

Goddess 1391

Chapter 1391: Her home is far away

Ye Jian was surprised when An Xia said she needed to leave for another place.

"Leave? Where to leave? Why didn't I know to leave?"

What important information did she miss?

I didn't hear Team Xia say they were leaving.

An Xia stuffed two short Ts into the bag, and said calmly, "I'm leaving, you don't need it."

"Huh? A new mission so soon?"

"No." An Xia threw the bag on the bed and walked to her friend with a smile, "From now on, I'm no longer one of you. Blue Bird, unfortunately, we can't fight together anymore."

what!

Did she hear it wrong?

Ye Jian's eyes widened in shock, "Not one of us? There's no way we can fight together again? No, Xia Xia, I'm confused right now, I need you to explain it to me."

"What happened in one afternoon."

If someone else asked, An Xiali would not answer.

The blue bird is different, because she closes her eyes at first sight, and has many friends who share the same language.

Unscrewing a bottle of mineral water, An Xia took a few sips. After moistening her throat, she slowed down and explained, "I want to go back to the Emperor Domain and do a very big thing."

When he opened his mouth, he heard Ye Jian's heart beating like thunder.

And An Xia didn't confess her secret to Ye Jian in the end. She listened to Mu Chenyuan's advice and would not tell anyone other than him.

Including friends.

After Ye Jian heard this, she couldn't tell the feeling in her heart.

She thought that Xia Xia, like herself, had a new life.

Turns out, it wasn't.

Xia Xia didn't suddenly become so powerful. It was her side who always had a very powerful sister who helped her secretly.

After her sister died unexpectedly, Xia Xia lost her asylum and was tortured by the An family later.

That's what happened.

It can also explain a lot of Xia team's suspicions, but also the doubts that there is no evidence.

"But you don't have to leave." Ye Jian also wanted to keep An Xia.

An Xia said: "It's time to leave, and I myself have never thought about staying in the team for a long time. I'm not suitable to stay, and you should feel it too."

She had disagreements with them when it came to dealing with Xu Yong.

Ye Jian was very uneasy, "Did you dissatisfied with Xu Yong last time?"

"No, that just made it clear to me that I'm not suitable to stay." Ye Jian approached and hugged her friend gently, "Don't think too much, it's my personal reason."

"I have always wanted to go back to the Imperial Domain. I wanted to come back since I left the An family. Xia Houyu told me to move me, and I joined. He also knew from the beginning that I might not stay for long."

"Really, it has nothing to do with you or Xia Jinyuan. However, I'm still not happy with your Xia team. You can do it if you like it, and your vision is good."

Ye Jian heard it funny, "Then I'll thank Team Xia."

After laughing, his face became lonely again, "Does the above agree with you to leave?"

"Agreed, very readily nodded and agreed with me to leave."

No way!

When is it easy for them to leave this profession?

Unless there is a special reason.

"Don't think about it, it has nothing to do with you. I will come back to you when I deal with the matter in the Imperial Domain. You have not forgotten the target shooting appointment. I will always remember it."

She, Jade Bird, and the anniversary have an appointment to shoot targets together.

With Ye Jian's memory, how could he forget it.

Dai Mei picked it up lightly, and Ye Jian jokingly said, "I didn't forget, now that you leave suddenly, I'm worried that you will forget it."

Chapter 1392: choke again

The corners of An Xia's mouth curled up with a gurgling smile, "No, I will always remember, and you will play with me when I come back. However, at that time, it is estimated that you will not have time to play with me."

"It's very possible." Ye Jian also laughed, reluctant to leave her friends, but she didn't like to cry and separate.

They are still young and there must be a time to meet again.

On the other hand, Xia Jinyuan also knew that An Xia was going to leave. After understanding the reason, Xia Jinyuan smiled and said, "It really does matter, then my intuition is correct."

He always believed that there must be some unknown connection between An Xia and the Imperial Domain.

Now that the truth is revealed, his intuition is right.

"From her unique fighting skills in the imperial domain, I have always had a lot of doubts about her identity, and I have also reacted to the above, and there is no problem after checking it many times."

With that said, Xia Jinyuan's brows twitched, "The existence of the Imperial Domain is a minefield. Their scope is likely to be wider than we imagined."

"An Xia will go back now..."

