Chapter 1251: The same betrayal

An Qian took a deep breath, and An Qian said, "Daddy, I've grown up, and I have my own ideas for many things. I really don't need you to always say in my ears, don't do this, don't do that. ."

"I know that if I say this, you will be very sad. But, daddy, I must say it. Because, I am already the master of the emperor domain, I can't always listen to your arrangements like before."

"If you want me to take over the imperial domain, protect the imperial domain, daddy, you should let me go."

"I remember you once said to your sister that only incompetent people will always like to ask others. Those who are truly capable will deal with all difficulties by themselves and don't need to trouble anyone."

"Daddy, I will take care of the little things in front of me. Really, please believe me, it's really just a little thing."

"Okay, Daddy, you and Mommy should enjoy the trip, don't need to hurt your brains for those little things. Trust me, okay, I will take care of it."

"Goodbye daddy, say hello to mommy for me, I love you."

After speaking at the fastest rate, the call is ended quickly.

She was afraid that if she continued speaking, she would immediately quarrel.

damn it!

Who is it that alarmed Daddy!

The phone smashed to the ground. Fortunately, the cabin was carpeted, otherwise, another phone would have to be scrapped.

An Qian squeezed her hands tightly, her blue eyes were unwilling to be overwhelmed like a storm.

Is she not as good as An Xia?

She is afraid of An Xia?

God, this is the funniest joke!

Now An Xia is dead, and the Emperor Domain is also taken over by her An Qian!

If it's not as good as An Xia, how could she take over the imperial domain?

Fear?

A dead person, what is she afraid of!

She is not afraid, she must not be afraid!

Why look for someone similar to An Xia?

That's because she wants to see An Xia die in front of her again and again!

Yes, it's that simple!

After a long time, An Qian loosened her clenched hands, and she gritted her teeth at Adam with gloomy blue eyes: "There must be my daddy's eyeliner beside me, find out and kill him."

"Yes, master."

Adam, who had been on one knee, bowed his head. Adam always obeyed whatever he ordered.

Even if he were to jump off the plane now, he would jump down without hesitation.

There were a few more homicides in the city of Gasso at dawn. Mu Chenyuan only reported a few sentences from the local media, but there was nothing to follow.

On TV, he watched the Gasoline police close the case like this: "We tested their blood for the properties of lethal hallucinogens. It was an accident and we felt very sad."

Then...

Then no.

The TV was turned off, and Mu Chenyuan raised his hand and pinched his eyebrows, his icy handsome face engraved with sharp as a sword.

These people did not die by accident.

Ye Jian came in with coffee while another person followed her.

The steady footsteps caused Mu Chenyuan to open his eyes quickly and turn around to look around.

Before he had time to start, a cloud of shadow enveloped him, and he was hugged.

Mu Chenyuan: "..."

I really want to ask Comrade Blue Bird, how did you look at the captain of Snowland?

"Team Mu, long time no see. It feels like you are much older, young, don't worry too much, it's easy to get old."

It was Xia Jinyuan's voice, still scornful.

Obviously he has a clear, golden and jade-like voice, and he always speaks in a slouchy manner, and he feels that this person is not particularly serious when he listens.

Xiao Ye Jian back then thought so too.

Even what he said just now is familiar.

Isn't it what he said to himself back then?

Chapter 1252: What the sword points to, everything creeps

Ye Jian handed the coffee to Mu Chenyuan, and Ye Jian said: "Don't pay attention to him, in fact, I am jealous that you are younger than him. Today's Xia team has a sense of age crisis."

Alas, no way. It is normal for a 30-year-old unmarried old man to have a sense of age crisis.

Upon hearing this, Xia Jinyuan had a wounded expression on his face.

Fiancee, for the first time in front of outsiders, tearing down her desk!

In the team, his little fox is his unwavering supporter, how can he tear down his stage today?

Ye Jian unnaturally avoided Xia Jinyuan's aggrieved eyes.

This summer team is starting to be rude again!

She she she...

She also couldn't think of it.

Mu Chenyuan is the boyfriend of good friend An Xia. She is upset about Xia Xia's affairs. She can't show her affection with Xia team at this time.

It would be too cruel.

Xia Jinyuan rubbed his chest straight.

Heart hurts.

Mu Chenyuan looked at him, and then at the blue bird who looked a little unnatural.

Close your eyes, wave your hands, and say indifferently: "The door is not closed. You can go out and talk in a whisper before you come in."

