

Goddess 261

Chapter 261: Excellent she and her

Faced with the surprise of the special fighters in Luyi District, An Xia said nothing.

Let him be surprised, it has nothing to do with her.

An emperor with a personality will never prove that he is indeed okay because of the surprises and doubts of others.

After taking a faint look at Changying, An Xia then asked Jade Bird about the professional question of gun speed.

Ten languages, are they great?

The world's great wonders.

For example, the blue bird next to her.

The shooting speed is so fast, who would believe it if you hadn't seen it with your own eyes?

Changying originally wanted An Xia to say a few words, but she never expected that the little girl was young, but her concentration was excellent.

He didn't look at his surprise at all, walking in the team, it was windy and rainy, and he didn't complain.

Just like the blue bird of the year, no matter how bitter or tired, he will grit his teeth and persist.

Jade Bird saw his team squat and grinned with his mouth pursed.

Should!

If you don't know ten languages, you don't know it, and it's not that Anxia doesn't know it.

Jade Bird likes An Xia with personality very much. Facing An Xia's question, she replied earnestly and in detail, "I practiced guns very early, and I followed in the second grade..."

As he said, the smile on her face disappeared quickly, and An Xia saw the sadness of longing passing by on her face.

It is to mourn for the deceased.

An Xia apologized in a low voice, "Sorry, I made you sad."

"No, it has nothing to do with you." Blue Bird smiled slightly, "Thinking of my grandfather, my grandpa led me to get started with guns, and another uncle whom I respect very much when I contact sniping."

Although he was smiling, the sadness in his brows and eyes was too strong, so thick that An Xia's cold-blooded heart couldn't bear it.

"Blue Bird..." An Xia yelled very softly. She really didn't know how to say comforting words, and she didn't know where to make her mouth.

It may be the best way to stop her memories.

Feeling An Xia's intolerance, Jade Bird gently swept An Xia's shoulders, "Don't blame yourself, it's my own problem. I should apologize, and it scares you."

"I started contacting it in the second year of junior high. It has been twelve years now. In addition to talent, I have to work hard. If you want to improve your gun speed, you should practice more often."

"The biggest immobility between me and others is because I am very familiar with any gun."

"I am so familiar with putting together dozens of different gun parts, I am blindfolded, and I am ready to find the correct parts for each gun and complete the assembly."

"If you want to increase the gun speed, you must first understand the guns, so that their appearance and functions are all engraved in your heart. The moment you pick them up, you merge with them, raise your hand..."

Suddenly, Jade Bird shot and took out the pistol.

"boom....."

After the gunshot, the blood spread.

"Papa..."

Two meters away, the head of a colorful poisonous snake was exploded and fell softly into dead leaves.

An Xia's pupils shrank fiercely.

So fast!

From pulling out to firing, drinking in one go, there is no aim at all, correction!

It's as if there is a target and a gun in my heart, and I keep aiming, and I will hit a hundred shots at any time.

At such a fast speed, on the battlefield, the enemy has no way to go!

Even if it is face-to-face, digging out guns together and shooting at the same time, it is definitely a blue bird who will win!

An Xia admired the Blue Bird even more.

How to do.....

She really wanted to go to Luyi District.

The headshot of the poisonous snake twisted its body, and a group of people stepped past. The blue bird smiled at An Xia: "This is my normal speed. I can speed it up by another second or so in an emergency."

Chapter 262: Xia Houyu's routine, won

In addition to admiration, An Xia said: "Your speed refreshes my knowledge of gun speed. The enemy encounters you on the battlefield, a nightmare."

Fortunately, she is also a member of Xia Guo now.

Will not become hostile parties.

The blue bird curled her lips. She had always been introverted and replied domineeringly, "It's not a nightmare, it's a dead dream."

Because all the tasks she performs are A-level.

Basically no livelihood remains.

Hearing this, An Xia applauded lightly.

Domineering enough, she likes it!

Changing is digging people again. "Would you like to think about it? You are still a rookie, so you can."

Don't say it, it's really moving.

Leaning to Mu Chenyuan's side, he whispered softly: "Do you have any ideas?"

idea?

Most of the thoughts were overwhelming. Mu Chenyuan didn't hide it, and answered honestly, "If I were a new recruit, I might choose to go there."

Based on his understanding of An Xia, if he didn't say anything, he didn't feel relieved.

