Chapter 91: Xingxing's child (1)

Xia ruofei was even more confused and said, "Who else could it be? I'm here to see professor Tian ..."

Then, Xia ruofei also came to his senses. He smiled and said, "You're waiting for someone, right?" Lu You's mouth twitched and she rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei. "What does it have to do with you?" Xia ruofei thought to himself, "this girl is really hot – tempered!" But I don't think I've provoked her, so why does she look so bitter and hateful when she sees me? At this moment, professor Tian's voice could be heard from inside, "Is it little Xia? Come in quickly! Youyou, what are you doing at the door? Quickly let little Xia in!" Lu You snorted softly and stepped aside unwillingly. Naturally, Xia ruofei would not argue with a little girl. He gave her a friendly smile, reached out for the vegetable basket, and walked into the courtyard. The White – haired and spirited professor Tian smiled as he came out and said, "Little Xia, why did you bring so many things again? Didn't I tell you not to take anything from here the last time?" "The vegetables we grow and the fish we rear are not worth much." Xia ruofei smiled and asked anxiously, "professor Tian, how's your health recently?" "Very good!" Professor Tian said happily, "after drinking the Chinese medicine you gave me, some of my minor illnesses have disappeared. I feel like I'm ten years younger!" Xia ruofei saw that professor Tian was indeed in a good mental state. His face was glowing and he walked with a gust of wind. It did not look like he had just walked past the gates of hell not long ago. He was happy for him. Professor Tian pulled Xia ruofei to sit at the antique tea table in the corner of the living room. He took out his precious tea leaves and made a kungfu tea for her. As he poured the tea leaves into the purple clay teapot, he said with a smile, "Little Xia, stay for lunch today! My younger daughter and son – in – Law just came back from Hong Kong! In a while, Huilan will be coming over after work!" Xia ruofei glanced at Lu You, who was huddling on the sofa in the living room and switching channels with the remote control in boredom. He roughly knew who she was waiting for. "Professor Tian, I won't disturb your family's reunion ..." Xia ruofei said. "What are you saying!" Professor Tian pretended to be angry and said, "you came to visit me. How can I let you go without a meal? Besides, my younger daughter also knows about what happened last time. She kept saying that she wanted to thank you in person!" Hearing this, Xia ruofei could only agree with a bitter smile.

Professor Tian was in a good mood today, probably because he had not seen his younger daughter for a long time. He was making tea and talking about his younger daughter with Xia ruofei. Professor Tian's youngest daughter, Tian Huixin, was 35 years old. Her husband, Ma Zhiming, was the only son of Hong Kong's richest man, MA Xiong. Tian Huixin could be considered to have married into a rich family. However, she and Ma Zhiming were classmates when they were studying in the United States. The two fell in love and got married in the United States. MA Xiong was getting on in his years. Ma Zhiming had inherited his father's business and was gradually taking control of the family business. Tian Huixin, on the other hand, had not gone out to work since she got pregnant. She had been living a life of supporting her husband and raising her child in Hong Kong all these years. The two of them chatted for a while before the doorbell rang again. Lu You cheered and jumped up from the sofa. She jogged out to open the door. Immediately after, Xia ruofei heard Lu You's surprised voice. "Little aunt! Little uncle! You guys are here ... Huanhuan! Big sister missed you so much! Come, let big sister hug you ..." Xia ruofei and professor Tian also stood up and walked out. Before they reached the door, Lu You and the rest had already entered. A charming young woman was walking in front with a cute little girl who was about four or five years old in her arms. Behind her was a well – dressed middle – aged man who was about thirty – six or thirty – seven years old. When the two of them saw professor Tian, they shouted in unison, ""Dad!" Professor Tian was also a little excited. He nodded and said, "Zhiming, Huixin, hurry up and go inside. The journey must have been tough, right?" "Fortunately, Hong Kong is not far from here." Ma Zhiming replied with a respectful expression. Professor Tian then turned his gaze to the little girl in Tian Huixin's arms. With a loving expression, he said, ""Huanhuan!" Tian Huixin gently patted Huan Huan and said, ""Call me Grandpa happily!" Huan Huan did not react. She did not even look at professor Tian. Her eyes were dull and listless as she stared at a small top in her hand. "Still no improvement?" professor Tian's expression darkened. "Um ..." Tian Huixin's eyes reddened. Ma Zhiming saw that the atmosphere was a little heavy and wanted to change the topic. At this moment, he saw Xia ruofei standing beside professor Tian and quickly asked, ""Dad, this is ..." "Oh!" Professor Tian laughed. I forgot to introduce you. Zhiming, Huixin, this is the person who saved my life, little Xia. Xiao Xia, this is my daughter Tian Huixin and son – in – Law Ma Zhiming. " "So you're Xia Sheng!" Ma Zhiming's attitude became more enthusiastic. He spoke in Mandarin with a strong Hong Kong accent, "I heard about what happened last time. Thank you so much!" Tian Huixin also showed a grateful expression and said, ""Thank you, Xia!" Xia ruofei smiled. "Mr. MA, Ms. Tian, you don't have to thank me. I've told professor Tian and Mayor Tian before. It's really nothing." At this time, professor Tian said, "come in and sit!" Don't stand there and chat ..." The group of people arrived at the living room and took their seats. Huan Huan also got down from Tian Huixin's arms. She tiptoed to the corner of the living room and fiddled with the top. Every time the top started to spin, she would be very focused and stare at it without blinking. Lu You ran over and wanted to play with her, but no matter what she said, Huanhuan did not even look at Lu You. Xia ruofei also realized that there was something wrong with this little girl. She had not said a word since she entered the room and did not respond to any external stimuli. However, this should be Ma Zhiming and his wife's privacy, so Xia ruofei did not ask. He could see the deep worry in Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin's eyes, and he knew that Huanhuan's problem was not small. Otherwise, with Ma Zhiming's financial resources, how could he not even be able to solve the problem of his precious daughter? After the spinning top stopped, Huan Huan picked it up clumsily and tried to spin it again. However, she failed after several attempts. "Huanhuan, I'll help you!" Lu You said. After saying that, he took the spinning top from Huanhuan's hand. Before Lu You could spin the top, Huan Huan's head hit Lu You's stomach without any warning. Lu You was caught off guard and fell on her butt on the floor. She grimaced in pain. Then, Huanhuan let out a hysterical scream. Tian Huixin quickly ran over and comforted Huanhuan in her arms. Professor Tian went over and helped Lu You up. Even in her mother's arms, Huanhuan was still screaming loudly. It took a long time before she gradually calmed down. "Mr. Xia, I'm sorry to have embarrassed you ..." Ma Zhiming sighed. When Xia ruofei saw the tears in Tian Huixin's eyes, he couldn't help but feel sorry for her. He couldn't help but ask, ""Mr. MA, if I may ask, Huanhuan ..." Ma Zhiming glanced at his wife and daughter who were not far away and said with a sad face, "To be honest, Huanhuan is ... Xingxing's child ..."

Chapter 92: Compassion (1)

