Chapter 151: Alliance bar

Oh!

Improved, but also know that it is coming.

"Are you in a hurry to leave now? Or, let's have dinner together before leaving?" He raised his voice deliberately and said with a smile to An Xia: "The food in the cafeteria in our bureau is delicious, I invite you."

As sharp as An Xia, he noticed the subtle changes in his mood during the anniversary year, and his eyes flickered slightly.

There are people in the conference room, and they should be people who value it very much during the anniversary year.

Then she, do you want to agree?

In her brief silence, the closed conference room door behind her suddenly opened, and two air-conditioned figures squeezed out at almost the same time...

Turning his head, An Xia even twisted his eyebrows slightly. How could Mu Chenyuan, who had always been calm, look like he was about to fight at the moment?

The same is true for the other, a strange man who also has her familiar breath.

The two people's handsome faces tightened, their thin lips tightened. At the same time, they strode forward, and one said solemnly, "An Xia."

One Shen said: "Anniversary year."

An Xia responded with "Um", and the Anniversary next to her gave a cool "hum", the smile in her delicate face had long since disappeared.

Before striding forward, the two fellow fighters stopped at the same time when they heard each other's name call out.

Soon, a trace of unnaturalness flashed across their respective faces.

Mu Chenyuan had already converged into a fierce body, and even the stern expression in his cold and handsome face disappeared one by one, leaving only a calm and unhurried grace.

Sorry, I made a mistake.

The Demon King did not come for An Xia, but for the snipers of Xuancheng Police Station.

Smiled, "Team Lei, I still have something to do, so let's go one step ahead."

It is not for An Xia now. Who knows if he will receive the command of the Sea Seven Star Boy Warlord later and come for An Xia instead?

Hurry up and hug An Xia... just take it away.

Knowing that he was jealous, Li Jinnian nodded and spit out only one word, "Okay."

It turned out that he was not the suitor of the anniversary year. Just now, he was a little gagged, and a little... well, embarrassing.

The anniversary year and An Xia are not happy anymore.

What qualifications do you have to call the shots for them?

An Xia said indifferently, "I have dinner with the anniversary year, you can go first."

It just so happened that she was a little hungry.

Anniversary coldly snorted, "Yes! I have dinner with Sister Ann, where you two will be cool, where do you go, don't disturb me." Mainly to Li Jinnian, by the way, take Mu Chenyuan together and change Become "you".

The two of them held a group together, and the two people who were still in the meeting room at a brawl soon realized who they needed to watch out for.

Li Jinnian didn't dare to go against the anniversary year. Although he was not happy in his heart, he saw the captain of the Wolf Breaking Team close his mouth and squinted his black eyes slightly. Shallow, like a short-lived smile.

He said, "Okay, together."

"?" Mu Chenyuan took a look, and the dark light passing by the eyes became deeper. If he didn't guess, is Demon King Li dragging An Xia to coax the anniversary?

Having never been in a relationship does not mean that Team Mu, who doesn't know anything, is so keen and terrible that he has guessed Li Jinnian's intentions.

If he raises an objection at this time, An Xia will definitely put a burden on him on the spot, saying that it is impossible to join the Marines.

Shun, you can only follow!

Then, Mu Chenyuan nodded, "Okay, together."

The two of them wanted to be together, but Anxia and Annivers were reluctant to do so.

On the way to the cafeteria, An Xia didn't know it secretly, but she looked fiercely at Li Jinnian all the way, and rolling her eyes from time to time, An Xia was worried that her eyes would twitch.

Chapter 152: It's really heartbreaking, he's just a ball of air

An Xia has never liked anyone. In her previous life, she didn't even have a chance to taste love for the first time.

One is that there is no time.

Second, the status is too high, only looking up, no one dared to compete with her.

She doesn't know about love and love, she doesn't even know the anniversary, but she really cares about it.

The more I care, even if I am angry, there is still that person in my eyes.

With every move, every smile, all the emotional ups and downs are affected by the person who keeps it in his mind.

An Xia couldn't understand it. She was worried that her eyes would cramp every year, so she reminded her quietly, "Don't worry about it, treat it as air."

It's ruthless.

"The guy who monitors me, can't get rid of it, bear with me hard."

There is no Mu Chenyuan in his eyes.

Mu Chenyuan, who followed behind, was full of bitterness, and for the first time in his life he encountered a 'position' that was difficult to win.

