Chapter 1321: protect girlfriend

Under the water, the two black men who were beaten were struggling desperately, but the oriental man they looked down on was like a dragon in the water pulling them to a deeper sea.

At this moment, the two of them knew that the thin and unbeatable Oriental man they thought was a ruthless man they couldn't afford to offend.

It's tough, they can't compare.

Compared with their skills, it is the current fate. Death is by their side. If they don't get out of the water, they will go to see God.

The intense struggle made it even more hypoxic, and the eyes that were already protruding under the swimming goggles seemed to burst out of the eye sockets.

"Um... help me, help me..."

With his hands and feet slammed together, he made a silent cry for help, trying to pat the water to let the other four companions find out that they were in danger.

But no one came to rescue them.

He could even see his companion, struggling with all his might, but there was no way to escape.

"Guru..."

"Guru..."

After drinking countless mouthfuls of salty and bitter sea water, and blowing out countless bubbles, in the end, the person gradually became unable to struggle any more, and the paddling of his hands and feet also slowed down.

Xia Jinyuan made a gesture to Mu Chenyuan, the two let go, and took a breath.

Through the swimming goggles, they saw that An Xia made a move.

Directly punched, and swiped hard at the face of the black man closest to her.

It needs to be so cruel.

"go!"

Xia Jinyuan gritted his teeth, drank lowly, plunged into the water and swam, much faster than before.

Get there early to reduce the inevitable physical contact between these men and their girlfriends in underwater fights.

It is true that Mu Chenyuan thought the same.

At this time, their men must come forward.

As a man, he can't even protect his girlfriend, what kind of man is he?

The two were stuck here and dragged people into the water directly. Even An Xia and Ye Jian didn't respond. The guy who was trying to do something to himself one second ago and said harsh words would hear it the next second. With a "huh", people are like being swept away by monsters in the water, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

"..."

An Xia blinked, put on her swimming goggles, and plunged her head into the water.

Sure enough, through the pale blue ink world of swimming goggles, she saw Mu Chenyuan dragged the * who molested him to death and dug into the deep water.

Seeing this, An Xia swam towards him.

Seeing that, Mu Chenyuan shook her head at her, motioning not to come over.

An Xia replied with an "OK" gesture and got out of the water again.

With the sound of "crashing" water, she heard someone shouting in panic, "Breka, Pusenda!"

It was the names of the two people who were dragged into the water.

Before it was resolved, the two people who were ups and downs on the water were startled.

They saw their companions in front of their eyes, and they disappeared with a "swoosh"!

"Dive into the sea to find it! Hurry up! Hurry up!"

The other black man with a scar on his arm and his hair shaved to the point of shredding screamed in shock, and he didn't care about molesting the oriental girl they liked, all of them dived into the water.

Ye Jian still wanted to make a move, but An Xia stopped her, "Don't get our hands dirty, let the men handle it themselves."

There is no need for them to come forward to solve this trivial matter.

"Six people, and..." Ye Jian hadn't finished speaking, when he heard a rock near the shore, someone shouted, "Someone fell into the water! Save people!"

All in Casso.

Immediately afterwards, several thudded into the water, dragging two black men who had surfaced to the shore.

It was two of the six.

An Xia hooked the corner of her mouth, "Hey, there are two more over there."

Equivalent to have solved four.

Chapter 1322: Chat that can't be denied

After finishing speaking, An Xia said with satisfaction: "Yes, solved it directly! Keep this kind of thing, and it will harm other girls in the future. It is better to solve it at one time, so as to avoid future troubles."

At this time, Ye Jian finally understood why Team Xia said that An Xia's murderous aura was too heavy. Really heavy.

In Xia Xia's eyes, there is only the distinction between killing and not killing.

There is no distinction between discretionary and handed over to the judicial department.

Xia Xia seems to be born this way.

wrong!

wrong!

Not born that way.

Rather...

Ye Jian, whose heart was pounding, looked at An Xia with dark eyes. An Xia noticed something different and asked, "What? Is there a problem?"

"Xia Xia..."

Surprise cheers came from the shore again, interrupting Ye Jian's topic.

"God, they didn't die, they just drowned. God forbid, they didn't die."

An Xia: "..."

She takes back what she said before!

Not killing people, just dizzying.

boring.

Looking back, An Xia asked Ye Jian, "What do you want to say to me?"

