

God tier Farm 611

Chapter 611: Special cigarettes (1)

"Oh?" Elder song raised his eyebrows with interest.

"Old Mr. Li made it himself," Xia ruofei added.

"Oh, really? Brother Fu, you're still making tea at your age, can your body take it?" Elder song asked with concern.

"It's because the tea leaves prepared by little Xia are of good quality," said Li Zhifu. "My hands are a little itchy. " Little song, this tea is pretty good. At least it's not worse than the tea you provide every year!"

"Oh, really? Then I'll really have to try it!" Elder song's interest was immediately piqued. He smiled and said, "Xiao Xia, thank you. You're so thoughtful ..."

Xia ruofei smiled. "It's just a few tea leaves. You're welcome, chief."

"Chief, I've brought her here safely. I'll take my leave now!" Xia ruofei stood up and said.

It was already late at night, so elder song did not want to stay any longer. He stood up and personally walked Xia ruofei to the door of the guest room.

At first, elder song wanted to send him downstairs, but Xia ruofei said he didn't deserve it and asked elder song to stay.

Elder song stood at the door of the guest room and thought for a while, then called Xia ruofei to stop.

Then, he called manager Lu over and whispered a few words to him. Manager Lu immediately nodded and left.

Manager Lu returned with a black plastic bag.

Elder song took the plastic bag and passed it to Xia ruofei. He smiled and said, "Xiao Xia, I remember that you smoke. Take these two packs of cigarettes and smoke them ..."

.....

"Is this ... Appropriate?" Xia ruofei smiled.

"What's inappropriate about that? You gave me tea, I gave you cigarettes, courtesy demands reciprocity!" Elder song said with a smile.

"Then ..." Xia ruofei said, "I'll take it!" Thank you, chief!"

"Drive slowly on the road. If you're free, come over and play chess with me!" Elder song said with a kind smile.

"Alright!"

At this time, ye linyun hesitated for a moment and said to Li Zhifu, "Master, I ... I haven't been back to the farm in a long time. I want to go back with brother Xia."

“Go!” Li Zhifu nodded and said. I’ll be staying with little song, so you don’t have to worry. ”

“Thank you, master!” Ye linyun was overjoyed.

He did miss his brothers at the farm. He had long known that the company’s security Department had recruited a new group of security guards, all of whom were brothers from the old army, so he was eager to return home.

Xia ruofei and ye Lingyun bade farewell to Master Song and Li Zhifu. Manager Lu personally sent them off and watched them drive away.

When manager lü returned to the reception room, elder song had already opened a box of tea leaves that Xia ruofei had given him. Li Zhifu was scooping the tea leaves with a teaspoon.

“Xiao Lu, come, come, let’s try the tea that Xiao Xia brought!” Elder song said with a smile.

Manager Lu had been working for Master Song for many years. He was like a family member. Master song’s children had been working in various places. Manager Lu had been working for Master Song all year round, so they were closer.

“Thank you, chief!” Manager Lu said with a smile.

Manager Lu sat on the sofa at the side. He didn’t make tea. Although he usually did all the work himself, he knew his place. In terms of tea – making, he was eight streets behind li Zhifu!

Li Zhifu’s action of making tea was skillful and didn’t seem to have a trace of anger.

Soon, the room was filled with the fragrance of tea. Elder song and manager Lu couldn’t help but take a deep breath.

What kind of good tea had elder song not tasted before?

Even the mother tree, Da Hong Pao, was given to elder song by two taels each year.

However, even though elder song had been drinking tea for many years, this was the first time he had smelled such an intoxicating tea fragrance.

He washed the tea, brewed the tea, smelled the fragrance ...

Soon, the first pot of tea was poured into the tea cup. Li Zhifu smiled and said, “Song, try it?”

“Try it!” Elder song said with a smile.

The three of them raised their tea cups and took a light sip. Then, they closed their eyes and slowly savored the aftertaste. The clear and distant fragrance of the tea instantly surrounded their mouths and teeth, and the natural charm of the tea was even more lingering.

After a long time, elder song sighed and said, “good tea!” It’s really good tea!”

Manager Lu couldn’t help but praise, “chief, this tea is amazing!” Old Mr. Li is old but strong, and his skills haven’t deteriorated at all!”

Li Zhifu smiled. "My craftsmanship only takes up 30%. The remaining 70% is all from the tea leaves that little Xia gave me."

Elder song and manager Lu were both surprised.

Elder song knew that Li Zhifu would never exaggerate. The fact that he gave such a high evaluation meant that Xia ruofei's tea leaves were indeed worthy of this evaluation.

Manager Lu smiled bitterly after a long while, "Xiao Xia is really ... Amazing!" Ever since I've known him, I've seen him create miracles countless times. It's as if there's nothing he can't do ..."

Elder song laughed and said, "Xiao Xia isn't an ordinary person, Xiao Lu!" If you don't believe me, we can wait and see. He'll definitely use miracles to refresh our perception. "

Manager Lu nodded in agreement. He didn't agree with elder song, but he agreed with this point from the bottom of his heart.

"This little Xia!" Elder song sighed again. "Can you give me some tea leaves all of a sudden? if it's all this kind of top – grade tea, what will the other tea leaves taste like in the future?" What's more infuriating is that this kid actually gave me two taels! Isn't this too stingy?"

Chapter 612: Special cigarettes (2)

Li Zhifu chuckled and said, "little song, be content!" It's not easy to find tea Green of this level. This kid only brought about one Jin of Tea Green to Mount Wu Yi yesterday. He probably has at most half a Jin in his hands now ..."

Elder song laughed and said, "others might not be able to get more tea leaves, but little Xia can!" Xiao Lu, give that kid a call tomorrow and tell him to send me more next time. I won't let him in if it's less than half a pound!"

Manager Lu's eyes lit up and he immediately nodded. "Yes, chief ..."

An official of manager Lu's level would naturally not look at the surface of the problem.

Elder song's words sounded unreasonable, and half a catty of this tea leaf might be worth one or two million, but that wasn't the point.

China was so big, and there were countless people who wanted to give elder song a gift. When had elder song ever accepted a gift from someone else? Xia ruofei was definitely an exception.

From elder song's tone, it was obvious that he did not treat Xia ruofei as an outsider. Manager Lu even felt that elder song would not be so close to Xia ruofei, even to his own nephew.