The dark eyes flashed coldly, "What can she do? You, above, can you rest assured to let her go back?"

Xia Jinyuan is worried.

That place is a minefield, and a forbidden area.

It's best not to have any intersection with them.

With the intersection, maybe one day there will be a big event!

"Don't worry." Mu Chenyuan said indifferently, and at the same time, his face became a little colder, "Or, what do you suspect, Team Xia?"

Xia Jinyuan met his gaze, "I have no doubts, but the Imperial Domain is a complex existence, and returning An Xia is a risk in itself."

"Mu Chenyuan, where is the special team of Xia Guo around you, where is your judgment ability? Because An Xia is your girlfriend, so you believe it very much and never doubt it, right?"

Mu Chenyuan said: "My suspicion is based on real evidence, not just conjecture."

Xia Jinyuan sneered, "But many times, our suspicions are not substantiated, we need to find out and find them."

"That's when you're not familiar with it. It's the first time you're in contact, and you'll investigate if you have doubts. An Xia is different." Mu Chenyuan understood why Xia Jinyuan was suspicious, and he had to speak for his girlfriend, "An Xia is After numerous investigations, it was confirmed that there was nothing wrong with her."

"So, your suspicion is not established."

"But she does have something to do with the Imperial Domain." Xia Jinyuan said with a cold face, "This alone is enough to arouse our vigilance. In addition, I have no intention of targeting An Xia personally, I admire her very much. I just return to the Imperial Domain for her. There are different opinions and ideas about this matter."

"The Imperial Domain is complicated, you are her boyfriend again, and your relationship is enough to make you drink a pot!"

It was not Mu Chenyuan who answered him.

An Xia and Ye Jian pushed open the door and came in. An Xia said coldly and answered him in person, "Why did you let me go back to the Emperor Domain, you can ask the above."

"What you consider, the above will also be considered."

"In addition, I want to tell you that when I joined the team, I didn't beg and cry to join, but the people above you begged me to join."

"Before joining, I told them bluntly that I would not stay for a long time and would probably leave halfway."

"Now you understand why you guys are so happy to let me go."

After speaking with a cold face, An Xia turned her head and said to Ye Jian, "It may be difficult for me and your man to talk. When we meet in the future, don't bring our respective men, so as not to affect our mood."

Well, I won't bring it, I won't bring it.

The meeting was full of gunpowder, and I couldn't bear it.

Chapter 1393: too expensive

Ye Jian said: "No, when we meet, they all have to step aside."

"Then how many days do you rest, and how many days do you want to stay with me." An Xia hummed, deliberately angry with Xia Jinyuan.

Ye Jian cooperated well, "Okay, I must be with you."

She spends most of the time on the team with Team Xia, and it doesn't matter if she isn't together during breaks.

Ye Jian thought so.

Xia Jinyuan is Barbie Q.

what!

How the **** does this have anything to do with him again?

An Xia didn't care what Xia Jinyuan thought, she held the bag and smiled at her boyfriend who was radiating cold air. That smiling face was very bright, and there was nothing like the horizontal eyebrows that he had just faced Xia Jinyuan.

He smiled at Mu Chenyuan and said, "I'm leaving now, you can see me off."

Xia Jinyuan: "..."

Although there is a difference, the difference is too big.

Also, do you really want to go?

So fast?

This is too fast.

Did he just know and leave?

"Really leaving?" He leaned over and asked Ye Jian.

Ye Jian glared at him, "Yes."

Before leaving, he was also unhappy.

Xia Jinyuan touched his nose and said embarrassingly, "A little too fast, too fast."

They didn't come to An Xia to speak.

The little girl was angry, and to be honest, it was more terrifying than a volcano.

The volcano spewed out, people disappeared all at once, and the little girl got angry. She pressed you to the ground and rubbed you over and over again. Who can stand it?

To send, is sure to send.

Xia Jinyuan is a daredevil, he walked in front of An Xia and wanted to explain why he said this just now.

An Xia didn't give him a chance, "Stop, you are a guy who can put your girlfriend in the hospital, huh, I expect you to say something nice?"

"Don't talk, shut up, I don't listen, I refuse."

"Negotiate it and give me a chance to explain." Xia Jinyuan whispered, but he didn't dare to provoke the aunt in front of him.

