Chapter 1351: restraint

Fortunately, the end of this site has arrived, and Mu Chenyuan can naturally choose not to answer.

An Xia only said this when she remembered it, and did not expect Mu Chenyuan to answer, but she clearly remembered that the two did not kiss in the car.

On the other side, Xia Jinyuan had put away his usual sly smile, and the second he got out of the car, his temperament changed drastically.

Standing in the yellowish shadow of the lamp, like an ancient blood sword that has been unsealed, standing in the world with pride, even if he does not move, he can feel the inviolability and fierceness of his body.

Such Xia Jinyuan made An Xia take a second look.

After that, she squinted her eyes slightly, turned her head to Ye Jian and said, "Does the current Xia team attract your attention?"

You don't even need a friend to answer, you can tell from his friend's eyes that he is quite attracted to him!

Ye Jian didn't hide it either, Luoluo smiled generously: "Well, when I first saw him, I was amazed by him. After so many years, it's still the same."

In her heart, Team Xia will always be her god, the patron saint forever.

The only and irreplaceable thing is to let her keep chasing and keep moving forward, representing the * of light.

"I used to have a very dark time. I was wandering around and didn't know where to go. It was Team Xia who always stood in front and told me how I should get out of my own life."

During that time, because of his company, her life was full of more colors.

Along the way, she has Grandpa Gen, Uncle Chen, and him. Her journey in this life is finally not as hard and struggling as in her previous life.

An Xia thoroughly saw how much his friend Qingniao loved Xia Jinyuan.

It's deep, with no bottom visible.

After thinking about it, she said, "I will try not to find fault with him in the future."

For the sake of her friends, she tried her best to live in peace with Xia Jinyuan.

However, it is estimated that there will not be many encounters in the future.

When she returned to the Imperial Domain, before the matter was settled, she would most likely choose to cut off all contact with all the people in the Xia Kingdom, including Mu Chenyuan.

Until the matter is resolved, and then find a way to contact them.

Ye Jian heard the words, smiled and rolled her eyes, "It doesn't matter, I also like you to hate him. It's rare to meet an opponent who can speak of him as speechless. You are the first."

If Team Mu also counts, there are two.

But Mu team obviously often chooses to be silent, because of their temperament, they won't say much.

"Then I have to restrain myself, let him speak..." After a few seconds of pause, An Xia continued, "It's a bit of a mess."

cough cough...

This, um, is indeed true.

When in the snow, all teammates want to sack their Q-king at least fourteen times a week.

Unfortunately, Nai He has never had a chance.

If Xia Xia goes to the Xueyu Brigade, I am afraid that it is really possible to gather all the team members together and give countless plans to clean up the Xia team, and, unanimously, all raise their hands in approval.

However, there is another biggest problem that has always existed: no one dares to implement it.

Dare to think, dare not to move.

Afraid of being cleaned up by King Q in turn.

But once Xia Xia joins, with Xia Xia's ferocity, King Q is afraid that it is very likely that he will be cleaned up.

That's still...

Don't pack it up.

She is distressed.

"It's a bit difficult to clean up the Xia team. If you don't pay attention, you may be cleaned up. So..." Ye Jian patted her friend's shoulder lightly, sighing with a look of concern for her friend, "So... , or restraint."

Chapter 1352: The enemy is coming

An Xia glanced at her friend and directly pierced Xiao Jiujiu in her friend's heart.

"Haha" smiled softly, "I think you are distressed."

"Well, it hurts." Ye Jian simply admitted.

It's been seen, what else is there to hide?

Besides, Team Xia is her fiancé. If she doesn't feel sorry for her, there will be a lot of people who will feel sorry for her.

In order not to give other girls a chance to feel sorry for Team Xia, she must come to feel sorry for them.

An Xia rubbed her brows, quite distressed, "You will really be eaten by him like this."

"That's not necessarily true." Ye Jian blinked her eyes, lowered her voice a few degrees, and whispered, "Outside, give him more or less face."

understood!

An Xia understood instantly, and reflected on whether he didn't save face for Team Mu.

After thinking about it, it doesn't seem to be!

The two were still biting their ears and whispering. There were footsteps in front of them. Although the footsteps were a bit fast, they walked very calmly and calmly.

An Xia and Ye Jian stood up at the same time, restrained their expressions at the same time, straightened their backs, and looked forward together.