If I really want to say it, I must have moved my mind.

"But I'm a rookie." An Xia curled her lips, "I can."

Mu Chenyuan sighed heavily in his heart.

Sexy Adam's apple swallowed lightly, his cold eyes closed, in order to keep An Xia, he...he gave it up!

By the way, take a gamble.

"After the past, it is difficult for you and me to meet, you..." It happened to be steep down, and Mu Chenyuan quickly slid down a step, and when he reached the bottom, he reached out to An Xia...

Holding An Xia's hand tightly, and then pulling it down forcefully, she easily received An Xia into her arms.

But in the eyes of the people next to him, at least he was shocked all the way, and in the eyes of Rogo, who did not dare to speak in front of the big guys, An Xia slipped under his feet and fell into Mu Chenyuan's arms.

He hugged, his heart was stern, and Mu Chenyuan, who was completely free, pressed it to An Xia's ear, his low voice was as if wet by rain, silky and smooth, and it was tickling in people's hearts.

"When you have the urge, who do you go to?"

This can...

Well, it's a problem!

An Xia raised her eyes and looked at Mu Chenyuan, who was still stunningly handsome in the secluded green world.

After a while, An Xia said calmly: "Forget it, I'm not going anymore."

Reminded herself that in case she had an urge, she really didn't know who to look for to warm the bed.

At this moment, Mu Chenyuan's heart was full of various tastes.

Therefore, Jiang is still old and spicy, and the "Israeli seductive" routine implemented by Xia Houyu is feasible!

An Xia, really look at her face.

Therefore, in her eyes, his appearance is indeed okay.

Does he need to be proud?

An Xia ignored what Mu Chenyuan was thinking, she was refusing Changying.

"No, I think of a way to turn the blue bird to Luer District to be an instructor."

Long Eagle: "!!!"

Depend on!

Do you want to be so clever?

Turn to Luer District to be an instructor, let alone, this kind of operation is really possible!

Changying immediately said: "Then you should figure it out for yourself."

He said to Mu Chenyuan again: "Brother, the little girl is good, keep your eyes on it. Let's stop abducting her, and persuade her not to think about abducting our people."

"Also, guard against naval battles and air battles. The blue bird of that year was almost abducted by people in sea battles and air battles."

Mu Chenyuan thanked him, "Thank you for reminding me, I will pay attention."

I didn't tell the special fighters in Lu District 1 that naval and air combat are already in action, and they are on guard.

An hour later, the soldiers in the second camp found the cave and saw five seriously injured national policemen.

Fortunately, all five of them still have signs of life.

Soon, the national police sent a rescue helicopter and arrived near the cave 45 minutes later, lowered the rope ladder, and rushed to the hospital as quickly as possible.

Chapter 263: Someday

At this time, the sky was already slightly bright.

At six o'clock in the morning, the people with wet bodies took Wuzhi and left the restricted area.

It was Mu Chenyuan's leader and An Xia's assistant driver.

The pigeon in Luyi District watched for a while and whispered: "Blue is better than blue."

"It's great to have someone to succeed." The blue bird's mouth was smiling, and those picturesque black eyes were full of admiration for An Xia, "I am eighteen years old, but I am not as good as her."

K7, who hadn't spoken more than five sentences all the way, heard the words, and said coldly, "You have always been great."

Therefore, there is no need to belittle yourself.

Jade Bird laughed, "It takes one generation to outperform one generation before the times progress. In her, I see the rise of a new generation."

"Confident, strong, courageous, aggressive, and more individual. Inheritance continues, and revival is hopeful."

At eight o'clock in the morning, Wu Zhi landed at Lu Erying.

At half past eight, An Xia said goodbye to Blue Bird.

The two clasped their hands, feeling reluctantly like friends for many years.

Qingniao smiled and said: "I really want to recruit you to Luyi District, but unfortunately, your heart stays in Lu2 District. If you agree today, I'm afraid you will regret it tomorrow."

The sharp-faced and handsome man who did not lose to the Xia team would definitely try his best to prevent An Xia from leaving his side.

Just like the summer team back then, trying to do everything possible to lure her to his side.

An Xia thought for a while, and said indifferently: "No. I never go back. Every thing, since a decision is made, why bother to change it?"

She has never hesitated, changed, or repented for anyone or anything.

It is her rule to speak out.

The smile in Jade Bird's eyes deepened.

