

God tier Farm 731

Chapter 731: Young, rich, and good – looking (3)

The living room was connected to a large balcony, while the second bedroom had a relatively small balcony.

The entire house was located at the East End of the North – facing south. There was light on all three sides, and the whole house was very bright. There was no problem with the sun in the west at all.

If he bought this house, he could divide it into three bedrooms and a small study room. This way, Lin Qiao and Hu Zi's mother would have their own bedrooms. There would also be a guest bedroom, which would be enough for relatives to use.

Xia ruofei nodded in his heart.

Then, he vaguely felt that the space above his head was very empty. He couldn't help but raise his head to take a look, and his eyebrows subconsciously raised.

This house was much higher than the average commercial house, especially in the middle part of the house, which was basically two stories high.

Liang Weimin smiled and explained, "ruofei, this house is on the top floor. Above it is the slope of the building, so the highest floor is about 5.8 meters high. When it's renovated, you can add a layer of cement board. This way, you can have a very good attic. Moreover, this extra floor is considered a gift and will not be counted into the transaction area."

"This is not bad!" Xia ruofei's eyes lit up.

As long as it was a building with a slope, this was the "benefit" of the penthouse residents. Most of the time, the top floor was a duplex structure. It was really cost – effective to have an extra attic in a flat – Level structure like this.

In fact, when the 'world viewing' opened for sale, all the units on the top floor of each unit with a slanted roof were sold out in a very short time.

If this apartment had not been reserved by the jianda group, it would not have been Xia ruofei's turn to buy it now that the house was about to be handed over.

Although it was separated by a floor and could be considered a duplex structure, Xia ruofei still felt that this unit was very suitable.

The area of this apartment was much smaller than the two in Building No. 3. Besides, the attic was built on a slope, so many parts of it were very low. At most, it could only be transformed into an activity room or Lin Qiao's boudoir. The main living space was still on the lower floor.

Therefore, after moving in, Hu Zi's mother basically didn't have to climb the stairs often.

The more Xia ruofei thought about it, the more he felt that it was suitable. He found out that unit 1802, which was reserved next door, did not have such a loft space as the top structure was not a slope but a flat top.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not hesitate and said, "Uncle Liang, I'll take this unit 1801!"

Liang Weimin had already expected this. He smiled and said, "No problem! Ruofei, our grand Vision's opening price is 25000. As the chairman of the company, the biggest discount I can give you is 20% off, so...Let's deal at 20000 per square meter!"

The sales manager's eyes lit up when he heard this. He looked at Xia ruofei with envy.

Xia ruofei quickly said, "no!" Uncle Liang, you've given me such a good reserved house. I can't take advantage of your company anymore!"

It was true that the opening price of the grand vision was 25000, but that was the average price. For a top – tier apartment like this one, it would definitely be worth more than that.

Moreover, the market opened at the beginning of last year, which had been a year and a half. The new prices in this area were at least 30000 Yuan.

How could they use the opening price at the beginning of last year as the standard for buying a house now? Furthermore, Liang Weimin had even given Xia ruofei a 20% discount, which made Xia ruofei feel like he was taking advantage of him.

Chapter 732: Loyal and righteous (1)

Liang Weimin said jokingly, "Ruofei, I'll sell it at this price. If you think that the price is too low for your status, then go next door and buy their high – priced house!"

"Uncle Liang, that's not what I meant," Xia ruofei said with a bitter smile. I know the price of your building, and 20000 is too low. Since it's a commodity transaction, we'll follow the market price!"

"The market price?" asked Liang Weimin. Then the company should still have the power to set the price, right? I'm the company's chairman, I can still make decisions for such small matters, right?"

"But ..."

"No buts, ruofei." Liang Weimin said, "first of all, I'm only giving you the best discount within my authority. I didn't give you a random price, right? Besides, you're not a government official, so even if the unit price is 10000 or 5000, or even giving it to you for free, it's not considered bribery, right?"

The sales manager was stunned. It was the first time he had encountered such a situation. The seller was trying to make it cheaper, but the buyer was trying to increase the price.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but smile bitterly. This Liang Weimin was so unreasonable that he couldn't win in an argument!

However, Xia ruofei really liked this house. He couldn't just give it up just because it was cheap, right?

Xia ruofei thought for a while and finally made a decision.

He wanted it!

He would just treat it as him owing Liang Weimin a favor! At most, he would help Liang Qichao more in the future. The relationship between the two families was so close that he would have a chance to return the favor.

After making up his mind, Xia ruofei nodded and said, "Alright! Uncle Liang, we'll do as you say! I'm taking this suite!"

Liang Weimin immediately grinned and patted Xia ruofei's shoulder. "That's the way! Ruofei, you're not allowed to be such an outsider with your uncle Liang in the future! Otherwise, I'll really get angry!"

Liang Weimin knew that Xia ruofei was not short of money and would not accept his gift. Otherwise, he would have given this house to Xia ruofei without hesitation.

Xia ruofei nodded with a smile.

The group left the No. 1 building and took the electric car back to the sales office.

After returning to the sales office, Xia ruofei asked, "Oh right, uncle Liang, I bought this house for someone else. I've brought her identification card. It's fine if she doesn't show up, right?"

Liang Weimin was stunned for a moment. After some thought, he said, "In principle, there's no problem. However, the owner has to be present to sign the property certificate. If you want to apply for a loan, you also need to sign in person to apply for a loan."

Xia ruofei replied without hesitation, "full payment!" "I'll pay the full amount for the room today!"

Liang Weimin chuckled and said, "there's no need to be so anxious. According to the rules, you can just pay a deposit today. With our relationship, it doesn't matter whether you pay or not!"

Xia ruofei said firmly, "yes!" He had to pay! I'll have to pay for the house sooner or later anyway, so I'll just pay for it today to save myself the trouble in the future. "

The reason why Xia ruofei was so determined to pay the money was very simple. He was worried that Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao would not accept his gift.

After paying all the money, he could tell them that he had paid for the house and that the real estate developer wouldn't let him check out. By then, he would have to take it.

Liang Weimin didn't understand, but he knew that Xia ruofei wasn't short of money. Since Xia ruofei insisted on paying today, he naturally wouldn't object.

So, Liang Weimin called the sales manager over and explained the situation to him.

The sales manager immediately said respectfully, "Mr. Xia, please give me the identity card of the buyer. I'll go and handle the relevant procedures."

"I'll have to trouble you!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Then, he took out Lin Qiao's ID card and handed it to the manager.

