the way, I actually need raw jade more. The demand is quite high, and I'll be buying it for a long time. Can you help me ask the higher – ups if spirit Jade house is interested in this business?" It would be a waste if he bought jade products for the spirit map scroll to absorb. It was naturally much cheaper to buy jade directly. Anyway, it would be absorbed, so what was the use of processing it? "Sir, we usually sell finished products ... But I can call the boss for you!" The waiter said, a little embarrassed. "Alright, then I'll have to trouble you!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "You're welcome. Please have a seat. I'll make the call now!" The waiter said. Then, she quickly walked back to the counter, picked up the phone, and made a call. After a while, the waiter came over and said, "Sir, our boss Chen just happens to be working nearby. He said that if it's convenient for you, please take a seat in the shop for a while. He'll be right there!" "Alright, thank you!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "You're welcome," The waitress said with a sweet smile. Xia ruofei was not only handsome, but also rich! The saleswoman looked at Xia ruofei in a different light now that she had bought the 40000 Yuan bangle and was about to discuss the sale of Jade with the boss. However, Xia ruofei only had an indifferent expression. Although he was very kind, he obviously did not react to her secret flirtatious looks. The waitress was a little disappointed, but she immediately thought of something else. "By the way, Sir, you've bought more than 20000 Yuan in our shop, so you'll get a free old pit raw stone!" You can go over there and choose!" "Old pit raw stone?" Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and asked, "What is this?" The waitress didn't expect Xia ruofei to come and buy jade without even knowing about raw gemstones. This made her even more certain that Xia ruofei was a rich man's son, which was why he didn't care about money. She quickly explained, "It's raw jade! "All the Jade comes from these raw gemstones, but there's no device or ray in the world that can penetrate through the raw gemstones to detect whether there's Jade inside, so many people bet on raw gemstones. If there's a high – Quality Jade inside, they'll make a lot of money. Of course, there's also a high possibility that there's nothing inside, and the raw gemstones that they've bought at a high price will become worthless trash ..." The waiter explained for a long time before Xia ruofei finally understood what a raw stone was. He asked curiously, "Then wouldn't it be a huge loss for you to give away a raw stone for every 20000 Yuan spent in your store?" The waiter looked amused. He looked around and said in a low voice, "Sir, these raw stones aren't big, and they're all leftovers from the customers. The probability of them being green is very low, so the boss took them out as a gift ..." "I see ..." Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. He was also a little naive. How could a businessman do a losing business? The waiter quickly said, "Don't tell him I told you! You'll be fired by the boss ..." "Alright, I won't say anything." Xia ruofei said with a kind smile. "Sir, since it's a gift, why don't you go and pick one? Just treat it as a game!" The waiter said, "maybe we can really get Jade! No one can see through raw gemstones. It's all based on experience and feeling. There are always times when you're wrong. " Xia ruofei knew that the waiter's words made sense, but the probability of that happening was too low. However, since he had nothing to do, Xia ruofei did not reject it since it was free. He stood up and walked to a pile of raw stones in the corner of the shop. These raw stones looked black. The big ones were as big as a millstone, and the smallest ones were smaller than a volleyball. It was hard to imagine from their appearance that the fascinating Jade was extracted from these ordinary stones. Xia ruofei squatted down in front of the pile of raw stones and reached out to pick. He came here with the mentality of playing a game, so he was very relaxed. He kept flipping through the raw gemstones, trying to find a piece that he liked. Just as Xia ruofei's hand touched a rough stone the size of a volleyball with pockmarks on its surface, the painting in his arms suddenly shook without warning. The magnitude of the vibration was even greater than that of the bracelet.

Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat. Could it be that there was Jade hidden in this ordinary – looking raw stone, and the spirit painting could be sensed through the stone Skin? Other than this reason, there was no other possible answer! Moreover, according to the vibration of the spirit painting, the value of the Jade in this raw stone was very likely to be high! Fortunately, Xia ruofei had been in the Special Forces for many years and had developed a strong mentality. Although he was thinking quickly, he still looked calm on the surface. He put down the stone as if nothing had happened and started to look at the other raw stones. Very quickly, he had passed through every raw stone. Other than the previous one, the other raw stones did not cause the spirit painting scroll to tremble at all. In other words, out of the dozens of raw stones here, only one had Jade. The probability was so low that it made one's hair stand on end! Xia ruofei sighed in his heart. He did not hesitate and picked up the volleyball – sized raw stone. Then, he said in a relaxed tone, "This one will do!" "Ah? Sir, are you not going to pick again?" The waiter was obviously stunned as well. Then, he tactfully reminded her, "this raw stone has been in our shop for more than half a year. Many experts have seen it. The probability of producing green may be ..." Xia ruofei smiled faintly and said, "do you think the chances will be higher if we change to another piece?" "I'm just playing around anyway, so I'll take this