

Goddess 1201

Chapter 1201: Best date place: hotel

The little ambiguous atmosphere was destroyed by An Xia's "Holy Light" and it was difficult to continue.

After changing the dressing of the wound, An Xia sat on his bed with her straight calf swinging, watching him clean up the debris with great comfort.

After the classification was finished, he went into the bathroom again.

After a while, he heard the sound of running water, and he was washing his hands.

I came here twice, but An Xia really didn't take a good look at the single men's dormitory. Taking advantage of his washing hands at this moment, An Xia started to visit.

The dormitory is not big, you can visit it without having to walk around and sit on the bed.

A bed, a wardrobe, a desk plus a chair and a lamp can be called simple.

It's very neat and tidy, no matter what it is, it is neatly packed, even the few pens placed on the book are neatly arranged, and they are arranged like warriors in a line.

There are a few books, with her 5.0 vision, it can be seen that they are all fencing book boxes.

He is now a fencing teacher, so he still needs to do something, otherwise, it will be suspicious.

The epee and face mask for his own use hung on the wall. You don't need to touch it, and you know that you will take care of it so that it won't get a trace of dust.

Apart from a map of Xia Kingdom and a map of the world, the snow-white walls have no extra decorations.

Simple enough to be clear in one day.

The bed is even simpler.

The quilt is folded and placed at the end of the bed. It is not folded into the square shape of their team, but it is much flatter than the quilt folded by ordinary people.

Except for the quilt, there is no pillow. It can be guessed that he does not like to sleep on the pillow.

The short-sleeved and short-pants pajamas are also neatly folded and placed against the corner of the quilt.

It's all dark and light gray. I guess I bought the pajamas in the same store when I bought the quilt.

It's kind of easy and not picky.

There was a vibration from the phone, An Xia took it out and took a look.

Meifeng raised.

Xu Yong.

This kind of patience is not enough. She thought she would not contact her until three days later.

I didn't expect to contact her one day.

"Miss An, have you returned to Changhai?"

"I'm back, how about you?" An Xia responded quickly, creating the illusion that she had been waiting for his information.

It's not a fish now, but a real pull.

Xu Yong's reply was also very quick, "I also returned, and hurried back to Changhai after disembarking last night."

An expressionless An Xia typed word by word, "I'm so anxious, I'm tired."

"Fortunately, when I go to work today, I will catch up with the number of visitors last week, so I don't want to ask for leave."

What is it like to be a rich girl who doesn't know the world?

An Xia thought for a while, and then replied, "Ah, I'm still at work, that's even more tiring, so hard."

Looking at it, she seemed surprised. In fact, An Xia's eyes were cold when facing the phone, and there was still a cold killing intent in her eyes.

These people must be resolved quickly.

After solving them, she can go to break the wolf brigade.

In An Xia's eyes, Xu Yong and Chang Fan were the obstacles that prevented her from breaking the wolf.

It must be resolved early.

In the bathroom, Mu Chenyuan was also looking at his mobile phone.

Instead of looking at information, he searched the Internet for the best place to date with his girlfriend at night.

Don't say, I really found the post.

When he came in with a learning attitude, Mu Chenyuan almost choked on the first reply.

"The best place for a date at night: the hotel."

"Want to know how old the host is? A student? A working dog? Students should choose a cheaper hotel, and the working dog should choose a higher-end hotel."

...

The front row basically recommends hotels, and also recommends hotels that are especially suitable for couples on dates.

There are also recommended places for fun and delicious food.

After browsing in a hurry, Mu Chenyuan remembered the two mountain top restaurants and quit.

Asking online is not very reliable, so I will ask less in the future.

Chapter 1202: Vinegar, drink less, hurt

When I came out, I saw that my girlfriend who wanted to sleep was holding a cell phone, her face was cold and she didn't know what she was talking about.

"What's wrong? In an emergency?"

An Xia looked up and handed the phone over by the way, "Xu Yong, you help me get him back."

The content of the information An Xia didn't mind Mu Chenyuan reading it.

It's not a shameful text message, he can give himself advice after reading it.

Mu Chenyuan knew who Xu Yong was. Hearing the words, he took the phone, and when he saw it, his thin lips were slightly pursed.

how to say.

He always underestimates how jealous he is.

Even if the other party was included in the list of suspects to be investigated by the national police, he ate again after reading the text message he sent to An Xia.

As a man, I can see what the other side's mind is.

Xu Yong said, "You don't have to stay up too late in studying, you have to pay attention to your body."

Would men care about girls for no reason?

Actions can only be achieved if there are plans.

After reading it, Mu Chenyuan confirmed that it was not the text message he could reply.