In the anniversary year, I turned my head a little, and quickly glanced at the lonely, lonely, and noble strange man, his eyes fell over, and before he could take it back, he was taken aback by the sharp glance of the opponent's eyes.

So keen!

He could find it at a glance.

He quickly retracted his gaze, leaned to An Xia's ear, and whispered, "It's so scary, where did the guy come out? Why look, are you walking with the iceberg I know?"

"He was born in land warfare, so do you know? No wonder." No wonder the other party also has her most familiar but smoggy atmosphere, who turned out to be peers.

The anniversary year also showed a clear expression of 'it is so', "I'll just say, how can I be so sharp, it turns out to be land warfare. The guy I know, don't look at the pale skin, in fact, he was born in naval warfare, and the wind blows every day. I don't see him in the dark either."

Made her a little jealous!

Little Jane couldn't get tanned even though she was standing together. The two cousins stood together. She had to apply some powder before going out. She was quite white, but she was a bit dark when standing in front of the two of them with cold white skin. .

When the naval battle came out, An Xia didn't see it, only that the opponent was not a simple fighter.

It is true that she is born not to be tanned, and she also belongs to the category of not tanning in her previous life. Xia Guo's An Xia can't see if she can tan at the moment, and her skin is the same cold and white complexion.

The canteen is right in front, and the two of them touched shoulders, whispered in low voices, and occasionally heard the joyous smiles of the anniversary year.

An Xia, who has a cold personality, only smiles occasionally, faintly floating in her eyes, beautiful enough to be like a flower bone covered with dew in summer, so amazing that An Xia can't help but want to touch An Xia's face.

She really asked, and she was as indifferent as An Xia was confused by her questioning.

What?

Touch her face?

Who dare?

In the anniversary year, I dared, after I asked, my eyes were dazzling, wet like a deer, cute and clear, An Xia was not bewitched by her, shook his head and refused, "Sorry, I don't like it too much."

Touch her face?

Since she can remember, no one has ever dared to touch her face, commit the crime, look for trouble!

Followed by, the special forces members who can make the enemy fearful, are like a little daughter-in-law now. Although they have their heads high, their status is too obvious and their aura is strong. Once they walk to someone, He put away his claws naturally, leaving only gentleness.

Listening to the two people in front talking non-stop, Li Jinnian slowly fell behind a few steps, and Mu Chenyuan, who was walking side by side, also gradually fell behind.

"I don't have many vacations. I want to confirm the relationship before returning to the team." Since he is not a rival in love, after the embarrassment dissipated, Li Jinnian opened up the topic.

Chapter 153: Quick return

Hearing the words, Mu Chenyuan raised his eyebrows slightly.

The relationship has not been confirmed yet?

No wonder the hostility in the conference room was so great just now.

Indifferent: "Happy cooperation."

It just so happened that he also wanted to take An Xia away quickly.

The phone vibrated, and Xia Houyu sent a text message. The shorter the text, the bigger the incident. "Something happened to the border, return soon."

Not even a chance to have a meal.

The cold eyes darkened quickly, raised his head, and said solemnly: "Sorry, there is something in the team."

Got to go?

An Xia stopped, turned around and looked at Mu Chenyuan calmly, "I will go back, don't worry."

The gentleman promised that since she promised that the Bo family would stay in the special education center for three months, she would not be less for one day, and not more for one day.

"Do you need Cheng Ming to pick it up?" Mu Chenyuan approached and asked, his cold eyes surging slightly, "Over there, I'm afraid I'll be looking for you."

Two consecutive stabbings ended in failure. Liangzi got bigger and bigger, and it was impossible to stop like this.

An Xia's mouth twitched a little and sneered, "As long as they dare to come again, whether they come back or not is their unchanging result."

Very mad, self-confident and mad, she didn't realize she was blind and arrogant. She sneered with cold eyebrows, murderous, like a high wall, ten thousand arrows stretched the bow, whoever dares to approach the city will surely kill all these people without a place to bury them.

Stars twinkled in the watery eyes of the anniversary year.

Wow!

So handsome!

Sister Xiao An is too handsome too!

Her good friend Xiao Jian'er is also a member of Special Land Forces, and he is also very handsome, but Xiao Jian'er's handsomeness is not obvious, and he can be handsome at the critical moment.

