

God tier Farm 521

Chapter 521: A deep sense of powerlessness (1)

Xia ruofei could already see Huo Dun Qian Qian from the corner of his eyes. He had no choice. His fat pig – like body was too big a target.

Xia ruofei stood up and said, “Old Mr. Tang, since the lawsuit has been arranged, let’s go! There’s nothing much to do at the airport. ”

“Sure!” Tang He said with a smile.

His original intention was to teach the customs officer a lesson, but after Jorgensen came back and reported what happened, he changed his mind. He had to destroy this villain’s reputation and make him a rat on the street.

The two of them stood up and walked out of the airport. Liang Qichao quickly followed them.

Smith saw that the person in question was about to leave, so he hurriedly jogged after him, shouting, “Please wait a moment, Mr. Tang!”

Two burly bodyguards blocked the two’s path. Their expressions were cold, and their thick arms stretched out, blocking the two of them.

“Mr. Tang, I’m very sorry for what happened today. Please give us a chance to explain!” Smith quickly shouted.

Tang He’s footsteps paused slightly. He turned to look at Xia ruofei and said with a smile, “Xia, do you want to hear what they have to say?”

“Not interested at all!” Xia ruofei shrugged.

Tang He raised his head and laughed, “Let’s go!”

After that, the two of them walked towards the exit without looking back.

“Mr. Jorgensen, please help me,” Smith quickly called out. Everything that happened today was a misunderstanding. We will definitely punish Houton severely ...”

Jorgensen stopped and turned around. He said expressionlessly, “Mr. Smith, I’ve already asked Mr. Tang. He’s very indignant about what happened today! We’ve decided to entrust Lucas law firm to file a lawsuit against Mr. Horton for his words and actions of racial discrimination. At the same time, we will also Lodge a serious protest to your superiors in the name of shengbang group regarding the work of Sydney’s customs! There’s no room for discussion on this matter, so you’re on your own!”

When Smith and Houton heard that, they were dumbfounded as if they had been struck by lightning.

Lucas law firm was really famous and well – known!

The rich and powerful shengbang group was a super consortium with great influence all over the world.

Hutton was really courting death today. He had kicked the Titanium Alloy Plate directly ...

Hutton's face was ashen, and the fat on his face trembled. He asked, "Mr. Smith, what should we do?"

Smith glared at Houton and said angrily, "Who knows what we should do! Houton, you'd better think about how to deal with the court case! By the way, you don't have to come to work from today on. I'll write your behavior in the report, and your dismissal notice will be sent to your house in three days at the latest!"

Upon hearing this, Huo Dun felt as if his parents had died and the sky was about to collapse.

In Australia, the federal civil servants were almost permanent. Unless they made a major mistake, they would not be fired.

But today, not only was he caught in the act of racial discrimination and was about to go to court, but he had also offended a super consortium like shengbang group, which even the federal government had to treat with respect. His direct supervisor, Mr. Smith, had written everything in the report truthfully, so his dismissal was almost inevitable.

The treatment of Australian civil servants was quite good. They were paid well, their working hours were not long, and they basically did not have to work overtime. They also had at least 20 days of annual leave. After working for 10 years, they could enjoy a long leave with full pay for half a year. The working hours were free, and many departments could choose their own working hours, such as 8 to 15 O' clock or 9 to 16 o' clock; Even after working for more than a year, one could apply for part – time, which meant that one could work part – time three to four days a week. Of course, the corresponding benefits would be slightly reduced.

It could be said that apart from China, there was no other civil service position in the world that would attract countless young people to sign up for. Australia was definitely one of them.

To be able to become a civil servant in Australia, whether it was a federal civil servant or a state government civil servant, one had to go through many trials and tribulations. The opportunity was definitely hard to come by.

Now that he was about to lose this well – paid job, how could Houton accept this reality?

"Mr. Smith, you can't do this!" He begged. I'm just carrying out my duties. Even if the standards for Chinese passengers are relatively harsh, you can't fire me for that!"

Smith sneered, "Hutton!" Is it also because of the strict standards that they call Chinese travelers 'Chinaman'?"

"I ..." Houton was suddenly at a loss for words. He struggled in his heart for a long time, and as if he had found a life – saving straw, he shouted, "Mr. Smith, they have no evidence! At that time, only Jones, me, and the Chinese woman heard it! However, this is not absolute evidence. She did not record or video ..."

Smith looked at Houton in disgust and said, "Do you think that with Mr. Lucas in court, your arguments will have any hope of winning? Also, do you mean that you want Jones to perfect himself?"

"I didn't mean that, Mr. Smith ..."

"I don't want to talk to you anymore, Mr. Hutton!" Smith said impatiently, "from now on, you are suspended! Now, I need to go back and think about how to deal with that damn complaint! As for you ..."

Chapter 522: A deep sense of powerlessness (2)

Smith shrugged his shoulders and spread his hands. "Good luck!"

"Mr. Smith ..." He said.

Smith ignored Horton's plea and quickly left the airport Hall. Horton almost fell to the ground as if his bones had been pulled out.

He stood in the lobby of the airport in a daze. The feeling of falling from the clouds to hell was too uncomfortable. When he thought about how he was about to face unemployment, court lawsuits, and a Super Lawyer like Lucas, he felt as if a mountain was pressing down on his heart.

It was like an ant standing in front of an elephant, feeling a deep sense of powerlessness.

In the past, he had always been the one who made things difficult for the Chinese. His sense of superiority in front of Chinese tourists had made him feel more and more superior. This time, he had finally kicked an iron plate.

If Houton was Chinese, he would definitely sigh in his heart. This was the cycle of the heavens and retribution!

When the Chinese girl and the old couple saw this, they were filled with joy.

Especially when the black – haired and yellow – skinned Tang He and Xia ruofei completely ignored Smith and turned around to leave, the Chinese people at the scene suddenly felt a sense of exaltation.

They ran out of the airport Hall at the same time. In addition to the Chinese girl and the old couple, there was also a young woman in her late twenties, Qianqian, who was the daughter of the old couple.

The old couple had originally wanted to help their daughter take care of her confinement, but the application to go abroad had been delayed again and again. By the time they arrived, their grandson was already a month old.

Her daughter, who had just finished her confinement, also came to pick her up. She had just heard the Chinese girl's story about what had happened at the customs inspection, and she was also filled with righteous indignation.

An extended Bentley that had been strictly modified was parked quietly by the side of the airport exit.