Handed the phone to An Xia again, and said quietly, "You go back."

He really didn't know how to reply.

An Xia looked calm and replied in front of Mu Chenyuan, "Thank you, study is easier than work."

After returning, An Xia looked sideways, feeling that the air around him seemed to be getting colder.

But he saw his face as usual, but his thin lips were slightly compressed.

Something is wrong.

Then, An Xia threw the phone aside.

Smiling and looking at Mu Chenyuan, "Are you angry?"

After falling in love, I also know to think for my boyfriend.

Mu Chenyuan sighed and admitted truthfully, "Well, a little bit."

"Then I think about how to deal with it." An Xia is still very scrupulous about her boyfriend's thoughts.

If it's her, it's more or less possible.

She can think so, Mu Chenyuan is very happy, "No, you need to close the network, if you drag it down, it may add more victims."

"I also want to make a quick fight, and I want to go to the team quickly." An Xia said, resting his head on his shoulders, lazily: "Being a student is very boring."

Mainly, this task is not exciting.

Mu Chenyuan turned his head, and the two cuddled up to speak.

"The above is also investigating Xu Yong. As long as you grab his tail, your task will be almost the same."

An Xia closed her eyes, her voice became low and long, and she seemed to fall asleep, "I still need to find out if he is in contact with Chang Fan. Here, I need to think about it."

Mu Chenyuan glanced at her, distress flashed in his eyes, and dark circles under his eyes.

He whispered: "Chang Fan is also being monitored. Any problems will be dealt with as soon as possible."

"Come on, pillow, I'll press it for you." As he said, he held An Xia on her lap and massaged her temples, eyebrows and other positions with moderate intensity.

An Xia was a little sleepy at first, but now she is even more sleepy.

"Quickly solve it. I'm so bored that my bones are about to get moldy. Last night I thought I would move my muscles and bones. As a result, there was nothing."

Mu Chenyuan laughed, "Still worrying about last night's pity? Your roommate, isn't it scary?"

An Xia said, "I was shocked."

"It was also my carelessness. I was thinking about taking them out to play, but I didn't expect to run into the Fei family infighting. Fei Weiye was quite good at playing, and the foreplay was so big, but in the end he won."

"Yao Qiu's whereabouts are unknown, I'm afraid it has been accidental."

This is the task of the Changgang National Police, and Mu Chenyuan will not be told if there is any progress.

"He has been spotted, and the truth will come to light one day. He is disciplined and law-abiding, no matter how investigations are done, he will be exposed to the law, even if he is hidden, just like Chang Fan and Xu Yong. "

As Mu Chenyuan said, his fingers gently stroked her eyebrows, "Don't think too much, take a break."

"Okay." An Xia curled her mouth, "I will come to you to change your dressing tomorrow night?"

Opened his eyes, looked at the embarrassment close at hand, pretending to be embarrassed: "Or let's change place, climbing the water pipe is also very tiring."

Chapter 1203: Fight for no return at night

She really didn't let her climb the water pipe.

Mu Chenyuan looked at her with a smile, only petting in his eyes, "Where to change? You decide."

"I'll decide? Are you sure?" An Xia laughed, her eyes gleaming, bright lights spilling into her eyes, like stars, "Don't regret it."

"No regrets." Mu Chenyuan shook her hand, rubbing her palm lightly with his fingers, "It's up to you."

An Xia spit out two words very happily, "Hotel."

The choice is not unexpected at all.

"OK? No change?"

I am sure to answer, "If you don't change it, you won't be allowed to change it."

"Good." Mu Chenyuan nodded in agreement.

Unlike before, there was no resistance, An Xia didn't believe it anymore, "You, you agreed so quickly? No idea?"

"It's up to you." Mu Chenyuan smiled, "However, you need to come back at night, and you will have class the next morning."

Mu Chenyuan clearly remembered what classes Anxia had every week.

"Went to the hotel, came back overnight, wasting room fees." An Xia lobbied, he was so happy, then she would fight for it.

Maybe it happened!

This time, Mu Chenyuan did not nod his head.

Gently squeezed the bridge of her Xiuqiao's nose with her fingers, bent her eyes, and looked at the girlfriend who was resting on her lap tenderly.

"You can't stay overnight."

An Xia is still fighting, "College students can stay overnight."

Mu Chenyuan refused to give in, "You have class the next morning."

An Xiayou did not give up, "We can catch the car in the morning."

"The two go back to school at the same time, they will be seen." Mu Chenyuan refused to give up, "After changing the medicine, go back to school immediately.

An Xia: "..."