"Xingxing's child?" Xia ruofei repeated in confusion as he did not understand. Professor Tian sighed and said, "it's autism. We call it autism in China. It's a congenital nervous system disease. These children live in their own world. They generally have serious language and social barriers ..." "Grandpa, why are you saying so much?" Lu You complained in a low voice. "Xia is not an outsider," professor Tian said nonchalantly. "What's there to hide?" "Yes, yes, yes. There's nothing I can't say," Ma Zhiming quickly said. It could be seen that he still respected this father – in – Law very much. Xia ruofei said apologetically, ""I'm sorry. I didn't mean to pry into your privacy. It's just that Huanhuan is so cute, and her appearance ...” Tian Huixin hugged Huan Huan and said with a bitter smile, “Children with autism look the same as ordinary children. In fact, many Star Children look cuter than ordinary children.” Xia ruofei looked at Huan Huan, who was completely immersed in her own world, and asked, “This illness ... Is it very troublesome to treat?” Tian Huixin sighed. “Yes. At present, there is no medicine in the world that can treat autism. What can be done is to help the child master survival and social skills as much as possible through perceptual integration training and some other supplementary correction.” However, Huanhuan’s condition is rather serious. Even though we’ve hired a top – notch special mentor, she still can’t speak ...” At this point, Tian Huixin was a little choked up. She gently kissed Huanhuan’s pink and Jade – like face and said with red eyes, “My greatest wish is to hear Huanhuan call me ‘mother’ in person while I’m still alive. Even if it’s just once, I’m fine with that ...” After saying this, Tian Huixin couldn’t help but sob. Huanhuan, on the other hand, was completely unaware of her mother’s sadness. She was still staring at the little top in her hand, and her head would shake from time to time, which was a sign of a serious imbalance in her senses. Ma Zhiming walked over and gently put his arm around his wife’s shoulder, comforting her in a low voice. Lu You glared at Xia ruofei unhappily and said, “How can you be like this? Why are you asking so many questions? You made my aunt cry ...” “Youyou! How can you say that?” Professor Tian frowned and shouted. “It is!” Lu You said indignantly, “Huanhuan’s matter is a sore spot for aunty. Our family members won’t take the initiative to mention it, but he keeps asking this and that. Isn’t he rubbing salt in aunty’s wound?” “You should stop talking!” Professor Tian glared at Lu You and said. “Youyou, it’s alright.” Ma Zhiming quickly said. Xia Sheng only asked because he was concerned about Huanhuan. ” Seeing that everyone in the family was speaking up for Xia ruofei, Lu You snorted and sat on the sofa in a fit of pique. She was so angry that she stopped talking. Tian Huixin wiped her tears and said to Xia ruofei, “Mr. Xia, I’m sorry to have embarrassed myself ...” Xia ruofei also said awkwardly, “Mrs. Tian, I really don’t mean to pry into your privacy. Actually ... The reason why I want to know more is because I’ve learned a few ancient prescriptions, one of which is quite effective for nervous system diseases. So, I want to confirm the specific conditions of autism and see if I can help you ...” Tian Huixin only smiled faintly and said, “Mr. Xia, I appreciate your kindness. We can’t even remember how many famous neurologists we’ve taken Huanhuan to over the past few years. We’ve also seen many Chinese medicine doctors, but ...” Hearing this, professor Tian coughed a few times. Tian Huixin suddenly realized that her words were a little inappropriate, so she said a little awkwardly, “Mr. Xia, don’t misunderstand ... I ... Don’t mean to doubt you ...” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “It’s fine. Actually, I’m not confident myself. After all, that prescription has not been tested on an autistic patient.” Naturally, Xia ruofei did not have any ancient methods. He only felt a little sympathy for Huanhuan when he saw that she was such a cute little girl, but she was living in her own world and did not care about the reactions of the outside world. Since it was a problem with the development of the nervous system, he felt that the petals of the strange flower might be helpful to her condition, so he took the initiative to mention it. If Tian Huixin had no intention of asking him to treat her, he would naturally not rush to do this. Professor Tian was moved by Xia ruofei’s words and quickly asked, “Xiao Xia, did the same person teach you the ancient prescription that you mentioned and the one that treated my illness and rejuvenated my body last time?” Xia ruofei smiled faintly. “Yes, it’s all recorded in an incomplete medical book that the old Chinese doctor left me. But I’ve never tried to treat people with autism.” After professor Tian received the confirmation, he said excitedly, “Then it’s worth a try!” After saying that, he turned to Tian Huixin and Ma Zhiming and said, “Huixin, Zhiming, little Xia’s prescription is very magical. The last time I had a heart attack, it was very dangerous, and it was Xiao Xia’s Chinese medicine that saved my life. The doctor said that if I didn’t take the right medicine in the early stages, I wouldn’t have made it to the hospital!" He paused for a moment before continuing. "In addition, the Chinese medicine that Xiao Xia prescribed for me is also very effective. My legs that have been suffering from cold for decades have been completely cured!" Tian Huixin and Ma Zhiming looked at each other. Both of them were moved by professor Tian's words. However, Tian Huixin had just declined Xia ruofei's good intentions, so she was a little embarrassed to speak again. Xia ruofei looked at the couple and smiled. "Mr. MA, Mrs. Tian, I'm very willing to try to help Huanhuan. The side effects of Chinese medicine are very small. Even if there is no effect, the child will be fine." Ma Zhiming finally made up his mind and said, "Mr. Xia, I'll trouble you to treat my daughter! No matter if it's effective or not, we'll still thank you properly." Lu You, who was sulking, couldn't help but stand up and say, "Little uncle, are you serious? Do you really believe that he can cure autism? Look at his age, does he look like he has great medical skills? He also said that he has no experience in treating people with autism ..." "Youyou, shut up!" Professor Tian's face darkened as he rebuked. This is getting more and more outrageous. Xiao Xia has good intentions, and he's my Savior. How can you be so rude?" "Grandpa!" Lu youjiao said, "we have to believe in science ..." "Can science cure your grandfather's acute myocardial infarction? Could science have recuperated my body so well in such a short time? Science, science, science itself is a kind of superstition!" Professor Tian said bluntly, "China's Traditional Chinese Medicine is broad and profound. Who would dare to Pat their chest and say that Traditional Chinese Medicine can't cure autism?" Seeing this, Lu You shook her head helplessly. In her opinion, her grandfather must have been bewitched by Xia ruofei to believe him so unconditionally. Professor Tian glared at Lu You again before turning to Xia ruofei and saying, "Xia, it's all my fault for not teaching Youyou well. That's why she's so arrogant. Please don't take it to heart!" Xia ruofei laughed and said, "She won't. She's actually doing this for Huanhuan's own good! Everyone's starting point is the same." Lu You pouted. It was obvious that this girl did not appreciate Xia ruofei's kindness. However, Xia ruofei did not mind. He just smiled and said, "Then I'll go to the pharmacy to get all the herbs I need, and then come back to boil the medicine!" "Okay, okay, okay. I'll leave it to you, Xiao Xia ..." Tian Huixin said quickly. Xia ruofei nodded with a smile and walked out of the door. At this moment, Lu You also quickly followed. "Youyou, what are you doing?" professor Tian shouted. "Huanhuan!" Lu You said without turning her head, "I bought the medicine for Huanhuan. I have to follow him!" Let's see if he's up to any tricks ..." "Nonsense, aren't you coming back?" Professor Tian was furious. Xia ruofei, however, did not seem to mind. He turned around and said, "Professor Tian, it's fine. Since Lu You wants to follow, then let her follow." "This ..." Professor Tian shook his head helplessly. He could not help but glare at Lu You. Xia ruofei said to Lu You, "then let's go!" I'll try to get there as soon as possible ..." Lu You snorted softly and ignored Xia ruofei. She followed Xia ruofei out of the door. Soon, there was the sound of an engine. Xia ruofei drove the pickup truck with the Secretary's daughter, Lu You, and headed to the nearest Chinese medicine clinic.

