Chapter 951: A secret technique can not be passed on to six ears (1)

When Xia ruofei went downstairs, Lin Qiao had already woken up and was stretching at the entrance of the farmhouse, facing the clear artificial lake.

One had to admit that the environment of Paradise Farm was really great, especially with the artificial lake at the entrance of the farm villa and the endless green grassland in the distance. It was really refreshing to look out in the morning!

“Brother ruofei, you’re such a lazy worm. You actually woke up so late!” Lin Qiaoqiao laughed.

Lin Qiao didn’t know that Xia ruofei had been in the boundless space for more than ten days and didn’t sleep.

Xia ruofei touched his nose and chuckled, “I’ve never seen you wake up so early in the country! You can’t be jet lag, right?”

Lin Qiao said disdainfully, “brother ruofei, can you have some common sense?” Australia was two hours ahead of China, but it was only Five O’ clock in China! I should have slept later if I hadn’t gotten over the jet lag! You’re finding excuses for your own laziness ...”

Xia ruofei laughed. “Okay, okay, okay. You’re the most hardworking. But only when you have fun ...”

Lin Qiao rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and said, “I’m too lazy to bother with you ...”

Liang Qichao prepared a sumptuous breakfast for everyone. Not long after the three of them finished their breakfast in the farmhouse, Tang Yitian’s family arrived at Paradise Farm.

“Mr. Xia, how could I trouble you to personally welcome me?” Tang Yitian quickly said when he saw Xia ruofei waiting at the entrance of the farm.

Xia ruofei smiled. “You’re the guests. It’s only right.”

When Tang Haoran saw Xia ruofei, he immediately called out, “Brother ruofei...Uh...Master, Good Morning!”

Xia ruofei laughed and touched Tang Haoran’s head. “After you formally acknowledge me as your master today, remember to change the way you address me!”

“En!” Xia ruofei smiled and nodded.

Jennifer also got out of the car from the other side. She was holding an album with an old – looking exterior with her own autograph on it.

Jennifer handed the album to Lin Qiao with a smile and said, “Lin! This is the gift I promised to give you. I hope you like it!”

"Jennifer's echo!" Lin Qiao's eyes lit up. She took the album and held it with both hands. "I'm so happy!" She said. Jennifer, thank you!"

Jennifer smiled and said, "your brother saved Haoran's life. Now, he's willing to be Haoran's teacher ... No, master! Compared to these, my gift is not even worth mentioning!"

"That's not the same. He's him and I'm me!" Lin Qiao said, "anyway, this is the most precious gift I've ever received. When I go back, my classmates will be so envious ..."

"Do you want to ask Jennifer for some autographs to give to your classmates?" Xia ruofei teased.

Lin Qiao rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and said, "That's a good suggestion! Jennifer, remember to sign a few more for me later!"

Jennifer chuckled and nodded. "No problem! It's no trouble at all ..."

"Jennifer, I've realized that you like to use idioms more than the Chinese ..." Xia ruofei said, scratching his head.

Everyone burst into laughter.

The group walked into the farm villa. Xia ruofei sat down on the sofa and asked seriously, "Mr. Tang, Ms. Jennifer, are you sure you've thought it through and are willing to let Haoran be my apprentice?"

"Of course, this is Haoran's good fortune!" Tang Yitian said without hesitation.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "alright then. Haoran, come and be my disciple!" I'll officially take you in as my disciple today!"

Tang Yitian quickly pulled Tang Haoran's hand.

Tang Haoran must have been taught by Tang Yitian before they came. The little guy immediately knelt down in front of Xia ruofei and kowtowed three times. He shouted, "Master!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but show a gratified expression. Although kneeling was no longer encouraged, he had accepted Tang Haoran as his disciple and was going to teach him cultivation techniques. Thus, everything was in accordance with the rules and he accepted this big bow very calmly.

Although Jennifer felt that it was a little strange, she was not in the mood to kneel down and pay her respects. However, after she married Tang Yitian, all the major matters in the family were decided by Tang Yitian, so she did not say anything. Instead, she showed a trace of a fresh look.

"Get up!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"Haoran, pour tea for your master!" Tang Yitian ordered.

He didn't know how an expert like Xia ruofei would take in a disciple, so everything was done according to the old etiquette passed down by the Yixing society.

Xia ruofei waved his hand. "No need, no need. Three kowtows is enough. I'm not that particular."

Then, Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, ""Haoran, come here!"

Tang Haoran came to Xia ruofei's side obediently. Xia ruofei stared into his eyes and said seriously, ""Today, I'll officially accept you as my disciple. There aren't many rules in my sect, but there's one very important one, and that is that after you've learned something, you can't bully the weak, you can't ignore the rules and do whatever you want, you must always have a sense of justice! Do you understand? If one day I find out that you're using the skills I taught you to do evil, I'll definitely cripple you with my own hands!"

Xia ruofei's words were harsh and carried a trace of spiritual power. Tang Haoran's heart trembled when he heard this. He quickly said, ""Master, I'll remember this!"

Xia ruofei had considered the fact that Tang Haoran was still young and his mind was not mature yet. On the other hand, a cultivator's power was far beyond that of the secular world. If he was not educated from a young age, he would grow up to be an arrogant and overbearing person. That would really be a disaster for society. That was why he did not hesitate to use his spiritual power to engrave the mark of rules in Tang Haoran's heart. He wanted Tang Haoran to know respect and justice from a young age.

Tang Yitian listened from the side and couldn't help but secretly nod. He looked at Xia ruofei with a trace of gratitude.

After Xia ruofei finished speaking, the serious look on his face disappeared and was replaced by a kind smile.

He took out the Jade Leaf that he had prepared in the spirit map space and carved protective runes on it. He said with a smile, ""Haoran, this is a gift from master to you. Take it!"

"Mr. Xia," Tang Yitian said hurriedly, "we should be the ones giving you the acknowledgment gift. How can we let you spend so much money?"

As a rich man, Tang Yitian naturally had a good eye. He could tell at a glance that although the quality of the Jade Leaf could only be said to be average, the carving was definitely the work of a natural master. It could be said that the value of this Jade Leaf was very high.

Tang Haoran was about to reach out to take it, but after hearing his father's words, he hesitated and retracted his hand.

Xia ruofei smiled and put the Jade Leaf into Tang Haoran's hand. Then he said to Tang Yitian, ""This is a meeting gift for my disciple, not for you!"

"Master, my father doesn't allow me to accept it ..." Tang Haoran hesitated.

Xia ruofei deliberately darkened his face and pretended to be angry. "Haoran, it's only your first day as a disciple and you dare to disobey master?"

"Haoran, since it's a gift from your master, you should accept it!" Tang Yitian said quickly.

Tang Haoran nodded happily and said to Xia ruofei, ""Thank you, master!"

Xia ruofei also liked this talented disciple. He smiled and said, ""You're welcome. Haoran, give me your hand ..."

Although Tang Haoran did not know Xia ruofei's intention, he still obediently stretched out his left hand while his right hand held the Jade Leaf tightly.

Xia ruofei flipped his hand and a silver needle for acupuncture appeared in his hand. He quickly extended his hand and immediately retracted it.

Tang Haoran felt a sharp pain in his finger. Then, he realized that his master had used a needle to prick his finger.

It was naturally very painful to have ten fingers connected to the heart, but he still gritted his teeth very bravely and did not cry out in pain.

Xia ruofei's eyes were filled with approval. "Hurry up and take out the Jade Leaf!"

Tang Haoran subconsciously stretched out his right hand and showed the Jade Leaf.

Xia ruofei gently wiped the blood on Tang Haoran's pierced finger. He did not touch Tang Haoran's finger, but a drop of blood was squeezed out of thin air. It flew directly towards the Jade Leaf on Tang Haoran's right palm.

The blood dripped onto the surface of the Jade Leaf and quickly seeped in, disappearing without a trace in the blink of an eye.

Jennifer's eyes widened in surprise when she saw the scene that went against the laws of nature.

Tang Yitian, who had witnessed Xia ruofei's magical means, had a fiery look in his eyes. At the same time, he also realized that this Jade Leaf was not as simple as a high – Quality carving.

As expected, Xia ruofei continued, "Mr. Tang, this Jade Leaf must be worn by Haoran at all times. You must never take it off at any time. You Must Remember This!"

"Yes!" Tang Yitian quickly replied with a serious face. Please rest assured, Mr. Xia!"

After saying that, Tang Yitian personally hung the Jade Leaf on Tang Haoran's neck, and then gave him a few words of advice.

Tang Haoran had always been a well – behaved child. Now that his master and father had given him such a serious instruction, he took it to heart and nodded heavily to indicate that he would always wear it.

Xia ruofei stood up and said, "Mr. Tang, Jennifer, please sit on the first floor for a while. I'll take Haoran upstairs to completely eliminate the hidden dangers in his body. In addition, I'm going to teach him some basic things. It's not convenient to let too many people know about these things, so please understand!"

"I understand!" Tang Yitian quickly said. He understood! Magic can't be passed on to six ears! This is what I should do!"

Xia ruofei nodded and waved at Tang Haoran. "Haoran, come with me!"

With that, Xia ruofei strode towards the stairs.

Tang Haoran was also very interested in what Xia ruofei was going to teach him. Although he was young, he had been influenced by his father since he was young. He had heard many of the Yi Xing society's glorious past, so he always had a dream of being a Knight.

Now that he had acknowledged Xia ruofei as his master, the big dream in Tang Haoran's small heart began to stir.

Without another word, he quickly followed Xia ruofei ...

Chapter 952: Imparting knowledge and answering questions (1)

When they arrived at the room, Xia ruofei locked the door and windows. Then, he smiled at Tang Haoran. "Haoran, sit down first. Master will help you completely destroy the flaming monster in your body."

"Yes, master!" Tang Haoran said obediently.

Then, he sat down on the carpet with his legs crossed. He had already received Xia ruofei's treatment on the plane. He was smart enough to sit properly without Xia ruofei's teaching.

Xia ruofei went behind Tang Haoran and sat down cross – legged.

Then, she placed her palm on his Xinyu acupoint. Her mental power seeped out of her body and entered his body through the Xinyu acupoint.

There was not much innate pure Yang Qi left in Tang Haoran's body, so it was easy for Xia ruofei to deal with it.

He wrapped the innate pure Yang Qi with his psyche and brought it to his heart through his meridians. He then absorbed it into his body through his palm.

