

Goddess 1041

Chapter 1041: Well-hearted, one hundred and four love rivals

No wonder Lord Chang didn't watch it in the classroom. He came out to chase the school girl.

After watching An Xia, before going in, he blinked at Chang Fan.

Quickly whispered: "Good vision, very beautiful! Goddess farewell."

It's pretty.

The temperament is also good.

It's so much better than those girlfriends of Chang Gongzi.

Chang Fan quickly glanced at An Xia, and saw that she did not respond, and was inevitably disappointed.

Pushed the member, "Grass, don't talk nonsense, go in."

There was no response at all, and she didn't even feel shy after being teased. It seemed that she didn't really have any weight in her heart.

You have to work hard.

Entering, several members of the fencing club sat cross-legged under the stage.

Seeing the ten students in the second round of assessment came in, they all looked over in the same way.

After looking around for a lap, the line of sight basically fell on An Xia.

In fact, the value of the face is too high!

It's so high that you want to ignore it.

Facial features are super optimistic, without any makeup modification, natural beauty.

Very tall, definitely 168. Among southern girls, they are quite tall.

The proportions are also very good, the waist is thin, the legs are long, every step is so pleasing to the eye.

Not to mention the temperament.

Walking in is the focus.

"Hey, isn't this a 50 million sports car school girl?"

A member recognized An Xia and was surprised to say to the members around him: "Oh grass, I always thought the photos on the forum were repaired!"

"I am superficial! Real people are more beautiful than photos!"

After this society's reminder, everyone recognized who An Xia was.

The 50 million sports car, the police also called the police on the first day of school, shocked the students who had spread the rumors, and alarmed the school leaders.

Now, the girl who secretly took pictures and spread rumors, wrote a letter of apology and is still on top of the school forum.

It is said that the girl was first frightened by the city police, and then horrified by the gold lawyer hired by An Xia.

After returning to the dormitory, he was shocked and dreamed again and again that night.

Deserve it!

The rumors are shameful and not worthy of sympathy.

Thanks to An Xia's powerful means, the school forum has also been quiet.

There used to be a lot of posts that just opened their mouths, but now, they are all gone!

I was afraid that I would run into the second real An Xia school girl afterwards, so I couldn't eat and walk around.

Before Mu Chenyuan came here, he knew everything about An Xia at school.

Knowing that she bought a sports car worth more than 50 million yuan and drove it to school with a high profile.

I also knew that after she was secretly photographed, she was unsuccessful in persuading her to delete her, so she invited a gold medal lawyer to come over.

I also know that she is now the new faculty of Changhai University.

He has read the post and deliberately counted how many people want to be An Xia's boyfriend.

One hundred and forty-six!

The number is staggering.

See you at the beginning of today, and your rivals are right in front of you.

Of course, with his understanding of An Xia, it is impossible for her to let the boys follow her without complaint.

Unless, for another purpose.

For example, the boy is the suspect she needs to find.

Listening to the whispered words of the members of the fencing club, Mu Chenyuan said calmly:
"President, the assessment begins."

"Okay, teacher." The president replied respectfully and turned to ten students: "Let's test your flexibility first, and then take a physical test."

"Flexibility is very simple. I call to raise your right hand. You must lift your left hand. I call to lift your left leg. You must lift your right leg."

"I call to squat down, you have to jump up. I call to jump down, you call to squat down."

"Then in the second round, we will stab you with the steel sword in our hands. You have to avoid it."

The president shook the steel sword in his hand, "Don't worry, I will tie the sword head with a towel on it, and I won't be affected by you."

The fencing sword itself will not stab people.

But because it is made of special steel, it will still hurt if it really hits a person.

Wrap the sword head with a towel, even if it hits it, it doesn't feel much.

Chapter 1042: Boyfriend is so attractive

When Tong Xiaoguan heard it, his figure shook, and his eyes turned black.

Oh shit!

Is it so difficult?

Isn't it simple?

Especially, she seems to be a little bit left and right!

It's terrible.

Huh?

It seems that the left and right will not be at this moment, but will become an advantage.

Because, you have to do it the other way around.

The difficulty is to avoid the sword.

I heard the president again: "The physical test is also simple, ten push-ups and ten sit-ups in one breath, no more."

It's really simple.

But limited to it!

"Boys need 20 push-ups and 20 sit-ups, twice as many as girls."

An Xia also had two boys in this round.

They have registered in advance and have carefully read the registration conditions.

