Chapter 901: Nowhere to hide (1)

Song Qiming's Secretary, Guangzhi Cao, was already waiting at the entrance of the villa area.

The temperature today was higher than the previous days. The scorching sun shone on Guangzhi Cao, and his forehead was covered in sweat. His white shirt was almost soaked, but he was in a good mood.

These few days, he could clearly feel that Song Qiming's attitude towards him had become much closer. This meant that he had gained the trust of the Secretary. As long as he continued to work hard and conscientiously in the future, a great future was waiting for him.

And all of this was closely related to Xia ruofei.

Guangzhi Cao was willing to endure even tougher conditions, let alone welcome Xia ruofei under the scorching sun.

When Xia ruofei reached the entrance, Guangzhi Cao asked the armed police to let them in and got into Xia ruofei's car.

Xia ruofei said helplessly, "brother Cao, we're already so familiar with each other. There's really no need to wait for me under the sun. If you get a heat stroke, I'll be in big trouble."

Guangzhi Cao chuckled and said, "don't we have a miracle doctor like you?" What was a mere heat stroke? Besides, I don't dare to discount the tasks given by the Secretary."

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and shook his head, not saying anything.

They arrived at Song Qiming's Villa No. 1. This time, the three of them were waiting at the entrance of the villa.

Fortunately, there weren't any random people in the villa area of the municipal council Standing Committee. Each villa was quite far away from each other, and there were some landscape trees in the middle to block the view, maintaining a good sense of privacy.

Otherwise, if people were to see that the Deputy Secretary of the Provincial Party Committee and the Secretary of the State Council of Sanshan city was actually standing at the door of his house with his wife and daughter to welcome a young man, who knew how many people would be shocked?

"RUO Fei!"

Song Qiming and Fang Liyun greeted Xia ruofei warmly. Although Song Wei did not say anything, she had a gentle smile on her face. Her beautiful eyes were filled with excitement when she saw Xia ruofei.

"Uncle Song, Aunt Fang, why are you waiting outside on such a hot day?" Xia ruofei said, "I don't deserve such a big gift!"

"You're my daughter's doctor, what's there to be ashamed of?" Song Qiming laughed. Come, come, come, let's go inside, it's too hot here ..."

After the group entered the house, everyone sat down on the sofa in the living room. The housekeeper, Xiao Luo, quickly served everyone a cup of tea.

Song Qiming and Fang Liyun looked at Xia ruofei with anticipation.

"Song Wei hasn't fainted again, has she?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"No, but it's only been three days since I fainted. I don't know if ..." Fang Liyun replied.

"Liyun, since ruofei has already prepared the medicine, there shouldn't be any problem!" Song Qiming waved his hand.

"I'll check her pulse again!" Xia ruofei smiled.

"Okay, okay, okay. Wei Wei, quickly go to RUO Fei's side to check!" Fang Liyun said hurriedly.

Song Wei stood up and sat beside Xia ruofei. She smiled and said, "I'll have to trouble you ..."

Xia ruofei smiled and placed his fingers on Song Wei's smooth wrist.

Although Song Wei was already in her fourth year of University, she had never had a boyfriend. Last time, Xia ruofei had taken her pulse and even pinched her cheek to feed her medicine, but she was unconscious and could not feel anything.

This time, she was completely awake. A young man grabbed her wrist, and Song Wei's face blushed.

She felt that Xia ruofei's fingers were slightly warm. It was an instinctive comfort to be touched by him, so she could not help but sneak a glance at Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei's eyes were slightly closed and he looked very serious. The sun shone in from the side window. From Song Wei's angle, she could see the side view of Xia ruofei's face. It was as if there was a faint Halo on it.

A man was most attractive when he was focused. Song Wei was curious about Xia ruofei, so she could not help but stare at him. She only came back to her senses after a few seconds. Her face was slightly hot and she quickly looked away.

Luckily, everyone else in the living room was looking at Xia ruofei nervously and did not notice Song Wei's slight loss of composure.

Naturally, Xia ruofei did not notice Song Wei's expression. He was very focused on feeling Song Wei's pulse.

Xia ruofei noticed a strange phenomenon. The last time he felt Song Wei's pulse when she was unconscious, it was normal, but Xia ruofei could feel that it was slightly calmer. However, today, when Song Wei was awake, Xia ruofei felt that her pulse was completely normal. In fact, it could be said that she was very healthy.

After Xia ruofei had given Song Wei the solution of the spirit Heart Flower, she had been unconscious for a shorter period of time. Hence, Xia ruofei knew that the ingredients of the spirit Heart Flower could be used to deal with this strange poison. However, Xia ruofei was more interested in the poison itself, so he hoped to find out more through Chinese medicine.

However, he was destined to be disappointed. With Xia ruofei's self-taught medical skills, he could not detect what was wrong with Song Wei.

Xia ruofei sighed in his heart. Just as he was about to withdraw his hand, he suddenly had a flash of inspiration. The scene of him using his spiritual power to draw the rune in the air in the spirit map space appeared in his mind.

Chapter 902: Nowhere to hide (2)

If he used his spiritual power to investigate, would he find anything? Xia ruofei said to himself.

When Xia ruofei thought of this, he immediately focused and calmed down. He slowly released his spiritual power from his fingers and slowly probed into Song Wei's meridians.

Spiritual energy was invisible to begin with, so Song Wei did not feel any discomfort.

However, she felt that Xia ruofei took a long time to check her pulse. Even the old Chinese medical doctors with white beards did not take as long as he did.

However, Xia ruofei did not retract his hand. She did not dare to move and sat stiffly on the sofa.

As they were checking his pulse, their bodies were closer to each other. Song Wei could even feel Xia ruofei's breath. She felt her face burning and wanted to twist her body.

Xia ruofei did not notice Song Wei's embarrassment. He was completely immersed in a whole new world. It was the first time he realized that he could use his spiritual power in this way.

After his mentality entered Song Wei's meridians, it was like a holographic camera. Everything that was detected was fed back to Xia ruofei's mind and an incomplete Meridian diagram was formed.

He could see the flow of the qi and blood in Song Wei's body, the size of the meridians it flowed through, and whether there was any delay in each Meridian.

Xia ruofei then corroborated these situations with the Chinese medicine theories that he had learned on his own. Many of the doubts that he had in the past seemed to have been cleared up.

Traditional Chinese Medicine doctors also hoped to judge the patient's condition by the ups and downs of the pulse. How could this be compared to Xia ruofei's direct "inner vision" of the patient's qi and blood circulation to be more direct and accurate?

Xia ruofei was completely immersed in this new discovery. He subconsciously compared the Chinese medicine knowledge he had learned by himself with what he had seen through his spiritual power.

Simply put, Song Wei had become Xia ruofei's 'teaching tool'.

Song Qiming, Fang Liyun, and the rest had been watching Xia ruofei nervously. They were all nervous as well. They felt that Xia ruofei took a long time to feel his pulse. He would frown and relax at times. Sometimes, he would even be beaming with joy. His expression was very varied.

Luckily, Xia ruofei was recommended by Master Song. Song Qiming and Fang Liyun trusted him. Otherwise, they might have misunderstood Xia ruofei's intention.

However, the longer Xia ruofei took to check her pulse, the more anxious they became. Could it be that her condition was very complicated, and the treatment plan they had thought of before might not be effective? Otherwise, why would Xia ruofei be in such a difficult position?

They were worried and anxious, but they didn't dare to disturb Xia ruofei. They could only wait at the side.

Dear readers! you are reading on our content copy site. Please copy and search this link "<https://tinyurl.com/39hpcn6j>" to support us

Xia ruofei was lost in the ocean of Chinese medicine theories. He only came back to his senses after a long time. He quickly ignored the changes in yin and yang, five elements, and essence and started to examine Song Wei's body.

Xia ruofei focused his attention on the cunning poison and quickly made a new discovery.

His psyche could sense that there were some small black particles floating in Song Wei's meridians. They followed the flow of her qi and blood. There were also many small black particles attached to her meridians, especially in her heart meridian of the hand's shaoyin. There were many of these small black particles. About half of the inner walls of her meridians had turned black.

Xia ruofei also noticed that the black particles seemed to be reproducing. He even saw one of the black particles break down into two, and the two particles slowly grew stronger by absorbing the qi and blood energy ...

I've finally found you! Xia ruofei said to himself.

Even the most advanced medical equipment could not detect the poison, and neither could many famous Chinese doctors. However, under Xia ruofei's spiritual power, there was no way to hide it.

After Xia ruofei made this discovery, he tried to use his spiritual power to influence the black particles.

Xia ruofei realized that when he wrapped the black particles with his spiritual power, he could move them and change their trajectory.

This meant that even without the petals of the spirit Heart Flower, Xia ruofei could still get rid of this troublesome poison.

However, Xia ruofei's current spiritual power was far from enough and there were too many black particles. Hence, even if he knew the principle, he would not use such a stupid method.

However, Xia ruofei was not satisfied with just finding the poison.

Although he couldn't completely use his spiritual force to remove the poison, he could still bring out a few black particles.

Xia ruofei's spiritual power wrapped around a dozen of the black particles and circulated them through Song Wei's meridians. Soon, they passed through the meridians on her wrist and were taken out of Song Wei's body by Xia ruofei.