When Tang He and Xia ruofei walked to the car, the bodyguards had already opened the door in advance.

Just as the two of them were about to get into the car, a voice rang out from behind them.

"Gentlemen, please wait a moment!"

Tang He's bodyguard immediately moved a few steps forward, ready to stop the uninvited guests.

When Jorgensen saw who it was, he immediately reported to Tang He.

Tang He smiled and said, ""Don't stop them. "

The bodyguards immediately made way for him.

The Huaxia girl walked over quickly. She was still panting a little, and her pretty face was blushing.

Behind her, three other people were walking towards them. It was the old couple's family.

The old man was not as strong as the young man, so he was left behind.

The Chinese lady came to Tang He and Xia ruofei and bowed. ""Thank you for today!"

The Chinese girl didn't know Tang He's background, but their behavior today made her feel sincere respect.

In a foreign country where Chinese people were generally treated differently, this kind of support from their own kind was more able to move the hearts of these foreign travelers.

Tang He chuckled and said, "if you want to thank someone, thank little Xia!" My original intention was only to stand up for him ..."

The Chinese lady looked at Xia ruofei from head to toe and thanked him with a blush on her face.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you're welcome. All the Chinese in the world are one family!" Overseas, we Chinese have to be United!"

"Well said, young man!"

The old couple had also walked over. It was the old man who had just spoken.

He walked in front of Xia ruofei and said, ""When the Australian was making things difficult for you, we saw it from the back of the line. We were all very angry, but when it was our turn, he became even more aggressive ..."

"Elder brother, if you want to win others" respect, you have to have a bigger fist!" Tang He suddenly said with emotion, "today, our fists were bigger than theirs, so they gave in. However, if we want to change this situation, we need a strong country. Our country is the strongest backing for everyone!"

Tang He had been working hard in Chinatown since he was young and had earned a huge family business. He had tasted all the ups and downs, all kinds of discrimination and eye – Rolling, so he was particularly touched.

It was the same for Xia ruofei. He had once represented the Chinese military in an International Scout competition. At that time, the tall and strong Western Special Forces looked down on the Chinese military. However, Xia ruofei and his comrades had used their strength to teach them how to be good people. In the end, the Chinese military team that had won many gold medals had also received sincere respect from the participating teams of various countries.

Xia ruofei thought of this and smiled. ""Mr. Tang, our national power is getting stronger and stronger. I believe that in the near future, the situation of the overseas Chinese will be greatly improved!"

Although China did not have the words “no matter where you are, the US government and Army will always support you” written on your passport like in the United States, China’s protection of the Chinese overseas was also very solid and step – by – Step.

In recent years, the evacuation of overseas Chinese nationals had also reflected the gradual growth of China’s overall National Strength. For the overseas Chinese, such an evacuation operation was undoubtedly like a shot in the arm.

After hearing Xia ruofei’s words, everyone nodded in agreement.

The old couple’s daughter also came forward and expressed her sincere gratitude to Xia ruofei and Tang He.

She had heard the story of her parents from the Chinese girl outside. After knowing what had happened to her parents, she was so heartbroken that she shed tears. The old woman had moved from place to place to take care of her and her child at such an old age. Not only had she been exhausted from the journey, but she had also been deliberately picked on and even insulted when she entered the country. As a daughter, she felt extremely guilty and sad.

Therefore, she was very grateful to Xia ruofei and Tang He.

Everyone had never lived in peace, but because they were from the same country, they naturally felt a sense of kinship in this foreign land.

They chatted for a while at the entrance of the airport before splitting up.

When they were bidding each other farewell, Xia ruofei smiled and said, “By the way, Mr. Tang and I have opened a farm in the Hunter Valley called Paradise Farm. You can go there for a vacation when you have time! This is manager Liang, the person in charge of Paradise Farm. You can just contact him when the time comes!”

The old couple’s daughter said happily, “That’s great! I’m planning to bring my parents to the Hunter Valley for a trip!”

The Hunter Valley was not far from Sydney and was a famous tourist attraction. It was not easy for the two elders to come to Australia, so she was prepared to take them on a trip.

Hearing this, Liang Qichao immediately gave each of them a name card and said, “Just find me at the Hunter Valley! We’ll take care of all the food, accommodation, and transportation ...”

After bidding farewell to their fellow countrymen, Xia ruofei and the rest got into the car and left Sydney’s Kingsford Smith Airport.

The Hunter Valley was located about 160 kilometers north of Sydney. It was the largest Valley in New South Wales and was a famous tourist spot in Australia. It was also the most historical grape – producing area in Australia.

There were more than 120 wineries and all kinds of exquisite resort hotels in the Hunter Valley area. It was only a two – hour drive from the central city of Sydney, which made the Hunter Valley an endless stream of tourists all year round.

The extended Bentley quickly drove away from downtown Sydney and onto the highway.

There were many private cars on the way to the Hunter Valley, but they could not pick up their speed. However, the blue sky and the vast grassland outside the car window made them feel relaxed and happy. It did not matter if they were slow on such a journey.

In all fairness, even though he had encountered many unpleasant things when he entered the country, the environment of Australia had left a very good impression on Xia ruofei.

Sydney's Blue sky and natural scenery along the way was a rare experience for Xia ruofei, who was used to traffic jams and haze in China.

He even saw little koalas quickly crossing the highway, and as the car got closer to the Hunter Valley, kangaroos could be seen everywhere.

They weren't afraid of people at all. When the car drove past them, they would look at the black metal guy with curious eyes. Then, they slowly stood up on their hind legs and jumped away from the roadside with their strong hind legs.

More than two hours later, the extended Bentley finally arrived at its destination.

Looking at the English sign 'Paradise Farm' hanging at the entrance of the farm, Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel a little excited.

This is my first overseas business!

Chapter 523: Paradise farmy...1

The farm guards quickly removed the roadblocks, and the extended Bentley slowly drove into paradise Farm.

What entered his eyes was a boundless grassland. The green grass swayed slightly in the breeze, setting off the blue sky and white clouds, making one feel relaxed and happy.

This was a six – thousand – hectare farm! In addition to the undulating terrain, it was basically impossible to see the edge with the naked eye.