"Wait for them to finish, I'll ask again." The emotion that he wanted to talk about was interrupted, and Ye Jian was a little embarrassed to pick up.

An Xia didn't force it. She was not a curious person. It didn't matter if she delayed or didn't say it.

After replying the word "oh", I dived into the water first.

The scene she saw when she entered the water made An Xia smile deeply.

As expected of the man she saw.

Are starting to pack up the third.

The one who was dragged into the water was lying in the middle of the water, motionless, not knowing whether it was alive or dead.

The cold black eyes under the swimming goggles tightened slightly, and a cold smile flashed on the corner of his mouth, and An Xia swam towards the man.

After swimming less than a meter away, his wrist was caught.

It's Ye Jian.

She grabbed An Xia's hand, shook her head, and pointed to it again, signaling An Xia to speak out of the water.

An Xia frowned and reluctantly accepted.

Well, she knew what the blue bird wanted to say.

An Xia said coldly after getting out of the water: "These people are repeat offenders. They must have blood on their hands. We will benefit one side by solving it."

"We hand them over to someone who can handle them." Ye Jian did not deny An Xia's words, but discussed with An Xia with a smile, "We can indeed solve them now, but there will be more troubles in the future. "

"This beach, when we came over, did you find anything different?"

An Xia thought for a while and laughed, "I see, you are worried that after these people die, the gang behind them will trouble us."

Ye Jiansi said slowly, "Well, this possibility cannot be ruled out."

Her voice was clean and clear, and when it fell to her ears, there was no trace of aggression. It was more like the wind blowing through the wilderness, with the freshness of the four seasons, falling into the hearts of people.

"We're just here to relax today, and there's a good chance there will be a tough battle tomorrow."

"Xia Xia, I think it's better to leave this matter to better people to save our own energy."

It makes sense, and it's a negotiating tone. An Xia, who doesn't eat hard or soft, finds that she has no way of rejecting her friends.

Then, let's do it.

After nodding his head, his eyebrows twitched a little, and he said, "Don't think about handing it over to someone who can handle them. The city police of Gaso won't handle them, and they don't dare to handle them casually."

"Then, teach them a lesson." Ye Jian winked beautifully, her eyes showing slyness, "Let them not dare to molest the girls in the future."

Such a proposal is very much in line with An Xia's heart!

Chapter 1323: No problem, no harm

The two acted immediately, smiled at each other, lowered their heads into the sea and swam towards the two who had passed out due to lack of oxygen.

The two were about to surface and were dragged back into the sea again.

In the deep water area, the two captains from Snowland and Broken Wolf just happened to get the last two guys. When they were swimming to the surface, they suddenly found their respective girlfriends doing a big thing.

One thing that made the two of them tighten down and get cold on their backs.

Xia Jinyuan shook his body, pointed to the surface of the water where the light penetrated, and accelerated his speed upstream.

Bad food!

Bad food!

His little fox seems to have learned badly!

When the water came out, Xia Jinyuan immediately said: "After the settlement of the imperial domain is finished tomorrow, the four of us will go our separate ways, and we will each throw ourselves back into the arms of the motherland's mother."

I really don't dare to go together. It takes 24 hours to go back. The two of them made a sound along the way, and I don't know what to say.

Mu Chenyuan coughed and said, "It's not a big problem, it's harmless."

"It has nothing to do with the size of the problem, I am afraid." Xia Jinyuan looked up at the sky at a 45-degree angle with "sadness" on his face.

He wouldn't tell Captain Broken Wolf, who was a few years younger than him, that he had not yet succeeded in sleeping with his fiancée.

This is really a sad story that can't be told, only a story of tears in my heart.

well!

Instead, Mu Chenyuan had no such worries. Now, as long as he wants, An Xia can arrange a big bed for the two of them to sleep in minutes.

The full man does not have the sense of crisis of the hungry man at all. He just feels that they really owe a lesson.

Let them kick in the crotch and let them out.

As for Xia Jinyuan, there was nowhere to tell the bitterness, and in the end, it turned into a sigh.

"Bring them back to the shore first, we can't play here anymore. One wave of women left, another wave of men, and it's over!"

His girlfriend was too beautiful, and it really made him feel uneasy.

Fortunately, he is in the team and won't go out easily.

I don't know how many potential rivals will come out if this is put out!

Here, An Xia and Ye Jian finished the solution, and the pain was so severe that they woke up the two who had fainted, and swam to the surface with all their strength.

The pain in the following drama has been taken care of, so let's save my life first.

