Chapter 1231: Anxia's crisis

An Xia was sickened by Xu Yong's words "I want to accompany you more".

Until the school, the stomach was rolling.

But Tong Xiaoguan didn't know.

With two small pink bubbles in her eyes, she clenched her fists and prayed, "God, give me a boyfriend like Xu Yong! I wish I would burn incense every day and kowtow."

An Xia was driving the car, and he poured cold water upon hearing the words, "God, Tong Xiaoguan's wish is not counted."

Give a boyfriend like Xu Yong?

Are you looking for a dead end?

Tong Xiaoguan turned his head and stared, "Brother, don't take you like this!"

Then there was an aggrieved face, "I also want to talk about sweet love, and I also want to have a boyfriend of twenty-four filial piety."

"Xu Yong's model, don't think about it. Change it, I don't think the economics and management department's one will count. I will bring you breakfast for a week." An Xia was really worried about Tong Xiaoguan, so she chose Xu Yong as a model for her spouse. It was really miserable.

Are you in love?

The kind that kills you.

Cherish your life, girl!

May she never run into her boyfriend "Xu Yongquan" in her life.

After returning to the dormitory, the clothes purchased by An Xia have been delivered, and Tian Xinyuan has already received the goods for An Xia.

She is the only one who understands luxury goods in the bedroom.

Not to mention, she is very careful in doing this kind of work. Before receiving the goods, she asked the purchase list, and checked the items one by one, and then let them go.

Since the last cruise incident, Tian Xinyuan has also restrained a lot in front of An Xia, has changed, and no longer thinks that everyone should take things for her for granted.

Seeing An Xia came back, he said: "You look at the list, I check that there is no problem, you can check it yourself."

"No, you can watch it." An Xia said, took out a small paper box from a long paper bag and handed it to Tian Xinyuan, "Thank you, this one is for you."

"Ah~~"

Tian Xinyuan was surprised, holding the small paper box in her hand, she was stunned.

An Xia stuffed the clothes into the closet, "Thanks for receiving the goods for me."

But Tian Xinyuan was excited, and whispered: "I, I, I... I haven't received a gift from a classmate for a long time."

Uh-

Tong Xiaoguan said, "Hurry up and introspect why this is the case."

so poor.

She would receive small gifts from time to time.

Tian Xinyuan really didn't understand about the human relationship accident, only knowing to ask for it blindly, or to ask for it as it should be, except for family members who will be used to you, and no one else will be used to it.

Tian Xinyuan, who received the gift, did not answer her mouth for the first time. She walked to An Xia, and thanked you very quietly, "An Xia, thank you."

Without giving An Xia a reaction, he turned his head and rushed out of the dormitory.

An Xia: "..."

What is this reaction?

Are you embarrassed? Or are you too excited to receive the gift?

Ignoring, put the clothes away, An Xia sent a text message to Mu Chenyuan, "I want to return to the team! Urgent return to the team!"

Mu Chenyuan has been waiting for An Xia's text messages.

Following the suspect out to go shopping, he was somewhat worried.

The text message was received, and the message was answered in seconds, "What's wrong? Are you wronged?"

"No." An Xia quickly replied, "Xu Yong's words made me feel bad."

"What did you say?"

"He said he wanted to accompany me more." He replied with a picture of vomiting against the wall.

Mu Chenyuan laughed and said, "If you are greedy, you will be deceived."

"I don't know how many innocent girls were cheated away by him." After inputting the text, add a kitchen knife with a knife.

Mu Chenyuan replied: "There are new discoveries by the national police, do you want to know."

think!

Of course I do!

It was this new discovery that accelerated the investigation of this case.

Then, Anxia's crisis came unknowingly.

Her picture was sent to the emperor domain.

The matter of the week was delivered to An Qian.

When An Qian got the photo, she was shocked.

"Who is she! Who is she!"

He asked in a sharp voice, and uncontrollable panic crawled in his eyes.

Chapter 1232: Unsure

In mid-November, it was cloudy and slightly cool, and the long sea under the twilight was enveloped by black, and it dully pressed the sky over the city, and even the mood was not very good.

Changhai University's grade contact came as scheduled.

Location: Houhai Seaview Hotel.

The president of the hotel graduated from Changhai University, and he sponsored each grade contact.

An Xia got out of the bus and glanced across the row of tall coconut trees near the sea, her black eyes were slightly cool.

After tonight, she will bid farewell to her identity as a student.

I've been looking forward to it for a long time, but there are still some reluctances.

Behind him is the sound of Tong Xiaoguan jumping out of the car.

She has never walked honestly.

Like to bounce around, don't walk in a straight line, and have to turn around.

"Xiaoguan, slow down and feel awkward to your feet."

Early Tang also reminded.

She is a worried girl who never takes advantage of others. She has a soft temper and it doesn't matter if she suffers a little loss.

However, the rabbit will bite people in a hurry, bullying her too hard, and she won't quarrel with you, she turned and left in a dull voice.

Then came Axicuo, a calm-tempered girl.

The mind is a bit heavy, I keep everything in my heart, and understand everything, but I don't say it. She belongs to a girl who has a plan and works silently.

She laughed and joked, "Gravity is good, otherwise, with her excitement at this time, she would have to float away."

Occasionally, I will say a few joking words, which means that I am in a good mood.

Tian Xinyuan followed closely.

Hearing this, he was rather arrogant and reminded, "Can you be a little colder? Don't be ashamed of the world."

The princess is ill again.

Not very good at talking, it is easy to offend people.

She also likes to trouble others, but she still doesn't know that others don't want to help her, she immediately burst into tears, and was more wronged than anyone else.