Someone walked towards them through the dark night.

From far to near, until a figure as tall and straight as a bamboo tree appears, then it appears in the light and shadow, and then the facial features are clearly reflected in the eyes.

Qin Xiu.

The most handsome diplomat in Xia, the dream lover of countless girls.

The second he saw him, An Xia could understand why an excellent man like Xia Jinyuan would be nervous.

Qin Xiu is outstanding, enough to make every outstanding boyfriend nervous!

"It's really handsome." An Xia sincerely praised.

She found that the handsomeness of Xia Guo's men is all about her beauty.

Even Xia Jinyuan, who was scolded by her, had to say, this guy is really handsome!

Qin Xiu is also quite handsome!

Elegant and noble, handsome, coupled with a dignified and upright body, his appearance has become the center point.

"I'm sorry, I took an emergency call temporarily, and I didn't come to greet you in time. Please forgive me."

The voice is also very similar, and the clean room is inadvertent, which makes people can't help but listen to the prestige.

The ambassador of a country is really extraordinary.

When Mu Chenyuan in front heard An Xia's praise, his eyes jumped indistinctly.

Although in the hotel, her girlfriend admitted that she was her favorite, but when she saw Qin Xiu, her eyebrows twitched uncontrollably.

No wonder Team Xia was nervous, and if it was him, he was also nervous.

There are such rivals around, sleep at night to dream of your girlfriend being robbed.

Xia Jinyuan had never dreamed of such a dream.

He is confident enough not to let his rivals take advantage.

Not even in a dream!

Reaching out, Xia Jinyuan shook hands with his rival Qin Xiu, whom he hadn't seen for many years, and smiled, "I haven't seen each other for many years, but Ambassador Qin is still as polite as before."

Do the math, I haven't seen each other for almost four years.

Qin Xiu smiled. In a suit and leather shoes, he stood in front of the two special forces soldiers who came out of the * mountain. He was still chatting and laughing without showing any signs of timidity.

The image of the country is also like a mountain and a sea, which cannot be shaken.

"It's not polite, it's been a long time since I saw each other, and it's a little strange for a while."

I don't know if An Xia is overhearted, but I always feel that this sentence is trying to tell Xia Jinyuan some small thoughts that can't be said directly.

Xia Jinyuan was still as still as a mountain, and greeted with a smile, "It's okay, I'll be familiar with it after a chat."

After that, he introduced Mu Chenyuan and An Xia to Qin Xiu.

Chapter 1353: Qualified melon eaters

Mu Chenyuan and An Xia shook hands with Qin Xiu, and briefly introduced themselves. The two of them had a tacit understanding and stepped aside, leaving the place to Xia, Ye, and Qin.

If you have melon seeds or watermelon in your hand, even better.

People who eat melons are never afraid of big things.

When Qin Xiu walked up to Ye Jian, An Xia's eyes lit up a little, and he said to Mu Chenyuan, "Xia Jinyuan's heart is probably bleeding right now."

"It's possible." Mu Chenyuan agreed, what his girlfriend said must be what she said, but not the other way around.

I thought to myself: How pitiful.

He thought again, this kind of scene, he never wanted to encounter it in his life.

At this time, Mu Chenyuan never thought that the scene at this moment was already on his way and arrived soon.

An Xia laughed until her bright eyes were like stars, "You should just let him hold it in for a while, otherwise, he will always bully Jade Bird."

She is still used to calling her friend's code name, which is particularly nice and full of the mysterious atmosphere of the ancient East.

Hearing this, Mu Chenyuan silently lit a wax for Senior Team Xia again in his heart.

In the future, Jade Bird has Xia Xia. If he wants to bully Jade Bird, he will really be beaten by Xia Xia.

"Tsk, your Xia Jinyuan's face is so dark and ugly. Tsk tsk tsk, he is really a careful man. Isn't it just a handshake, do you need so much jealousy?"

An Xia narrated while watching the show.

In front, Qin Xiu shook hands with Ye Jian. He was very polite and polite. His behavior was completely decent, and he didn't do anything else.

Only said: "Long time no see."

Yes, just a long time no see, nothing else.

Neither his cultivation nor his status would allow him to cross the Thunder Pond.

It's a restraint and a wake-up call.