After manager Song took the ID card, he immediately went to prepare a copy of the ID card and some other procedures to purchase the house.

Liang Weimin was sitting opposite Xia Ruofei. He caught a glimpse of the young and beautiful girl on Xia Ruofei's identity card and instantly smiled knowingly.

"Uncle Liang, it's not what you think," Xia Ruofei explained with a bitter smile. "Qiao'er is the sister of one of my comrades who sacrificed herself ..."

Xia Ruofei didn't want Liang Weimin to misunderstand, so he explained his relationship with Lin Qiao's family. Of course, he skipped the part about the military secrets.

After Liang Weimin heard this, he couldn't help but show a look of admiration.

He said, "Ruofei, you're really loyal!" If your comrade's spirit is in heaven, he'll be very pleased. "

Xia Ruofei sighed. "It's enough as long as Auntie and Qiao'er can live a healthy and happy life. I don't think too much about other things."

"Oh yes, Uncle Liang, I'll leave the renovation of this house to you!" Xia Ruofei continued.

Liang Weimin laughed heartily and said, "That's for sure!" I'll personally keep an eye on them and get them to come up with a few designs for you to choose from!"

"Thanks!" Xia Ruofei said with a smile.

The company's president was here in person, and the sales department was very efficient.

Very quickly, they had prepared the relevant procedures. After Xia Ruofei signed the papers, he swiped his card and paid for the house. The total amount was more than 2.4 million Yuan.

Then, he took the house purchase receipt from Jianda Group and bade Liang Weimin farewell. He left the Grand View Real Estate and drove back to the farm.

Chapter 733: Affectionate and righteous (2)

Xia Ruofei returned the ID card to Lin Qiao as soon as he got home.

"Brother Ruofei, why did you take my ID card?" Lin Qiao asked.

"You'll know in a few days!" Xia Ruofei laughed.

"Tsk! You only know how to keep me in suspense ... I'm not going to talk to you!" Lin Qiao said angrily.

Then, he immersed himself in his laptop.

Xia Ruofei took a look. Lin Qiao wasn't watching a TV series or playing games. The computer screen was photoshopped.

Xia Ruofei couldn't help but smile. It seemed that this girl had taken his words to heart. She had found a design software so quickly and started to self-study.

“Qiao’ er, I’ll bring you to the city in a few days to buy some self – study materials for the commonly used graphic design software!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “it’s always faster to learn from books than to figure it out by yourself!”

“Alright!” Lin Qiao said happily, “when you’re done with this!”

She also knew that the Taoyuan fruits were being harvested these few days and the company would be very busy. As the boss of the company, Xia ruofei naturally could not slack off alone.

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. He didn’t disturb Lin Qiao’s study and went straight to his room.

In the next few days, the farm entered a busy state.

.....

Cao tieshu organized the farm employees and temporarily hired villagers to start harvesting the lychees and cherries.

After Cao tieshu found out about the selling price of these fruits, he was also very careful. He repeatedly emphasized this to the staff who participated in the harvesting. During the harvesting process, he also constantly reminded them, afraid that everyone would be careless and cause harm to the fruits.

The exterior packaging that Lin Qiao had been involved in the design from the beginning to the end was also produced and transported to Taoyuan farm.

Cao tieshu had temporarily found some women from the village to take on the task of packing.

After the fruits harvested from the mountain were transported, these women would do a simple screening of the fruits and then weigh them to ensure that the weight of each fruit was roughly the same.

Then, she wrapped the fruits in anti – collision foam bags and put them into a box.

Of course, in consideration of the transportation problem, the fruits for Hengfeng group were not packaged.

It was the same as the previous cooperation with Tongren Hall to sell iron – skinned fengdou. The fruits provided to Hengfeng group were packaged in large packages and then shipped together with the outer packaging. Hengfeng group would then send them to various places according to their plan, and then they would package them themselves.

Of course, there was a clear clause in the supply and marketing contract between the peach blossom company and Hengfeng group. That was, Hengfeng group must use the packaging provided by the peach blossom company and was not allowed to change the packaging of the peach blossom fruit without permission.

It was the same for the other super – Commercial channels that they cooperated with, and they had to use the packaging of the Paradise Corporation.

Xia ruofei's main purpose was to promote the brand name of Taoyuan. If they changed the exterior packaging, what was the point?

To be honest, the fruit industry only had a revenue of 10 to 20 million a year. To Xia ruofei, it was not a big deal.

It was a busy scene in Taoyuan farm.

The cold chain trucks went in and out, transporting the harvested organic fruits from the peach Garden to various partners.

It was not until the last cart of fruits was transported away that everyone finally heaved a sigh of relief.

The past few days had been like a tough battle. Whether it was the harvesting workers or the administrative team responsible for coordinating the delivery, transportation, and other matters, everyone felt exhausted.

Xia ruofei expressed his gratitude to everyone for their hard work over the past few days. Then, he announced on the spot that the company had decided to give everyone a 1000 – Yuan bonus for their outstanding performance in this surprise mission.

Including the temporarily hired villagers, they received a bonus of 1000 Yuan in addition to the normal salary.

Everyone laughed and cheered. Some of the older employees even jokingly shouted, "President Xia is wise", "long live President Xia", and so on. The atmosphere was quite relaxed and happy.

After the fruit harvesting work, the farm work returned to its previous track.

The preliminary examination of the heart – nourishing soup was still in progress.

There was a time period for clinical trials, so there was no point in rushing it.

The provincial Food and Drug Administration had already given them the greatest support, and all the procedures had been completed as soon as possible.

If it was another pharmaceutical company, the cost might be several times or even more than ten times.

The expansion and transformation project was also coming to an end. The small and medium – sized professional cold storage that was completed the earliest had been completed and could be put into use soon. The new vegetable greenhouse was basically completed. Now, only some cleaning works such as environmental control were left.

There were professionals in charge of all these. Feng Jing was also in charge of the company's operations, so Xia ruofei had some free time.

At that moment, Liang Weimin called Xia ruofei and told him that the house's renovation design plan was ready. There were three plans in total, and he asked Xia ruofei to go over and take a look when he had the time.

Xia ruofei immediately decided to go today. He also told Liang Weimin that he would meet him at the sales office of the Grand view of the world.

Since this house was for Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao, the specific renovation plan still had to be decided by them, especially Lin Qiao.

This way, he could meet them directly at the sales office and take them to see the real estate.