The two panicked and went ashore with their legs between their legs. Before the severe pain subsided, they saw two people surfaced in the deep water area.

It is his companion!

"Shit! Damn it! Pull 'em up!"

Breka roared furiously.

He couldn't move, the pain below was too much, and the pain rushed into his whole body, until the gold star appeared in front of his eyes.

Pusenda next to him sat directly on the beach, his whole face twisted in pain.

Was he stung by a jellyfish?

Why is it so painful.

There was no way to respond to Breka, and in the end, the pain caused her body to curl up, sweating all over her body.

After the other accomplices rescued the companions in the sea, the four oriental people were long gone from the beach where people came and went.

"Where did they go!"

"Find them out to me! Damn oriental bastards! Shout out to our bros to find them out!"

On the way to the hospital, Breka was still screaming in the car!

They are members of another gang in Gaso City, and this beach belongs to them, but the girls they like rarely escape their clutches.

This time they kicked the iron plate, and the doctor regretfully told them that surgery was required below.

As for the sequelae, they will naturally know.

Chapter 1324: a cruel fact

It was noon when Anxia and the others returned to the hotel that had been arranged earlier.

Driving from the beach to the city, I encountered traffic jams on the road again, and it took two hours to get to the hotel.

Each other, An Qian's private plane just landed.

Emory Ann once again contacted his favorite little daughter, An Qian.

"Tomorrow, I hope you can communicate with Ambassador Xia Guo elegantly, An Qian, this is the only request I have of you now, don't let me down again, understand?"

In fact, An Qian doesn't care about the communication with Ambassador Xia Guo tomorrow.

What she cares more about is that her father has to find the girl from Xia Guo who is very similar to An Xia and even has the same name.

"Of course, Dad, I know how to do it. Please believe me, as you did before, okay? I will do it well and won't let you down."

Her mouth agreed indiscriminately, and she kept tapping her fingers to tell the people around her that she was very impatient at this time.

She didn't want to talk to her father, Emory Ann, unless she told her that he had dealt with the girl from the Xia Kingdom.

Emory Ann no longer believed the words of her youngest daughter An Qian. Her perfunctory expression was too obvious, and her face gradually became cold.

He thought, he really did something wrong.

The youngest daughter, An Qian, is not suitable to be the Lord of the Empire at all.

She didn't have the ability to lead the Imperial Domain to a more brilliant future, and she didn't have the vision to reassure everyone.

Over the years, not only did she not make herself stronger, but she exposed more and more of her shortcomings.

And as a father, he sees it clearly.

Last night he was thinking on the plane whether An Qian could surpass his eldest daughter An Xia.

He thought about it for a night, kept making excuses for An Qian, and kept convincing himself that An Qian was also his daughter. As long as he taught her a few more years, he would definitely surpass his eldest daughter, An Xia.

Continued to persuade, in the end, was constantly denied.

Yes.

He must admit a fact, a very cruel fact: An Qian is not as good as An Xia.

Very very bad!

Emory Ann, who was sitting by the window, raised her hand and pinched the bridge of her nose, and when she spoke again, there was an old voice in her voice, "I don't need to understand what you said, An Qian, I need you to understand in your heart. ."

"You must understand that the Imperial Domain is now not as good as before. Because of your many stupid behaviors, the loyalty of the Wenthyr family has been greatly reduced, and other families must be the same!"

"Do you understand? An Qian."

An Qian didn't speak, the impatience on her face approached and she wanted to yell back, "Daddy, give me some time, okay? Trust me, I will definitely get Wenthyr."

"I will definitely make the Imperial Domain better and better. As long as I am here, the Imperial Domain will definitely get better and better. Please, trust me, okay?"

Listen, she didn't understand what he was talking about at all.

His point is that those families who support the imperial domain, their loyalty has gone wrong!

And An Qian hadn't seen it clearly until now. This was the part that gave him the most headache.

Otherwise, why did he have to make An Qian marry the current Earl of Venthyr?

As long as they become husband and wife and the two families sit on the same boat, Count Venthyr will naturally continue to be loyal to the Imperial Domain.

After they have a child, the Imperial Domain and the Wenthyr family will definitely nurture them well so that the child will become the new Lord of the Imperial Domain.

Only in this way, the imperial domain can stand upright! "

Emory Ann was very tired and continued to talk to An Qian with her eyes closed: "You didn't understand, An Qian, I'm really disappointed. You still haven't understood what I want to tell you."