Seeing so many girls, the mentality at the time was the same as the mentality of the boys who just went out.

I thought it was a "monk" society, but I never expected that there were so many girls.

After listening to the assessment, the two boys glanced at the eight girls beside them.

In the last round of eight girls, none of them passed.

I don't know if any girls can pass this round.

An Xia

If the goddess passes, it will be perfect!

Mu Chenyuan didn't look at An Xia, he stood aside with a handsome face and indifferently, waiting for the assessment.

And beside him, no member of the fencing club dared to approach him.

afraid!

Chang Fan waited for the president to finish, and cheered An Xia under his throat, "Come on, you can definitely do it."

He also hoped that An Xia could pass.

As for the teacher, he is not worried about any teacher-student relationship.

The school has regulations for teachers, and it is never allowed to fall in love with students, and all offenders will be expelled.

Being able to teach at Changhai University is a hard-won opportunity, and no teacher dares to violate the prohibition.

Mu Chenyuan glanced at Chang Fan, his eyes cold, "How come there are ten students?"

He asked the member who called in.

Chang Fan replied, "Excuse me, teacher, I am also a member of the fencing club, and I am accompanying the school girl for the assessment."

Mu Chenyuan's face became colder, and he didn't say much.

Chang Fan, who took the initiative to retreat, clenched a fist with one hand, gave An Xia a "come on" action, sat down cross-legged and waited for An Xia's assessment.

On An Xia's side, Yu Guang has already looked at her boyfriend many times.

As the girls said, he is really a handsome teacher.

I don't know if it's because of wanting to act as a teacher, the murderous and hostile temperament in his body is aching, and there is a teacher's elegant temperament.

She also loved it.

The expression of his own vision is really great.

Her boyfriend is so handsome any time.

The assessment begins.

The president shouted the password.

"Take off!"

Ten students, including An Xia, all took off.

An Xia took off deliberately.

It can't be too good, and somehow it will have to make some mistakes.

The whistle blew, and the president laughed: "Everyone remember the rules, don't make a mistake."

I remember it all.

This is not a conditioned reflex. After hearing the instruction, it will jump subconsciously.

"Take off!"

It's a jump again.

This time, An Xia was right.

Tong Xiaoguan was right too.

A total of seven students were all right, and three students were wrong again.

"Raise your right leg."

An Xia and Tong Xiaoguan got it right again.

In this round, five students got it right and five students made a mistake.

Three students got it right.

Two classmates got it right.

An Xia still made no mistakes.

Chang Fan slowly loosened his fist.

If this continues, An Xia's chance of passing should be great.

"Squat down!"

"Raise your hands."

"Left leg stand alone!"

"Raise your right hand!"

"turn back!"

"turn right!"

The password is getting faster and faster, and more and more students make mistakes.

In the end, a girl tripped her left leg with her right leg, and fell directly with a sound of "Ouch".

After falling to the blush, she didn't continue, covering her face and ran out of the classroom.

Oh oh...

What a shame!

I fell in front of the teacher!

Chapter 1043: Mu Chenyuan said: I want to guard my morals

When she got out of the situation, it affected other classmates more or less.

Another girl nearly fell.

Fortunately, the girl insisted on finishing.

Then, all members of the fencing club stood up, raised their steel swords wrapped in towels, and began the final round of measurement of flexibility.

"what!"

"Depend on!"

"it hurts!"

"what!"

Soon, "Ahhhhhhhhh" voices came from the classroom.

A total of ten hits, An Xia suffered two hits.

It is the classmate who suffers the least amount of sword stabbing.

While watching Mu Chenyuan lowered his eyes, his dark dark eyes flashed with a smile.

Deliberately making a mistake, it seems that the girl around her does have a problem.

Chang Fan, right?

Pay more attention later.

Song Changshou, the national police officer who was in charge of him, also told him about Chang Fan's personal information.

On the surface, there is no problem.

He was also surprised. He didn't expect that Chang Fan first came into contact with An Xia.

Chang Fan is not on the list of suspects.

This time, Chang Fan has been added.

At the end of the round, An Xia, Tong Xiaoguan, two basic boys, and one girl passed.

Among them, Anxia is the best.

When it comes to the physical test, it is easier.

The girl who passed, suddenly became more courageous.

Start making requests.

She smiled and asked, "Teacher, can you help me hold my leg? Thank you."

It was a question, but the "thank you" at the back was a bit interesting.