Chapter 93: Big brother, I've finally found you_1

The pickup truck drove through the campus. The two people in the car did not speak, and the atmosphere was very strange. Xia ruofei glanced at Lu You from the corner of his eye. She sat in the front passenger seat, the seat belt wrapped around her chest, outlining her seductive curves. The lines of her face were very delicate. The winter sun shone through the car window, and her face seemed to be covered with a faint glow. However, Xia ruofei did not feel the pressing aura of youth. Instead, he felt that the temperature in the car had dropped because of Lu You's presence. No matter how good – looking a face was, it would not be pleasant if it was sullen. This girl's resentment towards him was a little deep ... What exactly did he do to make her unhappy? Xia ruofei's heart was filled with question marks. When the car passed by the Civil engineering school's main building, Xia ruofei stepped on the brakes and stopped the car by the side of the road. Then, he opened the door and got out of the car. He walked straight into the building. Lu You didn't react for a moment. It was only after Xia ruofei got out of the car that she quickly stuck her head out and shouted, "Hey! Where are you going?" Xia ruofei said without turning his head, "I have three urgent needs. I'm going in to use the bathroom." Do you want to join us?" Lu You's face heated up. She spat and said, "Bah! Vulgar ..." She saw that Xia ruofei had already walked into the school building with a 'anxious' look on his face. She couldn't help but kick the mat of the front passenger seat and thought, "What kind of person is this ... Why did he go to the bathroom at this time instead of at home? is he up to no good?" Lu You had the intention to go in and see what Xia ruofei was up to. However, she was shy after all. If Xia ruofei really went to the toilet, wouldn't she be in big trouble? So in the end, he didn't put it into practice and could only sulk in the front passenger seat. The waiting time always passed very slowly. After a few minutes, Xia ruofei still had not appeared. Lu You gritted her teeth in hatred. Just when she thought that Xia ruofei had fallen into the toilet, Xia ruofei finally appeared at the entrance of the teaching building. When Lu You saw Xia ruofei walking over unhurriedly, she was furious. She couldn't help but stick her head out and mock, "You've been gone for a long time! Don't tell me you cleaned the toilet for the Civil engineering College?" Xia ruofei had a harmless smile on his face. He opened the car door and sat in the driver's seat. "I'm sorry! I caught a cold yesterday and had a stomach ache. Sorry for making you wait!" Lu You snorted with a cold face and ignored Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei chuckled and didn't think much of it. He started the car and drove out of the school. Naturally, he didn't really go to the toilet just now. He just went to find a quiet place in the teaching building to summon the spirit map scroll and took out a small, flat, stainless steel wine pot from his space. It was filled with a solution of flower petals that Xia ruofei had prepared in advance. The amount of petals in the solution was about one – third of the total. Then, he used his mobile phone to search for some Chinese medicine formulas for nursing children with autism. He firmly remembered one of the formulas that had milder medicinal properties and was mainly for nursing. It took a lot of time to search for the information because Xia ruofei had to make comparisons to ensure the accuracy and safety of the prescriptions. At the same time, he had to remember the ingredients, the amount, the dosage, and other information. After doing all this, Xia ruofei deliberately walked out of the teaching building unhurriedly. After wasting so much time, Lu You was naturally impatient. Fortunately, on the way to the pharmacy, Xia ruofei did not cause any more trouble. Otherwise, Lu You would really go crazy. There was a pharmacy at the Tongsheng Hall near Sanshan University. Xia ruofei walked towards the pharmacy after parking the car. Lu You naturally followed him quickly. It was obvious that she was 'monitoring' Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei didn't mind and told the shopkeeper a series of herbs, such as foxglove, Poria Cocos, Mandrill, Chinese Magnolias, etc. They were all common Chinese medicinal herbs. He even asked the shopkeeper to separate and pack these herbs. Just as the shop assistant went to prepare the medicinal ingredients, a pleasant voice rang out, "Youyou!" Lu You turned her head and smiled happily. She called out, "Yueyue! What are you doing here?" The girl named Yueyue was wearing a short white down jacket and blue jeans. She was tall and slim. She had a standard and exquisite oval face, and a pair of big, watery eyes. Yueyue blushed and said in a low voice, "My stomach hurts, so I'm here to prescribe some Chinese medicine ..." This was a girl's problem. She saw that Lu You was with a young man and was naturally embarrassed to say it too clearly. After she finished speaking, Yueyue couldn't help but steal a glance at Xia ruofei with a red face. It didn't matter if he didn't look, but with one look, Yueyue's mouth opened slightly. Her face gradually showed a surprised expression as she stared at Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel uncomfortable being stared at by a beautiful woman. Lu You was even more confused. Just as she was about to ask about the situation, Yueyue had already walked directly to Xia ruofei. "Big brother!" She cried out in surprise. I've finally found you!" Xia ruofei was shocked. What was going on? Could it be that I have a long – Lost sister outside? Xia ruofei's expression fell into Yue Yue's eyes. She asked,""Big brother, don't you remember me?" Lu You looked at Xia ruofei and asked Yueyue with a slight frown,""Yueyue, what happened? Did this guy deceive your feelings? Don't be afraid, tell me, I'll help you teach him a lesson!" "Hey! Lu You, don't spout nonsense!" Xia ruofei quickly said,"I don't even know this lady!" Yueyue also blushed and said,""Youyou, how can you be so rude?" She then looked at Xia ruofei with her big eyes and said,""Big brother, you really don't remember? More than two months ago, in the shanty town next to the Sanshan square ..." Xia ruofei suddenly realized what was going on and said,""Hey...It's you! If you didn't remind me, I really wouldn't have remembered. By the way, is your leg alright?" It turned out that this Yueyue was the girl that Xia ruofei had saved in the alley of the shanty town. It was also because of that injury that Xia ruoxin had flown back to the rented house to look for a first aid kit. The blood from her wound had dripped onto the spirit map scroll, and it had accidentally opened the spirit map space. Yueyue said happily,"big brother, you finally remembered!" My foot is fine! Thank you for that day ..." Lu You said with a puzzled expression,""What are you two talking about?" Yueyue happily grabbed Lu You's hand and said,""Youyou, Didn't I tell you about the time I met a few hooligans in the shanty town next to the three mountains square? It was this big brother who helped me beat the hooligan away. In order to save me, he even cut his arm with a dagger ..."

"No way? Is there really such a coincidence?" "Are you sure you didn't get the wrong person?" Lu You asked in disbelief. Yueyue looked at Lu You unhappily and said,""Youyou, do you really think I'm a child? How can you make a mistake?" Then, Yueyue looked at Xia ruofei and asked,""Big brother, what happened to the injury on your arm? Are you alright?" Xia ruofei smiled and said,"I've recovered a long time ago." By the way, you don't have to call me big brother. Let me introduce myself, I'm Xia ruofei. " "Mm! Big brother Xia!" Yueyue said happily,"my name is Jiang Yue. I'm Youyou's best friend and roommate in University. By the way, you guys ..." "We're not close!" Xia ruofei and Lu You said in unison. Jiang Yue looked at the tacit understanding between the two of them and a smile appeared in her eyes. Lu You immediately shouted,"Yueyue, what's with that expression?" I'm really not familiar with him at all, don't think too much ..." Following that, Lu You pulled Jiang Yue over and whispered into her ear,""Also! Even if he did save you, don't try to repay him with your body! I don't think this guy is a good person at all. Be careful not to suffer losses!" Jiang Yue's face immediately turned red and she said in embarrassment,""Youyou, what are you talking about? What body ... I'm going to scratch you if you say anything else!" Although the two of them spoke softly, Xia ruofei had absorbed so many petals of the strange flower that his hearing was far beyond ordinary people. He heard every word of their conversation and felt very embarrassed. Fortunately, the shop assistant had prepared all the medicinal herbs that Xia ruofei needed and packed them according to Xia ruofei's request. Xia ruofei hurried over to pay and bought a dozen vacuum – sealed bags that were used to store the brewed Chinese medicine. "Jiang Yue," he said to Jiang Yue,"I have something urgent to attend to. I'll be leaving now!" After saying that, he carried the wrapped Chinese medicinal herbs and said to Lu You,""Let's go!" "Where are we going?" Lu You asked subconsciously. Xia ruofei laughed."I've already bought the medicine. Of course, I'm going back." "Ah ... Oh!" Lu You was stunned for a moment before she said. The entire process of buying the medicine was very simple. It seemed to be a little different from what Lu You had imagined.

Xia ruofei didn't hide anything. He told her what herbs he needed and left immediately after he bought them. It could be said that other than meeting Jiang Yue by chance, there was nothing abnormal about her. At this moment, Xia ruofei was almost at the entrance of the store. Lu You did not have the time to think too much. She informed Jiang Yue and hurriedly chased after her. Jiang Yue also chased after him and asked, "Brother Xia, when are you free? I wanted to treat you to a meal to express my gratitude ..."

Xia ruofei placed the herbs on the back seat of the pickup truck and opened the door to the driver's seat. He then turned to Jiang Yue and smiled, "Last time was just a small matter, you don't have to thank me!" At this moment, Lu You had already gotten into the car. Xia ruofei started the car and waved at Jiang Yue with a smile before stepping on the accelerator and driving away from the entrance of the pharmacy. Jiang Yue shouted from behind, "Hey!" Brother Xia, please give me your number ..."

However, before she could finish her sentence, the car had already driven away. Jiang Yue finally managed to find Xia ruofei, but he ran away without even giving her his number. Naturally, she was in a bad mood. However, she quickly put on a bright smile and muttered to herself, "At least I know your name! Besides, Youyou must know your phone number. I'll ask her for it later!"

Jiang Yue looked at the pickup truck that was driving further and further away and smiled. She then turned around and went back to the pharmacy to buy some medicine. In the pickup truck, Xia ruofei was driving without any distractions. However, when Lu You turned to look at him for the third time, he finally could not help but ask, "Miss Lu, I don't think there are any flowers on my face, right? Or have you finally discovered my handsome side?"

Lu You snorted and said in disdain, "Tsk! You're daydreaming! I just wanted to see how different the soldier Yueyue has been talking about for two months is ..." Then, Lu You said suspiciously, "I say ... Don't tell me you're lusting after Yueyue's beauty and deliberately found someone to put on a show of a hero saving a beauty?"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but roll his eyes. He couldn't even be bothered to explain such a stupid question. This girl was really full of malice towards him! He didn't know if it was because of the conflicting eight characters, but he didn't seem to have provoked her at all! Xia ruofei criticized in his mind. Seeing that Xia ruofei was ignoring her, Lu You lost interest in talking. The two of them returned to professor Tian's building in silence. In the living room, Huanhuan was still playing alone. Sometimes she would make some meaningless sounds, and sometimes she would suddenly stand up and walk around in circles on tiptoes. Seeing Xia ruofei and Lu You enter, professor Tian and the rest stood up to welcome them. Xia ruofei took the initiative to show everyone the Chinese medicine packet in his hand. He smiled and said, "The medicine has been bought. I'll go brew the medicine now!"

"Xia Sheng, I'll have to trouble you!" Ma Zhiming said gratefully. Whether Xia ruofei's medicine would be effective or not, at least he had good intentions. Ma Zhiming and his wife were grateful to Xia ruofei from the bottom of their hearts. As for the effects of the medicine, the two of them really didn't have much hope. With their family's financial resources, what famous doctor couldn't they hire? However, autism was a difficult medical problem in the world, and there was no way to completely cure it.

"Professor Tian, I need a clay pot," Xia ruofei said to professor Tian. "There's one in the kitchen, follow me!" Professor Tian said. Xia ruofei followed professor Tian to the kitchen. When they reached the door, he turned around and said to Lu You, who was trying to follow him, "Miss Lu, the process of brewing the medicine is very important. There can't be any interference, so ..."