He doesn't want to be a big light bulb.

I don't want to drink coffee, I'm not in the mood.

Xia Jinyuan was in the mood to drink, just because he was thirsty.

Taking a sip of the coffee, sitting down, Xia Jinyuan smiled and looked at Mu Chenyuan, and asked, "Is An Xia being bait for the first time?"

"Yes." Mu Chenyuan raised his eyes, his thin lips tightened.

Xia Jinyuan's smile receded, her elegant and handsome face had become more serious, vaguely, military mighty, like a bullet-loaded gun, reaping life in the next second.

This is the true captain of the snowy brigade, invincible, pointed by the sword, and creeping.

"Then you have to get used to it, there will be many, many things like this in the future." Xia Jinyuan said, with a golden and jade-like voice as cold as frost, "You are now behind An Xia, sitting in the back is not messy, and she can't be charged at the front. Scruples."

"Blue Bird and I have experienced so many things like you and An Xia. She once went to the undercover black widow in the deep mountains of the Golden Triangle alone."

"There was also a person who used his body as a bait to enter the war to rescue the hostages."

There are too many tasks to be performed alone, and Xia Jinyuan can't tell them all for a while.

Just picking one or two pieces is enough.

"Life and death are commonplace for us. Team Mu, our road is not easy to take. If we are the only one to take this road, something really will happen, but we are ashamed of our family members."

"But on this road now, we still have a lover who has been hand in hand for a lifetime. Then, you have to stabilize your mind."

"You are in the rear, she is in the front, and you are the beacon of her return, and even the dangerous teammates who saved her. Her life is now in your hands."

"You who hold your lover's life have only one belief in your heart, and that is—"

Xia Jinyuan looked into the eyes of the young captain, and said word by word: "Take her back to the team safely!"

This is the advice of a senior captain to the young captain.

It is the guide, it is the inheritance.

The inheritance from generation to generation, and the guidance from generation to generation, point the way for young special forces who are heading for special operations.

Mu Chenyuan has heard his handsome face solemnly, and sits upright.

He already understands.

Standing up, Mu Chenyuan raised his right hand and saluted the captain who pointed him out, "I understand! Thank you very much."

The atmosphere is very serious.

In the next second, as the military might of Xia Jinyuan dissipated, the elegant, Junya smiled with a nasty smell, and the serious and serious atmosphere was instantly destroyed.

"Team Mu, don't be so serious. Young people, be lively. Don't be so serious. Being too old will make you look older."

Chapter 1253: Pick her up and return to the team safely (Happy New Year's Day Duck)

Ye Jian turned around slightly and stroked his forehead.

The Xia team is really-the losses that have been eaten must be found back.

The yin and yang talked strangely, did he think that the Mu team couldn't hear it?

With "Yuan" in the same name, Team Mu is deep, calm, and calm.

As for the Xia team, when is the "Yuan Yuan" report, from time to time they have to be blamed.

He doesn't think he talks a little bit more in front of the Moore team and looks younger.

Well, it was more or less guessed by Ye Jian.

Xia Jinyuan was stimulated by his old son Xia Xinhui.

Before he set off, his father beat him, "You are a thirty-year-old man. Are you embarrassed if you are not married yet?"

"General Mu of Luer District, his son Mu Chenyuan talked about a girlfriend. He is quick to start. In my opinion, he will definitely get married earlier than you."

"It will definitely be earlier than you to have a baby!"

I have to say that I still know my son best when I am a father. The old father hates iron and steel for his love, which is embodied in every word and word that is so piercing.

When Xia Jinyuan was thirty years old, the heart of a mature man was always aching.

He also wants to get married early, and he also wants to have children as soon as possible. No, his fiancée won't give a chance!

It has to work harder to become the most miserable 'control group'.

After Xia Jinyuan came with a private mission, he patted Mu Chenyuan on the shoulder and sighed: "Actually, I know your current mood very well and I feel the same."

"Come here, discuss the next actions, and work hard to pick up the girlfriend and return to the team as soon as possible."

Mu Chenyuan took his girlfriend An Xia back to the team.

What about him, hum! Pick up your fiancée and return to the team.

He still has a reputation anyway, Mu Chenyuan has nothing.

After a dark jab in his heart, Xia Jinyuan opened the electronic map on the tablet.

Suddenly, it was a four-dimensional map of where Anxia was detained.