But it's so unique, and donating money to children in impoverished mountainous areas is particularly generous.

Luo Keyi came down last.

It is estimated that the beginning of school left her a psychological shadow, and she is far less bright and carefree than the previous photos.

With distrust of the whole environment, whoever speaks to her a little more proactively, she will look at the other person with a look of "you are a bad guy, what do you want to do".

The counselor has a headache. In private, she has taken her to the counseling room of the school many times for counseling, fearing that she may be mentally ill.

Her parents love her very much and send snacks to the whole class every three to five, hoping to take care of Luo Keyi.

Lin Yinya——

Not much to say, a guy who can survive anywhere if you throw it away.

There are still many, many students in the class, who have different temperaments, and will have a little conflict. They reconcile after a few days of silence.

When she was a pure student, she could be regarded as having it.

Standing under the coconut tree, An Xia looked at a young face full of youthfulness, and the corners of her mouth couldn't help but smile.

"This day, how dark it is to make people panic, it won't rain heavily."

Tong Xiao watched the beach, worrying on his always optimistic face, "Why do I feel a little flustered."

"It was originally cloudy due to the weather, and it was also at the beach and affected by the environment." Asicuo said, he beat his chest, "I was also a little flustered, and I felt that there was going to be some sea going out."

After speaking, she stopped the meeting, and asked Tong Xiaoguan in a flustered manner, "There is no plan to go to sea."

She has a psychological shadow of going to sea.

"Going out to sea?" Tian Xinyuan heard it, and asked silently, "It's arranged to go out to sea? Why don't I know? I won't go out to sea!"

She has more psychological shadows than them!

People who have been thrown into the sea by people, and the gate of ghosts has been closed once.

Tong Xiaoguan was even more disturbed by her surprise, "If we are not going to sea, the school also forbids us to go to sea, and we are only allowed to do activities in the hotel."

"We are not allowed to approach the beach, and staff will be on duty 24 hours a day."

That's good, that's good.

Tian Xinyuan breathed a sigh of relief.

But Tong Xiaoguan was still a little uneasy.

Chapter 1233: Whereabouts unknown

In the evening, the juniors and seniors communicated with the freshmen and juniors, and Anxia couldn't get in.

One is that the content they communicated is all about some care about the job after entering the society in the future.

The second is that some take the opportunity to solve singles.

Third, discussing and studying, there are relatively few of these types, and there is Asicuo around him.

She was chatting with a medical school sister, and they had a very happy conversation.

An Xia talked with her, knowing that she actually prefers to study medicine.

However, she studied medicine for too long, and family reasons did not allow her to devote herself to medicine. After several struggles, she finally chose a foreign language.

The time is short, the heat and cold, and the family can still be used at ordinary times. If the professional is good, you can take some translation work in the sophomore year. You can earn a living allowance and reduce the burden on the family.

Give up your dreams because of family burdens, no matter which country you are in.

With Asicuo's temperament, even if she chooses a path that is completely opposite to her dream, she will finish it very seriously.

It's just a pity that she has a talent for medicine.

The medical school of Changhai University is good. In addition to a class in the Department of Economics and Management, there is also a class in the School of Medicine, plus a class in the Department of Foreign Languages and a class in the Faculty of Arts. There are a total of four classes of students in the Seaview Hotel.

An Xia chose to watch and watched the young students expand their contacts in the sorority.

Until Chang Fan came over.

Ever since she stared at Xu Yong, Chang Fan changed people to stare at him.

Counting the time, she and Chang Fan have not seen each other for nearly forty days.

Seeing him coming now, An Xia curled her mouth slightly and clinked glasses with Chang Fan very politely.

"Why are you so worried? Your boyfriend is angry with you?" Chang Fan asked, without concealing the concerns in the language, "Did you have a fight?"

An Xia Xiaokou Hotel provides champagne, with a faint expression: "Fortunately, it's a bit boring."

"Why is it boring, or else, I will take you to find someone to chat with?" Chang Fan invited, "You must be boring to stay alone, chatting together, talking and laughing will not be boring."

An Xia thought for a while, nodded, "Okay."

Seeing her promise, Chang Fan flicked light deep in his eyes.

People, he brought it out.

How to plan next has nothing to do with him.

An Xia, An Xia, this is the end of your ignorance.

Soon, An Xia and Chang Fan disappeared into the hall.

Tong Xiaoguan only felt that his eyelids were throbbing harder, and his heart was even more panicked, and he seemed to have some shortness of breath.

"Where's elder brother? You don't have eldest brother with you?"

She found Tang Chuye.

Tang Chu also looked blank, "Big brother is not with me, she said she wants to be quiet by herself."

"What's the matter? Are you looking for eldest brother if you have something to do? Contact by cell phone."

Tong Xiaoguan pressed his panic, "You and I are looking for the eldest brother together, I'm terribly panicked."

The two found the others, but none of them saw An Xia.

In the end, a senior from the Department of Economics and Management reminded, "Twenty minutes ago, I saw An Xia and Chang Gongzi go out together, you can ask Chang Gongzi."

Why are you walking with Chang Fan's senior again?

After hurriedly saying "thank you", the five people in the bedroom found Chang Fan.

Chang Fan looked astonished, "I didn't come with me, I talked to her for a few words and we separated."

He frowned and asked, "What's the matter? Are you looking for her in a hurry?"

"Chang Xuechang, when did you separate from my eldest brother? Who saw you and my elder brother separated?" Asicuo asked straightforwardly, his eyes locked and Chang Fan's tone was a bit bad.

Chang Fan laughed, "A few of them saw it in person."

