Chapter 991: Delicious food in the jar (2)

Putting aside Xia ruofei's relationship with Ling Xiaotian, it was a big deal for a billionaire to cook for him.

When Xia ruofei saw the waiters serving the dishes, he suddenly remembered that he had prepared a Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup. He smiled and said, "Uncle Ling, please take care of Secretary song and the rest. I have also prepared a gift for your opening. Go and get it from the car."

Ling Xiaotian was stunned for a moment before he smiled and said, "You child, we're family, so why did you prepare a present ... Besides, it's not too late to take the present after dinner!"

Xia ruofei laughed. "My gift can only be given before the meal. Please wait a moment!"

Ling Xiaotian looked at song Qiming and smiled as he shook his head. "This child, she's keeping us in suspense ..."

"Young people! You're full of energy." Song Qiming smiled and said, "our Weiwei is too quiet. She's a girl and she likes to study ancient tombs and unsolved cases in history all day long ..."

Song Wei pouted and said, "Dad, aren't we talking about RUO Fei? Why are you talking about me again?"

Song Qiming laughed and said, "why can't I scold you?" Speaking of which, you're one or two years younger than RUO Fei!"

Xia ruofei quickly walked through the courtyards and arrived at the parking lot.

He took out the thermal box from the trunk and returned to flying Snow Pavilion.

"RUO Fei, what is that thing? You're so mysterious!" Ling Qingxue asked with a smile.

Xia ruofei laughed as he placed the thermal container on the table. He opened the buckle and said, "The answer will be revealed soon!"

With that, Xia ruofei opened the lid of the thermal container and put on a pair of heat – resistant gloves that he had prepared in advance. He then took out the small wine jar with the 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' inside.

Xia ruofei had kept them in suspense for so long that song Qiming's family and Ling Xiaotian's father and daughter's attention had long been drawn over. When they saw Xia ruofei take out a small Shaoxing wine jar, they all felt very strange.

Could it be that after all that effort, all he got was a jar of wine?

Only Ling Xiaotian was slightly surprised. If it was just a jar of wine, why would Yingying be so careful to keep it in a cooler box? He also noticed that Xia ruofei had put on heat – resistant gloves when he took the wine jar.

Thus, Ling Xiaotian immediately asked with some hesitation, ""RUO Fei, this ... This is the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup?"

The reason why he was a little hesitant was that he felt that it was a little too unexpected for his future son – in – Law to give him a jar of 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'. He was a chef with very good culinary skills. Moreover, Ling Ji private kitchen was a private kitchen Restaurant with the characteristics of Sanshan. It was natural that 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' was on the menu.

Under such circumstances, Xia ruofei would give a jar of 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' as a congratulatory gift? No matter how he thought about it, it felt a little strange.

Therefore, even though Ling Xiaotian had some guesses, he was not sure.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "it 's' Buddha Jumps Over the Wall '. However, my' Buddha Jumps Over the Wall 'is a little different from the' Buddha Jumps Over the Wall 'that you guys usually eat!" Since Secretary song is here today, I'll treat everyone to my cooking!"

Song Qiming said with great interest, ""This is the most famous dish in the three mountains! Did RUO Fei personally cook it? Then we'll have to try it ..."

Ling Xiaotian felt like laughing at the fact that he had been making 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' for decades. This kid actually used a jar of his own 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' as a congratulatory gift? This was really a bit of a loner!

However, he did not want to embarrass Xia ruofei in front of song Qiming's family. He smiled and said, ""I didn't expect RUO Fei to know how to cook! Then our Qingxue will be in for a treat in the future ..."

Ling Qingxue's face heated up, but her heart was filled with sweetness. She rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and said, ""How can his cooking skills be compared to yours! I think ..."

Ling Qingxue stopped mid – sentence as a unique fragrance began to fill the room. Xia ruofei had already opened the jar that was sealed with lotus leaves.

Sealing was also a crucial process in making the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup.

Obviously, Xia ruofei had done this almost perfectly.

When Xia ruofei took out the small Shaoxing wine jar, it looked ordinary and the taste inside did not leak out at all. However, when Xia ruofei opened the sealed lotus leaves at the mouth of the jar, the strong fragrance immediately attracted everyone's attention.

Even Ling Xiaotian was no exception.

He even took a few deep breaths without caring about his image, and his face revealed a look of surprise.

“Not bad, ruofei!” Song Qiming chuckled. Just the smell alone is enough to make me want to eat ...”

“Secretary song, Auntie Fang, please have a taste!” Xia ruofei said immediately.

After that, Xia ruofei called for the waiter to bring a few bowls over and personally served everyone food.

There were dozens of main ingredients and secondary ingredients in the ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’ dish. There was also some attention to the cooking. For example, precious ingredients such as abalone, sea cucumber, fish pond, and fish glue were naturally required in every bowl. In addition, the special pigeon eggs and pig’s feet were also distributed equally.

Soon, Xia ruofei had filled up a few large bowls. The waiter immediately came over to serve the bowls to song Qiming and the others.

After the stirring just now, the extremely alluring fragrance was even stronger.

Dozens of precious ingredients affected each other, and after the secret recipe of the Chinese medicine, the smell was very special, as if it could arouse the cravings in people’s hearts.

Song Qiming picked up his chopsticks and said with a smile, “”Ruofei, then we won’t be polite!”

Xia ruofei stretched out his hand and made a ‘please’ gesture. Then, he picked up a pair of chopsticks and started to cook ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’. This was his first time cooking ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’, and he did not even remove the seal after it was done. Hence, he was very excited to see what it would taste like.

The two youngest sisters – in – Law, Ling Qingxue and Song Wei, were the fastest. Even beautiful women could not resist the temptation of delicious food!

They quickly picked up their chopsticks and spoons, and chose the Tiger skin pigeon egg at the same time. They blew on it while putting it into their mouths. They carefully bit through the skin, tested the temperature, and then took a big bite.

On the other side, song Qiming, his wife, and Ling Xiaotian had also picked their favorite dishes and started tasting them.

After song Qiming tasted a piece of abalone, he immediately praised it. “”It tastes really good! RUO Fei, I’ve tried ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’ twice since I came to the three mountains, but it wasn’t as good as the one you made today!”

Song Qiming was the leader of the Provincial Party Committee. Although he had not been in office for a long time, he had attended some Foreign Affairs activities or press conferences to receive foreign guests. The ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’ that was served on such occasions was naturally the most authentic. It was custom – made directly from the origin of the ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’, juchun garden.

However, just as song Qiming had said, even the authentic 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' from juchun garden did not taste as good as the one he had made today.

After tasting the two pieces of duck meat, Fang Liyun also said a lot of words of praise.

Song Wei, Ling Qingxue, and Ling Xiaotian didn't express their opinions.

The two beautiful women were busy with their mouths. After eating the shark's fin, they immediately ate the sea cucumber and didn't have time to talk.

Ling Xiaotian was even more shocked.

He was the most experienced person today. He had only taken a bite of the fish gelatin in the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup and immediately felt that Xia ruofei's special gift was different from the rest.

Ling Xiaotian immediately savored the other ingredients carefully. Then, he closed his eyes, revealing an intoxicated expression.

After a long while, Ling Xiaotian finally said, "ruofei, I'm really in awe of you!" I've been a veteran chef who has been cooking 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' for decades. I feel like I've finally tasted the authentic 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' today ..."

Xia ruofei was a little embarrassed as he said, ""Uncle Ling, it's actually my first time ..."

Ling Xiaotian's eyes widened as he sighed, ""You ... Are too much of a blow!"

A burst of laughter suddenly came from the private room.

Ling Qingxue rolled her eyes at Xia ruofei and said, ""Dad, you're an expert. Tell us what's so special about ruofei's jar of 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'!"

Chapter 992: sitting on pins and needles (1)

Song Qiming and the others smiled and nodded. They all thought that Xia ruofei 's' Buddha Jumps Over the Wall 'was very delicious, but they could not put their finger on how it was good.

Among the people present, only Ling Xiaotian had the most say.

Ling Xiaotian looked at Xia ruofei with a complicated expression. He cleared his throat and said, ""Because the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall requires a very rich variety of ingredients, some people who don't understand this dish think that it's just a pot of stew. In fact, this is a big mistake! From the moment the ingredients were selected, the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup had to be meticulous. Some people say that it's already a cooking art. "

As Ling Xiaotian spoke, he used his chopsticks to pick up a few ingredients from his bowl and said, ""It's obvious that RUO Fei's Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup is a dish of perfection in the selection of ingredients! Especially the abalone, which is a very high – Quality reticulated abalone. The meat is soft and tough, and the taste is excellent. The other ingredients are also top – notch!"

Xia ruofei couldn't help but nod to himself. It seemed that his future father – in – Law was really a knowledgeable person!

Since the abalone had grown up in the sea of the spirit map space, it was undoubtedly the best among all the ingredients.

Ling Xiaotian continued, "The pre – processing of the ingredients is also the most important thing in the cooking process of the 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'. Even the order of placing and stewing is very particular. The process of processing single shark's fin was complicated. First, it had to be boiled, the sand had to be removed, the fat meat was covered, and then it was steamed in a steamer over a strong fire. When it was taken out, the fat meat had to be removed. Then, it was put together with the swelling of the abalone, fish belly, and fish lips, and then stewed in the prepared chicken soup to soften the taste. Of course, this is the process of processing the ingredients that I know. Perhaps ruofei has his own secret, which is why this jar of Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup is so different!"