It has been determined that the teacher will not reject her.

Mu Chenyuan raised his eyes, his thin lips tightened, and coldly refused, "I have a girlfriend."

After falling in love, the special agent whose emotional intelligence has soared, immediately understood the girl's routine.

Not single, refuse to tease.

When the girl heard it, she didn't give up.

"The teacher has a girlfriend, so it doesn't matter. It's just to help the students press their legs and don't do anything. The teacher's girlfriend shouldn't be so stingy."

Mu Chenyuan's answer was even harsher than before, "I am stingy and only accept physical contact with my girlfriend. Other girls, including boys, refuse at once."

"You can also understand that I abide by male morality."

...

The classroom was suddenly quiet as a chicken.

Then, burst into laughter.

It was the boys who laughed first, and then the girls pursed their lips.

Tong Xiaoguan is an exception. She laughed "haha" just like boys.

And said: "Teacher, you are so cute! Hahaha, I am so ridiculous. I never thought that teacher, you also know how to guard your ethics!"

"Hahaha, male classmates, you have to learn from a teacher! Male morality is too important. A boyfriend with male morality will not be rejected by his girlfriend."

My mother, hahaha, she laughed so hard.

Return to the male ethics!

It was an answer that I never expected.

The laughing boys immediately replied, "That's a must! I want to have a girlfriend, and I will abide by the male ethics! Never have any physical contact with other girls."

"Teacher, you are a role model for our study, we also want to be a man of virtue! Hahahaha!"

"To study today, to have a girlfriend, you need to be ethical."

"Girls, give up your heart, our fencing teacher has a girlfriend. Also, he wants to guard his ethics."

Girls have listened, that's envious.

So handsome and so loyal to his girlfriend!

OMG!

Why do good men always have girlfriends?

So they have no chance at all.

Good temper.

Tong Xiaoguan gave up her heart anyway. She laughed to tears and teased An Xia, "Big brother, you have no chance, hahahaha, the teacher of Shou Nande, you have a girlfriend."

An Xia was also a little surprised by this answer.

I didn't expect her boyfriend to be so conscious.

Withstand the temptation!

Not bad.

Won her heart.

After hearing this, she said calmly: "I wish his girlfriend, I have a vision, and I found such a good boyfriend."

Praise yourself!

Chapter 1044: Embraced the best jiro in the world

An Xia has never been stingy about praising herself.

The boyfriend I found is naturally the best and best son in the world.

The ability, appearance, and character have been verified, and they are all superior.

Now only one item remains to be verified.

If this verification is passed, it will be excellent, and life will be perfect!

Embracing the best son in the world, it's worth living a lifetime.

As for Tong Xiaoguan, although he did not know the fencing teacher's girlfriend, as a champion, Tong Xiaoguan loved him.

"Blessing the same! I envy his girlfriend. I will also find a boyfriend like a teacher in the future."

Such a handsome man, who can say what he wants to guard his ethics, is definitely the best man!

Oh, sure enough!

Good men are always taken away in advance.

Kuan Liu and their single dogs are deeply envious.

Facing Tong Xiaoguan's support, An Xia looked at Tong Xiaoguan deeply, and said seriously: "You can too, come on!"

"Okay, let's work hard together! Find a boyfriend as handsome and as good as the fencing teacher."
Tong Xiaoguan clenched his hands into fists, cheering for himself and An Xia.

She didn't believe it anymore, with her own eyes, she would not find a good boyfriend!

After 10,000 steps, Tong Xiaoguan couldn't find her, An Xia would definitely find it!

An Xia raised her eyebrows, and said slowly, "You better come on!!!"

Well, she doesn't need to look for it, because the girlfriend you envy is her-An Xia!

There is an inexplicable kind of ecstasy, not wanting to share with others, just wanting to be happy, loving, and hiding alone.

This is, so is possessiveness.

The girl who failed to slap her face was more or less uncontrollable.

Mainly, she didn't expect to get such a reply.

She appeared to be particularly frivolous.

Blushing, the girl was also upright, and she couldn't hold her face anymore. After taking a deep breath, she apologized to the fencing teacher.

"Sorry, teacher, I'm sorry. Seeing the uprising, please forgive me."

Ugh!

The teacher has a girlfriend.

Also guard the male morality.

OMG!

The girl who became the teacher's girlfriend is so happy!

Supported by dog food!

Mu Chenyuan didn't reply any more. Hearing this, he nodded lightly and said to the president of the fencing club: "The last round of assessment."