They were all senior sisters and seniors from the Department of Economics and Management, and Ke Qi, the boss of the fencing club, was also there.

She smiled and said: "Sister, we really saw An Xia and Chang Gongzi separated, Chang Gongzi also let An Xia come in with us, she said she wanted to walk alone."

"Don't worry, I won't go to the beach, someone is watching."

Tong Xiaoguan's face changed, "Senior, where did you and your eldest brother separate?"

"The small landscape pavilion on the first floor, go and take a look, maybe she is still there." Chang Fan put the wine glass down, his expression was also nervous, "Go, I'll accompany you to take a look."

As soon as I arrived on the first floor, I ran into two hotel staff with extremely nervous expressions, all wet.

Behind him, there is a person in charge of the hotel, who is making a call with his mobile phone, "Yes, the sea view hotel, three people fell into the water, our hotel staff are still looking, the waves are too big, there is no way to find too far."

When Tong Xiaoguan heard this, his eyes suddenly went dark.

Grabbing this person in charge at an extremely fast speed, his voice trembled like a zither string, "Who fell into the water? Male? Female? Is it our Changhai student?"

Five minutes later, all the fellow Changhai students knew that An Xia had fallen into the water and his whereabouts were unknown.

The audience was in an uproar.

Why did you fall into the water?

Is it a mistake?

Isn't it strictly forbidden to go to the sea?

How can you go to the beach?

The counselor learned that he rushed out staggeringly, his face was so pale that there was no blood.

Her student, something went wrong!

One hour passed, two hours passed, three hours passed...

An Xia is still missing.

Chapter 1234: Her Shura Field

On the third day of Anxia's disappearance, the students of Changhai University spontaneously mourned in the forum.

Other students bought flowers and candles and placed them next to the two super sports cars that had fallen to the gray layer.

Who ever thought that such a big thing would happen.

Who ever thought that An Xia even took his own life in order to save people.

Who ever thought...

The classmates who still talked to themselves one second will be separated forever in the next second.

The entire foreign language department is in a downturn. Even the classes are in a state of insufficiency, sad for the departure of the same age, and sigh for the impermanence of life.

The third day passed, the fourth day passed, the fifth day passed...

The tenth day passed...

Some students in the forum were asking, "Have you found it?"

"I want to see people in life, and corpses in death. Isn't the scope not large enough?"

"The upstairs is too pessimistic. I think An Xia must have been washed ashore by the waves and was rescued by a good guy. Maybe because of amnesia, he can't come back to us for the time being."

"I have a bold conjecture. Will it fall into the black hole of time and space and go through it?"

"Let's pray for a miracle to happen!"

"Pray for a miracle to happen."

"Pray for a miracle to happen."

...

Chang Fan flicked the mouse, a cold smile appeared on his face.

Pray for a miracle to happen?

That's really not there.

Never think of a miracle happening.

An Xia, who is toasting and not eating fine wine, is probably shipped abroad early now.

Well, maybe it was delivered to the seller, and he was living an inhuman life.

Who would make her ignorant? Anyone who is more acquainted, and whoever stays away from Xu Yong, won't end up so miserable.

Who is to blame?

Blame her for being too rich.

Blame her for not knowing people clearly.

He tapped his finger on the keyboard, and Chang Fan replied, "It's been ten days, there is no miracle, please feel sorry."

A picture of three small candles is attached to the text.

In the evening, Changfan adds hundreds of likes.

Some people scolded him.

It is Tong Xiaoguan.

Tong Xiaoguan, who was ten jins thin, scolded a lot.

After scolding, she cried and said, "Why don't the housekeeper of my eldest brother come to the school again? Doesn't he even watch our school forum?"

"Why doesn't he find out the * of the * brothers in the forum?"

Ten days later, the bedroom was still shrouded in grief.

There are only four people left in the six-person dormitory.

On the second day of Anxia's accident, Luo Keyi applied for transfer from the dormitory the first thing he did when he returned to school.

She said that she was scared.

Tian Xinyuan also quarreled with her, of course, she lost the quarrel again.

However, her relationship with Tong Xiaoguan, Axicuo, and Tang Chuye also improved.

Hearing Tong Xiaoguan crying and cursing, she drew out a tissue and handed it over, gritted her teeth and said: "What can I do to find out, say a few words about them at most."

"Okay, cry less, and then go to the bureau to ask about the situation, don't be dumb for a long time and can't say a word."

For ten consecutive days, the four of them plus Lin Yinya, a total of five people, went to the police station every day to ask if there was any news.

Every time I passed, I was disappointed.

They said, "Be mentally prepared."

What psychological preparation should you make?

Be mentally prepared that the person is no longer there.

After half a month, the five were disappointed and left the game again.

Only after returning to school did I know that someone from my eldest brother's house dragged away the two overtaking cars that had fallen into a thick layer of dust.

All personal belongings belonging to the eldest brother in the dormitory were also taken away.

The five returned to the bedroom, looked at the completely vacant bed, hugged each other and wept bitterly.

They didn't know that their eldest brother had this dress in a centralized box, waiting to disembark.

There was the sound of footsteps outside, followed by the sound of someone talking.

Solo is spoken, which is also a language familiar to Anxia.

"Are you sick?"

"She is very healthy and has no problems."

"Good job! Get her out and be careful. Especially her face, don't have any scars."

"Okay, sir, we must be very careful."

An Xia, with his hands and feet tied, was sitting in the corner of the concentration box. He heard a "clang", and his blindfolded eyes felt the long-lost solar dizziness.

After fifteen, Anxia finally saw darkness.

A cold smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

It won't be long before the Shura field that belongs to her is coming.