Even though his heartbeat accelerated uncontrollably the moment he held her hand, Qin Xiu kept the politeness on his face and kept the distance between the two at the most suitable but not embarrassing distance.

Meeting acquaintances, that's all.

Ye Jian also smiled politely: "Long time no see, this time, I need to trouble you again."

"It's what I should do." Qin Xiu replied, politely passing the face of the sweetheart he had missed for several years, without stopping, turned sideways, and led the four into the embassy.

Xia Jinyuan, Mu Chenyuan and Qin Xiu, the three men naturally walked together.

Qin Xiu walked in the middle, with Xia and Mu on the left and right.

Ye Jian and An Xia walked behind. It was An Xia who deliberately followed Ye Jian and opened a small distance.

It was very convenient for her to whisper to Ye Jian.

"The man who can make Xia Jinyuan nervous is really extraordinary." An Xia curled the corners of her mouth, her eyes unconcealed, and fell to Qin Xiu's back with admiration, "The photo on Qiandu was not taken well, the real person is more handsome."

Talented and handsome, it is hard not to be tempted by the combination of the two.

And such a man likes her friend Jade Bird, which shows that Jade Bird is also very, very, very good.

Ye Jian was actually a little uncomfortable, but she could still face Qin Xiu calmly.

The relationship between the two is limited to friends and neighbors. It is open and honest, and there is no need to avoid it.

The main reason for being uncomfortable is...

Team Xia's hostility towards Qin Xiu, um, can be seen when they walk.

Just now, he gave Team Mu a wink and asked Team Mu to walk to Qin Xiu's right.

well!

Sometimes the summer team is even smaller than the tip of a needle.

But she loves it!

Listening to the jokes of her friends, Ye Jian's little wickedness also arose, and she teased: "How about you focus on introducing yourself later?"

Chapter 1354: too suddenly

An Xia heard her friend's ridicule, and was not embarrassed at all, and even said it. "It's not impossible. Next time, this time my boyfriend is present, I have to give him some face."

He did not refuse, and gave himself the opportunity to meet Qin Xiu.

Ye Jian pursed her lips and smiled, "Could it be, do you really have an idea?"

"What idea are you talking about?" In terms of his strong tongue, Anxia has never failed.

Listening to Ye Jian's joking, An Xia was indifferent, but at the same time, he brought his friends together.

Ye Jianqing coughed, what are you thinking...

Some are hard to say.

Alas, it's no wonder that Team Xia is often angry. With such a strong tongue, Xia Xia definitely occupies a place.

Fortunately, the meeting room was right in front of them, so the two stopped chatting, and Qin Xiu led them into the meeting room.

The four of them were seated, and Qin Xiu went to the main topic, "I won't say anything else because of time, and I will directly explain the business of tomorrow."

The face is as handsome as jade, and the expression is very serious.

He turned on the computer, and then the projector cast all the data on the white screen.

Into the eye, is the photo of An Qian and Emery Ann.

An Xia: "..."

Just, quite suddenly!

She hasn't seen her for more than five years, and her good father seems to have aged a lot.

With An Qian's intimate little padded jacket by her side, how could she be so old?

Looking at An Qian again, although there was a deep smile on the corner of her mouth, the eyes that were exactly the same as her mother didn't have any charm.

Like a marionette, it is dominated by others, without its own thoughts and opinions.

The photo was taken in September last year, which happened to be when An Xia went to study at Changhai University.

"The one on the left is An Qian, the current Lord of the Emperor Domain, and the one on the right is the retired old Emperor Lord Emory An..." Qin Xiu's voice was slightly low, and he gave the most detailed introduction to the two heavyweights in the Empire. "Five and a half years ago, An Xia, the former Lord of the Empire..."

Having said that, Qin Xiu's eyes fell on An Xia's face sitting in the conference room, his eyes narrowed slightly, and then he released a photo.

It was a photo of An Xia in her previous life, wearing desert camouflage and standing in the middle of a group of senior leaders of Western Europeans, which was particularly eye-catching.

An Xia raised her eyebrows.

Qin Xiu got this photo?

It was taken about seven years ago. The secret meeting is held once a year. The photos are only reserved for the participants and will not leak out easily.

I really didn't expect Qin Xiu to get it.

"After An Xia, the former Lord of the Emperor's Domain, had a plane crash, An Qian took over. Three and a half years ago, An Qian officially became the Lord of the Emperor's Domain. From then on, her crazy behavior began, and all girls who were similar to her sister An Xia. , she didn't let go of a single one."