Song Qiming and the others could not help but nod. An expert was indeed an expert. What he said made sense!

Ling Xiaotian looked at Xia ruofei, but he smiled and did not speak. It was as if he did not want to reveal the secret behind it.

Ling Xiaotian smiled and continued, "Let's take a look at this 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'. First, let's talk about the thick brown color of the soup. Moreover, the rich colloid of the ingredients has been boiled in the soup. After drinking the soup, everyone can even feel their lips being glued together. This means that the colloid of the ingredients has fully entered the soup."

"There are so many delicacies from the sea and mountains, but the taste is not invasive at all. The taste within the taste is wonderful, like the twists and turns of the Wuyi Mountain. There will be a feeling of twists and turns from time to time!" The more Ling Xiaotian spoke, the more passionate he became. "Shark's fin, abalone, chestnut, mushroom, pigeon's egg ... The taste is rich but not greasy, soft and smooth. One mouthful of it is rich, and the taste is endless!"

"Well said!" Song Qiming smiled and said, "after Chairman Ling's explanation, we finally realized that there are so many details in this small jar of 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'! If you can fly, you'll be amazing!"

Before Xia ruofei could say anything humble, Song Wei smiled and said, "I also have some feelings ... This warm, non – competitive, and long – lasting Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup is like the happiness of knowing destiny without doubts. It's as if time has turned into a taste, and it has been passed down for a hundred years!"

Xia ruofei laughed, "you guys ... You're all praising me too much ... Especially Song Wei. She's indeed a top student of Yanjing University! Your comments can be used as advertising lines!"

"Just use it!" Song Wei smiled. I won't charge you any copyright fees!"

Everyone laughed again. Xia ruofei called out, "Come, come, come, eat! The Buddha Jumps Over the Wall soup must be eaten while it's hot ..."

The main dish of the banquet tonight was Xia ruofei 's' Buddha Jumps Over the Wall ', as well as the Sanshan specialty that Ling Xiaotian had personally cooked.

Ling Xiaotian used a large amount of paradise brand vegetables to cook the dishes, and the wine he drank was naturally the specially made Drunken Eight Immortals, which Xia ruofei had added a solution from the petals of the spirit Heart Flower. He had also specially prepared two bottles of Semillon, which had been aged in the spirit map space, for the three ladies.

Therefore, the standard of tonight's banquet was quite high.

Even song Qiming's family, who had seen many things, ate with relish and praised the food.

The atmosphere of the dinner was quite good. Song Qiming did not put on any airs as a Secretary of the municipal Committee. He laughed and chatted with Ling Xiaotian, even asking about the business operations.

The Secretary's concern naturally made Ling Xiaotian very happy. He knew that from this day on, as long as his company operated legally in Sanshan city, he would not have to worry about those bad people.

Everyone chatted as they ate. The dinner lasted for three hours, and everyone seemed to have forgotten that there was a large group of people sitting on pins and needles in a private room outside.

Health, Industry and Commerce, taxation, safety supervision, urban management ... The leaders of the units who participated in the joint inspection today rushed to the Ling's private kitchen in half an hour.

Not only did the director of the health Bureau come, but the Deputy Director, Tian Feilong, also rushed over, dragging his fat body.

Guangzhi Cao didn't attend Xia ruofei's dinner because he had to deal with this matter. He only asked manager Lu to prepare a working meal for him.

As for Tian Mingyi and the others, manager Lu naturally would not care about their lives and would just let them go hungry.

In fact, none of these people could eat. They were all depressed.

When the directors arrived at Ling Ji's private kitchen, Guangzhi Cao was busy cooking a big bowl of seafood noodles.

Manager Lu was going to prepare a sumptuous meal, but Guangzhi Cao turned him down. As the Secretary of the leader, he wasn't qualified to be there. Even he wanted a bowl of noodles to eat, not to mention the official business that the Secretary had assigned to him.

Chapter 993: feeling like sitting on pins and needles 2

Guangzhi Cao was so insistent, so manager Lu had to follow his wishes. However, this bowl of seafood noodles was also personally cooked by the chef, and there was not much noodles in it. Most of it was high – Quality seafood. The bowl was almost full of ingredients like big Nine – Section shrimp, abalone, and so on.

Guangzhi Cao raised his head and looked at the leaders of the guilds. He said calmly, “All the leaders have arrived? Please go to the room next door to claim your own people! The Secretary has given instructions, so we’ll just wait in the room.”

These bureau chiefs didn’t have the mood to claim anyone! Although they were confused at the beginning, the call was made by the Secretary himself. Moreover, the matter involved Secretary song. Therefore, they had already called to understand the situation on the way.

These directors were all scared out of their wits, and in their hearts, they were even cursing the few people who participated in the “joint inspection.”

They just wanted to get some information from Guangzhi Cao. At least they wanted to know what the Secretary’s attitude was!

Director sun of the health Bureau hesitated for a moment and said carefully, “Director Cao, it’s all because of our poor management that our subordinates caused such a mess. They even offended Secretary song. This ...”

“You guys shouldn’t be saying this to me.” Guangzhi Cao finished the soup in his bowl. He put down his bowl and stood up. “Director sun, let’s wait for the Secretary to finish his meal and see what he has to say!”

Although these directors were all at the same level, Guangzhi Cao was more like a leader, and no one felt that it was out of place. How could the staff around a leader be judged by their level? Not to mention that they had a favor to ask of Guangzhi Cao.

Tian Mingyi’s father, Tian Feilong, who was the Deputy Director of the health Bureau, quickly said, “Director Cao, it’s all my fault for not disciplining my child enough. That’s why he’s in such a big mess. You have to help us! Otherwise, if the Secretary were to blame us ...”

Guangzhi Cao was polite to director sun and the others, but he didn’t show Tian Feilong any respect.

Tian Feilong’s son had even scolded Secretary song today. He was the instigator of today’s incident!

Guangzhi Cao’s face turned cold, and he asked, “Deputy Chief Tian, how do you want me to help you in this situation? I can tell you that the Secretary is very angry! Everyone better be mentally prepared! Alright, that’s all I have to say. Everyone, go claim your own people!”

In the officialdom, the word “vice” was usually removed from a person’s title. This was the most basic common sense. Guangzhi Cao had directly called Tian Feilong “Deputy Director Tian,” which showed that he hated this man.

When director sun and the others heard this, their hearts beat faster, and they all looked like they were about to cry.

However, they knew that they couldn’t count on Guangzhi Cao, so they had to go to the next room to find out more about the situation.

Thus, this group of bureau chiefs walked into the room next door with extremely angry feelings.

When the bureau chiefs saw the group of people who seemed to have lost their souls, they were instantly enraged.

This was especially true for Tian Feilong. He rushed up and gave Tian Mingyi a big slap. A clear handprint immediately appeared on Tian Mingyi's cheek. It was clear that he had not held back at all.

"Dad ..." Tian Mingyi was also stunned.

"Don't call me dad!" Tian Feilong was so angry that his entire body was trembling. "You bastard, will you only be happy when I'm dead?!"

As he spoke, Tian Feilong couldn't help but want to beat up this scammer.

Director sun frowned and said in a deep voice, "Old Tian, what are you doing? The most important thing now is to clarify the matter and quickly think of a way to remedy it!"

What director sun meant was, "if you want to teach your son a lesson, go home. Today, everyone is in trouble because of your son. Who would have the mood to watch you act like a parent?"

Tian Feilong's raised hand stopped in mid – Air, and he felt a little bitter. He could see that director sun was very dissatisfied with him.

Tian Feilong fiercely glared at Tian Mingyi and said, "Tell me everything that happened today. If you dare to hide anything, I'll beat you to death when I get home!"

Tian Mingyi didn't dare to hide anything! Secretary song had caught him red – handed.

Thus, he poured out everything that had happened today, and then said with a sad face, "Dad, I really didn't know that this shop had such a powerful background! I ... I didn't even know he was Secretary song ..."

After Tian Feilong heard this, his vision turned black and he almost fell to the ground.

The situation was a hundred times worse than he had imagined! His precious son had actually pointed at Secretary song's nose and scolded him. Furthermore, these guys had been caught red – handed by Secretary song. Under such circumstances, even if he had a glib tongue, he had no way of refuting it!

Moreover, with song Qiming's level, if he had made up his mind to deal with someone, would he need to listen to anyone's explanation?

Tian Feilong was very clear about his own condition. He simply couldn't stand being inspected.

He felt as if the sky was about to collapse.

After director sun and several other directors heard this, they looked at Tian Feilong and his son with dissatisfaction.

"What ... What should we do?" Tian Feilong mumbled as he held his head in his hands.

Director sun looked at Tian Feilong in disgust and said coldly, "What else can we do? We'll wait!"

After understanding the situation, director sun wasn't as worried as before that he would definitely be implicated in Wanwan's incident. After all, a director was in charge of the overall work, so he had to at least take responsibility as a leader. However, with Tian Feilong standing out, his situation wasn't as bad as he had imagined.

As for Tian Feilong, director sun had already sentenced him to death in his heart.

The atmosphere in the private room was unusually dull. No one spoke, and they just waited as if they were sitting on pins and needles.

Under such circumstances, time seemed to pass by very slowly. Everyone felt extremely tormented.

Most of these directors hadn't had time to eat dinner yet. Many of them had been called over by Guangzhi Cao from the entertainment venues. They waited until past nine o'clock. They were all hungry, but no one dared to complain.

As for manager Lu, he hated these people to the core, so he naturally wouldn't be kind enough to prepare dinner for them.