With a sullen face, "Go to the hotel to change the medicine? Do you have a lot of money? Do something else, okay?"

"When we went out, it was meant to change the medicine." Mu Chenyuan smiled, pretending to be serious and answered, "After changing the medicine and returning to school, if we have time, we can walk outside."

In an instant, An Xia was no longer interested.

"Forget it, I'll keep climbing the pipe."

Good guy, thought he looked away!

Unexpectedly, it turned out to be just opening the room and changing the medicine!

She thinks too much.

Mu Chenyuan smiled in his eyes, "Then we eat? There is a mountain top restaurant, which is not bad."

This task is not like before, it needs to race against time to complete, there are no new clues at present, and it doesn't matter if you relax properly.

Eating together, that's okay.

It was so pleasant to decide.

The two chatted for a while, and An Xia left along the water pipe again.

Mu Chenyuan's old photo stood on the balcony and watched her walk out of his sight before returning to the dormitory.

Then, what I didn't expect was that on the next day, An Xia missed the appointment.

Luo Keyi and Tian Xinyuan had a fight, accidentally overturning the kettle, hot boiling water splashed on the calves of the two of them, and they were so hot that they cried "Wow".

An Xia: "..."

Are all three-year-olds?

Can you fight in the dormitory?

Quickly notify the counselor and rush to the hospital.

All six people in the dormitory went to the hospital together. An Xia drove by himself, picked up Lin Yinya, and stepped on the accelerator to reach the hospital.

When I rushed to the hospital, I saw that the grim-faced counselor was asking Tang Chuye, Axiculo, and Tong Xiaoguan.

During the fight, An Xia and Lin Yinya were chatting.

Lin Yinya asked her to tell her that it was mainly Changfan's side.

Before the matter was finished, he received a call from Tong Xiaoguan, saying that Tian Xinyuan and Luo Keyi had a fight and went to the hospital with burns.

"What the **** is going on? How did the two of them fight? Who of you came forward to tell me!"

The counselor has a headache. Whenever something goes wrong in An Xia's dormitory, it is always a big deal.

This time it's alright, fighting and getting burned to the hospital!

Tong Xiaoguan was frightened by the instructor's anger, and whispered: "We don't know exactly why we fought. The three of us came back and the two had already quarreled."

"Tian Xinyuan said that Luo Keyi used her skin care products, and Luo Keyi said that Tian Xinyuan had wronged her. We don't know who used her hands first."

Chapter 1204: Fight into the hospital

Tong Xiaoguan is not sure if it is because who used skin care products.

For this matter, there is no need to fight.

It is estimated that there is something else.

"What about you two? Don't know?" The counselor turned to Tang Chuye and Asicuo.

The two of them didn't even know, and they shook their heads.

"What we heard was the same as Xiaoguan heard, saying it was skin care products."

"Don't you know how to pull it apart when you fight? Watching it all?" In a bad mood, the instructor's anger spread to the three of them.

An Xia's face darkened when he heard the words.

Fighting this kind of thing, two people really want to fight, who can pull it apart?

The counselor is a bit unreasonable.

"What are you going to join in the fun?" Lin Yinya grabbed An Xia and said coldly: "It's me, I won't go there. It's not too late to wait for the counselor to finish the anger."

An Xia glanced at her and asked her, "So, you were like this before? Did you know how to protect yourself beforehand? Nothing, join in the fun?"

Most of the ideas that used to bully Xiao Anxia were made by Lin Yinya.

She is a girl who is used to playing yin.

When the past was mentioned again, Lin Yinya's expression on her face was a little stiff, don't look up, and said unnaturally: "How do you like to mention the past."

"It's been so long, and you always remember what you are doing. I'm not doing it for you. If you are past now, you will definitely be scolded by the counselor."

It was also that she had done too much before, and it seemed that she was going to be remembered by An Xia for a lifetime.

An Xia is to remember Xiao An Xia's life.

Sneered, "I can't remember the cruel things you did? Then I tell me now, I will always remember them."

Will not forgive Xiao Anxia for everyone who has hurt her!

"Remember it, remember it if you want!" Lin Yinya was a little embarrassed, "Really careful, can't you forgive me once I see you apologize to you once?"

An Xia's face was frosty, "No."

"..." Lin Yinya had nothing to do, took a deep breath, forget it, it was her fault, no more disputes.

"Then you are past now, I can still testify, you and I have something together."

Since she cannot be forgiven for what she has done before, then-rely on her more.

Strive to maintain a good relationship and don't become an enemy.

Become an enemy with An Xia and die faster.

The two came to the counselor together.

As Lin Yinya said, when the counselor saw An Xia, the first sentence was, "Are you not in the dormitory?"

