Chapter 441: It's over, something big happened

In order to clarify An Xia's confusion, Chen Dali closed her eyes and said her inexplicable cautious thinking, "I especially want to sleep together!"

After An Xia listened, a few big words came up in her mind: That's the end!

all hit!

She just wanted to sleep Mu Chenyuan!

So, she really regards Mu Chenyuanshen as her boyfriend?

calm down.

Don't panic, don't panic.

She still has no questions to ask clearly.

"What about boyfriend, how do you feel about you?"

...

This question is really difficult to answer!

With faint eyes, Chen Dali sighed: "Who knows, it should be the same as me. After chasing me for so long, I won't feel anymore after I can't catch it."

She also wants to know how her boyfriend feels about herself now.

Have you missed yourself after being away for three months?

Do you still love yourself as before?

Have you met a new girl again?

Will you be tempted by other girls?

Ahhhhhhh!

So annoying!

So annoying!

It's so bad to fall in love!

An Xia was still thinking about what Chen Dali had said, one of which made her pay attention.

"How did your boyfriend chase you?"

"The methods of chasing people in the world are all similar routines."

Chen Daili broke her fingers and said, "Occupy a seat for me."

Phew, Mu Chenyuan didn't!

"Bring me breakfast!"

It's great, Mu Chenyuan still hasn't!

"Fetch me water!"

Heh, Mu Chenyuan didn't!

"Wait for my get out of class."

Shit, Mu Chenyuan didn't! !

"Studying with me!"

Ha, Mu Chenyuan didn't!

"Take care of me when I'm sick."

Hmph, Mu Chenyuan didn't, oh, this is barely counted, she is injured, he will deal with it for himself.

However, there is no care!

So, still no!

An Xia thought coldly.

"Later, I wrote a love letter."

This Mu Chenyuan is gone!

"Later, confessed to me in public."

Well, she can be quite sure now, given that Mu Chenyuan has never done all of the above things, she can definitely come to a result: Mu Chenyuan is not her boyfriend!

"In the end I thought he was pretty good, so I promised his girlfriend."

My heart stopped panicking, and I stopped beating. An Xia solemnly thanked Chen Daiyu, "Thank you, I understand."

After talking a lot, Chen Dali was stunned again, "Ah, what do you understand?"

"Understand that I really don't have a boyfriend."

!!!

Chen Dali was completely speechless.

No, what she said and An Xia understand that she does have a boyfriend, does it matter?

Huh?

Huh?

Huh? !

There is a situation!

Chen Daili smiled thieflly, "Say, honestly, is there a man chasing you? Hey, someone must be chasing you! Absolutely!"

"Quickly, tell me who it is. Is it a soldier in the camp? Or someone outside?"

The soldiers in the camp, it's impossible.

Love is forbidden in the camp.

That's the boy outside.

An Xia calmly said: "No one is chasing, trouble."

Ah!

Mu Chenyuan didn't chase him!

He also said that the relationship he wants is a relationship between a lover and a partner.

ridiculous!

Has he chased himself?

I have never chased myself!

Just talk in your mouth!

Fortunately, she was flustered just now, thinking that Mu Chenyuan was her boyfriend.

It's ridiculous to think too much.

Poor Team Mu, all the early efforts were smashed to pieces because of Chen Daili!

It made An Xia finally feel a little bit of a little sign, and it was completely wiped out overnight.

Once back before liberation, that's how it happened.

Chapter 442: Talking about boyfriend, sad and sad (ten more)

Chen Daili still didn't know that she had ruined the life events of Mu Chenyuan, the most handsome instructor in the camp.

Seeing that An Xia was not in a high mood, she seemed to understand something, and immediately changed her words, saying: "It's nice without a boyfriend. Really, I regret having a boyfriend now!"

"If I didn't talk about my boyfriend, I wouldn't care if he cuckold me at school, let alone be afraid that one day he would not love me and would break up with me."

After speaking, he said earnestly and persuaded, "An Xia, you are still young, only 18 years old, don't worry about talking about your boyfriend. Really! Talking about boyfriends so early, the chance of success is very low, and the result is a breakup. ."

"How tired to break up! Sad and hurt!"