I'm so afraid that I will irritate her again, and the little fox will ignore him.

An Xia sneered, "No, the position is different, what you say has your reasoning. Don't force your reasoning on me, I won't eat yours."

Individuals have their own eyes, which cannot be forced.

She admires Xia Jinyuan and this man, but—

It didn't stop her from displeasing him.

Mu Chenyuan was standing on An Xia's side anyway. Seeing this, he took An Xia's shoulders and said to Xia Jinyuan, "Team Xia is not welcome, Xia Xia wants to walk with me alone now, and I ask Team Xia to stay."

Send it, he just wants to send it by himself.

Ye Jian grabbed Xia Jinyuan and did not go any further. She looked at An Xia with her eyes slightly red, and said softly, "Xia Xia, we are all waiting for you to come back."

"Okay, I'll try to come back as soon as possible." An Xia waved her hand with a relaxed smile, as if she was going on vacation instead of going to a dangerous place.

Watching her friend leave, Ye Jian felt a little empty in her heart.

"Will I meet Xia Xia again?" She asked Xia Jinyuan dazedly.

Xia Jinyuan took her shoulders and whispered, "Yes, Mu Chenyuan is still here, as long as An Xia wants to come back, he will definitely come back."

It's a pity that it's impossible to come back and join them.

It is a pity to lose the passion to fight side by side.

Downstairs, An Xia said to Mu Chenyuan, "Send it here and wait for me to come back."

The car to pick her up was already waiting on the opposite road, and the driver was not allowed to come over. An Xia also wanted to stay with Mu Chenyuan for a few more minutes.

"Is there really no way for me to contact you?" Mu Chenyuan asked again. He had asked An Xia before, but she refused on the grounds of not contacting you.

The reluctance in his eyes made An Xia even more reluctant and sad.

Chapter 1394: Rivals finally face to face

In him, she experienced all the joys and sorrows that she had never experienced in her previous life.

Love is sweet, laughter is beautiful, and now sadness and sadness are so bitter.

Despite this, Anxia still did not give him the contact information, "No."

"I can't have any contact with you until I'm completely settled. You protect me, and I'll protect you as well."

As Xia Jinyuan said, the imperial domain is so complicated, if he keeps in touch with her, in case someone uses his identity to attack him...

An Xia didn't even dare to think about the consequences.

"I will definitely come back, wait for me!"

This was the last sentence left by An Xia. After speaking, he took the bag from Mu Chenyuan's hand and rushed across the road.

Since then, one person is here, the other is over there, waiting for a long reunion.

Mu Chenyuan watched An Xia get into the car, and then watched the car leave, standing there for a long time without leaving.

Until the Earl of Venthyr appeared.

Wencyr didn't know that An Xia had left, but he learned from An Qian that she, An Qian, and Emory An had met.

After knowing this, he couldn't wait to come over to see An Xia.

Wen Xier didn't recognize Mu Chenyuan, but because Mu Chenyuan's facial features were excellent and he had an oriental face, Wen Xier couldn't help but pay more attention.

But Mu Chenyuan recognized him, the foreign man who approached Anxia on the cruise ship.

How did he get here.

Are you on vacation?

Just in time, Mu Chenyuan's phone rang, and it was Qin Xiu who called.

"Hello."

He opened his mouth, and Wenthyr, who was just about to enter the hotel, suddenly stopped.

this sound...

It was the man talking outside the hotel!

It's him!

The man An Xia fell in love with.

Jealousy made Venthyr turn around and his eyes fell on his rival in love.

Just as soon as he cast his scrutiny line of sight, he was caught on the spot by Mu Chenyuan.

The eyes of two men who do not know each other's identities meet, and there is not much spark of kindness.

Mu Chenyuan didn't speak anymore. Just now, the man didn't pay attention to himself until he picked up the phone and spoke, he suddenly stopped and turned to look.

In other words, the other party recognized him through his voice, not through his face.

Recognize him?

Should not be.

What is that?

Mu Chenyuan spoke again, "Sorry, I have something to do now, can I contact you later?"

When talking, Mu Chenyuan also kept looking at Wen Xier, this time, Mu Chenyuan's brows were twisted slightly.

He saw the hostility in the other's eyes.

hostility?

Where did it come from?

Suddenly, Mu Chenyuan thought of a person.