Chapter 1325: It's finally here

Anxi was angry.

He clenched his fists, closed his eyes tightly, and kept adjusting his breathing.

She couldn't get angry at her father, she couldn't anger him at this time.

If she didn't find that girl in Xia Guo, she had to endure it.

When she returns to the Imperial Domain, she will definitely...

The fist was clenched and clenched again, until the long nails hurt the palm, and An Qian slowly released it.

She choked up and said, "I'm sorry, Daddy, for letting you down. I really, I'll try to be better."

"Help me solve that girl in Xia Guo, Daddy, please solve her as soon as possible?"

"She's so much like my sister that I'm scared and scared. Daddy, aren't you scared? I think you're just as scared as I am."

On the other side of the phone, Emory Ann's breathing was obviously short, in exchange for An Qian's successful smile.

Look, Daddy is actually just as scared as she is.

They were all afraid that my sister, An Xia, was still alive.

Pretending not to notice, An Qian continued sobbing, "Mummy told me that you didn't go on vacation with her again, Daddy, did you come to Gaso too?"

"Do you want to be like me and want to personally confirm if she is a sister, right?"

"Daddy, if you don't worry about me meeting with Ambassador Xia Guo, you can go to meet me instead. And I, go find that girl from Xia Guo, and when I find her, I will definitely tell you, wait for you to deal with her, okay? ?"

Hidden secrets are completely exposed, Emory. An angry turned into anger, and snorted, "An Qian, pay attention to your attitude! You are like a country girl full of stupid words now!"

"I tell you now, if you can't promise to maintain friendly exchanges with Ambassador Xia, An Yin, I will consider taking back your power to manage the imperial domain."

"I know that you have been secretly cleaning up the people I left behind for the past few years. None of these people, your sister An Xia, has touched, but you have."

"An Qian, you have already lost to An Xia in terms of employing people and doing things. Do you still want to continue to lose to your sister outside? Or do you want everyone to see that you are not as good as An Xia?!"

"If this is what you want, I will definitely satisfy you!"

Finished drinking quickly, Emory. An did not wait for An Qian to respond, and hung up the phone.

He was afraid of seeing his eldest daughter An Xia?

how is this possible!

A dead daughter, he doesn't need to be afraid at all.

No matter how much that girl in Xia Guo looks like, she just looks like it!

Just like it!

Emory. Ann was panting heavily, breathing too hard, her nose flaring out.

Now he is no longer the respected and respected owner of the Emperor Domain, who is standing in the Imperial Domain. He doesn't even realize how embarrassed he is at this time, and he no longer has the majesty he had when he was young.

He panted, neither admitting he was wrong nor admitting that he had been afraid of his eldest daughter who had been dead for five years.

Seriously speaking, he is worse than An Qian.

An Qian will at least face it, keep looking for the faces that frighten her, and try her best to eradicate them.

And Emory. An didn't dare to face it at all, but he acquiesced to An Qian's behavior.

An Qian has done so many wrong things, how could he not know.

You know, just pretending not to know.

Now when it was time for him to face it, he had to stand up and clean up the mess for An Qian.

If they don't show up again, once they really provoke the Xia Kingdom, the Imperial Domain at this time has no way to bear it, and the Western Alliance countries will not stop coming forward in the face of the powerful Xia Kingdom!

Those who are eager to move, but want to act for the Empire, may even propose the permanent dissolution of the Empire!

It's not that they didn't mention it, they just suppressed it later.

Emory staring out of the plane window. Ann gradually became calm, and the bodyguard who protected him called the flight attendant. After ordering a cup of hot water, he got up from the adjacent business seat and handed it over.

Emory. Ann took the water glass and drank it all in one gulp before saying, "Ask them if they have found anyone."

"Yes." The bodyguard nodded, respectfully returned to his original position, and contacted the ground.

Five minutes later, he was back on Emory. Ann reported to her side, "Someone found her on the beach, and someone has been sent to look around."

"Go to various hotels and ask." Emory. Ann ordered, "Since she can escape, it is not easy for the people around her to rescue her. It is possible that there are people from Gaso to help her."

"Find out where she rests as soon as possible."

Once you find the girl, kill it.

Even though she knew that she was not An Xia, she should never have been wrong. She had the exact same face as An Xia, and even had the same name.

That face disturbed him last night, so he didn't sleep all night, as long as he closed his eyes, he saw the eldest daughter standing beside him covered in blood.