After making an appointment with Liang Weimin, Xia ruofei went downstairs to look for Lin Qiao. He smiled and said, "Qiao'er, didn't I say I'd go with you to buy some design tutorials a few days ago? Let's go now!"

"Alright!" Lin Qiao said, "brother ruofei, wait for me. I'll leave after I change my clothes!"

"Alright!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "where's Auntie? Let her come along?"

"We're buying books. What's my mom doing there?" Lin Qiao asked in confusion.

"It's boring to stay at home all day. Let Auntie go out for a walk!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

Lin Qiao looked at Xia ruofei suspiciously. She felt that there was a conspiracy behind this. However, she still said, "Alright then! My mom should be in the room. Go talk to her!"

"Alright, then hurry up and change!"

Xia ruofei went to the guest room next door, knocked on the door, and went in to inform Hu Zi's mother. At first, Hu Zi's mother did not want to go, but she could not stand Xia ruofei's persuasion and finally agreed.

Xia ruofei insisted on bringing Hu Zi's mother along. The reason was simple. If Lin Qiao was alone, she would not dare to accept a house. Hu Zi's mother had to be present.

As for how to convince Hu Zi's mother, Xia ruofei had already thought of a way.

The three of them got into the car. Xia ruofei drove away from the farm and headed towards the Grand View Real Estate in the city.

After the car entered the city, Lin Qiao found that something was wrong. She said, "Brother ruofei, there's a Xinhua Bookstore on Gudong Road. Why are you driving in the opposite direction?"

Xia ruofei stared at the road and said with a smile, "Let's not go to the bookstore yet. I'll take you somewhere?"

"What place is it?"

"You'll know when we get there!"

"So annoying! Keeping us in suspense again!" Lin Qiao said angrily.

Soon, Xia ruofei drove the Knight XV SUV to the Dagan world sales office.

As usual, Liang Weimin attended the event in person, accompanied by three of the best interior designers from the interior design company under the Jianda Group. They had each brought their own carefully designed interior design plans.

"RUO Fei!" Liang Weimin greeted Xia ruofei with a smile.

“Uncle Liang, thank you for your hard work!” Xia ruofei said.

“Auntie, Qiao’ er, this is uncle Liang, the chairman of jianda Real Estate Group, Liang Weimin,” he introduced. “Uncle Liang, these are the people I told you about before. They’re my comrades ‘mother and sister.”

“I know!” Liang Weimin smiled and said, “Lin Qiao, right?”

“Hello, President Liang!” Lin Qiao took the initiative to greet Liang Weimin.

Then, she asked in a low voice, “Brother ruofei, why did you bring us here?”

Xia ruofei and Liang Weimin looked at each other and smiled. Then, Xia ruofei said, “Let’s go! Let’s go inside and talk!”

When they arrived at the sales office, everyone sat down on the soft and spacious sofas. Xia ruofei received three concept art designs from Liang Weimin.

He flipped through it and passed it to Lin Qiao, asking, “Qiao’ er, there are three designs here. If you were to renovate the house, which one would you like best?”

Chapter 734: The “conspiracy” has succeeded (1)

“Didn’t you say you were going to buy books? “Why are you suddenly showing me the renovation plan ...” Lin Qiao rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and mumbled.

She felt that Xia ruofei was acting weird today and did not know what he was up to.

However, Xia ruofei maintained the posture of handing her the proposal with a bright smile on his face. She thought about it and took it.

Hu Zi’s mother also felt that Xia ruofei was a little strange today. He was going to accompany Lin Qiao to buy some books, but he had to bring her along. After returning to the city, he did not go to the bookstore but came to a real estate and even let Lin Qiao see some renovation plan.

Hu Zi’s mother could vaguely guess Xia ruofei’s intentions, but she did not say anything. In her heart, she thought that no matter what Xia ruofei said, she would firmly reject it.

Lin Qiao was already looking through the three plans that the gold – medal designer of jianda group had worked overtime to come up with.

“It’s so beautiful ...” Lin Qiao couldn’t help but praise when she saw the magnificent design.

Since Liang Weimin knew that Xia ruofei had bought it for Lin Qiao, he would naturally tell the designer to design it according to the style that young girls liked.

It was also very important to understand the customer’s attributes. If this house was designed in a Chinese style, Lin Qiao would not be interested in it no matter how perfect the design was.

All three plans adopted a fresh style, and the master bedroom was decorated with many girlish elements and pink decorations. The whole house was simply like a dream house.

Lin Qiao couldn’t stop fondling it, especially the design of the small attic.

Perhaps every girl had a dream in her heart, to own such a dreamlike attic, and this dream was so vividly reflected in the design draft today.

Xia ruofei smiled and asked, "what do you think?" Which plan do you like the most?"

For the first time, Lin Qiao felt that she had difficulty choosing. She looked at the three plans over and over again and said after a long while, "Brother ruofei, these three plans are all very good. If I had to choose ... It's really hard to choose ..."

The three designers standing behind Liang Weimin couldn't help but look proud.

Lin Qiao thought for a while and said, "I think this set is the best in terms of the overall design, but the bedroom design seems to be more heartwarming!" However, I still prefer the last one. It's really amazing!"

Liang Weimin and Xia ruofei looked at each other and couldn't help but laugh.

Liang Weimin laughed heartily and said, "isn't that simple?" Little song, the three of you will work together and combine the three plans according to what Lin Qiao just said. Is there a problem?"

One of the designers immediately said, "No problem, President Liang!"

Of course, it was not as simple as changing the bedroom and attic design of the previous plan to the other two. This involved the coordination of the overall style, and there must be many details to be dealt with.

Of course, this wasn't a problem for the gold – medal designers of Jianda group. Although this kind of work was more cumbersome, since the chairman had personally spoken, the designers would naturally do their best to perform. If they didn't perform now, when else would they do it?

Lin Qiao was stunned and asked, "Brother ruofei...What...What's going on?"

Xia ruofei laughed and stood up. "Qiao'er, you don't have to worry about this! I'll take you and Auntie to a place."

"RUO Fei ..." Hu Zi's mother frowned and said, "this ..."

"Auntie, I know what you want to say." Xia ruofei chuckled and interrupted Hu Zi's mother, saying, "let's talk about it later, okay? For now, you guys come with me, okay?"

Hu Zi's mother muttered to herself and nodded helplessly.

Thus, the group got on the electric car and, accompanied by Liang Weimin, arrived at Building 1.

They were in the process of handing over their houses these few days, and many owners were also at the real estate area. It was much more lively than the last time.