Now that he knew that Secretary song was personally supporting his store, he was quite confident.

At around 9:30, the door of the private room was suddenly pushed open.

Director sun and the others looked up at the same time. They saw Guangzhi Cao standing at the door, making a gesture for song Qiming to enter. Then, the tall figure of song Qiming strode in.

After song Qiming came in, Ling Xiaotian, his daughter, and Xia ruofei also came in. As for Fang Liyun and Song Wei, they did not come in to help song Qiming with his work. They had never participated or interfered with his work. It was a habit they had for many years.

Director sun and the others stood up immediately.

"Secretary song!"

"Good day, Secretary!"

Everyone greeted song Qiming guiltily.

Song Qiming's sharp gaze swept across the people in the room, then he asked calmly, "Everyone's here?"

"Secretary, all the directors and directors from seven different departments are here," Guangzhi Cao said immediately.

"Since we're all here, let's have a live meeting today!" Song Qiming nodded.

Then, song Qiming took out a stack of tickets and the notice of suspension of business from his pocket and said, "Comrades, this is a new restaurant that has only been open for less than a day. Whether it's the kitchen or the private rooms, they are almost spotless. However, our so-called joint inspection team found 10 to 20 problems and even issued a notice to close down for rectification! Is this a normal phenomenon?"

Song Qiming looked at everyone with dignity and continued, "Whichever unit issued the fine, the head of that unit will come and collect it! Take a good look at the absurd reasons and basis for punishment written here! If you're interested, you can go to the kitchen and private room that was fined by our public officials! Then ask yourself, is this how you serve the people?"

Then, song Qiming slammed the stack of penalty slips on the table.

It was as if this slap had hit the hearts of these directors, and everyone's heart trembled ...

Chapter 994: The real gift (1)

How would the directors dare to check again? They didn't even dare to look at the tickets, and even kept reflecting on themselves. Each of their attitudes were very fearful and reverent, as if they had made a huge mistake.

In fact, the directors all knew what these fines were.

Just now, Tian Mingyi didn't dare to hide anything and told him everything.

As for Tian Mingyi, inspector Wu, and the others, they were like frost – beaten eggplants. They all lowered their heads and didn't even dare to breathe.

Manager Lu, who was standing outside the door, felt an indescribable pleasure when he saw this group of people, who had been arrogant before, become like this.

Manager Lu had been working in the service industry for so many years and had suffered many similar vexations. Basically, as long as the government was in front of them, they were all big bosses. Today, manager Lu really had a feeling of being able to hold his head high. This was the first time in his life that he had experienced this feeling.

"Investigate this matter thoroughly!" Song Qiming said calmly. Give me your decision on how to deal with it tomorrow!"

"Yes, Secretary song!" The directors responded one after another.

They heaved a sigh of relief. At least, Secretary song had no intention of holding them responsible.

As for the life and death of director Wu and the others, these directors didn't care at all.

They had long hated this group of people in their hearts. Not to mention, after such a thing had happened, their political lives were long over. Who would care about them?

Secretary song was going to deal with the results tomorrow, and it had to be very strict. Otherwise, if the Secretary was not satisfied, the bureau chiefs would have to bear the consequences.

Not to mention that a few of them were contract workers, even if they were official civil servants, it was not a big deal to be fired.

They could only blame this group of people for being blind. They were used to being arrogant and domineering and had encountered many ghosts at night. This time, they had kicked an iron plate, no, it was simply a red – hot iron plate!

Therefore, the next day, the opinions on the handling of the personnel involved were quickly issued by each unit, and it was unprecedentedly strict.

All the contract – based employees were dismissed, and the public officials were also given various disciplinary actions according to the severity of the matter, such as being transferred from the city, etc. Tian Mingyi and director Wu were directly dismissed from public office.

After dealing with this group of people, the directors also secretly heaved sighs of relief.

However, what happened next proved that these bureau chiefs were happy too early.

The next day, song Qiming talked to the mayor, the Deputy Secretary, and a few other key members of the Standing Committee. Soon, a big rectification to strengthen the work style was carried out in full swing in the city.

The reorganization this time was mainly aimed at the bureaucratic style of some departments, which was “difficult to enter, ugly, and difficult to handle”, as well as the abuse of power by a few units and public officials.

The reorganization of the staff was the first fire that song Qiming started after he took office. This fire hurt many people. Many units and departments were used to doing this, but it had now become a work style problem.

The municipal Party Committee had sent many supervision teams to investigate the matter. Almost every day, a group of negative examples that violated the municipal Party committee’s style and rectification spirit would be publicized. Almost all the civil servants in Sanshan city were on tenterhooks, afraid that the sharp sword hanging over their heads would fall.

Many of the working units in Sanshan city were in high spirits. The citizens’ reactions were also quite excited. The public could feel the simplification of procedures and the strengthening of service awareness. Therefore, there were more and more praises for song Qiming, the new Secretary, on the local forums.

At the same time, under song Qiming’s instructions, the Sanshan City Commission for Discipline Inspection and the Procuratorate’s Anti – Corruption Bureau cooperated to carry out a series of secret investigations.

Just a week after the reorganization, the website of the municipal Commission for Discipline Inspection suddenly announced the news of many division – Level cadres being investigated for being suspected of breaking the law.

Among them were Tian Feilong, the Deputy Director of the health Bureau, and two other directors. Their people had also participated in the joint inspection team that day.

Director sun of the health Bureau was quite lucky. He was not found to have violated any discipline or law. However, his management of the unit was seriously inadequate, and the construction of the unit was in a mess. There was also a corrupt person like Tian Feilong. As the director, he could not absolve himself from the blame.

Soon, director sun was dismissed and transferred to the City Association of Science and Technology to serve as a Deputy Director who enjoyed the treatment of a director. This had already announced the end of his political life in advance. A director was the highest level he could reach in his life.

Of course, this was all a story for later.

They were secretly in awe of this newly opened restaurant and decided to remind their subordinates not to come and provoke this restaurant and cause trouble for themselves.

Flying Snow Pavilion.

Ling Xiaotian said to song Qiming gratefully, "Secretary song, thank you so much for today!"

Song Qiming smiled. "Chairman Ling, this incident was caused by an official's abuse of power. Strictly speaking, as the Secretary, I have to reflect on my actions!"

"Secretary song, you're being too serious ..." Ling Xiaotian said hurriedly. "We've seen a lot of things like this in our line of work, but not many of them are as reckless as today ..."

Song Qiming said sternly, "there will be fewer and fewer of these things in the future!" I've decided to carry out a major reorganization of the administration in Sanshan city, especially in some of the more influential units. I hope that Chairman Ling can keep an eye on our work!"

"Definitely, definitely ..." Ling Xiaotian said.

It was almost Teno' clock at night. Song Qiming and his family got up and prepared to leave.

At this moment, Xia ruofei took out the pills that he had prepared earlier and smiled. "Secretary song, this is the medicine for a course of treatment. I estimate that after this course of treatment, the toxins in the body should be cleared. After another course of treatment, it will be safe!"

Song Qiming quickly gestured for Fang Liyun to take the wrapped pills. He held Xia ruofei's hand tightly and said with gratitude, "RUO Fei, Wei Wei really has you to thank this time! No words can express my gratitude for your great kindness! I won't say any more!"

Song Qiming patted Xia ruofei's shoulder. He did not need to say anything.

Xia ruofei and the rest sent song Qiming and his family to the door and then returned to flying Snow Pavilion.

"Ruofei, you called us back ... Is there anything else?" Ling Xiaotian asked.

Xia ruofei chuckled as he took out the 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' secret recipe that he had copied down and passed it to Ling Xiaotian. Then, he smiled without saying a word.

Ling Xiaotian was confused. He took it and looked at it. His body trembled and he looked up at Xia ruofei. "RUO Fei, this ..."

Xia ruofei smiled and said, "uncle Ling, it's the first opening of Ling Ji's private kitchen. I can't really cook a dish as a gift!" This is the real congratulatory gift!"

Ling Xiaotian held the recipe as if he had obtained a treasure and said excitedly, "Ruofei, this gift is too precious! Uncle thanks you!"

Ling Xiaotian had long treated Xia ruofei as his son – in – Law, so he did not reject him politely.

Ling Qingxue's beautiful eyes also revealed a trace of splendor. She glanced at Xia ruofei flirtatiously. Xia ruofei also blinked at Ling Qingxue, as if asking her: Wife, my performance is passable, right?

Ling Xiaotian's attention was focused on the recipe, and he did not notice the young couple's affectionate looks.

He said rather excitedly, "it turns out that it's just some minor adjustments in the process. In addition, a few Chinese medicines were added. It can actually improve the taste by a large margin!" And I didn't taste any Chinese medicine at all, this is amazing!"

"Uncle Ling, this 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' can be the main signature dish of the Ling's private kitchen!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

"That's for sure!" Ling Xiaotian said, "I believe that with this dish, our Ling Ji's private kitchen's brand will be famous very soon! In the future, we'll have a place in the high – end F & B industry! RUO Fei! You're really sending charcoal in the snow!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "I got this recipe by chance. It won't be of any use to me. I thought it might be useful to uncle Ling, so ..."

"It's simply too useful!" Ling Xiaotian said happily.

"Uncle Ling, you have to think about keeping the recipe a secret!" Xia ruofei reminded him.