She stretched out her long nails, fluttered her teeth and claws at him, and asked in a sharp voice, "Why do you want to kill me, why do you want to kill me!"

In the dream, she turned into a demon to entangle herself.

He kept questioning, and even strangled his neck violently, causing him to wake up from a nightmare, covered in cold sweat.

That girl, there is no way to stay.

Emory. Ann closed his eyes again, and while the sun was still there, he slept for a while.

There is a legend in the ancient state of Xia, saying that evil spirits will not come out during the day, let alone appear under the sun. When the sun shines on them, they will be wiped out.

He will sleep for a while, and then go to see the girl when he is asleep.

until Emory. When An arrived in Gaso City, there was no news of finding An Xia from the people below.

It's getting dark again, Emory. An met her youngest daughter, An Qian.

And Wenthyr, who arrived earlier than them all, saw Anxia.

An Xia didn't want to see Wen Xier at all, so he went into his room without saying anything.

"Venthyr!" An Xia stared at him coldly while resting. This guy actually entered her room disguised as a waiter.

What's even more annoying is that he didn't recognize him immediately, and even took the initiative to let him in!

Pointing to the door, An Xia scolded directly, "Get out!"

Venthyr closed the door, then knelt down on one knee, put one hand on his chest, lowered his head, his deep voice suppressed all emotions, put down all his arrogance and dignity, just to see his master again.

"The Emperor."

Chapter 1326: you are my emperor

The sound of "Emperor Lord" instantly made An Xia's face even gloomier.

With Wen Xier's arrogance, if there is no absolute certainty, it is impossible to make this move in front of him.

His eyes were cold, and the oppression that seemed to be wrapped in waves fell on Wenthyr.

Without admitting it immediately, he just stared at Venthyr like a mountain.

Venthyr still didn't move.

Still maintaining the original posture, even, he lowered his posture once again.

Such a noble and arrogant earl put down his identity and status, like a servant, and crawled beside An Xia.

An Xia still didn't answer, didn't even say a word, and sat directly on the small arc single sofa in the room.

She wanted to see how long Venthyr could last.

In fact, it is also testing whether Wen Xier is really sure that she is the Lord of the Emperor Domain, the Emperor Lord he is loyal to.

Time passed by, and the room fell into silence for nearly half an hour.

And Venthyr, still didn't move.

There was a knock on the door, it was Mu Chenyuan.

"Xia Xia, can I come in?"

I didn't know anyone was in there.

The hotel where the three of them stayed was arranged by the embassy, and their safety was absolutely guaranteed. Venthyr didn't know what method he used, but he managed to get in.

It can be seen that the ability of Lord Earl should not be underestimated.

An Xia raised her cold eyes, didn't get up, and said in a low voice, "I'm resting, I'll come to find you later."

Mu Chenyuan, who was standing outside, was stunned.

got rejected?

His eyes darkened suddenly, and his fingers tapped rhythmically again.

This is the code.

I was asking Anxia if there was a situation and if she needed support.

If the answer is an odd number, it means there is a situation.

If the answer is an even number, it means everything is fine.

"You go back to your room first, I'll come over later."

is an even number, no danger.

Mu Chenyuan took a step back and didn't bother, "Okay, you rest first."

In the room, An Xia didn't answer any more, until she heard the door closing next door, and she said to Wen Xier, "I'm not."

Venthyr kept kneeling on one knee and raised his head, his handsome face like a Greek * flashed with sadness.

"Emperor, I know it's you."

"I don't know any emperor." Before confirming whether Wencyer was involved in the plan to kill her, Anxia did not intend to recognize him.

He is also on the list of suspects for murdering her.

Before Wenthyr came, he was prepared that Anxia would not admit it, and he was not surprised to see her deny it now.

He sighed softly: "Emperor, you can trust me. I swear by my family that I will be loyal to you until I die."

Who wouldn't say nice things.

I haven't seen him for so many years, who knows what he will become.

What's more, An Qian was still chasing after him, wanting to marry him.

"You're looking for the wrong person, I'm not the person you're looking for."

"Emperor Lord." Bitterness flashed in his eyes, and Wen Xier said, "Based on what the Emperor Lord knows about me, if I don't confirm whether you are the Emperor Lord, will I always kneel here?"

"Perhaps, you didn't realize that many times your little actions are telling me that you are my emperor."