Xia ruofei and the rest took the elevator to Room 1801 on the 18th floor. The manager of the sales department opened the door with the key.

Xia ruofei entered first and then called Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao in.

As soon as Lin Qiao entered the door, she looked around and said in surprise, "Brother ruofei, this is the apartment in the renovation plan we just saw, right?"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. "That's right! If this house was renovated according to the plan just now, would you like it?"

Without waiting for Lin Qiao to speak, Hu 'Zi's mother said, "Ruofei, this house costs a few million, we can't ..."

Xia ruofei chuckled and interrupted Hu Zi's mother, "Auntie, I understand what you mean. We'll talk about this later."

Hu Zi's mother wanted to decline twice, but she was interrupted by Xia ruofei before she could say anything. She could only smile bitterly and shake her head. No matter what ruofei said later, she had to reject him with a firm attitude.

Xia ruofei looked at Lin Qiao again, waiting for her answer with a smile.

Lin Qiao thought for a moment and said, "if I renovate it according to that plan, it will definitely be very, very beautiful ... But this has nothing to do with me. After I get a job, I will work hard to earn money to buy such a house!"

Lin Qiao was not stupid. She could guess Xia ruofei's intention. This lady was using this method to reject Xia ruofei's good intentions.

Chapter 735: The "conspiracy" has succeeded (2)

Hu Zi's mother also looked relieved. Although her family was poor and she didn't go to school, she had always paid great attention to the education of her children. Therefore, both Lin Hu and Lin Qiao were very kind.

Xia ruofei acted as if he didn't hear her. He continued to smile and said, "Qiao' er, I remember when you first transferred to No. 8 high school, I told you that if you did well in the college entrance examination, I would give you a big surprise ..."

"I remember!" Lin Qiao immediately said, "brother ruofei, those phones and computers that you gave me a few days ago, aren't they big surprises? It solved all the digital equipment problems I had in college in one go, and all of them are luxurious!"

Xia ruofei glared at Lin Qiao and said, "I haven't finished yet! Don't interrupt!"

Lin Qiao stuck out her tongue mischievously.

Xia ruofei continued, "those small prizes aren't a surprise. They're just small gifts." Auntie, Qiao' er, the surprise I'm talking about is this house ..."

"No! RUO Fei, you can't do this!" Hu Zi's mother finally said what she wanted to say. She did not let Xia ruofei interrupt her again. "This is a house worth millions. We can't take it no matter what!"

This time, Lin Qiao also stood firmly on her mother's side and said, "Yes! Brother ruofei, we appreciate your kindness. But I don't want to be a person who doesn't work for anything. I believe that in the future, I will be able to use my own hands to let mom live a good life."

Xia ruofei had already anticipated their reaction, so he was still smiling.

He said, "Qiao'er, there's no conflict!" With this house, you still need to work hard to change your life and your destiny."

Lin Qiao opened her mouth, but Xia ruofei didn't wait for her to speak and continued, "The most important thing is that I've already bought this house under your name! And in full! The money has been paid!"

After Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao heard this, they couldn't help but be stunned. The house suddenly became very quiet.

Xia ruofei smiled proudly and said, "What do you think I took your ID card for that day? I knew you wouldn't accept it, so I had to act first and report later!"

Hu Zi's mother frowned slightly and asked, "Qiao'er, did you really give your id to brother ruofei?"

"I ... I didn't know that brother ruofei would use it to buy a house ..." Lin Qiao said dejectedly.

Hu Zi's mother looked at Xia ruofei, feeling both angry and amused. She said, "Ruofei, we can't take this house. You can either keep it for yourself or return it!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "I knew you'd say that. That's why I've invited President Liang of the Jianda group."

After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei smiled and gave Liang Weimin a look.

Liang Weimin knew it was time for him to step up, so he cleared his throat and said, "I'm sorry! We don't give refunds once our houses are sold. Mr. Xia has already paid 2.44 million Yuan for the house, so it is now an asset under Lin Qiao's name."

Hu Zi's mother said, "this ... This can't be right, right?" Don't you need to sign the real estate certificate? Qiao'er only gave her identification card to RUO Fei, and she was able to get the house under her name?"

"The real estate certificate is already in the process of being processed. It does need Lin Qiao's signature," Liang Weimin said.

"Then why don't you just get the real estate certificate under brother ruofei's name?" Lin Qiao quickly said.

Liang Weimin smiled and said, "I'm sorry!" This house was bought in your name, and the house purchase invoice we issued also has your name on it, so the property ownership certificate can only have your name on it. If it is inconsistent with the house purchase invoice, the Housing Authority will not allow it."

Lin Qiao was dumbfounded. "This can't do, that can't do. Brother ruofei's way of doing things is really ... Watertight!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "Auntie, Qiao'er, I was worried that you wouldn't accept it. That's why I did everything behind your back. This time, you can't reject me, can you?"

Hu Zi's mother thought for a moment and said, "ruofei, we really can't accept this." Since Qiao'er's name must be written on the property ownership certificate, then we'll do it first. After we're done, we'll transfer the ownership to you. That should be fine, right?"

Xia ruofei revealed a troubled expression and said, "You can, but the transfer fee isn't low! Also, the transfer of a house less than five years old will have a very high transaction tax!"

When Liang Weimin heard this, he immediately took out his phone and pulled out a calculator. As he calculated, he said, "I'll give you a rough calculation! In your case, you can only transfer the ownership as a second-hand house. The property area of this house is 126 square meters, and the unit price is 20000 Yuan! "The surrounding houses are already worth more than 30000 Yuan. 20000 Yuan is already very low ... If we calculate it at 20000 Yuan, the total price will be 2.44 million Yuan. Moreover, this is not an ordinary house and it has not been five years, so we can't enjoy the tax reduction ..."

Liang Weimin said as he entered some data into his phone's calculator. In the end, he said, "I've calculated it! In this case, the contract tax is 73200 Yuan, business tax is 136640 Yuan, and personal income tax is 24400 Yuan. Not including other small expenses, the three items alone will cost you 234240 Yuan!"

Hu Zi's mother couldn't help but gasp when she heard this. After a long while, she said, "Just ... Just changing the name of the property ownership certificate ... It ... It costs 230000 Yuan?"

Chapter 736: The "conspiracy" has succeeded (3)

Liang Weimin shrugged and said, "the country's regulations are like this. Even if the Father were to transfer the ownership to the son, it would cost at least ten to twenty thousand Yuan!" It's even higher in your case ..."

When Hu'er's mother heard this, she felt at a loss.