"I know that," Ling Xiaotian replied calmly. I definitely can't go to the kitchen to do specific things. I don't have the time! My apprentices are quite reliable, especially the head chef of Ling's private kitchen. He's my eldest apprentice and has been with me for more than twenty years. "

Xia ruofei nodded. "Since we're going to launch this dish at Ling Ji private kitchen, the head chef here must learn how to cook it. As long as you trust him, there's no problem."

"Ruofei, this is what I'm thinking." Ling Xiaotian said, "there is definitely no problem with my eldest disciple. He has been learning from me since he was young and has been working for me since I opened the small restaurant. After we set up the company, I also gave him some shares, so I have decided to pass this recipe to him first."

Ling Xiaotian paused for a moment before continuing, "After the Ling's private kitchen opens a branch in the future, I think we can select trustworthy chefs and learn the skills of pre – processing ingredients. The most important part, the Chinese medicine, will be supplied by this flagship store. This will minimize the possibility of leaking secrets."

"I think it's a good idea," Xia ruofei nodded. Uncle Ling, in the next few days, you can try out this secret recipe's cooking method with your eldest disciple. The main thing is to try to mix the medicinal herbs in the Chinese medicine packet, grind them into powder, and mix them together to see if it will affect the final taste. If it doesn't affect the final taste at all, it will be even less likely to leak out!"

If it was just a Chinese medicine packet, someone could roughly deduce the formula after opening it and analyzing it a little. However, if it was all ground into powder and mixed together, it would be difficult to completely crack it even with the use of equipment analysis.

After all, the composition of Chinese medicine was very complicated, and it wasn't purely medicinal.

"That's a good idea!" Ling Xiaotian slapped his thigh and said with a smile, "ruofei, you're really smart! I'll ask ah Ming to start preparing the ingredients tonight. Our main task for the next two days will be to try to cook 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'!"

In the Qingjiang villa district.

In Ling Qingxue's boudoir in Ling Xiaotian's huge Riverside Villa.

The moment Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue entered the house, they hugged each other tightly.

It was unknown if it was to give the two of them some space to be alone, but Ling Xiaotian did not return to the villa tonight. According to him, he had to process the ingredients together with his eldest disciple overnight to prepare the 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' dish the next day.

There were also a few resting rooms in the Ling's private kitchen, and Ling Xiaotian had said that he would be staying there for the night.

Xia ruofei was more than happy to hear that.

He had been in Australia for more than 20 days, and he had already tasted the taste of it. Now that his future father – in – Law had taken the initiative to create an opportunity for him, how could he let it go?

Hence, Xia ruofei immediately brought Ling Qingxue back to the mansion by the river.

The villa's central air – conditioning maintained the comfortable temperature of 26 degrees, but the two of them felt their body temperature constantly rising.

Suddenly, the warmth of spring filled the room ...

Chapter 995: Top – grade one – headed abalone (1)

The next day, the two of them only woke up late in the morning.

It was also the first time Xia ruofei did not wake up to cultivate in the morning. It was not because he was too tired from last night's crazy training, but because he was worried that he would wake Ling Qingxue up.

Ling Qingxue, who had been tormented like a pool of mud last night, was full of energy after a night's sleep. With Xia ruofei's nourishment, she seemed to be in a much better mood.

After the two of them had breakfast downstairs, Xia ruofei was about to drive Ling Qingxue back to the company when he received a call from Ling Xiaotian.

Last night, he was still making love to his daughter. After spending most of the night together, Xia ruofei could not help but feel a little guilty when he saw Ling Xiaotian's call.

Ling Qingxue leaned over to take a look, then looked at Xia ruofei with a half – Smile and said, ""Why aren't you picking it up?"

Xia ruofei chuckled and quickly pressed the answer button.

As soon as the call connected, Ling Xiaotian asked impatiently, ""RUO Fei, where are you?"

Xia ruofei's expression froze when he heard that. "Old Tarzan, aren't you asking the obvious?" You've clearly created an opportunity for us yesterday, so where else can I be?

"Uncle Ling, I ..."

Ling Xiaotian saw that Xia ruofei was hesitating and immediately asked, ""You're with Qingxue, right?"

"Ah ... Yes ..." Xia ruofei felt even more embarrassed.

He thought to himself, wasn't uncle Ling very supportive of our relationship? Why does his tone sound like he's going to condemn me? He couldn't help but feel a little nervous.

On the other end of the phone, Ling Xiaotian could not help but laugh and said, ""You child, what's there to be embarrassed about? It's just nice that you two are together. Now, let's have a meal at Ling Ji's private kitchen! Let's come over together!"

"Oh ... Good, good, good!" Xia ruofei quickly said.

His heart relaxed, and he didn't even dare to ask why Ling Xiaotian was looking for him. He hurriedly replied.

After hanging up the phone, Ling Qingxue finally could not help but burst out laughing. She glanced at Xia ruofei coquettishly and said, ""A guilty conscience ..."

Xia ruofei laughed and put his arm around Ling Qingxue's shoulder. ""Let's go! Summon of Mount Tai! Let's go to Ling Ji's private kitchen together. "

Ling Qingxue also felt a little strange and asked, ""Why is he in such a hurry to find us?"

Xia ruofei shrugged and said, "how would I know?" From his tone, he seems to be in a hurry. Let's go!"

"Let's go!" Ling Qingxue said hurriedly.

Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue drove to the Ling's private kitchen. As soon as they met, Ling Xiaotian said, ""RUO Fei, Qingxue, let's go! Come with me to the kitchen ..."

"Dad, what's the matter?" Ling Qingxue could not help but ask.

“You’ll know when you get there!” Ling Xiaotian chuckled.

With that, Ling Xiaotian walked straight ahead. Xia ruofei and Ling Qingxue exchanged a look and quickly followed.

When the three of them arrived at the kitchen, a middle – aged man wearing a white chef’s hat immediately came out to welcome them. This middle – aged chef did not look much younger than Ling Xiaotian, but he greeted him with great respect, “”Master!”

Ling Qingxue smiled and nodded, “senior brother Wu, what are you and my dad doing?” He called us over in a hurry early in the morning ...”

This senior brother Wu looked at Ling Xiaotian, and Ling Xiaotian chuckled and said, “”Ruofei, let me introduce you. This is my first disciple, Wu sihua. Sihua, this is Qingxue’s boyfriend, Xia ruofei!”

“Master,” Wu sihua quickly said, “it should be ready. Why don’t you go and take a look?”

“Hahaha! The expert was here! RUO Fei, go take a look!” Ling Xiaotian laughed.

“Uncle Ling, what’s the situation?” Xia ruofei could not help but ask.

Ling Xiaotian smiled and did not say a word. He led them into the kitchen and went straight to a charcoal stove. Inside the charcoal stove was charcoal with a small fire. On top of it was a small wine jar, and the jar’s mouth was sealed with layers of lotus leaves.

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but raise his eyebrows and said, “”Buddha Jumps Over the Wall? This ... How did you guys manage to process the ingredients so quickly?”

Ling Xiaotian laughed proudly and said, “”Our Ling Ji private kitchen also has ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’ on the menu, so before opening, some of the more time – consuming ingredients were already prepared in advance. Sihua and I were busy the entire night and re – prepared it according to your recipe. Then, we placed it on the charcoal stove and slowly stewed it overnight!”

“It’s mainly because the herbs aren’t easy to find,” Wu sihua said. “Many Chinese medicine shops have closed. Master personally drove all the way to Sanshan city to buy the herbs he needed ...”

Xia ruofei nodded and asked, “uncle Ling, to be honest, it was my first time making ‘Buddha Jumps Over the Wall’ yesterday. So ... All of you participated in the production of the whole process. I think you should control the heat yourself!”

Ling Xiaotian nodded and looked at his watch, “”It’s about time. Sihua, pick it up!”

“Yes, master!” Wu sihua quickly put on a pair of mittens and took the small wine jar off the charcoal stove.

Ling Xiaotian looked at it with some excitement, then said, ""Open it!"

Wu sihua immediately Cut the Rope carefully and opened the sealed lotus leaves layer by layer. Suddenly, a strong and unique fragrance wafted out. Wu sihua, who had come into contact with the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall for the first time, couldn't help but sniffle.

Ling Xiaotian and Ling Qingxue were doing the same thing. Ling Xiaotian chuckled and said, ""This fragrance is similar to the one from yesterday!"

Xia ruofei smiled. "We'll know if it's a success or not after we try it."

"That makes sense!" Ling Xiaotian said. Then, he immediately asked Wu sihua to bring the utensils, spoons, and spoons.

Wu sihua made a few bowls of 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'. Ling Xiaotian immediately took a bowl and blew on it gently for a while. When the soup cooled down a little, he immediately scooped up a spoonful of soup and put it into his mouth. Then, he quickly picked up a piece of tendon and put it in his mouth to chew quickly.

The joy on Ling Xiaotian's face gradually spread. As he ate, he mumbled, ""You guys should try it too!"

Xia ruofei and the other two immediately picked up their bowls. Although they had just had breakfast, Xia ruofei was still attracted by the aroma.

Wu sihua, who was next to him, had been making 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' for more than ten to twenty years, but this was the first time she had smelled such a strong fragrance. She couldn't wait to try it.

"Congratulations! Uncle Ling!" Xia ruofei put down his bowl and said with a smile, "this 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' is a great success!"

"It tastes the same as last night 's!" Ling Qingxue also said happily.

Wu sihua was still shocked by the deliciousness of the 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall', and her face was filled with disbelief.

Ling Xiaotian laughed happily and said, "that's great!" That's great! Qingxue, sihua, immediately adjust the promotional page of Ling Ji's private kitchen and make this 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' our signature dish. You must write down the secret recipe, the authentic 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall', and so on! The company's official website must also focus on promoting it!"