"It's better not to talk about boyfriends from the beginning, and wait until the right age to talk about one more for the sake of getting married. It's much better than distraction!"

"Also, you are too young. Don't even think about talking about boyfriends at a young age. I'm afraid that I don't know people clearly. In the end, it's me who is sad."

"We girls are not like boys. Girls break up and the sky is falling. Boys break up, shit, play games the same night, and ask a few buddies to play games or something!"

"Listen to my advice, don't talk about boyfriends!"

She is so small and so beautiful that she is worried that she will be deceived.

Oh, I'm broken!

Where does An Xia need to worry about Chen Daiyu.

When she finished speaking, she replied with a face of indifference, "I can't talk, and I don't want to talk."

"That's good, that's good." Chen Daili was relieved, "You have a promising future. Go on and climb up. Climb to the top, and you won't have to worry about finding a boyfriend."

"The more outstanding, the more outstanding boyfriends you can attract!"

No matter how high she climbs, she has no intention of talking about her boyfriend!

An Xia, who is cut off from love and love, doesn't even want to find a bed partner at this moment.

It's hard to find a bed partner, and it makes her bother, go, don't!

She, no more!

Lying on the bed, An Xia grinded her teeth, thinking viciously.

Some are not reconciled!

It's hard to fancy a bed partner, and in the end it is such a result, so angry!

This night, An Xia, who has always had a good sleep, has been thinking about going to bed more than one o'clock in the morning.

Not long after squinting, An Xia suddenly opened her eyes, her eyes coldly sweeping towards the dark shadow standing next to her bed.

"Who!"

He shouted, and bluffed the shadow to the point.

"It's me, Changying is looking for you, outside, put on training clothes and get up."

The voice of Wu Wu, the squad leader.

She just stood by the bed and was about to wake An Xia, but she was so horrified by An Xia that her heart almost popped out of her throat.

Anxia immediately got up, dressing and getting out of bed at the fastest speed.

Going downstairs in three steps, you saw Chang Hu and Tan Jing standing under the street lamp, speaking in a low voice with serious expressions.

"Report!" Wu Wu ran over and said in a clear voice, "An Xia has been brought here, please give instructions!"

The two stopped the conversation, and Tan Jing said, "Sure, you go back to sleep, An Xia, I will take it away."

"Yes!" Wu Wu didn't stop, turned and left.

An Xia raised it and saluted.

"There is an urgent task here, and it needs your assistance." Chang Hu made a move that said while walking, An Xia took a step, and walked between him and Tan Jing.

"The border police requested our support and pointed out that a female fighter is needed. I just asked General Xiahou for instructions. He hopes to send you out to assist. Do you have any questions?"

Of course there is no problem!

An Xia said: "I can, what do I need my assistance for?"

Chapter 443: The more dangerous the more exciting

Chang Hu and Tan Jing don't know much about how Gu Xiu needs An Xia's assistance.

I only knew that an important informant on the border police had a problem and needed rescue.

"...After the detailed arrangements, the border police will tell you that An Xia, although this mission is an assistance, it is very dangerous. You must ensure your own safety and do not act aggressively at any time."

"With me, your safety is the most important!"

Chang Hu said solemnly, his tough face tanned with a serious expression, "Remember, your safety is the most important thing!"

If he could, he really didn't want to send An Xia over.

However, Xia Hou Zhanjiang personally spoke, and indicated that An Xia would be allowed to assist in the past.

This is what Xia Houzhan said in the original words, "Chang Hu, I know what you think in your heart. But you have to remember that Xiao An is by no means a thing in the pool, and he is destined to face many dangers in the future."

"After three months of hard training, she has reached the level of an intermediate special fighter in my eyes. It's time to let go and let her go out to face the storm."

"Only in the face of wind and waves, her growth will be faster! What I need is a special special fighter, not a fighter who grows up in a greenhouse, who can only talk on paper without any actual combat experience."

"She won't go today, and I will let her go on the next mission, which may be even more dangerous. Chang, when will you protect her until?"

"Xiao'an's temperament must be known to you too. She is not that fragile. She is bold, brave, strategy, and strength, everything is indispensable!"