After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei shrugged and looked at Lu You. Before Lu You could say anything, professor Tian frowned and said, "Youyou, go to the living room and play with Huanhuan! Xiao Xia's prescription is so precious, of course it has to be kept a secret. What are you doing following us in?"

Lu You could only roll her eyes at Xia ruofei. Then, she pouted and left the kitchen. Professor Tian found a clay pot for Xia ruofei and told him how to use the gas stove. Then, he left the kitchen. Xia ruofei put the herbs into the clay pot, added water, and then boiled the medicine on the gas stove. Before Xia ruofei joined the military, he had brewed Chinese medicine for his grandfather when he was sick, so he was no stranger to it. The brewing process of Chinese medicine was a very boring waiting process. All they needed to do was to watch over the whole process and control the fire from time to time. During this process, professor Tian and the others were very tactful and did not disturb Xia ruofei in the kitchen. Xia ruofei had mixed about ten doses of medicine. After it was done, he poured the Chinese medicine into a ceramic soup pot. Then, he took out the small stainless steel wine pot and poured one – third of the solution of the petals of the strange flower into the medicinal soup. He stirred it well. The next step was to wait for the medicinal soup to cool down. It would take a long time to cool down such a big pot of medicinal soup, but Xia ruofei had a way. He directly summoned the spirit map scroll from his body and then put the porcelain pot filled with medicinal soup into the spirit map space. After waiting in the kitchen for about two minutes, Xia ruofei took out the ceramic soup pot again. As expected, after more than 40 minutes of cooling in the medium, the medicinal soup had already dropped to a temperature that was edible. Xia ruofei first filled a small ceramic bowl with food. Then, he took out the vacuum – packed bag he had bought in the pharmacy, divided the medicinal liquid into nine parts, sealed them, and put them in the refrigerator for storage. Then, he walked out of the kitchen with the bowl of medicinal soup.

Chapter 95: Natural affinity (1)

Xia ruofei walked into the living room with the medicinal soup and saw Tian Huilan in a business suit talking to Tian Huixin and her husband. He went up and greeted, ""Secretary Tian," Tian Huilan's official appointment had been made. She was now a member of the southeast Provincial Party Committee and the Secretary of the Sanshan Municipal Party Committee. This appointment would naturally be on the Southeast News. Everyone in Sanshan city knew about it, and Xia ruofei was naturally aware of it. In fact, Wu Liqian had already taken up a position in Changping County. She even gave Xia ruofei a call and told him that if he needed anything in Changping County in the future, he could call her on his personal phone. This was a clear sign of goodwill. Tian Huilan smiled gently and said, ""Little Xia, I heard from Huixin that you went to brew Chinese medicine for Huanhuan. Thank you for your hard work!" "You're welcome. I'm not confident in this prescription either." Xia ruofei smiled and said, "but I really hope that I can help Huanhuan. She's such a cute child. It'll be a pity if she's always like this ..." Tian Huilan sighed and nodded in agreement. Xia ruofei said, "by the way, the Chinese medicine is ready. Let Huanhuan drink it once!" I've made a total of ten portions, and the other nine have been stored in the refrigerator. You can just feed them three times a day! If this medicine is right, you should be able to see the effect in three days. " "Okay, thank you, little Xia." Tian Huixin replied. Meanwhile, Lu You, who was playing with Huanhuan, secretly pouted. It was obvious that she didn't agree with Xia ruofei's claim that it would take effect in three days. Chinese medicine itself took a longer time to take effect, and the treatment of autism had always been a long and drawn out battle. The so – called effect in three days was basically a fantasy. In fact, even Tian Huixin, Tian Huilan, and Ma Zhiming did not have high hopes for it. However, out of courtesy, they would not voice their doubts. After all, Xia ruofei had good intentions. Professor Tian was the only one who was looking forward to Xia ruofei's medicine. He said eagerly, ""Huixin, quickly feed the medicine to Huanhuan!" "En!" Tian Huixin replied. Then, she took the bowl of medicine from Xia ruofei's hands, walked to Huanhuan, and squatted down. She said gently, ""Huanhuan, drink this medicine and you'll be better ..." Huan Huan turned a deaf ear to him and did not look at Tian Huixin. Tian Huixin could only force a smile and bring the bowl of medicine closer to Huan Huan. However, when Huan Huan smelled the Chinese medicine, she immediately smacked the bowl in disgust. Fortunately, Tian Huixin was already very familiar with Huan Huan's various actions, so she withdrew her hand in time and the medicinal soup did not spill out. She shook her head helplessly, then looked at her husband and said, "Zhiming, we can only force her to drink ..." Ma Zhiming nodded with a bitter smile. He walked over and hugged Huan Huan. Unlike other children, Huan Huan didn't enjoy her parents' hugs very much. She seemed to be very repulsed, constantly struggling in Ma Zhiming's arms. "Mr. MA, Ms. Tian, why don't you ... Let me try?" Xia ruofei couldn't help but ask. "You? Even my little aunt and uncle can't do anything about it, how can you make Huanhuan take the medicine obediently?" Lu You couldn't help but mock when she heard this. "Xiao Xia, Huanhuan ... She's a little out of control," Tian Huixin said, feeling troubled. "Besides, she can't understand what the adults are saying. I'm afraid ..." Xia ruofei smiled gently and said, "I'll try. If it really doesn't work, you can pour the medicine down!" Tian Huixin thought for a moment, then nodded and said, "Alright, I'll have to trouble you then." Xia ruofei took the bowl of soup from Tian Huixin's hands and squatted down in front of Huanhuan. He said with a pleasant expression, "Huanhuan ..." Although Huan Huan raised her head to look at Xia ruofei, her eyes were still very distant. She did not look at Xia ruofei and quickly lowered her head to play with her spinning top. Xia ruofei noticed that Huanhuan seemed to like rotating objects very much. When he was searching for the prescription for autism, he also saw that many children with autism had this characteristic. He took out a coin from his pocket and flicked it gently. The coin immediately began to spin quickly on the ground. Sure enough, Huanhuan's eyes fell on the coin and she reached out her small hand to grab it. Xia ruofei picked up the coin before she could. Without a second thought, Huan Huan snatched the coin from Xia ruofei's hand. Xia ruofei flipped his hand and opened his palm. The coin had disappeared. In fact, Xia ruofei had quickly caught the coin between his fingers. As long as Huan Huan flipped her hand over Xia ruofei's palm, she would see it. However, Xia ruofei's actions were so fast that not only Huanhuan, but even the adults present could not see the mystery behind it. Huan Huan looked confused. Xia ruofei flipped his hand and opened his palm. The coin appeared in his palm again. A pure smile appeared on Huanhuan's face. She seemed to be amused by this interesting little magic trick. She reached out her little hand to take the coin. Xia ruofei shook his hand and said, "Huanhuan, drink the medicine. I'll make the coin appear for you, okay?" he said. Huan Huan blinked her eyes. She did not understand what Xia ruofei was saying. Xia ruofei pointed at the bowl of medicine and said, "You'll get coins if you drink the medicine!" After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei opened and closed his right hand again. The coin appeared and disappeared in a flash. Huan Huan was so amused that she could not help but giggle. The couple, Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin, were dumbfounded. It was the first time they had seen someone who could make their daughter so happy. A professional correction teacher might have some special methods to make Huanhuan follow the instructions, but they would not be able to attract Huanhuan's attention so quickly. Lu You's face was full of disdain at first, but now, her eyes slowly widened and she revealed a look of disbelief. Huanhuan finally looked at the bowl of medicine. Xia ruofei used his right hand to perform magic and brought the bowl closer to Huanhuan's mouth. Surprisingly, Huan Huan did not refuse. She took a small sip and frowned. The Chinese medicine tasted a little bitter, but after mixing it with the petal solution, the bitter taste was reduced a lot. It did not seem to be unacceptable. Hence, Xia ruofei mustered up his courage and used this simple magic trick to tease Huanhuan while feeding her half a bowl of medicinal soup. The living room was very quiet. It was only after Huan Huan had finished drinking all the medicine that Tian Huixin came over with a look of surprise and took the empty bowl. She said, "Little Xia, you're really good at this!" "Xia Sheng," Ma Zhiming also said happily, "if it weren't for the fact that you knew nothing about autism, I would've thought that you were a professional special teaching teacher!" "Actually, I'm just giving it a try. Maybe Huanhuan and I hit it off!" Xia ruofei said humbly. As if to confirm Xia ruofei's words, Huan Huan, who had just taken her medicine, immediately pounced over and forcefully pried on Xia ruofei's fingers, trying to find the coin. Her pink little face kept rubbing against Xia ruofei's body as if Xia ruofei had a natural affinity that made her want to get close to him. This scene made everyone burst into laughter, and Tian Huixin's eyes were clearly still filled with tears. As a mother of an autistic child, her journey had been too difficult. Every little improvement in Huanhuan could make Tian Huixin cry with joy. Although they had just taken the medicine once, and the effects were still unknown, Tian Huixin and Ma Zhiming still felt a glimmer of hope for some reason. Huan Huan kept pestering Xia ruofei, and Xia ruofei liked this little girl who was as fair as a porcelain doll. He sat on the living room floor and played with her. Xia ruofei's prescription was to calm the nerves. With the help of the flower petal solution, Huanhuan quickly became sleepy and fell asleep on Xia ruofei's lap. Xia ruofei carefully picked up Huanhuan and passed her to Tian Huixin. He said softly, "It's probably the effect of Chinese medicine. Let her sleep first! After she wakes up, feed her something and then take the medicine." "Thank you! Little Xia." Tian Huixin said sincerely. Xia ruofei smiled and said, "you're welcome. Take Huanhuan to the bedroom ..." Tian Huixin carefully took Huan Huan and carried her to the bedroom upstairs. Xia ruofei tidied up his clothes and walked to the sofa in the living room. Lu You, who was standing at the side, looked at Xia ruofei with a complicated expression. This man, who had left a bad impression on her from the start, had become a little unpredictable in her eyes ...

