

God tier Farm 941

Chapter 941: Everyone in the room was stunned (1)

“Mr. Tang is here. This Chinese man is going to be in trouble!”

“Yamada Jiro is Mr. Tang Hu’s guest, and the two companies are about to have an in – depth cooperation. This Chinese man actually beat him up so badly and even used a gun. He’s too reckless ...”

“Haha, I have to admit that Chinese kid was really cool. But I’m looking forward to seeing him kneel and beg for mercy in front of Mr. Tang Hu!” Someone gloated.

“No matter how powerful an individual is, they can never go against power. Mr. Tang Hu is the true king of the underground world in New South Wales. Those who offend his friends will end up in a terrible state!” Someone echoed.

Lin Qiao, Liang Qichao, tan Lili, and the others were still worried when they saw Xia ruofei easily subduing Yamada Jiro, but they were relieved. At least the immediate crisis was over. However, when Tang Hu appeared, their hearts were in their throats again.

The happiest person in the crowd was none other than Brodie.

From the beginning, he looked down on Xia ruofei, to later on, he was worried about the strong background of Paradise Farm. From hoping to see Xia ruofei humiliated by Yamada Jiro, to seeing Xia ruofei easily control the situation with his own eyes, his mood went through several ups and downs.

When he saw Xia ruofei in the limelight, beating Brodie until he knelt and begged for mercy, Brodie felt all sorts of dissatisfaction.

Tang Hu’s appearance made Brody’s eyes light up. Although Xia ruofei still had a gun in his hand, he couldn’t help but shout in the crowd,”“Hey! Chinese kid, aren’t you very good at fighting? Now that Mr. Tang Hu is here, why don’t you show us your best Chinese Kungfu!”

Some people who were gloating also laughed. Even Zheng Peng, who was hiding in the crowd, laughed with a trace of pleasure. This scene happened to be seen by tan Lili, and she despised this shameless scumbag to the bone. When she thought of how she had been so loyal to him and even satisfied his perverted requests in bed, tan Lili felt as disgusted as if she had eaten a fly.

Yamada Jiro also came back to his senses and quickly shouted with a smug look,”“If you let me go now, maybe I can plead for you in front of Mr. Tang and give you a quick death! Otherwise, I swear I’ll make you die of pain!”

From Yamada Jiro’s point of view, no matter how reckless Xia ruofei was, he could only obediently surrender when he saw Tang Hu.

Unexpectedly, Xia ruofei’s answer to Yamada Jiro was so simple and brutal. He raised the hand holding the gun and smashed it down heavily. The handle of the gun hit Yamada Jiro’s shoulder. Everyone could clearly hear a crack. Yamada Jiro’s shoulder blade was broken.

Yamada Jiro let out a tragic wail and rolled on the ground in pain.

Tang Hu's expression changed. He didn't think that this Chinese youth would actually dare to disobey his orders, even seriously injuring Yamada Jiro after he shouted to stop him.

Tang Hu waved his hand, signaling his top fighters to step forward. At the same time, he pulled out his gun and pointed it at Xia ruofei without hesitation. He shouted, "Put down your guns immediately! Otherwise, I swear I'll cut off your flesh piece by piece and feed it to the Eagles!"

At this moment, Tang Hu suddenly felt a gust of wind behind him, and then his butt was heavily kicked. Caught off guard, he suddenly fell forward, his gun also dropping a few meters away.

Tang Hu angrily turned his head, only to see Tang Yitian with the same angry face rushing over, aiming to hit him.

Tang Hu was immediately stupefied. He didn't know why his most respected fifth uncle would suddenly go crazy. Only when the fists and feet hit his body did he cover his head to protect his vital parts while shouting, "Fifth uncle! Fifth uncle! Why did you hit me! I'm tang Hu ..."

The banquet hall was also deathly silent, even Tang Hu's golden class fighters had stopped, somewhat bewildered at this strange scene.

Tang Yitian was famous in Australia. Almost everyone in the business world knew him. Everyone was surprised to see him at the reception today.

However, what made them even more dumbfounded was that Tang Yitian actually beat up his nephew and his right – hand man, Tang Hu, without saying anything.

It was as if everyone had been cast with a petrifying spell as they looked at the strange scene that was happening.

Tang Yitian cursed as he kicked him, "I'm beating you, you ungrateful thing!" Who gave you the guts to point a gun at Mr. Xia?"

Tang Yitian was just a few steps behind Tang Hu. When he reached the entrance of the banquet hall and saw that Xia ruofei was also present, he was surprised at first, but then he saw that Tang Hu had actually pulled out a gun and pointed it at Xia ruofei. This time, Tang Yitian almost lost his soul. A burst of hot blood rushed to his head, and without hesitation, he rushed up and kicked Tang Hu's butt.

What kind of person was Xia ruofei? He was little Haoran's Savior! Besides, the remaining hidden danger in little Haoran's body was still waiting for Xia ruofei to get rid of! Tang Hu actually pulled out a gun and aimed at his family's great benefactor, how could Tang Yitian not be shocked and angry?

What made Tang Yitian's blood turn cold was that he now knew that Xia ruofei's abilities were far beyond his imagination. It was very likely that he was one of the legendary mysterious men, and his abilities were even stronger than the Hong sect's legendary Li Jiuzhou.

How could such a person be threatened by a small gang leader with a gun?

The reason why Tang Yitian didn't hold back his strength to punch and kick Tang Hu was because he cared about his family. He hoped that Xia ruofei would see that he had already punished Tang Hu, and that Tang Hu didn't know about it beforehand, so he wouldn't blame him.

Otherwise, in Tang Yitian's eyes, Tang Hu's life would be in danger.

Of course, this was just Tang Yitian's own judgment. In fact, Xia ruofei wasn't a person with a bad personality. He didn't know much about cultivation, so he didn't have the mentality to be above the common people.

Tang Yitian's words were like a bomb exploding on the calm surface of a Lake. Everyone in the banquet hall felt that their brains weren't enough to process it, because what had happened in such a short time was far beyond their imagination.

At first, they thought that Xia ruofei would be in big trouble since Tang Hu had personally arrived. In fact, the development of the matter was almost the same as what they had imagined. However, in the blink of an eye, the big boss of the Australian retail industry, Tang Yitian, actually came to the venue in person and beat up Tang Hu without saying a word. All of this was actually because Tang Hu had pulled out a gun against that Chinese kid.

This Chinese man even called Ethan ... Why did Tang value it so much? Was he really just the owner of a small winery? Many people couldn't help but cast suspicious gazes at Brodie.

Brodie's face was even paler, his heart sinking to the bottom.

Tang Hu also stared blankly, only after a long time did he say in a daze: "Mr ... Mr. Xia?"

At this moment, a happy child's voice was heard. "Brother RUO Fei!"

Then little Haoran let go of Jennifer's hand and ran to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei raised his head and saw little Haoran. His cold and emotionless face finally revealed a smile. At the same time, he waved his hand at Tang Yitian, indicating that he should stop hitting Tang Hu.

"Haoran!" Xia ruofei smiled as he squatted down and opened his arms.

Little Haoran immediately threw himself into Xia ruofei's arms, and Xia ruofei carried him up easily.

Lin Qiao saw Jennifer and immediately greeted her with a smile.

She had already learned from the conversations of the people around her that tonight's banquet was organized by the Mei ya group. Since Tang Yitian had come to the banquet hall in person, her worries naturally disappeared.

Tan Lili saw that Lin Qiao was so familiar with the superstar Jennifer. She also felt ashamed when she thought of how she had always shown off in front of Lin Qiao.

Liang Qichao's eyes were wide open. He was just trying to introduce Xia ruofei to the person in charge of the area in Maya, but he didn't expect Xia ruofei to be so close to Tang Yitian.

"Xia ruofei, you're so good. You didn't even tell me that you have such a big relationship. I've been doing useless things ..." Liang Qichao laughed and mumbled to himself.

Tang Yitian also walked quickly to Xia ruofei, followed by Tang Hu, who had been beaten up for no reason. Tang Hu's face was still bruised. It seemed that Tang Yitian really didn't hold back just now. Even if it was just for Xia ruofei to see, it was enough.

Tang Yitian looked at Xia ruofei with a trace of respect in his eyes. He even slightly bowed and said, "Mr. Xia, I didn't teach you well. My nephew actually pointed a gun at you. I'm really ashamed ..."

Tang Yitian then glared at Tang Hu and said, "Hurry up and apologize to Mr. Xia!"

Even though Tang Hu didn't know Xia ruofei's background, seeing his formidable fifth uncle's respectful attitude towards Xia ruofei, he naturally didn't dare to neglect. He hurriedly lowered his head and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Xia. I was blind to have offended you ..."

Xia ruofei glanced at Tang Hu and said indifferently, "Forget it, those who didn't know can't be punished!"

"Thank you, Mr. Xia, for your magnanimity ..." Tang Hu quickly said gratefully.

"Mr. Xia, you're so open – minded that you don't hold it against my nephew. I thank you on his behalf ..." Tang Yitian said.

Xia ruofei gave Tang Yitian a strange look. He felt that Tang Yitian's attitude today was too respectful. Although Tang Yitian was also full of gratitude to Xia ruofei before, he seemed to be more respectful today.

However, Xia ruofei couldn't be bothered to think too much about it. He just smiled and said, "I'm sorry! I've messed up your party ..."

"It's fine, it's fine!" Tang Yitian quickly said, "Mr. Xia, what's going on with this Wei nation guy?"

Xia ruofei turned to Tan Lili and said, "Tan Lili, please tell Mr. Tang what happened. He will seek justice for you!"

Chapter 942: Mr. Xia is kind – hearted (1)

Tan Lili heard this and quickly walked out from the crowd. Facing Tang Yitian's powerful aura, she felt a sense of nervousness and couldn't say anything.

Tang Yitian smiled and said in Chinese, "This lady, it doesn't matter. What did this Wei nation man do to you just now, you can tell me boldly. You are Mr. Xia's friend, and I will definitely seek justice for you."

Hearing this, Yamada Jiro quickly said, "Mr. Tang, this is a mistake ..."

"Did I ask you?" Tang Yitian glanced at Yamada Jiro and said, "Tiger, make him shut up!"

To Tang Hu, Tang Yitian's words were like golden rules.

He did not hesitate to take a napkin from the waiter's tray and walk up to Yamada Jiro, who was his potential business partner and had a good relationship with him during this period. He slapped Yamada Jiro a few times and then stuffed his mouth with the napkin.

The crisp sound of the slap made the farm owners and winery owners 'eyelids Twitch. They looked at Xia ruofei with respect.

"Ms. Tan, you tell us." Tang Yitian looked at tan Lili again, his expression becoming more amiable.

Tan Lili finally mustered up her courage and told her everything. Yamada Jiro came to her to strike up a conversation, but he couldn't. He was directly put on the lecherous act. He didn't apologize after she saw him. Instead, he used his good relationship with Tang Hu to turn black into white.

Tang Yitian's expression became more and more unsightly after hearing this. In the end, he couldn't help but glare at Tang Hu.

"Tiger, is this the business partner you've found?" Tang Yitian said in a cold tone.

Tang Hu simply hated Yamada Jiro to the core right now, wishing he could swallow him alive.

However, before Tang Yitian spoke, he didn't dare to act rashly. The only thing he could do was to lower his head and say in shame,""Fifth uncle, I was careless in making friends. Please punish me!"

"Hmph!" Tang Yitian coldly snorted and said,"I'll settle this with you later!"

After he finished speaking, Tang Yitian looked at Xia ruofei and asked in a consulting tone,""Mr. Xia, this Wei nation Japanese man offended you and your friend, how do you want to deal with him?"

Xia ruofei glanced at Yamada Jiro and said,""Since this Japanese kid likes bed sports so much, then let him spend the rest of his life in bed!"