.....

Xia ruofei didn't know that he had become much more important in manager Lu's heart. He was driving down the mountain.

After the car made a turn on the mountain road, the two of them heaved a sigh of relief.

Xia ruofei and ye Lingyun were both from the Special Forces. Xia ruofei had served in the famous lone wolf assault team, so they were more sensitive to their surroundings than ordinary people.

After turning the corner, the two of them felt their bodies relax. It was obvious that they had left the range of elder song's guards.

Ye Lingyun, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, also felt much more relaxed. He curiously opened the black plastic bag and said, "Brother Xia, let me see what good cigarettes elder song gave you!"

.....

Xia ruofei just drove with a smile and didn't care about ye Lingyun.

"Eh? Why is there nothing here?" "White packaging?" ye Lingyun exclaimed in surprise. What kind of cigarette is this?"

Xia ruofei turned his head and glanced at the cigarettes in ye Lingyun's hands. They were both wrapped in white without any logo or pattern.

"Won't you know when you open it?" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Then I'm going to tear it down!" Ye linyun said.

"Tear it down!" Xia ruofei said, "aren't cigarettes for smoking? What's the point of tearing it down?"

Hence, ye Lingyun tore open the package in no time.

"Hey! There are also white boards inside!" Ye Lingyun exclaimed in shock.

He took out all the cigarette boxes. The ten packets of cigarettes were all white in packaging, without any logo or patterns.

"Open it and see!" Xia ruofei said.

Ye Lingyun immediately opened a pack of cigarettes and took one out. He turned on the front car lights and looked around. "Brother Xia, there's no logo on the cigarettes. The chief wouldn't give you three – no – none products, would he?"

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said, "do you think that's possible?"

"This ... Seems a little ... Unreasonable ..." Ye Lingyun laughed.

"Nonsense!"

At this moment, Xia ruofei thought of a rumor and suddenly had an idea.

At this time, the car had already reached the foot of the mountain. The intersection was the winding Expressway. Xia ruofei drove the car to the side and stopped. He turned on the double flashing lights.

"What's wrong, brother Xia?"

"Lingyun, give me the opened pack of cigarettes," Xia ruofei said to ye Lingyun.

Ye Lingyun handed the pack of cigarettes to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei took the cigarette box, took out all the cigarettes, and put them aside. Then, he carefully removed the foil inside.

Xia ruofei took the empty box and shone it under the light. As expected, there seemed to be a pattern inside the box.

Ye Lingyun also came over to take a look and mumbled, ""Brother Xia, What is this?"

Xia ruofei opened the soft cigarette box and spread it out.

The lights in the car were very bright. Ye Lingyun could tell at a glance. "Isn't this Panda smoke?"

The inside of the cigarette box was a picture of two pandas, including a cigarette factory, tar content, and a quit smoking slogan.

In fact, it was the outer packaging of Panda cigarettes that could be seen on the market. However, it was packaged in reverse, so the white side could be seen on the outside.

"Brother Xia, why are these cigarettes packaged in reverse?" Ye linyun asked.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I've guessed it just now. This is a special supply of cigarettes for the leaders and directors of the state. I've heard that special cigarettes are packaged in the reverse side of the ordinary cigarette box. I didn't expect to see it today!"

"Is this the legendary special supply of cigarettes?" ye linyun's eyes lit up.

"Most likely ..." Xia ruofei nodded and said, "come, come, come, one cigarette ..."

With that, Xia ruofei grabbed two cigarettes and threw one to ye Lingyun. Then, he took one in his mouth, flicked the lighter, and lit the cigarette.

The two of them took a deep puff at the same time. The feeling was really different from ordinary cigarettes. It was slightly light, but the fragrance was rich.

"This is a good cigarette ..." Ye linyun praised.

Then, he looked at the remaining 18 cigarettes and chuckled, ""Brother Xia, you've already opened the cigarette box, so these cigarettes ..."

"You can take it and draw!" Xia ruofei said nonchalantly, "do you have anything?"

Chapter 613: Special cigarettes (3)

"Yes, yes, yes!" Ye linyun quickly replied, "I'm almost done with this box of cigarettes. I only have one left!"

"Then you can take it!" Xia ruofei said.

"Thank you, brother Xia!" Ye linyun said excitedly.

He immediately took out an almost empty cigarette box and carefully put the remaining cigarettes into it.

Xia ruofei found it funny and said, "If you like it, take a few more boxes! This cigarette is a little light, I'm not used to it ..."

"No need, no need," ye Lingyun quickly replied. "This is enough. These are cigarettes from the chief, I don't dare to take more!"

Xia ruofei smiled and started the car again. "Alright then! You can ask me for more after you're done! We're brothers, no need to be so polite ..."

"Alright! Thank you, brother Xia!" Ye linyun grinned and carefully put the cigarette box into his pocket.

After returning to the farm, ye linyun met up with his comrades and was naturally excited.

The staff canteen was already closed, so Xia ruofei asked Lei Hu to send someone to town to buy some marinade and other dishes to go with the wine. He also contributed a few bottles of Drunken Eight Immortals wine. After having some supper with everyone, he returned to the villa.

Ye Lingyun stayed in the staff dormitory.

The next day, Xia ruofei drove to the city after having breakfast in the staff cafeteria.

He brought along two small boxes of top – grade Da Hong Pao, each containing a total of 200 grams, and gave them to Ling Xiaotian and professor Tian.

.....

With only 12 tea trees, the yield must be very low. Xia ruofei did not count on these tea leaves to sell for money. He had originally intended to give them to some elders and friends. It was perfect as a gift.

After giving them away, Xia ruofei only had about four taels left. He was not going to give the tea leaves away and would keep them for himself.

After giving the gift, Xia ruofei drove back to Taoyuan farm.

He went straight to the complex. It had been two days since he left the farm. The employees all knew that he was back, so he had to go around the office for show.

When he reached his office, Xia ruofei realized that the door was open. He was stunned. He looked inside and saw song Rui sitting on the guest sofa. He was holding a cup of hot tea and enjoying it.

"Swish!" Xia ruofei shouted, "why did you come to my place without saying a word? I thought there was a thief in the office!"

"You're the thief!" Song Rui said, "you're having a good time as a boss, aren't you? What time is it now for you to come to work?"