Xia ruofei was focused on absorbing Tang Haoran's innate pure Yang Qi, so he did not cultivate it directly. Instead, he used a technique to temporarily suppress the innate pure Yang Qi in his dantian.

The innate pure Yang Qi in Tang Haoran's body was decreasing bit by bit, and his face gradually revealed a relaxed expression.

Although Tang Haoran was not clear about the situation in his body, he could feel that his body seemed to be getting lighter as the time bomb – like innate pure Yang Qi, which contained a huge amount of energy, continued to decrease.

In the end, Xia ruofei stopped absorbing after leaving behind about one – tenth of the innate pure Yang Qi that Tang Haoran originally had.

Xia ruofei stood up with a smile and said, "Haoran, master has eliminated most of the flaming monsters, but he still left a little bit. Do you know why?"

"Why?" Tang Haoran asked in confusion.

Xia ruofei said seriously, "that's because a man should rely on his own strength to solve problems. The flaming monster in your body was too strong. You couldn't defeat it with your own strength. But now, I have left a small point for you. I hope that you can defeat them on your own."

Xia ruofei paused and continued, "Haoran, you've grown up. You have to learn how to solve problems by yourself. I'll teach you some powerful skills and let you deal with those flaming monsters by yourself. Do you have the confidence to defeat them?"

When Tang Haoran heard Xia ruofei say that there was still a small part of the "flaming monster" in his body, he was in a difficult position and his face was bitter.

However, Xia ruofei's next words gave him confidence again. He puffed out his chest and said, "I'm confident!"

Xia ruofei patted Tang Haoran's head approvingly and said, "That's right, this is how a man should be!"

Xia ruofei did not simply tell Tang Haoran that leaving a little innate pure Yang Qi in his body was for his cultivation. Instead, he used this method of encouragement to achieve a better effect.

After all, Tang Haoran was still young, and he did not have much concept of cultivation. He might not be able to understand the benefits of the innate pure Yang Qi.

"Haoran, look into my eyes!" Xia ruofei said seriously.

Tang Haoran didn't know what his master's instructions meant, but he still looked up subconsciously and looked into Xia ruofei's eyes.

At this moment, Xia ruofei activated his spiritual power skill. Tang Haoran felt that Xia ruofei's eyes were like two bottomless pools. They became extremely deep. Then, he slowly closed his eyes and tilted his body.

Xia ruofei stepped forward and held Tang Haoran's body.

This was the first time he had used his spiritual power to hypnotize someone, but his spiritual power had already reached the late stage of spirit palpitations. Such a simple technique was still very powerful. Tang Haoran fell into a deep sleep without any resistance.

At this time, even if someone set off firecrackers next to him, it would be impossible to wake him up.

Xia ruofei summoned the spirit map scroll from his palm. Then, with a thought, he brought Tang Haoran into the spirit map's space and entered the primal realm.

Xia ruofei felt weird for the first time when he returned to the familiar spiritual Qi – rich space.

This wasn't the first time he had sent someone into the space.

Last time, Liang Haiming had sent Heibao to kidnap Ling Qingxue. Xia ruofei wanted to kill Heibao and the others, so he had put the unconscious Ling Qingxue and the pickup truck into the medium.

However, this was Xia ruofei's first time bringing someone into the medium.

Xia Qing wasn't at the Archean realm. Xia ruofei called out to him with his mind, and he immediately returned to the Archean realm from the mountain sea realm.

Seeing that Xia ruofei was hugging Tang Haoran, who was fast asleep, Xia Qing asked, "Master, is this your new disciple?"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "you should confirm his physique first!"

"Yes, master!"

Xia Qing took Tang Haoran from Xia ruofei's hands and laid him flat on Xia ruofei's recliner. Then, she began to examine him.

After a while, Xia Qing revealed a trace of joy. She raised her head and said, "Congratulations master, your disciple does indeed have an innate pure yang body, and his cultivation talent is very good. If he were to cultivate a pure yang attribute cultivation technique, his speed should be very fast!"

Xia ruofei brought Tang Haoran into the medium mainly to confirm that he had a strong Constitution. After all, in terms of cultivation experience, Xia Qing had her own "database" and was much stronger than him.

After hearing Xia Qing's judgment, Xia ruofei was also very happy.

"Alright," he said with a smile. "Then I'll pick a pure yang cultivation method suitable for building a foundation and teach it to Haoran!"

Xia Qing smiled and said, "master, I suggest you choose the <<fierce yang Scripture>>. This cultivation technique is simply tailor – made for people with pure yang attributes. Especially for your disciple who has an innate pure yang body, it is the most suitable for him to cultivate this cultivation technique!"

Xia ruofei naturally trusted Xia Qing's judgment, so he said without hesitation, "Then let's go with the fierce yang Scripture"!

Xia Qing looked at the sleeping Tang Haoran and said, "This child is really lucky to have a master like master, and a cultivation method like the 'fierce yang Scripture' that is extremely compatible with his physique. His achievements in the future will be limitless!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "that depends on whether I'm qualified as your master!" To be honest, I don't feel confident at all! After all, it's my first time teaching a disciple, and I'm teaching him how to cultivate. "

Xia ruofei had been a squad leader for five to six years and had even been an acting platoon leader. He had led at least a hundred soldiers before, but leading soldiers and teaching disciples were two different things. He was not very confident now.

Xia Qing consoled him. "Master, just teach him according to the method I mentioned before. I believe that with this child's talent, he should be able to master the first level of the fierce yang Scripture "very soon!"

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "sure!" You can go back to your work! I need to familiarize myself with the incantation of the "fierce yang Scripture."

"Alright, master. I won't disturb you any longer."

After Xia Qing said that, she quietly left the Archean realm.

Xia ruofei quickly found the mental cultivation method of the blazing sun Sutra in his mind. As the information was not purely written, it also contained the sequence of the meridian circulation, the flow of genuine Qi, and even some cultivation insights. All of this information was completely engraved in his mind, so he quickly understood the blazing sun Sutra.

Of course, it was one thing to learn it. It did not mean that Xia ruofei had to practice this technique.

However, it was more than enough to teach Tang Haoran.

After he returned to his room, he casually put the spirit map scroll into his palm, and then released a stream of mental power to gently stimulate Tang Haoran. Tang Haoran immediately opened his eyes in a daze.

Tang Haoran was a little embarrassed. "Master, I don't know what happened just now, but I suddenly feel so sleepy ..."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "I was helping you to clear the flaming monster in your body. Your body's functions have been damaged. That's why you're feeling a little tired. Don't worry. It's normal."

"Oh ..." Tang Haoran did not have any doubts.

Xia ruofei asked, "how do you feel now?" If there's no problem, I'm going to teach you how to cultivate!"

Tang Haoran immediately perked up. He puffed out his chest and said, "I'm feeling great!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "come!" Sit down cross – legged!"

"Yes, master!"

After Tang Haoran sat down, Xia ruofei continued to place his palms on his Xinshu point.

Then, he carefully released a wisp of mental power and guided a wisp of true Qi into Tang Haoran's dantian.

"Haoran, how do you feel now?" Xia ruofei asked.

"Master, I feel something warm in my stomach. It's like a wave of heat ..." Tang Haoran said.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "that place is called the dantian. The heat is the genuine Qi. However, I transferred this into your body. Your first task is to cultivate the genuine Qi." Next, I'll teach you the true Qi circulation route, you must remember it by heart!"

"Yes, master!" Tang Haoran replied solemnly.

Next, Xia ruofei followed the meridian circulation route of the first level of the “sun Scripture” and used his spiritual power to guide his true Qi to start circulating in Tang Haoran’s meridians.

Tang Haoran was also concentrating on feeling the true Qi flow while memorizing the entire route.

Xia ruofei circulated it more than ten times and asked, “Haoran, do you remember it?”

“Master, it should be fine!” Tang Haoran said without much confidence.

Hence, Xia ruofei retracted his Qi, stood up, and turned on his computer. He downloaded a map of the human meridians and acupuncture points and printed it out.

Then, he took the map and pen and handed them to Tang Haoran. “Try to mark out the route of the circulation of true Qi for me.”

“Yes, master!” After Tang Haoran took the pen, he looked at the meridian and acupuncture point distribution map and thought for a while. He accurately found the position of the dantian and then began to connect the lines.

The first level of the cultivation method would pass through three main meridians in the human body and involve more than forty acupuncture points. Tang Haoran spent more than ten minutes and hesitated a few times during the process before he finally completed it.

He handed the Qi circulation route to Xia ruofei without confidence and said, “Master, I’ve finished.”

Chapter 953: Outstanding talent (1)

Xia ruofei took a look and realized that there were no mistakes. He felt even more relieved.

It seemed that Xia Qing was right. Tang Haoran’s cultivation talent was indeed very good. Otherwise, it was hard to imagine that a six or seven – year – old child could remember the true energy circulation route in such a short time. Moreover, he could remember the names of those acupuncture points without any error even when he didn’t understand or even recognize the words.

Xia ruofei nodded approvingly. “Haoran, well done! Everything is correct.”

Tang Haoran was so happy that he beamed with joy, just like a child who was praised by his teacher at school.

Xia ruofei then took the map that Tang Haoran had marked and explained the names of the acupuncture points to him one by one. He even made him remember the words that he did not know.

Of course, Xia ruofei did not go into detail. He only asked Tang Haoran to remember the names of the acupuncture points and the flow of genuine Qi. After all, he was still too young and could only recognize a few words. He would not be able to understand things that were too complicated.

Tang Haoran followed Xia ruofei’s instructions seriously and memorized the names of the acupuncture points.

Then, Xia ruofei separated another wisp of true Qi and demonstrated it a few times in Tang Haoran's meridians along the path of the "fierce yang Scripture" before he retracted his true Qi.

However, a wisp of his spiritual power still remained in Tang Haoran's body.

Xia ruofei said, "Haoran, imagine that there is a ball of genuine Qi in your dantian. Then, follow the mental cultivation method I taught you and direct it to move according to the route you just took."

"Yes, master!" Tang Haoran nodded and said.

The pure Yang Qi in Tang Haoran's body had already been concentrated in Xia ruofei's dantian.

Therefore, Tang Haoran followed Xia ruofei's request and used the mental cultivation method of the "fierce yang Scripture". The innate pure Yang Qi in his dantian, which had been suppressed by Xia ruofei's spiritual power, immediately calmed down and began to rotate counterclockwise, forming a small cyclone.