"Mr. Xia is too kind!" Tang Yitian quickly said.

Then, he looked at Tang Hu and said,"Tiger, do you know what to do?"

Tang Hu bowed without the slightest hesitation."Fifth uncle, I understand!"

Then, Tang Hu looked at Yamada Jiro without the slightest emotion, reached out, and pulled the napkin from his mouth."Mr. Yamada, you can leave now, please!"

Yamada Jiro was well aware of Tang Hu's strength. How could he not know what would happen to him after leaving the hotel?

So he practically rolled and crawled in front of Tang Hu, pleading: "Mr. Tang, I beg you to help me! We're friends ..."

Tang Hu hated Yamada Jiro to the core. He frowned and kicked him away, saying,"I don't have such a disgusting and perverted friend! I've already given you a chance to leave. If you don't leave, then don't ever go out again!"

Tang Hu's eyes revealed a hint of ruthlessness, making Yamada Jiro's heart tremble. He quickly said,"Mr. Tang, as long as you help me tell the Honorable Ethan ... Mr. Tang, please plead for me, I promise! We, the Yamada gang, will fully support your company's expansion into the Wei nation market, and I can even make the decision to give you another 10% of the shares!"

"You're still thinking of cooperating at this time? Even if you give me 100% of the shares, this cooperation is impossible!" Tang Hu sneered, then glanced coldly at Yamada Jiro and said, "Mr. Yamada, on account of our past friendship, I've already given you a chance to leave. However, my patience is limited. If you still don't leave, don't blame me for not remembering our old friendship ..."

"No... No, no, no... You ... You don't have the right to override the law! You don't even have the authority to use private means!" Yamada Jiro shouted hysterically.

The farm and winery owners all looked at Yamada Jiro as if he was an idiot.

Just now, when Yamada Jiro took advantage of his good relationship with Tang Hu and arrogantly turned black into white, even pulling out his gun without any scruples, why didn't he think about the laws of the Australian Federation?

Now that he was in a disadvantageous position, he hoped that the law could protect him. How could there be such a good thing in the world?

Not to mention, he actually talked about the law with one of the big bosses of the righteous Association, Tang Hu? Wouldn't this make people laugh their heads off?

Tang Hu's bruised face revealed a terrifying smile. He slowly walked to Yamada Jiro and squatted down, then said word by word, "I don't have the authority to do so, but don't forget, this is Australia!"

This was Australia!

These five simple words made Yamada Jiro shiver. He could feel the intense killing intent in Tang Hu's words. He was very clear that if he still tried to struggle, Tang Hu would really kill him.

Moreover, Tang Hu had a hundred ways to escape the law. He was a Wei nation man without any backing in Australia, so his death would be in vain!

Yamada Jiro finally felt fear from the bottom of his heart. He struggled to stand up and said, "Please don't be angry, Mr. Tang. I ... I'll leave now ..."

"I'll give you five minutes to get out of the hotel. " Tang Hu indifferently said.

Then, he didn't look at Yamada Jiro again. He stood up and returned to Tang Yitian's side, standing very respectfully with his hands by his side.

Yamada Jiro shuddered and ran out in a hurry. However, due to the fracture of his wrist and scapula, he staggered and had difficulty maintaining his balance. From the back, he looked like a stray dog.

Many of the farm owners and winery owners who were watching felt very happy when they saw this scene. They had long disliked Yamada Jiro's arrogant behavior. Even as outsiders, they felt deeply ashamed when they saw Yamada Jiro's arrogant face just now. They just did not dare to say it out loud.

Yamada Jiro didn't dare to stay any longer. Before the five minutes were up, he ran out of the hotel on foot.

The next day, several local tabloids in Hunter Valley reported that Yamada Jiro, the head of the overseas business department of the Wei nation's Yamada Corporation, had a serious car accident while driving under the influence of alcohol in Hunter Valley Bo Gobbin.

According to the report, Yamada Jiro's Honda hit the roadside guardrail at high speed, and the thin Wei nation car was suddenly twisted into a fried dough twist. Yamada Jiro was also trapped in the driver's seat. His legs had been squeezed for too long, and after he was rescued, they were almost dead. In the end, he had to undergo amputation.

And according to gossip, in addition to breaking both of Yamada Jiro's legs, the thing under his crotch had also been seriously injured in the impact, and he had basically lost his sexual ability.

Of course, all of this was a story for later.

After returning to the hotel banquet hall, Yamada Jiro left like a stray dog. Xia ruofei felt the strange looks from the farm owners and winery owners around him and felt uncomfortable.

Xia ruofei had always been a person who kept a low profile. He was not used to being the center of attention.

When she was in China, she had to attend some local events when she was running a company. However, Xia ruofei had left these public events to the General Manager, Feng Jing.

Therefore, as the Paradise corporation's reputation grew in the southeast province, not many people knew that the boss of this new company was Xia ruofei. On the other hand, Feng Jing was becoming more and more eye – catching in the business world of Sanshan city.

"Mr. Tang," Xia ruofei said to Tang Yitian, "why don't we find a quiet place to sit?" I just so happen to have something to tell you. "

After saying that, Xia ruofei gently pinched Tang Haoran's little face. Ever since they entered the house, little Haoran had been in Xia ruofei's arms. This little guy seemed to be very close to Xia ruofei's aura. Jennifer was afraid that Xia ruofei was tired, so she asked him to come down twice but he refused.

With Xia ruofei's arm strength, he would not be tired even if he carried little Haoran for a whole day. So, he smiled and asked Jennifer to leave little Haoran alone.

"Okay, okay," Tang Yitian said quickly. "There's a resting room next door. Let's go there now!"

Xia ruofei waved at Lin Qiao and Liang Qichao and said, ""Qiao' er, brother Liang, you guys should come over too!"

Since Tang Yitian was here, Xia ruofei naturally had to introduce him to Liang Qichao. With the channels of the Meiya group, it would be much easier for Paradise Farm to sell their products in the future.

Tang Hu led the way, and the farm owners and winery owners all gave way with a trace of respect. Xia ruofei and the others walked towards the banquet hall's side door.

At this moment, the pale – faced Brody mustered his courage and walked out of the crowd. He stammered to Xia ruofei, ""Mr. Xia, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I ... I didn't know you were the Honorable Ethan. I'm sorry to have offended Mr. Tang's friend just now ..."

When Brody saw how polite Tang Yitian was to Xia ruofei, or even how respectful he was, his heart sank. He felt like a clown when he thought about how he had mocked and threatened Xia ruofei.

Of course, he was more afraid that Huahua only needed to talk to Xia ruofei. Although their family's Golden Oak winery was the largest winery in the Hunter Valley area, in front of Tang Yitian's Meiya group, such a small winery was no different from an ant in front of an elephant. Tang Yitian could make them go bankrupt with a single word.

If Xia ruofei was more ruthless, it would not be difficult for him to destroy their family. After all, Tang Hu's reputation was well – known in New South Wales. How could a small wealthy family like him afford to offend him?

So after a fierce psychological struggle, Brodie braced himself and stood up, hoping that Xia ruofei would let him go by apologizing.

Xia ruofei stopped in his tracks and looked at Brody indifferently. He asked, "You mean, if I'm not Mr. Tang's friend, you can covet my female companion? After being rejected, you can threaten to suppress my business and make my small winery go bankrupt?"

"No, no, no, I didn't mean that, I didn't mean that ..." Brody bowed and said. At this time, he was so regretful that his intestines were about to turn green. He hated Zheng Peng, who deliberately fanned the flames, to the bone.

If Zheng Peng had not told him that Xia ruofei was the owner of the West Winery and had just bought it from the old westerns, he would not have been so angry about his family's failed acquisition. He would not have started to speak ill of Xia ruofei's West Winery and even threatened to bankrupt it.

It could be said that everything had been secretly directed by Zheng Peng.

Tang Yitian frowned. His eyes were like lightning as he glanced at Brodie and coldly asked, "What's going on? What did you do to Mr. Xia just now? Speak!"

Chapter 943: Chapter 607 – giving him a taste of his own medicine (1)

Tang Yitian's voice suddenly increased a lot when he said the last word, and it was full of dignity. Brodie couldn't help but shiver. He said in fear and trepidation, "Dear Mr. Tang, I ... I accidentally offended your friend, Mr. Xia, but I swear, I was just saying it, and I didn't really mean to do it ..."

"What did you just say?" Tang Yitian asked indifferently.

His tone was very calm, but everyone present could hear the Thunder hidden under the calm.

Brodie felt as if he was being stared at by a hungry lion. In the warm winter, his back was quickly drenched in sweat, and he couldn't speak for a long time.

Lin Qiao's loathing for Brodie had also reached the extreme. Seeing this, she said, "Mr. Tang, this man tried to strike up a conversation with me just now, but after I rejected him ..."

Lin Qiao told him about Brody's ugly face without reservation. Tang Yitian was naturally furious after hearing it.

The son of a small tavern owner dared to have designs on Lin Qiao! Moreover, he even dared to threaten Tang Yitian's family's benefactor!

Furthermore, his benefactor was someone who was even more powerful than old Mister Li Jiu Zhou. He was simply a God – like figure. How could a little rich second generation like Brodie threaten such a figure?

"Mr. Xia, what do you want to do with this Brodie?" Tang Yitian didn't make the decision on his own, but asked Xia ruofei carefully.

Xia ruofei said indifferently, "do as you see fit!" However, this fellow's crime doesn't warrant death. It'll be fine if we just teach him a profound lesson."

Xia ruofei didn't even bother to deal with this kind of small character who didn't know the immensity of heaven and earth. However, in order to prevent Tang Hu from going overboard, Xia ruofei still reminded him.

"Understood!" Tang Yitian didn't look at Brodie again. Instead, he turned to Xia ruofei and said, "Mr. Xia, this way please!"

Brodie's heart was filled with apprehension and fear. He had no idea what kind of fate was waiting for him. However, after Tang Yitian's gaze swept over him, he felt a chill all over his body. He didn't dare to say another word and could only watch Xia ruofei and the others walk away.

When Xia ruofei passed by Tan Lili, she said with red eyes, "Mr ... Mr. Xia, thank you for today."

Xia ruofei stopped and said, "You're welcome. You're Qiao'er's classmate, and we're all Chinese. It's only right for us to help each other in a foreign country."

"I ... I even mocked you and Lin Qiao before ..." Tan Lili said shamefully, "but you helped me regardless of the past. I ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand. "Let's forget about the past. What's your next plan?"

"I'm going back to China in two days ..." Tan Lili said, disheartened. "I'm going back to repeat my studies for a year. I hope I can get into a good university ..."

Tan Lili came to Australia after her college entrance examination results were released. Her score was not even enough to pass the second tier. She hoped that Zheng Peng could help her to study in Australia. However, she did not expect to meet the wrong person. This Zheng Peng was a complete scumbag. Not only was he a Playboy, but he also bragged a lot. When things happened, he became a coward.

Xia ruofei nodded. "It's good that you're back. There's not only a colorful world out there but also a dark side that you can't see." I'm sure you'll have a new understanding of life after this, which will be good for your future. "

"Thank you ..." Tan Lili said. Then, she gathered her courage and bit her lip. "Mr. Xia, can I ask for your help?"

"What is it?" Xia ruofei asked indifferently.

Tan Lili stared coldly at Zheng Peng, who was hiding in the crowd. She gritted her teeth and said, "I'm begging you to hit Zheng Peng's winery hard in the business world. It'd be best if they could Taste the Feeling of bankruptcy! I know that this request is a bit excessive, but I really hate him! Mr. Xia, as long as you help me with this, I'll ... I'll do anything you want!"

After Zheng Peng heard this, he couldn't help but say, "Tan Lili, you're crazy! Have I ever offended you? You want to do this to me ..."