As the Bentley drove through the picturesque farm, Liang Qichao introduced the place to them,""Ruofei, our Paradise Farm covers an area of about 6000 hectares and is distributed in a narrow and long shape. It's about 4 kilometers wide from east to west and 15 kilometers from north to south. There are man – made lakes and rivers in the farm, so it has rich water and fertile land. Currently, the farm is mainly engaged in animal husbandry, with a total of more than 30000 sheep and 3000 Angus cows, the annual output value is about 8 million Australian dollars. "

At that moment, the car passed by a very new – looking building. Liang Qichao pointed at the building outside and said,""This is my grandpa's purebred horse breeding base. It covers an area of about 150 hectares, with a special track that can be fully irrigated, an all – Weather track, a swimming pool for horses, and a training ground that can accommodate 78 horses at the same time. This is my grandpa's treasure!"

Tang He couldn't help but laugh. He looked at the purebred horse base outside with pride.

Xia ruofei nodded with a smile. He understood this situation. When they signed the contract, Tang He specifically mentioned that this purebred horse breeding base would be independent, including the ownership of all the facilities and horse racing. The operation and management of the purebred horse breeding base would also be decided by Tang He alone. It would not change because of the change in the ownership of the farm.

"I'll definitely come over and take a good look when I have time!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I heard that elder Tang has a few world – Class horse races under his name."

"Hahaha! Then you're here! I bought a new horse this year, fiont, and it's living and training in this breeding base!" Tang He raised his head and laughed.

Tang He loved good food and horse racing. He had collected many of the world's top horse racing horses and his horses often won gold and silver in major competitions around the world, earning him a lot of honor.

The car continued to drive forward, and soon a small farm located by an artificial lake came into view.

Liang Qichao said with a smile, "ruofei, other than the breeding base for purebred horses, our farm also has a farm, including a small villa, a warehouse, a veterinarian station, and ten ordinary houses. In addition, we also have a complete feeding shed, helipad, isolation house, and other facilities. You can say that the degree of modernization is still very high."

The farm was the end of the trip. The car stopped in front of a small and exquisite villa.

The group alighted from the car. Xia ruofei took a deep breath. The air in Hunter Valley was filled with the unique fragrance of grapes. This was the most famous wine – producing area in all of Australia.

The man – made Lake next to it was sparkling, and there were a few swans swimming in the water. From time to time, birds would fly across the water, leaving behind ripples. In the distance was a green grassland. The afternoon sun was just right, making people feel a little lazy.

This was definitely a good place for a vacation! Xia ruofei sighed in his heart.

"Brother Liang, no wonder you look so good. I'm a little jealous of you ..." Xia ruofei said half – jokingly.

"Why don't you give up on your business in China and come to Australia to focus on running this farm?" Liang Qichao laughed.

Xia ruofei suddenly said gloomily, "I wish!" But that's not realistic at all. At least in the short term, the focus of my career will definitely be in China ..."

Liang Qichao shrugged and said, "then there's no other way!" But now that you're the big boss of Paradise Farm, you can come over anytime if you want to relax. There aren't many rooms on the farm, but you can still stay with three to five girls!"

Tang He couldn't help but laugh and teased, ""Brother Xia, I think you should consider Qi Chao's suggestion. When you want to come over, let me know in advance, and I'll transfer you a private jet. It's only eight or nine hours of flight from China, it's very convenient!"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and said, "sure!" When I've gathered three to five girls, I won't be polite with you ..."

Tang He raised his head and laughed.

The group walked into the only small villa in the 6000 – hectare farm.

Although it was only a small villa, it had 10 bedrooms and all kinds of facilities.

Paradise Farm was not one of those cheap, low – Quality farms. It was in an excellent location, only a hundred kilometers away from the central city of Sydney. Moreover, it was located in a tourist resort like the Hunter Valley, so it could basically solve all living needs within 20 kilometers.

Moreover, the farm had a telephone, internet, and other modern facilities.

It must be known that some nouveau riche in China blindly invested when they saw that Australian farms were cheap. As a result, they regretted buying them. Some farms did not even have water permits and could not use the designated amount of agricultural water. Some farms were legally allowed to carry extremely low livestock, and even though they had a vast area, they could not raise a few livestock. If they raised more than the livestock they could carry, they would be punished for animal abuse. Some farms were located in remote areas, and it would take two to three hours to drive to the nearest town. It could be said that they were completely isolated from the world ...

Chapter 524: Immortal land farmx2

In comparison, Paradise Farm's conditions were simply too good.

Of course, its price was also much more expensive. The price of more than 40 million Australian dollars for the 6000 – hectare area would intimidate many buyers.

The small villa on the farm had been left behind by the previous owner. It had a few decades of history, but the maintenance was quite good. Although it looked a little old on the outside, it was actually very comfortable to use.

On the first floor of the villa, there was a huge glass window on the side facing the man – made Lake. Next to the window was a small reception area. Guests could sit in this super – Bright area and enjoy tea while enjoying the unparalleled scenery.

Now, Xia ruofei and the rest were sitting in the guest area. Liang Qichao was making tea for everyone.

Xia ruofei took a sip of the hot tea and asked, ""Brother Liang, our farm is so big, there should be a lot of workers, right? If you're the manager here, you'll be in charge of a lot of people ..."

"You're wrong," Liang Qichao said with a smile. "There are only eleven employees in the entire Paradise Farm, including me. Four of them are from the purebred horse breeding base. There are only seven people who really work on the farm ..."

Xia ruofei couldn't help but exclaim.

"Actually, there's nothing strange about it. The farm is very modern, and the labor cost in Australia is expensive, so we have been very careful in hiring workers." Liang Qichao smiled and said, "the manpower is just right for now. However, if we adjust our business strategy, we might need to recruit a few more people.”

Since they were already talking about this, Tang He smiled and asked, “Brother Xia, you’ve taken a look at the conditions of the farm. Do you have any thoughts on the next step of our farm’s management adjustment?”

Actually, Xia ruofei had been thinking about this question on the way here. After a slight pause, he said, “Elder Master Tang, brother Liang, the purpose of our cooperation back then was to introduce high – Quality paradise vegetables to Paradise Farm, so there is no doubt that the next step of vegetable cultivation is to be developed.”

Tang He nodded slightly and continued to listen to Xia ruofei’s opinion.

After Xia ruofei took a sip of tea, he continued, “Whether Peach Garden vegetables can be successfully planted and whether they can open a market in the Australian market after production, I think we need to explore all these step by step in actual work. So, my opinion is to start with small – scale planting in the early stage, with less than 500 hectares. While testing the planting, we can also test the reaction of the Australian market. If everything is as we expected, then we can start to expand the scale in half a year to a year. They even slowly shifted their focus from animal husbandry to farming.”