At this moment, Xia ruofei heaved a sigh of relief and retracted his finger.

No one noticed that there was an almost undetectable black dot on Xia ruofei's fingertip. It was so small that it was only the size of a needle when dozens of it were gathered together.

Xia ruofei wanted to study the poison, so he had taken some samples.

He knew that once he started using the medicine, the poison in Song Wei's body would be slowly removed. Once the poison was eliminated, it would be difficult to find a sample again.

This poison was invisible, colorless, and odorless. Even modern instruments and Traditional Chinese Medicine that had been passed down for thousands of years could not detect its existence. It even had the ability to reproduce. Xia ruofei was very interested in all these.

After collecting the sample, Xia ruofei let go of the spiritual power that wrapped the black particles.

After the black particles were freed from their restraints, they quickly entered Xia ruofei's body.

If Xia ruofei did not have his spiritual power, the black Poison would spread in his body. Eventually, he would be like Song Wei and the others. He would start to faint and might even lose his life.

However, Xia ruofei was not worried at all. Once the poison entered his body, he immediately wrapped it up with his spiritual power and controlled it to a very small area around his fingers. It could not cause any trouble at all.

Even if he were to take a step back, even if he was really infected with this terrifying poison, he only needed to consume some spirit Heart Flower petal solution to get rid of it. Hence, Xia ruofei was still very confident.

Seeing that Xia ruofei had retracted his hand, Fang Liyun asked worriedly, "RUO Fei, what's the situation?"

"Has his condition become more complicated?" Song Qiming asked with concern.

Xia ruofei knew that they were worried because he had taken too long to check her pulse. He felt guilty but quickly put on a confident smile and said, "Uncle song, Auntie Fang, don't worry. Everything is under control. The poison has only invaded Song Wei's hand's shaoyin heart meridian. That's why Song Wei fainted before."

Song Qiming was stunned for a moment, then he was overjoyed. "RUO Fei, you ... You detected that poison?"

Song Wei was also in disbelief. Even 301 Hospital, which had so many world – Class equipment, could not detect anything unusual. How could Xia ruofei really detect the poison that was like a nightmare to her?

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.””Although the poison is very cunning, I was still lucky to find them.”

At this point, Xia ruofei paused and took out a small porcelain bottle from his bag.”Now that I know the cause of the illness, I’m more confident in the treatment.”

He passed the small bottle to Song Wei and said,””There are 15 pills that I’ve concocted in here. Take one pill a day. Your condition should be greatly improved after the first course of treatment. You won’t fall into a coma again. After three consecutive courses of treatment, the poison should be completely removed!”

Chapter 903: discerning Qiu Hao from miracle doctor Xia (1)

Song Wei subconsciously took the small porcelain bottle. She was both surprised and worried. Her lips trembled as she said,”RUO Fei, I ... Can I really be completely cured?”

Song Qiming and Fang Liyun felt a little dizzy from the huge surprise.

“Ruofei, we ... We don’t know how to thank you,” Fang Liyun quickly said.

Xia ruofei smiled and said,”aunt Fang, you’re welcome.” Besides, we’ll only know the real effect after Song Wei has taken it for a while!”

“Ruofei, you made the medicine yourself. It’ll be fine!” Song Qiming said excitedly.

Two days ago, when he was reporting to elder song on the phone, he had also mentioned that he wanted Xia ruofei to treat Song Wei.

Elder song said indifferently,””Since little Xia has made a move, you don’t have to worry anymore ...”

Song Qiming understood the weight of elder song’s words, so he had unprecedented confidence in Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei laughed and said,”uncle song, you think too highly of me ... By the way, I’ll send you the medicine for the next course of treatment in half a month!” The main thing was that this pill wasn’t easy to concoct, and some of the medicinal herbs were relatively rare. Also, I have to make some adjustments to the formula based on Song Wei’s condition after the first course of treatment, so I haven’t made any medicine yet. ”

In fact, the 50 pills were ready, but Xia ruofei could not give song Qiming and the others the impression that they were easy to make.

The poison itself was very difficult to deal with. Even the best Hospitals, the most advanced equipment, and famous Chinese doctors could not do anything about it. It was already beyond the imagination of ordinary people that Xia ruofei could deal with it. If it was not difficult at all and could be easily dealt with, it would be too shocking.

"Alright, thank you, ruofei," song Qiming said gratefully. By the way, the herbs you used must be very precious, right? The cost ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand and interrupted song Qiming. "Uncle song, elder song was the old general that I admired the most when I was in the Army. You're his junior, and you have a good reputation in the southwest. That's why I helped you. You and I don't need to talk about money. Besides ... Some medicine can't be bought with money."

"That's right ..." Song Qiming no longer had the air of a Provincial Minister. He was full of gratitude towards Xia ruofei.

He even said half – jokingly, "in terms of seniority, I'm elder song's grandnephew, so we should be friends of the same generation!" I think I was the one who took advantage of you the last time you called me uncle song ..."

Guangzhi Cao almost cried out in surprise. An ordinary person would laugh in their sleep if they could call someone like song Qiming "uncle song". However, master Xia was on the same level as Secretary song. If that was the case, he would have to call him "uncle Xia".

Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "Uncle song, how can you say that? I'm not related to elder song by blood. We'll just do our own thing. Otherwise, Song Wei would have to call me uncle. How uncomfortable would I be?"

Song Wei's face heated up slightly and she said with a coy expression, "How is this related to me?"

"Weiwei, you should call him uncle RUO Fei!" Song Qiming laughed.

"Don't, don't, don't ... I'm about the same age as Song Wei, don't make me sound old!" Xia ruofei quickly said.

Song Wei couldn't help but burst into laughter when she heard this. She quickly glanced at Xia ruofei and then lowered her eyes to look at the porcelain bottle that contained her hope. Her beautiful eyes revealed a trace of splendor.

Fang Liyun rolled her eyes at her husband and said, "Old song, we're in front of the children! You don't act like an elder ..."

Song Qiming smiled like a child, which was a rare sight.

A leader of his level rarely showed his emotions on his face, but he was really happy today.

Fang Liyun rolled her eyes at song Qiming before asking, "RUO Fei! Is there anything I need to pay attention to when taking this medicine?"

"Yes, yes, yes, tell us quickly." Song Qiming quickly said, "it's such a precious medicine. Don't waste it because you didn't use it properly ..."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "there's nothing special to take note of, but it's best to take it after a meal!" Remember, once a day. Don't take too much. "

At this point, Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, ""If she still faints after taking the medicine, give Song Wei the half bottle of medicine I left last time. There's a process to the treatment, and fainting is normal during this period. You don't have to be too nervous. "

Xia ruofei was clear about the condition of the poison in Song Wei's body. At the beginning of the treatment, when she did not consume much of the petals of the spirit Heart Flower, the poison wreaked havoc in her hand's shaoyn heart meridian. It was possible for her to faint once or twice. However, as her intake increased, the poison was gradually removed. As time passed, Song Wei would naturally not faint again.

Xia ruofei was worried that song Qiming and the others would be nervous, so he gave them a heads up.

"Alright, alright." Fang Liyun said hurriedly.

Although Xia ruofei's "medical advice" was very simple, she still memorized it with all her heart. Her nervous look made it seem like she was memorizing a very complicated scientific formula.

Chapter 904: discerning Qiu Hao from miracle doctor Xia (2)

As long as it involved their children, all parents in the world were equally nervous.

Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "Song Wei, my medicine can remove the toxins and also recuperate your body. So, after three courses of treatment, under normal circumstances, not only will the toxins be removed, but your chronic gastritis and mild menstrual pain should also be cured at the same time."

Song Wei's beautiful face showed a hint of shyness, followed by a look of surprise. She covered her mouth and said, "How did you know ..."

"Didn't I take your pulse?" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Chinese medicine is profound. Sometimes, it's even more accurate than Western medicine."

If Xia ruofei had only pointed out that she had chronic gastritis, Song Wei might have thought that her parents had told him about it in advance. However, the pain during her period was not that obvious. She had not even mentioned it to her mother. Although the level of pain was within her tolerance range, it was still a little uncomfortable every time it hurt.

Fang Liyun's mouth was wide open in shock. She looked at Song Wei with a questioning gaze.

Song Wei blushed and nodded.

Fang Liyun said happily, "ruofei, it seems like elder song's eyes are really sharp!" Your medical skills are much better than those Chinese medical Masters. They didn't even notice that Weiwei has chronic gastritis!"

As for the pain on her period, Fang Liyun naturally ignored it. After all, Guangzhi Cao and the driver old Zhang were in the room. Girls were shy, so how could she keep talking about it?

Xia ruofei smiled. "If it's chronic gastritis, I don't think those famous Chinese doctors can't see it. It's just that their attention is focused on the nameless poison. For a chronic disease that won't immediately endanger your life, even if they find out, they won't take it to heart."

"That's not the same. They say that Western medicine treats the head and the feet, but Chinese medicine considers the big picture." Song Qiming said, "this means that your medical skills are better than theirs, ruofei!"

They had invited so many doctors, but none of them could see anything. On the other hand, Xia ruofei's arrival had given them hope of a cure. Hence, song Qiming was angry when he thought of those famous doctors.