"Okay, teacher!" The president Meiyu smiled deeply and started the next round.

He clapped his palms and said loudly: "Take your heart, take your heart. Next, we enter the final round of assessment."

"I just told my classmates, I don't need to repeat it anymore."

"Need!" This is Tong Xiaoguan's voice, smiling, knowing she did it deliberately at first sight.

Anyway, just play, be happy.

The president laughed, and his eyes fell on Tong Xiaoguan's face, jokingly: "Classmates, you have a bad memory, ten classmates, only you need it."

"It's mainly to listen to your deep, sexy, and magnetic voice, the president, don't you mind." Tong Xiaoguan, a native of Tianjin, is the best ridicule.

The president from the junior year was ridiculed, and his expression was a little unnatural.

"Then I'll say it again."

Repeated quickly, Tong Xiaoguan nodded vigorously, "Remember! I will never forget to forget."

The whistle blew, 20 boys push-ups and 10 girls.

Chang Fan's gaze fell on An Xia's straight long legs, with light and shadow floating deep in his eyes.

At this time, he was in a good mood.

The teacher has a girlfriend, and she is very devoted to her girlfriend, and refuses to have any physical contact with any girl. Because of An Xia's background, he must disdain to compete with others for a man.

The potential crisis is eliminated, and I hope that Anxia can enter the fencing club.

Standing in the audience, Chang Fan suddenly raised his voice, "Anxia, come on!"

Chapter 1045: Half-life, confessed

After shouting, Chang Fan suddenly felt that there seemed to be a cold arrow that shot directly at the center of his eyebrows.

The response was not bad, and he squinted his eyes to find out who was targeting him in secret.

No matter how fast he reacted, he didn't find out who it was.

The feeling of coldness also disappeared without a trace at this moment.

As if, just now it was just my own illusion.

Not an illusion.

Someone is observing themselves in secret.

Who is it?

Is An Xia's crush?

The boy who glanced across the line, only did not look at the fencing teacher.

Finding no results, Chang Fan deliberately raised his voice again, "An Xia, you can definitely pass! I'm waiting for you in the fencing club!"

Captured in secret, but found nothing.

There is no longer the sight of the cold as an arrow.

An Xia is pretending to work hard to hold it up.

She deliberately took a sigh of relief, and her cheeks were flushed.

"Five, six..."

The women's team only called six.

As for the men's team, it's all ten here.

The boys are so powerful that they can do it as fast as they shout.

When Tong Xiaoguan, who was trembling with his hands, shouted to the "sixth", his arms suddenly lost strength and he lay directly on the ground.

Panting like a cow.

"Oh, no more, no more, not sure, I will give up in this round." Tong Xiaoguan really didn't have the strength to support the seventh.

give up.

She is an easy temper and never embarrassed herself.

An Xia was trying hard to hold on.

Not only need to work hard to pretend to hold, but also work hard to pretend that the actions are not standard.

But she is basically posing, no matter how hard she tries to pretend, she is much better than other girls.

Chang Fan's face was full of smiles.

Steady win!

"An Xia! There are three more! Two more! One more! Complete!"

He was more excited than the president who shouted the password.

As he shouted, his eyes were still looking for just now, who was aiming at him with his gaze.

On the side of the stage, Mu Chenyuan's thin lips made a cold smile.

I also know the sound hits.

A student really knows more.

Snake, no matter how deep it is hidden, it will eventually show its fangs.

Because he needs to bite the prey and drag the snake cave.

Without taking another look at Chang Fan, Mu Chenyuan looked at the students who had completed the final round of assessments indifferently.

At the same time, pick up the pen and write on the roster.

Boys have a foundation and can stay.

girl.....

In addition to An Xia, there are other girls who are familiar with An Xia to consider. Other girls remain to be seen.

Only An Xia followed the rhythm of the ten push-ups.

The other girls are still working very hard to complete ten.

Tong Xiaoguan said to give up. As a result, when she saw that others insisted, she thought about it, well, she insisted too.

It's easy to settle down, but it can't be settled to the bottom.

Can't get through it!

Finally finished, she lay on the wooden floor, breathing heavily and said to An Xia: "Half-life, confess it."

"There are still ten sit-ups." An Xia reminded her very kindly.

Tong Xiaoguan rolled her eyes on the spot, as if she was about to faint.

Nothing to love, "How come there are five? Did you count the wrong number? I feel like there are twenty!"