one! It's more to my liking ..." The waiter was speechless. This raw stone was so ugly, but why did it have to be so pleasing to the eye? Rich people were really strange. However, on second thought, she felt that Xia ruofei's words made sense. To put it bluntly, the raw stones that were used as gimmicks were all leftovers. It didn't make a difference which one was chosen, so it was basically impossible to produce Jade. "Alright, I'll register it for you now." The waitress said. She quickly wrote down the number of the raw stone in her book and said, "Sir, this raw stone is yours now. Do you need me to untie it on the spot?" "Alright!" Xia ruofei shrugged his shoulders indifferently. The waiter went over to inform the manager and then brought Xia ruofei to a slightly smaller shop next door. This was also a property of spirit Jade house, but they only sold raw stones and naturally provided stone – cutting services. "Sir, these free raw stones were supposed to be cut for a fee, but you're our big customer, so the manager said the fee is free." The waiter said as he walked. "Thank you," Xia ruofei said with a smile. When they arrived at the shop next door, the waiter spoke to a worker who was cutting the stones. The worker looked at the stone in Xia ruofei's hand and asked indifferently, "How do you want to solve it?" Xia ruofei shrugged. "I don't know anything about this. Let's just cut it in the middle!" The stonecutter nodded and did not say anything. He took the raw stone from Xia ruofei's hands and fixed it on the stonecutter. Then, he turned on the power and was ready to cut. If it were any other customer who wanted to cut the raw stone in this way, the master would have tried to persuade them. However, the master knew this raw stone too well. It was impossible for it to contain Jade, so he didn't bother to say anything. There were a few customers in the shop who were Choosing Raw stones, and they all came over to watch the show. With the rumbling of the machine and the ear – piercing friction sound, the small raw stone was quickly cut in half. The master of cutting stones found some clean water to wash the cut surface. After taking a look, he said expressionlessly, "It's ruined, there's no green!" No Jade? How did this happen? Xia ruofei was slightly surprised. He walked forward and squatted down to check the raw stone that had been cut into two. Among the crowd, there was a middle-aged man with a big belly. He wore a thick gold necklace around his neck and had several big gold rings on his hand. He looked like a nouveau riche. There was also a delicate woman snuggling up to him. This woman was quite beautiful, but she had very heavy makeup on, making her look a little flirtatious. The fat man saw Xia ruofei's shocked expression and couldn't help but mock, "Hey! Brother, there's no need to look! If it's broken, then it's broken. Your stone looks like this, it'd be strange if there's green inside!" The flirtatious woman held the arm of the fat man tightly and said in a sweet voice, "Brother Cheng, I didn't expect you to know how to look at raw stones. You're really capable!" The fat rich man laughed proudly. "Baby, I don't know anything about raw stones! But I'm rich! You can ask people who understand to look at it! The last time I invited teacher chi to be my stone gambling consultant, this stone was still on the shelf for sale! Teacher chi picked it up and took a look before putting it down! Haha...I heard that old Chen gave it to the shop next door as a gift!" The fat man's boastful expression was obvious. The expressions of the spectators changed slightly when they heard this. Someone couldn't help but ask, "Are you talking about teacher chi Tianming from the Jade Association?" Fatty was even more proud when he heard this and said, "Is there another teacher chi in the Jade industry of Sanshan city?" This Chi Tianming should be quite famous. After hearing this, the other people who were watching the show looked at the fat rich man in a different light. The flirtatious woman hugged the fat man's arm even tighter and said coquettishly, "Brother Cheng, can you get teacher chi to help me pick a raw stone next time? I also want to play some stone gambling ..." The fat rich man laughed and patted the beautiful woman's hand, saying, "Baby, if there's a chance next time, I'm going to invite teacher chi to go stone gambling in southern Yunnan with me. I'll take you to see the world then!" "Brother Cheng, you're the best!" The beautiful woman said excitedly, and then directly kissed the fat man's face in front of everyone. The fat man also enjoyed the feeling of being the focus of everyone's attention, and his smug expression became more and more obvious. He looked at Xia ruofei and said with disdain, "It's impossible to get Jade from this kind of rubbish stone. Everyone was still waiting to cut the stone! Quickly get out of the way! Don't waste everyone's time!" Xia ruofei had just finished checking the raw stone that had been split into two and had an idea of what was going on. He frowned when he heard the fat man's words. The fat man kept making noise at the side. Xia ruofei didn't want to pay attention to him at first, but his words were getting more and more unpleasant, which made Xia ruofei a little unhappy. He raised his head and looked coldly at the fat man, saying, "Since you're so sure that my raw stone won't have any Jade, do you dare to make a bet?" "A bet?" Fatty was stunned and asked. What bet? "Of course it's to bet on whether my raw stone will have Jade!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. Fatty burst into laughter as soon as he heard that. He pointed at the raw stone that had been cut in half on the ground and said, "You've already lost it, how are you going to bet?" Xia ruofei said indifferently, "didn't I just cut it once?" We'll only know if there's Jade in there after all the stones are cut out, right? Just tell me if you dare to bet or not. "

Chapter 57: Lost for sure?