"The only thing missing is actual combat! We must now better temper her through actual combat! Real gold is not afraid of fire. In the same way, with her personal comprehensive ability, she can perform B-level tasks!"

This time, it was only a B-level mission.

It means that the level of danger is not high.

Class A, Red A, Special A, these three types of tasks have a higher level of danger.

It is also the most dangerous task of Special A, and it is not an exaggeration to say that it is a life of nine deaths.

Chang Hu also wanted to persuade Xia Houyu to give up. Tan Jing, his old partner, reminded him, "Old Chang, An Xia has only three days of new membership. After three days, she has to participate in the selection of reserve special fighters."

"The completion of the B-level mission this time will increase the possibility of her being selected. Xiao An's temperament, you really want to stop her from passing tonight, she will not appreciate you."

Not only will I not be grateful, but I may even turn my face with you.

Xiao An is about to turn his face, Thunder's Fury, I'm afraid that even Seven Star Warrior Xia Houyu can't bear it.

It was this reminder that Chang Hu nodded and agreed to let go.

His starting point is for An Xia's good, not to disgust An Xia.

After talking low and low, he stared at An Xia with deep eyes for a moment and asked, "Xiao An, this is a B-level mission. Although the risk factor is not as high as that of A-level, there is a risk of life."

"You have the opportunity to shake your head and refuse. As long as you refuse, I will contact the border police immediately and send someone over again."

An Xia is in high spirits right now.

Hearing this, he smiled and said: "Why refuse? I think it's a good one. What a rare opportunity, I think it is not high enough."

A-level tasks are more exciting.

"..." Chang Hu was stunned with hope that she would refuse, she, she, she... she really is... is it fearless for those who don't know?

Fearing that An Xia didn't understand it too well, Chang Hu said again: "Xiao An, this is a B-level mission. It's a mission. It's not a usual training. Do you know what a mission is? It's life-threatening. It may go out vertically or horizontally..."

Chapter 444: My life is owned by Jin Gui

Tan Jing's expression changed when he heard the next words.

"Changhuo!"

Tan Jing interrupted sharply, "Could you say something nice? How could she not understand when Xiao An is such a big person? Her IQ and understanding ability are much better than you!"

Chang Hu shut up, and slapped himself twice, and said a few times, "Tong Yan Wu Ji, Tong Yan Wu Ji."

Xia Guo's idiom An Xia doesn't learn much.

But "Tong Yan Wuji" still knows what it means.

Yan Lu looked at Chang Hu suspiciously, and said in a slow voice, "I'll be honest, your childhood has passed for decades."

Chang Hu said: "Look for auspiciousness."

An Xia smiled, "Then you are quite superstitious."

"You can believe it, you won't lose a piece of meat anyway. Don't interrupt, do you understand what I just said?" Chang Hu didn't want to be ventilated to death occasionally by An Xia, so he quickly returned to the subject.

An Xia didn't want to answer.

Tan Jing also said, "Xiao'an, forgive me, the Changing of our first camp, sometimes inexplicably IQ degenerates to three years old."

"Don't worry about what the kids say, just listen to a joke."

Chang Hu gave Chang Hu a stern look.

Bad guy!

Not too shameful!

An Xia curled her mouth when she heard it.

The two bosses in the camp performed a scene of falling in love and killing each other all day.

At the critical moment, he protects the other party more than anyone else.

The feelings are deep.

"It's okay, I'd better answer Changying, otherwise, I'm afraid he will have insomnia tonight."

Chang Hu scratched his head and sighed, "It's not tonight, it's any night you haven't come back. I have insomnia."

"Then you can rest assured to sleep. Last time, the special fighters who cooperated with Luyi District were able to complete the mission. Their mission was A-level."

I reminded Chang Hu that he had forgotten that An Xia had also completed the A-level mission.

Last time, Xiaolan cooperated with the A-level missions of special fighters in Luyi District.

A-level tasks can be done safely and beautifully, is he overly worried about B-level tasks?

An Xia looked at his face that suddenly remembered, and knew that Chang Hu had forgotten it a long time ago, and he glanced at him, "This time Class B, what are you worried about? My life, Jin Gui, still have so many dreams. Realize, I can't bear to hang up early."

