Chapter 1411: boyfriend first

Venthyr tried his best to restrain himself so he didn't look at the nurse.

Keep a calm pace and leave the nurse with an elegant back.

How many people are still arranged by An Xia?

How many people she has arranged in the imperial domain is unknown to all of them.

Such An Xia is serious—

As Feibman said, it's scary.

How many people are there?

Only An Xia herself knew.

Even Tianshu they may not know.

But they clearly felt that in addition to them, Emperor An Xia had many people working for her.

For example, drivers, cooks, cleaners, handymen, nurses, those who seem to be inconspicuous, and who are often active in the castle and the Imperial Base, may be the arrangement of Emperor Anxia.

Their emperor will never disappoint.

An Xia, who is terrifying and awe-inspiring, is talking to Mu Chenyuan at this time.

This was the third month that An Xia had returned to the Imperial Domain, and finally had a call.

Hearing the familiar voice over there, Mu Chenyuan's chest filled up with affection in an instant, and his heart dropped a little, feeling a lot more at ease.

"Are you alright?" he asked softly, and his thoughts fell into An Xia's heart following the voice.

An Xia bent her mouth and said, "Everything is fine, things are going unexpectedly smoothly, maybe we don't need a year to meet."

real?

Mu Chenyuan's eyes lit up, and then his handsome face became solemn, "An Xia, don't be too anxious, you are doing big things, you must be careful."

"I know, I'll be careful. How about you? Did you miss me?"

After asking, An Xia heard the man over the phone suffocate.

He misses her.

Think very, very much.

"Think, think of you in my dreams." Mu Chenyuan said softly, those cold eyes turned into spring breeze, longing and affection were like nets woven in the wind, which caught him and also caught An Xia .

An Xia smiled and rolled her eyes, "I miss you too, but I was very busy and tired after coming back. I almost never dreamed of you when I fell asleep at night. Don't you get angry?"

It's too honest, but it also indirectly tells Mu Chenyuan how busy she is.

Mu Chenyuan heard distressed, "Have a good rest, rest early, and don't forget to take care of your own health. I will wait here for you to come back, and I will definitely wait for you to come back."

I am very worried that she will not take good care of herself in order to come back soon.

"I will make reasonable arrangements, you, don't worry too much." An Xia said with a smile, her icy eyes turned into water in his voice unconsciously, her eyebrows were like water, and she was only gentle.

The two talked affectionately and greedily listened to each other's voices, because they both knew how long it would take to hear each other's voices next time.

It was not until the end that An Xia said her business.

"Help me check the Ye family's side. I want to know how my mother came to the imperial domain. At the Ye mother's side, I still need to ask my sister to help me take care of it. When I come back, I will thank my sister."

The elder sister is Mu Ruqing, and now she has a very good relationship with Ye Mu.

Mu Chenyuan wrote them down one by one, and then asked, "How will I tell you after I find out?"

"Encrypted to this company's mailbox, I will receive it as soon as possible." An Xia reported the mailbox, "The airline's mailbox is very safe."

At this time, Mu Shenyuan did not know that his girlfriend was the largest shareholder of this international airline.

The two chatted for a while, and when it was time to end the call, An Xia smiled and said, "Mu Chenyuan, kiss me twenty times, and I will send you twenty new fighter jets."