But Sister Xiao An is handsome, the kind of madman who "I'm so good, don't you agree? If you don't accept it, please come over and test it."

Mu Chenyuan believed that An Xia could solve it, but he was still worried that her follow-up strength would be insufficient and she would suffer.

"After going back, hurry up and improve yourself. If you have anything, you can contact the top at any time." Suddenly returning to the team, I can only pick up the key points.

Behind, Cheng Ming ran all the way, his expression so solemn that An Xia couldn't help but look more.

"Team Mu, the car is already parked outside, can you leave?"

The operation was too dangerous. All the fighters who went to were special-grade fighters. He had not passed the final round of special-grade assessments, and even if he wanted to go, he was not qualified.

He could only send the Mu team to the airport and wait for all the special fighters to return safely.

An Xia saw the different dignity on Cheng Ming's face, and her heart was a little bit weak.

It seems that Mu Chenyuan's trip is very dangerous.

It should have been executed at the border.

On the surface, the border of Xia State is very peaceful, but there are as many as a dozen countries bordering Xia State.

"I'm sorry, I will contact you next time." An Xia also gave up dining with Anniversary. Forget it, because Mu Chenyuan's trip is very dangerous, lest he gets distracted, I will return with Cheng Ming. The training center.

In the anniversary year, there was no force or even retention.

She has experienced too many similar emergencies. Li Jinnian and Xiao Jian'er, the two brothers sometimes come back from vacation, and they say that they can rest for ten and a half days, but they never really take it completely.

You can rest at home for a week at most, urgent tasks, and you have to return to the team immediately in the middle of the night.

"Well, I have a little time here for half a year. We can meet at any time." The charming little face was serious, and between the eyebrows, he finally had the sharpness that An Xia thought a sniper should have, "I wish, return safely!"

Chapter 154: Trivial love for children

In front of the task, all the children's love seemed insignificant.

Standing at the gate of the police station in Anniversary, the vehicle has already drove out of sight, but her sight has not been taken back for a long time.

After a while, she whispered softly: "Li Jinnian, every time you leave, I stand like this."

Speaking of Li Jinnian's heart tightened fiercely, the handsome face, who was so cold that there was no extra expression, finally panicked, "So what?"

He asked, accustomed to being calm as a mirror, and there was a hint of tremor in his voice.

So, what is your choice?

Do you think they are not suitable for being boyfriend and girlfriend?

In the car

An Xia also asked, "Is Cheng Ming the only one to monitor me next."

"Yeah." Mu Chenyuan wanted to correct the term 'surveillance', and after thinking about it, they did come to monitor An Xia before, although they are no longer 'surveillance' now, no more explanations are of any use.

Tap the edge of the car window lightly with your fingers. The long and slender fingers are flexible and dance like a piano. They are beautiful and seductive, "Are you inward or outward?"

She is 'vulnerable', and she really needs to think about how to go next.

Choosing to return to the imperial domain now is undoubtedly a dead end, I am afraid that he has not yet approached the imperial domain and was immediately destroyed by the current lord of the imperial domain, An Qian.

Besides, the only thing the Emperor Domain could make her believe was Tianshu and the four of them.

Those subordinates in the past, she has been dead for five years, and her loyalty must be greatly reduced. Before thinking about bringing Ye Mengwei back to the Emperor's Domain for treatment in three months, she needed a long-term plan.

Mu Chenyuan was silent for a while before answering, "Mostly internally, occasionally externally."

External is not the main responsibility of the "Broken Wolf" brigade. There is a mysterious information that does not exist, and all combatants are not in charge of the "Snow Territory" brigade in the system.

Occasionally external?

An Xia's slender eyebrows tightened again.

She is more inclined towards the outside world.

Only externally can she have more opportunities to leave Xia country in a fair manner and go to countries around the world to find her who was killed five years ago.

There are traitors in the imperial domain, that's for sure, but who?

Tianshu clearly told her last time that they had searched for five years and there was no clue. The depth of the traitor's hiding made her have to be more cautious.

After being silent for too long, Mu Chenyuan, who was aware of the strangeness, asked: "Do you like to be outside?"

"Yeah." An Xia nodded, "Too much restraint internally."

The Xia Guo team is famous for its strict discipline in the world. Drinking, smoking, or playing with mobile phones is not allowed.

Not right.