K7 and several of them said, An Xia is like himself.

No, An Xia is not like her.

Anxia is Anxia.

An Xia is unique and cannot be copied.

"I am looking forward to working together again next time." Before leaving, the blue bird hugged Anxia lightly, "Come on, little girl, the road ahead is long, there may be twists and turns, or there may be wind and waves, I hope you will always keep your heart and set sail Fight and become the best version of yourself."

Wu Zhi took off, An Xia stood on the ground, looking up at the blue bird sitting in the lead, her eyes firmed.

She has to work harder to make it!

No longer the self in the previous life.

In this life, if you want to stand higher and farther, you have to work harder!

Gazing at Wu Zhi who was flying into a small black spot, An Xia with a firm gaze said in a low voice, "Blue Bird, one day, we will meet."

In the next Devil Week training, An Xia desperately made the vanguard squad fighters in the second camp shiver.

Fighting hard and hard, they didn't dare to relax for a second.

New recruit!

She is a rookie!

The new recruits are all put together like that, what qualifications do they have to take a rest?

practice!

Must practice!

As long as you are alive and have a breath, practice! !

An Xia rushed to the training whole body and mind, and never had the urge of that night again.

Every day she trains herself until she returns to the tent and falls asleep. No matter how good the spring is, she doesn't have a spring heart.

Mu Chenyuan returned to the team, again the kind of cold and indifferent instructor.

The love of the children has been put aside.

The two who devoted themselves to training seemed to have forgotten what happened that night early. They were well-regulated and innocent, and they couldn't see that a little bit of charm had happened to them.

On the other side, Bai Yonglong in the first camp called Chang Hu several times.

Every time I come back, I try my best to see An Xia.

Chang Hu wouldn't let him see him, "Are you panicking all day long? Don't stay in the second camp, and why do you always go to our first camp?"

Chapter 264: Too popular

Oh shit!

He stayed in his office early in the morning, making him unable to read the latest briefing sent back by instructor Mu in time.

He was afraid of taking it out of the drawer and was immediately snatched away by the loyal guest in front of him!

Chang Hu sullenly shouted, "Go back to the second camp area, we won't wait to see you in the first camp area! If you don't leave, I'll use the broom to drive people away!"

Bai Yonglong, who came here early in the morning, didn't leave.

Hearing that, he brought himself a thermos cup, poured himself a glass of boiled water, blew the heat, and Xiao Xiao moistened his throat and eyes.

Slowly said: "I'll go, yes, give me the information, and leave immediately!"

After being here for three days, I couldn't drink a sip of water!

You have to bring your own cup to drink water!

"Dreaming!" Chang Hu sneered, somewhat proud, "I have the qualifications of a new recruit in the first camp, I have to give it to you for what you want."

"Give up, don't fight her idea. Entering our first camp, it's the combatants from my first camp, you want to grab it? No way."

Hahaha, hahaha.

It's useless for Lao Tzu to worry about it, and Xiahou Zhanjiang is impossible to release.

You, a member of the second camp, also ran over and wondered...

Let's think about it, let's think about it together.

Thinking alone is not as good as thinking alone.

It feels so good to be accompanied by someone thinking about it!

Battle Commander Bai Yonglong looked at Chang Hu's expression of being alone with a giant treasure, his teeth itchy with anger.

This tiger is so **** sinister and treacherous!

Special fighters in Lu No. 1 District, he, a small three-star warlord from Lu Er Battalion, couldn't get people over. They were all new recruits from Lu No. 2 District. Could it be that he couldn't get him here yet?

What Rogo said back flashed in his mind.

"You don't know how fast the new recruit is! I was lying in the bushes and didn't feel anyone approaching at all. When I found out, her mouth and nose were covered by her."

"I got into a cold sweat on the spot, thinking that I was discovered by the target person."

"After annihilating all the target characters, I really...for the first time I feel that I have been a fighter for so many years for nothing! One is better than one, and one is better than the other!"

"The fighters in Luyi District fired nearly twice as fast as all special fighters. Double that, warlord! What is that concept? No one else has taken out their weapons. She has already fired and wiped out all the people! "

"I won't talk about this. The special fighters in Lu No. 1 District started training with guns in the second grade. It is very normal. But An Xia, new recruit, she is a new recruit!"