Xia ruofei walked to song Rui and sat down beside him. "Isn't that obvious? I'm the boss, I'm the boss in the company! Of course, we can come whenever we want!"

Xia ruofei continued, "aren't you addicted to being a good boy?" How come you're suddenly free to come here?"

"Of course there's something I need to talk to you about!" Song Rui said.

Xia ruofei took out a cigarette and threw it to song Rui. Then, he took one out for himself and lit it. After taking a puff, he said, "Speak! What was it? Make a statement first! I'm not going to drink with you ..."

Then, Xia ruofei saw that song Rui was staring at the cigarette box that he had casually thrown on the coffee table. The box was pure white, without any logo or pattern.

Elder song had given this to Xia ruofei yesterday. He had casually carried a bag with him.

"Where ... Where did you get this cigarette?" Song Rui asked in surprise.

"Yesterday, I went to the Gu Ling courtyard and your Master Song gave me two ..." Xia ruofei said nonchalantly.

"How much? Say that again!" Song Rui's eyes widened. "Two ... Two?"

Chapter 614: Crossing acraepoids, young master Song (1)

"Yup! Is there something wrong?" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "why are you so surprised?"

"What's wrong with that?" song Rui said angrily. It was simply too inappropriate! Do you know how much my grandfather gave me after I begged him for so long and acted so cute?"

"How much?"

"You only gave me one packet!" Song Rui said in grief and indignation, "he ... He actually gave you two at once! Who's his real grandson?"

Xia ruofei looked at song Rui with sympathy and said with a smirk, ""You should be asking the provincial head judge, Song Jin, that question!"

"Get lost!" Song Rui shouted, "I don't care! Where's the cigarette? Hurry up and take it out! Whoever sees it will have a share, you give me one!"

"What do you mean by just one? Where was there only one? You're here to Rob us!" Xia ruofei said, "I can only give you one pack at most!"

"Why are you so stingy?" Song Rui shouted, "you already have two and you're giving me one? Aren't we brothers? At least eight packets!"

"Two packs! I don't have any more!"

"Six packets!"

"Three packets! It can't be any more!"

"Five packets!"

"Four packets!"

.....

"Four and a half packets!"

"Four packets and five sticks!"

"Four packets and eight sticks!"

"Four packets and six sticks!"

"Four packets and seven sticks!"

"Four packets and six and a half sticks ..."

"You're crazy!" Song Rui shouted, "I'm just asking you one question. Why did you give me half a stick?"

"I'll light it first and I'll give it to you when I draw the remaining half," Xia ruofei said calmly.

"Woof! Even if you don't find it dirty, I do!" Song Rui shouted.

They heard a loud thud outside the door. The two of them looked up and saw Feng Jing standing at the door, overjoyed.

Feng Jing heard Xia ruofei's voice and walked over from the office next door. She had heard the entire process of Xia ruofei bargaining with song Rui.

When the two of them mentioned four packs of cigarettes, Feng Jing was already speechless. Yingying was just like a child who hadn't grown up yet!

When Xia ruofei said to suck half of it before giving it to song Rui, Feng Jing couldn't help but laugh.

"It's President Feng ..." Xia ruofei said. "What's the matter?"

"Oh ... Nothing much," Feng Jing said, trying to hold back her laughter. "I just wanted to report to you about some daily work. Chairman, you can go and entertain your friend first!"

A burst of suppressed laughter could be heard faintly.

Xia ruofei said, "look, look ... You're embarrassing yourself in front of a beauty!" The great song family's eldest son is actually fighting for half a cigarette with his face red and neck thick ..."

"When did I say half a cigarette? It's obviously you!" Song Rui said, "stop talking nonsense. Where are the cigarettes? Hurry up and take it out ..."

Then, song Rui reached out to Xia ruofei's pocket.

Xia ruofei quickly dodged and said, "can you use your brain?" Have you ever seen anyone put an entire pack of cigarettes in their pocket? Do you think my pocket is A Doraemon version?"

Song Rui smiled awkwardly. Xia ruofei said unhappily, "I'll keep my word, four packets and six and a half sticks ..."

"Don't, don't, don't. I don't want half. Give me four packets of six cigarettes ..." Song Rui said quickly.

"Alright! I'll get it for you before you leave!" Xia ruofei said, "I think this is all you've got!"

"You know nothing!" Song Rui said disdainfully, "this is a powerful weapon for acting tough! Who knew how much face he would gain if he took it out at a gathering! Do you understand?"

"I really don't understand the world of you popinjays ..." Xia ruofei said with a speechless expression.

Song Rui took out another cigarette from Xia ruofei's cigarette box and lit it up. He took a deep breath and exhaled the smoke. He mumbled, "It's a waste to give you this cigarette ..."

Xia ruofei rolled his eyes and said, "if you have something to say, say it!" I'm busy!"

"Busy your head!" Song Rui pouted and said, "you only came to work at 10:30. Who would believe you if you said you were busy?"

Xia ruofei's expression did not change. "Child, you don't understand the world of the head of the company. You'll understand when you become the president of your family business."

"Hey! Don't provoke me!" Song Rui said, "I'm moving towards that goal now!"

"Alright! "Stop joking ..." Xia ruofei laughed. "Are you okay or not?" Don't tell me he's here just to smoke?"

Song Rui said, "I really do have something to talk to you about!" I remember that you invested in that Dingfeng winery, right? It's the one that gave birth to the Eight Immortals drunk. "

"Yup! What's wrong?"

"Get me fifty boxes of wine!" Song Rui said, "our company is going to organize a large – scale business dinner. We are going to use Drunken Eight Immortals as the white wine, but the people in the logistics department can't get it. I have to do it myself!"

Xia ruofei laughed, "just this?" Can't you just make a phone call? Was there a need to personally make a trip? I've lost a few packs of cigarettes for nothing!"

"I haven't been to your place in a while, so I decided to drop by to take a look," song Rui said unhappily. Why are you so stingy? You're not even willing to take a few packs of your cigarettes!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "who asked you to come here and ask for help like you're the king?" Alright, there's no problem with that. I'll make a phone call now, and you can ask someone to go directly to the factory to pick up the goods!"

After that, Xia ruofei took out his phone and called Li Jing, the sales manager of Ding Feng winery, to tell him about the matter.