The man who sent the DNA report to An Xia, the Earl of Vinthyr who was born in the Grand Royal Family.

He is also a man who grew up with An Xia!

After figuring out the identity of the other party, Mu Chenyuan's gaze was even colder than before.

It was him.

At this moment, Venthyr felt sour in his heart. Jealousy and jealousy were like a pot of poison that had just been boiled.

Curry also said before that the man the emperor liked was definitely not as good-looking as him.

Ah!

The man in front of him has an oriental face that makes him dazzling!

A very good looking man!

And the emperor An Xia, she has always been very good-looking!

Looking at the height again, Venthyr was angry again.

Looking at the proportions, Venthyr was still angry.

The perfect oriental man everywhere!

Venthyr didn't want to watch it anymore, he was afraid that he couldn't help but disfigure the Oriental man on the spot.

Turning around, Venthyr tried to make his every move elegant and noble.

Now, he only has his identity to compete with his rivals!

Chapter 1395: rivalry between rivals

Wen Xier, the second time we met, Mu Chenyuan remembered the man's name.

A man who accompanied An Xia since childhood.

It was he who first decided that An Xia was the An Xia who used to call the wind and call the rain in the imperial domain.

And he didn't find anything, only An Xia himself told him.

There was a sense of frustration, but when he turned around and thought about it, Mu Chenyuan was very happy again.

Because An Xia took the initiative to tell herself, on behalf of her, she believed in herself very much.

And Venthyr—

Mu Chenyuan, who did not return to the hotel immediately, stood on the side of the road, raised his head slightly, and took a breath of air full of fireworks towards the sky.

How about accompanying An Xia for many years?

In the end, he did not gain Anxia's trust.

He didn't even know that An Xia had left the hotel.

etc.....

Mu Chenyuan looked back and looked deep into the hotel lobby.

How did he know that An Xia lived here?

Been here before?

when?

The cold eyes were slightly false. After Mu Chenyuan ruled them out one by one, he finally thought that it was very likely that the two of them had met last night.

He came to An Xia last night, but An Xia refused to come out because she was tired and wanted to rest.

"It turned out that at that time, Wen Xier was in her room. After Xia Xia returned to the Imperial Domain, would they meet often?"

Mu Chenyuan murmured in a low voice, and saw a little sourness on his face again, making him jealous.

Also a man who likes to be jealous.

Wen Xier doesn't know whether they will meet often, he only knows that An Xia is gone.

Where did it go?

When I contacted An Xia, the phone went unanswered.

After contacting Tianshu, Tianshu said indifferently: "We never dare to ask about the emperor's affairs. Lord Count, you have found the wrong person."

Now is the critical time when the emperor can safely return to the imperial domain. All matters related to the safety of the emperor will be kept secret and will not be said to the outside world.

Wen Xier had a headache, "Tianshu, I just want to help you. My goal is the same as yours. I just want An Xia to return to the imperial domain."

"Thank you for the support of the Count. The Emperor has her own arrangements. If she wants to contact the Lord, I think the Emperor will contact you in person."

Tianshu said politely, at this time, you really can't offend Earl Wenthyr, in case you need to borrow the power of Earl Wenthyr to bring down Miss An Qian and the old emperor.

Even 'goodbye' Tianshu was very polite, and he put away his phone after Wenthyr ended the call first.

He doesn't know where the Emperor is now.

The emperor who walked out of the Xia Kingdom is like a flying eagle, no one knows where she will fly and what method she will use to fly back to the imperial domain.

Wen Xier left the hotel and ran into Mu Chenyuan again.

He had been standing outside, the dark curtain of azure smoke left behind him, and that person stood motionless in the night, like a **** in mythology, which made people feel awe.

The eyes of the two met again, neither of them said a word, but they knew who the other was.

Mu Chenyuan knew a little more, and knew Wen Xier's true identity.

Wen Xier didn't even know Mu Chenyuan's name, only that this man was his rival in love.

A very powerful rival in love that he cannot ignore.

The two looked at each other without withdrawing their eyes first. Wenthyr had no time to waste, so he chose to take the initiative.

Walking to Mu Chenyuan's side, Wen Xier said lightly, "I know who you are."

"Really?" Mu Chenyuan smiled, very calmly, and asked, "Then who are you?"