Chapter 1235: Forget

An Xia has been missing for a month. Except for Tong Xiaoguan and the other girls are still in grief, the other students have gradually forgotten.

People's forgetfulness is actually great.

This is why it is said that time is the cure for grief.

Over time, over time, no matter how sad and sad things are, they will gradually let go.

Because, people who are alive are still carrying the burden of life, forcing themselves to move forward.

It's already a life of burden, so how come I have so much time to keep myself in the past.

What's more, they are not so familiar with An Xia.

However, some students still mentioned An Xia occasionally.

Especially at a certain noon at the end of December, Chang Fan was taken out of the classroom by several policemen, and the entire Changhai School was "blasted".

"Oh grass! What's the matter? It's not really Changqing who killed An Xia, right?"

"No way! No way! An Xia has never been with him, there is no need for such a cruel hand."

"Because of love gives birth to hatred, are such examples rare?"

That's a lot.

Love killings happen every year.

It's just that they didn't expect to happen to them.

It happened to be the end of get out of class at noon, Tong Xiaoguan knew, she ran away with crimson eyes.

Not only her, but Tang Chuye, Asicuo, and Tian Xinyuan also followed.

Instead, Lin Yinya was the most calm one.

Don't know why, she always feels that An Xia is not dead.

How could such a cruel person let himself die?

It always feels like she is still alive, living well somewhere, maybe even looking at them.

"Whatever you run! Stop!"

She yelled while running.

The four running wild did not listen.

Tong Xiaoguan ran the fastest.

She wanted to know if Chang Fan killed her eldest brother!

She wants to ask to understand.

But how could she ask about this kind of thing?

Tong Xiaoguan ran all the way to the campus gate, and finally saw Chang Fan and the four city policemen who had taken him away.

There were other students watching by the roadside.

"He really killed it?"

"Oh my God! The murderer is in our school! It's scary!"

"I really can't provoke this kind of * casually in the future, I don't know when my life will be gone."

...

Pointing, it has been determined that Chang Fan is the murderer of An Xia.

Tong Xiaoguan thinks so too.

She was stopped by two city policemen, and she was not allowed to come closer.

"Chang Fan! Chang Fan!"

Tong Xiaoguan screamed sharply, "Is it you? Is it you! Is it you!"

The voice was sad and angry.

Chang Fan paused, turned his head, glared at Tong Xiaoguan, yelling, "It's a fart! I don't know what's going on!"

It's not that he never thought of fleeing, but he can't escape.

To escape, represents a guilty conscience.

Fleeing means there is a problem.

So he honestly cooperated.

Not only to cooperate, but also to play stupid and get rid of oneself.

Tong Xiaoguan just came to the door and gave him a chance to speak.

"It's not you, why should I catch you! Why!"

Struggling, but there is no way to go any further, even being warned by the city police.

"Classmates, please calm down, we are handling the case!"

"I know, I know, Uncle City Police, I just want to know why you arrested Chang Fan, did he kill my eldest brother, yes, my eldest brother, An Xia! The rescuer at sea has disappeared and has not been found."

"Did you find something that made him take him away?"

No one gave her an answer.

No comment.

Chang Fan was taken to the police car.

Before getting in the car, he felt that he would be fine.

With a seamless plan, how could something happen to him?

until...

He saw Mu Chenyuan.

Saw Mu Chenyuan wearing a special fighter uniform.

At the moment when he stared at each other with cold eyes, Chang Fan felt a sense of horror that he was hidden in the glacier.

Fencing teacher Mu Chenyuan—

He is a special fighter!

Chapter 1236: Miss An, we meet again

Chang Fan never returned to school after taking it away. Someone in the forum took a photo of Chang Fan in a police car, which was taken by Xie Chiyan and uploaded.

She was not a kind-hearted person, and she had no affection for Chang Fan anymore, so she would naturally do things like falling into the ground with ease.

Besides, the current Chang Fan has a bad reputation in school.

All the students guessed that An Xia's disappearance was most likely not due to falling into the water, but to be calculated by Chang Fan.

When the post was uploaded, Xie Chiyan sat on the 'sofa' by himself, leaving a message: Evil will eventually be rewarded, and God's way is good for reincarnation. If you don't believe me, look up, who has been spared by the heavens!

Invisibly, being even more real is the real culprit who killed An Xia.

The controlled Chang Fan couldn't see the school situation anymore.

Faced with interrogation, Chang Fan initially denies in every possible way and asks his lawyer to be present.

Finally, the national police directly sent evidence here.

It's a chat log from three shots.

It was all the chat history between him and Nightingale that night.

Facing the iron-like evidence, the jealousy between Chang Fan's eyebrows instantly collapsed.

"You guys, did you stare at me early?"

Chang Fan stared at National Police Officer Song Changshou, with no glamour in his eyes.

This one, he met at school!

The logistics teacher in charge of the boys' dormitory often meets with him.

Song Changshou looked at him and nodded solemnly, "Yes, so, you better tell me what you have done."

After all, he put his hand on the pile of documents next to him and patted it lightly, "Here is our investigation of everything you have done. You can keep silent, but it will only make you more passive."

Chang Fan's pupils tightened fiercely.

Therefore, they had already laid a net for themselves, but they didn't know anything about it!

Did not confess immediately.

Oh, let's see how much they know.

The battle between righteousness and evil has begun.

On the other side, Mu Chenyuan and Luo Zhong had already boarded the plane to Hobengaso.

They need to go to the capital to make a transfer, a total of 19 hours by plane to reach Gaso City.

A city with the highest criminal record in the world, which is close to the sea, and even the team can hardly clean up the cancer.

An Xia, right here.