"Alright!" Ling Qingxue and Wu sihua immediately responded.

Ling Xiaotian, Ling Qingxue, and Wu sihua began to discuss the details of promoting the 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'. Hence, Xia ruofei said goodbye to Jian Jia with a smile. Although he was Jian Jia's son – in – Law – to – be, he did not have much experience in running a restaurant business. He would not be of much help even if he stayed.

The recipe of 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall' was the best gift.

Ling Xiaotian sincerely expressed his gratitude to Xia ruofei and personally sent Xia ruofei off with Ling Qingxue.

After bidding farewell to Ling Xiaotian and the other two, Xia ruofei started the car and returned to Taoyuan farm.

Xia ruofei had been away from Huaxia for more than 20 days and had accumulated a lot of work.

It was almost time to harvest the Dendrobium candidly. The batch of Drunken Eight Immortals wine was about to be delivered and a new batch of wine was about to be brought in. Jiang Hua had also mentioned the Chinese perch cultivation workshop many times. It was time for Xia ruofei to find time to prepare a batch of Chinese perch. Otherwise, this dedicated subordinate of his would 'rebel'.

It was also time to add some spirit Heart Flower petal solution to the farm's reservoir and the Pomfret cultivation workshop's water circulation pool.

Xia ruofei had to do all this by himself and no one else could.

As for the pharmaceutical factory, although Xue Jinshan had been keeping an eye on it, Xia ruofei had always been concerned about this project. As the boss, he had to take some time to understand the situation. This also showed that he attached great importance to it!

Besides, Xia ruofei still had a few things to do.

For example, Xia ruofei had already prepared the Phoebe zhennan wood that he had promised Mr. Tang He in the medium. It was almost time to contact him.

This was a huge sum of money and could maintain a good relationship with a giant Financial Group like shengbang group. Naturally, Xia ruofei would pay great attention to it.

Also, after another 20 days or so in the outside world, the quality of the reticulated abalone that he had experimented with cultivating in the spirit map space's primal realm had basically reached the standard of a one – headed abalone.

Xia ruofei had decided to make dried abalones and sell them in the next few days. Although the Kasaya was just an experimental product, it still took a lot of Xia Qing's energy. It was very troublesome to change the water between the two spaces, not to mention that there were people watching over them, so naturally, they couldn't waste them.

Xia ruofei briefly sorted out the work that he had to complete in the near future and felt a headache.

After he was discharged from the Army, he became a little lazy and wished that everything could be handed over to his subordinates to do, while he himself was a hands – off manager.

However, the spirit map space was his top secret, and there were always many things that he had to do personally.

In the next few days, Xia ruofei instructed Xia Qing to turn all the abalones that he had been cultivating in the Archean realm into dried abalones.

Soon, Xia Qing followed Xia ruofei's instructions and made all the 30 abalones into dried abalones.

These dried abalones were generally larger than the size of an adult's palm. After precise weighing, all 25 of them were more than the standard of a one – Head abalone, except for five slightly smaller ones that weighed more than 590 grams, which were a little less than 604.79 grams, which was one Sima Jin.

Most of the one – Head abalones weighed about 610 to 620 grams, and there were 20 abalones in this range.

The remaining five all weighed more than 630 grams, and the heaviest one even reached about 650 grams. It was definitely a Super One – headed abalone.

After Xia ruofei received Xia Qing's divine sense voice transmission, he immediately entered the space to personally check on this batch of abalones. He was quite excited.

This kind of top – grade abalone was hard to come by. Xia ruofei knew that he could not sell it through ordinary sales channels.

The best way was naturally to auction it.

Not only could he maximize his own benefits, but it could also easily create a sensational effect and further enhance the influence of the Paradise brand.

As for the location of the auction, Xia ruofei had already decided in his heart. It would be Hong Kong.

Because Hong Kong was a distribution center for high – Quality abalones, and Hong Kong people had a long history of eating abalones, high – Quality abalones were much more popular in Hong Kong people than in China.

In Hong Kong, there was a saying that "it's hard to buy a two – headed abalone with a thousand pieces of gold." This showed how much they loved the best abalones.

As for one – Head abalones, they were basically extinct on the market and couldn't be bought even if you had money.

Many Hong Kong people even treated the top – Quality abalone as a family heirloom.

Xia ruofei believed that if he took out more than 20 one – headed abalones at once, it would definitely cause a sensation in Hong Kong.

Of course, there was another important reason why he chose Hong Kong. MA Xiong's Hengfeng group was based in Hong Kong. MA Xiong had a great influence in Hong Kong's upper – Class society. With his help, Xia ruofei believed that the auction would go smoothly.

Chapter 996: Even a billionaire is scared (1)

The call went through very quickly, and MA Xiong's hearty and enthusiastic voice came through the receiver, ""Xia Sheng, how are you?"

“Old Mr. MA, I feel full of vigor when I hear your voice!” Xia ruofei laughed and said, “it seems that you’ve been in good health recently!”

MA Xiong laughed and said, “that’s all thanks to Xia Sheng!” If it wasn’t for your miraculous hands of rejuvenation, I would have been living in the small box long ago!”

When MA Xiong had a sudden severe cerebral hemorrhage, his son, Ma Zhiming, and his daughter – in – Law, Tian Huixin, happened to be with Xia ruofei. It was Xia ruofei who had accompanied the two of them to Hong Kong overnight and used a solution of the spirit Heart Flower petals to pull him back from the gates of hell.

MA Xiong’s life was saved by Xia ruofei. Furthermore, Xia ruofei had a good relationship with Tian Huilan’s family, so MA Xiong was grateful and close to Xia ruofei.

“One is bound for good fortune after surviving a great disaster!” Xia ruofei smiled and said, “old Mr. MA will definitely live to a hundred years old!”

“Hahaha! Since miracle doctor Xia has said so, I can rest assured!” MA Xiong said happily.

“Xia Sheng, is there anything I can help you with today?” he asked.

Xia ruofei hurriedly replied, “you’re too kind, old Mr. MA. I wouldn’t dare to accept your service!” However, I do have something that I need your help with. You’re highly respected in Hong Kong, and only you can help me with this!”

Xia ruofei’s polite words made MA Xiong very happy. He immediately asked, ““Oh? Xia Sheng, tell me about it. As long as it’s within my means, I’ll definitely do my best to help!”

“I hope to hold an auction in Hong Kong, but the item is a little special ...” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

“Hahaha! Xia Sheng, I still have some influence in Hong Kong. No matter how special the auction item is, as long as it’s valuable, I’ll definitely help you!” MA Xiong said without hesitation. Then, he asked curiously, “xiasheng, what’s the special auction item you mentioned?”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “it’s dried abalone, the best dried abalone!” To be more precise, it’s a top – grade one – headed abalone!”

On the other end of the phone, MA Xiong fell silent.

It was not that Xia ruofei’s request was difficult for him, but he was so shocked by the news that he forgot he was on the phone with Xia ruofei.

One – headed abalone! This was something that only existed in legends. Even though MA Xiong was a billionaire, he couldn’t buy such a high – Quality abalone even if he had the money!

MA Xiong had lived for decades. He had been in the upper class of Hong Kong when he was young. However, even with his social status, he had only seen one – headed abalone two or three times in the past decades. Each time, there would only be one or two. He had only tasted one – headed abalone once!

Xia ruofei wanted to auction off a one – headed abalone?

“Old Mr. MA! Old master Ma!”

Xia ruofei’s voice brought MA Xiong back to his senses. He quickly said, “I’m sorry, Xia Sheng. Your news really shocked me, so I lost my composure ...”

“It’s fine, it’s fine.” Xia ruofei chuckled and said, “then ... About the auction ...”

“Xia Sheng, you’re not joking with me, are you?” Although MA Xiong knew it was a little impolite, he still couldn’t help but ask, “are you sure you want to auction off a one – headed abalone?”

Xia ruofei couldn’t help but laugh. “Of course! How could I possibly make such a joke with you?”

“Then, the breed of the abalone ...”

“It’s an abalone!” Xia ruofei said without hesitation, “all the one – headed abalones I have are dried abalones made from high – Quality reticulated abalones!”

Many high – end three – headed abalones and two – headed abalones were reticulated abalones. MA Xiong was even more excited when he heard this. He immediately sensed the hidden message in Xia ruofei’s words.

“Xia Sheng, you mean ... You have more than one one one – headed abalone?” MA Xiong asked excitedly.

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “old Mr. MA, to be honest, I have a total of 30 of these dried abalones. However, 25 of them are one – headed abalones. The remaining five are about 10 to 20 grams of difference!” We’re very close!”

MA Xiong was once again in shock.

When did one – headed abalones become so cheap that they could be produced in batches?

Twenty – five one – headed abalones? The other five were only ten or twenty grams away from the standard of a one – headed abalone.

MA Xiong felt like his brain was not working.

Fortunately, after Xia ruofei had treated him the last time, the spirit Heart Flower petal solution had cleared all the hidden dangers in his brain and even had a great nourishing effect. Otherwise, his cerebral vessels would have ruptured again in such a state of agitation.

However, MA Xiong was not dazed this time. He quickly asked excitedly, “Xia Sheng, can I send someone over to see the abalone? Don’t misunderstand, it’s not that I don’t trust you, but if we’re going to hold an auction, we’ll still need to confirm it first, and ... We’ll also need to collect some photos, videos, and the like of the auction items for some publicity ...”