As soon as Xia ruofei said that, the people who were watching the show suddenly burst into an uproar. "He still dared to gamble after cutting it to pieces ... Is there something wrong with his brain?" "There's no way this raw stone can contain any green. This young man is clearly a newbie. This is a battle of personal feelings!" "He's rich, so he can do whatever he wants!" "One look and I can tell he's a prodigal!" Everyone was laughing at Xia ruofei's impulsiveness, but Xia ruofei's face remained calm as he looked at the fat man quietly. The fat man's mouth twitched and he sneered, "If I don't even dare to bet on a sure – win situation, how can I still have the face to stay in the Jade world? Speak! What are we betting on?" Xia ruofei said indifferently, "gambling with my life ..." He clearly heard the people around him gasp in unison. He deliberately paused for a moment before he continued, "It seems a little too serious. Let's bet some money then!" The people who were watching the show immediately laughed. It was really scary to talk and gasp for breath! However, they saw that Xia ruofei was still in the mood to joke and seemed to have a plan in mind. They also felt that they could not see through Yingying's sure – lose bet! Where did his confidence come from? The fat man was shocked when he heard the word 'life – risking'. Only after Xia ruofei changed the topic did he realize that he had been tricked. He could not help but sneer, "gambling is good!" I, Cheng Junhua, don't lack money! Speak! How much do you want to bet? As long as you can take it out, I'll play with you!" Xia ruofei thought for a while and said in a relaxed manner, "It's good to have a small bet, just play around. Let's bet ... Three hundred thousand! Boss Cheng, don't tell me you can't even take out three hundred thousand Yuan?" Those who could come here to gamble on stones naturally wouldn't be poor. However, most of the people present wouldn't bet three hundred thousand Yuan just because of a few words. The fat rich man, Cheng Junhua's expression changed a few times, but he quickly said, "Three hundred thousand it is! Even teacher chi has personally appraised the raw stone, and it even broke with one cut. If you can get green, I'll eat it on the spot!" "The Jade is mine too, why should I let you eat it?" Xia ruofei smiled and said. "You ..." Cheng Junhua said, "don't be so sharp – tongued! I agree to your bet, but ... Can you afford three hundred thousand?" Cheng Junhua saw that Xia ruofei was dressed simply and did not look like a rich man, so his tone was full of suspicion and disdain. Xia ruofei did not say much. He took out his bank card and said, "There should be more than 300000 Yuan in here. Boss Cheng, you have to take out some money too! Otherwise, how can I trust you?" Cheng Junhua snorted and said, "there are 300000 in there just because you say so!" What if it's an empty card?" Xia ruofei shrugged and asked, "then what do you think we should do?" Going to the bank to get cash? You need to make an appointment to withdraw a large amount of money, and isn't that too time – consuming?" Cheng Junhua was also feeling a little awkward. At this moment, a burst of hearty laughter came from the entrance of the shop. "Why is my little shop so lively today?" a forthright voice said. As soon as he finished speaking, a man split the crowd and walked into the shop. The man was in his early forties and was wearing a red Tang suit. He walked with a strong aura. "Boss Chen!" "Hello, boss Chen!" Everyone greeted the man, and the waiter who had brought Xia ruofei over quickly introduced him in a low voice. "Sir, this is our boss Chen of Lingyu house!" Xia ruofei smiled and nodded at boss Chen. Boss Chen looked at the waitress beside Xia ruofei. Then, he said to Xia ruofei in a friendly manner, "The store just called me, saying that someone wants to buy jade, and it's a long – term cooperation. I think it must be this little brother!" "It's me. Hello, boss Chen!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "Little brother is indeed a man of striking appearance!" Boss Chen laughed and then asked, "what happened just now?" Xia ruofei didn't say anything, but the people around him started to tell him what had happened. When boss Chen heard this, he looked at the two halves of the raw stone on the ground and said to Xia ruofei with a strange expression, "Little brother, you're all customers of my old Chen's shop. I think ... We should forget about this bet ..." Of course, boss Chen was the most familiar with this raw stone. In fact, the quality of the whole batch of goods was not high, and this raw stone had the worst appearance. Some people even suspected that it was actually an ordinary stone randomly picked up from the mine and sold in the raw stone. Hence, he tactfully advised Xia ruofei out of good intentions. However, Xia ruofei just smiled and said, "Boss Chen, I appreciate your kind intentions. But since this boss Cheng is so bold, I will definitely accompany him to the end.” Cheng Junhua also frowned and said, “old Chen, we’ve already agreed on this, so don’t get involved!” But since you’re here, you can be our witness! Otherwise, we can’t trust each other!” Boss Chen smiled bitterly and helplessly. He looked at Xia ruofei inquisitively. Xia ruofei smiled and said, “sure!” We’ll hand our cards over to boss Chen and check if the balance exceeds 300000. Then we can continue cutting the stones. ” Seeing that Xia ruofei had made up her mind, Mr. Chen had no choice but to agree. Cheng Junhua had no objections. They both handed their bank cards to Mr. Chen. There was a POS machine in the store, and he could check his balance. Soon, the balance in their cards was found. They both had more than 300000 Yuan. Cheng Junhua was slightly surprised to see that the plainly – dressed Xia ruofei really had more than 300000 Yuan in his card. However, his mind was focused on the bet. After checking the balance, he couldn’t wait to say, “Continue! If I win your 300000 Yuan, it’ll be just enough for my baby to get a new car!” The flirtatious woman was overjoyed when she heard this. She