So tired.

So tired.

I want to give up again.

She is drying her wool.

Jushuai's fencing teacher has a girlfriend. What is she doing so hard?

No matter how hard you work, you won't be able to get the eyes of a fencing teacher who needs to guard his ethics.

I don't want to work hard today.

"How many are there, are you right? Hurry up." An Xia said coldly.

Tong Xiaoguan is good everywhere, but one day, sometimes it gives her a headache.

It's too easy to give up.

As long as there is a little bit of embarrassment, as long as you make yourself a little bit tired, give up immediately.

So far, she has basically given up.

Run, run for a day and give up.

Read oral English in the morning and give up in three days.

Playing badminton, give up in two days.

Even nap and early to bed and early to wake up, she followed for three days, the fourth day was only rain, and immediately gave up.

It's too easy, too easy.

But An Xia did not criticize her.

The reason why it is easy to give up is because the growth environment is too comfortable.

There is no sense of oppression, and there is no need to run around for survival. Naturally, the temperament is a little lazy.

In fact, behind the comfort, there are countless Xia Guo's soldiers, using their blood and lives to build an indestructible city to protect the people of Xia Kingdom.

Only when we can live and work in peace, can we live and work in peace.

Tong Xiaoguan didn't know what An Xia thought. Hearing the words, he wailed and continued.

"Fight, ah ah ah!"

She has never been afraid of making a fool of herself, shouting and cheering for herself.

A smile flashed in An Xia's eyes.

I have to say that Tong Xiaoguan is very cute most of the time.

She likes her getting along.

In the process of getting along, you can be affected by her optimism, and you will feel that the road ahead is bright, just laugh and go down.

In the early Tang Dynasty, Axicuo was not as optimistic as Tong Xiaoguan.

Although several people were visiting each other at their ages, there was obviously pressure from life in the eyes of the two of them.

Not to mention Axicuo.

Carrying a huge debt of two million.

In the fencing room, all Tong Xiaoguan's voice echoed.

Not everyone likes Tong Xiaoguan's sudden temper like An Xia, and some girls are angry.

Angrily said: "Can you stop a little bit, don't affect our success?"

I'm so annoying.

Finally, the strength that she had accumulated was broken by her inexplicable "Ahhhhh" cry!

Infuriating.

She did it on purpose.

Tong Xiaoguan shut up and apologized in a small voice, "I'm sorry, I'm sorry."

Affect others, sin!

Ten sit-ups are finally completed.

Tong Xiaoguan took his last bit of strength out of time.

When it was her turn to press An Xia, she lay on her stomach, tired and paralyzed.

Weakly waved her hand, "No, I can't do it, I'm out of strength, President, you can help me press An Xia."

The president smiled, "Classmate, you always say no, no, but you can always finish it. You are actually being humble."

"Really no, I can insist on finishing it, but I don't want to be the bottom." Tong Xiaoguan's voice was faint.

Chapter 1047: Be with her

I didn't use Qiao Jin, and my lower abdomen was very tired.

Tong Xiaoguan even had a feeling that his aunt was about to come.

Doing sit-ups won't really force the aunt out.

Chang Fan took the initiative to jump up, "I'll come."

Tai Ze, Mu Chenyuan's slender fingers curled slightly.

Actually he can come.

But he just said that he wants to guard his ethics for his girlfriend!

I knew my girlfriend was An Xia, but these students didn't know.

Seriously, put a rock on yourself.

An Xia said, "No, give her a minute to rest."

Her boyfriend has guarded her male ethics for her, so she should guard her too.

Presumably, her boyfriend would not want to see, she was pressed by a boy on her legs.

Tong Xiaoguan stared, "Brother, I don't have the strength now, so you still let me go? Where is my conscience? Where is my conscience?"

"There are thirty seconds left."

An Xia was ruthless and cruel.

"...You are the eldest brother, you have the final say." Tong Xiaoguan admitted.

Mainly, the eldest brother doesn't usually ask her to do anything.

Once the request is made, the representative of the eldest brother is serious.

The serious brother is the scariest.

Still obediently, press the leg for eldest brother.

Mu Chen Yuanfu loosened his curled fingers again, and a smile passed by in his cold eyes, like the water in the river where the ice and snow had first melted, with water gurgling.

Seeing this, Chang Fan, who had already been on stage, did not insist.

He smiled and said: "Oh, finally there was a chance to perform, and as a result, it was gone."