"I saw An Xia just now..."

When his eyes fell on An Xia's face again, Qin Xiu's serious and handsome face added a bit of coldness, "I saw An Xia just now, and I immediately understood why An Qian was desperate to come to Gaso City."

Because it's so similar!

It's like it's the same person!

An Xia twitched the corners of her mouth and smiled coldly, "I am honored to be chased and killed by her."

After that, he asked, "Have you counted how many girls similar to me have been destroyed by her?"

At that time, she will find An Qian to settle accounts one by one.

Qin Xiu shook his head and replied, "It's impossible to count. Everything An Qian did was born from the subordinates around her, and she didn't appear until she sent people to her side."

"And this time is the only exception so far."

Oh, then she feels more "honored".

"It seems that I made her feel a sense of crisis. Now, I'm looking forward to meeting tomorrow." An Xia smiled, and the killing intent suppressed in her cold eyes was surging.

See you tomorrow, she is really looking forward to it!

Chapter 1355: Just a bunch of shit

An Xia knew much more about the little things in the imperial domain than Qin Xiu and the others had investigated.

As a former member of the Imperial Domain, the information displayed on the projection was all in her hands.

Therefore, compared to the solemnity of the other people, An Xia's expression seemed extremely relaxed.

Sitting calmly, occasionally changing positions, looking very relaxed.

Xia Jinyuan cast his eyes on An Xia many times, and then turned his eyes away again with a dark look.

From the very beginning, An Xia had always given him a very strange feeling, and he couldn't tell what was wrong.

Imperial Domain, An Xia...

He kept turning around in his heart, turning it over, no matter how smart Xia Jinyuan was and how cautious his temper was, he couldn't guess what the relationship between An Xia and the Emperor Domain was.

Apart from the fighting skills she knew from the Emperor's Domain, and the four people around her, it was impossible to find out that An Xia had some unknown relationship with the Emperor's Domain.

For the sake of caution, the above also checked her mother again, and there was no problem.

But why does he always feel that An Xia is related to the Emperor Domain?

Qin Xiu has already introduced all the information about the two current rulers of the Imperial Domain. "The above is the information we have collected that is related to the Imperial Domain. Tomorrow, we will meet with An Qian."

"And we received the latest news that the old emperor Emory Ann also came to Gaso City. The news is..."

Qin Xiu pressed the corners of his mouth, his expression became much more serious, "At eight o'clock in the evening, the staff received a group of Internet calls, telling us that Emory Ann arrived in secret."

"At the same time, tell us that he is most likely here for Anxia."

The staff were surprised when they got the call.

Because only a few people know about the meeting with the Imperial Domain, and it is not completely sure whether the Imperial Domain will meet with them.

But the other party seems to have long known what the embassy and the imperial domain are doing, and even know the whereabouts of Emory An and An Qian very well.

"...The whereabouts of the two are confidential, and the person who told us is very aware of the trajectory of their activities. He also reminded us that we need to pay attention to the seven bodyguards around An Qian."

An Xia straightened up a little, who was the tip to Qin Xiu?

She thought of a person - Venthyr.

This guy did something to satisfy her.

Telling Qin Xiu of Emory Ann's whereabouts, he was impeded invisibly. No wonder she didn't wait for the ambush all the way. It turned out that Venthyr did the trick.

presumably.....

An Xia looked at Qin Xiu and asked directly, "After receiving the news, you sent someone to meet with Emory An, right?"

Only with this arrangement can we explain why Emory Ann did not appear in front of her.

Emory Ann, despite being obsessed with women's lust, was once able to become the Lord of the Empire, and his ability was obvious to all.

If he hadn't been fascinated by the illegitimate daughter of the royal family later, the Western European countries would not accept his marriage with the royal family, and at the same time occupy the position of the lord of the imperial domain. With Emory Ann's strength, he would not have left his post at all.

So, An Qian's mother is indeed a bit capable, so fascinated that Emory Anning would abdicate and marry a beautiful woman.

Now, Emory Ann, for his precious little daughter An Qian, has come to Gaso City temporarily again. It really is a father-daughter bond.

It's a pity, unfortunately, Xia Guo is not a vegetarian, the Qin Xiu in front of him is also a means, he, he is kicking iron again.