Xu Yong is there too.

Seven days ago, Xu Yong left Changhai for Gaso City.

He thought he was completely concealed, but he didn't know that all his whereabouts had been known long ago.

He didn't even know that he was able to leave Xia Country because the national police deliberately let him go.

The moment the plane landed in Gasso City, Xu Yong took a deep breath of air with a faint smell of the sea when he walked out of the cabin.

In the eyes of others, Paz City is the capital of sin, a city that ordinary people dare not enter easily, but in his eyes, it represents: freedom!

Do what you want to do freely, and you don't need to be afraid of being taken away and being punished by law.

At 3 o'clock in the afternoon in Gaso City, An Xia, who had been out of the port concentrator for two days, heard Xu Yong's voice.

"Mr. Xu."

Someone respectfully greets.

Xu Yong nodded and said gently: "The iron gate opens."

"Wow—"

The iron door opened, and An Xia heard Xu Yong's footsteps entering the iron cage and approached herself.

In the next second, her chin was clamped by a pair of dry and cool hands, and she looked back and forth with a cargo-like gaze on her face.

"Miss An." Xu Yong smiled, "Ms. An has been wronged recently. I am very sorry. There are reasons for this. I hope An Xia can understand."

The sound came into my ears, like a water bug in the gutter, so thick that I wanted to kill him.

An Xia kind of wanted to see Xu Yong, and greeted him by the way.

Unfortunately, the eyes are blindfolded, and the mouth is sealed with tape. It is best to just say a few words in your throat to show your greetings.

What I said is: it doesn't matter, you are going to die anyway.

Xu Yong didn't hear clearly, but An Xia was anxious.

Chapter 1237: Distorted face

Xu Yong didn't hear clearly, but An Xia was anxious.

He smiled again: "Please ask Miss Ann to be wronged for a few more days. When the nobles come, I can give Miss Ann freedom, but..."

An icy hand stroking An Xia's eyes, she stroked An Xia through the blindfold, "I can make Ms. An a little more comfortable for the time being, and I can also listen to her needs."

"As long as I'm not too much, I can satisfy Miss Ann."

An Xia was calm in her heart, and her only unhappiness was the pig's hoof that was touching through the blindfold.

Without moving, Xu Yong was ignored at all.

Taking her out of the country in such a big circle is not something Xu Yong can do alone.

There was a huge net behind him, and it was this net that was operating secretly to send her out of Xia Guo.

only...

An Xia didn't figure it out at all.

Her current situation is completely different from what the national police said before.

According to the previous analysis, she will be controlled by this network and become a hidden line in the school, and then through her, control the financial and power behind her, and further expand the hidden criminal network.

But now.

None of her is in Xia Country anymore.

What are their plans to send her out of Xia Guo?

How big is the net behind Xu Yong?

What are they planning?

Did Mu Chenyuan and the national police follow up in time?

An Xia's thoughts flew, and the corners of her mouth also pressed sharply.

"Miss An, you have a good life that I particularly envy. You are born with no worries about food, no worries about clothes, no need to run for life, no need to bend for money."

"You were born a high point that no one can reach in their entire lives, enjoying all the glory that wealth brings."

"Like a pearl, it attracts no one's attention, and it also attracts countless people's greed."

"I really envy you, Miss Ann, so much so..."

Xu Yong said, suddenly, with one hand strangling An Xia's neck, her gentle voice was instantly distorted, and evil spirits appeared on her delicate face.

"I am so envious that I really want to ruin you, and let you taste the pain of poverty!"

The five fingers continued to gather forcefully, and Xu Yong's face was completely unrecognizable, "A person like you, a person like you... why don't you die! Why don't you die!"

"Why live so well, so high above! Why do you want to ruin the dignity of us people? Why remind us time and time again that you have money and we have nothing!"

His eyes widened, and he stared fiercely at the delicate face that was strangled by himself so that his temples were flushed. He saw that the best person in the world was suffering and struggling under his own hands when he used to spend money like water and enjoy the best people in the world. Satisfied.

Hahaha

Hahaha

Hahaha

So what if you have money!

The money is still tortured by him.

If you have money, he still treats them as goods and sends them abroad as playthings for richer people!

"MYGOD! What are you doing!"

A woman's voice exclaimed and ran into the iron cage on high heels.

"Xu Yong! Do you want to die? Let go of her!"

It's Liu Ying, who speaks the local dialect of Changgang.

Both she and Xu Yong are from Changgang. The difference is that she was born in a wealthy family in Changgang.

He is also the only contact person for Xu Yong abroad.

After the domestic "people and goods" arrived abroad, she took over.

Xu Yong let go and threw An Xia aside.

He got up, took out a plaid handkerchief from his pocket, and wiped his right hand.

Liu Ying smiled at the displeased Liu Ying, "Don't be nervous, I'll spare my life."

"Are you cherishing your life? You almost killed her just now!"

Liu Yingliu's eyebrows stared. She was born beautiful and dressed very sexy. With heavy Western European make-up, wearing a red tight-fitting dress, her rugged figure is fatal to men.

But excluding Xu Yong.

He even hates such a dress.

It reminds him of his biological mother who betrayed her body time and time again for money!

"Meet me next time and change clothes." He said coldly, leaving the iron cage first.

When he walked out, he turned his head and looked at An Xia, who was curled up in fright, and there was a haze in the eyes of An Xia, who made a low pain in his throat.

He didn't know who he was going to give Anxia to.

If you send people out, how can you be accused of * by yourself, Zhidong will never go west, beating and scolding are so happy by him.

When Liu Ying came out, Ming Yan's facial features were still unhappy, and she said coldly: "What I wear has nothing to do with you, you really know how to care!"