What's yours, mine, An Xia whispered, she was hers, not his.

However, he also reminded himself that Wen Xier was an acquaintance, and he knew about her small movements, and with his shrewdness, it was indeed possible to see Duan Sui.

But so what.

She doesn't admit it anyway.

Venthyr also knew that it was difficult for her to admit who she was.

Bowing his head, Wen Xier showed his greatest sincerity, "I am willing to dedicate all my strength, including myself, to the emperor's lord's dispatch."

Saying that, he took out an ancient armband, which represented the Wenthyr family and could control all the armbands under the name of the entire Wenthyr family.

He held both hands high and dedicated it to An Xia, "This is, my loyalty to the Emperor."

Chapter 1327: doomed enemy

In the loss of time, the ancient armbands have been worn on the edges and corners, but these wear and tear not only do not affect its gorgeousness, but add to the mysterious feeling that has grown over time.

It represents the power of the Venthyr family.

An Xia was really stunned.

At that moment, she thought that Wenthyr must have taken the wrong medicine.

The scheming guy, what are you paying attention to!

An Xia did not accept the loyalty offered by Wen Xier, but instead became more suspicious.

You can't blame An Xia for not believing him. In fact, the relationship between the two people was very bad in the past.

It was so bad that it was so bad that at midnight, Wenthyr sent a message saying that he would kill her one day and replace her.

During normal training, he would keep stumbling on An Xia.

Later, even if An Xia became the Lord of the Empire, Wen Xier was the last one, kneeling on one knee, reluctantly admitting that An Xia was the new Lord of the Empire.

In a word, how bad the relationship between An Xia and Wen Xier was before!

On the other hand, he and An Qian have a good relationship.

Every time he came to the Imperial Domain, he would bring some rare diamonds from all over the world to An Qian, including pink, blue, purple, and yellow.

And say, "An Qian, you deserve the most beautiful diamond in the world."

The funny thing is that he always gave it to An Qian in front of her every time, and said something to try to make her angry.

I'm so sorry, she wasn't angry at all.

He would lean up to her again and show a smirk that he thought was very elegant, "It's all things that little girls like, so the emperor probably won't like it."

"If the emperor likes it, I'll pay attention next time. However, it may be slightly worse than Miss An Qian's. I hope the emperor doesn't dislike it."

An Qian naturally added fuel to the fire next to her, and said weakly, "Count, my elder sister doesn't like diamonds. My elder sister likes to collect all kinds of weapons."

Wenthyr immediately patted his forehead lightly and said apologetically, "Thank you for reminding Miss An Qian, who is beautiful and generous, I almost forgot that although the Emperor is also a girl, she doesn't like the little things girls like."

"I'm sorry. The weapons I have collected will never be better than the emperor. Alas, I'll give Miss An Qian a diamond next time."

How did she answer at that time?

He smiled and told them, "I don't mind having a few more weapons in the collection room that can kill at any time, Wenthyr, you can bring me a few good pistols next time, and I'll see if I'll be okay next time during training. use."

Kill you with the gun you gave, it's a good deal.

Venthyr naturally understood.

That idiot of An Qian should have understood, her face turned pale and white, and invited Wenthyr to go for a walk in her small garden.

The two sang and drank in front of her, and finally left together.

Before leaving, Venthyr would still maintain his noble style, bending slightly to himself before leaving.

Oh, and also take An Qian to travel, tsk, that romance, everyone thought that Wen Xier liked An Qian and wanted to marry Countess An Qian.

With such a Wencyr, even if he handed over the armband representing the power of the family now, Anxia would not be able to trust him.

The room was so quiet that you couldn't even smell your breath.

Vinthyr held the armband high, still motionless.

He didn't get up by himself, he was waiting for An Xia to let him get up.

I don't think An Xia is deliberately embarrassing himself, the more so, the happier he is.

because.....

This was the Emperor An Xia he knew.

Chapter 1328: fell in love with her

Perhaps she herself hadn't found out until now that her condescension and her imperious aura that he couldn't disobey, all told him that she was the emperor An Xia.

Now he is willing to kneel in front of her, even if he is allowed to kneel until dawn, he can.

He really wanted to let him kneel in the room until dawn, without speaking, and just stay by her side quietly, he was very happy.

How could An Xia let him stay in his room until dawn.

"I don't know your stuff, and I don't need it. Now, get out of my room immediately, and don't make me say it a second time."