Seeing this, Xia ruofei stepped out and said, "Auntie, if you really don't want it, then we can do as you said and transfer it to me after the deed is done. This 230000 Yuan ... Just take it as my contribution to the country's tax collection!"

Xia ruofei's method of retreating to advance was quite effective. Hu Zi's mother immediately said, "No! I can't waste this money anymore! That's more than two hundred thousand ..."

Xia ruofei chuckled and shrugged. "Then I have no other choice ..."

Then, Xia ruofei said seriously, "Auntie, Qiao'er, this is really just a token of my appreciation. You don't have to think too much about it. It didn't matter whose name was written on the property ownership certificate. Although your living conditions have improved a lot, you're still renting a house, and ... Qiao'er, you're going to university soon. Can you bear to see Auntie still living in a rented house? Besides, as you know, I'm pretty well-off now, and it's very easy for me to buy a house like this. It's even as easy as lifting a finger, so ... Auntie, just take it as me being filial to Hu Zi!"

Xia ruofei's words were very sincere. Even Liang Weimin couldn't help but be moved.

Hu 'Zi's mother's eyes were also red."Ruofei, I know you're a good kid, but this house is too expensive ..."

"Auntie, how about this?" Xia ruofei said,"we've already bought this house. Besides, it will cost a lot of money to transfer the ownership. It's a waste to leave it idle. Why don't you move in after the renovation is done? if you really don't want to accept it, you can at least wait five years later?" By the time Qiao' er graduates from University, she should have gradually become financially capable. In addition, the cost of transferring houses that are more than five years old won't be so high anymore. "

Liang Weimin promptly said,"that's right. In a second – hand house transaction, a house that has been sold for five years can enjoy a business tax discount. You only need to pay the remaining amount. You're also exempted from personal income tax. You can get a lot cheaper."

Since Xia ruofei had already said this, Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao exchanged glances and finally nodded helplessly.

Xia ruofei cheered in his heart and clenched his fists.

His painstaking arrangements finally paid off. Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao finally accepted the house.

As for the so – called transfer after five years, it was just Xia ruofei's stalling tactic. When the time came, he would naturally have all kinds of ways to avoid it.

"Uncle Liang, I'll have to trouble you with the renovation!" Xia ruofei said happily,"today's proposal was very good. I'll have to trouble your designer for the subsequent adjustments."

"Don't worry! Leave it to me!" Liang Weimin was also very happy."I'll get them to adjust the design drafts as soon as possible. When the time comes ..."

"When the time comes, just give it to Qiao' er. As long as she and Auntie are satisfied, we can start work!" Xia ruofei said directly.

"Alright!"

At this time, Hu Zi's mother could not help but ask,""Ruofei, the renovation cost for such a big house must be quite high, right?"

When Lin Qiao was looking at the renovation plan just now, Hu Zi's mother also took a few glances at it. She felt that the design was quite high – end and could tell that the cost was high, so she couldn't help but ask.

Xia ruofei replied without thinking,"uncle Liang will give us a big discount." Besides, this house had to be renovated after buying it! At most, I'll pay for it in advance, and you can return it to me when Qiao' er earns money in the future!"

Lin Qiao bit her lower lip and said in a low voice,""Brother ruofei, thank you ..."

"Silly girl! Why are you treating me like an outsider?" Xia ruofei rubbed Lin Qiao's hair affectionately."Qiao' er, you're very talented in design. After uncle Liang's designer's proposal is out, you can take a good look at it yourself. If you have any good ideas, you can let the designer make adjustments. Anyway, this house is for you and Auntie to live in. You must renovate it according to your ideal look. Don't be afraid of spending money, understand?"

Lin Qiao's eyes were a little wet, and she nodded heavily.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "let's go!" I still have to buy books later! Oh right, since Qiao'er is here today, go and sign those few papers! Uncle Liang has already started to get the property certificate!"

Chapter 737: Rising to fame (1)

When everyone returned to the sales office, Lin Qiao signed where she needed to sign and left the handling of the property ownership certificate to Liang Weimin.

After that, they went to the nearest Xinhua Bookstore and bought a few software design tutorials before driving back to the farm together.

After returning home, Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao still didn't seem to be in a good mood. In fact, they didn't talk much on the road.

Xia ruofei realized that his decision was not right. A house that cost more than two million Yuan was nothing to Xia ruofei now, but to Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao, it was a height that they would never be able to reach in their lives.

In particular, Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao were not greedy people. On the contrary, although they were poor, they had strong characters and always insisted on working hard to change their lives by themselves.

Xia ruofei's deepest impression was when he found out that Hu Zi's mother was seriously ill and had no money for treatment when he first left the Army. Without hesitation, he urgently sold the only house in the family and sent Hu Zi's mother all the money he had including his retirement fees anonymously.

However, in the face of such a fortune that could extend one's life, Hu Zi's mother insisted on not using it. Even if her illness was so serious that it was life – threatening, she still refused to use a single cent.

From another perspective, this truly reflected Hu Zi's mother's precious character.

Xia ruofei felt that although Hu Zi's mother had no choice but to accept his 'act first and report later', it seemed to give them the feeling of accepting charity.

Xia ruofei often helped the mother and daughter, but giving a house was not the same as giving Taoyuan vegetables, chicken, duck, fish, and meat, or giving Lin Qiao some digital products after her college entrance examination.

After realizing this, Xia ruofei thought that he should do something. Otherwise, it would be bad if he left a grudge in the mother – daughter pair's hearts.

Wouldn't that be doing bad things with good intentions?

Hence, Xia ruofei, who had already walked up the stairs and was about to return to his room, suddenly stopped and returned to the living room.

Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao were also about to return to their rooms.

"Auntie, Qiao' er!" Xia ruofei stopped them.

Hu Zi's mother turned around and asked with a smile, "Is there anything else, ruofei?"

Xia ruofei organized his words and smiled. "Auntie, I know that I made the decision to buy this house today and made you feel a little uncomfortable ..."

"Ruofei, Auntie knows you mean well ..."

"Auntie, let me finish first." Xia ruofei said, "actually, my thinking is very simple. I just want to be filial to Hu Zi."

At this point, Xia ruofei's face revealed a look of reminiscence. He continued emotionally, "Hu Zi and I are life – and – Death brothers. When we joined the team, we swore that on the battlefield, everyone had to be prepared to take a bullet for their comrades. In fact, Hu Zi used his actions to fulfill his oath."