"Counselor, An Xia and I were talking about something. It was only after I received a call from Tong Xiaoguan that I knew that there was something wrong with the dormitory." Lin Yinya spoke first, "Who knows someone will fight and get into the hospital."

The counselor didn't say much, but asked all of them, "Luo Keyi only came to school last night. Tonight, the two got into a fight. Did they have a conflict during the day?"

An Xia has never paid attention to these things, and directly replied, "I don't know, I didn't pay attention."

Tong Xiao visualized it for a while and shook his head, "I don't know, Tian Xinyuan will go first in the morning class, and we will go with Luo Keyi."

"At noon, neither of them was with us. In the afternoon, Luo Keyi didn't go back to the dormitory during class. I don't know where he went."

"Tian Xinyuan didn't go back to the bedroom either."

"We came back in the evening and the two had already had a quarrel. It's hard to tell if we had a conflict before."

Luo Keyi is a new roommate, and he still has a certain sense of distance from his classmates.

And Tian Xinyuan, who has never been with An Xia and others, is still the same today, no surprise.

They also want to know now why the two of them fought.

Seeing that the counselor couldn't ask for any reason, he was angrily waiting at the door of the emergency room.

I don't know if the problem is serious.

Parents have to be notified.

Thinking of Tian Xinyuan's parents, the counselor has a headache again.

Tian Xinyuan's parents want to know that their baby daughter is scalded, for fear of making trouble.

And Rokey's parents--

My daughter had an accident at the beginning of school and finally got out of the shadows and went to school. As a result, she got into the hospital with a fight and burns on the first day of school.

Chapter 1205: Active pursuit

Fortunately, the situation of the two is not serious.

The counselor suddenly breathed a sigh of relief.

He pressed his anger and asked the two of them, "Why are you fighting? One and fifty-one tell me! Don't have tasks to hide."

Outside the emergency room, An Xia texted Xu Yong back.

"The car is coming so soon? Last time the sales consultant said that it might be postponed until the end of the month."

Xu Yong did not reply to Xu Yong's text message last night. Tonight, Xu Yong took the initiative to contact her again.

The supercar ordered in another car shop has arrived. If it is convenient, he can accompany her to pick up the car tonight.

The sales consultant of the car dealership hasn't contacted her yet, so he contacted her first.

An Xia replied, "I'm in the hospital now, it's not convenient to come over, so I'll talk later."

Put the phone away after returning the information.

the other side

Winsier sitting in the car was also angry.

"Still didn't get the hair?" he asked Curry.

Yesterday I made an appointment. I came to school to get An Xia's hair at noon.

Well, he came over tonight, but still said he didn't get it.

Since you didn't get it, why didn't you say it earlier?

You can change the time, you can also come to pick it up at the next meeting.

It happened that he had already got it, and it would be done by coming over at the appointed time.

Looking at Curry with his empty hands, Winsier's temples twitched bulgingly, and his anger could no longer be suppressed.

Curry replied in a deep voice, "Sorry, Lord Earl. He didn't get it. He said that Miss An Xia had something to do and went to the hospital."

Went to the hospital?

what happened?

"The reason for going to the hospital?" Winsier asked.

"The classmates who slept in the same room fought, and the two were scalded by boiling water and rushed to the first hospital."

Winsier pondered for a few seconds, then made a decisive, "Go to the hospital!"

You need to get your hair as soon as possible.

The lunatic An Qian was in Lailang, and it only took more than three hours to fly from Lailang to Changhai Xia Guo. If she knew her Changhai, she would definitely chase him.

Until then...

Winsier's blue eyes looked out of the car window, and there were sharp sharp lights passing by.

Don't let Miss An Xia be in danger because of him.

Curry rushed to the hospital as fast as he could. As soon as he got out of the car, he saw a young man blowing in front of him like a gust of wind.

Very familiar, seems to have seen it.

Curry glanced at it and said Shen: "It's the waiter rescued by Miss An Xia on the cruise ship."

It's him.

Winsier didn't feel relieved, just quickened his pace.

Miss An Xia is a little special to the waiter.

Xu Yong rushed all the way to the emergency room, and saw An Xia and her classmates standing in the corridor, not knowing what to talk about.

"Miss Ann."

Breathlessly greeted, the delicate and handsome face was sweating.

An Xia looked at him with a look of surprise, "Why are you here?"

"Where is it injured? Does it matter?" He asked, and did not answer An Xia.

"I'm not injured." An Xia stunned, "Do you think I was injured?"

When Xu Yong heard it, he could clearly see that his tense expression was loosened a lot, "If you don't have it, just don't have it."