Chapter 615: Crossing acraepoids, young master Song (2)

Although the major supermarket channels were almost out of stock, the factory still had stock. Xia ruofei had personally made a call and settled the 50 boxes of wine with just a word. Li Jing hurriedly said that he would get someone to prepare the stock and that he could come to collect it at any time.

Xia ruofei hung up the phone and smiled. "Alright! You can just get someone to get a small truck to transport the goods!"

"Alright!" "Thanks!" Song Rui said.

"It's no big deal, why are you being so polite!" Xia ruofei laughed and scolded.

Song Rui also immediately took out his mobile phone and called the head of the company's logistics department, asking the company to send a small truck to Ding Feng winery to get the wine.

"It's not easy for you to come here. Have lunch here! Let us brothers have some too!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

It was almost 11 O' clock. Song Rui nodded and said,""Alright!"

Xia ruofei picked up the phone on the table and called Feng Jing. After confirming that there was nothing urgent, he packed his bag and said,""Let's go! Let's go to my villa!"

The two of them strolled to the first floor and Xia ruofei went to the staff cafeteria.

It was almost time to get off work, and Cao tieshu's wife and the other cafeteria staff were nervously preparing food.

Seeing Xia ruofei, the employees quickly greeted him.

Xia ruofei smiled and said to Cao tieshu's wife,""Sister – in – Law, a friend of mine came today. Can I trouble you to prepare a few dishes for me? I'll get Lei Hu to send them to the villa later."

"No problem! Boss, what do you want to eat for lunch?" Cao tieshu's wife wiped her hands on her apron and asked with a smile.

Xia ruofei said,"eat whatever you have!" There was no need to specially prepare. If there were any fresh vegetables in the greenhouse, just pick some, and get one or two meat dishes and a soup! The dishes have to go well with the wine. As for the rest, you can do as you please. I believe in your skills!"

Cao tieshu's wife said happily,"Alright then! Then I'll do it according to my own ideas!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said,"it's been hard on you, sister – in – Law!" Everyone has worked hard ..."

The canteen staff quickly said that it was not hard work. Xia ruofei would thank them every time he came to eat. They had a very good impression of Xia ruofei, the boss who was easy to approach.

After he was done with his business at the canteen, Xia ruofei brought song Rui back to the small villa.

"Sit, sit, sit! I'll make you some tea!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Do you have any good tea here?" Song Rui picked up a magazine from the coffee table and flipped through it as he spoke.

"Hehe! Why don't you drink it and you'll know?" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

He walked to the small cabinet next to the TV background wall and squatted down to open the cabinet with his back facing song Rui. He reached inside and took out a small box of tea leaves. Of course, these tea leaves were actually stored in the spirit map space. Xia ruofei was just putting on an act.

The entire tea set was ready, and Xia ruofei had learned from him. His tea – making movements were methodical.

Very quickly, the rich aroma of tea filled the spacious living room of the villa.

Song Rui, who was looking at the cover girl, sniffled, put down the magazine, and said with a smile, ""Woof! Your tea smells pretty good!"

"It's even more fragrant!" Xia ruofei said with a smile as he placed the tea cup in front of song Rui.

Song Rui suspiciously picked up the teacup and took a sip. He slowly felt it and then called out, ""F * ck! Your tea is good! Where did you get it? Give me a few pounds to take away ..."

"PAH!" Xia ruofei said, "I only have three or four taels left and you're asking for a few catties? why don't you just go and Rob me?"

"Comrade ruofei! I realized that as your business is getting bigger and bigger, you're also becoming more and more stingy!" Song Rui said, "we're brothers. What's wrong with giving me a few catties of tea leaves?"

"What else? I've only given your grandfather two taels!" Xia ruofei said unhappily, "do you know what old Mr. Li Zhifu said about my tea? It's even better than the mother tree Da Hong Pao!"

Song Rui was also stunned for a moment. As a qualified dandy who was well – versed in the ways of eating, drinking, and having fun, he naturally knew the market price of the mother tree, Da Hong Pao.

Song Rui opened his mouth slightly and said, ""What the f * ck ... So, we drank 10000 Yuan in one gulp?"

"You think?" Xia ruofei glanced at song Rui.

Song Rui revealed an excited expression and said, ""Then all the more you shouldn't have kept it to yourself! How could he monopolize such good tea leaves! I have to share it with my brothers!"

"I think you're just a Locust! You ate mine and took mine after you were done ..."

In the end, the two of them haggled over the price again and song Rui was satisfied that he had cheated Xia ruofei of a tael of tea leaves.

Xia ruofei could not help but feel his heart ache. There were only four taels of tea leaves left. Now that song Rui had taken away one tael, he was left with three taels.

Xia ruofei thought to himself, "before the new tea leaves are out, I will not let anyone else brew the tea. I will keep it for myself!"

Very quickly, Lei Hu brought a veteran to deliver the food made by the canteen.

There were three dishes that were made with the vegetables from the Paradise as the ingredients: a plate of lychee meat, a plate of sweet 'n' sour ribs, and a small pot of bamboo sun soup.

Although they were all home – cooked, Cao tieshu's wife's cooking skills were still very good. The appearance of these dishes might not be as good as those in the big hotels, but the taste was quite delicious.

Chapter 616: Crossing acraepoids, young master Song (3)

Xia ruofei opened a bottle of Drunken Eight Immortals and chatted with song Rui as they ate and drank. They ate until 1:30 pm and finished the entire bottle of wine before they got up.

Naturally, song Rui could not drive after drinking, so Xia ruofei asked Lei Hu to arrange for a veteran to drive for him.

Xia ruofei heaved a sigh of relief when he saw song Rui leaving with a big bag of Taoyuan vegetables and a special cigarette in his arms. Xia ruofei finally sent this guy away. If he had stayed any longer, he might have stolen something else!

This guy was simply a Bandit! Did he even have the demeanor of a young master from an aristocratic family?

.....

After returning from Mount Wuyi, Xia ruofei's life had returned to its peaceful state.

As the day of the next time he drank the soup got closer, Xia ruofei started to get excited.

All the materials needed to make a spiritual puppet were in place. If there were no new materials required in the new page of content, they could start work after the content was unlocked.

As the days went by, Xia ruofei calculated that he would be able to drink the soup again tomorrow.

Everything was ready, except for the crucial wind.

In the afternoon, Xia ruofei had just finished his lunch at the staff canteen and was walking towards the small villa when his phone rang.