Xia ruofei's voice was a little choked as he said, "Aunty, the last words that Hu Zi left in this world often reverberate in my mind, and I can never forget them. He said, 'ruofei, help me take care of my mother and sister ...'"

Xia ruofei's gaze seemed to travel through time and space, back to the dangerous tropical forest. The sound of the sniper rifle seemed to still be in his ears. The hot blood that was gushing out of Lin Hu's chest was so glaring. He used all his strength to turn his head and say to Xia ruofei, "Ruofei, help me ... Take care of my mom ... And my sister ..."

Xia ruofei's voice trembled as he continued to speak to Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao, "I said to Hu, 'don't worry, from now on, your mother is my mother ...'"

Hu Zi's mother and Lin Qiao were already in tears. Hu Zi's mother choked and said, "Ruofei, stop it! We all understand your feelings ..."

"No, Auntie, let me finish." Xia ruofei said stubbornly, "actually, from that moment on, I took over the baton from Hu Zi. Taking care of you and letting you live a good life is my duty ..."

"I know, I know ..." Hu Zi's mother mumbled with red eyes, "ruofei, you've already done very well."

Xia ruofei shook his head. "Auntie, I really treat you like my own mother and Qiao' er like my own little sister. My parents passed away in an accident when I was young. My only relative, my grandfather, also left me. I've been alone since then. There's something I've always wanted to say ..."

"Ruofei, you speak." Hu Zi's mother said. She looked at Xia ruofei with love and a hint of heartache.

Xia ruofei continued, "Auntie, I'm a child without a father or mother now. I've promised Hu that I'd treat you like my own mother. So ... I want to acknowledge you as my godmother and take care of you on behalf of Hu. I hope you don't mind."

Hu Zi's mother's lips were trembling. She was also very excited.

Her son's early death was a permanent scar for her. However, Xia ruofei's appearance changed her family, which was plagued with disasters, and she and Lin Qiao were freed from endless suffering.

Chapter 738: Rising to fame (2)

Hu 'Zi's mother was obviously very fond of Xia ruofei. Although Lin Hu was irreplaceable, Xia ruofei was like her son in her heart.

Therefore, Hu 'Zi's mother nodded heavily without much hesitation and said, "Ruofei, I acknowledge this godly marriage!"

Hearing this, Xia ruofei knelt down without saying anything and kowtowed three times. Then he raised his head and said, "Godmother!"

Hu Zi's mother's eyes were filled with tears, but a gratified smile appeared on her face. She loudly replied, "Woof! Good child, quickly get up ..."

Then, Hu Zi's mother reached out and pulled Xia ruofei up from the ground.

Other than Xia ruofei's three kowtows, there was no grand ceremony. However, the room was filled with warmth.

Xia ruofei's sense of ceremony was in his heart. When he kowtowed three times and called out "godmother", he seemed to see Lin Hu looking at him from the sky. He reached out and lightly hit his left chest. This was a gesture unique to the lone wolf assault team. It was encouraging and affirmative ...

"Ruofei, I'll make a few more dishes later. Let's have a good celebration ..." Hu Zi's mother said, pleased.

"Mm! Godmother, drink some more wine!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Alright, everyone, drink a little ..."

"Godma, about the house ... You won't blame me anymore, right?" Xia ruofei continued.

Hu Zi's mother looked at Xia ruofei lovingly and said, "Godma has never blamed you. I know that you're just being filial ... But you're not allowed to waste money like this in the future. Qiao'er and I can't live in such a big house. Besides, a house in the city center is so expensive!"

Hu Zi's mother also did not mention the transfer of ownership of the house to Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei knew that the little grudge in her heart no longer existed, so he smiled happily and said, "I know! I'm very familiar with President Liang of the Jianda group. He sold it to me at a 20% discount on the opening price at the beginning of last year, which is more than 10000 Yuan cheaper than the surrounding real estate prices! It can be said to be worth it."

Hu Zi's mother looked at Xia ruofei with a half-smile and said, "You're so close to CEO Liang, it should be easy for you to check out, right? Did you collude with him today?"

The smile on Xia ruofei's face froze. He scratched his head in embarrassment.

Hu 'Zi's mother smiled and said,"alright!" I saw through it long ago, I just didn't want to expose you at that time! RUO Fei, don't worry! It's rare that you're so filial. Godmother isn't a killjoy!"

Xia ruofei chuckled in embarrassment and said,""Godmother is still the most sensible!"

"Alright, alright. You must be tired after a busy morning. Go back to your room and take a rest!" Hu Zi's mother smiled and said,"I'm going to change my clothes. It's time to prepare lunch."

"Woof! Alright ..."

After Xia ruofei unraveled the knot in his heart, he went back to his room with a peace of mind.

Neither he nor Hu Zi's mother noticed that Lin Qiao's expression seemed a little unnatural and even a little disappointed in the process of the warm and tender acknowledgment.

In the afternoon, Hu Zi's mother had prepared a few dishes and Xia ruofei had brought out some white wine. The three of them had lunch together.

By now, Lin Qiao's mood had returned to normal. She kept toasting Xia ruofei during dinner, saying that she had lost a brother and now God gave her another one. It was worth a big celebration.

Lin Qiao drank a lot during the meal, and she took the initiative to ask Xia ruofei to drink with her. Soon, her cheeks were flushed and her eyes became a little dazed. Hu Zi's mother quickly stopped her from drinking.

"This child, she can drink too much at home ..." Hu Zi's mother nagged as she helped Lin Qiao back to her room to rest.

Xia ruofei was still holding his glass and drinking by himself. After acknowledging his godmother, Xia ruofei felt that his thoughts were much more clear and he was in a very good mood.

He and Hu Zi's mother didn't notice the faint sadness in Lin Qiao's eyes after she drank.

The payment for Taoyuan organic fruit was quickly transferred to the account of Taoyuan company.

Lychees were relatively better, but cherries had a very short shelf life, so they had to be sold immediately after harvesting.

Of course, this also reflected the popular sales of Taoyuan's organic fruits.

Although the price was high, there were many rich people in this world. These fruits that looked and tasted great were sold out very quickly after they were put on the shelves.

Some comments about the Paradise Corporation also began to appear on the internet.

"I'm being extravagant today. I bought a box of organic cherries. It's only 1000 grams, but it cost me 300 dollars! I regretted it the moment I bought it. I felt that I was really out of my mind to spend one – twentieth of my monthly salary on a box of cherries ... But after I went home and tasted them, I couldn't stop! It was too F * cking delicious! Please forgive my lack of education, but I really can't find any words to describe the deliciousness of this box of cherries! Anyway, the end result was ... I went to the Sam's Club again and contributed one – tenth of my monthly salary ...”