As An Xia said, after Qin Xiu received the news, he immediately asked the counselor to meet with Emory An. At the same time, he also brought Xia Guo's gift - porcelain.

Chapter 1356: kind and humorous

Emory An Youxi collected porcelain from all over the world, and Qin Xiu specially presented them as a courtesy.

In fact, he was also telling the other party not to act rashly. Xia Guo knew far more than they thought.

Hearing this, he nodded and said, "The counselor has met with Emory Ann. Now, it should be a very pleasant exchange."

Just after he finished speaking, An Xia laughed.

Very pleasant exchange?

how can that be possible.

With Emory Ann's temperament, his whereabouts were exposed without saying anything, and he was given a warning in advance calmly.

She laughed out loud, causing a few people to look at her.

Mu Chenyuan shook his head with a smile, and said to An Xia, "Don't interrupt, just listen to Ambassador Qin continue."

"I'm sorry, you continue." An Xia apologized, the smile on her face was stopped, but the smile in her eyes continued.

However, Xia Jinyuan said: "Don't patronize yourself and laugh. If you are a little sleepy in the middle of the night, why don't you say it and let's laugh together."

Look, this guy is testing himself again.

If Qin Xiu was not present, she would directly confess her identity.

Now that we have Qin Xiu, forget it.

She didn't want to be detained before returning to the Imperial Domain.

Then, An Xia said, "I'm just laughing. Just now, Ambassador Qin said that their whereabouts were kept secret. As a result, as soon as they landed, someone came to the door. I think this Emory An's mood is not very good, right? ."

"How can I chat happily with a bad mood? Ambassador Qin is kind-hearted and wants to give face to the old emperor."

Xia Jinyuan felt a little heartbroken when he heard such an explanation.

She is blocking him again!

The rival in love was praised, and Team Xia was in a bad mood.

And the mood of the emperor An Xia is refreshing!

I suddenly saw the two photos just now, and my heart was filled with depression, and the whole person was refreshed and comfortable.

Then, An Xia made a decision. Whenever she was in a bad mood in the future, she would ask Xia Jinyuan to vent her anger!

Hahaha!

Ready-made punching bag, no need for white.

Boyfriend forget it.

Boyfriend is used to feel distressed!

Qin Xiu also naturally accepted An Xia's praise, and replied: "It's a pleasure to have a friend from afar. It's my duty, I can't be kind."

"Ambassador Qin is not only kind, but also very humorous, and worth learning from Xia Team." An Xia took Xia Jinyuan with him again, and looked at the guy sitting opposite him with a half-smiling smile. Xia Jinyuan dared to try again. She wanted him to be on the spot tonight. The stance of vomiting blood to death.

Xia Jinyuan: "..."

Can this also call him?

Pi Xiaorou said without a smile: "Ambassador Qin is indeed a role model for my generation, and it is worth learning from all of us here, right, Team Mu."

Then pull brother Mu into the water too.

Mu Chenyuan, who was innocently implicated, raised his eyes, brought the topic back, and got back to business.

"Ambassador, since the counselor has met with Emory Ann, what will be the arrangements for tomorrow?"

Ye Jian also asked: "The key person for the meeting tomorrow is An Qian, right?"

The two of them opened their mouths, and the two who hurt each other all silenced.

Get back to business, get down to business, get down to business first.

Qin Xiu was as calm as ever, and he was not involved in the small disturbance between Xia Jinyuan and An Xia.

He said, "An Qian has not given us a definite answer until now. Whether we will meet or not, we still need to wait for news from the counselor."

Just after finishing speaking, Qin Xiu's cell phone rang.

It was the counselor who called, and his meeting with Emory Ann was over.

At the same time, it is confirmed that at ten o'clock tomorrow morning, I will meet with An Qian.

An Xia, who stepped out of the twilight, stretched and said to Mu Chenyuan, "Would you like to sleep? If you don't want to sleep, I'll tell you something when you get to the hotel."

Say something about her.

Chapter 1357: i have a secret

At night, it was deep and silent, and the black color shrouded the entire city of Gaso. The city was like a dormant beast, and when it woke up at dawn, it started a new day of sins.

Mu Chenyuan took An Xia's hand and walked in the small garden of the hotel.

This is the best hotel in Gaso City, and it is also the hotel with the best safety performance. If you take a walk in the hotel's small garden at night, you don't need to worry too much about whether there will be an accident.