It turned out that he didn't know who he was, and Wenthyr was inexplicably delighted, "You don't need to know who I am, you just need to know that in the days to come, I will always pay attention to you."

Chapter 1396: Take good care of your daughter-in-law, beware of being single

Mu Chenyuan's thin lips bent a little, and he didn't say anything, leaving only a smile that made Wen Xier froze in place for a long time and didn't move.

He was laughing at Wenthyr being too arrogant.

Later, Wenthyr knew that he was really overconfident.

He thought he could keep an eye on the Oriental man at any time, but in the end, he didn't know anything about his personal information.

That man seems to have just appeared suddenly in this world, and the news is all over the world in a flash. No matter how much resources he spends, he will never receive any news from that man again.

A week later, Mu Chenyuan returned to China.

He met his father Mu Changye.

"How are you feeling? Is there anything heavy, like a rock pressing on your heart and out of breath, it makes you feel uncomfortable, and you won't be able to move away for a while. You still want to get angry from time to time, so let's vent, or just run away until no one is there. where, the urge to howl?"

Mu Changye's relationship with his son is sometimes a strict father, sometimes a brother.

People, you have to live a relaxed and happy life.

Don't be stern all day long, a person who is forced by life every day and not happy everywhere, this kind of person basically has no friends.

Mu Chenyuan was accustomed to his father's jokes, and when he heard the words, he said indifferently, "It seems that you are very experienced."

"Of course." Mu Changye was proud, "It's not because I care too much about your mother, but I have accumulated decades of experience, and now it's all cheap for you."

Mu Chenyuan didn't need it, and refused, "Your experience continues to accumulate, you don't need to take advantage of me, thank you."

"What's your expression like, stinky boy?" Mu Changye stared at him, good guy, do you all despise him as an old man?

No reason!

"I don't charge any fees, you still dislike it?"

"You can understand that too." Mu Chenyuan not only did not comfort, but continued to pour a bowl of oil with a look of indifference, "cheap is not good."

!!!

Mu Changye was so angry that he was about to have a heart attack, holding his breath, he said coldly, "You won't have a daughter-in-law like this!"

"Thank you, I have a daughter-in-law." Mu Chenyuan hooked his mouth, "I'm better than you."

Oh ho!

And the daughter-in-law.

Then he also has a daughter-in-law.

For the stinky boy's sake to stabilize his daughter-in-law, forget it, don't care about him.

Alas, don't care, don't care, I can't help my father!

but--

Walking to the door, Mu Changye looked back at his second son, and the worry in his eyes was quietly put down.

The stinky boy's psychological quality is good, Xiao An's departure has little effect on him, and he has already adjusted himself.

That's it.

Before, he was worried about whether he would become depressed. After all, it was the first time for a stinky boy to fall in love. He had no experience, and it was possible to fall into a downfall.

It's not that he doesn't trust his son.

It was the man from the Mu family, who didn't know what was going on, so he only fell in love once, and he basically remained a bachelor for the rest of his life after a failed relationship.

Really miserable!

This is also why Mu's parents do not urge the younger generation to find boyfriends and girlfriends.

Afraid of urging them to rush, just find someone to come back, and finally break up and fight for a lifetime of singleness.

Before leaving, Mu Changye specially instructed, "Stinky boy, remind you, don't think that you have a daughter-in-law now, but this time can be very annoying, you still think about how to keep your daughter-in-law by your pillow for a long time!"

"Don't make me a bachelor for a lifetime, then you, change your name, change your face, and go alone."

Ugh.

As a parent, it breaks my heart.

I used to worry that I would not be able to marry a wife, but now my mother is worried that my son will not be able to marry a wife.

More importantly, he did not dare to tell his daughter-in-law for fear that she would be worried!

Chapter 1397: Look, it's big brother

Mu Changye, who walked out of the building, couldn't help looking up and sighing, in this **** day, let's play DINK in the next life!

Don't worry, don't worry!

Mu Changye's son's side is relieved, but there is no news from his daughter-in-law's side Mu Changye.

The news of Anxia really came. It was already spring, and it was the time when the peach blossoms were in full bloom.

In Changhai University, Tong Xiaoguan stared at a piece of international news, staring at the boss and the boss, with a terrified expression of "I'm **** hell".