Tan Lili said hysterically, "I'm crazy! You bastard! What were you doing when that Wei nation man was about to rape me? You can't wait to personally send me to his bed!"

"I ... I have no other choice, right?" Zheng Peng's face turned red and white. "In that situation, the arm can't win the thigh. Why do you want to make unnecessary sacrifices?"

Xia ruofei looked at Zheng Peng, then said to tan Lili, "Your request is very reasonable. I agree to it, and I don't need you to do anything ..."

Zheng Peng heard this and stumbled out of the crowd. However, when he was three to four meters away from Xia ruofei, he was blocked by a few bodyguards in black.

"Mr. Xia, don't believe this woman's words!" Zheng Peng said loudly. She's a bitch! In order to study in Australia, she was very obedient to me. Now that she saw that you're Mr. Tang's friend, she immediately turned to seduce you ... This is her usual trick!"

Tan Lili felt a sense of desolation in her heart when she heard the man she once loved so much defaming her in such a public place without any psychological pressure.

She suddenly felt that it was ironic that she used to love Zheng Peng so much.

"Are you saying that I'm blind?" Xia ruofei asked indifferently.

"No, no, no..." Zheng Peng quickly said, "I ... I ... I was worried that you would be bewitched by tan Lili."

As Xia ruofei's spiritual power improved, he became more sensitive to his surroundings. Even the subtle expressions of people when they were talking could not escape his eyes.

That was why Xia ruofei could feel that tan Lili's words were from the bottom of her heart. On the other hand, Zheng Peng's eyes were flickering. It was obvious that he was feeling guilty.

Xia ruofei's lips curved up and he pouted. "Even without tan Lili's request, do you think I'd let you go? Count for yourself, how many times have you offended me since this afternoon? I can't be bothered to argue with you, but you've gone from bad to worse again and again. I've given you a chance. "

After that, Xia ruofei nodded at Tang Yitian. Then, everyone continued to walk forward and left the banquet hall.

It was not until Xia ruofei and the others disappeared through the side door of the banquet hall that the almost frozen air in the hall seemed to relax. Everyone was talking about what had just happened, and many people looked at Brodie and Zheng Peng, who seemed to have lost their parents.

However, everyone was at least three meters away from Brodie and Zheng Peng. It was as if the two had a plague, and everyone was avoiding them.

Brodie and Zheng Peng seemed to be confused by this sudden and sudden turn of events. They stood there at a loss, their faces as pale as paper, and their minds were in a mess, temporarily losing the ability to think.

After a while, Zheng Peng's phone suddenly rang. He trembled and took out his phone with shaking hands. It was his father. His face changed slightly.

Zheng Peng pressed the answer button, but before he could speak, he heard his father's roar from the phone, "You unfilial son! What did you do? Why did the Meiya group inform me overnight that they want to take down all of our wine?"

"Dad, I ... I didn't ..." Zheng Peng's face was pale.

"No, my ass! They've already said that they've canceled all of our display slots because you've offended the distinguished guests of the Meiya group!" Zheng Peng's father was so angry that he almost vomited blood.

Their family wasn't as rich as Zheng Peng had boasted. In fact, a few years ago, when the trend of overseas mergers and acquisitions had just begun, Zheng Peng's father had transferred most of his funds overseas through various means, and then acquired the Wilkinson winery. He had almost bet all of his assets.

Now that their business in Australia had just taken a turn for the better, they were ready to fight for cooperation with the Golden Oak winery. They didn't expect that Zheng Peng would mess it up. All the retail channels under the Mei 'ya group had taken off their products, which basically declared their winery bankrupt.

Although there were three major retail giants in Australia, the Maya Group had the absolute advantage in New South Wales. Moreover, Tang Yitian had personally given the order, so even the two retail groups would have to give him face. Hence, Wilkinson winery's wine supply would face a shortage of supply channels.

Due to the smooth development of the winery some time ago, Zheng Peng's family had specially mortgaged the winery for a large sum of money. They were prepared to increase their investment and do a big job. Now that they had received such a head – on blow, it was likely that the capital chain would break all of a sudden. In the end, the winery would end up in an auction by the bank.

"Dad, what should we do?" Zheng Peng also panicked.

"You're asking me what to do? How the hell would I know? Go back to the winery right now, we'll be flying back tonight!" Zheng Peng's father was so angry that he swore. Then, he sighed and said, "I'll go to Mr. Robinson of the Golden Oak winery tomorrow and ask him to give us more benefits in terms of cooperation. I'll see if he can help us find other sales channels and help us get through this difficult time ..."

Zheng Peng's face became a little strange, and he stammered, "Dad ... I'm afraid ... The Golden Oak winery ..."

"Also what? Why are you hemming and hawing? If you have a fart, then spit it out!"

"I'm afraid the Golden Oak winery can't even protect itself!" Zheng Peng smiled bitterly and said, "tonight, Mr. Robinson's son, Brody, also offended that guest, and he offended him even more than I did ..."

"What!" Zheng Peng's father couldn't help but exclaim.

At that moment, Brody's phone suddenly rang ...

Chapter 944: Super courteous reception (1)

On the phone, Robinson was scolding Brody in a fit of rage.

Just like Zheng Peng's father, Robinson had just received a call from the Maya Group. The representative from the Maya Group informed him emotionlessly that they would take down all the wine from the Golden Oak winery.

This wasn't the worst. After all, the Golden Oak winery was a large business. In addition to the domestic market in Australia, it also had some export business. Even if it was affected by the comprehensive suppression of the domestic channels, it was not in a desperate situation.

However, after Robinson's call with the Maya Group, he immediately received calls from two companies that had overseas trade cooperation with the Golden Oak winery. They both mercilessly terminated all cooperation with the Golden Oak winery.

To make matters worse, the calls from the bank came one after another, demanding Robinson to recover the two loans that were about to expire.

In the past, Robinson would have been able to deal with it easily. He just needed to use the money from domestic and international trade to make a turnover. He had always maintained a good relationship with the bank, so even if he had some cash flow problems, it would not be a problem to extend the deadline for a few days.

But now, the bank had no room for negotiation. They said that if the money was not returned by the time limit, they would have to go through legal procedures and auction off the mortgaged assets of the Golden Oak winery.

Whether it was the Maya Group, the bank, or the overseas trading company, all of them had mentioned a piece of information over the phone. That was, Robinson's son, Brody, had offended the chairman of the Maya Group, Ethan. This is Mr. Tang's punishment for Tang Hao, the most distinguished guest of Tang.

Robinson felt as if the end of the world had arrived. He called his son Brody to ask about the situation.

Brodie miserably explained what had just happened. When Robinson heard that the Chinese man who had bought West Winery was actually Tang Yitian's friend, his heart sank to the bottom.

After being defeated at the West Winery last time, Robinson had been thinking about how to suppress the West Winery these days! He didn't expect that the other party would make the first move before he could.

And such a fierce means at the start, it was simply going to make the Golden Oak winery go bankrupt!

Robinson was no longer in the mood to chat with Brody. He sternly ordered him to return to the winery, as there were still a lot of things waiting for him to deal with.

Brodie and Zheng Peng left the hotel banquet hall in a daze.

The other farm owners and winery owners in the Hunter Valley area who were at the reception saw the scene with their own eyes. Although they could not hear what was said on the phone, they could guess what had happened from Brodie and Zheng Peng's words and expressions.

In particular, the words "taken down" and "bank" could provoke their sensitive nerves.

It had only been ten minutes since Xia ruofei left the banquet hall and the two of them received the call. The two large – scale wineries were suddenly facing a disaster.

Even the connections of banks and overseas trading companies were mobilized to strike down the Golden Oak winery.

This made the farm owners and winery owners respect Xia ruofei even more.

It wasn't easy for even Tang Yitian to launch such a lightning attack in such a short time. He could use so many connections in such a short time to avenge Xia ruofei, which showed how noble Xia ruofei was in his heart.

They had all heard Brody's words and knew that Xia ruofei was the owner of the West Winery. Thus, they all secretly reminded themselves to maintain a good relationship with the West Winery and to restrain their men so that their subordinates wouldn't offend the West Winery.

Brodie was not far from Zheng Peng!

At this time, the person – in – charge of the Maya Group's Hunter Valley area, Anthony, received a call. He answered the call with a respectful expression, then immediately walked up to the stage and picked up the microphone.

“Ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Tang Hu said that the Honorable Mr. Xia doesn’t want tonight’s incident to be publicized, and he doesn’t want you to disturb him at the West Winery. I think you should know what to do!” Anthony said.

Anthony had a friendly smile on his face when he said this, but his eyes were extremely sharp. He scanned the crowd from left to right, and everyone could not help but avoid his gaze.

“Mr. Anthony, don’t worry. We will keep our mouths shut!”

“We understand what to do. The Honorable Mr. Xia will not be disturbed ...”

Everyone expressed their opinions, and Anthony nodded in satisfaction as he walked off the stage. He picked up a glass of wine from the waiter’s tray and raised his glass to everyone. “Alright, gentlemen, the interlude is over. Now, everyone can freely communicate ...”

In the lounge next to the banquet hall, Tang Hu whispered something in Tang Yitian’s ear. Tang Yitian nodded and told Xia ruofei about how they had handled the two wineries.

“Thank you for your help, Mr. Tang,” Xia ruofei nodded with a smile.

“Mr. Xia, you’re being too serious,” Tang Yitian quickly said. “It’s just a small matter for me. It’s our honor to be able to help you solve a small problem!”

Tang Hu’s expression also turned cold. He could feel Tang Yitian’s respect for Xia ruofei from the bottom of his heart. He couldn’t help but feel a great disturbance in his heart. It had been many years since he had seen Tang Yitian maintain such a respectful attitude towards a young man.

In fact, Tang Yitian’s position in the Yixing society was also very high. Even when he saw the big shots of the Yixing society and the overseas Hong sect, he still maintained a bit of reservation.

What was so special about this ordinary – looking young man that made fifth uncle value him so much? Tang Hu was also puzzled.

Xia ruofei smiled. “By the way, Mr. Tang, let me introduce you. This is my good friend, Liang Qichao. He’s also the person in charge of Paradise Farm.”

Then, Xia ruofei said to Liang Qichao, “Brother Liang, you don’t need me to introduce Mr. Tang to you, do you?”

“No, no!” Liang Qichao quickly said. Mr. Tang’s name is well – known in Australia. Who doesn’t know about him?”

“President Liang, you’re too kind. Nice to meet you!” Tang Yitian said with a smile.

Liang Qichao felt like he was in a dream. Before this, he was still working hard to establish a relationship with the person in charge of the Maya Group’s Hunter Valley area for the sales channels of Paradise Farm. He did not expect that in the blink of an eye, he would be able to have a good chat with the chairman of the Maya Group, the legendary figure of the Australian retail industry, Tang Yitian.

Liang Qichao thought that Xia ruofei was amazing. Not only did he have a lot of power in China, but he also knew such a powerful person in Australia. This powerful person even treated him with respect.

Even though he had thought about it for many years, Liang Qichao still said enthusiastically, "You're too kind, Mr. Tang. You can just call me Xiao Liang."

"You're Mr. Xia's friend, so I don't dare to be arrogant." Tang Yitian said seriously. But I'm a few years older than you, so I'll call you Qi Chao!"

"Alright, alright, that's a good name." Liang Qichao quickly said.

Although Xia ruofei didn't say anything, Tang Yitian still turned to Tang Hu and said, "Tiger, pass down the order. From now on, Paradise Farm and ..."

Speaking of this, Tang Yitian looked at Xia ruofei and asked with a smile, "Mr. Xia, I just heard them say that you've bought a winery in the past few days? I wonder if it's convenient for you to tell me the name of the winery?"

Xia ruofei laughed. "Of course it's convenient. It's called West Winery. I'll be counting on you to take care of me in the future, Big Boss Tang!"