Ye Jian was in charge of sniping at the commanding heights. He and Mu Chenyuan entered the dungeon to rescue people, and nearby was a national police and a vulture gang who performed missions.

"The Vulture Gang will do us a big favor. The Vulture Gang has always wanted to get involved with the Emperor Realm. The people on the Emperor Realm let go and don't care who offered people to him. They just need to see who they want. It's done."

"The Vulture Gang has long wanted to dominate. They want to have a relationship with the imperial domain. In the Western League, they can do whatever they want. Arms, powder goods, and smuggling are all of them."

As Xia Jinyuan's deep voice opened, a rescue and arrest operation opened.

"Our main task is to rescue Anxia. After the man is rescued, we need to help the national police arrest the four main suspects, Fei Weiye, Xu Yong, Liu Ying, and Xiangxian."

"The Vulture Gang reached out to Xia State last year. If you see these two people at the scene—"

Xia Jinyuan cut into two Western European faces, and his black eyes swept towards Mu Chenyuan and Ye Jian coldly, "Solve directly."

"clear."

"clear."

The two responded, remembering two Western European faces.

The three discussed, only waiting for Fei Weiye to come out.

What they didn't know was that at this time, someone also came to Gaso City.

It was Mrs. Song who was mad at the rumor in Anyang because of the sudden death of his daughter.

The other is naturally her brother Ai Tingze.

They came with a portrait.

The owner of the portrait is not someone else, but An Xia.

Mrs. Song tightened the portrait of the luxury brand handbag, followed the pace of her brother Ai Tingze, just walked out of the airport, she suddenly said to Ai Tingze: "An Xia has not been followed, brother, do you think she will actually be early? Was it taken to Gaso City?"

"Will you die early in the hands of that nobleman?"

Chapter 1254: This grudge must be reported

If this is the case--

There was a bright light in Mrs. Song's eyes. If it was as she had guessed, it would be great!

The only pity is that he did not personally kill An Xia to avenge his dead daughter.

Ai Tingze glanced at Mrs. Song, and said with a cold face: "You give me peace of mind. The nobles from the imperial domain are nobles who sit on the same level as the heads of Western European countries. You must dare to talk nonsense and be careful to drag you out and kill you directly. ."

Not intimidation, it is true.

Mrs. Song is domineering, and such warnings have always been heard in the left ear, and the right ear has come out, and she is not at ease at all.

He lowered his eyes, grabbed the hatred in his eyes, and said gloomily: "I only want An Xia's life, and who can help me take her life away, I will treat it as an ancestor."

She only wants An Xia's life!

Who is next to her, not in the scope of her concern.

Seeing this, Ai Tingze's tight jaw line loosened, and his tone became looser. "It's good if you know it in your heart. Then you follow me closely and don't walk around and ask."

"You want to avenge Yanyan, and as an uncle I do the same. This is the big thing we are going to do."

Speaking of Mrs. Song's heart.

Knowing that her elder brother had spent a lot of effort for her, Mrs. Song, who was a little bit sharper, looked at Ai Tingze and thanked him sincerely, "Brother, thank you."

"I used to be ignorant, which made you feel wronged a lot. I also know that you love me and Yanyan, and I thank you for Yanyan."

It is estimated that there is hope for revenge, Madam Song's tone is quite gentle.

People don't have thorns all over their bodies like before, and they pierce whom they see.

After all, it was his younger sister, and seeing her so alone, making her face yellow and thin, with a lot of white hair, and seeing how many years older than his elder brother, Ai Tingze felt sour.

Gently hugged his sister's shoulders, Ai Tingze said, "If you can think of it this way, the old lady is relieved. Don't worry, I have always kept Yanyan in my mind."

"This hatred must be reported, and An Xia must die."

Mrs. Song leaned on her brother's shoulder, tears streaming down her face.

Yeonyan, mom's baby, did you hear that?

Uncle said that he will definitely avenge you.

You are alive in the sky, bless your uncle.

Having reached the front of the car, the two brothers and sisters got in the car and left.

Not long after they left, Fei Weiye and Xiangxian arrived and walked through the passage that the brother and sister had just walked.

Gaso is very trendy, Fei Weiye unbuttons his suit as he walks, "The place where you meet must be hidden to ensure safety around you. I want you to be surrounded by your own people."

"If anyone strays in, solve it directly."

"Yes, sir." Xiang Xian nodded and obeyed. He had always obeyed Fei Weiye, loyal and safe in his work, and was Fei Weiye's most capable and trusted assistant.