Chapter 96: Magical healing effect (1)

After settling Huan Huan in the bedroom, Tian Huixin went downstairs to prepare lunch with Tian Huilan. Meanwhile, Ma Zhiming accompanied professor Tian as he made tea and chatted with Xia ruofei. Lu You didn't stay in the living room either. She went to the kitchen to chat with her youngest aunt, Tian Huixin, who she hadn't seen in a long time, and then ran upstairs to see Huanhuan. Very quickly, the Tian sisters had prepared lunch. Huan Huan was still sleeping, so everyone went to the dining room to eat. This was the second time that Xia ruofei had the privilege of being personally cooked by the Secretary. He was much calmer than the first time. During lunch, professor Tian and Ma Zhiming frequently toasted Xia ruofei, especially professor Tian. His daughter and son – in – Law had returned from Hong Kong, and his granddaughter's autism had always been stone – cold, so he was especially happy to see a glimmer of hope. There were very few things that soldiers could not drink. Xia ruofei had been in the Army for a few years. From being drunk from a bottle of beer when he first joined the Army, he could drink two catties of white wine by the time he retired. Therefore, he did not reject anyone. Among the three men, he drank the most, but he was the most sober. Even the Tian sisters, Tian Huilan and Tian Huixin, gave Xia ruofei a toast. Naturally, everyone was full of praise for the peach Garden vegetables that Xia ruofei had brought, especially the taste of the carp. Even a young master from a wealthy family like Ma Zhiming could not help but praise it. Although Lu You was eating quietly, it was rare that she did not glare at Xia ruofei and go head to head with him. There were a few times when she couldn't help but secretly look at Xia ruofei. However, when Xia ruofei looked over, she quickly looked away. After the meal, Xia ruofei chatted with professor Tian and the others for a while and told them about the precautions for taking the rest of the herbal soup. He thought that the family had finally reunited after a long time and it would be inappropriate to disturb them. He got up and was ready to leave. At this moment, footsteps could be heard coming from the stairs. Everyone looked up. It turned out that little Huanhuan had already woken up and had gotten up to go downstairs. Tian Huixin quickly stood up and went over to welcome her. However, before she could hug Huanhuan, Huanhuan nimbly twisted under her arms and ran directly to Xia ruofei. Her big, watery eyes sized Xia ruofei up with curiosity and shyness. Xia ruofei's heart skipped a beat. He could clearly feel that Huanhuan's eyes were different from that in the morning. There seemed to be a hint of liveliness in them. Xia ruofei knew that the petal solution was probably working. He was secretly happy. It seemed that his guess was right. Although autism showed social and language barriers, it was still a problem with the development of the nervous system. As long as it was a physical problem, the petal solution had almost no flaws. It had been tried and tested. Xia ruofei's face revealed a kind smile as he squatted down and looked at Huanhuan. Sure enough, although Huanhuan subconsciously avoided his gaze, she still maintained eye contact with him for a second or two. Tian Huixin and the others also walked over. Tian Huixin, in particular, was very sensitive to this scene. She couldn't help but cover her mouth with her hands, her eyes filled with tears. Xia ruofei gently held little Huanhuan's too little hand and said with a smile, "Huanhuan, call me uncle!" Huan Huan hesitated for a moment. Xia ruofei looked at her encouragingly and said, "Call me uncle!" Huan Huan slowly opened her mouth and said with some difficulty, "Phew ... Phew ..." Tian Huixin suddenly burst into tears, and even Ma Zhiming's eyes couldn't help but turn red. Huan Huan was almost five years old, but this was the first time she had truly "spoken" since she was born. Although she could speak before, it was all meaningless syllables. This time, although his pronunciation was still unclear, it was very obvious that he was responding to Xia ruofei's request and was trying hard to say the word "uncle." The fire of hope was burning in the hearts of Ma Zhiming and his wife. Such an obvious improvement was like crossing a huge threshold. The two of them understood Huanhuan's situation the best. They were sure that Xia ruofei's Chinese medicine had a decisive effect. Although it sounded like a fantasy that a single dose of medicine had such an effect, the two of them believed it without a doubt. Xia ruofei gave Huanhuan a thumbs up and encouraged her, "Huanhuan, you're awesome!" Then, Xia ruofei held Huan Huan's shoulders and turned her to Tian Huixin. He pointed at Tian Huixin and said to Huan Huan, "Huanhuan, call mommy!" Tian Huixin gently bit her lower lip and looked at her daughter very nervously. She felt that her heart was about to jump out of her chest. What made her feel gratified was that Huanhuan's eyes met with hers, and there was an obvious sense of intimacy. The next moment, Huanhuan finally opened her mouth, "Mom ... Mom ..." Tian Huixin's tears rolled down her face as she hugged Huan Huan tightly in her arms. Her body trembled uncontrollably as she sobbed, "My good daughter ... Mommy has been waiting for this day ..." Ma Zhiming couldn't help but go forward and hug his wife and daughter. His eyes were also filled with tears. Only Huan Huan still had a confused expression on her face. She didn't understand why her parents were so excited. Tian Huilan's eyes were also wet. She gently wiped her tears and said to Xia ruofei, "Xiao Xia, thank you so much!" "Xia, you've helped our family so much, thank you ..." Professor Tian said excitedly. Lu You looked at Xia ruofei, and a strange light flashed in her eyes. She opened her mouth, but in the end, she didn't say anything. She walked over and consoled little aunt in a soft voice. Xia ruofei waited for them to calm down before he said, "Mr. MA, Ms. Tian, it seems that my prescription is right. I believe that Huanhuan's condition should be greatly improved after the treatment. However, she still has to start learning the language from the beginning. She's only four years old now, so it shouldn't be too late!" "I know ... I know ..." Tian Huixin said excitedly. "The doctor said that if the problem with the nervous system can be solved, the problem of social disorder will naturally not exist, and the ability to speak can also be restored very quickly ..." The language barrier of people with autism was mainly due to problems with their nervous system, resulting in a lack of learning and understanding ability in this area. Once the root of the problem with the nervous system was solved, they only needed to learn to speak like normal children, which was not a very difficult thing to do. Ma Zhiming was also very excited, "Xia Sheng, you're really a Divine Doctor!" You've saved Huanhuan's fate and also saved our family. Thank you! Thank you!" "Mr. MA, you're welcome." Xia ruofei smiled. Whether my prescription is effective or not, we'll only know after the entire course of treatment. "It'll definitely be effective! It'll definitely be effective!" Ma Zhiming said, "I've only taken one dose of the medicine, and the effect is immediate. If I take ten doses of medicine in a row, the effect will definitely be more obvious!" Xia ruofei nodded and said, "I hope so too!" Huanhuan is so cute. She should have a happy childhood like a normal child and not be immersed in her own lonely world. "By the way, Mr. MA, please keep my treatment of Huanhuan a secret." Xia ruofei said, "firstly, the medicine has not been tested. Secondly, I'm not qualified to practice medicine. Besides, I like peace and quiet. If word gets out that a bunch of patients are coming to my door, I really don't know how to deal with them ..." "Okay, okay. Don't worry, we won't tell anyone." Ma Zhiming answered. Now, whatever Xia ruofei said was treated as a golden rule. Naturally, he would not go against it. "Okay, then I'll take my leave first." Xia ruofei said, "you can call me anytime to let me know about Huanhuan's situation." If the effect is good, I'll prepare the medicine for the second course of treatment. After three courses, it should be almost done. "Three courses of treatment were basically the amount of a whole petal of the wondrous flower. Unless it was a particularly serious illness, it would definitely be cured. Just as Fang Yang was about to walk out of the door, Lu You suddenly called out to him, "Xia ruofei, wait a minute