"Senior, there is a good chance you want to perform, and you will perform again next time." Tong Xiaoguan sat up and bound An Xia's legs.

"Come on, President, I have strength."

It's called tired fast, and recovery is also tired.

The sweaty Tong Xiaoguan has strength.

As the whistle blew, the assessment of the last item in the final round began.

Ten sit-ups are too easy for An Xia.

Pretending not to be more tired.

I have to pretend that I don't know how.

People have to be installed in place.

Suddenly it became so powerful that anyone who saw it had to be suspicious.

Because there are two boys in this group, the speed is slightly faster.

An Xia was a beat slower than normal.

"One...two...three...five..."

Tong Xiaoguan counted, and quickly finished ten.

After ten were completed, she was the first to cheer, "Oh, An Xia won."

Turning his head, said to the president: "President, is An Xia qualified? You see, she does sit-ups faster than us."

Not pointing to a girl in this group who is still working hard, but pointing to herself.

Although he screamed at first glance, Tong Xiaoguan's EQ is not low.

The president nodded, "Well, it's really good, but it will take a while to know if it can pass the assessment."

After that, I often asked An Xia, "Have you ever learned fencing? Are you interested in fencing?"

"After a few years of study, interest it, fortunately, continue if you have it, and it doesn't matter if you don't leave it to waste." An Xia replied not to be honest.

This is the real idea.

Dispensable fencing.

Because she no longer needs to defeat An Qian with fencing.

In a sense, in fact, she lost to An Qian in her entire life.

When the president heard that An Xia had studied for several years, his eyes suddenly brightened.

This is the two groups of girls, the only girl who has learned fencing.

No wonder the physical test can pass.

"How many years have you studied?" Even the questioning was much more cordial, "Have you ever participated in a formal competition?"

"Study for several years, forget it. I haven't participated in the competition."

As soon as An Xia finished speaking, she saw her boyfriend Mu Chenyuan, who had been standing on the side of the stage, jumping onto the stage.

Walk straight towards yourself.

In fact, it was not towards her, but towards the president of the fencing club.

But the moment he jumped onto the stage, his eyes fell on her.

An Xia knew that he was walking towards him.

After being separated for eleven days, he walked to her side again, and stayed with her.

Chapter 1048: Close to her

The president of the fencing club saw the teacher coming, and asked the teacher to stand in front of An Xia.

Needless to say, it must be an inquiry.

It's like asking the two boys who passed the examination just now.

Offstage

When Chang Fan saw the fencing teacher come on stage, he took a step forward when he was standing, and then slowly retracted.

What is he panicking?

Are you so worried that An Xia will like the fencing teacher?

will not.

She can't like a man with a girlfriend.

Mu Chenyuan didn't ask An Xia right away. Standing tall and tall, he stood among a group of young students and became the focus of his eyes.

The eyes of the girls always aim at his face intentionally or unintentionally.

There are also daring girls who secretly looked at his figure.

In fact, being handsome makes them unable to control their sight.

I don't know why, Teacher Mingming exudes a cold breath of "Don't get close to strangers", so that they always want to get closer.

I feel a unique sense of security.

An Xia is also looking at her boyfriend.

It's a little bit subtle.

Because--

Tong Xiaoguan leaned into her ear and said, "Brother, the look you looked at the fencing teacher just now is so fierce."

"It feels like you are going to swallow the teacher alive."

After speaking, he squeezed towards her.

An Xia caressed the corner of her eye.

She was right.

I really want to swallow the sword teacher.

Is it so obvious?

I feel that I have converged a lot.

"Really?" An Xia retracted her gaze, and said disapprovingly: "Presumably, the teacher won't let me swallow it."

Tong Xiaoguan looked horrified.

"Big brother, you, you...you dare to think about it! Slowly put away your careful thoughts."

"Our fencing teacher, at first glance, is an upright teacher. Do you want to swallow him? I'm afraid that he will be chopped by him!"

"Small life matters. I'll stop thinking that I shouldn't have."

Brother, are you crazy!

Actually want to...cough cough...

Want to be a fencing teacher.

No matter how daring she thinks Tong Xiaoguan, she only wants to see the teacher's face, there is nothing else, I have never thought about it.

An Xia laughed and said nothing.

With Mu Chenyuan's abilities, Tong Xiaoguan's whispers will surely be heard clearly.

right!

That's it.

Just want to swallow him raw.

I wonder if there is a chance?