This netizen used the word “too” three times in a row to describe the amazing feeling he had after eating the organic cherries of Taoyuan for the first time.

Chapter 739: Rising to fame (3)

In the post, he also attached a few photos. The crystal clear, fresh, and tender purple – Red cherries looked extremely good, and the fresh, elegant, simple yet classy outer packaging was also taken a close – up by this netizen. The LOGO of Tao Yuan company was clearly visible.

This was a post on a relatively well – known Food Forum. Most of the people who frequented this forum were foodies, so the beautiful pictures that could arouse people's original appetites immediately attracted a lot of netizens to watch, and there were many posts following them.

“Is it really that good? 300 yuan per kilogram is too expensive, right? It looked like a cherry from a domestic company! Even a lot of imported cherries can't be sold for this price, right?”

“Sam's quality is still trustworthy!”

In addition to these discussions, there were also voices of doubt.

“The people upstairs are too naive! This op was obviously a supporter of that fruit company! He couldn't even see through such a simple trick? Don't we have a lot of such articles in this jar?” A netizen named “middle – aged old nationalistic youth” followed up.

“Hehe! This brother doesn't look like he's from the southeast. This paradise Corporation is very famous in our Southeast province! The organic vegetables of paradise brand have already gained a lot of fans here, and after eating it once, I guarantee that you will never forget it for the rest of your life. The price of these vegetables is also several times or even more than ten times that of ordinary vegetables, but everyone is still scrambling for it. Why would such a company need to hire an Internet Water Army to write an article?” A netizen with the ID “live up to food” immediately retorted the middle – aged old nationalistic youth.

“Is the person above the leader of the three mountains square? I'm also at San Shan. I was lucky enough to have tried the organic vegetables from Taoyuan at Ling Ji restaurant, and I can't forget it. However, the price is really too unappealing, and the working class is afraid of it!”

The ‘middle – aged old nationalistic youth’ immediately replied, “Hehe, you still dare to say that you're not a water Army? “Your division of labor is so clear. Some are using soft articles, some are following the post to create momentum, and some are even waving flags and shouting. I've seen this set of things many times. For an organized water Army like yours, the fees should not be low, right? This company is quite rich!”

The post by “middle – aged old nationalistic youth” immediately caused dissatisfaction among many people.

“Only delicious food can not be disappointed” was the first to post: “The ID above has already explained everything. I didn’t want to post anything, but I’ve been called a water Army of paradise Corporation. If I don’t say anything, people will think I’ve agreed! Speaking of which, I’ve been in this industry for six or seven years. Friends who are familiar with me can testify for me. When did I have to be a water Army to make a living?”

As soon as the post “food is worthy” was posted, many people immediately followed it. Moreover, the registration time and ID were not fake accounts. They were all real netizens who had been in the forum for a long time.

“Haha, the famous ‘President of the United States’ is actually being called a water Army? Which company can afford to hire a water Army like ‘President Mei’?”

“D * MN ... So’ President Mei ‘is a water Army? To think that I’ve read all of your recommendation posts! But I’ve tried a lot of the food recommended by ‘President Mei’. Why are they so delicious? Were there still such spammers? Give me a dozen!”

“Young man, it’s not good to be suspicious of everything!” President Mei is one of our senior forum members. You can go and look through her previous posts!”

In addition to the netizens who supported “food is worthy”, many netizens from the southeast province also stood up.

“The foodie who tasted paradise vegetables and was immediately turned into a fan has come to report! Only then did he know that the Paradise Corporation had also released fruits! Thank you for sharing, I’m going to head to Walmart immediately! By the way, I might also be a water Army!” A veteran forum member who had been registered for more than eight years and posted countless posts said.

“As a San Shan resident, I want to say that the products of Tao Yuan company are really good. I also saw the cherries sent by the OP in the supermarket, but I couldn’t bear to buy them because they were too expensive. I went for the second best and bought a box of Tao Yuan brand organic lychees. I just want to say that you get what you pay for, Yingluo! In the future, he would not be able to eat other lychees. Peach blossom company, I hate you!”

“Hehe, I’ll also share some news that everyone doesn’t know yet ... Isn’t the Drunken Eight Immortals wine, which everyone in the three mountains knows about, back on the market after some improvements? It even caused a frenzy to rush to buy it, and there was even a scalper party. Everyone should still remember, right? What I want to tell everyone is that after the reorganization of the winery that produces the Drunken Eight Immortals, the Paradise Corporation has become its major shareholder. So, strictly speaking, the Drunken Eight Immortals series of white wine is also a product of the Paradise Corporation!”

“My God! Last night, he had drunk eight Drunken Immortals at his friend’s house ... This company was just too awesome! Anything that comes out will be of high quality!”

“Hahaha! Then I’ll say one! I’m from the capital, and I bought a box of iron – skinned maple bucket from Tongren Hall some time ago. The price was really expensive! It’s ten times more expensive than the iron – skinned fengdou we bought before! However, the effect was really good. You really get what you pay for! After saying so much, everyone should have already guessed it, right? Yes! This tin can Kaede is from paradise, and the LOGO is exactly the same as the one on the photo box sent by the OP!”

“The Paradise Corporation is mighty!”

“66666666!”

“Brother Taoyuan, do your parents know that you’re so awesome?”

“I don’t think anyone will dare to mess with paradise Corporation anymore. This is the rhythm of being taught a lesson at any moment!”

“Young man, does your face hurt?”

“The person above isn’t kind, one shouldn’t tear down when one’s life is hard!”

At this time, a netizen named “homesickness” followed up with a photo. It was also the peach Garden brand organic cherries that the original poster had just posted. Next to it were Peach Garden brand organic lychees that had similar packaging.

The background of the photo looked like a very high – end premium fruit store, and this Paradise Fruit was placed on the most eye – catching shelf. The sign above even had a price tag. Organic lychees were “$35”, and organic cherries were “$98”.

Homesickness also posted a line of words below the photo: “I just bought this at the Hengfeng premium fruit chain. Oh, I’m in Singapore.”

As soon as this post came out, the netizens exploded. As a group of qualified foodies, they naturally knew about the high – end fruit chain store under Hengfeng. The entry threshold of this store was very high. The fruits sold in this store were all the best of the best. If the quality was slightly worse, they would be rejected. The fact that Taoyuan fruit could be sold here and occupy the most eye – catching shelf was already enough to explain the problem.