"I have never seen a new recruit as powerful as her, disappearing the target person, so calm that she is very good at assassination, and the dagger in her hand is fast and fierce, and she cuts directly on the neck."

"One sword at a time, I was dumbfounded at that time!"

"Later she got into the Wuzhi officer. I only had one idea at the time. I needed to get her to our second camp area. Warlord, our second camp area lacks this number!"

"You have to think of a way to get people over!"

It's too hard to get people over!

Bai Yonglong grinned his teeth and said, "We have known each other for so many years, so you can't expect me a little bit, okay?"

"You can't keep the new recruits. Give me the information. I put the application to my second camp in advance. You can still see people in the second camp in the future."

"This is going to another place, I'm afraid you won't even see her shadow."

The Xia Guo team has regulations that new recruits go to a certain camp for training, and the camp is only responsible for training and cannot keep people.

Bai Yonglong only ran to the first camp every day, because he could apply for people to go to the second camp.

Unfortunately, Chang Hu didn't give him any information.

Chapter 265: Sweet steamed bun

Even if Bai Yonglong knew of An Xia's existence and had no information, he would never want to apply An Xia to the second camp.

The more he thought about it, the more angry Bai Yonglong wanted to change Changhu to fight!

On the fifth day, Chang Hu finally let go.

"I didn't deliberately stuck you! Do you think you are the only one who cares about Anxia? Naive! Several camps have long been concerned about An Xia!"

"Do I give you Anxia's information in advance, and operate it in the dark? I still have to be sprayed to death by several other camps!"

"I'll show you a clear path, and find General Xiahou. As long as he agrees, I have no opinion!"

This really brought Bai Yonglong into the pit.

If you want someone, just ask for it by your ability!

If he really wants to get it, then he will be convinced.

Chang Hu, who was completely rested, looked at the background where Bai Yonglong was leaving, holding a teacup, humming a little song, and happily drinking cold white boil.

How can he be scolded by Xiahou by himself if he shares blessings, shares difficulties, and has been in friendship for many years.

You must drag Bai Yonglong into the water!

General Bai Yonglong wanted to get An Xia to the second camp area too much. He called Xia Houyu as soon as he went back.

After hearing Bai Yonglong's request, Xia Houyu, who had only finished the air combat call, had no expression on his face, his face turned black, and his face was as deep as...

"What do you say? What do you say? Do you say I would agree? Ah? You want people? Why don't you ask me if I want people first?"

"Chang Hu didn't tell you, is An Xia a new recruit specially recruited from my side?"

"He didn't tell me. For this reason, I specially reminded him, do you have to take good care of An Xia?"

"Look for someone from me? If you want, I will give it?"

"Don't have unrealistic dreams!"

"Clap! Clap!"

As soon as the phone hung up, Xia Houyu drank three glasses of water in a row before suppressing the unhappiness in his heart.

Everyone wants Anxia, dreaming!

Air combat is still unsuccessful, and he makes phone calls from time to time all day long to harass him. If it weren't for some distance away, he would want to rush to the street and scold him.

If you can't find a good seed, who is to blame?

Robber?

dream!

Bai Yonglong in Erying District is also dreaming!

If you want to **** An Xia from him, dream about it all.

In the evening, Xia Houyu received a video call from Boss Yang, a seven-star warrior in Luyi District.

Good guys!

Going directly to Xia Houyu almost cursed a little bit.

"Brother Xiahou, we can be regarded as old friends. Old friends have needs, so you won't miss the old feelings. It's just a small need. It's definitely not a problem for you to have a new recruit, brother."

Check it out!

I started to call my brothers when I was in need.

Xia Houyu smiled and said indifferently: "Important, no, terrible, do you want it?"

"Hahaha, hahaha, brother Xiahou is still so funny. Don't kill me, I really only need one person, not many."

"Give up, I don't want to give one." Xia Houyu refused simply, Lu Yiqu still want someone? They have the most talents in Luyi District!

In the other regions, the eyes were jealous.

Nowadays, there are still important people in Luer District, don't dream.

Boss Yang didn't expect to achieve it all at once.

Hearing this, he smiled and said: "Don't, you can still give one. Or, I will ask next time."

"There is no next time, next time I will still have two words: dreaming."

"Hahaha, then I still have to ask next time." Boss Yang is not so easy to give up.

Next time, ask again.