Xia ruofei smiled and said, “no problem!” You can send people over at any time, just come directly to the farm!”

“Alright then!” MA Xiong said. I’ll immediately give the order! As for the auction in Hong Kong, I’ve also sent people to prepare for it!”

MA Xiong had absolute trust in Xia ruofei. Besides, he had seen Xia ruofei take out many top – Quality truffles last year. Therefore, he was immune to Xia ruofei’s miracles.

“Old Mr. MA, thank you!” Xia ruofei said, “I’m not familiar with Hong Kong. Without your help, I wouldn’t be able to organize this auction!”

“Xiasheng, you don’t have to be so polite,” MA Xiong quickly said. “You’re helping our Hengfeng group!” It would definitely cause a sensation if so many top – Quality one – headed abalones were auctioned at the same time! By hosting this auction, we can also gain a lot of reputation!”

“Hahaha! This is a win – win situation!” Xia ruofei said with a smile.

“Yes, yes, yes, a win – win situation!” MA Xiong also laughed.

The two of them discussed some more details and then hung up.

Xia ruofei did not plan to start the auction immediately. After all, it would take time to prepare and promote the auction. He also took the time to deal with some urgent work at hand so that he could have time to go to Hong Kong.

After Xia ruofei made up his mind, he got up and left the villa. He went to the chairman’s office in the complex.

The Dendrobium candida and baby salamander fish would be ready in the next two days. In addition, Paradise Farm, which was far away in Australia, would soon begin large – scale planting. Xia ruofei needed the administrative office to contact Australia in advance and calculate the required seeds. He had to make preparations in advance.

All these tasks had to be arranged, so Xia ruofei came to the office to deal with them.

He sat down in his office chair and was about to call Feng Jing to gather all the relevant people for a meeting when he heard a knock on the door.

Chapter 997: Little tea leaf, the king (1)

Xia ruofei had already grabbed the phone, but put it down when he heard the knock on the door. He raised his voice and said, “Please enter!”

“Brother Xia!”

Xia ruofei heard a familiar voice and immediately looked up.

It was Ye Lingyun, who had been learning tea – making skills from Li Zhifu on Mount Wuyi for the past few months.

Xia ruofei immediately smiled. He stood up and took a few steps forward. He extended his fist and lightly punched Ye Lingyun’s chest. Then he said, “You’re finally back!”

“Brother Xia, I’m back to report for duty!” Ye Lingyun laughed.

When Xia ruofei returned from Australia, Lei Hu informed him of ye Lingyun's return. However, he stayed in the office for a while the next day and left after listening to Feng Rao's report. After that, he was busy preparing for the Buddha Jumps Over the Wall for the entire day. Including this time, ye Lingyun had actually come three times and finally found Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei sized him up and said with a smile, "You brat, you've turned black!"

"Hehe! I often go to the tea mountain with master!" Ye linyun smiled.

Xia ruofei took out the special Agent cigarette that elder song had given him and threw one to ye Lingyun. He then took out a cigarette for himself. Ye Lingyun skillfully took out a lighter first and lit Xia ruofei's cigarette. He then lit his own.

Xia ruofei took a deep breath and exhaled a cloud of smoke. He then pointed at the sofa with the cigarette in his hand and said, "Sit down and talk!"

After the two of them sat down, Xia ruofei asked, "How much of old Mr. Li's tea – making skills have you learned?"

Ye Lingyun stuck out his chest. "Brother Xia, I don't know how much I've learned, but master said that I can finish my apprenticeship. Although I'm still a little lacking, I need to accumulate experience continuously. It's impossible to achieve it overnight."

Xia ruofei nodded and said, "it seems that you've learned well!"

Then, Xia ruofei looked at ye Lingyun meaningfully and asked, "Ling Yun, since you've graduated from old Mr. Li's tutelage, I believe that the tea factories on Mount Wu Yi will be fighting to have you as their chief tea master!"

Mr. Li Zhifu was like a living monument in the tea industry of Mount Wuyi. He was the absolute authority in the ancient Da Hong Pao production. However, he had publicly announced that he would not leave the mountain again.

Then, ye Lingyun, the last disciple that old Mr. Li had accepted publicly, and a qualified one at that, would definitely be fought over by the tea factories to hire him.

Ye linyun smiled in embarrassment. "There are a few that have this intention."

"The salary is very high, right?" Xia ruofei asked with a smile.

"En!" Ye Lingyun nodded. "The highest offer is five hundred thousand!"

"This is incredible!" Xia ruofei couldn't help but whistle. Then, he smiled and asked, "then why did you come back? He might as well stay there and develop his career! Otherwise ... Why would he come back and continue to be the head of security after learning all that?"

"Brother Xia, I was sent out by the company to learn. Of course I'm coming back now that I've finished my studies!" Ye Lingyun replied without hesitation. Besides ... No matter how high the salary offered by those tea factories was, how could they have a future as bright as working for brother Xia? Not to mention that there are so many comrades here!"

Xia ruofei laughed. "You little rascal. Should I praise you or call you stupid?"

"I'm going to stay in the company until brother Xia kicks me out!" Ye Lingyun chuckled.

Xia ruofei patted ye Lingyun's shoulder and said, "Good brother! Then, he could work hard at paradise Corporation! I, Xia ruofei, will definitely not mistreat my brothers!"

"Of course ..." Ye linyun said with a smile.

"By the way, you've been away for a few months. I have to test you!" Xia ruofei said with a smile.

After saying that, he reached out and took out a small tea can from the small ice bar next to him and said, "You make tea! Pinpin, what do you think of my tea leaves?"

"Yes!" Ye Lingyun said bluntly.

Then, he opened the can of tea leaves, picked up a wooden spoon from the coffee table, and skillfully scooped out a spoonful of tea leaves and put it into the purple clay teapot. He looked at the ordinary barrelled water connected to the tea tray, and a hint of hesitation appeared in his eyes.

Xia ruofei knew what ye Lingyun was hesitating about, so he smiled and said, "There's nothing wrong with the water. It's spring water!"

On the surface, the water in Xia ruofei's office did not look like that. However, in reality, he had thrown away the original pure water and replaced it with the spirit pool water in the spirit map space. If this water was used to make tea, it would definitely improve the quality of the tea.

Ye linyun didn't hesitate and immediately pressed the button. The spirit pond water in the bucket was drawn into the kettle and began to heat.

Ye Lingyun had not only learned how to make tea from li Zhifu, but his skills in making tea were also not bad.

After the water was boiled, ye Lingyun's movements were as smooth as floating clouds and flowing water. Soon, the office was filled with the strong fragrance of tea.

Ye linyun couldn't help but sniffle before he even tasted it, revealing a look of surprise.

Ye Lingyun quickly prepared two small cups of tea and placed one in front of Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei smiled and gestured for him to taste the tea first.

So ye Lingyun picked up the teacup with his fingers, first leaned close to smell the tea, blew on it, and then poured all the tea into his mouth.

The tea stayed in his mouth for a while before ye Lingyun swallowed it all. He then said in surprise, "Brother Xia, your Da Hong Pao is of very high quality! It's almost the same as the tea that master made last time, but the taste seems to be a little different ... Where did you get such good tea leaves!"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "the main thing is that Cha Qing is good!"

Then, Xia ruofei looked at ye Lingyun and asked, "The company's security Department can't do without you. I've always kept the position of head of security for you, but ... If you're willing, you can get a set of tea – making tools on the farm. I can get some of these tea leaves. Are you interested in trying your skills?"

Ye linyun replied without hesitation, "What else is there to say? He would definitely be interested! This kind of Tea Green was something that could only be encountered by luck! Brother Xia, can you really get Tea Green of the same quality?"

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "why Would I Lie to You?" Since you're so enthusiastic, don't blame me for squeezing you dry. There are still some empty rooms at the Ironhide fengdou production workshop. I'll get them to give you two rooms, and you can start buying the tea – making tools today! I'll talk to the finance department, and you can directly advance the funds from the account! When you're ready, let me know and I'll prepare tea leaves for you!"

"Yes!" Ye Lingyun stood up excitedly and saluted Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei laughed and said, "Alright, alright, look at how happy you are!" Don't say I didn't warn you, and don't complain about being tired!"

"Don't worry, brother Xia! I'm not afraid of being tired! "I'm just afraid that I have nothing to do ..."Ye Lingyun said with a smile.

"That's good!" Xia ruofei smiled and said, "by the way, you can find a few smart comrades to help you. Then, consciously bring them along. If the quality of the tea leaves is good, I will consider increasing the business of tea leaves."

Hearing this, ye linyun became even happier and said impatiently, "Alright! Brother Xia, I'll go and make the preparations ..."

"Go on, go on!" Xia ruofei waved his hand and said with a smile.

Ye Lingyun left in high spirits, so Xia ruofei got up and called Feng Jing to ask her to gather the supervisor in charge to the meeting room for a meeting.

Chapter 998: It's rare to be competent for once_1

Soon, Feng Rao gathered Jiang Hua, the person in charge of the pomfrets cultivation workshop, Xue Jinshan, the person in charge of the pharmaceutical factory, and Qin Xiaojun, the person in charge of making the iron – skinned maples, to the comprehensive office building.

The company's administrative team's supervisor was also attending the meeting. The company didn't have an overseas business department yet, but there were people in charge of contacting Paradise Farm in Australia. These people naturally had to attend the meeting.

Xia ruofei didn't beat around the bush. After he sat down, he went straight to the point and arranged the work. To these people in charge, Xia ruofei's news was good news.