"I'm flattered, I'm flattered. It's my honor to be able to serve you!" Tang Yitian quickly said.

Tang Yitian continued to speak to Tang Hu, "Tiger, from now on, the products of Paradise Farm and West Winery must be displayed in the most prominent positions in all of our stores!"

"I understand! I'll immediately give the order!" Tang Hu said seriously.

"Mr. Tang, Paradise Farm is experimenting with our company's new vegetables," Xia ruofei quickly said. "I'm also preparing to improve the grape variety after acquiring West Winery, so for the time being, we're not ready to put our products on the market on a large scale ..."

He had introduced Liang Qichao to Tang Yitian only because he was thinking about the large – scale planting of paradise vegetables in the future. He didn't expect that Tang Yitian would directly order Tang Hu to leave the most prominent shelves in their supermarket for the products of Paradise Farm and West Winery.

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. Tang Yitian valued him too much ...

"Mr. Xia," Tang Yitian said with a smile, "Paradise Farm and West Winery must be selling their products now, right? Display it in the best position in our supermarket first, and it's also to build a good reputation for future large – scale sales!"

"That's right, Mr. Xia. When your company is ready to launch the products on a large scale, let us know at any time. Our supermarket will plan a few promotional activities to cooperate with the promotion. You can rest assured that all the promotion costs will be covered by our supermarket!"

Tang Yitian looked at Tang Hu with appreciation and nodded. "Tiger is right. When the time comes, all of Australia's Maya supermarkets will hold a National promotion event. Your brand will definitely be famous!"

“Mr. Tang, how can I accept this?” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

“It’s my pleasure, Mr. Xia is our family’s benefactor!” Tang Yitian quickly said, “to us, it’s just a small matter within our capabilities. It’s not worth mentioning.”

Liang Qichao felt like his brain was not working properly. How was this a small matter? Occupying the best shelves in Maya before the large – scale launch, and having to carry out a National promotion in the future, with the cost of the promotion being borne by the supermarket, even the top – tier brands in Australia did not have such treatment!

Did RUO Fei give Tang Yitian a spell? This was the only real thought in Liang Qichao’s mind.

Chapter 945: Chapter 609 – found a good disciple (1)

Xia ruofei also felt a little strange. He felt that Tang Yitian was a little too enthusiastic. It wouldn’t be an exaggeration to say that he was very respectful.

Even if Tang Yitian was very grateful to her for saving little Haoran, he shouldn’t have such respect for her!

However, Xia ruofei didn’t think too much about it. He guessed that Tang Yitian’s attitude might be because the hidden danger in little Haoran’s body had not been completely resolved.

“Alright,” Xia ruofei nodded and said, “we’ll do as Mr. Tang said. I’ll give you the contact information of the manager of the winery. You can contact uncle Carter for the details!”

“No problem!” Tang Yitian said.

Xia ruofei wrote down Old West’s phone number and passed it to Tang Yitian. Then, he smiled and said, “Mr. Tang, since you’ve come to the Hunter Valley, I’ll give little Haoran a check up!”

Hearing Xia ruofei’s words, Tang Yitian was a little embarrassed. He quickly explained, “Mr. Xia, we’re not in a hurry. It’s just that Haoran has been asking you to play with him for a few days. After you come to Australia, we should visit the farm, so ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. “I was planning to go to Sydney today too. However, because of this reception, I had to postpone my plan.”

“It’s a good thing that there’s a party for the Maya Group,” Jennifer said with a smile. “Otherwise, if you go to Sydney and we come to the Hunter Valley, we’ll all lose ... Lose ...”

“Jennifer, you’re trying to say that you missed it!” Lin Qiao said with a smile.

“Yes, yes, yes, I missed it!” Jennifer said with a face full of distress, “the language of you Chinese people is really too complicated ...”

“Actually, Jennifer, you’re the best Australian I’ve ever seen who uses Chinese idioms!” Xia ruofei laughed.

“Really?” Jennifer said happily, “actually, my Chinese is not good enough. I need to continue to work hard ...”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but laugh. “Look, you’ve even learned the traditional Chinese virtue of modesty. It seems that you’re a qualified Chinese daughter – in – Law!”

Tang Yitian couldn’t help but look at Jennifer lovingly. When Tang Yitian was young, he was actually quite a Playboy. In addition, his family was rich, so he often changed his female partners. Later, after meeting Jennifer, he quickly stopped being a Playboy, which showed that Jennifer’s charm was indeed extraordinary.

After a few brief interactions with Jennifer, Xia ruofei could also feel that this famous star who was once famous all over Australia was a person with a very high EQ.

After chatting for a while, Xia ruofei asked little Haoran to get down from his body and sit on the sofa with his hand stretched out.

Little Haoran obediently followed Xia ruofei’s request and stretched out his left hand, palm up.

Xia ruofei placed his finger on little Haoran’s pulse and closed his eyes. His spiritual energy quickly seeped out of his body and entered little Haoran’s body through his meridians to check on the condition of the remaining innate pure Yang Qi.

After a long while, Xia ruofei opened his eyes and looked at Tang Yitian and Jennifer, who looked a little nervous. He said with a smile, “It’s almost the same as I expected. There’s not much innate pure Yang Qi left in little Haoran’s body. Even if it’s not cleared in a short time, it won’t be able to do much. It’s just that little Haoran’s body is slightly weaker than the average child.”

“That’s good ...” Tang Yitian let out a long sigh of relief. “Mr. Xia, if you say so, we can rest assured.”

Xia ruofei continued, “the last treatment is to completely remove the innate pure Yang Qi in Haoran’s body. So, I have to adjust to my best condition before I can carry out the treatment. Moreover, little Haoran has received several consecutive treatments before. At that time, it was because his life was in danger. It’s best to let him recuperate for a few more days this time to make sure that nothing goes wrong.”

In fact, Xia ruofei had already decided to accept Xia Qing’s suggestion to keep a part of little Haoran’s innate pure Yang Qi. At the same time, he would try to persuade Tang Yitian and his wife to let him take little Haoran as his disciple.

However, for little Haoran to absorb the innate pure Yang Qi for the last time, Xia ruofei hoped that it would be after he had unlocked the human – shaped jade talisman and started to cultivate the great Dao Arts. Hence, he decided to wait a few more days because Xia ruofei was very close to the perfect unlocking talisman. He estimated that in two or three days at most, he should be able to reveal the true appearance of the first three levels of the great Dao Arts.

"No problem, no problem. We're not in a hurry at all!" Tang Yitian quickly said, "I'll follow your arrangements!"

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. After a moment of silence, he said to Liang Qichao, ""Brother Liang, you take Qiao'er to the banquet hall to talk with your peers. I still have something to tell Mr. Tang and the others."

Liang Qichao nodded and said, "okay, you guys talk!"

Lin Qiao wanted to spend time with her idol, but since Xia ruofei had asked, she knew that he must have something important to do. So, she obediently followed Liang Qichao out of the lounge.

Seeing this, Tang Hu also took the initiative to get up and said, "Fifth uncle, Mr. Xia, I'll go ahead and take a look as well. You guys can talk!"

After Tang Hu also left, only Tang Yitian's family and Xia ruofei were left in the lounge.

Tang Yitian was already in a relaxed mood, but when he saw Xia ruofei send Liang Qichao and the others away, he couldn't help but ask nervously, ""Mr. Xia, could it be that Haoran's situation is difficult to deal with?"

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "Mr. Tang, don't be nervous. Although what I'm going to say is related to little Haoran, it's not about his illness. You can rest assured about this."

"That's good, that's good," Tang Yitian heaved a sigh of relief and then asked, "is it about Haoran? Mr. Xia, what's the matter?"

Xia ruofei looked at Tang Yitian and Jennifer. He thought for a while and said, ""Uh ... I feel that I'm quite fated with little Haoran, and after these treatments, I found that this child is quite talented, so ... I have the intention to take him as a disciple. What do you think?"

The reason why Xia ruofei brought up this matter before he gave little Haoran his last treatment was to confirm it. If Tang Yitian and his wife really didn't have any intention to do so, Xia ruofei would not force them.

Accepting a disciple also depended on fate. If his parents didn't agree, it also meant that little Haoran wasn't fated to be his disciple.

If that was the case, then when Xia ruofei was treating little Haoran in two days, he could not leave behind any innate pure Yang Qi. He had to completely remove it.

Although it was a waste of little Haoran's talent, there was no other way.

After Xia ruofei finished, Jennifer's reaction was still pretty good. Perhaps in her mind, the relationship between master and apprentice was similar to the relationship between a teacher and a student in a school. Tang Yitian, on the other hand, was stunned. He, who had a net worth of tens of billions of Yuan, actually lost his self – Control and opened his mouth wide. His eyes were also wide open. It seemed that Xia ruofei's words had shocked him.

Seeing Tang Yitian's reaction, Xia ruofei thought that he was unwilling.

Even if Tang Yitian didn't want to, it was normal. After all, he had billions of dollars in wealth. He must have already planned out his child's growth path. When he first heard that Xia ruofei wanted to take his son as an apprentice, it was inevitable that he would have some concerns.

Hence, Xia ruofei smiled bitterly and said, "Mr. Tang, you don't have to feel pressured. I'm just asking for your opinion. If you don't agree, just pretend that I didn't mention it. I'll still completely remove the hidden danger in little Haoran's body ..."

"I agree! I agree!" After hearing Xia ruofei's words, Tang Yitian seemed to come back to his senses. He said hurriedly, "Mr. Xia, we completely agree!"

In fact, Tang Yitian wasn't as worried as Xia ruofei had guessed. He didn't seem to believe what he had just heard. He was also shocked by the huge surprise, which was why he looked so dumbfounded.

In his mind, Xia ruofei was a master whose abilities surpassed Mr. Li Jiu Zhou's! He had thought that it was already arranged by fate that they could meet Xia ruofei at the airport and that Xia ruofei was willing to save little Haoran. It was the good deed of their ancestors. He never dared to dream that Xia ruofei would take the initiative to take little Haoran as a disciple.

Furthermore, Xia ruofei had personally said that little Haoran was quite talented. Did this not mean that little Haoran could also become someone like Xia ruofei and Li Jiuzhou?

Therefore, after hearing what Xia ruofei said, Tang Yitian came back to his senses and quickly agreed. He was afraid that Xia ruofei would change his mind if he spoke too slowly.

"You guys really agree?" Xia ruofei couldn't help but feel happy. "Don't agree just because you can't bring yourself to do it!" I'm really just happy to see you. Whether you agree or not, it won't affect our relationship."

"No, no, no, Mr. Xia, it's Haoran's good fortune to have you as his master!" Tang Yitian quickly said. How could we possibly disagree? Isn't it? Jennifer!"

As Tang Yitian spoke, he shot a look at Jennifer.

Even though Jennifer did not quite understand her husband's behavior, nor did she understand the traditional Master – disciple relationship in China, she still nodded and said, "Xia, your suggestion is great. I think Haoran would be very willing to be your student."

"It's my disciple!" Tang Yitian quickly corrected her. "Jennifer."

"Alright then!" Jennifer shrugged her shoulders and said, "no matter what, I fully support your decision."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "In that case, let's ask little Haoran for his opinion!"

Xia ruofei patted little Haoran's head and asked with a smile, "Little Haoran, are you willing to be my disciple? I can teach you some very powerful skills!"

Little Haoran had no concept of the Master – disciple relationship, but when he heard that Xia ruofei would teach him some powerful skills, he immediately nodded like a chicken pecking at rice and said, "Good, good! Brother ruofei, you're my master from now on!"

Then, little Haoran revealed a confused expression and asked, ""But ... What should I call you in the future? Should she call him brother or master? Why don't you ... Call big brother master?"