However, the reason why Xia ruofei could accurately judge Song Wei's physical condition and detect the existence of the poison was all due to his spiritual power. If he only relied on checking her pulse, Xia ruofei's current medical skills were not as good as those experienced Chinese medical doctors.

However, Xia ruofei's spiritual power was like a magic weapon. It was like he had an external ability when it came to learning Chinese medicine. After all, no doctor had the unique conditions like Xia ruofei, who could "see" the internal meridians of the human body so clearly.

Given time, Xia ruofei's Chinese medicine skills would definitely improve by leaps and bounds.

Xia ruofei's casual display of his skills had boosted song Qiming's family's confidence.

"Liyun, can you go to the kitchen and see if little Luo has prepared lunch?" Song Qiming said.

Dear readers! you are reading on our content copy site. Please copy and search this link "<https://tinyurl.com/39hpcn6j>" to support us

"Alright, ruofei, have a seat and chat for a while! I'll go check the kitchen." Fang Liyun said hurriedly.

"It's been hard on you, Auntie." Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Remember to take out my precious thirty – year – old bottle of Maotai. I want to have a few drinks with ruofei this afternoon!" Song Qiming added.

"I know! Just drink your tea!" Fang Liyun glanced at song Qiming and said.

Usually, she was quite strict with song Qiming's drinking. However, she was in a good mood today, so she did not care much about song Qiming's drinking. She even took the initiative to take out song Qiming's long – cherished Maotai from the wine cabinet.

Song Qiming pushed back his work schedule for the afternoon and spent the afternoon drinking with Xia ruofei.

Even Guangzhi Cao and the driver, old Zhang, were ordered by song Qiming to sit down and drink.

In song Qiming's words, there was no work arranged for the afternoon. One of them was a driver, and the other was a Secretary. They just had to drink a little and go back to rest.

Fang Liyun and Song Wei also toasted Xia ruofei several times with red wine.

Xia ruofei had a good tolerance for alcohol, so he naturally downed his drink. Song Qiming and the others all gave him a thumbs up.

The bottle of Maotai was finished very quickly. When song Qiming was about to open another ordinary bottle of Maotai, Xia ruofei smiled and said, ""Uncle song, have a taste of our company's Bar!"

"Do you have a winery under your company?" song Qiming was stunned.

"Secretary, RUO Fei is the major shareholder of Dingfeng winery in our city, which also produces the Drunken Eight Immortals wine," Guangzhi Cao quickly interjected.

"Woof! The Eight Immortals of wine!" Song Qiming could not help but say in surprise, "this wine is very famous in the southeast province. So, ruofei, you're the boss!"

Xia ruofei laughed. "It's just a small business. How can it catch your eye, uncle song?"

"That's a big business!" Song Qiming said with a smile. "I've been doing some research these past few days, and the tables are basically filled with your Drunken Eight Immortals wine!"

After song Qiming took office, he began to do research in the various districts and counties of Sanshan city. Naturally, he would eat downstairs. Now, many places in the southeast province used Drunken Eight Immortals as their official reception wine.

This was because its price was much cheaper than the traditional famous Maotai Wuliangye, but the taste was quite good. Many old drinkers even thought that the taste of the Drunken Eight Immortals wine was not inferior to the Maotai Wuliangye at all.

At present, the standards of official reception were very strict, and the situation of eating and drinking was completely curbed. Under such circumstances, the cheap and good quality Drunken Eight Immortals wine was naturally very popular.

Song Qiming continued, "I've drunk your Drunken Eight Immortals in several districts. It's really good. I'll try it again today!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "uncle song, my Drunken Eight Immortals is different from the ones sold in the market!" You'll know when you try it!"

Song Qiming's eyes lit up. "That means ... It's definitely better than the wine sold in bulk?" he asked.

Xia ruofei laughed. "Of course! Good wine should be left for me, the boss!"

"Ruofei, now that you've mentioned it, even I want to try it!" Song Wei pursed her lips and smiled.

"Yes, yes, yes. Let's all drink a little. Let's see if RUO Fei is bragging!" Fang Liyun chimed in.

Guangzhi Cao and Zhang, the pilot, did not dare to make such a joke. They just sat at the side and looked at Xia ruofei with envy.

Even old Zhang, who had been with song Qiming for many years, was envious that he could joke with the Secretary's family so casually.

Xia ruofei stood up and said, "everyone, please wait!" I'll go get some wine!"

After that, Xia ruofei walked out of the villa, went to his Mercedes – Benz, and opened the trunk.

After blocking everyone's view with his body, Xia ruofei took out two small jars of Drunken Eight Immortals from the space. He had bought them from Ding Feng winery and added a small amount of spirit Heart Flower petals.

In terms of time, these wines were also longer than the five month Drunken Eight Immortals sold in the market. Furthermore, the petals of the spirit Heart Flower were added, so they were definitely the best health wine in the world.

Xia ruofei closed the trunk and carried two small jars of unlabeled Drunken Eight Immortals into the dining hall. Then, in front of everyone, he opened the clay seal on one jar.

Suddenly, an extremely rich and intoxicating wine fragrance filled the restaurant. Everyone could not help but sniffle. Song Qiming even revealed an intoxicated expression.

No one spoke for a while, clearly stunned by the wine's aroma.

Song Qiming only came back to his senses after a long while. He quickly called out, "Ruofei, this wine is too fragrant. Quick, quick, let me try it."

Guangzhi Cao quickly stood up and took the wine jar from Xia ruofei. He poured the wine into a small bottle of baijiu and then poured a glass for song Qiming.

He then poured a small glass for Fang Liyun and Song Wei.

Very quickly, everyone's glasses were filled with Drunken Eight Immortals.

Song Qiming impatiently raised his glass and said, "Come, come, come, let's have a go together!"

Chapter 905: Song Qiming's decision (1)

Song Qiming smacked his lips after drinking the white wine in the small glass. Then, he closed his eyes slightly and revealed an intoxicated expression.

Guangzhi Cao and the others were also impressed. Even Fang Liyun and Song Wei, who didn't usually drink white wine, were also mesmerized by the rich taste of the wine after taking a sip.

After a long while, song Qiming sighed and said, "Good wine ... Ruofei, to think that I've been keeping that thirty – year – old Maotai like a treasure! I didn't expect the wine produced by your own winery to have reached such a level. I think it's no less than that bottle of Maotai! I think your Drunken Eight Immortals wine is amazing!"

Xia ruofei chuckled and said, "uncle song, there are only a few jars of this wine. I've kept them all. It's different from the Drunken Eight Immortals that are sold in the market. There's no comparison." Whether it's scale or Foundation, our winery is still far from those big – Name wineries. "

Song Qiming laughed and pointed at Xia ruofei.””Clear – headed! I believe that if you guys continue steadily, it won’t take a few years for your Drunken Eight Immortals to become a famous brand in China.”

“Then I’ll have to count on uncle song’s blessings.” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

“Xiao Cao, pour us some wine!” Song Qiming said. There was only a bottle of Maotai just now, so I had to drink it sparingly. There’s no need to drink it now, I have to drink a few more glasses with ruofei!”

Guangzhi Cao immediately stood up and poured wine for everyone.

After the meal, Xia ruofei’s two – pound jar of wine was almost empty. Song Qiming was in a good mood and wanted to drink more, but Xia ruofei quickly stopped him. He said that he could not hold his liquor anymore and that he should save the other jar for him to drink slowly in the future.

Song Qiming thought about it and felt that it would be a waste to drink such a good wine in one go. Besides, he had drunk quite a lot today, so he gave up.

Actually, Xia ruofei was far from drinking enough, but he could tell that song Qiming was almost done. Song Qiming’s voice had increased, and he made some big hand gestures when he spoke. A leader would not do this normally.

Xia ruofei didn’t want to drink too much on their first time drinking together, so he brought up the end of the session.

After the meal, song Qiming pulled Xia ruofei to the living room to make some tea so that everyone could sober up.

Song Wei rested for a while after the meal and took the first pill according to Xia ruofei’s advice.

Xia ruofei sat for a while. Considering that song Qiming had a lot to drink and needed to rest for the afternoon, he stood up and said goodbye.

Song Qiming immediately asked Guangzhi Cao to call the chauffeur team and ask them to send two chauffeurs over to send Xia ruofei back.

In fact, the alcohol at noon did not affect Xia ruofei at all. However, he could not drive under the influence of alcohol in front of the Secretary, so he did not reject song Qiming’s good intentions.

The municipal Party committee’s compound wasn’t far from the villa area of the Standing Committee. Soon, the two drivers arrived at villa number one in a car.

Xia ruofei bade farewell to song Qiming’s family and got into his own Mercedes – Benz. A driver from the municipal Committee drove his Mercedes – Benz, and another driver drove an empty car behind them. Taoyuan farm was more remote so that after they dropped Xia ruofei off, the driver could directly return to the city.

Song Qiming's family sent them to the door personally. This made the two drivers speechless, especially the driver who drove Xia ruofei. He was even more careful and rarely slammed on the brakes. He drove very smoothly.

After sending Xia ruofei off, Song Qiming felt a little sleepy and decided to go back to his room to sleep. He let Guangzhi Cao and Zhang go back to rest and gave them half a day off.

Guangzhi Cao hesitated for a moment, then took a step forward and said in a low voice, "Secretary, I have something to report to you. It's about Xia ruofei."