Fortunately, I don't see each other often, otherwise, he will get sick with anger.

Xu Yong pressed the corners of his mouth, didn't look at her again, walked straight, and asked with a deep face, "Where is Chang Fan? What's the situation."

Fortunately, he discovered that Chang Fan was being watched in time. After he didn't notice him, he immediately transferred from Changgang to Tailong, away from Changhai City.

Otherwise, he is afraid that there will be danger here.

A shadow cast over the Oriole's face, "The situation on Chang Hai's side is not good, and Chang Fan is under control. The Chang family tried to release him on bail several times, but was refused."

"You get out in time on your side, otherwise, it will be sooner or later to be investigated."

Xu Yong heard the words, the same shadow on his face.

It's tricky.

"How did Chang Fan get investigated?" He asked, his brows tightened, looking very heavy.

He also wanted to lengthen the sea, and Chang Fan was arrested—

Then the possibility of him returning to Changhai is slim.

Moreover, it is very likely that he will not even go back to Xia Guo.

He's going to live a life without a permanent home again!

The Oriole shook his head, "I don't know, there is no sign at all. You are fortune-telling, and I haven't found you yet."

"It's still possible for him to meet with Anxia in the hotel before. The city police found a new clue and brought him under control."

When these words were said, Liu Ying didn't believe it.

It's been more than a month, and Chang Fan's previous investigations have proved that he is fine. Now how can he come up with new clues and bring people under control.

However, Chang Fan is the only possibility to be controlled.

Because Xu Yong left safely. If Xu Yong was also controlled, it would mean that all of them were exposed, and no one wanted to escape.

Since Xu Yong escaped, it means that their line has not been dug up.

The national police only regarded Anxia as an ordinary disappearance case.

Xu Yong didn't say another word.

Afterwards, he hooked his mouth and sneered, "The Chang family only has a single seedling like Changfan, and he will definitely find a way to rescue him."

"It depends on whether that kid's bones are hard enough to pass this level."

"He wants to carry it, everyone is in peace. He wants to carry it..."

Xu Yong turned his head, looked at Liu Ying, and was stabbed with disgust in her face again by her dress, and quickly looked away.

When I spoke again, my voice was cold and cold, "You and I are a dead end."

In the hot weather in Gasso City, the Oriole was frightened into a cold sweat when Xu Yong said "a dead end".

Stubbornly, gritted his teeth and said: "How is it possible! The country is clean and it is impossible to find us. I also wipe the information on Changfan's mobile phone remotely, and it is impossible to find out what is in the country."

"I hope." Xu Yong sneered, and the haze deepened in his eyes.

I hope so.

I hope the city police in Changhai are a little stupid and can't find out anything.

I hope that Chang's family can give a little bit more strength and use all the forces to rescue Chang Fan.

Chapter 1238: Informed

At this time, Xu Yong really didn't pay attention to the city police in Changhai.

The reason for not focusing on the city police is simple.

He has been hiding in Changhai for so long without being suspected.

Even after An Xia's disappearance, even his so-called "boyfriend" had not been summoned and allowed him to leave the country smoothly. Xu Yong was unavoidably complacent.

A group of wine bags and rice bags, don't expect them to find out anything.

Xu Yong is a typical anti-social personality.

Non-compliance with social norms and violation of laws and disciplines are nothing to him. After doing damage to the health and interests of others, he is completely unaware that he is at fault, let alone regretful.

He believed that he was right to do so because the world first treated him unfairly, and he chose to resist in order to survive.

But he hides it very well, and none of the colleagues around him who get along day and night find out what's wrong with him.

This kind of person is undoubtedly terrible. The perfect disguise conceals all the crimes of his private disregard of life. He has not been dug up every day, he is hidden in the crowd every day, and continues his filthy, self-righteous crime.

When his information was handed to Ye Jian, the deputy captain of the Snow Territory Brigade, Ye Jian narrowed his eyes slightly.

Ye Jian is participating in the exchange of special fighters between the two countries in Gaso City. In addition to her, there are five other snow-covered special fighters, all of whom have been proposed in the past two years.

Handing over the information, Ye Jian raised his eyes, looked at the national police in Passo City, and said in fluent local language: "Has he entered Paza City now?"

Passed to her by the Gasoline National Police, it seems that this Changgang native named "Xu Yong" has a small background.

"Yes, he secretly arrived in Gasoline City two days ago to meet the mistress of Eagle Gang boss Eagle who has been active in Gasoline City." Gasoline's national police exchanged with Ye Jian with a helpless expression.

"We have no way to arrest you stray warbler for the time being. We can cooperate with the suspects that your country needs to arrest. I'm sorry for other aspects, but you still need to explain yourself."

The situation in Passo City is particularly complicated.

The bosses of the crime capital all have their own firepower organizations, and they are so huge that they dare to fight face-to-face with the local city police, national police, and battle teams.

The Eagle Gang is one of the most famous gangs in Gasoline. The city police and national police in Gasoline City will never conflict with the Eagle Gang.

Like this time—

They will only pass on information and provide a certain amount of help. Otherwise, they will not participate.

Ye Jian naturally knows Gaso's situation, but...

Raising his eyes, his dark eyes stared at the Gasoline National Police in front of him, smiling and asking him, "His information, who else do you know?"

She doesn't particularly trust the national police here.

Because it has been exposed that many of the national police and city police in Gasoline are in contact with the black factions, and even whistleblowing.

After speaking, Ye Jian smiled apologetically again, "I'm sorry, for the sake of safety, I need to be very careful and clear."