Chapter 946: The rune becomes_1

Tang Yitian heard this and quickly scolded, ""You child, you're not allowed to be so rude! In the future, she would have to call him master! Do you know that?"

"Oh ..." Tang Haoran lowered his head and said.

At his age, he naturally didn't quite understand how his brother had suddenly become his master, so he had a blank expression on his face.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "Haoran, your father is right. Since you're going to be my disciple, you can't call me brother anymore!" You have to call me master. "

"I got it!" Tang Haoran replied obediently, "brother ruofei ... Master!"

Tang Yitian touched his son's head with joy, then said to Xia ruofei, ""Mr. Xia, then let's settle the matter of acknowledging a master first! I'll be going to Sydney in the next two days to prepare for the apprenticeship ceremony and invite some of the seniors of our Yixing Association to witness it ..."

Xia ruofei quickly waved his hand and said, "there's no need to make such a big fuss!" Besides, accepting a disciple was a very personal matter, so there was no need to announce it to the world! You know, I'm actually quite afraid of trouble ..."

"This ... It's a big deal for you to accept a disciple ..." Tang Yitian said with some difficulty.

"What's the big deal?" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "Mr. Tang, there's no need to hold any ceremony. It's decided!"

Tang Yitian didn't dare to go against Xia ruofei's words, so he could only nod helplessly.

"Don't spread the news that I've accepted Haoran as my disciple. Just let our own people know," Xia ruofei reminded her.

"Alright, alright." Tang Yitian said quickly.

He knew Xia ruofei's personality. Since Xia ruofei wanted to keep a low profile, he would not be so stupid as to tell everyone about this.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "how about this?" You guys take Haoran to Paradise Farm tomorrow, and we'll do a simple ritual on a small scale. In addition, I'll have to fully examine Haoran's talent and customize cultivation content that suits him. "

Tang Yitian was overjoyed and quickly said, ""Alright, I'll follow Mr. Xia's orders!"

Xia ruofei was in a good mood after getting his apprentice as he wished. He chatted with Tang Yitian's family for a while in the lounge.

Tang Yitian, as a special guest of this cocktail party, didn't show up in the banquet hall to talk to Xia ruofei. It was only after Xia ruofei had taken the initiative to talk to him twice that he went out to say a brief farewell, then gave everyone a toast and returned to the lounge.

Of course, the farm owners and winery owners in the Hunter Valley area didn't feel like they were being neglected. With Tang Yitian's status, it was already very respectful for him to attend such a small party.

Usually, at their level, it was as difficult as ascending to the sky to see Tang Yitian. The two of them were not on the same level at all.

Xia ruofei did not like to be the center of attention, so he stayed in the lounge and did not go out.

Liang Qichao and Lin Qiao naturally became the focus of everyone's attention. Many people came up to them to chat, and many of them were flattering them. Many people also revealed their desire to cooperate with Paradise Farm.

This was the first time that Liang Qichao had been so proud since he came to Australia. He had a confident smile on his face and responded appropriately. He only expressed his gratitude politely to the intention to cooperate and did not make any promises.

After witnessing the miracle of the vegetables in paradise, Liang Qichao would not take the initiative to look for a business partner! With such amazing products and a Super Channel like Maya, Paradise Farm's development momentum would probably far exceed Paradise Farm's domestic development.

Lin Qiao was surrounded by the female partners of the suppliers and was also the focus of everyone's attention.

In the beginning, Lin Qiao was a little nervous. In addition, she wasn't very proficient in English, so it was a little difficult for her to deal with the situation.

However, when she thought of Xia ruofei's domineering performance just now, she suddenly felt more confident and gradually let go of her behavior.

Lin Qiao was the representative of the English course in the school. Her vocabulary and grammar were excellent, but she lacked practical practice. After this dinner party, Lin Qiao's spoken English improved by leaps and bounds.

Xia ruofei did not wait for the reception to end. When he felt that it was about time, he called Liang Qichao and asked him to bring Lin Qiao back to the lounge.

Then, they made an appointment with Tang Yitian to meet tomorrow and left through the side door.

On the way back to Paradise Farm, Liang Qichao was still in a state of excitement. Tonight's experience was like a dream to him. He almost couldn't stop talking on the way, talking about how polite and enthusiastic the suppliers were.

Xia ruofei also laughed as he listened. He would interrupt from time to time, as if he was supporting Liang Qichao.

Lin Qiao was listening to their conversation with a smile on her face. She glanced at Xia ruofei from time to time, and her eyes glowed.

After returning to the farm, everyone made tea and chatted in the living room on the first floor for a while before going back to their rooms.

Once Xia ruofei entered the room, he locked the door and windows without even taking a shower. Then, he took out the spirit painting scroll and entered the medium.

He was prepared to unlock the human jade talisman in one go today.

Xia ruofei directly took the Jade talisman from the stone chamber in the mountain sea realm and brought it to the Archean realm. He used the 30 times time flow here to save as much time as possible.

Xia ruofei told Xia Qing directly, "I'm going into seclusion to practice unlocking runes. Don't disturb me unless it's something important!"

"Yes, master!" "Yes," Xia Qing replied respectfully. She then left the Archean realm and went to the mountain sea realm to work on the herb garden, iron – Skin dendrobes, and Cordyceps.

Xia ruofei sat down cross – legged by the spiritual pond and slowly closed his eyes. He adjusted his breathing rhythm and slowly focused his mind.

Then, Xia ruofei's fingers moved slightly. A wave of spiritual energy came out of his body and started to construct the complicated unlocking rune.

His speed was extremely fast, and the thin threads formed by his spiritual power shuttled back and forth in the air, forming complicated and rhythmic patterns.

These patterns stacked together, and a rune began to take shape.

In the later stages, his speed gradually slowed down, but he was still very smooth and did not slow down.

After a long while, a rune made of pure spiritual energy appeared in front of Xia ruofei.

He opened his eyes and took a few glances. Then, he waved his hand and dispelled the rune.

This time, the speed had improved a lot, and the Rune's perfection had increased by a lot. However, there were still five small flaws. Xia ruofei had sensed them the moment the rune was completed.

His face was as calm as an ancient well. He picked up the water bottle beside him and drank a mouthful of the spirit Heart Flower petal solution. After resting for a while, he continued to practice.

Thirty hours in the Archean realm was only one hour in the outside world. Hence, Xia ruofei had plenty of time to complete the "last kilometer".

Previously, he had insisted on practicing in the stone chamber for the mountain and sea realm. On one hand, he did not feel any sense of urgency for cultivation. On the other hand, of course, it was also because the Jade praying mat in the stone chamber had greatly improved the recovery and concentration of spiritual power.

After deciding to take Tang Haoran as a disciple, especially after obtaining the approval of Tang Yitian and his wife, Xia ruofei suddenly felt a sense of urgency and seemed to feel the responsibility on his shoulders.

Xia ruofei guarded his bier tightly. His spiritual power was like his arm and fingers, exuding out of his body and forming a complex unlocking rune in the air.

One time, two times, three times ...

With every practice, he could see obvious progress.

The unlocking runes he constructed were getting closer and closer to perfection in theory, and the number of tiny flaws in the runes had also decreased from five to one or two.

Xia ruofei felt that his spiritual energy was starting to get difficult. Hence, after drinking a few mouthfuls of the spirit Heart Flower petal solution, he stood up and walked to the lounge chair at the side. He laid down and closed his eyes to rest.

He had a lot of time, so even though he hoped to unlock the human – shaped jade talisman directly this time, he was not in a hurry.

His spiritual power slowly recovered.

Xia ruofei got up again and continued to practice calmly.

He painstakingly constructed the runes again and again, and then dispersed them with a wave of his hand without any heartache.

Xia ruofei's proficiency in constructing runes was increasing little by little without him knowing.

Finally, after the second rest, Xia ruofei started to construct the runes again.

The initial stage was still very fast. The lines of spiritual power shuttled back and forth quickly, constructing a complex rune pattern.

As the construction process progressed, Xia ruofei's speed gradually slowed down. However, he was still very precise in his control of every detail. Gradually, the construction of the rune was nearing its end.

Xia ruofei's face, which had always been calm and collected, now showed a trace of nervousness.

This was because he could feel that the construction of the entire rune was extremely smooth, and he did not find any flaws.

Xia ruofei became more and more cautious in the process.

The strong mental strength that he had trained in the Special Forces played an important role at this time. Although Xia ruofei was a little nervous, he could still control his spiritual power.

The runes were getting more and more complicated, and Xia ruofei's expression was getting more and more serious.

In front of Xia ruofei, a complicated rune formed by spiritual energy was gradually being perfected.

The last thread of mental strength twisted into a mysterious pattern in the air and merged into the rune without a trace.

The entire rune flashed and all the spiritual energy patterns merged into one. It floated quietly in front of Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei opened his eyes, a smile on his tired face.

This rune seemed to be a whole, and it was full of a harmonious and natural charm.

Xia ruofei didn't even need to check to know that the rune was flawless. The channel created by his spiritual power was quite stable. The entire structure was a perfect whole.

Xia ruofei stared at it for a few seconds. Then, he took a deep breath and took out the human – shaped jade talisman.

Chapter 947: A sea of information (1)

“Xia Qing, come to the Archean realm!” Xia ruofei used his mind to communicate with Xia Qing, who was in the mountain sea realm.

When he saw the rune floating in front of Xia ruofei, he was stunned for a moment, then he was overjoyed and said, “Congratulations, master. You've finally completed the unlocking of the human – shaped jade talisman!”

Xia ruofei's tired face revealed a smile. “What should I do next?”

“Master, you only need to place the rune close to the Jade talisman!” Xia Qing said.

Xia ruofei nodded and opened his palm. Then, with a thought, the floating mysterious rune slowly approached the human jade talisman.

As the talisman got closer, the human – shaped jade talisman started to glow. Then, the Jade talisman slowly rose and floated in front of Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei didn't use the invisible spatial force to control it. This time, it was the natural attraction between the Jade talisman and the unlocking rune.

The unsealing rune also slowly floated toward the human – shaped jade talisman. The closer it was to the Jade talisman, the brighter the light of the rune became, and the size of the rune also gradually shrank. Finally, the palm – sized rune had shrunk to the size of the lines on the Jade talisman.

Immediately after, the talisman drew an arc and seamlessly imprinted itself on the lines of the human – shaped jade talisman.

The Jade talisman suddenly bloomed with a dazzling light, making Xia ruofei squint his eyes involuntarily.

At this moment, Xia ruofei suddenly felt a huge amount of information pouring into his mind.

"The true nature is pure and congealed, the deep and quiet, the body stays forever, and there is no leaving or coming. Since ancient times, its name had not disappeared. It is formless and nameless, the sect of all things ..."

An ethereal voice echoed in Xia ruofei's mind. The speed at which the information was pouring in was getting faster and faster. At first, Xia ruofei could barely "hear" the content, but towards the end, he could only feel a huge amount of information constantly pouring into his mind. He could not tell what exactly it was.

The amount of information was so huge that Xia ruofei felt like his brain was about to explode. He could not help but show a pained expression.

When Xia Qing saw the dazzling brilliance of the Jade talisman, she quietly retreated to a distance.

He didn't show any worry.

He knew very well that if Xia ruofei could construct the unlocking rune almost perfectly, he would be able to withstand the impact of the information flow.

In fact, the ancestor who had created the spirit map space and left behind many inheritances had planned everything out.

If Xia ruofei's spiritual power was not up to the standard, he would not be able to open the restriction and take out the human – shaped jade talisman. If his control of spiritual power was not up to the standard, he would not be able to construct the complicated runes to unlock the Jade talisman.

Xia ruofei would only have the chance to receive the massive amount of information in the human – shaped jade talisman if both conditions were met.