After a while, the innate pure Yang Qi began to obediently follow Tang Haoran's instructions and entered his meridians.

"Master, I can feel the heat!" Tang Haoran exclaimed happily.

"Stop!" Xia ruofei scolded sternly.

Tang Haoran did not know what was going on. He quickly stopped his heart technique and looked back at Xia ruofei nervously like a child who had done something wrong.

Xia ruofei used his spiritual power to suppress the innate pure Yang Qi and said seriously, "What did master say before? When cultivating, one must be completely focused and not be distracted in the slightest, or it would lead to very serious consequences! What did you do just now?"

"I'm sorry, master," Tang Haoran said guiltily, "I felt the heat just now. I was so happy that I forgot ..."

Xia ruofei's expression was serious. "This is the first and last time. Otherwise, don't cultivate anymore. You can live a safe and healthy life without cultivating. If you cultivate, you might go into Qi deviation! If it's light, he'll be crippled. If it's heavy, he'll lose his life. This isn't a joke!"

When Xia ruofei said this, he used a trace of his spiritual power. It carried an unquestionable authority. It made Tang Haoran's heart tremble. These words were deeply engraved in his heart.

Tang Haoran did not dare to look Xia ruofei in the eye. He lowered his head and said, "Master, I'll really remember it. I won't do it again!"

Xia ruofei's expression softened. He nodded and said, "Rest for 3 minutes, then continue to cultivate. I hope you won't let me down this time!"

"Yes!"

Unconsciously, Xia ruofei's image in Tang Haoran's heart had changed from an amiable big brother to a strict and even harsh master.

Although he still felt very close to Xia ruofei, there was a hint of respect in this closeness.

This was also the effect that Xia ruofei hoped to achieve. However, Tang Haoran was too weak. Once he had extraordinary power, it was easy for him to go to the extreme if he had a problem with his mind.

However, if he had a master that he respected, who would constantly remind and spur him on, the possibility of him going astray would be greatly reduced.

The break time passed quickly. Tang Haoran asked carefully, "Master, can I try again?"

"Did you remember what I said just now?" Xia ruofei asked.

"I've remembered it all!" Tang Haoran said quickly.

"Then let's start!" Xia ruofei nodded.

Tang Haoran immediately sat down cross – legged and began to practice the mental cultivation method that Xia ruofei had taught him.

The innate pure Yang Qi in his dantian began to spin slowly again, and then a small wisp of it separated and entered his meridians.

A trace of Xia ruofei's spiritual power remained in Tang Haoran's body to monitor his first cultivation.

Once the innate pure Yang Qi was activated, Tang Haoran felt the heat again. However, this time, he remembered Xia ruofei's words. He did not have any emotional fluctuations. He guarded his bier and concentrated on circulating the "fierce yang Scripture".

Xia ruofei's spiritual power detected that the innate pure Yang Qi in Tang Haoran's meridians was slowly being converted into true Qi. At the same time, it was also nourishing and transforming his meridians.

Xia ruofei had already experienced this process when he was cultivating. However, this time, as a bystander, Xia ruofei still had a little understanding of cultivation.

Tang Haoran was indeed a cultivation genius with an innate pure yang body. His speed of transforming the innate pure Yang Qi was only slightly slower than Xia ruofei's.

Time passed by. When the last wisp of innate pure Yang Qi was absorbed, Tang Haoran's cultivation speed suddenly slowed down. At this time, his body had already cultivated true Qi.

Xia ruofei checked and found that Tang Haoran had already entered the first level of the Qi refining stage.

For ordinary people, it was extremely difficult to step into the threshold of cultivation.

However, Tang Haoran had extraordinary talent and the help of the innate pure Yang Qi, so he easily completed the crucial first step.

Tang Haoran also felt that his cultivation speed had slowed down. He stopped cultivating and said, "Master, it seems like the increase in true energy is not as obvious as before."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "that's because you've already defeated the flaming monster in your body and used it as nutrients for your body." Now that we don't have the flaming monster, we can only rely on the spiritual energy from the outside world to cultivate. Naturally, our cultivation speed has slowed down. ”

“I see ...” Tang Haoran said, “master, if I had known earlier, you would have left more flaming monsters for me to deal with!”

Xia ruofei patted Tang Haoran’s head and said, “You still don’t quite understand the logic that too much is as bad as not enough, but you have to remember that the surge in strength is not always a good thing. Everything has to be controlled to a certain extent, otherwise your body will not be able to take it.”

“I got it!” Tang Haoran nodded and said.

“Haoran, the spiritual Qi on earth is barren now. The environment is very bad for cultivators.” Xia ruofei said seriously, “only the spiritual energy at midnight and Mao am can barely meet the needs of cultivation ...”

Xia ruofei paused and continued, “Midnight is from 11 p.m. To 1 a.m. You’re still growing, so you can’t stay up so late at night. You have to make good use of the time to practice every day, which is from 5 a.m. To 7 a.m.”

“Yes, master!” Tang Haoran said, “I’ll wake up before five every day and persevere in my cultivation!”

Xia ruofei smiled and nodded. Cultivate diligently every day. I’ll check your cultivation progress regularly. But you can’t be too hasty. Every step must be steady, and remember not to be impetuous!”

Tang Haoran was still so young, so it would not be convenient for Xia ruofei to bring him along to cultivate. Thus, he had to rely on himself to cultivate for the next few years. That was why he had to give instructions to him patiently.

However, according to the normal rate of cultivation, it would take a few months or even a year for Tang Haoran to break through the first stage of the scorching sun Scripture. Hence, after Xia ruofei taught him the mental cultivation method of the first stage, he did not need to guide and supervise him all the time.

“I understand, master.” Tang Haoran said obediently.

“Also, don’t be careless if you have any problems with your cultivation. If you’re not sure or feel uncomfortable, call me immediately. This is no joke.” Xia ruofei said seriously.

Xia ruofei smiled. “I’m sure you’ll remember my words. Let’s go and take a shower!”

Tang Haoran lowered his head and smelled the stench on his body. His exposed skin was also covered with a thin layer of black oil.

These were the impurities discharged from his body after he had stepped into the threshold of cultivation. The innate pure Yang Qi had transformed his body’s meridians and meridians, which also produced a lot of impurities. However, Tang Haoran was still young, so there were not many impurities in his body. Otherwise, this layer of filth would be even more obvious.

Tang Haoran could not help but exclaim in surprise. His face revealed a trace of embarrassment.

Xia ruofei chuckled and asked, "can I take a bath on my own?" Do you need master's help?"

Tang Haoran quickly straightened his back and said, "No need! Master, I'm now a man who defeated the flaming monster, so of course I'm going to wash myself ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "then go to the bathroom!" I'll ask your parents to prepare a set of clean clothes for you. You can't wear this set of clothes anymore, so just throw it away later!"

"Yes, master!" Tang Haoran immediately got up and sneaked into the bathroom.

Xia ruofei went downstairs and told Tang Yitian and his wife to prepare a clean set of clothes for Tang Haoran.

When Tang Yitian heard that Tang Haoran had discharged a lot of impurities from his body during his first cultivation and was taking a shower upstairs, he was so happy that he almost jumped up. He immediately called Tang Hu and asked him to send two sets of Tang Haoran's clothes over.

Jennifer did not know what cultivation was, but when she saw her husband's overjoyed look, she was also very happy and thanked Xia ruofei repeatedly.

Just then, Xia ruofei heard Tang Haoran's exclamation from upstairs.

He quickly called Tang Yitian and Jennifer and quickly ran upstairs.

Chapter 954: Lower your head and beg for mercy (1)

Xia ruofei was a little worried. After all, Tang Haoran was only seven years old and had grown up in a rich family. There were always people taking care of him. It would be terrible if he did not know how to use the bathroom equipment and got scalded by hot water.

So he quickly ran upstairs. Tang Yitian and Jennifer, who were both concerned about their son, were not much slower than Xia ruofei. The three of them ran into Xia ruofei's room one after another.

Standing at the door of the bathroom, Xia ruofei's slightly nervous expression disappeared in an instant. He didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

At this time, Tang Yitian and Jennifer had already trotted to the bathroom door.

In the bathroom, Tang Haoran was holding a shower head. His face was blank and embarrassed because the shower head had been separated from the metal hose. From the condition of the fracture, it should have been forcibly torn off.

"Haoran, what's wrong?" Tang Yitian asked subconsciously.

Jennifer's mouth was wide open as she said, ""Heavens! Haoran, why did you break the shower head ..."

"I'm sorry, master. I ..." Tang Haoran also looked a little embarrassed.

Xia ruofei chuckled. "It's fine. It's fine. It's my fault for not warning you."

Then, Xia ruofei explained to Tang Yitian and Jennifer, "Haoran can't be blamed for this. He has just stepped into the threshold of cultivation and hasn't fully adapted to his own strength, so ..."

Xia ruofei shrugged helplessly and continued, "He'll naturally get used to it after some time!"

Then, Xia ruofei said to Tang Haoran, "Haoran, you can continue to take a shower in the guest room next door! Remember to control your strength and be careful. I don't want to see you break the bathtub ..."

"I know, master ..." Tang Haoran said with a red face.

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "go, go. You don't have to worry about this place. I'll get someone to fix it!" Oh right, remember to put on a bath towel, don't catch a cold ..."

Tang Yitian and his wife didn't recover from their shock until Tang Haoran left the room with a towel wrapped around his body. They couldn't believe their ears when they heard Xia ruofei say that Tang Haoran couldn't control his strength and destroyed the shower head.

The stainless steel hose connected to the showerhead was very strong. Basically, even if the head was broken, the hose would not be damaged. However, the position where the showerhead was connected to the hose seemed to have been torn off by a huge force. The ring – shaped metal had been deformed. It was a shocking sight.

"Mr. Xia, Haoran ..." Tang Yitian said excitedly.

It had only been two hours since Tang Haoran and Xia ruofei went upstairs, and he already had such great power?

This was simply too unbelievable!

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "let's sit down and talk!" You're Haoran's parents, so you need to know about his situation. But remember to keep it a secret and don't spread it around ..."

"Okay, okay, okay. Don't worry, Mr. Xia. We'll definitely keep our mouths shut!" Tang Yitian said quickly.

Xia ruofei invited the couple to sit on the sofa and briefly explained Tang Haoran's current situation. However, Xia ruofei did not explain in detail about the part that involved cultivation. He only let them know that his son was no longer an ordinary person from today onwards. At the same time, he reminded them to pay attention to the shaping of Tang Haoran's character while urging him to continue cultivating. He must not go astray.