The two walked through the small garden where roses were blooming, smelling the faint fragrance of flowers, and walking quietly like this, no one spoke immediately.

Mu Chenyuan has always been calm, even if his mood fluctuated at this time, Leng Junxiu's handsome face did not reveal the slightest.

Tonight, since he saw that photo, he has been in a very calm mood.

Team Xia, Jade Bird, Qin Xiu, they all said that An Xia was too similar to An Xia of the Emperor Domain, but to him it was—just like one person.

An Xia in the photo, whether it's her eyes, her standing posture, or even her little habit of putting her hands on her stomach, is exactly the same.

An Xia, I'm afraid she doesn't even know that when she puts her hands on her stomach, her two little fingers will be accustomed to stacking in an X shape.

An Xia in the photo is like this, and so is An Xia next to her.

When he discovered details that others had not discovered, Mu Chenyuan kept it in his heart and did not say it.

Even if there were only two of them now, he didn't say anything.

because--

He was waiting for An Xia to say.

The keen intuition of a special soldier beside him told him that what she was going to say was a very important thing, and perhaps it had something to do with An Xia in the photo.

Seeing that Xiao Huayuan had finished walking around, and the second lap was about to start, An Xia couldn't help but spoke first, "Why don't you ask me what I want to tell you?"

It's too calm!

After a walk, she didn't speak, and he didn't ask.

After she finished speaking, she felt that the big hand that had been holding her tightened her strength.

At that moment, An Xia knew that the seemingly calm man beside him was actually waiting for her to speak.

"You..." After a short pause, An Xia, who always had something to say, was suddenly at a loss for words and hesitated.

She hesitated whether to tell Mu Chenyuan the truth.

Say it, will he believe it?

After speaking out, will he stay away from himself?

After speaking, do they still have a walk like this tonight?

Yes, always say.

Because, she is going back to the imperial realm.

Those who are loyal to her, the subordinates who are being oppressed by An Qian, are waiting for her to go back.

Mu Chenyuan held her hand tightly, and after walking a few steps, he said in a low voice, "Is it related to the imperial domain?"

The man's sharpness made An Xia sigh with a bitter smile.

"Yes, it has something to do with the Imperial Domain. I know the Imperial Domain better than any of you. It is the kind of understanding that I know very well."

An Xia finally mentioned the Imperial Domain and said his deepest secret, "Because, I used to be a member of the Imperial Domain, and no one knows everything about the Imperial Domain better than me."

really--

In the darkness, Mu Chenyuan closed his eyes slightly, confirming his guess, not shocked, but made him feel relieved.

He could even jokingly smile: "You don't want to tell me that you and An Xia are actually the same person."

Instead, An Xia was shocked.

Surprised: "Did you find something?"

Otherwise, why would you say that?

She asked this, which further confirmed that he was bold and incredible, but it was possible that it was a real guess - An Xia in the photo and An Xia next to him were indeed the same person.

Chapter 1358: I, An Xia, from Imperial Domain

They are the same person.

It was a secret that was so shocking that people couldn't tell, and it was so calmly opened.

"No." Mu Chenyuan stopped, turned to face An Xia, stared deeply at the girl in front of him with cold eyes, and a low voice came slowly, like water breaking the ice in early spring, with the power to revive all things.

"I didn't check anything. You told me yourself that you and Anxia in the photo are the same person."

Uh?

"When? Or, what did you find?" An Xia, who was rarely short-circuited, asked in a daze.

She really didn't know what was wrong, making him guess so.

Guessed too well.

"Photo."

"Photos?" An Xia was even more puzzled. "I can't see any problems with ordinary photos."

Mu Chenyuan sighed, and with his left hand, he gently pushed her hair, which was blown in front of her eyes by the night wind, behind her ear, and said softly, "You made a small move that revealed who you are."

???

"What little action?"

She had no idea that there was another little movement of herself in the photo.

Looking back carefully, I tried to find the little gestures that revealed my identity.

"Your hands, think about any small movements." Mu Chenyuan reminded.

An Xia squinted her eyes and recalled, the unclear photo of herself appeared in her mind, her eyes went down from her head, and finally stopped at the hands that were placed on her stomach.