Some netizens checked the exchange rate carefully, and the final result was that the price of organic lychees in Singapore was equivalent to 170 Yuan per kilogram, and the price of organic cherries was equivalent to 480 Yuan per kilogram, which was much more expensive than the domestic price.

Basically, everyone no longer doubted the authenticity of this post and began to discuss the products of paradise Corporation enthusiastically. Meanwhile, the “middle – aged and old nationalistic youth” had disappeared without a trace and had not spoken for a long time.

More and more netizens who had bought Taoyuan organic fruits in the past two days came to leave messages, expressing their love for Taoyuan brand fruits.

Of course, there were still some voices of doubt and opposition, but they were quickly drowned out by the sea of praises.

Xia ruofei only saw the post two or three days later. By then, the post had already been recommended to the most prominent spot on the main page of the forum. There were more than 800 comments.

There was even a moderator who bought a fruit of paradise and tried it himself. Then, he used his super administrator account to write a passage in the main post to rectify the name of paradise Corporation.

Its authority was unquestionable.

Xia ruofei laughed as he watched. The praises for the Paradise Corporation filled him with a sense of achievement.

Of course, there were many similar posts. On Tieba, forums, and Weibo, there were many discussions about Taoyuan fruit, but this post was more representative.

In fact, the peach blossom fruit had already set off a wave of discussion on the internet, and it was no less popular than the Drunken Eight Immortals white wine.

This time, Xia ruofei did not write a soft article, nor did he hire an Internet Water Army to top the post. It was entirely the spontaneous action of the netizens.

This meant that he had taken the right path to increase his popularity through products of excellent quality. This Paradise Fruit was now popular, and it had also driven the popularity of paradise company to rise!

Chapter 740: Project completion (1)

Xia ruofei spent the entire afternoon browsing for news about paradise Corporation.

It was not an exaggeration to describe the public opinion on the internet as a tide of positive comments.

He had to admit that it felt good to see so many people praising the company that he had built with his own hands.

With the help of the trend of organic fruits in Tao Yuan, the name of Tao Yuan company was further established.

Now, it was not only in the southeast Region, but also in the country.

This was also due to Xia ruofei's decision on the quota of Paradise Fruit. Although the channels of chain supermarkets like Walmart and Carrefour were not as good as Hengfeng premium fruit chain, they undoubtedly covered a wider range and were closer to the general public.

Of course, Xia ruofei's thinking had always been clear. He wanted to use high – end and premium products as his brand positioning.

This time, it could be said that it was a good preparation. Xia ruofei's strategy of creating a high – Quality product line for paradise Corporation finally saw results. The discussion on the internet was no longer limited to Paradise Fruit. Everyone was talking about paradise vegetables, iron maple, and even Drunken Eight Immortals wine with great relish.

When a company produced a high – Quality product, it would certainly receive everyone's praise. However, when they launched several products in a row, and all of them were of the best quality in the industry, it would naturally attract widespread attention.

It was still too early to say that Paradise Corporation was a phenomenal company, but there was no doubt that Xia Ruofei and his team were on the right path.

It was foreseeable that once the big weapons like the wild Chinese perch and heart nourishing soup were listed one after another, the reputation of Paradise Corporation would surely usher in another explosive growth.

While receiving a large number of positive comments and attention, the public account of Paradise Corporation also received payment from various cooperative channels.

According to the statistics, the actual harvest was about 116,000 pounds of lychees and 46,500 pounds of cherries. According to the price set by Xia Ruofei, after deducting the necessary channel fees, the Peach Blossom company had a total of 15.8 million Yuan.

The reason why it was about 3 million Yuan higher than the expected income was that some of Hengfeng Group's high-quality fruit chain stores overseas were generally priced higher than the domestic price. Since Hengfeng Group received a large share of the quota, it naturally increased the actual income of the Paradise Corporation.

About 15 million Yuan was not a large income for the Paradise Corporation. In fact, more than 20 million Yuan could be earned every month from the tin fengdou alone, and this was the normal income every month. On the other hand, the fruit company only had this income once a year.

However, as mentioned before, the meaning of Taoyuan fruit was not as simple as making money.

Now, the Paradise company was quite famous in the country, and even in the world. The hot sales of the Paradise Fruit were reported by the overseas media. Although it was only a small piece of news, it was still a good start.

Of course, due to the constraints of production capacity, in fact, none of the current products could be sold nationwide, except for the heart-nourishing soup that was about to be launched.

However, this problem was also being solved. At least, the production capacity of Paradise vegetables should be able to increase soon.

The expansion and transformation of the farm had been officially completed.

There were 18 10-meter-wide and 100-meter-long modern film greenhouses, a professional small and medium-sized cold storage warehouse, a staff dormitory building, in addition to the completed iron maple manufacturing room, the Pomfret cultivation workshop, the supporting roads, greenhouses, and the 10KV power line. All of them had been completed.

In this way, the number of vegetable greenhouses of Taoyuan company had tripled all of a sudden, and there were also cold storages dedicated to storing these expensive agricultural products, so the production capacity would soon increase.

Of course, what made the employees the happiest was the completion of the group dormitory building.

Although there were some apartments of different specifications in the mixed – use complex, the number was limited. As the company’s employees gradually increased, those apartments would definitely not be enough to be distributed. In fact, several new employees were already unable to get an apartment.

They could only temporarily rent a house in town and ride the electric bike to and from work every day, which was quite troublesome.

Everyone was looking forward to the completion of the staff dormitory.

Everyone had seen the effect drawings on the exhibition board at the construction site entrance and was looking forward to the staff dormitory.

Although it was a shared dormitory, Xia ruofei still paid great attention to the quality of life of his employees. Thus, this was not the mobile temporary house that the peasant workers lived in at the construction site. The narrow and stuffy space was squeezed with many bunk beds.

The construction and decoration standards of this group dormitory were quite high.

Each room was only arranged for two people. There were two 1.2 – meter wide beds placed side by side in the room. Each room also had its own bathroom and a shower room.

At the end of each floor, there was a public laundry room with three washing machines. Next to the laundry room was a laundry facility with three floor – to – Ceiling glass windows.

Inside the room, air conditioning, TV, Internet, and other facilities were very complete, including curtains, gauze curtains, bed sheets, blankets, and so on. All of them were of the same style, and it was quite warm.

It could be said to be a true move in with a bag.

From the details of this dormitory, one could see Xia ruofei’s love for his employees.