Then it became very unnatural, "Then I, don't disturb you, goodbye."

"Wait." An Xia kept him, "I just said in a text message that I was in the hospital and it was not convenient to come here temporarily. You didn't ask me any more, so you came to the hospital?"

As he said, An Xia laughed, "You are too stupid, you can call me and ask."

"...I'm afraid you are in the hospital." Xu Yong blushed slightly, feeling a little at a loss. "It's fine if it's okay. Then, see when you have time, then come and pick up the car?"

"The car has just been put into the warehouse and it is very beautiful."

An Xia smiled and looked at him, "Tomorrow, I will come over tomorrow."

"Also, it's not that I was injured. It was my classmate who was slightly injured. It's not a big problem."

As soon as the voice fell, there was another "Miss An Xia" with a low voice, which was not standard Xia Guoyu.

Winsier came over.

Chapter 1206: The annoying guy is here again

An Xia's head hurt when he heard his voice.

Touch your forehead and turn your back to it.

I don't want to see him, I don't want to see him.

The whole body cells, even the hair strands are repelling him.

Is this person so free?

He has slipped to the Changhai Sea. Can the international metropolis of Changgang not keep his pace of debauchery?

Xu Yong's eyes narrowed slightly and asked An Xia in a low voice, "Do you need me to ask him to go?"

Seeing Anxia's rejection of this person.

"Can you make it?" An Xia doubted.

Please go to Winsell?

It was not that she underestimated Xu Yong, but that Winsier was her strongest opponent in the battle for the lord of the imperial domain.

Xu Yong is really not An Xia Kuang, he really is not qualified to be regarded as an opponent by An Xia.

"Try it." Xu Yong replied with some uncertainty. It is certainly not an ordinary person to be able to appear at Fei Shao's party.

He was not sure if he could please go.

But he has to try.

An Xia pursed the corner of her mouth, "Okay, thank you."

He reassured him, "It really doesn't matter if you don't leave, I just don't like dealing with people from abroad. He seems to have no evil to me, maybe he wants to be friends with me."

"Miss An." Xu Yong sighed, "This gentleman has chased Changhai from Changgang to Changhai. He doesn't just want to be friends with you anymore."

An Xia pretended to be taken aback, "Then what does he want to do? I only met him once."

"Sometimes one meeting is enough for some people..." Xu Yong seemed to think something, but he quickly said with an unnatural expression: "I'll go and ask him first, you are with your classmates, don't leave alone."

Lin Yinya, who was standing next to her, smiled when she heard it, "Then you go over quickly, don't delay time."

Che, there is still the face to say that others, he is not a virtue?

Xu Yong was quite embarrassed and left hurriedly after seeing the shameful thoughts being exposed.

Behind him, I heard An Xia say to her classmates, "You are like a hedgehog. You have to **** everybody. Xu Yong helped me last night. You have a better attitude, OK?"

"I didn't help me, why should I have a better attitude. When it was you, I found that you are quite capable of attracting bees and butterflies. The school has Chang Fan, Xu Yong outside, and a foreigner. You are quite capable. what."

Lin Yinya wants yin and yang to get angry, which can hurt people to vomit blood.

An Xia doesn't matter anymore.

Let her hurt.

Xu Yong hurriedly left with a sneer from the corner of his mouth.

These girls are all eloquent, and I can't help but want to teach them a lesson.

Don't worry, look back to see if there is a chance to clean them up.

And Winsier was struck by An Xia's turning motion, causing inexplicable colic in his chest.

Hearing his voice, turning around without even looking at him?

Hate him so much?

He was exactly the same as the An Xia he knew!

Every time she meets, as long as there is his figure, she who is still talking immediately closes the corners of her mouth and turns to leave.

Unless he has something to report to her, don't want to talk to her.

The pain of the heart twitching, Winsier took a slower step.

Curry watched and sighed inwardly.

Poor Lord Earl.

He and Miss An Qian are now in a morbid obsession.

It is clear that Emperor Anxia has been dead for five full years, but in their hearts, Emperor Anxia has never left.

The planes were all burnt like that, and the relics of Emperor Anxia were found in the wreckage. How could it be possible that they were not dead.

Attachment to the bone, has become sick.

Sick, get cure!

As a subordinate, Curry didn't dare to persuade him, and accompanied him silently.

Seeing the waiter on the ship, he strode towards Winsier, Curry's eyes were cold, and he cleared the court for the earl first.

Hengshou stopped and prevented Xu Yong from approaching the earl.

With a polite voice, "Sir."

There is no extra words, an action has already stated that he is forbidden to approach.