"When I come back, I will never disappoint you and Tan Zhi!"

An Xia just didn't pat her chest to make sure.

I felt a little depressed again.

I know that Chang Hu is worried about herself, but this worry makes her very depressed.

Every time she went out in her previous life, only the enemy was worried about her own life. No one would worry about her life.

Is it to question her strength?

no.

She has to ask.

"Chang Ying, do you think I am not strong enough, so you are worried that my life will not be saved?"

The wrongdoing is a bit big!

Chang Hu quickly explained, "How is it possible! Am I still not sure about your strength? This is definitely it!"

Thumbs up, thinking that one is not enough to express her approval, both thumbs up, "NO.1! Nothing to say!"

"I have never doubted your strength. I am worried that you are young, you are not well involved in the world, and you did not leave us alone to perform the task. Alas, I am very worried."

"Let's put it this way, just like the daughter raised at home, suddenly said one day to leave home, can I not worry about the old father!"

An easy-to-understand metaphor, Rao An Xia, who is not strong in empathy, was substituted in an instant.

She thought of Ye Mengwei.

Ye Mengwei was also worried about her well in the team.

Chapter 445: Wait for you

But Ye Mengwei is related to her by blood.

Chang Hu is just her superior.

It's not a superior who will go down together and will be separated in a few days.

Is he so worried about himself?

Worry.....

In her dictionary, words are unfamiliar.

After coming to Xia Guo, she knew what it was like to be worried.

In the Imperial Domain before, who worried about her safety?

No.

Those people, just thinking about when she died, they can take the opportunity to take the lead.

Unfamiliar emotions suddenly surged in his heart.

The sourness is swelling, like being stuck in my heart, stuffy and can't dissipate.

In the ear, Chang Hu whispered again, "Xiao'an, you are a fighter who went out of my first camp. I am really strict with you at ordinary times, but I don't want any of you to have an accident."

"I hope you will all be safe until you return home safely."

"If you want to go, I support you. You girl, looking thin and small, beautiful as a porcelain doll, she is stronger in her bones than the male warriors."

"General Xia Hou Zhan is right. Your sky is very wide. Before you are full of wings, you need to fight for more to fly higher and more steadily."

"And this B-level mission is a trial for you to fly into the sky. Come on, Xiaolan! I believe you, with your strength, will be able to assist the border police to complete this mission!"

"Remember, safety first, we are waiting for you to return to camp in the first camp!"

Solemnly exhorted, full of concern, An Xia did not reply after hearing it for a long time.

She didn't know what to say.

The unfamiliar sourness in her chest was so tight that she couldn't even speak.

After a while, she raised her eyes to look at Chang Hu, and said word by word: "Changying, I will return to the team safely!"

"Okay! We are waiting for you!"

This time, Chang Hu patted An Xia on the shoulder again, and said to Tan Jing: "You hand people over to them, and you must tell them how our fighters were handed over to them, they have to give them back. Give us!"

It was after Tan Jing sent An Xia to the border police.

Compared to Chang Hu's old father's worries, Tan Jing's worries were much more restrained.

Hearing this, he whispered: "Don't worry, how do our people get out, how do we have to come back."

"Don't put too much psychological burden on Xiao An. Think about it for the better. After thinking about Xiao An's return, we will give her a celebration banquet!"

This can be!

Chang Hu said, "Then I have to let the cooking class prepare hard dishes early. Sixteen dishes are indispensable!"

"Why are there sixteen discs?" An Xia asked, a strong curiosity for knowledge.

"Sixty-six smooth!"

Um?

An Xia, who has touched the knowledge blind zone again, is even more puzzled, "Sixteen discs, what does the six-six dashun have to do? Six plus six is only twelve discs."

Chang Hu doesn't want to explain, Xia Guo's culture is profound and profound, and it takes a lifetime to comprehend!

Turning his head, he said to Tan Jing: "Okay, you can quickly lead her away. I was asked by her to fall down. I need to run a few laps."

What so many why!

Still not from Xia Guo?

Is there a six-six-six-six-six-six?

Tan Jing smiled and led An Xia away.