When Tang Yitian and Jennifer heard this, they naturally nodded and agreed to Qianqian that Tang Haoran was their biological son. They naturally did not want to see their son become an obedient person who would harm society.

Jennifer's beautiful eyes were still filled with disbelief. She said to Xia ruofei, ""Xia, could it be that you're a legendary Eastern immortal? It's really unbelievable that a 7 – year – old kid could master such a great power in only 2 hours ..."

Xia ruofei smiled. "Jennifer, I'm just a practitioner. If I'm an Eastern immortal ... Then strictly speaking, your son, Haoran, is also an Eastern immortal because he has also stepped into the threshold!"

Tang Yitian's heart couldn't be more excited. He said, ""Mr. Xia, I'm so grateful to you! Not only did you save Haoran's life, but you also guided him on the path of cultivation. I will never forget your kindness!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "Mr. Tang, the path of cultivation is hard and lonely. Whether it's me or Haoran, we're destined to explore it with difficulty. So, to be honest, I'm not sure if this is a good thing or a bad thing. However, since I've accepted Haoran as my disciple, I'll definitely fulfill my responsibility as a master and do my best to teach him well. "

"Yes, yes, yes. Thank you, Mr. Xia!" Tang Yitian said.

Xia ruofei chuckled. "You don't have to call me Mr. Xia. I'm Haoran's master. You can just call me by my name or little Xia."

"I don't dare, I don't dare ..." Tang Yitian quickly said, "this is too disrespectful ..."

Xia ruofei laughed, "aren't names meant to be called?" It's decided! I'll call you big brother Tang!"

Tang Yitian hesitated for a while, then nodded nervously. ""Okay, Mr. Xia, then I'll take it up with you ..."

Xia ruofei raised his eyebrows. Tang Yitian suddenly came back to his senses. He smiled awkwardly. "This ... I'm used to calling you that. I'll call you Ruo Fei from now on!"

"Yes, that's good!" Xia ruofei nodded.

By then, Tang Haoran had finished his shower. He wrapped himself in a towel and returned to Xia ruofei's room.

This time, he was very careful and did not destroy the bathroom in the next room.

Xia ruofei asked Tang Haoran to come over and sit down. He told him to control his strength. It was okay for him to destroy things, but it would be bad if he accidentally hurt someone.

In addition, Xia ruofei also explained a lot of principles to Tang Haoran. He used this opportunity to instill positive values in him to prevent him from going astray in the future.

Tang Yitian, who was watching from the side, was extremely grateful to Xia ruofei for teaching Tang Haoran so seriously.

Tang Hu very quickly sent Tang Haoran's clothes to Paradise Farm. After Tang Haoran changed his clothes, the group went downstairs.

It was lunch time, so Liang Qichao called Uncle Bill over and asked him to prepare lunch.

Xia ruofei and the others had a happy lunch with Tang Yitian's family.

After the meal, Tang Yitian invited Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao to Sydney for a trip. He also invited them to stay in his Manor in Sydney's wealthy District.

Xia ruofei's original plan was to stay in a hotel after arriving in Sydney and take Lin Qiao on a tour before visiting Tang Yitian.

However, the plan was always changing. He had met Tang Yitian and the others in the Hunter Valley in advance, and had officially accepted Tang Haoran as his disciple. Under such circumstances, it was not appropriate for him to stay in the hotel.

At the same time, Xia ruofei also thought that if he stayed at Tang Yitian's house, he could guide Tang Haoran's cultivation when he was traveling in Sydney. After all, the little guy had just entered the sect. It would be best if he could watch over him. Otherwise, it would be bad if something went wrong during his cultivation.

Hence, Xia ruofei nodded in agreement after some thought.

Lin Qiao was naturally very excited that ran ran could live in Jennifer's house and get close to her idol from time to time. This was something that she didn't even dare to dream of before.

Hence, Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao simply packed a few clothes and got into the extended Bentley with Tang Yitian's family.

When the Bentley arrived at the entrance of Paradise Farm, the sharp – eyed Lin Qiao saw four or five people standing at the entrance of the farm. They seemed to be looking forward to it. Among them were the dejected Brody and Zheng Peng.

Lin Qiao turned to look at Xia ruofei and said, "Brother ruofei, I think it's the two people from last night ..."

Xia ruofei frowned and said to the driver, "Don't worry about them, drive over!"

"Yes, sir!" The driver responded and drove out of the farm without slowing down.

But Brodie and the others had already noticed the car driving over. Brodie's father, Robinson, saw that the car had no intention of stopping, and in a hurry, he rushed to the middle of the road and kept waving.

The driver was so shocked that he slammed on the brakes and stopped the car, almost hitting Robinson.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Tang. Are you all right?" the driver quickly turned around and said.

Tang Yitian's face showed a trace of anger, but he didn't blame the driver. After all, no one had expected such a situation.

Robinson had rushed out on a whim. The Bentley had approached quickly and was about to hit him. He had been so scared that his body had turned stiff, thinking that he was going to see God.

After he came back to his senses, he walked to the door with trembling legs. Brody and Zheng Peng's family also came over.

Xia ruofei frowned and rolled down the window.

When Robinson saw the young face in the car, he quickly said, ""Mr. Xia, Mr. Xia, please let our Golden Oak winery go! I'll definitely teach that brat Brodie a vicious lesson!"

After hearing Brodie's words, Robinson immediately realized that Xia ruofei was the key to solving this problem. He had brought Brodie to the farm's entrance early in the morning to "wait for the rabbit"

Zheng Peng's situation was similar.

His father, Zheng Daming, and his mother, Luo LiMei, had gone to Canberra for business and would be staying there that night. After receiving the notice from the Maya Group, they immediately bought the earliest flight back to Sydney that night and rushed back to the winery in Hunter Valley.

He had come to Paradise Farm early in the morning, 'coincidentally' with the Robinson father and son.

Before Xia ruofei could say anything, Tang Yitian also rolled down the window and scolded him with anger, ""Who are you people? Don't you know that your actions just now were very dangerous?"

When Robinson saw that Tang Yitian was also in the car, his blood turned cold ...

Chapter 955: it's too late to regret (1)

Tang Yitian was one of Australia's leading figures in the retail industry, and he had the backing of the righteous Association. He didn't know who Robinson was, but Robinson recognized this famous Chinese tycoon with one look.

Robinson didn't expect Tang Yitian to be in the car as well. When Tang Yitian's imposing gaze swept over him, he felt his scalp go numb and his heart couldn't help but tremble.

"M – Mr. Tang ..." Robinson's teeth were chattering. "I didn't know you were in the car. I'm really sorry ... My son offended Mr. Xia last night. I ... I brought him here to apologize!"

Tang Yitian glanced at Brody, whose face was ashen, and said indifferently, ""If your son is Brody, then there's no need to say anything. Even if Mr. Xia accepts your apology, I won't be soft – hearted!"

After hearing this, Robinson's legs went weak, and he sat on the ground in despair. His eyes were completely devoid of their former vigor.

Zheng Peng and Brody didn't even dare to approach Tang Yitian's car. They only dared to stand far away.

Zheng Peng's father, Zheng Daming, was also trembling with fear. He urged his family to curry favor with Robinson and seek cooperation with the Golden Oak winery. Their strength was naturally even worse. Robinson was so embarrassed in front of Tang Yitian, so how could Zheng Daming and Luo LiMei remain calm?

However, it was related to the life and death of the winery that he had bet all his assets on. Although Zheng Daming was scared to death in his heart, he still mustered up the courage to come forward.

However, Zheng Daming played a little trick. He directly walked to the window on Xia ruofei's side so that he didn't have to face the terrifying Tang Yitian directly.

However, Zheng Daming didn't know that Xia ruofei was much more terrifying than Tang Yitian.

Zheng Daming nodded and bowed to Xia ruofei with a flattering smile. He said in Chinese, "Hello, Mr. Xia. Let me introduce myself. I'm the owner of Wilkinson winery. My name is Zheng Daming, and I'm ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand and said, "I know you're Zheng Peng's father. If you're here to plead for him, don't waste your time. If I were you, I wouldn't come here to do such a useless thing. Instead, I would look for a suitable buyer to reduce the loss."

Zheng Daming's face slightly changed, and a resentful look flashed in his eyes. He quickly lowered his posture and said, "Mr. Xia, I know that Zheng Peng has offended you, but young people don't think before doing things. Please do us a favor and give us a chance to turn over a new leaf!"

Xia ruofei glanced at Zheng Daming indifferently. Zheng Daming's eyes could not escape his eyes, so Xia ruofei's impression of Zheng Daming was even worse.

"Sir, let's go!" Xia ruofei said to the driver.

Zheng Daming's expression changed drastically. He knew that if Xia ruofei refused to give in, the Mei ya group would not stop suppressing him. Then, the only way out was to sell the winery at a low price.

He had been operating in Australia for so many years, and he had transferred all his assets in the country. If he were to sell the winery at this time, even if someone was willing to buy it, they would definitely lower the price. What happened at the reception was right under everyone's eyes, and everyone knew the predicament that Wilkinson winery was facing.

This was a result that Zheng Daming was unwilling to accept no matter what.

At this time, the Bentley had already started moving slowly. Zheng Daming grabbed the window in a hurry and said, "Mr. Xia, please have mercy ..."

Xia ruofei didn't move, but Zheng Daming felt the car window suddenly become like an electric current, and his hands were suddenly bounced off.

At this time, Zheng Peng's mother, Luo LiMei, couldn't hold it in anymore. She shouted to Xia ruofei in the car, "You're too overbearing! Even if Zheng Peng was disrespectful to you, you don't have to be so ruthless! We're all Chinese, and we should help each other when we're abroad. Is this how you treat your own people? Cold – blooded!"

Zheng Daming quickly scolded, "Li Mei!" What nonsense are you spouting!"

"Where did I spout nonsense? It's true!" Luo LiMei said, not convinced.

"You're a woman, what do I know!" Zheng Daming was so angry that he started to scold, "don't add to my troubles!"

Then, Zheng Daming quickly took two steps forward and said to Xia ruofei, "Mr. Xia, my wife is brainless, please don't take it to heart ..."

The car had already started, but after hearing Luo LiMei's words, Xia ruofei said to the driver, "Stop the car!"