Chapter 1207: The ability to attract bees and butterflies

Xu Yong listened to the other's awkward Mandarin, and said politely: "Sorry, Miss An told me just now that she is not familiar with you."

Unfamiliar?

Winsier smiled faintly, and the innate arrogance in his handsome face directly killed Xu Yong's gentleness.

Such a condescending attitude changed Xu Yong's face.

He really hates the eyes of these rich people!

Relying on money, always look at people with nostrils!

Winsier smiled deeper when he saw him change his face.

In Xia Guo's words, the waiter Xu Yong is just a little ant.

He didn't talk to Xu Yong, but looked at Kuri and let Kuri solve it.

Curry said coldly: "Is it unfamiliar? I don't need your husband to remind me."

"It's not a reminder, but to tell the two that Miss An doesn't want to see you." Xu Yong showed his patience when facing the guests to make things difficult, and said Shen: "Please don't make Miss An embarrass you."

Winsier is gone.

Not to leave, but to walk towards Anxia.

He decides whether to leave, not Xu Yong.

"gentlemen!"

Seeing this, Xu Yong had an angry look on his face, he wanted to stop Winsier.

But Curry pressed his backhand on the cold wall, "Xu Yong, this is a personal matter between my host and Miss An Xia, you, it's better to be honest."

With that, he pressed Xu Yong to death, making his cheeks even closer to the wall.

Xu Yong was pressed by him to the point that he could not move, his whole face pressed against the wall, and his hands clasped back struggling slightly, the pain was so severe that he did not dare to move anymore.

He never thought that he really had to struggle, and he still had to do it on the surface.

It is best to have a slight injury, because there is a reason to keep in touch with An Xia.

"Don't move, the bone is broken, Mr. Xu still has to spend money for treatment." Curry warned that he was not very polite to Xu Yong.

Seeing this, An Xia's eyes were deeply cold.

Not surprisingly, how could it be possible to stop Winsill with Xu Yongzhi's ability.

Lin Yinya saw her eyes widened.

"An Xia, are you in big trouble?"

Look, he looks great.

An Xia glanced at her and said coldly, "I will go back. They will come out and wait for me to go back to school together."

"Are you going alone?" Lin Yinya was a little nervous, gritted her teeth and said with an expressive expression: "I will accompany you."

Wherever she needed her company, An Xia walked towards Winsier alone.

Seeing it, he said coldly: "Speak in another place."

Winsier smiled gracefully, "Okay."

There are many standards in his Mandarin library. I don't know. I thought he had stayed in Xia Guo for less than ten years.

An Xia was actually quite surprised that he could speak Mandarin.

I haven't seen him say it before.

Xu Yong, who was unable to move, struggled. Anxious and worried, he muffled and said, "Miss An..."

An Xia looked back at him and said to Winsier: "It has nothing to do with him, let him go."

"Do you care about him so much?" Winsier, who was smiling just now, was a little upset, smiled away, waved his hand without looking back, and motioned to Curry to let him go.

When Curry let go, Xu Yong wanted to chase him over, and was stopped again and warned, "Mr. Xu is better to stand here. I think Miss An shouldn't want you to go there now."

I heard An Xia's voice, "Xu Yong, don't come over."

At the end, I added a knife-like sentence, "The person who stopped you is very powerful, you can't beat him."

Xu Yong has arrogance, not the kind of arrogance that I want to move forward, but very sharp arrogance.

No matter how hard he tries to hide it with a gentle surface, it can always be revealed inadvertently.

It's like saying that he is inferior to others, and there is no way to suppress the hidden arrogance.

Also, is this person in a bit of a hatred of wealth?

Chapter 1208: I need you

An Xia looked back at Xu Yong again.

She disliked Winsier, who was a beam from a previous life.

And how could he hate Winsill too?

Hatred for her?

Not necessarily.

Winsier didn't pay attention to Xu Yong. He, like An Xia, was an insignificant person who wasted his time by looking at it more.

Confirming that the conversation will not be heard by Lin Yinya and Xu Yong, An Xia asked Winsier with a cold face, "Uncle, I think you are upset, can you not show up in front of me in the future?"

The less I don't want to see, how can I see it!

"Not for the time being." Winsier worked hard and smiled, "Miss An Xia, you are so much like a friend I know, I have no way to control myself."

"In my heart, a voice kept telling me that I must come and find you."

An Xia was even more indifferent, "Illusion, I suggest going to the psychiatric department."

"Thank you Miss Ann for the suggestion. I think I shouldn't need it." Winsier, who smiled and couldn't keep it, started to worry that he would turn around and leave.