"Hello, Ms. Tian." Xia ruofei looked at the caller ID and answered the call.

The call was from Tian Huixin, but Xia ruofei did not hear Tian Huixin's voice. Instead, a childish voice came from the other end. "Brother Xia!"

.....

Xia ruofei's eyes softened and a warm smile appeared on his face. He replied, "Huanhuan! Huanhuan, did you miss big brother?"

"I can imagine it! Brother, why didn't you come to see me?" Huan Huan said coyly.

Xia ruofei said awkwardly, "uh ... I've been busy with work recently ... Huanhuan, have you been a good girl?" Did you listen to your parents?"

"I'm very obedient! Mom said that if I don't behave, brother Xia won't like me anymore!" Huan Huan said.

A child's words carried no harm.

Xia ruofei was also sweating profusely. He did not expect Tian Huixin to use such a method to scare Huanhuan.

Of course, this also showed that Huanhuan was really close to him.

At this moment, Tian Huixin's slightly embarrassed voice came from the phone. "Xia, don't listen to Huanhuan's nonsense. This little girl has been very strange recently!"

Although Tian Huixin said that, she was very happy in her heart. When Huanhuan was diagnosed with autism, she wouldn't say a word no matter how much she teased her. Now, although she could be mischievous at times, her speech and communication were no different from ordinary children. Moreover, her good memory and focus were still there.

The MA family treasured her so much.

All of this was thanks to Xia ruofei, so one could only imagine how grateful they were to him.

"Madam Tian, have you arrived at the three mountains?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"Yup! We just got off the plane, and Huanhuan is clamoring to see you." Tian Huixin asked, "little Xia, is it convenient for us to come to the farm now?"

Xia ruofei pondered for a moment and said, "I think we should do it this way." I have nothing to do in the afternoon, so let's meet up in the city!"

Chapter 617: Doctor Xia makes another move (1)

At the mayor – Peace airport in San Shan.

After Tian Huixin, who was dressed in a noble and elegant manner, finished her call, Huan Huan, who was as cute as a porcelain doll, immediately asked, "Mother! What did brother Xia say?"

Tian Huixin smiled and touched Huanhuan's tender little face. She said, "Big brother told us to settle down in the city first, and he'll come over to meet us ..."

"But I want to go to the farm!" Huanhuan pouted and said, "brother Xia invited me to the farm to pick blueberries and lychees ... I want to eat lychees!"

"Lychees only ripen in summer!" Tian Huixin said with a smile. You can't eat it even if you go now! Huanhuan, do you want to eat lychees or brother Xia?"

"Of course, I want to see brother Xia more!" Huan Huan said without hesitation.

Although they had not seen each other for a long time, Huan Huan's closeness to Xia ruofei did not decrease at all. This made Tian Huixin, who was Huan Huan's mother, feel a little sour.

However, Huanhuan's illness was cured by Xia ruofei. If not for Xia ruofei, Huanhuan would still be that starry – eyed child who was immersed in her own world and did not say a word!

The parents of autistic children could understand the endless pain the most. Every day, they would see their child alone, no matter how they called her, she would not respond, and from time to time, she would lose her temper without any warning, while their children of the same age were enjoying the joy of their parents. That kind of feeling was really indescribable.

Hence, Tian Huixin was more grateful to Xia ruofei. She was not really jealous of her daughter being close to Xia ruofei.

Tian Huixin squatted down and smiled at Huanhuan.””Isn’t that good enough? Brother Xia asked you to wait for him in the city, he’ll be here to meet you soon, okay?”

Huan Huan tilted her head and thought for a while before she said,”Alright! I know ... Brother Xia wants to treat Chengcheng first, then play with me!”

“Mm! Huanhuan is so sensible!” Tian Huixin said.

Next to Tian Huixin was a Haggard – looking young woman in her thirties. When she saw Huan Huan acting coquettishly and talking to Tian Huixin, she could not help but reveal an extremely envious look in her eyes.

Once upon a time, Tian Huixin was just like her. Every day, she would take her child to various rehabilitation institutions, bring her child through perception training, mind games, and watch her child go through those tough training days. However, the effects were minimal, and her spirit was on the verge of collapse.

Now, Huanhuan seemed to have become a different person. She was lively and cheerful. There was no trace of the autistic girl from before.

But her child was still a person with severe autism. Up until now, he couldn’t even say “mom”. No matter how hard the teacher tried, the child could only make a vague sound similar to “mom.”

The child was right beside her, squatting on the ground and staring at an ant. He had been in this position for a long time ...

Tian Huixin picked up Huan Huan and smiled.””Biyun, I’ll help you find a place to stay first. Xiao Xia will meet us in the city in a moment!”

“Thank you, sister Tian!” Xue bi Yun gratefully said.

Xue bi Yun did not speak Cantonese, but rather Mandarin with a Sanshan accent.

In fact, Xue Biyun’s family was from San Shan. She and Tian Huixin had also married into Hong Kong.

It was because of this that the two met in a rehabilitation institution. When they chatted, they found out that they were from the same hometown and had the same experience in a different place. That was why the two became closer and slowly became very good friends.

However, Xue bi Yun wasn’t as lucky as Tian Hui Xin. The Hong Kong man she married treated her quite well at first, especially after Xue bi Yun gave birth to a son for him.

However, when little Chengcheng grew up, he couldn’t speak and was finally diagnosed with severe autism and epilepsy in the hospital, Xue bi Yun’s Hong Kong husband’s attitude changed greatly.

He would often come home drunk, beating and scolding Xue bi Yun and her son.

Especially when Chengcheng lost his temper or screamed at home, Xue bi Yun’s Hong Kong husband would be very impatient and even beat the child up.

Chengcheng originally had social barriers and had an instinctive fear of communicating with people. After being abused by his father, he became even more isolated and his condition became more serious.

It was often Xue bi Yun who painstakingly took care of the child for a long period of rehabilitation training, and when the child's condition finally showed a little improvement, he would return home to be beaten and scolded by his drunkard husband, and the child would immediately seal himself off in his own world.

In the end, Xue bi Yun couldn't take it anymore and chose to divorce her husband. Under the circumstances where her husband's family deliberately made things difficult for her, Xue bi Yun left the marriage with almost nothing. She accepted all kinds of unreasonable requests from her husband's family, the only request was that the child would be raised by her.