Mental strength was closely related to one's sea of consciousness. If two conditions were met, it meant that Xia ruofei's sea of consciousness was strong enough to withstand the impact of the information in the Jade talisman.

Of course, due to the sudden influx of information, Xia ruofei would have to endure some pain. However, it was unlikely that he would be in danger.

On the other hand, Xia ruofei clenched his teeth and kept his mind clear. Beads of sweat began to appear on his forehead.

Under the impact of countless mysterious information, he could not even feel the passage of time.

In Xia ruofei's perception, it felt as if hundreds of millions of years had passed, but it also felt as if it had happened in the blink of an eye.

Finally, the terrifying information transmission came to an abrupt end without any warning.

Xia ruofei heaved a long sigh of relief. At this moment, he felt a slight pain in his head. It was probably the side effect of receiving too much information in a short period of time.

He even felt his body go soft. It had been a long time since he had felt this way with his terrifyingly strong physique.

At this time, Xia Qing handed over a cup of the spirit Heart Flower petal solution that she had already prepared and said, "Master, you've worked hard! Drink some water to recover first."

"Thank you!" Xia ruofei took the cup and finished the petal solution in one gulp.

After a long while, Xia ruofei stood up slowly and sat down on the recliner. He rested for a while before he felt that he was slowly recovering.

Thinking back to the process of receiving the message, Xia ruofei could not help but feel scared.

For an ordinary person, there would only be one consequence if such a massive amount of information poured into their brain in an instant. That was, their entire brain would be destroyed. Even if they did not die, they would become a vegetable.

If Xia ruofei had been impatient and unlocked the human – shaped jade talisman when there was still a small flaw in the talisman, and he had succeeded by luck, he might have damaged his brain during the process of information transmission.

This was because before he could construct a stable unlocking rune, his mental strength had not met the conditions to receive the inheritance information in the human – shaped jade talisman. It would be extremely dangerous to receive it by force.

After calming himself down, Xia ruofei started to sort out his gains.

As long as he willed it, the information that was transmitted to his brain would appear. Moreover, this information seemed to be engraved in his mind. His memory was extremely strong and impossible to forget.

Xia ruofei was shocked by the huge amount of information.

If he were to calculate the amount of data, the amount of data probably wouldn't even be in "GB". It might even be in the "TB" range.

Of course, this wasn't just pure text information. Even if he converted all the books around the world into digital information, there wouldn't be that much.

The information that Xia ruofei received not only contained a huge amount of content, but also some experiences and insights. These were extremely mysterious things that could not be described with words or words. However, they were directly stored in Xia ruofei's mind.

All the information was in his brain. Although there was a huge amount of data, Xia ruofei was able to sort it out quickly.

After he was done, he couldn't help but be a little speechless.

The information in the human jade talisman could be said to be all – encompassing. Besides the cultivation techniques of the first three levels of the great Dao mantra, there was also a huge amount of other information.

It included some basic cultivation knowledge, basic cultivation techniques, tricks of using mental energy, talismans, pills, Chinese medicine ... And a lot of cultivation insights.

“Xia Qing, didn’t you say that the” great Dao formula “was the main thing in the human – shaped jade talisman?” Xia ruofei couldn’t help but ask,”did the transmission go wrong? Why is there so much information in my head?”

Xia Qing was speechless when she heard Xia ruofei call the precious inheritance ‘messy’ information.

However, he still patiently explained,”“Master, the most precious thing is the ‘great Dao chant’. All the other cultivation methods, spells, and tricks added together are not even one – ten – thousandth of the ‘great Dao chant’. As for the information, it was also chosen by the creator of the spirit map world after screening and felt that it was worth passing down. Therefore, it was placed into the human jade talisman as basic introductory content. The last two Jade talismans only contain the content of the ‘great Dao chant’.”

“Oh ...” Xia ruofei nodded and said,”in other words, this information is equivalent to a beginner’s manual! The ‘great Dao Arts’ is the real deal!”

“You can say that.” Xia Qing said. Then, she couldn’t help but remind him,”however, the content that was preserved by the creator of the spirit map world, although these cultivation techniques and magic arts are nothing compared to the ‘great Dao Arts,’ are still extremely precious in the secular world.

Xia Qing was worried that Xia ruofei would not take the content seriously, so she reminded him.

“I understand ...” Xia ruofei nodded and said,”it seems that we’ve gained a lot this time!”

“Yes,” Xia Qing replied,”the most precious things in the spirit map world are undoubtedly the three Jade talismans.” There was no need to talk about the great Dao Arts. It was an unparalleled cultivation technique that had never existed since ancient times. As for the other pieces of information that had been casually sealed in by the creator, if any of them were to be placed in the secular world, others would fight over them. For example, the medical knowledge in it, many of them are Chinese medicine techniques that have been lost for thousands of years. It’s not an exaggeration to call them Chinese medicine treasures. ”

When Xia ruofei was sorting out the information, he had also skimmed through it. He paid special attention to the Chinese medicine knowledge that he had a better understanding of, so he knew that Xia Qing was not exaggerating at all.

The Chinese medicine theories in this book were much more advanced than the ones that Xia ruofei had self – taught. He even found many precious books that could not be verified by the Chinese medicine world.

“What should I do now? Do you have any good suggestions?” Xia ruofei asked.

Xia Qing answered without hesitation,”of course, I’ll practice the ‘great Dao Arts’ first. Master has taken the body tempering soup and the spirit nourishing soup in the early stages. Both his physique and mental power have reached a pretty good level. In addition, he has absorbed a large amount of innate pure Yang Qi a few days ago. Now, I’m sure he will be able to get twice the result with half the effort!”

“Yes, continue.” Xia ruofei said.

“The ‘great Dao formula’ is the foundation. All the other techniques, including medical skills, are only supplementary.” Xia Qing said, “moreover, the content has already been imprinted in your mind. You only need to spend a little time to digest it in the future and it will become your own knowledge. As for the ‘great Dao art’, you have to keep cultivating it.”

“I understand! No matter how solid the theoretical foundation is, it can’t be done without practice.” Xia ruofei stood up and said, “a skyscraper rises from the ground. Let’s start now!”

Xia ruofei walked to the side of the spiritual pond and sat down cross – legged, then searched for the contents of the “great Dao Sutra” in his mind.

With a thought, the faint voice sounded again.

This voice seemed to have a magical power that made Xia ruofei’s mind extremely clear. The contents of the “great Dao technique” were very difficult to understand, but Xia ruofei felt that it was very easy to understand.

This was the wonder of directly accepting the inheritance.

Unknowingly, Xia ruofei had “learned” the general principles and the contents of the first level of the “great Dao Arts”.

He couldn’t help but reveal a trace of anticipation and an eager expression.

Chapter 948: Irresistible force (1)

In simple terms, the first level of the great Dao Arts was equivalent to the beginner stage of cultivation. What one had to complete at this stage was what the Daoist often called “refining essence into Qi.”

In other words, he could transform the food he ate and the spiritual energy in the world into his own true Qi.

When the true Qi in the body reached a certain level, the quantitative change would lead to a qualitative change, and the cultivator would be able to enter the next stage.

The first level of the “great Dao Arts” divided the process of transforming essence into Qi into ten stages. Each stage had a corresponding cultivation technique and Meridian circulation diagram. If one completed the ten stages step by step, one would naturally be able to complete the first level of the “great Dao Arts.”

Xia ruofei had completely understood the obscure techniques that seemed to be filled with the ultimate truth of heaven and earth. Hence, he took a deep breath and tried to cultivate the first meridian circulation diagram after he had focused his mind.

The first step of cultivation was to sense the free energy between heaven and earth.

This was an extremely difficult threshold for ordinary people, but Xia ruofei had crossed it without any effort.

This was because the spiritual Qi in the spirit map space was thousands of times denser than the outside world. Furthermore, Xia ruofei was the owner of the spirit map space and had established a physical connection with the space. He was more sensitive to the spiritual Qi in the space.

Hence, as soon as Xia ruofei activated his mental cultivation method, the fog – like spiritual Qi floating in the air was attracted to him in a flash.

However, the moment the spiritual Qi was absorbed into Xia ruofei's body, the innate pure Yang Qi that he had been suppressing in his dantian began to stir.

At this moment, Xia Qing's voice was heard in Xia ruofei's ears, ""Master, please use the" great Dao mantra "to absorb the innate pure Yang Qi!"

Xia ruofei then came to his senses. The innate pure Yang Qi and the spiritual energy of heaven and earth were both energy in essence. Moreover, the energy contained in the innate pure Yang Qi was of a higher purity. He could completely use his heart cultivation method to absorb it.

It could be said that this was a higher level of energy. Even in the spirit map space, such pure energy was rare, let alone in the outside world where spiritual Qi was scarce.

This was also the main reason why Xia Qing had suggested Xia ruofei to absorb the innate pure Yang Qi in Tang Haoran's body and suppress it.

Xia ruofei didn't hesitate anymore. He immediately started to practice the first level of the "great Dao scroll". The pure Yang Qi in his dantian was extracted bit by bit and started to circulate according to the first meridian circulation diagram.

In the process of circulating through his meridians, the innate pure Yang Qi was quickly transformed into true Qi, and the whole process was not delayed at all.

This was because the innate pure Yang Qi was extremely pure and had almost no impurities.

Xia ruofei operated the mysterious technique without any distractions. Traces of innate pure Yang Qi were extracted from his dantian and transformed into true Qi in the process of circulating his meridians.

The amazing thing was that during the transformation of the innate pure Yang Qi, Xia ruofei's meridians also absorbed a small part of the innate pure Yang Qi. His meridians became tougher and wider without him knowing.

This was also the magical effect of the innate pure Yang Qi.

Therefore, Xia Qing had strongly suggested that Xia ruofei temporarily suppress the innate pure Yang Qi in his body because cultivation could be done step by step. Even without such high – Level and pure energy, it would only take a little more time. However, the opportunity to use the innate pure Yang Qi to transform the body was something that could only be encountered by luck.

Xia ruofei didn't notice the changes in his body because he was in a state of complete focus.

It didn't take long for his genuine Qi to flow according to the first meridian circulation diagram. His meridians were already filled with a feeling of swelling.

Then, Xia ruofei immediately felt that the genuine Qi in his body seemed to have broken through a barrier.

Could it be that he had already completed the first meridian circulation diagram?

Xia ruofei couldn't believe it either. According to the "great way of Dao", each Meridian circulation diagram corresponded to a level in the Qi cultivation stage. The ten diagrams corresponded to Qi cultivation Level 1 to level 10.

And every level would have a bottleneck, and this bottleneck was not so easy to break through. Sometimes it would take time to accumulate, and sometimes it would also require a certain amount of comprehension.

Although he couldn't feel the passage of time during cultivation, Xia ruofei could roughly make a judgment. It hadn't been long since he sat down to cultivate, and there was still a large amount of innate pure Yang Qi in his dantian that had not been absorbed and digested!

In such a short period of time, he had broken through to the second level of the Qi refining stage. Moreover, the bottleneck only made Xia ruofei feel a slight delay, and then it was easily broken through as if it was nothing.

This made Xia ruofei feel that it was unreal.

However, after carefully examining the state of his body, he discovered that even though it was hard to believe, it was the truth. He had already broken through to the second level of the Qi refining stage.

The innate pure Yang Qi in his dantian had just been touched, and it was already difficult to suppress it with the simple magic art that Xia Qing had taught him.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not have much time to think about it. He immediately followed the second Meridian circulation diagram and started to circulate his heart technique.

After entering the second level of the Qi refining stage, the innate pure Yang Qi was consumed at an even faster rate. It flowed through his meridians like a rapid stream and was constantly being converted into true Qi. At the same time, it was nourishing and transforming Xia ruofei's meridians.

As time passed, Xia ruofei soon felt the bottleneck of the second level of the Qi refining stage. Similarly, this bottleneck was no different from a decoration. Xia ruofei broke through it easily.