An Xia, who had practiced so dimly, didn't know that she had become a sweet steamed bun. She was so tired that she couldn't move her fingers, she ran into Mu Chenyuan coming out of the shower room naked, and...

Well, the domineering emperor blocked people.

Chapter 266: You love me

An Xia himself did not expect the impulse to come so suddenly.

On the contrary, it was obviously the first time that this kind of thing was blocking people, and she was so skilled that she was a little surprised.

Is it possible that it is also a talent?

No need to learn, just get started?

There was the voice of the male fighters talking, their steps were getting closer and closer, and they knew that they were all walking towards the bathing tent.

"Go." Anxia grabbed his wrist, and like a flower picker, he abducted people and drilled into the woods.

Mu Chenyuan had no chance to break free.

Mainly, I didn't think about breaking free.

After drilling through the woods, An Xia pressed the man to the tree.

He also worried that Mu Chenyuan didn't wear a shirt, knowing that he pressed his back against the tree trunk with one hand to prevent her skin from being injured by the rough bark.

Mu Chenyuan, who took the wrong role in the script, has no plans to change it.

So be it.

She likes it.

An Xia turned to look behind her, and indeed the two of them didn't notice, and said in a low voice, "Don't be afraid, no one will come."

He is not afraid.

Just a little nervous.

He swallowed his throat, always indifferent and calm, the captain of the Powolf brigade was so nervous that his palms were sweating.

Asked her softly, "Why are you here?"

In order to take care of her, the shower tent built by the river is divided into men and women, one on the left and one on the right.

She appeared in the men's shower right now, it wouldn't be...

I didn't come here to look for him on purpose.

An Xia really didn't find someone specially, she just wanted to go down to the river to practice holding her breath.

Unexpectedly, when he arrived here, he bumped into Mu Chenyuan who had taken a shower.

Mu Chenyuan was still naked.

After just one glance, he was attracted by his lean and **** upper body.

Look at the face again...

Looking up at the man whose hair was still dripping with water, his narrow eyes narrowed slightly.

It's because of this face.

Even the eyelashes have grown into the style she likes.

Long, dark, and dense, she trembles slightly when pressed.

Gee...

Every time she trembles, the impulse in her heart increases.

One point more impulsiveness, naturally one point more scorching eyes.

The dazzling impulse and liking were so hot that Mu Chenyuan's heart seemed to light a fire, and his whole body was a little hot.

"Something?" he asked again.

The voice was so low that it was so hot.

An Xia raised her eyebrows, "I won't find you if I have nothing to do?"

It was fine before, but now, something is indeed happening.

Putting his hand on the door of his heart, the majestic force penetrated the bone and blood, and quickly hit her palm again and again.

"Mu Chenyuan, why is your heart beating so fast. Isn't it, you are also impulsive?"

If he is also impulsive, naturally it is better.

What's that called...

Oh, you love me.

That kind of thing, or why do you love me.

Otherwise, she forced him.

Mu Chenyuan didn't have much impulse for the time being, and the nervousness was far too impulsive.

Looking down, the scorching cold eyes stared at An Xia quietly, her hoarse voice tightened, "There is still training tonight, you..."

"I'll talk about things in the evening at night." An Xia interrupted directly, "Now do something else. You relax, don't be too tight."

In a word, Mu Chenyuan couldn't laugh or cry.

The soft hand came up all the way from his chest, and finally stayed at his eyebrows, turning and gently painting, as if to carve his appearance into his heart.

As she danced with her fingers on his face, her uncontrollable throbbing deepened.

"An Xia..."

The tight voice was dyed warm, and the impulse faintly suppressed the tension.

An Xia did not respond.

Fingers touched his eyebrows, tracing little by little, drawing...

Chapter 267: Grow in her heart

I have seen countless beautiful men in the past life, but there has never been one like Mu Chenyuan, every point, every place grows in her heart.

Those cold eyes are also the shape she likes.

The tail of the eyes is sharp, and the shape is very sharp, like a sharp dagger, one glance is chilling.

Not to mention the nose.

Upright, handsome, and portrayed to make his facial contour particularly three-dimensional.

Thin lips...

"I want to swim in the river, and I accidentally bumped into you. Why don't you continue that night. Don't be nervous, you can't do anything else because the conditions are so simple, you can only kiss."

An Xia, who had done bad things frankly, finished speaking, squeezed his feet and kissed his thin lips.