Where Fei Weiye is, there must be a dedication figure.

"Also, arrange for Xu Yongxin's identity. He still has some ability. He can continue to work for me when he goes to other places. By the way..."

With that said, Fei Weiye paused a little, seemed to think for a while, and asked more uncertainly, "Are you sure you haven't been looking for Xu Yong in China?"

I always feel that something is not right.

With the meticulousness of the domestic city police, and not letting go of the slightest clue, how could it be possible that Xu Yong has not been found to have a problem?

Is there something tricky?

Some are not at ease, but feel a little grateful.

But you have to be cautious.

Fei Weiye has always been active in Changgang and abroad, and he is really not that sensitive on the inland side.

Moreover, he even looked down on the inland a little bit.

Every time I come inland, I only know the bad side and deliberately ignore the good side.

This is also the biggest contradiction between him and Mr. Fei.

Chapter 1255: Get what you want

Fei Weiye was born in Western Europe and grew up in Western Europe. Regardless of the blood of Xia Guo in his bones, in fact, he has no sense of belonging, nor can he understand Father Fei's desire to return to the roots of fallen leaves before his death.

Of course, he didn't think about what he wanted to do in the country, he didn't have the guts.

Now when I asked suddenly, I was worried that China would follow Xu Yong's line and find him.

The Fei family, now he is not alone in the charge.

There are still many people from the Fei family, the old and the new generation, toward the country.

Once let them know what they were doing in the country, everyone pushed the wall, just to make Sanshu wishful.

He hadn't fully stabilized his foundation before him, but there was nothing to shake the foundation.

After listening to the offer, he knew what Fei Weiye was worried about.

Grabbing his throat, he answered steadily, "Yes, sir. I haven't been looking for it. When investigating suspicious personnel, some city police had visited the 4S shop, but the shop staff did not know that Xu Yong had a relationship with An Xia."

"The city police also went to the school to find out. They only knew that Xu Yong was one of An Xia's suitors. After some reason, the relationship faded, and he didn't see Xu Yong coming to the school again."

"An Xia did not admit that Xu Yong was her boyfriend. You know, young people are fun and An Xia is rich. They all think that An Xia just treats Xu Yong as a whimsical toy. Throw it away once."

"Xu Yong is cautious and leaves no trace. He is indeed capable. After this, I plan to arrange for him to go to another country. Do you think it's okay?"

Personnel mobilization, arrangement, this kind of matter is handed over to Xiangxian by Weiye, and feel relieved.

Nodded, "Just arrange it, don't leave your tail. If there is a problem..."

I didn't say the following words, just winked at Xiangxian.

Dedicated to each other, "Understand."

The two stopped talking, Fei Weiye took the lead, and left the airport in stride.

To meet the Emperor Territory to meet tomorrow, many things have to be arranged carefully.

The Vulture Gang was also making arrangements, especially when the third in command of the Vulture Gang saw the portrait, another subordinate who was so small that only the facial features looked like a Gasol came in.

After seeing the portrait, this person was very excited and said a lot to the third in command.

Mrs. Song did not understand a word.

But she could see that they were particularly interested in An Xia's portrait!

Ai Tingze can understand a little bit. To facilitate communication, he deliberately speaks the local language. Although he is not proficient, he can also say a few words.

After understanding a little, his face was taken aback.

No way, such a coincidence.

Mrs. Song turned her head and was about to talk to him. Seeing that his expression was wrong, she asked in a low voice, "What did they say?"

"The newcomer said that the girl in the dungeon is exactly the same as the girl in the portrait."

After Ai Tingze finished speaking, he saw his sister show the same stunned expression as himself.

A few seconds later, Mrs. Song was madly surprised, "Really? Really? Is this real? Great, great!"

"Great! I finally waited until this day, I finally waited."

He began to behave like a nightmare and unconsciousness again.

Ai Tingze let out a cold sweat, squeezed his sister's wrist tightly, pinched his thumb and nail into the tiger's mouth, gritted his teeth and whispered, "Wake me up, don't go crazy here!"

Fate was hanging down, like walking a tightrope, Ai Tingze regretted taking her out instantly.

Fortunately, Mrs. Song quickly became sober this time, her face was crazily put away little by little, but her eyes were still so fierce.

"Brother, we can finally avenge Yanyan! I'm so happy, I'm so happy."

As he said, tears flowed.

Chapter 1256: The undercurrent of calm

An Xia in the dungeon was thinking about how to meet An Qian.