Facing Miss An Xia, who had only seen her three times, his emotions fluctuated too easily.

Just as I met the original emperor.

The words are not speculative, more than half a sentence!

An Xia knew that Winsier had made up his mind to pester herself.

Even without a good face, "Then what do you need? Just say, I don't have time to circle with you."

Forget it, too lazy to deal with him and figure out what he wants.

If you don't have anything to go to the Three Treasures Palace, this opportunity must be something to pester her.

But definitely not recognizing her.

I really wanted to recognize it, I had drawn a gun at her a long time ago.

"Hair, I need a piece of your hair." When the line of sight fell on An Xia's short hair, Winsier also understood why the student said that her hair was not easy to pick up.

It's really not easy to pick up.

It's dark and dense, very smooth, and very strong to look at.

An Xia thought she had heard it wrong, "Say it again?"

hair?

Need a piece of her hair?

Get sick with him!

In my heart, I have become vigilant.

What about after getting the hair?

What does he want to do?

What can one hair do?

The brain is spinning, thinking of your possibilities.

In the end, only one greatest possibility is left.

DNA!

He probably wants to get his own DNA.

"Hair, I need a hair from Miss Anxia." Winsier repeated and explained the reason, "You are too similar to my friend. I want to know if there is a blood relationship between you."

An Xia was silent and said, "You can be sincere."

To be honest enough to surprise her.

When will the thoughtful Earl Winsell be honest enough to tell his true thoughts?

"Because it is very important, I don't want to hide you." Seeing that she did not refuse, Winsier was somewhat relieved, but his expression was already solemn.

"My friend has a special identity. Someone has been searching for her whereabouts secretly, and you are too similar to her. Once you are found, Miss An Xia, you will be very dangerous."

The information revealed is getting bigger and bigger.

An Xia's eyes narrowed, "Your friend, is he missing?"

No way!

She was burnt to ashes, who still thinks she is not dead?

"I hope she is missing." Without telling the death, Winsier was afraid of scaring the girl in front of him, and there was a slight sadness in the handsome face, "but the person looking for her is very abnormal, Miss An Xia, if you fall into her It's hard for you to escape."

An Xia said coldly, "I am not the person you are looking for. Is it possible that I am in danger just because I look like a friend of yours? This is not a metamorphosis, this is sickness and treatment!"

He looked at him suspiciously again, "You didn't mean to scare me on purpose."

Chapter 1209: Alarm handling

After finishing talking, An Xia sighed in her heart, that Lifetime I was too suitable to pretend to be innocent and cheated!

If she said this in her previous life, Winsier would despise it to the point that she would have to fight to the death to understand.

But now she is completely stress-free and unscrupulous, just say what she wants.

Anyway, it was his first head, she just asked naively.

Winsier is actually very unaccustomed.

It's because the girl in front of me is too much like the lord of the emperor domain.

It is very, very unaccustomed to speak innocently to him in the appearance of the lord of the emperor domain.

But it was confirmed that she was not the An Xia she knew.

"I didn't frighten you. There are some people you can never think of with normal thinking." Winsier didn't say much, letting her know that she was in danger. "And I won't hurt you, just want to I know if you have anything to do with my friend."

"My friend, her mother is also from Xia Guo. You are so similar to her, I was thinking, maybe you really have a relationship."

An Xia: "..."

After his analysis, she actually felt so reasonable.

Is it possible to have a relationship with the original self?

So, just rebirth?

He kept quiet on the face and refused with a hum, "Impossible, you are from a foreign country, then your friend is also a foreign country, I don't have a foreign relationship."

"Also, you said for a long time that I am in danger because I am like your friend? Your words are so unreasonable. Who would be so boring and innocent?"

"The most important point is that since it is your friend, you are not the same age, and I am much younger than you! If you are looking for trouble, please also ask for trouble with your peers!"

Who on earth didn't even let her go after her death?

Was it the murderer who assassinated himself in the previous life?

An Qian?

Or someone from another family?

Or the fish caught by the enemies who were eradicated by her previous life?

There are too many feuds in the previous life, and for a while, I can't think of who it is.

Winsier said: "Miss Anxia, if that guy thinks like that, she won't be messing around. Please believe me, I just want to protect you."

"Even if you have nothing to do with my friend, I will definitely protect you."

Five years ago, he didn't protect An Xia well. Five years later, he couldn't turn a blind eye to a girl who was similar to her and had the same name.

But I don't know that An Xia doesn't appreciate it at all.

Even secretly, protection?

Those who want to kill include Winsier!

"I don't need your protection. I don't know what kind of public security your country is like. In our Xia country, people can't help but come here!"