Amidst the electric flint flowers, An Xia opened his eyes abruptly, his jet-black eyes fixed on Mu Chenyuan for a moment.

"My little finger, right?"

Pretty sure it's two little fingers that overlap.

Mu Chenyuan nodded with a smile, "Yes."

"I really didn't know that I made such a small move." An Xia sighed, "I was discovered by you."

After he finished speaking, he asked him with a smile, "You, there is nothing you want to ask? Aren't you a little shocked? I am An Xia, the lord of the empire. It is you Xia who have been keeping away, keeping a distance, not too close, not too far away, and not guilty. , An Xia, the Lord of the Emperor Domain, who is well-being."

Speaking of which, An Xia himself was quite calm.

Anyway, he had already recognized her early, so she had nothing to panic about.

That's it!

Believe it or not.

The party who has a huge secret and exposed it to himself is so indifferent that he seems to be talking about something else.

Mu Chenyuan laughed, "A little shocked, and within the acceptable range."

Very calm, even if An Xia's eyes were locked on his face, he did not let go of the slightest expression in his handsome face, nor did he notice any change in his expression.

Incredibly calm.

"You're so calm, don't I need to say anything?" An Xia was shocked by his indifference, "If I knew you were so calm, I would have told you earlier."

Mu Chenyuan was silent at this time.

The sudden silence made An Xia's heart beat out of rhythm, and she was a little confused. "Hey, you don't have other ideas, right?"

Like, break up?

Anyway, to break up, so, calmly accept?

"I'm thinking..." Mu Chenyuan said, and suddenly pulled An Xia into his arms, spread his long arms, held her tightly in his arms, locked her tightly, and prevented her from leaving half a step.

"...If you want to leave, will it take me a long time to see you?"

That's all he considered.

I never thought about breaking up, and I never thought about the difference in identities, which would be an obstacle for the two of them to be together.

An Xia himself has considered this issue.

Snuggling in his strong and powerful arms that always made him feel warm and at ease, he whispered, "It won't be too long, I will come back when I destroy the imperial domain."

"At that time, I was still An Xia, still An Xia of the Xia Kingdom, not An Xia of the Imperial Domain."

Chapter 1359: You are you, my beloved An Xia

Imperial Domain, a place that should not exist, it is better to erase it as soon as possible.

An Qian has killed so many innocent girls, and the Imperial Domain cannot be her umbrella.

Without the protection of the imperial domain, without the recognition of those countries in Western Europe, An Qian is a murderer who can be seen by everyone!

No one can cover her up!

Even her illegitimate mother, who was born in the royal family, could not shield her.

This is the biggest purpose of An Xia returning to the Imperial Domain.

There are two main purposes to find out who is the murderer and bring down the empire.

Mu Chenyuan hugged her tightly and asked, "You don't want to leave?"

"Huh? This time is my chance to leave." An Xia said in a very soft voice. Inside, she was determined not to be persuaded by others. "Only leaving at this time will not affect you all."

The night wind is swaying, the fragrance of flowers is fragrant, and the quiet environment makes people feel a lot more relaxed.

There were some words that An Xia never thought about concealing Mu Chenyuan. Now that she has said it, she will make it clear.

She is not a forward-looking person, nor is she a hesitant, half-talking temperament. She has already told him her biggest secret, and there is nothing left to hide.

"I joined the team, in fact, to leave."

Ok?

Mu Chenyuan didn't quite understand, he joined the team to leave?

If you really want to leave, wouldn't the personal identity be more appropriate?

"Joining the team is even more restrictive for you." Mu Chenyuan asked her, "Did you have other considerations at that time?"

An Xia glanced at him with a smile, very smart, and thought of the key.

"I need to advance my abilities. When my abilities return to the past, I will have enough capital to return to the Imperial Domain. I have seen the skills of your special forces..."

He glanced in the direction of the hotel room where Ye Jian and Xia Jinyuan lived, "It's that Xia Jinyuan, I've seen their team members before."

"After I used the fighting of the Emperor Domain last time, every time Xia Jinyuan saw me, he would always test me from time to time. I think he should be the first guy who doubted my identity."

"It's very keen. I didn't even think that the person who suspected me to have a relationship with the Emperor's Domain would be him."

Before, she was thinking about Mu Chenyuan.

After all, the two of them get along day and night, and with his keenness, he will be able to spot some differences.

Actually, it should be different.