He never fights with An Xia on issues like this.

I discovered early that An Xia was completely blank about certain things and certain aspects.

With such a small episode, An Xia's feelings of soreness in her heart rose a lot.

After getting in the car, she still said to Chang Hu: "Remember my Sixty-Six Dashun!"

Chang Hu closed the car door directly and refused to communicate.

Chapter 446: Changed

The car started, the lights pierced through the darkness, and shining straight ahead, Chang Hu stood straight at the gate of the camp, watching the vehicle disappear from sight, and it took a long time before he turned around and returned to the camp.

He didn't know, An Xia, who was sitting at the back, kept looking at his figure until the car drove away.

Tan Jing sat with her behind. Seeing this, he turned his head to look at An Xia and smiled and said: "Don't look at him in a camp area called a tiger. In fact, he is a tiger that is more soft-hearted than anyone else. Protect shortcomings."

"I can see it." An Xia curled up the corner of her mouth and filled the corner of her eye lightly. "The combatants like you and Chang Ying very much."

Speaking of Tan Jing Zhile.

"There are not many fighters who like me, because my punishment for them is much stricter than that of Changhuo."

Strange to say.

In general, the instructor is gentle, and most of the time he sings with a blank face.

But in the first camp, the other way around!

On the contrary, Chang Hu often pales, Tan Jing often blacks.

Sometimes Changhu furiously said that he wanted to fight against the fighters.

Tan Jing is different.

He doesn't talk about punishment, and he doesn't get angry often.

But once you get angry, you have to punish, and the soldiers will have to peel off their skin if they don't die.

An Xia had experienced Tan Jing for three months in the first camp.

"The combatants all know that your purpose is the same as that of Changying. They all hope that the combatants will be good enough to achieve good results in the team."

"The difference is that you don't often appear in front of the combatants, and Changying appears every day. Over time, the combatants have become more familiar with Changying, and you will feel a little distance from Tan Jing."

"But they like you and Chang Ying the same!"

After that, An Xia found that Tan Jing's eyes looked a little different when she looked at her. It was not the look that made her uncomfortable, but the comforting look that seemed to express that she had grown up and was sensible.

"Tan Zhi, you don't think I'm lying to you, you really don't. The combatants do like you in private like Chang Ying."

The smile in Tan Jing's eyes became more gentle.

He said, "Xiao An, you have changed a lot."

dramatic change?

An Xia touched her face for the first time, "Is she tanned?"

"No." Tan Jing said with a smile: "It has become milder, not as cold as before. You used to be so cold that no one can approach."

"The whole body sends out a message: Those who are near me, die!"

This is her biggest change.

As for the face, there is no light in the car, and it is too dark to see if there is any tan.

An Xia was silent.

Have it?

Is there such a big change?

Tan Jing said again: "I have more conversations than before, and I am willing to communicate with us. You used to like to be alone, but now you can form a team with the soldiers."

"The three-month training for new recruits is undoubtedly your biggest change."

An Xia was even more silent, even slightly wringing her brows.

Yeah?

Talking more than before?

like.....

it is true.

She said a lot of things just now.

Before the change, she really wouldn't talk so much nonsense.

She disdains to explain what others think.

At this point, Xia Guo's team did not allow her to be alone, and could only make changes.

There is no solitary relationship, so naturally you have to communicate with others.

Recalling the previous self and the current self, as Tan Jing said, it has indeed changed.

Afterwards, An Xia smiled and said calmly: "It will take some changes."

Chapter 447: Go fly, An Xia

Team Xia Guo, the iron-like discipline cannot tolerate changes for her, then, only oneself can change it.

It has changed, but it hasn't changed.

She is still her, with her own persistence and principles.

"We were worried that you are withdrawn, loves and hates are distinct, and it may be difficult to integrate into the collective life. It didn't take long before we knew we were thinking too much."

"You have adapted to the team faster than all the new recruits, you have straightened your position in a very short time, and you have integrated into the team as quickly as possible."

"Can endure hardship, be tired, be able to scold, throw, and beat, all the new recruits have the most difficult first month, you can easily get through it, and even enjoy it."