Hence, the atmosphere of the meeting was very lively. Everyone was very excited, especially Jiang Hua. He had been looking forward to new clam fish for a long time. When he heard that Xia ruofei would be sending in the clam fish soon, he immediately said that the cultivation workshop was ready to welcome Xia ruofei's clam fish at any time.

After the meeting, Xia ruofei left the farm.

In the morning, the Dingfeng winery that produced the Eight Immortals drunk had already called him, carefully asking him when he could go to the warehouse to get the wine.

Xia ruofei wanted to do it today. He might as well finish the winery business today and bring back the iron – Skin Dendrobium.

Therefore, he used his spiritual sense to inform Xia Qing in the spatial space to prepare the fresh strips of iron – Skin Dendrobium according to a month's supply.

Although the iron – Skin Dendi had already been transplanted in large quantities in the mountain sea realm, before the mountain sea realm could produce iron – Skin Dendi steadily every month, the iron – Skin Dendi in the Archean realm had not been eradicated.

Therefore, with the time acceleration of 30 times, Xia Qing still had plenty of time to prepare the iron – Skin Dendrobium fresh strips.

Xia ruofei arrived at the warehouse he rented in the city about half an hour earlier than the agreed time. Then, with a thought, he took out the Drunken Eight Immortals wine that he was going to hand over to the winery from the medium.

The one – month, three – month, and five – month bottles of wine were neatly sorted and placed in the warehouse.

As for the one year wine, the first batch of it was not yet up, so there was no one selling it on the market.

However, the Dingfeng winery would use wine jars of different colors and shapes as labels for the new wines they sent over every month. One of them was the one year Drunken Eight Immortals, so after the first batch of one year Drunken Eight Immortals left the factory, they would be able to produce a steady stream of wine every month.

Of course, the quantity of one year's Drunken Eight Immortals was also very small. The monthly output was only 500 catties. According to the standard packaging of 500 ml per bottle, it was only 500 bottles a month. In the Dingfeng winery that produced one to two thousand tons of wine a year, such a small amount of wine was very little.

However, the rarer an item was, the more expensive it would be. This year, Drunken Eight Immortals had been selling his goods in an impressive manner.

The price that Xia ruofei had discussed with Ling Xiaotian was also very impressive. It was 8888 Yuan per bottle.

After calculating that it was about time, Xia ruofei took out the fresh iron – Skin Dendrobium strips that Xia Qing had prepared from the space and stacked them in another corner of the warehouse.

The winery's convoy arrived on time, and the workers were already very familiar with the operation process. Very quickly, they unloaded the new wine in an orderly manner and loaded the "improved" drunken eight immortal onto the truck.

As usual, Xia ruofei asked the winery to send two more trucks.

After the two trucks loaded the fresh iron – Skin Dendrobium strips, Xia ruofei drove in front and led the way. The three trucks returned to the farm together.

Qin Xiaojun, who had received the news, was already waiting with his men. After they had unloaded the truck, they immediately threw themselves into work.

The next day, Xia ruofei went out again. This time, he brought a new batch of kun fish to Jiang Hua.

The rays in the realm were basically free – range now. Normally, rays would live in the sea of the realm. They were sea fish to begin with, and when it came to the breeding season, the rays would go from the mouth of the sea to the stream of the realm, mate in the right place, and lay eggs.

After the clam fish were born, they would return to the space ocean after they grew to a certain extent.

Of course, Xia ruofei's mental strength and control of space were different from the past. He could still easily identify the size and condition of the beluga and use the invisible spatial force to wrap the suitable beluga and move them into the oxygen – increasing water tank without hurting them or alarming them.

The staff in charge of the overseas business in the administrative team was also in close contact with the Australian side. Once they received the specific demand for the seeds, they would immediately report to Xia ruofei.

Xia ruofei had already informed the seed company he was familiar with in advance. The demand this time was a Little Big, and he had even specially sent a deposit of 100000 Yuan to them so that they could gather some seeds in advance.

Then, Xia ruofei went to the pharmaceutical factory for an inspection.

He saw that the pharmaceutical factory was operating in an orderly manner. Every day, boxes of heart – nourishing soup were produced and transported to various hospitals participating in the clinical trials.

In the clinical trial stage, these medicines were provided for free. It could be said that the manufacturing factory was burning money every day. However, Xia ruofei was still very happy.

Not to mention that this was a good thing to do good, even if it was purely in terms of profit, when it was officially put into production in the future, it would be listed as a heart – nourishing soup to guide the medication for autism, and it would definitely create enviable benefits.

Xia ruofei focused on the main computer that was completely isolated from the outside world.

His most trusted veterans rotated regularly and guarded the computer room 24 hours a day, including several access points connected to the production line and the main control computer.

After the inspection, Xia ruofei was relieved. These veterans were all loyal to their duties. The possibility of a leak at this stage was extremely low.

After two to three days of hard work, Xia ruofei could finally take a break.

Xia ruofei had not been so “fulfilled” in a long time. In fact, he preferred to be a hands – off shopkeeper. It was rare for him to be competent for a few days, but he felt uncomfortable all over.

Hence, after finishing some of the phases of the work, Xia ruofei started to slack off for three days and hang out for two days. He rarely appeared in the general office building.

One day, Xia ruofei received a call from an unknown source in Hong Kong.

He thought it was an employee of Hengfeng group sent by MA Xiong to confirm the quality of the one – headed abalone, so he immediately picked up the phone.

However, to Xia ruofei’s surprise, Tang He’s hearty voice came from the phone after the call was connected.””Little Xia, are you busy?”

Xia ruofei said in surprise,”Oh, it’s Mr. Tang!” Why? You’re back?”

Hong Kong had returned to China in 1997, so even though Tang He was in Hong Kong, he was still back in China.

“I’m here in Hong Kong to discuss a business deal.” Tang He chuckled.”I’m done with work today, so I called to ask you about the Phoebe zhennan wood. How’s it going?”

Tang He immediately explained,”Xia, I’m not rushing you!” I know that this matter can’t be rushed. It’d be best if there’s one, but it doesn’t matter if there isn’t. You can help me slowly find it. ”

Xia ruofei immediately smiled and said,”Mr. Tang, I was just about to call you!” I’ve already found the Phoebe zhennan wood, but I don’t know if it meets your requirements. Since you’re in Hong Kong, can you make a trip back to the mainland in the next two days?”

Chapter 999: You’re quite sick (1)

Tang He didn’t expect Xia ruofei to have already found a suitable material for the Phoebe zhennan wood. He was overjoyed when he heard that.””Ruofei, I’ve made the right decision to find you! An ordinary person wouldn’t be able to do this. Even if they could find barely qualified wood, they wouldn’t be as efficient as you!”

“You flatter me, Mr. Tang,” Xia ruofei smiled faintly,”then ... Are you going to send someone to inspect the goods?” Or do you want to come personally?”

Tang He pondered for a moment and said,”how about this ... I might be done in a day or two. There’s an important contract that needs my personal approval and signature, so I can’t come in these two days. How about three days?” I’ll contact you when I’m done!”

Xia ruofei replied readily,”sure!” Just give me a call in advance, and I’ll get my friend to prepare the wood in advance. Let’s go to the same warehouse as last time!”

“No problem!” Tang He said happily.

After hanging up the phone, Xia ruofei returned to the small farm villa and entered the spirit map space to check on the Phoebe zhennan wood that he had prepared.

When he was in Australia, Xia ruofei had already cut down the two nanmu trees that he had carefully selected and cut off the leaves, leaving only the trunk.

The two Phoebe zhennan trees were directly in contact with the soil in the realm, so they would not be kept in the same state as when they were just cut down because of the preservation effect of the realm.

When Xia ruofei saw the two goldsilk nanmu in the medium, they had already been in the medium for two to three years. Of course, this was the time in the yanchu realm. In reality, it was only about a month in the outside world.

The two pieces of Phoebe zhennan wood had been fully oxidized, forming a perfect old material.

Xia ruofei measured with a tape measure. The diameter of the two wood materials was about 1.1 meters, and the core of the core was about one meter in diameter. The core proportion was about 91%, which was quite high.

Back then, the brothers Liang Weimin and Liang Weihua had been looking for wood for elder Tang. The competition between the two had been very intense, and in the end, Liang Weimin had won because of the high – Quality Phoebe zhennan wood that Xia ruofei had provided.

Xia ruofei still remembered that the Phoebe zhennan wood that Liang Weihua had found had a diameter of about 1.1 meters. However, the core of the wood was only 95 centimeters in diameter, which was five centimeters less than the two pieces of wood that he had.

Xia ruofei was also completely relieved. He knew that even if Tang He came to check it himself, these two pieces of material would definitely move this billionaire.

There were still three days left, which meant that these two pieces of material could stay in the primal realm for another three months or so. Perhaps the ratio of core material could be increased by a few more points.

After Xia ruofei checked the jinsi Phoebe Wood, he patrolled the space.

Xia Qing had been very busy. Now, Xia ruofei had already started to set up a medicinal garden, iron – Skin Dendrobium plantation, tea garden, and so on in the vast land of the mountain and sea realm. Every day, Xia Qing would travel between the two spaces, cutting iron – Skin dendrobies, tea trees, and taking care of the medicinal garden.

Fortunately, Xia Qing was just a spiritual puppet. She didn’t complain about being tired, nor did she need to sleep or rest. She worked almost all day long. Otherwise, if it were a human being, he would definitely not be able to withstand such a heavy workload.