kissed Cheng Junhua several times, giving Xia ruofei goosebumps. He was too lazy to argue and said to the master, “Master, can I do it myself?” The stonecutter looked at boss Chen, who nodded slightly. Since the boss had agreed, the stonecutter was naturally happy to be idle and gave up his position. The operation of the stone cutter was not complicated. Xia ruofei could basically use it after looking at it. Besides, he did not need to Polish the stone. He could just cut it in half. It was simple and crude. Xia ruofei’s eyes revealed a mischievous look. He picked up half of the raw stone and fixed it on the stone cutter. Then, he turned on the power and cut it down from the waist. After a burst of ear – piercing friction sound, the raw stone was also cut in half. Everyone’s eyes fell on the cut in unison. After the clear water flowed over it, there was still no green at all. Suddenly, there was a wave of sighs. The onlookers looked at Xia ruofei with sympathy and some gloated. Everyone was talking about Xia ruofei’s unwise behavior. Cheng Junhua’s expression became even more relaxed. In his eyes, 300000 Yuan was too easy a win. Xia ruofei’s expression did not change. He fixed the cut stone back to the machine, turned on the power, and continued cutting. With the roar of the machine, the half of the raw stone was cut into many small stones. However, just as everyone had predicted, there was no Jade in it. Cheng Junhua could not help but say sarcastically, “This is the first time I’ve seen someone cut a stone so thoroughly! It’s already cut like this and there’s still no green, you have nothing to say now, right?” Xia ruofei pointed at the other half of the raw stone indifferently and said, “I’m only halfway through! Didn’t you cut that piece over there? What’s the hurry!” When Xia ruofei was examining the two raw gemstones, he realized that the painting did not react at all when he held one half in his hand. However, when he held the other half, the painting started to vibrate. This meant that all the Jade in the raw stone was concentrated in the other half. Just now, Xia ruofei had intentionally cut the half without the Jade first with a hint of mischief. Cheng Junhua snorted coldly and said, “you really won’t shed tears until you see the coffin!” I’ll wait here and see what you have to say after I cut open the other half!” Boss Chen watched from the side and shook his head secretly. He also thought that Xia ruofei would lose for sure. He was just holding on. The corners of Xia ruofei’s mouth curled up, revealing a meaningful smile. He calmly cleaned the stones on the machine, and then slowly fixed the other half of the raw stone on the machine. Xia ruofei turned on the power and operated the cutting blade to cut the half of the raw stone.

The cutting blade slowly cut into the raw stone, making a sharp friction sound. However, they were not as nervous as they usually were when they were cutting stones. Almost everyone was waiting to see Xia ruofei make a fool of himself, especially Cheng Junhua, who had made a bet with Xia ruofei. Boss Chen sighed in his heart. He felt that Xia ruofei was young and full of vigor. This time, he was going to suffer a big loss. The raw stone was not big, and it was quickly cut into two. Xia ruofei brought over a basin of clear water and poured some water on the cut surface to wash off the stone powder. Seeing Xia ruofei's serious look, Cheng Junhua couldn't help but mock, "Brat, you're not trying to buy time, are you? Don't dilly – dally! I'm still waiting to win money and leave ..." Just as Cheng Junhua finished speaking, someone beside him exclaimed, "It's Green! It was green! A huge increase ..." The onlookers were excited all of a sudden and squeezed forward, wanting to see what kind of Jade could be cut out of this raw stone of extremely poor quality. The two halves of the mirror were full of green, and the onlookers were in an uproar. "Young man, quickly wipe it clean and let us see it clearly!" "Aiya! What a pity, this is a whole piece of Imperial Jade! It's cut in half from the middle by this young man, so its value will be much lower ..." "He's just a free gift. He didn't spend a single cent. No matter what, he's making a big profit!" There were all sorts of comments, and even boss Chen was almost squeezed out of the crowd. He had to maintain order loudly. If a raw stone that was worth hundreds of thousands of Yuan or even millions of Yuan had an Emerald, people might not be so excited. It would be strange if it didn't come out! However, this trash gift actually had Jade, and it was a huge increase. Everyone's mood immediately changed. One blade to heaven, one blade to hell, the excitement of stone gambling was precisely here. The fat rich man, Cheng Junhua, was completely stunned. He couldn't believe his eyes. He felt like he was dreaming. Did that trashy raw stone really have a huge increase in green? What kind of F * cking luck does that kid have! This kind of almost zero – Probability thing had actually happened. Cheng Junhua's heart bled at the thought of losing three hundred thousand Yuan. However, the people around them were just enjoying the show. They didn't care about Cheng Junhua's feelings at all. They were still discussing and marveling at him. Soon, the cut surface was cleaned, and everyone could see it more clearly. An expert immediately said, "It's an ice glutinous species! The water head was pretty good! It'll definitely increase by a lot!" There were also people who started bidding on the spot. "Little brother, the quality of your raw stone is not bad. I'll pay 80000. Sell it to me!" "You have the nerve to bid 80000? Little brother, I'll give you a real price, 100000! I'll pay in cash!" "One hundred and twenty thousand, I'll take it ..." One after another, the bids rose, and the price quickly soared to 150000. Xia ruofei smiled and stood up. He raised his voice. "Everyone, I'm sorry, but I still have a use for this Jade. I'm not selling it!" The onlookers immediately quieted down when they heard this, but they didn't feel too regretful. After all, this raw stone was not big, and the