“It’s the right thing to do steadily and surely. I agree with you.” Tang He nodded.

Liang Qichao added, “I’ve done some market research on vegetable cultivation after I arrived in Australia. The average vegetable intake of the Australians is insufficient. In other words, the Australians generally don’t like to eat vegetables. This is a disadvantage.” As for the advantage, the common vegetables in the Australian market are actually similar to those in China, but there are more varieties. In other words, the mature common vegetables such as tomatoes, cabbage, spinach, and onions developed in China can be directly tested and grown on our farm!”

Tang He looked at Liang Qichao with appreciation. Apparently, he was also very satisfied with Liang Qichao’s quick response to his role.

Back then, his original intention was to let Liang Qichao and Liang Xiaojun work at Sheng bang together. United States it was a little like he wanted the two to fight each other.

Liang Qichao’s application to work in Australia was a little unexpected, but Liang Qichao had made a great contribution to the purchase of the Phoebe zhennan. Tang He finally agreed to his request, which was not too much.

However, in terms of importance, Tang He obviously valued Liang Xiaojun, who was trained in shengbang in the United States more. After all, Australia was just a farm, and the scale was too small.

But today, he had seen Liang Qichao take care of the farm in a short period of time. He was also quite farsighted and had done some market research in advance. This had also increased his impression of Liang Qichao by a lot.

Xia ruofei smiled. “Australians don’t like to eat vegetables. That’s because their local vegetables are too unpalatable!” I believe that after our paradise vegetables enters the Australian market, they will soon fall in love with eating vegetables. Maybe the diet structure of the Australians will change because of our market behavior!”

Xia ruofei’s words were full of confidence, but Tang He and Liang Qichao, who had personally tasted the peach Garden vegetables, felt that it was somewhat natural and did not think that he was boasting.

Of course, the premise was that Paradise Farm must also successfully grow Peach Garden vegetables of quality not lower than China.

Tang He was also most concerned about this question, so he immediately asked,””Brother Xia, now it seems that the key is to successfully grow paradise vegetables in Australia that are not inferior to those in China! Do you have any thoughts on this?”

“Mr. Tang, I’ve been thinking about this for a long time,” said Xia ruofei. “I think the best solution is to import vegetable seeds from paradise Corporation under the name of Paradise Farm. “Our paradise vegetables is an improved variety. At present, only our paradise company has this technology. In theory, as long as there are high – Quality seeds, we can grow paradise vegetables! Of course, whether these seeds can adapt to the soil and water in Australia still needs to be tested. ”

Chapter 525: Immortal farm (3)

Actually, the seeds that were soaked in the spirit Heart flower’s petal solution would definitely be able to survive and grow successfully in Australia. However, Xia ruofei could not be so sure.

“It’s a good way to import seeds. “Tang He nodded and said,” Australia imports all kinds of seeds from China every year, so the relevant procedures should not be difficult to handle. ”

“Mr. Tang, there’s something I need to tell you in advance,” said Xia ruofei. Our current research shows that the hereditary traits of paradise vegetable seeds will disappear in the second generation, which means that Paradise Farm will not be able to breed them independently and can only continue to import seeds from paradise company ...”

Tang He could not help but frown slightly. This meant that he had no autonomy at all! However, on second thought, he realized that the major shareholder of Paradise Farm was Xia ruofei himself. His share was not even as high as Xia ruofei ‘s! Therefore, the risk could be ignored.

Xia ruofei seemed to have guessed Tang He’s thoughts. He smiled and said,””Mr. Tang, Paradise Farm can sign a supply contract with paradise Corporation. Paradise Corporation will guarantee a sufficient supply of seeds and guarantee that they will supply them exclusively to Paradise Farm in Australia. They will no longer seek other partners. This way, with a formal contract, the interests of both parties can be guaranteed ...”

Tang He’s brows immediately relaxed. He nodded and said,”I agree. If we do this, Paradise Farm can give 20% of the profits to the Paradise company as the transfer fee for the technology ...”

“No, no, no, we can negotiate the price of the seeds, but we don’t need to pay the technology fee.” Xia ruofei said,”when I invested, my technology was already sold for five million US dollars. Paradise Farm can use this technology for free.”

“Brother Xia, in the long run, the profit generated by this technology is far more than 5 million US dollars!” Said Tang He with a bitter smile. I’m taking advantage of you again ...”

He didn’t know that he needed the peach blossom company to provide him with seeds. He thought that as long as he had Xia ruofei’s cultivation technique, the Australian farm could develop their own vegetable cultivation. In that case, the price of five million USD was still appropriate, and Xia ruofei could even make a profit.

However, the situation was different now. It was no exaggeration to say that if Xia ruofei wanted to, he could take these high – Quality vegetable seeds to cooperate with any vegetable farmer in the world. Even if he wanted 30%, 40%, or even 50% of the net profit, there would be a lot of people fighting to cooperate.

The Paradise vegetables were definitely a phenomenal product, a big killer that could subvert the market!

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “Mr. Tang, let’s do it according to my plan.” What I value more is our long – term cooperation, not the small profits in front of us. ”

Tang He was stunned for a moment, then he laughed and patted Xia ruofei’s shoulder. “”Good! Brother Xia, we’ll do as you say!”

“Qi Chao, go and handle the relevant procedures for the import of the seeds immediately.” Tang He turned to Liang Qichao and said, “you have to personally keep an eye on the introduction of seeds and the experimental planting. This is the top priority of Paradise Farm!”

“Yes!” Liang Qichao said seriously.

After they were done talking about business, the group took the open – Top off – Road vehicle around the farm. Xia ruofei once again had a direct view of the vast Paradise Farm. Even if Paradise Farm in the country expanded again, it could not be compared to Paradise Farm.

Then, Xia ruofei was invited to visit Tang He’s breeding base for purebreds. He saw more than 20 high – Quality horses, especially that fjortle. Tang He even asked the cavalrymen to ride it on a professional track for a few rounds, which was an eye – opener for Xia ruofei.

However, Xia ruofei also knew that horse racing was a game for the rich. For the time being, he did not have the time, energy, and money to participate in horse racing.

Tang He stayed with Xia ruofei on the farm for half a day. In the evening, he left the farm with his bodyguards and assistant and returned to Sydney. That night, they took a private plane back to the United States.

This time, he was here to accompany Xia ruofei. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have needed to be here personally.

Just to accompany Xia ruofei to inspect the farm, he had wasted an entire day. This showed how much Tang He valued Xia ruofei.