"Youyou ..." Professor Tian frowned and called out. He subconsciously felt that Lu You was about to cause trouble again. From the start, Lu You seemed to be on bad terms with Xia ruofei. No matter how she looked at Xia ruofei, she did not like him. Xia ruofei turned around and looked at Lu You. He smiled and asked, "What's wrong? What's the matter?" Lu You bit her lower lip gently. After a while, she finally said, "I was prejudiced against you before and my attitude wasn't very good. I apologize." Xia ruofei was a little surprised, but he quickly came back to his senses. He smiled and said, "It's okay, I didn't take it to heart. " When Lu You saw Xia ruofei's smile, she felt that Xia ruofei didn't seem to care. She couldn't help but grit her teeth. However, she didn't show it and continued, "You ... Can you stay for the afternoon? Huanhuan ... Likes to hang out with you, and she'll have to take her medicine again later. If you're there, we'll know what's going on ..." "Don't worry, the Chinese medicine is not dangerous ..." Xia ruofei smiled. "I didn't mean it that way, don't misunderstand!" Lu You quickly said, "I just want you to stay for half a day more to accompany Huanhuan. This will be good for her recovery." Lu You looked at Xia ruofei and tried her best to make her facial expression gentler. However, she was already gnashing her teeth in hatred. This stinky fellow, I've already lowered myself to beg you, yet you're still trying to make things difficult for me ... You're really annoying! Lu You was truly concerned about her cousin Huanhuan. She had always been at odds with Xia ruofei, and she had almost lowered her voice just now. Xia ruofei saw the anticipation in Tian Huixin's and Ma Zhiming's eyes. He couldn't help but secretly sigh. He looked at professor Tian and asked with a smile, "Professor Tian, will this ... Disturb your family reunion?" "Xiao Xia, we're so happy that you're willing to stay and accompany Huanhuan!" Professor Tian said quickly. "Yes, yes, yes! Xia Sheng, Huanhuan is very close to you. Please stay and accompany her!" Ma Zhiming also said quickly. Xia ruofei thought for a while and nodded. "Alright then! I don't have anything to do today, so I'll go back in the evening ..." Lu You's gaze was a little complicated, but she still said softly, "Thank you!" "You're welcome," Xia ruofei said calmly, "I also like little Huanhuan and hope that she can recover as soon as possible." Xia ruofei returned to the living room and knelt down in front of Huanhuan. He said gently, "Huanhuan, let me show you another magic trick, okay?"

Huan Huan now understood that it was difficult for her master to speak. After thinking about it seriously, she revealed an extremely innocent smile and nodded heavily. Soon, Xia ruofei was playing with Huanhuan. She would giggle from time to time and was like a different person from before. Tian Huixin brought over Huanhuan's lunch. Just as she was about to feed her, Xia ruofei quietly stopped Tian Huixin and tried to encourage Huanhuan to eat by herself. To his surprise, Huanhuan really started to pick up a small spoon and eat by herself. Although her movements were still a little clumsy and her fine control of her hands had some problems, causing her to spill a lot of rice and soup, this was still a very gratifying improvement. Huan Huan rested for a while after her meal. Xia ruofei heated up the second dose of Chinese medicine and brought it over. This time, it was even smoother than the last time. She finished half a bowl of medicine in a few mouthfuls and then pestered Xia ruofei to play games. It was the first time that Ma Zhiming and Tian Huixin had seen their daughter so clingy. They had been sick for a long time, so they knew a lot about autism. They naturally knew what a happy change this was, and they were both very excited. Little Huanhuan was tired again after playing for a while. This time, she fell asleep on the floor. Tian Huixin carefully carried Huanhuan upstairs to rest. After such a long time, Xia ruofei's lunch was almost over, and Huanhuan had already gone to bed, so he took his leave at the right time. Professor Tian's family, including Tian Huilan and Lu You, all stood up to send Xia ruofei to the door. Ma Zhiming even held Xia ruofei's hand and said many words of thanks. As she watched Xia ruofei drive away in the pickup truck, Tian Huixin could not suppress the excitement in her heart. She had never dared to think that a normal trip home would bring them a ray of hope in their despair. "Zhiming, no matter how much Huanhuan recovers this time, we must thank little Xia!" Tian Huixin said to her husband. Ma Zhiming nodded in agreement and said, "Yes, the consultation fee for Xia Sheng must not be low!" Tian Huilan laughed. "Zhiming, I can tell that Xiao Xia really loves Huanhuan. He's definitely not treating Huanhuan for the money." "Big sister, we know about this." Ma Zhiming said, "but from our point of view, we still have to express our feelings ..." Professor Tian knew that his son – in – Law had a net worth of tens of billions. Money was nothing to him. Thus, he smiled and said, "It's fine to pay the consultation fee, it's natural to spend money to see a doctor! Besides, Xiao Xia's prescription is so precious ..." Previously, professor Tian trusted Xia ruofei unconditionally. Some people did not think so. But now, no one thought so anymore. Huanhuan's change today made everyone not dare to underestimate Xia ruofei's medical skills. "By the way, Zhiming, little Xia is starting her own business now. She should be developing in the planting and breeding industry in the future. Don't you also have a few Michelin star restaurants in Hong Kong?" professor Tian continued. In the future, you can also help Xiao Xia in her career!" "Of course, of course!" Ma Zhiming quickly replied after hearing that. Rich people naturally cared about their health the most. Xia ruofei had first pulled professor Tian back from the brink of death due to acute myocardial infarction. This time, he even had a solution to the world's difficult medical problem of autism. His medical skills had already been recognized by Ma Zhiming from the bottom of his heart. If he could be on good terms with someone like Xia ruofei by helping out in the business, Ma Zhiming would be more than happy to do so. Naturally, Xia ruofei did not know about the discussion between Ma Zhiming and the others. After he left Sanshan University, he drove straight to the holiday villa in the suburbs. Soon, the car went out of the Urban area and turned into National Highway 306. Just then, Xia ruofei's phone rang. He was wearing a pair of jeans today, and his phone was in his pocket. He was in a driving position, so his pants were a little tight. Xia ruofei held the steering wheel with one hand and lifted his butt slightly. He took out his phone from his pocket with the other. This position was a little awkward. At this moment, Xia ruofei suddenly saw a black shadow rush out from the side of the car. Even though he had excellent reflexes, he only had time to step on the brakes and subconsciously turn left to avoid it. However, Xia ruofei could clearly feel that the front right side of the car had hit something. His heart skipped a beat as he realized that he might have hit someone ...

Chapter 98: Healing (1)