quality of the Jade could only be said to be above average, not the kind of top – grade Jade. Xia ruofei said to the stonecutter, "Master, I'll have to trouble you to help me with the rest!" "Good, good, good!" The stonecutter quickly said. As the stone was being cut, the onlookers still didn't leave. They all wanted to know how much valuable the Jade would be after all the stones were cut out. Cheng Junhua's eyes were wide open as he watched, praying that Xia ruofei was just lucky enough to cut the outer layer of the Jade. There would be no more Jade if he cut further in. Of course, even Cheng Junhua himself did not believe that there was no Jade inside the stone. He could only comfort himself. The stonecutter skillfully cut open the whole raw stone, and then carefully wiped off the outer Stone Skin. After more than half an hour, two fist – sized jadeite were completely cut out. "It's the ice glutinous type. These two pieces of jade are worth at least two or three hundred thousand Yuan!" "This young man's luck is really heaven – defying!" "Boss Chen, the shop next to yours has free gifts, right? I'm going to spend some now and get a free raw stone to play with!" "Let's go together! I'll go too!" People who gambled on stones believed in luck. The price of Xia ruofei's raw stone rose sharply. Even the gift that was originally placed in the corner of the shop next door, which was scoffed at by the experts, immediately became a hot commodity. In an instant, more than half of the people rushed to the shop next door. Spending more than twenty thousand Yuan to get a free raw stone was a piece of cake for these buyers. Boss Chen did not expect that Xia ruofei's stone cutting would have such an effect. He was overjoyed. Today's sales in the Jade Shop were going to increase again, and it was all thanks to Xia ruofei! The way he looked at Xia ruofei became friendlier. Xia ruofei put the two pieces of jade into his bag and looked at Cheng Junhua. Then, he said to boss Chen, "Boss Chen, you're a witness. There shouldn't be any surprises with the result of this bet, right?" "Of course!" Boss Chen said with a smile, "so many people are watching!" Little brother, you've won this bet! Director Cheng, you don't object to it, right?" Cheng Junhua's face turned as dark as a pig's liver, like a defeated rooster. Although 300,000 was not a big sum to him, it was still quite painful to lose. Especially after he had lost so much face in front of so many people, it made his heart itch with hatred. However, the truth was right in front of him, and he could not deny it at all. He just snorted coldly and did not speak with a gloomy face. Xia ruofei said, "just transfer the 300000 to spirit Jade house. I still need to buy jade from boss Chen. Just deduct it from the payment." "No problem!" Boss Chen said with a smile. Soon, the waiter brought the credit card machine over. He swiped Cheng Junhua's card and transferred 300000 Yuan. Cheng Junhua entered the password with a dark expression. After the transfer was successful, he took the card and left without a word. Boss Chen warmly invited Xia ruofei to a cubicle in the shop. He personally made tea for Xia ruofei and then asked, "Little brother, what's your name?" "My surname is Xia!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "boss Chen, I want to buy some Jade from you. I'll buy the first batch for 300000 Yuan! If we work well together, I'll buy from you for a long time, and the demand will be even greater in the future." "Sure!" Boss Chen said happily. Brother Xia, do you have any requirements for the quality of the Jade?" Xia ruofei pondered for a moment and said, "of course, it's best if it's of a higher quality. At the very least, I'll have the ice – nuo type jade like today!" Boss Chen, can you provide it here?" Boss Chen knew what to do when he heard that. He was afraid that if Xia ruofei wanted to buy the king's Green, even Lingyu house might not be able to produce it immediately. As long as Xia ruofei could get the highest quality and the worst ice glutinous type, it would be easy. "No problem! I'll immediately inform people to prepare! A batch of Jade just came in two days ago, so 300000 Yuan in stock is no problem!" "Then, thank you, boss Chen!" Xia ruofei said. "You're welcome! I should be the one thanking you for taking care of my business!" Boss Chen said as he handed over his business card, "brother Xia, this is my business card. Next time you need anything, just call me directly!" Xia ruofei took the name card and said, "I don't have a business card yet, I'll give you my phone number!" Then, Xia ruofei gave boss Chen his number. The two of them sat and chatted for a while. Then, someone knocked on the door and came in to tell them that the Jade that Xia ruofei wanted was ready. A small bag of Jade was worth 300000 Yuan. Xia ruofei didn't know much about Jade, but he had a spirit map with him. He could tell the value of jade from the reaction of the scroll, so he didn't have to worry about being cheated. He opened the bag and picked up the pieces of jade to check. As expected, the spirit paintings all had different reactions. This meant that boss Chen was running the business with integrity and didn't give him fake goods to fool him. Xia ruofei kept the bag of Jade with satisfaction and said to boss Chen, "Boss Chen, the Jade is pretty good! Then let's settle the deal!" The 300,000 that Cheng Junhua had lost to Xia ruofei was enough to pay for the goods. He did not have to pay a single cent to get the Jade. There was no better deal than this. Speaking of which, he had to thank that nouveau riche! "Hahaha! Thank you, brother Xia, for taking care of my business!" Boss Chen said forthrightly, "next time, call me directly if you need anything!" "Alright!" Xia ruofei said. After he politely refused boss Chen's invitation to dinner, he left the spirit Jade house with the bag of Jade. He went to the parking lot to get his car and drove straight to the holiday villa in the suburbs. Xia ruofei couldn't wait to go back and let the spirit map scroll continue to absorb the Jade to see if it could evolve again.