Before Tang He left, he repeatedly suggested that Xia ruofei stay for a few more days and have fun in Australia. At the same time, he also said that he would return to the Sydney Airport after he returned to the United States for Xia ruofei to use when he returned home.

Xia ruofei felt a little flattered. Tang He still insisted after a few rejections, so he had to let him be.

After watching Tang He's car drive away under the setting sun and finally disappear from sight, Liang Qichao said with a smile, "Ruofei, I'll take care of the arrangements for the next few days. I'll bring you to experience the Australian culture! Especially the style of the Australian girls, hahaha ..."

Chapter 526: Three days of leisure (1)

"Come on!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "it's not bad to get a taste of Australia, but we don't have the Fortune to enjoy Australian girls ..."

"Why is miss Ling so strict?" Liang Qichao smiled slyly and said, "this place is thousands of miles away from home. If you don't relax, you're not a man!"

"I'm not interested!" Xia ruofei pouted.

Liang Qichao shrugged his shoulders regretfully and looked down on Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei's room was the master bedroom in the small villa. Liang Qichao had prepared it long ago. The bedsheets were brand new and had obviously been exposed to the sun. There was the smell of sunshine.

The night on the farm was very quiet, and it made people feel very relaxed.

He had just used his computer to video call Ling Qingxue back in China and had a brief conversation with Feng Jing. After that, he lit up a cigarette and walked to the balcony of his bedroom.

It was the end of summer in Australia, which was located in the Southern Hemisphere. Xia ruofei stood on the balcony of his bedroom. The cool breeze blew against his face, giving him an indescribable sense of comfort.

This trip was called an inspection, but in fact, it was more for leisure and relaxation. Xia ruofei's mind was completely empty as he enjoyed the leisure of the holiday.

After finishing his cigarette, Xia ruofei returned to his bedroom. After locking the door and windows, he took out the White jade piece and the carving knife from the spirit map space.

He had to continue practicing the drawing of the core rune to maintain the feel.

The remaining white jade slips were relatively large. Xia ruofei had already mastered the 17 independent runes. Next, he would try to engrave the entire core rune after the combination in one go.

Xia ruofei planned to practice for a few more days. After returning to the country, he would officially start to engrave the runes on the Supreme – grade suet white jade.

Xia ruofei held the White jade in one hand and the carving knife in the other. After taking a deep breath, he released his spiritual power slightly and the carving knife steadily drew an arc on the White jade. Whether it was the angle of the arc or the subtle changes in depth, it was just right.

Xia ruofei's knife flew as the White jade fragments fell continuously. Mysterious runes appeared on the White jade pieces.

After a short while, Xia ruofei lifted his carving knife and blew on the White jade. After all the fragments were blown away, a rune appeared on the surface of the White jade.

Xia ruofei sighed and mumbled to himself, "The last stroke of The Eighth Rune is one millimeter deep, and the arc of the thirteenth rune is not smooth enough ..."

This was Xia ruofei's first time carving a complete set of core runes. In fact, it should be considered a success as the small flaws were within the range of error. However, Xia ruofei was not satisfied with just this. He had higher expectations for himself.

After a short break, Xia ruofei flipped the White jade piece over and picked up the carving knife to continue his second practice.

That night, Xia ruofei had carved four sets of core runes and used two pieces of white jade.

Three of them had some minor flaws, and only one was close to perfection.

Xia ruofei was not discouraged. He had already mastered all the runes. The only thing he lacked was practice. He believed that after a few days of practice and the day of the official engraving, he would be in his best condition and should be able to carve the core rune that he was satisfied with.

Xia ruofei kept the White jade and the carving knife. He carefully swept the shards together and put them all into the spirit map space. Then, he went to take a shower and sleep.

The next day, Liang Qichao showed Xia ruofei around.

They first went to Sydney, which was more than 160 kilometers away. Most Chinese people only knew of the Sydney Olympics and the Sydney Opera House. In reality, Sydney was the capital of New South Wales and the oldest city in Australia. It was an important economic, political, and Cultural Center.

In addition to the well – known Olympic Park and Opera House, there was also the world's most beautiful port, the Sydney Harbor, the Sydney Tower, which allowed one to enjoy the panoramic view of Sydney from 360 degrees without any dead angle, the historical Harbor Bridge, the ocean world Aquarium, the Baylon Watchtower, and so on.

With Liang Qichao as a tour guide, Xia ruofei spent the entire day touring Sydney. He enjoyed the colorful streets of Sydney, enjoyed the scenery on the cruise ship in Sydney Harbor, tasted food, and enjoyed the sun, sand, and waves on the beautiful Pacific Coast ...

In the next few days, Liang Qichao brought Xia ruofei around the Hunter Valley.

The Hunter Valley was a famous tourist spot in Australia. There were many famous wineries and all kinds of entertainment. Tourists from all over the world came to visit. Xia ruofei lived in Paradise Farm and was close to the water. Naturally, he enjoyed the moonlight in the Hunter Valley.

Xia ruofei also experienced the Hunter Valley's classic attraction, the hot air balloon.

It was a wonderful experience to watch sunrise in a hot air balloon.

Xia ruofei arrived at the gathering place at five in the morning. After having breakfast with the group of tourists, he took the tour company's car to the hot – Air balloon's departure point.

This project wasn't cheap either. Including the breakfast, it was about 1300 Chinese dollars. However, with Xia ruofei's current wealth, he naturally wouldn't care about this little money.

As it turned out, the 1300 Yuan was well spent.

Xia ruofei saw the most beautiful sunrise he had ever seen. When the red sun rose from the horizon, Xia ruofei, like the other tourists, could not help but grab his DSLR camera and take pictures.

Chapter 527: Three days of leisure (2)

From the sky, he could see the fertile green land of the Hunter Valley. He could also see kangaroos jumping on the green carpet. The short one – hour flight had left an indelible impression in Xia ruofei's mind.

Ever since Xia ruofei retired from the Army, he had been busy.

After solving the problem of survival, he had been developing his career around the spirit maps and paintings. This was the first time he had completely relaxed his body and mind.

Xia ruofei had stayed in the Hunter Valley for four days.

He was ready to return to China the next day. However, Tang He's private plane had already been at the Sydney Airport for three days. Xia ruofei would be a little embarrassed if he continued to play.

Today, Liang Qichao only arranged one event, which was to visit the West Winery in Hunter Valley.