Unexpectedly, there are people who have chased Gaso City from Anyang, wanting her life with all their heart.

An Qian would not be able to arrive in Gaso City the next afternoon. Based on An Xia's rationale for her, after arriving in Gasoline, she had to toss a little bit before meeting Fei Weiye until she had set up enough scores.

Fei Weiye was indeed cunning enough. First, he used the Eagle Gang to transport An Xia to Gaso City, and then took advantage of the Eagle Gang to cover himself.

Now outside, chaos should have begun.

An Xia changed her posture from lying down all day to sitting against the corner of the wall.

Cut off the rope in time before making a mess.

The night before yesterday, Ye Jian gave her two things, silver wire and blade.

The silver wire was wrapped around his waist, and the blade was sandwiched between his fingers.

Regardless of the thin blades, they are extremely sharp and can cut the ropes without any effort.

boring.

It's almost messed up.

She hasn't moved her bones for too long, and the seams of her bones are about to rust.

An Xia is waiting, Xu Yong is also waiting.

Before Fei Weiye came, Xu Yong couldn't go anywhere.

After receiving a call to offer, he learned that Fei Weiye had arrived in Gasol, and Xu Yong, who hadn't closed his eyes, got up from the bed "噌".

He could hardly restrain his excitement and said, "Mr. Fei has arrived? Has Liu Ying arranged the vehicle?"

Very good!

He finally completed this transaction and could reap a lot of money.

Xiangxian's brows in the car tightened a little, "The Oriole cannot be contacted for the time being. Is there anything wrong with her these past few days?"

It was just a temporary lack of contact, which caused Xiangxian's high level of vigilance.

"No, it's normal." Xu Yong replied, thinking again, and then seriously, and said affirmatively: "She has been waiting for Mr. Fei to come, and said that she would arrange a vehicle to pick up Mr. Fei."

Gasol is the site of the Orioles, and she is in charge of everything inside and out.

Even if Xu Yong is the eldest brother among Liuying and Chang Fan, he needs Liuying to make arrangements when he arrives in Gasoline.

Why can't you be contacted suddenly?

Xu Yong was also very alert, and immediately walked to the window, opened and tightened the curtains lightly, and looked out the window.

He is in Liuying's house, a separate villa.

The villa is built on a mountain near the sea, away from the busy city. The people living around it are all rich people in Passo City.

This is where the Orioles personal activities, even the boss of the eagle gang, Eagle, didn't know that his mistress had such a villa.

Outside the window is quiet, the sun is shining, and a few birds can be seen resting in the branches, burying their heads and combing their feathers with their beaks from time to time.

Even the bird is so quiet, there should be no danger outside.

Xu Yong gently put down the curtains and said, "Help, my side looks safe for the time being. I will look outside now and contact you sooner or later."

His alertness made Xiangxian nod in satisfaction, "Okay, you can take a look nearby. If you find a tail, don't rush to move your hands. Hold them steady."

"Yes." Xu Yonging lowered.

He really has a tail, so he didn't dare to do it.

It is normal for people to die in places like Gaso City. He needs money, and he needs his life to spend it.

He had to cherish his own life.

Before going out, Xu Yong went to the dungeon specially and turned on the light to confirm that An Xia was in the dungeon.

In the corner, the thin girl shrank her body and sat in the corner, looking very pitiful and helpless.

Xu Yong hooked the corner of his mouth, with a cold indifference in his eyes.

Turn off the lights and leave the dungeon.

The sound of closing the door caused An Xia to raise her head slightly, blindfolded, and locked in the direction of the dungeon door with great precision.

The person who came in just now was Xu Yong.

That's great, it will be resolved soon.

Chapter 1257: The net is getting smaller and smaller

Xu Yong left the villa and walked around.

At this time, the Oriole was slapped several times by Eagle.

Suddenly the eagle gang was stared at by their opponents, and people came out one after another. Eagle sent people to withdraw for investigation, and found the mistress Oriole.

She is also his most beloved mistress, she is very beautiful, especially her voice, charming and charming, when she acts like a coquettish to him, she can feel soft in his heart.

She also said that her name was taken from their country's best-sounding bird-the yellow warbler bird that flies around and sings.

What a name!

Because of its nice voice, it shares the same name with the bird.

It is really a joy to keep the birds in captivity in the gorgeous bird cages I built and please myself every day.