He lightly pecked, then gnawed his lower lip slightly, and tasted the taste of mint.

Fresh enough to nibble, I still want to nibble.

Mu Chenyuan, it has been pressed by An Xia so that he dare not move.

There was only one thought in her mind: finally waiting for her impulse.

"Here..."

Her lips were a little bit heavy by her, the sharp tiger teeth rubbed the inner flap of the lower lip, and she tasted light blood.

"So tender? It's bleeding."

The tongue gently rolled his lips, licking the place where he was bitten and bleeding, and the words of tiger and wolf blurted out.

The mouth was moving, but his hands didn't stop.

Against his lean and sturdy chest, his five fingers gathered together lightly and scratched, leaving a faint scarlet scratch on his white chest.

An Xia lowered her eyes, her eyes darker.

It's too tender too.

But when I scratch it lightly, it leaves a red mark.

The hand feels really good, elastic and powerful, and you know it is not an empty touch.

For men, they still have to have muscles.

However, she doesn't like muscle men.

She is strong and thin, with **** lines, just the right thickness, and it grows in her heart.

The appearance, figure, and handling of things are all in her heart, and it is difficult for her not to be impulsive.

Food and sex

The ancients of Xia are indeed wise. No wonder the civilization of Xia has been passed on without interruption.

Gu Tongjin, how can it be interrupted.

An Xia, who moved up and down, was still dominant one second before, and the next second, a pair of powerful long arms suddenly appeared on her waist.

Later, she was pressed against the tree, her back pressed against the trunk.

After a hot kiss, An Xia's hands began to be dishonest again.

No longer limited to the upper half, she started to attack the lower half.

At this time, Mu Chenyuan was wary.

As soon as his hand touched his waist, he was immediately held, "An Xia."

The voice was deeper than before, and there was a little more that made An Xia's heart suddenly "chuckle", with extremely aggressive scorching heat.

"Can't show it to me?" An Xia raised her head, her eyes moistened, "Just kissing?"

He twisted his brows and was not satisfied with his stopping. "Children will kiss. Adults should have deeper contact, such as..."

Hooking his neck with both hands, he flexed his waist a little bit, attached it to his ear, and said two bold words.

Mu Chenyuan almost escaped.

Taking a deep breath, then taking a deep breath, Mu Chenyuan said: "Not for the time being, it's too fast."

It's too fast, it's almost unreal.

It's almost strange.

"Hurry? Not fast." An Xia broke away from his hand and insisted on doing what she wanted to do. "Spring is here, isn't it okay to let the flow go?"

"I like your face and figure very much. Now it happens to be in demand. If you agree, then you will be my fixed bed partner from now on. Don't worry, I am very picky. I will not change my bed partner casually. Which day will I really... .."

An Xia hasn't said the following words for the time being.

Because she found that Mu Chenyuan's face suddenly became ugly.

Chapter 268: Jealous, do you have a girlfriend

Is this unwilling?

An Xia withdrew and left, An Xia withdrew and left, Yan Yan's eyebrows also returned to the indifference when she first saw her, "I don't want to be, forget it, I won't force you."

She can't do things like strong people.

Since you are not willing, don't continue.

So as not to hurt the peace.

Taking a step back, the Lord of the Emperor Territory was ruthless and terrifying, and there was no warmth in his eyes.

It seemed that just now and the searing heat were just a dream.

I woke up from the dream, and everything was beautiful without a trace.

"see you later."

Nodding slightly, An Xia turned and left.

The wrist was held tightly, and she was not allowed to leave.

An Xia turned her head, her face was indifferent, "Why? Is there something else?"

I haven't noticed that Mu Chenyuan was hurt by the words just now.

I didn't feel that I was wrong.

From the beginning, she thought so.

I thought Mu Chenyuan thought so too.

Now it seems that she is obviously the only one who thinks so.

"An Xia, let's talk." Mu Chenyuan clasped her wrist tightly, with a hunch that if he let her now, he would definitely regret it.

Nothing can't let her leave.

"What are you talking about?" An Xia glanced and took her big hand.

Even the hands are so beautiful that she can't help but look sideways.

"Talk about our relationship." Mu Chenyuan pulled her back to his side and said seriously: "Our relationship needs a good conversation."

An Xia chuckled, "Does our relationship need to be talked? I need a bed partner who solves impulse. I like all aspects of you, and you are also impulsive towards me. Since each other is impulsive towards each other, we have developed into a fixed bed partner. , Isn't it normal?"