Chengcheng had always been a burden in Xue bi Yun's husband's family, so if Xue bi Yun was willing to take him away, they would naturally be more than happy to oblige.

Just like that, the mother and son left the nightmare – like home.

Fortunately, Xue bi Yun had obtained the right to stay in Hong Kong. Her son was also born in Hong Kong, so he could enjoy welfare relief. Moreover, children with autism could enjoy free rehabilitation training in Hong Kong. Tian Huixin would also help the mother and son from time to time and enthusiastically introduce her to part – time jobs. She couldn't work full – time and had to take care of the child.

Chapter 618: Doctor Xia makes another move (2)

Xue bi Yun worked hard to bring the child to recover, while working a few jobs to save money, and they managed to survive for several years.

However, Chengcheng's condition was very serious. His brain had organ – Type lesions, and he would have seizures from time to time, so the effect of rehabilitation training was very weak.

When she found out that Huan Huan had recovered, Xue Biyun's heart was filled with hope, especially when Tian Huixin had enthusiastically helped her ask for Xia ruofei's help. She had even gotten his approval. Xue Biyun was even more excited.

However, Xia ruofei had been very busy recently. If Ma Zhiming hadn't mentioned it again, he wouldn't have remembered it. So, Xue bi Yun had been waiting in torment all this time.

When Tian Huixin informed her that she could bring Chengcheng back to the three mountains to look for Xia ruofei for treatment, she was really in tears.

Ever since the divorce, Xue bi Yun had never returned to the mainland. She didn't even have the money for a plane ticket, and she didn't have the time either. Her family was also in a difficult situation, and she didn't want her family to worry. Every time she called, she would only tell them the good news and not the bad news.

After a few years, Xue bi Yun's heart was filled with mixed feelings as she returned to her hometown.

At the same time, he was also worried about the gains and losses. He was afraid that this trip to seek medical treatment would be the same as the countless experiences in the past. He had come full of hope and left in disappointment, but the child's condition had not improved at all.

When she saw the cute Huanhuan, the conviction in her heart seemed to have strengthened a lot.

Even if he couldn't be completely cured, it would be fine as long as he could get a little better! Xue bi Yun said to herself in her heart.

Tian Huixin could also see that Xue Biyun was very nervous, so she smiled and said, "Biyun, don't worry! Xiao Xia's medical skills are very magical, Chengcheng's illness will definitely be cured!"

Xue bi Yun's eyes reddened as she looked at her son, who was squatting on the ground without a word. She nodded and said, "Sister Tian, I'm really grateful to you for this! I really don't know how to show you guys that you're helping me ..."

All these years, Tian Huixin had helped Xue Biyun a lot. Even the plane tickets back to the mainland this time were provided by Tian Huixin for free. Xue Biyun's heart was filled with gratitude.

Tian Huixin smiled and said, "Biyun, it's fate that we met. We're good sisters. There's no need to be so formal. Let's go!" The car is over there ..."

A luxurious Mercedes – Benz business car came to Hengfeng group's Sanshan office to pick up the young mistress of Qingqing group back to her hometown. They naturally had to do their best to protect her.

The office's driver took the luggage cart, Xue bi Yun carried Chengcheng, Tian Huixin held Huanhuan's hand, and everyone got into the car.

"Old Wu, make a call to Hengfeng hotel and book a Business Suite." Xue bi Yun instructed the chauffeur.

"Alright!" Old Wu quickly said and then started to make a call.

"Sister Tian, there's no need to book such a good place, just find a hotel!" Xue bi Yun quickly said.

The Hengfeng hotel was a super five – Star hotel. A normal standard room cost a thousand, and a Business Suite cost more than three thousand a day. This was simply too extravagant for Xue bi Yun.

"Biyun, you don't have to worry about this. I'll pay for all your expenses at the three mountains!" Tian Huixin said with a smile.

"That's even more impossible! This hotel is too expensive ..."

Tian Huixin chuckled. "This is our family's hotel. The office has reserved rooms all year round. It's not a waste!"

Seeing that Xue Biyun still wanted to decline, Tian Huixin continued, "Xiao Xia is here to treat Chengcheng, how can the environment be too bad? You can't let Xiao Xia treat Chengcheng in a small hotel on the street!"

Hearing Tian Huixin's words, Xue bi Yun didn't decline, but said with red eyes, "Sister Tian, thank you ..."

For the sake of her child, Xue Biyun was willing to do anything. She already owed Tian Huixin a big favor, so she would stay at Hengfeng then! He would just repay her in the future.

After making the reservation, Tian Huixin sent the room number to Xia ruofei.

The Mercedes – Benz business car quickly arrived at the Hengfeng hotel, which was located in the prime location of the city center. Under old Wu's arrangements, Tian Huixin and the others quickly checked into business Suite 1808.

This suite had a bedroom, a small guest room, and a balcony with a wide view.

Xue bi Yun looked at the luxuriously decorated Business Suite and felt uncomfortable. She didn't even know where to put her hands.

As Tian Huixin had booked the room, the hotel had even thoughtfully prepared a large fruit platter. There were even some toys and snacks that children liked.

As soon as Chengcheng entered the room, he pounced on those toys. Although the toys in the hotel were all Barbie dolls and plush bears that girls liked, Chengcheng also liked plush toys very much. Once he went over, he would hug a pink plush bear and directly lie on the carpet, playing with it very happily.

"Chengcheng, be careful, don't dirty the toy ..." Xue bi Yun quickly called out.

Tian Huixin smiled and said, "it's fine, Biyun. Let Chengcheng play!" It's good that the child likes it ... You should sit too! Don't be nervous, when Xiao Xia comes, you can tell him about Chengcheng's condition, he will definitely have a solution!"

"En!" Xue bi Yun nodded heavily.

In fact, at the beginning, Xue Biyun was the same as Tian Huixin. She didn't believe that anyone in the world could treat the autism spectrum disorder. Until now, it was a worldwide problem. There were no effective drugs at all, and they could only rely on some rehabilitation training to correct the child's behavior.

However, Huanhuan's recovery was a fact that could not be doubted.

Tian Huixin sat on the sofa and chatted with Xue Biyun. Huan Huan ran over to play with Chengcheng, but Chengcheng acted as if no one was around. No matter what Huan Huan said to him, he turned a deaf ear. He only played with the teddy bear in his hands, and sometimes he would even make some meaningless syllables.