"We were really shocked. We have never seen a new recruit who would forget to sleep and eat for training, and even be willing to go for extra training during the break."

"Looking back when we joined the team with enthusiasm, less than a week after training, we really wanted to escape. And you, 24 hours a day, you want to train for 20 hours."

"It's so shocking, I thought the National People's Congress came to stab the head, and I need to spend a little thought to educate. I am even ready to come to do your ideological work every day."

"Then know, heroes are useless, and have not done ideological work for you so far."

The conflict with Cheng Yiluo is the most likely thought worker that needs to be carried out. Who knows, An Xia will be punished immediately without saying anything.

Obeded to make them dumbfounded for a moment.

The potential "big thorn head" has become the most outstanding new recruit, and every time he chats with Chang Hu, he feels a little bit emotional.

They were fully prepared, but An Xia did not give them the opportunity to preach.

Looking back on the peace in the past three months, Tan Jing was full of emotion, "You are the new recruit who has led us and Changying for so many years, which has made us most worry-free and worrying us the most."

"This time Xia Hou Zhan will arrange for you to go out. Chang Ying wants to refuse. He is too worried about you. He is afraid that you will not stand firmly before you will fall down."

"He is worried, and I am also worried. I hope you can run far, and I hope you can walk step by step. Although this trip is a B-level mission, Xiao An, who can be ranked higher, is life-threatening."

"You must protect yourself, obey the arrangements of the border police, do not act without authorization, do not call the shots without authorization, do you understand?"

The latter sentence is quite harsh.

Because Tan Jing knows An Xia very well, she has the strength to act and decide without authorization.

Just after listening to the teaching in front of Chang Hu, and then in front of Tan Jing, An Xia realized that she didn't even notice that they were shivering.

Instead, the unfamiliar sourness came to my heart again.

This time, not only was the hair clogged in my heart, it was clogged in my nose and eye sockets.

Can't be ashamed.

Secretly, An Xia breathed a sigh of relief, trying to suppress the soreness in her eyes and nose.

After getting used to it, he said, "I understand that I must protect myself at all times. I will protect myself and the border police who are fighting together."

"I believe you can do it." Tan Jing smiled at the young recruit, like a father, looking at his daughter kindly.

The young recruit has grown up, and she is about to fly into a very high blue sky.

How high the sky is, how high she can fly!

At that time, it was four o'clock in the morning, and the sky outside the car was faintly smoky.

The early morning bird jumped up and down between the branches, so happy, at the end of the sky, a few stars dotted, exuding faint starlight, the faint light of the evening.

An Xia leaned on the seat and turned her head sideways, looking at the scenery passing outside with confusion.

Chapter 448: It turned out to be so beautiful

Worry...

It turned out that some people would worry about it and love her.

It turns out that being worried and distressed is so beautiful.

I was put in my heart, thought of, missed, and waiting. It turned out to be so beautiful.

She thought, she had indeed changed.

Become nostalgic for these beautiful things.

I even feel that these beautiful things are not as terrible as the previous father said.

Not terrible at all.

She likes it very much.

really like.

I like the nagging of Chang Hu and Tan Jing to myself.

I like the combatants' love and jokes about her.

The monitor who likes the cooking class secretly adds vegetables to her.

Like being injured, someone cares immediately.

Like to encounter difficulties, someone immediately stepped up to face it with oneself.

She prefers Mu Chenyuan's unconditional trust in herself, and she likes the scorching heat in his eyes when he looks at himself with no one in private.

They, in fact, are strangers, strangers who have nothing to do with her, but they help themselves again and again, without calculations, without asking for return, and even without her thanks.

It's too different from what my father said.

Since she was a child, her father has always told her that she is the future emperor of the emperor domain, and all those close to her are unruly and purposeful.

Once I believe them, there is only one end: death!

Keep your distance, don't interact with others, and be vigilant at all times. Even the most trusted people around you need to beware of them.

She kept believing it because her father was right.

Those who once approached her had a purpose, either they wanted to benefit from her, or they wanted her to die.

But now, she didn't believe it anymore.

She met a group of them who were really kind to her, had no purpose, no calculations, who would worry about her, would care about her, and would wait for her to come back!