Even if she wants to go outside, she has to join Xia Guo's team. Then, what is the difference between the outside and the inside? It's not as strict as the discipline, even if you go outside the territory, you can't take any action by yourself.

Neither left nor right, An Xia's face was getting colder and colder.

What's the use of her to survive? !

It's better to turn to ashes five years ago, and be with flowers and plants early, so as not to be suffocated in everything at this moment.

An Xia, who was so suffocated that her whole body was cold, was in a terrible mood!

Finally, after hesitating between gains and losses, An Xia asked with a cold face, Bing Lingling, "What punishment will you have for combatants who want to go their own way and act casually?"

"Punishment will be based on the severity of the circumstances." Mu Chenyuan didn't elaborate on the specific punishment, so it is inconvenient to elaborate.

Ahead, Cheng Ming, who was driving, answered: "The year before last, a common soldier in a certain team made a small mistake during vacation and remembered a big mistake. Although he stayed in the team, he could not go out until he left the team."

An Xia's face was completely dark!

Chapter 155: Stay alive, stay alive

Xia Guo's strictness with the fighters completely exceeded her expectations.

But what choice does she have?

No!

If you want to return to the imperial domain, you must improve your strength.

The weak body prevented her from playing.

An Xia, who pressed her mouth tightly, said coldly: "You inform the seven-star warrior. I will report in three months."

???

Cheng Ming, who was driving in the front row, was so surprised that he turned his head and took a look. Mu Chenyuan sternly said: "Drive well!"

I'm still distracted on high speeds. No matter how good my car is, I will scare the passing cars next to me.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm overjoyed." Cheng Ming happily started driving lightly.

So hey!

very happy!

Miss Ann really wants to join "Broken Wolf", that is definitely another trump card!

The trump card strikes, invincible!

Mu Chenyuan was also very happy. Even if he was happy, no one could tell that he had never been emotional.

His delicate and sharp chin tightened a little, his dark and cold eyes faintly passed by, he calmly said:
"Okay, I will tell Warlord Xiahou now."

There is no need to confirm that An Xia is telling the truth, or just say it casually.

He only knew that every word An Xia had said was loud and loud, and that the decision would not be changed when he said it.

Xia Houyu was in a video conference with the high-level border defense and defense team. The phone text message came, and the solemn and resolute face suddenly loosened. This is good news!

If it weren't for the emergency meeting at this moment, he would definitely contact Anxia immediately.

"Okay, tell Xiao An, Lu Zhan welcomes her to join. Three months later, I personally..."

He deleted 'in person' again, Xiao Ann's temperament, it is certainly not rare that he came to pick her up in person.

Delete and re-enter, "I will greet her at the gate of the special education center."

Similarly, he did not ask such things as "is it true" or "she is not joking".

Subconsciously, Xia Houyu believed that An Xia would never break her promise since she said that she agreed to join the land warfare.

After the text message was sent, Mu Chenyuan handed the phone to An Xia, his low-pitched voice inadvertently darkened a lot, he was restraining his joy, "In three months, Xia Hou Zhan will come to pick you up."

"No, I will go by myself." An Xia looked cold.

She is really not uncommon for Xia Houyu to come over.

Cheng Ming smiled and said, "Miss An, should I accompany you? It may not be easy to find a place to go."

"You" are all used.

It's hard to find... Then Cheng Ming can accompany her.

"Cheng Ming will accompany me. Is the dignified seven-star warrior very idle? Run outside without any problems?" An Xia with a black face was choking, like a little pepper.

no way!

Aggrieved!

She has always been the only one who shares what she wants, but she doesn't even have a choice now.

Aggrieved!

She can only suffer from aggrieved situation, no one is forcing her to choose, it is her own decision, then hold back.

Xia Houyu still wanted to come over to pick up An Xia. This was a trump card in the future and must be treated well.

Until the airport, the air pressure in Anxia was very low.

Until Mu Chenyuan was about to get out of the car, An Xia finally opened his mouth, just like she was in the Emperor Territory, and exhorted the calm before leaving for the elite.

There were no ups and downs, she just believed that the elite she sent out could come back alive.

"Keep your life, stay alive, and continue to fight."

Sacrifice is inevitable, she can accept the sacrifice of anyone, including herself.

But who wants to see his teammates sacrifice?

Even if I sacrifice myself, I don't want my teammates to leave.