Xia ruofei quickly got out of the car to check and saw a Black Dog lying by the wheel, wailing. One of its front legs was obviously twisted, and there was a lot of blood coming out of its head. It seemed to be seriously injured. At first, Xia ruofei felt relieved. Fortunately, he did not bump into anyone. But at the same time, he was a little worried. The dog was dirty and scarred. It was obvious that it was a stray dog. Although it was the dog that suddenly ran out from the side of the road and hit his car, the dog was so seriously injured now. If he ran away, it would probably die. Xia ruofei thought for a while and felt that it was a life after all. He would not be able to live without it. So, he walked over and squatted down to carefully examine the dog's injury. The Black Dog saw Xia ruofei coming over and showed a vigilant look. It struggled and bared its teeth at Xia ruofei. Unfortunately, it was too seriously injured. As soon as it opened its mouth, blood foam flowed out. It did not look threatening at all. "Don't be afraid. I'm here to save you ..." Xia ruofei said gently. At the same time, he stretched out his hand and gently stroked the Black Dog's back. Perhaps it felt Xia ruofei's kindness, the hostility in the Black Dog's eyes gradually faded. Its body curled up slightly and kept trembling. It was obvious that it did not have long to live. Xia ruofei quickly summoned the spirit painting and took out a bottle of flower petal solution. Now, Xia ruofei would always keep a few bottles of petal solution in his storage space in case of emergency. One of the petals was mixed into the spatial spirit pond water and was split into three bottles. Xia ruofei pried open the Black Dog's mouth and poured in a quarter of the petal solution. The Black Dog's body suddenly trembled, and it seemed to be much more energetic than before. The color in its eyes gradually disappeared, and it slowly returned. Xia ruofei was already used to this. He took out a first aid kit from the space and treated the Black Dog's wound with great familiarity. After the Black Dog drank the petal solution, it no longer had any wariness towards Xia ruofei. Instead, it showed some intimacy and allowed Xia ruofei to treat its injuries. After cleaning and disinfecting the small wounds, Xia ruofei took out a splints from the first aid kit and said to the Black Dog, "It might hurt a little, bear with it ..." The Black Dog naturally did not understand what he was saying, but it revealed a very human – like confused expression. Xia ruofei smiled and reached out to feel the Black Dog's broken leg. Then, he used force to fix the broken bone. The Black Dog whined in pain, but it seemed to know that Xia ruofei was helping it, so other than the pain, it did not have any other extreme reaction. Xia ruofei skillfully used a splint to fix the broken leg of the Black Dog. Then, he poured some flower petal solution on the broken leg. The Black Dog immediately felt a cooling sensation and the pain was greatly reduced. It could not help but let out a comfortable cry and used its nose to rub against Xia ruofei's hand, acting very affectionately. Xia ruofei thought, 'the spiritual Qi in the spirit map space is rich, so it should be very beneficial for the Black Dog's recovery.' He gently picked up the Black Dog and sent it into the spirit map space with a thought. At the same time, Xia ruofei used his mind to check the situation in the space. The Black Dog seemed to be a little stunned by the sudden change in its surroundings, and it looked around nervously. However, the environment in the interspace was far better than the outside world. Very soon, the Black Dog was no longer nervous. It laid on the ground in a very comfortable position with its eyes slightly closed, as if it had fallen asleep. Only then did Xia ruofei put the painting away in his body. Just as he was about to get into the car, the phone in his pocket rang again. He had bumped into the black Dog just to answer this call. After that, he had been busy treating the Black Dog, so his phone rang for a while before it stopped. He didn't expect the person who called him to be so persistent. After a while, he called again. Xia ruofei took out his phone and saw that it was his classmate of six years, Guan Ping. Guanping was a real estate agent. Previously, Xia ruofei was in a hurry to sell the house to treat Hu Zi's mother's illness. Through Guanping, he managed to sell the house in a very short time. Ling Qingxue had also found the address of the group rental apartment that Xia ruofei had rented at that time through Guan Ping. Xia ruofei picked up the phone and asked, "Guanping, what's up?" "Why didn't you pick up the phone?" Guan Ping said teasingly, "don't tell me you're having fun with the campus Belle, Ling?" "What are you saying? What campus Belle Ling?" Xia ruofei said guiltily. "Acting! Are you still pretending?" Guan Ping laughed out loud. "Ling Qingxue, the campus Belle, even took the initiative to ask me for your address. It's really hard for a girl to woo a guy!" "Guanping, if you have something to say, say it. Why are you always talking about Ling Qingxue?" Xia ruofei said, "don't tell me you're interested in her?" "Of course I'm interesting! She's rich and has long legs, who wouldn't like her?" Guan Ping laughed, "it's a pity that he's only interested in you! As a brother, I can only wash my face with tears to fulfill your wish ..." "Nonsense!" Xia ruofei laughed and scolded him. "Are you okay or not? I'm hanging up if there's nothing else! I still have to drive ..." "Don't, don't, don't, there's something, there's something!" Guan Ping quickly asked, "are you free tomorrow night? Yuan Lili is going to get engaged, and she wants to invite our classmates for a gathering before the engagement. This year is exactly ten years after she graduated from junior high school!" "Yuan Lili?" An image of a young girl appeared in Xia ruofei's mind. "She's getting engaged? Time really flies ..." Yuan Lili was Xia ruofei and Guan Ping's junior high school classmate. At that time, she was the kind of person who didn't show off. However, if she could take the initiative to invite them to a class reunion, she must have been doing well. Many things could happen in ten years. "It's not that fast for a girl to get engaged at the age of 24!" Guan Ping teased, "you're almost done talking with the campus Belle, so you can get engaged! Don't hold him up!" Seeing that Guan Ping was talking about Ling Qingxue again, Xia ruofei quickly changed the topic and asked, "Are there many students attending tomorrow night?" Xia ruofei joined the Army after graduating from high school. He had almost no contact with his middle school classmates, and he could not even remember their names. "At most ten or twenty! Many of them have gone abroad, and some are working in other places." Guan Ping said, "I've been hanging out in San Shan and I've been in contact with my classmates the most. So, Yuan Lili asked me to do my best to help out with the arrangements." Sanshan city was a famous hometown for overseas immigrants. Almost every family had relatives overseas, and many people went overseas to work or study. "Then ..." Xia ruofei hesitated. He had almost cut off all contact with his middle school classmates, and they must have been very unfamiliar with each other after not seeing each other for ten years. In fact, such a gathering was actually quite boring. "Ruofei, you should participate! I don't have much to talk about with my classmates who are doing well, so just take it as being my companion!" Guan Ping advised, "that's right, little fatty has also confirmed that he will be participating." Fatty's name was pang Hao. When they were in middle school, he and Guan Ping were Xia ruofei's closest classmates. Xia ruofei thought for a while and said, "Alright then! Send me the time and place on WeChat later!" "Pick me up at my company tomorrow at six!" Guan Ping laughed. "I'll hitch a ride from you." "No problem!" Xia ruofei agreed readily. After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei continued to drive back to the holiday villa. He went straight upstairs to his bedroom and took out the spirit map scroll from his palm. He wanted to go in and see how the injured Black Dog had recovered.

Chapter 99: Lightning (1)

Calculating the time, a few hours should have passed in the space. Xia ruofei estimated that the Black Dog's injuries should have recovered by now. Sure enough, when he entered the medium, he found that the Black Dog was no longer dejected. The small wounds on its body had already formed scabs, and only the fracture of its front leg had not recovered so quickly. At this time, it was limping in front of the space fish pond, and in front of it was the pair of Red Arowana. Xia ruofei broke out in a cold sweat. He was afraid that the red Arowana would be frightened or hurt, so he quickly shouted and ran over. When the Black Dog heard Xia ruofei's voice, it immediately limped towards him and wagged its tail at Xia ruofei. Its eyes were filled with affection. Xia ruofei took a closer look and realized that the Black Dog was indeed much more energetic. The most obvious change was that its fur had become glossy and smooth, and it no longer looked like it was in dire straits. Xia ruofei did not know if it was an illusion, but he felt that the Black Dog's eyes were especially lively, as if they had a trace of intelligence. The Black Dog ran to Xia ruofei's side and stuck out its tongue to lick Xia ruofei's feet. It kept wagging its tail at Xia ruofei. Xia ruofei couldn't help but laugh. "Are you hungry?" He was just asking casually, but the Black dog's tail wagged even more happily. It even barked twice, as if it was answering Xia ruofei's question. "Hey! You can understand what I'm saying?" Xia ruofei was curious. "If you're hungry, you can wag your tail. If you're not, you can wag your tail ..." Xia ruofei was just making a passing remark. He did not expect the Black Dog, who was wagging its tail, to stop immediately. It wagged its tail and then stopped again. It looked at Xia ruofei with eager eyes. "You can really understand?" Xia ruofei found it unbelievable. Everyone knew that dogs could communicate with humans, but Xia ruofei had never heard of dogs being able to communicate with humans to this extent. He felt that it might be a coincidence, so he did a few more tests and found that as long as the problem was slightly simpler, the Black Dog would be able to respond correctly. It could indeed understand what he said. Seeing that Xia ruofei was enjoying it, the Black Dog couldn't help but whine a few times in grievance. Xia ruofei finally reacted and laughed. "I know, I know. I'll get you something to eat right away ... Just wait!" With that, Xia ruofei ran to the side of the pond and used the net to catch two grass carps. His control of the spirit map space had far exceeded what it used to be. He could even control the animals in the space to a certain extent with his mind, so catching fish was rather easy for him. Xia ruofei threw the grass carp on the ground. The grass carp was still jumping around in panic. The Black Dog had already pounced on it to tease it. It had been drooling at the fish in the pond just now, but it was too far to help. Xia ruofei realized that even though the Black Dog was still a little crippled, its speed was already very fast. It was like a gust of wind when it dashed out. For an ordinary dog to be able to understand human nature, Xia ruofei knew that it was most likely the magical effect of the petals of the strange flower and the spirit map space. In the beginning, Xia ruofei was worried that the fish bones would get stuck in the Black Dog's mouth. He did not expect the dog to be so smart. The big fish bones were removed when it was eating, and the small one swallowed it directly. In a short while, the two fish were finished. The fish produced in the realm was delicious. The Black Dog was still not satisfied and kept barking at Xia ruofei. "What a greedy dog ..." Xia ruofei laughed and scolded. However, there were a lot of fish in the boundless space and they could reproduce by themselves. Xia ruofei could not finish all of them so he did not feel bad for a few fish. He ran over and caught two more and threw them to the Black Dog. After the two fish were finished, the Black Dog laid down beside Xia ruofei's feet in satisfaction. Xia ruofei knelt down and gently stroked the Black Dog's glossy fur. The Black Dog seemed to be enjoying it and squinted its eyes. "It's fate that I met you today. You'll follow me from now on!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "but I have to give you a name first. What should I call you ... Wang Cai? Big black?" The Black Dog lifted its eyelids and smacked its lips a few times, as if it was disdainful of Xia ruofei's naming sense. "It does seem a little uncouth ..." Xia ruofei scratched his head awkwardly. After a moment of silence, he said, "I see that you're so fast. Why don't we call you lightning?" Isn't that a cool name?" The Black Dog opened its eyes and wagged its tail at Xia ruofei, barking. Xia ruofei knew that this meant that he agreed, so he smiled and said, "Alright then! I'll call you lightning from now on ... I didn't expect you to be such a prideful guy! It's not enough if the name isn't flashy enough!" Lightning shook its head with a blank look on its face. It was obvious that the sentence was too complicated for it to understand with its intelligence. However, its limited spirituality still made it very dependent and intimate with Xia ruofei. After Xia ruofei and lightning played for a while in the interspace, they prepared to go out and prepare dinner. Before he left, he had given it some thought. It was definitely not possible to let lightning stay in the space. The time flow here was 20 times faster than the outside world. Staying here would be equivalent to quickly consuming Lightning's life. However, Lightning's injuries had not fully healed yet, so it was naturally the most suitable time to stay in the space. Hence, Xia ruofei thought for a while and said to lightning, "Lightning, stay here for a while, but there are some places you must not go, understand?" Xia ruofei then LED lightning around the space, pointing out the vegetable fields, fish ponds, and golden nanmu trees to it. He especially emphasized the small fish pond where the red Arowana was, the spiritual pond in the space, and the unnamed plant that produced the exotic flower. Next, Xia ruofei fished out more than ten fish from the medium and used the spiritual pond water to grow them in the big wooden barrel used to soak seeds. He told lightning to eat the fish if it was hungry. Xia ruofei then left the spirit map space. Before he left, Xia ruofei fed lightning a few mouthfuls of the petal solution and applied some on its injured leg. However, Xia ruofei was still a little worried. When he was outside, he continued to pay attention to the situation in the space. He realized that lightning was very obedient. Although it was wandering in the space, it would not go near the few "restricted areas" that he had pointed out. After observing for a while, Xia ruofei finally felt at ease. Xia ruofei went to the kitchen to prepare dinner and took a shower. He then surfed the internet in his room for a while. He estimated that a few days had passed in the interspace before he summoned the spirit painting and used his mind to check the situation inside the painting. Sure enough, lightning seemed to have fully recovered. It was running around happily in the space, and there were only one or two space grass carp left in the wooden bucket. The vegetable field, the spiritual pool, the fish pond, and the nameless plant were all intact. Obviously, lightning was following his instructions strictly. With a thought, Xia ruofei moved the lightning out of the spirit map space.