Two hours later, the car drove into the border police building, and several border policemen who had been waiting immediately greeted him.

Before getting off the car, An Xia suddenly said, "Tan Zhi, thank you."

Thank you bluntly, Tan Jing hasn't realized why she apologized, An Xia has opened the car door... and ran away!

Ran away like an escape!

Tan Jing was stunned for a few more seconds, then laughed.

Is this kid shy?

Do not.

Not shy.

But not used to it.

The Lord of the Emperor Territory has never thanked others so seriously.

Today, it is the only time she has given her thanks for the accumulation of her two lives.

When they jumped out of the car, the three border policemen who greeted him stopped obviously.

Such tender fighters come to assist them?

This this this...

"Team Kong, Team Hu, Team Liang, long time no see." Tan Jing has chatted with the leaders of the three border police brigade. After the four shook hands one by one, Tan Jing introduced An Xia.

"Xiao'an, a mid-level special combatant in our battalion, if you need her assistance, please give me instructions."

Still a special fighter!

The three captains instantly lit up.

I really didn't see it!

Then they were relieved, the special fighters came to assist them, and the problem was not big.

After entering the conference room, there were already four border policemen waiting, a group of people came in, and the four "brushed" up and saluted.

An Xia saluted back, and then sat down.

"...This time we need to rescue a female informant. The situation is more complicated. Come on, Xiao An, look at the information." Team Sun, the frontier police brigade's corps, personally handed the information to An Xia.

An Xia took a closer look at it.

The speed of flipping is still very fast. After reading it, I have basically remembered it.

Female informant, 26 years old.

It has been secretly providing the border police brigade with information on the underground criminal and drug organization at the border.

Four days ago, she secretly sent out information again, but she didn't expect... it was fake.

At any time, news from another line of informants said that the female informant was under control and her whereabouts are unknown.

Chapter 449: test

An Xia has finished reading the materials, closed it, and put it back on the walnut solid wood meeting table.

She still has a few questions to ask.

The information was read a little too quickly. At the moment of closing, the three of Team Kong, Team Hu, and Team Liang gave An Xia a little surprised.

finish watching?

So fast?

Without asking, Tan Jing saw the clue here and asked An Xia with a smile, "Have you finished reading?"

"Well, I'm finished." An Xia nodded, Yan Yan's eyebrows had the hostility of battle on the battlefield, cold, cold, and faintly bloody. "There are a few doubts, and three people need to solve them."

Now An Xia is the An Xia when Tan Jing first met.

There is the deterrence that makes people can't help but hold their chests up and sit upright in a calm and unhurried manner.

After Tan Jing sat upright, he quickly glanced at the other people in the conference room with his peripheral light.

really.....

It's all the same as him!

The Kong team, the Hu team, the Liang team, and the three border guards suddenly straightened their backs straighter, and waited seriously.

"Xiao An, please."

Sun's team said.

An Xia is more natural, crossing her hands with her fingers crossed, and placing her on the table naturally and calmly. With her eyes deep, she coldly asked her doubts.

"According to the information, you suspected that it was controlled, but did not clearly investigate whether it was controlled or not. It is too vague. I need to know if it is really controlled and who is controlling her?"

"What's the purpose of controlling her? The person who secretly sent back information telling you that she is a controlled informant. Is it reliable?"

"Sorry, I am not questioning your lack of work, but prefer to make things clear."

All the questions are the key points, but the Kong team trusts Anxia even more.

"Controlled by three people, they are all underground poisonous dragons that travel between the two countries. We have always wanted to arrest them, but the nationality issue of the three people, coupled with the support of other countries behind the three people, makes the arrest difficult. ."

"At present, we still don't know what the purpose of controlling her is, the man, who is still alive, appeared in the border village of Damu yesterday afternoon."

"Leaving a sign for help, our patrolling border police found out that this is the location of Dam Village..."

The electronic map was opened in the projection screen, and the laser pointer pointed to the location of the cottage. "Here, go here..." The laser pointer went all the way and stopped at the border location, "This is the border of another country."

An Xia's gaze stopped at the border, and his brows were slightly twisted, "You mean, they are going to sneak back to other countries on foot? Do you think, is it possible?"