Song Qiming was stunned for a moment, then his expression returned to normal. He said indifferently, "Let's talk in the study!"

Guangzhi Cao wanted to report to Song Qiming about what happened at the West River Moon Club that day. He had been hesitating. After all, it was only a verbal conflict that day. There was no need to report such a small matter to the Secretary.

But today, he felt how much Song Qiming valued Xia ruofei. Besides, Xia ruofei was treating Song Wei, which made him more important to Song Qiming. He thought about it and decided to report it.

The two of them came to the study. Song Qiming sat down and pointed to the chair opposite him. "Sit down and talk! What's the matter?"

Guangzhi Cao sat down and calmed himself down. He quickly organized his words and said, "Secretary, when ruofei and I were eating at Xi Jiang Yue that day, the child of the organization department's Deputy Minister Yang, Yang Jianren, had a verbal conflict with him because of the box. Yang Jianren's words were not very nice at the time ..."

Song Qiming raised his eyebrows and said calmly, "Tell me the details."

Guangzhi Cao told Song Qiming everything he had seen and heard at the West River Moon Club.

Song Qiming didn't say anything for a long time. Guangzhi didn't dare to make a sound either. He sat on the chair and looked at Song Qiming.

After a long while, Song Qiming asked, "do you know ... This Yang Jianren?" How is he usually?"

Chapter 906: Song Qiming's decision (2)

"Secretary, I worked in the organization Department for a while before I was transferred to the first Secretary Department," Guangzhi Cao quickly said. "I had some contact with Yang Jianren. He's ... Quite flamboyant, and ... He doesn't seem to have a good reputation for his lifestyle. "

Guangzhi was being tactful, but Song Qiming understood. He nodded and asked, "What's his job?"

"Yang Jianren is not part of the system. He opened a trading company." Guangzhi Cao said, "I don't know how much business this company has, but he's quite a spendthrift."

Song Qiming nodded and said, "I know."

Guangzhi Cao looked at song Qiming and said, "Secretary, I'll go back first."

"Yes." Song Qiming nodded.

As Guangzhi Cao stood up, song Qiming said, "Xiao Cao, you did the right thing today. A Secretary's job should be meticulous enough. If there's anything, report it to the leader immediately and provide reference for the leader's decision."

Guangzhi Cao suppressed the excitement in his heart and said, "Yes, Secretary. I'll work harder."

Song Qiming smiled and said, "Well, go back and have a good rest in the afternoon! You've worked hard these past few days."

"Thank you for your concern, Secretary." Guangzhi Cao said, "Secretary, you should rest for a while. I'll take my leave."

After Guangzhi Cao left, song Qiming did not go back to his room to rest. Instead, he sat down in the study.

He took out a cigarette from the box and lit it. He sat in the smoke – filled study for a long time, then opened the desk drawer and took out a document to read carefully.

This wasn't an official red – headed document. It was just a document sent by the provincial Party organization Department to every Standing Committee member about the situation of the candidates to be promoted to the main hall and Deputy Hall level.

In the near future, the province was indeed going to promote a group of Department – Level cadres, which was a normal cadre adjustment.

The organization Department summarized the situation of the candidates and sent them to each member of the Standing Committee. The next step was to observe these people according to the organization's procedures, which would provide a basis for the next step of the official discussion of the Standing Committee.

Of course, he might not be promoted after being inspected, but those who were not inspected would definitely not be promoted.

Song Qiming quickly flipped to the page with yang Jinsheng. It was a simple introduction to the officers and their employment experience. He spent five to six minutes reading it.

After closing the document, song Qiming thought for a while. Finally, he picked up the red phone on the table and dialed a number.

"Hello, Secretary Lin!" After the call connected, song Qiming smiled and said, "I'm song Qiming."

The person song Qiming was calling was the head of the southeast province, Lin Shengyun, the provincial Committee Secretary.

Lin Shengyun laughed heartily and said, "It's comrade Qi Ming! What's the matter?"

“Secretary Lin, I have something to report to you.” Song Qiming said, “I’ve seen the situation of the Department – Level cadres sent by the organization Department. My opinion is that our Municipal Party Committee organization department’s vice – Minister, comrade yang Jinsheng, should not be inspected this time.”

Lin Shengyun was a little surprised. Song Qiming had just taken office and was not familiar with the situation. Under such circumstances, he would not express too many opinions on personnel issues. Even if he were to go to the Standing Committee, he would at most raise his hand.

He didn’t expect song Qiming to express his opposition to the promotion of yang Jinsheng. He couldn’t ignore song Qiming’s opinion, because song Qiming was not only the Secretary of Sanshan city, but also the Deputy Secretary of the southeast province.

Song Qiming’s position in the provincial Committee was the third, second only to the Secretary and the provincial judge. In addition, yang Jinsheng, who song Qiming had mentioned, was a cadre of Sanshan city. As the Secretary of Sanshan, song Qiming naturally had the right to speak.

“Comrade Qiming, it’s comrade yang Jinsheng. Is there a problem?” Lin Shengyun asked with a smile.

“Secretary Lin, please don’t misunderstand.” Song Qiming said, “this is what I’m thinking. I’ve just been appointed and I’m not completely familiar with the team members, let alone the cadres under me. Moreover, the position that comrade yang Jinsheng is going to promote to is the municipal Party Committee organization Minister, so I hope that the Provincial Party Committee will give me some time to familiarize myself with the situation and then consider it comprehensively.”

Song Qiming paused for a moment before he continued, “And our department head, department head Niu, is still two months away from retirement! I don’t think there’s a need to rush the allocation of this position. Of course, this is just my personal opinion. ”

Lin Shengyun pondered for a moment, then smiled and said, “Comrade Qiming, I understand your suggestion. I will consider it seriously.”

“Okay. Thank you, Secretary Lin.” Song Qiming said, “I’ll give you a detailed report when I arrive at the Provincial Party Committee tomorrow.”

After hanging up the phone, song Qiming heaved a sigh of relief. He leaned back in his chair and closed his eyes to rest.

Although Lin Shengyun did not make his stand clear, song Qiming knew the weight of his opinion. There was a high chance that Lin Shengyun would agree to it.

Naturally, song Qiming would not make such a rash decision just because of a small conflict in a private room with yang Jinsheng’s son, yang Jianren.

Even if yang Jianren’s target was Xia ruofei, it was not enough for song Qiming to make up his mind.

In fact, song Qiming and Tian Huilan had had a long conversation when they took over the position.

This was normal because the two of them had the same political stance. Their handover was a true “handover.” Tian Huilan had told song Qiming everything about the team members, including the leaders of some important departments.

At that time, the two of them talked about yang Jinsheng.

Because Minister Niu of the municipal organization Department was about to reach the age limit, there had long been rumors about the selection of the organization Minister. Yang Jinsheng was going to take the baton in order and step into the Standing Committee position.

On the other hand, Tian Huilan was hesitant about yang Jinsheng's promotion, and she even had some reservations.

It was because yang Jinsheng's reputation was not very good.

That was why song Qiming had been hesitating. Guangzhi Cao's report today had further strengthened his determination.

As a leader who wanted to do things and could do things, he was in his Prime. Naturally, he did not want to see any problems in his team.

Although it had happened to yang Jianren, he could still see the big picture from the small details. This also reflected a lot of problems from another perspective.

Before these questions were cleared up, song Qiming decided to stop the inspection of yang Jinsheng.

If yang Jinsheng really had no problems, then it would not affect his progress. Minister Niu still had nearly two months to reach his age, so there was no problem with the time.

Song Qiming closed his eyes and rested for a while. Then, he picked up his phone and called Liu Weiye, the Secretary of the municipal Commission for Discipline Inspection.

Liu Weiye was Tian Huilan's old subordinate. He was someone song Qiming could completely trust.

He instructed Liu Weiye to investigate yang Jinsheng's situation while keeping it confidential, and to focus on yang Jianren's company.

For the people from the Commission for Discipline Inspection, this kind of confidential investigation was already a walk in the park. After the entire administrative machine was started, yang Jianren's company's current accounts and business situation would be checked clearly without him knowing it.

Song Qiming put down the phone and scribbled two lines under yang Jinsheng's name on the document with a red pencil. Then, he muttered to himself, "I hope you can withstand the inspection! Otherwise, my first fire won't be a good feeling ..."

Then, song Qiming locked the documents in his desk drawer and went back to his room to rest.

Xia ruofei did not know that Cao Guangzhi had reported to song Qiming, nor did he know that the small conflict that day had helped song Qiming make up his mind. He took the car back to the farm, thanked the two drivers, and went straight upstairs to his room.

After locking the door and windows, Xia ruofei took out the spirit painting scroll and entered the medium.

The unknown poison was still lingering on his fingertips!

After entering Xia ruofei's body, the poison was tightly wrapped by Xia ruofei's spiritual energy. No matter how hard he tried, he couldn't break free. In the end, it just hid in a corner.

Xia ruofei was very interested in this poison, so he entered the medium as soon as he got home and was ready to study it.

Chapter 907: The aura of the world stone (1)

After Xia ruofei entered the Archean realm, he didn't see Xia Qing. He should be busy with work in the mountain and sea realm.