Chapter 59: Another evolution_1

After returning to the bedroom in the villa, Xia ruofei locked the door and took out the Jade and the Jade bracelet that he had obtained that day. Speaking of which, these things cost him 40000 Yuan in total to buy the bracelet. The two pieces of icy jade were cut from the raw stones that were given to him, and the other Jade that was worth 300000 Yuan was won from a bet. Xia ruofei took out the spirit map scroll as well. He picked up the Jade bangle first, then used his mind to communicate with the spirit map space. The bangle was immediately sucked into the space. He used his mind to check on the spirit map space and found that there were no changes in the space. However, he was mentally prepared for the Jade paperweight to be absorbed during the first evolution of the space. The Jade paperweight was far larger than the bracelet in both material and size. Xia ruofei judged that the amount of Jade needed for the second evolution would definitely be more than the first. Hence, it was within his expectations that the bracelet would not evolve after absorbing the space. He didn't stop. He immediately picked up the two icy jade from the free raw stones and let the spirit map space absorb them. After absorbing the icy waxy Jade, the space still didn't change. Xia ruofei could only take out the bag of jades worth 300000 Yuan. There were five or six pieces of jade in it. They were all absorbed by the scroll until there was only the smallest piece of Jade left. Xia ruofei suddenly felt that his connection with the space had become closer. He quickly used his mind to check and found that the spirit map space had finally evolved again. Xia ruofei looked at the remaining small piece of Jade and could not help but smile bitterly. The Jade that was used for the second evolution was worth 500000 Yuan. Although the Jade did not cost that much, Xia ruofei still felt a heartache. If the second evolution was already like this, the next time he wanted to evolve the space, he would probably have to spend several times more Jade. Xia ruofei had thought that he was making money very quickly, but now it seemed that he had to work harder if he wanted the realm to continue to evolve. The money he earned from selling vegetables and meat was barely enough to fill the gaps of his teeth if he were to exchange it for Jade. However, Xia ruofei did not dwell on it for too long. His mind had already flown into the space. He could not wait to see what changes the space had undergone after the evolution. Xia ruofei entered the spirit map space. After the familiar dizziness had passed, Xia ruofei took a deep breath in the space and realized that the air was fresher. He felt like he was floating as he took a deep breath. It was like the legendary paradise on earth. The size of the space doubled again, becoming a full four acres. The spirit pool in the middle of the space had also become four meters in diameter. Xia ruofei also realized that a "mini" stream had appeared in the space. It was called a "mini" because the width of the stream was only 40 to 50 centimeters. It was actually just a small ditch. The source of the stream was the spirit pond. After winding for more than ten meters, it formed a pond with a diameter of about two meters in a depression. Xia ruofei was most concerned about the nameless plant. After checking the changes in the space, he quickly walked to the nameless plant by the pond. Xia ruofei was overjoyed. Just as he had expected, the flower that he had just picked this afternoon grew again, and this time, there was an additional petal. The flower now was made up of five petals, and the latest petal was purple. The whole flower looked more harmonious and natural, as if it contained the ultimate truth of heaven and earth. Xia ruofei was overjoyed. Just this extra purple petal was worth the 500000 Yuan of Jade! After admiring it for a while, he carefully picked all the petals with a tweezer and stored them in a preservation box with a trace of reluctance. He walked around the space and tidied up the mess. Then, he came to the newly formed pond. Looking at the small pond in front of him, Xia ruofei thought for a while and felt that he should make full use of the resources because he needed to earn more money. Only by making more money could he buy more Jade, which would promote the realm's upgrade and evolution, and thus produce more benefits, forming a virtuous cycle. This pond was filled with spirit pond water, so it could be used to rear fish and prawns. He believed that in the unique environment of the spirit map space, the fish raised in the spirit pond water would definitely become a top – Class ingredient. Of course, after some exploration, he could also breed some fish with higher value in the space. There was also the flow of time in the space, so no matter what it grew, it would definitely mature quickly. Thinking about the flow of time, Xia ruofei immediately left the medium. He found the small alarm clock and sent it into the medium with his mind to test it again. Soon, the results were out. As expected, the time flow in the spirit map space had evolved again. Now, the time flow inside and outside was a full twenty times different! After a round of inspection, Xia ruofei left the spirit map space and kept the spirit map scroll that had evolved again. Then, he lay comfortably on the deck chair on the balcony and basked in the sun. He squinted his eyes slightly, and Ling Qingxue's beautiful figure flashed through his mind. 