Chapter 156: Expecting

Slender fingers held the handle of the car, and Mu Chenyuan, who was about to get off, paused for a few seconds. After that, he opened the door and got out of the car. Standing in the car door, he stared at An Xia with a cold voice, "Okay." , I will come back alive."

He will live well and look forward to her joining "Broken Wolf" and looking forward to fighting together.

"Yeah." An Xia smiled lightly, and faded away the coldness and prestige between her eyebrows that made people unable to look directly at her. With a smile, her face was like a flower and a crimson, and her eyes were all beautiful, "Next time" See."

A very lethal faint smile, it was Mu Chenyuan, who has always been as pure as a cultivator, but the smile suddenly fell into his heart, and there were waves of water in the lake.

However, what made him even more puzzled was that he saw an inexplicable sense of familiarity in her again.

"Have we met before?" He asked, looking at her for a moment, hoping that the next answer would help him.

It was five o'clock in the afternoon, the sky in Xuancheng was getting dark, and the thin green smoke enveloped the earth. An Xia sat silent in the semi-dark and semi-dark car, and even the cold vision became dark and unclear.

After about ten seconds of silence, An Xia said calmly: "Never saw it."

"Why did you answer me after being silent?" Mu Chenyuan was not so foolish.

Intuition told him that An Xia was hiding from him, but he didn't know where to start to find out her flaws.

He is a good interrogator and he has seen countless criminals of all kinds. He wants to hide the evil from his cold eyes, and the possibility is "zero."

An Xia is not a criminal. She is the lord of the imperial realm who has received the most professional training in the world. Mu Chenyuan wants to find flaws in An Xia's expression and words, and the possibility is almost "zero".

The two looked at each other, and An Xia was still calm and indifferent, "I'm reminiscing, have we met. Just like you, I always feel familiar with you."

True and false, false and false, true and true, once again tossing back the 'unintelligible', leaving Mu Chenyuan to bother himself.

Of course I have seen him. I can't say that she has seen him in her previous life.

In her last life, in his life, time has crossed, and five years have passed since she was awake.

The handsome and young boy in the past has become a fierce fighter in the sky.

And she, falling into the altar, is ordinary, and she is aggrieved from time to time.

Relive a lifetime, she can be regarded as experiencing life!

Xia Guo has a famous saying: It is easy to change from frugality to luxury, and it is difficult to change from luxury to frugality. She is very considerate of her situation at the moment.

But so what!

One day she will return to the altar, kill the imperial domain, and retake the lord of the imperial domain!

That position is only what she doesn't want, no one can ever want to seize it!

Mu Chenyuan, who was "unintelligible" again, didn't say more. He stared deeply at the car and told Cheng Ming, who was pretending to be a transparent person in the car, "Take care of An Xia and pay attention to anyone who intends to approach her, including, acquaintance."

Driven by interests, acquaintances can also become killers.

The acquaintances around An Xia all wished her to die.

Mu Chenyuan was worried that he would leave, and An Xia was in danger and no one could help.

An Xia is not worried at all.

It was nine o'clock in the evening when I returned to the special education center. The door of the dormitory was recommended. The four people who were still talking "brushed" their mouths, all of them were horrified, and their eyes were full of fear. .

Fear?

Just be afraid.

She doesn't mind being afraid of her.

Chapter 157: Oh, she is so scary

She doesn't mind being afraid of her.

Fear of her will not have so many small movements, and fear of her will let them save their own lives.

An Xiadan asked Huang Yiqi, who swept herself into a cocoon, "When did she come back?"

Just one question, Shang Yujia and Fang Siling were so frightened that their shoulders tightened and they dared not speak.

"Morning... in the morning the instructor sent back to the dormitory." Lin Yinya, the most courageous, replied with a trembling voice, trying to bend her mouth with a natural-looking smile, "I lie down for a day today, and there is still some burning at the moment."

Answer honestly, dare not ask anything else.

Can't offend it anymore!

Perform well and lose the merits.

Huang Yiqi is a living example!

Don't want to try to teach An Xia, in the end, An Xia was pushed into the ravine in the back mountain, and together with a few other boys who were not afraid of death, spent a night in the ravine in the winter.

When the instructor found them, there was only one breath left!

Look, I was still in the bed, turned on the heater and electric blanket, coughed and had a fever, I didn't get out of bed all day.