After the car stopped, Xia ruofei opened the door.

“Mr. Xia, you don’t need to pay attention to these small characters ...” Tang Yitian quickly said.

Then, he got out of the car and walked to Luo LiMei.

Just now, Luo LiMei had said those words in a fit of anger. Now that Xia ruofei had really gotten out of the car and come to her, her courage had disappeared.

Her thin lips trembled slightly as she said, “You ... What do you want? I’m telling you, hitting someone is illegal!”

“What did you just say?” Xia ruofei curled his lips and smiled.

“Am I wrong?” Luo LiMei raised her chin and said, “we’re all descendants of Yan Huang. Isn’t it a bit too much for you to kill us all? even if Zheng Peng made a mistake, don’t you want to give him a chance to correct it?”

Xia ruofei said coldly, “there are some mistakes that you have to pay for.” If everyone had the chance to change, there wouldn’t be those people who went to jail or even got shot ...”

Luo LiMei couldn’t help but be speechless. Her lips moved a few times, but in the end, she didn’t say anything.

Xia ruofei pointed at Zheng Peng, who was not far away, and said coldly, “You said that I don’t care about our friendship. Have you ever asked what your son has done? Coveting my female companion’s beauty and ridiculing me ... That’s nothing. He’s deliberately trying to sow discord and have that foolish Brodie come over to threaten me. Does he even care about our friendship?”

Luo LiMei couldn’t think of any rebuttal at all.

Zheng Daming’s heart almost stopped beating when he heard it. He didn’t expect that his son’s so – called little conflict was actually related to women.

Young people loved their face the most. No wonder the other party was so persistent when his woman was snatched away in front of him.

Zheng Daming thought so in his heart.

He quickly said, “Mr. Xia, it’s all my fault. That bastard Zheng Peng would do such a thing!” Please be magnanimous and give us a chance to turn over a new leaf! It’s not easy for us to come out of our country to make a living! We’ve invested most of our lives into the winery. If it goes bankrupt, our family will have to go out and beg ...”

Xia ruofei heard Zheng Daming’s pitiful words and couldn’t help but sneer secretly.

Zheng Daming was obviously too exaggerated. The worst result was nothing more than losing a little money and transferring the winery. If that didn’t work, he would just settle in another country. How could he be begging on the streets?

Xia ruofei said indifferently, "I can let Zheng Peng off the hook for treating me like a clown, but I really despise his behavior!" That Wei nation Japanese man harassed his girlfriend, but not only did he not dare to stand up for his girlfriend, he even advised his girlfriend to serve that Japanese man! I think even if your winery goes bankrupt, Zheng Peng shouldn't be unable to eat. He's still qualified to be a pimp in the red – light District!"

Zheng Daming's face couldn't help but change as soon as he heard it. He glared at Zheng Peng and then said in a low voice, "Mr. Xia, I didn't expect Zheng Peng to be such a bastard! I'll definitely ..."

Xia ruofei waved his hand and interrupted Zheng Daming, saying, ""You don't have to say anything. I've already promised tan Lili that I'll teach Zheng Peng a lesson that will leave a deep impression on him! I'll put it this way! Even if I spare that idiot Brodie, I won't let Zheng Peng go! That's all I have to say, take care of yourself!"

After that, Xia ruofei no longer looked at Zheng Daming and Luo LiMei, who looked like they had lost their parents. He turned back to the car and said lightly, ""Start the car!"

The Bentley started slowly and left Paradise Farm.

Robinson and Zheng Daming stood there in a daze, while Brodie and Zheng Peng stood far away, their hearts full of regret.

Unfortunately, there was no medicine for regret in this world.

With their character, even if they didn't meet Xia ruofei, they would meet Wang Ruofei, li ruofei, and Zhang ruofei in the future. One day, they would learn their lesson.

After a long while, Zheng Daming let out a long sigh and said, "Let's go! Go back and ask if anyone is willing to buy the winery ..."

"Is there really no other way?" Luo LiMei said unwillingly, "how can he be so capable when he's so young? I think he's giving the Meya group some benefits. Why don't we also ..."

"Do you even have a brain? Didn't you see how polite Tang Yitian was to him?" Zheng Daming said unhappily, "what do you think we can give Tang Yitian? He wouldn't be moved even if I gave him the entire winery ..."

"But ... But you can't sell the winery now!" Luo LiMei said with a sad face, "the loss is too great ..."

"What can I do if I don't sell it? Maya supermarket has taken them all down, and our wine is all unsalvageable. We'll run out of funds soon!" Zheng Daming said, "it's all your fault. You've been spoiling that little rascal since he was young. Now, he's in trouble!"

Luo LiMei didn't dare to refute, so she cried and followed Zheng Daming.

In the face of a behemoth like the Maya Group, a winery of such a scale had no ability to resist at all. The only thing they could do was to hurry up and find a seller.

In particular, Zheng Daming still had some rich friends in China. Now, rich people were popular in purchasing foreign products, so he couldn't wait to contact those friends on the way to see who had the intention to buy.

Robinson also began to call his friends in the circle, hoping to sell Golden Oak Farm.

Of course, in their situation, the price would definitely be lowered.

A few days ago, Robinson had taken advantage of old Wester's urgent need for money to lower the price and try to buy West Winery at a low price.

It had only been a few days, and everything was reversed. Now, he was facing the same situation as Old West, or even worse.

This was truly the cycle of heaven and earth, karma!

Chapter 956: The sky – High price of grape wine (1)

Xia ruofei didn't care about the little incident at the entrance of the farm. As for Tang Yitian, he didn't care about such a small figure either. So, everyone was in a good mood, talking and laughing along the way.

More than three hours later, the group arrived at Tang Yitian's mansion in Sydney's wealthy District, vaclub.

The manor was in an excellent location. It was right by the sea. From his home, he could see the Sydney Harbor, the harbor Bridge, and the Opera House. There was even a private beach. Considering that Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao were here for a vacation, Tang Yitian chose to receive them here.

As the hostess, Jennifer showed Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao around their Manor with great enthusiasm.

The manor covered an area of about 15 acres and the building area reached more than 5000 square meters.

The manor had a large green space, a glass garden, a small Stadium, a home audio and visual center, a swimming pool, and other facilities.

The entire Manor was personally designed by the well – known architect Steve, who paid attention to every detail of the building. The overall style was quite harmonious and natural.

Lin Qiao was dazzled, especially when they walked to the private beach. When she saw the almost pure white beach and the boundless sea, she couldn't help but exclaim in admiration.

"Jennifer, your house is so beautiful!" Lin Qiao smiled at Xia ruofei and continued, "I thought brother ruofei was already very rich, but compared to the real rich people, hehe ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "your brother, ruofei, started from scratch." Even if I've started my business since I was in my mother's womb, it's impossible for me to earn big brother Tang's family business at such a young age!"

"Ruofei," Tang Yitian said without hesitation, "since miss Lin likes this Manor, I'll ask someone to take care of it and leave it for you. You can come and live here whenever you come to Sydney!"

Tang Yitian knew that Xia ruofei wouldn't accept it if he just gave him a Manor. That was why he suggested this. In fact, it was almost the same as giving it to him.

As long as Xia ruofei agreed, Tang Yitian would definitely not come to live with them in the future. He would usually send people to maintain the manor and make it ready to be used at any time. Xia ruofei could stay there whenever he wanted.

Tang Yitian's life experience was much richer than Xia ruofei's. After he found out that Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao were not biological siblings, he could already tell that Lin Qiao did not have simple feelings for Xia ruofei. On the other hand, Xia ruofei was very slow in this aspect and did not feel anything.

Therefore, when Lin Qiao expressed her love for this Manor, Tang Yitian didn't hesitate to leave the manor for Xia ruofei to use.

Xia ruofei didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "Big brother Tang, I might not even be able to come to Australia once a year. Why did you leave such a big Manor for me?" he asked. Isn't that a waste?"

"Why would it be a waste?" Tang Yitian said without a care. Keep it as a backup! I have so many houses, but I can't live in all of them. I might not even live in some of them once in a year or two ..."

Xia ruofei smiled. "Big brother Tang, you're a rich and powerful man. I'm different ... Anyway, you have to listen to me. There's no need to waste it."

Seeing that Tang Yitian was going to give the whole Manor to Xia ruofei, Lin Qiao couldn't help but stick out her tongue and say, "Mr. Tang, I was just talking nonsense. Don't scare me! Besides, brother ruofei definitely won't accept it."

Tang Yitian could only helplessly say, "alright!" However, if you come to Australia in the future, remember to tell me at once. I'll pay for all your food, accommodation, and transportation!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "sure!" I promise I won't stand on ceremony with you!"

It was already evening, and everyone enjoyed the sunset on the beach for a while before returning to the manor.

The main building of the manor was a six – story villa with a total area of more than four thousand square meters. Tang Yitian had already ordered the servants to prepare dinner.

The dinner was arranged in a beautiful garden. The long and elegant table was filled with delicious food that looked, smelled, and smelled good. There were Australian dishes and authentic Chinese food. Tang Yitian was very attentive. He was worried that Xia ruofei and Xia Ling wouldn't be used to the Australian food, so he asked the family's chef to prepare Chinese food.

Although he grew up in Australia, he had lived in the Chinese community for a long time and had once led the largest Chinese society in Australia, so Tang Yitian still retained a lot of Chinese living habits, including food. He also liked the taste of Chinese food.

That was why he had a Chinese food chef at home.

Australia was a famous wine – producing place, so wine was naturally indispensable for dinner.

Tang Yitian had prepared a six – liter bottle of wine. Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao only found out that the bottle of wine was from the famous Australian brand, benfu Grange, after Tang Yitian had opened the bottle and introduced it to them.

This benfu range was a limited edition that was released in 2012. There were only five bottles in the world, and each bottle cost as much as 142500 US dollars, which was nearly a million Chinese dollars.

Because the production was too low, or rather, this wine wasn't mass – produced at all. It was an out – of – Print collection of wine, so Tang Yitian bought one of the five bottles because he had the advantage of the local location. It had been kept in the wine cellar for several years.

This time, when Xia ruofei was here as a guest, he took out this bottle of wine without hesitation. It was clear how distinguished Xia ruofei was in his heart.

After listening to Tang Yitian's introduction, Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao couldn't help but click their tongues at the expensive wine. Even Xia ruofei had never heard of it before. It was almost one million Yuan a bottle. Even if it was a six – liter bottle, a small glass would cost twenty to thirty thousand Yuan. It was even more expensive than gold!