"Impossible." A smile flashed in the eyes of the Kong team. What a keen fighter, he saw the problem at a glance. "The three people who controlled her have been moving around the border between the two countries for many years, and occasionally sneaking into Xia can avoid our patrols. , It can be seen that they have a dark road that we have not discovered so far."

"This time the three of them were discovered by us, thanks to the intelligence of the female informant Fang Yue. She told us that the three of them had sneaked into our country, but the hiding place they told us for the second time was fake."

"Twice intelligence, the last time we sent false information. Our action failed, and the three of them were disturbed, and only then did the three of them escape. And Fang Yue also went missing."

"Until yesterday I found the mark she left, I didn't know that she was controlled by three people."

An Xia's eyes became more condensed, "No, there is a big doubt here."

"Yes, but this doubt needs to find Fang Yue to solve." The Kong team knew what the doubt she was talking about.

Chapter 450: Set off

If Fang Yue's identity as an informant was exposed, Fang Yue would have been resolved with the cruelty of these people.

But Fang Yue is still alive, is it possible to guess that her identity has not been exposed?

If it is not exposed, Fang Yue's identity and status on this road can be completely escaped, and there is no need to find a signal for help.

Then why did she ask for help again?

It's not like asking for help, it's more like...tempting.

This is what the Kong team and An Xia discovered at the same time.

If it is a temptation, then their rescue trip would be dangerous!

Tan Jing's expression instantly became cold when he heard this.

"Team Kong, we talked on the phone before, you didn't say that."

Once it is a temptation, what kind of B-level task is it!

The Kong team uttered a 'huh' and said, "I've already told the situation here. Didn't General Xiahou tell you clearly?"

Commander Xia Hou only said that it was a B-level mission, and Chang Hu also knew that it was a B-level mission.

An Xia didn't let Tan Jing answer, and said calmly: "I made it clear, I didn't tell Tan Zhi, I was afraid he was worried."

It seems that Xia Houyu deliberately concealed it.

I am afraid that Chang Hu and Tan Jing will not let them go.

Tan Jing turned his head, glanced at An Xia with a deep gaze, and then said to Team Kong: "Sorry, Xiao An and I will go out and say a few words, it will take a few minutes."

"Good, good, no problem." The Kong team also saw a little problem.

It seems that General Xia Hou did not tell Tan Zhi about the danger of this mission.

Walking out of the meeting room and closing the door, Tan Jing immediately sank: "Xiao'an, I don't agree with you to perform this mission! The rescue may be a temptation, and the danger is too great!"

Compared to Tan Jing's tight face, An Xia was much more relaxed.

In the light, she looked at Tan Jing with scorching eyes, the corners of her mouth raised slightly, and the cold blood flashed across her eyes, "It's more challenging, Tan Zhi, this time I'm going to decide."

Only rescue is really not challenging.

Killing the person who controls the female informant Fang Yue, and then saving the person, a simple trivial matter!

But if it's a temptation, that's interesting!

It is not three people who are facing, it may be thirty, or three hundred people!

Is it more challenging?

Tan Jingdu was caught by An Xia's madness of "not afraid of big things, but little things", so that he couldn't say a word for a long time.

For a while, Tan Jing said with a headache on his face: "An Xia, this is not a trivial matter. It is more dangerous than the mission you performed with the special fighters in Luyi District last time."

"I know." An Xia still laughed, without any fear. "If you seduce, I will not face three people. It is very likely that there will be thirty or three hundred people."

"Tan Zhi, don't you find it more challenging than rescue? I really can't wait now."

"Friendly reminder, Xia Houyu knows, why didn't he tell you and Changying truthfully? He had guessed that once you know that the danger is too great, you won't let me out at all."

"Tan refers to Tan, your objection with Chang Ying is invalid. If you really want to resist, you can contact Xia Houyu now, maybe he is still waiting for your call at this time."

Xia Houyu was indeed waiting for the call from Tan Jing and Chang Hu.

From time to time, I looked up to see the time, and then continued to sleep on the sofa.

It is common to work overnight in the office, or just casually sleep in the office.

It's almost half past four, why haven't you called yet?