Now, Xia Qing's work was also very heavy. She had to take care of the herb garden, cut the Dendrobium candida, expand the planting area, cut succulent plants, and take care of the two acres of land where the Cordyceps sinensis was cultivated.

Furthermore, Xia Qing would frequently travel between the mountain sea realm and the Archean realm. This was because the abalone reared in the Archean realm needed to change the seawater at regular intervals. Furthermore, there were many crops in the Archean realm that needed to be taken care of.

However, when Xia ruofei entered the space, Xia Qing would sense it. Hence, his figure quickly appeared at the Archean realm.

"Master, you're here!" Xia Qing greeted him respectfully.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "okay, go do your work!" I'm fine here. "

"Yes, master!" Xia Qing said, "I was just about to change the water for these abalones."

"How's the abalone growing recently?" Xia ruofei asked with interest.

"Master, it's growing very well." Xia Qing replied, "at this rate, it should be able to reach the level of a one – headed abalone in a few days!"

"Good job!" Xia ruofei said happily, "go do your work! When the size of the abalone exceeds the standard size of a one – Head abalone, remember to inform me. At that time, you can directly put them in the sea of the mountain sea realm! This way, you won't need to change the water frequently. "

"Yes, master!" Xia Qing would definitely obey Xia ruofei's orders.

The growth curve of abalones was more and more gentle. The bigger the abalones, the more difficult it was for them to continue growing.

The time it took to grow from a two – headed abalone to a one – headed abalone might be longer than the time it took to grow from an abalone fry to a two – headed abalone.

After reaching the standard of a one – headed abalone, the speed of growth would be even slower.

These 30 abalones were just experimental products in the Archean realm. When they grew to the size of a one – headed abalone, there would be no need to continue using the speed of time. Furthermore, Xia ruofei could not keep them forever. One – headed abalones were already a heaven – defying existence. He could find a time to cash them out.

Of course, one – headed abalone was extremely precious. As for how to sell it, he would have to plan it carefully.

Xia Qing walked to the big orange plastic box where the reticulated abalones were kept. Then, in a flash, she disappeared from the Archean realm along with the box. Xia Qing could also use part of the invisible spatial power to freely shuttle between two spaces.

Of course, he had to get Xia ruofei's permission.

It was like a supercomputer. Although it was powerful, without instructions that were allowed to be executed, it could not even run the simple four – arithmetic operations.

After Xia Qing left, Xia ruofei's attention was focused on the strange poison on his fingertips.

With a slight thought, he forced the poison out of his body without any effort.

In the spirit map space, Xia ruofei had absolute control over it. Hence, after the poison was expelled, it did not dissipate. Instead, it was wrapped tightly by an invisible force and hovered in front of Xia ruofei.

The target of the poison was very small, just a small black dot. Xia ruofei's eyesight was amazing, or else he wouldn't have found it so easily.

In fact, this black dot, which was about the size of a needle, was made up of dozens of tiny black particles. If they were scattered in space, they would not be visible to the naked eye.

That was why Song Wei and the other members of the archeological team had fallen for it without them knowing.

Xia ruofei extended his spiritual power and locked onto the tiny black particles. Then, he removed the spatial restraint on them.

He discovered that these black particles immediately became very active in an environment rich in spirit Qi, and began to dissipate in all directions.

In the process of dissipation, these black particles seemed to be absorbing the spiritual Qi in the space, allowing themselves to slowly grow.

Xia ruofei's spiritual power was locked on to the black particles, so he could clearly feel the process of them growing.

Very quickly, the black particles had dispersed to a radius of five to six meters and were almost invisible to the naked eye. Xia ruofei did not use his spatial power to retrieve them and continued to observe.

After a while, Xia ruofei's spiritual power finally noticed that one of the black particles had grown to a certain extent and then split into two identical particles.

In other words, these black particles could reproduce and grow in the spirit map space.

He just didn't know if this phenomenon was caused by the rich spirit Qi in the space or if they had this ability.

Xia ruofei continued to observe for a while. Dozens of black particles started to split one after another. The number of poisonous particles had almost doubled.

At this moment, Xia ruofei's mind moved. The invisible spatial force immediately bound these black particles and then rapidly compressed them.

Under the power of absolute control, the black particle had no chance of resisting. It was quickly compressed into a very small area by the spatial power, forming a black dot that was visible to the naked eye.

This black dot was about twice as big as before.

Xia ruofei was ready to return to his room in the outside world and release them to see if they would continue to grow.

If it could still be used in the outside world, then this poison would be a bit terrifying.

Although the archeological team had sealed off the main burial chamber, no one could guarantee that the invisible poison would not leak out at all.

If the poison were to slowly accumulate and grow in the outside world, it would cause great harm to the surrounding people.

The most terrifying thing was that this poison was invisible and odorless, and there was no way to guard against it.

Now, Xia ruofei could only use the petals of the spirit Heart Flower to get rid of the poison. If it caused a large – scale infection, he would not have enough petals no matter how many he had.

At the thought of this, Xia ruofei couldn't wait any longer. He immediately prepared to return to the outside world and observe in a normal environment to see if the poison would reproduce on its own.

At this moment, Xia Qing brought the large orange plastic box back to the spatial spirit pond at the primal realm.

In fact, the time he took to change the water in the orange plastic box was very short. It was just that there was a 30 times difference in time flow between the two spaces, so Xia ruofei had to study it for a while before Xia Qing brought the plastic box with the water changed.

After Xia Qing placed the plastic box by the pool, she quickly walked towards Xia ruofei.

"Master, the water has been changed." Xia Qing said.

Xia ruofei's mind was focused on the unknown poison. He nodded and said, "You've worked hard ..."

He then prepared to leave the spirit map space.

At this time, Xia Qing's eyes suddenly focused on the tiny black dot in front of Xia ruofei. She said in surprise, "Master, this ..."

Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows and quickly asked, "Xia Qing, do you recognize this thing?"

"I don't, but ... I can feel the aura of a world stone on it ..." Xia Qing shook her head.

"This is impossible!" Xia ruofei cried out, "I've been wearing the sensing Jade Leaf! There's no reaction at all. "

"Master, the aura of the world stone inside is extremely weak. The formation I've set up won't be able to sense it," Xia Qing said.

Xia ruofei felt excited and asked, "In that case, these black particles might be substances that fell from the world stone?"

Xia Qing also revealed a perplexed expression and said, "I can't be sure because its aura is extremely strange. Other than the faint aura of the world stone, there's also a cold and evil aura. It's impossible for the world stone to come with it."

Xia ruofei said thoughtfully, "these strange particles come from the main chamber of an ancient tomb. There have been people who have been attacked by these black particles after entering the main chamber. They have shown symptoms of fainting. The most serious person has already passed away."

Xia Qing also fell into deep thought, just like a computer entering search mode.

After a long while, he raised his head and said, "master, there must be a world stone in that tomb!" As for these black particles, there's a possibility that the ancient tomb was located in an extreme Yin place. A portion of the matter on the world stone's surface peeled off over the long years and became its current state after being contaminated with Yin Qi. "

When Xia ruofei heard that there was a realm stone in the tomb, he was first overjoyed. Then, he asked in confusion, "As far as I know, it's an ancient tomb from the Ming Dynasty, which is at most 700 to 800 years old. The world stone shouldn't be unable to withstand even a few hundred years, right?"

Xia ruofei was well aware of the wonders of the world stone. Under that unremarkable black surface, it contained a large amount of energy and spiritual Qi. Such a magical thing should not be so fragile!

Xia Qing said, "master, it's possible that the boundary stone already existed before the ancient tomb was built. The tomb of the Ming Dynasty was just built on top of it ... Moreover, the place of extreme Yin is not suitable to be a tomb. The existence of this tomb is very strange ..."

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "if there's a chance, I'll go to the Ming Dynasty Tomb to take a look!"

"Yes, master," Xia Qing agreed. At the very least, there's a high possibility that there's a world stone there. If the spirit map world can absorb another world stone, the possibility of completing this evolution is very high. "

"Didn't you say that the world stone was tainted with a cold and evil aura?" Xia ruofei asked.

“That should only be a portion of the material on the world stone’s surface.” Xia Qing said, “the world stone itself is extremely sturdy. It is very difficult for ordinary Yin Qi to corrode it.”

“Oh, right ...” Xia ruofei suddenly remembered and asked, “since these black particles also contain the aura of the realm stone, can the spirit map world absorb them?”

If absorbing the black particles helped the spirit map space evolve, Xia ruofei could continue to cultivate the Pi Xiu in the outside world. Even if they could not reproduce in the outside world, Xia ruofei could find some experimental animals, such as white mice, and implant the black particles into the bodies of the animals. When they reproduced to a certain scale, he could harvest them all at once for the spirit map space to absorb.

This was equivalent to having a fixed source of energy. It was much easier to obtain than the world stone that could only be found by chance.

More importantly, if the spirit map space could absorb these small black particles, Xia ruofei would have a way to deal with them even if the poison in the ancient tomb leaked out due to the last archaeological discovery and multiplied in the outside world.

This made Xia ruofei look forward to it.

Chapter 908: Visa (1)

If the spirit map space could really absorb these small black particles, the benefits would naturally be obvious.