Xia ruofei smiled."Big brother Tang, if you had told me earlier, I definitely wouldn't have let you open this bottle of wine. It's too extravagant!"

"Xia," Jennifer said with a smile,"even if Mr. Governor came as a guest, Ethan wouldn't be willing to take out this bottle of wine to serve him. But you're the most distinguished guest in our family. Of course, we have to serve you the best wine!"

Tang Yitian laughed and said,"Jennifer is right!" Ruofei, you are the most distinguished guests of our family! Come, come, come, let's have a drink together!"

After that, Tang Yitian raised his glass.

Everyone raised their glasses. Even Tang Haoran raised his glass of drink.

After clinking glasses, Xia ruofei took a sip and said with an exaggerated expression,""I drank it for a few thousand Yuan? I don't feel any different ..."

"Brother ruofei, you don't know much about wine. It's such a waste to give you such expensive wine!" Lin Qiao pursed her lips and smiled.

Xia ruofei looked at Lin Qiao with a smile and said,""You speak as if you know about wine ..."

"I can learn it if I don't know it!" Lin Qiao raised her chin.

"Lin, I'm willing to be your wine – tasting teacher!" Jennifer immediately said with a smile.

Lin Qiao immediately looked at Xia ruofei proudly and said, ""Did you hear that? Jennifer will personally teach me how to taste wine, and I'm sure my level will soon leave you far behind!"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly. "Okay, okay, okay. Our Qiao'er is the smartest. She can learn anything quickly, right?"

"This is more like it!" Lin Qiao said with a smile.

At this time, Tang Haoran also sensibly raised his drink and said, ""Master, I'll toast you!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "I'm going to drink this glass of wine!" It's the first time an apprentice has toasted me!"

Tang Yitian happily patted Tang Haoran's head and said, "Ruofei, we'll leave our Haoran to you in the future ..."

Xia ruofei clinked his glass with Tang Haoran's. After taking a sip of wine, he said, ""Big brother Tang, don't worry! Haoran's talent is pretty good. He will definitely have great achievements in the future. "

At this time, Jennifer, who was talking to Lin Qiao in a low voice, couldn't help but ask, ""Xia, I want to know ... When you return to Huaxia later, will Haoran go back with you?"

She had been keeping this question in her heart. Her son was still so young. If he had to leave her for the distant Huaxia, she would naturally be very reluctant.

Even if she had absolute trust in Xia ruofei, Jennifer would still have all kinds of worries. After all, a mother would be worried when her son traveled a thousand miles!

Tang Yitian's face slightly changed, and he quickly said, ""Jennifer, Haoran is ruofei's apprentice, so he must be learning from ruofei! He has such a capable master like RUO Fei, what do you have to worry about? If you really miss your son, you can fly to China to visit him!"

Tang Yitian was worried that Xia ruofei would be unhappy.

He was an immortal – like figure! He was willing to take Tang Haoran as his disciple, and that was already a blessing to his family. This was a great opportunity that many people did not even dare to dream of! You even showed that you don't want your son to go on a long journey. If Xia ruofei changes his mind, wouldn't all your previous efforts be in vain?

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand. "Big brother Tang, I've been meaning to discuss this issue with you. I've been meaning to discuss it with you." Haoran is still young, so it's best for him to live with his parents. He also needs to receive a systematic cultural education, so I don't plan to bring him back to China for the time being. "

Tang Yitian heard this and said anxiously, ""Ruofei, Jennifer is a woman, she doesn't know ..."

"Big brother Tang, let me finish!" Xia ruofei smiled. "I didn't plan to bring Haoran back to China! I've already passed on this stage of cultivation to Haoran, and I'll guide him in his cultivation these few days. Once he's mastered it, I can return home with a peace of mind. Remember to supervise his cultivation every day, and call me if there's any problem. "

Tang Yitian was relieved, then he asked, ""Ruofei, if you can't explain it clearly over the phone ..."

"You can bring Haoran to Huaxia to find me at any time!" Xia ruofei said, "also, if time permits, I will try to come to Australia a few more times. After all, I have a business here! While guiding Haoran's cultivation, you can also come and visit my farm and winery. "

"Then I'm relieved!" Tang Yitian was overjoyed. Ruofei, give me a call whenever you want to come over. I'll send a private jet to pick you up!"

Xia ruofei smiled and waved his hand, "we'll see!" I won't be able to take it if the battle is too big ..."

Tang Yitian laughed out loud. In his opinion, people at Xia ruofei's level didn't care about worldly wealth at all. Although Xia ruofei also had a company, in Tang Yitian's eyes, this should be Xia ruofei's way of cultivating in the secular world. After all, he couldn't figure out the actions of such a master.

Soon, everyone was full and Jennifer suggested, ""Xia, Lin, why don't we go out to sea on a yacht? The night view of the sea is also very good!"

Hearing that, Lin Qiao immediately said happily, ""Good, good! I've been wanting to come to Sydney on a yacht for a long time, but ruofei bro never brought me ..."

"Then let's go tonight!" Tang Yitian laughed. I'll order people to make preparations. Even if you want to spend the night on the yacht, there's no problem!"

Lin Qiao's eyes lit up and she said, "then what are we waiting for?" Let's go!"

Then, Lin Qiao stood up first and walked out with Tang Haoran.

Xia ruofei was very fond of Lin Qiao. He shook his head with a bitter smile and immediately followed her.

Chapter 957: The bright moon above the ocean (1)

A rich man like Tang Yitian naturally had his own private yacht, and it had an excellent parking spot in the yacht dock of Sydney port.

When the group of people arrived at the dock in the Bentley, a pure white Azimut peaks 100 grand Leonardo luxury yacht was already ready.

The 30 – meter – long Azimut yacht wasn't considered a luxury for Tang Yitian. In fact, he also owned two other super yachts that were more than 100 meters long. However, these yachts happened to be docked in Sydney, and they were enough for a small group of maritime parties.

A blonde beauty wearing a captain's hat and a tight – fitting uniform that revealed her navel was waiting at the yacht dock. Her impressive figure made people couldn't help but cast sidelong glances.

"Good evening, Mr. Tang!" The beautiful Captain said respectfully.

Xia ruofei couldn't help but be surprised. He didn't expect Tang Yitian's yacht captain to be such a sexy beauty. But after thinking about it, he felt relieved.

The yacht was a very private place. Rich people went to the sea to experience the feeling of freedom. In most cases, they would definitely bring their female companions.

And on the boundless sea, how could one not change into a swimsuit to enjoy the blue sea water and sunlight?

In this case, if a man with an unkempt beard was driving the yacht while his woman was lying on the deck in bikinis, rich men would definitely feel uncomfortable ...

If it was a female Captain, there would be no such concerns, and she was quite pleasing to the eye.

"Ruofei, this is Captain Emily. She's in charge of my Tyrannosaurus," Tang Yitian said with a nod.

When Xia ruofei heard that this beautiful, streamlined yacht was called Tyrannosaurus, he could not help but laugh.

At this time, Tang Yitian was already introducing Emily, ""Emily, this is Mr. Xia from China. He's our most distinguished guest."

Emily's expression slightly froze, and she quickly said, "Hello, Mr. Xia! I'm very honored to be able to provide you with my service!"

"Captain Emily, thank you for your hard work!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"RUO Fei, Lin Qiao, let's board the boat," said Tang Yitian.

"Okay, okay!" Lin Qiao quickly replied. I can't wait!"

Tang Yitian laughed and personally led the way. He brought Xia ruofei and the others onto the yacht.

There were also two tall and sexy blondes on the yacht. They were the crew of the Tyrannosaurus, and they mainly served the guests.

Although winter in Australia was not very cold, the sun had already set and the temperature was around ten degrees. Xia ruofei could not help but feel worried when he saw that the two of them were wearing so little.

However, the two beautiful women didn't seem cold at all, especially after seeing their boss, Tang Yitian. They even stuck out their big breasts.

Xia ruofei was also a normal man. When he stepped onto the yacht, he happened to see this scene and couldn't help but be a little dazed.

At this moment, he heard Lin Qiao whisper in his ear, ""Brother ruofei, isn't it nice?"

Xia ruofei subconsciously nodded and then said awkwardly, ""What nonsense are you talking about? What's there to look at? You're so mischievous!"

Lin Qiao stuck out her tongue mischievously and said, "You've already revealed your true thoughts just now! Bribe me! Otherwise, I'm going to tell sister – in – Law when we get back!"

"Tsk ... You can tell on me however you want!" Xia ruofei said, "let's see if Qingxue will believe you or me ..."

“I really don’t know what kind of magic potion you fed sister Qingxue ...” Lin Qiao said with a depressed look.

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but burst out laughing.

After everyone got on the yacht, it soon left the dock slowly under Emily’s control and headed towards the sea.

Tang Yitian and Jennifer enthusiastically showed Xia ruofei and Annie around the yacht.

Although the yacht was not very big, its facilities were definitely the most luxurious. The design was even more original, and the use of space on the deck was extremely high.

The most unique feature was the large and variable – end stern deck, and there was a U – shaped bench that could be turned into a comfortable beach bed.

The stern of the ship could be completely opened, and the dining room at the stern could be integrated with the stern, forming a unique open – Air tea table.

There was a spacious resting area in the middle of the handrail at the bow of the ship, where guests could enjoy the sun and a sumptuous breakfast.

The yacht also had a unique, large sea view penthouse. There was a super large sofa and stylish furniture on the observation deck. Sitting on the Super large sofa on the observation deck, the sea breeze could be felt, and the 360 – degree sea view was unparalleled.

In addition to the special deck and rest area, the central area of the yacht also had a luxurious bedroom. In addition to the Super large master bedroom, there were three similarly luxuriously decorated guest bedrooms.

After a round of sightseeing, everyone finally returned to the observation deck on the top floor.

Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao couldn’t help but praise.

Xia ruofei had experienced Tang He’s grandfather’s private jet before. Today, he saw Tang Yitian’s private yacht, and it was only the smallest of his luxury yachts. He couldn’t help but sigh with emotion that the life of a rich man was indeed full of unimaginable enjoyment.

Tang Yitian waved his hand to stop the Blondie who came to serve them. He personally poured wine for Xia ruofei and the others. It was the same limited edition bounteous Grange that they had opened during dinner. This bottle of wine was six liters, so it was impossible to finish it in one meal. Thus, Tang Yitian brought it with him.