But it was this "bird" that he thought was harmless, and only knew to please him, and actually did something to him!

He took several palms and pulled the kneeling Oriole to the corner of his mouth to bleed, and his tanned little face swelled up at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Fortunately, the complexion is tanned, if it was white and tender before, it would only be even more shocking.

Before the Orioles could react, she heard Eagle say gloomily: "Drag her down and share it with my brothers."

This is the fate of the betrayer.

Liu Ying didn't even have a chance to speak for herself, so she was dragged away.

Dragging all the way, crying for mercy all the way.

And what she thought in her mind was not that she would die, but that the man who hugged her and said that she loved her-Fei Weiye. What I thought was how anxious Fei Weiye would be if he couldn't contact her now!

The scream was louder, "Eagle, dear, Darling! I don't know what I did wrong, can you tell me? No, no, you can't take me away!"

"Let go of me, let me go! Bastard, * bastard, let me go!"

The harder you struggle, the more you suffer.

Eagle is not a soft-hearted person. He raised his hand to let go of the Oriole after hearing so many begging for mercy.

Turning a deaf ear to ears, tell the people around her, "Check what she has done recently. If you don't know, solve it directly."

Very rude.

Solve people cleanly, let those who trouble Eagle Help know that it's awesome!

At this time, the eagle still didn't put the Oriole at heart. It was just a woman. At most, she was deceived by others, so what else could she do.

Fei Weiye also didn't take Liu Ying at heart. He had said "I love you" to too many women. I had forgotten what he said to Liu Ying.

Only Liu Ying kept it in his heart, taking that episode of acting as a hope that he could stay with Fei Weiye all his life.

She thought she could be together, but didn't know that Fei Weiye had always regarded her as a tool for making money for herself.

Fei Weiye realized that there was a problem with the tools to make money.

Indifferent: "Contact Xu Yong and bring people here after dark."

He originally planned to go to the villa to meet Liu Ying and pick up Xu Yong and An Xia by the way.

Now that the Orioles have been losing contact, Fei Weiye will not let himself take risks.

Then let Xu Yong take a risk.

"You take people over and keep an eye on them, An Xia is important."

Consecrated and nodded, "Okay, I will arrange it now."

In other words, if you really want something, you have to protect Xia first.

After all, this is a meeting gift he gave to an honorable person.

As for Xu Yong, it was just a chess piece.

In addition to the fact that there was an accident in the country, the Chang clan was under control, and Fei Weiye also deliberately faded out of the country temporarily, staying still, waiting for the limelight to come over.

At this time, he didn't know that after Chang Shi was pulled out, even the turnips brought out several problematic companies, which were all companies that Fei Weiye secretly controlled and worked for him.

There are 23 big and small!

Chapter 1258: Just let go

Stacks of investigation materials and evidence were sent, which was shocking.

The above was furious, and issued an A-level wanted order directly, arresting Fei Weiye and bringing him to justice.

In order not to scare the snakes, everything is done in secret.

Mu Nagano and Xia Xinhui meet again.

At this point, it was already the end of December.

In a few days it will be a new year.

When they came out of the confidential meeting room, the expressions of the two of them were very cold.

Mu Changye pointed to the front and invited with a smile, "Walk together?"

It just so happened that Amoi also had something to talk about with Mu Changye.

The top generals of the two districts walked out of the building side by side, facing the cold north wind, and walked towards an open space.

The winter in the north is dry and cold, the sun is looking at the boss, but the wind blowing is like a knife, and the cut hurts his face, and after a while, his nose turns red from the cold.

The two bosses have waded through wind and rain, so the cold wind is nothing.

Going up against the wind, the military prestige does not change.

"The children of our two families are all in the same place now." Xia Xinhui spoke first when he arrived at the deserted land, "I'm here to tell you that I have my unworthy son, And my strong daughter-in-law is everywhere, your children will surely return home safely and safely."

This is the first time Amoi has told others.

It's never been said before.

The battlefield is changing rapidly. If you are strong enough, your chances of survival will naturally be stronger, but who can say for sure?

Speaking out this time, Amoi is also looking at Mu Changye's worries, and stabilizes people's hearts.

Mu Changye put his hands on his back, looked far in front of him, raised his head and sighed, "With your words, I feel a lot more at ease."

"That child of An Xia is too young and has never been on the battlefield. Although he has performed well in the past, he is inexperienced after all. I am really worried."

"At least that kid in my family is not afraid of your jokes. I have some confidence in him. He joined Polang, and he has promised me and the family that he will come back well."