However, Xia Qing shook her head and said, “master, there’s no problem with absorbing it, but the aura of the world stone contained in it is very weak. Moreover, they rely on absorbing the spiritual energy of the space to grow and reproduce. In addition, they also carry a cold and evil aura. When the spirit map world absorbs it, it also has to purify the aura. I’m afraid that under such a situation, not only will it not evolve, but it may even regress slightly.”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but feel a little disappointed, but he still sharply noticed the key point in Xia Qing’s words and immediately asked, “So ... If they’re in a place with poor spiritual energy outside, it’ll be difficult for them to reproduce and grow?”

Xia Qing nodded and said, “it should be. The essence of spiritual Qi is actually energy. The world stone also contains a large amount of pure energy. These black particles can continue to reproduce by absorbing energy. That’s why they can grow in the ancient tomb because the yin Qi is also a kind of energy. It’s also because of this that they have become like this.”

Xia ruofei was relieved to hear that.

Although Xia ruofei was a little disappointed that the spirit map space could not absorb them, at least a small amount of black particles would not be able to affect the environment.

Otherwise, this thing was colorless, odorless, and shapeless. If it was gathered in large numbers, it could even form a terrible plague.

Moreover, Xia Qing had also said that the spirit map space could still absorb these black particles. It was just that there were no benefits to absorbing them, and it might even cause minor damage.

Hence, Xia ruofei was even more at ease.

Even if the black particles scattered around the ancient tomb by chance absorbed the Reiki and became stronger, at least he could still absorb them through the Spirit map space and not cause a disaster.

"Master," Xia Qing continued, "the reason why these small black particles attach themselves to a human's body is actually to absorb the essence energy in the human body. This is also a type of energy."

Xia ruofei nodded. "I've checked. The patient's shaoyin heart has suffered the most serious corrosion. A large number of black particles are entrenched in this Meridian."

"The heart meridian is the meridian with the most essence Qi in the human body, especially near the heart, where the essence Qi is the most vigorous. These black particles must be moving by instinct." Xia Qing nodded her head and said, "master, you said that the person who was corroded fell unconscious. It must be because of the loss of a large amount of essence energy in his body, and the damage to his heart."

Xia ruofei listened to Xia Qing's analysis and felt that it was very reasonable. He nodded and said, "Yup! The more severe patients have been in a coma for a long time, and their vital signs have gradually weakened until they die. Obviously, it's because too much of the essence in their bodies has been devoured, so they can't stay awake. Moreover, the essence and blood in Chinese medicine can't be detected by Western medicine, and there are no specific indicators."

"This kind of poison is extremely difficult to detect, even for a Chinese medicine practitioner with good medical skills." Xia Qing smiled and said, "only a person with strong mental power like master would not miss the condition of the patient's meridians."

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "I understand." Xia Qing, you can continue with your work! I'm still a little worried, so I'm going to test if these black particles can multiply and grow in size in the outside world."

"Yes, master!"

Dear readers! you are reading on our content copy site. Please copy and search this link "<https://bom.so/sBJMla>" to support us

With a thought, Xia ruofei kept the unnoticeable black dot in his hand and left the spirit map space in a flash.

After returning to his room, Xia ruofei released his spiritual force to wrap around the black dot.

As he had been practicing drawing runes with his mentality, Xia ruofei's control of his mentality had improved. Although it was more difficult to control his mentality after it left his body, he could still do it easily.

Xia ruofei slowly loosened his restraints and separated about ten small particles from the black dot. Then, he completely let go of the suppression on them and only used his spiritual power to monitor their situation.

As for the remaining small particles, they were tightly wrapped by another strand of Xia ruofei's spiritual power.

After the ten small particles regained their freedom, they started to dissipate in the air just like they did in the space.

However, Xia ruofei noticed that they did not exchange any energy with the outside world. In other words, these small particles could not absorb the spiritual Qi from the outside world to strengthen themselves.

Xia ruofei continued to observe for about half an hour and realized that there was basically no change in the black particles.

Only then did he release his mental force with relief and gather them all.

Since the black shard was not a threat, Xia ruofei was not worried anymore. He suddenly released his spiritual power and pressed it in.

These small black particles were actually quite fragile, so they were instantly annihilated under the sudden pressure.

Xia ruofei released his spiritual power to search and made sure that no one had escaped.

"Looks like I'll have to find time to go to the tomb ..." Xia ruofei muttered to himself.

Since he knew that there was a high possibility of a world stone being there, Xia ruofei would definitely not let it go.

However, he was not in a hurry. After all, the ancient tomb of the Ming Dynasty had been sealed off by the local government. Ordinary people would not be able to enter at all. Moreover, the world stone might be in the main burial chamber deep inside. In addition, ordinary people would not be able to discover the uniqueness of the world stone, so there was no need to worry about others getting there before him.

Xia ruofei thought about it. If he wanted to enter the tomb, it would be best to use his connections with Song Wei. However, she was still recovering, so he should wait until she was completely recovered.

Xia ruofei tidied up the house, took a shower, and went back to his room to rest.

The next day, Xia ruofei received a phone call to inform him that the passport he had taken Lin Qiao to apply for last time was ready to be collected. So, he drove Lin Qiao to the exit – Entry Administration Department of the Changping County Public Security Bureau and collected the fresh dark red passport.

Xia ruofei bought two tickets to Shen Cheng city and took Lin Qiao to the Australian Embassy in Shen Cheng city to apply for a visa.

The director of the shencheng office of the United States shengbang group personally came to Hongqiao Airport to pick them up. As for their accommodation and other things, they had already been arranged in the five – Star shengbang hotel, which was shengbang group's own global chain industry.

The director of shengbang group's office in Shen Cheng was a Chinese man in his 30s named Lin zhenyi. He was a native of Shen Cheng, so he was naturally very familiar with it.

On the same day, Lin zhenyi personally brought Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao to the Australian Embassy in Shen Cheng to apply for a business visa for Lin Qiao.

Shengbang group had a great influence in the world. This time, Lin zhenyi came in person, and Lin Qiao also had a business inspection invitation letter issued by shengbang group, so the visa application was quite smooth.

Originally, it would have taken five to ten working days to get the visa signed, but the Australian Embassy made special arrangements and said that it would be accepted on the same day. They would be able to get their passports back by the third day at the latest, and the details would have to wait for a call from them.

Of course, one could also choose to pay the postage fee and have the consulate mail their passport.

However, Xia ruofei thought that it would only take two days, so he decided to wait in Shen Cheng city. He could take Lin Qiao around Shen Cheng city.

Lin Qiao naturally agreed happily.

After returning from the consulate, Lin zhenyi sent a Mercedes – Benz to Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao and arranged for two staff members to accompany them throughout the trip.

All the expenses were naturally covered by shengbang group.

Xia ruofei and elder Tang worked closely together, so he accepted the small amount of money.

In the next two days, Xia ruofei took Lin Qiao on a tour of shencheng. They left their mark on the Oriental Pearl Tower, shencheng Disney, the Bund, Chenghuang Temple, Nanjing Road, and many other places.

It was not until the third day that Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao received their passports from the Australian Embassy in Shen Cheng that they took a flight back to San Shan.

For Lin Qiao, this was just a warm – up. The real trip was to Australia. The thought of traveling with Xia ruofei in a foreign country made Lin Qiao very excited.

.....

When Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao were on the plane back to the three mountains, the air in a high – end residence in the three mountains city seemed to be a little heavy.

A middle – aged man in his forties was sitting on the sofa with a gloomy face. There were some broken pieces of teacups on the carpet in front of him, and the Italy wool carpet was stained with a lot of ugly tea stains.

The housekeeper stood in the distance, trembling with fear, not daring to come over and clean up.

Next to the middle – aged man was a young man who also looked nervous. He lowered his head and didn't even dare to breathe.

If Xia ruofei was here, he would have recognized this young man as yang Jianren, the one he had a conflict with at the Xijiang Moon Club.

The fat middle – aged man with a balding head was yang Jianren's father, yang Jinsheng, the executive Vice Minister of the organization Department of the Sanshan Municipal Party.

Today, he had just received news from a leader in the province that his promotion inspection had been suspended. In the morning, various inspection groups of the Provincial Party Committee organization Department had entered the units where the candidates were to be promoted, but the municipal Party Committee organization Department had not welcomed the provincial inspection group.

The organization's inspection had been halted. What this meant was already very clear.

When yang Jinsheng heard this news, it was as if he had been struck by lightning. The first thing he did was to link this strange change to the matter that his son, yang Jianren, had timidly returned home to report to him a few days ago.

Yang Jinsheng also had the support of the leaders in the provincial team. The promotion this time was supposed to be a matter of course, but now there was an unexpected change. There must have been an accident in the middle.

The most likely accident was the mysterious Mr. Xia that yang Jianren had offended that day.

Therefore, yang Jinsheng immediately called yang Jianren back and gave him a scolding.

If he was not his biological son, yang Jinsheng would not have been able to do it, and he would have kicked him a few times.

After smashing a few teacups and cursing to his heart's content, yang Jinsheng's face darkened. He glared at yang Jianren and said, "Tell me what happened that day again. If you dare to hide anything, I'll break your legs!"

Chapter 909: a storm is coming (1)

In fact, yang Jinsheng had taken the matter very seriously when yang Jianren had reported it to him a few days ago. After all, even song Qiming's Secretary, Guangzhi Cao, was so polite to Xia ruofei.