In the indifferent voice, even the tit-for-tat of the past is gone.

Only beware and distrust.

The voices turned into thin needles, and they pierced into my heart one after another.

It hurt so much that the charming handsome face showed deep pain.

"I know it's you, An Xia, I know it's you." When Wen Xier spoke again, his voice was very hoarse, as if he had cried bitterly, with endless sadness.

Those azure blue eyes were so bright that it seemed like a flame was burning, staring at An Xia for a moment.

It doesn't matter, she doesn't admit it now, and in the days to come, he believes she will admit it.

"I have also been looking for the truth of your death. I have collected a lot, more than the four of them have collected!"

"Emperor Lord, I know that our previous relationship is indeed..."

Mentioning the previous relationship between the two, Venthyr paused slightly.

Because he knew who he was, he did a lot of childish things to provoke An Xia.

"...It's really bad, but I never really thought about hurting you. I said, I will kill you one day. Instead, I thought about it, but I want to protect you more."

"Emperor, at that time you believed in Emory Ann. Although he was your father, he was not good to you."

"I knew very early on that Emory Ann actually wanted An Qian to take over the Imperial Domain, but you didn't seem to notice."

"At that time, you were too confident. In your eyes, An Qian was just an idiot who liked to speak ill of you in front of Emory Ann and deliberately frame you, and it was not enough to be a threat to you. "

"It's wrong, it's really wrong. The guy who looks stupid, in fact, has always wanted to kill you and become the new owner of the imperial domain."

"I approached her just to know more of her secrets, to collect more evidence and put it in front of you, to let you know that your father Emory Ann and your sister Anxi, they have been plotting to hurt you. "

Venthyr spoke slowly, and time seemed to turn back in his slow narration, pulling the two back to the past.

"I told myself time and time again that I can cooperate with them, use them to kill you, and make our Venthyr family the masters of the imperial domain."

"I have too many opportunities to attack, but I didn't really attack you, but let you go again and again."

"Emperor, every time I deliberately say something with An Qian, I just remind myself that you and I are destined to be opposites, and it is destined to be impossible to live in peace."

"It was also intentional that An Qian used me to keep provoking you. I want you to know that you and An Qian are also destined to be against each other."

Wen Xier said, Junyan smiled miserably, "I thought that, you and I will always be opposites, and we are destined enemies."

"But I didn't think... didn't think about..."

Unexpectedly, he fell in love with her.

Chapter 1329: love you, sweet and painful

This was the ending he never thought of, and even he himself didn't know when he fell in love with her.

"Emperor, I really always thought that we were destined enemies. Until that day, I heard the news that your plane was shot down by a missile..."

On that day, he left all his official business like crazy and came to the place where her accident happened.

Saw plane wreckage scattered all over the ground.

Curry told him that they found an item representing the Emperor Anxia.

He also said that Anxia had been burned to ashes.

"I don't believe it. You, who promised to come back to me to settle accounts a few days ago, suddenly disappeared? They also said that you were no longer found in the wreckage, and that all the people on the plane were burnt to ashes."

"How is it possible, you are so powerful, and you who have escaped countless calculations, how can you just die like this and burn to ashes."

Wenthyr's eyes turned red as he spoke, and his eyes were full of anger.

The party involved, An Xia, was very calm.

She was so calm that she closed her eyes slightly and took a nap.

That's right, she was indeed burned to ashes at that time, and not a single bone was left.

The moment the missile hit, all the people on board didn't even have a chance to react, and were instantly swallowed up by death.

At that time, I was closing my eyes and resting, and it was too late to hear the alarm sound. The next second, I only heard a "bang" in my ear, and then I hung up.

Opening her eyes again, she became a poor little girl who was almost tortured to death.

Wenthyr is talking to her now, which sounds boring.

The bad things between her and him, no matter how big or small, they hurt all the way.

Now that she has sold her grievance and loyalty in front of him, she has no worries in her heart.

Since he likes to kneel, then kneel.

An Xia let him say it, and wanted to hear if he could say something useful to him.

So far, it's all * except that he says he's also investigating the truth about her death.

He said that he thought the two would be doomed enemies, congratulations, she thought so too.

I just didn't expect that she would hang up early.

He himself did not expect that she would die so early.

"After you left, Tianshu and the others lost their freedom, and Emory Ann planned to kill them for dereliction of duty. It was I who secretly took action to save them."

After Tianshu arrived in Xia, he told her about this.