Chapter 100: Reunion of classmates (1)

Lightning was a little confused by the sudden change in its surroundings. The air outside was much worse than the air in the space, which made it unhappy. However, when it saw Xia ruofei, it immediately pounced on him in surprise. It wagged its tail around Xia ruofei, trying to please him. Although Xia ruofei had only been outside for a few hours, it felt like it had not seen its master for a few days. It felt like they had finally met again after a long time. Xia ruofei stroked its smooth fur and smiled. "Lightning, this will be your home from now on." Woof! Woof! Woof! Lightning called out happily and licked Xia ruofei's hand affectionately. Xia ruofei brought lightning downstairs and turned on the heater in the guest room. He told lightning to rest in this room for the night and told it to go to the yard to relieve itself. Such a simple order was not difficult for lightning, who had intelligence, to understand. She could only make do with it tonight. Tomorrow, she would ask the construction team to help build a kennel in the yard, so that lightning could have her own room. Xia ruofei played with lightning for a while before letting it stay in the guest room on the first floor. Then, he went back to his bedroom to rest. The next morning, Xia ruofei first prepared the vegetables for Xi Jiang Yue club and Ling Ji restaurant. After the purchasing staff from both restaurants transported the vegetables away, he prepared a simple breakfast. The workers at the construction site were almost at work. Xia ruofei found manager Li and asked him to find two carpenters to build a big kennel in the corner of the villa's yard. Lightning was very satisfied with its 'new home' and wagged its tail at Xia ruofei. After settling the issue of Lightning's accommodation, Xia ruofei brought it around the villa again, marking out its "sphere of influence". In the future, lightning would have to shoulder the heavy responsibility of guarding the house. Xia ruofei checked on the progress of the construction site and went to the backyard to cook the cabbage. Soon, he had a leisurely day. At around four o'clock, Xia ruofei explained to lightning and drove away from the villa, heading straight for San Shan city. After picking Guan Ping up from the real estate agency he worked for, Xia ruofei found out that Yuan Lili had set the meeting place to be at their alma mater, the second high school of Xuanji Sanshan. "What's the situation? How did you run to second middle school to meet up?" Xia ruofei asked as he drove. "Yuan Lili said that she wanted to visit the old place again. I guess they will be there in a few afternoons!" Guan Ping laughed and said, "we're just working adults. We can only gather at this time and then go to the hotel together." "A visit to an old place?" Xia ruofei laughed. "How long has it been since Yuan Lili last came back to the three mountains?" "I heard that she went abroad to study and then stayed in the United States to work." Guan Ping said, "this time, I'm going out again after the engagement." "Understood!" Xia ruofei nodded. Sanshan second high school was not far from Guanping company. It did not take long for Xia ruofei to reach the school. Having studied here for so many years, Xia ruofei was naturally familiar with the terrain here. He quickly found a parking space and parked the car. Then, the two of them strolled towards No. 2 middle school. When they arrived at the entrance of No. 2 middle school, they saw a group of people walking out of the campus. Surrounded by the crowd was a woman in her late twenties. She was dressed very fashionably and even had light makeup on her face. She was Yuan Lili, who was treating them today. Xia ruofei could still vaguely remember Yuan Lili's appearance when she was in middle school. In comparison, she had indeed changed a lot. However, her outer appearance was still the same as before. If they met on the street, Xia ruofei might not be able to recognize her. Seeing the two of them, Yuan Lili showed a smile and said, "Guanping, you guys really came at the right time!" "The office workers can't help it!" Guan Ping laughed and said, "I didn't delay anything, did I?" "That's true ..." Yuan Lili smiled and turned to Xia ruofei. "You're Xia ruofei, right?" You haven't changed much from back then!" "Yuan Lili, congratulations!" Xia ruofei said with a smile. "Thank you!" Yuan Lili said with a faint smile on her face. At this moment, the other students came forward to greet him. One of the chubby boys punched Xia ruofei's chest and scolded him jokingly, "Xia ruofei, I heard that you've been back for two to three months and you still haven't come to find me. Do you not see me as your brother anymore?" This person was Pang Hao, Xia ruofei's good friend in junior high school. Xia ruofei had been in the Army for seven years and had basically cut off all contact with his junior high classmates. After he returned from the Army, he had no intention of contacting his classmates at all because of his terminal illness. After he obtained the spirit map space, he focused on his career development. Xia ruofei hugged Pang Hao and said with a smile, "Little fatty, you're becoming more and more horizontal! I should call you fatty now, right?" "You, this fellow, are you rubbing it in?" Pang Hao's small eyes widened as he chided with a smile. The other students also came up to greet Xia ruofei, especially the female students. They looked at Xia ruofei with sparks in their eyes. These classmates in Sanshan city were more or less in contact with each other. However, Xia ruofei had joined the Army after graduating from high school and there had been no news of him ever since. Hence, he was a little mysterious to his classmates. Furthermore, Xia ruofei had absorbed a lot of petals

from the exotic flowers. His entire aura had changed slightly, and there was a faint sense of affinity. This was one of the main reasons why little Huanhuan was willing to get close to Xia ruofei. In addition, Xia ruofei's appearance was not bad, so the eyes of the single female students were shining. Suddenly, Xia ruofei became the focus of everyone's attention. He was not used to it and could only pretend to be polite to the students who had a vague impression of him. At this moment, a voice rang out, "Haha, ruofei, it's been ten years since we last met. You're still so popular!" Xia ruofei turned around and saw a male student. He was wearing a suit and his leather shoes were as shiny as his hair. He looked like a groom. However, the fake smile on his face lacked some sincerity. Xia ruofei quickly tried to recall and then asked with uncertainty, "You are ... Liu Hang, class monitor Liu?" "I thought you didn't remember me! Haha, not bad, not bad. You can still remember." Liu Hang said with a smile. Liu Hang was the class monitor of Xia ruofei's third year of junior high. At that time, Xia ruofei was the Sports Committee member and also a member of the class Committee. However, they had never been on good terms. In the third year of junior high, Xia ruofei often skipped self-study at night to go out and play basketball. Liu Hang had snitched on him a lot. Hence, Xia ruofei could recall his name after a while. "Forget anyone but the class monitor!" Xia ruofei laughed when he saw Liu Hang's confused look. "Haha, ruofei, I heard that you didn't do well in the college entrance examination that year, so you went straight to the Army?" Liu Hang asked. Xia ruofei smiled faintly. "That's right. I didn't get in. I didn't want to study either. So, I went to the Army!" "Actually, being a soldier isn't bad. It's a good way to train people!" Liu Hang said. Then, he immediately changed the topic and deliberately showed a puzzled look. "But as far as I know, there are people who retired from the Army for two years, five years, and eight years. Why did you come back after seven years? Did you make any mistakes in the Army?"