Xue bi Yun's eyes would occasionally sweep over the two clearly different children, and she couldn't help but sigh in her heart.

After about half an hour, the doorbell rang.

Xue bi Yun immediately stood up. Tian Hui Xin smiled and said, "It should be Xiao Xia. I'll go get the door!"

Tian Huixin quickly went to open the door. It was Xia ruofei, dressed in casual clothes.

"Little Xia is here! Hurry up and enter the house!" Tian Huixin greeted him warmly.

"Madam Tian, have your friends settled down?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile as he walked in.

"Mm! The mother and son will be living here for the next few days." Tian Huixin said. Then, she smiled and said, "Xiao Xia, it's a little awkward for you to call me Madam Tian. Why don't you call me Auntie like Youyou?"

"As long as you don't mind me calling you old!" Xia ruofei smiled.

"Hey! I'm already old! Why would I dislike it?" Tian Huixin said with a smile.

"Alright, I'll call you aunt Huixin then!" Xia ruofei said.

"Good, good, good, you're so friendly!"

As they spoke, the two of them entered the house. Xue bi Yun's hands unconsciously clutched the hem of her clothes, her expression somewhat nervous and apprehensive.

Tian Huixin smiled and said, "ruofei, let me introduce you. This is my best friend, Xue Biyun." "I'll introduce her to you." Biyun, this is the doctor Who cured our Huanhuan, Xia ruofei!"

"Hello, doctor Xia! "I'll have to trouble you ..." Xue bi Yun quickly called out.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Aunt Xue, you're welcome. I promised aunt Huixin a long time ago that I'd treat your child. However, I've been very busy recently, so I've delayed it until now. I'm sorry!"

Although Xue Biyun looked a little old, she was only 35 or 36 years old. Xia ruofei could call her big sister. However, Xue Biyun and Tian Huixin were best friends. Xia ruofei could only call her Aunt Xue. Otherwise, it would really mess up the seniority ...

"It's alright, it's alright!" Xue bi Yun quickly said, "I'm already very grateful that you can come and treat Chengcheng's illness in your busy schedule!"

Xia ruofei looked at Chengcheng who was playing with his toys on the ground and smiled. "So your child is called Chengcheng! He's so handsome! You'll definitely be a handsome young man when you grow up!"

Xue bi Yun sighed, "as long as he can grow up healthy ... Doctor Xia, let me introduce you to Chengcheng's condition!" By the way, I've brought all the medical records from the past few years. Please wait a moment ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "Aunt Xue, don't worry, I'll check Chengcheng's condition first!"

After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei walked to Chengcheng and squatted down. He carefully sized up this handsome little boy.

Chapter 619: helping the world (1)

If it was any other child, they would at least look up if someone was looking at them from such a close distance. However, Chengcheng was still playing with the teddy bear in his hands as if no one was around and ignored Xia ruofei.

"Chengcheng?" Xia ruofei tried to call out.

He had been observing Chengcheng's reaction. His voice was quite loud, but Chengcheng didn't even blink, as if nothing had happened, completely immersed in his own world.

Xia ruofei wasn't surprised. Huanhuan had been like this too.

He muttered to himself for a moment and reached out to pull the teddy bear in Chengcheng's hands.

Chengcheng immediately hugged the teddy bear tightly, but he finally raised his head and glared at Xia ruofei with hostility. Then, he sprawled on the ground and pressed the teddy bear tightly under his body.

Xia ruofei sighed in his heart.

The last time he saw Huanhuan's condition, his heart had been greatly shaken. Today, seeing Chengcheng's condition, which was even more serious, Xia ruofei felt that his heart had been hit hard.

The children of these stars were all very cute and more delicate than ordinary children. If one did not have deep contact with them, one would not have noticed anything wrong with them.

However, if one observed them carefully, they would discover that their eyes were different from ordinary children. They lacked that kind of agility and almost never looked at people in the eye, as if they never had a focus.

Xia ruofei could imagine the suffering of the Star Child's parents.

Moreover, this kind of suffering was not temporary. Every day as the child grew up, this kind of suffering was everywhere. As the child grew older, the best period of correction would pass, and the deep despair would become heavier and heavier.

Many families would try their best to help their children recover when they were young. However, during the long run, due to the lack of obvious recovery effects or financial reasons, people would constantly give up. In the end, most of the people with autism could only be raised at home, without the ability to live independently.

This was also why most of the children in the rehabilitation centers were two to four years old.

Because these children did not have the basic ability to survive, and their social skills were basically zero, most of them could not go to school normally. Those who were slightly better off might go to special schools, while the severe patients could only stay at home.

If it was accompanied by violent tendencies, it would be an incomparably heavy burden to the family, both physically and mentally.

And when the parents of these patients gradually grew old, or even passed away, their conditions could be imagined.

Xia ruofei looked at Chengcheng with a heavy heart. His mind was no longer on how to treat Chengcheng, but the survival of the whole group of people with autism.

When one was poor, he would be good to himself, and when one was good, he would help the world.

Xia ruofei had the ability to cure Huanhuan and Chengcheng, but thousands of people with autism and their families were still in a helpless, desperate, and endless darkness.

In recent years, the proportion of people with autism had been increasing year by year. Research showed that there would be one in every 150 newborns with autism. This was an extremely huge base.

For the first time, Xia ruofei had the thought of doing something for this group of people.

Of course, he might not have such an ability yet, but he believed that with the upgrade of the spirit map space or the continuous unlocking of the contents of the booklet, he might be able to find a complete solution. He would not need to rely on the petals of the spirit Heart Flower, or only need a very small number of them, to effectively treat autism.

If they could develop a cure for autism, it would be a really great thing.

It's even more meaningful than curing cancer. Children are the future of this world!

Xue bi Yun was also nervously watching Xia ruofei. She saw that after Xia ruofei had a simple exchange with Chengcheng, he fell into silence. Her heart was extremely nervous and her heart was clenched.

When Xia ruofei stood up, Xue bi Yun quickly stepped forward and asked, ""Doctor Xia, how is it?"

Xia ruofei had a warm smile on his face. ""Auntie Xue, don't be nervous, I just want to know Chengcheng's situation."

"Doctor Xia, I'll show you Chengcheng's medical record then!" Xue bi Yun nodded repeatedly.