"If you really want to protect me, you might as well tell me who that person is, and I'll call the police to deal with it."

Newspaper? police? Place? reason?

Winsier was stunned.

If the police were to be useful, An Qian would not know how many times she had caught it.

"What's your expression? Do you question the ability of our national city police? Xia Guo governs the country according to the law, and murderers will be sentenced to death. Unlike you abroad, murderers can still be safe."

This is also where An Xia likes Xia Guo.

One of the few countries that retain the death penalty.

Winsier thought for a while and nodded slowly, "You are right, you are in danger to find the city police."

He really forgot about Xia Guo's national conditions. An Qian would have no good end to Xia Guo to make chaos!

"If someone is really unfavorable to you, please call the police in time." Winsier said seriously: "With the protection of your city police, she doesn't dare to mess around."

An Xia showed an expression of impatientness, "I know, I know, inexplicably, can I be a student who can cause murder? I always say that she, her, someone, a man, a man? A woman? Love killing? There must be internal fighting? A reason."

"A very abnormal woman, I hope you will never meet him for the rest of your life." Winsier said sincerely.

Chapter 1210: Please trust me

An Xia narrowed her eyes slightly, a very abnormal woman.

Going back, she thinks about which enemies are women.

Ask Tianshu again, what is An Qian's behavior different from ordinary people.

Finally, Winsier turned the topic around Anxia's hair again, "Hair, can you give me one?"

"No! I don't dare to hurt my body and skin. I am afraid of being injured by my parents." An Xia refused with the extensive and profound Xia Guo traditional culture.

After what he said, she began to wonder if Xiao Anxia had something to do with her.

The DNA must be verified by herself.

Winsier did not understand, he could communicate, but it was really difficult for him to understand the deep Xia Guo traditional culture.

The hospital ran away for nothing, and also did not get An Xia's hair.

Want to talk to An Xia again, the counselor came out.

An Xia asked the counselor for help, saying that someone was following her and wanted her hair.

Frightened the counselor and pulled An Xia behind him, staring at Winsier badly.

"Who are you? What do you want my student's hair to do? Do you have a passport? Are you doing bad things? I warn you that you will pester my students again, and I will call the police immediately."

Winsier explained, "I am not a bad person. I have a passport and I can enter and leave Xia normally. I also explained the reason for wanting hair to Miss An Xia. I..."

"Would you like to leave? I called one, two, three, and I called the police if I didn't leave!" The counselor did not want to listen to his explanation, and while taking out his mobile phone, he warned, "One, two..."

"Madam, I'm leaving now." Winsier had no choice but to surrender.

OK, he goes first.

The hair matter is left to the students.

An Xia's mouth was slightly bent behind the counselor.

Can make Winsier helpless, so happy!

In the past, she and him still needed to maintain a face-to-face relationship, and sometimes they had to make false claims together, smirking and pretending to be friendly and pretending that the relationship was good.

Now, she can do whatever she wants!

Seeing this, Curry became worried for An Xia instead.

Beautiful lady, your resistance has successfully attracted the idea of Lord Earl.

Lord Earl will not stop here, and will definitely come to you again.

As a result, Winsier did not get An Xia's hair until he left, nor did he come to An Xia again.

After receiving a secret report, An Qian might find that he was in Xia Guo, and Winsier had to leave for An Xia.

Before leaving, Winsier sent a text message to Anxia's cell phone.

"Hello Miss An Xia, I am Winsier, I am very sorry for the trouble you have caused. I have left Changhai and I am going to return to my own country. I hope that one day, we can meet again."

When I received it, Anxia was testing the car in the dealership.

The car had arrived for ten days, and Anxia didn't pick up the car right away, citing more courses.

It was Mu Chenyuan who refused to let her come, and after the cut on her leg was recovered, he nodded in agreement.

It was Xu Yong who accompanied her on the test.

These days, he has been keeping in touch with An Xia, but it is often fanciful. He only sent two text messages to An Xia in ten days.

Once I asked, "Have you eaten?"

Once I asked, "Are you okay?"

An Xia didn't reply, and asked Lin Yinya to contact Chang Fan and reveal her situation to Chang Fan.

Lin Yinya is particularly willing.

The reason for her willingness is simple: to see who is playing to death!

At the special education institute, Lin Yinya was the think tank of their small group, looking at Jiao Di Di, but with a lot of methods.

It takes some skills to clean up the stepmother and the biological father until they dare not see people.

Winsier's text message came, and the phone on the center console lit up.

Xu Yongzheng taught An Xia to be familiar with the operation in the car, glanced inadvertently, and immediately retracted his gaze.