An expressionless An Xia walked to the bed, Huang Yiqi who was wrapped in the bed felt something, her body shook like a sieve, and the bed made a "creaking" sound.

Huang Yiqi in the quilt was scared.

The corners of the mouth were hooked a little, and the cold was in the bones, "Waste, I will be afraid if I stay overnight, sneer."

With a soft snort, Wang Zhi despised.

Lin Yinya, Zai Shang Yujia, and Fang Siling had their pupils trembling.

Isn't this sentence something Huang Yiqi once said when making fun of An Xiashi?

It's exactly the same!

Even the sneer at the back is the same!

The buttocks moved finely, and finally, the three of them squeezed into a row like three mice, bowed their heads, their small faces were white and white without a trace of blood.

An Xia glanced at a few people. Under the condescending Yan Yan's face, there was a cold bitterness hidden, which was enough to tear everything apart, and it was so scary to rise from the depths of the soul. Looking at her more, I was worried about it. Die.

"I've only been here for three months. Who else is not afraid of death, just ask me." In the bedroom, An Xia's indifferent voice was like snow dripping from the eaves, clear and cold, "I, welcome anytime."

Dare to find?

No one dared to look for it anymore.

This night, An Xia didn't embarrass Huang Yiqi any more, and the matter of staying in the ravine overnight was a turn of the page.

Next is another pile-the roof has fallen sharply.

She found in An Xia's memories that the four people conspired to deceive "An Xia" onto the rooftop, and with the help of a few boys, they forcibly lifted An Xia to the outside of the rooftop, making An Xia hang above the rooftop. , Will fall to death due to lack of physical strength at any time.

The thin An Xia cried and begged for mercy, but instead of receiving the slightest sympathy from them, she made them laugh.

Liu Yan, a big cow, even grabbed An Xia's fingers on the edge of the roof, squeezing them apart one by one, and laughed while digging, "You're a trash, why do you live with trash? You can fall to death."

"Hahaha, that is, what right does waste have to live? It is a waste to breathe more air."

That night, An Xia was desperate, and she almost gave up on herself.

If the instructor hadn't rushed to rescue An Xia in time, I'm afraid she wouldn't have survived her, An Xia who was blasted to dregs by the missile.

The memories that belonged to An Xia flashed in his mind, and the horror remained.

Standing in front of the mirror, An Xia looked at the face in the mirror that was more and more similar to his previous life, coldly and solemnly said: "Don't worry, I will get back all the things you have suffered."

Chapter 158: Pack you up, just raise your hand

The lord of the emperor realm, An Xia, anyone who has offended her knows that it is a ruthless character who regrets incurred in the first life, and will repay him.

Now, she has become the An Xia of Xia Guo, occupying the body of the other party, and she will return all the wronged past.

I won't let it go!

The rooftop incident is now not in a hurry to ask for it back, so they are cold for the first time, so that they mistakenly think that they have "adults do not care about the villains" to relax their vigilance, and when the time comes, she will ask for it back fiercely.

Only in this way can they be unforgettable for a lifetime.

The ruthlessness of the lord of the emperor domain was cruel to the bone.

The next day, Huang Yiqi had not recovered from her cold, so she was dragged out of bed by An Xia, and hurled out of the dormitory training crying and howling, "I'm not going, ah, ah, I'm not going! I'm sick! I'm not going! Help! Help! Help!"

It's no use shouting to break your throat.

Lin Yinya kindly reminded me at the back, "What are you calling, keep some strength for training."

Really, why bother hitting a rock with a pebble.

It's better to obey.

An Xia turned a deaf ear. The whole building heard Huang Yiqi's screams, and no one dared to come out.

Not even the instructor dared to come forward.

If you have a cause, you will have an effect. Since you have planted the cause, you will bear the result!

Dragging people upstairs, An Xia and two instructors went to the boys' dormitory.

The right leg was broken for three months to walk normally and train normally?

Ah.

Naive.

Didn't he say to An Xia, 'is it a trivial matter to have a broken hand or a broken foot?' What qualifications does he have to be lazy if he only has one broken leg?

You must be in the playground on time every day. If you can't move your feet, then use both hands!

Bringing the instructor to the boys' dormitory, several boys saw An Xia and immediately turned and leaned against the wall.