It was indeed Venthryr who shot, and the four of them were able to save their lives.

An Xia's closed eyes moved slightly, because she owed him a "thank you".

"I know that Tianshu and the others have been secretly investigating, but when they are released, all traces are wiped clean, and Emory Ann will come out again to temporarily take over the imperial domain."

"With him in the Imperial Domain, there are eyeliners all around, Tianshu and the others have no way to leave the Imperial Domain for investigation. Tianshu and the others are also very smart, knowing that the Master is not even Emory Ann's opponent, and will no longer show up. , let yourself gradually become a transparent person."

"Until last year..."

Wen Xier raised his eyes suddenly, his blue eyes burning with flames, stared at An Xia tightly, "The four of them came to Xia Country! It was you who contacted them."

"You are the emperor An Xia. I have been reading some ancient books in the Xia Kingdom in the past two days, and I have also consulted with friends in the Xia Kingdom. They told me that the Xia Kingdom has always said "borrowing a corpse to bring back the soul"!"

Here, An Xia's calm face has undergone a subtle change.

Borrowing the corpse to bring back the soul?

That's true.

Xiao Anxia left, but she survived on Xiao Anxia, who was killed by the missile.

Chapter 1330: Eat your own fruit

An Xia yawned, changed her sitting position lazily, and continued to listen to Wen Xier.

There's really no way to get rid of him.

When there was a disturbance, the boyfriend next door heard the sound, fearing that he might misunderstand that there was a wild man hiding in his room.

Besides, I really want to make a move, this guy Wenthyr

Wenthyr started to laugh again, "I know what happened to Xia Guoxiao Anxia at that time. She was sent out by her family as a courtesy, just to please another girl."

"The girl was jealous that Xiao Anxia was prettier than herself, so she brought Xiao Anxia, who was given to her as a gift, to the warehouse, and asked someone to humiliate her."

"Finally, you borrowed the corpse from Xiao Anxia and successfully solved these things looking for death."

"That is, from that day on, you changed from the emperor An Xia to the little An Xia of the Xia Kingdom."

That's all Wenthyr knew.

He didn't know about An Xia joining the Xia Guo team.

"Emperor, An Qian has arrived in Gaso, you need to leave here as soon as possible, I have arranged everything, we can leave immediately."

"As long as you nod, I will definitely help you and return to the Imperial Domain to take back everything that belongs to you."

He put on the armband again, this time, Wenthyr's face only had the determination to follow him to the death.

An Xia opened her eyes, her cold gaze fell on Wen Xier who was kneeling at the entrance.

The spotlights at the entrance were on, and the bright light enveloped him, showing his handsome face clearly in front of her eyes, and allowing her to better see the various expressions on his face.

And such Wenthyr made Anxia feel a little strange.

Or the arrogant Lord Wenthyr?

It doesn't look like it at all.

Have a problem with your brain?

"You said a bunch of things that I don't understand. Find someone who can understand what you're saying." An Xia raised her eyes and responded calmly and indifferently, "I don't know you."

Having said so much, she still doesn't plan to get acquainted with herself.

A strong sense of frustration came, and Wenthyr thought of an idiom in Xia Guo: Eat the fruits of your own accord.

It was because she had done too many things in the past that made her disgusted, and she was in such a situation today.

It was he who destroyed her trust in him.

It's that he's too self-righteous.

"What do I need to do, you can believe me." There was a glint of water in the red eyes, such a noble man kept kneeling, breaking his arrogance, just to beg the girl he loves to look at him.

It's a pity that An Xia's tenderness is a man who always believes in himself and stands by his side - Mu Chenyuan.

The corners of his mouth twitched slightly, even if Wencyer showed deep pain, Anxia's heart was unmoved.

Some people always like to think about themselves.

Then let him continue to think about himself, don't turn around and tell her that he regrets the past.

There is nothing to regret at the beginning, what you have done, what you have said, will not pretend that it did not happen because of regret.

Wenthyr, there's really no heinous thing done to her.

Just like to pick on her thorns.

As for using An Qian and the like, she was not at ease.

But she really didn't believe him.

The bridge of trust is not built in a day. After spending so many years with him, everyone is wary of each other. Now that we talk about trust, An Xia only finds it funny.

"I have something else to do, the door is behind you, get out."

"I can stay and wait for you to come back." Wenthyr insisted, finally finding her, and now she just wants to be by her side every minute.

Kneeling doesn't matter.