Especially since song Qiming had just taken office, he did not know yang Jinsheng at all. Yang Jinsheng felt that he had to be even more careful when he could not figure out song Qiming's temperament.

Therefore, the next day, yang Jinsheng took advantage of the opportunity when the organization Department sent a document to song Qiming's office. He personally took the document to song Qiming's office and reported to him about his recent work.

At that time, yang Jinsheng felt that although song Qiming was still very indifferent and not very enthusiastic, he did not show any obvious disgust.

Song Qiming even listened very carefully when he reported on the work. In the end, he even expressed his approval of the organization department's recent work and gave a few instructions.

This made yang Jinsheng's hanging heart relax by a large margin. If song Qiming really had an opinion of him, he would definitely not have such an attitude.

However, yang Jinsheng did not expect that just a few days later, bad news came from the province. His organization inspection had been temporarily halted.

Moreover, the provincial leader also vaguely said that it was suggested by the Secretary of the municipal government, song Qiming, and that Secretary Lin of the provincial Party agreed to it.

This made yang Jinsheng feel as if he had been struck by a bolt from the blue. The only thing he could think of was the matter with his son, yang Jianren.

Yang Jinsheng had never expected that it was actually just a fuse.

Moreover, most of the officials did not know that the relationship between the two secretaries was closer than they had imagined.

Regarding yang Jinsheng's situation, first of all, Tian Huilan had her reservations, which was why song Qiming had made up his mind.

Under his father's murderous gaze, yang Jianren lowered his head and told him what had happened that day in full detail.

Last time, he still had some reservations and avoided the important things and avoided the trivial things about his domineering plot. Today, he didn't dare to hide anything and told her all the details he could remember.

When yang Jinsheng heard this, he was so angry that his entire body trembled. He pointed at yang Jianren and said, "You ... You unfilial son! You'll only be satisfied when I'm dead, right?"

In fact, he knew that his son used his name outside and was arrogant and rotten. It was just that he didn't cause any trouble in the past, so he would at most give him a few superficial lessons. But now that he had caused such a big trouble, he was naturally anxious and anxious.

Yang Jianren lowered his head and mumbled, "It might not be because of that person! Is he really that powerful?"

Yang Jin was so angry that he stood up at once. He raised his arm and then put it down hatefully, saying, "Do you have a pig brain? You're causing trouble outside at such a critical moment! Who do you think can directly take down the organization's evaluation index at this time? I'm telling you, this time, song Qiming personally gave the order!"

Yang Jianren suddenly raised his head and said, "It ... It's really related to Secretary song?"

Yang Jinsheng glared at his son and said, "Tell me everything you know about Mr. Xia!"

"I ... I heard that his name is Xia ruofei, and he runs a farm in the suburbs ..." Yang Jianren stammered.

"Bullshit!" Yang Jinsheng rudely interrupted yang Jianren's words and said, "how can a farm owner have so much power? You believe this kind of nonsense?"

"I ... I've already taught that he Dong a lesson and chased him out of the three mountains ..." Yang Jianren said.

"So what? We've already caused trouble!" Yang Jinsheng said.

"Dad," yang Jianren mustered up his courage and said, "I gave in when I saw Guangzhi Cao being so friendly to him. But Xia ruofei didn't even bother with me ..."

"Aren't you talking nonsense? It's all because of your stinky mouth!" Yang Jinsheng said.

Yang Jianren said submissively, "dad, maybe ... Maybe this isn't as serious as we think?" It's not time for department head Niu to retire yet!"

"You don't understand ..." Yang Jinsheng waved his hand and said, "this time, it's a batch of organization inspections, and the recent candidates for promotion are all concentrated inspections ..."

"Then ... Why don't you ask Guangzhi Cao?" Yang Jianren said, "he's your old subordinate after all!"

"That's the only way ..." Yang Jinsheng sighed and said.

Then, he took out his phone, found Guangzhi Cao's number, and called him.

"Director Cao, I'm yang Jinsheng from the organization Department!" Yang Jinsheng's tone was very polite, and there was no trace of his previous reserve.

Guangzhi Cao was no longer the little Cao who had just been admitted into the organization Department, nor was he the little Cao who had been transferred to the Secretary Department and buried his head in writing materials all day long. He was now the Secretary's personal secretary and the most popular person in the municipal Party Committee.

Moreover, yang Jinsheng had a favor to ask of him today.

Guangzhi Cao saw that it was yang Jinsheng's number, and hesitated for a moment before answering.

"Hello, commander yang!" He said in a tone that was neither humble nor overbearing. Do you have any instructions?"

"My chief Cao! I wouldn't dare to give you any instructions!" Yang Jinsheng smiled and said, "I do have something to ask you."

"Please go ahead, commander yang." Guangzhi Cao said.

His attitude was very appropriate, but there was a faint sense of alienation that kept people a thousand miles away.

Yang Jinsheng knew the reason behind this, but he could not care less now. He asked with a smile, "Director Cao, a few days ago, my Jianren had an argument with your friend at Xi Jiang Yue. I've already severely criticized him. I would like to ask you to help me settle it. Invite Mr. Xia out for a meal and give us a chance to apologize in person ..."

"Director yang, you're too kind," Guangzhi Cao said calmly. "It's just a small argument between young people. Mr. Xia didn't take it to heart. There's no need for an apology."

Guangzhi Cao was also cursing in his heart. Only an idiot would help you at a time like this. Even the Secretary had been alerted, how could this matter be settled? Back then, your son was so arrogant and domineering to the extent that he didn't care. Now that he's in trouble, you're so anxious that you want to give in?

"Of course, of course. Jianren's attitude that day was really too bad ..." Yang Jinsheng quickly said.

"Commander yang." Guangzhi Cao interrupted him before he could finish, "Mr. Xia has already made his stance clear on this matter. I'm afraid I can't help much. Do you have any other instructions? The Secretary needs some materials urgently ..."

"Oh ... Then you're busy, then you're busy. Sorry to bother you ..." Yang Jinsheng said dejectedly.

After hanging up the phone, he frowned. Yang Jianren, who was next to him, quickly asked, "Dad, what did Guangzhi Cao say?"

"He's not giving in at all. He has no intention of helping at all ..." Yang Jinsheng shook his head and said.

"He's too much!" Yang Jianren said angrily, "when we were in the organization Department, he was very respectful when he saw you!"

"Times are different now, don't you understand?" Yang Jinsheng said in a bad mood, "it's a favor that they helped. No one can say anything if they don't help!"

"Then what do we do?" Yang Jianren was a little out of his wits.

Yang Jinsheng let out a long sigh and leaned back on the sofa. After a long while, he said in a low voice, "Didn't you just say that elder Zheng from West River moon is also very close to that Mr. Xia? You ask someone to find out from him, we have to get a hold of the situation first! This person is the key!"

"Alright, I'll get someone to do it immediately!" Yang Jianren said immediately.

"Also, have you cleared up your company's accounts?" Yang Jinsheng frowned and asked, "go and sort it out again personally. Don't leave any evidence behind!"

Yang Jianren asked nervously, "dad, it's just the promotion that's temporarily put on hold, right?" It can't be that serious, right?"

"A storm is coming, wind is sweeping the building!" Yang Jinsheng let out a long sigh and said, "I have a feeling that things aren't that simple. In any case, it's better to be safe than sorry. You have to personally go through the accounts of these years. Find a way to wipe out all the funds that can't stand the inspection! Also, during this period of time, you'd better keep your tail between your legs and don't cause me any more trouble ..."

"Got it ..." Yang Jianren quickly said.

"Go! Hurry up and find out more about the situation!" Yang Jinsheng waved his hand disinterestedly.

He seemed to have aged a lot as he sat on the sofa.

.....

Xia ruofei didn't know that the conflict that day had caused so many chain reactions. After he returned to the farm with Lin Qiao, he started to prepare for the trip to Australia.

Although Lin Qiao hadn't received the admission letter yet, it was basically a done deal. As a reward, she would have more time to travel if she redeemed it earlier.

Actually, there was not much to prepare. Xia ruofei just checked the air tickets online and booked the earliest flight to Sydney, Australia.

Considering that it was a night flight and the flight time was close to ten hours, Xia ruofei, who was not short of money, bought the expensive first – Class tickets. Two tickets cost nearly 40000 Yuan.

Xia ruofei had specially chosen this flight. It was the same flight as his last trip to Australia as this was the only direct flight in Sanshan city every two days. It took the least time on the way, while the other flights had to stop. The longest one would take nearly 24 hours.

The latest flight would take off at around 10 p.m. The next day and arrive in Sydney at about 9 a.m. Local time. The whole journey would take nine and a half hours.

The next morning, Lin Qiao, who was about to travel abroad with Xia ruofei, was very excited. She got up early and started to pack.

A mother would be worried when her son traveled a thousand miles. Furthermore, the two children were going out together this time. Therefore, Hu Zi's mother had been nagging at her since early in the morning, especially Lin Qiao. She told her to listen to Xia ruofei when she was out and to be careful.

Xia ruofei spent the whole day with Lin Qiao's excited anticipation of the journey and Hu Zi's mother's constant nagging.