They were all for fear that they had bullied An Xia overtly and secretly. Seeing An Xia at this time, they were afraid to see An Xia coming, so they were worried that they would suddenly attack them and be tragically cleaned up.

Oh, * scary!

They really regret bullying An Xia before!

There are also boys who greet An Xia. These are not bullying An Xia before, so they are not afraid.

An Xia will also faintly nod and answer. Although she is cold, at least the students know that An Xia is not arrogant enough to be arrogant no matter how strong it is.

Like Huang Yiqi, Liu Yan was dragged out of bed.

After all, the boy had a better face, and went out of the dormitory, biting his cheek and said: "I will go by myself! You don't need to drag it!"

Don't be ashamed anymore, and if you throw it down, there will be no way to come out and see people in the future.

The noise that broke out early in the morning disturbed the entire special education center. So far, no one dared to bully An Xia.

The students dare not, nor do the instructors!

In the past, they were the only ones who took care of the students. Now, they are rubbed underground by An Xia almost every day.

"Didn't you eat? Is it difficult to get 300 pull-ups?"

"Running for ten kilometers with a load, this is your punishment for the students, why, when you get here, you just want to be lazy? Twenty kilometers at night, with a load of 20 kilograms!"

"Without energy, practice more! Eat more without eating! Don't make excuses for your incompetence!"

"Why? Did you get up late at night and aggrieved you? Oh, where did all the hard work of cleaning up students go? I heard that you have a few students who like to get up slowly with whips and whips, or, from tonight, we Try it too?"

A cry of cold-blooded Li Xun's video Jing Chengming was passed to Xia Houyu. Xia Houyu, who was far away in the capital, was more satisfied with An Xia.

Until one day, the old boy from the naval battle suddenly called, "Xia Houyu, where is the girl you mentioned last time?"

Chapter 159: I want to grab someone!

Xia Houyu, who was watching the video, almost didn't throw his phone out.

He didn't answer, and simply continued the call.

Ah!

Ah!

Ah!

Where is the baby girl?

How can I tell you.

The old boy at a naval battle base glanced at the ended call, smiled, and said directly, "Xia Houyu, you can't be so stingy."

"You can talk about it at the general war. The girl is a good seed that you can see. I will tell you the truth. A few years ago I have missed a little girl once. This time, I will definitely not Miss again."

"Xia Houyu, we have the ability to * people on the basis of our true ability. Is it interesting for you to hide and cover up like this? Is it interesting to be a man who is afraid of his head and feet?"

"Fair competition, leave the choice to the little girl!"

After several consecutive voice bombardments, Xia Houyu listened to them one by one, sneered again and again, and went back to the voice as well.

Ah!

To be a man is to be stingy!

Not stingy, the future trump card seedlings will be robbed.

"Since you missed it once, it's okay to miss it again. It's only three times. When the third baby girl appears, it's yours."

"The fair competition of shit, don't I know what your dog's virtue is? Knowing where the baby girl is, with your urine, you can't drive a helicopter overnight to take people away."

"Want to know where the baby is from me, no way."

After replying to several voices, the old * Xia Houyu was holding the tea cup, drinking water to moisturize his throat, and then continued to reply: "Also, by the way, the girl agreed to come to us for a land battle four days ago. You Well, give up."

After saying this, Xia Houyu only felt at ease.

Hahaha!

Robber?

late.

Xiao An, a girl with a unique personality, has agreed to come to them to fight on the ground.

After listening to the old boy of the seven-star warrior of a certain naval battle base, he furiously said, "What, I promised you? Impossible! Absolutely impossible!"

"Just now I had a phone call from the general war, and I didn't mention that the girl agreed to join you. Besides, can you enter wherever you want?"

After listening to the six-star deputy, the corners of his mouth twitched, and he sighed: "You can say that. We can't enter here casually, right."

The old boy finished his voice and stared at the deputy, "Why can't I get in, I want her to go to the Storm Commando! I have already missed a female general. This time, I have to grab it anyway!"

To spare an old life, but also to grab it!

Furious at him too!

Lao Yang also teased him for always being too slow!

joke!

Last time he let Lao Yang, and again, the girl from Xiaoye had already belonged to the land warfare before she was sent over. Old Yang had trained her for a long time, and she also wanted to belong to the land warfare, so he didn't fight for it. .

This time is different!

The girl hasn't decided where to go.