After that was the third level of the Qi refining stage. At this time, the innate pure Yang Qi in his dantian was about half of what it originally had.

All the mental cultivation methods and Meridian circulation diagrams had been deeply imprinted in Xia ruofei's mind. As long as he had reached the cultivation level, he could easily follow the diagrams to circulate the mental cultivation methods. He did not need to go through the process of learning, adapting, and familiarizing himself with them.

At this moment, the innate pure Yang Qi in Xia ruofei's dantian had formed a cyclone. The centrifugal force kept throwing the innate pure Yang Qi out and then it entered the meridians involved in the third meridian circulation diagram. Under the effect of Xia ruofei's "great Dao technique", the meridians continued to transform and transform into genuine Qi.

After entering the third level of the Qi refining stage, Xia ruofei's cultivation speed did not slow down.

After a short while, he could clearly feel the existence of the bottleneck.

Xia ruofei didn't try to break through the bottleneck on purpose. He just used his heart technique normally.

According to the description of the "great Dao Arts," the three bottlenecks of the third, sixth, and ninth levels of the Qi refining stage were relatively large. They were equivalent to a small qualitative change.

However, Xia ruofei still managed to break through the bottleneck of the third level without realizing it.

In a short period of time, Xia ruofei went from a newbie with Zero Foundation to the fourth level of the Qi refining stage.

Xia ruofei was already numb to this. At this time, there was still about a quarter of the innate pure Yang Qi left in his dantian. Xia ruofei continued to use his heart technique.

After entering the fourth level of the Qi refining stage, Xia ruofei's cultivation speed gradually slowed down.

The Qi cyclone in his dantian was now the size of a date. The Qi cyclone formed by the innate pure Yang Qi was spinning rapidly. Wisps of pure Yang Qi were released and absorbed by Xia ruofei's meridians.

After an unknown period of time, Xia ruofei felt that there was no more innate pure Yang Qi left in his body. He had absorbed all of it.

At this time, if he used his cultivation method, he would be absorbing the spiritual Qi in the space.

Xia ruofei stopped at the right time. Jian Jia's cultivation speed today was too fast. It was so fast that he felt a little scared.

He knew that going too far was as bad as not enough. If one's realm was not stable enough, and one's Foundation was not solid enough, no matter what one did, it would not be long-term. He believed that cultivation was the same.

Xia ruofei slowly stopped his heart technique. He felt the surging genuine Qi in his body, opened his eyes, and stood up.

Xia ruofei felt that his body was filled with energy. He even had the illusion that he could block a truck that was coming at him at high speed with one hand.

Xia Qing, who was guarding Xia ruofei from afar, saw this and quickly walked over.

"Master, how did your first training feel?" Xia Qing asked.

Xia ruofei scratched his head and said, ""I can't say for sure ... Isn't this speed a little too fast? I'm already at the fourth level of the Qi refining stage!"

Xia Qing couldn't help but stare blankly for a moment, but then she said in relief, ""Master, it must be because the purity of the innate pure Yang Qi in your body is very high, and it's relatively easy to break through the first few levels of the Qi cultivation stage. That's why you were able to cultivate to this realm in one go."

"Will it cause instability in the realm?" Xia ruofei asked, worried.

"Don't worry, master," Xia Qing said with a smile. You've already laid down a very good foundation by taking the spirit bearing soup, body tempering soup, and tempering your spiritual power. Moreover, during the transformation process, the innate pure Yang Qi will also nourish and strengthen your meridians. In the first three levels of the Qi cultivation stage, you completely relied on the innate pure Yang Qi to break through, so not only is your Foundation not unstable, it's also much more stable than the average cultivator!"

"Then I'm relieved." Xia ruofei also heaved a sigh of relief.

Xia Qing continued, "but I still suggest that you temporarily control the progress of your cultivation. After all, you've just started cultivating. If your cultivation speed is too fast, I'm afraid that your state of mind won't be able to keep up, and it's easy for heart demons to appear."

Xia ruofei nodded. "Okay. I will stabilize my cultivation at Qi disciple Level 4. At the same time, I will use this time to learn more about the other legacy books in the human jade talisman."

"Yes, that knowledge is very useful to cultivators." Xia Qing said, "by the way, master, there's one more thing I must remind you of. When you cultivate, your demand for the spiritual energy of heaven and earth is very large. If you often cultivate in the spirit map world, it will inevitably cause a loss of spiritual energy. Although the spirit map world has a certain self – repairing function and the spiritual energy will also be slowly replenished from the outside world, if the loss is too much, it will still hurt the foundation of the spirit map world."

Chapter 949: Noob's evolution (1)

Xia ruofei frowned and said, ""If that's the case, it's going to be a little troublesome ... The spiritual energy in the outside world is very poor, and cultivation will be very slow."

Xia Qing said, "master, it's not that you can't cultivate in the spirit map world at all. It's just that you need to control the time. The spirit map world also needs a process to absorb spiritual energy and recover." In addition, you can prepare as many jade stones as possible. It's best to find a few more boundary stones. After the spirit map world has evolved, you can cultivate for a longer time. "

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "I know." Xia Qing, I'll leave it to you to plan my cultivation time in the spirit map space in the future. You must ensure that the spirit map space itself is not damaged. "

"Alright!" Xia Qing said, "master, I suggest that you read more of the inherited ancient books in the human jade talisman, especially in the area of using mental energy. Now that you are at the fourth level of Qi refining, you should be able to draw the spirit gathering talisman with the true Qi in your body and the use of mental energy after a certain amount of practice. In this way, you can also cultivate through the Spirit gathering talisman even in the outside world.”

“Alright!” Xia ruofei said.

Xia ruofei was very interested in the knowledge in the ancient books. To him, it was as if a whole new world was slowly being unveiled. Everything was so fresh.

However, Xia ruofei was not in a hurry to study the books. He said, “Xia Qing, the last time you suggested for me to take Tang Haoran as a disciple, I have already discussed it with his parents and also obtained his consent. Tomorrow, Haoran will officially become my master, but I don’t seem to be ready to be a master yet ...”

After he finished speaking, Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. He was a newbie in cultivation and had no experience at all. How could he teach his disciples?

Xia Qing smiled and said, “Is master worried about the matter of teaching cultivation techniques? In fact, there’s no need to worry about it at all, this child is just at the time to build his Foundation. According to my speculation, this child should have a pure yang Constitution, so you only need to choose a pure yang attribute cultivation method to teach him, and then leave a small part of innate pure Yang Qi for him. I believe that his cultivation speed will be very fast. ”

“He’s too young. I don’t know if he’ll be able to learn it,” Xia ruofei said.

Xia Qing smiled and said, “If he has a pure yang body, then cultivating a pure yang attribute cultivation technique will definitely yield twice the result with half the effort. Master, you can use your true Qi to circulate a few times in his body according to the cultivation technique’s route, and just remind him to remember it. I believe that with master’s control of mental energy, it should be very easy to do so.”

“That’s a good idea!” Xia ruofei’s eyes lit up.

“To be on the safe side, master can bring him into the spirit map space tomorrow,” Xia Qing said. “I’ll check and confirm for him. As long as he has a pure yang body, this method will definitely be effective.”

Xia ruofei hesitated and said, “Bring the child into the spirit map space?” This is a little inappropriate ...”

The spirit map space was his biggest secret. He couldn’t reveal it even to the people closest to him, not to mention that Tang Haoran was still a child. It was hard to guarantee that he wouldn’t accidentally reveal it, and there would be endless trouble if that happened.

Xia Qing smiled and said, “Master, since we’re going to bring him into the spirit map world, we can’t bring him in his conscious state.” You just need to check the ancient books related to spiritual power. With your spiritual Power’s realm, it’s easy to learn a few tricks to hypnotize people. ”

Xia ruofei finally understood and said with a bitter smile, “It seems that I still know too little about cultivation. I’ve decided to focus on studying those books and Scriptures. You can remind me when it’s almost dawn in the outside world!”

The time in the Archean realm flowed 30 times faster than the outside world. In theory, one night in the outside world was equivalent to more than ten days in the Archean realm.

“Alright!” Xia Qing said, “master, then I won’t disturb your cultivation and study.”

Xia ruofei nodded and then thought of something. He stopped Xia Qing, who was about to leave, and asked, “I’m going to officially take Haoran as my disciple tomorrow. I have to prepare a gift for him! Do you have any good suggestions?”

Xia Qing said without hesitation, “The best gift would naturally be the protective jade talisman that you made yourself, master!”

“A protective jade talisman?” Xia ruofei asked, frowning.

“Master, have you forgotten? The human jade talisman’s unlocking rune has another function, which is to be used as an amulet rune.” Xia Qing said with a smile, “as long as you carve the runes on a Jade of good quality and inject true Qi into it, it can be guaranteed that it will not lose its effect for at least one or two years.”

“But I can only barely use my mind power to construct runes.” Xia ruofei said, “I think it’ll be difficult to carve the runes on the Jade since I have ten days left ...”

Xia Qing smiled. “It might have been difficult in the past, but master, you’re now a fourth – Stage Qi refining cultivator. Using true energy to complement your mental power, I think you should be able to do it after a few more practices.”

Xia ruofei frowned and said, “then I’ll have to practice first. If I really can’t do it, I’ll have to choose other gifts.” By the way, do you have any Jade in the space?”

Without the Jade, Xia ruofei would not have been able to come out in the middle of the night in Australia.

“There’s still a dozen jade stones left after I set up a spirit gathering array for the spirit heart tree.” Xia Qing nodded and said, “I can bring them to you at any time if you want to use them, master.”

Xia ruofei said, “I’ll practice using my spiritual power to construct runes first!” When I’m more familiar with it, I’ll try again with the Jade!”

“Yes, master,” Xia Qing said, “if you need anything, just tell me!”

Xia ruofei nodded and indicated for Xia Qing to go to the mountain sea realm to do her work. He then went to the spirit pond and laid down on a chair. He closed his eyes and began to “read” the ancient books in his mind.

In fact, this information had already been imprinted in his mind, but he still needed a process of digestion and absorption, especially when it involved the use of spiritual power and medical skills. Understanding the theory was one thing, and putting it into practice was another. These were not things that could be achieved overnight.

For the next few days (during the time of the primal realm), Xia ruofei stayed in the spirit map space.

In the first few days, Xia ruofei had spent most of his time digesting the knowledge in the books. He was very interested in the strange yet magical cultivation knowledge and allusions. He did not even have the mood to absorb and understand the vast knowledge of Chinese medicine in them.

After studying these books, Xia ruofei realized that even cultivation was divided into different systems. Someone like him who started by refining essence into Qi belonged to the cultivation system. There were also people who specialized in spiritual power and ancient martial arts.

Spiritual power and ancient martial arts were also divided into realms. For example, ancient martial arts cultivators were divided into yellow – rank, Mystic – rank, earth – rank, heaven – rank, and above them were Xiantian – rank.

Every realm of ancient martial arts was divided into the early stage, middle stage, and late stage.

The early, middle, and late stages of a yellow rank martial artist were equivalent to Qi disciple Level 1, 2, and 3 respectively.

If a practitioner of ancient martial arts could reach the Xiantian realm, they would be comparable to a cultivator at level 10 of the Qi refining stage.

Xia ruofei was now at Qi cultivation stage level 4, which was almost the same as a Mystic early phase.

When he was learning this part, Xia ruofei felt that the title “Mystic class warrior” sounded familiar.

He carefully thought for a long time before he suddenly remembered something.

Back then, the evil young master Liang Haiming had coveted Ling Qingxue’s beauty and had been so bold as to send his subordinate, Black Panther, to kidnap Ling Qingxue. At that time, Xia ruofei was just about to go on a date with Ling Qingxue and had witnessed the scene of Ling Qingxue being kidnapped in the car.