'This girl hasn't contacted me for a few days ...' Xia ruofei thought to himself. He muttered to himself for a moment, then reached out for his phone, ready to give Ling Qingxue a call. Previously, the collaboration with Ling Ji restaurant had been halted because of he Dong's interference. Xia ruofei knew that Ling Qingxue must have been feeling terrible these few days and might still be working hard on the collaboration. Now that the name of paradise organic vegetables had been fully established, the company and the registered trademark would soon be registered. Everything was going according to Xia ruofei's plan, and it was time to let Ling Qingxue know. In the Nantai District of San Shan city, the headquarters of the Ling Ji food and beverage group was located here. It was a 13 – story building. The first to eighth floors were office buildings for rent, while the ninth to thirteenth floors were the office floors of the lingji food and beverage group. In a large conference room on the 12th floor, the middle and senior management of the Ling Ji food and beverage group were having a meeting. Sitting in the middle of the long conference table was Ling Qingxue's father, Ling Xiaotian. This person in charge of Ling Ji restaurant was around 50 years old. His square face exuded an air of authority and power. As he sat down, he naturally made people feel a sense of respect. The Vice President, director, and department manager of the company sat on both sides according to their ranks. As the manager of the finance department, Ling Qingxue and he Dong, the manager of the purchasing department, happened to be facing each other. He Dong often looked up to steal glances at Ling Qingxue, but Ling Qingxue's face was always as cold as ice, and she didn't give he Dong a good look. The meeting today was to discuss how to solve some of the current difficulties and the future development momentum of the group. The current situation was that the Ling Ji restaurant's main competitor, Ming Hao restaurant, was very aggressive. They hired a famous chef whose ancestor was said to be a Royal Chef as the Executive Head Chef at a high price. They launched several royal dishes in a row, and their performance soared. On the other hand, Ling Ji's restaurant was the exact opposite. They didn't come up with anything new in terms of their food. In addition, there was a small dispute a few days ago. A customer vomited and had diarrhea after returning home. Then, he insisted that it was a food hygiene problem at Ling Ji's restaurant. The trouble came every two or three days, making things worse. Now, a few chain stores were deserted and their business was not as good as before. This made Ling Xiaotian very anxious. The Department managers and senior executives were also very positive, but they didn't put forward any constructive opinions. Ling Xiaotian frowned slightly, his gaze falling on his daughter Ling Qingxue. Ever since he had rejected Ling Qingxue's request to cooperate with Xia ruofei the day before yesterday, Ling Qingxue had been cold to him, her father.

Today, she was even more absent – minded in the meeting, which made Ling Xiaotian even more unhappy. He frowned and asked, “Qingxue, stop looking at your phone! You tell me! Do you have any better ideas?”

Chapter 60: A battle of words (1)

Ling Qingxue closed her phone and said calmly, “The most direct way is, of course, to look for a new chef! However, I’m afraid it’s not easy to find someone who is as capable and famous as the Executive Head Chef of Ming Hao restaurant in a hurry ...” Ling Xiaotian frowned slightly and said, “We’ve discussed this just now. The Human Resources Department will contact the headhunting company, but this can’t be solved in a day or two! Say something useful.” Ling Qingxue shrugged and said, “Since this method can’t quench our thirst, we can only find another breakthrough. I’ve proposed to make an issue of the quality of the ingredients, but my proposal has been rejected by you. Other than this, I don’t have any better ideas.” This girl’s resentment was still very deep! The day before yesterday, when she returned home, she had already mentioned this to Ling Xiaotian. However, she didn’t know what he Dong had said to Ling Xiaotian, but Ling Xiaotian didn’t listen to her explanation. He only said that there couldn’t be any compromises when it came to food safety issues, and that ingredients that didn’t have an authoritative test report were strictly not allowed to enter. Ling Qingxue’s next words were completely sealed off. Ling Qingxue naturally felt indignant. Whether it was public or private, she felt that her father was biased and believed in an outsider’s words, but he didn’t listen to his own daughter’s words. It was really unreasonable. Ling Xiaotian’s brows furrowed even more as he said, “Qingxue, let’s not talk about this plan today!” He said in his heart, “Qingxue is getting more and more insensible!” It seemed that what Xiao He said was true. She must have been deceived by the student who sold vegetables! At this moment, he Dong, who had not spoken all this time, suddenly said, “Chairman Ling, I think Qingxue’s opinion makes a lot of sense!” Ling Xiaotian’s brows raised in surprise. Even Ling Qingxue couldn’t help but look at he Dong with a strange expression. “Was he out of his mind? You’ve been trying all sorts of underhanded methods to stop my plan. Why did your attitude suddenly take a 180 – degree turn today? Ling Xiaotian quickly regained his normal expression and said indifferently, “Little he, tell me the details!” He Dong seemed to be very satisfied with the effect of his words. He looked around at the crowd, cleared his throat, and then said in a clear voice, “The reason is very simple. Everyone has analyzed it just now. Other than finding an Outstanding Chef as soon as possible, what we can do is nothing more than to improve the management system, further improve the service level, and most importantly, make an issue of the ingredients!” He Dong paused, then continued, “Actually, I’ve always agreed with Qingxue’s opinion. If Ling Ji F & B can find a phenomenal ingredient that can subvert the market, we can definitely turn the tables! But ...” Speaking up to here, he Dong’s tone changed and he said, “The reason why I objected to Qingxue’s proposal the last time was not because I didn’t agree with this idea. I was completely thinking from the company’s perspective. After my field study and judgment, I feel that the partner Qingxue found has no ability to guarantee food safety. Moreover, the quality of the ingredients provided is very ordinary. It’s impossible to have a disruptive impact on the market ...” “You’re talking nonsense!” Ling Qingxue’s face turned red with anger. “You didn’t even look at it ...” “Qingxue, let Xiao He finish his words!” Ling Xiaotian interrupted Ling Qingxue’s words with some displeasure. Ling Qingxue snorted coldly and shut her mouth. She glanced coldly at he Dong, her loathing for this despicable person growing. He Dong revealed a faint smile and continued, “That’s why I’m only doing this for the sake of the public. If Qingxue is unhappy because I’m performing my duties as the manager of the procurement department, I can apologize!”