At around eight o'clock in the evening, Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao packed their luggage and got into Lei Hu's Mercedes – Benz under Hu Zi's mother's urging. They went straight to the Changping International Airport in Changping County.

Chapter 910: Jennifer (1)

If Xia ruofei went out alone, he didn't need to bring any luggage. Basically, the spirit map space had all the daily necessities, laundry, and other things prepared.

But this time, he was taking Lin Qiao with him, so he took a small suitcase and put some clothes in it.

Unlike Xia ruofei's small boarding box, which could be directly brought to the plane, Lin Qiao's things were wrapped in an extra – large suitcase, which must be checked in.

However, Xia ruofei understood. After all, girls had to bring more things when they went out. Moreover, Australia was in the Southern Hemisphere, and the season was the opposite of China. July and August were the winter in Australia, so Lin Qiao had to bring a lot of warm clothes.

The farm and the airport were both located in Changping County, and they only needed to drive seven or eight kilometers along the seaside road to reach it.

When Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao arrived at the airport, it was not even half past eight in the evening.

Since they had bought first – Class tickets, the two of them went directly to the VIP counter to check in and check in their luggage. Then, under the guidance of the VIP Commissioner, they passed through the security check through the VIP channel.

The airport's VIP customer service Commissioner brought Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao straight into the VIP lounge of the Changping International Airport that Heron Island Airlines had set up.

Heron Island Airlines was a local airline in the southeast province. Heron Island City and Sanshan city were both important bases of this company, so the conditions in the VIP room were naturally quite good.

The entire waiting room was about four to five hundred square meters in size. On the side of the landing strip was a huge glass curtain wall. The view was very wide, and even the aircraft taking off and landing on the runway in the distance could be clearly seen.

In the spacious and bright space, dozens of single – seat leather sofas were scattered in a picturesque disorder. On the side near the door, there was also a wine tasting area, tea art area, business district, and so on. Of course, exquisite desserts and delicious meals were also provided.

All of this was free.

In fact, the wool comes from the sheep. First – Class or business class tickets were several times more expensive than Economy Class. In contrast, the cost of these additional services provided in the airport VIP room was not high.

It was Lin Qiao's first time coming to such a high – end place. The last time she went to Shen Cheng city was her first time taking a plane in her life, so everything was new to her.

Xia ruofei smiled as he looked at Lin Qiao who was looking around. There was no contempt in his eyes, but a trace of love.

He brought Lin Qiao to a single – seater genuine leather sofa and sat down. Then, he went to get some delicate desserts and a drink for Lin Qiao.

"Thank you, brother ruofei!" Lin Qiao smiled sweetly and put it on the small coffee table.

Lin Qiao took out her laptop, turned it on, and put it on her lap. She took a sip of the drink and then focused on the computer screen.

Xia ruofei curiously took a look and found that Lin Qiao was browsing a design website. He couldn't help but smile and said, "You didn't forget to study when you were out playing? Do you have to fight so hard?"

Lin Qiao raised her head and smiled. "My master introduced this website to me. He said that there are many very creative designs and asked me to learn more when I have time. It's boring to just sit here, so I just looked around."

Xia ruofei nodded. "Not bad, not bad. Study hard. The company's business will depend on you in the future!"

"Brother ruofei, I'm suddenly feeling a lot of pressure!" Lin qiaojiao said with a smile.

Xia ruofei said seriously, "the advertising design major of Heron Island University is known as the Huangpu military department in the advertising industry!" You're also talented in this area, so you'll definitely be able to achieve something in the future. I'll be waiting for you to take over the company's visual design and advertising packaging business!"

Lin Qiao pursed her lips and smiled. Then, she said seriously, "Mm! I will work hard!"

The two of them chatted for a while. Xia ruofei didn't disturb Lin Qiao. He took out his iPad, put on his headphones, and started to watch a movie.

One of them was quietly looking at the computer while the other was immersed in the plot of the movie. At this time, a family of three was led into the VIP lounge by the airport's VIP customer service.

They looked like a couple and their child.

Of the two adults, one was a middle-aged Chinese man in his forties. He was tall and burly, wearing a well-designed shirt and suit pants. His every move was quite powerful, and he had the demeanor of a successful man.

The woman beside him had a western face and was very tall. Because of her high heels, she was about the same height as her husband.

Not only was this woman tall, but her figure was also quite hot. She was wearing a white silk shirt with ripped jeans, which highlighted her spectacular chest and perky butt.

With a 1.8-meter tall blonde beauty like her, many people turned to look at her wherever she went.

The few guests in the VIP hall couldn't help but look over.

Beside the transnational couple was a little boy of eight or nine years old.

Mixed-bloods seemed to be more handsome or beautiful.

The little boy had undoubtedly inherited many of his parents' good qualities. He had beautiful blonde hair and charming blue eyes, and his facial features were more like that of an Asian, appearing softer and less angular.

The family of three walked to the three sofas opposite Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao and sat down.

Children were always restless. After a while, he couldn't sit still anymore. He took out a small remote control car from his bag and started playing.

When the family of three came in, Xia ruofei raised his head to take a look. Naturally, he was secretly amazed by the beauty of the Western woman.

However, it was impolite to stare at someone else's wife. Xia ruofei quickly looked away and continued watching the movie.

The little boy was playing with his favorite toy happily. The departure hall was covered with a thick carpet, so the transnational couple was not worried about their child falling and hurting himself. They only reminded him not to make a loud noise and not to disturb others. Then, they sat in their seats and looked at their child from a distance.

Xia ruofei and Xia Xiaofei were sitting opposite the family of three. There was quite a bit of space in the middle where the children were playing with the remote control car.

Unknowingly, the little boy's range of activity slowly expanded.

All of a sudden, the remote control car slanted and directly rushed under Lin Qiao's sofa. The little boy quickly dropped the remote control and ran over to pick up his car.

Lin Qiao was holding a drink cup in one hand and focused on the computer. She was shocked when a child rushed over and tried to crawl under her feet.

She subconsciously tilted her leg to avoid it, but she forgot that the laptop was still on her leg.

The laptop that she had just bought suddenly slid down and hit the little boy's head. Lin Qiao couldn't help but scream.

The Apple laptop had a metal cover, and although it was extremely thin, it still weighed two to three pounds. If it were to hit a child's head, it would definitely cause damage.

Although Xia ruofei was wearing earphones, his innate alertness made him realize that the little boy was running over before Lin Qiao.

Hence, when Lin Qiao's laptop slipped, Xia ruofei was quick to react and caught it firmly in his hand before it hit the little boy's forehead.

"Alan!" The tall Western woman hurriedly stood up and shouted, "you're in trouble again!"

The International couple stood up at the same time and walked quickly towards Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao.

The Chinese man said seriously in Chinese, ""Haoran, apologize to your brother and sister immediately!"

The little boy looked as if he had done something wrong. He quickly glanced at Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao, lowered his head and said, ""Brother, sister, I'm sorry!"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "little friend, it's okay." However, you have to be more careful in the future. It's very easy to injure yourself like this. "

The little boy nodded sensibly and said, ""Thank you for your reminder, brother!"

The Chinese man said with an apologetic look, ""I'm sorry! The child is insensible and almost bumped into you. "

His wife also apologized to the two of them in broken Chinese.

Xia ruofei smiled."It's okay. Children are naturally active. Besides, it didn't cause any serious consequences."

Xia ruofei patted the little boy's head affectionately.

Lin Qiao also said that it was okay. This mixed – Blood boy was very cute. Lin Qiao's maternal instinct was triggered. Even if she was really injured, she would not bear to blame such a cute child, let alone a little shock.

The couple also looked at their son. Their eyes were full of love and care, but at the same time, there was a trace of sadness.

However, Xia ruofei did not notice this small detail.

Because of this little episode, everyone stood around and chatted for a while.

The Chinese man took the initiative to introduce,""Little brother, my name is Tang Yitian and this is my wife, Jennifer. My son's name is Tang Haoran and his English name is Alan."

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded at Tang Yitian and Jennifer. He said,""I'm Xia ruofei and this is my sister Lin Qiao. We're on a trip to Australia. "

"You're also going to Australia? The flight to Sydney at 9:45?" Tang Yitian asked in surprise.

Xia ruofei nodded and said,"could it be that you guys are the same?"

"Yeah, what a coincidence!" Tang Yitian smiled."I live in Sydney." Little brother, when you arrive in Australia, you are welcome to visit our house! Jennifer's cooking skills are very good. "

Tang Yitian took out a business card from his pocket and handed it to Xia ruofei."This is my name card."

Xia ruofei took the name card and nodded.""Alright, I'll definitely visit you guys when I have the chance."

At this time, Lin Qiao, who had been squatting and playing with little Haoran, seemed to suddenly realize something. She looked up at Jennifer and then showed a surprised look.

"You ... You're Jennifer!" Lin Qiao said with some excitement.

Xia ruofei looked at Lin Qiao strangely and said,""Qiao' er, do you know Ms. Jennifer?"

Xia ruofei felt a little strange. When Tang Yitian introduced his wife, Lin Qiao only nodded politely to greet him. Why was she so excited now?

"No, brother ruofei! She was Jennifer! Jennifer Annie!" Lin Qiao said excitedly,"don't you read the entertainment news? She's the most famous female celebrity in Australia!"