The national police knew in their hearts that this is the current situation of Gasoline, and that they are temporarily unable to change the situation.

Smiled bitterly, "Don't worry, besides me and my superiors, there is no third person to know. And me, you can completely believe it, because I hate these people very, very much."

Ye Jian believed it.

There is no way, all the information has been in his hands, and he can only choose to believe it.

"Do you have any other questions? I can contact a special fighter from Xia Guo later." Then, Gasoline's national police raised his hand and glanced at his watch and smiled: "He should have arrived."

Three minutes later, Ye Jian saw Mu Chenyuan.

Only then did she know that her friend An Xia was also in Gasolet City, and she was taken captive by Xu Yong to Gasoline and sold as goods.

Chapter 1239: Expression of love

Seeing Mu Chenyuan, Ye Jian thought of his other half-Team Xia.

When she was performing missions outside, did Team Xia look like Mu Chenyuan, who looked calm on the surface, but in fact, there were deep worries in her heart?

It should be worried.

The difference is that her summer team used to use the yuppie side to hide their true emotions.

Mu Chenyuan mentioned Xu Yong's disguise in front of An Xia, and Ye Jian asked, "Captain Mu really can see the specious boyfriend relationship?"

In fact, I want to know how deeply Mu Chenyuan loves Anxia.

She found that whether it was Captain Mu or the Xia team, they came from a prominent family, too restrained and too able to hide themselves.

Back then, she didn't believe that Team Xia would like herself, and wanted to run away.

However, her friend An Xia's temperament is completely different from her own. She neither has the concept of family status, nor does she think that others can play with her, let alone feel that she is inferior.

Domineering, she is the only one who doesn't look down on others.

After asking, Ye Jian fixed his eyes on Mu Chenyuan's face, waiting for his answer.

Mu Chenyuan probably didn't expect that Ye Jian would suddenly pull the topic into personal feelings, and he was a little stunned when he heard the words.

Then he answered, "Naturally mind."

"But she has always put me first, even if it is a task, she has always kept a certain distance from Xu Yong and did not give Xu Yong a chance to get close to her."

The girl he loves has always been in contact with Xu Yong from his perspective.

It is enough to prove that she cares about his feelings.

He knows that she cares about herself and thinks of herself, enough.

Ye Jian bent her mouth, the power of love is really powerful.

They can let their friends change for their lovers, and they also know to think for the ones they love.

"So, it seems that Xia Xia really loves you."

Mu Chenyuan was silent, but his handsome face smiled deeply.

Yes, the girl he loved also fell in love with himself.

From before, I only thought about his body and solved his physical needs, to fall in love with myself, for his sake, for him.

Seeing this, Ye Jian smiled.

If it is the summer team, when someone talks about this topic, he must be very shameless and advertise it.

Not as implicit as Captain Mu.

Closer to home, Ye Jian did not ask about Mu Chenyuan's personal affairs with An Xia. After opening the electronic map, she asked Mu Chenyuan again, "What is the plan of the national police?"

"Just want to catch Xu Yong? Or all the black hands behind Xu Yong?"

"The Gasoline National Police who left just now told me that the Oriole who was in contact with Xu Yong has another identity, the mistress of the Eagle Gang boss."

"Has the national police checked that the Gasoline Eagle Gang is the black hand behind Xu Yong?"

"If the Eagle Gang is the black hand behind Xu Yong, Team Mu, you will face great danger next. The Eagle Gang is also a gang that even the Gasoline National Police does not want to have a head-on conflict."

This is also the current problem facing the national police.

It was found that the Oriole was the mistress of Gasoline Eagle Gang boss, which shocked the national police.

Is it possible that those things in Changhai were secretly operated by the Gasoline Eagles?

Mu Chenyuan said: "As long as it is found out that the controller behind Xu Yong and Chang Fan is not the Gaso Eagle Gang, we don't need to worry about the Eagle Gang."

"The next action is to arrest Xu Yong, dig out the real behind-the-scenes, and cut off their power in the country."

Ye Jian pursed the corner of his mouth, and then said: "So, the focus of the national police is to cut off the power of the black hand behind the scenes in the country, so that they dare not enter Xia again to cause chaos, right?"

Cross-border hunting is a complicated and difficult thing. Sometimes, you know what kind of forces they are, but there is no way to uproot them.

Just like now, once it is found that the hawks are causing the chaos, they can only clean up their domestic power, and it is impossible to give the hawks their nest.

Of course, Xu Yong would never leave him a way out.

Chapter 1240: Fish in the net, nowhere to escape

At this moment, Xu Yong focused all his attention on the country. He really didn't know that he had been leaving Changhai long ago, and all his actions were being monitored.

But I have to say that he is also an individual talent for the two major domestic special forces.

Chang Fan on the other side has done everything.

If you don't recruit, you won't be successful.

He knew exactly what he did and who he contacted.

The self-righteous * knows no ghost, it is as clear as a piece of clean glass in front of the national police, and the national police inspects it clean inside and out. There is nothing to hide and nothing to hide.

And Chang's father used all the relationships in the family and did not protect his only son.

Not only that, but his company is also fully understood.

From the head office to the subsidiary, to the customs and foreign transportation lines, all are under review.

The more we checked, all the hidden dirty things were found out.

Businessmen, really few are clean.

In the end, instead of saving his son, Chang Fan, Chang's father put himself in with the Chang Clan group.

With the arrest of Chang's father, Xu Yong's eyeliner in Xia Guo was dug out one by one. The network of relations centered on him was so huge that the national police were dumbfounded.

If you don't check it, you don't know, but you will know how deep the water is when you check it.

An Xia has been missing for 45 days, and Xu Yong finally has news of Chang Fan.