"In these years, he has indeed done every time he goes out, and he will definitely come back well."

"As a parent, I don't ask my children to climb high, but I want them to be safe and have a long life." Mu Changye smiled and shook his head. There was a bit of contradiction and bitterness in that smile.

"But their occupations have to be a question mark, let alone longevity."

But no, I usually bump into each other during training, bleed, break a leg, etc. It is an extravagant hope to live a long life.

It is also in the heart of Xia Xinhui.

However, he had a different opinion and said with a smile: "Someone has to stand up, and someone has to carry the wind and rain. Since our children have enjoyed the convenience we have provided them since they were young, now they have to go. take up their responsibilities."

When it comes to providing convenience, Amoi is still a little guilty.

As a father, he really did not provide Xia Jinyuan with the convenience of tasks.

Mainly because of this bully, no one could bully him when he was a child, and no one dares to bully him when he grows up.

Mu Changye was silent, and then smiled: "Someone always needs to bear those storms, I hope they will bear it again this time."

"If there is no Emperor Domain, I really don't have that much anxiety in my heart."

With the addition of the Imperial Domain, the situation is much more serious.

Xia Xinhui snorted coldly, "If you really want to get into trouble, we are not vegetarians! The above said that there is no need to worry, then let them let go of their courage and do it!"

Just let go of your guts!

Xia Jinyuan conveyed the above meaning with a smile, and Mu Chenyuan laughed, "I think An Xia will be overjoyed if he hears it."

She, don't wait.

Chapter 1259: trade in advance

Mu Chenyuan also calmed down at this moment. Tonight, tonight is the time to solve everything.

After tonight, everything should be over.

Now wait for night to fall.

At four o'clock in the afternoon, the news came, and the news was handed to Ye Jian.

"There's something wrong with Xu Yong." Ye Jian sat down with a cold voice and said slowly, "Go out twice and look around. The people on our side suspect that Xu Yong may turn away from Xia Xia."

Mu Chenyuan frowned, "Did you trade in advance?"

"No." Ye Jian shook her head, "The visitors from the Imperial Domain will arrive tomorrow, and it is impossible to trade in advance."

"Now that they have transferred Xia Xia ahead of time, it is very likely that they are preparing for tomorrow's transaction." Ye Jian spoke slowly. She has a calm personality.

"Is there a possibility that Fei Weiye met Xia Xia in advance. And Fei Weiye doesn't believe in Xu Yong's current position?"

"Liuying has never appeared. According to the frequency of her visit before, she should be here at noon today, but she didn't."

Mu Chenyuan pressed his thin lips tightly, "Something happened to Liuying."

"It's normal for her to have an accident." Xia Jinyuan chuckled, "The boss of the Eagle Gang is not a fool. We did a little trick to pull the Vulture Gang into the water. Now the Eagle Gang is afraid that Liuying is a member of the Vulture Gang."

This was also the direction they intended to guide before, causing the Eagle Gang to mistake Liu Ying as the opponent's eyeliner.

"After a while, the Eagle Gang should know that Liu Ying is hiding someone."

The two gangs need to be completely confused before they can take advantage of the chaos to rescue people.

After the people were rescued, Liu Ying of the Eagle Gang had no way to hand over An Xia. With the way of doing things in the Imperial Domain, he would definitely put this amount on the Eagle Gang's head.

As for the Eagle Gang, they would naturally put the blame on the Vulture Gang.

In this way, the three parties are confused, and they are picked clean by themselves.

While it was clean, by the way, Xu Yong, Fei Weiye, Xiang Xian and other important criminals were taken care of.

If I transfer to An Xia ahead of time...

Mu Chenyuan lowered his eyes, thought for a few seconds and thought of a possibility.

The cold eyes flashed by, and he raised his eyes to express his conjecture. As a result, Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan, who were sitting opposite him, raised their eyes almost at the same time as him.

The three looked at each other and then laughed.

They guessed, each of them thought of a possibility.

"You say." Ye Jian asked Mu Chenyuan to speak first.

Mu Chenyuan smiled and said, "You said the same."

Xia Jinyuan rubbed his brows and raised his eyebrows, "Do you still need humility? Why don't I say it first."

He hates humility the least.

Especially in front of your fiancée, sometimes, you really don't need to be humble.

"I said." Ye Jian glanced at him, "I guess Xu Yong is going to take An Xia to see Fei Weiye."