"Chuye, hurry up, pinch me, pinch me."

She wondered if she was dazzled.

How could the face that passed by in the news look so much like her eldest brother An Xia.

In class, Tang Chu was too timid to dare.

Axicuo next to him heard it, stretched out his hand and pinched the fleshy flesh on Tong Xiaoguan's arm.

"Ow!"

Screaming, jumping, alarming all the students in the classroom, as well as the teacher in class.

The elderly teacher pushed on his glasses, glanced at the girl who had been seated again, and reminded: "Classmates, you are not too young, don't make a fuss all day."

"The teacher has a heart disease. If you are not good, you may be scared to see the King of Hell. Don't say that the teacher touches you."

The university atmosphere is obviously much more relaxed than high school, and even the teacher is not so serious. After the teacher finished speaking, the students burst into laughter.

Tong Xiaoguan didn't feel embarrassed either, her mind wasn't on it at all.

"You two, take a look at this news. The link is posted in the group, and you can read it for yourself."

When they got to their small group, there was still An Xia in the group, but An Xia had not spoken or showed her face for a long time.

When the link was sent out, Asicuo and Tang Chu also had the same shocked expressions.

"Big brother? Is this... big brother?" Tang Chu also spoke, his voice choked.

Axicuo calmed down a lot, but his eyes were red, "I'm not mistaken, is that the big brother? Why is this?"

So similar, so simple and exactly the same!

The three of you look at me, I look at you, and no one speaks.

They are not sure that the person who appears in the international news is the eldest brother.

Still meet the Grand Royal Family!

What was reported was a piece of news about the Grand Royal family. The foreign report was longer, and the domestic one just skipped it, and didn't mention it in detail.

After class, Tong Xiaoguan and the others wanted to find more news to read, but in the end they had to look it up on the Internet.

Turning to a three-minute video, I can see it more clearly and in detail.

"It must be eldest brother, I can't be wrong!" Tong Xiaoguan patted his thigh and said excitedly: "It must be! It must be! I will never admit it!"

"My mother, what kind of fairy tale plot is this, even if you don't die, you still become friends with the Grand Royal family! My eldest brother's identity is really good!"

When Tian Xinyuan came back, she just heard the last sentence, and followed the next sentence, "What is the identity of the big brother, Niu Cui, who is it?"

She has a good relationship with her roommate now. Although the princess's illness occasionally occurs, no one is used to her anymore.

"Come here, I'll show you some great news." Tong Xiaoguan beckoned and asked her to lean over to the computer to read.

After a while, Tian Xinyuan uttered, "Fuck."

Then, the room was full of laughter.

There was a girl passing by outside the corridor, attracted by the cheerful and faintly crying laughter, just took one more look and left.

"What are you doing, crying and laughing."

"Who knows, after their dormitory left Anxia, they have been crazy."

An Xia, that beautiful and rich girl who drives a supercar is still the legend of Changhai University.

It is a pity that he disappeared in mid-November last year, and there is no news so far.

Live without people, dead without corpses, I am afraid that they have been eaten by fish in the sea.

Chapter 1398: intricate relationship

In addition to Tong Xiaoguan's discovery of Anxia, others also discovered Anxia.

It was Ye Youyin, she also saw An Xia on the international news.

Now that she has returned to school and become a student, she needs to clean up and make follow-up arrangements.

She has been looking for it, and someone who wants to take revenge suddenly appears in the country. Ye Youyin immediately thought that she was performing some kind of mission.

In the end, she went to the Internet to find information, and one of the news instantly shocked her face.

How can it be!

Did it kill you?

With doubts, Ye Youyin ran to Ye's house to ask Mrs. Ye.

The old lady Ye also knew that Ye Youyin was pulled by Ye Mu before she got close to the old lady.

"Don't disturb the old lady!" A very serious warning, "Now the old lady is in a bad mood, you bump into it and ask for trouble."

Ye Youyin couldn't wait, "Mom, I have a big event. That An Xia and the daughter of some big family abroad are sisters. I want to ask grandma, what's going on!"

what happened?

That was a long, long time ago.

Mother Ye said with a cold face: "Your grandma already knows, you should not ask about the previous generation. Also, mother tells you, don't try to trouble An Xia again, if you provoke her again, the whole Ye family will I can't protect you!"