Mu Chenyuan listened calmly, and his handsome face waited coldly for the two boys to complete twenty sit-ups.

The two boys finished quickly, Mu Chenyuan asked, "You two also have a foundation?"

"Have."

"Have."

The boys answered in unison.

"several years."

"I am for four years."

"I am five years."

I have been working for three years, so I can't say that I only have a little foundation.

"Participated in a formal competition?"

Scrolled through the roster and found two entry forms, "Zhang Haifan, Hong Feili, are you two?"

"I'm Zhang Haifan." The boy who had studied for four years said, "I have participated in the competition and got the best score in third place."

"I am Hong Feili." The boy who had studied for five years said, "I have also participated in the competition, and the best result in the province is runner-up."

All have scores, and they are pretty good.

Needless to say, the assessment passed.

Finally, Mu Chenyuan asked An Xia, in the depths of the cold eyes that no one found, there was gentleness, "You have not participated in the game, go to the backstage to change clothes, practice hands with me, and then decide whether to stay or go."

To the two boys again: "You two practice each other, let me see how well you are."

"Others please leave the fencing room."

In other words, only Zhang Haifan and Hong Feili passed the assessment this round.

An Xia needs another assessment.

None of the others passed.

Tong Xiaoguan put his arm around An Xia and asked with a smile, "Teacher, can I stay with me?"

She also wants to see An Xia practice with her teacher.

Chapter 1049: Vinegar, it doesn't taste good

"Yes." Mu Chenyuan said: "Go to the audience."

"Okay, right now!"

Tong Xiaoguan let go of An Xia, he slipped off the stage.

On stage, Chang Fan looked at An Xia with a smile.

He also wants to go on stage and practice with An Xia.

Not urgent.

When he comes to the teacher for the final round of assessment, he will naturally have the opportunity to practice fencing with her in the future.

There is no doubt about the relationship between Mu Chenyuan and An Xia.

If Chang Fan sees through the two lurking special fighters, there is no need for the two to stay in the team.

Outside

There are more than 30 students waiting in line.

The president of the fencing club came out and notified, "Sorry, wait a while. There are three students who have the basics of fencing, and the teacher needs to conduct a fencing assessment on them. Please wait a moment."

An Xia and two other boys put on masks and gloves in the background.

The fencing costumes are all personally owned, and there are no public suits.

Only the mask and gloves are shared.

Used temporarily.

It's just an assessment, and the time will not be too long, and it will end in three to five minutes per person at most.

When the three of them came out, the two boys started first.

Mu Chenyuan watched carefully, halfway, even the light did not fall on An Xia.

On the contrary, An Xia, with the cover of the mask, no longer hides his sight, only staring at her boyfriend.

When Xiao Bie got together, An Xia realized that she cared more about Mu Chenyuan than she thought.

That is, in the fencing room, she felt fiercely what it was like to be "vinegar".

That sour!

It was so sour that she seemed to be soaking in a big jar full of mature old vinegar, soaking all over her body, so that even her hair had a sour taste.

All came over to the handsome fencing teacher, and even in the presence of her real girlfriend, teasing her boyfriend.

How! Have! this! reason!

What made her feel even more embarrassed was that she still had to pretend to be innocent, pretend not to care, pretend that her boyfriend has no relationship with her.

For the sake of the overall situation, one can only choose to sacrifice personal emotions.

God knows how much she wanted to rush up at the time, hugged Mu Chenyuan, and told the girls: This is my boyfriend, refuse to tease!

While secretly poking jealous, he praised myself for a good vision, so sour and refreshing, which I will never forget.

Both of them were jealous in secret, and the surface was calm and calm.

The two boys on the stage have already been recruited.

Both are good at epee.

The tip of the sword must be hit and there must be a hand, and the cross-strike with the blade is invalid.

Hong Feili was slightly stronger and took the lead in scoring.

In three rounds, Hong Feili scored two points and Zhang Haifan scored one point.

The trick stopped, and the members of the fencing club applauded the two men's excitement.

The president asked Mu Chenyuan in a low voice, "Teacher, do you think they can do it? I think it's better than the two boys in the last round."

In the last round, there were also two boys staying. They also have a foundation, but their level is obviously not as good as the two boys in this round.

Zhang Haifan took off the mask, smiled at Hong Feili, and stood on the stage waiting for the final result.

"We should be able to get in." Hong Fei had an outgoing temperament. Taking advantage of the fencing teacher's whispering communication with the president, he took a short run and talked to Zhang Haifan.