Chapter 958: The bright moon above the ocean (2)

Tang Yitian handed the wine glasses to Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao, and said with a smile, “Ruofei, since Lin Qiao likes yachts so much, I’ve ordered a Ferretti Yachts 960, which should be delivered soon. Why don’t I transfer it to Lin Qiao’s name? It just so happens that the three mountains is a coastal city, so it’ll be very convenient for you to go to sea from within the country. ”

Xia ruofei quickly waved his hand and said, ""She's just a young lady, why would she need such an expensive yacht? No need, no need, no need ..."

Lin Qiao also smiled and said, "big brother Tang, don't scare us anymore, you rich guy!" Even if you give me that luxury yacht, I can't afford it!"

"I'll pay for the yacht, of course. "Tang Yitian laughed, "Faraday's yacht isn't expensive. It's about 80 million Chinese dollars!" The custom version is a little more expensive, but it's only about 100 million. "

Lin Qiao patted her chest and said, "100 million is not expensive? My entire net worth is only ten to twenty thousand Yuan ..."

Jennifer and Tang Yitian couldn't help but burst into laughter when they saw Lin Qiao's cute appearance.

In their eyes, Lin Qiao had a powerful brother like Xia ruofei. Let alone 100 million, even if she asked for a few hundred million or even a few billion, it would be nothing.

In fact, they did not know that Xia ruofei was not as rich as they had thought.

Of course, this was also because Xia ruofei did not want to accumulate wealth through certain means. Otherwise, he could make a fortune just by relying on the spirit map's ability to identify jadeite and stone gambling. There were also the countless hundred – year – old mountain ginsengs and the large forest of jinsi nanmu in the interspace. If he were to sell them all, he would make an immeasurable amount of wealth.

However, all these could expose the secret of the spirit map space. It was a hidden danger and Xia ruofei would definitely not do that.

Besides, Xia ruofei was enjoying his current life.

Keeping a low profile, being carefree, and earning money step by step seemed to give him a greater sense of achievement.

Xia ruofei caressed Lin Qiao's hair and said, ""Big brother Tang, don't mention giving us a yacht, a house, or anything else in the future. We definitely can't accept it,"

Tang Yitian's eyes revealed a trace of disappointment. Xia ruofei continued, ""But if we come to Australia, we won't be polite with you. We'll have to trouble you."

Tang Yitian immediately revealed a happy expression and said, ""Of course! If you don't come to me, then you're treating me as an outsider! Don't forget that you're Haoran's master ..."

"Yes, yes, yes. We're all family. I definitely won't be polite with you." Xia ruofei said.

Tang Yitian was overjoyed. "Yes, yes, yes! We're family! We're family!"

The yacht came to the open sea and anchored. As the waves gently rose and fell, everyone sat on the observation deck, drinking wine and chatting. In the distance, where the sea and the sky connected, a bright moon slowly rose, sprinkling a little brilliance on the sea.

Jennifer could not help but sigh. "Xia, Lin, the culture of your country is indeed broad and profound. Just like the beautiful scenery in front of us, I know how to describe it in English. But you have already had very appropriate poems since hundreds of years ago ..."

At this point, Jennifer turned her eyes to the sea and recited in non – Standard Chinese, "The bright moon above the sea, the ends of the world at the same time ... What beautiful words!"

"Jennifer," Xia ruofei said with a smile, "I've realized that you're really talented. If you have the time, I really suggest you study the Chinese Language and Literature systematically!"

"My wife was influenced by me. She couldn't even speak the simplest Chinese before. She only signed up for Chinese cram school after we got married!" Tang Yitian said proudly.

"Do you want to praise the power of love?" Jennifer asked with a smile.

"Of course!" Tang Yitian laughed. Actually, I'm also influenced by you. Although I started an entertainment company before, I didn't know much about the entertainment industry, but now I know it like it's a family treasure ..."

Jennifer laughed, "in Chinese, this is called" the closer you are to the Vermillion, the redder you will be. "I'm influenced by you, and I'm the one who gets influenced by you ... Hahaha ..."

Tang Yitian didn't expect that his wife would actually put what she had learned to good use. He couldn't help but show a bitter smile.

Lin Qiao couldn't help but feel envious when she saw Tang Yitian and Jennifer being so loving. She couldn't help but glance at Xia ruofei.

She didn't expect Xia ruofei to turn around at this time. Lin Qiao quickly looked away, her heart beating fast like a deer.

Xia ruofei didn't notice Lin Qiao's embarrassment. He smiled and said, "Qiao' er, these two people are showing off their affection! Don't you think we should leave?"

Lin Qiao was secretly relieved. She smiled and said, "Do you regret not bringing sister – in – Law along? Otherwise, you guys can compete to see who's the one who's spreading the dog food!"

Xia ruofei smiled bitterly, "I wish!" But she's been busy with opening branches and running a hotel, so it's impossible for her to be away for so many days!"

"Yup! Sister Qingxue seems to be getting busier and busier. " Lin Qiao said.

"Who said it wasn't?" Xia ruofei was a little depressed because Ling Qingxue had been so busy recently that she could not even squeeze out time for a date. "Ever since she became the Vice president of the company, my future father – in – Law has been giving her more responsibilities. I suspect that he's thinking of an early retirement ..."

Lin Qiao chuckled and said, "isn't that better?" By then, you can marry a rich woman!"

"I would rather Qingxue not be so busy." Xia ruofei said, "isn't it good to be more carefree?"

Lin Qiao couldn't help but roll her eyes at Xia ruofei. "Do you think everyone has a good life like yours? You're the boss, but you don't show up at the company for ten days to half a month, and your subordinates take care of everything for you. What's even more unreasonable is that your business is getting better and better by the day!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "that's why!" A truly capable person is definitely not one who works hard ..."

After everyone chatted for a while, Tang Haoran felt a little sleepy, so he decided to go back to his room to rest.

Since Lin Qiao wanted to enjoy the sunrise on the sea, Tyrannosaurus would not return tonight. Everyone would stay on the yacht.

Originally, Tang Yitian wanted to leave the spacious master bedroom for Xia ruofei, but Xia ruofei firmly declined.

Tang Yitian was the master, and they were a family of three, so the master bedroom was the most suitable.

Helplessly, Tang Yitian could only agree. He personally took Xia ruofei and Lin Qiao back to their rooms and then went back to the bedroom.

At night, Xia ruofei sat on the bed in the guest room. He absorbed all the innate pure Yang Qi that he had absorbed from Tang Haoran's body in the morning and turned it into his own genuine Qi.

Although the amount of innate pure Yang Qi He absorbed this time was much less than the previous two times, it still allowed Xia ruofei's cultivation to improve by a large margin. He could already faintly feel the bottleneck of Qi disciple Level 4.

From now on, even if there was no more innate pure Yang Qi to absorb, Xia ruofei was confident that he could break through to Qi disciple Level 5 within two to three months. Of course, the premise was that he had to cultivate in the spirit map space without damaging the foundation.

At eleven o'clock at night, Xia ruofei sat cross-legged on the bed and began his first cultivation in the outside world.

At midnight, Xia ruofei could clearly feel that the spiritual Qi between heaven and earth had become much more active. He immediately used the great Dao technique and began to absorb the free spiritual Qi in the air.

When he started to use the cultivation method, the moonlight on the ocean surface seemed to shiver slightly and then gathered towards the yacht. At the same time, Xia ruofei could clearly feel the spiritual Qi in the surroundings slowly increasing. He was happy and started to focus on the cultivation method again, swallowing the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth and the moonlight that he had attracted.

Chapter 959: Jennifer's advice (1)

After the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth and the moonlight entered his meridians through his aperture acupoints, they were slowly transformed into pure true Qi under the operation of his mental cultivation method.

Xia ruofei was fully focused on his cultivation and time passed by slowly.

Unknowingly, Xia ruofei felt the spiritual Qi of heaven and earth suddenly become less and more chaotic. He stopped his cultivation and opened his eyes. He raised his hand to look at his watch. It was already one in the morning. Midnight had passed.

This was Xia ruofei's first time cultivating in the outside world. Overall, he felt slightly better than he had expected and his cultivation had improved.

Compared to absorbing the innate pure Yang Qi in the spirit map space, this improvement was almost negligible, and the difference in the energy absorbed was like that of a large river and a small stream in the mountains. However, it was still effective.

As long as he could cultivate in the outside world and his cultivation would not stagnate, Xia ruofei would be satisfied.

Of course, he was mainly concerned about Tang Haoran.

After all, he could still occasionally enjoy a "feast" in the spirit map space, but Tang Haoran could only work hard in such a harsh cultivation environment.

Xia ruofei also decided to speed up the cultivation of his spiritual power and genuine Qi. He wanted to carve the spirit – gathering Talisman As Soon As Possible so that he and his disciple would have more resources for cultivation.

After taking a shower in the bathroom, Xia ruofei went to bed to rest.

At five in the morning, Xia ruofei opened his eyes on time.

The hour of the dawn was the time when the red sun rose, and it was also the most suitable time of the day for cultivation.

He got up and sat up. He first released his spiritual power, and soon, he sensed a familiar aura. He could not help but smile in relief.

It was Tang Haoran, who was resting in the master bedroom next door. Xia ruofei noticed that Tang Haoran had woken up early and was already practicing the "fierce yang Scripture".

Xia ruofei sensed for a while and found that Tang Haoran's breathing was very stable. He was relieved and started to cultivate on his bed.

It was not until Seven o'clock in the morning when Xia ruofei finally stopped. He stood up, washed his face, and walked out of the cabin.

During breakfast, Xia ruofei was inevitably ridiculed by Lin Qiao again because she had woken up early to enjoy the magnificent sunrise on the sea.

However, Xia ruofei had already planned to cultivate at dawn, so he told Lin Qiao last night that he was going to sleep in and didn't want to see sunrise. That was why Lin Qiao didn't come to disturb Xia ruofei in the morning.

After breakfast, Xia ruofei said to Tang Haoran, ""Haoran, come with me for a moment."

"Yes, master!" Tang Haoran immediately stood up.

The master and disciple went straight back to the cabin that Xia ruofei had stayed in yesterday.

Tang Yitian, Jennifer, and even Lin Qiao all knew that Xia ruofei was teaching Tang Haoran the cultivation method. Although they still couldn't understand the magic of the cultivation method, the scene of Tang Haoran being unable to control his strength yesterday and directly breaking the metal soft tube of the shower head was enough to shock them.