It was only this possibility that Xu Yong took the risk and walked out of the villa and walked around.

Liu Ying did not appear, which caused Xu Yong to be alert, and Fei Weiye had arrived in Gaso City. The person he wanted to see was either Liu Ying or Xu Yong.

Now that Liu Ying has an accident, with Fei Weiye's suspicion, it is impossible to go to Liu Ying's villa to meet people.

Transfer is Fei Weiye's choice.

As long as you bite Xu Yong tightly, you won't have to worry about finding Fei Weiye.

It is also for the convenience of foreigners to change their actions at any time.

Xu Yong contacted Xiang Xian again and reported the situation on his side, "Help me, I walked around twice, and there is no problem outside."

"Okay." Xiang Xian nodded, "At half past six in the evening, you should come out and confirm again. It's better to make a little noise."

Make some movement?

Xu Yong's heart skipped a beat, "What kind of movement?"

Chapter 1260: never die

In a short time, Xu Yong's heart turned a thousand times.

Why are you still making a move?

What the * is going on?

"A little bit allows us to confirm whether there is really no problem, such as..." Xiang Xian said in a low voice, Xu Yong on the other side of the villa heard sweating profusely.

With such a movement, he he... isn't he in danger?

"Help me, I..."

Xu Yong struggled, but was interrupted by Xiang Xian, "Xu Yong, this is Mr. Fei's arrangement. Don't worry, after this matter is over, you will have a new identity, and you will live in another country as a master."

"After you go, you will find earth-shaking changes in your life. That is the identity and life you dream of having. Do you still want to refuse?"

In his dreams, he wants to have an identity, a life, the identity of a superior person...

There is no way to refuse!

Xu Yong gritted his teeth, but he didn't immediately nod his head and asked cautiously, "Have you already thought about helping me?"

Don't dare to say, you get it done first, and I'll make it up later.

"Yeah." Xiang Xian smiled gently, very true to Fei Weiye's true biography, "I am very relieved that you are doing things, and Mr. Fei also sees it. As long as you left the country, Mr. Fei told me to give you a good identity. ."

"Xu Yong, if you do a good deed, Mr. Fei will not treat you badly."

Who wouldn't say nice things?

But is there any?

With Xu Yong's understanding of Xiang Xian as a person, as long as he said it, there is still some.

And all he wanted was a promise.

Now that there is a promise, Xu Yong's hesitant eyes have become particularly firm.

Xu Yong was even more respectful, his voice still choked, "Thank you Mr. Fei, thank you for your help, I will definitely do it, and I will not disappoint Mr. Fei."

The latter sentence was slapped on the chest and said.

Xiangxian over there naturally heard it, and laughed, "Then you have a rest, remember to bring self-defense weapons. The night in Gaso City is more lively than in China."

Remind Xu Yong that Gaso's night is very dangerous.

Xu Yong naturally knew that he couldn't have an accident, and he had to save his life to live the life of a master!

It was another move, of course, for Xiang Xian, and even for Fei Weiye.

At the end of the call, Xiang Xian said to Fei Weiye, "It's done."

"This person..." Fei Weiye clicked on the armrest in the middle of the seat, a gloomy look passed over his elegant face, "A lot of thoughts."

People who think too much are not reliable.

Xiang Xian replied in a low voice, "It's easy to make arrangements if you take advantage of his weaknesses. Xu Yong is still very safe in his work."

"It's also very dangerous." Fei Weiye said coldly, "If he has an unmoved heart, if something happens to him, we will all be confessed by him."

"Then what do you mean..." Xiang Xian asked, already guessing a few points in his heart.

Fei Weiye closed his eyes slowly, and decided Xu Yong's life and death indifferently, "solve the person."

"Yes."

That solved it.

It's just a Xu Yong, and there are more capable people.

Go one, and find another.

At six o'clock in the evening, Xu Yong came down and fed Anxiasai a piece of bread.

When Anxia was locked up, there was only one bread, a glass of water, and nothing else.

Hunger is no stranger to Anxia, and starvation training in the Imperial Domain is also an important part.

A loaf of bread, a glass of water a day is completely OK.

"Miss An is delicious. After I finish eating, I have to ask Miss An to change the place." Xu Yong was very aggressive to feed An Xia. Usually, An Xia didn't finish eating and was forcibly fed by him.

It's all trivial things, keep them in mind, and think about them later.

only...

Why are you changing places all of a sudden?