West Winery was next to Paradise Farm. Xia ruofei's purpose for this trip was to visit his neighbors and also to experience Australia's wine culture.

Hunter Valley was the origin of wine in Australia. It was also a world – renowned wine – producing area. The production of grape wine here was less than 2% of the total production in Australia, but it was quite famous.

Xia ruofei and Liang Qichao drove the open – Top off – Road vehicle to West Winery. The winery looked ordinary from the outside, like a simple warehouse, but Xia ruofei did not dare to underestimate it.

Liang Qichao had introduced the winery to Xia ruofei along the way.

The West Winery was founded in 1866. It was a family – style winery with more than 150 years of history. Its Semillon wine was also well – known.

The current owner of West Winery was called Carter. West was an old man in his 50s. He was standing at the entrance of the winery to welcome his neighbor.

Carter had the enthusiasm of a Westerner. Before the car had even stabilized, he had already come up to greet him with a smile. The moment Liang Qichao got out of the car, he gave him a warm hug and said, "Liang! Welcome to my winery!"

“Thank you!” Liang Qichao smiled and said, “Mr. West, let me introduce you. This is my friend, Xia ruofei. He’s also a major shareholder of Paradise Farm.”

Carter was surprised and exclaimed, “Wow! Mr. Xia, you’re so young, but you already own a high – Quality farm. I’m really envious!”

Over the years, Carter had heard a lot of rumors about the Chinese being rich. Today, he saw with his own eyes that Xia ruofei owned a farm worth tens of millions of us dollars at such a young age. He suddenly had a feeling that it was true.

Xia ruofei was also sizing up Carter. This old man was not tall, but he was very well – built. He wore a red and black plaid shirt with a pair of matching jeans and a leather apron. His hair was a mess, and his big nose was a little red. He did not look like the owner of a winery at all. He looked more like a slaughterhouse worker.

“Mr. Carter, nice to meet you!” Xia ruofei replied in fluent English, “I only have a certain share of the farm. Your winery, on the other hand, has a long history and rich accumulation!”

“Hahaha! Xia, I like what you’re saying!” Carter laughed happily. “The West Winery was built by my grandfather’s grandfather, and it has been passed down for six generations! Come, come, come, please come in! I’ll show you around ...”

“Thank you!”

Carter led Liang Qichao and Xia ruofei into the winery.

From the outside, it looked like a winery with a large warehouse, but the inside was really a whole new world.

The burning fireplace, the beautiful glass wall paintings, and the large space that could accommodate 300 people at a time gave off a warm and ancient feeling.

There were floor – to – Ceiling wine cabinets on several walls, filled with all kinds of fine wine, and the wine – tasting area was also very luxurious. It had to be said that wine lovers would feel like they were in heaven. The deep and alluring wine fragrance, the stronger wine, and the faint smell of alcohol from before were fermenting here bit by bit. Their mood was great!

There was also a Wine Museum in the winery, which displayed wine – making equipment from more than a hundred years ago and clearly described the history of the winery.

Every day, tourists from all over the world would come to the Hunter Valley. Wine tasting in the winery was a must for everyone, so most wineries were open to tourists.

The West Winery was no exception.

There were many tourists here who visited the winery and tasted wine at the same time.

Carter first brought Xia ruofei and Liang Qichao to visit his vineyard.

West winery’s vineyard was built on a few undulating hills. Looking from a high place, the mountains were continuous, and the vineyard plots were well – arranged. The grape leaves were lush and woven into dark green and light green color blocks. There were beautiful blue flowers and roses around, and wild kangaroos were jumping between the grape trenches, looking very lively.

Carter gave a brief introduction to the vineyard and then said proudly, "Xia, high – Quality vineyard are usually set up on the hill, which is convenient for drainage after rain; If the soil drainage was not good for a vineyard planted on flat land, in the event of heavy rain, the rain could not be eliminated, and the grape juice would dilute, and the quality of the wine produced would not be very good. That's why the wine produced by our West Winery is of the highest quality!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "Mr. West, this trip was worth it. I didn't know there's so much knowledge in wine. I've really learned a lot!"

Chapter 528: Three days of leisure (3)

Carter laughed and said, "Xia!" Let's go back to the winery! There are delicacies and fine wine that my wife has specially prepared for our honored guests!"

"That's great, my stomach is growling when you say that!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Carter's wife, Capella, was an Australian woman in her fifties. She was so fat that she was out of shape, and her chubby face looked very friendly.

Auntie Capella was very hospitable. She had prepared exquisite snacks for Xia ruofei and Liang Qichao. There was local fresh soft cheese and Italian sun – dried tomatoes, as well as a refreshing, low – alcohol, slightly sweet rose – red sparkling wine, Verscato.

Xia ruofei couldn't stop praising the exotic snacks and refreshing bubble wine.

After receiving the guests' praise, Auntie kaberli couldn't stop smiling. Then, she served Xia ruofei and Liang Qichao two bottles of West winery's signature Semillon wine.

Liang Qichao had been in the Hunter Valley for a while now, and he couldn't help but show off when he saw the semiron.

He said, "ruofei, Hunter Valley's Semillon is also known as Hunter Valley's Rayman. It's famous for its high sourness and refreshing taste. No other region in the world can replicate it. You must try it."

Carter naturally didn't understand Chinese, so he chuckled and explained, "Xia, this is our West winery's main wine, Semillon. Unlike other wines, Hunter Valley's Semillon is usually harvested in advance to maintain its sourness and relatively low alcohol content after fermentation. Moreover, we use low – Temperature fermentation instead of using oak barrels. We will bottle it immediately after the brewing is completed."

Carter pointed to the two bottles of wine and continued, "The color of young Semillon wine is very light, and the fragrance is mostly of tangerine fruits, herbs, grass, minerals, etc. The sourness is crisp; As the aging process intensified, beauty contest would develop a complex aroma of lemon sauce, toast, vanilla, honey, and so on. The fragrance was rich, the texture was smooth, and the aftertaste was long. One of the bottles has been aged for 15 years and is at its best drinking time, while the other bottle was just brewed. You can compare them!"

“Wow! It’s amazing ...”Xia ruofei couldn’t help but sigh.” It can actually mature for more than ten years in the bottle! Then I’m going to have a good taste ...”

Carter personally poured the two opened bottles of wine into two different glasses. Then, he made an inviting gesture to Xia ruofei and Liang Qichao and looked at them with anticipation.

Xia ruofei smiled and took a small sip from one of the glasses. He closed his eyes and savored the taste. After a while, he tasted the other glass.