Ye Youyin, who didn't know why, was even more confused.

What the **** happened.

Who can tell her!

The old lady Ye sat in meditation until it was dark. Finally, she got up and went to the wardrobe, pushed open the cabinet, opened the safe installed on the wall of the wardrobe, and took out a small wooden box made of red sandalwood.

The wooden box was opened, and a yellowed photo was placed on top.

"Sister, sister, in the end, you still won. Both your daughters are alive, they're all alive..."

In the photo is a pair of newborn babies.

One of them is Ye Mengwei.

There is also An Xia's mother.

"Your lover is really amazing. I thought he was just a painter without money. I didn't expect, I didn't expect that he was a big man abroad..."

"Let me steal your daughter and lie to you that only one survived, hahaha, hahaha, he's really amazing, he secretly raised your daughter by himself, and let her marry his son..."

As old lady Ye talked, she smiled, and her face became grim.

"Why, why! Why can you always sit back and enjoy, why do you always have the best! Where am I worse than you, where am I worse than you!!"

The photo was rubbed into her palm, and Mrs. Ye fell into a madness.

She thought she had won, but she didn't expect that she would still lose to her cousin who had become sick with her daughter and passed away early!

The stepdaughter who was thrown into Anyang's low marriage is really good. She can also secretly contact her overseas sister and send her daughter out.

"The three of you, mother and daughter, are really better than one, one is better than the other..."

In the room, Mrs. Ye was no longer as elegant and noble as she used to be. Standing alone in front of the wardrobe, she threw all the clothes to the ground one by one, venting her unwillingness that she could not release.

Outside, Ye Youyin sat slowly on the ground.

What's going on here?

Why are there so many secrets?

Married to Anyang's aunt and a twin sister.

The twin sister was secretly adopted by her aunt's lover, and finally her aunt's lover arranged to marry her son.

The intricate relationship of the previous generation continued into their generation.

She, Ye Youyin can't marry into the Mu family, what about An Xia?

Is it possible to marry into the Mu family?

Lost, lost, still lost.

Grandma lost and she lost too.

Chapter 1399: turbulent

Unlike the Ye family's wrath, the Bo family in AY City can be said to be frightened.

The old man Bo took off his reading glasses tremblingly, and said to the eldest son: "Quick, tell Zhiqing immediately, and let him be more honest abroad! Don't make trouble for the Bo family again!"

An Xia, that girl, she actually... actually received the highest courtesy of the Grand Royal Family.

Who the **** is that kid?

What happened to her again?

He said to the old housekeeper again: "Check what's going on and tell me as soon as possible!"

The Song family also knew about this, but it had nothing to do with the Song family.

Now Song Zhengwei has a wife, sons and daughters, and the family business is also guarded. On the other hand, the Ai family has been divided up by rival families since Ai Tingze died abroad. Today's Ai family is no longer the Ai family of the past. .

Song Zhengwei quietly watched the video and then turned it off.

These things, he will be far away in the future.

Who An Xia is, he doesn't care anymore.

The eldest daughter was already raised, and it was a disaster. When she died, she almost affected the Song family. Now that he has divorced his ex-wife, he will naturally not take revenge on An Xia's side.

"Dad, look at what I drew? Does it look like a dragon!"

The child's tender voice came from beside him, Song Zhengwei turned around, picked up the young son who looked like him, and said with a long smile, "What is the painting? Dad, come and see."

Outside, the spring sun is just right, the leaves are fresh, winter has passed, and spring has begun again.

Such as Ai Tingze, such as Madam Song, such as Song Yanyan, after many years, even their names will be forgotten.

Bo Zhiqing, who is far abroad, received a video call from Mr. Bo.

After listening, he lowered his eyes and said, "I see, Grandpa, don't worry, I will finish my studies well, and I won't let you worry about it anymore."

"I won't provoke Anxia's side. I have nothing to do with her for a long time."

The old man Bo was relieved, and said: "You are also studying at the Royal Academy, so you won't meet her."

"No." Bo Zhiqing closed his eyes, but the images from the previous two days flashed in his mind, "It's getting late, I have class tomorrow, Grandpa, I'll contact you next time"

"Okay, take a rest, and contact Grandpa when you have time."