Xia ruofei nodded slightly. Although he didn't need to look at the medical records, Xue bi Yun would feel even more uneasy if he didn't.

Most of the time, Xia ruofei was very considerate of other people's feelings.

When Xue Biyun went to look for the medical records, Tian Huixin told Xia ruofei sincerely, ""Little Xia, I'm really sorry to trouble you this time! It's not easy for Biyun to take care of her child alone. She's suffered a lot all these years. She's also from Mt. Three, so after I got to know her at the rehabilitation Center, we became very good sisters. You have to help her! This is her last hope ..."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "aunt Huixin, don't worry!" Since I've promised you, I'll definitely do my best! And ..."

At this point, Xia ruofei looked at Huanhuan who had fallen asleep on the sofa and said, "Didn't I already have treatment experience before? I don't think it'll be a big problem this time!"

Chapter 620: helping the world (2)

"That's good, that's good ..." Tian Huixin said happily. "Huanhuan was just making a fuss about wanting to see you, but she fell asleep soon after!"

"He's just a child!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "she just got off the plane. She must be tired. Let her have a good sleep!"

“Then you’re not allowed to leave later!” Tian Huixin said with a smile. Otherwise, when this girl wakes up and finds out that you came and left, she’ll definitely throw a tantrum at me!”

“Alright, alright, alright. I’ll definitely wait for our little princess to wake up before leaving!” Xia ruofei laughed.

At this time, Xue bi Yun found the medical records.

There was a thick stack of medical records, some of which were obviously very old.

These medical records were the true portrayal of Xue bi Yun’s bitter search for medicine with her child!

Xia ruofei flipped through every medical record, test report, and electrocardiogram report very seriously. He only put them down after more than half an hour.

“Doctor Xia, is Chengcheng’s condition serious?” Xue bi Yun impatiently asked.

“Compared to Huanhuan’s condition, it’s more serious ... Especially the epilepsy.” Xia ruofei said, “but it shouldn’t be a big problem!”

Xia ruofei wasn’t spouting nonsense. Ever since he had treated elder song, he had started to study medicine. He mainly focused on Chinese medicine and had some understanding of Western medicine.

Xia ruofei was no longer an ordinary person. His spiritual power was many times stronger than that of an ordinary person. Naturally, his learning efficiency was extremely high. Hence, he still had a certain theoretical foundation.

When Xue Biyun heard the first half of the sentence, her heart was in a knot. When Xia ruofei said that it was not a big problem, she felt as if all the energy in her body had been sucked away. She sat on the sofa and her eyes started to turn red.

.....

“Biyun, you should be happy since little Xia said that she can be cured ...” Tian Huixin quickly said.

Xue bi Yun wiped her tears and said, Sister Tian, I ... I’m just too happy ... I’m sorry, Dr. Xia!”

Xia ruofei smiled gently and said, “It’s fine. ”

Then, Xia ruofei turned to Tian Huixin and asked, “Aunt Huixin, can you find a tool for decocting medicine?”

“I’ll get the hotel to prepare it immediately. What do you need?” Tian Huixin immediately said.

“Claypot, charcoal stove, and charcoal.” Xia ruofei said, “if it’s hard to find, an ordinary aluminium pot and induction cooker can be used together!”

“I can find it! I’ll make the call immediately!” Tian Huixin said.

What a joke, what if the medicinal effects were affected by using an adamantite pot and induction stove to boil the medicine? With the young mistress’s request, even if it was something a hundred times more difficult than this, the hotel would definitely prepare it eagerly, let alone finding a claypot.

“Alright, get them to send it over as soon as possible!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “I’m going to the pharmacy to prepare some Chinese medicine. I’ll boil some medicine for Chengcheng today.”

Xue Biyun quickly stood up and thanked her. The two of them walked Xia ruofei to the door, and then Tian Huixin called the hotel to prepare the equipment for brewing Chinese medicine.

In fact, Xia ruofei had stored a large amount of common Chinese medicine in his storage space. However, he could not just take it out of thin air! On the way here, he had noticed a Chinese medicine pharmacy nearby, so he simply left the hotel and strolled over to buy a few Chinese medicines he needed before returning to the hotel.

Xia ruofei was still brewing the herbal soup that could calm the mind and nourish the brain. The real healing effect was the spirit Heart Flower petal solution.

By the time Xia ruofei returned to the hotel, Hengfeng hotel had already prepared everything he needed with the highest efficiency.

Hence, Xia ruofei had Tian Huixin and Xue Biyun wait in the guest room while he carried the medicinal herbs to the bedroom, closed the door, and began to brew the medicine.

Xia ruofei was already very familiar with brewing medicine.

The brewing process of the body tempering soup and the spirit gestating soup was so complicated, but he could easily complete it, let alone an ordinary medicinal soup.

After the Chinese medicine was brewed, Xia ruofei opened the window to let the strong smell of the medicine out. Then, he poured out half a bowl of the medicine. Considering that Chengcheng was still young and it would be difficult to feed him medicine in his current condition, Xia ruofei specially poured less.

Then, with a thought, a porcelain bottle appeared in Xia ruofei’s hand.

This was the petal solution that he had specially concocted before he set off. The concentration of the spirit Heart Flower petals in it was relatively low. He had no choice but to put in a whole petal. If he put in a whole petal, he estimated that Chengcheng would recover after drinking two doses of medicine. That would be too shocking.

According to Xia ruofei’s calculations, with this concentration of the spirit Heart Flower petal solution, Chengcheng would need about half a month to show obvious improvement. Continuously taking it for a month would consume one to two Spirit Heart Flower petals. By then, he would basically be fully recovered.

Xia ruofei poured the flower petal solution into the medicinal soup and stirred it evenly with his chopsticks. He then kept the bowl back into the original space and used the time difference to cool the medicinal soup down to an edible temperature. Then, he took out the bowl and walked out of the bedroom.

“Doctor Xia, you’ve worked hard!” Xue bi Yun quickly came forward and carefully took the bowl of medicine.

In her eyes, this was no ordinary Chinese medicine. This was the hope of her son’s recovery!

“Auntie Xue, let Chengcheng drink the medicine!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Xue bi Yun nodded, then carefully asked, “Doctor Xia, can I add sugar to this? Chengcheng is a little afraid of suffering ...”