As he said, his eyes suddenly sharpened, "Could it be that you have a girlfriend?"

So unwilling?

With a fierce blow in the heart, An Xia, who was inexplicably painful, raised her voice, her eyes darkened, "Let go!"

She is never going to provoke a man with a master!

The anger that arose covered the inexplicable pain in her heart, An Xia shook it hard, trying to get rid of his shackles.

An Xia was angry after not shaking it off twice.

"Mu Chenyuan! You let me go!"

An Xia slammed his anger and said, "I apologize, it was me who caused you trouble. I also need to apologize to your girlfriend, I..."

"No girlfriend."

"Um?"

"I don't have a girlfriend." Mu Chenyuan grasped tightly, not daring to relax for a moment, looking at An Xia with cold eyes, repeating every word, "I don't have a girlfriend."

He has no girlfriend.

The inexplicable soreness in my heart disappeared, and the haze in his eyes disappeared.

The anger is naturally gone.

"Since I don't have a girlfriend, why don't you want to be my bed partner? Or, you..." She has always been the only thing she can't look down on, but I didn't expect that one day, she would also be down on others.

I didn't want to admit it, but said it, "Do you think I'm not qualified to be your bed partner, didn't you look at me?"

At this moment, the anger in Mu Chenyuan's heart disappeared.

She proposed that the two of them were in bed partners, only to solve their physical needs, and did not intend to play with him.

"No." Mu Chenyuan sighed: "I didn't look down on you. On the contrary..."

He frowned a little, and seemed to be looking for a suitable sentence that could correctly express his true meaning.

After thinking for a while, Mu Chenyuan said: "On the contrary, I feel very much about you. Kissing... has feelings, and holding you also has feelings."

It was very difficult to say, the roots of the ears were so red that they seemed to have been burned by fire.

Chapter 269: Do you have a problem

Embarrassed, the first time in life.

Also worried that An Xia would make fun of.

An Xia didn't tease.

She was just puzzled.

He looked puzzled, "If that's the case, why don't you want to be my bed partner?"

Do you have any questions?

"I don't like bed partners very much..." Mu Chenyuan said more difficultly, and he didn't know how to make it clear.

Headache.

This question is super outline.

"Don't like bed partners?" An Xia was even more surprised in puzzlement, as if she had discovered something, staring straight to the lower part of Mu Chenyuan.

If she didn't feel wrong just now, he rebelled against the host, and when he pressed her to the tree to kiss her, the lower part was very powerful.

It doesn't look like it doesn't work.

Before he could see clearly, a dark green towel blocked his vision.

Mu Chenyuan adjusted his breathing and answered sternly. "I have no problem."

"I just don't like bed companionship very much."

"Why? Don't you need it?"

"..." How could he answer?

Why is An Xia not embarrassed when he asks?

Why is he embarrassed?

"Yes..." No matter how embarrassed, Mu Chenyuan also chose to answer. After answering one word, he quickly explained, "No before, only later."

Well, since it was discovered that he feels that An Xia has a heart attack, there is it!

And, quite strong.

Especially in the early morning, it is so strong that you need a cold shower.

An Xia squinted her eyes, and asked, "Later? For whom? For me?"

Very important!

Decide whether she can have Mu Chenyuan!

Mu Chenyuan took another deep breath, closed his cold eyes, and nodded!

"I see."

An Xia suddenly realized the voice in his ear, Mu Chenyuan opened his eyes, his cold eyes looked at An Xia for a moment, "What do you understand?"

"You are shy." An Xia said with certainty, pointing to his red earlobe, "You are shy, so I refused."

Mu Chenyuan: "???"

It should not be.

"Well, I'll give you a few days to adapt. When this side is over, we will go back to the camp and talk." An Xia, who thinks she has found the truth, feels comfortable and even a little excited.

I don't have a girlfriend, I don't look down on her, and I am equally impulsive towards her...

So, it will be sooner or later that Mu Chenyuan becomes his bed partner.

An Xia quickly kissed Mu Chenyuan on the cheek, feeling relaxed physically and mentally, "Let's go, let's go back to the camp."

Mu Chenyuan didn't talk anymore, he needed to find someone to talk to.

But one thing is certain, An Xia absolutely did not understand!