Ling Qingxue sat expressionlessly in her seat. She didn't even lift her eyelids, not reacting to he Dong's words at all. He Dong didn't mind and continued," "Back to the topic just now, I actually agree with Qingxue's train of thought. The problem is that we need to find the top – grade ingredients that can really affect the food industry of three mountains restaurant. I've been keeping an eye on related information, and I happened to notice a piece of news recently. I think this is an opportunity for our company!" "Oh? What's the news?" Ling Xiaotian asked with some interest. He Dong smiled with confidence and said," "I don't know if any of you here have heard of the Tao Yuan brand organic vegetables?" He Dong's words caused the group's senior executives to start discussing in hushed voices. These two days, the Tao Yuan brand organic vegetables had been in the limelight! Ordinary people might not know, but these people in the food and beverage industry, and they were at least at the manager level, how could they not have heard? Ling Xiaotian's eyes also lit up as he asked," "Xiao He, are you talking about the Taoyuan brand organic vegetables launched by the West River Moon Club?" He Dong smiled and nodded," "I think this is the real top – grade vegetable. It's also our ..." The sound of a phone ringing interrupted he Dong's words. Everyone looked over and saw Ling Qingxue take out her phone and look at the caller ID. Her face instantly revealed a happy expression, and she immediately stood up and walked out of the meeting room with her phone. Ling Xiaotian glared at his daughter in anger and said," "It's getting more and more outrageous ..." The company's executives and managers all had strange expressions, but this was the Chairman's family matter, so they could only lower their heads and pretend not to see it. Ling Xiaotian took a few deep breaths and said," "Xiao He, continue!" He Dong looked at Ling Qingxue's empty seat, then said," "Chairman, I think if the group can reach an agreement with the West River Moon Club and buy some of Tao Yuan brand organic vegetables from them, the performance will definitely rebound! With the celebrity effect of the organic vegetables, it will definitely attract a lot of popularity!" Ling Xiaotian laughed bitterly,"little he, you didn't see how hot these vegetables are!" Even the West River Moon Club is limited in supply, and they even put it up for auction. Do you think they'll give us some? That's not realistic ..." He Dong, however, said with a confident smile,""Chairman, we all know that the so – called auction and queuing are just a means of hunger marketing by the Xi Jiang Moon Club. Although the peach Garden vegetables were very rare, the supply would definitely not be that small! I have an acquaintance who is in charge of purchasing at the West River Moon Club. He told me that their President Zheng is personally in charge of purchasing Taoyuan vegetables. Although he doesn't know much about the specific situation, there is one thing that is very important to us!" "Oh? What's the situation?" Ling Xiaotian raised his eyebrows and asked. He Dong said with a smile,"my friend told me that President Zheng has revealed that this paradise vegetable supplier has a long – term partnership with the Xijiang Moon Club. In the future, the supply will only get bigger and bigger. President Zheng is prepared to act as the agent for this brand in the future and directly sell this vegetable to the entire province!" He Dong paused for a moment before continuing."Chairman Ling, I think that under these circumstances, we can totally do some work in the Xi Jiang Moon Club. Since they're going to sell vegetables in the future, why don't we make the first move and reach an agreement with Xi Jiang Yue in advance?" "Moreover, the supply will increase in the future. As long as we pay enough, President Zheng might give us a small portion of the existing supply now? If that's the case, the gimmick of paradise vegetables alone is enough to bring us a lot of popularity!" As Ling Xiaotian pondered over he Dong's words, he nodded his head continuously. It was obvious that he agreed with he Dong's point of view, and was moved by his words. Seeing this, he Dong's heart also bloomed with joy. Ever since he realized that it would be very difficult for Ling Qingxue to make a breakthrough, he had begun to shift his focus and put in all his effort to win Ling Xiaotian's favor. As long as Ling Xiaotian appreciated him, coupled with the great kindness his father had shown Ling Xiaotian, he would definitely be able to win the beauty back! His performance today had definitely increased Ling Xiaotian's impression of him, and he Dong was both happy and proud. At that moment, the door of the meeting room was pushed open. Ling Qingxue had just finished her call and walked in. The executives and managers realized that Ling Qingxue, who had been as cold as ice a moment ago, suddenly looked radiant. There was even a faint smile on her lips. Her entire person had suddenly become bright and beautiful. Even many of the younger managers couldn't help but be dazed. Ling Qingxue walked back to her seat and looked at he Dong, who was sitting across from her with a sneer on her face. She asked, "If I didn't hear it wrong, what manager he meant just now ... Is that you're saying that Tao Yuan brand organic vegetables are undeniably the top quality ingredients?"