Then, he asked Mu Chenyuan again, "Have you ever doubted me?"

Mu Chenyuan, who was listening quietly, smiled slightly and sighed: "Why not, just, I didn't think too much. Because, to me, you are you, what I know, appreciate, and understand. Ansha."

"It's too difficult to find out your past."

Different people, different identities, how can they recognize them as the same person?

"It's not wrong. I am me, not someone else. It's just that the me in the past can be much more complicated than the me from Anyang."

An Xia quite liked Mu Chenyuan's indifference. When the mysterious and mysterious things were discovered by his side, he was still so calm, without too many waves, which made her feel a lot more at ease.

"It's all your past. The current you is not An Xia from the Imperial Domain, but An Xia from Anyang." Mu Chenyuan slowly held her hand tightly, never letting go.

Since he held hands, he will hold it in this life, no matter what her status is, he will not let go.

"However, I'm still curious, you..." The cold eyes were dim, and looked at An Xia with a little curiosity, "The place where you crashed is not in the territory of the Xia Kingdom, how could you wake up here?"

Chapter 1360: unexplainable things

Really want to talk about what shock, this made him a little shocked.

He has been thinking about this since just now.

The plane crash of An Xia, the Lord of the Empire, is not a secret in the world, and he naturally knows it.

It was a matter of going abroad, how could he wake up in the Xia Kingdom?

Mu Chenyuan thought about it, and said, "Borrowing the corpse to revive the soul, our country has always said, is this kind of revival? Or do you reincarnate as a human without drinking Meng Po soup?"

"Or, because you have the same name and the same surname, because of the name, you have a fate, and then you have a revival?"

Super said, the more mysterious.

An Xia didn't understand these mysterious things about Xia Guo at all. After listening to it, her brain became muddy.

"What Mengpo soup? I don't know much. Before, I could only have a little understanding of Xia You, and I haven't touched the deeper level."

"I only know that after I was blasted to dust by missiles, I woke up in the warehouse and was beaten by Song Yanyan."

"It should be regarded as reviving the soul from a corpse. The original Xiao Anxia was actually killed by Song Yanyan. I, for some reason, survived from Xiao Anxia."

"What surprised me even more was that I woke up to find out that it had been five years since I was killed by a missile."

"I don't know how to explain it, and I don't know how it happened to wake up on Xiao Anxia. I have asked Tianshu, oh, one of the four who appeared beside me, Tianshu, Tianquan, Tianji, Tian Xuan."

"There are seven Heavenly Guards around me, but unfortunately, the other three accompany me on the plane and blew up together."

I don't know if they have the same adventure as themselves and wake up in a corner of the world.

"Afterwards, you must have investigated clearly. Later, the An family collapsed. I was sent to the special education center by Mr. Bo, and then I was targeted by Xia Houyu, who even coaxed me to join your team."

"I think Xia Houyu should know that it is unlikely that I will stay in the Xia Guo team for a long time."

Mu Chenyuan nodded, "I know, I've been worried that you will leave suddenly, and ask us to treat you like a spring breeze. Whoever wants to offend you is to offend him, waiting to be dealt with by him."

so serious?

An Xia suddenly worried about the man beside her, "I won't really bother you when I leave."

That can't be done!

She had to think of a way to get Mu Chenyuan out.

"Probably not." Mu Chenyuan shook his head.

An Xia was still worried, "It's possible! No, I have to make it clear with Xia Houyu before I leave."

"No." Mu Chenyuan opposed An Xia's decision for the first time, "It's best not to say your identity."

An Xia frowned, "There must be a reason for me to leave. My identity is the best reason to leave."

It was indeed the best reason, but it would also get her into trouble.

Mu Chenyuan whispered: "Your identity is too sensitive to tell the above directly."

I wanted to hide it for An Xia.

An Xia herself thought about hiding it, but if Mu Chenyuan was implicated because she left, she would rather reveal her identity.

"If it is not made public, what if it affects you?"

She was most worried that it would implicate him.

Mu Chenyuan heard the throbbing in her heart, she would rather risk herself for him, then why would he let her risk it.

Thin lips curved slightly, Mu Chenyuan calmly said: "There will be other ways. Xia Xia..."

"Well." An Xia, who was a little confused, replied, "Do you have any other way?"

"Have you ever thought that there is a certain blood relationship between the two of you?"