The news was still passed to him by Liuying.

In the hotel, Xu Yongru, with red eyes, was walking back and forth in the room.

"Is it a mistake? How could the Chang family fall? How could your family fall? Is something wrong?"

Xu Yong asked Liu Ying.

Liu Ying also wanted to ask people, but she went to ask someone.

Hearing that, she was also tired and said in a quiet voice: "I want to know where the problem is, and it will cause trouble in my own family?"

After finishing speaking, Liu Ying glared at Xu Yong, complaining, "I said that you don't want to break your face with Chang Fan, just let Chang Fan handle An Xia by himself."

"It's okay for you, not only did you not listen, but you also snatched women with Chang Fan! Xu Yong, are you in your head? I always wanted to ask you, you * won't really like Anxia this prey, right!"

"Do you think I want to tear my face with Chang Fan?" Xu Yong gritted his teeth, with a gloomy expression. "It's an arrangement to help!"

Liu Ying stared slightly, not convinced, "How could he arrange for help and never intervene in these things?"

"How do I know." Xu Yong sat back on the sofa, elbows against his knees, hands covering his face, and he began to repeat what he was doing wrong and how he exposed Chang Fan.

He couldn't figure out what went wrong no matter how it was replayed and how it was.

"Where is the problem? How could Chang Fan get caught?" He muttered, and the whole person's mental state was obviously not right.

Liu Ying glanced at him, also upset.

Something happened to her family too, so annoying!

I don't know if I can survive this catastrophe.

I don't know if the other side will help.

Also, when will the noble person above come to receive the goods?

It has been a week since Xu Yong has been in Gaso City, and there hasn't been any movement yet. Maybe something went wrong too.

Liu Ying felt unsure about it.

Even the text messages from the mobile phone were not checked in time.

It is a dedicated text message.

Inform Liuying that there is a change in your travel here, and it will be changed to look at the goods in three days.

The nobleman is An Qian.

After receiving the photo, she naturally couldn't wait to come over, but was dragged by the Earl of Winsell.

He was dragged to Ruishan for snowboarding!

She doesn't want to paddle the snow!

Here, she was also let go by the * Winsier!

But she couldn't refuse Winsell, * guy, did he take the wrong medicine? Suddenly he was so gentle to her that she was dizzy!

"Adam, do you think Winsell found something?"

Sitting in the big chair in the room, An Qian closed her eyes, her bright and three-dimensional features cast a faint shadow in the pale golden sunset.

An Qian is very beautiful. Even if her mother is an illegitimate daughter, she is also an illegitimate daughter of the royal family. She also has royal blood flowing through her body. It is this blood that allows her to inherit the elegance of the royal family and her mother. Mingyan.

Especially the golden hair, which is waist-long, slightly bent and glowing, draped behind her body, adding a touch of charm to her.

An Qian's facial features are very bright, but her posture is very light and she has a delicate feeling. As long as she meets her, she will think of the goddess Aphrodite.

In this way, it is enough to see how beautiful An Qian is.

The more beautiful a woman is, the more dangerous it is, this is true.

An Qian has the beauty like a goddess, and at the same time, she has the most poisonous heart.

I have been with her for a long time, and I can always smell the faint blood exuding from her body.

It was the blood of innocent people stained with her hands, so thick that it could not be washed clean.

Adam is her Earth Guard, a loyal one who serves the Lord, and An Qian's playmate who grew up with her since childhood. He is An Qian's most trusted Earth Guard, none of them.

Hearing that, Adam covered his emperor with a thin cashmere blanket, then walked behind An Qian, stretched out his hand, and gently pressed An Qian's shoulder with his slender fingers.

Replied in a low voice, "No matter what Winsier finds, I will always stand by your side."

The moment he lowered his head, Adam's eyes were darker in an instant.

That is--

Obsessed with security.

As a ground guard, he cannot extricate himself from falling in love with his master-An Qian.

An Qian, who had closed her eyes, opened her eyes, and her icy blue eyes stared at Adam. There was a gentleness in her eyes that fascinated Adam.

"Yeah, my Adam will always stand by my side." Raising her hands like lotus roots, with a sweet smile, she hooked Adam's neck with her hands and gently pulled it down, effortlessly and easily. Make Adam bend over.

The two breaths are lingering, and the kiss is long.

An Qian has four ground guards, and only Adam has a relationship with her.

And she didn't know that when she was kissing Adam, Winsell in the villa next to him looked disgusted and turned off the scene of the two kissing.

It's disgusting!

Although I had heard that she had an unclear relationship with her own ground guard, she really didn't expect to be bumped into by him here.

The daughter of the illegitimate daughter of the royal family, oh, the blood of restlessness is flowing, and it really makes him an appetite!

Winsier poured himself a glass of red wine and suppressed the tumbling in his stomach with the taste of the wine.

Seeing this, Curry suppressed the smile in his eyes.

The illegitimate daughters and illegitimate children of the Lochro royal family are also very strange. They seem to inherit all the lowest qualities in the royal family and then carry forward them well.

Like this An Qian, she perfectly inherited her mother's habit of hooking up, even her own ground guard.

And their Earl of Winsell is another earl with a particularly chaste concept. Who would have thought that the Earl of Winsell, who is about to thirty, has not slept with a woman yet.

No one will believe it.

But this is the fact.

He now suspects that the virginity that Lord Earl has been unwilling to lose is for the sake of the former emperor An Xia.

Earl Winsier didn't know what his guard, Curry, was thinking in his heart. After sipping the red wine, he took the hot towel from Curry, wiped his hands, and asked, "Have you found Anxia?"
