Chapter 1413: Building overturned

Nina crawled and rolled off the bed begging for forgiveness, "Ann, please, don't do this, I know I'm wrong, can you give me a chance? I was forced, I was forced!"

"It's York, he forced me to go to bed, he threatened me, if I don't go to bed with him, he will join other families to overthrow our daughter, Ann, I can't let our daughter suffer, Ann..."

Call yourself a victim.

York, who was brought outside, heard it and scolded, "Damn girl! It's you who want to be the Lord of the Empire! You seduced me, and others! Smelly girl, don't think I don't know you seduce. We all know who it was!"

He yelled at Emory Ann again and laughed, "Emory Ann, why do you think An Qian can take over the Imperial Domain so smoothly? Hahaha, hahaha, poor guy, I'm telling you now, it's yours The wife slept with us!"

"Hahaha, she slept with us, we agreed, after all, a stupid emperor is more controllable, isn't it?"

"Oh, by the way, is your most beloved little daughter your daughter? We really want to know."

"Shut up! Shut up! Shut up for me!"

The face-swept Emory Ann roared, he didn't want to hear it, he didn't want to hear it at all!

"NO, I want to say it, Emory Ann, you are such a poor fellow, your eldest daughter is so good..."

"boom..."

The gunshots sounded suddenly, and York's clamor came to an abrupt end.

No one noticed that someone took a video and passed it to An Xia as soon as possible.

"After they leave, upload it to the Internet." An Xia instructed that the person who sent the video to her was a cleaner in York's dating building with her lover.

Emory Ann killed York, and when the anger passed, he panicked.

leave here.

Need to get out of here now!

Go back to the castle, it's safer there.

Let the bodyguard stun Nina and carry her into the car.

The car leaves, smoke billows from the building behind, and the fire engulfs everything, trying to cover up the truth.

A video was posted online after half an hour.

The heads of state of the Western Union were shocked after seeing it, but they all laughed again.

very good.

Those guys in the imperial domain finally killed each other.

What a great night and needs some red wine to celebrate.

Luo Weihang York's family also saw the video, and they issued a notice announcing that their family would withdraw from the imperial domain from now on, and they must capture Emery Ann to avenge Luo Weihang York.

With the first circular, there is a second circular.

The Wenthyr family announced that they would withdraw from the Imperial Domain.

Half an hour later, the Feibman family announced that they would withdraw from the Imperial Domain.

Of the five major families, three of them quit overnight.

The other two families are still waiting and watching, they want to know who will eventually fall into the hands of the Imperial Domain.

They all want to take over the Empire!

"And the Morton family and the Lubilee family have not announced." Wen Xier stood beside An Xia, his eyes were cold: "In those days, they all supported An Qian's taking over the imperial domain."

In addition to the Wenthyr family and the Feibman family, the other three families supported An Qian's rise to power.

Now, there are only two.

An Qian's mouth curled slightly, showing a cold smile, "Don't worry about us, those countries in Ximeng, they will persuade them."

These heads of state have already seen the dawn of the disintegration of the imperial domain, so how could they miss it again?

Didn't Luo Weihang York say that someone from these two families also slept with Nina, presumably, those heads of state know it.

Erotica is really the best handle for coercion.