Xia ruofei gave Xia Qing a few words of encouragement before leaving the spirit map space.

For the next two days, Xia ruofei was living a carefree life again. When he strolled around the farm, he also took time to avoid the employees and added some spirit Heart Flower petal solution to the water tower at the top of the mountain and the circulation pool in the kun fish cultivation space.

The use of the petals of the spirit Heart Flower was quite large now. Fortunately, the production rate was much higher than before, so it was not a big problem to break even.

Moreover, Xia ruofei had stored dozens of petals. If there was an emergency and he needed to use a large number of them, Xia ruofei would not have to worry.

He didn't panic when he had more than enough food.

The next day, Xia ruofei still did not receive a call from Hengfeng group. Instead, song Rui called him.

This guy didn't say much, just that he needed Xia ruofei's help and asked him to come out for lunch.

Xia ruofei and song Rui were very close. As long as it was about Xia ruofei, song Rui would help him without any hesitation with just a phone call. Hence, Xia ruofei would not reject song Rui's request.

So, he told Hu 'Zi's mother that he wouldn't be having lunch at home. Then, he drove the Knight XV off – Road vehicle out of the farm and headed straight to the city.

Song Rui had booked the Shangri – La hotel next to Liberation Square in the Bell Tower District.

Xia ruofei parked his car in the hotel's underground parking lot and went to the cold plum Hall on the third floor of the hotel. Song Rui had already arrived.

As soon as he saw Xia ruofei, song Rui immediately stood up and said, "RUO Fei, quickly come in and sit!"

Xia ruofei looked at song Rui and found that he seemed to be a little dispirited. He had an unkempt beard and had not shaved for at least two or three days. His hair was also messy.

Song Rui had always paid attention to his personal image. It was very unusual for him to act like this!

After Xia ruofei sat down, he asked, "What's wrong with you? You look like a frosted eggplant ..."

Song Rui smiled bitterly and said, "it's a long story ... Let's eat first!" Let's talk while we eat ..."

"Don 't!" Xia ruofei said. Let's talk about the matter first! You don't look like you're in the mood to eat. Besides ... I won't be able to eat in peace if you don't explain it clearly!"

Song Rui was stunned for a moment before he replied, "sure!" Then let's talk about the matter first!"

Chapter 1000: You're quite sick (2)

After that, song Rui told the waiters in the room to leave first and told them not to serve the dishes for the time being. They were not to enter the room without permission.

Xia ruofei watched as the waiter left and closed the door. Then, he looked at song Rui and said with a faint smile, "Did you get into some big trouble?"

Song Rui chuckled awkwardly and did not answer Xia ruofei's question. Instead, he asked uneasily, "Ruofei, I know you're very good at medicine. I wonder if you can cure ... That kind of illness?"

"What kind of illness is it?" Xia ruofei was confused by song Rui's words.

Song Rui's expression became even more awkward. He looked at Xia ruofei with dissatisfaction and said, "You're playing dumb, right?"

Xia ruofei's expression suddenly became interesting. He couldn't help but glance at song Rui's crotch and asked, "Don't tell me it's ... That kind of illness!"

Song Rui nodded and said, "Do you have any ideas?"

Although the two of them seemed to be speaking in riddles, their meaning was clear.

Xia ruofei said disdainfully, "song Rui, you're the young master of a rich family. Can you not be so desperate?" Don't you think you'll be embarrassed if this gets out?"

"Don't talk about embarrassing things anymore," song Rui said gloomily. "I'm worried about my life now, okay?"

"Why is his life in danger?" Xia ruofei was also very surprised. He then asked with a strange expression, "could it be AID ..."

"Stop, stop!" Song Rui shouted, "I break out in cold sweat whenever I mention this word!"

Xia ruofei stood up and said, "No way? It's that serious? Just how rotten is your private life?"

Song Rui quickly said, "I'm really wronged this time!" Don't get too excited, I'll tell you slowly. "

"You say it! "I'm listening ..." Xia ruofei said as he glanced at song Rui with a strange expression.

Hence, song Rui told Xia ruofei the whole story with a gloomy face.

It turned out that song Rui had returned to the capital some time ago because of the company's matters. As the young master of a top wealthy family, although song Rui was gradually on the right path now, he had finally returned to the base camp. He must have had many friends to invite him.

When these rich Playboys were welcoming song Rui, they naturally brought wine and women.

The only bad things were the wine and the woman.

Song Rui hadn't seen his friends for a long time, and that day was a welcoming banquet for him, so this guy drank too much.

Moreover, it was the kind of drunkenness that only lasted for a short while.

When song Rui woke up the next morning, he found a soft and tender body in his arms. He looked closely and saw that it was a fourth – or fifth – tier star who had been asked by his friends to accompany him for dinner last night.

Song Rui was used to this kind of thing. Although he rarely went out to play, he was not against it. After all, the other party was not a chaste woman. It was something that both parties were willing to do.

Song Rui even took advantage of the time when he was the most energetic in the morning and pulled the small star to do a 'morning exercise'.

Of course, Song Rui also casually mentioned it to a friend in the entertainment industry and arranged a good supporting role for this small star.

He had thought that this matter would be over just like that.

But what Song Rui didn't expect was that a few days ago, he suddenly received a call from a friend, saying that the small star was diagnosed with AIDS. Many people in the industry who had short-term relationships with this small star were shocked and went to the hospital for a screening.

Although the small star did a good job of keeping it a secret and didn't reveal anything in the entertainment news, it was impossible to hide this kind of thing from the people in Song Rui's circle, so there was no doubt about the authenticity of the news.

When Song Rui heard the news, he was stunned. He happened to have a low fever these two days.

He didn't dare to tell his family about it, and he didn't even dare to do the examination in the southeast province.

Otherwise, the image of a prodigal son turning over a new leaf that he had painstakingly built up would be completely destroyed. Moreover, if his strict father found out about this shameful matter, he could not imagine what kind of situation he would face.

In any case, directly stripping him of his current position in the company and grounding him at home would probably be the lightest punishment.

Of course, the most important thing was not the punishment, but the problem of his own life!

Although Song Rui didn't dare to go and screen it rashly, he searched for information on the internet for a day and a night like a madman. The more he looked at the information, the more scared he became. He felt that many of the symptoms matched him ...

Song Rui was still so young. He had never thought that he would face a life – and – Death situation at this age, so he was on the verge of a mental breakdown.

At this most torturous moment, he suddenly thought of Xia Ruofei, who had successfully cured his grandfather of terminal cancer. As if he had found a life – saving straw, he quickly called Xia Ruofei.

Even the world's top experts could not cure terminal cancer, which spread throughout the body. There should be a way to cure AIDS, right?

Xia Ruofei looked at Song Rui with a weird expression and asked, "You didn't even wear a condom when you did it with that small star? Aren't your safety awareness a little too poor?"

Song Rui said dejectedly, "I must have worn it that morning!" The problem is, I was so drunk that I lost my memory of the night before. I don't have any memory of it at all!"

"Can't you just ask her to verify it?" Xia Ruofei asked, trying to hold back his laughter.

“How do we verify it? People like her have messy private lives. She can’t possibly remember it so clearly.” Song Rui said dejectedly, “besides, I have so many symptoms that match it!”

At this point, Song Rui counted with his fingers and said, “You see ... I’ve been having a fever, sweating, and my appetite has been bad. The lymph nodes in my jaw are swollen, and ... I’ve lost three pounds this week!”

Xia Ruofei quickly waved his hand and said, “Okay, okay, okay. Don’t forget it. I’ll take a look at you first! Give me your hand!”

Xia Ruofei glanced at Song Rui and said, “Do you think you’re reading my face? Men on the left and women on the right! A Traditional Chinese Medicine doctor needs both hands to take a pulse because they are in charge of different meridians and organs ... Since you’ve reached out your left hand, then let’s use your left hand first!”

Then, Xia Ruofei placed his finger on Song Rui’s pulse. He closed his eyes slightly and focused on checking his pulse.

Song Rui’s heart was beating fast. He stared at Xia Ruofei nervously, hoping to get some information from his expression.

However, Xia Ruofei was like a Traditional Chinese Medicine practitioner, his face was as calm as an ancient well.

After a long while, Xia Ruofei said indifferently, “Change your hand!”

During this period of time, whenever Xia Ruofei was free, he would study the medical information attached to the human – shaped jade talisman. He had made great progress, especially some long – lost Chinese medical books, which had benefited him a lot.

Hence, Xia Ruofei’s current level of Chinese medicine was not the same as before. In the past, he was just putting on an act to hide the spirit Heart Flower petal solution. Even though he consciously learned Chinese medicine by himself, what he learned was all from the internet or publicly published books. Furthermore, he did not have any famous teachers to guide him. Hence, he could only be said to be half – baked.

However, it was completely different now. There were so many precious Chinese medicine books and records, and they were accompanied by many medical insights. It was as if there were many famous teachers guiding him. At the same time, these Chinese medicine knowledge were directly transmitted into his mind, so it was very convenient and thorough to understand.

Hence, Xia Ruofei’s current medical skills were probably much higher than those white – haired Chinese medical Masters. The only thing he lacked was clinical experience.

After a long time, Xia ruofei finally moved his fingers away and slowly opened his eyes.

Song Rui didn't notice the smile in Xia ruofei's eyes. As soon as Xia ruofei finished checking his pulse, he immediately asked, ""RUO Fei, how is it?"

Xia ruofei tried to hold back his laughter. He let out a long sigh and said, ""Song Rui, you're really sick ..."