After a long time, Xia ruofei opened his eyes and exclaimed,“”It really does taste completely different. If I’m not wrong, the glass on the right should be a fifteen – year – old Semillon, right? I can feel the taste of time!”

Carter smiled happily and gave Xia ruofei a big thumbs up. Aunt Kelly also clapped her hands lightly. It was obvious that Xia ruofei’s judgment was correct.

At this moment, Xia ruofei’s heart skipped a beat and he said,“”Mr. West, can I buy a batch of Semillon from you?”

“Of course!” Carter laughed heartily. Our West Winery has a complete network of sales channels, and many Chinese customers also order wine from us through the internet! I’ll definitely pick a Semillon that’s the most suitable year for you ...”

“No, no, no, Mr. West, I want to buy your newly brewed wine!” Xia ruofei quickly said.

“New wine? “This ...” Carter was very surprised.”The newly brewed Semillon doesn’t taste good ...”

Under normal circumstances, they would not sell the newly brewed wine except for the taste difference between the new wine and the old wine. Most of the new wine would be stored properly until more than a decade later.

Xia ruofei chuckled.”Here’s the thing. I have my own wine cellar in Huaxia. I hope to collect some top – grade Semillon and wait for them to ripen. I think I’ll be able to taste this batch of Semillon myself in a dozen years!”

“Xia, I can see that you’re a wine lover ...”Carter’s expression changed.

In fact, Xia ruofei just felt that this Semillon had a special taste, so he wanted to buy some and store it in the spirit painting scroll. He wanted to see if this well – known wine would still have a pleasant change under the nourishment of the rich spiritual energy of heaven and earth.

Therefore, Xia ruofei naturally chose the new wine that had just been brewed. The wine that had been aged for more than ten years had already ripened in the bottle. The spatial spiritual Qi’s effect on them was definitely not as good as the new wine.

As for time, if he kept the wine in the original space, ten days would be equivalent to a year. Hence, time was not a problem for Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei’s explanation convinced Carter. He readily agreed.””Xia, how many do you want to buy? I’ll get it ready for you immediately ...”

“Give me 30 boxes!” Xia ruofei said.

There were six bottles of wine in each box, which meant that there were 180 bottles in 30 boxes. Xia ruofei was not trying to sell the wine for money, so this was more than enough.

Carter was very surprised. He was just entertaining a visiting neighbor, but he didn’t expect to make a big business deal.

Carter generously gave Xia ruofei a discount according to the treatment of the most senior member. Each bottle of Semillon was 30 Australian dollars. After the discount, it was 26 Australian dollars. The 30 boxes would cost 4680 Australian dollars, which was less than 25000 Chinese dollars.

Xia ruofei used the VISA credit card to pay.

Carter would be responsible for loading the wine and transporting it to Paradise Farm.

As for the trip from the farm to China, it was absolutely impossible to import the red wine from Paradise Farm under the name of paradise Corporation. Liang Qichao also saw that Xia ruofei had bought so much wine today. He couldn’t use the spirit map space to store it all, so he had to go through the trouble.

Xia ruofei was more interested in the Wine Museum of West Winery. After tasting the Semillon, he went there with Liang Qichao. Carter had to entertain other guests, so he did not accompany them.

Just as Xia ruofei was excitedly reading the introduction on the metal nameplate, a surprised voice came from behind him.

“Xia? Is that you?”

Chapter 529: Raising the prestige of our country (1)

Xia ruofei found the voice familiar. He straightened his body and turned around. He could not help but widen his eyes in surprise.

Standing not far behind him was a beautiful blonde girl, her blue eyes showing joy.

This person was Monica. Grao was the inheritor of the Grao family in Italy. Xia ruofei had gotten to know this beautiful foreign lady when he had attended the truffle auction in Shen Cheng city.

Monica was wearing a black shirt with straps today. The cleavage on her chest was faintly visible under the straps, and her exposed skin had a wheat – colored luster, making her look very sexy and charming.

A pair of ordinary blue trumpet jeans accentuated her long, slender legs and slender waist.

Under a light brown cowboy hat, she had long golden hair that reached her shoulders. She looked casual and wild.

What a sexy and alluring cowboy girl! Liang Qichao couldn’t help but exclaim in his heart.

“Monica!” Xia ruofei couldn’t help but exclaim in surprise.

Monica did not expect to meet Xia ruofei in Australia. When Xia ruofei turned around and she confirmed that she had not recognized the wrong person, she could not help but smile.

A few months ago, Monica had met Xia ruofei in China. This Asian young man had left a deep impression on her.

She felt that Xia ruofei was a little mysterious. He was able to bring out so many truffles at the auction, and every piece was of the highest quality. Even the Grao family, which had a long history of truffles, was not as powerful as him. However, his company was unknown.

What left a deep impression on Monica was Xia ruofei's strong body. The first time they met was in the hotel's gym. Xia ruofei had run at a 13 – kilometer high speed for more than two hours and had crippled Blake, who had been secretly competing with him.

And after coming down from the treadmill, Xia ruofei was still fine.

Even now, Monica could clearly remember the thin layer of sweat on Xia ruofei's forehead and the mesmerizing scent of his male hormones.

Monica had lunch with Xia ruofei before he left shencheng. At that time, the two of them had discussed the cooperation between paradise Corporation and the Grao family in truffle sales. However, the truffle season had not arrived yet and there had been some resistance from the Grao family regarding this cooperation, so Monica had not contacted Xia ruofei for a long time.

However, he didn't expect to meet her in Australia. Was this what the Chinese called fate? Monica said in her heart.

"Xia, it's really you!" Monica walked forward and smiled. "This is really too unexpected ..."

Xia ruofei chuckled. "Monica, as far as I know, Hunter Valley is not a traditional truffle – producing area. It's not the truffle – producing season now either. Why did you suddenly come to Australia?"

Monica giggled and said, "is my life only left with work?" Xia, I'm on vacation in Australia. What about you? Are you also here for a vacation?"

Xia ruofei shrugged. "It's the opposite. I'm here to work."

"So, your company's business has expanded to Australia?" Monica was slightly shocked.

"Almost!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I've invested in a farm in Australia. It's right next to the West Winery."

Monica's sexy mouth instantly turned into an 'O' shape, and her beautiful blue eyes revealed an extremely surprised look.

"The premium farms in the Hunter Valley are quite expensive ..." Monica said. "Xia, it seems that your business has been developing very smoothly in the few months that I haven't seen you!"