He really didn't refuse to be his bed partner because of his shyness.

Bed partner?

Sleeping together to solve the impulse?

Not the relationship he wants to see.

What if one day, she meets a man who makes her more impulsive?

Wouldn't he be abandoned?

The returned Mu Chenyuan's eyes were so cold that he didn't want another man beside An Xia!

I don't want to see another man becoming An Xia's bed partner!

You need to talk to experienced teammates.

At the end of the training at night, Mu Chenyuan walked out of the tent with his mobile phone.

He contacted the deputy team.

Although there is no girlfriend, but if you ask, there may be an answer.

After sending a string of text, a few seconds later, the deputy team sent "!!!".

At least ten exclamation points.

Then, several voices from the deputy team came, "Captain, you have to keep your virginity, and you must not lose it. It's too easy to get, and you won't cherish it!"

"She is only interested in your body, not in you! If you fall asleep easily, Captain, are you worthy of your future girlfriend?"

Chapter 270: Too easy to get and won't cherish

The deputy team far away at Powolf's base was anxious.

Something happened.

Their captain went out and his virginity was not guaranteed.

He Fang's woman is so powerful that it caused the captain to move Fan's heart.

"Listening to my brother's advice, the bed partner relationship is very dangerous and very unreliable. It is very likely that there will be a tragic human tragedy that is deficient and even frustrated!"

"Frustration is more terrifying than losing yourself. You like her, she doesn't like it, and only wants your strong and powerful body! Captain, this kind of dangerous relationship must not happen and must be rejected!"

Broken heart!

The mission this time is too dangerous.

Going to sleep with me?

Never seen before!

Mu Chenyuan finished listening and fell into deep thought.

After a while, he replied: "You mentioned that I like her?"

The deputy team did not immediately reply.

Staring at the phone, he replied to the message sent by Mu Chenyuan.

After reading it, the deputy team said "Oops", and he seemed to be unhelpful.

The captain didn't realize that he liked others at all, and when he said that, he reminded him instead.

Before it could be saved, Mu Chenyuan's text message came again, "Every time I face her, I have problems such as rapid heartbeat and palpitations. I really like her."

By the river, Mu Chenyuan quickly browsed the web after replying.

Keywords: Facing a girl, the heartbeat is quickened, and the heart palpitations.

All answers point to: He likes Anxia!

All puzzles are resolved.

It turns out that because I like her, my heart beats faster and I have heart palpitations and other problems.

Because I like it, I am very angry when I hear her suggesting a "bed partner relationship".

He didn't want to be just her bed partner, but even her boyfriend and lover!

The biggest puzzle is solved, and a new one comes again.

He wants to be An Xia's boyfriend and lover, but she only wants her own body...

Slender fingers pressed his brows, and Mu Chenyuan sighed long.

It takes a good plan to make it happen.

Over there, the deputy slapped himself.

Very solemnly said: "Captain, you must not become a lost little lamb. The task is the task, and the feelings are the feelings. You must not be mixed together!"

"Don't forget, you are a fighter! How can you have feelings for the goals in the mission! This is wrong and must be corrected immediately!"

"Once it is known from above, have you thought about the consequences?"

The deputy team is really anxious.

The consequences were too serious, he thought about it, his heart trembled.

After Mu Chenyuan read them one by one, he knew that the deputy team had misunderstood.

"Nothing will happen, Xiahou Zhanjiang will know and will not stop it." The relationship has not been completely determined yet, and An Xia's name will not be named for the time being.

If the two of them fail, An Xia will go to Polang in the future, I'm afraid it will be embarrassing.

"Go to bed early, good night."

After sending the last text message, Mu Chenyuan received his mobile phone and returned to the tent easily.

Passing by a small tent where only one person can sleep, Mu Chenyuan stopped, his cold eyes were deeply warm.

He needs to find a way to make her like himself.

Not only Xiao missed his body, but also Xiao missed his people.

The deputy team has a word to remind him: what is easily obtained will not be very cherished.

Then, he tried hard not to let An Xia get his body easily!

An Xia is dreaming of the spring in the garden.

In the dream, she gnawed Mu Chenyuan clean, and when she was about to enter the subject, the whistle blew.

Ann, who was awakened in the dream, got up, completely dressed at the fastest speed, and rushed out of the tent.

What is your face, it's dark!

So angry!

Can't you whistle later?