Then, Xia ruofei drove his car and chased after Heibao’s car. Finally, he stopped Heibao’s car.

In a fit of rage, Xia ruofei killed for the first time after his retirement. After defeating Heibao, he stuffed all the people involved in the kidnapping into his car and created the scene of them driving drunk and falling off a cliff.

Later on, Xia ruofei even used the Hornet that he kept in the medium to send young master Liang to the end of his life.

When Xia ruofei saw the words “Mystic class warrior”, he finally remembered the desperate roar of Heibao, who was on par with him at that time.

“My master is a black level master, he won’t let you go ...”

At that time, Xia ruofei was filled with hatred and only wanted to go back and kill Liang Haiming. He did not take these words to heart.

Now, Xia ruofei realized that Heibao’s master must be a practitioner of ancient martial arts. Heibao must have been a practitioner of ancient martial arts as well, which was why he was so powerful.

Although there was no comparison, Xia ruofei felt that Heibao's strength had reached a higher level. As for which level of the Golden class, he had no idea.

Xia ruofei could not help but frown.

He didn't expect practitioners to still exist on earth, and he'd made an enemy of a Mystic without even realizing it.

However, he soon felt relieved.

It had been a long time since that incident, and there was no response from the Liang family in Beijing. This meant that it had been done flawlessly, and there was no beginning or end to it.

Taking ten thousand steps back, even if Heibao's master found out that his disciple's death was strange and eventually traced it back to him, he would only be a Mystic class martial artist.

Xia ruofei's current cultivation was already equivalent to a Mystic early phase martial artist, and his strength was far beyond that. He had never stopped practicing the movements of the little golden men, so his body's strength was definitely far beyond that of cultivators of the same level.

Not to mention that his mental strength was also very strong, and he also had a great killing weapon like the spirit map space. Just the inheritance in the human jade talisman was beyond the imagination of the people in the cultivation desert outside, which was barren of spiritual Qi.

With the combination of genuine Qi and mental energy, Xia ruofei had a lot of tricks up his sleeve.

Even if Heibao's master was a Mystic late phase master, Xia ruofei wouldn't be afraid.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not think about it anymore and continued to swim in the ocean of books, greedily absorbing the nutrients like a sponge ...

Chapter 950: Reborn (1)

Xia ruofei stayed in the spirit map space for more than ten days.

For the first seven or eight days, he had been immersed in studying a large number of ancient books. The contents of these ancient books had all been imprinted in his mind, so his learning speed was quite fast.

When he was hungry, he would eat some bread. When he was thirsty, he would drink the water from the spiritual pond. When he felt sleepy, he would take a nap on the recliner.

In fact, after Xia ruofei entered Qi disciple Level 4, it was not a problem for him to not eat or sleep for a few days. It was mostly due to his biological clock that he had cultivated in the past.

Xia ruofei also specifically learned about spiritual power.

It turned out that in the system of cultivators, there were also people who specialized in mental power. The levels of mental power were divided into spiritual movement, spiritual palpitations, spiritual Yan, and spiritual void. Each level was also divided into early, middle, and late stages, which corresponded to Warriors of the yellow, black, earth, and heaven ranks, and cultivators of the Qi cultivation stage from Level 1 to level 10.

Ever since Xia ruofei had obtained the spirit map space, his spiritual power had been constantly being tempered. Especially after he started to drink the spirit nourishment soup regularly, his spiritual power had improved by leaps and bounds.

He compared it with the standards in the ancient records and was surprised to find that his mental power had already reached the late – Stage of the spirit palpitations realm.

This meant that he was equivalent to a Qi disciple Level 6 or a Mystic late phase.

This had already surpassed his cultivation system by two realms.

Of course, Xia ruofei also clearly realized that his spiritual power was only an accumulation of quantity. In terms of application, it was still quite rough. After all, he had not systematically learned it before and had to explore it by himself.

It was like a child getting a powerful submachine gun, but the safety couldn't be unlocked. The submachine gun in the hands of a child was no different from a fire Stick.

Fortunately, there were many ancient books and records about mental strength. Xia ruofei's shortcoming had been fixed.

In the past few days, he had a systematic understanding of the spiritual force system. At the same time, he had also learned a few small tricks on the use of spiritual force, mainly related to hypnosis.

Just as Xia Qing had said, these small techniques tested one's ability to control one's spiritual power. Xia ruofei just didn't know the method before, but now that he had found the right way, he learned it quite quickly.

In the last few days, Xia ruofei mainly practiced the human – shaped jade talisman's unlocking runes.

After mastering some techniques of using spiritual power, Xia ruofei's efficiency in practice was much higher than before, and his proficiency was constantly improving.

Now, his success rate in constructing the rune with his power of the will was very high. At most, there would be a small flaw in one or two out of ten times.

Hence, Xia ruofei asked Xia Qing to bring over the dozens of pieces of jade that he had kept in the space. He began to try to carve runes on the Jade.

The gift for Tang Haoran naturally needed to be sculpted. Xia ruofei took out a military dagger. After infusing it with genuine Qi, the dagger became like a treasure knife that could cut iron as if it was mud. It cut Jade as easily as cutting tofu.

Xia ruofei focused all his attention. This piece of Jade that he had specially picked out with the best color flew in his hand. After a while, a leaf – shaped Jade token appeared in his hand.

Xia ruofei had consumed so many petals of the spirit Heart Flower and cultivated the great Dao Arts. His spiritual power had even reached the late stage of the spirit heart realm. Hence, even though it was his first time carving a Jade, the effect was pretty good.

The shape of this leaf seemed to be completely natural. The green jade Leaf was vivid and full of a natural charm. It even gave people the illusion that this was a real leaf.

The shape of the leaf was also based on the leaves of the spirit heart tree. It seemed to contain the ultimate truth of heaven and earth, which could slightly attract people's minds.

This was Xia ruofei's first time carving a piece of Jade, but it was stunning.

If it was taken out, even the works of some famous Jade Masters would pale in comparison to it.

After all, not many people could integrate artistic conception into Jade works. Even if there were, their realm was much lower than Xia ruofei's.

Compared to the works of the so – called Masters, Xia ruofei's Jade Leaf was more than one level higher.

After the Jade Leaf was carved, Xia ruofei put it aside.

After all, it took a lot of effort to make this Jade Leaf. Xia ruofei would definitely not carve it without confidence.

There were still more than ten pieces of jade left, so Xia ruofei naturally wanted to practice.

Xia ruofei picked up a piece of Jade.

Then, he took a deep breath and quickly drew on the surface of the Jade with his finger.

From the surface, the Jade didn't seem to have changed at all. However, Xia ruofei's spiritual power had already penetrated into the Jade and left marks in the shape of runes.

At the same time, Xia ruofei's genuine Qi entered the Jade and followed the mark left by his spiritual power, leaving a tiny trace that was invisible to the naked eye.

This was the internal trajectory of the runes.

This method of using spiritual power to lead the way and pouring true Qi into the painting was something that Xia ruofei had only mastered after studying the ancient books.

Without the knowledge in the ancient books, even if Xia ruofei had practiced this rune to the point of being extremely familiar with it, it would be extremely difficult to leave a mark on the Jade.

Xia ruofei's rapidly moving fingers suddenly stopped, and a bitter smile appeared on his face.

A crack had appeared on the surface of the Jade.

Although this method of drawing runes had obvious effects, it was much more difficult to control. After all, the process of constructing runes was a complicated one. During this process, Xia ruofei had to control both his mental energy and his genuine Qi.

Although the true Qi only needed to follow the mark left by the mental power to carve, the strength of the true Qi was slightly different, which could lead to failure.

Xia ruofei did not control the strength of his genuine Qi, which caused the Jade to crack.

If one were to look at it with a magnifying glass, one would be able to see that there were many fine cracks inside the Jade, and these cracks gradually extended to the surface.

This piece of Jade was basically useless.

However, Xia ruofei was not discouraged. It was his first time trying this method. He was lucky to succeed on his first try. It was normal to fail.

Xia ruofei took a short break and picked up the second piece of Jade to carve.

As time passed, there were six to seven pieces of jade that had cracks on them.

But at the same time, he also placed three successfully carved jade materials on the other side.

And these three pieces were concentrated in the later few times.

In other words, Xia ruofei's success rate in drawing this amulet had greatly increased.

In addition to the one in his hand, Xia ruofei still had four pieces of jade to practice with.

Xia ruofei quickly finished the carving on the one in his hand.

It was still a success.

Hence, Xia ruofei did not plan to use the remaining three pieces of jade. If he failed to carve the runes on the Jade Leaf, he still had three spare raw materials.

He rested for a while and adjusted his mental power and physical condition. Then, he took the carved jade Leaf and began to carve the runes.

Xia ruofei was prepared to fail. After all, his success rate was only 50 – 50.

However, to his surprise, the drawing went quite smoothly. Perhaps it was because the leaf was made of the best Jade, or perhaps Xia ruofei had adjusted his condition better. In short, the whole process was smooth and the rune was drawn easily.

Xia ruofei poured a wisp of genuine Qi into the rune and used his spiritual power to check it. He found that the rune was flawless and the genuine Qi was flowing inside it. It was smooth.

After seven or eight days of “force – feeding”, Xia ruofei was no longer the rookie cultivator he was before.

He clearly understood that although this small Jade Leaf seemed to be a relatively expensive Jade item, once the wearer encountered danger, it could erupt with an enormous defensive energy.

It was no exaggeration to say that this protective jade talisman could even block a few bullets.

This was like a Second Life!

Xia ruofei found a red string to tie the Jade Leaf and put it away.

There were also four Jade tablets that were successfully engraved. Although the material was slightly worse than the Jade Leaf, and the appearance was not much different, the protective effect was almost the same.

Although Xia ruofei had already reached the fourth level of the Qi refining stage, he did not know how strong his body's defense was. After all, the person who wrote the cultivation classics could not predict the appearance of powerful firearms in the future. There was definitely no description in this aspect.

Hence, in line with the principle of not wasting, Xia ruofei also hung one of the Jade tokens on himself. Although there was almost no one who could hurt him now, it was better to be safe than sorry.

As for the remaining three Jade tokens, Xia ruofei kept them in the medium.

Now that he had the ability to inscribe protective Jade talismans, he would naturally want to prepare some for his family and friends, such as Ling Qingxue, Lin Qiao, and Hu Zi's mother.

However, Xia ruofei was prepared to look for better quality Jade and carve it carefully before carving the runes.

These three Jade plates, which did not look good, could be used as backup.

Xia ruofei had just settled the matter of the meeting gift when Xia Qing arrived at the Archean realm. He said respectfully, "Master, it's about Seven o'clock in the morning in the outside world. You should go back to the outside world."

"Okay!" Xia ruofei nodded.

He stretched his back lazily. He felt like he had been in a dream for the past ten days in the Archean realm.

In terms of the time outside, he had entered the interspace at around 9 p.m., Which meant that less than ten hours had passed. However, Xia ruofei had already undergone a complete transformation.

Xia ruofei did not leave immediately. Instead, he went to the spiritual pond and got a basin of water to wash his face. Then, he took out a razor and tidied up his appearance. He even used his military dagger to trim his hair.

After all, he had spent more than ten days in the space. If he went out just like that, it would be hard to explain how his hair had grown so much in one night and how his beard was unkempt.

Xia ruofei was very cautious about any details that might reveal the secret of space.

After settling his personal issues, Xia ruofei left the medium and kept the painting.

He didn't have time to take a shower last night, and he had been in the interspace for more than ten days. His body was almost rotten, so he couldn't wait to rush into the bathroom and take a shower as soon as he came out.

After changing into a fresh set of clothes, Xia ruofei looked at his watch. It was around 7:30 in the morning.

So he opened the door and walked out.