The body itself was not cultivated by Xia Houyu, he grabbed it with integrity and a clear conscience!

Xia Houyu responded with a string of "haha" and laughed, and then said: "Old boy, old boy, what about you, just give up. Continue to sit firmly on your second year, and look forward to the appearance of the third baby girl."

In the end, Xia Houyu received two anger from the old boy, but he smashed two holes on the ground and replied, "Fart!"

Wait for him!

This time, he must find the baby.

Without further ado, ask immediately.

Xia Houyu also quickly contacted Cheng Ming, "Cheng Ming, keep an eye on me these days, the naval battles are watching Xiao An. If you let the naval battlers come into contact with Xiao An, your kid will come back to see me."

Chapter 160: He's coming, he's coming

Cheng Ming's face turned cold when he heard the words, and he patted his chest and said: "Don't worry, I will keep Miss An well. People in the sea battle will see her unless they follow my corpse."

With such a heavy guarantee, Xia Houyu was relieved, "It doesn't need to be stepping on the corpse, you are going to die, and I have to send someone over to take over your work, many things."

More things are enough.

Based on his little understanding of Xiao An, she might not accept the newcomers sent again.

Perhaps in a fit of anger, he quit his sleeves and turned and went to sea battle.

Let alone this, it is 100% possible.

Therefore, it is not ordinary people who can sit in the leadership position and lead a group of teams.

Not only must be able to watch the fire from the shore without causing fire to the upper body, but also have an insight into the hearts of the people and make arrangements in advance.

More importantly, we must know how to plan tactics and make perfect calculations.

Xia Houyu said to An Xia, it was a step-by-step strategy, and he didn't dare to make mistakes in half a step.

Originally, I wanted to investigate the Song family well and help her complete the chores in Qing Xuancheng. An Xia said, "She is not a waste, and no one needs to take action." He immediately strangled his thoughts of action.

Confess, you must confess well!

Cheng Ming gave a guarantee. For the next ten days, he would follow An Xia every step of the way, only that he had no part-time job guardian aunt to guard the door at night!

But!

Can't stand a naval battle with a * assist!

The anniversary is here!

There was also Li Jinnian, the captain of the naval storm commando who chased her to Xuancheng.

Entrance of Special Education Institute

Anniversary took out his ID, gritted his teeth and gave it to the security guard who deliberately embarrassed her, "Uncle Security, you can see clearly, or else, you call me to check if this alarm is true or false?"

The security was arranged by Mrs. Song, and he didn't want to put in the anniversary year.

Even if he put his certificates on the table in the anniversary year, he didn't look at it. He squinted his eyes and said, "Don't look at it. There are regulations in our office, and foreign visitors are not allowed to visit at all."

Oh, the police officer is amazing.

Xuancheng Song's family won't give the face of a little police officer!

But the anniversary year is so irritating, ready to dial Anxia's mobile phone number.

Next to him, Li Jinnian, who had a cold breath, took out his ID, opened it, pressed the ID with his slender fingers, and pushed it bit by bit in front of the dog-eyed security guard, "What about me, am I eligible to go in?"

"No..." The security guard glanced, just about to refuse, his face changed suddenly, this...this...team six stars!

How could this be?

Why does Miss Anjia still have friends with the team's six stars?

Madam never said it.

When Mr. Zhang from the special education institute retired, his level was only three stars!

With a cold sweat, the security guard who was sitting all the time "Kang Kuang" got up and honestly returned the documents on the table one by one, "If you have any, please, please."

You have to tell her husband quickly!

Once the team took action, Madam wanted to solve Miss Ann, it was difficult!

Soon, Mrs. Song received a message from the security guard, and she was so angry that she broke another mobile phone when she was locked up at home.

The six-star generals of the clan are all out!

No matter how powerful the Song family is, they don't have the guts to confront the team!

Al's side can't make any more moves for the time being, even the strength of the eight people, An Xia's slut, makes the big brother jealous!

How to do?

How to do?

The little * was yin enough. She saved others that day. She told countless media that she was brutally beaten by the Song family. Now the Song family is on the cusp of turmoil, so she can't be unrest.

Is there really nothing she can do about it?

The unwilling Mrs. Song was so angry that she went crazy in the room again.

At the special education institute, Li Jinnian's cold eyes condensed slightly, focusing on the task he must complete during this trip-An Xia.