Mr. Bo still felt sorry for his grandson and didn't say much about ending the video.

He didn't know that Bo Zhiqing didn't fall asleep for a long time after finishing the video.

I have already met An Xia.

He was a student, and she walked in the front, accompanied by the school leaders, and swarmed across the campus.

There were reporters on the left and right, she came towards him, her eyes slid coldly across his face, and when they met again, it was just a stranger.

At that moment, he suddenly realized that he and she were separated from each other.

That's it, they're all strangers, no need to dwell on the past.

Bo Zhiqing closed his eyes, turned over a few times and finally fell asleep.

Some people can't sleep.

An Qian was in the castle, swearing piercingly, "Why did she come back! Waste, a bunch of waste! So many people can't catch her, and let her come back! Waste! You are all waste!"

Already mad.

More of a fear.

Fear that everything you have will be taken away.

With Adam as the head and other loyal subordinates of An Qian, no one dared to speak.

A month ago, they received an order to hunt down a woman who looked just like the previous emperor An Xia. That is, from this day, Emperor An Qian began to become moody and angry, and his spirit seemed to be stimulated, and he roared hysterically at every turn. .

It became completely unfamiliar, not the Emperor An Qian they were familiar with.

Chapter 1400: mess up

Emperor An Qian, who was so unfamiliar that they couldn't accept it, started again tonight.

God!

They have a headache now and want to turn around and leave.

The castle at eleven o'clock in the evening was the time to go to sleep, but it was brightly lit at this time.

"Are you all dumb? Talk! Answer me! Answer why I didn't kill her! Why let her live."

The disheveled An Qian walked back and forth restlessly, her words were out of order, she roared, her face showed panic again, clutching her chest and screaming, "She came back for revenge, she wanted to kill me, kill me you!"

"You're all going to die! Understand? You're all going to die!"

"Kill An Xia, you can survive, you can survive!"

An Xia, the girl who looks like the former emperor, even with the same name.

Someone finally stood up and bowed to An Qian, then he said, "Emperor An Qian, have you ever thought that she is not a girl from the Xia kingdom, but the former emperor An Xia."

"NO, impossible! Impossible! How could she be An Xia!" An Qian shouted at the speaker, "You stupid guy, An Xia is already dead, she can't go out again! Understand? "

"Since the emperor thinks that An Xia is dead, then, I want to ask the emperor, why did you have to kill that girl, is she a threat to you?"

The person who spoke asked coldly. He was a member of the five major families and had enough confidence to ask An Qian.

When An Qian was questioned, she blushed and replied in her loudest voice, "This is my arrangement, your questioning annoys me very much! Listen, listen to me, you can only obey My arrangement!"

There is absolutely no need for communication.

The man who spoke sneered, "Then, the emperor will arrange it himself, and I will quit."

He bent down and saluted, just when An Qian was shocked by the other party's language, he heard him say, "Also, on behalf of the Feibman family, I told the emperor that we will withdraw from the imperial domain!"

"Good night, Miss An Qian, I wish you a good night's sleep."

The Feibman family, one of the five major families, one of the members of the Imperial Domain.

His exit instantly silenced An Qian, and she panicked.

"Bold! Without my permission, your Feibman family will never quit the Imperial Domain! Stop! Did you hear me! Stop for me! Edward Feibman! Stop for me!"

Edward Feibman strode out of the castle without any intention of stopping.

This **** place, and that **** man, he's had enough!

A lunatic, an incompetent lunatic, should have dumped her long ago!

"Edward Feibman! I, An Qian ordered you to stand still in the name of the emperor! If you go one step further, I will make all Western Alliance countries reject your family!"

For those who threatened to leave with harsh words, An Qian knew very well that once the people of the Feibman family left tonight, her next life would be even more difficult.

Edward Feibman stopped and left.

Behind, An Qian showed the smile of a winner.

Look, eventually these guys will surrender to her.

"Edward Feibman, you..."

Still wanting to take the opportunity to suppress her and let others know her awe, Edward Feibman interrupted her rudely, "Miss Anxi, I very much welcome you to go to the Western Union countries to file a complaint, it's better to act like a mad woman just now. Complaint."

"I'm looking forward to it, and so will my family."

The words he said were like a slap, and they slapped An Qian's face in the air.

Face, burning pain, people, disgraced.