Zhang Haifan is not so active, but calm.

Hearing the words, pursed the corners of his mouth, shook his head lightly.

Shows that he is not sure.

Mu Chenyuan had a certain understanding of the strength of the two.

Hong Feili attacked fiercely, Zhang Haifan was cautious, but missed the score because of caution.

But the two are really good.

"The two of them stay, and you arrange for them to fill in the information for joining the company."

"Okay!" The president laughed happily, and said: "I'm afraid, it's just that the two of them have the highest strength."

Not always.

Mu Chenyuan's sight finally fell on An Xia.

The cold gaze passed through the mask, and An Xia's face was outlined in his mind.

Chapter 1050: The two face each other

I paint it carefully, feel it with my heart, and my fingers move slightly.

Fingers seemed to touch her cheeks, lingering.

He knew An Xia had been looking at him.

The fierce and substantive sight made him unable to ignore it at all.

It made his heart beat faster.

The only thing he knew was how much effort he took to restrain the urge to hug her.

"Epee? Or foil?" Mu Chenyuan asked.

The sound and sound are like snowflakes falling on the branches of the plum garden, clear and light.

An Xia said indifferently: "Anything."

Epee, foil, or saber, she can do it, not pick.

"Then come the heavy sword." Mu Chenyuan picked up the heavy sword.

Like An Xia, he can use epee, foil, or sabre.

But prefer the epee.

Because the epee requires a high degree of accuracy, the best time to attack the opponent is when the opponent attacks himself.

An Xia took the epee handed by the president, and the moment she took the epee, her eyes changed when she looked at Mu Chenyuan.

It's no longer hot.

Cold and indifferent, already treating her boyfriend as an opponent.

The president of the fencing club next to her can most feel An Xia's changes.

The school girl, who was still casual just now, has entered the state of the game at this time.

Affected, the expression on the president's face is also serious.

The whistle sounded and started.

Both attack at the same time!

It depends on who can succeed.

Offstage

Chang Fan suddenly tightened his pupils.

So fast!

An Xia and the fencing teacher are so fast.

Fast and ruthless, and the movements are very professional, An Xia is not only a little bit at all.

But very good!

It is rare to see girls practicing epee, which is why there are few girls in fencing clubs.

As for him, he really thought An Xia could only be a little bit.

The facts told him that Anxia was very fast.

Mu Chenyuan also knew how good his girlfriend was at the moment An Xia attacked!

but...

The first round of tricks is over.

The president whistled and said seriously: "Teacher gets one point."

An Xia was fast, but still lost to the teacher.

Receiving the sword, An Xia turned his toes slightly, ready to attack again.

Did you really lose to Mu Chenyuan?

No.

But I lost to him deliberately.

Can't let the students see that she can win the fencing teacher as a freshman.

They, including Chang Fan, thought that An Xia had lost to the teacher.

Only the teacher knows that Anxia will not lose in this round.

She can retreat in time.

Hidden clumsy hidden show is to protect yourself in the task.

As a teacher, he doesn't need to be too clumsy.

The tip of the sword hit An Xia's shoulder, causing a slight pain.

It wasn't particularly painful. When An Xia attacked again, the shoulder pain had passed.

In this round, she has to lose to Mu Chenyuan.

Hong Fei kept his eyes on An Xia, and talked with Zhang Haifan, "An Xia is good at it, it seems that the strength is above you and me."

"Yeah." This time, Zhang Haifan nodded.

They all learn epee, and they are strong and weak.

At the end of the three rounds, Anxia lost all.

He was hit on the shoulder, chest, and abdomen.

Mu Chenyuan retracted the epee, his icy eyes surging upwards and downwards.

Today he hit his girlfriend three times, and when there is a change, he quickly admits his mistake!

"I lost." An Xia took off the mask, revealing the hibiscus face that didn't use the powder. "The level of the teacher is very high, and he should have won many awards."

Mu Chenyuan said: "Your strength is also good, the offensive speed is very fast, and it is better to be a little more stable."

He has indeed won many awards, and the National University Games is the champion.

After that, I didn't touch the heavy sword much.

It wasn't until three days ago that he was notified that he went to Changhai University to work as a fencing club teacher, and he picked up the heavy sword again, regaining the feeling of the year.

Fortunately, the hands are still not unfamiliar. After two days of training, I came back to feel the hands. I specially found a fencing coach to practice my hands, and then arrived at Changhai University.