"I guess you have some luck!" Xia ruofei said indifferently and then smiled. "I should be thanking you! Monica, if it wasn't for the truffle auction that gave me a large amount of development funds, my company wouldn't have been able to expand so quickly ..."

"Xia, can I visit your farm?" Monica asked.

“Of course, it’s my honor!” Xia ruofei said, “Oh right, I almost forgot to introduce you. This is my good friend and the manager of Paradise Farm, Liang Qichao.”

Then, Xia ruofei said to Liang Qichao in Chinese, “Brother Liang, this is Monica, the heir of the Grasso family in Italy. Lady Grasso!”

Liang Qichao quickly stepped forward to greet her. Monica smiled elegantly and shook hands with Liang Qichao. “Manager Liang, nice to meet you!”

“Miss Grasso, welcome to our Paradise Farm!” Liang Qichao said.

“Thank you!”

“Monica, when do you have time?” Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

“I can do it anytime!” Monica said, “the moment I met you, my visit to the West Winery had already ended.”

Liang Qichao winked at Xia ruofei and gave him an ambiguous smile.

“We’ve seen enough, let’s go!” Xia ruofei said, slightly embarrassed.

Xia ruofei and the other two walked out of the Wine Museum in the winery. At this time, the Carter couple were receiving another group of tourists. Coincidentally, these tourists were all yellow – skinned and black – haired, and they all spoke Chinese. They were obviously tourists from China.

China’s economy had been developing well in recent years, and there were more and more rich people. It was no longer a new thing to travel overseas. Basically, in the world – famous tourist spots, the probability of meeting Chinese people was quite high. After all, the population base of China was there.

Chapter 530: Raising the prestige of our country (2)

Hence, Xia ruofei was not too surprised.

“Uncle Carter, thank you for your hospitality. We’ll be leaving now ...” Xia ruofei said loudly.

“Xia, wait ...” Carter quickly called out.

Xia ruofei did not know what was going on, but he still stopped in his tracks. He saw Carter run back and quickly come out with three bottles of wine.

He smiled and passed the wine to Xia ruofei. “Xia, this is a twenty – year – old Semillon. It’s my gift to you!”

“This is too precious! Thank you!” Xia ruofei said happily, “uncle Carter, I’m so lucky to be your neighbor!”

“Xia, you’re welcome to come to my winery for wine tasting in the future!” Carter laughed heartily.

“Definitely, definitely ...”

After bidding farewell to uncle Carter, Xia ruofei and the other two went to the parking lot outside the winery to get their cars and headed straight for Paradise Farm.

Liang Qichao was driving while Xia ruofei and Monica sat in the back of the convertible off – Road vehicle. Monica’s long golden hair fluttered in the wind and brushed past Xia ruofei’s face from time to time. It felt a little itchy, and Xia ruofei’s heart could not help but start to stir.

After arriving at the farm, Monica took a car to visit.

She was full of praise for the unique environment of Paradise Farm. When they were at the winery, Monica thought that Xia ruofei’s farm would not be very big. After all, the farms in Hunter Valley were very expensive. Her impression of Xia ruofei was still that of the owner of a small company in China a few months ago. In the end, she only found out that Paradise Farm was actually so vast after visiting it.

A farm like this would cost at least tens of millions of dollars, right? Monica couldn’t help but estimate the value in her heart.

Although tens of millions of us dollars was nothing to the Grao family, Xia ruofei was just the boss of an unknown small company in China a few months ago! This step was too big!

After driving Monica around for a tour, Liang Qichao made up an excuse and tactfully said goodbye to the two.

Before he left, he even winked at Xia ruofei with a perverted expression. Xia ruofei used his body to block Monica’s view and gave Liang Qichao the middle finger without hesitation.

After Liang Qichao left, at Monica’s request, Xia ruofei strolled around the farm with her again. They walked around the man – made Lake for a long time until the Golden sunset elongated their shadows by the lake. Then, they returned to the small villa.

Liang Qichao had sent a message to Xia ruofei a long time ago. He had found an empty room in the workers’ dormitory next door and left the entire villa to Xia ruofei.

Although Xia ruofei immediately sent Liang Qichao a disdainful emoji, he still had a little anticipation in his heart.

Any normal man who saw a sexy woman like Monica would not be able to help but be moved.

Furthermore, Monica had clearly expressed that she wanted to stay at the farm for the night. Yingying was originally staying at a Resort Hotel 20 kilometers away from here.

Xia ruofei used the ingredients on the spot and made a Chinese and Western dinner with Monica.

There were Kung Pao Chicken, green pepper shredded meat, French foie gras, and fried steak. Although they looked a little nondescript, the two of them ate with relish.

Moreover, the two of them chatted as they ate, and they got along very well. There was no sense of unfamiliarity at all because they had not contacted each other for a few months.

The two of them had completely different backgrounds, but they could still find a lot to talk about. This was indeed a miracle.

Especially when Xia ruofei talked about some interesting things from her childhood, Monica would often be amused until she giggled. Compared to Xia ruofei’s grassroots experience, Monica’s childhood was much more boring. She had received all kinds of elite education since she was young. Although she had cultivated a beautiful woman with both looks and temperament, the price was that she had sacrificed her good childhood.

The sky was already dark by the time they finished their meal.

They cleaned up the dining table together and then sat in the living room to chat for a long time.

Xia ruofei was in disbelief that he could have so many things to talk about with an Italy beauty.

Xia ruofei even felt that his spoken English had improved a lot today because he had said too much today.

At 10 pm, Xia ruofei saw that Monica looked tired. He said with a hint of reluctance, "Monica, it's getting late. Go back to your room and rest! The guest room has been prepared."

Monica smiled sweetly and said, "okay!" Xia, you're flying tomorrow, so you should rest early today."

The two of them went upstairs together. Xia ruofei sent Monica to the guest room and opened the door for her. Then, he said, "Good night, Monica!"

"Good night!" Monica glanced at Xia ruofei flirtatiously and revealed a charming smile. Then, she walked into the room.

The moment Monica closed the door, Xia ruofei felt a sense of loss.

However, he quickly adjusted his mood and kept telling himself that he had a girlfriend now. Although he was away, he had to control himself ...

Xia ruofei mumbled to himself as he walked back to his room.

Xia ruofei did not feel sleepy after he returned to his room. He turned on the television and absent-mindedly changed the channels with the remote control.

After an unknown period of time, there was a sudden knock on the door.