Hence, when Xia ruofei asked Tang Haoran to leave alone, they were not dissatisfied with Qianqian's magical technique. Tang Haoran was already very lucky to have learned it in his previous life. Of course, Xia ruofei would avoid them.

In fact, Xia ruofei's thoughts were not that complicated. It was just that Tang Yitian and the others, including Lin Qiao, were not cultivators. It was better for them to know less about cultivation. Besides, Xia ruofei was a person who liked to keep a low profile. He was not used to teaching his disciples in front of others.

After returning to the cabin, Xia ruofei smiled and asked, ""Haoran, how did you feel about your cultivation today?"

"Master! The effect seems to be very average!" Tang Haoran said with a bitter face.

Xia ruofei laughed and scolded him, "you little brat, do you think that every time you cultivate, it'll be like the first time you absorb the innate pure Yang Qi?" Today's state is the normal state of cultivation. The path of cultivation is not that easy to walk in the first place, so I ask you to persevere every day, and you must not slack off!"

"Yes!" Tang Haoran said sensibly. I know, master!"

Xia ruofei beckoned for Tang Haoran to come over and check on his cultivation.

After using his spiritual power to investigate, Xia ruofei discovered that the true Qi in Tang Haoran's body was very pure. It did not become impure because of the individual cultivation this morning. In fact, there was some improvement compared to yesterday. He could not help but nod in satisfaction.

Although the "scorching sun Scripture" was not as good as the "great Dao chant", it was also a superior cultivation technique. As long as Tang Haoran cultivated it steadily, the possibility of something going wrong was still very low.

From the results of the first day of cultivation, Xia ruofei was quite satisfied.

"Haoran, you've done well in today's cultivation," Xia ruofei said, "you're still young, so you can't rush your cultivation. You have to lay a solid foundation and sharpen your knife so that it won't delay your work. Do you understand?"

Xia ruofei would be leaving Australia in a few days, so whenever he had the chance, he would give Tang Haoran a few words of advice, whether it was the principles of cultivation or life. After all, Tang Haoran was still too young. He was at the age where he should establish his own outlook on life and values. Xia ruofei did not want Tang Haoran to have any deviation in his growth path.

This was the first disciple he had ever taken in, and the first disciple he had ever taken in so far.

"I'll remember it, master!" Tang Haoran immediately said. Don't be impatient, you have to lay a good foundation!"

Chapter 960: Jennifer's advice (2)

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "that's a good conclusion." It doesn't matter if your cultivation progress is slow in the early stages, and you don't have to worry about the lack of spiritual energy. Master will find a way to solve it in the future. "

Tang Haoran's eyes lit up when he heard that. He said happily, "I know, thank you, master!"

"Alright, let's go out and play!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

After all, Tang Haoran was still a child. He was more playful. Lin Qiao had said that they were going fishing during breakfast. So, when Xia ruofei opened his mouth, Tang Haoran immediately greeted Xia ruofei and ran out.

Xia ruofei smiled and shook his head. He then left the cabin.

Lin Qiao had already taken her fishing rod and was fishing excitedly at the stern of the ship. Xia ruofei was lying on the deck chair and enjoying the Australian winter sun.

After playing for a while, Lin Qiao gained little.

She had only caught two finger – sized clownfish in total, and she finally lost her patience.

Thus, Jennifer proposed to go swimming in the sea, which was immediately responded to by Lin Qiao.

Lin Qiao grew up in a fishing village by the coast of the three mountains, so swimming was not a problem for her. However, she had never swam in the beautiful sea of a foreign country, so she was naturally very interested in it.

Although it was still winter in Australia, the temperature was still very high near noon. Young people were in good health, so swimming in the sea was naturally not a problem.

"Jennifer, I didn't bring my swimsuit!" Lin Qiao frowned.

"There are swimsuits on the yacht," Jennifer said with a smile. "Come with me to pick one!"

Lin Qiao subconsciously looked at Jennifer's proud peaks. Jennifer immediately understood and smiled, "Don't worry, I have swimsuits of all sizes here! Come with me!"

Lin Qiao's pretty face blushed slightly, but she did feel a little inferior. Although she was well developed, there was still a difference in her race. Compared to Jennifer, she was at least two sizes smaller.

She had only taken a glance subconsciously and did not expect Jennifer to see through her mind. She suddenly felt a little embarrassed.

Xia ruofei happened to hear their conversation and looked at Lin Qiao with a smile in his eyes.

Lin Qiao was even more embarrassed. She couldn't help but glare at Xia ruofei and said, "Brother ruofei, you lazy bum! You've been lying there for half a day! You're not allowed to be lazy this time. You have to go swimming in the sea too!"

"I don't know how to swim ..." Xia ruofei said with a bitter smile.

"Who are you trying to fool?" Lin Qiao pouted and said, "my brother told me that you guys wanted to do some armed swimming training! How can you not know how to swim?"

Xia ruofei laughed awkwardly. "Can I not go into the sea? I'm too lazy to move ..."

"No!" Lin Qiao and Jennifer said in unison.

Then, Jennifer said with a smile, "Xia, with such good sunlight and seawater, how can we not go to the sea and take a swim!"

"Alright, alright ..." Xia ruofei shrugged and stood up. "But if I drown, you have to save me ..."

Lin Qiao couldn't help but burst into laughter and said, "Don't worry! I won't drown you ..."

Then, Lin Qiao took Jennifer's hand and said, "Jennifer, let's go change into our swimsuits!"

Then, Lin Qiao turned to Xia ruofei and said, "Hurry up and change! Don't let the girls wait for you!"

"I know!" Xia ruofei waved his hand lazily.

Tang Yitian smiled and brought Xia ruofei to find a new pair of swimming trunks for him. Xia ruofei returned to the cabin, changed quickly, and walked to the stern of the ship.

At this time, Tang Yitian and Tang Haoran had already changed into their swimming trunks, but Jennifer and Lin Qiao had not come out yet.

Women were always more troublesome in this aspect. The two men, Xia ruofei and Tang Yitian, both expressed their understanding and sat at the stern of the ship, waiting patiently.

In the yacht's master bedroom, Lin Qiao looked at the swimsuits Jennifer took out with a blushing face and said, "Jennifer, this ... This is too ... Are there any one – piece swimsuits?"

Jennifer took out two – piece bikinis, and the fabric was quite economical. She felt embarrassed just by looking at Lin Qiao, let alone wearing them.

"Lin, I only have bikinis here!" Jennifer said with a smile.

"Ah?" Lin Qiao couldn't help but ask, "then what should we do? I ... I can't wear this out!"

Jennifer put her arm around Lin Qiao's shoulder and said with a smile, "Lin, you have such a good figure, why do you have to wrap it in a one – piece swimsuit? Bikinis suit you the best!"

"I ... We Chinese girls are more conservative. This swimsuit is too revealing ... I'm too embarrassed to wear it ..." Lin Qiao said with a red face.

Jennifer looked at Lin Qiao with a meaningful look and said, ""Lin, a girl's good figure should be shown to the person she likes! Believe me, when you go out in a bikini, Xia will definitely be fascinated by you!"

"Really? "Brother ruofei, he ..." Lin Qiao said subconsciously, but then she immediately came back to her senses and said with a red face, "Jennifer, don't talk nonsense ... He ... He's my brother!"

Jennifer said to Lin Qiao with a smile, ""But you're not blood – related, right?"

"We are not blood – related, but ..."

"No buts!" Jennifer said, "when you meet someone you like, you have to pursue them with courage, especially at an age like you where flowers bloom. If you're afraid of anything, you'll regret it in the future!"

Jennifer was Lin Qiao's idol, so Lin Qiao could still listen to her words.

"Thank you for your advice, Jennifer, but ... Brother ruofei already has a girlfriend ..." Lin Qiao said with a red face.

Jennifer shrugged and said, "so what?" It would be surprising if a man as outstanding as Xia didn't have a girlfriend!"

"But he's very close to sister Qingxue, and sister Qingxue is very good to me ..." Lin Qiao said. "And brother ruofei ... Really only sees me as his sister ... I can feel it!"

Jennifer put her hands on Lin Qiao's shoulders and said, ""Lin, you're only 19 years old. You still have a lot of time and unlimited possibilities for your future. It's not good to be hesitant at this age! Everything you said was an external factor, but you just have to follow your heart ..."

Lin Qiao's eyes showed a trace of confusion. After a long while, she shook her head and said with a smile, ""Jennifer, I'll consider your suggestion!"

Jennifer smiled and nodded. ""Alright! I know it's hard for you ... But what's the point of thinking so much? At least Xia will be yours for the next few days! He's here to travel with you!"

Lin Qiao's eyes brightened and she said with a smile, "That makes sense!"

"Do you still need a one – piece swimsuit?" Jennifer blinked at Lin Qiao and asked.

Lin Qiao blushed and said, "didn't you say you didn't have any?" Then let's go with a bikini!"

"This is right!" Jennifer said, "I'll help you pick one! Your skin is fairer, so I think this one is more suitable ..."

Xia ruofei and Tang Yitian waited for more than ten minutes before Jennifer and Lin Qiao finally arrived.

Both of them were covered in white bath towels and walked to the deck barefooted.

When Lin Qiao took off the bath towel and laid it on the recliner, Xia ruofei's eyes couldn't help but narrow.

Lin Qiao was wearing a pink polka – dot swimsuit. Her figure was actually very good, but she usually wore conservative clothes, so it was not obvious.

After changing into her swimsuit today, her good figure was fully displayed.

Although Xia ruofei only glanced at it subconsciously, he could not help but be moved and quickly looked away.

Xia ruofei didn't know what he was thinking, but he immediately turned his head to look at Tang Yitian. When he found that Tang Yitian's eyes were full of love and fell on Jennifer instead of Lin Qiao, he felt much more comfortable.

Lin Qiao naturally felt Xia ruofei's gaze. She was already a little shy, but now she felt even more embarrassed. She almost wanted to run back to the cabin to change her clothes.

However, she gritted her teeth and insisted on staying on the deck. She couldn't help but feel a trace of joy in the depths of her heart.

Jennifer gave Lin Qiao an encouraging look, and Lin Qiao also looked at Jennifer and then nodded gently.

Then, Lin Qiao looked at Xia ruofei and said, ""Brother ruofei, come and help me apply sunblock! I can't reach my back ..."
